(٢٢٨٦) وَعَنْ عَبْدِاللّٰهِ ابْنِ عُمَرَ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَنَّهٗ كَانَ يَقُوْلُ لِكُلِّ شَيْءٍ صَقَّالَةٌ وَصَقَّالَةُ الْقُلُوْبِ ذِكْرُ اللّٰهِ وَمَا مِنْ شَيْءٍ اَنْجٰى مِنْ عَذَابِ اللّٰهِ مِنْ ذِكْرِ اللّٰهِ قَالُوْا وَلَا الْجِهَادُ فِيْ سَبِيْلِ اللّٰهِ قَالَ وَلَا اَنْ يَضْرِبَ بِسَيْفِهٖ حَتّٰى يَنْقَطِعَ۔ رَوَاهُ الْبَيْهَقِيُّ فِى الدَّعْوَاتِ الْكَبِيْرِ۔

2286. Sayyiduna Abdullah ibn Umar رضی الله عنه narrated that the Prophet Muhammad صلی الله علیه وسلم used to say, "There is for everything a polish. For the heart, the polish is remembrance of Allah. Nothing delivers from Allah's punishment as does remembrance of Allah." Someone asked him, "Is not waging jihad (crusade) in Allah's path the same thing?" He said, "No, even if he swings his sword and till it breaks."

---

[1] Tirmidhi, Ibn Majah # 3790.

[2] Tirmidhi, Ibn Majah # 3790.

[3] Bukhari chapter heading (chapter1, surah al Qiyamah 75) move not your tongue in to make haste therewith.

BOOK - X

ASMAALLAH TA'ALA كِتَابُ اَسْمَاءِ اللهِ تَعَالٰى

THE NAMES OF ALLAH THE EXALTED

We must know that Allah's names are confined to what has been heard of them from and permitted by the shari'ah (Islamic law). Only those names should be called as are known from the sunnah(Practice of Holy Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم). We must not attribute any name from ourselves by our reasoning even if they are synonymous with the names taught to us by Shri'ah, for instance, we may call Him (عالم)(aalim) but not (عاقل) (aaqil), (jawwad) (جواد) but not (سخی) (sakhi), (شافی) (shafi) but not (طبیب)(tabib).

A person should try his best to grow the attributes of Allah in himself. This is emphasized in the next pages while explaining Allah's names, or in other writings bout adopting His attributes. We must act on that wholeheartedly, so that our beings become a reflection of the Divine. Light and our lives an example of Islamic manners and teachings.

اَللّٰهُمَّ وَفِّقْنَا وَيَسِّرْلَنَا حُصُوْلَهَا

(O Allah enable us and make it easy for us to get them.)

A religious mentor is known to have commanded whoever came to him to enlist as his disciple to first make ablution and come to him. Then, he recited to him the names of Allah, the Exalted, with complete respect and glory in a loud voice. Then, he taught the name whose effects he perceived in the fresh disciple hoping that he would adopt it quickly.

SECTION I اَلْفَصْلُ الْاَوَّلُ

MEMORIZING ALLAH'S NAMES

(۲۲۸۷) عَنْ اَبِىْ هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اِنَّ اللّٰهِ تِسْعَةً وَتِسْعِيْنَ اِسْمًا مِائَةً اِلَّا وَاحِدًا مَنْ اَحْصَاهَا دَخَلَ الْجَنَّةَ وَفِىْ رِوَايَةٍ وَهُوَ وِتْرٌ يُحِبُّ الْوِتْرَ (متفق عليه)

2287. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Surely, Allah has ninety-nine names - one less than one hundred. He who preserves them in memory will enter paradise (directly without undergoing punishment)."

According to another version: "And He is (witr) one and loves what is witr (single)."[1]

COMMENTARY: By saying that Allah has ninety-nine names, this hadith (tradition) does not mean to fix a number or apply a limit to the names of Allah. He has very many names. In the next few pages, we shall read the ninety-nine names and some more, insha Allah (if Allah wills).

The ninety-nine names mentioned here are the ones whose characteristic the hadith (tradition) mentions that anyone who memorises them will enter paradise. It is these ninety-nine names which have this singlular peculiarity.

---

[1] Bukhari # 6410, Muslim # 5-2677, Musnad(book) Ahmad #2-267.

أَحْصَاهَا: The ulama (Scholars) have varying opinions about the word (احصاها) 'preserves them in memory'. Bukhari and others have given it this very meaning and, in facts, this opinion is ore correct. Some versions have, instead of (احصاها), the word (حفظها): 'memorises them.' Some scholars give them the meaning recited them or believed in them, or understood their meaning and conducted himself accordingly.

HE IS WITR (ODD NUMBERS) & LOVES WITR (ODD NUMBERS): Allah loves deeds and petitions that are odd in number. The implication is that of all deeds, Allah loves the deed that is based on sincerity and is done merely for Allah, the Exalted, alone.

SECTION II اَلْفَصْلُ الثَّانِيْ

NINETY-NINE NAMES OF ALLAH & THEIR EXPLANATION

(٢٢٨٨) عَنْ اَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اِنَّ لِلّٰهِ تَعَالٰى تِسْعَةً وَّتِسْعِيْنَ اِسْمًا مَنْ اَحْصَاهَا دَخَلَ الْجَنَّةَ هُوَ اللّٰهُ الَّذِيْ لَا اِلٰهَ اِلَّا هُوَ الرَّحْمٰنُ الرَّحِيْمُ الْمَلِكُ الْقُدُّوْسُ السَّلَامُ الْمُؤْمِنُ الْمُهَيْمِنُ الْعَزِيْزُ الْجَبَّارُ الْمُتَكَبِّرُ الْخَالِقُ الْبَارِئُ الْمُصَوِّرُ الْغَفَّارُ الْقَهَّارُ الْوَهَّابُ الرَّزَّاقُ الْفَتَّاحُ الْعَلِيْمُ الْقَابِضُ الْبَاسِطُ الْخَافِضُ الرَّافِعُ الْمُعِزُّ الْمُذِلُّ السَّمِيْعُ الْبَصِيْرُ الْحَكَمُ الْعَدْلُ اللَّطِيْفُ الْخَبِيْرُ الْحَلِيْمُ الْعَظِيْمُ الْغَفُوْرُ الشَّكُوْرُ الْعَلِيُّ الْكَبِيْرُ الْحَفِيْظُ الْمُقِيْتُ الْحَسِيْبُ الْجَلِيْلُ الْكَرِيْمُ الرَّقِيْبُ الْمُجِيْبُ الْوَاسِعُ الْحَكِيْمُ الْوَدُوْدُ الْمَجِيْدُ الْبَاعِثُ الشَّهِيْدُ الْحَقُّ الْوَكِيْلُ الْقَوِيُّ الْمَتِيْنُ الْوَلِيُّ الْحَمِيْدُ الْمُحْصِيْ الْمُبْدِئُ الْمُعِيْدُ الْمُحْيِيْ الْمُمِيْتُ الْحَيُّ الْقَيُّوْمُ الْوَاجِدُ الْمَاجِدُ الْوَاحِدُ الْاَحَدُ الصَّمَدُ الْقَادِرُ الْمُقْتَدِرُ الْمُقَدِّمُ الْمُؤَخِّرُ الْاَوَّلُ الْاٰخِرُ الظَّاهِرُ الْبَاطِنُ الْوَالِيْ الْمُتَعَالِيْ الْبَرُّ التَّوَّابُ الْمُنْتَقِمُ الْعَفُوُّ الرَّءُوْفُ مَالِكُ الْمُلْكِ ذُو الْجَلَالِ وَالْاِكْرَامِ الْمُقْسِطُ الْجَامِعُ الْغَنِيُّ الْمُغْنِيْ الْمَانِعُ الضَّارُّ النَّافِعُ النُّوْرُ الْهَادِيْ الْبَدِيْعُ الْبَاقِيْ الْوَارِثُ الرَّشِيْدُ الصَّبُوْرُ۔ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَالْبَيْهَقِيُّ فِي الدَّعْوَاتِ الْكَبِيْرِ وَقَالَ التِّرْمِذِيُّ هٰذَا حَدِيْثٌ غَرِيْبٌ۔

2288. Sayyiduna Abu hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "Allah, the Exalted has ninety-nine names. He who commits them to memory will enter paradise:"

He is Allah beside whom there is no God. Ar-Rehman, Ar-Rahim, Al-Malik, Al-Quddus, As-Salaam (greeting), Al-Mumin, Al-Muhaymin, Al-Aziz, Al-Jabbar, Al-Mutakabbir, Al-Khaliq, Al-Bari, Al-Musawwir, Al-Ghaffar, Al-Qahhar, Al-Wahhab, Ar-Razzaq, Al-Fattah, Al-Alim, Al-Qabid, Al-Basit, Al-Khafid, Al-Rafi, Al-Muiz, Al-Muzil, As-Sami, Al-Basir, Al-Hakam, Al-Adl, Al-Latif, Al-Khabir, Al-Alim, Al-Azim, Al-Ghafur, Ash-Shakur, Al-Aliy, Al-Kabir, Al-Hafiz, Al-Muqit, Al-Hasib, Al-Jalil, Al-Karim, Ar-Raqib, Al-Mujib, Al-Wasi, Al-Hakim, Al-Wadud, Al-Majid, Al-Baith, Ash-Shahid, Al-Haq, Al-Wakil, Al-Qawiy, Al-Matin, Al-Waliy, Al-Hamid, Al-Muhsiy, Al-Mubdiy, Al-Mu'id, Al-Muhyi, Al-Mumit, Al-Hayy, Al-Qayyum, Al-Wajid, Al-Maajid, Al-Wahid, Al-Ahad, As-Samad, Al-Qadir, Al-Muqtadir, Al-Muqaddim, Al-Muakhkhir, Al-Awwal, Al-Aakhir, Az-Zahir, Al-Batin, Al-Waliy, Al-Muta'aliy, Al-Barr, At-Tawwab, Al-Muntaqir, Al-Afu, Ar-Ra'uf, Maalik-ul-

Mulk, Dhul Jalal wa al-Ikram, Al-Muqsit, Al-Jami, Al-Ghaniy, Al-Mughniy, Al-Mani, Ad-Daar, An-Nafi, An-Noor, Al-Hadi, Al-Badi, Al-Baqi, Al-Warith, Ar-Rashid, As-Sabur.[1]

COMMENTARY: The sentence 'He is Allah besides whom there is no God' is a separate sentence by itself, It introduces the ninety-nine names that follow.

This expression has many applications' First: If a hypocrite reads it, but does not confirm it at heart, only to show himself as a Muslim, then it may benefit him in this world by protecting his life, property and family and the hands of the Muslims, but it will not profit him in the hereafter.

Secondly, it may be uttered by the tongue coupled with belief at heart but only as an imitation. Opinions differ on its being correct, the strongest of which is that it is correct.

Thirdly, the oral repetition is matched by a belief at heart that follows observation of Divine signs. Most of the ulama (Scholars) say that it is reliable, too.

Fourthly, the oral declaration is accompanied by a firm conviction which is deduced from evidences this, to, is an approved form.

Fifthly, he who utters this expression is aware of its meaning through the eye of his heart. It implies that he has a perfect awareness. This is the highest degree.

This is the position when this expression is uttered by the tongue. The other possibility is when it is expressed only at heart and there is no oral declaration. In this case, if there is an excuse for it, say the person is dumb, or any other, and he is unable to declare it with the tongue, then this expression will be beneficial to him in both worlds and he will gain deliverance in both this world and the next. If he has no reason whatsoever to not declare it with the tongue, then he will earn nothing in the next world. Nawawi رحمه الله has said that the Ahlus-sunnah (greatest group of Muslims who abide by the Practice of Holy Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم) are unanimous about these deductions.

ALLAH: This is the name of Allah specifically. It means, 'the Being Who is worthy of worship.' Most of the ulama (Scholars) hold that of the names of Allah, the Exalted, this name is the greatest. The masses should have this name constantly on their tongues. They must make dhikr (hallowing of Allah) with this name fearfully and respectfully. The learned must reflect on this name for its meaning and know that this name can be applied to only that Being Who possesses all the attributes of Divinity. And, the highly selected, exclusive group should have their hearts lost in Allah, and not turn towards any one other than this Being. They must fear Him alone, for He Alone is True and Manifest. Everything besides Him will perish and is false. It is as stated in Bukhari that the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "The most correct of the words of poets is the saying of Labid:

اَلَا كُلُّ شَيْءٍ مَا خَلَا اللّٰهُ بَاطِلٌ

(Know! Everything other than Allah is vain.)

CHARACTERISTIC OF THIS WORD (ALLAH): If anyone repeats this specific name (Allah) one thousand times, then he will become determined and will possess firm faith. He who repeats it one hundred times after salah (prayer) will have his unseen broadened and he will become a man of inspiration. Secrets will be unveiled to him.[2]

---

[1] Tirmidhi # 3518,Bayhaqi in ad-Diwat al-Kabir.

[2] Bukhari # 6147, Muslim # 2-2256, Tirmidhi # 2858, Ibn Majah # 3757,Musnad(book) Ahmad #2-267.

1,2 - AR-RAHMAN, AR-RAHIM: The Compassionate, The Merciful, Who forgives. A person who emulates these attributes, is required by these names to concentrate deeply towards Allah. He should be trusted and relied upon. One should keep oneself engaged inwardly in remembering Him, but others besides Him must be ignored. Mercy should be shown to His creatures, and the wronged-one or oppressed must be supported and helped. The oppressor must be prevented from being oppressive to others and this must be done in a pious manner. Those who refrain from worship of Allah and His dhikr (hallowing of Allah) must be warned, and a merciful sight should be directed towards the sinner rather than look down upon him. One's ability must be directed to further the affairs of shari'ah (Islamic law). To the best of one's ability, one must help the needy and destitute.

CHARACTERISTIC OF THESE NAMES: If anyone repeats (الرحمن الرحيم) (Ar-Rehman, Ar-Rahim) one hundred times after every salah (prayer), then Allah removes form his heart negligence, forgetfulness and lethargy. All creatures will have mercy on him.

3 - AL-MALIK: The true Sovereign. He is the real King of the earth, the heavens and the universe. Both the worlds are governed by Him and belong to Him. He is Independent of all while all depend on Him.
Having known this attribute, it becomes imperative on us to behave as His slaves and to pray to Him alone. We must obey Him and seek honour only from Him. We must attach ourselves to His kingdom and declare complete unconcern with all others fearing none and looking at none for one's needs. We must have a thorough check on our limbs and potential and emply them in worship and abiding by Shari'ah (Islamic law). Thus, we will be la true ruler of our own life.

CHARACTERISTIC OF AL-MALIK: If any ruler or king recites this name with the name Al-Qudus meaning, Malik ul-Quddus, regularly, then Allah will give him permanence over his dominion. If he is not a king or ruler, then through its blessings his own soul will submit to him in obedience. If anyone repeats this name to gain honour then he will achieve his objective.
Shah Abdur Rahman رحمه الله has said that if anyone repeats this name Al-Malik ninety times everyday then not only will he be radiant and awe-inspiring, but also rulers will be soft with him. This name is tried for honour and high regard and esteem.

4 - AL-QUDDUS: 'The Sacred, the Holy.' Qushayri رحمه الله said that he who knows that Allah is Al-Qudus, the sacred, must cherish the desire that Allah keep him free of defects and calamities and sins, always.

ITS CHARACTERISTICS: He who recites this name at the time of zawal will have a clean heart. If anyone writes this name and the name As-Subbuh after the salah (prayer) of Friday on a piece of bread (al-Quddus as-Subbuh) and eats it, then he will have angelic traits. When in panic at the time of protection from the enemies, this name should be recited as much as possible. The traveller must continue to recite it; he will never be helpless and needy. If it is recited three hundred and nineteen times on anything sweet which is fed to the enemy, he will turn kind.

5 - AS-SALAAM (GREETING): 'The Giver of peace, The Author of Safety.' With this name, a person makes himself free of bad deeds and bad manners. Qushayri رحمه الله said that he turns to his Lord with a sound heart with this name. Some authorities say that it requires him to be safe for other Muslims, both with his tongue and hand. Rather, he treats Muslims very kindly. When he sees an elder Muslim, he thinks, "He is better than I am because he has worshipped and obeyed Allah more than I have and he preceded me in faith." If he sees a Muslim younger than him, then he too is better because he has committed fewer sins. Also, when a Muslim commits a mistake and he apologises to him, he pardons him.

CHARACTERISTICS OF THIS NAME: If anyone recites this name one hundred and eleven times over a sick person, then insha Allah (if Allah wills), he will be cured. If anyone repeats it constantly then he will be rid of fear.

6 - AL-MUMIN: 'The Bestower of security.' This name calls upon a person to protect Allah's creatures from his own mischief and the mischief of other people.

ITS CHARACTERISTICS: If anyone recites it frequently, or writes it down and keeps it with himself, then Allah will preserve him from the devil's mischief. No one will overpower him. He will be under Allah's protection both outwardly and inwardly. If he recites it much too often then Allah's creatures will obey him.

7 - AL-MUHAYMIN: 'The Protector.' He protects very well. This name requires the reciter to refrain from bad habits, evil beliefs and other such things like jealousy, etc. He should keep away from all such things that cause him to be negligent of Allah.

ITS CHARACTERISTICS: If anyone has a bath and recites this name one hundred and fifteen times then he will know the secrets and the unknown. He who recites it regularly will be safe from all calamities. He will be among the inhabitants of paradise.

8 - AL-AZIZ: 'The Mighty, none can overpower Him' This name allows a person to subdue his self, his desired and the devil. He becomes unique in knowledge and learning. He does not beg from Allah's creatures, so maintains his dignity and preserves himself from degrading himself.
Abu al-Abbas Muraysi رحمه الله said, "By Allah, I have found honour in not stretching hand before the creatures (to beg)."
Some ulama (Scholars) say that only he thinks of Allah as Mighty and Overpowering and Unique and unmatched who regards His commands and His Shari'ah (Islamic law) as dear and dominant over him and obeys Him in a singular unmatched manner. But, he who takes these things lightly and shows unconcern does not regard Allah as dear and mighty. Allah, says:

وَلِلّٰهِ الْعِزَّةُ وَلِرَسُوْلِهٖ وَلِلْمُؤْمِنِيْنَ وَلٰكِنَّ الْمُنَافِقِيْنَ لَا يَعْلَمُوْنَ

{And might belongs to Allah and to His Messenger and the believers, but the hypocrites know not.} (63:8)

CHARACTERISTICS: If anyone repeats this name forty-one times after the salah (prayer) of fajr then he will not be dependent on anyone in both the worlds. He will become mighty and accepted after being ignoble and friendless.
Apart from this, there are many other amazing properties of this name

9 - AL-JABBAR: 'The Overpowering Lord, The Compeller.' He repairs the disturbed and out of order tasks. He guides the creatures to what He intends. This name causes a person to earn merits and excellence and correct his defects and become constant on abstinence and obedience to subdue his self and attain perfection.

Qushayri رحمه الله cited some books to quote Allah, "O My slave you decide to do something and I decide about something, but only what I wish happens. So, if you become pleased with My wish then I suffice you for what you desire, otherwise I shall not suffice you.

CHARACTERISTICS OF THIS NAME: If anyone recites this name twenty-one times after the ten musabbihat then he will be safe of the mischief of the oppressors and the cruel. (The musabbihat are surahs beginning with (سبح) If anyone recites it constantly then he will be protected from being backbited and censure of the creatures. He will be affluent and authoritative. If anyone inscribes it on his ring and wears it then other people will respect him and dread him.

10 - AL-MUTAKABBIR: 'The Majestic.' 'Very Great.' The name Al-Mutakabbir requires of a person who recognizes this quality of Allah that he should abstain from base desires. otherwise he will be associated with animals. In fact, he must keep away from everything that obstructs his inward from the Truth. He must despise all things apart from approaching the True Allah. He must adopt humility and rid himself of every semblance of arrogance so that his soul remains pure and he grows in himself love of Allah. In this way, no one will dictate him and he will not have peace with anyone other than Allah.
CHARACTERISTIC OF THIS NAME: If a man recites it ten times just before going to his wife, then, insha Allah (if Allah wills) , Allah will grant him a righteous son. If anyone recites it before beginning his task, then, insha Allah (if Allah wills), he will achieve his desire.

11 - AL-KHALIQ: 'The Creator.' He creates according to His will and wisdom.

CHARACTERISTIC OF THIS NAME: If anyone goes on reciting this name, then Allah creates for him an angel to worship on his behalf till the day of resurrection. Also, because of this name, Allah makes this person's heart and face radiant. Shah Abdur Rahman رحمه الله has written that if anyone recites this name very often in the night then his face and heart will be bright and he will be able to do all his work easily.

12 - AL-BARI: 'The Creator out of nothing.'

CHARACTERISTICS: If anyone repeats this name one hund ·ed times every week. Allah will take him directly to Riyadh Quds instead of keeping him in the grave. A physician (hakim or doctor) who recites it regularly will be successful in every treatment that he prescribes.

13 - AL-MUSAWWIR: 'The Fashioner.' These three successive names call upon a person, whenever he observes something and imagines something, he must ponder Allah's power and mysteries in that thing.

CHARACTERISTICS: If a woman is barren, she must fast for seven days and at the time of iftar (consummating fast) on each of these days, she must recite Al-Musawwir twenty-one times, blow on water and drink it. Insha Allah (if Allah wills), she will beget a pious son. If anyone recites this name very often when facing a difficult and insurmountable task, then his task will become easy.

14 - AL-GHAFFAR: 'The Most Forgiving.' 'Who conceals shortcomings of the creatures.' One must have a firm conviction that no one other than Allah forgives sins, and one must conceal defects of other people. If anybody is at fault, he should pardon him He must bind himself to make Istighfar all the time and particularly before dawn.

If anyone repeats one hundred times after the salah (prayer) of Friday these words:

يَا غَفَّارُ اغْفِرْ لِي ذُنُوبِي

(O The Forgiving, forgive me my sins),
Then Allah places him with those people who have been forgiven.

15 - AL-QAHHAR: 'The Dominant, The Almighty.' All are helpless before His power. This name demands of a person to subdue his great enemies and make them helpless. These enemies are his base soul and the devil.

CHARACTERISTICS: If anyone recites this name very often, then Allah removes the love of this world from his heart and when he dies, it is on piety. If anyone recites it for any of his objectives one hundred times then his objective will become easy. If anyone recites it one hundred times between the sunnah salah and fard salah (two parts of prayer) with intention to dominate, then his great enemies will be dominated by him.

16 - AL-WAHHAB: 'The Bestower.' 'He gives much without requiring a return.' This name requires a person to give his life and wealth in Allah's path without personal motives and without seeking a return.

CHARACTERISTICS: If anyone is afflicted with poverty and hunger, then he must begin to repeat this name constantly. Allah will remove from him this difficulty in such a way that he will be amazed. One who writes it down and keeps it with himself then he will find it as effective. If anyone offers the salah (prayer) of chaast and recites afterwards a verse calling for prostration, and keeping his head in prostration, repeats this name seven time then he will be independent of the creatures. If anyone has a need then at midnight he must prostrate three times in his house or the courtyard of a mosque, then raising his hands, must repeat this name one hundred times. Insha Allah (if Allah wills), his need will be fulfilled.
Mawlana Shah Abdul Aziz رحمه الله said that to have one's provision enlarged, one must offer four raka'at salah (prayer) at the time of chaast. After that one must prostrate oneself and recite (يا وهاب)(Ya Wahhab) one hundred and four times. If there is not sufficient time, then he must recite only fifty times. Insha Allah (if Allah wills), there will be an increase in provision.

17 - AL-RAZZAQ: 'The Sustainer.' He creates sustenance and bestows it on the creatures. It is that from which benefit is desired and it can be obvious and hidden. The latter kind is what benefits the soul and the heart, like the sciences, awareness, etc. The former benefits the body, like through food and clothing.
This name requires a person to believe that none but Allah is able to provide sustenance. So he must expect provision only from Him, and must entrust all his affairs to Him. He should continue to provide people physical and spiritual sustenance with his hands and tongue, spending his wealth on the needy and teaching the less learned and the misled. He must guide them and keep praying for the good of every Muslim.
A saintly man was asked how he give his food and drink. He said, "from the time I have achieved divine awareness, I have never worried about my provision." Another said about provision that it is the dhikr (hallowing of Allah) of Allah: (حی الذی لا یموت) (He is the Living Who never dies).

CHARACTERISTICS: If anyone recites this name ten times each after dawn but before the salah (prayer) of fajr in each of the four corners of his house beginning with the right side and not turning his face away from the qiblah then this house will not experience grief and poverty.

18 - AL-FATTAH: 'The Opener.' 'The Judge.' He opens the gates to provision and mercy. One must try to reconcile people and judge between them. He must help the oppressed and resolve to solve the problems of the people, whether problems of this world or of the hereafter.
Qushayri رحمه الله said that once anyone knows that Allah opens the gates to mercy and provision and provides the means and rectifies everything then he should not attach himself to anyone besides Allah.

CHARACTERISTICS: If anyone offers the salah (prayer) of fajr and, keeping both hands on his chest repeats this name seventy times then his heart will be cleansed. He will purified at heart and inwardly.

19 - AL-ALEEM: 'The All Knowing.' He knows the seen and unseen. Someone has spoken very well, "If anyone is aware that Allah knows his condition very well then he must show patience when afflicted and express gratitude when He gives something. He must ask forgiveness for his sins.
Some books write that Allah says, 'If you do not know that you are under My eyes all the time then your faith is weak. But, if you know that I see you always then why do you think very little of Me among all those who see?" (You are afraid lest anyone see you when you do wrong but you do not care that I see you though I see everything of you. Thus, you give others more importance than you give Me.)

CHARACTERISTICS: If anyone recites this name very much then Allah gives him abundant awareness of Himself.
If anyone repeats (ياعالم الغيب) (Ya Aalim ul ghayb) one hundred times after salah (prayer), then Allah will make him perceive the mysteries and be inspired.
If anyone desires to have knowledge of the unseen then, after the salah (prayer) of isha, he must recite it one hundred times in the mosque and go to sleep. Insha Allah (if Allah wills), he will learn of the reality of that thing.

20 - AL QABID: 'The withholder' who withholds and constricts provision and heart of the creatures. He takes away their souls.

CHARACTERISTICS: If anyone writes this name for forty days on four morsels (of bread etc) and eats them then insha Allah (if Allah wills) he will be protected from hunger and punishment of the grave.

21 - AL- BASIT: 'The Enlarger.' He enlarges the provision of the creatures and expands their hearts. These two successive names (Al-Qabid and Al-Basit) call on a person not to lose hope at the time of affliction and tragedy nor to be come careless when He bestows blessings. He must regard hardship as the result of His judgment and exercise patience. And, he must regard enlargement of provision as the fruit of His favours and express gratitude for it. Qushayri رحمه الله said that it is with saintly men that these two conditions influence their heart. When they are overcome by fear of Allah, their hearts constrict. When they are very hopeful of mercy, their hearts expand. Junayd Baghdadiرحمه الله said the same thing and added, "Truth brings me together." He meant remembrance of Allah makes him calm and composed. And, he said, "The creation disintegrates me," meaning the company of the creatures unsettles him and terrifies him. It is the beauty of a person that he refrains from restlessness when he is hard pressed and worried. He does not exult too much when he lives in abundance, and does not demonstrate bad manners, for, great people fear these things.

CHARACTERISTICS: If anyone repeats this name ten times at the hour of dawn with his hands raised and after doing that wipes his face with them, then he will never have to present his need to anyone else to get it fulfilled.

22 - AL-KHAFID: "the Abaser," He who humbles. He disgraces the disbelievers.

CHARACTERISTICS: If a person fasts for three days and recites this name on the fourth day in one sitting seventy thousand times then he will conquer the enemy.

23 - AR-RAFI: 'The Exaltor.' He exalts the believers after helping them or bringing them near to Him. Both these successive names (Al-Khafid and Ar-Rafi) call on a person not to trust his state of being whatever it be nor be confident of any of his learnings and deeds, and to suppress and put down whatever Allah has commanded should be checked. Examples are one's self, desire. He elevates what Allah has asked should be raised, like heart and soul.

People saw a man fly in air. So, they asked him how he accomplished the feat. He said, "I suppressed my hawa (desires), so Allah empowered me over hawa (air) of the atmosphere.

CHARACTERISTICS: If anyone recites this name one hundred times at midnight or at noon, then Allah will make him a chosen, elite, independent person.

24 - AL-MUIZ: 'The Bestower of honour.' If anyone recites this name, on the night preceding Monday or Friday, one hundred and forty times, then he will be regarded highly by the creatures. He will not be fearful of anyone but Allah.

25 - AL-MUDHIL: 'The Abaser.' 'He who disgraces.' Both these consecutive names (Al-Muiz and Al-Mudhil) require a person to honour those people whom Allah has honoured because of knowledge and awareness. He is also required to regard disgraced and ignoble those whom Allah has made miserable because of their disbelief and straying.

CHARACTERISTICS OF AL-MUDHIL: If anyone is afraid of an oppressor or a jealous person, he must recite this name seventy-five times and then prostrate himself and pray to Allah, "Save me from the mischief of such-and-such oppressor and jealous one" Allah will give him peace.

26, 27 - AS-SAMI AND AL-BASIR: 'The All-Hearing.' 'The All-seeing.' These names call upon a person to refrain from hearing and seeing whatever is contrary to shari'ah (Islamic law). He must believe that Allah is present and hears and sees his words and deeds.

Imam Ghazali رحمه الله says that if anyone conceals from the creatures what he does not conceal from Allah then he is as though he has a poor opinion of Allah. Hence, he who commits sin knowing that Allah watches him is a daring person, indeed. He who commits sin with a conviction that Allah does not see him commits an act of great disbelief. Hence, it is said by way of example that if you must commit a wrong, then do it in such a place where Allah cannot see you. Since there is no such place where Allah cannot see you, do not commit sin.

CHARACTERISTICS: if anyone recites As-Sami' five hundred times on Thursday after the salah (prayer) of chaast - or, recites it every day, one hundred times after chaast and does not speak in-between, then whatever supplication he makes thereafter will be approved.
If anyone recites Al-Basir one hundred and one times between the sunnah(Practice of Holy Prophet Muhammad صلی الله علیه وسلم) and Fard(compulsory) of Fajr with a firm and strong conviction then insha Allah (if Allah wills) he will be chosen with Allah's benevolent sight.

28 - AL-HAKAM: 'The Judge.' 'He who gives the command.' None can fail His command. This name call upon a person that, having known this attribute, he should obey all His commands and submit to His will and judgment. If anyone does not agree with his will and judgment intentionally, then Allah enforces His will and judgment on him forcefully. If anyone willingly submits to it and is pleased with it then Allah will bestow mercy on him and he will lead a life of pleasure and satisfaction, and he will not need to complain to others.

CHARACTERISTICS: If anyone recites it on the night preceding Friday, according to an opinion, at midnight to such an extent that he faints, then Allah will fill his inward with knowledge of mysteries.

29 - AL-ADL: 'The Just.' One must not become hard-hearted and restless with Allah's commands and judgements after knowing that He is Just. One must be convinced that Allah's judgement about him is perfectly just. So, he must rely on him and be comfortable and spend whatever Allah has given him in its proper place as sanctioned by Shari'ah (Islamic law). He must respect His justice and hope for His favour and compassion. Also, he should refrain from going to extremes but adopt a moderate course.

CHARACTERISTICS: If anyone writes this name on twenty morsels of bread and eats them on the night preceding Friday, then Allah subjugates all the creatures to him.

30 - AL-LATIF: 'The Subtle.' He is mild with His creatures. He sees all, and distance and nearness is alike for Him. This name requires of a person to reflect on the affairs, of religion and the world. He must invite the people to the true path mildly.CHARACTERISTICS: If anyone lacks the means of sustenance, has no one to sympathies with him in his poverty, is ill without anyone to tend to him, or has a daughter for whom he can find no suitable match-
Then he must make ablution very well and offer two raka'at salah (prayer), and recite this name one hundred times with his objective in mind. Insha Allah (if Allah wills), his difficulty will be solved.
Similarly, this name must be recited one hundred times constantly to secure a good match for daughters, recovery from illnesses and accomplishment of tasks. Some saintly fraternity observes the practice that for every kind of religious or worldly task this name should be reptead sixteen thousand three hundred and forty one (16341) time at some isolated place observing the requisites of supplication. Insha Allah (if Allah wills), the objective will be achieved.

31 - AL-KHABIR: 'The All-Knowing.' He knows that which is in a person's heart and everything else. This name requires of a person, who has learnt that Allah is Aware of his secrets and even what is in his heart, that he too must remember Him and forget all others besides Him. He must shun stray paths. He must bind himself to abandon ostentation and to adopt righteousness, and to set right his secrets and to know of the obvious things of religion and the worldly life.

CHARACTERISTICS: If anyone is subjugated to his base self, then he must recite this name very often. Insha Allah (if Allah wills), he will be delivered.

32 - AL-HALIM: 'The Clement.' He is not hasty in punishing the believers. Rather, He gives respite to the believers that they might repent and prosper. This name calls on a person to persevere hardship hurled by malicious people, be mild in punishing the subordinates and refrain from anger and rage. He must endeavor to attain that degree of clemency so that he shows kindness to anyone who is wicked to him.

CHARACTERISTICS: If anyone writes this name on a piece of paper and washes it and sprinkles the water in the fields and trees, then he will be safe from loss and there will be blessing in them and he will get full produce from them.

33 - AL-AZIM: 'The Mighty.' 'The Magnificent.' He is so very mighty in His Being and Attributes that man's intelligence cannot perceive His greatness. This name requires of a person that he concede the insignificance of the two worlds before Allah's might. He should not bow before anyone for the sake of the world. He must regard himself as lowly. And, he should do what Allah has commanded should be done and abandon what Allah has forbidden. He must occupy himself in those things which are dear to Allah and belittle his self so that he earns Allah's pleasure.

CHARACTERISTICS: He who recites this name constantly will be great in the eyes of the creatures.

34 - AL-GHAFUR: 'The forgiving.' He is the most forgiving. It calls on a person to make Istighfar most of the time during day and night particularly at the time of dawn. He must forgive him who has hurt him or troubled him.

CHARACTERISTICS: If anyone is ill or has fever or headache, or grief, then he must write this name on a piece of paper and transfer the inscription on bread and eat it. Allah will cure him and give him relief. If anyone recites this name very often then darkness of his heart will vanish.

According to a hadith (tradition): "If anyone prostrates himself land says three times in prostration (یا رب اغفرلی) (O my Lord, forgive me), then Allah will forgive him his past and present sins."

If anyone suffers headache or an illness or grief, he must write down the letters of (یا غفور) three times and eat that. Insha Allah (if Allah wills), he will be healed.

35 - ASH-SHAKUR: 'The Grateful.' 'The Appreciative.' He gives too much reward for a little deed.

Some one who had died was seen in a dream by a man. He asked him how he had fared. He said, "When Allah called me for reckoning, the sins on my scale outweighed pieties. Suddenly, a bag dropped on the pan of pieties causing it to lower down more than the pan of sins. I asked about it and was told that it was a handful of dust that I had cast in the grave of a Muslim." How much highly does Allah reward for a little effort!

This name binds a person to express gratitude to Allah because all blessings are granted by Him. He must use his limbs for that very purpose for which. Allah has given them to him. He must be kind to people and he must thank them always because a hadith (tradition) says:

لَا يَشْكُرُ اللّٰهَ مَنْ لَّا يَشْكُرُ النَّاسَ

(He who is ungrateful to the people does not show gratitude to Allah).

CHARACTERISTICS: If anyone's eyesight has become weak or the radiance of his heart has turned dim then he must recite this name forty-oe times and blow on water. And, he should drink the water and wipe over his eyes. Insha Allah (if Allah wills), he will recover his eyesight and the radiance.

36 - AL-ALIYY:'The High.' This name calls upon a person to subdue his soul through obedience to Allah and His worship, both openly and in private. He must exert himself fully to acquire knowledge and perform deeds, aiming for perfection and higher degrees. According to a hadith (tradition), "Allah loves higher motives and dislikes lower motives." This is why Sayyiduna Ali رضى الله عنه said, "Great courage grows only from faith."

CHARACTERISTICS: If anyone who is of a poor and low standing, or is faced with poverty, or is on a journey facing its ardours then he should recite this name constantly so that he will attain a high standing, or affluence or return home safely. Or, he may write it down and keep if with him.

37 - AL-KABIR: 'The Great.' He is the Greatest. None equals Him in greatness. This name call on a person to remember only Allah's greatness and (forget and) reject any kind of greatness of all else. He must try to perfect himself through knowledge and deeds and to diffuse his learning to others. He must be humble and submissive to the extreme and obey his Master to the utmost.

CHARACTERISTICS: One who repeats this name very often attains high stations and great esteem. If the rulers recite it constantly, then their subjects will fear and respect them. Their affairs will be concluded very well.

38 - AL-HAFIZ:'The Preserver.' He preserves the world from calamities. This name requires of a person to preserve his limbs from sin and his private from strangers. He must suffice himself on Allah's decree and will, being pleased with His decisions.
A saintly man said that if Allah preserves anyone's limbs then He preserves his heart. When He preserves anyone's heart, He preserves his secrets.
It is said about a righteous man that his eyes felon something that is disallowed to see. He lamented and prayed to Allah that since he had misused hissight, He may take it away. So, he lost his eyesight. However, it became extremely difficult for him to make ablution and worship in the night, so he prayed to Allah again and regretted his earlier prayer, saying, "I do need my eyesight," and Allah restored it to him.

CHARACTERISTICS: If anyone writes down this name and ties it on his right arm then he will be preserved form drowning, burning, evil spirits and evil eyes, etc.

39 - AL-MUQIT: 'The Sustainer.' He produces sustenance for body and soul and nourishes them. Thus, a person must remember Allah and not worry about his sustenance. Real nourishment is Allah's dhikr (hallowing of Allah).

Sayyiduna Sahl رضی اللہ عنہ was asked about it. He said that it is the dhikr (hallowing of Allah) (حی الذی لایموت) (The Living Who shall never die).
A person should ask Allah alone for his nourishment.

وَإِن مِّن شَيْءٍ إِلَّا عِندَنَا خَزَائِنُهُ وَمَا نُنَزِّلُهُ إِلَّا بِقَدَرٍ مَّعْلُومٍ

{There is not a thing but its treasures are with Us and We send it not down but in a known measure.}(15:21)

Moreover, a person must give provision to all who are attached to him. To help others, guide the straying and feed the hungry should become his ambition.
Qushayri رحمہ اللہ said that provision can be of different kinds. It can be the normal food on which man survives, but some people are such that ability to worship Allah is itself their nourishment. The release of disclosures is nourishment of their heart and the constant observations are nourishment of their soul. When Allah causes anyone to engage in His obedience and worship, this person cuts off his soul's desires and wishes completely and concentrates towards his Master. Then Allah causes someone to look after him and to get him his needs. However, if anyone occupies oneself in pursuit of his base desires then Allah leaves him to get his desires by himself and removes His blessings from him.

CHARACTERISTICS: If a person comes across a poor person or is himself poor, or a child cries continuously then he must recite this name seven times and blow in an empty bowl and fill water into it and drink it himself or let the concerned man or child drink it. If anyone who is fasting fears for his life then he must blow this name on a flower and smell. Insha Allah (if Allah wills), he will get strength and will be able to complete his fast.

40 - AL-HASIB: 'The Recknoer.' 'He suffices at all times.' Or, 'He will subject the creatures to reckoning on the day of resurrection.' This name calls on a person to support the needy and get them their wants. He must also take account of himself.
Qushayri رحمہ اللہ said that Allah suffices His salves by helping them whatever their condition and whatever their condition and whatever their work. They have their work accomplished. Hence, they must not rely on worldly support and if anyone does not profit from worldly sources when he has relied on them, he must not lose heart, but he must be convinced that Allah has decreed for him what has transpired. His support may be very strong but if Allah has not decreed for him what he aspires then he will not get it. On the other hand, if he is destined to get it then howsoever hopeless his worldly support, he will get it.
If anyone makes do with what Allah gives him even though that was not his demand, then Allah will make him please and satisfied with what He gives him. He will be more pleased than he would have been on getting his demand.

CHARACTERISTICS: If anyone is person, an evil neighbour or an enemy, or is suffering form an eye wound, then for a week, every morning and evening, he must recite (حسبی اللہ الحسیب) (Sufficing Allah suffices me!) He will be safe from these things.

41 - AL-JALIL: 'The Majestic.' This name calls upon a person to adopt perfect traits and become a high degreed person.

CHARACTERISTICS: If anyone writes down this name with musk and saffron and keeps it with himself or eats it, then people will honour and respect him.

42- AL-KARIM: 'The Benevolent,' 'The Gracious.' He bestows much. He never ceases to give, nor do His treasures exhaust. This name requires of a person to continue to give property and wealth to fellow. Creatures without commitment. He must help them in all possible ways. He must avaoid bad maners and evil deeds.

CHARACTERISTICS: If anyone repeats this name while lying down on his bed till he falls asleep, then the angels pray for him (اکرمک اللہ) (May Allah give you honour). It is said that Sayyiduna Ali رضی اللہ عنہ used to recite this name very often. This is why the people pray for him (کرم اللہ وجہہ) may Allah raise you in honour.

43 - AR-RAQIB: 'The Watcher.' He looks after everything. Some say: 'The knower of the affairs and deeds of the creatures.' This name demands of a person that, and the time, he must have Allah in mind and not ask, or pray to, anyone besides Him. Also, he should not slacken, in the least, in looking after those over whom Allah has made him in-charge.
According to a hadith (tradition): "All of you are shepherds, meaning watchers, and all of you will be questioned concerning your flock, meaning those under your charge." You will be asked how you discharged your duty.
Qurharyri رحمہ اللہ said that the awliy hold that Allah's remembrance should be supreme at the heart with the conviction that Allah observes one's affairs. So, a person should turn to Allah in all circumstances and fear His punishment. Hence one who is so engaged - in muraqibah (meditation) - abandons all that is contrary to Shari'ah (Islamic law), more than one who forsakes them from fear of Allah. As for one who listens to his heart (acting on the correct dictates of the conscience), not a moment of his goes without remembering Allah and obeying Him because he knows well that Allah will question him for each moment and each deed whether the minutest or the greatest.
Someone dreamt about a righteous man after his death. He disclosed that Allah had forgiven him by His mercy but did call for a full account of his life so much so that he had picked up a grain of wheat form a friend's shop before iftar (consummating fast) and split it, but realized suddenly that it did not belong to him, so replaced it. He was questioned about it and the equivalent of the splitting of wheat was taken away from his piety.
Clearly, one who is aware that he will have to account for very little things too in Allah's court will never waste his life in wrong and false doings, and in wasteful pursuits and negligence.

CHARACTERISTICS: If anyone recites this name seven times and blows on his wife, his children and his property on their four sides, then he will be secure from enemies and trials (on their account).

44 - AL-MUJIB: 'The Responsive.' 'He grants the prayer of the needy.' This name calls on the person to obey Allah's commands 'to do' or 'not to do' and to help the needy get their wants.

CHARACTERISTICS: If anyone repeats this name very often and makes supplication thereafter, then his prayer gets a quick response. If he writes it and keeps it with himself then Allah will keep him safe.

45 - AL-WASI: 'The Vast.' 'The Ample Giving.' 'He possesses a vast knowledge and disburses his blessings to all.' This name requires a person to create expansion in his knowledge, generosity, awareness and manners. He must meet others with o cheerful face, and not fret over worldly affairs.

CHARACTERISTICS: If anyone recites this name very often and constantly, Allah will make him content.

46 - AL-HAKIM: 'The Wise.' 'The Secure.' A person must adopt the praiseworthy attributes mentioned in Allah's Book and endeavour to follow them in the best way. He must make all his affairs strong and secure and must refrain from foolishness. He must not do anything unless sanctioned and commanded by Allah, so that he will reflect His attribute Al-Hakim.
Dhun Novn Misri رحمه الله heard of a man of the Maghrib (west) famed for his knowledge and wisdom. So, he went to meet him. There, he sat at his door for forty days. The man would go for the salah (prayer) to the mosque but seemed worried. He never looked towards Dhun Noon رحمه الله. Fed up with this condition, he confronted the man, one day, "I am here for the last forty days but you neither look at me nor speak to me. Do proffer me some advice and tell me some wise words that I may remember." He said, "will you follow that?" He said, "Yes, if Allah enables me, certainly." Then, the man said to him this very wise saying, "Do not befriend the world. Be pleased with poverty. Regard trial as a blessing, denial as a grant and do not lbe affable with others besides Allah Regard disgrace as honour, death as real life, obedience and worship as the means of your honour, and trust (in Allah) as your livelihood."

CHARACTERISTICS: If anyone's task defies him, he must recite this name constantly. Insha Allah (if Allah wills), he will accomplish his task.

47 - AL-WADUD: 'The Most :Loving.' 'He befriends the obedient creatures.' 'Is the Beloved in the hearts of the awliya (friends/saints).' This name calls upon a person to like for others what he likes for himself and the he will be kind to them to the best of his ability. This is similar to the saying of the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم, "None of you is a true believer unless he loves for his brother what he loves for himself."
Allah's friends are they on whom He has mercy, praises them and bestows on them good. The creatures regard Allah as their friend by respecting Him and their hearts are filled with awe and might of Him. According to a hadith (tradition), "Allah says, 'Of My friends, the great friends is he who worships without being given.' 'He does not worship with hope of a grant but only for My pleasure.'

CHARACTERISTICS: If a husband and wife are at loggerheads, this name should be recited on some eatable one thousand and one times and fed to the partner who is responsible for the dispute. Insha Allah (if Allah wills), they will begin to love one another.

48 - AL-MAJID: 'The Glorious,' 'The Majestic.' The same things are required of a person as are required for the name Al-Azim(33).

CHARACTERISTICS: If anyone suffers from blisters on his feet, syphilis, leprosy, or the like, he must fast during the days of bid (thirteenth fourteenth and fifteenth of every lunar month) and recite this name frequently at the time of iftar (comsummating fast) (consummating fast), blow on water and drink it. Insha Allah (if Allah wills), he will be cured. If anyone is not respected by his contemporaries or members of the same sex then he or she must recite this name every morning ninety-nine times and blow over oneself.

49 - A-BA'ITH: 'The Resurrector.' He will raise the dead to life. He awakens the hearts of the neglectful. This name calls on a person to teach the ignorant and advice them to give up interest in the world and crave for the blessings of the hereafter. They should then begin with themselves and pass on the teachings to others.

CHARACTERISTICS: If anyone recites this name one hundred and one times with his hand on his chest while he lies down to sleep then Allah will give life to his heart.

50 - ASH-SHAHID: 'The Omnipresent.' 'The Witness.' 'Knower of the obvious and the unseen.' Qnshayri رحمه الله said that the Sufis (mysties) are happy and content only He sees and watches their affairs. Only He knows all their doings. He says:

اَوَلَمْ يَكْفِ بِرَبِّكَ اَنَّهٗ عَلٰى كُلِّ شَىْءٍ شَهِيْدٌ

{Does it not suffice in regard to your Lord that He is Witness over everything?}
This name requires that a person should not be seen at a place where it is disallowed by his Lord for him to be seen and he should not be missing from the place where his Lord has commanded him to be. He should be convinced that Allah knows about him and sees him better than he himself does. He should not present his needs to others besides Allah. He should always side with the truth and the true

CHARACTERISTICS: If anyone's son is disobedient, or daughter is not righteous, then he should put his hand on their forehead, get them to raise their face towards heaven and he should recite Ya Shahid (یاشھید) twenty-one times. Allah will make them obedient and righteous.

51 - AL-HAQQ: 'The True.' He is truly in power with sovereignty and is worthy of worship. This name calls upon a person who realizes Allah's supremacy to abandon the remembrance and demand of the creatures. He must bind himself to speak the truth and abide by the truth and nothing else.

CHARACTERISTICS: If anyone has lost something, he must write this name on the four corners of a piece of paper and the name of that thing in the centre of ;that thing in the centre of that paper. At mid-night, with the piece of paper in his palm, let him look at the sky and pray to Allah by virtue of this name and its blessing for the recovery of that thing. Insha Allah (if Allah wills), he will receive it intact or some part of lit. If a prisoner recites this name at midnight bare-headed one hundred and sixty times, Allah will get him released.

52 - AL-WAKIL: 'The Trustee.' He helps. Allah says

وَكَفٰى بِاللّٰهِ وَكِيْلًا

{And Allah suffices for a guardian.} (4:171)

وَعَلَى اللّٰهِ فَتَوَكَّلُوْا اِنْ كُنْتُمْ مُّؤْمِنِيْنَ

{And put your trust in Allah, if you are believers.}(5 : 23)

وَمَنْ يَّتَوَكَّلْ عَلَى اللّٰهِ فَهُوَ حَسْبُهٗ

{And whosoever puts his trust in Allah, so He will suffice him.}(65:3)

وَتَوَكَّلْ عَلَى الْحَيِّ الَّذِىْ لَا يَمُوْتُ

{And put your trust in the Ever-Living Who dies not.}(25:58)

وَتَوَكَّلْ عَلَى الْعَزِيزِ الرَّحِيمِ

{And put your trust in the Mighty, the merciful.}(26:217)

This name calls on a person to help the weak and the disabled. He must fulfil their needs as though he is their guardian.

CHARACTERISTICS: If lightning is likely to strike or there is fear of damage through water and fire, then this name may be repeated very often. If anyone recites this name too many times at a fearful and dangerous place then he will be fearless and out of danger.

53, 54 - AL-QAWIY: 'The Powerful,' 'The Strong.'

AL-MATIN: 'The Firm.'

These names require a person to overcome land suppress his base desires. He should be firm in enforcing Shari'ah (Islamic law) commands.

CHARACTERISTICS: If a strong enemy confronts anyone, then he must knead some flour and make out of it one thousand and one capsules. Then, he must pick them up one at a time and recite (یا قوی) (ya Qawiy) and cast them against the supposed enemy with intention of defence, Allah will cause his enemy to be defeated. If this name is recited very often on the night preceding Friday, then forget fullness will be cured. If a child has been weaned but it is restless then this name should be written down and given to the child to drink. If a breast-feeding mother has insufficient milk then she must be made to drink this name after writing it down. She will have abundant milk.

If anyone craves for authority in government, then he should recite the name Al-Matin three hundred times in an early hour of a Sunday with intention to get his desire. Insha Allah (if Allah wills), he will get it.

55 - AL-WALIY: 'The Protecting Friend.' 'The Patron.' He befriends the believers.

This name calls upon a person to keep company of Muslims and try to help further the religion. He must endeavour to fulfill the needs of Allah's creatures.

Qushayri رحمه الله said that the portents of Allah are that when Allah befriends anyone, He causes him always to follow good and pious, blessed ways, so much so that if he succumbs to human weaknesses and intends to commit a wrong, Allah preserves him from perpetrating wrong. If he does commit the wrong, then Allah does not allow him to persist but enables him to repent and came out of it. This is why it is said:

إِذَا أَحَبَّ اللّٰهُ عَبْدًا لَمْ يَضُرَّهُ ذَنْبٌ

(When Allah loves anyone, sin does not harm him.)

If he tends to slacken in worship, then Allah causes him to occupy himself in worship. This is a sign of a person's good fortune. However, the opposite condition spells his wretchedness.

Another sign of Allah's friendship is that He creates in the hearts of His awliya (friends/saints) love for a person so that they have an amazing relationship with him and are kind to him to an amazing degree.

CHARACTERISTICS: If anyone recites this name very often then he will become aware of the secret thoughts of Allah's creatures. If anyone's wife or female slave possesses an undesirable character and habit that hurts him then, before going to them, he must recite this name very often. Allah will correct their ways.

56 - AL-HAMID: 'The Praiseworthy.' He praises Himself of is praised. This name calls on a person to praise Allah always. He grows in him perfect qualities or develops himself such that he is lauded and praised.

CHARACTERISTICS: If anyone recites this name very often then his deeds will be approved. If anyone indulges in indecent speech and cannot control himself then he must write this name on a bowl, or recite on it ninety times, and use it always for drinking water. Insha Allah (if Allah wills), he will be cured of his habit.

57 - AL-MUHSIY: 'One Who records.' 'His knowledge embraces everything and He knows the number of His creatures.' This name calls on a person not to be neglectful whether he is moving about or stationary but each of his moments should be occupied in remembering Allah. "The dwellers of paradise will regret the moments that passed without remembering Allah." He must be conscious of how he conducts himself. This name also demands of him to count Allah's blessings on him and express gratitude to Allah and think of himself as helpless and dependent, and count his sins and be asharied of himself and repent.

CHARACTERISTICS: If anyone recites this name one thousand and one times on Thursday night (meaning Friday night according to lunar calendar), then Allah will preserve him from punishment of the grave and of the hereafter.

58, 59 AL-MUBDIY, AL-MU'ID: 'The originator', 'The Reproducer,' 'The Restorer.'
These names call upon a person to turn to Allah in all his affairs the first time and again too. He must try to grow pieties and if he falls short in any piety, he must repeat it.

CHARACTERISTICS: If a woman fears that she might have a miscarriage or that her pregnancy might prolong, then her husband must recite the name Al-Mubdiy ninety times and move his forefinger round her belly. Insha Allah (if Allah wills), she will not have a miscarriage and will deliver without difficulty.
If anyone recites this name constantly, then he will utter only what is correct and what earns reward.
If a relative or any other person is missing, then when the members of the household have slept, recite this name in the four corners of the house seventy times and say, "O Mu'id (يا معيد) cause so-and-so to return to me or let me have news of him." You will learn of him within seven days, or he will return. If anyone has lost something then he must recite this name Al-Mu'id very often. Insha Allah (if Allah wills), he will find it.

60, 61 - AL-MUHYI, AL-MUMIT: 'The Giver of life, the Giver of death.' Allah revives hearts through light of faith and gives life to body. He also causes it to die and lets hearts fall into negligence and so into death.
These two names call on a person to enliven the creatures by benefiting them with knowledge, and by getting them to seek Allah's forgiveness. And he should cast base desires and devil's promptings to death. He should not long for life or death but submit to Divine decree and make this supplication as taught by the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم:

اَللّٰهُمَّ اَحْيِنِىْ مَاكَانَتِ الْحَيٰوةُ خَيْرًا لِّىْ وَ تَوَفَّنِىْ اِذَا كَانَتِ الْوَفَاةُ خَيْرًا لِّىْ وَ اجْعَلِ الْحَيٰوةَ زِيَادَةً فِىْ كُلِّ خَيْرٍ

وَاجْعَلِ الْمَوْتَ رَاحَةً مِنْ كُلِّ شَرٍّ

(O Allah cause me to live as long as life is good for me and cause me to die when death is good for me. And let life be a means of increase of every good, and let death be a relief from every evil.)

CHARACTERISTICS: If anyone is afflicted by grief, hardship or possibility of losing a limb, then he must recite this name Al-Muhyi seven times, Allah will give him relief. If anyone has pain in a vein (or in some parts of his body), he must recite this name for seven day. If anyone recites it regularly then his heart will be lively and body strong.
If anyone falls victim to his base desires and is drawn away from abiding by Shari'ah (Islamic law) then before he goes to sleep, he must put his hand on his chest and recite Al-Mumit till sleep overtakes him. Allah will cause his self to obey him.

62 - AL-HAYYI: 'The Ever-Living.' This name requires a person to live by remembering Allah and to give up his life in His path. Thus, he may attain martyrdom in Allah's path and live for ever.

CHARACTERISTICS: If anyone is ill then he must recite this name very often, or another person must recite it on him. Some people say that he must stare at him - or keep his eyes straight - and recite if often. Allah will give him cure. If anyone recites it seventy times every day then he will have a long life and his spiritual life will become strong.

63 - AL-QAYYUM: 'The self-Subsisting.' He also keep the creation alive land watches it. A person is required by this name to be absolutely independent of all besides Allah.
Qushayri رحمه الله said that if anyone is convinced that Allah is Al-Qayyum then he absolves himself loft h burden of planning and occupation and lives his life in comfort. So, he will neither be stingy nor esteem any worldly valuable.

CHARACTERISTICS: If anyone recites this name very often at the time of dawn then people will hold him to be dear. If anyone recite it very many times then his affairs will be settled well.

64 - AL-WAJID: 'The perceiver.' 'The Inventor.' He is the Independent , not in need of anyone. This name calls on a person to try to acquire a high degree of perfection in what is necessary to be able to do without all besides Allah.

CHARACTERISTICS: If this name is recited with every morsel of food then that will be light in his stomach. If he recites it in solitude then he will gain self-sufficiency.

65 - AL-MAJID: 'The Most Excellent.' 'The Noble.' This name demands of a person the same thing as the previous name (Al-Wajid).

CHARACTERISTICS: If anyone recites this name to such an extent in solitude that he faints then Divine radiance will be apparent on his heart. If anyone continues to recite it very often then he will seem glorious to the creatures.

66, 67 AL-WAHID, AL-AHAD: 'The One.' 'The Peerless.' These names call upon a person to become unique and singular in worship just as his God is Alone. He must adopt qualities that are matchless.

CHARACTERISTICS: If anyone feels uneasy in privacy and when alone, then he must recite this name one thousand and one time, Insha Allah (if Allah wills), his heart will be at peace. He will come near to Allah.

If anyone craves for a son, then he must write it down and keep it with him. Allah will bestow him, a son.

68 - AS-SAMAD: 'The Independent.' The Eternal Support (of creation).' He dependents on none but all depend on Him. This name calls on a person to turn to Allah alone for all his needs. He should not worry about his provision, but rely on Allah. He must abstain from the unlawful and not long for the world's adornments and even for its lawful things. He should try to help Allah's creatures.

CHARACTERISTICS: If anyone prostrates himself at the time of dawn or midnight and recites this name one hundred and fifteen times, Allah will make him truthful. He will not become a pray of an oppressor. One who recites this name very often will not go hungry. If anyone recites it while he has made ablution then he will become independent of the creatures.

69, 70 AL-QADIR, AL-MUQTADIR: 'The Capable or The Able.' 'The Prevailing. The Dominant.' He is Powerful and He demonstrates His Power. This name demands of a person that he should be able to prevent himself from lustful desires.

CHARACTERISTICS: If anyone makes ablution and at every limb which ablution covers he calls the name Al-Qadir then he will never be nabbed by an oppressor and no enemy will ever subdue him.
When faced with a difficult task, this name must be repeated forty-one times, the task will be accomplished easily, insha Allah (if Allah wills).
If anyone recites the name Al-Muqtadir regularly then negligence gives way to compliance. If anyone who arises from sleep recites it twenty times then all his work will be accomplished by Allah's leave.

71, 72 AL-MUQADDIM, AL-MUAKHKIR: 'The Expeditor.' 'The Promoter.' 'He who advances.' 'The Retarder.' 'He Who puts back.' He lets friends advance nearer to His court and puts back enemies from His mercy.
These two names call upon a person to keep ahead in doing piety and make himself better than others and keep those people dear who are near to Allah. And, he must put back the base self, the devils and those who have been rejected by Allah. He must abide by the rules and laws in all his affairs, like doing first what is most necessary and Allah has expedited it, and doing last of all that which is least necessary.

CHARACTERISTICS: If a warrior recites Al-Muqaddam or writes it down with him, then no one will be able to hurt him in battle. One who recites it very often will become obedient to Allah.
If anyone recites Al-Muakhkhar one hundred times then he will not find peace with other than Allah. He who recites it one hundred times every day will have all his tasks accomplished. He who recites it forty-one times will have an obedient soul.

73, 74 AL-AWWAL, AL-AAKHIR: 'The First.' 'The Last.' These names call upon a person to hasten to obey Allah's commands and to worship Him and to sac rife his life for Allah's sake.

CHARACTERISTICS: If anyone does not have a male child then he must recite this name Al-Awwal forty times every day for forty days. He will have his desire. Some authorities say that for a son, affluence or any other desire, he must recite this name one thousand times each night for forty Thursday nights (preceding Friday). Insha Allah (if Allah wills) he will get his desire.

If anyone lives his last days and has spent a sinful life then he must make the name Al-Aakhir his constant petition. Insha Allah (if Allah wills), he will have a pious ending.

75, 76 - AZ-ZAHIR, AL-BATIN: 'The Manifest.' 'The Hidden.' His creation is evidence of His perfect attributes. And He is concealed in His Being and ancientness.

CHARACTERISTICS: If anyone recites the name Az-Zahir five hundred times after the salah (prayer) of ishraq, Allah will make his eyes bright and radiant. If anyone fears a windstorm, rain or cyclone, he must recite this name very often. There will be peace and security. If it is inscribed on the walls of the house, they will be safe.
If anyone recites Ya Batin (یاباطن) thirty-three times every day, Allah will make him know the secrets. If he repeats it constantly, then whosoever sees him will become his friend.

77 - AL-WAALI: 'The Omnipotent.' 'He Who exercises authority over everything.' The demands of this name on a person are as of Al-Wakil.

CHARACTERISTICS: If anyone writes this name on an old earthen pitcher, fills it with water and strikes it at the wall of his house, then his house and walls will be safe from rain and other kinds of trouble and will be well inhabited.
This aim can also be achieved by reciting this name three hundred times.
If this name is recited eleven times to subjugate someone, that person will become his follower, obedient to him.

78 - AL-MUTA'ALI: 'The Most Exalted.' This name calls on a person to do what has been stated against Al-Aliyey.

CHARACTERISTICS: If anyone recites this name very often then he will overcome whatever difficulty he faces. A pregnant woman will not face the travails of childbirth if she recites this name during her pregnancy.

79 - AL-BARR: 'He treats kindly.' This name calls upon a person to give kind treatment to his parents, teachers, religious elders, relatives and all associated with him.

CHARACTERISTICS: This name should be recited during cyclones, windstorms, rainstorms, etc. If this name is recited seven hundred times and a child is placed under Allah's protection, it will remain safe from all trails till adulthood. If an alcoholic and an adulterer recite it seven times every day, Allah will turn them away from these sins.

80 - AT-TAWWAB: 'The oft-Returning.' 'The Relenting.' He accepts repentance. Tawabah (repentance) actually means 'to return.' When it is used for a creature, it means 'to return from sin, or turn away from it.' It is to be ashamed for having committed a sin and to return to Allah. When this word is used for Allah, it implies that He turns with mercy and enablement towards the creature. When a person commits a sin, Allah enables him to repent making him realize that he is liable to be punished. And, when he repents to Allah, Allah turns towards him with His mercy and forgives him. Hence, the fact is that Allah's tawabah (relenting) precedes the creature's Tawbah (repentance). Without Allah's relenting, the creature does not repent. Hence, it is said:

تَابَ عَلَيْهِمْ لِيَتُوْبُوا

{He relented towards them, so that they might repent} (9:118)

Hence, a person should always hope for Allah's mercy and be convinced that his repentance will be accepted. He must not be pessimistic. He must forgive others their lapses and accept apologies of others as many times as they make. Not only that, he must also reward them. He must himself repent to Allah and be ashamed of his sins. He must not delay repentance but submit to the command:

عَجِلُوا التُّوبَةَ قَبْلَ الْمُوتِ

(Hurry to make repentance before death.)
Here is a didactic account. There was a minister of a kingdom. His name was Eesa ibn Eesa. Once, he was going somewhere with a group of riders as normally happens. The people asked each other about him. An old woman was sitting on the path and she heard the people ask about him, so she remarked, "They ask, 'Who is he?' who can he be? He is a creature who is rejected by the Divine sight and is being tried in this condition (lost in worldly glory)." Eesa ibn Eesa heard her, returned post-haste to his dwelling, abandoned his minstership, repented to Allah, gave up all worldly ambitions and went to Makkah and settled there.

CHARACTERISTICS: If anyone recites this name three hundred and thirty times after the salah (prayer) of chaast, Allah will cause him to make a perfect repentance (where after all sins are forgiven). If anyone repeats this name much too often, then all his affairs are concluded in a very right manner and he will not be at peace without obedience and worship. Allah will forgive a person his sins if he prays after the salah (prayer) of chaast, insha Allah (if Allah wills):

اَللّٰهُمَّ اغْفِرْ لِيْ وَتُبْ عَلَيَّ إِنَّكَ اَنْتَ التَّوَّابُ الرَّحِيْمُ

81 - AL-MUNTAQIM: 'He Who takes retribution.' He punishes the disbelievers and the rebels. This name binds a person to avenge his main enemies, his base soul and the devil. The greatest of these enemies lis the nafs amarah (baser self) that should be punished by subjecting it to severe hardship. Bayazid Bustami رحمه الله was once diverted from his nightly routine of worship. He punished his soul by depriving it of water for one your.

CHARACTERISTICS: If anyone cannot cope with his enemy, then he must recite this name for three Fridays manning. His enemy will become his friend.
If this name is recited at midnight for some purpose then that will be achieved.

(81A) According to a version, another sahabi رضی الله عنه other than Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی الله عنه reported here a name of Allah, AL-MUN'IM: 'The Bestower.' 'The benefactor.' If anyone recites it constantly then he will never be dependent on any other person.

82 - AL-AFUW: 'He Who pardons.' 'The Mild.' This name calls on a person to observe the same things as he is required to do by Al-Ghafur.
Shaykh (Great religious Scholar) Abdul Haq رحمه الله writes in his sharh (explanatory book) on Asma ul Husna that Al-Afuw Who obliterates sins is very near in meaning to Al-Ghafur, yet Al-Afuw is more deeper and eloquent than Al-Ghafur, because ghufran means 'to conceal' so Al-Ghafur (or Al-Ghaffar) is to conceal sins. Al Afuw,. On the other hand, is to erase and means 'to forgive sins and obliterate them.'
So, a person may have sinned much, yet he is much hopeful of Allah's forgiveness because of His attribute Al-Afuw. This is why it is disallowed to disgrace any sinner because it is not unexpected that Allah may forgive him and erase his sins all at once, for observing the limits and commands of Shari'ah (Islamic law).

This name calls upon a person to ignore shortcomings of people and to forvie them. They should fall under the purview of

اَلْكَاظِمِيْنَ الْغَيْظَ وَالْعَافِيْنَ عَنِ النَّاسِ

{(who) restrain their anger and are forgiving towards mankind- And Allah loves the good-doers.} (3:134)

CHARACTERISTICS: If a person has committed many sins then he must make this name his continuous petition. Insha Allah (if Allah wills), all his sins will be forgiven.

83 - AR-RAUF: 'He Who is full of pity,' 'The Affectionate.' A person is required by this name to follow the same guidance as under Ar-Rahim.
It is said that the nighbour of a person was very evil. When he died, he did not offer his funeral salah (prayer). Later, someone else saw him in his dream and he disclosed to him that Allah had forgiven him but he should say to the man who did not offer his funeral salah (prayer):

لَوْ اَنْتُمْ تَمْلِكُوْنَ خَزَآئِنَ رَحْمَتِ رَبِّيْ اِذًا لَّاَمْسَكْتُمْ خَشْيَةَ الْاِنْفَاقِ

{If it were you who owned the treasures of the mercy of my Lord, you would certainly withhold them for fear of expending.} (17:100)

CHARACTERISTICS: If anyone intends to free an oppressed person from the grip of an oppressor then he should recite this name ten times. The cruel one will accede to his recommendation.
If anyone recites it constantly, then his heart will become mild. He will make friends and others will befriend him.

84- MAALIK UL-MULK: 'The Owner of Sovereignty.' 'The Eternal Soveign.' This name demands jof a person what is mentioned against Al-Malik.
Shah Wali رحمه الله said, "O man! Keep to one gate. Only Allah's gate, so that very many gates are opened for you. And, bow down your neck before only one King, meaning Allah, so tht very many necks are bowed before you." Allah says:

وَاِنْ مِّنْ شَيْءٍ اِلَّا عِنْدَنَا خَزَآئِنُهٗ

{There is not a thing but its treasures are with Us.} (15:21)

CHARACTERISTICS: He who recites this name constantly will be happy. His ambitions will conclude very well. The characteristics of the next name Dhul Jalali wa al-Ikram are the same.

85 - DHUL JALALI WA AL-IKRAM: 'The Lord of Majesty and Bounty.' He who recognizes Allah's Majest should humble himself before Him. He who recognizes His Bounty Should be graeful to Him. No one else beside Him may be obeyed or beseeched for one's needs. A person should try to attain greatness and be kind to Allah's creatures.

86 - AL-MUQSIT: 'The Just, The Equitable.' This name calls upon a person to do the same things as the name Al-Adl call on him.

CHARACTERISTICS: If anyone recites this name one hundred times, then he will be safe from the devil's temptations. If he recites it seven hundred times then he will get his desires fulfilled.

87 - AL-JAMI: 'The Gathers.' 'The Assembler.' He will assemble the people on the day of resurrection. This name calls on a person to embrace knowledge, deeds and perfections of soul and body. He should be lost in thought of Allah, and get peace of heart through dhikr (hallowing of Allah), and develop an awareness of the attributes of Allah and inculcate them.

CHARACTERISTICS: If anyone relatives are dispersed then he must have a bath at the time of chaast, raise his face towards the sky and recite this name ten times, withdrawing one finger inwards each time. Then he should wipe his hands on his face. Insha Allah (if Allah wills), in a short period of time they will all come together.

88 - AL-GHANI: 'The Self-Sufficient.'

CHARACTERISTICS: If anyone is greedy and insatiable then he must touch each of his limbs and recite Al-Ghani stroking the limb with his hand from up to down. Allah will deliver him of the evil. He who recites this name seventy times every day will have his wealth and property blessed and he will never become helpless.

89 - AL-MUGHNI: 'The Enricher.' These names call upon a person to be absolutely free of all creatures and mindless, and depend only on Allah for all his needs.

CHARACTERISTICS: If anyone recites this name one thousand times every Friday for ten consecutive Fridays then he will be independent of the creatures.

90 - AL-MANI: 'The Withholder.' He restrains His salves from loss and destruction of this world and religion. This name calls upon a person to withhold his self and nature from base desires and so make himself immune to destruction and loss of the religion and the world.

CHARACTERISTICS: If husband and wife disagree, then this name should be recited twenty times while approaching the bed. Allah will remove anger and disagreement.

(89A) In his Sherh (explanatory book) Asma ul-Husna, Shaykh (Great religious Scholar) Abdul Haq Muhaddith Dalawi رحمه الله has mentioned before the name Al-Mani, the name AL-MUTI, 'The Giver.' He has explained the two names: 'He gives what He wishes to whom He wishes and withholds, what He wishes from whom He wishes.'

لَا مَانِعَ لِمَا أَعْطَى وَلَا مُعْطِيَ لِمَا مَنَعَ

(There is no one to withhold what He gives and no one to give what He withholds.)
Thus, when a person knows that Allah alone gives and withholds, he must hope for His grant and fear His withholding.
This name demands of a person to grant to Allah's pious slaves and the deserving and not give to the sinners and cruel people. He must grant his heart and soul the light of presence and obedience and restrain his self and nature from desires and greed.
The tradition of Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی الله عنه does not mention Al-Mu'ti. So, withholding would imply rejection and destruction.
Shaykh (Great religious Scholar) Abdul Haq رحمه الله writes the characteristic of Al-Mu'ti that if anyone continues to pray (يَامُعْطِيَ السَّائِلِيْن) (O Bestower on the supplicants) very much then he will not depend on other for his needs.

91, 92 AL-DAARR, AN-NAAFI: 'He Who distresses.' 'The Benefactor.'

Qushayri رحمه الله said that these names point out that everything is in Allah's hands. He who submits to His decree will find a life of ease and comfort. He who does not submit will face difficulty and distress. Allah says:

مَنِ اسْتَسْلَمَ لِقَضَآئِیْ وَصَبَرَ عَلٰی بَلَآئِیْ وَشَکَرَ عَلٰی نِعَمَآئِیْ کَانَ عَبْدِیْ حَقًّا وَمَنْ لَّمْ یَسْتَسْلِمْ لِقَضَآئِیْ وَلَمْ

یَصْبِرْ عَلٰی بَلَآئِیْ وَلَمْ یَشْکُرْ عَلٰی نِعَمَآئِیْ فَلْیَطْلُبْ رَبًّا سِوَائِیْ

"He who accepts My decree and endures My trial and gives thanks for My bounties in My true slave. But, he who does not accept My decree, does not show patience in the face of My trial and does not thank Me for My blessings, let him find a Lord other than Me."

In his sharh (explanatory book) Asma ul Husna, Shaykh (Great religious Scholar) Abdul Haq رحمه الله has explained both these names Ad-Daarr and An-Naafi. Only Allah is the Master of good and bad, profit and loss. Only He is the Greator of cure of pain, grief and anxiety in summer and winter, during a dry and a moist spell. If should not be supposed that medicine heals by itself, poison kills, food satiates and water quenches thirst. Rather, all these things are to what we have been accustomed. Allah has made them a means. He can grow them without these means, and He may not let them grow in spite of these means. In the same way, all things of the higher world and the lower world are simply a means and causes following Allah's perfect Power. All these things relative to eternity are as pen is in the hands of one who writes. Hence, a person must know all losses and profits as Allah's decree. He must know that the world of causes (and means) is subject to His Power. He must be obedient to the command and decree of Allah and entrust all his affairs to Him so that he leads a life that is safe from the creatures and satisfied.

It is reported that Prophet Musa عليه السلام complained to Allah of severe toothache once. He was instructed to apply a certain grass on his teeth. He complied and was relieved of the pain. After a period of time, he had toothache once again, so he used the same grass but this time the pain increased instead of vanishing. He pleased, "O Lord, this is the same grass that you had prescribed but this time the pain has aggravated." He was reminded, "Last time you had turned to Me. This time you turned to the grass while I am the One Who cures."

These names demand of a person to obey the commands of Allah and the instructions of Shari'ah (Islamic law) to tackle the enemies of Islam. He must help the creatures of Allah.

CHARACTERISTICS: If anyone repeats the name Ad-Daar one hundred times on the nights preceding Friday, Allah will give him peace at the station desired by him. He will attain the degree of nearness. If anyone travels by boat or ship and recites the name An Nafi forty one times every day, Insha Allah (if Allah wills) he will never suffer harm.

If he recites it forty one times while beginning his tasks then all his tasks will be concluded according to his desire.

93 - AN-NUR: 'The Light.' He brightens the heavens with the stars, the earth with the Prophets and the ulama (Scholars) and the hearts of the Muslims with light of awareness and obedience. A person is required by this name to make himself radiant with faith and awareness.

CHARACTERISTICS: If anyone recites on Friday morning surah an-Nur seven times and this name one thousand and one times then Allah will cause his heart to be radiant.

If anyone repeats this name every morning, his heart will be radiant.

94 - AL-HADI: 'The Guide.' This name calls on a person to guide Allah's creatures to the right path Shaykh (Great religious Scholar) Abdul Haq رحمه الله has explained it in Sharh (explanatory book) Asma ul Husna. 'It means to show the path and take to the destination and the objective. Hence, Allah is the Guide of all who go on the paths. He is the Guide if anyone is on a worldly path and also when he walks the path of the hereafter.'
In short, Allah guides in a number of ways and there is no limit to His kinds of guidance.

اَلَّذِیۡٓ اَعۡطٰی کُلَّ شَیۡءٍ خَلۡقَہٗ ثُمَّ ہَدٰی

{Who gave everything its creation, then guided (it)}(20:50)

He is the One Who guides the new-born to suckle its mother. However, the best and the most glorious guidance is the one that leads to Allah and to the great blessing of His sight, and to create in the inside of the chosen ones the light of Divine enablement search of the mysteries that is a means of guidance to awareness and obedience.
The most fortunate of all the creatures with a share of this name Al-Hadi are the Prophets علیهم السلام, the awaliya (Allah's friends) رحمهم الله and the ulama (Scholars) رحمهم الله. They guide Allah's creatures to the straight path. The chief of the Prophets, the seal of the Messengers صلی الله علیه وسلم is the true reflection of this name. He is the greatest and the highest ranked guide in this universe.

اِہۡدِنَا الصِّرَاطَ الۡمُسۡتَقِیۡمَ صِرَاطَ الَّذِیۡنَ اَنۡعَمۡتَ عَلَیۡہِمۡ غَیۡرِ الۡمَغۡضُوۡبِ عَلَیۡہِمۡ وَلَا الضَّآلِّیۡنَ

Dhun Nun Misri رحمه الله said that three things count among the high qualities of the saintly people.

i. To bring the depressed and grieved to broadness of heart and happiness.
ii. To remind the neglectful of Allah's blessings.
iii. To guide the Muslims with the pronouncement of monotheism to the true path which is to divert their hearts from the world to religion and from the thought of livelihood to the hereafter.

CHARACTERISTICS: Allah will raise to the degree of the possessor of awareness one who puts his hands up, looks towards the sky and recites the name Al-Hadi very of ten and wipes his hands on his eyes and face.

95 - AL-BADI: 'The Originator.' 'The Deviser.'
He who makes the sunnah(Practice of Holy Prophet Muhammad صلی الله علیه وسلم) his amir (decider)over his speech and deeds has a mind, thought and tongue moulded in wisdom and Shari'ah (Islamic law). But, he who makes desires his amir (decider) over his speech and deeds practices bid'ah or innovation.
Qurayshi said that our path is based on three principles:

(i) To follow the noble Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم in manners and deeds, and in food and drink that should be lawful.
(ii) To speak the truth always.
(iii) To form a sincere intention for all deeds.

He also said that if anyone has a soft corner for an innovator then Allah removes the sweetness of sunnah(Practice of Holy Prophet Muhammad صلی الله علیه وسلم) from his deeds. If anyone respects an innovator then Allah removes the light of faith from his heart.

CHARACTERISTICS: If anyone becomes grieved or faces a difficult task then he must recite

يَا بَدِيْعَ السَّمٰوَاتِ وَالْاَرْضِ

Seventy thousand times, or one thousand times. Insha Allah (if Allah wills), he will be relieved of his grief and his task will be accomplished.
If anyone makes ablution, faces the qiblah and recites it till he goes to sleep then he will dream of what he wishes to see.

96 - AL-BAQI: 'The Eternal.' 'The Everlasting.'

CHARACTERISTICS: If anyone recites this name one hundred times on Thursday night regularly, then all his deeds will be accepted and he will not be afflicted with sorrow or grief.

97 - AL-WARITH: 'The Supporter,' 'He Who remains after all that exists will perish and Master of all creation.'
Warith means that when all who exist will perish, all the remaining properties whose owners have died will revert to Him. This meaning is in the context of the literal implication of wraith, otherwise the fact is that only Allah is the absolute Owner of everything in the universe, from infinity to eternity, without any change. All things are His without partnership of anyone and He alone is the Rear Owner and Master of all things. Those with insight always hear (with their conscious ears)

لِمَنِ الْمُلْكُ الْيَوْمَ لِلّٰهِ الْوَاحِدِ الْقَهَّارِ

Hence, a person should not worry about his property and inheritance. Rather, he must be convinced that he has to leave behind everything and go away form the world. This is why it is said:

مُوْتُوْا قَبْلَ اَنْ تَمُوْتُوْا

(die before you die)

This name calls upon a person to use his life to perform deeds that are among the ever remaining righteous deeds, like learning and teaching, perpetual charity, and soon. He must acquire as much as possible of religious knowledge. He will then become an heir to the Prophetsعليهم السلام in the real sense.

CHARACTERISTICS: If anyone recites this name at the time of sunrise one hundred times then he will not go through grief or sorrow.
He who recites it very often will have all his tasks done well for him.

98 - AR-RASHID: 'The Guide to the right path.' Some people say that He guides His creature's soul to obey and worship Him. He guides his heart to His forgiveness and his spirit to His love. The sign that Allah guides anyone is that He inspires him to rely on, and entrust all his affairs to, Him.
It is reported of Ibrahim ibn Adhamرحمه الله that one day he was hungry. So, he gave something that he possessed to a man with instruction to pledge it and get him some food. But, as he came out, he encountered a man with a donkey asking about Ibrahim ibn Adhamرحمه الله. He said , "Forty thousand dinars are loaded on this beast. They are his inheritance from his father's legacy. I am his slave and have brought this property to him." Then he met Ibrahim رحمه الله and handed over the forty thousand dinars to him. Ibrahim رحمه

ﷻ said, "If you speak the truth then I set you free it you really are My slave and this wealth belongs to me. I also present to you these forty thousand dinars. Now, go away from me." When the man departed, Ibrahimرحمه الله said, "My Lord, I had prayed to You only for bread but You granted me these many dinars. I swear by You, if You let me die of hunger now, I shall not ask You for anything."

CHARACTERISTICS: If a person is undecided about something then after the salah (prayer) of isha but before he goes to sleep, he must recite this name one thousand times. He will be informed of the correct course of action.

If anyone recites this name constantly then all his affairs will conclude without effort from him whatsoever.

99 - AS-SABUR: 'The Most Fore bearing.' He is not hasty in punishing the sinners.

The word sabr means patience and sabur is 'not to hurry in seizing a sinner and in punishing him.' Sabur is nearer in meaning to halim (clemency) but they are differenct in that sabur involves forebearance at the moment but ultimately there is a seizing and punishment while halim is absolute forebearance.

Some people say that As-Sabur is He Who inspires a person with patience in his time of difficulty. He is Allah alone who gives patience in different ways like when opposing evil temptations, engaging in strenuous worship, etc. Hence, a person should always ask Allah for patience in difficulty, grief, etc. He must keep away from disobeying Him.

This name calls on a person not to make haste in doing anything. Rather, he must do it calmly and in a composed, dignified manner. He must seek Allah's protection in every grief.

رَبَّنَآ أَفْرِغْ عَلَيْنَا صَبْرًا وَّثَبِّتْ أَقْدَامَنَا وَانْصُرْنَا عَلَى الْقَوْمِ الْكَافِرِيْنَ (2:250)

يَآ أَيُّهَا الَّذِيْنَ اٰمَنُوا اصْبِرُوْا وَصَابِرُوْا وَرَابِطُوْا وَاتَّقُوا اللّٰهَ لَعَلَّكُمْ تُفْلِحُوْنَ (3:200)

A very deep meaning saying it attributed to a Shaykh (Great religious Scholar), "Sip the wine of patience. If you are killed, you are shahid (martyr). If you are spared, you are sa'eed (fortunate)."

CHARACTERISTICS: If anyone is grieved or burdened with hardship, he must recite this name thirty-three times. He will have internal satisfaction.

To quieten enemies, please the rulers and gain acceptance of the people, this name should be recited at midnight or at noon regularly. This is very effective.

This completes the exegesis of the hadith (tradition) of Abu Hurayrah رضى الله عنه in the Miahkat about the ninety-nine names of Alla. Mulla Ali Qari رحمه الله says that there are more names besides these in the Quran and the ahadith (tradition). Those in the Quran are:

Ar-Rab, Al-Akram, Al-A'la, Al-Hafiz, Al-Khaliq, As-Satir, As-Sattar, Ash-Shakir, Al-Aadil, Al-Allam, Al-Ghalib, An-Nazir, Al-Faliq, Al-Qadir, Al-Qarib, Al-Qahir, Al-Kafil, Al-Kafi, Al-Munir, Al-Muhit, Al-Maalik, Al-Mawla, An-Nasir, Ahkam ul Hakimin, Arhamour-Rahimin, Ahsan ul Khaliqin, Dhul Fadl, Dhul-Tawl, Dhul Quwah, Dhul Ma'rij, Dhul Arsh, Rafi ud Darajat, Qabil ut-Tawwab, Al-Fa'alul lima yureed, Makhrajul hayya min al-Mayyit.

These names are from the ahadith (tradition): Al-Hannan, Al-Mannan, Al-Mugith.

Moreover, the heavenly Books, like the torah, give more names of Allah.

THE GREAT NAME

(٢٢٨٩) وَعَنْ بُرَيْدَةَ اَنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ سَمِعَ رَجُلًا يَقُوْلُ اَللّٰهُمَّ اِنِّىْ اَسْئَلُ بِاَنَّكَ اَنْتَ اللّٰهُ لَا اِلٰهَ اِلَّا اَنْتَ الْاَحَدُ الصَّمَدُ الَّذِىْ لَمْ يَلِدْ وَلَمْ يُوْلَدْ وَلَمْ يَكُنْ لَّهٗ كُفُوًا اَحَدٌ۔ فَقَالَ دَعَا اللّٰهَ بِاسْمِهِ الْاَعْظَمِ الَّذِىْ اِذَا سُئِلَ بِهٖ اَعْطٰى وَاِذَا دُعِىَ بِهٖ اَجَابَ (رواه الترمذى وابوداؤد)

2289. Sayyiduna Buraydah رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم heard a man pray:

اَللّٰهُمَّ اِنِّىْ اَسْئَلُ بِاَنَّكَ اَنْتَ اللّٰهُ لَا اِلٰهَ اِلَّا اَنْتَ الْاَحَدُ الصَّمَدُ الَّذِىْ لَمْ يَلِدْ وَلَمْ يُوْلَدْ وَلَمْ يَكُنْ لَّهٗ كُفُوًا اَحَدٌ

(O Allah, I ask You by virtue of Your, indeed Your, being Allah. There is no God besides You Who are the One, the Independent, who begets not nore was begotten, and there is none co-equal with Him.)

He (Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم) said, "He has prayed to Allah with His greatest name, by which, when He asked, He gives and, when supplicated, He answers."[1]

COMMENTARY: The more correct thing is that the ism a'zam or the greatest name is concealed among Allah's names. No one knows it specifically. It is like the laylatulqadr (a specific valuable night). Most of the ulama (Scholars) say, however that the ism a'zam is the name 'Allah'. Sayyiduna Sayid Abdul Qadir Jilani رحمه الله said that this is so on condition that when the tongue utters 'Allah,' the heart should concur and have the concept of no one else besides Him. This name will have the effect of the greatest name only it there is nothing else in the heart besides Allah when He is called.

There are many opinions of the ulama (Scholars) about the ism a'zam. At the conclusion of this chapter, we shall enumerate the names which the ulama (Scholars) have called Ism a'zam according to their studies.

'Being asked' (سئل) and 'supplicated' (دعی) have been distinguished by the scholars. The former is 'to want' (اللهم اعطنی) (O Allah, give me) and He gives in response. The latter (supplication) is to call, like, "O Allah" and He accepts the call, as He says on someone's call (لبيك عبدى) (Here am I, My salve).

(٢٢٩٠) وَعَنْ اَنَسٍ قَالَ كُنْتُ جَالِسًا مَعَ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فِى الْمَسْجِدِ وَرَجُلٌ يُصَلِّىْ فَقَالَ اَللّٰهُمَّ اِنِّىْ اَسْأَلُكَ بِاَنَّ لَكَ الْحَمْدَ لَا اِلٰهَ اِلَّا اَنْتَ الْحَنَّانُ الْمَنَّانُ بَدِيْعُ السَّمٰوَاتِ وَالْاَرْضِ يَا ذَا الْجَلَالِ وَالْاِكْرَامِ يَاحَيُّ يَاقَيُّوْمُ اَسْأَلُكَ فَقَالَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ دَعَا اللّٰهَ بِاسْمِهِ الْاَعْظَمِ الَّذِىْ اِذَا دُعِىَ بِهٖ اَجَابَ وَاِذَا سُئِلَ بِهٖ اَعْطٰى۔ (رواه الترمذى وابوداؤد والنسائى وابن ماجة)

2290. Sayyiduna Anas رضی الله عنه narrated that while he was sitting with the Prophet Muhammad صلی الله علیه وسلم in the mosque a man offered the salah (prayer) and prayed (after that)

اَللّٰهُمَّ اِنِّىْ اَسْأَلُكَ بِاَنَّ لَكَ الْحَمْدَ لَا اِلٰهَ اِلَّا اَنْتَ الْحَنَّانُ الْمَنَّانُ بَدِيْعُ السَّمٰوَاتِ وَالْاَرْضِ يَا

---

[1] Tirimidhi # 3486, Abu Dawud # 1493, Ibn Majah # 3857, Musand Ahmad # 23103

ذَالْجَلَالِ وَالْاِكْرَامِ يَاحَيُّ يَاقَيُّوْمُ

{O Allah, I ask You-and, indeed, praise belongs to You. There is no God besides You, Al-Hannan (Who bestows favour). Al-Mannan (The Beneficent), The Originator of the heavens and the earth. O Lord of Majesty and Bounty, O The Ever-Living, O The self-Subsisting, I ask you.}
The Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم said thereafter, "He has supplicated Allah by virtue of His greatest name by which when supplicated He answers, and when asked He gives."[1]

(٢٢٩١) وَعَنْ اَسْمَاءِ بِنْتِ يَزِيْدَ اَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ اِسْمُ اللّٰهِ الْاَعْظَمُ فِيْ هَاتَيْنِ الْاٰيَتَيْنِ وَاِلٰهُكُمْ اِلٰهٌ وَّاحِدٌ لَا اِلٰهَ اِلَّا هُوَ الرَّحْمٰنُ الرَّحِيْمُ وَفَاتِحَةُ اٰلِ عِمْرَانَ الٓمّٓ اللّٰهُ لَا اِلٰهَ اِلَّا هُوَ الْحَيُّ الْقَيُّوْمُ۔

(رواه الترمذی وابوداؤد وابن ماجة والدارمی)

2291. Sayyidah Asma bint Yazid رضی الله عنه narrated that the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "The greatest name of Allah is found in these two verses:

وَاِلٰهُكُمْ اِلٰهٌ وَّاحِدٌ لَا اِلٰهَ اِلَّا هُوَ الرَّحْمٰنُ الرَّحِيْمُ

{And your God is One God. There is no God but He, the Compassionate, the Merciful} (2:163)
And the opening of Aal Imran

الٓمّٓ اللّٰهُ لَا اِلٰهَ اِلَّا هُوَ الْحَيُّ الْقَيُّوْمُ

{Alif Laam Meem, Allah! There is no God but He, the Ever-Living, the self-subsisting.}(3:1)[2]

PRAYER OF PROPHET YOUNUS عليه السلام

(٢٢٩٢) وَعَنْ سَعْدٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ دَعْوَةُ ذِى النُّوْنِ اِذَا دَعَا رَبَّهٗ وَهُوَ فِيْ بَطْنِ الْحُوْتِ لَا اِلٰهَ اِلَّا اَنْتَ سُبْحَانَكَ اِنِّيْ كُنْتُ مِنَ الظَّالِمِيْنَ لَمْ يَدْعُ بِهَا رَجُلٌ مُسْلِمٌ فِيْ شَيْءٍ اِلَّا اسْتَجَابَ لَهٗ

(رواه احمد و الترمذی)

2292. Sayyiduna Sa'd رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "The supplication of Dhu an-Nun(Younus) عليه السلام while he was in the belly of the fish:

لَا اِلٰهَ اِلَّا اَنْتَ سُبْحَانَكَ اِنِّيْ كُنْتُ مِنَ الظَّالِمِيْنَ

{There is no God but You. You are without blemish. I am one of the wrong-doers,} Is such that if a Muslim uses it (to supplicate Allah), surely he will get an answer."[3]

COMMENTARY: Allah had sent Sayyiduna Younus عليه السلامto Ninewah to guide its people. They rejected his preaching and refused to believe. So, Allah revealed to him that he

---

[1] Abu Dawud # 1495, Nasai # 1300, Ibn Majah # 3858, Musand Ahmad # 3-120 Tirmidhi.
[2] Tirmidhi # 3489, Abu Dawud # 1496, Ibn Majah # 3855
[3] Tirmidhi # 3516, Musand Ahmad # 1-170

should warn the citizens of Ninewah that, after a three day respite, they would be punished. He conveyed to them the warning and himself departed from the city. At the appointed time, a dark cloud could be seen approaching the city. Gradually, it came over the city and stopped moving. Something like smoke came out of it. When they observed the impending punishment, the people took their women, children and animals to the wilderness. There, they separated children from their mothers and young of the animals from their mothers, and began to cry loudly. They raised their voices and cried bitterly, repenting from disbelief and sin and expressing their faith. They called out

لَا حَيُّ حِيْنَ لَا اِلٰهَ اِلَّا اَنْتَ

(O The Living ever since there was no living being. There is no God but You.)

So, Allah put off the punishment that has threatened them.

After some time, Prophet Younus عليه السلام came towards the city to see what had happened. He saw that everything was safe and the people were alive, going around their chores. He felt very ashamed that he was proved wrong and had lied, 'jut he did not know that the punishment had been upon them and was removed. He did not think it wise to go to the city, so he turned back to the river and boarded a ship to go to the other side of the river. However, the ship seemed not to budge, try as they may. The members of the crew said, "It looks as though a runaway slave is among us who has fled from his master. They drew lots among the passengers. The name of Prophet Yunus عليه السلام was drawn and he conceded, "Indeed, I am that runaway slave." So saying, he leaped into the river and a fish swallowed him on Allah's command Allah Commanded the fish to keep him well preserved in its belly. The fish swam with him across the Nile, the Euphrates and the Tigris. He continued to pray to Allah.

لَا اِلٰهَ اِلَّا اَنْتَ سُبْحَانَكَ اِنِّيْ كُنْتُ مِنَ الظّٰلِمِيْنَ

(O Allah, You are the Worshipped, the Ruler and the Absolute. You are without blemish. I have wronged myself by departing from my people without your permission.)

Hence, Allah answered his prayer and commanded the fish to cast him out at the banks of Nasibayn, a city of Shaam.

SECTION III اَلْفَصْلُ الثَّالِثُ

RESEARCH ON THE GREATEST NAME

(٢٢٩٣) عَنْ بُرَيْدَةَ قَالَ دَخَلْتُ مَعَ رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ الْمَسْجِدَ عِشَاءً وَاِذَا رَجُلٌ يَقْرَأُ وَيَرْفَعُ صَوْتَهُ فَقُلْتُ يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ اَتَقُوْلُ هٰذَا مُرَاءٍ قَالَ بَلْ مُؤْمِنٌ مُنِيْبٌ قَالَ وَاَبُوْ مُوْسَى الْاَشْعَرِيُّ يَقْرَأُ وَيَرْفَعُ صَوْتَهُ فَجَعَلَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَتَسَمَّعُ لِقِرَاءَتِهٖ ثُمَّ جَلَسَ اَبُوْمُوْسٰى يَدْعُوْ فَقَالَ اَللّٰهُمَّ اِنِّيْ اُشْهِدُكَ اَنَّكَ اَنْتَ اللّٰهُ لَا اِلٰهَ اِلَّا اَنْتَ اَحَدًا صَمَدًا لَمْ يَلِدْ وَلَمْ يُوْلَدْ وَلَمْ يَكُنْ لَّهٗ كُفُوًا اَحَدٌ فَقَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَقَدْ سَاَلَ اللّٰهَ بِاسْمِهِ الَّذِىْ اِذَا سُئِلَ بِهٖ اَعْطٰى وَاِذَا دُعِيَ بِهٖ اَجَابَ قُلْتُ يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ اُخْبِرُهٗ بِمَا سَمِعْتُ مِنْكَ قَالَ نَعَمْ فَاَخْبَرْتُهٗ بِقَوْلِ رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَقَالَ لِيْ اَنْتَ اَلْيَوْمَ

لِيْ اَخٌ صِدِيْقٌ حَدَّثْتَنِيْ بِحَدِيْثِ رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ (رواه رزين)

2293. Sayyiduna Buraydah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that he entered the mosque with Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم for the salah (prayer) of isha. Behold! A man was reciting the Quran (in salah (prayer)), his voice raised. He said, "O Messenger of Allah, will you say that this man is a hypocrite?" He said, "Rather, a believer who repents (his voice raised unintentionally)." Abu Musa Al-Ash'ary(Who was the reciter in a loud voice) recited and his voice was raised. Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم began to listen to his recitation. Then Abu Musa رضی اللہ عنہ sat down to pray, saying:

اَللّٰهُمَّ اِنِّيْ اُشْهِدُكَ اَنَّكَ اَنْتَ اللّٰهُ لَا اِلٰهَ اِلَّا اَنْتَ اَحَدًا صَمَدًا لَمْ يَلِدْ وَلَمْ يُوْلَدْ وَلَمْ يَكُنْ لَّهٗ كُفُوًا اَحَدٌ فَقَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَقَدْ سَأَلَ اللّٰهَ بِاسْمِهِ الَّذِيْ اِذَا سُئِلَ بِهٖ اَعْطٰى وَاِذَا دُعِيَ بِهٖ اَجَابَ قُلْتُ يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ اُخْبِرُهٗ بِمَا سَمِعْتُ مِنْكَ قَالَ نَعَمْ فَاَخْبَرْتُهٗ بِقَوْلِ رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَقَالَ لِيْ اَنْتَ الْيَوْمَ لِيْ اَخٌ صِدِيْقٌ حَدَّثْتَنِيْ بِحَدِيْثِ رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ

(O Allah, I call You to witness that You, surely You, are Allah. There is no God but You, Alone, Independent, who begets not nor was begotten and there is none co-equal with Him.) On that, Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "Indeed, he has asked Allah with His name by which if asked, He grants and if supplicated, He answers." Buraydah رضی اللہ عنہ asked, "O Messenger of Allah, may I inform him what I heard from You?" He said, "Yes." So, he informed him what Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم had said. And, he said to him, "As of today, you are my true brother because you narrated to me a hadith (tradition) of Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم."[1]

COMMENTARY: We did say earlier that there are many opinions about the isma'zam (the greatest name) of Allah.

Some ulama (Scholars) have said that the name 'Allah' itself is the greatest name.

Some say that (بسم اللہ الرحمن الرحیم) is the greatest name.

And so other say: (ھو) (huwa, He), (لا الہ الا اللہ) - the kalimah tawhid, (الحی القیوم al-Hayyul Qayyum) - (مالک الملک Maalikul Mulk) (la ilaha illAllah)

Some have said:

اَللّٰهُ الَّذِيْ لَا اِلٰهَ اِلَّا هُوَ رَبُّ الْعَرْشِ الْعَظِيْمِ

Imam Zayn ul-Aabidin رضی اللہ عنہ is said to have prayed to Allah to disclose to him the greatest name. He was told in a dream that it is (لا الہ الا اللہ)

Some ulama (Scholars) say that it is concealed in the asma ul-husna.

Some others say that it is (اللھم) (O Allah).

Some of the predecessors said that if anyone said (اللھم) then he has prayed to Allah by all His names. Hasan Busri رحمہ اللہ said something of this sort.

Some authorities say that (الم) (Alif Laam Meem) is the greatest name of Allah. Others like Imam (leader) Ja'far Sadiq رضی اللہ عنہ said that if a person remembers Allah with any of His beautiful names in such a way that he is lost with it and he has no thought inwardly of any thing whatsoever but this name, then that name itself is the greatest name. Any prayer made by virtue of it will be answered.

[1] Razin

When Abu Sulayman Durrani رحمه الله asked a shaykh (Great religious Scholar) about it, he put to him a counter question, "Do you know your heart?" He answered in the affirmative and the shaykh (Great religious Scholar) advised, "When you observe that your heart is turned towards Allah and your eed. That is the greatest name."

Some one asked Abu Ar-Rabi رحمه الله about the ism a'zam. He said write down: (اطع الله يعطك) (Obey Allah, He will grant you your prayer). He meant to say that obedience to Allah is in itself the ism a'zam, because that makes Allah kind and He accepts.

He also reported a sufi's saying (بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم) is like the saying (كن) 'Be.' Just as Allah said' Be' and creates everything He wishes, so a creature has the basmalah. When he begins anything with it (بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم), that thing is accomplished by its blessings.

Some scholars say that the supplication encompasses all opinions. Every name that the religious authorities have named as the ism a'zam (greatest name) is found in this supplication:

اَللّٰهُمَّ اِنِّيْ اَسْئَالُكَ بِاَنَّ لَكَ الْحَمْدَ لَا اِلٰهَ اِلَّا اَنْتَ يَا حَنَّانُ يَا مَنَّانُ يَا بَدِيْعَ السَّمٰوٰتِ وَالْاَرْضِ يَا ذَا الْجَلَالِ وَالْاِكْرَامِ يَا خَيْرَ الْوَارِثِيْنَ يَا اَرْحَمَ الرَّاحِمِيْنَ يَا سَمِيْعَ الدُّعَاءِ يَا اَللّٰهُ يَا اَللّٰهُ يَا عَالِمُ يَا سَمِيْعُ يَا عَلِيْمُ يَا حَلِيْمُ يَا مَالِكَ الْمُلْكِ يَا مَالِكُ يَا سَلَامُ يَا حَقُّ يَا قَدِيْمُ يَا قَائِمُ يَا غَنِيُّ يَا مُحِيْطُ يَا حَكِيْمُ يَا عَلِيُّ يَا قَاهِرُ يَا رَحْمٰنُ يَا رَحِيْمُ يَا سَرِيْعُ يَا كَرِيْمُ يَا مَخْفِي يَا مُعْطِي يَا مَانِعُ يَا مُحِيي يَا مُقْسِطُ يَا حَيُّ يَا قَيُّوْمُ يَا اَحْمَدُ يَا حَمْدُ يَا رَبِّ يَا رَبِّ يَا رَبِّ يَا رَبِّ يَا وَهَّابُ يَا غَفَّارُ يَا قَرِيْبُ يَا لَا اِلٰهَ اِلَّا اَنْتَ سُبْحَانَكَ اِنِّيْ كُنْتُ مِنَ الظّٰلِمِيْنَ اَنْتَ حَسْبِي وَنِعْمَ الْوَكِيْلُ

Each of the names mentioned in the foregoing supplication, is ism a'zam.

CHAPTER - II

REWARD FOR TASBIH, TAHIMID, TAHLIL AND TAKBIR

بَابُ ثَوَابِ التَّسْبِيْحِ وَالتَّحْمِيْدِ وَالتَّهْلِيْلِ وَالتَّكْبِيْرِ

Tasbih is to say SubhanAllah)(Allah is without blemish). Tahmid is to say al Hamulilillah (Praise belongs to Allah). Tahlil is to say (لا اله الا الله) (there is no God but Allah). Takbir is to say Allahu Akbar (Allah is the Greatest).

SECTION I — اَلْفَصْلُ الْاَوَّلُ

THE BEST SPEECH

(٢٢٩٤) عَنْ سَمُرَةَ بْنِ جُنْدُبٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَفْضَلُ الْكَلَامِ اَرْبَعٌ سُبْحَانَ اللّٰهِ وَالْحَمْدُ لِلّٰهِ وَلَا اِلٰهَ اِلَّا اللّٰهُ وَاللّٰهُ اَكْبَرُ وَفِيْ رِوَايَةٍ اَحَبُّ الْكَلَامِ اِلَى اللّٰهِ اَرْبَعٌ سُبْحَانَ اللّٰهِ وَالْحَمْدُ لِلّٰهِ وَلَا اِلٰهَ اِلَّا اللّٰهُ وَاللّٰهُ اَكْبَرُ لَا يَضُرُّكَ بِاَيِّهِنَّ بَدَأْتَ (رواه مسلم)

2294. Sayyiduna Samurah ibn Jundub رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "The best expressions (of men) are four: SubhanAllah (Allah is without blemish), Al-hamdulillah (Praise belongs to Allah), Lailaha illAllah (There is no God but Allah), and Allahu Akbar (Allah is the Greatest)." According to a version: "The speech dearest to Allah are four: Subhan Allah, Al-hamdulillah, La ilaha illAllah and Allahu Akbar."[1]

COMMENTARY: After Allah's words, the speech of men, there are to best words. We have qualified them as men's speech because the fourth expression Allahu Akbar is not found in the Qur'an. Clearly, that which is not mentioned in the Quran cannot be better than what is in the Qur'an. However, another hadith (tradition) has the words:

اَفْضَلُ الْكَلَامِ بَعْدَ الْقُرْاٰنِ وَهِيَ مِنَ الْقُرْاٰنِ meaning that (these expressions) are the best expressions after the collective Qur'an and these too are part of the Quran.

This means that 'speech' or 'expression' means human speech as well as Allah's words so that these four expressions are the best of Allah's words. In this case, the first three are exactly as they are in the Qur'an while though the fourth is not in it in the same words, the meaning is conveyed definitely in these words

وَكَبِّرْهُ تَكْبِيْرًا

{And extol Him with (all) greatness} (17:111)

It should be borne in mind too that while these four expressions are best, yet in the times of conditions when dhikr (hallowing of Allah) is recommended by ahadith (tradition). It is better to engage in dhikr (hallowing of Allah) than to make Tasbih, etc at such times and in such condition.
The concluding words of the next version state that it is not necessary to observe to sequence mentioned (in the hadith (tradition)). Any of the expressions subhan Allah, al-Hamdulillah, la ilaha illAllah or Allahu Akbar may be spoken first. There is no harm in that. However, Teebi رحمہ اللہ said that it is preferable to observe the sequence and permissible to alter the sequence.

THE MERIT OF THOSE THINGS

(٢٢٩٥) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَاَنْ اَقُوْلَ سُبْحَانَ اللّٰهِ وَالْحَمْدُ لِلّٰهِ وَلَا اِلٰهَ اِلَّا اللّٰهُ وَاللّٰهُ اَكْبَرُ اَحَبُّ اِلَيَّ مِمَّا طَلَعَتْ عَلَيْهِ الشَّمْسُ (رواه مسلم)

2295. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "That I should say subhan Allah, al-Hamdulillah, la ilaha illAllah and Allahu Akbar is dearer to me than that on which t he sun rises."[2]

(٢٢٩٦) وَعَنْهُ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ قَالَ سُبْحَانَ اللّٰهِ وَبِحَمْدِهٖ فِيْ يَوْمٍ مِائَةَ مَرَّةٍ حُطَّتْ خَطَايَا وَاِنْ كَانَتْ مِثْلَ زَبَدِ الْبَحْرِ (متفق عليه)

---

[1] First version: Bukhari (Book 83, Chapter 19 heading), Ibn Majah # 3811, Musand Ahmad # 5-10, Second version: Muslim # 12-2137

[2] Bukhari # 6405, Muslim # 28-2691, Musand Ahmad # 2-375.

2296. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم said, "If anyone says

سُبْحَانَ اللّٰهِ وَبِحَمْدِهٖ

(Allah is Glorified with His praise)

One hundred times a day, then his sins are obliterated even if they are like the foam of the sea."[1]

COMMENTARY: Tubi رحمه الله said this one hundred recitation could be in one sitting or several during the day. The better thing is in one sitting.

(۲۲۹۷) وَعَنْهُ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ قَالَ حِيْنَ يُصْبِحُ وَحِيْنَ يُمْسِي سُبْحَانَ اللّٰهِ وَبِحَمْدِهٖ مِائَةَ مَرَّةٍ لَمْ يَأْتِ اَحَدٌ يَوْمَ الْقِيَامَةِ بِاَفْضَلَ مِمَّا جَاءَ بِهٖ اِلَّا اَحَدٌ قَالَ مِثْلَ مَا قَالَ اَوْ زَادَ عَلَيْهِ (متفق عليه)

2297. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم said, "If any one says in the morning and in the evening one hundred time each:

سُبْحَانَ اللّٰهِ وَبِحَمْدِهٖ

Then no one will bring, on the day of resurrection, anything better than he unless he says as he says, or says more than it."[2]

COMMENTARY: If another brings as many deeds as the first person by reciting t he words one hundred times and more than that, he will bring more deeds.
One explanation is that 'or' stands for 'and' in the hadith (tradition).

(۲۲۹۸) وَعَنْهُ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ كَلِمَتَانِ خَفِيْفَتَانِ عَلَى اللِّسَانِ ثَقِيْلَتَانِ فِي الْمِيْزَانِ حَبِيْبَتَانِ اِلَى الرَّحْمٰنِ سُبْحَانَ اللّٰهِ وَبِحَمْدِهٖ سُبْحَانَ اللّٰهِ الْعَظِيْمِ (متفق عليه)

2298. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی الله عنه narrated Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم said, "Two expressions are light on the tongue but heavy in the scale (because of the reward they fetch) and are dear to Ar-Rahman (the most Merciful, the compassionate).

سُبْحَانَ اللّٰهِ وَبِحَمْدِهٖ سُبْحَانَ اللّٰهِ الْعَظِيْمِ

{Allah is glorified and with His praise. Allah is Glorified, Mighty.}[3]

(۲۲۹۹) وَعَنْ سَعْدِ بْنِ اَبِيْ وَقَّاصٍ قَالَ كُنَّا عِنْدَ رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَقَالَ اَيَعْجِزُ اَحَدُكُمْ اَنْ يَكْسِبَ كُلَّ يَوْمٍ اَلْفَ حَسَنَةٍ فَسَاَلَهٗ سَائِلٌ مِنْ جُلَسَائِهٖ كَيْفَ يَكْسِبُ اَحَدُنَا اَلْفَ حَسَنَةٍ قَالَ يُسَبِّحُ مِائَةَ تَسْبِيْحَةٍ فَيُكْتَبُ لَهٗ اَلْفُ حَسَنَةٍ اَوْ يُحَطُّ عَنْهُ اَلْفُ خَطِيْئَةٍ۔ رَوَاهُ مُسْلِمٌ وَفِيْ كِتَابِهٖ فِيْ جَمِيْعِ الرِّوَايَاتِ عَنْ مُوْسَى الْجُهَنِيِّ اَوْ يُحَطُّ قَالَ اَبُوْ بَكْرٍ الْبَرْقَانِيُّ وَرَوَاهُ شُعْبَةُ وَاَبُوْ عُوَانَةَ وَيَحْيَى بْنُ سَعِيْدٍ الْقَطَّانُ عَنْ مُوْسٰى فَقَالُوْا وَيُحَطُّ بِغَيْرِ اَلِفٍ هٰكَذَا فِيْ كِتَابِ الْحُمَيْدِيِّ۔

---

[1] Bukhari # 6405, Muslim # 28-2691, Musand Ahmad # 2-375.
[2] Muslim # 29-2692, Tirmidhi # 3536, Musand Ahmad # 2-371
[3] Bukhari # 6682, Muslim # 31-2694, Tirmidhi # 3478, Ibn Majah # 3806, Musand Ahmad # 2-232.

2299. Sayyiduna Sa'd ibn Abu Waqqas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that while they were with Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم one day, he asked, "Is any of you unable to earn every day one thousand pieties?" One of those sitting around with him asked, "How may one of us earn one thousand pieties (every day)?" He said, "Let him glorify Allah with subhan Allah one hundred times. One thousand pieties will be recorded for him or one thousand sins will be erased from him."

In the version of Burqani instead of 'or', the words are: 'and ... will be erased." So, it is in Al-Humaydis book.[1]

COMMENTARY: The version in Tirmidhi, Nasai'I and Ibn HIbban has the word (and) instead of (أو) (or), In Arabic (و) (and) is used for (او) (or) sometimes. Anyway the interpretation in each case is that if anyone recites these Tasbih, one thousand pieties are recorded for him if he has no sins against him. If he has committed sins then one thousand sins will be forgiven to him.

TASBIH & TAMHID ARE BEST EXPRESSIONS

(٢٣٠٠) وَعَنْ اَبِي ذَرٍّ قَالَ سُئِلَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَيُّ الْكَلَامِ اَفْضَلُ قَالَ مَااصْطَفَى اللّٰهُ لِمَلَائِكَتِهٖ سُبْحَانَ اللّٰهِ وَبِحَمْدِهٖ۔ (رواہ مسلم)

2300. Sayyiduna Abu Dharr رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم was asked, "Which expression is the best?" He said, "That which Allah has chosen for his angels: (سبحن اللہ وبحمدہ)."[2]

COMMENTARY: This expression is a combination of the four expressions.

سُبْحَانَ اللّٰهِ وَالْحَمْدُ لِلّٰهِ وَلَا اِلٰهَ اِلَّا اللّٰهُ وَاللّٰهُ اَكْبَرُ and their brief rendering. It rejects polytheism which is the essence of tahlil which is turn confirms Allahu Akbar.

KIND OF DHIKR (HALLOWING OF ALLAH), NOT HOW MUCH

(٢٣٠١) وَعَنْ جُوَيْرِيَّةَ اَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ خَرَجَ مِنْ عِنْدِهَا بُكْرَةً حِيْنَ صَلَّى الصُّبْحَ وَهِيَ فِيْ مَسْجِدِهَا ثُمَّ رَجَعَ بَعْدَ اَنْ اَضْحٰى وَهِيَ جَالِسَةٌ قَالَ مَازِلْتِ عَلَى الْحَالِ الَّتِيْ فَارَقْتُكِ عَلَيْهَا قَالَتْ نَعَمْ قَالَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَقَدْ قُلْتُ بَعْدَكِ اَرْبَعَ كَلِمَاتٍ ثَلَاثَ مَرَّاتٍ لَوْوُزِنَتْ بِمَا قُلْتِ مُنْذُ الْيَوْمِ لَوَزَنَتْهُنَّ سُبْحَانَ اللّٰهِ وَبِحَمْدِهٖ عَدَدَ خَلْقِهٖ وَرِضَا نَفْسِهٖ وَزِنَةَ عَرْشِهٖ وَمِدَادَ كَلِمَاتِهٖ۔ (رواہ مسلم)

2301. Sayyiduna Juwayriy-ah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that one morning the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم went out from her for the salah (prayer) of fajr. She was on her prayer rug. He came back after the (salah (prayer) of) duha and she was still sitting on the prayer rug. He asked, "Have you not ceased to be on the position on which I ported from you?" She said, "Yes!" The Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "After you, I have repeated four expression three times and if they are weighed againt what you have recited today, they would outweigh them." (And he

---

[1] Muslim # 37-2698, Musand Ahmad # 1-174.

[2] Muslim # 84-2731

mentioned them:)

سُبْحَانَ اللّٰهِ وَبِحَمْدِهٖ عَدَدَ خَلْقِهٖ وَرِضَاءَ نَفْسِهٖ وَزِنَةَ عَرْشِهٖ وَمِدَادَ كَلِمَاتِهٖ

{Allah is glorified and with His praise to the number of His creatures, as pleases Him, to the weight of his throne and t o the extent of His words.}[1]

COMMENTARY: The words 'to the extent of His words' could mean His Boks, His scriptures or His names or His attributes. They could mean His commands, too.

This hadith (tradition) tells us that dhikr (hallowing of Allah) relies on quality not on quantity, Fewer Tasbih recitations whose meanings are deep and are made with much devotion are better than those that do not have such meaning and do not emanate from a dedicated heart though they may be very lengthy. The same axiom applies to recitation of the Quran with contemplation and a full attention mind, even of a verse, against a recitation of long passages without reflection.

SEEKING REFUGE FROM THE DEVIL

(٢٣٠٢) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ قَالَ لَا اِلٰهَ اِلَّا اللّٰهُ وَحْدَهٗ لَا شَرِيْكَ لَهٗ لَهُ الْمُلْكُ وَلَهُ الْحَمْدُ وَهُوَ عَلٰى كُلِّ شَيْءٍ قَدِيْرٌ فِيْ يَوْمٍ مِائَةَ مَرَّةٍ كَانَتْ لَهٗ عِدْلَ عَشْرِ رِقَابٍ وَكُتِبَتْ لَهٗ مِائَةُ حَسَنَةٍ وَمُحِيَتْ عَنْهُ مِائَةُ سَيِّئَةٍ وَكَانَتْ لَهٗ حِرْزًا مِنَ الشَّيْطَانِ يَوْمَهٗ ذٰلِكَ حَتّٰى يُمْسِيَ وَلَمْ يَاْتِ اَحَدٌ بِاَفْضَلَ مِمَّا جَاءَ بِهٖ اِلَّا رَجُلٌ عَمِلَ اَكْثَرَ مِنْهُ۔ (متفق عليه)

2302. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "If anyone says:

لَا اِلٰهَ اِلَّا اللّٰهُ وَحْدَهٗ لَا شَرِيْكَ لَهٗ لَهُ الْمُلْكُ وَلَهُ الْحَمْدُ وَهُوَ عَلٰى كُلِّ شَيْءٍ قَدِيْرٌ

(There is no God but Allah who is Alone and has no partner. To him belongs the dominion and for Him is all praise. And, He is over all things powerful,) one hundred times a day, then he will get a reward the like of setting free ten slaves, one hundred pieties will be recorded for him, one hundred bad deeds will be removed from him and it will be for him a protection from the devil that day of his till evening. No one will bring anything better than what he brings except a man who performs more than he does."[2]

COMMENTARY: It seems that if anyone recites these words in the evening then he will get protection from the devil till morning.

If anyone recites these expressions more than one hundred times then he will earn so much more reward. These expressions may be recited at one time preferably, or at different times to add up to one hundred. They must best be recited in the morning.

LA HAWLA WA LA QUWATAH

(٢٣٠٣) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ مُوْسَى الْاَشْعَرِيِّ قَالَ كُنَّا مَعَ رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فِيْ سَفَرٍ فَجَعَلَ النَّاسُ يَجْهَرُوْنَ بِالتَّكْبِيْرِ فَقَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَيُّهَا النَّاسُ اِرْبَعُوْا عَلٰى اَنْفُسِكُمْ اِنَّكُمْ لَا

---

[1] Muslim # 29-2726, Ibn Majah # 3808.

[2] Bukhari # 6403, Muslim # 28-2691, Tirmidhi # 3474, Musand Ahmad # 4-60, Ibn Majah # 3798..

تَدْعُوْنَ اَصَمَّ وَلَا غَائِبًا اِنَّكُمْ تَدْعُوْنَ سَمِيْعًا بَصِيْرًا وَهُوَ مَعَكُمْ وَالَّذِىْ تَدْعُوْنَهُ اَقْرَبُ اِلٰى اَحَدِكُمْ مِنْ عُنُقِ رَاحِلَتِهٖ فَقَالَ اَبُو مُوْسٰى وَاَنَا خَلْفَهُ اَقُوْلُ لَا حَوْلَ وَلَا قُوَّةَ اِلَّا بِاللّٰهِ فِىْ نَفْسِىْ فَقَالَ يَا عَبْدَاللّٰهِ بْنَ قَيْسٍ اَلَا اَدُلُّكَ عَلٰى كَنْزٍ مِنْ كُنُوْزِ الْجَنَّةِ فَقُلْتُ بَلٰى يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ قَالَ لَا حَوْلَ وَلَا قُوَّةَ اِلَّا بِاللّٰهِ۔ (متفق عليه)

2303. Sayyiduna Abu Musa Al-Ash'ary رضى الله عنه narrated that we were with Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم on a journey. The people began to call the takbir in a loud voice. So Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "O you people, be mild to Yourself you are not calling one who is deaf or away. Rather, you are calling one who hears and sees. He is with you. He whom you call is nearer to any of you than the neck of his riding beast."

Abu Musa added: And I was behind him saying to myself (لاحول ولا قوة الا بالله) (there is no might and no power save in Allah). He (the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم) said (to me by my kunyah). "O Abdullah ibn Qays, shall I not lead you to a treasure of the treasure of paradise?" I submitted, "Of course, O Messenger of Allah!" And, he said:

لاحول ولا قوة الا بالله

(There is neither might nor power save through Allah).[1]

COMMENTARY: It is sunnah(Practice of Holy Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم) to call the takbir (Allahu Akbar, Allah is the Greatest) when ascending a height. The Sahabah (Prophet's companions) رضى الله عنهم did so loudly. Or, takbir could also mean dhikr (hallowing of Allah). So, this would mean that they made remembrance of Allah in a loud voice.

The words (لاحول ولا قوة الا بالله) are called a treasure because one who recites them earns very much reward and he enriches himself with its blessings as anyone does with worldly treasures, though worldly possessions have no comparison to it.

The masha'ikh say about (لاحول ولا قوة الا بالله) that this dhikr (hallowing of Allah) helps promote deeds more than any other dhikr (hallowing of Allah) does and the blessings derived from it surpass those form any other from of dhikr (hallowing of Allah). The true meaning of these words is: 'the strength to keep away from sin and the energy to a able to worship Allah are granted only by Allah."

SECTION II اَلْفَصْلُ الثَّانِىْ

REWARD FOR TASBIH & TAMHID

(٢٣٠٤) عَنْ جَابِرٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ قَالَ سُبْحَانَ اللّٰهِ الْعَظِيْمِ وَبِحَمْدِهٖ غُرِسَتْ لَهٗ نَخْلَةٌ فِى الْجَنَّةِ۔ (رواه الترمذى)

2304. Sayyiduna Jabir رضى الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, 'If anyone says

سُبْحَانَ اللّٰهِ الْعَظِيْمِ وَبِحَمْدِهٖ

(Allah is Glorified with his praise)

---

[1] Bukhari # 6384, Muslim # 44-2704, Tirmidhi # 3385, Abu Dawud # 1526, Ibn Majah # 3824,. Musand Ahmad # 19616

then a palm tree is planted for him in paradise."[1]

COMMENTARY: The palm tree is mentioned because it is most beneficial and its fruit is very good.

AN ANGELS CALL EVERY MORNING FOR TASBIH

(٢٣٠٥) وَعَنِ الزُّبَيْرِ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَا مِنْ صَبَاحٍ يُصْبِحُ الْعِبَادُ فِيْهِ اِلَّا مُنَادٍ يُنَادِيْ سَبِّحُوْا الْمَلِكَ الْقُدُّوْسَ۔ (رواه الترمذى)

2305. Sayyiduna Zubayr رضى الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "There is no morning on which the creatures wake up but a crier calls. 'Glorify the king, the sacred."[2]

COMMENTARY: Every morning an angel spurs mankind to sound these words or these others:

سُبْحَانَ الْمَلِكِ الْقُدُّوْسِ   سَبُّوْحٌ الْقُدُّوْسُ رَبُّ الْمَلَائِكَةِ وَالرُّوْحِ

Or, the hadith (tradition) means that in the morning, an angel assures mankind that their Lord is without blemish.

BEST DHIKR (HALLOWING OF ALLAH) IS LA ILAHA ILLALLAH

(٢٣٠٦) وَعَنْ جَابِرٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَفْضَلُ الذِّكْرِ لَا اِلٰهَ اِلَّا اللّٰهُ وَاَفْضَلُ الدُّعَاءِ اَلْحَمْدُ لِلّٰهِ۔ (الترمذى وابن ماجة)

2306. Sayyiduna Jabir رضى الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, The most excellent dhikr (hallowing of Allah) is (لا اله الا الله) and the mot excellent supplication is (لا اله الا الله الحمد لله) (respectively, Laila illAllah and alHamdulillah - there is no God but Allah and praise belongs to Allah).[3]

COMMENTARY: The most excellent dhikr (hallowing of Allah) is (لا اله الا الله) because Islam and faith are based on it. Without it, both these things cannot be sound.

Some authorities say that it is the most excellent dhikr (hallowing of Allah) because it clears the unseen evil attributes in t he heart of the person who makes the dhikr (hallowing of Allah). These attributes are sort of the deities of his unseen. This expression has exceptional power to cleanse a person's inner nature. Allah says:

اَفَرَاَيْتَ مَنِ اتَّخَذَ اِلٰهَهٗ هَوَاهُ

{Have you seen him who takes his caprice to be his god} (45:23)

With the dhikr (hallowing of Allah), he rejects all gods when he says. 'there is no god' and declares the unity of God with 'but Allah..' When the tongue utters these words, its effect travels from the external tongue to the internal depths of the heart. This gets the degree of conviction and belief of a true God. It illuminates his heart and the unseen and clears out all evil and false qualities and finally overwhelms his visible limbs. Thus his visible limbs perform only those deeds that are demanded by the declaration and belief, and are the real

---

[1] Tirmidhi # 3475

[2] Tirmidhi # 3580

[3] Tirmidhi # 3394, Ibn Majah # 3800

objective.

The words (الحمد لله) are described as supplication because the Merciful One is praised only though prayer and request. It is called most excellent because the true benevolent Allah's praise is in the sense of gratitude. Of course, it is apparent that gratitude brings more blessings, as Allah says:

لَئِنْ شَكَرْتُمْ لَاَزِيْدَنَّكُمْ

{If you give thanks, certainly I will give you mere} (14:7)

PRAISE OF ALLAH IS GRATITUDE

(۲۳۰۷) وَعَنْ عَبْدِاللّٰهِ بْنِ عَمْرٍو قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَلْحَمْدُ رَأْسُ الشُّكْرِ مَاشَكَرَ اللّٰهَ عَبْدٌ لَا يَحْمَدُهٗ۔

2307. Sayyiduna Abdullah ibn Amr رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said "Praise (of Allah) is the essence of gratitude. He who has not praised Allah has not thanked Allah."[1]

COMMENTARY: Praise of Allah is with the tongue while gratitude is with the tongue the heart and the limbs. So praise of Allah is a branch of thanks to Him. Praise is described as essence of gratitude because it is an action of the tongue. Allah's praise is best done with the tongue which is a representative of all limbs. Hence, praise is an overall expression of gratitude.

Hence, a person must preserve his external self with the cleansing of his internal self.

PRAISE OF ALLAH BOTH IN HAPPINESS & DISTRESS

(۲۳۰۸) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَوَّلُ مَنْ يُدْعٰى اِلَى الْجَنَّةِ يَوْمَ الْقِيَامَةِ الَّذِيْنَ يَحْمَدُوْنَ اللّٰهَ فِى السَّرَّاءِ وَالضَّرَّاءِ رَوَاهُمَا الْبَيْهَقِيُّ فِىْ شُعَبِ الْاِيْمَانِ۔

2308. Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "On the day of resurrection, the first to be called to paradise will be those who praise Allah in prosperity and affliction."[2]

(They are pleased with their Lord in either situation.)

GREATNESS OF LA ILAHA ILLALLAH

(۲۳۰۹) وَعَنْ اَبِىْ سَعِيْدِنِ الْخُدْرِيِّ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ مُوْسٰى عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ يَا رَبِّ عَلِّمْنِىْ شَيْئًا اَذْكُرُكَ بِهٖ اَوْ اَدْعُوْكَ بِهٖ فَقَالَ يَا مُوْسٰى قُلْ لَا اِلٰهَ اِلَّا اللّٰهُ فَقَالَ يَا رَبِّ كُلُّ عِبَادِكَ يَقُوْلُ هٰذَا اِنَّمَا اُرِيْدُ شَيْئًا تَخُصُّنِىْ بِهٖ قَالَ يَا مُوْسٰى لَوْ اَنَّ السَّمٰوٰتِ السَّبْعَ وَعَامِرَ هُنَّ غَيْرِىْ وَالْاَرْضِيْنَ السَّبْعَ وُضِعْنَ فِىْ كِفَّةٍ وَلَا اِلٰهَ اِلَّا اللّٰهُ فِىْ كِفَّةٍ لَمَالَتْ بِهِنَّ لَا اِلٰهَ اِلَّا اللّٰهُ۔ (رواہ فی شرح السنۃ)

2309. Sayyiduna Abu Sa'eed al-Khudri رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said that Musa علیہ السلام said, "O my Lord, teach me that with which I may remember you or pray to you." He said, "O Musa, say La ilaha illAllah." He submitted. "My Lord, all your slaves say that. I intend something which you set apart for me." He said, "O Musa, if the seven heavens and their occupants other than Me and the seven earth were put in a pan of a scale and la ilaha illAllah in the other pan, la ilaha illAllah would outweigh them."[1]

---

[1] Bayhaqi Shu'abul Eeman # 4395.

[2] Bayhaqi Sha'abul Eeman # 4373.

COMMENTARY: Prophet Musa عليه السلام asked for exclusive form of dhikr (hallowing of Allah) but Allah told him that the Kalimah tawhid was the most excellent and no other dhikr (hallowing of Allah) can surpass it. His request was out of human authority and ambition for the exclusive in everything.

In religion, the exclusive and the excellent things are easily available though very precious. The quran and ahadith (tradition) too are very invaluable and exclusive, but people go for the petition, rota and prayers that are unknown and have no sanction in the Quran and hadith (tradition).

In conclusion, Allah had Himself inspired Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم Musa عليه السلام to put this question so that He would give him the answer. Thus, people would learn of the greatness and excellence of the Kalimah. They might make it their constant dhikr (hallowing of Allah).

(٢٣١٠) وَعَنْ اَبِي سَعِيْدٍ وَاَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَا قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ قَالَ لَا اِلٰهَ اِلَّا اللّٰهُ وَاللّٰهُ اَكْبَرُ صَدَّقَهٗ رَبُّهٗ قَالَ لَا اِلٰهَ اِلَّا اَنَا وَاَنَا اَكْبَرُ وَاِذَا قَالَ لَا اِلٰهَ اِلَّا اللّٰهُ وَحْدَهٗ لَا شَرِيْكَ لَهٗ يَقُوْلُ اللّٰهُ لَا اِلٰهَ اِلَّا اَنَا وَحْدِيْ لَا شَرِيْكَ لِيْ وَاِذَا قَالَ لَا اِلٰهَ اِلَّا اللّٰهُ لَهُ الْمُلْكُ وَلَهُ الْحَمْدُ قَالَ لَا اِلٰهَ اِلَّا اَنَا لِيَ الْمُلْكُ وَلِيَ الْحَمْدُ وَاِذَا قَالَ لَا اِلٰهَ اِلَّا اللّٰهُ وَلَا حَوْلَ وَلَا قُوَّةَ اِلَّا بِاللّٰهِ قَالَ لَا اِلٰهَ اِلَّا اَنَا لَا حَوْلَ وَلَا قُوَّةَ اِلَّا بِيْ وَكَانَ يَقُوْلُ مَنْ قَالَهَا فِيْ مَرَضِهٖ ثُمَّ مَاتَ لَمْ تَطْعَمْهُ النَّارُ۔ (رواه الترمذی وابن ماجة)

2310. Sayyiduna Abu Sa'eed رضى الله عنه and Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضى الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, 'If anyone says:

لَا اِلٰه الا اللّٰه واللّٰه اكبر

(There is no God but Allah. And Allah is the Greatest) his Lord declares him to be true, saying:

لا اله الا انا وانا اكبر

(There is no God but I. And, I am the Greatest).
When anyone says:

لا اله الا اللّٰه وحده لا شريك له

(There is no God but Allah who is Alone and who has no partner), Allah says:

لَا اِلٰهَ اِلَّا اَنَا وَحْدِيْ لَا شَرِيْكَ لِيْ

(There is no God but I. I am alone and I have no partner).
And, when anyone says:

[1] Tirmidhi # Sharh us-Sunnah(Practice of Holy Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم*)*.

لا اله الا اللّٰه له الملك وله الحمد

(There is no God but Allah to whom belong all Praise), He (Allah) says:

لا اله الا انا لى الملك ولى الحمد

(There is no God but I. To me belongs the kingdom and to Me belongs all praise). And when anyone says:

لا اله الا اللّٰه ولا حول ولا قوة الا باللّٰه

(There is no God but Allah and there is no might and no power save with Allah). He (Allah) says:

لا اله الا انا ولا حول ولا قوة الا باللّٰه

(There is no God but I. There is no might and no power save with Me)." And he (Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم used to say, "If anyone speaks these words in his illness of which he dies, hell will not consume him." (He will be safe from punishment).[1]

EXCELLENCE OF TASBIH & TAHMID

(٢٣١١) وَعَنْ سَعْدِ بْنِ اَبِي وَقَّاصٍ اَنَّهُ دَخَلَ مَعَ النَّبِيِّ عَلَى اِمْرَأَةٍ وَبَيْنَ يَدَيْهَا نَوًى اَوْحَصًى تُسَبِّحُ بِهٖ فَقَالَ اَلَا اُخْبِرُكِ بِمَا هُوَ اَيْسَرُ عَلَيْكِ مِنْ هٰذَا اَوْ اَفْضَلُ سُبْحَانَ اللّٰهِ عَدَدَ مَا هُوَ خَلَقَ فِي السَّمَاءِ وَسُبْحَانَ اللّٰهِ عَدَدَ مَا خَلَقَ فِي الْاَرْضِ وَسُبْحَانَ اللّٰهِ عَدَدَ مَابَيْنَ ذٰلِكَ وَسُبْحَانَ اللّٰهِ عَدَدَ مَا هُوَ خَالِقٌ وَاللّٰهُ اَكْبَرُ مِثْلَ ذَالِكَ وَالْحَمْدُ لِلّٰهِ مِثْلَ ذٰلِكَ وَلَا اِلٰهَ اِلَّا اللّٰهُ مِثْلَ ذٰلِكَ وَلَا حَوْلَ وَلَا قُوَّةَ اِلَّا بِاللّٰهِ مِثْلَ ذٰلِكَ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَاَبُوْدَاوُدَ وَقَالَ التِّرْمِذِيُّ هٰذَا حَدِيْثٌ غَرِيْبٌ۔

2311. Sayyiduna Sa'd ibn Abu Waqqas رضی الله عنه narrated that he accompanied the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم on his visit to a woman. She had before her date-Seeds or pebbles on which she glorified Allah (using them as a rosary to count). The Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Shall I not tell you of something that is easier – or more excellent – then that for you?" (And, he advised her to say:)

سُبْحَانَ اللّٰهِ عَدَدَ مَا هُوَ خَلَقَ فِي السَّمَاءِ وَسُبْحَانَ اللّٰهِ عَدَدَ مَا خَلَقَ فِي الْاَرْضِ وَسُبْحَانَ اللّٰهِ عَدَدَ مَابَيْنَ ذٰلِكَ وَسُبْحَانَ اللّٰهِ عَدَدَ مَا هُوَ خَالِقٌ

Allah is glorified to the extent to what He has created in the heaven. Allah is glorified to the extent of what He has created on the earth.
Allah is glorified to the extent of what is between them.
Allah is glorified to the extent of what He is creating (and will create till eternity).
And, (recite) 'Allah is the Greatest.' In a like manner, and 'praise belongs to Allah, in a like manner, and, 'there is god but Allah,' in a like manner, and, 'there is no might and no power save with Allah,' in a like manner.'[1]

[1] Tirmidhi # 3441, Ibn Majah # 3793

COMMENTARY: Some versions name the woman as Sayyidah Juwayriyah رضی اللہ عنہ or one of the other wives of the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم. As for her using date-seeds or pebbles, it is the narrator who was unsure which of the two she used for a rosary.

VALIDITY OF THE PREVALENT ROSARY

The rosary that is used these days was not found in the time of the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم. People used seeds, date stones, pebbles, grit, etc. Some people used thread on which they tied knots to count. This hadith (tradition) is evidence that the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم did not disallow the woman to use date stones or pebbles. It is also evidence for the prevalent Tasbih or rosary as allowable, because there is no difference between beads that the threaded and seeds that are not threaded. Both can be used to count. It is wrong to say that to use a rosary is a bid'ah or an innovation. The masha'ikh not only call it permissible but also describe it as a whip against the devil.

Indeed, when junayd Baghdadi رضی اللہ عنہ has attained a very high station, he was asked by a man about the rosary in his hand. He said, "How can I abandon that through which I have gained nearness to Allah?"

As for the words in the hadith (tradition) (واللہ اکبر مثل ذلک), there are two possibilities about it. The narrator may have resorted to brevity meaning to say that the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم spoke in a like manner as before when he said 'Allah is glorified to the extent of what He created in the heaven.' Allah is t he Greatest to the extent of what He created in the heaven.' (To the end). He meant that the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم spoke the next expressions in a like manner to the end. Or, the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم himself chose to be brief and instead of saying 'to the extend...,' he said, 'in a like manner.' And, so on with the other expressions (والحمد للہ مثل ذلک) (praise belongs to Allah), etc.

REWARD FOR TASBIH TAHMID, TAHLIL, TAKBIR

(۲۳۱۲) وَعَنْ عَمْرِو بْنِ شُعَيْبٍ عَنْ أَبِيهِ عَنْ جَدِّهٖ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ سَبَّحَ اللّٰهَ
مِائَةً بِالْغَدَاةِ وَمِائَةً بِالْعَشِيِّ كَانَ كَمَنْ حَجَّ مِائَةَ حَجَّةٍ وَمَنْ حَمِدَ اللّٰهَ مِائَةً بِالْغَدَاةِ وَمِائَةً بِالْعَشِيِّ كَانَ
كَمَنْ حَمَلَ عَلَى مِائَةِ فَرَسٍ فِي سَبِيْلِ اللّٰهِ وَمَنْ هَلَّلَ اللّٰهَ مِائَةً بِالْغَدَاةِ وَمِائَةً بِالْعَشِيِّ كَانَ كَمَنْ اَعْتَقَ مِائَةَ
رَقَبَةٍ مِنْ وُلْدِ اِسْمَاعِيْلَ وَمَنْ كَبَّرَ اللّٰهَ مِائَةً بِالْغَدَاةِ وَمِائَةً بِالْعَشِيِّ لَمْ يَأْتِ فِي ذٰلِكَ الْيَوْمِ اَحَدٌ بِاَكْثَرَ مِمَّا
اَتٰى بِهٖ اِلَّا مَنْ قَالَ مِثْلَ ذٰلِكَ اَوْ زَادَ عَلٰى مَا قَالَ۔ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَقَالَ حَدِيْثٌ حَسَنٌ غَرِيْبٌ۔

2312. Sayyiduna Amr ibn Shu'ayb رحمہ اللہ reported from his father that his grand-father narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "If anyone glorified Allah (saying subhan Allah) one hundred times in the morning and one hundred times. in the evening then he is like one who performs hajj one hundred times. If anyone praises Allah (with alHamdulillah) one hundred times in the morning and one hundred times in the evening then he is like one who gives one hundred horses to warriors to ride in Allah's path. If anyone declares the unity of Allah

---

[1] Tirmidhi # 3597, Abu Dawud# 1500

(saying, la ilaha illAllah) one hundred times in the morning and one hundred times in the evening then he is like one who emancipates one hundred descendants of prophet Isma'il عليه السلام from slavery. If anyone extols Allah (with Allahu Akbar) one hundred times in the morning and one hundred times in the evening then none will bring that day more than what he brings unless he says as much as he says or more."[1]

COMMENTARY: The comparison with one who has performed hajj one hundred times elucidates that an easy dhikr (hallowing of Allah) with a deep attachment to Allah so that the heart is sincere and devoted is more excellent than a strenuous worship which is deprived of attention and sincerity and beset with negligence. A deed of a lower degree is compared to one of a higher degree as for as its virtue is concerned.

Some people say that since there is great merit in saying subhan Allah, so its reward is increased to be commensurate with optional hajj.

Donating or lending horses to warriors in jihad is mentioned in order to encourage occupation in dhikr (hallowing of Allah). Whatever kind of worship, physical or monetary or both combine,d the objective nevertheless is to make dhikr (hallowing of Allah) of Allah, and we must remember that in all circumstances the objective is preferable to the means.

Comparison of dhikr (hallowing of Allah) to setting free and hundred descendants of prophet Ismail عليه السلام from slavery is to encourage the poor and they who cannot engage in monetary worship.

The descendants of Prophet Ismail عليه السلام are the people of Arabia who, being related to the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم are meritorious and superior.

Though it seems from the hadith (tradition) that Allahu Akbar is the most excellent of the petitions mentioned in this hadith (tradition), yet the sahih ahadith (tradition) point out that the most excellent Tasbih is la ilaha illAllah, followed by al-hamdulillah, Allahu Akbar and subhanAllah. Thus none but one who says la ilaha illAlllah will get more reward than the reciter of Allahu Akbar.

(٢٣١٣) وَعَنْ عَبْدِاللّٰهِ بْنِ عَمْرٍو قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ التَّسْبِيْحُ نِصْفُ الْمِيْزَانِ وَالْحَمْدُ لِلّٰهِ يَمْلَؤُهُ وَلَا اِلٰهَ اِلَّا اللّٰهُ لَيْسَ لَهَا حِجَابٌ دُوْنَ اللّٰهِ حَتّٰى تَخْلُصَ اِلَيْهِ۔ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَقَالَ هٰذَا حَدِيْثٌ غَرِيْبٌ وَلَيْسَ اِسْنَادُهُ بِالْقَوِيِّ۔

2313. Sayyiduna Abdullah ibn Amr رضى الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Tasbih is half of the scale while al-Hamdulillah fills it up. And, as for la ilaha illAllah there is no screen between it and Allah so that it goes to Him (directly)."[2]

COMMENTARY: The reward of merely al-hamdulillah fills the entire scale. And, al-Hamdulillah is more excellent than subhan Allah. It could also mean that both are equal so that half of the scale is filled by subhan Allah and the rest by al-Hamdulillah. Together, they fill the entire.

La ilaha illAllah is accepted by Allah very quickly, its reciter earns great reward. It means that it is also more excellent than both subhanAllah and al-hamdulillah.

---

[1] Tirmidhi # 3482

[2] Tirmidhi # 3529

(٢٣١٤) وَعَنْ اَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَا قَالَ عَبْدٌ لَا اِلٰهَ اِلَّا اللّٰهُ مُخْلِصًا قَطُّ اِلَّا فُتِحَتْ لَهُ اَبْوَابُ السَّمَاءِ حَتّٰى يُفْضِيَ اِلَى الْعَرْشِ مَا اجْتَنَبَ الْكَبَائِرَ۔ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَقَالَ هٰذَا حَدِيْثٌ غَرِيْبٌ۔

2314. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم said, "If anyone says sincerely (لا اله الا الله) (there is no God but Allah), then the gates of heaven are opened for it so that it is carried up to the throne, provided he abstains from major sins."[1]

COMMENTARY: For it to be accepted quickly, the condition to abstain from major sins applies. As for the reward, that condition does not apply for it. He who recites the kalimah (لا اله الا الله) gets the reward anyway whether he avoided major sins or not. However, he will earn a quick acceptance if he avoids major sins.

TREE OF PARADISE

(٢٣١٥) وَعَنِ ابْنِ مَسْعُوْدٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَقِيْتُ اِبْرَاهِيْمَ لَيْلَةَ اُسْرِيَ بِيْ فَقَالَ يَا مُحَمَّدُ اِقْرَأْ اُمَّتَكَ مِنِّي السَّلَامَ وَاَخْبِرْهُمْ اَنَّ الْجَنَّةَ طَيِّبَةُ التُّرْبَةِ عَذْبَةُ الْمَاءِ وَاَنَّهَا قِيْعَانٌ وَاَنَّ غِرَاسَهَا سُبْحَانَ اللّٰهِ وَالْحَمْدُ لِلّٰهِ وَلَا اِلٰهَ اِلَّا اللّٰهُ وَاللّٰهُ اَكْبَرُ۔ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَقَالَ هٰذَا حَدِيْثٌ غَرِيْبٌ حَسَنٌ غَرِيْبٌ اِسْنَادًا۔

2315. Sayyiduna Ibn Mas'ud رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم said, "On the night of isra (ascension to the heavens), I met (Prophet) Ibrahim علیه السلام. He said, 'O Muhammad, convey, to your ummah (people/followers), my Salaam (greeting) and inform them that paradise has an excellent soil, sweet water and it is an even plain whose trees are:

سُبْحَانَ اللّٰهِ وَالْحَمْدُ لِلّٰهِ وَلَا اِلٰهَ اِلَّا اللّٰهُ وَاللّٰهُ اَكْبَرُ

(Allah is Glorified. Praise belongs to Allah. There is no God but Allah. And, Allah is the Greatest.)[2]

COMMENTARY: Prophet Muhammad صلی الله علیه وسلم Ibrahim conveyed greetings to this ummah (people/followers) at the hands of the Prophet Muhammad صلی الله علیه وسلم. So, it is binding on every member of this ummah (people/followers) to respond on reading this hadith (tradition) (وعلیه السلام ورحمة الله وبرکاته) (and peace be on him and Allah's mercy and His blessings). When these expressions are recited as mentioned in the hadith (tradition), trees are planted for each recital.

BETTER TO COUNT PETITIONS AND DHIKR (HALLOWING OF ALLAH) ON FINGERS

(٢٣١٦) وَعَنْ يُسَيْرَةَ وَكَانَتْ مِنَ الْمُهَاجِرَاتِ قَالَتْ قَالَ لَنَا رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ عَلَيْكُنَّ بِالتَّسْبِيْحِ وَالتَّهْلِيْلِ وَالتَّقْدِيْسِ وَاعْقِدْنَ بِالْاَنَامِلِ فَاِنَّهُنَّ مَسْئُوْلَاتٌ مُسْتَنْطَقَاتٌ وَلَا تَغْفُلْنَ فَتُنْسَيْنَ

---

[1] Tirmidhi # 3601

[2] Tirmidhi # 3473, Abu Dawud # 1501, Musnad(book) Ahmad # 6-371

الرَّحْمَةَ۔ (رواه الترمذی وابوداؤد)

2316. Sayyidah Yusayrah رضی اللہ عنہ who was one of the woman muhajirs (emigrants to Madinah) narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said to them. "It is binding on you women to recite the Tasbih, tahlil and taqdis (that is, to say (سبحان اللہ) and (سبحان الملک القدوس). And reckon them on the tips of your fingers, for, they will be questioned and made to speak. And, do not be neglectful otherwise you will be forgotten for mercy."[1]

COMMENTARY: On the day of resurrection, each limb of man will testify to his deeds. It is as Allah says:

يَوْمَ تَشْهَدُ عَلَيْهِمْ أَلْسِنَتُهُمْ وَأَيْدِيهِمْ وَأَرْجُلُهُمْ بِمَا كَانُوا يَعْمَلُونَ

{On the day when their tongues and their hands and their feet will testify against them as to what they used to do.} (24:24)

On the day of resurrection, the fingers will bear witness to the good and bad deeds their master had done in the world. Hence, the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said that one should count the petitions on the tips of one's fingers.

It is better to count the repetitions and Tasbih on the fingers though it is allowed to use the Tasbih (rosary). This hadith (tradition) also encourages that one should use one's limbs to do good work to earn Allah's pleasure and one should preserve them from committing sin so that none of the limbs testifies against him.

SECTION III اَلْفَصْلُ الثَّالِثُ

THE BEST PETITION & THE BEST SUPPLICATION

(٢٣١٧) عَنْ سَعْدِ بْنِ أَبِي وَقَّاصٍ قَالَ جَاءَ أَعْرَابِيٌّ إِلَى رَسُولِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَقَالَ عَلِّمْنِي كَلَامًا أَقُولُهُ قَالَ قُلْ لَا إِلٰهَ إِلَّا اللّٰهُ وَحْدَهُ لَا شَرِيكَ لَهُ اللّٰهُ أَكْبَرُ كَبِيرًا وَالْحَمْدُ لِلّٰهِ كَثِيرًا وَسُبْحَانَ اللّٰهِ رَبِّ الْعَالَمِينَ لَا حَوْلَ وَلَا قُوَّةَ إِلَّا بِاللّٰهِ الْعَزِيزِ الْحَكِيمِ قَالَ فَهٰؤُلَاءِ لِرَبِّي فَمَا لِي فَقَالَ قُلِ اللّٰهُمَّ اغْفِرْ لِي وَارْحَمْنِي وَاهْدِنِي وَارْزُقْنِي وَعَافِنِي شَكَّ الرَّاوِي فِي عَافِنِي (رواه مسلم)

2317. Sayyiduna Sa'd ibn Abu Waqqas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that a villager came to Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم and said, "Teach me some expression that I might repeat." He instructed him to say:

لَا إِلٰهَ إِلَّا اللّٰهُ وَحْدَهُ لَا شَرِيكَ لَهُ اللّٰهُ أَكْبَرُ كَبِيرًا وَالْحَمْدُ لِلّٰهِ كَثِيرًا وَسُبْحَانَ اللّٰهِ رَبِّ الْعَالَمِينَ لَا حَوْلَ وَلَا قُوَّةَ إِلَّا بِاللّٰهِ الْعَزِيزِ الْحَكِيمِ

(There is no God but Allah, Alone, who has no partner. Allah is the Greatest, Great indeed. And praise belongs to Him, abundant praise, indeed. And Allah is without blemish, Lord of the worlds. There is no might and no power save with Allah, the Mighty, the wise.)

The man said, "These are to remember my Lord. What are for me?" So, he instructed

---

[1] Tirmidhi # 3594 (Mishkat Arabic has the name Busayrah)

him to say: (اللهاغفرلی...وعافنی) (O Allah, forgive me. Have mercy on me. Guide me. Provide for me. Give me security.) The narrator was not sure about (عافنی) - give me security.[1]

COMMENTARY: The version in Bazzaz's tradition has

العلى العظيم

(the High, the Mighty) instead of

العزيز الحكيم

(the Mighty, the wise). Generally, it is read (العلی العظیم) though Muslim transmission has

العزيز الحكيم

TASBIH AND THE LIKE PREVENT SINS

(٢٣١٨) وَعَنْ أَنَسٍ أَنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَرَّ عَلٰى شَجَرَةٍ يَابِسَةِ الْوَرَقِ فَضَرَبَهَا بِعَصَاهُ فَتَنَاثَرَ الْوَرَقُ فَقَالَ إِنَّ الْحَمْدَ لِلّٰهِ وَسُبْحَانَ اللّٰهِ وَلَا إِلٰهَ إِلَّا اللّٰهُ وَاللّٰهُ أَكْبَرُ تُسَاقِطُ ذُنُوبَ الْعَبْدِ كَمَا يَتَسَاقَطُ وَرَقُ هٰذِهِ الشَّجَرَةِ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَقَالَ هٰذَا حَدِيثٌ غَرِيبٌ

2318. Sayyiduna Anas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم came up to a tree whose leave had dried. The struck its branches with his staff and the leaves fell down. He said, "Indeed, (الحمد لله) (Praise belongs to Allah) (سبحان الله) (Allah is Glorified), (لا اله الا الله) (There is no God but Allah) and (الله اكبر) (Allah is the Greatest) cause a persons' sins to drop just as the leaves of this tree fall down."[2]

MERIT OF LAHAWLA WA LA QUWAH

(٢٣١٩) وَعَنْ مَكْحُوْلٍ عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ أَكْثِرْ مِنْ قَوْلِ لَا حَوْلَ وَلَا قُوَّةَ إِلَّا بِاللّٰهِ فَإِنَّهَا مِنْ كَنْزِ الْجَنَّةِ قَالَ مَكْحُوْلٌ فَمَنْ قَالَ لَا حَوْلَ وَلَا قُوَّةَ إِلَّا بِاللّٰهِ وَلَا مَنْجَأَ مِنَ اللّٰهِ إِلَّا إِلَيْهِ كَشَفَ اللّٰهُ عَنْهُ سَبْعِيْنَ بَابًا مِنَ الضُّرِّ أَدْنَاهَا الْفَقْرُ۔ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَقَالَ هٰذَا حَدِيثٌ لَيْسَ إِسْنَادُهُ بِمُتَّصِلٍ وَمَكْحُوْلٌ لَمْ يَسْمَعْ عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ۔

2319. Sayyiduna Makhul رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that on the authority of Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "Say very often:

لَا حَوْلَ وَلَا قُوَّةَ إِلَّا بِاللّٰهِ

(There is no might and no power save with Allah) because it is part of the treasure of paradise."
Mukhul رحمہ اللہ said that if any one said:

لَا حَوْلَ وَلَا قُوَّةَ إِلَّا بِاللّٰهِ وَلَا مَنْجَأَ مِنَ اللّٰهِ إِلَّا إِلَيْهِ

(There is no might and no power save with Allah. And there is no deliverance from

---

[1] Muslim # 33-2692

[2] Tirmidhi # 3544

(the punishment of) Allah except in (turning to) him}
Allah will remove from him seventy kinds of hardship, the mildest of which is poverty.[1]

COMMENTARY: The expression (لاحول ولا قوة الا بالله) is a treasure on which its reciter will draw on the day (of resurrection) when no worldly property will be useful, and children or relatives will be of no help.

Poverty refers to utter indigence of the hearts about which hadith (tradition) says:

كَادَا لْفَقْرُ اَنْ يَّكُوْنَ كُفْرًا

'Poverty drives one to disbelief.'

Therefore if anyone recites these words, the blessing thereof remove poverty of the heart. When he utters them with his tongue and reflects on their meaning, he is convinced that everything is from Allah, who decrees both profit and harm. The conviction enables him to endure and persevere in the face of hardship and to give thanks for blessing and ease. He entrusts his affairs to Allah. In this way, he is pleased with Allah's decree and becomes dear to Him.

Shaykh (Great religious Scholar) Abu al-Hasan رحمه الله shadhly said that during a journey he had the company of a man who gave him advice, "Know well that for good deeds there is no saying or deed like (ومن يعتصم بالله فقد هدى الى صراط مستقيم) that inclines to Allah and to the path of His blessings. No other deed can help as it does towards this end.'

ومن يعتصم بالله فقد هدى الى صراط مستقيم

{And whosoever holds fast to Allah, he indeed is guided to the straight way} (3:101)

Tirmidhi رحمه الله has termed this hadith (tradition) to be reconnected (because Mukhul رحمه الله did not hear at all from Abu Hurayah) رضی الله عنه. However this hadith (tradition) is upheld by the hadith (tradition) of Abu Musa رضی الله عنه in the sehah sittah and of Abu Hurayrah رضی الله عنه in Nasa'i and Bazzaz, about (لاحول ولا قوة الا بالله), the latter having the additional words too (لا منجا الجنة ......). In this way, Makhiul's رحمه الله hadith (tradition) is reliable as for as meaning is concerned though it is disconnected in t erms of line of transmission.

(٢٣٢٠) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَا حَوْلَ وَلَا قُوَّةَ اِلَّا بِاللّٰهِ دَوَاءٌ مِنْ تِسْعَةٍ وَتِسْعِيْنَ دَاءٍ اَيْسَرُهَا الْهَمُّ۔

2320. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم said." (The expression) (لاحول ولا قوة الا بالله) is a cure for ninety nine diseases of which the least serious is anxiety."[2]

(٢٣٢١) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَلَا اَدُلُّكَ عَلٰى كَلِمَةٍ مِنْ تَحْتِ الْعَرْشِ مِنْ كَنْزِ الْجَنَّةِ لَا حَوْلَ وَلَا قُوَّةَ اِلَّا بِاللّٰهِ يَقُوْلُ اللّٰهُ تَعَالٰى اَسْلَمَ عَبْدِيْ وَاسْتَسْلَمَ۔ رَوَاهُمَا الْبَيْهَقِيُّ فِي الدَّعْوَاتِ الْكَبِيْرِ۔

2321. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم asked, "Shall I not guide you to an expression that is from under the Throne and is from the treasures of paradise: (لاحول ولا قوة الا بالله), Allah the Exalted, says, 'My slave has submitted himself and is obedient."[1]

---

[1] Tirmidhi # 3612, Musnad(book) Ahmad 4-333.

[2] Kanz ul Ummal # 1956 (Ibn Abu ad-Dunya).

(٢٣٢٢) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عُمَرَ اَنَّهُ قَالَ سُبْحَانَ اللّٰهِ هِيَ صَلٰوةُ الْخَلَائِقِ وَالْحَمْدُ لِلّٰهِ كَلِمَةُ الشُّكْرِ وَلَا اِلٰهَ اِلَّا اللّٰهُ كَلِمَةُ الْاِخْلَاصِ وَاللّٰهُ اَكْبَرُ تَمْلَا مَا بَيْنَ السَّمَاءِ وَالْاَرْضِ وَاِذَا قَالَ الْعَبْدُ لَا حَوْلَ وَلَا قُوَّةَ اِلَّا بِاللّٰهِ قَالَ اللّٰهُ تَعَالٰى اَسْلَمَ وَاسْتَسْلَمَ۔ (رواه رزين)

2322. Sayyiduna Ibn Umar رضی الله عنه reported that (سبحان الله) (Glorified is Allah) is the worship of the creatures. (الحمد لله) (Praise belongs to Allah) is the expression of gratitude. (لا اله الا الله) (there is no God but Allah) is the expression of belief in unity of Allah (and a means of deliverance from the Fire). (الله اكبر) (Allah is the Greatest) fills the space between the heaven and earth (with its reward). And when a slave (of Allah) says (لاحول ولا قوة الا بالله) (there is no might and no power save with Allah). Allah the exalted says, 'He has submitted himself and is obedient."

COMMENTARY: The words (سبحان الله) are the worship of the creatures' confirms to Allah's words:

وَاِنْ مِّنْ شَيْءٍ اِلَّا يُسَبِّحُ بِحَمْدِهٖ

{And there is not a thing but glorifies Him with His praise.} (17:44)

Since all creatures declare that Allah is without blemish, hence it is their worship.

CHAPTER - III

AL-ISTIGHFAR WA AT-TAWBAH SEEKING FORGIVENESS AND REPENTING

بَابُ الْاِسْتِغْفَارِ وَالتَّوْبَةِ

Istighfar means 'to seek forgiveness of Allah.' Sometimes Tawbah falls under the purview of Istighfar, but sometimes it does not fall under it. This is why at-Tawbah is mentioned separately in the chapter heading Also, while Istighfar is made with the tongue to seek pardon for one's sins from Allah, Tawbah comes from the heart because repentance for the past sins and a resolve to abstain in future comes from the depth of the heart.

Tawbah is to turn away from sins and return to obedience, from negligence to dhikr (hallowing of Allah) (remembrance), from absence to presence.

Allah's forgiving anyone is to conceal his sins in the world from other people and not to punish him in the hereafter.

Junayd Baghdadi رحمه الله was asked about Tawbah. He said, "it is to forget sins in the sense that the pleasure derived from it is also scraped from the mind so that one does not recall what sin is.

Suhayl Tastari رحمه الله said, "Do not forget sins so that you do not dare to commit sin again for fear of Allah's punishment."

In keeping with Allah's command. (توبوا الی الله جميعا) {And repent to Allah all together} (24:31), it is wajib (obligatory) on everyone to make Istighfar and Tawbah, for no one is infallible and sinless. Everyone must repent his past sins and abstain in future, and make it a routine to seek forgiveness and repent every morning and evening, make expiation for all minor and major sins whether willful or un intentional, and he must not deprive himself of obedience because of the ominous ness of sins. He must not insist on committing sins and let the darkness thereof plunge him into disbelief and hell.

---

[1] Bayhaqi in kitab ad-Dawat al-kabir (both # 2320, 2321)

Four things are necessary for Tawbah to be correct They are of the category of conditions.

(i) Repentance should be made merely for fear of Allah's punishment and in obedience of his command. There should be no other reason for it, like hoping for people's admiration, or because of weakness or poverty.
(ii) There should be a true sense of guilt and remorse for the past sins.
(iii) Desist from every kind of sin both openly and in secret.
(iv) Make a firm, determined resolution not to commit sin again under any circumstances.

The correct repentance and resolution is for one to examine himself from the time he attained puberty till he makes the repentance - for this entire period. He must see what sins he has committed and make amends for each of them. If he has neglected salah (prayer), fasting. Hajj, zakah or other obligations then he must redeem them. He must not be slack in redeeming the prescribed obligation by occupying himself in the supererogatory, fard kifayah (adequate obligation) and such worship.

If he has perpetrated the unlawful things like consuming wine or doing any other absence deed, he must repent and seek forgiveness and, at the same time, disburse charity to the poor and needy in Allah's name. In this way, repentance will be accepted by Allah. He must have faith in Allah's mercy and, insha Allah (if Allah wills)he will be forgiven Allah says:

هُوَالَّذِیْ یَقْبَلُ التَّوْبَةَ عَنْ عِبَادِهٖ وَیَعْفُوْ عَنِ السَّیِّئَاتِ

{And He is (Allah) who accepts repentance from His servants and pardons evil deeds.} (42:25)

This for was concerning sins committed in violation of rights of Allah. If anyone has committed sins violating rights of fellow men or had caused them loss then he must seek forgiveness of Allah for disobeying Him and also make emends for the rights violated of fellow men. He must seek their forgiveness and if he had misappropriated their wealth, he must repay it to them. If had backbitten them or caused them mental agony or physical torture then he must request them to pardon him. If he had wronged anyone in such a way that naming the wrong committed could lead to mischief or illwill then he must ask for pardon in general words without naming the wrong, but if even without naming the wrong, there is likelihood of the situation aggravating then he must not broach the subject with him but turn to Allah for pardon, do good deeds and give charity to earn Allah's pleasure. Allah will compensate the man who was wronged in the world and he will reward him out of His pleasure and get him to be pleased. If the person he had wronged is dead then his heirs represent him, so the wrongdoer must got them to pardon him and he must be kind to them and also give charity on behalf of the dead person.

A believer should not procrastinate in seeking forgiveness for a sin he may have committed. He must not fall into the trap of his base self and the devil to say to himself that he would not be able to honour his repentance and resolve so it was no use repenting. If any one repents, then his past sins are forgiven and if he falls back into sin due to human failings then he may again make a repentance no matter how many times it happens during a day, provided he does not have in mind when he makes the repentance that he would revert to sin and make a fresh repentance. Rather, when he repents he must say to himself, "Perhaps I would die before committing sin again and this might be my final repentance."

When anyone intends to repent, he must first have a bath, don clean clothing, offer two raka'at salah (prayer) with full concentration and go down into prostration and blame himself with extreme humility and submission. He must recall his past sins and fear Divine punishment making his heart tremble. Then with full remorse, he must seek forgiveness and repent and, raising his hands, pray to Allah:

"My Lord, this fleeing slave has come back with his sins with utter remorse seeking pardon for his lapses. You are the Merciful, the compassionate. You are as Sattar (who conceals sins) and you are the forgiving. Forgive my sins. Preserve me from falling into sin again. Only you can grant bounties and only you can forgive."

Then invoke blessing on Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم and pray for forgiveness of all Muslims.

This is the repentance of the common folk, the masses between whom and sin there is not much gap. They generally fall into sin and this kind of repentance by them makes them worthy of the glad tiding in this verse:

إِنَّ اللَّهَ يُحِبُّ التَّوَّابِينَ وَيُحِبُّ الْمُتَطَهِّرِينَ

{Surely, Allah loves those who turn to Him in repentance and He love those who keep themselves clean} (2:222)

However, the repentance of the righteous sainty ones is different. Their living is clean of disobedience and sin and they abide by Shari'ah (Islamic law). They should repent from the bad manners from which it is necessary to purify hearts. And, the repentance of the lovers of Allah when through human frailty they neglect dhikr (hallowing of Allah) of Allah and get occupied in other pursuit, they should turn to Allah instantaneously and repent for their neglect and should make a repentance.

It must be understood that committing a grave sin does not cause anyone's expulsion from belief, but indecency, lewdness and sinful transgression throws one out of it. The subject of grave (major) sins and minor sins has been thrashed out in volume one of this book under (باب الكبائر وعلامات النفاق) (Major sins and signs of hypocrisy, hadith (tradition) # 49 to 62), chapter I of Book of Faith. Here, the two kinds of sin are explained.

As for minor sins, they are so many that it is not possible to avoid them in every day life. Hence, agreed opinion is that minor sins do not dampen taqwa (God fearing, righteousness) provided one does not accustom oneself to them and to repeat them stubborn to commit them constantly raises them to the level of major or grave sins.

It is wajib (obligatory) and binding on all Muslims to refrain from major sins and as far as possible, from minor sins too. A person must realize that though sins do not cause his dismissal from the folds of faith, yet there is an apprehension that a life of sin leads one gradually towards disbelief and hell.

PRESCRIPTION TO PRESERVE FROM SIN

An easy method to avoid sins is to set limit of necessity for everything and content oneself with it. Examples are provision necessary to remove hunger, clothing necessary to cover oneself, shelter enough to protect one in summer and winter and the bare minimum of utensils too, and, finally, one wife.

When anyone jumps beyond the necessary limit and widens on the permissible, he involves himself in those things that are doubtful and makruh(unbecoming). Once he encroaches into the disliked (or makruh(unbecoming)), he gradually perpetrates and unlawful. This is the points that crosses the limits or boundaries of Islam, beyond which begins the land of disbelief and fire.
We seek refuge in Allah from this.

SECTION I اَلْفَصْلُ الْاَوَّلُ

THE PROPHET'S صلى الله عليه وسلم ISTIGHFAR

(٢٣٢٣) عَنْ اَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اِنِّيْ لَاَسْتَغْفِرُ اللّٰهَ وَاَتُوْبُ اِلَيْهِ فِي الْيَوْمِ اَكْثَرَ مِنْ سَبْعِيْنَ مَرَّةً۔ (رواه البخارى)

2323. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضى الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "By Allah, I do seek forgiveness of Allah and make repentance to Him more than seventy times a day."[1]

COMMENTARY: The Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم did not make Istighfar and Tawbah for any sin he may have committed, we seek refuge in Allah from such thought. He was innocent and protected from sin. Rather, he was on the highest station of servitude to Allah and was concerned lest he m ay have not come up to the standard of worship of Allah that behaves and is worthy of the Lord of majesty and bounty. Moreover, he also meant to encourage his ummah (people/followers) to make Istighfar and Tawbah. They are more liable to seek forgiveness and to repent.
Sayyiduna Ali رضى الله عنه used to say that there are only two sanctuaries from Divine punishment on earth, one of them has been taken away while the other remains. So stick to this surviving sanctuary. The one that is removed was the being of the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم. The one that remains is Istighfar. Allah the Exalted, says;

وَمَا كَانَ اللّٰهُ لِيُعَذِّبَهُمْ وَاَنْتَ فِيْهِمْ وَمَا كَانَ اللّٰهُ مُعَذِّبَهُمْ وَهُمْ يَسْتَغْفِرُوْنَ

{But, Allah was not going to chastise them while you (O prophet) were among them, nor would Allah chastise them while they seek forgiveness} (8:33)

(٢٣٢٤) وَعَنِ الْاَغَرِّ الْمُزَنِيِّ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اِنَّهُ لَيُغَانُ عَلٰى قَلْبِيْ وَاِنِّيْ لَاَسْتَغْفِرُ اللّٰهَ فِي الْيَوْمِ مِائَةَ مَرَّةٍ۔ (رواه مسلم)

2324. Sayyiduna Al-Agharr al-Muzani رضى الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said "Surely, a veil is cast over my heart and I do seek forgiveness of Allah one hundred times a day."[2]

COMMENTARY: The ulama (Scholars) explain this hadith (tradition) in different ways. One of their interpretations is that the prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم loved to keep his heart constantly engaged in contact with Allah but he did have to give time to permissible pursuits like eating, drinking, spending time with his wives, etc. Because of these things, he was sort of distracted from Allah during these times. He described these diversions as veil and a sin because of which his heart trembled and became restless. So, he made Istighfar. The most reasonable thing said about this hadith (tradition) is what some Sufis (mysties) have said that it is among the allegorical ahadith (tradition). Only Allah knows its true meaning, as does His Messenger. The ummah (people/followers) must merely have faith in it but not hunt for its meaning.

---

[1] Bukhari # 6307, Ibn Majah # 3816, Musand Ahmad # 2-341.

[2] Muslim # 41-2702, Musnad(book) Ahmad 5-411

(٢٣٢٥) وَعَنْهُ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَآاَيُّهَا النَّاسُ تُوبُوْا اِلَى اللّٰهِ فَاِنِّيْ اَتُوْبُ اِلَيْهِ فِي الْيَوْمِ مِائَةَ مَرَّةٍ۔ (رواه مسلم)

2325. Sayyiduna Al-Agharr al-Muzani رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "O you people, turn to Allah in repentance, for I repent to him one hundred times a day."[1]

COMMAND TO TURN TO ALLAH

(٢٣٢٦) وَعَنْ اَبِي ذَرٍّ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فِيْمَا يَرْوِي عَنِ اللّٰهِ تَبَارَكَ وَتَعَالٰى اَنَّهُ قَالَ يَا عِبَادِيْ اِنِّيْ حَرَّمْتُ الظُّلْمَ عَلٰى نَفْسِيْ وَجَعَلْتُهُ بَيْنَكُمْ مُحَرَّمًا فَلَا تَظَالَمُوا يَا عِبَادِيْ كُلُّكُمْ ضَالٌّ اِلَّا مَنْ هَدَيْتُهُ فَاسْتَهْدُوْنِيْ اَهْدِكُمْ يَا عِبَادِيْ كُلُّكُمْ جَائِعٌ اِلَّا مَنْ اَطْعَمْتُهُ فَاسْتَطْعِمُوْنِيْ اُطْعِمْكُمْ يَا عِبَادِيْ كُلُّكُمْ عَارٍ اِلَّا مَنْ كَسَوْتُهُ فَاسْتَكْسُوْنِيْ اَكْسُكُمْ يَا عِبَادِيْ اِنَّكُمْ تُخْطِئُوْنَ بِاللَّيْلِ وَالنَّهَارِ وَاَنَا اَغْفِرُ الذُّنُوْبَ جَمِيْعًا فَاسْتَغْفِرُوْنِيْ اَغْفِرْ لَكُمْ يَا عِبَادِيْ اِنَّكُمْ لَنْ تَبْلُغُوا ضُرِّيْ فَتَضُرُّوْنِيْ وَلَنْ تَبْلُغُوا نَفْعِيْ فَتَنْفَعُوْنِيْ يَا عِبَادِيْ لَوْ اَنَّ اَوَّلَكُمْ وَاٰخِرَكُمْ وَاِنْسَكُمْ وَجِنَّكُمْ كَانُوْا عَلٰى اَتْقٰى قَلْبِ رَجُلٍ وَاحِدٍ مِنْكُمْ مَا زَادَ ذٰلِكَ فِيْ مُلْكِيْ شَيْئًا يَا عِبَادِيْ لَوْ اَنَّ اَوَّلَكُمْ وَاٰخِرَكُمْ وَاِنْسَكُمْ وَجِنَّكُمْ كَانُوْا عَلٰى اَفْجَرِ قَلْبِ رَجُلٍ وَاحِدٍ مِنْكُمْ مَا نَقَصَ ذٰلِكَ مِنْ مُلْكِيْ شَيْئًا يَا عِبَادِيْ لَوْ اَنَّ اَوَّلَكُمْ وَاٰخِرَكُمْ وَاِنْسَكُمْ وَجِنَّكُمْ قَامُوْا فِيْ صَعِيْدٍ وَاحِدٍ فَسَاَلُوْنِيْ فَاَعْطَيْتُ كُلَّ اِنْسَانٍ مَسْاَلَتَهُ مَا نَقَصَ ذٰلِكَ مِمَّا عِنْدِيْ اِلَّا كَمَا يَنْقُصُ الْمِخْيَطُ اِذَا اُدْخِلَ الْبَحْرَ يَا عِبَادِيْ اِنَّمَا هِيَ اَعْمَالُكُمْ اُحْصِيْهَا عَلَيْكُمْ ثُمَّ اُوَفِّيْكُمْ اِيَّاهَا فَمَنْ وَجَدَ خَيْرًا فَلْيَحْمَدِ اللّٰهَ وَمَنْ وَجَدَ غَيْرَ ذٰلِكَ فَلَا يَلُوْمَنَّ اِلَّا نَفْسَهُ۔ (رواه مسلم)

2326. Sayyiduna Abu Dharr رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said among what he narrated that from Allah. the Blessed, the exalted, that He said, "O My slaves, I have forbidden Myself oppression and I have forbidden it among you. So, do not oppress each other. O my slaves, you are all astray except those whom I guide. So, ask Me for guidance and shall guide you. O My slaves, all of you are hungry (dependant for food) except those whom I feed. So, ask Me for food. I shall feed you. O my slaves, all of you are naked except those whom I clothe. So, ask me for clothing and I shall clothe you. O my slaves, all of you commit sin by night and by day yet I forgive (your) sins. So, seek My forgiveness. I shall forgive you. O My slaves, you cannot cause Me loss and succeed in doing so, and you cannot benefit me and succeed in doing so. O my slaves, if the first of you and the last of you, your mankind and your jinns, all became as pious as the most pious hearted single one among you, that would not bring any increase in My kingdom. O my slaves, if the first of you and the last of you, your mankind and your jinns, all became as wicked as the most wicked hearted single are among you, that would not cause the least dent to My kingdom. O My slaves, if the first of you and the last of you, your mankind and your jinns, stood on a plain and supplicated Me and I gave each man what he prayed for, that would not diminish what I have, save as a needle would reduce from the sea when immersed into it. O My slaves, it is only your deeds that I count for you and then reimburse you in full for them. So, he who finds good, let him praise Allah. And he who finds otherwise, let him blame none but himself."[1]

[1] Muslim # 42-2702

COMMENTARY: Everyone is said to be astray because there is none who is perfect and without some shortcoming of religion or of the world. If people were left to themselves, they would become like wild trees. Allah guides whom He likes. The Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم described it thus, 'Allah created the creation in darkness. Then, He sprinkled His light on them."

However, this should not cause any confusion about these words being contradictory to the hadith (tradition): 'Every newborn is born on innate nature (of Islam)." Becaue innate nature means tawhid or monotheism. Straying and darkness are not to know the commands of faith and the limits of Islam, and its conditions.

"If you repent for sins which you commit all the time by day and night. I shall forgive you all your sins. Some sins are such that the sinner must ask forgiveness for them but some Allah forgives even without a repentance by His mercy.

Allamah Teebi رحمه الله said that a needle does not displace any noticeable amount of water in the sea. It cannot even be imagined. Rather, it is impossible so it has been compared otherwise nothing at all is diminished from Allah's treasures

Ibn Maalik رحمه الله said that this could be said to be a hypothetical statement: 'If at all Allah's treasures were diminished then it would be like that."

ALLAH'S ALL-ENCOMPASSING MERCY

(٢٣٢٧) وَعَنْ اَبِي سَعِيْدٍ الْخُدْرِيِّ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ كَانَ فِيْ بَنِيْ اِسْرَائِيْلَ رَجُلٌ قَتَلَ تِسْعَةً وَتِسْعِيْنَ اِنْسَانًا ثُمَّ خَرَجَ يَسْأَلُ فَاَتٰى رَاهِبًا فَسَأَلَهُ فَقَالَ اَلَهُ تَوبَةٌ قَالَ لَا فَقَتَلَهُ وَجَعَلَ يَسْأَلُ فَقَالَ لَهُ رَجُلٌ اِئْتِ قَرْيَةً كَذَا وَكَذَا فَاَدْرَكَهُ الْمَوتُ فَنَاءَ بِصَدْرِهِ نَحْوَهَا فَاخْتَصَمَتْ فِيْهِ مَلٰئِكَةُ الرَّحْمَةِ وَمَلَائِكَةُ الْعَذَابِ فَاَوحَى اللّٰهُ اِلٰى هٰذِهٖ اَنْ تَقَرَّبِيْ وَاِلٰى هٰذِهٖ اَنْ تَبَاعَدِيْ فَقَالَ قِيْسُوا مَا بَيْنَهُمَا فَوُجِدَ اِلٰى هٰذِهٖ اَقْرَبَ بِشِبْرٍ فَغُفِرَ لَهٗ۔ (متفق عليه)

2327. Sayyiduna Abu Sa'ed al-Khudri رضى الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said. "There was a man from Banu Isra'il who had murdered ninety-nine persons. Then he set out asking (whether his repentance would be accepted) and he came to a monk and asked him if his repentance could be valid. The monk replied in the negative. So he killed the monk. He continued to ask till someone advised him to go to a certain village. However, death overtook him on the way (to it). As he was about to die, he turned his chest towards that village (where he had hoped to gain approval of his repentance). Now, the angels of mercy and the angels of punishment disputed over him. Allah ordered the village to draw nearer to him and the land (that he had left) to draw back, and He ordered the angels, to measure the distances between the two (and the body). He was found to be one span closer to the village to which he was destined. So, he was forgiven."[1]

---

[1] Muslim # 55-2577, Musnad(book) Ahmad 5-160

COMMENTARY: Ibn Maalik رحمه الله said that both, the angels of mercy and the angels of punishments, sought his soul from the angel of death.

This hadith (tradition) is evidence that Allah's mercy is unlimited and embraces one who seeks forgiveness and approval of repentance. He may have been a very great sinner.

Allamah Teebi رحمه الله said that in case of such sinners Allah becomes pleased with the repentant and gets even his enemies to be pleased with him.

The hadith (tradition) exhorts us to seek forgiveness for our sins and make repentance to clear ourselves of sin. We must not despair of Allah's mercy.

(٢٣٢٨) وَعَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَالَّذِي نَفْسِي بِيَدِهِ لَوْلَمْ تُذْنِبُوْا لَذَهَبَ اللّٰهُ بِكُمْ وَلَجَاءَ بِقَوْمٍ يُذْنِبُوْنَ فَيَسْتَغْفِرُوْنَ اللّٰهَ فَيَغْفِرُ لَهُمْ (رواه مسلم)

2328. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضى الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "By him in whose hand is my soul, were you not to commit sin. Allah would take you away and would bring (in your place) a people who would commit sin, then seek Allah's forgiveness. And, He would forgive them."[2]

COMMENTARY: This hadith (tradition) describes Allah's vast mercy and forgiveness. He demonstrates His attribute Al-Ghafur (the forgiving). Hence, people must not be slow in asking for pardon for their sins. In no way does this hadith (tradition) exhort people to commit sin because Allah himself has given the command to abstain from sin and He sent His messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم to this world to bring people out of a life of sin and wrongdoing into obedience and worship.

(٢٣٢٩) وَعَنْ أَبِي مُوسٰى قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِنَّ اللّٰهَ يَبْسُطُ يَدَهٗ بِاللَّيْلِ لِيَتُوْبَ مُسِيْءُ النَّهَارِ وَيَبْسُطُ يَدَهٗ بِالنَّهَارِ لِيَتُوْبَ مُسِيْءُ اللَّيْلِ حَتّٰى تَطْلُعَ الشَّمْسُ مِنْ مَغْرِبِهَا (رواه مسلم)

2329. Sayyiduna Abu Musa رضى الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Surely, Allah stretches out His hand in the night so that the wrong-doers during the day might repent. And, He stretches out His hand in the day so that the wrong doer during the night might repent. (This will go on) till (the time when) the sun rises from the place of its setting."[3]

COMMENTARY: Stretching out the hand is to invite the sinner to repent.

Some scholars say 'stretching out hands' stands for Allah's mercy.

---

[1] Bukhari # 3470, Muslim # 46-2766, Stories from the Hadith (tradition) PP 207, 208 (Dar ul-Isha'at, Karachi)

[2] Muslim # 11-2749, Musnad(book) Ahmad 2-309

[3] Muslim # 31-2759, Musnad(book) Ahmad 4-395.

When the sun rises from the west, repentance will no longer be accepted. Thereafter, no one's repentance will be accepted.

ALLAH ACCEPTS REPENTANCE

(۲۳۳۰) وَعَنْ عَآئِشَةَ قَالَتْ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اِنَّ الْعَبْدَ اِذَا اعْتَرَفَ ثُمَّ تَابَ تَابَ اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ۔ (متفق عليه)

2330. Sayyidah Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہا narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, 'when anyone admits (his sin with remorse) and repents Allah relents to him."[1]

(۲۳۳۱) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ تَابَ قَبْلَ اَنْ تَطْلُعَ الشَّمْسُ مِنْ مَغْرِبِهَا تَابَ اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ۔ (رواه مسلم)

2331. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said. "He who repents before (the time when) the sun rises from the place of its setting, Allah will accept his repentance."[2]

COMMENTARY: Allamah Teebi رحمہ اللہ said that it is (a general) limit for repentance to be accepted. The individual and that is before pangs of death over take a person. His repenting will be futile when he experience the pangs of death.

ALLAH IS PLEASED WITH ANYONE'S REPENTANCE

(۲۳۳۲) وَعَنْ اَنَسٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَلّٰهُ اَشَدُّ فَرَحًا بِتَوْبَةِ عَبْدِهٖ حِيْنَ يَتُوْبُ اِلَيْهِ مِنْ اَحَدِكُمْ كَانَ رَاحِلَتُهٗ بِاَرْضٍ فُلَاةٍ فَانْفَلَتَتْ مِنْهُ وَعَلَيْهَا طَعَامُهٗ وَشَرَابُهٗ فَاَيِسَ مِنْهَا فَاَتٰى شَجَرَةً فَاضْطَجَعَ فِيْ ظِلِّهَا قَدْ اَيِسَ مِنْ رَاحِلَتِهٖ فَبَيْنَمَا هُوَ كَذٰلِكَ اِذْهُوَ بِهَا قَائِمَةٌ عِنْدَهٗ فَاَخَذَ بِخِطَامِهَا ثُمَّ قَالَ مِنْ شِدَّةِ الْفَرَحِ اَللّٰهُمَّ اَنْتَ عَبْدِيْ وَاَنَا رَبُّكَ اَخْطَأَ مِنْ شِدَّةِ الْفَرَحِ۔ (رواه مسلم)

2332. Sayyiduna Anas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "Allah is more pleased with the repentance of His slave when he repents to Him than any of you would be on recovering his riding beast loaded with his food and drink which had fled from him in wilderness and he had no hope of getting it back, so went and lay down in the shade of a tree when, all of a sudden, he saw it standing by him. So, he grabbed its bridle and, overcome with happiness, he explained. 'O Allah, you are my slave and I am your Lord,' erring from exuberance."[3]

COMMENTARY: Allah is very pleased with a person's repentance. He accepts his repentance and his mercy on him.

ALLAH ACCEPTS REPENTANCE AGAIN AND AGAIN

(۲۳۳۳) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اِنَّ عَبْدًا اَذْنَبَ ذَنْبًا فَقَالَ رَبِّ اَذْنَبْتُ

---

[1] Bukhari # 4141, Muslim # 56-2770

[2] Muslim # 43-2703, Musnad(book) Ahmad 2-506

[3] Muslim # 7-2747

فَاغْفِرْهُ فَقَالَ رَبُّهُ اَعَلِمَ عَبْدِى اَنَّ لَهُ رَبًّا يَغْفِرُ الذَّنْبَ وَيَاْخُذُ بِهٖ غَفَرْتُ لِعَبْدِى ثُمَّ مَكَثَ مَا شَاءَ اللّٰهُ ثُمَّ اَذْنَبَ ذَنْبًا فَقَالَ رَبِّ اَذْنَبْتُ ذَنْبًا فَاغْفِرْهُ فَقَالَ اَعَلِمَ عَبْدِى اَنَّ لَهُ رَبًّا يَغْفِرُ الذَّنْبَ وَيَاْخُذُ بِهٖ غَفَرْتُ لِعَبْدِىْ ثُمَّ مَكَثَ مَاشَاءَ اللّٰهُ ثُمَّ اَذْنَبَ ذَنْبًا فَقَالَ رَبِّ اَذْنَبْتُ ذَنْبًا اٰخَرَ فَاغْفِرْهُ لِىْ فَقَالَ اَعَلِمَ عَبْدِىْ اَنَّ لَهُ رَبًّا يَغْفِرُ الذَّنْبَ وَيَاْخُذُ بِهٖ غَفَرْتُ لِعَبْدِى فَلْيَفْعَلْ مَاشَاءَ۔ (متفق عليه)

2333. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said that a man (of this ummah (people/followers) or of the past) committed sin and said, "My Lord I have committed a sin. So forgive me. "His Lord asked (to the angels.). "Does my slave know that he had a Lord who forgives sin (when He likes) and seizes him (when He likes)? I have forgiven my slave." Then, he remained (sinless) till such time as Allah willed. Then he committed a sin and pleased, "My Lord, I have sinned, so forgive me." He (Allah) asked. "Does my slave know that he has a Lord who forgives sin and seize him for it? I have forgiven him." Then, he remained (sinless) as long as Allah willed, but soon committed sin (again) and prayed." My Lord. I have committed another sin. Do forgive me." He asked, "Does My slave know that he has a Lord who forgives sin and seizes for it? I have forgiven My slave. He may do what he likes."[1]

COMMENTARY: Allah says 'He may do what He likes meaning, 'as long as he makes Istighfar after committing sin.' This emphasizes the merit of Istighfar.

DO NOT CONDEMN A SINNER TO HELL

(٢٣٣٤) وَعَنْ جُنْدُبٍ اَنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ حَدَّثَ اَنَّ رَجُلًا قَالَ وَاللّٰهِ لَا يَغْفِرُ اللّٰهُ لِفُلَانٍ وَاِنَّ اللّٰهَ تَعَالٰى قَالَ مَنْ ذَالَّذِى يَتَاَلّٰى عَلَىَّ اِنِّى لَا اَغْفِرُ لِفُلَانٍ فَاِنِّىْ قَدْ غَفَرْتُ لِفُلَانٍ وَاَحْبَطْتُّ عَمَلَكَ اَوْكَمَا قَالَ۔ (رواه مسلم)

2334. Sayyiduna Jundub رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said that a man (of this ummah (people/followers) or of a previous ummah (people/followers)) said, "By Allah, Allah will never forgive so and so" But, indeed, Allah, the Exalted, asked, "Who is he to swear on Me that I shall not forgive so and so? Indeed, I have forgiven that person and have wiped out your deeds." Or, as He did say.[2]

COMMENTARY: Some ignorant Sufis (mysties) do not hold good opinion of the sinners. They must know that Allah's mercy is vast and embraces the sinner too.

It is not allowed to say definitely of anyone that he will be admitted to paradise or consigned to hell. However, those categories whom the Quran and the hadith (tradition) have clearly defined as belonging to paradise or to hell may be described as such in unambiguous words.

PRAYER SEEKING FORGIVENESS

(٢٣٣٥) وَعَنْ شَدَّادِ بْنِ اَوْسٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ سَيِّدُ الْاِسْتِغْفَارِ اَنْ تَقُوْلَ اَللّٰهُمَّ

---

[1] Bukhari # 7507, Muslim # 29-2758, Musnad(book) Ahmad 2-405

[2] Muslim # 137-2621

اَنْتَ رَبِّي لَا اِلٰهَ اَنْتَ خَلَقْتَنِيْ وَاَنَا عَبْدُكَ وَاَنَا عَلٰى عَهْدِكَ وَوَعْدِكَ مَا اسْتَطَعْتُ اَعُوْذُ بِكَ مِنْ شَرِّ مَاصَنَعْتُ اَبُوْءُ لَكَ بِنِعْمَتِكَ عَلَيَّ وَاَبُوْءُ بِذَنْبِي فَاغْفِرلِي فَاِنَّهُ لَا يَغْفِرُ الذُّنُوْبَ اِلَّا اَنْتَ قَالَ وَمَنْ قَالَهَا مِنَ النَّهَارِ مُوقِنًا بِهَا فَمَاتَ مِنْ يَوْمِهٖ قَبْلَ اَنْ يُمْسِيَ فَهُوَ مِنْ اَهْلِ الْجَنَّةِ وَمَنْ قَالَهَا مِنَ اللَّيْلِ وَهُوَ مُوقِنٌ بِهَا فَمَاتَ قَبْلَ اَنْ يُصْبِحَ فَهُوَ مِنْ اَهْلِ الْجَنَّةِ۔ (رواه البخاری)

2335. Sayyiduna Shaddad ibn Aws رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم said that the Sayyidul Istighfar (the most excellent method to seek forgiveness) is that you say:

اَللّٰهُمَّ اَنْتَ رَبِّي لَا اِلٰهَ اَنْتَ خَلَقْتَنِيْ وَاَنَا عَبْدُكَ وَاَنَا عَلٰى عَهْدِكَ وَوَعْدِكَ مَا اسْتَطَعْتُ اَعُوْذُ بِكَ مِنْ شَرِّ مَاصَنَعْتُ اَبُوْءُ لَكَ بِنِعْمَتِكَ عَلَيَّ وَاَبُوْءُ بِذَنْبِي فَاغْفِرلِي فَاِنَّهُ لَا يَغْفِرُ الذُّنُوْبَ

{O Allah, you are my Lord. There is no God but you. You have created me and I am your slave. And I adhere to your covenant and your promise to the best of my ability. I seek refuge in you from the evil of that which I perpetrated I confirm to you Your favours to me and I confess my sin. So, forgive me (my sins), for none, but you forgive sins}
He said, "If anyone says it during the day with a firm conviction in it and dies that day before evening then he will be among the inhabitants of paradise. And it any one says it during the night with a firm conviction on it and dies before morning then he will be among the inhabitant of paradise."[1]

SECTION II اَلْفَصْلُ الثَّانِيْ

ALLAH'S FORGIVENESS KNOWS NO BOUNDS

(٢٣٣٦-٢٣٣٧) عَنْ اَنَسٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ اللّٰهُ تَعَالٰى يَا ابْنَ اٰدَمَ اِنَّكَ مَا دَعَوْتَنِيْ وَرَجَوْتَنِي غَفَرْتُ لَكَ عَلٰى مَاكَانَ فِيْكَ وَلَا اُبَالِي يَا ابْنَ اٰدَمَ لَوْ بَلَغَتْ ذُنُوْبُكَ عَنَانَ السَّمَاءِ ثُمَّ اسْتَغْفَرْتَنِيْ غَفَرْتُ لَكَ وَلَا اُبَالِي يَا ابْنَ اٰدَمَ اِنَّكَ لَوْ لَقِيْتَنِيْ بِقُرَابِ الْاَرْضِ خَطَايَا ثُمَّ لَقِيْتَنِيْ لَا تُشْرِكُ بِيْ شَيْئًا لَاَتَيْتُكَ بِقُرَابِهَا مَغْفِرَةً۔ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَرَوَاهُ اَحْمَدُ وَالدَّارِمِيُّ عَنْ اَبِي ذَرٍّ وَقَالَ التِّرْمِذِيُّ هٰذَا حَدِيْثٌ حَسَنٌ غَرِيْبٌ

2336. Sayyiduna Anas رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم said that Allah, the exalted, says, "O son of Aadam, as long as you pray to me and place hope in Me, I will forgive you in spite of what is against you. I do not mind! O son of Aadam, if your sin reach the borders of the sky and you seek My forgiveness, I shall forgive you. I do not mind. O son of Aadam, were you to come to me with sins as many as would fill the earth and you meet me without having associated any thing with me, I shall come to you with as much forgiveness as would fill the earth."[2]
2337. Sayyiduna Abu Dharr رضی الله عنه narrated that it too.[3]

---

[1] Bukhari # 6306, Tirmidhi # 3404
[2] Tirmidhi # 3551
[3] Darimi # 2788, Musnad(book) Ahmad 5-147.

BE CONFIDENT OF BEING FORGIVEN

(٢٣٣٨) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ عَنْ رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ قَالَ اللّٰهُ تَعَالٰى مَنْ عَلِمَ اَنِّيْ ذُوْقُدْرَةٍ عَلٰى مَغْفِرَةِ الذُّنُوْبِ غَفَرْتُ لَهٗ وَلَا اُبَالِيْ مَا لَمْ يُشْرِكْ بِيْ شَيْئًا (رواه فی شرح السنة)

2338. Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said that Allah says, "He who knows that I am able to forgive sins, I will forgive him, and I do not care about it, provided he does not associate anything with me."[1]

COMMENTARY: A person's knowledge that Allah has power to forgive becomes the means of his forgiveness because he has hopes in him. If anyone places hope in the compassionate, then He does not deprive him.

Therefore, this hadith (tradition) Qudsi is like the hadith (tradition) Qudsi:

انا عند ظن عبدی بی

"I am as My slave's expectation of Me."

It is reported that Sufyan Thawri رحمہ اللہ fell ill. Hammad ibn Salamah رحمہ اللہ paid him a sick visit. Sufyan رحمہ اللہ asked Hammad, رحمہ اللہ "Do you expect that Allah will forgive one like me?" Hammad رحمہ اللہ said, "If I am given choice between my father and Alah to conduct my reckoning, I would get it done by Allah because He is more merciful to me then my father." He meant to advise sufyan رحمہ اللہ to place hopes in Allah's forgiveness and mercy because He is the Most merciful of those who show mercy.

MERIT OF ISTIGHFAR & ITS INFLUENCE

(٢٣٣٩) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ لَزِمَ الْاِسْتِغْفَارَ جَعَلَ اللّٰهُ لَهٗ مِنْ كُلِّ ضِيْقٍ مَخْرَجًا وَمِنْ كُلِّ هَمٍّ فَرَجًا وَرَزَقَهٗ مِنْ حَيْثُ لَا يَحْتَسِبُ۔ (رواہ احمد وابوداؤد)

2339. Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "He who binds himself to make Istighfar, Allah carves for him a way out of every hardship, and from every anxiety a solace. And He will provide for him (provision) from where he did not expect."[2]

COMMENTARY: If a sin is committed or an anxiety, distress or grief descends on anyone, he must make Istighfar. Or, one must make Istighfar constantly, for man is dependant on it every moment of his life. This is why the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said,

طُوْبٰى لِمَنْ وَجَدَ فِيْ صَحِيْفَتِهٖ اِسْتِغْفَارًا كَثِيْرًا

"He is fortunate who find in his record of deeds numerous Istighfar."

He who binds himself to make Istighfar, his heart place a strong reliance on Allah and his sins are forgiven. So, he is counted among those who fear Allah and who rely on Him. Allah says of such people:

وَمَنْ يَّتَّقِ اللّٰهَ يَجْعَلْ لَّهٗ مَخْرَجًا وَّيَرْزُقْهُ مِنْ حَيْثُ لَا يَحْتَسِبُ وَمَنْ يَّتَوَكَّلْ عَلَى اللّٰهِ فَهُوَ حَسْبُهٗ

{And whosoever fears Allah, He appoints a way out for him. And he provides him

---

[1] Sherh us-sunnah(Practice of Holy Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم*)* # 4191, Mustadrak Hakim 4-262

[2] Abu Dawud # 1518, Ibn Majah # 3819, Musand Ahmad # 1-248

sustenance from whence he expects not. And whosoever puts his trust in Allah, so He will suffice him} (65:2-3)

This also is the root of this hadith (tradition).

The merit of Istighfar is established by this verse too:

فَقُلْتُ اسْتَغْفِرُوْا رَبَّكُمْ اِنَّهٗ كَانَ غَفَّارًا يُّرْسِلِ السَّمَآءَ عَلَيْكُمْ مِّدْرَارًا وَّيُمْدِدْكُمْ بِاَمْوَالٍ وَّبَنِيْنَ وَيَجْعَلْ لَّكُمْ جَنّٰتٍ وَّيَجْعَلْ لَّكُمْ اَنْهٰرًا

{So, I said, "Seek forgiveness of your Lord, surely He is ever forgiving. He will send down upon you rain in torrents and will help you with riches and sons and will assign to you gardens, and will assign to you rivers} (71:10-12)

Someone complained to Hasan Busri رحمه الله about drought. He advised him to seek Allah's forgiveness. He gave the same advice to those who complained to poverty and need, of being childless and of poor return from fields.

People asked him why he gave the same advice to make Istighfar in all these cases. He recited the foregoing verse in answer. This verse mentions all those things of which people had complained to him.

(٢٣٤٠) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ بَكْرِنِ الصِّدِّيْقِ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَا اَصَرَّ مَنِ اسْتَغْفَرَ وَاِنْ عَادَ فِي الْيَوْمِ سَبْعِيْنَ مَرَّةً۔ (رواه الترمذى وابوداؤد)

2340. Sayyiduna Abu Bakr as-Siddiq رضى الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "He does not insist (on committing sin) who seeks forgiveness even if he returns to it (sin) seventy times a day."[1]

COMMENTARY: 'To insist' implies to be stubborn in committing sin again and again. As it is, to sin is itself very bad, what to say of being stubborn and defiant. Committing minor sins again and again leads to major sins doing which repeatedly leads to disbelief.

Thus if any one is ashamed of his sin and makes Istighfar for it whether it is minor or major, then he is out of the folds of the stubborn even if he happens to commit this sins very often. Only he is said to insist on sin who commits it repeatedly and I neither ashamed nor repents.

MERIT OF ONE WHO REPENTS

(٢٣٤١) وَعَنْ اَنَسٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ كُلُّ بَنِيْ اٰدَمَ خَطَّاءٌ وَخَيْرُ الْخَطَّائِيْنَ التَّوَّابُوْنَ۔ (رواه الترمذى وابن ماجة والدارمى)

2341. Sayyiduna Anas رضى الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Every son of Aadam عليه السلام is a sinner (but not the Prophets عليه السلام who are innocent and protected). However, the best of the sinners are they who repent (for their sins)."[2]

EXCESS OF SINS CAUSES HEARTS TO RUST

(٢٣٤٢) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اِنَّ الْمُؤْمِنَ اِذَا اَذْنَبَ كَانَتْ نُكْتَةٌ

---

[1] Tirmidhi # 3570, Abu Dawud # 1514

[2] Tirmidhi # Ibn Majah # 4251, Musnad(book) Ahmad 3-198

سَوْدَاءُ فِيْ قَلْبِهٖ فَإِنْ تَابَ وَاسْتَغْفَرَ صُقِلَ قَلْبُهٗ وَإِنْ زَادَ زَادَتْ حَتّٰى تَعْلُوَ قَلْبَهٗ فَذَالِكُمُ الرَّانُ الَّذِيْ ذَكَرَ اللّٰهُ تَعَالٰى كَلَّا بَلْ رَانَ عَلٰى قُلُوْبِهِمْ مَّا كَانُوْا يَكْسِبُوْنَ۔ رَوَاهُ أَحْمَدُ وَالتِّرْمِذِيُّ وَابْنُ مَاجَةَ وَقَالَ التِّرْمِذِيُّ هٰذَا حَدِيْثٌ حَسَنٌ صَحِيْحٌ۔

2342. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger said, "When a believer commits a sin, there is a black spot on his heart. If he repents and makes Istighfar, his heart becomes clean (and spotless). But if he commits more sins, the spot spreads till it covers his heart. This is the (ران) (rust) that is mentioned by Allah, the Exalted:

كَلَّا بَلْ رَانَ عَلٰى قُلُوْبِهِمْ مَّا كَانُوْا يَكْسِبُوْنَ

{Certainly not! But what they have been earning has rusted upon their hearts}[1] (23:14)

COMMENTARY: The black spot spreads when sin after sin is committed and finally spreads over the whole heart. The light of the heart is obstructed so that the believer loses sight of his heart. He cannot recognize beneficial knowledge and pious deeds and cannot understand beneficial intelligent and wise sayings. He becomes bereft of the qualities of compassion and mercy. Ultimately, he becomes bold and daring and commits sin deliberately.

WHEN REPENTANCE CEASES TO BE ACCEPTED

(٢٣٤٣) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عُمَرَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِنَّ اللّٰهَ يَقْبَلُ تَوْبَةَ الْعَبْدِ مَالَمْ يُغَرْغِرْ(رواه الترمذی وابن ماجة)

2343. Sayyiduna Ibn Umar رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "Allah accepts a person's repentance as long as he does not gasp for last breaths."[2]

COMMENTARY: This when soul and body are about to part. The life seems to be ending at the throat and breathing becomes difficult with only a faint gasping. There is no hope of life any more.

The hadith (tradition) means that Tawbah is accepted till death seems imminent at which stage it is no more accepted.

The apparent meaning of the hadith (tradition) is that Tawbah is not accepted at the time of death be it from disbelief or from sin. This is also known from the verse {(4) of surah an-Nisa}" (وليست التوبة ...الخ). Some ulama (Scholars) say, however, that repentance of Musims from sins is acceptable, but from disbelief will not be valid. They mean that profession of belief at the moment of 'no hope' is not accepted, but repentance from sin at the moment of 'no hope' is approved.

Allamah Teebi رحمه الله said that while repentance from sin is not accepted when gasping for breath, yet one may get pardon from a right-owner whose right may have been usurped. That is valid.

---

[1] Tirmidhi # 3345, Ibn Majah # 4251, Musnad(book) Ahmad 3-198

[2] Tirmidhi # 3548, Ibn Majah # 4253, Musnad(book) Ahmad 2-132

VASTNESS OF ALLAH'S FORGIVENESS

(٢٣٤٤) وَعَنْ اَبِي سَعِيْدٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اِنَّ الشَّيْطَانَ قَالَ وَعِزَّتِكَ يَا رَبِّ لَا اَبْرَحُ اُغْوِى عِبَادَكَ مَا دَامَتْ اَرْوَاحُهُمْ فِيْ اَجْسَادِهِمْ فَقَالَ الرَّبُّ عَزَّوَجَلَّ وَعِزَّتِيْ وَجَلَالِيْ وَارْتِفَاعِ مَكَانِيْ لَا اَزَالُ اَغْفِرُ لَهُمْ مَا اسْتَغْفَرُوْنِيْ (رواه احمد)

2344. Sayyiduna Abu Sa'eed رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم said, "The devil boasted. 'By your Might, my Lord, I shall not cease to lead your slaves astray as long, as their souls are in their bodies. So, the mighty and the Glorious Lord said, 'By My Might, My Glory and My High station, I shall not cease to forgive them time till they seek my forgiveness."[1]

TAWBAH

(٢٣٤٥) وَعَنْ صَفْوَانَ بْنِ عَسَّالٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اِنَّ اللّٰهَ تَعَالٰى جَعَلَ بِالْمَغْرِبِ بَابًا عَرْضُهُ مَسِيْرَةُ سَبْعِيْنَ عَامًا لِلتَّوْبَةِ لَا يُغْلَقُ مَا لَمْ تَطْلُعِ الشَّمْسُ مِنْ قِبَلِهِ وَذٰلِكَ قَوْلُ اللّٰهِ عَزَّوَجَلَّ يَوْمَ يَاْتِيْ بَعْضُ اٰيَاتِ رَبِّكَ لَا يَنْفَعُ نَفْسًا اِيْمَانُهَا لَمْ تَكُنْ اٰمَنَتْ مِنْ قَبْلُ۔ (رواه الترمذی وابن ماجة)

2345. Safwan ibn Assal رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم said, "Allah, the Exalted, has created a gate in the west, with a width as wide as can be covered in seventy years, for repentance. It will be locked when the sun rises from its side. This is as Allah Mighty and Glorious, says:

يَوْمَ يَاْتِيْ بَعْضُ اٰيَاتِ رَبِّكَ لَا يَنْفَعُ نَفْسًا اِيْمَانُهَا لَمْ تَكُنْ اٰمَنَتْ مِنْ قَبْلُ

{On the day when certain signs of your Lord will come, to believe them shall not profit a soul that never believed (them) before.}[2] (6:158)

COMMENTARY: The gate is open for the repentant. Or, it is a sign that the repentance is properly made and is accepted. This gate will remain open for the people as long as the sun does not rise from the direction of the west. Anyone may repent till then from polytheism and disbelief and sinners may seize the opportunity to repent from their sins and become worthy of the blessings of the hereafter and its everlasting life. When the sun rises from the west the gate of repentance will be closed. The entire verse cited is:

يَوْمَ يَاْتِيْ بَعْضُ اٰيَاتِ رَبِّكَ لَا يَنْفَعُ نَفْسًا اِيْمَانُهَا لَمْ تَكُنْ اٰمَنَتْ مِنْ قَبْلُ اَوْكَسَبَتْ فِيْ اِيْمَانِهَا خَيْرًا

{On the day when certain signs of your Lord will come, to believe them shall not benefit a soul that never believed (them) before, or (Believe but) had not earned any good by its belief} (6:158)

This verse also refers to the day when the sun would rise in the west. T he person who had not believed before, or was a believer but had not repented would derive no benefit from his faith or repentance at this stage.

(٢٣٤٦) وَعَنْ مُعَاوِيَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَا تَنْقَطِعُ الْهِجْرَةُ حَتّٰى تَنْقَطِعَ التَّوْبَةُ وَلَا تَنْقَطِعُ التَّوْبَةُ حَتّٰى تَطْلُعَ الشَّمْسُ مِنْ مَغْرِبِهَا۔ (رواه احمد و ابو داؤد و الدرامی)

2346. Sayyidina Mu'awiyah رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم said,

---

[1] Musnad(book) Ahmad 3-29

[2] Tirmidhi # 3546/7, Ibn Majah # 4071 (Tirmidhi is a lengthier hadith (tradition))

"Emigration (meaning recourse to repentance from sin) will not cease until repentance (itself) ceases. And repentance will not cease until the sun rises its place of setting."[1]

COMMENTARY: As long as repentance is approval, every reptant person will be able to purify himself from sin. But, when the door to repentace is shut, no one will have the burden of his sins removed from him, and this will happened when the sun rises from the west, the place of its setting.

DO NOT DESPAIR OF ALLAH'S MERCY

(٢٣٤٧) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اِنَّ رَجُلَيْنِ كَانَا فِيْ بَنِيْ اِسْرَائِيْلَ مُتَحَابَّيْنِ اَحَدُهُمَا مُجْتَهِدٌ فِي الْعِبَادَةِ وَالْاٰخَرُ يَقُوْلُ مُذْنِبٌ فَجَعَلَ يَقُوْلُ اَقْصِرْ عَمَّا اَنْتَ فِيْهِ فَيَقُوْلُ خَلِّنِيْ وَرَبِّيْ حَتّٰى وَجَدَهُ يَوْمًا عَلٰى ذَنْبٍ اِسْتَعْظَمَهُ فَقَالَ اَقْصِرْ فَقَالَ خَلِّنِيْ وَرَبِّيْ اَبُعِثْتَ عَلَيَّ رَقِيْبًا فَقَالَ وَاللّٰهِ لَا يَغْفِرُ اللّٰهُ لَكَ اَبَدًا وَلَا يُدْخِلُكَ الْجَنَّةَ فَبَعَثَ اللّٰهُ اِلَيْهِمَا مَلَكًا فَقَبَضَ اَرْوَاحَهُمَا فَاجْتَمِعَا عِنْدَهُ فَقَالَ لِلْمُذْنِبِ اُدْخُلِ الْجَنَّةَ بِرَحْمَتِيْ وَقَالَ لِلْاٰخَرِ اَتَسْتَطِيْعُ اَنْ تَحْظُرَ عَلٰى عَبْدِيْ رَحْمَتِيْ فَقَالَ لَا يَارَبِّ قَالَ اذْهَبُوْا بِهٖ اِلَى النَّارِ۔ (رواه احمد)

2347. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, 'Two men of Banu Israil loved one another. One of them engaged in worship with high devotion. The other called himself a sinner. The pious one began to say. 'Stop doing what you do.' The wicked would say, 'Let me alone with my Lord! Then, he found him one day committing a sin that he regarded as grave and said, 'Ceased.' The wicked one again protested that he should be left alone to his Lord and asked. 'Are you sent as a supervisor over?" The pious man warned, 'By Allah, Allah will never forgive you and never admit you to paradise. Allah sent to them an angel. He took out their souls and they were brought together in His presence. He said to the sinner, 'Enter paradise by My mercy. To the pious, he said, 'Are you able to block My mercy to My slave?' He said, "No, O lord!" He said, "Take him to hell."[2]

COMMENTARY: The pious worshipper was arrogant and regarded the sinner with disdain. Someone has said that the sin that causes the sinner to be considered be despised and lowly is better than the worship that causes one to be proud.

SINNER SHOULD NOT DESPAIR OF ALLAH'S MERCY

(٢٣٤٨) وَعَنْ اَسْمَاءَ بِنْتِ يَزِيْدَ قَالَتْ سَمِعْتُ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقْرَأُ يَا عِبَادِيَ الَّذِيْنَ اَسْرَفُوْا عَلٰى اَنْفُسِهِمْ لَا تَقْنَطُوْا مِنْ رَّحْمَةِ اللّٰهِ اِنَّ اللّٰهَ يَغْفِرُ الذُّنُوْبَ جَمِيْعًا وَلَا يُبَالِيْ۔ رَوَاهُ اَحْمَدُ وَالتِّرْمِذِيُّ وَقَالَ هٰذَا حَدِيْثٌ حَسَنٌ غَرِيْبٌ وَفِيْ شَرْحِ السُّنَّةِ يَقُوْلُ بَدَلَ يَقْرَأُ۔

2348. Sayyidah Asma bint yazid رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that she heard Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم recite:

يَا عِبَادِيَ الَّذِيْنَ اَسْرَفُوْا عَلٰى اَنْفُسِهِمْ لَا تَقْنَطُوْ مِنْ رَّحْمَةِ اللّٰهِ اِنَّ اللّٰهَ يَغْفِرُ الذُّنُوْبَ جَمِيْعًا

{O My slaves who have been prodigal against themselves, despair not of Allah's mercy, surely Allah forgives sins altogether} (3953)

And, he said, "He does not care."[3]

COMMENTARY: Allah forgives sins, He pardons the disbelievers when they repent from disbelief. He forgives the believers when they repent for their sins and also by His mercy even without their repenting.

---

[1] Abu Dawuud # 2479, Musnad Ahmad 2/312, Darimi # 2519.

[2] Musnad(book) Ahmad 3-323

[3] Tirmidhi # 3248, Musnad(book) Ahmad 27640

(٢٣٤٩) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ فِيْ قَوْلِ اللّٰهِ تَعَالٰى اِلَّا اللَّمَمَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اِنْ تَغْفِرِ اللّٰهُمَّ تَغْفِرْ جَمًّا وَاَيُّ عَبْدٍ لَكَ لَا اَلَمَّا۔ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَقَالَ هٰذَا حَدِيْثٌ حَسَنٌ صَحِيْحٌ غَرِيْبٌ۔

2349. Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ reported concerning Allah's words (الا اللمم) (save small offences) that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم referred to the poetic verse: (ان تغفر اللهم......)"If you forgive, O Allah, then forgive all sins, for which of your slaves has not committed small offences.?"[1]

COMMENTARY: The words (الا اللمم) from part of this verse (53:32)

وَالَّذِيْنَ يَجْتَنِبُوْنَ كَبٰٓئِرَ الْاِثْمِ وَالْفَوَاحِشَ اِلَّا اللَّمَمَ اِنَّ رَبَّكَ وَاسِعُ الْمَغْفِرَةِ

{They are those who avoid great sins and indecencies, save small offences. Surely, Your lord is of vast forgiveness.}

The poetry cited by the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم belonged to the poet Umayyah ibn Sult. He was a poet of the pre-Islamic era, the jihiiiyah. During those days too, umayyah was a righteous man. He was a believer in resurrection.

He was alive when Islam was introduced and spread. However, be remained deprived of the honour of joining its folds.[2]

His poetry was intelligent and full of wisdom. So, the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم not only heard it being recited but also quoted from it sometimes.

NO ME CAN ADD OR DEDUCT FROM ALLAH'S DIVINITY

(٢٣٥٠) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ ذَرٍّ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُوْلُ اللّٰهُ تَعَالٰى يَا عِبَادِيْ كُلُّكُمْ ضَالٌّ اِلَّا مَنْ هَدَيْتُ فَاسْئَلُوْنِي الْهُدٰى اَهْدِكُمْ وَكُلُّكُمْ فُقَرَاءُ اِلَّا مَنْ اَغْنَيْتُ فَاسْأَلُوْنِيْ اَرْزُقْكُمْ وَكُلُّكُمْ مُذْنِبٌ اِلَّا مَنْ عَافَيْتُ فَمَنْ عَلِمَ مِنْكُمْ اَنِّيْ ذُوْقُدْرَةٍ عَلَى الْمَغْفِرَةِ فَاسْتَغْفِرَنِيْ غَفَرْتُ لَهٗ وَلَا اُبَالِيْ وَلَوْ اَنَّ اَوَّلَكُمْ وَاٰخِرَكُمْ وَحَيَّكُمْ وَمَيِّتَكُمْ وَرَطْبَكُمْ وَيَابِسَكُمْ اِجْتَمَعُوْا عَلٰى اَتْقٰى قَلْبِ عَبْدٍ مِنْ عِبَادِيْ مَا زَادَ ذٰلِكَ فِيْ مُلْكِيْ جَنَاحَ بَعُوْضَةٍ وَلَوْ اَنَّ اَوَّلَكُمْ وَاٰخِرَكُمْ وَحَيَّكُمْ وَمَيِّتَكُمْ وَرَطْبَكُمْ وَيَابِسَكُمْ اجْتَمَعُوْا عَلٰى اَشْقٰى قَلْبِ عَبْدٍ مِنْ عِبَادِيْ مَا نَقَصَ ذٰلِكَ مِنْ مُلْكِيْ جَنَاحَ بَعُوْضَةٍ وَلَوْ اَنَّ اَوَّلَكُمْ وَاٰخِرَكُمْ وَحَيَّكُمْ وَمَيِّتَكُمْ وَرَطْبَكُمْ وَيَابِسَكُمْ اجْتَمَعُوْا فِيْ صَعِيْدٍ وَاحِدٍ فَسَأَلَ كُلُّ اِنْسَانٍ مِنْكُمْ مَا بَلَغَتْ اُمْنِيَّتُهٗ فَاَعْطَيْتُ كُلَّ سَائِلٍ مِنْكُمْ مَا نَقَصَ ذٰلِكَ مِنْ مُلْكِيْ اِلَّا كَمَا لَوْ اَنَّ اَحَدَكُمْ مَرَّ بِالْبَحْرِ فَغَمَسَ فِيْهِ اِبْرَةً ثُمَّ رَفَعَهَا ذٰلِكَ بِاَنِّيْ جَوَادٌ مَاجِدٌ اَفْعَلُ مَا اُرِيْدُ عَطَائِيْ كَلَامٌ وَعَذَابِيْ كَلَامٌ اِنَّمَا اَمْرِيْ لِشَيْءٍ اِذَا اَرَدْتُ اَنْ اَقُوْلَ لَهٗ كُنْ فَيَكُوْنُ۔ (رواه احمد والترمذی وابن ماجة)

2350. Sayyiduna Abu Dharr رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said

---

[1] Tirmidhi # 3295

[2] See Sahih Muslim Book of Poetry hadith (tradition) # 1-2255 narrated by Amr ibn ash-sharid: 'He was about to become a Muslim.'

that Allah, the Exalted, says, 'O My slaves all of you are astray except he whom I guide, so ask Me for guidance. I shall guide you. All of you are poor except he whom I enrich, so ask Me and I shall give you provision. All of you are sinners except he whom I save. So, he among you who knows that I am able to forgive and seeks My forgiveness, I shall forgive him, and I do not care. If the first of you and the last of you, the living among you and your dead, the fresh among you and the hopeless (old) among you assemble together to have hearts as the heart of the most righteous of My slave that will not increase My dominion by even so much as the wing of a mosquito. If the first of you and the last of you, the living among you and your dead, the fresh among you and the hopeless among you assemble together to have hearts as the heart of the cruelest of my slaves that will not diminish from my dominion even so much as the wing of a mosquito. And, the first of you and the last of you, your jinns and your mankind, the living among you and the hopeless among you assemble together in a field and each one of you prays to Me for his need, I shall give every seeker among you and that will not decrease from My kingdom except like any of you who passing by a sea and immersing a needle in it, withdraws from it to him. This, because I am Jawwad, Wajib (obligatory), Maajid (The Bountiful, The perceiver, The Glorious). I do what I will. My grant is a ward and My seizing is a word. My only command to anything that I intend is to say to it, 'Be' and it is."[1]

GLAD TIDINGS TO ONE WHO ABSTAINS FROM POLYTHEISM

(٢٣٥١) وَعَنْ اَنَسٍ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَنَّهُ قَرَأَ هُوَ اَهْلُ التَّقْوٰى وَاَهْلُ الْمَغْفِرَةِ قَالَ قَالَ رَبُّكُمْ اَنَا اَهْلُ اَنْ اُتَّقٰى فَمَنِ اتَّقَانِيْ فَاَنَا اَهْلُ اَنْ اَغْفِرَلَهٗ۔ (رواه الترمذی وابن ماجة والدارمی)

2351. Sayyiduna Anas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم recited:

هُوَ اَهْلُ التَّقْوٰى وَاَهْلُ الْمَغْفِرَةِ

{He alone is worthy to be feared and worthy to forgive.} (74:56)
Then he said, "Your Lord says 'I am worthy to be feared. And, to him who fears Me. I am worthy to grant forgiveness."[2]

COMMENTARY: This verse resembles the next in its subject matter:

اِنَّ اللّٰهَ لَا يَغْفِرُ اَنْ يُّشْرَكَ بِهٖ وَيَغْفِرُ مَا دُوْنَ ذٰلِكَ لِمَنْ يَّشَآءُ

{Surely Allah shall not forgive that anything be associated with Him, and He shall forgive all besides that to whom He will} (4:48)

PROPHET MUHAMMAD صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم WORDS OF ISTIGHFAR

(٢٣٥٢) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عُمَرَ قَالَ اِنْ كُنَّا لَنَعُدُّ لِرَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فِي الْمَجْلِسِ يَقُوْلُ رَبِّ اغْفِرْلِيْ وَتُبْ عَلَيَّ اِنَّكَ اَنْتَ التَّوَّابُ الْغَفُوْرُ مِائَةَ مَرَّةٍ۔ (رواه احمد والترمذی وابوداؤد وابن ماجة)

2352. Sayyiduna Ibn Umar رضی اللہ عنہ narrated: We used to count that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said in a sitting

---

[1] Tirmidhi # 2500, Ibn Majah # 4251, Musnad Ahmad 5-154. (See also hadith (tradition) # 2326)
[2] Tirmidhi # 3339, Ibn Majah # 4299, Darimi # 2724.

رَبِّ اغْفِرْلِي وَتُبْ عَلَيَّ إِنَّكَ أَنْتَ التَّوَّابُ الْغَفُوْرُ

"My Lord, forgive me and relent to me. Surely you are the Relenting, the forgiving," One hundred times.[1]

MAKE ISTIGHFAR SINCERELY

(٢٣٥٣) وَعَنْ بِلَالِ بْنِ يَسَارِ بْنِ زَيْدٍ مَوْلَى النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ حَدَّثَنِي أَبِي عَنْ جَدِّي أَنَّهُ سَمِعَ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُوْلُ مَنْ قَالَ أَسْتَغْفِرُ اللّٰهَ الَّذِيْ لَا إِلٰهَ إِلَّا هُوَ الْحَيُّ الْقَيُّوْمُ وَأَتُوبُ إِلَيْهِ غُفِرَ لَهُ وَإِنْ كَانَ قَدْ فَرَّ مِنَ الزَّحْفِ۔ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَأَبُوْدَاوُدَ لٰكِنَّهُ عِنْدَ أَبِي دَاوُدَ هِلَالُ ابْنُ يَسَارٍ وَقَالَ التِّرْمِذِيُّ هٰذَا حَدِيْثٌ غَرِيْبٌ

2353. Sayyiduna Bilal ibn Yasar ibn Zayd the freedman of the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم said that his father narrated to him from his grandfather that he heard Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم say, "If anyone says:

أَسْتَغْفِرُ اللّٰهَ الَّذِيْ لَا إِلٰهَ إِلَّا هُوَ الْحَيُّ الْقَيُّوْمُ وَأَتُوبُ إِلَيْهِ

{I seek forgiveness of Allah besides whom there is no God, the ever living, the self subsisting. And I repent to Him.}
then he is forgiven even if he has fled from the battle field."[2]

COMMENTARY: Whether it is a supplication, a dhikr (hallowing of Allah), a deed or a petition, the intention prompting it should be sincere. The beat of the heart must synchronise with the utterance of the tongue. If not, then the supplication gets no answer and the other things are meaningless. The ulama (Scholars) say that the Istighfar should always be made sincerely and with a true intention. It is said that if anyone repents from a sin but does not desist from it then he is as one making fun of Allah. (We seek refuge in Allah from such thought.

SECTION III　　　　اَلْفَصْلُ الثَّالِثُ

ISTIGHFAR FOR THOSE WHO LOVE DIED

(٢٣٥٤) عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِنَّ اللّٰهَ عَزَّوَجَلَّ لَيَرْفَعُ الدَّرَجَةَ لِلْعَبْدِ الصَّالِحِ فِي الْجَنَّةِ فَيَقُوْلُ يَا رَبِّ أَنّٰى لِي هٰذِهِ فَيَقُوْلُ بِاسْتِغْفَارِ وَلَدِكَ لَكَ۔ (رواه احمد)

2354. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضى الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "surely. Allah Mighty and Glorious, raises the rank of a righteous man in paradise. He ask, "O Lord, from whence is this?' He says, 'Because of your son's making Istighfar for you.'[3]

BEST GIFT FOR THE DEAD IS ISTIGHFAR

(٢٣٥٥) وَعَنْ عَبْدِاللّٰهِ بْنِ عَبَّاسٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَا الْمَيِّتُ فِي الْقَبْرِ إِلَّا كَالْغَرِيْقِ

[1] Abu Dawud # 1516, Tirmidhi – ibn Majah # 3814, Musnad Ahmad 2-21.
[2] Tirmidhi # 3588, Abu Dawud # 1517.
[3] Musnad(book) Ahmad 2-519, Ibn Majah # 3660.

اَلْمُتَغَوِّثِ يَنْتَظِرُ دَعْوَةً تَلْحَقُهُ مِنْ اَبٍ اَوْ اُمٍّ اَوْ اَخٍ اَوْ صَدِيْقٍ فَإِذَا لَحِقَتْهُ كَانَ اَحَبَّ اِلَيْهِ مِنَ الدُّنْيَا وَمَا فِيْهَا وَاِنَّ اللّٰهَ تَعَالٰى لَيُدْخِلُ عَلٰى اَهْلِ الْقُبُوْرِ مِنْ دُعَاءِ اَهْلِ الْاَرْضِ اَمْثَالَ الْجِبَالِ وَاِنَّ هَدِيَّةَ الْاَحْيَاءِ اِلَى الْاَمْوَاتِ الْاِسْتِغْفَارُ لَهُمْ۔ رَوَاهُ الْبَيْهَقِيُّ فِيْ شُعَبِ الْاِيْمَانِ۔

2355. Sayyiduna Abdullah ibn Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "A dead person in the grave is not but like a drawing person calling for help. He waits for a supplication from a father or a mother, or a brother, or a friend. When it reaches him, it is dearer to him then the world and whatever is in it. And Allah, the Exalted causes to reach to the grave dwellers the supplication of the people of the earth, as great as the mountains. Surely, the gift of the living to the dead is the Istighfar for them."[1]

MERIT OF ISTIGHFAR

(٢٣٥٦) وَعَنْ عَبْدِاللّٰهِ بْنِ بُسْرٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ طُوْبٰى لِمَنْ وَجَدَ فِيْ صَحِيْفَتِهٖ اِسْتِغْفَارًا كَثِيْرًا رَوَاهُ ابْنُ مَاجَةَ وَرَوَى النَّسَائِيُّ فِيْ عَمَلِ يَوْمٍ وَلَيْلَةٍ۔

2356. Sayyiduna Abdullah ibn Busr رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "He is very fortunate who finds in his record of deeds plenty of Istighfar."[2]

COMMENTARY: This hadith (tradition), too, as narrated by Sayyiduna Anas رضی اللہ عنہ and transmitted by Bazzar رحمہ اللہ is very encouraging to make Istighfar;

"When the angels take the record of deeds of a person to Allah and He finds istighfrar at its two ends, Allah says, 'I have forgiven this man the sins that are between the two ends of this record.'

Anyone who makes Istighfar in the morning and in the evening will gain this benefit.

A SUPPLICATION OF THE PROPHET MUHAMMAD صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم

(٢٣٥٧) وَعَنْ عَائِشَةَ اَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ كَانَ يَقُوْلُ اَللّٰهُمَّ اجْعَلْنِيْ مِنَ الَّذِيْنَ اِذَا اَحْسَنُوْا اِسْتَبْشَرُوْا وَاِذَا سَاءُوْا اسْتَغْفَرُوا۔ رَوَاهُ ابْنُ مَاجَةَ وَالْبَيْهَقِيُّ فِي الدَّعْوَاتِ الْكَبِيْرِ۔

2357. Sayyiduna Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہا narrated that the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم used to make this supplication;

اَللّٰهُمَّ اجْعَلْنِيْ مِنَ الَّذِيْنَ اِذَا اَحْسَنُوْا اِسْتَبْشَرُوْا وَاِذَا سَاءُوْا اسْتَغْفَرُوا

(O Allah cause me to be among those who, when they do good, are happy, and when they do evil, make Istighfar.)[3]

ALLAH IS PLEASED WITH THE TAWBAH OF HIS CREATURES

(٢٣٥٨) وَعَنِ الْحَارِثِ بْنِ سُوَيْدٍ قَالَ حَدَّثَنَا عَبْدُاللّٰهِ بْنُ مَسْعُوْدٍ حَدِيْثَيْنِ اَحَدُهُمَا عَنْ رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ

[1] Bayhaqi in Shu'ab Eeman # 7904.

[2] Ibn Majah # 3818, Nasa'I in 'Amal Forom a Laylah.'

[3] Ibn Majah # 3820, Bayhaqi in Daawat al Kabir.

عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَالْاٰخَرُ عَنْ نَفْسِهٖ قَالَ اِنَّ الْمُؤْمِنَ يَرٰى ذُنُوْبَهٗ كَاَنَّهٗ قَاعِدٌ تَحْتَ جَبَلٍ يَخَافُ اَنْ يَّقَعَ عَلَيْهِ وَاِنَّ الْفَاجِرَ يَرٰى ذُنُوْبَهٗ كَذُبَابٍ مَرَّ عَلٰى اَنْفِهٖ فَقَالَ بِهٖ هٰكَذَا اَیْ بِيَدِهٖ فَذَبَّهٗ عَنْهُ ثُمَّ قَالَ سَمِعْتُ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُوْلُ اللّٰهُ اَفْرَحُ بِتَوْبَةِ عَبْدِهِ الْمُومِنِ مِنْ رَجُلٍ نَزَلَ فِیْ اَرْضٍ دَوِيَّةٍ مُهْلِكَةٍ مَعَهٗ رَاحِلَتُهٗ عَلَيْهَا طَعَامُهٗ وَشَرَابُهٗ فَوَضَعَ رَأْسَهٗ فَنَامَ نَوْمَةً فَاسْتَيْقَظَ وَقَدْ ذَهَبَتْ رَاحِلَتُهٗ فَطَلَبَهَا حَتّٰى اِذَا اشْتَدَّ عَلَيْهِ الْحَرُّ وَالْعَطَشُ وَمَاشَاءَ اللّٰهُ قَالَ اَرْجِعُ اِلٰى مَكَانِیَ الَّذِیْ كُنْتُ فِيْهِ فَاَنَامُ حَتّٰى اَمُوْتَ فَوَضَعَ رَأْسَهٗ عَلٰى سَاعِدِهٖ لِيَمُوْتَ فَاسْتَيْقَظَ فَاِذَا رَاحِلَتُهٗ عِنْدَهٗ عَلَيْهَا زَادُهٗ وَشَرَابُهٗ فَاللّٰهُ اَشَدُّ فَرَحًا بِتَوْبَةِ الْعَبْدِ الْمُومِنِ مِنْ هٰذَا بِرَاحِلَتِهٖ وَزَادِهٖ۔ رَوٰى مُسْلِمُ الْمَرْفُوْعَ اِلٰى رَسُوْلِ للّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مِنْهُ فَحَسْبٌ وَرَوَى الْبُخَارِیُّ الْمَوْقُوفَ عَلَى ابْنِ مَسْعُوْدٍ اَيْضًا۔

2358. Sayyiduna Al-Harith ibn Suwayd رحمه الله reported that Sayyiduna Abdullah ibn Mas'ud رضی الله عنه narrated to him two hadith (tradition) one of which was from Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم and the other from himself.

He narrated: surely, the believer regards his sins as though he were sitting under a mountain fearful that it might collapse on him. But, the wicked one regards his sins as though a fly had landed on his nose and he promptly brushed it off with his hand. Then he narrated that he had heard Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم say that Allah is more pleased over the repentance of His believing slave than a man who goes to a desert that is threateningly lonely with his riding beast loaded with his food and drink, and there he puts his head down and goes to sleep only to find, on awakening, that his riding beast had disappeared, so he seeks it till the severe heat and thirst and what Allah wills bear him down and he decides to return to his place where he was and sleep till he dies, and puts his head down on his arm to die till he awakes to see his riding beast near him with his provision intact on it – Allah is more happy with the repentance of the believing slave than this one with his riding beast and his provision.[1]

COMMENTARY: This hadith (tradition) reminds us of the verse:

اِنَّ اللّٰهَ يُحِبُّ التَّوَّابِيْنَ

{Surely Allah loves those who turn to Him in repentance} (2:222)

Imam Ghazali رحمه الله said that a great scholar Abu Ishaq Asfara'I رحمه الله prayed to Allah, Glorious and Exalted, for thirty years to enable him to make Tawbah nasuh (a true, sincere repentance). He was amazed that Allah, who is without blemish and is Independent, did not grant him his prayer for thirty years together. Then he was told in a dream. "You are amazed but do you not realize what the real objective of your prayer is? Is it not that Allah should take you as a dear friend? Then, are you not aware of the glad tidings of Allah in the verse:

---

[1] Bukhari # 6308, Musim # 3-2744, Musnad(book) Ahmad 1-283, (See also in this book # 2332).

إِنَّ اللّٰهَ يُحِبُّ التَّوَّابِيْنَ وَيُحِبُّ الْمُتَطَهِّرِيْنَ

{Surely Allah loves those who turn to Him in repentance, and He loves those who keep themselves clean}? (2:222)

Hence, your wish can be accomplished very easily and, in fact, has been granted, already?"

(٢٣٥٩) وَعَنْ عَلِيٍّ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِنَّ اللّٰهَ يُحِبُّ الْعَبْدَ الْمُؤْمِنَ الْمُفَتَّنَ التَّوَّابَ۔

2359. Sayyiduna Ali رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "Surely, Allah loves the believing slave who is tried through sin but repents very often."[1]

COMMENTARY: This does not imply that Allah loves him because he commits sin. Rather, He takes him as a friend because he is ashamed over his folly and makes repentance.

DO NOT DESPAIR OF ALLAH'S MERCY

(٢٣٦٠) وَعَنْ ثَوْبَانَ قَالَ سَمِعْتُ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُوْلُ مَا أُحِبُّ أَنَّ لِيَ الدُّنْيَا بِهٰذِهِ الْاٰيَةِ يَا عِبَادِيَ الَّذِيْنَ اَسْرَفُوْا عَلٰٓى اَنْفُسِهِمْ لَا تَقْنَطُوا۔ الْاٰيَة. فَقَالَ رَجُلٌ فَمَنْ اَشْرَكَ فَسَكَتَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ ثُمَّ قَالَ اَلَا وَمَنْ اَشْرَكَ ثَلَاثَ مَرَّاتٍ

2360. Sayyiduna Thawban رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that he heard Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم say, "I would not give away this verse (39:53) for the world:

يَا عِبَادِيَ الَّذِيْنَ اَسْرَفُوْا عَلٰٓى اَنْفُسِهِمْ لَا تَقْنَطُوا الْاٰيَة

{O My servants who have acted recklessly against their own selves, despair not...}" A man asked, "Even those who have a associated partner (with Allah, are they included in this verse)?" The Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم did not say anything for some time and then said, "Know well! Even those who have associated partners with Allah (and have repented)."[2]

COMMENTARY: The world and all it contains are nothing in comparison to the verse mentioned because it holds out an assurance for forgiveness of all sins. The entire verse is

يٰعِبَادِيَ الَّذِيْنَ اَسْرَفُوْا عَلٰٓى اَنْفُسِهِمْ لَا تَقْنَطُوْا مِنْ رَّحْمَةِ اللّٰهِ اِنَّ اللّٰهَ يَغْفِرُ الذُّنُوْبَ جَمِيْعًا اِنَّهٗ هُوَ الْغَفُوْرُ الرَّحِيْمُ

{O My servants who have acted recklessly against their own selves, do not despair of Allah's mercy. Surely, Allah will forgive all sins. Surely, He is the one who in the Most Forgiving, the Very Merciful} (39:53)

Sayyiduna Ali رضی اللہ عنہ composed poetry on this subject and preferred some advice too.

POLYTHEISM OBSTRUCTS ALLAH'S MERCY

(٢٣٦١) وَعَنْ اَبِي ذَرٍّ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِنَّ اللّٰهَ تَعَالٰى لَيَغْفِرُ لِعَبْدِهٖ مَا لَمْ يَقَعِ الْحِجَابُ قَالُوْا يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ وَمَا الْحِجَابُ قَالَ اَنْ تَمُوْتَ النَّفْسُ وَهِيَ مُشْرِكَةٌ۔ رَوَى الْاَحَادِيْثَ الثَّلَاثَةَ اَحْمَدُ وَرَوَى الْبَيْهَقِيُّ الْاَخِيْرَ فِيْ كِتَابِ الْبَعْثِ وَالنُّشُوْرِ

2361. Sayyiduna Abu Dharr رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said,

---

[1] Musnad(book) Ahmad 1-80.

[2] Musnad(book) Ahmad 5-275.

"Allah, the exalted, forgives His slave as long as the veil does not fall (between him and mercy)." They asked, "O messenger of Allah, what is the veil?" He said, "It is that a soul should die while associating partners with Allah"[1]

ALLAH FORGIVE ALL SINS OTHER THAN POLYTHEISM

(٢٣٦٢) وَعَنْ اَبِي ذَرٍّ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ لَقِيَ اللّٰهَ لَا يَعْدِلُ بِهِ شَيْئًا فِي الدُّنْيَا ثُمَّ كَانَ عَلَيْهِ مِثْلَ جِبَالٍ ذُنُوبٌ غَفَرَ اللّٰهُ لَهُ۔ رَوَاهُ الْبَيْهَقِيُّ فِي كِتَابِ الْبَعْثِ وَالنُّشُوْرِ

2362. Sayyiduna Abu Dharr رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "If anyone meets Allah without having regarded anything as equal to Him in the world then, even though he may have against him sins as many as the mountains. Allah will forgive him."[2]

TO REPENT IS LIKE NOT TO COMMIT SIN

(٢٣٦٣) وَعَنْ عَبْدِاللّٰهِ بْنِ مَسْعُوْدٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ التَّائِبُ مِنَ الذَّنْبِ كَمَنْ لَّا ذَنْبَ لَهُ۔ رَوَاهُ ابنُ مَاجَةَ وَالْبَيْهَقِيُّ فِيْ شُعَبِ الْاِيْمَانِ وَقَالَ تَفَرَّدَ بِهِ النَّهْرَانِيُّ وَهُوَ مَجْهُوْلٌ وَفِيْ شَرْحِ السُّنَّةِ رَوَاهُ عَنْهُ مَوقُوفًا قَالَ النَّدَمُ تَوْبَةٌ وَالتَّائِبُ كَمَنْ لَاذَنْبَ لَهُ

2363. Sayyiduna Abdullah ibn Mas'ud رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "One who repents for his sins is like one who has no sins against him."[3]

COMMENTARY: When a sinner repents sincerely, his repentance is accepted without doubt. This is Tawbah.
As for Istighfar (seeking forgiveness of Allah may or may not forgive sins at his discretion but gives reward in any case for making Istighfar.

CHAPTER - VI

THE VASTNESS OF ALLAH'S MERCY بَابٌ

Some copies of Mishkat have no title for this chapter and have distinguished it from the previous with only a chapter heading. This implies that ahadith (tradition) narrated in this chapter are a continuation of the previous.
Some other copies have the heading (سعۃ رحمۃ) (vastness of mercy of Allah).

SECTION I اَلْفَصْلُ الْاَوَّلُ

ALLAH'S MERCY OVERSHADOWS HIS ANGER

(٢٣٦٤) عَنْ اَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَمَّا قَضَى اللّٰهُ الْخَلْقَ كَتَبَ كِتَابًا فَهُوَ عِنْدَهُ فَوْقَ عَرْشِهِ اِنَّ رَحْمَتِيْ سَبَقَتْ غَضَبِي وَفِيْ رِوَايَةٍ غَلَبَتْ غَضَبِي (متفق علیه)

---

[1] Musnad(book) Ahmad 5-174, Bayhaqi in Kitab al b'ith wa an mushir.
[2] Bayhaqi in Kitabal ba'th wa an mushur.
[3] Ibn Majah # 4250 Bayhaqi in Shabul Eeman.

2364. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "When Allah decided (or began) to create the creation. He wrote (meaning commanded the angels, or the pen, to write) a book, It is with Him, above His throne. (It is:) 'My mercy takes precedence over My anger." According to another version: 'prevails over my anger.'[1]

COMMENTARY: Obviously, this writing or the book is very great, for, Allah has it with himself above His throne.

Allah's mercy, His compassion and His blessings – their sings and demonstrations prevail and surround the entire creation. They are unlimited. As against this , the signs and demonstrations of His anger are few. He say about it:

إِنْ تَعُدُّوا نِعْمَتَ اللّٰهِ لَا تُحْصُوْهَا

{If you count Allah's blessings, you cannot reckon them} (14:34)

عَذَابِىٓ أُصِيْبُ بِهٖ مَنْ أَشَآءُ وَرَحْمَتِىْ وَسِعَتْ كُلَّ شَىْءٍ

{As for My chastisement, I smite with it whom I will; yet My mercy embraces all things.} (7:156)

Allah's mercy is so vast that no one in the universe is outside its sphere blessings. Each moment of the worldly life is a respectable of Diving mercy. But, the creature are limitlessly careless and blameworthy in that they are not thankful to Him for His mercy. Allah says:

وَلَوْ يُؤَاخِذُ اللّٰهُ النَّاسَ بِظُلْمِهِمْ مَّا تَرَكَ عَلَىٰ ظَهْرِهَا مِنْ دَآبَّةٍ

{And if Allah were to take mankind to task for their evildoing, He would not leave thereon (earth) a single creature) (16:16)

Accordingly, this too is a demonstration of Allah's mercy that, in spite of their faults and sins, He has kept them alive in this world, gives them sustenance, showers on them blessings and does not punish them in t his world. This concerns the world. In the hereafter, His mercy will be demonstrated in a much larger way as we learn from the next hadith (tradition).

ALL EMBRACING MERCY OF ALLAH

(٢٣٦٥-٢٣٦٦) وَعَنْ أَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِنَّ لِلّٰهِ مِائَةَ رَحْمَةٍ أَنْزَلَ مِنْهَا رَحْمَةً وَاحِدَةً بَيْنَ الْجِنِّ وَالْإِنْسِ وَالْبَهَائِمِ وَالْهَوَامِّ فَبِهَا يَتَعَاطَفُوْنَ وَبِهَا يَتَرَاحَمُوْنَ وَبِهَا تَعْطِفُ الْوَحْشُ عَلَى وَلَدِهَا وَأَخَّرَ اللّٰهُ تِسْعًا وَتِسْعِيْنَ رَحْمَةً يَرْحَمُ بِهَا عِبَادَهُ يَوْمَ الْقِيَامَةِ مُتَّفَقٌ عَلَيْهِ وَفِيْ رِوَايَةٍ لِمُسْلِمٍ عَنْ سَلْمَانَ نَحْوَهُ وَفِيْ آخِرِهِ قَالَ وَإِذَا كَانَ يَوْمَ الْقِيَامَةِ أَكْمَلَهَا بِهٰذِهِ الرَّحْمَةِ۔

2365. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "Surely, Allah has one hundred mercies. Of these, He has sent down one mercy among the jinns and mankind, animals and vermins. It is by this single mercy that they live together, have mercy on each other and by it the wild beast is kind to its young. And Allah has retained ninety nine mercies by which he shall show mercy to His creatures on the day of resurrection."[1] 2366. Sayyiduna Salman رضی الله عنه has narrated that in similar manner and it concludes: 'When the day of resurrection begins, He shall perfect them with this (one) mercy."[2]

[1] Bukhari # 7404, Muslim # 14-2751, Ibn Majah # 4295, Musnad Ahmad 2-433.

COMMENTARY: The version in Muslim is explicit that the one mercy of Allah that he showered on the creatures in the world would be available with the ninety-nine in the hereafter. This will perfect them to one hundred in the next world.

BETWEEN FEAR & HOPE

(٢٣٦٧) وَعَنْهُ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَو يَعْلَمُ الْمُؤْمِنُ مَاعِنْدَ اللّٰهِ مِنَ الْعُقُوْبَةِ مَاطَمَعَ بِجَنَّتِهِ اَحَدٌ وَلَو يَعْلَمُ الْكَافِرُ مَا عِنْدَاللّٰهِ مِنَ الرَّحْمَةِ مَاقَنَطَ مِنْ جَنَّتِهِ اَحَدٌ (متفق عليه)

2367. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم said, "were the believer to know the punishment that Allah can give, no one would expect (to make it to) His paradise. Were the disbeliever to know how much mercy Allah has, no one would lose hope of being admitted to His paradise."[3]

COMMENTARY: The aim of this hadith (tradition) is to let not the believer take things easy by relying on Allah's mercy easy by relying on Allah's mercy alone and become fearless of His punishment. It is also to encourage the infidel to have hopes in Allah's mercy and to make repentance to Allah.

A person should live between fear and hope. At the same time as he places hopes in Allah's mercy, he may continue to fear his punishment. This is brought out succinctly in the saying of Umar رضی الله عنه. He said, "If it is announced on the day of resurrection that only one person will be admitted to paradise, then I shall hope that I am that person. But, if it is proclaimed that one person will be consigned to hell, then I shall fear that I am the one.

PARADISE & HELL ARE VERY NEAR TO EVERYONE

(٢٣٦٨) وَعَنِ ابْنِ مَسْعُوْدٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ الْجَنَّةُ اَقْرَبُ اِلٰى اَحَدِكُمْ مِنْ شِرَاكِ نَعْلِهٖ وَالنَّارُ مِثْلُ ذٰلِكَ۔ (رواه البخاری)

2368. Sayyiduna Ibn Mas'ud رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم said, "Paradise is nearer to each of you than the thong of his sandal, and hell is like that."

COMMENTARY: Given that, every person must do good deeds in his life and hope for admittance to paradise. He must keep away from bad deeds and fear being sent to hell.

ALLAH'S GRANT

(٢٣٦٩) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ رَجُلٌ لَمْ يَعْمَلْ خَيْرًا قَطُّ لِاَهْلِهٖ وَفِيْ رِوَايَةٍ اَسْرَفَ رَجُلٌ عَلٰى نَفْسِهٖ فَلَمَّا حَضَرَهُ الْمَوْتُ اَوْصٰى بَنِيْهِ اِذَا مَاتَ فَحرِّقُوْهُ ثُمَّ اَذْرُوْا نِصْفَهٗ فِي الْبَرِّ وَنِصْفَهٗ الْبَحْرِ فَوَاللّٰهِ لَئِنْ قَدَرَ اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ لَيُعَذِّبَنَّهٗ عَذَابًا لَا يُعَذِّبُهٗ اَحَدًا مِنَ الْعَالَمِيْنَ فَلَمَّا مَاتَ فَعَلُوا مَا

---

[1] Bukhari # 6000, Muslim # 17.2752, Tirmidhi # 3609, Ibn Majah # 4293, Darimi # 2785, Musnad Ahmad 2-514.

[2] Muslim # 3753.

[3] Bukhari # 6369, Muslim # 23-2755, Musnad Ahmad 2-334.

اَمَرهُمْ فَاَمَرَ اللّٰهُ الْبَحْرَ فَجَمَعَ مَافِيْهِ ثُمَّ قَالَ لَهُ لِمَ فَعَلْتَ هَذَا قَالَ مِنْ خَشْيَتِكَ يَا رَبِّ وَاَنْتَ اَعْلَمُ فَغَفَرَلَهُ۔ (متفق عليه)

2369. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah صلى الله عليه وسلم narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said that a man said, "I have never done any good to my family." Another version has that a man had committed too much sin. When he was dying, he instructed his sons to burn him after his death and scatter his ashes equally on dry land and in the sea, saying. "By Allah, if Allah seizes me and subjects me to a strict reckoning. He will punish me as He will punish none else in the worlds." So, when he died, they carried out his orders, but Allah gave command to the sea and it collected what was (thrown) in it. He gave command to the land and it collected what was (thrown) on it. Then, Allah asked him what had made him do it. He said, "My Lord, out of fear for you, though you know best!" So, Allah forgave him.[1]

COMMENTARY: The Arabic words (لئن قدر الله) are translated in the text as Allah seizing him and punishing him. If the literal meaning is given: 'If Allah has power over me." It would imply a doubt in Allah's ability. That would mean outright disbelief. The ulama (Scholars) say that this had happened during the period when there was no Prophet and only belief in unity of God was enough to qualify as a faithful. Hence, this kind of an expression did not imply disbelief.

Some ulama (Scholars) explain that this man was overcome with fear. In such cases, a person is judged with the insane or these not their senses. It is like the man in a previous hadith (tradition) who found his lost riding-beast with his provision intact on it and he had exclaimed. "you are my creature and I Your Lord!"

ALLAH'S MERCY EXCEEDS A MOTHER'S

(٢٣٧٠) وَعَنْ عُمَرَ بْنِ الْخَطَّابِ قَالَ قَدِمَ عَلَى النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ سَبْيٌ فَإِذَا امْرَأَةٌ مِنَ السَّبِي قَدْ تَحَلَّبَ ثَدْيُهَا تَسْعٰى إِذَا وَجَدَتْ صَبِيًّا فِي السَّبْيِ اَخَذَتْهُ فَاَلْصَقَتْهُ بِبَطْنِهَا وَاَرْضَعَتْهُ فَقَالَ لَنَا النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَتُرَوْنَ هَذِهِ طَارِحَةً وَلَدَهَا فِي النَّارِ فَقُلْنَا لَا وَهِيَ تَقْدِرُ عَلَى اَنْ لَا تَطْرَحَهُ فَقَالَ اللّٰهُ اَرْحَمُ بِعِبَادِهِ مِنْ هَذِهِ بِوَلَدِهَا (متفق عليه)

2370. Sayyiduna Umar ibn al-Khattab رضى الله عنه narrated that some captives were brought to the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم. Among them was a woman whose breasts over flowed with milk. She ran (hither and thither to find a child to suckle, not having her own) till she found a child among the captives and put it to her breast and suckled it. The Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم asked t hem, "Do you imagine that this (woman) will cast her child into the fire (when she is loving to children of strangers)?" They said,"No, while she is able not to cast it." He said, "Allah is more merciful to His creatures than she is to her child."[2]

---

[1] Bukhari # 6481, Muslim # 24-2756.

[2] Bukhari # 6463, Muslim # 78-2816.

A RESTRAINED COURSE

(٢٣٧١) وَعَنْ اَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَنْ يُنْجِيَ اَحَدًا مِنْكُمْ عَمَلُهُ قَالُوا وَلَا اَنْتَ يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ قَالَ وَلَا اَنَا اِلَّا اَنْ يَّتَغَمَّدَنِيَ اللّٰهُ مِنْهُ بِرَحْمَتِهٖ فَسَدِّدُوا وَقَارِبُوْا وَاغْدُوْا و رُوْحُوا وَشَيْءٌ مِنَ الدُّلْجَةِ وَالْقَصْدَ الْقَصْدَ تَبْلُغُوا (متفق عليه)

2371. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "The deeds to any of you will not save him (from the fire).' The sahabah (Prophet's companions) رضی اللہ عنہم asked him, "Not even you, O Messenger of Allah?" He said, "Not even I unless Allah covers me from it with His mercy. So, keep to the straight path (like an arrow), adopt a moderate course, worship in the morning and in the evening and part of the night. Observe moderation, observe moderation. You will achieve (the objective)."

NOT DEEDS ALONE

(٢٣٧٢) وَعَنْ جَابِرٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَا يُدخِلُ اَحَدًا مِنْكُمْ عَمَلُهُ الْجَنَّةَ وَلَا يُجِيْرُهُ مِنَ النَّارِ وَلَا اَنَا اِلَّا بِرَحْمَةِ اللّٰهِ (رواه مسلم)

2372. Sayyiduna Jabir رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "Your deeds will not take any of you to paradise nor deliver you from the fire, not my deeds, too, unless by Allah's mercy."[1]

COMMENTARY: The deeds that has Allah's mercy with it will enable one to get admittance to paradise and deliverance from hell. Therefore, entry into paradise depends on Allah's favour and mercy while ranks within paradise will be according to deeds.

REWARD & PUNISHMENT ACCORDING TO ALLAH'S MERCY

(٢٣٧٣) وَعَنْ اَبِي سَعِيْدٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اِذَا اَسْلَمَ الْعَبْدُ فَحَسُنَ اِسْلَامُهُ يُكَفِّرُ اللّٰهُ عَنْهُ كُلَّ سَيِّئَةٍ كَانَ زَلَّفَهَا وَكَانَ بَعْدُ الْقِصَاصُ الْحَسَنَةُ بِعَشْرِ اَمْثَالِهَا اِلٰى سَبْعِ مِائَةِ ضِعْفٍ اِلٰى اَضْعَافٍ كَثِيْرَةٍ وَالسَّيِّئَةُ بِمِثْلِهَا اِلَّا اَنْ يَتَجَاوَزَ اللّٰهُ عَنْهَا (رواه البخاری)

2373. Sayyiduna Abu Sa'eed رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, 'When a person embraces Islam sincerely and makes it good, Allah erases from him all sins that he had committed previously. Thereafter, is a return. A pious deed gets between ten and seven hundred times as much rather, more than that by many times A bad deed gets a punishment equal to that, or Allah overlooks it."[2]

COMMENTARY: It is Allahs mercy and favour that he rewards piety up to seven hundred times and, even, many times more commensurate with anyone's efforts and sincerity. As for an evil deed, He gives like punishment, or forgives the perpetrator outright.

(٢٣٧٤) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اِنَّ اللّٰهَ كَتَبَ الْحَسَنَاتِ وَالسَّيِّئَاتِ

---

[1] Muslim # 77-2817.

[2] Bukhari # 41.

فَمَنْ هَمَّ بِحَسَنَةٍ فَلَمْ يَعْمَلْهَا كَتَبَهَا اللّٰهُ لَهُ عِنْدَهُ حَسَنَةً كَامِلَةً فَإِنْ هَمَّ بِهَا فَعَمِلَهَا كَتَبَهَا اللّٰهُ لَهُ عِنْدَهُ عَشْرَ حَسَنَاتٍ إِلَى سَبْعِ مِائَةِ ضِعْفٍ إِلَى أَضْعَافٍ كَثِيْرَةٍ وَمَنْ هَمَّ بِسَيِّئَةٍ فَلَمْ يَعْمَلْهَا كَتَبَهَا اللّٰهُ لَهُ عِنْدَهُ حَسَنَةً كَامِلَةً فَإِنْ هُوَ هَمَّ بِهَا فَعَمِلَهَا كَتَبَهَا اللّٰهُ لَهُ سَيِّئَةً وَاحِدَةً۔ (متفق عليه)

2374. Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "Surely, Allah has recorded good deeds and evil deeds." (He has instructed the angels to record in the preserved Tablet that:) "If anyone intends to do a pious deed but does not do it (for some reason), then Allah records for him with him a perfect pious deed. If he intends to do it and does it, then Allah records for him with Him ten to seven hundred and many more times as much. If anyone intends to do a bad deed and does not do it. Allah records it for him with him as a perfect pious deed. If he intends to do it and does it, then Allah records it for him as one bad deeds.[1]

COMMENTARY: Reward for a deeds depends on the intention that prompts it and a believer's intention is better than his deed. In fact, the real thing is the intention and deed is secondary to it. While reward is given for a good intention without deed, no reward is given for a deed without an intention prompting it.

Reward for a pious deed can be up to seven hundred times or more at Allah's will. He has not disclosed that. It is like the verse:

فَلَا تَعْلَمُ نَفْسٌ مَّا أُخْفِيَ لَهُمْ مِّنْ قُرَّةِ أَعْيُنٍ

{No soul known what delight of the eyes is kept hidden from them.} (32:17)

SECTION II الفصل الثانی

WHO REPENTS & DOES GOOD DEEDS

(٢٣٧٥) عَنْ عُقْبَةَ بْنِ عَامِرٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِنَّ مَثَلَ الَّذِي يَعْمَلُ السَّيِّئَاتِ ثُمَّ يَعْمَلُ الْحَسَنَاتِ كَمَثَلِ رَجُلٍ كَانَتْ عَلَيْهِ دِرْعٌ ضَيِّقَةٌ قَدْ خَنَقَتْهُ ثُمَّ عَمِلَ حَسَنَةً فَانْفَكَّتْ حَلْقَةٌ ثُمَّ عَمِلَ أُخْرَى فَانْفَكَّتْ أُخْرَى حَتَّى تَخْرُجَ إِلَى الْأَرْضِ۔ (رواه فی شرح السنة)

2375. Sayyiduna Uqbah ibn Aamir رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "The example of one who has been doing evil deeds and begins to do good deeds is like a man who had been wearing a tight armour that was choking him. When he did a good deed, a ring was loosened. He did another good deed and another ring was loosened. So finally it fell down on the ground."[2]

COMMENTARY: The hadith (tradition) means that when any one commits evil his heart constricts and he is deprived of the guidance of his conscience. Thus, he is not at peace with himself but becomes restless and uncertain. As against this, when he does a pious deed, his heart expands. He finds it easy and convenient to do every deed and gains conviction and confidence. While the evil doer is rejected by people, the good doer is respected and accepted.

---

[1] Bukahri # 6491, Muslim # 207-131.

[2] Musnad Ahmad 4-145, Sharh us Sunah.

GOOD NEWS FOR ONE WHO FEARS ALLAH

(٢٣٧٦) وَعَنْ اَبِي الدَّرْدَاءِ اَنَّهٗ سَمِعَ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُصُّ عَلَى الْمِنْبَرِ وَهُوَ يَقُوْلُ وَلِمَنْ خَافَ مَقَامَ رَبِّهٖ جَنَّتَانِ قُلْتُ وَاِنْ زَنٰى وَاِنْ سَرَقَ يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ فَقَالَ الثَّانِيَةَ وَلِمَنْ خَافَ مَقَامَ رَبِّهٖ جَنَّتَانِ فَقُلْتُ الثَّانِيَةَ وَاِنْ زَنٰى وَاِنْ سَرَقَ يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ فَقَالَ الثَّالِثَةَ وَلِمَنْ خَافَ مَقَامَ رَبِّهٖ جَنَّتَانِ فَقُلْتُ الثَّالِثَةَ وَاِنْ زَنٰى وَاِنْ سَرَقَ يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ قَالَ وَاِنْ رَغِمَ اَنْفُ اَبِي الدَّرْدَاءِ۔ (رواه احمد)

2376. Sayyiduna Abu ad-Darda رضی الله عنه narrated that he heard the Prophet Muhammad صلی الله علیه وسلم deliver from the pulpit a sermon. He recited: (وَلِمَنْ خَافَ مَقَامَ رَبِّهٖ جَنَّتَانِ) {And for him who fears the standing before his Lord there shall be two gardens} (55:46) He (Abu ad-Darda) رضی الله عنه asked, "Even if he had committed fornication. And even if has stolen, O Messenger of Allah?" He recited a second time: (وَلِمَنْ خَافَ مَقَامَ رَبِّهٖ جَنَّتَانِ) and he asked a second time, "Even if he has committed fornication, and even if he has stolen. O Messenger of Allah?" He recited a third time: (وَلِمَنْ خَافَ مَقَامَ رَبِّهٖ جَنَّتَانِ) and he put the question the third time. "Even if he has committed fornication and even if has stolen, O Messenger of Allah?" He said, "In spite of Abu ad-Darda!"[1]

COMMENTARY: About having two gardens (or paradises (جَنَّتَانِ)), some ahadith (tradition) say that one of the gardens has everything of gold – the houses, vessels, etc. The other has everything of silver. When Abu ad-Darda asked a third time in amazement, he said, "Even if Abu ad Darda finds it unbelievable!"

ALLAH IS MORE MERCIFUL THAN A MOTHER

(٢٣٧٧) وَعَنْ عَامِرِ الرَّامِ قَالَ بَيْنَا نَحْنُ عِنْدَهٗ يَعْنِي عِنْدَ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اِذَا اَقْبَلَ رَجُلٌ عَلَيْهِ كِسَاءٌ وَفِيْ يَدِهٖ شَيْءٌ قَدِ الْتَفَّ عَلَيْهِ فَقَالَ يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ مَرَرْتُ بِغَيْضَةِ شَجَرٍ فَسَمِعْتُ فِيْهَا اَصْوَاتَ فِرَاخِ طَائِرٍ فَاَخَذْتُهُنَّ فَوَضَعْتُهُنَّ فِيْ كِسَائِيْ فَجَاءَتْ اُمُّهُنَّ فَاسْتَدَارَتْ عَلٰى رَأْسِيْ فَاَكْشَفْتُ لَهَا عَنْهُنَّ فَوَقَعَتْ عَلَيْهِنَّ فَلَفَفْتُهُنَّ بِكِسَائِيْ فَهُنَّ اُوْلَاءِ مَعِيْ قَالَ ضَعْهُنَّ فَوَضَعْتُهُنَّ وَاَبَتْ اُمُّهُنَّ اِلَّا لُزُوْمَهُنَّ فَقَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَتَعْجَبُوْنَ لِرَحْمِ اُمِّ الْاَفْرَاخِ فِرَاخَهَا فَوَالَّذِيْ بَعَثَنِيْ بِالْحَقِّ اَللّٰهُ اَرْحَمُ بِعِبَادِهٖ مِنْ اُمِّ الْاَفْرَاخِ بِفِرَاخِهَا اِرْجِعْ بِهِنَّ حَتّٰى تَضَعَهُنَّ مِنْ حَيْثُ اَخَذْتَهُنَّ وَاُمُّهُنَّ مَعَهُنَّ فَرَجَعَ بِهِنَّ۔ (رواه ابوداؤد)

2377. Sayiduna Aamir ar-Raam narrated while we were with him, meaning, with the Prophet Muhammad صلی الله علیه وسلم, a man came suddenly, a blanket thrown over him and something in his hand which he had wrapped up. He said, "O Messenger of Allah, I was passing through a thicket of trees when I heard the chirping of the chicks. I caught them and put them in my blanket. Their mother came (after them) and flew round over my head and I uncovered them (for her to see them). She came down to them and I wrapped them all up in my blanket. I have them here with me."

---

[1] Musnad Ahmad 6-442.

He instructed him to put them down and he put them down. Their mother refused to part with them. So, Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Are you surprised at the compassion of the mother of the chicks for them? By Him who has sent me with the truth, Allah is more compassionate to His creatures than the mother of the chicks to her young. Take them back and leave them from where you had caught them, and their mother too with them." So, he took them back.[1]

SECTION III اَلْفَصْلُ الثَّالِثُ

(٢٣٧٨) عَنْ عَبْدِاللّٰهِ بِنْ عُمَرَ قَالَ كُنَّا مَعَ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فِيْ بعْضِ غزَوَاتِهٖ فَمَرَّ بِقَوْمٍ فَقَالَ مَنِ الْقَوْمُ قَالُوا نَحْنُ الْمُسْلِمُوْنَ وَامْرَأَةٌ تَحْضِبُ بِقِدْرِهَا وَمَعَهَا ابْنٌ لَهَا فَإِذَا ارْتَفَعَ وَهَجٌ تَنَحَّتْ بِهٖ فأتَتِ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَقَالَتْ اَنْتَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ قَالَ نَعَمْ قَالَتْ بِاَبِيْ اَنْتَ وَاُمِّيْ اَلَيْسَ اللّٰهُ اَرْحَمَ الرَّاحِمِيْنَ قَالَ بَلٰى قَالَتْ اَلَيْسَ اللّٰهُ اَرْحَمَ بِعِبَادِهٖ مِنَ الْاُمِّ بِوَلَدِهَا قَالَ بَلٰى قَالَتْ اِنَّ الْاُمَّ لَا تُلْقِيْ وَلَدَهَا فِي النَّارِ فَاَكَبَّ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَبْكِيْ ثُمَّ رَفَعَ رَأْسَهٗ اِلَيْهَا فَقَالَ اِنَّ اللّٰهَ لَا يُعَذِّبُ مِنْ عِبَادِهٖ اِلَّا الْمَارِدَ وَالْمُتَمَرِّدَ وَالَّذِيْ يَتَمَرَّدُ عَلَى اللّٰهِ وَاَبٰى اَنْ يَّقُوْلَ لَا اِلٰهَ اِلَّا اللّٰهُ۔ (رواه ابن ماجة)

2378. Sayyiduna Abdullah ibn Umar رضی الله عنه narrated: We were with the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم an one of his expeditions. He come across some people and asked, "Who are you people?" They said, "We are Muslims." A woman (among them) was kindling a fire under a pot. Her son was with her and as the heat intensified she moved him away. She came to the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم and asked, "Are you Allah's Messenger" He said, "Yes" she submitted May my parents be ransomed to you! Is not Allah the most Merciful of those who show mercy?" He said, "Of course!" She asked, "Is Allah not more Merciful to His slaves than a mother is to her child?" He confirmed, "Of course!" She said, "Surely, a mother will not throw her child into the fire." Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم lowered his head and wept. Then, raising it, he said, "Allah does not punish His creatures but only the obstinate and rebellions against Allah and who refuse to say that there is no God but Allah."[2]

ALLAH IS MERCIFUL TO THOSE WHO SEEK HIS PLEASURE

(٢٣٧٩) وَعَنْ ثَوبَانَ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ اِنَّ الْعَبْدَ لَيَلْتَمِسُ مَرْضَاةَ اللّٰهِ فَلَا يَزَالُ بِذَالِكَ فَيَقُوْلُ اللّٰهُ عَزَّوَجَلَّ لِجِبْرِيْلَ اِنَّ فُلَانًا عَبْدِيْ يَلْتَمِسُ اَنْ يُّرْضِيَنِيْ اَلَا وَاِنَّ رَحْمَتِيْ عَلَيْهِ فَيَقُوْلُ جِبْرِيْلُ رَحْمَةُ اللّٰهِ عَلٰى فُلَانٍ وَيَقُوْلُهَا حَمَلَةُ الْعَرْشِ وَيَقُوْلُهَا مَنْ حَوْلَهُمْ حَتّٰى يَقُوْلَهَا اَهْلُ السَّمٰوَاتِ السَّبْعِ ثُمَّ تَهْبِطُ لَهٗ اِلَى الْاَرْضِ۔ (رواه احمد)

2379. Sayyiduna Thawban رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said that a person seeks to please Allah and continues to do so. Allah, Mighty and Glorious, say to Jibril عليه السلام, "My slave so-and-so wishes to please Me, so know that My mercy is on him." JIbril عليه السلام says, "Allah's mercy is on so-and-so." This is repeated by the bearers of the Throne and by those around them. So much so that the dwellers of the seven heavens say it too. Then it descends to him on the earth.[1]

---

[1] Abu Dawud # 3089.

[2] Ibn Majah # 4297.

COMMENTARY: When this happens, this man gains respect on the earth, The people begin to love him.

This hadith (tradition) is similar in content to the prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم saying that when Allah takes anyone as a friend, He informs Jibril عليه السلام about it and instructs him to befriend him. Jibril عليه السلام does so too and proclaims about the dwellers to take him as their friend. They do so and he comes to be accepted on the earth. When Allah regards anyone as His enemy, He informs Jibril عليه السلام about it and asks him to do likewise. He does so and proclaims the message in the heavens and he is regarded as an enemy there. Finally, an atmosphere of antagonism for him is created on earth.

This is seen in the widespread love for the awliya (Allah's friends) on earth. These people who are deceitful and spend their wealth to win over the common men are not of this category. They are unreliable.

BELIEVER WILL GO TO PARADISE IN ANY CASE

(٢٣٨٠) وَعَنْ أُسَامَةَ بْنِ زَيْدٍ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فِي قَوْلِ اللّٰهِ عَزَّوَجَلَّ فَمِنْهُمْ ظَالِمٌ لِّنَفْسِهٖ وَمِنْهُمْ مُّقْتَصِدٌ وَمِنْهُمْ سَابِقٌ بِالْخَيْرَاتِ قَالَ كُلُّهُمْ فِي الْجَنَّةِ۔ رَوَاهُ الْبَيْهَقِيُّ فِي كِتَابِ الْبَعْثِ وَالنُّشُوْرِ۔

2380. Sayyiduna Usamah ibn Zayd رضى الله عنه narrated that the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "All of them will go to paradise." Referring to the words of Allah, Mighty and Glorious:

فَمِنْهُمْ ظَالِمٌ لِّنَفْسِهٖ وَمِنْهُمْ مُّقْتَصِدٌ وَمِنْهُمْ سَابِقٌ بِالْخَيْرَاتِ

{So, of them is he who wrongs himself, and of them is he who follows a middle course, and of them is he who outstrips (others) in virtuous deeds by Allah's leave}[2] (35:32)

COMMENTARY: The entire verse is:

ثُمَّ اَوْرَثْنَا الْكِتَابَ الَّذِيْنَ اصْطَفَيْنَا مِنْ عِبَادِنَا فَمِنْهُمْ ظَالِمٌ لِّنَفْسِهٖ وَمِنْهُمْ مُّقْتَصِدٌ وَمِنْهُمْ سَابِقٌ بِالْخَيْرَاتِ

{Then we gave the Books as inheritance to those whom we chose of our servants; so of them is he who wrong himself, and of them, is he who follows a middle course, and of them is he who outstrips (others) in virtuous deeds by Allah's leave. That is the great bounty!} (35:32)

Hasan Busri رحمه الله said that he who outstrips is he whose pious deeds exceed his bad deeds. The follower of the middle course is he whose good deeds and bad deeds are equal. And, he who wrong himself is he whose evil deeds exceed his pious deeds.

According to the hadith (tradition) all three classes of believers will go to paradise. It is a different thing that their ranks in paradise will differ according to their position and deeds. This establishes that Allah's mercy is wide and will encompass both the pious and the wrong doers.

---

[1] Musnad Ahmad 5-279.

[2] Bayhaqi in Kitab al bath wa an Muzhar.

CHAPTER - V

WHAT IS SAID IN THE MORNING IN THE EVENING AND WHILE RETIRING TO BED

بَابُ مَا يَقُوْلُ عِنْدَ الصَّبَاحِ وَالْمَسَآءِ وَالْمَنَامِ

Subh or morning is the very initial part of the day before the sun rises Masa or evening is the very last portion of the day from sunset till the disappearance of the twilight.
Therefore, the supplications that are meant for morning may be made before the salah (prayer) of fajr or after this salah (prayer). It is correct either way. Similarly, the supplications meant for the evening may be made before the salah (prayer) of maghrib or after it.

SECTION I اَلْفَصْلُ الْاَوَّلُ

THE PROPHET'S صلى الله عليه وسلم PRAYER IN THE MORNING & THE EVENING

(٢٣٨١) عَنْ عَبْدِاللّٰهِ قَالَ كَانَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِذَا اَمْسٰى قَالَ اَمْسَيْنَا وَاَمْسَى الْمُلْكُ لِلّٰهِ وَالْحَمْدُ لِلّٰهِ وَلَا اِلٰهَ اِلَّا اللّٰهُ وَحْدَهٗ لَا شَرِيْكَ لَهٗ لَهُ الْمُلْكُ وَلَهُ الْحَمْدُ وَهُوَ عَلٰى كُلِّ شَيْئٍ قَدِيْرٌ اَللّٰهُمَّ اِنِّيْ اَسْأَلُكَ مِنْ خَيْرِ هٰذِهِ اللَّيْلَةِ وَخَيْرِ مَا فِيْهَا وَاَعُوْذُبِكَ مِنْ شَرِّهَا وَشَرِّمَا فِيْهَا اَللّٰهُمَّ اِنِّيْ اَعُوْذُبِكَ مِنَ الْكَسَلِ وَالْهَرَمِ وَسُوْءِ الْكِبَرِ وَفِتْنَةِ الدُّنْيَا وَعَذَابِ الْقَبْرِ وَاِذَا اَصْبَحَ قَالَ ذٰلِكَ اَيْضًا اَصْبَحْنَا وَاَصْبَحَ الْمُلْكُ لِلّٰهِ وَفِيْ رِوَايَةٍ رَبِّ اِنِّيْ اَعُوْذُبِكَ مِنْ عَذَابٍ فِي النَّارِ وَعَذَابٍ فِي الْقَبْرِ۔ (رواه مسلم)

2381. Sayyiduna Abdullah رضى الله عنه narrated that when it was evening, Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم prayed:

اَمْسَيْنَا وَاَمْسَى الْمُلْكُ لِلّٰهِ وَالْحَمْدُ لِلّٰهِ وَلَا اِلٰهَ اِلَّا اللّٰهُ وَحْدَهٗ لَا شَرِيْكَ لَهٗ لَهُ الْمُلْكُ وَلَهُ الْحَمْدُ وَهُوَ عَلٰى كُلِّ شَيْئٍ قَدِيْرٌ اَللّٰهُمَّ اِنِّيْ اَسْأَلُكَ مِنْ خَيْرِ هٰذِهِ اللَّيْلَةِ وَخَيْرِ مَا فِيْهَا وَاَعُوْذُبِكَ مِنْ شَرِّهَا وَشَرِّمَا فِيْهَا اَللّٰهُمَّ اِنِّيْ اَعُوْذُبِكَ مِنَ الْكَسَلِ وَالْهَرَمِ وَسُوْءِ الْكِبَرِ وَفِتْنَةِ الدُّنْيَا وَعَذَابِ الْقَبْرِ

(We have come to the evening and so does the dominion of Allah. Praise belongs to Allah. There is no God but Allah, the Alone. He has no partner. To him belongs the dominion and to Him belongs all praise, and He is the Omnipotent. O Allah, I ask you for the good of this night and the good that is in this night. And, I seek refuge in you from its evil and the evil that is in it. O Allah, I seek refuge in you from sloth, decrepitude, evil old age, temptations in this world and punishment in the grave.)
In the morning, he made the same supplication but replaced the first words

اَصْبَحْنَا وَاَصْبَحَ الْمُلْكُ لِلّٰهِ

(We have entered the mornings as has the entire dominion entered the morning).
According to another version, after the words (وَسُوْءِ الْكِبَرِ) are the words:

رَبِّ اِنِّيْ اَعُوْذُبِكَ مِنْ عَذَابٍ فِي النَّارِ وَعَذَابٍ فِي الْقَبْرِ

(O my Lord, I seek refuge in you from the punishment in the Fire and the punishment in the grave).[1]

COMMENTARY: When the supplication is made in the morning, the (الليلة) will give way to اليوم and the pronoun (ها) will be replaced by ہ. Thus:

اللّٰهُمَّ إِنِّي اَسْئَلُكَ مِنْ خَيْرِ هٰذَا الْيَوْمِ

WHILE GOING TO SLEEP & AWAKENING

(٢٣٨٢-٢٣٨٣) وَعَنْ حُذَيْفَةَ قَالَ كَانَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِذَا اَخَذَ مَضْجَعَهُ مِنَ اللَّيْلِ وَضَعَ يَدَهُ تَحْتَ خَدِّهِ ثُمَّ يَقُوْلُ اَللّٰهُمَّ بِاسْمِكَ اَمُوتُ وَاَحْيٰى وَإِذَا سْتَيْقَظَ قَالَ اَلْحَمْدُ لِلّٰهِ الَّذِىْ اَحْيَانَا بَعْدَ مَا اَمَاتَنَا وَإِلَيْهِ النُّشُوْرُ۔ رَوَاهُ الْبُخَارِيُّ وَمُسْلِمٌ عَنِ الْبَرَاءِ۔

2382. Sayyiduna Hudhayfah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that when the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم retired to his bed in the night, he put his (right) hand under his (right) cheek and prayed:

اَللّٰهُمَّ بِاسْمِكَ اَمُوتُ وَاَحْيٰى

(O Allah I die and I live in your name).
When he awake from sleep, he prayed

اَلْحَمْدُ لِلّٰهِ الَّذِىْ اَحْيَانَا بَعْدَ مَا اَمَاتَنَا وَإِلَيْهِ النُّشُوْرُ

(Praise belongs to Allah who has revived as after causing us to die and to whom we shall return). [2]

2383. Sayyiduna Al-Bara رضی اللہ عنہ narrated the hadith (tradition). [3]

COMMENTARY: Some ulama (Scholars) explain 'to whom we shall return' as a return to him after death for reckoning. However, here it is better to say: 'awakening to seek sustenance and livelihood.'

Keeping the hand under the cheek while sleeping wards off much negligence. Prayer while going to sleep and on awakening signifies conclusion of deeds with worship and their commencement too with worship.

MUST DUST THE BED BEFORE SLEEPING

(٢٣٨٤) وَعَنْ اَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِذَا اَوٰى اَحَدُكُمْ إِلٰى فِرَاشِهٖ فَلْيَنْفُضْ فِرَاشَهٗ بِدَاخِلَةِ إِزَارِهٖ فَإِنَّهٗ لَا يَدْرِىْ مَا خَلَفَهٗ عَلَيْهِ ثُمَّ يَقُوْلُ بِاسْمِكَ رَبِّي وَضَعْتُ جَنْبِي وَبِكَ اَرْفَعُهٗ إِنْ اَمْسَكْتَ نَفْسِي فَارْحَمْهَا وَإِنْ اَرْسَلْتَهَا فَاحْفَظْهَا بِمَا تَحْفَظُ بِهٖ عِبَادَكَ الصّٰلِحِيْنَ وَفِيْ رِوَايَةٍ ثُمَّ لِيَضْطَجِعْ عَلٰى شِقِّهِ الْاَيْمَنِ ثُمَّ لِيَقُلْ بِاسْمِكَ۔ مُتَّفَقٌ عَلَيْهِ وَفِيْ رِوَايَةٍ فَلْيَنْفُضْهُ بِصَنِفَةِ ثَوْبِهٖ ثَلَاثَ مَرَّاتٍ وَإِنْ اَمْسَكْتَ نَفْسِي فَاغْفِرْ لَهَا۔

---

[1] Bukhari # 6365, Muslim # 74-2723.

[2] Bukhari # 7394, Abu Dawud # 5049, Tirmidhi # 3477, Ibn Majah # 3880, Musnad Ahmad 5-154.

[3] Muslim # 59-2711.

2384. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "When one of you retires of his bed let him dust his bedding with the inner hem of his lower garment, for he cannot say what came after him on it. Then, he must pray:

بِاسْمِكَ رَبِّي وَضَعْتُ جَنْبِي وَبِكَ أَرْفَعُهُ إِنْ أَمْسَكْتَ نَفْسِي فَارْحَمْهَا وَإِنْ أَرْسَلْتَهَا فَاحْفَظْهَا بِمَا تَحْفَظُ بِهِ عِبَادَكَ الصّٰلِحِيْنَ

(With your name, O Lord, do I place my side on it and with your power I shall raise it up. If you detain my soul, have mercy on it, and if you send it back, then protect it with what you protect your righteous slaves.)

According to a version: then, he should lie down on his right side and then pray: (بِاسْمِكَ) (in Your name...)

According to yet another version: He should dust it three times with the hem of his garment and pray: "If you detain my soul, do forgive it."[1]

COMMENTARY: The inner hem of the lower garment is the towards the body so that the outer hem will not become dusty. If he has a duster then he may use it otherwise his garment. When a person sleeps, he is like a dead person because his soul is taken away for some time. Then it is returned to his body and he wakes up, or it is taken away forever and he dies.

To sleep on the right side is because the heart is on the left side. This kind of sleep does not cause a total neglect.

(٢٣٨٥) وَعَنِ الْبَرَاءِ بْنِ عَازِبٍ قَالَ كَانَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِذَا أَوٰى إِلٰى فِرَاشِهٖ نَامَ عَلٰى شِقِّهِ الْأَيْمَنِ ثُمَّ قَالَ اَللّٰهُمَّ أَسْلَمْتُ نَفْسِي إِلَيْكَ وَوَجَّهْتُ وَجْهِي إِلَيْكَ وَفَوَّضْتُ أَمْرِي إِلَيْكَ وَأَلْجَأْتُ ظَهْرِي إِلَيْكَ رَغْبَةً وَرَهْبَةً إِلَيْكَ لَا مَلْجَأَ وَلَا مَنْجَا مِنْكَ إِلَّا إِلَيْكَ اٰمَنْتُ بِكِتَابِكَ الَّذِي أَنْزَلْتَ وَبِنَبِيِّكَ الَّذِي أَرْسَلْتَ وَقَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ قَالَهُنَّ ثُمَّ مَاتَ تَحْتَ لَيْلَتِهٖ مَاتَ عَلَى الْفِطْرَةِ وَفِي رِوَايَةٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لِرَجُلٍ يَا فُلَانُ إِذَا أَوَيْتَ إِلٰى فِرَاشِكَ فَتَوَضَّأْ وُضُوْءَكَ لِلصَّلٰوةِ ثُمَّ اضْطَجِعْ عَلٰى شِقِّكَ الْأَيْمَنِ ثُمَّ قُلِ اللّٰهُمَّ أَسْلَمْتُ نَفْسِي إِلَيْكَ إِلٰى قَوْلِهٖ أَرْسَلْتَ وَقَالَ فَإِنْ مُتَّ مِنْ لَيْلَتِكَ مُتَّ عَلَى الْفِطْرَةِ وَإِنْ أَصْبَحْتَ أَصَبْتَ خَيْرًا (متفق عليه)

2385. Sayyiduna al-Bara ibn Aazib رضى الله عنه narrated that when Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم used to retire to his bed, he would lie on his right side and pray:

اَللّٰهُمَّ أَسْلَمْتُ نَفْسِي إِلَيْكَ وَوَجَّهْتُ وَجْهِي إِلَيْكَ وَفَوَّضْتُ أَمْرِي إِلَيْكَ وَأَلْجَأْتُ ظَهْرِي إِلَيْكَ رَغْبَةً وَرَهْبَةً إِلَيْكَ لَا مَلْجَأَ وَلَا مَنْجَا مِنْكَ إِلَّا إِلَيْكَ اٰمَنْتُ بِكِتَابِكَ الَّذِي أَنْزَلْتَ وَبِنَبِيِّكَ الَّذِي أَرْسَلْتَ

(O Allah, I submit my soul to you, turn my face toward you and entrust my affairs to you, I retreat to you out of desire for, and fear of, you. There is no shelter and no refuge from you except in you. I believe in Your Book which you have revealed and in Your prophet whom you have sent).

---

[1] Bukhari # 6320, Muslim # 64.2714, Abu Dawud # 5650, Tirmidhi # 3412, Ibn Majah # 3874, Darimi # 2684, Musnad Ahmad 2-295.

Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "If any one recites these words and dies during that night, he shall die as an adherent of the natural religion."
According to another, version he narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said to a man, 'Perform ablution for salah (prayer) when you decide to go to bed and lie down on you right side and say:

اَللّٰهُمَّ اَسْلَمْتُ نَفْسِيْ ..... اَرْسَلْتَ

He said, "If you die that night of yours, you shall die on the natural religion, but if you wake up in the morning, you will receive good."[1]

(٢٣٨٦) وَعَنْ اَنَسٍ اَنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ كَانَ اِذَا اَوٰى اِلٰى فِرَاشِهٖ قَالَ اَلْحَمْدُ لِلّٰهِ الَّذِيْ اَطْعَمَنَا وَسَقَانَا وَكَفَانَا وَاٰوَانَا فَكَمْ مِّمَّنْ لَّا كَافِيَ لَهٗ وَلَا مُؤْوِيَ۔ (رواه مسلم)

2386. Sayyiduna Anas رضى الله عنه narrated that when Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم retired to his bed, he prayed:

اَلْحَمْدُ لِلّٰهِ الَّذِيْ اَطْعَمَنَا وَسَقَانَا وَكَفَانَا وَاٰوَانَا فَكَمْ مِّمَّنْ لَا كَافِيَ لَهٗ وَلَا مُؤْوِيَ

(All praise belongs to Allah who has fed us, given to drink satisfied us and given us shelter. Many are there who do not have anyone to give them sufficiency or refuge.)[2]

COMMENTARY: The supplication concludes with a reference to numerous people in this large world who are beset with difficulties and need in everyday life. Allah does not preserve them from difficulties. They do not have even enough shelter in summer and in winter.

(٢٣٨٧) وَعَنْ عَلِيٍّ اَنَّ فَاطِمَةَ اَتَتِ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ تَشْكُوْ اِلَيْهِ مَا تَلْقٰى فِيْ يَدِهَا مِنَ الرُّحٰى وَبَلَغَهَا اَنَّهٗ جَاءَهٗ رَقِيْقٌ فَلَمْ تُصَادِفْهُ فَذَكَرَتْ ذٰلِكَ لِعَائِشَةَ فَلَمَّا جَاءَ اَخْبَرَتْهُ عَائِشَةُ قَالَ فَجَاءَنَا وَقَدْ اَخَذْنَا مَضَاجِعَنَا فَذَهَبْنَا نَقُوْمُ فَقَالَ عَلٰى مَكَانِكُمَا فَجَاءَ فَقَعَدَ بَيْنِيْ وَبَيْنَهَا حَتّٰى وَجَدْتُ بَرْدَ قَدَمِهٖ عَلٰى بَطْنِيْ فَقَالَ اَلَا اَدُلُّكُمَا عَلٰى خَيْرٍ مِّمَّا سَاَلْتُمَا اِذَا اَخَذْتُمَا مَضْجَعَكُمَا فَسَبِّحَا ثَلَاثًا وَّثَلَاثِيْنَ وَاحْمَدَا ثَلَاثًا وَّثَلَاثِيْنَ وَكَبِّرَا اَرْبَعًا وَّثَلَاثِيْنَ فَهُوَ خَيْرٌ لَّكُمَا مِنْ خَادِمٍ۔ (متفق عليه)

2387. Sayyiduna Ali رضى الله عنه narrated that Sayyidah Fatimah رضى الله عنه went to the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم to complain of the blisters on her hand from constant use of the grinding stone, having heard that he had received some slaves. He was not there, so she complained to Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها who informed him when he came.
Sayyiduna Ali رضى الله عنه narrated further that he came to them when they had gone to bed. They made as if to get up but he advised them to stay where they were and came and sat down between them. Ali رضى الله عنه said that he felt the coldness of his foot on his belly. Then he said 'Shall I not guide you to what is better than what you both have asked? When you retire to your bed, say: (سُبْحَانَ اللّٰه) thirty three times, (اَلْحَمْدُ لِلّٰه) thirty three times and (الله اكبر) thirty four times. it is better for you than a servant."[1]

---

[1] Bukhari # 7488, Muslim # 52.2710.

[2] Muslim # 64.715, Abu Dawud # 5053.

COMMENTARY: The Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم loved immensely (his daughter) Sayyidah Fatimah رضى الله عنه and (his son-in-law) Sayyiduna Ali رضى الله عنه Hence, he sat down between them without any hesitation. It is as the saying:

إِذَا جَاءَتِ الْأُلْفَةُ رُفِعَتِ الْكُلْفَةُ

'Where three is love, ceremonies are done away with.'

As for the foregoing expressions, Jazri رحمه الله has said in Sharh Masabih that takbir precedes. Ibn Kathir رحمه الله said that after the salah (prayer), subhan Allah (سبحان الله) is recited first, then al-hamdulillah (الحمد لله) and AllahuAkbar (الله اكبر), but before going to sleep, Allahu Akbar maybe recited first. The ulama (Scholars) say that the more correct thing is that sometimes Allahu Akbar may be recited first and sometimes after words, so, that both versions may be put into practice. This is preferred and better.

When the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "This is better for you than a servant." He meant to encourage Sayyidah Fatimah رضى الله عنه to persevere against things difficult, like illness, worldly upsets. His words also suggest that relative to a grateful affluent man, a preserving poor is better.

(٢٣٨٨) وَعَنْ اَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ جَاءَتْ فَاطِمَةُ إِلَى النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ تَسْأَلُهُ خَادِمًا فَقَالَ اَلَا اَدُلُّكِ عَلَى مَا هُوَ خَيْرٌ مِنْ خَادِمٍ تُسَبِّحِيْنَ اللّٰهَ ثَلَاثًا وَثَلَاثِيْنَ وَتَحْمَدِيْنَ اللّٰهَ ثَلَاثًا وَثَلَاثِيْنَ وَتُكَبِّرِيْنَ اللّٰهَ اَرْبَعًا وَّثَلَاثِيْنَ عِنْدَ كُلِّ صَلَاةٍ وَعِنْدَ مَنَامِكِ۔ (رواه مسلم)

2388. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضى الله عنه narrated that Sayyidah Fatimah رضى الله عنه came to the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم to ask him for a servant. He said, "Shall I not point out to you that which is better than a servant. Glorify Allah {with (سبحان الله)} thirty three time. Praise Allah {with (الحمد لله)} thirty three times. Extol Allah {with (الله اكبر)} thirty four times after every salah (prayer) and while going to sleep."[2]

COMMENTARY: Reciting them before retiring to bed removes hardship of the day and sadness and grief.

SECTION II الفصل الثانى

SUPPLICATION MORNING & EVENING

(٢٣٨٩) عَنْ اَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ كَانَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِذَا اَصْبَحَ قَالَ اَللّٰهُمَّ بِكَ اَصْبَحْنَا وَبِكَ اَمْسَيْنَا وَبِكَ نَحْيٰى وَبِكَ نَمُوْتُ وَإِلَيْكَ الْمَصِيْرُ وَإِذَا اَمْسٰى قَالَ اَللّٰهُمَّ بِكَ اَمْسَيْنَا وَبِكَ اَصْبَحْنَا وَبِكَ نَحْيٰى وَبِكَ نَمُوْتُ وَإِلَيْكَ النُّشُوْرُ۔ (رواه الترمذى وابوداؤد وابن ماجة)

2389. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضى الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم used to pray in the morning:

---

[1] Bukhari # 5361, Muslim # 80-2727, Abu Dawud # 5062, Tirmidhi # 3469,Musnad Ahmad 1-80.

[2] Muslim # 81-2728.

اَللّٰهُمَّ بِكَ اَصْبَحْنَا وَبِكَ اَمْسَيْنَا وَبِكَ نَحْيٰى وَبِكَ نَمُوْتُ وَاِلَيْكَ الْمَصِيْرُ

(O Allah, with your help do we come to the morning and with Your help do we come to the evening. With your help do we survive and with your help do we die. And to you is our return.)

And, he used to pray in the evening:

اَللّٰهُمَّ بِكَ اَمْسَيْنَا وَبِكَ اَصْبَحْنَا وَبِكَ نَحْيٰى وَبِكَ نَمُوْتُ وَاِلَيْكَ النُّشُوْرُ

(O Allah, with your help do we come to the evening and with your help do we come to the morning. With your help do we survive and with your help do we die. And, to you shall we be resurrected.)[1]

(٢٣٩٠) وَعَنْ اَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ اَبُوْ بَكْرٍ قُلْتُ يَارَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ مُرْنِي بِشَيْئٍ اَقُوْلُهُ اِذَا اَصْبَحْتُ وَاِذَا اَمْسَيْتُ قَالَ قُلِ اللّٰهُمَّ عَالِمَ الْغَيْبِ وَالشَّهَادَةِ فَاطِرَ السَّمٰوَاتِ وَالْاَرْضِ رَبَّ كُلِّ شَيْئٍ وَمَلِيْكَهٗ اَشْهَدُ اَنْ لَا اِلٰهَ اِلَّا اَنْتَ اَعُوْذُبِكَ مِنْ شَرِّ نَفْسِي وَمِنْ شَرِّ الشَّيْطَانِ وَشِرْكِهٖ قُلْهُ اِذَا اَصْبَحْتَ وَاِذَا اَمْسَيْتَ وَاِذَا اَخَذْتَ مَضْجَعَكَ۔ (رواہ الترمذی وابوداؤد والدارمی)

2390. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Sayyiduna Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ requested, "O Messenger of Allah, command me a prayer that I should pray in the morning and in the evening." He instructed him to say:

اَللّٰهُمَّ عَالِمَ الْغَيْبِ وَالشَّهَادَةِ فَاطِرَ السَّمٰوَاتِ وَالْاَرْضِ رَبَّ كُلِّ شَيْئٍ وَمَلِيْكَهٗ اَشْهَدُ اَنْ لَا اِلٰهَ اِلَّا اَنْتَ اَعُوْذُبِكَ مِنْ شَرِّ نَفْسِي وَمِنْ شَرِّ الشَّيْطَانِ وَشِرْكِهٖ

{O Allah, knower of the unseen and the seen, greater of the heavens and the earth, Lord and Master of everything. I bear witness that there is no God but you. I seek refuge in you from the mischief of my soul and from the evil of the devil and his ascribing partner (to you).}

He said to him, "Make this prayer in the morning and evening and when you go to bed."[2]

(٢٣٩١) وَعَنْ اَبَانِ بْنِ عُثْمَانَ قَالَ سَمِعْتُ اَبِي يَقُوْلُ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَا مِنْ عَبْدٍ يَقُوْلُ فِي صَبَاحِ كُلِّ يَوْمٍ وَمَسَاءِ كُلِّ لَيْلَةٍ بِسْمِ اللّٰهِ الَّذِي لَا يَضُرُّ مَعَ اسْمِهٖ شَيْئٌ فِي الْاَرْضِ وَلَا فِي السَّمَاءِ وَهُوَ السَّمِيْعُ الْعَلِيْمُ ثَلَاثَ مَرَّاتٍ فَيَضُرُّهٗ شَيْئٌ فَكَانَ اَبَانٌ قَدْ اَصَابَهٗ طَرَفُ فَالِجٍ فَجَعَلَ الرَّجُلُ يَنْظُرُ اِلَيْهِ فَقَالَ لَهٗ اَبَانٌ مَا تَنْظُرُ اِلَيَّ اَمَا اِنَّ الْحَدِيْثَ كَمَا حَدَّثْتُكَ وَلٰكِنِّي لَمْ اَقُلْهُ يَوْمَئِذٍ لِيُمْضِيَ اللّٰهُ عَلَيَّ قَدَرَهٗ۔ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَاَبُوْدَاوُدَ وَابْنُ مَاجَةَ وَفِي رِوَايَتِهٖ لَمْ تُصِبْهُ فُجَاءَةُ بَلَاءٍ حَتّٰى يُصْبِحَ وَمَنْ قَالَهَا حِيْنَ يُصْبِحُ لَمْ تُصِبْهُ فُجَاءَةُ بَلَاءٍ حَتّٰى يُمْسِيَ۔

2391. Sayyiduna Aban ibn Uthman رحمہ اللہ narrated that he heard his father say that

---

[1] Abu Dawud # 5068, Tirmidhi # 3402, Ibn Majah # 3868.

[2] Abu Dawud # 5067, Tirmidhi # 3403, Musnad Ahmad 2-196.

Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "No one will say every morning and every evening, three times:

بِسْمِ اللّٰهِ الَّذِي لَا يَضُرُّ مَعَ اسْمِهِ شَيْءٌ فِي الْأَرْضِ وَلَا فِي السَّمَاءِ وَهُوَ السَّمِيعُ الْعَلِيمُ

{In the name of Allah by virtue of whose name nothing in the earth or heaven can harm, He is the All-Hearing, the All-Knowing} but no harm will afflict him." Aban was afflicted by a stroke of paralysis and the man (to whom he narrated this hadith (tradition)) continue to gaze at him. So Aban asked him why he gazed at him, for, the hadith (tradition) was as he had narrated, but he had not made the supplication that day so that Allah imposed His decree for him.
Another version (of Abu Dawud) has: "He will not suffer a sudden smitting till the morning. If anyone pray in the morning, he will not be smitten till the evening."[1]

(٢٣٩٢) وَعَنْ عَبْدِاللّٰهِ اَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ كَانَ يَقُوْلُ اِذَا اَمْسٰى اَمْسَيْنَا وَاَمْسَى الْمُلْكُ لِلّٰهِ وَالْحَمْدُ لِلّٰهِ لَا اِلٰهَ اِلَّا اللّٰهُ وَحْدَهٗ لَا شَرِيْكَ لَهٗ لَهُ الْمُلْكُ وَلَهُ الْحَمْدُ وَهُوَ عَلٰى كُلِّ شَيْءٍ قَدِيْرٌ رَبِّ اَسْئَلُكَ خَيْرَ مَا فِيْ هٰذِهِ اللَّيْلَةِ وَخَيْرَ مَا بَعْدَهَا وَاَعُوْذُبِكَ مِنْ شَرِّ مَا فِيْ هٰذِهِ اللَّيْلَةِ وَشَرِّ مَا بَعْدَهَا رَبِّ اَعُوْذُبِكَ مِنَ الْكَسَلِ وَمِنْ سُوْءِ الْكِبَرِ اَوِالْكُفْرِ. وَفِيْ رِوَايَةٍ مِنْ سُوْءِ الْكِبَرِ وَالْكِبْرِ رَبِّ اَعُوْذُبِكَ مِنْ عَذَابٍ فِي النَّارِ وَعَذَابٍ فِي الْقَبْرِ وَاِذَا اَصْبَحَ قَالَ ذٰلِكَ اَيْضًا اَصْبَحْنَا وَاَصْبَحَ الْمُلْكُ لِلّٰهِ- رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَاَبُوْدَاوٗدَ وَفِيْ رِوَايَةٍ لَمْ يَذْكُرْ مِنْ سُوْءِ الْكُفْرِ-

2392. Sayyiduna Abdullah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم used to pray in the evening:

اَمْسَيْنَا وَاَمْسَى الْمُلْكُ لِلّٰهِ وَالْحَمْدُ لِلّٰهِ لَا اِلٰهَ اِلَّا اللّٰهُ وَحْدَهٗ لَا شَرِيْكَ لَهٗ لَهُ الْمُلْكُ وَلَهُ الْحَمْدُ وَهُوَ عَلٰى كُلِّ شَيْءٍ قَدِيْرٌ رَبِّ اَسْئَلُكَ خَيْرَ مَا فِيْ هٰذِهِ اللَّيْلَةِ وَخَيْرَ مَا بَعْدَهَا وَاَعُوْذُبِكَ مِنْ شَرِّ مَا فِيْ هٰذِهِ اللَّيْلَةِ وَشَرِّ مَا بَعْدَهَا رَبِّ اَعُوْذُبِكَ مِنَ الْكَسَلِ وَمِنْ سُوْءِ الْكِبَرِ اَوِالْكُفْرِ

{We have come to the evening as has the entire universe of Allah come to the evening. All praise belongs to Allah. There is no God but Allah. He is Alone and has no partner. To Him belongs the dominion and to Him belongs praise and He is over all things powerful. O my Lord, I ask you for the good of this night and the good of that which follows it. I seek refuge in you from the mischief that is in this might and the mischief of that which follow it. My Lord. I seek refuge in you from sloth and the evil of old age, or of disbelief}
Another version has:

مِنْ سُوْءِ الْكِبَرِ وَالْكِبْرِ رَبِّ اَعُوْذُبِكَ مِنْ عَذَابٍ فِي النَّارِ وَعَذَابٍ فِي الْقَبْرِ

{from the evil of old age and of pride. My Lord, I seek refuge in you from punishment in hell and punishment in the grave}
When it was morning, he said the same but (instead of evening) "We have come to the morning as has the universe of Allah." (to the end.)[1]

[1] Abu Dawud # 5088, Tirmidhi # 3399, Ibn Majah # 3869, Musnad Ahmad 1-62.

(٢٣٩٣) وَعَنْ بَعْضِ بَنَاتِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ كَانَ يُعَلِّمُهَا فَيَقُوْلُ قُوْلِي حِيْنَ تُصْبِحِيْنَ سُبْحَانَ اللّٰهِ وَبِحَمْدِهٖ وَلَا قُوَّةَ اِلَّا بِاللّٰهِ مَاشَاءَ اللّٰهُ كَانَ وَمَا لَمْ يَشَأْ لَمْ يَكُنْ اَعْلَمُ اَنَّ اللّٰهَ عَلٰى كُلِّ شَيْءٍ قَدِيْرٌ وَاَنَّ اللّٰهَ قَدْ اَحَاطَ بِكُلِّ شَيْءٍ عِلْمًا فَاِنَّهٗ مَنْ قَالَهَا حِيْنَ يُصْبِحُ حُفِظَ حَتّٰى يُمْسِيَ وَمَنْ قَالَهَا حِيْنَ يُمْسِي حُفِظَ حَتّٰى يُصْبِحَ۔ (رواه ابوداؤد)

2393. One of the daughters رضی اللہ عنہ of the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم reported that the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم used to teach her, instructing her to say in the morning:

سُبْحَانَ اللّٰهِ وَبِحَمْدِهٖ وَلَا قُوَّةَ اِلَّا بِاللّٰهِ مَاشَاءَ اللّٰهُ كَانَ وَمَا لَمْ يَشَأْ لَمْ يَكُنْ اَعْلَمُ اَنَّ اللّٰهَ عَلٰى كُلِّ شَيْءٍ قَدِيْرٌ وَاَنَّ اللّٰهَ قَدْ اَحَاطَ بِكُلِّ شَيْءٍ عِلْمًا

{Allah is without blemish. I begin with His praise. There is no power save with Allah, what Allah wills does happen and what He does not will does not transpire. I know that surely Allah is over all things powerful and surely Allah has embraced everything with knowledge.}

Hence, whosoever makes this prayer in the morning shall be preserved till evening (from affliction and sins) and whosoever makes this prayer in the evening shall be preserved till morning.[2]

(٢٣٩٤) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ قَالَ حِيْنَ يُصْبِحُ فَسُبْحَانَ اللّٰهِ حِيْنَ تُمْسُوْنَ وَحِيْنَ تُصْبِحُوْنَ وَلَهُ الْحَمْدُ فِي السَّمٰوَاتِ وَالْاَرْضِ وَعَشِيًّا وَحِيْنَ تُظْهِرُوْنَ اِلٰى قَوْلِهٖ وَكَذٰلِكَ تُخْرَجُوْنَ اَدْرَكَ مَافَاتَهٗ فِيْ يَوْمِهٖ ذٰلِكَ وَمَنْ قَالَهُنَّ حِيْنَ يُمْسِيْ اَدْرَكَ مَافَاتَهٗ فِيْ لَيْلِهٖ۔ (رواه ابوداؤد)

2394. Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said that if anyone says in the morning – (the verses 30:17-19)

فَسُبْحَانَ اللّٰهِ حِيْنَ تُمْسُوْنَ وَحِيْنَ تُصْبِحُوْنَ وَلَهُ الْحَمْدُ فِي السَّمٰوَاتِ وَالْاَرْضِ وَعَشِيًّا وَحِيْنَ تُظْهِرُوْنَ

then he will get that day that of which he was deprived. If he recites it in the evening, then he will get that night that of which he was deprived.[3]

COMMENTARY: The entire verse is:

يُخْرِجُ الْحَيَّ مِنَ الْمَيِّتِ وَيُخْرِجُ الْمَيِّتَ مِنَ الْحَيِّ وَيُحْيِي الْاَرْضَ بَعْدَ مَوْتِهَا وَكَذٰلِكَ تُخْرَجُوْنَ

{so glorified be Allah when you enter the evening and when you enter the morning. And His is all praise in the heavens and the earth and (glorify him) in the afternoon (asr) and then when you enter the time of declining of the sun. He brings forth the living from the dead, and brings forth the dead from the living, and revives the

---

[1] Tirmidhi # 3401, Abu DAwud # 5071, Muslim # 74-2723.

[2] Abu Dawud # 5075.

[3] Abu Dawud # 5076.

earth after her death, and thus shall you be brought forth.} (30:17-19)
(Glorifying Allah is to offer the salah (prayer). In the evening is maghrib and isha and morning is fajr. Afternoon is asr and declining sun is zuhr. Living from dead is from sperm and egg, and dead from the living is the sperm and the egg from the living. The dead earth becomes fertile and so will you be resurrected from the grave.)
The hadith (tradition) means that if anyone recites this verse in the morning then whatever he misses of his rota of petitions and pious works will be compensated. The same applies to recital in the evening.
Nafi رحمه الله reported that Ibn Arzaq رحمه الله asked Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ if he found the command for the five salah (prayer) in the Quran with their specified hours. He said, "Yes" and a cited these verses as defining the hours of the five *salah (prayer)*s.

(٢٣٩٥) وَعَنْ اَبِي عَيَّاشٍ اَنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ مَنْ قَالَ اِذَا اَصْبَحَ لَا اِلٰهَ اِلَّا اللّٰهُ وَحْدَهُ لَا شَرِيْكَ لَهُ لَهُ الْمُلْكُ وَلَهُ الْحَمْدُ وَهُوَ عَلٰى كُلِّ شَيْءٍ قَدِيْرٌ كَانَ لَهُ عِدْلُ رَقَبَةٍ مِنْ وُلْدِ اِسْمَاعِيْلَ وَكُتِبَ لَهُ عَشْرُ حَسَنَاتٍ وَحُطَّ عَنْهُ عَشْرُ سَيِّئَاتٍ وَرُفِعَ لَهُ عَشْرُ دَرَجَاتٍ وَكَانَ فِيْ حِرْزٍ مِنَ الشَّيْطَانِ حَتّٰى يُمْسِيَ وَاِنْ قَالَهَا اِذَا اَمْسٰى كَانَ لَهُ مِثْلُ ذٰلِكَ حَتّٰى يُصْبِحَ قَالَ حَمَّادُ بْنُ سَلَمَةَ فَرَاٰى رَجُلٌ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فِيْمَا يَرَى النَّائِمُ فَقَالَ يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ اِنَّ اَبَا عَيَّاشٍ يُحَدِّثُ عَنْكَ بِكَذَا وَكَذَا قَالَ صَدَقَ اَبُوْ عَيَّاشٍ۔ (رواه ابوداؤد وابن ماجة)

2395. Sayyiduna Abu Ayash رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said that if anyone says in the morning

لَا اِلٰهَ اِلَّا اللّٰهُ وَحْدَهُ لَا شَرِيْكَ لَهُ لَهُ الْمُلْكُ وَلَهُ الْحَمْدُ وَهُوَ عَلٰى كُلِّ شَيْءٍ قَدِيْرٌ

(There is no God but Allah. He is Alone. He has no partner. To him belongs the kingdom and to Him belongs the kingdom and to Him belongs all praise and he is over all things powerful)
he will earn a reward equivalent to emancipating a slave from among the descendants of Prophet Isma'il علیہ السلام, ten good deeds will be recorded for him, ten evil deeds will be erased from him, ten degrees will be raised for him and he will be protected from the devil till the evening.
If anyone says these words in the evening then he will earn all that till the morning. Hammad ibn Salamah رضی اللہ عنہ reported about a man who saw Allah' Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم in a dream and he asked him, "O Messenger of Allah, Abu Ayyash narrates this hadith (tradition) from you?" He said, "Abu Ayyash speaks the truth."[1]

SUPPLICATION AFTER MAGHRIB AND FAJR SALAH (PRAYER)

(٢٣٩٦) وَعَنِ الْحَارِثِ بْنِ مُسْلِمٍ التَّمِيْمِيِّ عَنْ اَبِيْهِ عَنْ رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَنَّهُ اَسَرَّ اِلَيْهِ فَقَالَ اِذَا انْصَرَفْتَ مِنْ صَلَاةِ الْمَغْرِبِ فَقُلْ قَبْلَ اَنْ تُكَلِّمَ اَحَدًا اَللّٰهُمَّ اَجِرْنِيْ مِنَ النَّارِ سَبْعَ مَرَّاتٍ فَاِنَّكَ اِذَا

---

[1] Abu Dwud # 5077, Ibn Majah # 3867.

قُلْتَ ذٰلِكَ ثُمَّ مُتَّ فِيْ لَيْلَتِكَ كُتِبَ لَكَ جَوَازٌ مِنْهَا وَاِذَا صَلَّيْتَ الصُّبْحَ فَقُلْ كَذٰلِكَ فَاِنَّكَ اِذَا مُتَّ فِيْ يَوْمِكَ كُتِبَ لَكَ جَوَازٌ مِنْهَا۔ (رواه ابوداؤد)

2396. Sayyiduna Al-Harith ibn Muslim At Tamimi رحمه الله reported that his father narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم told him quietly, "When you finish the salah (prayer) of maghrib, pray before speaking to anyone seven times:

اَللّٰهُمَّ اَجِرْنِيْ مِنَ النَّارِ

{O Allah, protect me from the Fire}
If after praying that you die that night of yours, deliverance from hell will be recorded for
You. And, when you have offered the salah (prayer) of fajr, pray accordingly, for, if you die that day of yours, deliverance from hell be recorded for you.[1]

THE PROPHET'S صلى الله عليه وسلم PRAYER MORNING & EVENING

(٢٣٩٧) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عُمَرَ قَالَ لَمْ يَكُنْ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَدَعُ هٰؤُلَاءِ الْكَلِمَاتِ حِيْنَ يُمْسِيْ وَحِيْنَ يُصْبِحُ اَللّٰهُمَّ اِنِّيْ اَسْأَلُكَ الْعَافِيَةَ فِيْ دِيْنِيْ وَدُنْيَايَ وَاَهْلِيْ وَمَالِيْ اَللّٰهُمَّ اسْتُرْ عَوْرَاتِيْ وَاٰمِنْ رَوْعَاتِيْ اَللّٰهُمَّ احْفَظْنِيْ مِنْ بَيْنِ يَدَيَّ وَمِنْ خَلْفِيْ وَعَنْ يَمِيْنِيْ وَعَنْ شِمَالِيْ وَمِنْ فَوْقِيْ وَاَعُوْذُ بِعَظَمَتِكَ اَنْ اُغْتَالَ مِنْ تَحْتِيْ يَعْنِي الْخَسْفَ۔ (رواه ابوداؤد)

2397. Sayyiduna Ibn Umar رضى الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم never omitted to make this supplication in the morning and in the evening:

اَللّٰهُمَّ اِنِّيْ اَسْأَلُكَ الْعَافِيَةَ فِيْ دِيْنِيْ وَدُنْيَايَ وَاَهْلِيْ وَمَالِيْ اَللّٰهُمَّ اسْتُرْ عَوْرَاتِيْ وَاٰمِنْ رَوْعَاتِيْ اَللّٰهُمَّ احْفَظْنِيْ مِنْ بَيْنِ يَدَيَّ وَمِنْ خَلْفِيْ وَعَنْ يَمِيْنِيْ وَعَنْ شِمَالِيْ وَمِنْ فَوْقِيْ وَاَعُوْذُ بِعَظَمَتِكَ اَنْ اغْتَالَ مِنْ تَحْتِيْ

{O Allah, I beseech you for security in this world and the hereafter. O Allah, I beseech you for forgiveness and security in my faith, in my worldly affairs, in my family and in my property. O Allah, conceal my defects : nd keep me secure from my apprehensions. O Allah, protect me from front of me and from behind me, from my right and from my left, and from above me. And I seek refuge in your greatness lest I receive a sudden damage from beneath me (meaning swallowing.} [2]

ANOTHER PRAYER FOR MORNING OR EVENING

(٢٣٩٨) وَعَنْ اَنَسٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ قَالَ حِيْنَ يُصْبِحُ اَللّٰهُمَّ اَصْبَحْنَا نُشْهِدُكَ وَنُشْهِدُ حَمَلَةَ عَرْشِكَ وَمَلٰٓئِكَتَكَ وَجَمِيْعَ خَلْقِكَ اَنَّكَ اَنْتَ اللّٰهُ لَا اِلٰهَ اِلَّا اَنْتَ وَحْدَكَ لَا شَرِيْكَ لَكَ وَاَنَّ مُحَمَّدًا عَبْدُكَ وَرَسُوْلُكَ اِلَّا غَفَرَ اللّٰهُ لَهٗ مَا اَصَابَهٗ فِيْ يَوْمِهٖ ذٰلِكَ مِنْ ذَنْبٍ وَاِنْ قَالَهَا حِيْنَ يُمْسِيْ غَفَرَ اللّٰهُ لَهٗ مَا اَصَابَهٗ فِيْ تِلْكَ اللَّيْلَةِ مِنْ ذَنْبٍ۔ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَاَبُوْدَاوُدَ وَقَالَ التِّرْمِذِيُّ هٰذَا حَدِيْثٌ غَرِيْبٌ۔

---

[1] Abu Dawud # 5079.
[2] Abu Dawud # 5074, Ibn Majah # 3871.

2398. Sayyiduna Anas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said that if any one says in the morning:

اَللّٰهُمَّ اَصْبَحْنَا نُشْهِدُكَ وَنُشْهِدُ حَمَلَةَ عَرْشِكَ وَمَلٰٓئِكَتِكَ وَجَمِيْعَ خَلْقِكَ اَنَّكَ اَنْتَ اللّٰهُ لَا اِلٰهَ اِلَّا اَنْتَ وَحْدَكَ لَا شَرِيْكَ لَكَ وَاَنَّ مُحَمَّدًا عَبْدُكَ وَرَسُوْلُكَ

{O Allah, we come to the morning calling you to bear witness and we call as witnesses the bearers of the throne. Your angels and all your creatures that you, certainly you, are Allah, here is no God but you, You are Alone, you have no partner, and, (to bear witness) that Muhammad is your servant and your Messenger.}

Allah will forgive him the sins that he commits that day. If any one says it in the evening, then Allah will forgive him the sins that he commits that night.[1]

(٢٣٩٩) وَعَنْ ثَوْبَانَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَا مِنْ عَبْدٍ مُسْلِمٍ يَقُوْلُ اِذَا اَمْسٰى وَاِذَا اَصْبَحَ ثَلَاثًا رَضِيْتُ بِاللّٰهِ رَبًّا وَبِالْاِسْلَامِ دِيْنًا وَبِمُحَمَّدٍ نَبِيًّا اِلَّا كَانَ حَقًّا عَلَى اللّٰهِ اَنْ يُرْضِيَهٗ يَوْمَ الْقِيَامَةِ۔

(رواہ احمد والترمذی)

2399. Sayyiduna Thawban رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said that no Muslim will make this prayer three times in the evening and in the morning without Allah being pleased with him on the day of resurrection:

رَضِيْتُ بِاللّٰهِ رَبًّا وَبِالْاِسْلَامِ دِيْنًا وَبِمُحَمَّدٍ نَبِيًّا

{I am pleased with Allah as Lord, with Islam as religion and with Muhammad as Prophet}[2]

COMMENTARY: Some versions have (نبيا) (Prophet) and same have (رسولا) (Messenger). Hence, it is mustahab (desirable) to recite both (وَبِمُحَمَّدٍ نَبِيًا وَرَسُوْلًا) (and with Muhammad as Prophet and Messenger).

(٢٤٠٠-٢٤٠١) وَعَنْ حُذَيْفَةَ اَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ كَانَ اِذَا اَرَادَ اَنْ يَنَامَ وَضَعَ يَدَهٗ تَحْتَ رَأْسِهٖ ثُمَّ قَالَ اَللّٰهُمَّ قِنِيْ عَذَابَكَ يَوْمَ تَجْمَعُ عِبَادَكَ اَوْ تَبْعَثُ عِبَادَكَ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَاَحْمَدُ عَنِ الْبَرَاءِ۔

2400. Sayyiduna Hudahayfah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that when the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم intended to go to sleep, he put his hand under his head, and prayed:

اَللّٰهُمَّ قِنِيْ عَذَابَكَ يَوْمَ تَجْمَعُ عِبَادَكَ اَوْ تَبْعَثُ عِبَادَكَ

{O Allah, preserve me from your punishment on the day when you shall assemble your creatures - or, resurrect your creatures.}[3]

2401. Sayyiduna Al-Bara رضی اللہ عنہ narrated (this hadith (tradition)) too.[4]

COMMENTARY: According to another hadith (tradition), the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ

[1] Abu Dawud # 5078.

[2] Tirmidhi # 3400, Ibn Majah # 3870, Musnad Ahmad 5.367.

[3] Tirmidhi # 3409, Ibn Majah # 3877.

[4] Musnad Ahmad 4-281.

وسلم kept his hand under his cheek, so, it means that sometimes he kept his hand under his cheek and sometimes under his head. Or, his hand may have been part under his cheek and part under his head, The narrator reported as he saw.

(٢٤٠٢) وَعَنْ حَفْصَةَ اَنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ كَانَ إِذَا أَرَادَ اَنْ يَرْقُدَ وَضَعَ يَدَهُ الْيُمْنٰى تَحْتَ خَدِّهٖ ثُمَّ يَقُوْلُ اَللّٰهُمَّ قِنِيْ عَذَابَكَ يَوْمَ تَبْعَثُ عِبَادَكَ ثَلَاثَ مَرَّاتٍ۔ (رواه ابوداؤد)

2402. Sayyidah Hafsah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that when Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم intended to go to sleep, he put his right hand under his cheek and prayed three times:

اَللّٰهُمَّ قِنِيْ عَذَابَكَ يَوْمَ تَبْعَثُ

{O Allah preserve me from your punishment on the day when you shall resurrect your creatures} [1]

(٢٤٠٣) وَعَنْ عَلِيٍّ اَنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ كَانَ يَقُوْلُ عِنْدَ مَضْجَعِهٖ اَللّٰهُمَّ اِنِّيْ اَعُوْذُبِوَجْهِكَ الْكَرِيْمِ وَكَلِمَاتِكَ التَّامَّاتِ مِنْ شَرِّمَا اَنْتَ اٰخِذٌ بِنَا صِيَتِهٖ اَللّٰهُمَّ اَنْتَ تَكْشِفُ الْمَغْرَمَ وَالْمَأْثَمَ اَللّٰهُمَّ لَا يُهْزَمُ جُنْدُكَ وَلَا يُخْلَفُ وَعْدُكَ وَلَا يَنْفَعُ ذَا الْجَدِّ مِنْكَ الْجَدُّ سُبْحَانَكَ وَبِحَمْدِكَ۔ (رواه ابوداؤد)

2403. Sayyiduna Ali رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that when he retired to bed Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم used to pray:

اَللّٰهُمَّ اِنِّيْ اَعُوْذُبِوَجْهِكَ الْكَرِيْمِ وَكَلِمَاتِكَ التَّامَّاتِ مِنْ شَرِّمَا اَنْتَ اٰخِذٌ بِنَا صِيَتِهٖ اَللّٰهُمَّ اَنْتَ تَكْشِفُ الْمَغْرَمَ وَالْمَأْثَمَ اَللّٰهُمَّ لَا يُهْزَمُ جُنْدُكَ وَلَا يُخْلَفُ وَعْدُكَ وَلَا يَنْفَعُ ذَا الْجَدِّ مِنْكَ الْجَدُّ سُبْحَانَكَ وَبِحَمْدِكَ

{O Allah, I seek refuge in Your noble countenance and in your perfect words from the evil of that which you seize by the forelock. O Allah, you alone relieve (one) from debt and sin. O Allah, Your army is never routed and your promise is never broken. The riches of the affluent avail him not against you are without blemish, and praise belongs to you}[2]

(٢٤٠٤) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ سَعِيْدٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ قَالَ حِيْنَ يأْوِى اِلٰى فِرَاشِهٖ اَسْتَغْفِرُ اللّٰهَ الَّذِىْ لَا اِلٰهَ اِلَّا هُوَ الْحَيُّ الْقَيُّوْمُ وَاَتُوْبُ اِلَيْهِ ثَلَاثَ مَرَّاتٍ غَفَرَ اللّٰهُ لَهٗ ذُنُوبَهٗ وَاِنْ كَانَتْ مِثْلَ زَبَدِ الْبَحْرِ اَوْعَدَدَ رَمْلٍ عَالِجٍ اَوْعَدَدَ وَرَقِ الشَّجَرِ اَوْعَدَدَ اَيَّامِ الدُّنْيَا۔ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَقَالَ هٰذَا حَدِيْثٌ غَرِيْبٌ

2404. Sayyiduna Abu Sa'eed رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said that if anyone prays three times when he retires to his bed:

اَسْتَغْفِرُ اللّٰهَ الَّذِىْ لَا اِلٰهَ اِلَّا هُوَ الْحَيُّ الْقَيُّوْمُ وَاَتُوْبُ اِلَيْهِ

{I seek forgiveness of Allah besides whom is no God, the ever-living, the Eternal, and I repent to HIim}

---

[1] Abu Dawud # 5054.

[2] Abu Dawud # 5052.

then Allah forgives him his sins even though they be like the foam of the sea, or as numerous as the sand particles of (the desert) Aalij, or like in number to the leaves of the trees, or equal to the number of days of this world.[1]

COMMENTARY: Aalij is a desert in the western area. (or a large desert near Thalabiyah – Mujam Baldan)

ANY SURAH OF THE QUR'AN BEFORE SLEEPING

(٢٤٠٥) وَعَنْ شَدَّادِ بْنِ اَوْسٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَا مِنْ مُسْلِمٍ يَأْخُذُ مَضْجَعَهُ بِقِرَاءَةِ سُوْرَةٍ مِنْ كِتَابِ اللّٰهِ اِلَّا وَكَّلَ اللّٰهُ بِهٖ مَلَكًا فَلَا يَقْرَبُهُ شَيْءٌ يُؤْذِيْهِ حَتّٰى يَهُبَّ مَتٰى هَبَّ۔ (رواه الترمذى)

2405. Sayyiduna Shaddad ibn Aws رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "If a Muslim recites a surah from Allah's Book when he retires to bed, Allah appoints an angel to look after him. So, that nothing harmful may approach him till he awakes.[2]

COMMENTARY: Sayyiduna Anas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "When you go to bed, recite surah al-Fatihah and al-Ikhlas. You will be safe (as long as you sleep) from everything apart from death.

(٢٤٠٦) وَعَنْ عَبْدِاللّٰهِ بْنِ عَمْرِو بْنِ الْعَاصِ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ خَلَّتَانِ لَا يُحْصِيْهِمَا رَجُلٌ مُسْلِمٌ اِلَّا دَخَلَ الْجَنَّةَ اَلَا وَهُمَا يَسِيْرٌ وَمَنْ يَعْمَلُ بِهِمَا قَلِيْلٌ يُسَبِّحُ اللّٰهَ فِيْ دُبُرِ كُلِّ صَلَاةٍ عَشْرًا وَيَحْمَدُهٗ عَشْرًا وَيُكَبِّرُهٗ عَشْرًا قَالَ فَاَنَا رَاَيْتُ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَعْقِدُهَا بِيَدِهٖ قَالَ فَتِلْكَ خَمْسُوْنَ وَمِائَةٌ بِاللِّسَانِ وَاَلْفٌ وَخَمْسُ مِائَةٍ فِي الْمِيْزَانِ وَاِذَا اَخَذَ مَضْجَعَهُ يُسَبِّحُهٗ وَيُكَبِّرُهٗ وَيَحْمَدُهٗ مِائَةً فَتِلْكَ مِائَةٌ بِاللِّسَانِ وَاَلْفٌ فِي الْمِيْزَانِ فَاَيُّكُمْ يَعْمَلُ فِي الْيَوْمِ وَاللَّيْلَةِ اَلْفَيْنِ وَخَمْسَ مِائَةِ سَيِّئَةٍ قَالُوْا وَكَيْفَ لَا نُحْصِيْهِمَا قَالَ يَاْتِيْ اَحَدَكُمُ الشَّيْطَانُ وَهُوَ فِيْ صَلَاتِهٖ فَيَقُوْلُ اُذْكُرْ كَذَا اُذْكُرْ كَذَا حَتّٰى يَنْفَتِلَ فَلَعَلَّهٗ اَنْ لَّا يَفْعَلَ وَيَاْتِيْهِ فِيْ مَضْجَعِهٖ فَلَا يَزَالُ يُنَوِّمُهٗ حَتّٰى يَنَامَ۔ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَاَبُوْدَاوٗدَ وَالنَّسَائِيُّ وَفِيْ رِوَايَةِ اَبِيْ دَاوٗدَ قَالَ خَصْلَتَانِ اَوْ خُلَّتَانِ لَا يُحَافِظُ عَلَيْهِمَا عَبْدٌ مُسْلِمٌ وَكَذَا فِيْ رِوَايَتِهٖ بَعْدَ قَوْلِهٖ وَاَلْفٌ وَخَمْسُ مِائَةٍ فِي الْمِيْزَانِ قَالَ يُكَبِّرُ اَرْبَعًا وَثَلَاثِيْنَ اِذَا اَخَذَ مَضْجَعَهٗ وَيَحْمَدُ ثَلَاثًا وَثَلَاثِيْنَ وَيُسَبِّحُ ثَلَاثًا وَثَلَاثِيْنَ وَفِيْ اَكْثَرِ نُسَخِ الْمَصَابِيْحِ عَنْ عَبْدِ اللّٰهِ بْنِ عُمَرَ۔

2406. Sayyiduna Abdullah ibn Amr ibn al-Aas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "Two characteristics in a Muslim man will ensure his admittance to paradise. Indeed, both of them are easy, but those who adopt them are few. Glorify Allah after every salah (prayer) ten times, praise Him ten times and extol Him ten times. He observed Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم count them on his fingers and he said, "They are one hundred and fifty on the tongue, but one thousand five hundred in the scale. And, which of you can commit two thousand five hundred sins in a day and a night?" He was asked, "Why can we not adopt these characteristics regularly?" He said, "The devil comes to one of you while he is engaged in his salah (prayer) and asks him to remember this and remember that till he finishes his salah (prayer) and perhaps does not do it. The devil comes to him when he goes to bed and does not cease to induce him to sleep till he goes to sleep.

---

[1] Tirmidhi # 3408, Musnad Ahmad 11074.

[2] Tirmidhi.

According to a version in Abu Dawud. "Two qualities or two characteristics in a muslim..."
And also after the words "One thousand five hundred in the scale." He said, "When he retires to bed, he should extol Allah thirty four times, praise Him thirty three times, and glorify Him thirty three times."[1]
In most text of al-Musabih, the narrator is Sayyiduna Abdullah ibn Umar صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم

COMMENTARY: The question 'which of you..." is actually a denial, the who earns so many pieties cannot commit as many sins. It is in the light of Allah's words:

إِنَّ الْحَسَنَاتِ يُذْهِبْنَ السَّيِّئَاتِ

{Surely good deeds will drive away the evil deeds} (11:114)

These pieties removes sins and also get ranks raised.
The devil is sworn enemy of man and makes him omit the tasbih after salah (prayer) and so before going to sleep.

GRATITUDE FOR BLESSING DURING DAY & NIGHT

(٢٤٠٧) وَعَنْ عَبْدِاللّٰهِ بْنِ غَنَّامٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ قَالَ حِيْنَ يُصْبِحُ اَللّٰهُمَّ مَا اَصْبَحَ بِيْ مِنْ نِعْمَةٍ اَوْبِاَحَدٍ مِنْ خَلْقِكَ فَمِنْكَ وَحْدَكَ لَا شَرِيْكَ لَكَ فَلَكَ الْحَمْدُ وَلَكَ الشُّكْرُ فَقَدْ اَدّٰى شُكْرَ يَوْمِهٖ وَمَنْ قَالَ مِثْلَ ذٰلِكَ حِيْنَ يُمْسِيْ فَقَدْ اَدّٰى شُكْرَ لَيْلَتِهٖ (رواه ابوداؤد)

2407. Sayyiduna Abdullah ibn Ghannam رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said that if anyone says in the morning:

اَللّٰهُمَّ مَا اَصْبَحَ بِيْ مِنْ نِعْمَةٍ اَوْبِاَحَدٍ مِنْ خَلْقِكَ فَمِنْكَ وَحْدَكَ لَا شَرِيْكَ لَكَ فَلَكَ الْحَمْدُ وَلَكَ الشُّكْرُ

{O Allah, the blessings upon me or upon anyone of your creatures in the morning are from you alone. You have no partner, for you is all praise and for you is gratitude} then, indeed, he has given thanks for that day of his.
And, he who says the same in the evening has, indeed, expressed gratitude for the night of his.

PRAYER WHILE GOING TO SLEEP

(٢٤٠٨) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَنَّهُ كَانَ يَقُوْلُ اِذَا اَوٰى اِلٰى فِرَاشِهٖ اَللّٰهُمَّ رَبَّ السَّمٰوَاتِ وَالْاَرْضِ وَرَبَّ كُلِّ شَيْءٍ فَالِقَ الْحَبِّ وَالنَّوٰى مُنْزِلَ التَّوْرَاةِ وَالْاِنْجِيْلِ وَالْقُرْاٰنِ اَعُوْذُبِكَ مِنْ شَرِّ كُلِّ ذِيْ شَرٍّ اَنْتَ اٰخِذٌ بِنَاصِيَتِهٖ اَنْتَ الْاَوَّلُ فَلَيْسَ قَبْلَكَ شَيْءٌ وَاَنْتَ الْاٰخِرُ فَلَيْسَ بَعْدَكَ شَيْءٌ وَاَنْتَ

[1] Tirmidhi # 3421, Abu Dawud # 5065, Nasa'I # 1344, Musnad Ahmad # 6927.

الظَّاهِرُ فَلَيْسَ فَوقَكَ شَيْئٌ وَاَنْتَ البَاطِنُ فَلَيْسَ دُوْنَكَ شَيْئٌ اِقْضِ عَنِّي الدَّيْنَ وَاغْنِنِي مِنَ الْفَقْرِ رَوَاهُ

اَبُوْدَاوُدَ وَالتِّرمِذِيُّ وَابْنُ مَاجَةَ وَرَوَاهُ مُسْلِمٌ مَعَ اخْتِلَافٍ يَسِيْرٍ۔

2408. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that when the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم retired to his bed, he would pray:

اَللّٰهُمَّ رَبَّ السَّمٰوَاتِ وَالْاَرْضِ وَرَبَّ كُلِّ شَيْئٍ فَالِقَ الْحَبِّ وَالنَّوٰى مُنْزِلَ التَّوْرَاةِ وَالْاِنْجِيْلِ وَالْقُرْاٰنِ

اَعُوْذُبِكَ مِنْ شَرِّ كُلِّ ذِىْ شَرٍّ اَنْتَ اٰخِذٌ بِنَاصِيَتِهٖ اَنْتَ الْاَوَّلُ فَلَيْسَ قَبْلَكَ شَيْئٌ وَاَنْتَ الْاٰخِرُ فَلَيْسَ بَعْدَكَ

شَيْئٌ وَاَنْتَ الظَّاهِرُ فَلَيْسَ فَوقَكَ شَيْئٌ وَاَنْتَ البَاطِنُ فَلَيْسَ دُوْنَكَ شَيْئٌ اِقْضِ عَنِّي الدَّيْنَ وَاغْنِنِي مِنَ الْفَقْرِ

{O Allah, Lord of the heaven and Lord of the earth, Lord of everything, who splits the grain and the kernel, who has revealed the Torah, the Injil and the Quran, I seek refuge in you from the evil of every source of evil whom you do seize by the forelock. You are the first, there was noting before you. You are the last, there is nothing after you. You are the Manifest and there is nothing above you. You are the Hidden and there is nothing beyond you repay for me the debt and grant me riches removing poverty}[1]

Muslim has it with a slight difference.

Al-Hisn al Haseen has that it must be recited while lying down for sleep.

(٢٤٠٩) وَعَنْ اَبِي اَزْهَرِ لْاَنْمَارِيِّ اَنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ كَانَ اِذَا اَخَذَ مَضْجَعَهٗ مِنَ اللَّيْلِ

قَالَ بِسْمِ اللّٰهِ وَضَعْتُ جَنْبِيْ لِلّٰهِ اَللّٰهُمَّ اغْفِرْ لِي ذَنْبِي وَاخْسَاْ شَيْطَانِي وَفُكَّ رِهَانِي وَاجْعَلْنِي فِي النَّدِيِّ

الْاَعْلٰى(رواہ ابوداؤد)

2409. Sayyiduna Abu azhar al-Anmari رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that when the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم retired to his bed in the night, he made this supplication.

بِسْمِ اللّٰهِ وَضَعْتُ جَنْبِي لِلّٰهِ اَللّٰهُمَّ اغْفِرْ لِي ذَنْبِي وَاخْسَاْ شَيْطَانِي وَفُكَّ رِهَانِي وَاجْعَلْنِي فِي النَّدِيِّ الْاَعْلٰى

{In the name of Allah. I put down my side for Allah. O Allah, forgive me my sin, put way my devil (from me). Relieve me of my responsibility. Cause me to be in the most high assembly.}[2]

COMMENTARY: Relieve me of my responsibility refer to rights of other people. Absolve me of these rights and forgive me my lapses and deliver me from punishment.

(٢٤١٠) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عُمَرَ اَنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ كَانَ اِذَا اَخَذَ مَضْجَعَهٗ مِنَ اللَّيْلِ قَالَ الْحَمْدُ

لِلّٰهِ الَّذِى كَفَانِي وَآوَانِي وَاَطْعَمَنِي وَسَقَانِي وَالَّذِى مَنَّ عَلَيَّ فَاَفْضَلَ وَالَّذِى اَعْطَانِي فَاَجْزَلَ الْحَمْدُ لِلّٰهِ عَلٰى كُلِّ

حَالٍ اَللّٰهُمَّ رَبَّ كُلِّ شَيْئٍ وَمَلِيْكَهٗ وَاِلٰهَ كُلِّ شَيْئٍ اَعُوْذُبِكَ مِنَ النَّارِ(رواہ ابوداؤد)

2410. Sayyiduna Ibn Umar رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that when Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم

---

1 Tirmidhi # 3411, Abu Dawud # 5051, Ibn Majah # 3873, Musnad Ahmad # 8969, Muslim # 2713.

2 Abu Dawud # 5054.

retired to bed in the night, he prayed:

اَلْحَمْدُ لِلّٰهِ الَّذِى كَفَانِى وَآوَانِى وَاَطْعَمَنِى وَسَقَانِىْ وَالَّذِى مَنَّ عَلَىَّ فَاَفْضَلَ وَالَّذِى اَعْطَانِى فَاَجْزَلَ الْحَمْدُ لِلّٰهِ عَلٰى كُلِّ حَالٍ اَللّٰهُمَّ رَبَّ كُلِّ شَيْئٍ وَمَلِيْكَهٗ وَاِلٰهَ كُلِّ شَيْئٍ اَعُوْذُبِكَ مِنَ النَّارِ

{Praise belongs to Allah who provided me enough, gave me shelter, fed me and gave me to drink. He favoured me and has bestowed generously on me. He granted me, and granted liberally. Praise belongs to Him in every condition. O Allah, Lord of everything and Master thereof, God of everything. I seek refuge in you from the Fire.}[1]

CURE OF INSOMNIA

(٢٤١١) وَعَنْ بُرَيْدَةَ قَالَ شَكٰى خَالِدُ بْنُ الْوَلِيْدِ اِلَى النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَقَالَ يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ مَا اَنَامُ اللَّيْلَ مِنَ الْاَرَقِ فَقَالَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اِذَا اَوَيْتَ اِلٰى فِرَاشِكَ فَقُلْ اَللّٰهُمَّ رَبَّ السَّمٰوَاتِ السَّبْعِ وَمَا اَظَلَّتْ وَرَبَّ الْاَرَضِيْنَ وَمَا اَقَلَّتْ وَرَبَّ الشَّيَاطِيْنِ وَمَا اَضَلَّتْ كُنْ لِّىْ جَارًا مِنْ شَرِّ خَلْقِكَ كُلِّهِمْ جَمِيْعًا اَنْ يَّفْرُطَ عَلَىَّ اَحَدٌ مِّنْهُمْ اَوْ اَنْ يَّبْغِىَ عَزَّ جَارُكَ وَجَلَّ ثَنَاؤُكَ وَلَا اِلٰهَ غَيْرُكَ لَا اِلٰهَ اِلَّا اَنْتَ۔ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِىُّ وَقَالَ هٰذَا حَدِيْثٌ لَيْسَ اِسْنَادُهٗ بِالْقَوِىِّ وَالْحَكَمُ بْنُ ظُهَيْرٍ الرَّاوِى قَدْ تَرَكَ حَدِيْثَهٗ بَعْضُ اَهْلِ الْحَدِيْثِ۔

2411. Sayyiduna Buraydah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Sayyiduna Khalid ibn al-Walid رضی اللہ عنہ complained to the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم, saying, "O Messenger of Allah, I cannot sleep in the night because of insomnia." So, the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم instructed him, "When you retire to your bed, pray:

اَللّٰهُمَّ رَبَّ السَّمٰوَاتِ السَّبْعِ وَمَا اَظَلَّتْ وَرَبَّ الْاَرَضِيْنَ وَمَا اَقَلَّتْ وَرَبَّ الشَّيَاطِيْنِ وَمَا اَضَلَّتْ كُنْ لِّىْ جَارًا مِنْ شَرِّ خَلْقِكَ كُلِّهِمْ جَمِيْعًا اَنْ يَّفْرُطَ عَلَىَّ اَحَدٌ مِّنْهُمْ اَوْ اَنْ يَّبْغِىَ عَزَّ جَارُكَ وَجَلَّ ثَنَاؤُكَ وَلَا اِلٰهَ غَيْرُكَ لَا اِلٰهَ اِلَّا اَنْتَ

{O Allah, Lord of the seven heavens and that on which they cast their shadows, Lord of the earths and that which they bear, Lord of the devils and of those whom they mislead, be for me a nighbour against the mischief of your creatures, all of them together lest any of them should trespass on me or oppress me. Great is your neighbourhood and glorious is your praise. There is no God besides you. There is no God but You.}"[2]

COMMENTARY: Hisn Haseen has cited this prayer from Tabarani (awsat) and Ibn Abu Shaybah. However, their versions are somewhat different in words and slightly brief.

---

[1] Abu Dawud # 5058.

[2] Tirmidhi # 3534.

SECTION III اَلْفَصْلُ الثَّالِثُ

SPECIFIC PRAYERS OF MORNING & EVENING

(٢٤١٢) عَنْ اَبِي مَالِكٍ اَنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ اِذَا اَصْبَحَ اَحَدُكُمْ فَلْيَقُلْ اَصْبَحْنَا وَاَصْبَحَ الْمُلْكُ لِلّٰهِ رَبِّ الْعَالَمِيْنَ اَللّٰهُمَّ اِنِّي اَسْئَالُكَ خَيْرَ هٰذَا الْيَوْمِ فَتْحَهٗ وَنَصْرَهٗ وَنُوْرَهٗ وَبَرَكَتَهٗ وَهُدَاهُ وَاَعُوْذُبِكَ مِنْ شَرِّ مَا فِيْهِ وَمِنْ شَرِّ مَا بَعْدَهٗ ثُمَّ اِذَا اَمْسٰى فَلْيَقُلْ مِثْلَ ذٰلِكَ (رواه ابوداؤد)

2412. Sayyiduna Abu Maalik رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم said that when anyone wakes up in the morning, he must say:

اَصْبَحْنَا وَاَصْبَحَ الْمُلْكُ لِلّٰهِ رَبِّ الْعَالَمِيْنَ اَللّٰهُمَّ اِنِّي اَسْئَالُكَ خَيْرَ هٰذَا الْيَوْمِ فَتْحَهٗ وَنَصْرَهٗ وَنُوْرَهٗ وَبَرَكَتَهٗ وَهُدَاهُ وَاَعُوْذُبِكَ مِنْ شَرِّ مَا فِيْهِ وَمِنْ شَرِّ مَا بَعْدَهٗ

{We have come to the morning as has the dominion for Allah, the Lord of the worlds. O Allah, I pray to you for the good of this day, its opening, its help, its light, its blessing and its guidance. And I seek refuge in your from the evil that is in it and the evil that it after it.}
When he comes to the evening, he should say like it.[1]

(٢٤١٣) وَعَنْ عَبْدِالرَّحْمٰنِ بْنِ اَبِي بَكْرَةَ قَالَ قُلْتُ لِاَبِي يَاَبَتِ اَسْمَعُكَ تَقُوْلُ كُلَّ غَدَاةٍ اَللّٰهُمَّ عَافِنِي فِيْ بَدَنِيْ اَللّٰهُمَّ عَافِنِي فِيْ سَمْعِي اَللّٰهُمَّ عَافِنِي فِيْ بَصَرِي لَا اِلٰهَ اِلَّا اَنْتَ تُكَرِّرُهَا ثَلَاثًا حِيْنَ تُصْبِحُ وَثَلَاثًا حِيْنَ تُمْسِي فَقَالَ يَا بُنَيَّ سَمِعْتُ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَدْعُوْبِهِنَّ فَاَنَا اُحِبُّ اَنْ اَسْتَنَّ بِسُنَّتِهٖ (رواه ابوداؤد)

2413. Sayyiduna Abdur Rahman ibn Abu Bakrah رحمه الله narrated that he told his father having heard him say every morning.

اَللّٰهُمَّ عَافِنِي فِيْ بَدَنِيْ اَللّٰهُمَّ عَافِنِي فِيْ سَمْعِي اَللّٰهُمَّ عَافِنِي فِيْ بَصَرِي لَا اِلٰهَ اِلَّا اَنْتَ

{O Allah, grant me soundness in my body. O Allah, grant me soundness in my hearing. O Allah, grant me soundness in my sight. There is no God but you.}
He told him that he repeated it three times (every) morning and thrice (every) evening. He (the father) said, 'O my sin, I Heard Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم pray in these words and I love to emulate his sunnah(Practice of Holy Prophet Muhammad صلی الله علیه وسلم*)*."[2]

COMMENTARY: The true sprit behind a supplication and deeds should be to abide by the sunnah(Practice of Holy Prophet Muhammad صلی الله علیه وسلم*)*. Reward and acceptance of prayer are not the aim.

PRAYER IN THE MORNING.

(٢٤١٤) وَعَنْ عَبْدِاللّٰهِ بْنِ اَبِي اَوْفٰى قَالَ كَانَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اِذَا اَصْبَحَ قَالَ اَصْبَحْنَا وَاَصْبَحَ الْمُلْكُ لِلّٰهِ وَالْحَمْدُ لِلّٰهِ وَالْكِبْرِيَاءُ وَالْعَظَمَةُ لِلّٰهِ وَالْخَلْقُ وَالْاَمْرُ وَاللَّيْلُ وَالنَّهَارُ وَمَا سَكَنَ فِيْهِمَا لِلّٰهِ

---

[1] Abu Dawud # 5084.

[2] Abu Dawud # 5090.

اَللّٰهُمَّ اجْعَلْ اَوَّلَ هٰذَا النَّهَارِ صَلَاحًا وَاَوْسَطَهُ نَجَاحًا وَاٰخِرَهُ فَلَاحًا يَا اَرْحَمَ الرَّاحِمِيْنَ ذَكَرَهُ النَّوَوِيُّ فِيْ كِتَابِ الْاَذْكَارِ بِرِوَايَةِ ابْنِ السِّنِّيِّ

2414. Sayyiduna Abdullah ibn Abu Awfa رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that in the morning Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم used to pray:

اَصْبَحْنَا وَاَصْبَحَ الْمُلْكُ لِلّٰهِ وَالْحَمْدُ لِلّٰهِ وَالْكِبْرِيَاءُ وَالْعَظَمَةُ لِلّٰهِ وَالْخَلْقُ وَالْاَمْرُ وَاللَّيْلُ وَالنَّهَارُ وَمَا سَكَنَ فِيْهِمَا لِلّٰهِ اَللّٰهُمَّ اجْعَلْ اَوَّلَ هٰذَا النَّهَارِ صَلَاحًا وَاَوْسَطَهُ نَجَاحًا وَاٰخِرَهُ فَلَاحًا يَا اَرْحَمَ الرَّاحِمِيْنَ

{We came to the morning as does Allah's certain comes to morning for Allah's sake. All praise belongs to Allah Greatness and might belong to Allah. The creation, the command, the night and the day and all that rests in the two - all belong to Allah. O Allah, cause the first part of the day righteousness, the middle part of it achievement of need and the last part of it success, O the most Merciful of those who show mercy.}[1]

COMMENTARY: The supplication that is concluded with (یاارحم الراحمین) (O the Most Merciful of those who show mercy) is accepted quickly.

(٢٤١٥) وَعَنْ عَبْدِالرَّحْمٰنِ بْنِ اَبْزٰى قَالَ كَانَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُوْلُ اِذَا اَصْبَحَ اَصْبَحْنَا عَلٰى فِطْرَةِ الْاِسْلَامِ وَكَلِمَةِ الْاِخْلَاصِ وَعَلٰى دِيْنِ نَبِيِّنَا مُحَمَّدٍ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَعَلٰى مِلَّةِ اَبِيْنَا اِبْرَاهِيْمَ حَنِيْفًا وَمَا كَانَ مِنَ الْمُشْرِكِيْنَ (رواه احمد والدارمی)

2415. Sayyiduna Abdur Rahman ibn Abza رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم used to pray in the morning.

اَصْبَحْنَا عَلٰى فِطْرَةِ الْاِسْلَامِ وَكَلِمَةِ الْاِخْلَاصِ وَعَلٰى دِيْنِ نَبِيِّنَا مُحَمَّدٍ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَعَلٰى مِلَّةِ اَبِيْنَا اِبْرَاهِيْمَ حَنِيْفًا وَمَا كَانَ مِنَ الْمُشْرِكِيْنَ

{We enter upon the morning as those following the natural religion (of Islam), the expression of Allah's unity, on the religion of our Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم, and on the creed of our father Ibrahim علیہ السلام who was an upright man, not one of the polytheists.}[2]

COMMENTARY: The Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم was sent to the other people as well as to himself as is evident in the words 'on the religion of our Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم Or, he used these words in prayer to teach his ummah to make supplication in this manner.

---

[1] Mawawi in Kitab al adh kar # 1921, Ibn as Sunni # 38.

[2] Darimi # 2688.

CHAPTER - VI

SUPPLICATION MADE AT DIFFERENT TIMES بَابُ الدَّعَوَاتِ فِي الْأَوْقَاتِ

The dhikar, or prayers, etc., that are known to have been made by the prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم at different times an circumstances, may be made at the known times. It is musnun for every one. If they are included in anyone's regular practice then that is very excellent. If that is not possible then they must be made thoroughly, at least, once. Thereby, the blessings of emulating the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم will be achieved.

SECTION I الفصل الاول

PROTECTING CHILDREN FROM THE DEVIL

(٢٤١٦) عَنِ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَوْ اَنَّ اَحَدَكُمْ اِذَا اَرَادَ اَنْ يَأْتِيَ اَهْلَهُ قَالَ بِسْمِ اللّٰهِ اَللّٰهُمَّ جَنِّبْنَا الشَّيْطَانَ وَجَنِّبِ الشَّيْطَانَ مَارَزَقْتَنَا فَإِنَّهُ اِنْ يُقَدَّرْ بَيْنَهُمَا وَلَدٌ فِيْ ذٰلِكَ لَمْ يَضُرَّهُ شَيْطَانٌ اَبَدًا (متفق عليه)

2416. Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضى الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "If one of you intends to have sexual intercourse with his wife, let him pray:

بِسْمِ اللّٰهِ اَللّٰهُمَّ جَنِّبْنَا الشَّيْطَانَ وَجَنِّبِ الشَّيْطَانَ مَارَزَقْتَنَا

{In the name of Allah. O Allah, protect us from the devil and cause the devil to keep away from what you give us}[1]
Then if a child be destined for them, the devil would never harm it."

COMMENTARY: That the devil will never harm it means 'turn it to disbelief.' Thus, if Allah is remembered at the time of sexual intercourse, children born as a result will live as Muslim till their death. Or, the devil cannot cause any deformity in the children.
Imam Jawzi رحمه الله said that the devil cannot impair the religion of this person's children.
Some others say that the devil does not strike the newborn with his finger.

AT THE TIME OF SEVERE ANXIETY OR GRIEF

(٢٤١٧) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ اَنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ كَانَ يَقُوْلُ عِنْدَ الْكَرْبِ لَا اِلٰهَ اِلَّا اللّٰهُ الْعَظِيْمُ الْحَلِيْمُ لَا اِلٰهَ اِلَّا اللّٰهُ رَبُّ الْعَرْشِ الْعَظِيْمِ لَا اِلٰهَ اِلَّا اللّٰهُ رَبُّ السَّمٰوَاتِ وَرَبُّ الْاَرْضِ رَبُّ الْعَرْشِ الْكَرِيْمِ (متفق عليه)

2417. Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضى الله عنه narrated that when he was anxious, Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم used to pray:

لَا اِلٰهَ اِلَّا اللّٰهُ الْعَظِيْمُ الْحَلِيْمُ لَا اِلٰهَ اِلَّا اللّٰهُ رَبُّ الْعَرْشِ الْعَظِيْمِ لَا اِلٰهَ اِلَّا اللّٰهُ رَبُّ السَّمٰوَاتِ وَرَبُّ الْاَرْضِ رَبُّ الْعَرْشِ الْكَرِيْمِ

---

[1] Bukhari # 3271, Muslim # 116-1434, Abu Dawud # 2161, Tirmidhi # 1098. Ibn Majah # 1919, Darimi # 2212.

{There is no God but Allah, the Mighty, the clement. There is no God but Allah, Lord of the great throne. There is no God but Allah, Lord of the heavens, Lord of the earth, Lord of the noble throne.}[1]

FIGHTING OFF ANGER

(٢٤١٨) وَعَنْ سُلَيْمَانَ بْنِ صُرَدٍ قَالَ اسْتَبَّ رَجُلَانِ عِنْدَ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَنَحْنُ عِنْدَهُ جُلُوسٌ وَاَحَدُهُمَا يَسُبُّ صَاحِبَهُ مُغْضَبًا قَدِ احْمَرَّ وَجْهُهُ فَقَالَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِنِّي لَاَعْلَمُ كَلِمَةً لَو قَالَهَا لَذَهَبَ عَنْهُ مَا يَجِدُ مِنَ الغَضَبِ اَعُوْذُ بِاللّٰهِ مِنَ الشَّيْطَانِ الرَّجِيْمِ فَقَالُو الِلرَّجُلِ اَلَا تَسْمَعُ مَا يَقُوْلُ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ إِنِّي لَسْتُ بِمَجْنُونٍ (متفق عليه)

2418. Sayyiduna Sulayman ibn Surad رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that two men reviled one another in the presence of the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم while they (the sahabah) رضی اللہ عنہ were seated in his company. One of them abused the other angrily, his face red with rage. The Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "I certainly know of an expression which if he says he would rid himself of his wild emotions: (اَعُوْذُ بِاللّٰهِ مِنَ الشَّيْطَانِ الرَّجِيْمِ) {I seek refuge in Allah from the accursed devil}" The sahabah (Prophet's companions) رضی اللہ عنہم said to the man "Have you not heard what the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said?" He said, "I am not insane."[2]

COMMENTARY: This hadith (tradition) is based on the verse:

وَإِمَّا يَنْزَغَنَّكَ مِنَ الشَّيْطَانِ نَزْغٌ فَاسْتَعِذْ بِاللّٰهِ إِنَّهُ هُوَ السَّمِيْعُ الْعَلِيْمُ

{If a provocation from satan provokes you then seek refuge in Allah. Surely, He is hearer, knower} (7:200)

This man was not familiar with religion and Shari'ah and he presumed that the ta'awudh (اعوذ باللہ من الشیطان الرجیم) is recited only for or by the insane. In fact, when any one flies into a rage, he too is overcome by a form of insanity. Hence, it is profitable to recite this expression at the time of rage.'

Teebi رحمہ اللہ said that perhaps that man was a hypocrite or a rude and snide ignorant one.

CROWING COCKS & BRAYING DONKEY

(٢٤١٩) وَعَنْ اَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِذَا سَمِعْتُمْ صِيَاحَ الدِّيكَةِ فَاسْأَلُوا اللّٰهَ مِنْ فَضْلِهِ فَإِنَّهَا رَأَتْ مَلَكًا وَإِذَا سَمِعْتُمْ نَهِيْقَ الْحِمَارِ فَتَعَوَّذُوْا بِاللّٰهِ مِنَ الشَّيْطَانِ الرَّجِيْمِ فَإِنَّهُ رَاٰى شَيْطَانًا

(متفق عليه)

2419. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "When you people hear the crowing of the cocks, pray to Allah for His blessings, for, they have seen an angel. But, when you hear the braying of a donkey, seek refuge in Allah from the devil, for, it has seen a devil."[3]

---

[1] Bukhari # 6345, Muslim # 83-2730, Tirmidhi # 3496, Ibn Majah # 3883.

[2] Bukhari # 6115, Muslim # 109-2610, Abu Dwud # 4780, Tirmidhi # 3516, Musnad Ahmad 5-240.

[3] Bukhari # 3303, Muslim # 82-2729, Abu Dawud # 5102,Tirmidhi # 3524.

COMMENTARY: This hadith (tradition) is evidence that when pious people are around Allah's mercy and blessings descend. It is mustahab (desirable) to make supplication at that time. Moreover, since Allah's punishment, it is mustahab (desirable) to seek refuge in Allah when one is in their surroundings lest their wickedness leave their mark on one.

PRAYER WHILE EMBARKING ON A JOURNEY

(٢٤٢٠) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عُمَرَ اَنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ كَانَ اِذَا اسْتَوٰى عَلٰى بَعِيْرِهٖ خَارِجًا اِلَى السَّفَرِ كَبَّرَ ثَلَاثًا ثُمَّ قَالَ سُبْحَانَ الَّذِىْ سَخَّرَلَنَا هٰذَا وَمَا كُنَّا لَهٗ مُقْرِنِيْنَ وَاِنَّا اِلٰى رَبِّنَا لَمُنْقَلِبُوْنَ اَللّٰهُمَّ اِنَّا نَسْأَلُكَ فِىْ سَفَرِنَا هٰذَا الْبِرَّ وَالتَّقْوٰى وَمِنَ الْعَمَلِ مَا تَرْضٰى اَللّٰهُمَّ هَوِّنْ عَلَيْنَا سَفَرَنَا هٰذَا وَاَطْوِلَنَا بُعْدَهٗ اَللّٰهُمَّ اَنْتَ الصَّاحِبُ فِى السَّفَرِ وَالْخَلِيْفَةُ فِى الْاَهْلِ وَالْمَالِ اَللّٰهُمَّ اِنِّىْ اَعُوْذُبِكَ مِنْ وَعْثَاءِ السَّفَرِ وَكَاٰبَةِ الْمَنْظَرِ وَسُوْءِ الْمُنْقَلَبِ فِى الْمَالِ وَالْاَهْلِ وَاِذَا رَجَعَ قَالَهُنَّ وَزَادَ فِيْهِنَّ اٰئِبُوْنَ تَائِبُوْنَ عَابِدُوْنَ لِرَبِّنَا حَامِدُوْنَ (رواه مسلم)

2420. Sayyiduna Ibn Umar رضی الله عنه narrated that when Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم settled on his camel to depart on a journey, he called AllahuAkbar three times. Then he prayed:

سُبْحَانَ الَّذِىْ سَخَّرَلَنَا هٰذَا وَمَا كُنَّا لَهٗ مُقْرِنِيْنَ وَاِنَّا اِلٰى رَبِّنَا لَمُنْقَلِبُوْنَ اَللّٰهُمَّ اِنَّا نَسْأَلُكَ فِىْ سَفَرِنَا هٰذَا الْبِرَّ وَالتَّقْوٰى وَمِنَ الْعَمَلِ مَا تَرْضٰى اَللّٰهُمَّ هَوِّنْ عَلَيْنَا سَفَرَنَا هٰذَا وَاَطْوِلَنَا بُعْدَهٗ اَللّٰهُمَّ اَنْتَ الصَّاحِبُ فِى السَّفَرِ وَالْخَلِيْفَةُ فِى الْاَهْلِ وَالْمَالِ اَللّٰهُمَّ اِنِّىْ اَعُوْذُبِكَ مِنْ وَعْثَاءِ السَّفَرِ وَكَاٰبَةِ الْمَنْظَرِ وَسُوْءِ الْمُنْقَلَبِ فِى الْمَالِ وَالْاَهْلِ

{Glorified be He who has subjected (all) this to us while we ourselves were incapable to do it. (43:13) O Allah, we ask you in this journey of ours piety and righteousness, and deeds that will please you. O Allah, make this journey easy for us and cut short its distance. O Allah, you are our companion in the journey and the Guardian of our family.
O Allah, I seek refuge in you from the toil of the journey and the seeing of a painful sight and a bad return to my wealth and family}
And, when he returned, he made the some supplication with this addition:

اٰئِبُوْنَ تَائِبُوْنَ عَابِدُوْنَ لِرَبِّنَا حَامِدُوْنَ

{We are returning, repentant, worshippers of our Lord and we praise Him.}[1]

THINGS FROM WHICH THE PROPHET MUHAMMAD صلی الله علیه وسلم SOUGHT REFUGE DURING A JOURNEY

(٢٤٢١) وَعَنْ عَبْدِاللّٰهِ بْنِ سَرْجِسٍ قَالَ كَانَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اِذَا سَفَرَ يَتَعَوَّذُ مِنْ وَعْثَاءِ السَّفَرِ وَكَاٰبَةِ الْمُنْقَلَبِ وَالْحَوْرِ بَعْدَ الْكَوْرِ وَدَعْوَةِ الْمَظْلُوْمِ وَسُوْءِ الْمَنْظَرِ فِى الْاَهْلِ وَالْمَالِ (رواه مسلم)

2421. Sayyiduna Abdullah ibn Sarj is رضی الله عنه narrated that whenever Allah's

---
[1] Muslim # 425-1342, Abu Dawud # 2602, Musnad Ahmad 1-52, Bukhari.

Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم set out on a journey, he sought refuge in Allah from the toils of the journey, cumbersome return poverty after plenty, curse of the oppressed and seeing his family and property in harm. [1]

COMMENTARY: Refuge in Allah from the curse of an oppressed in actually refuge from being oppressive.

WHEN HALTING SOMEWHERE

(٢٤٢٢) وَعَنْ خَوْلَةَ بِنْتِ حَكِيْمٍ قَالَتْ، سَمِعْتُ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُوْلُ مَنْ نَزَلَ مَنْزِلًا فَقَالَ اَعُوْذُ بِكَلِمَاتِ اللّٰهِ التَّامَّاتِ مِنْ شَرِّ مَا خَلَقَ لَمْ يَضُرَّهُ مِنْ شَرِّ مَا خَلَقَ لَمْ يَضُرَّهُ شَيْءٌ حَتّٰى يَرْتَحِلَ مِنْ مَنْزِلِهٖ ذٰلِكَ۔ (رواه مسلم)

2422. Sayyidah Khawlah bint Hakim رضی اللہ عنہ said that she heard Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم say that if anyone halts at a place (during a journey or otherwise) and prays:

اَعُوْذُ بِكَلِمَاتِ اللّٰهِ التَّامَّاتِ مِنْ شَرِّ مَا خَلَقَ

{I seek refuge in the perfect words of Allah from the evil of what He has created,} then nothing will harm him till he moves ahead from his place where he had halted.[2]

SUPPLICATION FOR PROTECTION IN THE NIGHT

(٢٤٢٣) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ جَاءَ رَجُلٌ اِلٰى رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَقَالَ يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ مَا لَقِيْتُ مِنْ عَقْرَبٍ لَدَغَتْنِي الْبَارِحَةَ قَالَ اَمَا لَوْ قُلْتَ حِيْنَ اَمْسَيْتَ اَعُوْذُ بِكَلِمَاتِ اللّٰهِ التَّامَّاتِ مِنْ شَرِّ مَا خَلَقَ لَمْ تَضُرَّكَ۔ (رواه مسلم)

2423. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that a man came to Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم and submitted, "O Messenger of Allah, I am suffering from the sting of a scorpion since last night." He said, "If you had prayed in the evening:

اَعُوْذُ بِكَلِمَاتِ اللّٰهِ التَّامَّاتِ مِنْ شَرِّ مَا خَلَقَ

(translation in previous hadith (tradition)) it would not have hurt you."[3]

COMMENTARY: According to a hadith (tradition), if anyone makes the foregoing supplication in the evening three times, nothing poisonous will harm him that night. (Tirmidhi)

Another hadith (tradition) recommends this prayer in the morning.

Sayyiduna Mufassal ibn Yasar رضی اللہ عنہ said that if anyone recites this expression then seventy thousand angels pray for him to be forgiven. If he dies in that condition, then he is a martyr.

PRAYER IN MORNING DURING A JOURNEY

(٢٤٢٤) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ اَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ كَانَ اِذَا كَانَ فِيْ سَفَرٍ وَاَسْحَرَ يَقُوْلُ سَمِعَ سَامِعٌ بِحَمْدِ اللّٰهِ وَحُسْنِ بَلَائِهٖ عَلَيْنَا رَبَّنَا صَاحِبْنَا وَاَفْضِلْ عَلَيْنَا عَائِذًا بِاللّٰهِ مِنَ النَّارِ (رواه مسلم)

---

[1] Muslim # 426-1342, Tirmidhi # 3502, Ibn Majah # 3886, Darimi # 2672, Musnad Ahmad 5-82.

[2] Muslim # 54.2708, Abu Dawud # 3499, Tirmidhi # 3448, Ibn Majah # 3547, Musnad Ahmad 2-290.

[3] Muslim # 90.270

2424. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that during a journey the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم would pray at dawn:

سَمِعَ سَامِعٌ بِحَمْدِ اللّٰهِ وَحُسْنِ بَلَائِهِ عَلَيْنَا رَبَّنَا صَاحِبْنَا وَأَفْضِلْ عَلَيْنَا عَائِذًا بِاللّٰهِ مِنَ النَّارِ

{The hearer heard me praise Allah and acknowledge the excellence of His blessing on us. Our Lord, accompany us (in the journey) and show favour to us. We seek refuge in Allah from hell.}[1]

PROPHET'S صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم PRAYER ON RETURNING FROM JIHAD, HAJJ & UMRAH

(٢٤٢٥) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عُمَرَ قَالَ كَانَ رَسُولُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِذَا قَفَلَ مِنْ غَزْوٍ أَوْ حَجٍّ أَوْ عُمْرَةٍ يُكَبِّرُ عَلَى كُلِّ شَرَفٍ مِنَ الْأَرْضِ ثَلَاثَ تَكْبِيْرَاتٍ ثُمَّ يَقُوْلُ لَا إِلٰهَ إِلَّا اللّٰهُ وَحْدَهُ لَا شَرِيْكَ لَهُ لَهُ الْمُلْكُ وَلَهُ الْحَمْدُ وَهُوَ عَلَى كُلِّ شَيْءٍ قَدِيْرٌ أٰيِبُوْنَ تَائِبُوْنَ عَابِدُوْنَ سَاجِدُوْنَ لِرَبِّنَا حَامِدُوْنَ صَدَقَ اللّٰهُ وَعْدَهُ وَنَصَرَ عَبْدَهُ وَهَزَمَ الْأَحْزَابَ وَحْدَهُ (متفق عليه)

2425. Sayyiduna Ibn Umar رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that when Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم returned from a battle, hajj or umrah and came to an elevated place, he would say AllahuAkbar three times and pray

لَا إِلٰهَ إِلَّا اللّٰهُ وَحْدَهُ لَا شَرِيْكَ لَهُ لَهُ الْمُلْكُ وَلَهُ الْحَمْدُ وَهُوَ عَلَى كُلِّ شَيْءٍ قَدِيْرٌ أٰيِبُوْنَ تَائِبُوْنَ عَابِدُوْنَ سَاجِدُوْنَ لِرَبِّنَا حَامِدُوْنَ صَدَقَ اللّٰهُ وَعْدَهُ وَنَصَرَ عَبْدَهُ وَهَزَمَ الْأَحْزَابَ وَحْدَهُ

{There is no God but Allah is Alone and who has no partner. To him belongs the dominion and for Him is all praise and He is over all things powerful. We are returners, repentant, worshippers, prostrating before our Lord and praising Him. Allah made His promise true, helped His servant and He alone routed the confederates.}[2]

COMMENTARY: The confederates were the combined army of the quraysh, the Jews of Banu Qurayzah and Banu Nadir numbering ten to twelve thousand men. They decided to invade Madinah, but were routed without fighting when Allah subjected them to heavy minds and His angels.

PROPHET'S صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم PRAYER AGAINST THE IDOLATERS DURING THE BATTLE OF AHZAB (CONFEDERATES)

(٢٤٢٦) وَعَنْ عَبْدِ اللّٰهِ بْنِ أَبِي أَوْفَى قَالَ دَعَا رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَوْمَ الْأَحْزَابِ عَلَى الْمُشْرِكِيْنَ فَقَالَ اللّٰهُمَّ مُنْزِلَ الْكِتَابِ سَرِيْعَ الْحِسَابِ اَللّٰهُمَّ اهْزِمِ الْأَحْزَابَ اَللّٰهُمَّ اهْزِمْهُمْ وَزَلْزِلْهُمْ (متفق عليه)

2426. Sayyiduna Abdullah ibn Abu Awfa رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that during the Battle of al-Ahzab (the confederates), Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم prayed against the idolaters:

اَللّٰهُمَّ مُنْزِلَ الْكِتَابِ سَرِيْعَ الْحِسَابِ اَللّٰهُمَّ اهْزِمِ الْأَحْزَابَ اَللّٰهُمَّ اهْزِمْهُمْ وَزَلْزِلْهُمْ

---

[1] Muslim # 68-2718.

[2] Bukhari # 1797, Muslim # 428-1344, Tirmidhi # 952, Abu Dawud # 2770, Musnad Ahmad # 49603 (2-5)

{O Allah, who has revealed the Book, and who is quick to take reckoning. O Allah, defeat the confederates. O Allah, defeat them and unnerve them.}[1]

THE SUNNAH(PRACTICE OF HOLY PROPHET MUHAMMAD (صلى الله عليه وسلم) FOR THE HOST & THE GUEST

(٢٤٢٧) وَعَنْ عَبْدِاللّٰهِ بْنِ بُسْرٍ قَالَ نَزَلَ رَسُولُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ عَلَى اَبِي فَقَرَّبْنَا اِلَيْهِ طَعَامًا وَوَطْبَةً فَاَكَلَ مِنْهَا ثُمَّ اُتِيَ بِتَمْرٍ فَكَانَ يَاكُلُهُ وَيُلْقِي النَّوىٰ بَيْنَ اِصْبَعَيْهِ وَيَجْمَعُ السَّبَّابَةَ وَالْوُسْطٰى وَفِي رِوَايَةٍ فجَعَلَ يُلْقِي النَّوىٰ عَلٰى ظَهْرِ اِصْبَعَيْهِ السَّبَّابَةِ وَالْوُسْطٰى ثُمَّ اُتِيَ بِشَرَابٍ فَشَرِبَهٗ فَقَالَ اَبِي وَاَخَذَ بِلِجَامِ دَابَّتِهٖ اُدْعُ اللّٰهَ لَنَا فَقَالَ اَللّٰهُمَّ بَارِكْ لَهُمْ فِيْمَا رَزَقْتَهُمْ وَاغْفِرْ لَهُمْ وَارْحَمْهُمْ (رواه مسلم)

2427. Sayyiduna Abdullah ibn Busr رضى الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم visited his father (Busr). They offered him some food and waibah (clarified butter, dried curd and dates mixture). He ate from that. Then, he was presented some dates that he ate. He threw their stones with his fingers, putting together the forefinger and the middle finger. (According to a version: he began to cast away the stones on the upper side of his fore finger and middle finger). Then something to drink was offered to him. He drank it. Then, Abdullah's father said to him while holding the bridle of his beast, "Pray for us to Allah!" He prayed:

اَللّٰهُمَّ بَارِكْ لَهُمْ فِيْمَا رَزَقْتَهُمْ وَاغْفِرْ لَهُمْ وَارْحَمْهُمْ

{O Allah, bestow on them blessing in what you have given them, forgive them and have mercy on them}[2]

COMMENTARY: This hadith (tradition) teaches what is masnun for the guest and the host.

SECTION II اَلْفَصْلُ الثَّانِي

ON BEHOLDING THE NEW MOON

(٢٤٢٨) عَنْ طَلْحَةَ بْنِ عُبَيْدِ اللّٰهِ اَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ كَانَ اِذَا رَأَى الْهِلَالَ قَالَ اَللّٰهُمَّ اَهِلَّهٗ عَلَيْنَا بِالْاَمْنِ وَالْاِيْمَانِ وَالسَّلَامَةِ وَالْاِسْلَامِ رَبِّيْ وَرَبُّكَ اللّٰهُ ـ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَقَالَ هٰذَا حَدِيْثٌ حَسَنٌ غَرِيْبٌ ـ

2428. Sayyiduna Talhah ibn Ubaydullah narrated that whenever the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم beheld the new moon, he prayed:

اَللّٰهُمَّ اَهِلَّهٗ عَلَيْنَا بِالْاَمْنِ وَالْاِيْمَانِ وَالسَّلَامَةِ وَالْاِسْلَامِ رَبِّيْ وَرَبُّكَ اللّٰهُ

{O Allah, cause this moon to rise on us with peace, faith, safety and Islam. My Lord and your Lord (o moon) is Allah.}[3]

COMMENTARY: The word 'hilal' signifies the first, second and third of a lunar month. Thereafter, the moon is called 'qamar.'
The prayer also make it clear that the moon, like the sun, is a creation of Allah.

---

[1] Bukhari # 2933, Muslim # 21-1742, Abu Dawud # 2631, Ibn Majah # 2796.
[2] Muslim # 146-2042, Abu Dawud # 3729.
[3] Tirmidhi # 3462, Musnad Ahmad # 1397, Darimi # 1687.

ON SEEING ANYONE IN DISTRESS

(٢٤٢٩-٢٤٣٠) وَعَنْ عُمَرَ بْنِ الْخَطَّابِ وَأَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَا قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَا مِنْ رَجُلٍ رَأَى مُبْتَلًا فَقَالَ الْحَمْدُ لِلّٰهِ الَّذِیْ عَافَانِی مِمَّا ابْتَلَاكَ بِهٖ وَفَضَّلَنِی عَلٰى كَثِيْرٍ مِمَّنْ خَلَقَ تَفْضِيْلًا اِلَّا لَمْ يُصِبْهُ ذٰلِكَ الْبَلَاءُ كَائِنًا مَا كَانَ۔ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَرَوَاهُ ابْنُ مَاجَةَ عَنِ ابْنِ عُمَرَ وَقَالَ التِّرْمِذِيُّ هٰذَا حَدِيْثٌ غَرِيْبٌ وَعَمْرُو بْنُ دِيْنَارٍ الرَّاوِی لَيْسَ بِالْقَوِيِّ۔

2429. Sayyiduna Umar ibn al-Khattab رضی اللہ عنہ and Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said that if anyone prays on seeing someone in distress (or affliction):

اَلْحَمْدُ لِلّٰهِ الَّذِیْ عَافَانِی مِمَّا ابْتَلَاكَ بِهٖ وَفَضَّلَنِی عَلٰى كَثِيْرٍ مِمَّنْ خَلَقَ تَفْضِيْلًا

{Praise belongs to Allah who has saved me from that with which He has afflicted you, and caused me to excel over most of those whom He created with a distinct excellence,} then he will be safe from that affliction whatever it be.[1]
2340. Sayyiduna Ibn Umar رضی اللہ عنہ narrated this hadith (tradition).[2]

COMMENTARY: This prayer may be made on seeing anyone in distress physical, worldly or religious. However, it should be made in a soft, inaudible voice on seeing anyone sick or handicapped. If anyone is sinner or trapped in love of the world or a hypocrite, then it maybe made in an audible voice so that he might heed. If there is fear of trouble, then it must be made quietly so as not to be heard.

PRAYER TO BE MADE IN THE MARKET

(٢٤٣١) وَعَنْ عُمَرَ اَنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ مَنْ دَخَلَ السُّوْقَ فَقَالَ لَا اِلٰهَ اِلَّا اللّٰهُ وَحْدَهٗ لَا شَرِيْكَ لَهٗ لَهُ الْمُلْكُ وَلَهُ الْحَمْدُ يُحْيِي وَيُمِيْتُ وَهُوَ حَيٌّ لَا يَمُوْتُ بِيَدِهِ الْخَيْرُ وَهُوَ عَلٰى كُلِّ شَيْءٍ قَدِيْرٌ كَتَبَ اللّٰهُ لَهٗ اَلْفَ اَلْفِ حَسَنَةٍ وَمَحٰى عَنْهُ اَلْفَ اَلْفِ سَيِّئَةٍ وَرَفَعَ لَهٗ اَلْفَ اَلْفِ دَرَجَةٍ وَبَنٰى لَهٗ بَيْتًا فِی الْجَنَّةِ۔ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَابْنُ مَاجَةَ وَقَالَ التِّرْمِذِيُّ هٰذَا حَدِيْثٌ غَرِيْبٌ وَفِیْ شَرْحِ السُّنَّةِ مَنْ قَالَ فِیْ سُوْقٍ جَامِعٍ يُبَاعُ فِيْهِ بَدَلَ مَنْ دَخَلَ السُّوْقَ۔

2431. Sayyiduna Umar رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said that if anyone who goes to the market prays:

لَا اِلٰهَ اِلَّا اللّٰهُ وَحْدَهٗ لَا شَرِيْكَ لَهٗ لَهُ الْمُلْكُ وَلَهُ الْحَمْدُ يُحْيِي وَيُمِيْتُ وَهُوَ حَيٌّ لَا يَمُوْتُ بِيَدِهِ الْخَيْرُ وَهُوَ عَلٰى كُلِّ شَيْءٍ قَدِيْرٌ

{There is no God but Allah who is Alone, He has no partner, to Him belongs the dominion and for Him is all praise, He gives life and causes death, He is the Ever-

[1] Tirmidhi # 3442.
[2] Ibn Majah # 3892.

Living who will never die, in His Hand is all good and He is over all things Powerful.} then Allah will record for him a million good deeds remit from him a million evil deeds and raise him by a million ranks.[1]

The words in sharh us sunnah(Practice of Holy Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم) are: 'prays in a general market where merchandise is bought and sold' instead of 'goes to the market.'

COMMENTARY: The exceptional reward is because the market is a place where one becomes negligent, lies deceives and fools others.

WORLDLY BLESSING IS INCOMPLETE

(٢٤٣٢) وَعَنْ مُعَاذِ بْنِ جَبَلٍ قَالَ سَمِعَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ رَجُلًا يَدْعُوْ يَقُوْلُ اَللّٰهُمَّ اِنِّيْ اَسْأَلُكَ تَمَامَ النِّعْمَةِ فَقَالَ اَيُّ شَيْئٍ تَمَامُ النِّعْمَةِ قَالَ دَعْوَةٌ اَرْجُوْبِهَا خَيْرًا فَقَالَ اِنَّ مِنْ تَمَامِ النِّعْمَةِ دُخُوْلَ الْجَنَّةِ وَالْفَوْزَ مِنَ النَّارِ وَسَمِعَ رَجُلًا يَقُوْلُ يَا ذَاالْجَلَالِ وَالْاِكْرَامِ فَقَالَ قَدِ اسْتُجِيْبَ لَكَ فَسَلْ وَسَمِعَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ رَجُلًا وَهُوَ يَقُوْلُ اَللّٰهُمَّ اِنِّيْ اَسْأَلُكَ الصَّبْرَ فَقَالَ سَئَلْتَ اللّٰهَ الْبَلَاءَ فَسَلْهُ الْعَافِيَةَ(رواہ الترمذی)

2432. Sayyiduna Mu'adh ibn Jabal رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم heard a man pray: 'O Allah, I ask you for perfect bounty.' So, he asked him, "what is a perfect bounty?" The man submitted, "I made a supplication, hoping for the best." He said, "The perfect bounty is admittance to paradise and deliverance from hell." The Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم heard another man call (یَاذَاالْجَلَالِ وَالْاِکْرَامِ) {O Lord of majesty and benevolence}.

So, he instructed him, "your prayer is granted, so make your request,"

And, he also heard someone pray: 'O Allah, I ask you for patience.' So, he instructed him, "You have asked Allah for a trial. Now ask Him for safety (and security)."[2]

COMMENTARY: Patience is needed when one is facing a trial. So, the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم advised the man not to ask for it because that implied asking for a trial. Rather, one must ask for security so that he is safe from trial. If one faces a difficulty, then, of course, He must pray for patience.

ATONEMENT FOR AN ASSEMBLY

(٢٤٣٣) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ جَلَسَ مَجْلِسًا فَكَثُرَ فِيْهِ لَغَطُهُ فَقَالَ قَبْلَ اَنْ يَقُوْمَ سُبْحَانَكَ اللّٰهُمَّ وَبِحَمْدِكَ اَشْهَدُ اَنْ لَّا اِلٰهَ اِلَّا اَنْتَ اَسْتَغْفِرُكَ وَاَتُوْبُ اِلَيْكَ اِلَّا غُفِرَ لَهُ مَا كَانَ فِيْ مَجْلِسِهِ ذٰلِكَ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَالْبَيْهَقِيُّ فِي الدَّعْوَاتِ الْكَبِيْرِ۔

2433. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said that if any one who sit in a gathering and indulges in much idle talk prays before taking his leave;

اَللّٰهُمَّ وَبِحَمْدِكَ اَشْهَدُ اَنْ لَّا اِلٰهَ اِلَّا اَنْتَ اَسْتَغْفِرُكَ وَاَتُوْبُ اِلَيْكَ

---

[1] Tirmidhi # 3439, Ibn Majah # 2235.

[2] Tirmidhi # 3538.

{You are without blemish, O Allah, with Your praise I bear witness that there is no God but you, and I seek Your forgiveness and I repent to you}
Then he will; be forgiven what happened in that gathering of his.[1]

COMMENTARY: The Arabic word (لغط) means 'such talk as leads to sin.' It also means 'vain, meaningless chatter.' The supplication is called 'expiation of an assembly.' (لغط) it atones for all dislikes conversation in the assembly, such as is not approved by Shari'ah.

PRAYER WHEN MOUNTING A RIDING BEAST

(٢٤٣٤) وَعَنْ عَلِيٍّ اَنَّهُ اُتِيَ بِدَابَّةٍ لِيَرْكَبَهَا فَلَمَّا وَضَعَ رِجْلَهُ فِي الرِّكَابِ قَالَ بِسْمِ اللّٰهِ فَلَمَّا اسْتَوٰى عَلٰى ظَهْرِهَا قَالَ الْحَمْدُ لِلّٰهِ ثُمَّ قَالَ سُبْحَانَ الَّذِي سَخَّرَلَنَا هٰذَا وَمَا كُنَّا لَهُ مُقْرِنِيْنَ وَاِنَّا اِلٰى رَبِّنَا لَمُنْقَلِبُوْنَ ثُمَّ قَالَ الْحَمْدُ لِلّٰهِ ثَلَاثًا وَاللّٰهُ اَكْبَرُ ثَلَاثًا سُبْحَانَكَ اِنِّي ظَلَمْتُ نَفْسِي فَاغْفِرْ لِي فَاِنَّهُ لَا يَغْفِرُ الذُّنُوبَ اِلَّا اَنْتَ ثُمَّ ضَحِكَ فَقِيْلَ مِنْ اَيِّ شَيْءٍ ضَحِكْتَ يَا اَمِيْرَ الْمُؤْمِنِيْنَ قَالَ رَاَيْتُ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ صَنَعَ كَمَا صَنَعْتُ ثُمَّ ضَحِكَ فَقُلْتُ مِنْ اَيِّ شَيْءٍ ضَحِكْتَ يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ قَالَ اِنَّ رَبَّكَ لَيَعْجَبُ مِنْ عَبْدِهِ اِذَا قَالَ رَبِّ اغْفِرْ لِي ذُنُوْبِي يَقُوْلُ اللّٰهُ يَعْلَمُ اَنَّهُ لَا يَغْفِرُ الذُّنُوبَ غَيْرِي (رواه احمد والترمذی وابوداؤد)

2434. Sayyiduna Ali رضی اللہ عنہ was brought a beast that he might ride it. When put his foot in the stirrup, he said:

بِسْمِ اللّٰهِ

{In the name of Allah}.when he was seated on its back, he said:

اَلْحَمْدُ لِلّٰهِ

Praise belongs to Allah. Then he said:

سُبْحَانَ الَّذِي سَخَّرَلَنَا هٰذَا وَمَا كُنَّا لَهُ مُقْرِنِيْنَ وَاِنَّا اِلٰى رَبِّنَا لَمُنْقَلِبُوْنَ.

{Glorified be He who has subjected this to us and we ourselves were not capable to do it. And surely to our Lord we shall return} (43"13-14)
After that, he said (الحمد لله) (praise belongs to Allah) three times (الله اكبر) (Allah is the Greatest) three times, and:

سُبْحَانَكَ اِنِّي ظَلَمْتُ نَفْسِي فَاغْفِرْ لِي فَاِنَّهُ لَا يَغْفِرُ الذُّنُوبَ اِلَّا اَنْتَ

{Glorified are You, surely, I have wronged myself. So, forgive me. There is no one of forgive sins except you}
Then he laughed and he was asked, what made you laugh, O commander of the faithful?" He said, "I had seen Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم do as I have done and then laugh (as I did). I asked him about it and he said, 'Your Lord loves His slave very much when he says:

رَبِّ اغْفِرْ لِي ذُنُوْبِي

{My Lord forgive me my sins}

---

[1] Tirmidhi # 3444, Abu Dawud # 4859, Musnad Ahmad 3-450, Bayhaqi ad-Dawat ul Kabir.

He says: (يعلم انه لا يغفر الذنوب...غيرى)

{He knows that no one forgives sins but I.}"[1]

COMMENTARY: The Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم has laughed because Allah was pleased and Sayyiduna Ali رضى الله عنه had laughed in emulating the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم.,

PRAYER WHEN BIDDING FAREWELL

(٢٤٣٥) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عُمَرَ قَالَ كَانَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِذَا وَدَّعَ رَجُلًا اَخَذَ بِيَدِهٖ فَلَا يَدَعُهَا حَتّٰى يَكُونَ الرَّجُلُ هُوَ يَدَعُ يَدَالنَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَيَقُولُ اَسْتَوْدِعُ اللّٰهَ دِيْنَكَ وَاَمَانَتَكَ وَاٰخِرَ عَمَلِكَ وَفِيْ رِوَايَةٍ وَخَوَاتِيْمَ عَمَلِكَ۔ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَاَبُوْدَاوٗدَ وَابْنُ مَاجَةَ وَفِيْ رِوَايَتِهِمَا لَمْ يُذْكَرْ وَاٰخِرَ عَمَلِكَ۔

2435. Sayyiduna Ibn Umar رضى الله عنه narrated that when the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم bade farewell to someone, he held his hand and did not let it go till the m an himself released the hand of the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم who would pray:

اَسْتَوْدِعُ اللّٰهَ دِيْنَكَ وَاَمَانَتَكَ وَاٰخِرَ عَمَلِكَ

{I entrust to Allah your religion, your charge and the consequences of your deeds}[2]
The version of Abu Dawud and Ibn Majah does not have 'and the consequences of your deeds.'

COMMENTARY: The word (امانت) (amanah) translated 'charge' refers to wealth and property used for transactions with the people.

Some people say that it refers to the family and children whom the traveller leaves behind at his home.

(٢٤٣٦) وَعَنْ عَبْدِاللّٰهِ الْخَطْمِيِّ قَالَ كَانَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اِذَا اَرَادَاَنْ يَسْتَوْدِعَ الْجَيْشَ قَالَ اَسْتَوْدِعُ اللّٰهَ دِيْنَكُمْ وَاَمَانَتَكُمْ وَخَوَاتِيْمَ اَعْمَالِكُمْ۔ (رواه ابوداؤد)

2436. Sayyiduna Abdullah al Khatmiy رضى الله عنه narrated that whenever Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم intended to bid farewell to an army, he prayed:

اَسْتَوْدِعُ اللّٰهَ دِيْنَكُمْ وَاَمَانَتَكُمْ وَخَوَاتِيْمَ اَعْمَالِكُمْ

{I entrust to Allah your religion, your charge and the consequences of your deeds.}[3]

(٢٤٣٧) وَعَنْ اَنَسٍ قَالَ جَاءَ رَجُلٌ اِلَى النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ اِنِّيْ اُرِيْدُ سَفَرًا فَزَوِّدْنِيْ فَقَالَ زَوَّدَكَ اللّٰهُ التَّقْوٰى قَالَ زِدْنِيْ قَالَ وَغَفَرَ ذَنْبَكَ قَالَ زِدْنِيْ بِاَبِيْ اَنْتَ وَاُمِّيْ قَالَ وَيَسَّرَلَكَ الْخَيْرَ حَيْثُ مَا كُنْتَ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَقَالَ هٰذَا حَدِيْثٌ حَسَنٌ غَرِيْبٌ۔

2437. Sayyiduna Anas رضى الله عنه narrated that a man came to the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم and said, "O Messenger of Allah, I intend to go out on a journey. Do give me provisions." He said, "May Allah give you provision of taqwa." He said, "Give

---

[1] Tirmidhi # 3457, Abu Dawud # 2602, Musnad Ahmad 1-97.

[2] Tirmidhi # 3453, Abu Dawud # 2600, Ibn Majah # 2826, Musnad Ahmad 2-7.

[3] Abu Dawud # 2601.

me more." He said, "May He forgive you your sins." He said, "Give me more, my parents be ransomed to you!" He said, "May He make goodness easy for you wherever you are!"[1]
(Taqwa is righteousness.)

(٢٤٣٨) وَعَنْ اَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ اَنَّ رَجُلًا قَالَ يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ اِنِّي اُرِيْدُ اَنْ اُسَافِرَ فَاَوْصِنِيْ قَالَ عَلَيْكَ بِتَقْوَى اللّٰهِ وَالتَّكْبِيْرِ عَلٰى كُلِّ شَرَفٍ فَلَمَّا وَلَّى الرَّجُلُ قَالَ اَللّٰهُمَّ اَطْوِلَهُ الْبُعْدَ وَهَوِّنْ عَلَيْهِ السَّفَرَ۔ (رواه الترمذى)

2438. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضى الله عنه narrated that a man said to Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم that he intended to embark on a journey and that he might enjoin him something. He said, "you must observe taqwa and call Allahu Akbar on every activity." When the man turned to go, he prayed, "O Allah, shorten the distance for him and make the journey easy for him."[2]

COMMENTARY: To observe taqwa is to fear Allah and shun polytheism, sin and doubtful things. It also calls on one to avoid whatever is beyond the necessary, and to devote oneself to worship Allah and make His dhikr (hallowing of Allah).

PRAYER IN THE NIGHT DURING JOURNEY

(٢٤٣٩) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عُمَرَ قَالَ كَانَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اِذَا سَفَرَ فَاَقْبَلَ اللَّيْلُ قَالَ يَا اَرْضُ رَبِّيْ وَرَبُّكِ اللّٰهُ اَعُوْذُ بِاللّٰهِ مِنْ شَرِّكِ وَشَرِّ مَا فِيْكِ وَشَرِّ مَا خُلِقَ فِيْكِ وَشَرِّ مَا يَدُبُّ عَلَيْكِ وَاَعُوْذُ بِاللّٰهِ مِنْ اَسَدٍ وَاَسْوَدَ وَمِنَ الْحَيَّةِ وَالْعَقْرَبِ وَمِنْ شَرِّ سَاكِنِ الْبَلَدِ وَمِنْ وَالِدٍ وَمَا وَلَدَ۔ (رواه ابوداؤد)

2439. Sayyiduna Ibn Umar رضى الله عنه narrated that when Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم travelled and night came, he prayed:

يَا اَرْضُ رَبِّيْ وَرَبُّكِ اللّٰهُ اَعُوْذُ بِاللّٰهِ مِنْ شَرِّكِ وَشَرِّ مَا فِيْكِ وَشَرِّ مَا خُلِقَ فِيْكِ وَشَرِّ مَا يَدُبُّ عَلَيْكِ وَاَعُوْذُ بِاللّٰهِ مِنْ اَسَدٍ وَاَسْوَدَ وَمِنَ الْحَيَّةِ وَالْعَقْرَبِ وَمِنْ شَرِّ سَاكِنِ الْبَلَدِ وَمِنْ وَالِدٍ وَمَا وَلَدَ

(O earth, my Lord and your Lord is Allah. I seek refuge in Allah from your evil (like swallowing) and the evil of what you contain (Like water, etc) and the evil of what has been created in you (like poisonous animals). And the evil of what moves on you. And, I seek refuge in Allah from lions, black snakes, other snakes, scorpions and inhabitants, of places (Say, jinns) and a parent and his offspring (the accursed Iblis and his children.)[3]

PROPHET'S صلى الله عليه وسلم prayer during jihad

(٢٤٤٠) وَعَنْ اَنَسٍ قَالَ كَانَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اِذَا غَزَ قَالَ اَللّٰهُمَّ اَنْتَ عَضُدِيْ وَنَصِيْرِيْ بِكَ اَحُوْلُ وَبِكَ اَصُوْلُ وَبِكَ اُقَاتِلُ۔ (رواه الترمذى وابوداؤد)

2440. Sayyiduna Anas رضى الله عنه narrated that when he waged a battle, Allah's

[1] Tirmidhi # 3455, Darimi # 2671.
[2] Tirmidhi # 3456, Ibn Majah # 2771, Musnad Ahmad.
[3] Abu Dawud # 2603, Musnad Ahmad 2-132.

Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم prayed:

اَللّٰهُمَّ اَنْتَ عَضُدِیْ وَنَصِیْرِیْ بِكَ اَحُوْلُ وَبِكَ اُقَاتِلُ

(O Allah, you are my support and helper. With your power and with your might and your help (I engage against the infidels).[1]

WHEN AFRAID OF THE ENEMY

(٢٤٤١) وَعَنْ اَبِیْ مُوْسٰی اَنَّ النَّبِیَّ صَلَّی اللّٰهُ عَلَیْهِ وَسَلَّمَ كَانَ اِذَا خَافَ قَوْمًا قَالَ اَللّٰهُمَّ اِنَّا نَجْعَلُكَ فِیْ نُحُوْرِهِمْ وَنَعُوْذُبِكَ مِنْ شُرُوْرِهِمْ۔ (رواه احمد وابوداؤد)

2441. Sayyiduna Abu Musa رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that when the Prophet was apprehensive of a people, he prayed"

اَللّٰهُمَّ اِنَّا نَجْعَلُكَ فِیْ نُحُوْرِهِمْ وَنَعُوْذُبِكَ مِنْ شُرُوْرِهِمْ

[O Allah, we put you against them (to preserve us from their mischief) and we seek refuge in you from their plays.][2]

COMMENTARY: According to Hisn Haseen, if anyone is fearful of the enemy or of anyone else, reciting surah al-Quraysh (سورۃ لایلاف قریش) gives peace and protection against all kinds of mischief and fear.

PROPHET'S صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم PRAYER ON EMERGING FROM HOME

(٢٤٤٢) وَعَنْ اُمِّ سَلَمَةَ اَنَّ النَّبِیَّ صَلَّی اللّٰهُ عَلَیْهِ وَسَلَّمَ كَانَ اِذَا خَرَجَ مِنْ بَیْتِهٖ قَالَ بِسْمِ اللّٰهِ تَوَكَّلْتُ عَلَی اللّٰهِ اَللّٰهُمَّ اِنَّا نَعُوْذُبِكَ مِنْ اَنْ نَزِلَّ اَوْ نَضِلَّ اَوْ نَظْلِمَ اَوْ نُظْلَمَ اَوْنَجْهَلَ اَوْيُجْهَلَ عَلَيْنَا رَوَاهُ اَحْمَدُ وَالتِّرْمِذِیُّ وَالنَّسَائِیُّ وَقَالَ التِّرْمِذِیُّ هٰذَا حَدِیْثٌ حَسَنٌ صَحِیْحٌ وَفِیْ رِوَایَةِ اَبِیْ دَاوٗدَ وَابْنِ مَاجَةَ قَالَتْ اُمِّ سَلَمَةَ مَاخَرَجَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّی اللّٰهُ عَلَیْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مِنْ بَیْتِیْ قَطُّ اِلَّا رَفَعَ طَرْفَهٗ اِلَی السَّمَاءِ فَقَالَ اَللّٰهُمَّ اِنِّیْ اَعُوْذُبِكَ مِنْ اَنْ اُضِلَّ اَوْاُضَلَّ اَوْ اَظْلِمَ اَوْاُظْلَمَ اَوْ اَجْهِلَ اَوْيُجْهَلَ عَلَیَّ۔

2442. Sayyiduna Umm Salamah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that whenever the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم went out of his house, he prayed:

بِسْمِ اللّٰهِ تَوَكَّلْتُ عَلَی اللّٰهِ اَللّٰهُمَّ اِنَّا نَعُوْذُبِكَ مِنْ اَنْ نَزِلَّ اَوْ نَضِلَّ اَوْ نَظْلِمَ اَوْ نُظْلَمَ اَوْنَجْهَلَ اَوْيُجْهَلَ عَلَيْنَا

[In the name of Allah, I place trust in Allah. O Allah, we seek refuge in you from slipping (into sin unintentionally) or straying (deliberately), or falling into ignorance or being purshed into ignorance][3]

According to another version: she said that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم never left home without raising his sight to the sky and praying:

اَللّٰهُمَّ اِنِّیْ اَعُوْذُبِكَ اَنْ اُضِلَّ اَوْاُضَلَّ اَوْ اَظْلِمَ اَوْاُظْلَمَ اَوْ اَجْهَلَ اَوْيُجْهَلَ عَلَیَّ

---

[1] Abu Dawud # 2622, Musnad . .hmad 3-184.

[2] Abu Dawud # 1573, Musnad Ahmad 4-414.

[3] Tirmidhi # 3487, Musnad Ahmad 6.306, Nasa'i.

{O Allah, I seek refuge in you lest I stray or be misled, or I act unjustly or be oppressed, or fall into ignorance or be pushed into ignorance.}[1]

(٢٤٤٣) وَعَنْ اَنَسٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اِذَا خَرَجَ الرَّجُلُ مِنْ بَيْتِهٖ فَقَالَ بِسْمِ اللّٰهِ تَوَكَّلْتُ عَلَى اللّٰهِ لَا حَوْلَ وَلَا قُوَّةَ اِلَّا بِاللّٰهِ يُقَالُ لَهٗ حِيْنَئِذٍ هُدِيْتَ وَكُفِيْتَ وَوُقِيْتَ فَيَتَنَحّٰى لَهُ الشَّيْطَانُ وَيَقُوْلُ شَيْطَانٌ اٰخَرُ كَيْفَ لَكَ بِرَجُلٍ قَدْ هُدِىَ وَكُفِىَ وَوُقِىَ۔ رَوَاهُ اَبُوْدَاوٗدَ وَرَوَى التِّرْمِذِىُّ اِلٰى قَوْلِهٖ لَهُ الشَّيْطَانُ۔

2443. Sayyiduna Anas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said that if any one who emerges from his home and prays:

بِسْمِ اللّٰهِ تَوَكَّلْتُ عَلَى اللّٰهِ لَا حَوْلَ وَلَا قُوَّةَ اِلَّا بِاللّٰهِ

{In the name of Allah, I have placed trust in Allah, there being no power and no might save with Allah,}
It is said to him, that moment, 'you are guided (in all affairs),made independent (of others) and are preserved (from evil)." The devil goes away from him to a distance and another devil says to him, "what can you do to a man who is indeed guided, made independent and protected?"[2]
Tirmidhi's version ends at 'the devil goes away... to a distance.'

COMMENTARY: Imam Nawawi رحمہ اللہ has cited the hadith (tradition) of Sayyiduna Umar رضی اللہ عنہ that the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said that if any one faces difficult financial times then when he goes out of his home, he must pray"

بِسْمِ اللّٰهِ عَلٰى نَفْسِىْ وَمَا لِىْ وَدِيْنِىْ اَللّٰهُمَّ رَضِّنِىْ بِقَضَائِكَ وَبَارِكْ لِىْ فِيْمَا قَدَّرْتَ لِىْ حَتّٰى لَا اُحِبَّ تَعْجِيْلَ مَا اَخَّرْتَ وَلَا تَاْخِيْرَ مَا عَجَّلْتَ

{In the name of Allah I emerge. He is Master of my life, my property and my religion. O Allah, cause me to be satisfied with your decree and bless me in what you have allotted to me so that I do not try to hasten what you have deferred and do not try to put back what you have advanced.}

A Hadith (tradition) in Ibn Majah quotes the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم as saying that if any one emerges from his house to offer salah (prayer) (in the mosque) and makes the following prayer then Allah turns to him and seventy thousand angels pray for him to be forgiven:

اَللّٰهُمَّ اِنِّىْ اَسْاَلُكَ بِحَقِّ مَمْشَاىَ هٰذَا فَاِنِّىْ لَمْ اَخْرُجْ اَشِرًا وَلَا بَطَرًا وَلَا رِيَآءً وَلَا سُمْعَةً وَخَرَجْتُ اِتِّقَاءَ سَخَطِكَ وَابْتِغَاءَ مَرْضَاتِكَ فَاَسْئَلُكَ اَنْ تُعِيْذَنِىْ مِنَ النَّارِ وَاَنْ تَغْفِرَ لِىْ ذُنُوْبِىْ فَاِنَّهٗ لَا يَغْفِرُ الذُّنُوْبَ اِلَّا اَنْتَ

{O Allah, I pray to you by virtue of my walking (to salah (prayer)), for, I do not exit proudly, in pretence, ostentatiously or to be seen. Rather, I seen your wrath and seek your pleasure. I beseech you to deliver me from the fire of hell and to forgive me my sins, for, no one besides you can forgive sins.}

---

[1] Abu Dawud # 5095, Ibn Majah # 3884.

[2] Abu Dawud # 5090, Tirmidhi # 3486, Ibn Majah # 3888.

ON ENTERING HOME

(٢٤٤٤) وَعَنْ اَبِي مَالِكٍ الْاَشْعَرِيِّ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اِذَا وَلَجَ الرَّجُلُ بَيْتَهٗ فَلْيَقُلْ اَللّٰهُمَّ اِنِّيْ اَسْئَلُكَ خَيْرَ الْمَوْلِجِ وَخَيْرَ الْمَخْرَجِ بِسْمِ اللّٰهِ وَلَجْنَا وَعَلَى اللّٰهِ رَبِّنَا تَوَكَّلْنَا ثُمَّ لِيُسَلِّمْ عَلٰى اَهْلِهٖ۔

(رواه ابوداؤد)

2444. Sayyiduna Abu Maalik Al Ash'ary narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said that when a man enters his house, let him pray:

اَللّٰهُمَّ اِنِّيْ اَسْئَلُكَ خَيْرَ الْمَوْلِجِ وَخَيْرَ الْمَخْرَجِ بِسْمِ اللّٰهِ وَلَجْنَا وَعَلَى اللّٰهِ رَبِّنَا تَوَكَّلْنَا

{O Allah, I beg you for a good entrance and a good exit. In the name of Allah we enter and in Allah, our Lord, do we trust}
Then, he must offer salaam to his family.[1]

COMMENTARY: In the original Abu Dawud there also is the prayer (بسم الله خرجنا) (in the name of Allah we go out) after...' we enter.' So, perhaps it is left out in the Mishkat inadvertently. So, it must be read too.

The ulama (Scholars) say that in abiding by the hadith (tradition), we should offer salaam on entering our home. Even if there is no one in the house, we must offer salaam because angels are there always. In the case, the salaam is:

اَلسَّلَامُ عَلٰى عِبَادِ اللّٰهِ الصّٰلِحِيْنَ

{Peace be on the righteous of Allah.}

PRAYER FOR THE NEWLY WEDS

(٢٤٤٥) وَعَنْ اَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ اَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ كَانَ اِذَا رَفَّأَ الْاِنْسَانَ اِذَا تَزَوَّجَ قَالَ بَارَكَ اللّٰهُ لَكَ وَبَارَكَ عَلَيْكُمَا وَجَمَعَ بَيْنَكُمَا فِيْ خَيْرٍ۔ (رواه احمد والترمذى وابوداؤد ابن ماجة)

2445. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that when the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم prayed for anyone who had just married, he said:

بَارَكَ اللّٰهُ لَكَ وَبَارَكَ عَلَيْكُمَا وَجَمَعَ بَيْنَكُمَا فِيْ خَيْرٍ

{May Allah shower blessing on you, and bless both of you. May He put together goodness between the two of you}[2]

THE GROOM'S PRAYER:

(٢٤٤٦) وَعَنْ عَمْرِو بْنِ شُعَيْبٍ عَنْ اَبِيْهِ عَنْ جَدِّهٖ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ اِذَا تَزَوَّجَ اَحَدُكُمْ اِمْرَأَةً اَوِاشْتَرٰى خَادِمًا فَلْيَقُلْ اَللّٰهُمَّ اِنِّيْ اَسْأَلُكَ خَيْرَهَا وَخَيْرَ مَا جَبَلْتَهَا عَلَيْهِ وَاَعُوْذُبِكَ مِنْ شَرِّهَا وَشَرِّ مَا جَبَلْتَهَا عَلَيْهِ وَاِذَا اشْتَرٰى بَعِيْرًا فَلْيَاْخُذْ بِذِرْوَةِ سَنَامِهٖ وَلْيَقُلْ مِثْلَ ذٰلِكَ وَفِيْ رِوَايَةٍ فِي الْمَرْأَةِ وَالْخَادِمِ ثُمَّ لِيَأْخُذْ بِنَاصِيَتِهَا وَلْيَدْعُ بِالْبَرَكَةِ۔ (رواه ابوداؤد وابن ماجة)

---

[1] Abu Dawud # 3486.

[2] Abu Dawud # 2130, Tirmidhi # 1097, Darimi # 2173, Ibn Majah # 1905.

2446. Sayyiduna Amr ibn Shu'ayb رحمه الله narrated from his father who from his grandfather (Abdullah ibn Amir) رحمه الله that the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم said that when anyone marries a woman or buys a slave, let him pray:

اَللّٰهُمَّ اِنِّي اَسْأَلُكَ خَيْرَهَا وَخَيْرَ مَا جَبَلْتَهَا عَلَيْهِ وَاَعُوْذُبِكَ مِنْ شَرِّهَا وَشَرِّ مَا جَبَلْتَهَا

{O Allah, I pray toyou for the good in her and the good in that on which you have created her (which is her good disposition) and I seek refuge in you from the evil in her and the evil in that on which you have created her.}
When he buys a camel, let him hold the top of its hump and pray in like manner.
According to a version about the woman or the slave. He should takc hold of their forelocks and pray for blessing.[1]

COMMENTARY: The prayer on holding the forelock is the same as mentioned in the hadith (tradition).

Allamah Jawzi رحمه الله said that though the camel is mentioned, it applies to buying all animals.

PRAYER OF THE SORROWFUL

(٢٤٤٧) وَعَنْ اَبِي بَكْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ دَعَوَاتُ الْمَكْرُوْبِ اَللّٰهُمَّ رَحْمَتَكَ اَرْجُوْ فَلَا تَكِلْنِي اِلٰى نَفْسِي طَرْفَةَ عَيْنٍ وَاَصْلِحْ لِي شَأْنِي كُلَّهُ لَا اِلٰهَ اِلَّا اَنْتَ۔ (رواه ابوداؤد)

2447. Sayyiduna Abu Bakrah رحمه الله narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said that the prayers of the grieved are:[2]

اَللّٰهُمَّ رَحْمَتَكَ اَرْجُوْ فَلَا تَكِلْنِي اِلٰى نَفْسِي طَرْفَةَ عَيْنٍ وَاَصْلِحْ لِي شَأْنِي كُلَّهُ لَا اِلٰهَ اِلَّا اَنْتَ

{O Allah, I hope for your mercy. So, do no leave me to myself for the twinkling of an eye, but set my affairs right. There is no God but you.}

REPAYMENT OF DEBT

(٢٤٤٨) وَعَنْ اَبِي سَعِيْدِنِ الْخُدْرِيِّ قَالَ قَالَ رَجُلٌ هُمُوْمٌ لَزِمَتْنِي وَدُيُوْنٌ يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ قَالَ اَفَلَا اُعَلِّمُكَ كَلَامًا اِذَا قُلْتَهُ اَذْهَبَ اللّٰهُ هَمَّكَ وَقَضٰى عَنْكَ دَيْنَكَ قَالَ قُلْتُ بَلٰى قَالَ قُلْ اِذَا اَصْبَحْتَ وَاِذَا اَمْسَيْتَ اَللّٰهُمَّ اِنِّي اَعُوْذُبِكَ مِنَ الْهَمِّ وَالْحُزْنِ وَاَعُوْذُبِكَ مِنَ الْعَجْزِ وَالْكَسَلِ وَاَعُوْذُبِكَ مِنَ الْبُخْلِ وَالْجُبْنِ وَاَعُوْذُبِكَ مِنْ غَلَبَةِ الدَّيْنِ وَقَهْرِ الرِّجَالِ قَالَ فَفَعَلْتُ ذٰلِكَ فَاَذْهَبَ اللّٰهُ هَمِّي وَقَضٰى عَنِّي دَيْنِي۔ (رواه ابوداؤد)

2448. Sayyiduna Abu Sa'eed al-Khudri رضى الله عنه narrated that a man submitted. "Worried and debts have crushed me, O Messenger of Allah." He asked, "May I not teach you an expression which when you use as (your) prayer, Allah will put away your worries and repay your debt?" He said, "Of course (teach me)." He said that he should pray in the morning and in the evening:

اَللّٰهُمَّ اِنِّي اَعُوْذُ بِكَ مِنَ الْهَمِّ وَالْحُزْنِ وَاَعُوْذُبِكَ مِنَ الْعَجْزِ وَالْكَسَلِ وَاَعُوْذُبِكَ مِنَ الْبُخْلِ وَالْجُبْنِ وَاَعُوْذُبِكَ مِنْ غَلَبَةِ الدَّيْنِ وَقَهْرِ الرِّجَالِ

---

[1] Abu Dawud # 2160, Ibn Majah # 1918.

[2] Abu Dawud # 5090.

{O Allah, I seek refuge in you from worries and grief. I seek refuge in you from helplessness and sloth. I seek refuge in you from niggardliness and cowardice. I seek refuge in you from being crushed by debt and wrath of men.}

The men said, "I did that and Allah put away my worries and repaid my debts."[1]

COMMENTARY: Seeking refuge from helplessness is from inability to do acts of obedience and worship and to endure in the face of difficulty and affliction.

Niggardliness is to fail to pay zakah, expiations and other monetary dues, and it is to return beggars empty handed, and to not show hospitality to guests. It is also to neglect to offer salaam and to respond to a greeting. It also includes refusal to answer a question of a religious nature in spite of knowledge. Niggardliness also covers one who does not invoke blessings on the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم on hearing his name صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم

Cawardice is to refrain from participation in jihad for fear of the enemy. It is also to not muster enough strength to enjoin piety and forbid evil and not rely on Allah for one's sustenance, etc.

(٢٤٤٩) وَعَنْ عَلِيٍّ اَنَّهٗ جَاءَهٗ مُكَاتَبٌ فَقَالَ اِنِّيْ عَجَزْتُ عَنْ كِتَابَتِيْ فَاَعِنِّيْ قَالَ اَلَا اُعَلِّمُكَ كَلِمَاتٍ عَلَّمَنِيْهِنَّ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَوْ كَانَ عَلَيْكَ مِثْلُ جَبَلٍ كَبِيْرٍ دَيْنًا اَدَّاهُ اللّٰهُ عَنْكَ قُلِ اللّٰهُمَّ اكْفِنِيْ بِحَلَالِكَ عَنْ حَرَامِكَ وَاَغْنِنِيْ بِفَضْلِكَ عَمَّنْ سِوَاكَ۔ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَالْبَيْهَقِيُّ فِي الدَّعْوَاتِ الْكَبِيْرِ۔

2449. Sayyiduna Ali رضی اللہ عنہ was met by a Mukatab who told him that he was unable to fulfill his kitabah and requested him to help him. He said that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم had taught him some words that would be helpful even if he had a debt as large as a huge mountain. Allah would repay it for him. He instructed him to pray:

اَللّٰهُمَّ اكْفِنِيْ بِحَلَالِكَ عَنْ حَرَامِكَ وَاَغْنِنِيْ بِفَضْلِكَ عَمَّنْ سِوَاكَ

{O Allah, let your lawful sustenance be enough for me against your unlawful sustenance and make me by your favour independent of all but you.}[2]

COMMENTARY: Mukatab is the slave who contracts with his master to buy his own freedom. Kitabah is the monetary value that the slave has agreed to pay.

وَسَنَذْكُرُ حَدِيْثَ جَابِرٍ اِذَا سَمِعْتُمْ نُبَاحَ الْكِلَابِ فِيْ بَابِ تَغْطِيَةِ الْاَوَانِيْ اِنْ شَاءَ اللّٰهُ تَعَالٰى

We shall narrate the hadith (tradition) of Jabir رضی اللہ عنہ "When you hear the barking of the dogs." in the chapter on covering vessels. (Hadith (tradition) # 4302)

SECTION III اَلْفَصْلُ الثَّالِثُ

ON ARISING FROM A GATHERING

(٢٤٥٠) وَعَنْ عَائِشَةَ قَالَتْ اِنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ كَانَ اِذَا جَلَسَ مَجْلِسًا اَوْصَلّٰى تَكَلَّمَ بِكَلِمَاتٍ فَسَاَلْتُهٗ عَنِ الْكَلِمَاتِ فَقَالَ اِنْ تُكُلِّمَ بِخَيْرٍ كَانَ طَابِعًا عَلَيْهِنَّ اِلٰى يَوْمِ الْقِيَامَةِ وَاِنْ تُكُلِّمَ بِشَرٍّ كَانَ كَفَّارَةً لَهٗ سُبْحَانَكَ اَللّٰهُمَّ وَبِحَمْدِكَ لَا اِلٰهَ اِلَّا اَنْتَ اَسْتَغْفِرُكَ وَاَتُوْبُ اِلَيْكَ۔ (رواہ النسائی)

---

[1] Abu Dawud # 1555.

[2] Tirmidhi # 3634.

2450. Sayyiduna Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہا narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم spoke some words after sitting in an assembly or after offering salah (prayer), She asked him about them. He said, "If one speaks that which is good t hen these words will be a seal on his speech till the day of resurrection. If he speaks t hat which is bad they will be an atonement for his speech." (the words are:)

سُبْحَانَكَ اللّٰهُمَّ وَبِحَمْدِكَ لَا اِلٰهَ اِلَّا اَنْتَ اَسْتَغْفِرُكَ وَاَتُوْبُ اِلَيْكَ

{You are without blemish, O Allah! And with your praise (I begin). There is no God but you. I seek your forgiveness and repent to you.} [1]

ON BEHOLDING THE NEW MOON

(٢٤٥١) وَعَنْ قَتَادَةَ بَلَغَهُ اَنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ كَانَ اِذَا رَأَى الْهِلَالَ قَالَ هِلَالُ خَيْرٍ وَرُشْدٍ هِلَالُ خَيْرٍ وَرُشْدٍ هِلَالُ خَيْرٍ وَرُشْدٍ اٰمَنْتُ بِالَّذِىْ خَلَقَكَ ثَلَاثَ مَرَّاتٍ ثُمَّ يَقُوْلُ الْحَمْدُ لِلّٰهِ الَّذِىْ ذَهَبَ بِشَهْرِ كَذَا وَجَاءَ بِشَهْرِ كَذَا۔ (رواہ ابوداؤد)

2451. Sayyiduna Qatadah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that he had learnt that when Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم saw the new moon, he said;

هِلَالُ خَيْرٍ وَرُشْدٍ هِلَالُ خَيْرٍ وَرُشْدٍ هِلَالُ خَيْرٍ وَرُشْدٍ

{A new moon of good and guidance A new moon of good and guidance a new moon of good and guidance I believe in him who crated you}
(Saying it three times) Then he said:

الْحَمْدُ لِلّٰهِ الَّذِىْ ذَهَبَ بِشَهْرِ كَذَا وَجَاءَ بِشَهْرِ كَذَا

{Praise belongs to Allah who has caused such and such -a-month to be over and brought (another) to begin.}[2]

COMMENTARY: According to a hadith (tradition) of Sayyiduna Ibn Umar in Darimi, the prophet called Allahu Akbar on seeing the new moon and then prayed in these words of the hadith (tradition).

As for the words of the hadith (tradition): 'a new moon of Good....' These could be a prayer for that to happen or a pious premonition that it would be so.

TO REMOVE ANXIETY

(٢٤٥٢) وَعَنِ ابْنِ مَسْعُوْدٍ اَنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ مَنْ كَثُرَ هَمُّهُ فَلْيَقُلْ اَللّٰهُمَّ اِنِّىْ عَبْدُكَ وَابْنُ عَبْدِكَ وَابْنُ اَمَتِكَ وَفِىْ قَبْضَتِكَ نَاصِيَتِىْ بِيَدِكَ مَاضٍ فِىَّ حُكْمُكَ عَدْلٌ فِىَّ قَضَاؤُكَ اَسْأَلُكَ بِكُلِّ اسْمٍ هُوَ لَكَ سَمَّيْتَ بِهٖ نَفْسَكَ اَوْ اَنْزَلْتَهٗ فِىْ كِتَابِكَ اَوْ عَلَّمْتَهٗ اَحَدًا مِنْ خَلْقِكَ اَوْ اَلْهَمْتَ عِبَادَكَ اَوِ اسْتَأْثَرْتَ بِهٖ فِىْ مَكْنُوْنِ الْغَيْبِ عِنْدَكَ اَنْ تَجْعَلَ الْقُرْاٰنَ رَبِيْعَ قَلْبِىْ وَجِلَاءَ هَمِّىْ وَغَمِّىْ مَاقَالَهَا عَبْدٌ قَطُّ اِلَّا اَذْهَبَ اللّٰهُ هَمَّهٗ وَاَبْدَلَهٗ بِهٖ فَرَحًا۔ (رواہ رزین)

---

[1] Nasa'i # 1345.

[2] Abu Dawud # 5092.

2452. Sayyiduna Ibn Mas'ud رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said the if anyone is burdened by much anxiety then he should pray:

اَللّٰهُمَّ اِنِّيْ عَبْدُكَ وَابْنُ عَبْدِكَ وَابْنُ اَمَتِكَ وَفِيْ قَبْضَتِكَ نَاصِيَتِيْ بِيَدِكَ مَاضٍ فِيَّ حُكْمُكَ عَدْلٌ فِيَّ قَضَاؤُكَ

اَسْأَلُكَ بِكُلِّ اسْمٍ هُوَ لَكَ سَمَّيْتَ بِهٖ نَفْسَكَ اَوْاَنْزَلْتَهٗ فِيْ كِتَابِكَ اَوْعَلَّمْتَهٗ اَحَدًا مِنْ خَلْقِكَ اَوْ اَلْهَمْتَ

عِبَادَكَ اَوِاسْتَأْثَرْتَ بِهٖ فِيْ مَكْنُوْنِ الْغَيْبِ عِنْدَكَ اَنْ تَجْعَلَ الْقُرْاٰنَ رَبِيْعَ قَلْبِيْ وَجِلَاءَ هَمِّيْ وَغَمِّيْ

{O Allah, I am your slave, son of your bondman and son of your bondwoman. I am within you grasp and my forelock is in your hand. Your command is enforced on me. Your decree about me is just. I beseech you in each of the name that is yours with which you have called yourself, or which you have revealed in your Book, or which you have taught anyone of your creature, or which you inspired your slaves, or which you have preferred to preserve in the secret places with you - that you make the Quran the spring of my heart and the dispeller of my anxiety and grief}
No slave prays in this way but Allah removes his grief and grants him ease instead.[1]

TAKBIR & TASBIH ON ACCLIVITY & DECLIVITY

(٢٤٥٣) وَعَنْ جَابِرٍ قَالَ كُنَّا اِذَا صَعِدْنَا كَبَّرْنَا وَاِذَا نَزَلْنَا سَبَّحْنَا۔ (رواہ البخاری)

2453. Sayyiduna Jabir رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that when they climbed up a rise they called Allahu Akbar, and when they descended, they said, "subhan Allah."[2]

REMOVING GRIEF

(٢٤٥٤) وَعَنْ اَنَسٍ اَنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ كَانَ اِذَا كَرَبَهٗ اَمْرٌ يَقُوْلُ يَا حَيُّ يَا قَيُّوْمُ

بِرَحْمَتِكَ اَسْتَغِيْثُ۔ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَقَالَ هٰذَا حَدِيْثٌ غَرِيْبٌ وَلَيْسَ بِمَحْفُوْظٍ۔

2454. Sayyiduna Anas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that when an affair caused him anxiety, Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم prayed:
{O The Ever-Living, O the eternal, I seek help in your mercy}[3]

COMMENTARY: Haakim and Ibn Sunni have transmitted this hadith (tradition) from sayyiduna Ibn Mas'ud رضی اللہ عنہ. Haakim and Nasai have transmitted it from Sayyiduna Ali رضی اللہ عنہ in a marfu form with the words that he repeated again and again in prostration.

(٢٤٥٥) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ سَعِيْدِنِ الْخُدْرِيِّ قَالَ قُلْنَا يَوْمَ الْخَنْدَقِ يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ هَلْ مِنْ شَيْئٍ نَقُوْلُهٗ وَقَدْ بَلَغَتِ

الْقُلُوْبُ الْحَنَاجِرَ قَالَ نَعَمْ اَللّٰهُمَّ اسْتُرْعَوْرَاتِنَا وَاٰمِنْ رَوْعَاتِنَا قَالَ فَضَرَبَ اللّٰهُ وُجُوْهَ اَعْدَائِهٖ بِالرِّيْحِ وَهَزَمَ

اللّٰهُ بِالرِّيْحِ۔ (رواہ احمد)

2455. Sayyiduna Abu Sa'eed al-Khudri رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that during the Battle of the Trenches, they pleaded. "O Messenger of Allah, is there a prayer we may use, for, our hearts are in our mouths?" He said, "Yes, pray:

---

[1] Razin.
[2] Bukhari # 2993, Darimi # 2674, Musnad Amad 3-339.
[3] Tirmidhi 3535.

اَللّٰهُمَّ اسْتُرْ عَوْرَاتِنَا وَاٰمِنْ رَوْعَاتِنَا

{O Allah, conceal our shortcomings and grant us security from fears.}"
Then, Allah sent a wind on the faces of His enemies and He defeated them with the wind.[1]

COMMENTARY: The Battle of Trenches is also known as the Battle of al-Ahzab (the confederates). The winds uprooted the cooking pots of the ahzab or confederates and dismantled their tents.

PRAYER IN THE MARKET

(٢٤٥٦) وَعَنْ بُرَيْدَةَ قَالَ كَانَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِذَا دَخَلَ السُّوْقَ قَالَ بِسْمِ اللّٰهِ اَللّٰهُمَّ إِنِّيْ اَسْأَلُكَ خَيْرَ هٰذِهِ السُّوْقِ وَ خَيْرَ مَا فِيْهَا وَاَعُوْذُبِكَ مِنْ شَرِّهَا وَشَرِّمَا فِيْهَا اَللّٰهُمَّ إِنِّيْ اَعُوْذُبِكَ مِنْ اَنْ اُصِيْبَ فِيْهَا صَفْقَةً خَاسِرَةً۔ رَوَاهُ الْبَيْهَقِيُّ فِي الدَّعْوَاتِ الْكَبِيْرِ۔

2456. Sayyiduna Buraydah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that when he entered the market, the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم prayed.

بِسْمِ اللّٰهِ اَللّٰهُمَّ إِنِّيْ اَسْأَلُكَ خَيْرَ هٰذِهِ السُّوْقِ وَ خَيْرَ مَا فِيْهَا وَاَعُوْذُبِكَ مِنْ شَرِّهَا وَشَرِّمَا فِيْهَا اَللّٰهُمَّ إِنِّيْ اَعُوْذُبِكَ مِنْ اَنْ اُصِيْبَ فِيْهَا صَفْقَةً خَاسِرَةً

{In the name of Allah. O Allah, I ask you for the good of this market and the good of what is in it (meaning, its people). And, I seek refuge in you from its evil and evil in it. O Allah, I seek refuge in you lest I suffer a loss in a transaction.}[2]

CHAPTER - VIII

SEEKING REFUGE IN ALLAH بَابُ الْاِسْتِعَاذَةِ

In this chapter we reproduced the ahadith (tradition) about supplications seeking refuge in Allah from disliked, contrary to Shari'ah and harmful things and from the deceit of the devil. The ulama (Scholars) differ on whether it is better to recite (اَعُوْذُ بِاللّٰه) or (اَسْتَعِيْذُ بِاللّٰه). Most of them prefer the latter in the light of the words of the Quran:

وَإِذَا قَرَأْتَ الْقُرْاٰنَ فَاسْتَعِذْ بِاللّٰهِ

{And when you recite the Quran. Seek refuge in Allah...} (16:98)
However, the hadith (tradition) and the aathar establish that (اعوذ باللّٰہ) (I seek refuge in Allah) may also be recited. So, there is no harm in doing so.

SECTION I اَلْفَصْلُ الْاَوَّلُ

REFUGE FROM DIFFERENT THINGS

(٢٤٥٧) عَنْ اَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ تَعَوَّذُوْا بِاللّٰهِ مِنْ جَهْدِ الْبَلَاءِ وَدَرْكِ

---

[1] Musnad Ahmad 3-3.
[2] Bayhaqi in ad-Da'waat ul Kabir.

الشَّقَاءِ وَسُوءِ الْقَضَاءِ وَشَمَاتَةِ الْأَعْدَاءِ۔ (متفق عليه)

2457. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said. "Seek refuge in Allah from the severity of trial, depth of wretchedness, evil destiny and malicious mockery of enemies."[1]

COMMENTARY: This is a comprehensive prayer. It embraces all aspects of religious and worldly problems.

THAT FROM WHICH THE PROPHET MUHAMMAD صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم SOUGHT REFUGE

(٢٤٥٨) وَعَنْ اَنَسٍ قَالَ كَانَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُوْلُ اَللّٰهُمَّ اِنِّيْ اَعُوْذُبِكَ مِنَ الْهَمِّ وَالْحُزْنِ وَالْعَجْزِ وَالْكَسَلِ وَالْجُبْنِ وَالْبُخْلِ وَضَلَعِ الدَّيْنِ وَغَلَبَةِ الرِّجَالِ۔ (متفق عليه)

2458. Sayyiduna Anas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم prayed:

اَللّٰهُمَّ اِنِّيْ اَعُوْذُبِكَ مِنَ الْهَمِّ وَالْحُزْنِ وَالْعَجْزِ وَالْكَسَلِ وَالْجُبْنِ وَالْبُخْلِ وَضَلَعِ الدَّيْنِ وَغَلَبَةِ الرِّجَالِ

{O Allah, I seek refuge in you from anxiety, grief, inability, slackness, cowardice, niggardliness, burden of debt and domination of men.}[2]

(٢٤٥٩) وَعَنْ عَائِشَةَ قَالَتْ كَانَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُوْلُ اَللّٰهُمَّ اِنِّيْ اَعُوْذُبِكَ مِنَ الْكَسَلِ وَالْهَرَمِ وَالْمَغْرَمِ وَالْمَاْثَمِ اَللّٰهُمَّ اِنِّيْ اَعُوْذُبِكَ مِنْ عَذَابِ النَّارِ وَفِتْنَةِ النَّارِ وَفِتْنَةِ الْقَبْرِ وَعَذَابِ الْقَبْرِ وَمِنْ شَرِّ فِتْنَةِ الْغِنٰى وَمِنْ شَرِّ فِتْنَةِ الْفَقْرِ وَمِنْ شَرِّ فِتْنَةِ الْمَسِيْحِ الدَّجَّالِ اَللّٰهُمَّ اغْسِلْ خَطَايَايَ بِمَاءِ الثَّلْجِ وَالْبَرَدِ وَنَقِّ قَلْبِيْ كَمَا يُنَقَّى الثَّوْبُ الْاَبْيَضُ مِنَ الدَّنَسِ وَبَاعِدْ بَيْنِيْ وَبَيْنَ خَطَايَايَ كَمَا بَاعَدْتَّ بَيْنَ الْمَشْرِقِ وَالْمَغْرِبِ۔ (متفق عليه)

2459. Sayyiduan Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہا narrated that the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم used to pray:

اَللّٰهُمَّ اِنِّيْ اَعُوْذُبِكَ مِنَ الْكَسَلِ وَالْهَرَمِ وَالْمَغْرَمِ وَالْمَاْثَمِ اَللّٰهُمَّ اِنِّيْ اَعُوْذُبِكَ مِنْ عَذَابِ النَّارِ وَفِتْنَةِ النَّارِ وَفِتْنَةِ الْقَبْرِ وَعَذَابِ الْقَبْرِ وَمِنْ شَرِّ فِتْنَةِ الْغِنٰى وَمِنْ شَرِّ فِتْنَةِ الْفَقْرِ وَمِنْ شَرِّ فِتْنَةِ الْمَسِيْحِ الدَّجَّالِ اَللّٰهُمَّ اغْسِلْ خَطَايَايَ بِمَاءِ الثَّلْجِ وَالْبَرَدِ وَنَقِّ قَلْبِيْ كَمَا يُنَقَّى الثَّوْبُ الْاَبْيَضُ مِنَ الدَّنَسِ وَبَاعِدْ بَيْنِيْ وَبَيْنَ خَطَايَايَ كَمَا بَاعَدْتَّ بَيْنَ الْمَشْرِقِ وَالْمَغْرِبِ

{O Allah, I seek refuge in you from slackness decrepitude, debt and sin. O Allah, I seek refuge in you from punishment in hell, trial of the fire, trial in the grave, punishment in the grave, mischief of the trial of affluence, mischief of the trial of poverty, the evil of the trial of the dajjal, O Allah, wash off my sins with snow and hail water, cleanse my heart as a white garment is cleansed from filth, and remove

---

[1] Bukhari # 6616, Muslim # 53-2707, Musnad Ahmad 2-246.

[2] Bukhari # 6369, Abu Dawud # 1514, Tirmidhi # 3551, Musnad Ahmad 3-226.

my sins far away from me as you have distanced the East from the west.}[1]

COMMENTARY: It must be understood that only the infidels will undergo Allah's punishment. The monotheists will be punished in the hereafter for their misdeeds and that cannot be called punishment but it is called 'disciplining' or correcting.'

The trial of the Fire is that which leads to hell, The trial of the grave is the questioning of Munkar and Nakir, the two angels and if satisfactory answers are not given punishment in the grave follows.

'Grave' refers to the intervening period between death and resurrection. It can be within the grave or elsewhere:

The Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم made this supplication to teach the ummah. They should seek refuge from these things.

(٢٤٦٠) وَعَنْ زَيْدِ بْنِ اَرْقَمَ قَالَ كَانَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُوْلُ اَللّٰهُمَّ اِنِّيْ اَعُوْذُ بِكَ مِنَ الْعَجْزِ وَالْكَسَلِ وَالْجُبْنِ وَالْبُخْلِ وَالْهَرَمِ وَعَذَابِ الْقَبْرِ اَللّٰهُمَّ اٰتِ نَفْسِيْ تَقْوَاهَا وَزَكِّهَا اَنْتَ خَيْرُ مَنْ زَكّٰهَا اَنْتَ وَلِيُّهَا وَمَوْلَاهَا اَللّٰهُمَّ اِنِّيْ اَعُوْذُ بِكَ مِنْ عِلْمٍ لَا يَنْفَعُ وَمِنْ قَلْبٍ لَا يَخْشَعُ وَمِنْ نَفْسٍ لَا تَشْبَعُ وَمِنْ دَعْوَةٍ لَا يُسْتَجَابُ لَهَا۔ (رواه مسلم)

2460. Sayyiduna Zayd ibn Arqam رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم used to pray:

اَللّٰهُمَّ اِنِّيْ اَعُوْذُ بِكَ مِنَ الْعَجْزِ وَالْكَسَلِ وَالْجُبْنِ وَالْبُخْلِ وَالْهَرَمِ وَعَذَابِ الْقَبْرِ اَللّٰهُمَّ اٰتِ نَفْسِيْ تَقْوَاهَا وَزَكِّهَا اَنْتَ خَيْرُ مَنْ زَكّٰهَا اَنْتَ وَلِيُّهَا وَمَوْلَاهَا اَللّٰهُمَّ اِنِّيْ اَعُوْذُ بِكَ مِنْ عِلْمٍ لَا يَنْفَعُ وَمِنْ قَلْبٍ لَا يَخْشَعُ وَمِنْ نَفْسٍ لَا تَشْبَعُ وَمِنْ دَعْوَةٍ لَا يُسْتَجَابُ لَهَا

{O Allah, I seek refuge in you from inability, slackness, cowardice, niggardliness, decrepitude and punishment in the grave. O Allah, let my soul observe taqwa and purify it. You are the best purifier of it. You are its Guardian and its Master. O Allah, I seek refuge in you from knowledge that will not benefit, from the heart that will not submit, from a soul that will not be satisfied and from a supplication that will not be granted.}[2]

COMMENTARY: knowledge that will not benefit is what is not put to practice and not taught to others and such an is not allowed by Shari'ah.

Knowledge that does not arouse taqwa is a gate of the gate of this world and a kind of worldly pursuit.

(٢٤٦١) وَعَنْ عَبْدِاللّٰهِ بْنِ عُمَرَ قَالَ كَانَ مِنْ دُعَاءِ رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَللّٰهُمَّ اِنِّيْ اَعُوْذُبِكَ مِنْ زَوَالِ نِعْمَتِكَ وَتَحَوُّلِ عَافِيَتِكَ وَفُجَاءَةِ نِقْمَتِكَ وَجَمِيْعِ سَخَطِكَ۔ (رواه مسلم)

2461. Sayyiduna Abdullah ibn Umar رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that one of the supplications of Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم was:

---

[1] Bukhari # 6275, Muslim # 49-589, Tirmidhi # 353560, Musnad Ahmad 2-185.

[2] Muslim # 73-2722.

اَللّٰهُمَّ اِنِّيْ اَعُوْذُبِكَ مِنْ زَوَالِ نِعْمَتِكَ وَتَحَوُّلِ عَافِيَتِكَ وَفُجَاءَةِ نِعْمَتِكَ وَجَمِيْعِ سَخَطِكَ

{O Allah, I seek refuge in you from the withdrawal of blessings, a reversal of your protection, a sudden reprisal from you and every kind of your wrath.}[1]

(٢٤٦٢) وَعَنْ عَآئِشَةَ قَالَتْ كَانَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُوْلُ اَللّٰهُمَّ اِنِّيْ اَعُوْذُبِكَ مِنْ شَرِّ مَاعَمِلْتُ وَمِنْ شَرِّ مَالَمْ اَعْمَلْ۔ (رواه مسلم)

2462. Sayyiduna Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہا narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم used to pray:

اَللّٰهُمَّ اِنِّيْ اَعُوْذُبِكَ مِنْ شَرِّ مَاعَمِلْتُ وَمِنْ شَرِّ مَالَمْ اَعْمَلْ

{O Allah, I seek refuge in you from the evil of what I have done and from the evil of what I have not done}[2]

COMMENTARY: Apart from the obvious meaning of seeking refuge from evil doings, it also means that one may not take credit oneself for keeping away from evil. Rather, it is Allah's favour.

(٢٤٦٣) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ اَنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ كَانَ يَقُوْلُ اَللّٰهُمَّ لَكَ اَسْلَمْتُ وَبِكَ اٰمَنْتُ وَعَلَيْكَ تَوَكَّلْتُ وَاِلَيْكَ اَنَبْتُ وَبِكَ خَاصَمْتُ اَللّٰهُمَّ اِنِّيْ اَعُوْذُ بِعِزَّتِكَ لَا اِلٰهَ اِلَّا اَنْتَ مِنْ اَنْ تُضِلَّنِيْ اَنْتَ الْحَيُّ الَّذِيْ لَا يَمُوْتُ وَالْجِنُّ وَالْاِنْسُ يَمُوْتُوْنَ۔ (متفق عليه)

2463. Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم used to pray:

اَللّٰهُمَّ لَكَ اَسْلَمْتُ وَبِكَ اٰمَنْتُ وَعَلَيْكَ تَوَكَّلْتُ وَاِلَيْكَ اَنَبْتُ وَبِكَ خَاصَمْتُ اَللّٰهُمَّ اِنِّيْ اَعُوْذُ بِعِزَّتِكَ لَا اِلٰهَ اِلَّا اَنْتَ مِنْ اَنْ تُضِلَّنِيْ اَنْتَ الْحَيُّ الَّذِيْ لَا يَمُوْتُ وَالْجِنُّ وَالْاِنْسُ يَمُوْتُوْنَ

{O Allah. To you do I submit. In you do I believe. On you do I rely. To you do I turn in repentance. And with your help so I contend. O Allah, I seek refuge in your Might, there being no God besides you, lest you send me astray. You are the Ever living who never dies, but the jin and mankind die.}[3]

SECTION II اَلْفَصْلُ الثَّانِي

(٢٤٦٤-٢٤٦٥) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ كَانَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُوْلُ اَللّٰهُمَّ اِنِّيْ اَعُوْذُبِكَ مِنَ الْاَرْبَعِ مِنْ عِلْمٍ لَا يَنْفَعُ وَمِنْ قَلْبٍ لَا يَخْشَعُ وَمِنْ نَفْسٍ لَا تَشْبَعُ وَمِنْ دُعَاءٍ لَا يُسْمَعُ۔ رَوَاهُ اَحْمَدُ وَاَبُوْدَاوُدَ وَابْنُ مَاجَةَ وَرَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ عَنْ عَبْدِاللّٰهِ بْنِ عَمْرٍو وَالنَّسَائِيُّ عَنْهُمَا۔

2464. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم used to pray:

---

1 Muslim # 96-2739, Abu Dawud # 1545.

2 Muslim # 95.2716, Abu Dawud # 1550, Musnad Ahmad 6-139.

3 Bukhari # 6317, Muslim # 67.2717, Musnad Ahmad 1-95.

اَللّٰهُمَّ اِنِّيْ اَعُوْذُبِكَ مِنَ الْاَرْبَعِ مِنْ عِلْمٍ لَا يَنْفَعُ وَمِنْ قَلْبٍ لَا يَخْشَعُ وَمِنْ نَفْسٍ لَا تَشْبَعُ وَمِنْ دُعَاءٍ لَا يُسْمَعُ

{O Allah, I seek refuge in you from four things: knowledge that does not benefit, a heart that does not submit, a soul that is not satisfied and a supplication that is not granted.}[1]

2465. Sayyiduna Abdullah ibn Amr narrated it too.[2]

(٢٤٦٦) وَعَنْ عُمَرَ قَالَ كَانَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَتَعَوَّذُ مِنْ خَمْسٍ مِنَ الْجُبْنِ وَالْبُخْلِ وَسُوْءِ الْعُمُرِ وَفِتْنَةِ الصُّدُوْرِ وَعَذَابِ الْقَبْرِ۔ (رواه ابوداؤد، والنسائی)

2466. Sayyiduna Umar رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم used to seek refuge from five things: cowardice, niggardliness, decrepitude, (evil) trial of the heart (with bad manners and bad belief), punishment in the grave.[3]

(٢٤٦٧) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ اَنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ كَانَ يَقُوْلُ اَللّٰهُمَّ اِنِّيْ اَعُوْذُبِكَ مِنَ الْفَقْرِ وَالْقِلَّةِ وَالذِّلَّةِ وَاَعُوْذُبِكَ مِنْ اَنْ اَظْلِمَ اَوْ اُظْلَمَ۔ (رواه ابوداؤد ونسائی)

2467. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم used to pray:

اَللّٰهُمَّ اِنِّيْ اَعُوْذُبِكَ مِنَ الْفَقْرِ وَالْقِلَّةِ وَالذِّلَّةِ وَاَعُوْذُبِكَ مِنْ اَنْ اَظْلِمَ اَوْ اُظْلَمَ

{O Allah, I seek refuge in you from poverty, destitution and disgrace. And, I seek refuge in You lest I oppress or be oppressed.}[4]

(٢٤٦٨) وَعَنْهُ اَنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ كَانَ يَقُوْلُ اَللّٰهُمَّ اِنِّيْ اَعُوْذُبِكَ مِنَ الشِّقَاقِ وَالنِّفَاقِ وَسُوْءِ الْاَخْلَاقِ۔ (رواه ابوداؤد والنسائی)

2468. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم used to pray:

اَللّٰهُمَّ اِنِّيْ اَعُوْذُبِكَ مِنَ الشِّقَاقِ وَالنِّفَاقِ وَسُوْءِ الْاَخْلَاقِ

{O Allah, I seek refuge in you from dissension. Hypocrisy and bad manners}[5]

(٢٤٦٩) وَعَنْهُ اَنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ كَانَ يَقُوْلُ اَللّٰهُمَّ اِنِّيْ اَعُوْذُبِكَ مِنَ الْجُوْعِ فَاِنَّهُ بِئْسَ الضَّجِيْعُ وَاَعُوْذُبِكَ مِنَ الْخِيَانَةِ فَاِنَّهَا بِئْسَتِ الْبِطَانَةُ۔ (رواه ابوداؤد والنسائی وابن ماجة)

2469. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم used to pray.

اَللّٰهُمَّ اِنِّيْ اَعُوْذُبِكَ مِنَ الْجُوْعِ فَاِنَّهُ بِئْسَ الضَّجِيْعُ وَاَعُوْذُبِكَ مِنَ الْخِيَانَةِ فَاِنَّهَا بِئْسَتِ الْبِطَانَةُ

---

[1] Tirmidhi # 3549, Ibn Majah # 3837, Musnad Ahmad 2-267, Nasa'i, Abu Dawud.

[2] Tirmidhi, Nasa'i

[3] Abu Dawud # 1540, Ibn Majah # 3844, Musnad Ahmad 1-22.

[4] Abu Dawud # 1544, Nasa'i 8-261, Musnad Ahmad 2-35, Ibn Majah # 3842.

[5] Abu Dawud # 1546, Nasa'i 8-264.

{O Allah, I seek refuge in you from hunger, for indeed, it is an evil companion. And, I seek refuge in you from treachery. For, indeed, It is a concealed evil}[1]

COMMENTARY: Hunger makes one weak and unable to devote to worship. But, hunger imposed on oneself to concentrate, but in a moderate manner, is good for internal cleansing and purity of body.

Treachery is to disobey Allah and His Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم and to cheat people. It is to this the Quran points:

يَا أَيُّهَا الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا لَا تَخُونُوا اللّٰهَ وَالرَّسُولَ وَتَخُونُوا أَمَانَاتِكُمْ

{O You who believe, betray not Allah and the Messenger nor betray your trusts.} (8:27)

(٢٤٧٠) وَعَنْ أَنَسٍ أَنَّ رَسُولَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ كَانَ يَقُولُ اَللّٰهُمَّ إِنِّي أَعُوذُ بِكَ مِنَ الْبَرَصِ وَالْجُذَامِ وَالْجُنُونِ وَمِنْ سَيِّءِ الْأَسْقَامِ. (رواه ابوداؤد والنسائی)

2470. Sayyiduna Anas رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم was wont to pray:

اَللّٰهُمَّ إِنِّي أَعُوذُ بِكَ مِنَ الْبَرَصِ وَالْجُذَامِ وَالْجُنُونِ وَمِنْ سَيِّءِ الْأَسْقَامِ

{O Allah, I seek refuge in your from leprosy, elephantiasis, lunacy and evil illnesses} [2]

COMMENTARY: Some illnesses are named specifically and others are generalized.

Refuge is sought from such illnesses as hamper the sick from giving rights of Allah and rights of fellowmen.

The ulama (Scholars) say that leprosy is not contagious there is body contact with the leper and pus transfers to another.

(٢٤٧١) وَعَنْ قُطْبَةَ بْنِ مَالِكٍ قَالَ كَانَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُولُ اَللّٰهُمَّ إِنِّي أَعُوذُبِكَ مِنْ مُنْكَرَاتِ الْأَخْلَاقِ وَالْأَعْمَالِ وَالْأَهْوَاءِ. (رواه الترمذی)

2471. Sayyiduna Qutbah ibn Maalik رضی الله عنه narrated that the Prophet Muhammad صلی الله علیه وسلم used to pray:

اَللّٰهُمَّ إِنِّي أَعُوذُبِكَ مِنْ مُنْكَرَاتِ الْأَخْلَاقِ وَالْأَعْمَالِ وَالْأَهْوَاءِ

{O Allah, I seek refuge in you from evil morals, deeds and impulses}[3]

COMMENTARY: Evil morals are bad deeds of the heart. Examples are: jealousy, hatred etc. Impulses include evil beliefs and wrong ideas.

A COMPREHENSIVE PRAYER FOR REFUGE

(٢٤٧٢) وَعَنْ شُتَيْرِ بْنِ شَكَلِ بْنِ حُمَيْدٍ عَنْ أَبِيهِ قَالَ قُلْتُ يَا نَبِيَّ اللّٰهِ عَلِّمْنِي تَعْوِيذًا أَتَعَوَّذُ بِهِ قَالَ قُلْ اَللّٰهُمَّ إِنِّي أَعُوذُ بِكَ مِنْ شَرِّ سَمْعِي وَشَرِّ بَصَرِي وَشَرِّ لِسَانِي وَشَرِّ قَلْبِي وَشَرِّ مَنِيِّي. (رواه ابوداؤد والترمذی والنسائی)

2472. Sayyiduna Shutayr ibn Shakal ibn Humayd reported about his father that he asked the Prophet Muhammad صلی الله علیه وسلم of Allah to teach him an expression by

---

[1] Abu Dawud # Ibn Majah # 3354.

[2] Abu Dawud # 1554, Musnad Ahmad 3-192.

[3] Tirmidhi # 3591.

which he might seek refuge in Allah. He instructed him to pray:

اَللّٰهُمَّ اِنِّيْ اَعُوْذُ بِكَ مِنْ شَرِّ سَمْعِيْ وَشَرِّ بَصَرِيْ وَشَرِّ لِسَانِيْ وَشَرِّ قَلْبِيْ وَشَرِّ مَنِيِّيْ

{O Allah, I seek refuge in you from the evil of my hearing, the evil of my sight, the evil of my tongue, the evil of my heart and the evil of my semen.}[1]

PROTECTION FROM SUDDEN ACCIDENTS

(٢٤٧٣) وَعَنْ اَبِي الْيَسَرِ اَنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ كَانَ يَدْعُوْ اَللّٰهُمَّ اِنِّيْ اَعُوْذُبِكَ مِنَ الْهَدْمِ وَاَعُوْذُبِكَ مِنَ التَّرَدِّيْ وَمِنَ الْغَرَقِ وَالْحَرَقِ وَالْهَرَمِ وَاَعُوْذُبِكَ مِنْ اَنْ يَتَخَبَّطَنِي الشَّيْطَانُ عِنْدَ الْمَوْتِ وَاَعُوْذُبِكَ مِنْ اَنْ اَمُوْتَ فِيْ سَبِيْلِكَ مُدْبِرًا وَاَعُوْذُبِكَ مِنْ اَنْ اَمُوْتَ لَدِيْغًا۔ رَوَاهُ اَبُوْدَاوُدَ وَالنَّسَائِيُّ وَزَادَ فِيْ رِوَايَةٍ اُخْرٰى وَالْغَمِّ۔

2473. Sayyiduna Abu al-Yasar رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم used to make this supplication:

اَللّٰهُمَّ اِنِّيْ اَعُوْذُبِكَ مِنَ الْهَدْمِ وَاَعُوْذُبِكَ مِنَ التَّرَدِّيْ وَمِنَ الْغَرَقِ وَالْحَرَقِ وَالْهَرَمِ وَاَعُوْذُبِكَ مِنْ اَنْ يَتَخَبَّطَنِي الشَّيْطَانُ عِنْدَ الْمَوْتِ وَاَعُوْذُبِكَ مِنْ اَنْ اَمُوْتَ فِيْ سَبِيْلِكَ مُدْبِرًا وَاَعُوْذُبِكَ مِنْ اَنْ اَمُوْتَ لَدِيْغًا

{O Allah, I seek refuge in you from a house (or wall) falling on me. I seek, refuge in you from falling from a height, from drowning, from burning and from decrepitude. I seek refuge in you from the devil confusing me at the moment of my death. I seek refuge in you lest I die while deserting (the army in) your path. I seek refuge in you lest I die of a sting of a venomous bite.}[2]

According to version of Nasai'i the words: 'and from sorrow" are added.

COMMENTARY: Some of these things are such that death because of them is regarded as martyrdom yet refuge is sought from such death. The reason is that a terrible pain and affliction result when any of these is experienced by a person. An exceptional endurance is called for on such occasions and the devil gets an opportunity to try the victim.

Infirm old age is likely to dent a person's senses and make him speak nonsense and falter in worship. So, one should seek refuge in this kind of old age.

It is said that one who memorises the Quran is preserved from such trials.

REFUGE FROM COVETOUSNESS

(٢٤٧٤) وَعَنْ مُعَاذٍ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ اسْتَعِيْذُوْا بِاللّٰهِ مِنْ طَمَعٍ يَهْدِيْ اِلٰى طَبَعٍ۔ رَوَاهُ اَحْمَدُ وَالْبَيْهَقِيُّ فِي الدَّعْوَاتِ الْكَبِيْرِ۔

2474. Sayyiduna Mu'adh رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "Seek refuge from greed that leads to disgrace."

COMMENTARY: Greed includes expecting riches from the creatures of Allah. It causes a defect of character because one belittles oneself before men of the world and disgraces oneself. A man loses his self-respect in the world. He becomes impure religiously too. It is root of corruption in a person's religious life while righteousness and a god fearing attitude can correct one's religions.

---

[1] Abu Dawud # 1551, Musnad Ahmad 3-429.

[2] Abu Dawud # 1552, Musnad Ahmad 3-426, Nasa'i.

Shaykh Ali Muttaqi رحمه الله said that if one desires to receive wealth that one had been promised, and is certain to get it, then it does not full under the purview of this hadith (tradition) and it is not greed. Also, when he is very much friendly with another man who fulfils his wishes then expecting something from him is not greed.

• DARKNESS OF THE MOON

(٢٤٧٥) وَعَنْ عَآئِشَةَ اَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ نَظَرَ اِلَى الْقَمَرِ فَقَالَ يَا عَآئِشَةُ اسْتَعِيْذِىْ بِاللّٰهِ مِنْ شَرِّهٰذَا فَاِنَّ هٰذَا هُوَالْغَاسِقُ اِذَاوَقَبَ۔ (رواه الترمذى)

2475. Sayyiduna Ayshah رضى الله عنها narrated that (once) Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم looked at the moon and said, "Seek refuge in Allah from the evil of this one, O Ayshah, for, it spreads darkness when it loses its light."[1]

COMMENTARY: The surah al-Falaq of the Quran calls for seeking refuge in the Lord of the dawn from certain things. One of these is

غَاسِقٍ اِذَاوَقَبَ

{From the evil of darkness when is overspreads} (113:3)

The hadith (tradition) refers to the moon when it is eclipses. That is a portent of Allah.

It does not follow that those trials and mischief descend that are predicted by soothsayers and people with wrong beliefs when an eclipse (of sun or moon) occurs.

In fact, an eclipse should make one contemplate lest one face a decline in one's light of faith and deeds.

Some exegetes, however, do not speak of the verse as referring to an eclipse. They say it refers to darkness of the night.

REFUGE FROM INNER EVIL

(٢٤٧٦) وَعَنْ عِمْرَانَ بْنِ حُصَيْنٍ قَالَ قَالَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لِاَبِي يَا حُصَيْنُ كَمْ تَعْبُدُ الْيَوْمَ اِلٰهًا قَالَ اَبِي سَبْعَةً سِتًّا فِي الْاَرْضِ وَوَاحِدًا فِي السَّمَاءِ قَالَ فَاَيُّهُمْ تَعُدُّ لِرَغْبَتِكَ وَرَهْبَتِكَ قَالَ الَّذِىْ فِي السَّمَاءِ قَالَ يَا حُصَيْنُ اَمَا اِنَّكَ لَوْ اَسْلَمْتَ عَلَّمْتُكَ كَلِمَتَيْنِ تَنْفَعَانِكَ قَالَ فَلَمَّا اَسْلَمَ حُصَيْنٌ قَالَ يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ عَلِّمْنِي الْكَلِمَتَيْنِ اللَّتَيْنِ وَعَدْتَّنِي فَقَالَ قُلِ اللّٰهُمَّ اَلْهِمْنِيْ رُشْدِىْ وَاَعِذْنِيْ مِنْ شَرِّ نَفْسِي۔ (رواه الترمذى)

2476. Sayyiduna Imran ibn Husayn رضى الله عنه narrated that the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم said to his (Imran's) father, "O Husayn, how many gods do you worship in a day?" He said, "Seven, Six on earth and one in heaven." He asked, "In which of them you place your hope and have your fears?" He said, "The one who is in the heaven." He said, "O Husayn, if you submit to Islam, I shall teach you two expressions that will benefit you (in both the worlds)." When Husayn embraced

---

[1] Tirmidhi # 3377, Musnad Ahmad 6-215.

Islam, he said, "O Messenger of Allah. Teach me t he two expressions you had promised me." He instructed him to say:

اَللّٰهُمَّ اَلْهِمْنِیْ رُشْدِیْ وَاَعِذْنِیْ مِنْ شَرِّنَفْسِیْ

{O Allah guide me on the right way, and protect me from the evil in my self.}[1]

COMMENTARY: Husayn's reference to the god in heaven was only according to his perception because he was not a believer who knows that Allah is not confined to a single place.

NIGHTMARE

(٢٤٧٧) وَعَنْ عَمْرِو بْنِ شُعَيْبٍ عَنْ اَبِيْهِ عَنْ جَدِّهٖ اَنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ اِذَا فَزِعَ اَحَدُكُمْ فِي النَّوْمِ فَلْيَقُلْ اَعُوْذُ بِكَلِمَاتِ اللّٰهِ التَّامَّاتِ مِنْ غَضَبِهٖ وَعِقَابِهٖ وَشَرِّ عِبَادِهٖ وَمِنْ هَمَزَاتِ الشَّيَاطِيْنِ وَاَنْ يَّحْضُرُوْنِ فَاِنَّهَا لَنْ تَضُرَّهٗ وَكَانَ عَبْدُ اللّٰهِ بْنُ عَمْرٍو يُعَلِّمُهَا مَنْ بَلَغَ مِنْ وَلَدِهٖ وَمَنْ لَمْ يَبْلُغْ مِنْهُمْ كَتَبَهَا فِيْ صَلٍّ ثُمَّ عَلَّقَهَا فِيْ عُنُقِهٖ۔ (رواه ابوداؤد و الترمذی و هذا لفظه)

2477. Sayyiduna Amr ibn shu'ayb رحمه الله narrated from his father, from his grandfather (Abdullah) رضی الله عنه that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم said that if anyone had a nightmare then he must pray:

اَعُوْذُ بِكَلِمَاتِ اللّٰهِ التَّامَّاتِ مِنْ غَضَبِهٖ وَعِقَابِهٖ وَشَرِّ عِبَادِهٖ وَمِنْ هَمَزَاتِ الشَّيَاطِيْنِ وَاَنْ يَّحْضُرُوْنِ

{I seek refuge in the perfect words of Allah from His wrath and His retribution, and the mischief of His creatures and from the temptations of the devils and that they come to me.}

After that they will not harm him.

So, Abdullah Ibn Amr رضی الله عنه used to teach this supplication to his grown up children and, after writing it down on some material, he hung it on the neck of those who had not attained puberty.[2]

COMMENTARY: We know from this hadith (tradition) that it is allowed to put a ta'widh (talisman) round the neck on which verses of the Quran or Allah's names are written down. It is forbidden to hang other kinds of amulets.

INTERCESSION OF PARADISE & HELL FOR SUPPLICANTS

(٢٤٧٨) وَعَنْ اَنَسٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ سَاَلَ اللّٰهَ الْجَنَّةَ ثَلَاثَ مَرَّاتٍ قَالَتِ الْجَنَّةُ اَللّٰهُمَّ اَدْخِلْهُ الْجَنَّةَ وَمَنِ اسْتَجَارَ مِنَ النَّارِ ثَلَاثَ مَرَّاتٍ قَالَتِ النَّارُ اَللّٰهُمَّ اَجِرْهُ مِنَ النَّارِ۔

(رواه الترمذی وا لنسای)

2478. Sayyiduna Anas رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم said, "If anyone prays to Allah asking Him for paradise three times, then paradise says:

اَللّٰهُمَّ اِنِّیْ اَسْاَلُكَ الْجَنَّةَ

{O Allah admit him to paradise}

---

[1] Tirmidhi # 3494.

[2] Tirmidhi # 3539, Musnad Ahmad 2-181.

And if any one pray to Allah, three times, seeking to be delivered from hell, then hell says:

اَللّٰهُمَّ اَدْخِلْنِي الْجَنَّةَ

{O Allah, protect him from hell.}[1]

COMMENTARY: Prayer may be made three times in one sitting or in different assemblies. However, it should be from the core of the heart with humility and submissiveness.

SECTION III اَلْفَصْلُ الثَّالِثُ

PROTECTION FROM A SPELL

(٢٤٧٩) عَنِ الْقَعْقَاعِ اَنَّ كَعْبَ الْاَحْبَارِ قَالَ لَوْ لَا كَلِمَاتٌ اَقُوْلُهُنَّ لَجَعَلَتْنِي يَهُوْدُ حِمَارًا فَقِيْلَ لَهٗ مَا هُنَّ قَالَ اَعُوْذُ بِوَجْهِ اللّٰهِ الْعَظِيْمِ الَّذِيْ لَيْسَ شَيْئٌ اَعْظَمَ مِنْهُ وَبِكَلِمَاتِ اللّٰهِ التَّامَّاتِ الَّتِي لَا يُجَاوِزُ هُنَّ بَرٌّ وَلَا فَاجِرٌ وَبِاَسْمَاءِ اللّٰهِ الْحُسْنٰى مَا عَلِمْتُ مِنْهَا وَمَا لَمْ اَعْلَمْ مِنْ شَرِّ مَا خَلَقَ وَذَرَاَ وَبَرَاَ۔ (رواه مالك)

2479. Sayyiduna All-Qaqa رحمه الله narrated that Sayyiduna Ka'b al-Ahbar رضى الله عنه said, "But for certain words that I recite, the Jews would have turned me into as ass." He was asked, "What are they?" He said:

اَعُوْذُ بِوَجْهِ اللّٰهِ الْعَظِيْمِ الَّذِيْ لَيْسَ شَيْئٌ اَعْظَمَ مِنْهُ وَبِكَلِمَاتِ اللّٰهِ التَّامَّاتِ الَّتِي لَا يُجَاوِزُ هُنَّ بَرٌّ وَلَا فَاجِرٌ وَبِاَسْمَاءِ اللّٰهِ الْحُسْنٰى مَا عَلِمْتُ مِنْهَا وَمَا لَمْ اَعْلَمْ مِنْ شَرِّ مَا خَلَقَ وَذَرَاَ وَبَرَاَ

{I seek refuge in the countenance of Allah, the Mighty, there being none mightier than Him, and in the perfect words of Allah which none, pious or sinner, can exceed, and in the beautiful names of Allah of which I know and of which I do not know, from the evil of what He has created, originated and spread.}[2]

COMMENTARY: Ka'b al Ahbar was a wise man of the Jews He lived in the Prophet's times but remained deprived of seeing him and keeping his company. He became a Muslim in the times of Sayyiduna Umar رضى الله عنه. The Jews then hated him and, according to him, if he had not made this prayer, they would have turned him into an ass, meaning a despised and stupid one like a donkey.

The perfect words of Allah are the words of the Quran. No one can exceed them. This means that no one beyond their reward, punishment, etc. All those things that Allah has said about giving reward or punishment to anyone, or mentioned any other thing, they will all transpire without an element of doubt. There can be no change in that.

Or, Allah's perfect words are His attributes and His knowledge. Nothing escapes them and they have encompassed all things.

REFUGE FROM DISBELIEF

(٢٤٨٠) وَعَنْ مُسْلِمِ بْنِ اَبِي بَكْرَةَ قَالَ كَانَ اَبِي يَقُوْلُ فِي دُبُرِ الصَّلٰوةِ اَللّٰهُمَّ اِنِّي اَعُوْذُ بِكَ مِنَ الْكُفْرِ وَالْفَقْرِ وَعَذَابِ الْقَبْرِ فَكُنْتُ اَقُوْلُهُنَّ فَقَالَ اَيْ بُنَيَّ عَمَّنْ اَخَذْتَ هٰذَا قُلْتُ عَنْكَ قَالَ اِنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ

---

1 Tirmidhi # 2581, Ibn Majah # 4340, Nasa'i # 5531, Musnad Ahmad # 13172.

2 Muwatta Maalik # 51-4-12.

عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ كَانَ يَقُوْلُهُنَّ فِي دُبُرِ الصَّلٰوةِ۔ رَوَاهُ النَّسَائِيُّ وَالتِّرْمِذِيُّ إِلَّا أَنَّهُ لَمْ يَذْكُرْ فِي دُبُرِ الصَّلٰوةِ وَرَوَى

أَحْمَدُ لَفْظَ الْحَدِيْثِ وَعِنْدَهُ فِي دُبُرِ كُلِّ صَلَاةٍ۔

2480. Sayyiduna Muslim ibn Abu Bakrah رحمه الله narrated that his father used to pray after the salah (prayer):

اَللّٰهُمَّ إِنِّي أَعُوْذُبِكَ مِنَ الْكُفْرِ وَالْفَقْرِ وَعَذَابِ الْقَبْرِ

{O Allah, I seek refuge in you from infidelity and poverty and from the punishment in the grave}

So, Muslim also began to pray likewise and he asked him. "O son, from whom have you got these?" He said, "From you!" He said, "Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم used to pray in these words after (every) salah (prayer)."[1]

The version in Tirmidhi does not have after salah (prayer).

Ahmad's version has only the hadith (tradition) (not his father's question and his answer and the words 'after every salah (prayer).'

(٢٤٨١) وَعَنْ أَبِي سَعِيْدٍ قَالَ سَمِعْتُ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُوْلُ أَعُوْذُ بِاللّٰهِ مِنَ الْكُفْرِ وَالدَّيْنِ

فَقَالَ رَجُلٌ يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ أَتَعْدِلُ الْكُفْرَ بِالدَّيْنِ قَالَ نَعَمْ وَفِي رِوَايَةٍ اَللّٰهُمَّ إِنِّي أَعُوْذُبِكَ مِنَ الْكُفْرِ وَالْفَقْرِ

قَالَ رَجُلٌ وَيَعْدِلَانِ قَالَ نَعَمْ۔ (رواه النسائی)

2481. Sayyiduna Abu Sa'eed رضی الله عنه narrated that he heard Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم pray:

أَعُوْذُ بِاللّٰهِ مِنَ الْكُفْرِ وَالدَّيْنِ

{I seek refuge in Allah from infidelity and debt.}

Someone queried, "O Messenger of Allah, do not bracket infidelity and debt together?" He said, "Yes!" According to another version (he prayed):

اَللّٰهُمَّ إِنِّي أَعُوْذُبِكَ مِنَ الْكُفْرِ وَالْفَقْرِ

{O Allah, I seek refuge in you from infidelity and poverty.}

A man asked, "Are they at par?" He said, "Yes!"[2]

COMMENTARY: Debt is placed with disbelief because a debtor speaks lies, cheats and retracts on his promise. These are the worst kind of characteristics that are found in infidels and hypocrites.

As for poverty, it makes a person impatient and causes his destiny. He utters words that lead to disbelief.

---

[1] Abu Dawud # 5090, Nasa'i # 5405, Musnad Ahmad 5-36.

[2] Nasa'i # 5485, Musnad Ahmad 3-38.

CHAPTER - VIII

COMPREHENSIVE SUPPLICATION (SUCCINCT ALL-EMBRACING PRAYERS) بَابُ جَامِعِ الدُّعَآءِ

SECTION I اَلْفَصْلُ الْاَوَّلُ

PROPHET'S صلى الله عليه وسلم PRAYER FOR FORGIVENESS

(٢٤٨٢) عَنْ اَبِي مُوْسَى الْاَشْعَرِيِّ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَنَّهُ كَانَ يَدْعُو بِهٰذَ الدُّعَآءِ اَللّٰهُمَّ اغْفِرْلِيْ خَطِيْئَتِيْ وَجَهْلِيْ وَاِسْرَافِيْ فِيْ اَمْرِيْ وَمَا اَنْتَ اَعْلَمُ بِهٖ مِنِّيْ اَللّٰهُمَّ اغْفِرْلِي جِدِّى وَهَزْلِي وَ خَطَائِيْ وَعَمَدِى وَكُلُّ ذٰلِكَ عِنْدِى اَللّٰهُمَّ اغْفِرْلِي مَاقَدَّمْتُ وَمَا اَخَّرْتُ وَمَا اَسْرَرْتُ وَمَا اَعْلَنْتُ وَمَا اَنْتَ اَعْلَمُ بِهٖ مِنِّيْ اَنْتَ الْمُقَدِّمُ وَاَنْتَ الْمُؤَخِّرُ وَاَنْتَ عَلٰى كُلِّ شَيْئٍ قَدِيْرٌ۔ (متفق عليه)

2482. Sayyiduna Abu Musa al-Ash'ary رضى الله عنه narrated that the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم used to make this supplication:

اَللّٰهُمَّ اغْفِرْلِيْ خَطِيْئَتِيْ وَجَهْلِيْ وَاِسْرَافِيْ فِيْ اَمْرِيْ وَمَا اَنْتَ اَعْلَمُ بِهٖ مِنِّيْ اَللّٰهُمَّ اغْفِرْلِي جِدِّى وَهَزْلِي وَ خَطَائِيْ وَعَمَدِى وَكُلُّ ذٰلِكَ عِنْدِيْ اَللّٰهُمَّ اغْفِرْلِي مَاقَدَّمْتُ وَمَا اَخَّرْتُ وَمَا اَسْرَرْتُ وَمَا اَعْلَنْتُ وَمَا اَنْتَ اَعْلَمُ بِهٖ مِنِّيْ اَنْتَ الْمُقَدِّمُ وَاَنْتَ الْمُؤَخِّرُ وَاَنْتَ عَلٰى كُلِّ شَيْئٍ قَدِيْرٌ

{O Allah, forgive me my sin, my ignorance, my extravagance in my affairs and that which you know better than I know. O Allah, forgive me sins committed deliberately and my sins committed lightheartedly, my unintentional sins and my intentional sins. All these sins are committed by me. O Allah, forgive me my earlier sins and my previous sins, what I concealed and what I declared openly, and which you know better than I know. You are the one who advances and you are the one who puts back, and you are over all things powerful}[1]

COMMENTARY: This is how the ummah must seek forgiveness form Allah for their wrongs acknowledging that

وَكُلُّ ذٰلِكَ عِنْدِيْ

{All these things are found in me}

The Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم spoke these words to demonstrate his submission and humility to Allah. He was, otherwise, innocent of all sins.

GOOD OF THE TWO WORLDS

(٢٤٨٣) وَعَنْ اَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ كَانَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَدْعُوْ اَللّٰهُمَّ اَصْلِحْ لِيْ دِيْنِي الَّذِى هُوَ عِصْمَةُ اَمْرِيْ وَاَصْلِحْ لِيْ دُنْيَايَ الَّتِي فِيْهَا مَعَاشِي وَاَصْلِحْ لِيْ اٰخِرَتِي الَّتِي فِيْهَا مَعَادِيْ وَاجْعَلِ الْحَيٰوةَ زِيَادَةً لِيْ فِيْ كُلِّ خَيْرٍ وَاجْعَلِ الْمَوْتَ رَاحَةً لِي مِنْ كُلِّ شَرٍّ۔ (رواه مسلم)

---

[1] Bukhari # 6398, Muslim # 70.2719, Musnad Ahmad 4-417.

2483. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم was used to pray:

اَصْلِحْ لِيْ دِيْنِيَ الَّذِى هُوَ عِصْمَةُ اَمْرِىْ وَاَصْلِحْ لِيْ دُنْيَاىَ الَّتِي فِيْهَا مَعَاشِي وَاَصْلِحْ لِيْ اٰخِرَتِي الَّتِي فِيْهَا مَعَادِىْ

وَاجْعَلِ الْحَيٰوةَ زِيَادَةً لِّيْ فِي كُلِّ خَيْرٍ وَاجْعَلِ الْمَوْتَ رَاحَةً لِي مِنْ كُلِّ شَرٍّ

{O Allah, correct for me my faith which is the safe guard of my affairs correct for me my world in which lies my livelihood. Correct for me my next world to which is my final destination. And, cause for me life to be a means of increase in every things that is good, and cause death a means of rest me from every evil.}[1]

COMMENTARY: Life of this world is put right with a lawful livelihood earned through clean mean. It promotes obedience clean means. It promotes obedience and uninterrupted worship. The next life is put right by such work as delivers one from punishment. Death will bring rest if life terminates with the kalimah and correct faith.

PRAYER FOR GUIDANCE

(٢٤٨٤) وَعَنْ عَبْدِ اللّٰهِ بْنِ مَسْعُوْدٍ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَنَّهُ كَانَ يَقُوْلُ اَللّٰهُمَّ اِنِّيْ اَسْأَلُكَ الْهُدٰى

وَالتُّقٰى وَالعَفَافَ وَالْغِنٰى ـ (رواه مسلم)

2484. Sayyiduna Abdullah ibn Mas'ud رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم used to pray.

اَللّٰهُمَّ اِنِّيْ اَسْأَلُكَ الْهُدٰى وَالتُّقٰى وَالعَفَافَ وَالْغِنٰى

{O Allah, I ask you for guidance, righteousness, piety and freedom from want.}[2]

(٢٤٨٥) وَعَنْ عَلِيٍّ قَالَ قَالَ لِي رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قُلْ اَللّٰهُمَّ اهْدِنِي وَسَدِّدْنِي وَاذْكُرْ بِالْهُدىٰ

هِدَايَتَكَ الطَّرِيْقَ وَبِالسَّدَادِ سَدَادَ السَّهْمِ ـ (رواه مسلم)

2485. Sayyiduna Ali رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم instructed him to pray:

اَللّٰهُمَّ اهْدِنِيْ وَسَدِّدْنِي

{O Allah, guide me and set me aright,}
"remembering that you are being guided when you ask for guidance, and remember on arrow's ability to get the target when you ask to be set aright."[3]

COMMENTARY: When he made the prayer, he ought to bear in mind that he was asking guidance that led to the right path. And, he ought to conceive that he was asking to be set aright like a straight unwavering arrow. Allah will give perfect guidance and set aright perfectly.

PRAYER OF A NEW MUSLIM

(٢٤٨٦) وَعَنْ اَبِي مَالِكٍ الْاَشْجَعِيِّ عَنْ اَبِيْهِ قَالَ كَانَ الرَّجُلُ اِذَا اَسْلَمَ عَلَّمَهُ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ

---

[1] Muslim # 71-2721.

[2] Muslim # 72.2721, Tirmidhi # 3500, Ibn Majah # 3832, Musnad Ahmad 1-411.

[3] Muslim # 78.2725, Abu Dawud # 4225.

الصَّلَاةَ ثُمَّ اَمَرَهُ اَنْ يَدْعُوَ بِهٰؤُلَاءِ الْكَلِمَاتِ اَللّٰهُمَّ اغْفِرْ لِي وَارْحَمْنِي وَاهْدِنِي وَعَافِنِي وَارْزُقْنِي۔ (رواه مسلم)

2486. Sayyiduna Abu Maalik Al-Ashja'I رحمه الله narrated that his father said that whenever a man embraced Islam, the prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم taught him the salah (prayer) and instructed him to pray:

اَللّٰهُمَّ اغْفِرْ لِي وَارْحَمْنِي وَاهْدِنِي وَعَافِنِي وَارْزُقْنِي

{O Allah, forgive me, have mercy on me, guide me, give me security (and sound health) and bestow on me provision.}[1]

PRAYER COVERING ALL DEMANDS OF BOTH WORLDS

(٢٤٨٧) وَعَنْ اَنَسٍ قَالَ كَانَ اَكْثَرُ دُعَاءِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَللّٰهُمَّ اٰتِنَا فِي الدُّنْيَا حَسَنَةً وَّفِي الْاٰخِرَةِ حَسَنَةً وَّقِنَا عَذَابَ النَّارِ۔ (متفق عليه)

2487. Sayyiduna Anas رضى الله عنه narrated that the supplication made by the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم very often was;

اَللّٰهُمَّ اٰتِنَا فِي الدُّنْيَا حَسَنَةً وَّفِي الْاٰخِرَةِ حَسَنَةً وَّقِنَا عَذَابَ النَّارِ

{O Allah, grant me what is good in this world, and what is good in the next world, and preserve us from punishment of hell.}[2]

COMMENTARY: The Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم made this supplication very often because it is a comprehensive prayer. Moreover, it is also revealed in the Quran.

If anyone sits alone and contemplates with a clean inside over the blessings of both worlds and makes this prayer, he will observe that he receives perfect peace and radiance when he makes it.

SECTION II اَلْفَصْلُ الثَّانِي

AN ALL EMBRACING SUPPLICATION

(٢٤٨٨) عَنِ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ قَالَ كَانَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَدْعُو يَقُوْلُ رَبِّ اَعِنِّي وَلَا تُعِنْ عَلَيَّ وَانْصُرْنِي وَلَا تَنْصُرْ عَلَيَّ وَامْكُرْ لِي وَلَا تَمْكُرْ عَلَيَّ وَاهْدِنِي وَيَسِّرِ الْهُدٰى لِي وَانْصُرْنِي عَلٰى مَنْ بَغٰى عَلَيَّ رَبِّ اجْعَلْنِي لَكَ شَاكِرًا لَكَ ذَاكِرًا لَكَ رَاهِبًا لَكَ مِطْوَاعًا لَكَ مُخْبِتًا اِلَيْكَ اَوَّاهًا مُنِيْبًا رَبِّ تَقَبَّلْ تَوْبَتِي وَاغْسِلْ حَوْبَتِي وَاَجِبْ دَعْوَتِي وَثَبِّتْ حُجَّتِي وَسَدِّدْ لِسَانِي وَاهْدِ قَلْبِي وَاسْلُلْ سَخِيْمَةَ صَدْرِيْ۔ (رواه الترمذی وابوداؤد وابن ماجة)

2488. Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضى الله عنه narrated that the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم used to pray in these words:

رَبِّ اَعِنِّي وَلَا تُعِنْ عَلَيَّ وَانْصُرْنِي وَلَا تَنْصُرْ عَلَيَّ وَامْكُرْ لِي وَلَا تَمْكُرْ عَلَيَّ وَاهْدِنِي وَيَسِّرِ الهدٰى لِي وَانْصُرْنِي عَلٰى مَنْ بَغٰى عَلَيَّ رَبِّ اجْعَلْنِي لَكَ شَاكِرًا لَكَ ذَاكِرًا لَكَ رَاهِبًا لَكَ مِطْوَاعًا لَكَ مُخْبِتًا اِلَيْكَ

---

[1] Muslim # 35-697.

[2] Bukhari # 6389, Muslim # 27.2690, Tirmidhi # 3498, Musnad Ahmad 3-208.

اَوَّاهًا مُنِيْبًا رَبِّ تَقَبَّلْ تَوبَتِي وَاغْسِلْ حَوبَتِي وَاَجِبْ دَعْوَتِي وَثَبِّتْ حُجَّتِي وَسَدِّدْ لِسَانِي وَاهْدِ قَلْبِي وَاسْلُلْ سَخِيْمَةَ صَدْرِيْ

{My Lord, help me but do not help against me. Give me victory but not give victory over me. Scheme for me but do not do so against me. Guide me and make guidance easy for me. Help me against those who wrong me. O my Lord, cause me to be grateful to you, one who remembers you, who fears you, who obeys you, who is humble before you, who is earnest in supplication to you and repentant. My Lord, accept my repentance, cleanse my sins, grant my prayers and make my plea strong and let my tongue be true. Guide my heart and remove envy from my bosom}[1]

COMMENTARY: While the words (وَامْكُرْ لِي) mean 'and conspire for me'...., when they are used for Allah, however, they mean; 'send down punishment on enemies of Islam from such places as they cannot conceive.'

The words 'envy from any bosom' are (سَخِيْمَةَ صَدْرِيْ) and these words mean, actually, blackness of the heart. 'Blackness' represents 'grudge, envy, anger, jealousy.'

AFTER FAITH SECURITY IS GREATEST ASSET

(٢٤٨٩) وَعَنْ اَبِي بَكْرَةَ قَالَ قَامَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ عَلَى الْمِنْبَرِ ثُمَّ بَكَى فَقَالَ سَلُوا اللّٰهَ الْعَفْوَ وَالْعَافِيَةَ فَاِنَّ اَحَدًا لَمْ يُعْطَ بَعْدَ الْيَقِيْنِ خَيْرًا مِنَ الْعَافِيَةِ۔ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَابْنُ مَاجَةَ وَقَالَ التِّرْمِذِيُّ هٰذَا حَدِيْثٌ حَسَنٌ غَرِيْبٌ اِسْنَادًا۔

2489. Sayyiduna Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم stood on the pulpit and wept. He said, "Pray to Allah for forgiveness and health, because, after being given faith, none of you is given anything better than health."[2]

COMMENTARY: The Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم was aware that his ummah would fall prey to base desires, greed and indecency. He wept because of that, for, he had brought them out of ignorance into Islam which meant guidance, self sacrifice, honesty and self-respect. He had molded them as models of these noble characteristics. He realized that a time would come when they would be trapped by the devil. Hence, he instructed them to ask Allah for pardon and sound health which is aafiyah. This includes security.

BEST SUPPLICATION IS FOR SECURITY & HEALTH

(٢٤٩٠) وَعَنْ اَنَسٍ اَنَّ رَجُلًا جَاءَ اِلَى النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَقَالَ يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ اَيُّ الدُّعَاءِ اَفْضَلُ قَالَ سَلْ رَبَّكَ الْعَافِيَةَ وَالْمُعَافَاةَ فِي الدُّنْيَا وَالْاٰخِرَةِ ثُمَّ اَتَاهُ فِي الْيَوْمِ الثَّانِي فَقَالَ يَارَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ اَيُّ الدُّعَاءِ اَفْضَلُ فَقَالَ لَهُ مِثْلَ ذٰلِكَ ثُمَّ اَتَاهُ فِي الْيَوْمِ الثَّالِثِ فَقَالَ لَهُ مِثْلَ ذٰلِكَ قَالَ فَاِذَا اُعْطِيْتَ الْعَافِيَةَ وَالْمُعَافَاةَ فِي الدُّنْيَا وَ الْاٰخِرَةِ فَقَدْ اَفْلَحْتَ۔ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَابْنُ مَاجَةَ وَقَالَ التِّرْمِذِيُّ هٰذَا حَدِيْثٌ حَسَنٌ غَرِيْبٌ اِسْنَادًا۔

2490. Sayyiduna Anas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that aman came to the Prophet Muhammad

---

[1] Tirmidhi # 2562, Abu Dawud # 1510, Ibn Majah # 3830, Musnad Ahmad 1-227, Manners in Islam # 665 (Darul Isha'at Karachi)

[2] Tirmidhi # 3569, Ibn Majah # 3849, Musnad Ahmad 1/3.

صلى الله عليه وسلم and asked, "O Messenger of Allah, which supplication is the most excellent?' He said, "Pray to your Lord for health and security in this world and the next." Next day, the man came to him again and put the same question. He told him the like of what he had said. Again, he came on the third day and got a similar reply with the additional words, "If you are given health and security in this world then, indeed you have succeeded."[1]

PRAY FOR LOVE OF ALLAH

(٢٤٩١) وَعَنْ عَبْدِاللّٰهِ بْنِ يَزِيْدِ الْخَطْمِيِّ عَنْ رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَنَّهُ كَانَ يَقُوْلُ فِي دُعَائِهِ اَللّٰهُمَّ ارْزُقْنِي حُبَّكَ وَحُبَّ مَنْ يَنْفَعُنِي حُبُّهُ عِنْدَكَ اَللّٰهُمَّ مَا رَزَقْتَنِي مِمَّا اُحِبُّ فَاجْعَلْهُ قُوَّةً لِي فِيْمَا تُحِبُّ اَللّٰهُمَّ مَازَوَيْتَ عَنِّي مِمَّا اُحِبُّ فَاجْعَلْهُ فَرَاغًا لِي فِيْمَا تُحِبُّ۔ (رواه الترمذی)

2491. Sayyiduna Abdullah ibn Yazid al-Khatmi رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم used to make this supplication:

اَللّٰهُمَّ ارْزُقْنِي حُبَّكَ وَحُبَّ مَنْ يَنْفَعُنِي حُبُّهُ عِنْدَكَ اَللّٰهُمَّ مَا رَزَقْتَنِي مِمَّا اُحِبُّ فَاجْعَلْهُ قُوَّةً لِي فِيْمَا تُحِبُّ اَللّٰهُمَّ مَازَوَيْتَ عَنِّي مِمَّا اُحِبُّ فَاجْعَلْهُ فَرَاغًا لِي فِيْمَا تُحِبُّ

{O Allah, grant me your love and love of him whose love will benefit me in your sight.
O Allah, cause whatever you grant me of that which I love to be strength in what you love.
O Allah, cause whatever you deny me of that which I love to be a means tome to devote myself to what you love.}[2]

AN EXCELLENT SUPPLICATION

(٢٤٩٢) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عُمَرَ قَالَ قَلَّمَا كَانَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُوْمُ مِنْ مَجْلِسٍ حَتّٰى يَدْعُوْ بِهٰؤُلَاءِ الدَّعْوَاتِ لِاَصْحَابِهِ اَللّٰهُمَّ اقْسِمْ لَنَا مِنْ خَشْيَتِكَ مَاتَحُوْلُ بِهِ بَيْنَنَا وَبَيْنَ مَعَاصِيْكَ وَمِنْ طَاعَتِكَ مَاتُبَلِّغُنَا بِهِ جَنَّتَكَ وَمِنَ الْيَقِيْنِ مَاتُهَوِّنُ بِهِ عَلَيْنَا مُصِيْبَاتِ الدُّنْيَا وَمَتِّعْنَا بِاَسْمَاعِنَا وَاَبْصَارِنَا وَقُوَّتِنَا مَا اَحْيَيْتَنَا وَاجْعَلْهُ الْوَارِثَ مِنَّا وَاجْعَلْ ثَارَنَا عَلٰى مَنْ ظَلَمَنَا وَانْصُرْنَا عَلٰى مَنْ عَادَانَا وَلَا تَجْعَلْ مُصِيْبَتَنَا فِي دِيْنِنَا وَلَا تَجْعَلِ الدُّنْيَا اَكْبَرَ هَمِّنَا وَلَا مَبْلَغَ عِلْمِنَا وَلَا تُسَلِّطْ عَلَيْنَا مَنْ لَّا يَرْحَمُنَا۔ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَقَالَ حَدِيْثٌ حَسَنٌ غَرِيْبٌ۔

2492. Sayyiduna Ibn Umar رضی الله عنه narrated that seldom did Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم arise from an assembly without making this supplication for his sahabah: رضی الله عنه

اَللّٰهُمَّ اقْسِمْ لَنَا مِنْ خَشْيَتِكَ مَاتَحُوْلُ بِهِ بَيْنَنَا وَبَيْنَ مَعَاصِيْكَ وَمِنْ طَاعَتِكَ مَاتُبَلِّغُنَا بِهِ جَنَّتَكَ وَمِنَ الْيَقِيْنِ مَاتُهَوِّنُ بِهِ عَلَيْنَا مُصِيْبَاتِ الدُّنْيَا وَمَتِّعْنَا بِاَسْمَاعِنَا وَاَبْصَارِنَا وَقُوَّتِنَا مَا اَحْيَيْتَنَا وَاجْعَلْهُ الْوَارِثَ مِنَّا وَاجْعَلْ ثَارَنَا عَلٰى مَنْ ظَلَمَنَا وَانْصُرْنَا عَلٰى مَنْ عَادَانَا وَلَا تَجْعَلْ مُصِيْبَتَنَا فِي دِيْنِنَا وَلَا تَجْعَلِ الدُّنْيَا اَكْبَرَ هَمِّنَا

---

[1] Tirmidhi # 3523, Ibn Majah # 3848.

[2] Tirmidhi # 3502.

وَلَا مَبْلَغَ عِلْمِنَا وَلَا تُسَلِّطْ عَلَيْنَا مَنْ لَا يَرْحَمُنَا

{O Allah, cause us to have as much portion of your fear as becomes a barrier between us and disobedience to you and as much of obedience to you as may lead us to paradise and as much of faith as removes hardships of this world from us. And, let us benefit from our hearing, our sight and our vitality as long as you cause us to live and cause them to survive us. And, seize revenge from those who wrong us and help us against those who antagonize us. And do not cause our difficulties to descend on our religion and do not make this world our chief ambition and do not make it the limit of our knowledge. And impose not on us one who would not have mercy on us.}[1]

COMMENTARY: The prayer asks for faith to such an extent that the hardship of the world and its problems seem to be very easy. If anyone is convinced that Allah is Ar-Razzaq (The Provider) then he will not be disturbed if he faces poverty. His difficulties will become soft. The prayer also asks for being oriented in such a way that one does not worry much over worldly affairs, beyond the necessary.

PRAYER FOR KNOWLEDGE & DEEDS

(٢٤٩٣) وَعَنْ اَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ كَانَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُوْلُ اَللّٰهُمَّ انْفَعْنِي بِمَا عَلَّمْتَنِي وَ عَلِّمْنِي مَا يَنْفَعُنِي وَزِدْنِي عِلْمًا اَلْحَمْدُ لِلّٰهِ عَلٰى كُلِّ حَالٍ وَ اَعُوْذُ بِاللّٰهِ مِنْ حَالِ اَهْلِ النَّارِ۔ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَابْنُ مَاجَةَ وَقَالَ التِّرْمِذِيُّ هٰذَا حَدِيْثٌ غَرِيْبٌ اِسْنَادًا۔

2493. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم used to pray:

اَللّٰهُمَّ انْفَعْنِي بِمَا عَلَّمْتَنِي وَ عَلِّمْنِي مَا يَنْفَعُنِي وَزِدْنِي عِلْمًا اَلْحَمْدُ لِلّٰهِ عَلٰى كُلِّ حَالٍ وَ اَعُوْذُ بِاللّٰهِ مِنْ حَالِ اَهْلِ النَّارِ

{O Allah, give me benefit from that which you have taught me, and teach me that which will benefit me, and increase me in knowledge. Praise belongs to Allah in every condition and I seek refuge in Allah from the condition of the dwellers of hell}[2]

PRAYER FOR BLESSING & HONOUR

(٢٤٩٤) وَعَنْ عُمَرَ بْنِ الْخَطَّابِ قَالَ كَانَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اِذَا اُنْزِلَ عَلَيْهِ الْوَحْيُ سُمِعَ عِنْدَ وَجْهِهٖ دَوِيٌّ كَدَوِيِّ النَّحْلِ فَاُنْزِلَ عَلَيْهِ يَوْمًا فَمَكَثْنَا سَاعَةً فَسُرِّيَ عَنْهُ فَاسْتَقْبَلَ الْقِبْلَةَ وَرَفَعَ يَدَيْهِ وَقَالَ اَللّٰهُمَّ زِدْنَا وَلَا تَنْقُصْنَا وَاَكْرِمْنَا وَلَا تُهِنَّا وَاَعْطِنَا وَلَا تَحْرِمْنَا وَ اٰثِرْنَا وَلَا تُؤْثِرْ عَلَيْنَا وَارْضِنَا وَارْضَ عَنَّا ثُمَّ قَالَ اُنْزِلَ عَلَيَّ عَشْرُ اٰيَاتٍ مَنْ اَقَامَهُنَّ دَخَلَ الْجَنَّةَ ثُمَّ قَرَاَ قَدْ اَفْلَحَ الْمُؤْمِنُوْنَ حَتّٰى خَتَمَ عَشْرَ اٰيَاتٍ۔ (رواه احمد والترمذی)

2494. Sayyiduna Umar ibn Khattab رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that whenever Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم received a revelation, a sound was heard near his face resembling the humming of the bees. One day, it came to him and they waited (near him) for a while but it went away from him. He faced the qiblah, raised his hands and prayer:

---

[1] Tirmidhi # 3513.

[2] Tirmidhi # 3610, Ibn Majah # 251.

اَللّٰهُمَّ زِدْنَا وَلَا تَنْقُصْنَا وَاَكْرِمْنَا وَلَا تُهِنَّا وَاَعْطِنَا وَلَا تَحْرِمْنَا وَ اٰثِرْنَا وَلَا تُؤْثِرْ عَلَيْنَا وَارْضِنَا وَارْضَ عَنَّا

{O Allah give us more but do not give us less. Raise us in honour but do not humiliate us. Grant us but do not deprive us. Prefer us but do not prefer others over us. Please us and be pleased with us}

Then he said, "Then he said, "Ten verses have been revealed to me. He who abides by them will enter paradise," and he recited:

قَدْ اَفْلَحَ الْمُؤْمِنُوْنَ

{Prosperous indeed are the believers} till he finished the ten verses. (23: 1-10)[1]

COMMENTARY: The revelation was brought to the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم by Jibril عليه السلام. The sahabah (Prophet's companions) رضى الله عنهم heard him but could not decipher his voice and Sayyiduna Umar ibn al-Khattab رضى الله عنه described it as the humming of the bees.

The ten verses that were revealed to the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم and the hadith (tradition) gives glad tiding to those who abide by them are:

قَدْ اَفْلَحَ الْمُؤْمِنُوْنَ الَّذِيْنَ هُمْ فِيْ صَلٰوتِهِمْ خَاشِعُوْنَ * وَالَّذِيْنَ هُمْ عَنِ اللَّغْوِ مُعْرِضُوْنَ * وَالَّذِيْنَ هُمْ لِلزَّكٰوةِ فَاعِلُوْنَ * وَالَّذِيْنَ هُمْ لِفُرُوْجِهِمْ حَافِظُوْنَ * اِلَّا عَلٰى اَزْوَاجِهِمْ اَوْمَا مَلَكَتْ اَيْمَانُهُمْ فَاِنَّهُمْ غَيْرُ مَلُوْمِيْنَ * فَمَنِ ابْتَغٰى وَرَاءَ ذٰلِكَ فَاُولٰئِكَ هُمُ الْعَادُوْنَ * وَالَّذِيْنَ هُمْ لِاَمَانَاتِهِمْ وَعَهْدِهِمْ رَاعُوْنَ * وَالَّذِيْنَ هُمْ عَلٰى صَلٰوتِهِمْ يُحَافِظُوْنَ * اُولٰئِكَ هُمُ الْوَارِثُوْنَ * الَّذِيْنَ يَرِثُوْنَ الْفِرْدَوْسَ هُمْ فِيْهَا خٰلِدُوْنَ

{Prosperous indeed are the believers, those who in their salah (prayer) are humble, and those who from (everything) vain turn away, and those who of zakah are doers, and those who of their private parts are guards, except in regard to their spouses or those whom their night hands possess- for then surely they are not blameworthy – but whosoever seeks beyond that, so those – they are the transgressors, and those who of their trusts and covenants are preservers, and those who of their salawat are observant, those! They are inheritors} (23:1-10)

SECTION III — اَلْفَصْلُ الثَّالِثُ

PRAYER FOR EYE-SIGHT

(٢٤٩٥) عَنْ عُثْمَانَ بْنِ حُنَيْفٍ قَالَ اِنَّ رَجُلًا ضَرِيْرًا لبَصَرِ اَتَى النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَقَالَ ادْعُ اللّٰهَ اَنْ يُعَافِيَنِيْ فَقَالَ اِنْ شِئْتَ دَعَوْتُ وَ اِنْ شِئْتَ صَبَرْتَ فَهُوَ خَيْرٌ لَكَ قَالَ فَادْعُهُ قَالَ فَاَمَرَهُ اَنْ يَتَوَضَّأَ فَيُحْسِنَ الْوُضُوءَ وَيَدْعُوَ بِهٰذَا الدُّعَاءِ اَللّٰهُمَّ اِنِّيْ اَسْاَلُكَ وَاَتَوَجَّهُ اِلَيْكَ بِنَبِيِّكَ مُحَمَّدٍ نَبِيِّ الرَّحْمَةِ اِنِّيْ تَوَجَّهْتُ بِكَ اِلٰى رَبِّيْ لِيَقْضِيَ لِيْ فِيْ حَاجَتِيْ هٰذِهٖ اَللّٰهُمَّ فَشَفِّعْهُ فِيَّ ـ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَقَالَ هٰذَا حَدِيْثٌ حَسَنٌ

[1] Tirmidhi # 3184, Musnad Ahmad 1-34.

صَحِيْحٌ غَرِيْبٌ۔

2495. Sayyiduna Uthman ibn Hunayf رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that a blind man came to the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم and requested him, "Pray to Allah that he may cure me." He said, "If you like, I shall pray for you, but if you like, you may show patience and that is better for you." The man insisted, "pray for me." So, he instructed him to make ablution and make it perfect and supplicate in these words:

اَللّٰهُمَّ اِنِّیْ اَسْأَلُكَ وَاَتَوَجَّهُ اِلَيْكَ بِنَبِيِّكَ مُحَمَّدٍ نَبِيِّ الرَّحْمَةِ اِنِّیْ تَوَجَّهْتُ بِكَ اِلٰى رَبِّیْ لِيَقْضِیَ لِیْ فِیْ حَاجَتِیْ

هٰذِهٖ اَللّٰهُمَّ فَشَفِّعْهُ فِیَّ

{O Allah, I pray you - and I beseech your by virtue of your Prophet Muhammad Prophet of mercy. I turn, by mean of you (O Prophet)صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم to my Lord to have my need, this one, granted to me O Allah let him be an intercessor for me.}[1]

COMMENTARY: Patience was better because loss of eyesight is compensated by paradise. Allah, the Exalted, says, "If I deprive a slave of Mine of the sight of both his eyes and he endures it, then I give him paradise in return of that." (Bukhari # 5653, Musnad Ahmad # 700, Tirmidhi # 2408, 2409.)

PRAYER OF PROPHET DAWUD علیہ السلام

(٢٤٩٦) وَعَنْ اَبِی الدَّرْدَاءِ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ كَانَ مِنْ دُعَاءِ دَاوٗدَ يَقُوْلُ اَللّٰهُمَّ اِنِّیْ اَسْأَلُكَ حُبَّكَ وَحُبَّ مَنْ يُّحِبُّكَ وَالْعَمَلَ الَّذِیْ يُبَلِّغُنِیْ حُبَّكَ اَللّٰهُمَّ اجْعَلْ حُبَّكَ اَحَبَّ اِلَیَّ مِنْ نَفْسِیْ وَمَالِیْ وَاَهْلِیْ وَمِنَ الْمَاءِ الْبَارِدِ قَالَ وَكَانَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اِذَا ذَكَرَ دَاوٗدَ يُحَدِّثُ عَنْهُ يَقُوْلُ كَانَ اَعْبَدَ الْبَشَرِ۔ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِیُّ وَقَالَ هٰذَا حَدِيْثٌ حَسَنٌ غَرِيْبٌ۔

2496. Sayyiduna Abu Ad-Darda رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said that among the supplications of (Prophet) Dawud علیہ السلام was:

اَللّٰهُمَّ اِنِّیْ اَسْأَلُكَ حُبَّكَ وَحُبَّ مَنْ يُّحِبُّكَ وَالْعَمَلَ الَّذِیْ يُبَلِّغُنِیْ حُبَّكَ اَللّٰهُمَّ اجْعَلْ حُبَّكَ اَحَبَّ اِلَیَّ مِنْ نَفْسِیْ وَمَالِیْ وَاَهْلِیْ وَمِنَ الْمَاءِ الْبَارِدِ

{O Allah, I pray to you for your love and love of him who loves, you, and (the) deeds that will lead me to your love. O Allah, cause Your love to be dearer to me than my own self, my family and than cold water.}

And, whenever Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم mentioned Prophet Dawud علیہ السلام, he spoke of him, saying. "He worshipped more than other of mankind."[2]

A COMPREHENSIVE PRAYER

(٢٤٩٧) وَعَنْ عَطَاءِ بْنِ السَّائِبِ عَنْ اَبِيْهِ قَالَ صَلّٰى بِنَا عَمَّارُ بْنُ يَاسِرٍ صَلَاةً فَاَوْجَزَ فِيْهَا فَقَالَ لَهٗ بَعْضُ الْقَوْمِ لَقَدْ خَفَّفْتَ وَاَوْجَزْتَ الصَّلَاةَ فَقَالَ اَمَّا عَلَیَّ ذٰلِكَ لَقَدْ دَعَوْتُ فِيْهَا بِدَعَوَاتٍ سَمِعْتُهُنَّ مِنْ رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى

[1] Tirmidhi # 3589, Ibn Majah # 1385, Musnad Ahmad 4-138, Nasa'i Kubra 10490

[2] Tirmidhi # 3501.

اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَلَمَّا قَامَ تَبِعَهُ رَجُلٌ مِنَ الْقَوْمِ هُوَ اَبِيْ غَيْرَاَنَّهُ كَنٰى عَنْ نَفْسِهِ فَسَاَلَهُ عَنِ الدُّعَاءِ ثُمَّ جَاءَ فَاَخْبَرَ بِهِ الْقَوْمَ اَللّٰهُمَّ بِعِلْمِكَ الْغَيْبَ وَقُدْرَتِكَ عَلَى الْخَلْقِ اَحْيِنِيْ مَاعَلِمْتَ الْحَيٰوةَ خَيْرًالِّيْ وَتَوَفَّنِيْ اِذَا عَلِمْتَ الْوَفَاةَ خَيْرًالِّيْ اَللّٰهُمَّ وَاَسْئَلُكَ خَشْيَتَكَ فِي الْغَيْبِ وَالشَّهَادَةِ وَاَسْأَلُكَ كَلِمَةَ الْحَقِّ فِي الرِّضَا وَالْغَضَبِ وَاَسْاَلُكَ الْقَصْدَفِي الْفَقْرِ وَالْغِنٰى وَاَسْأَلُكَ نَعِيْمًا لَا يَنْفَدُو اَسْأَلُكَ قُرَّةَ عَيْنٍ لَاتَنْقَطِعُ وَاَسْأَلُكَ الرِّضَا بَعْدَ الْقَضَاءِ وَاَسْأَلُكَ بَرْدَ الْعَيْشِ بَعْدَ الْمَوْتِ وَاَسْأَلُكَ لَذَّةَ النَّظْرِ اِلٰى وَجْهِكَ وَالشَّوْقَ اِلٰى لِقَائِكَ فِيْ غَيْرِ ضَرَّاءَ مُضِرَّةٍ وَلَا فِتْنَةٍ مُضِلَّةٍ اَللّٰهُمَّ زَيِّنَا بِزِيْنَةِ الْاِيْمَانِ وَاجْعَلْنَا هُدَاةً مَهْدِيِّيْنَ۔ (رواه النسائي)

2497. Sayyiduna Ata ibn as-Sa'ib رحمه الله narrated that his father related to him that Sayyiduna Ammar ibn Yasir رضى الله عنه led them in salah (prayer) but made it very brief. Some of the people said to him. "Indeed, you made it short and brief." He said, "The brevity should not be blamed on me because I have made many supplications in it (in its qadayh) which I had heard from Allah's Messenger which I had heard from Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم." when he got up to depart, one of the men (of the congregation) pursued him. (Here Ata said that the man was his father but he also alluded that he was Ata himself). He asked him about the supplication and then returned to enlighten the people about it, thus;

اَللّٰهُمَّ بِعِلْمِكَ الْغَيْبَ وَقُدْرَتِكَ عَلَى الْخَلْقِ اَحْيِنِيْ مَاعَلِمْتَ الْحَيٰوةَ خَيْرًالِيْ وَتَوَفَّنِيْ اِذَا عَلِمْتَ الْوَفَاةَ خَيْرًا لِيْ اَللّٰهُمَّ وَاَسْئَلُكَ خَشْيَتَكَ فِي الْغَيْبِ وَالشَّهَادَةِ وَاَسْأَلُكَ كَلِمَةَ الْحَقِّ فِي الرِّضَا وَالْغَضَبِ وَاَسْاَلُكَ الْقَصْدَفِي الْفَقْرِوَالْغِنٰى وَاَسْأَلُكَ نَعِيْمًا لَا يَنْفَدُوَ اَسْأَلُكَ قُرَّةَ عَيْنٍ لَاتَنْقَطِعُ وَاَسْأَلُكَ الرِّضَا بَعْدَ الْقَضَاءِ وَاَسْأَلُكَ بَرْدَ الْعَيْشِ بَعْدَ الْمَوْتِ وَاَسْأَلُكَ لَذَّةَ النَّظْرِ اِلٰى وَجْهِكَ وَالشَّوْقَ اِلٰى لِقَائِكَ فِيْ غَيْرِ ضَرَّاءٍ مُضِرَّةٍ وَلَا فِتْنَةٍ مُضِلَّةٍ اَللّٰهُمَّ زَيِّنَا بِزِيْنَةِ الْاِيْمَانِ وَاجْعَلْنَا هُدَاةً مَهْدِيِّيْنَ

{O Allah, though your knowledge of the unseen and your power over the creation, cause me to live as long as you know life to be better for me and cause me to die when you know death to be better for me. O Allah, I implore you to grant me fear of your both unseen and openly. And, I pray to you for the word of truth both when pleased and when angry. And, I pray to you for moderation both in poverty and in riches. And, I pray to you for a blessing that will not end. And, I pray to you for a coolness of eye that will not be snapped. And, I pray to you for satisfaction with what is decreed. And, I pray to you for a comfortable life after death. And, I pray to you for the joy of seeing your face and a longing to meet you without any distress causing hardship or a trial leading astray.

O Allah, adorn us with the ornament of faith and let us be guides who are rightly guided.}[1]

COMMENTARY: The prayer asks for so much determination as enables one to speak the truth whether people be pleased or displeased. It also refers to one's own pleasure and displeasure at it.

[1] Nasa'i # 1305, Musnad Ahmad 4-264.

Coolness of the eye covers perfect obedience, offspring who survive the supplicant, regularity in offering the salah (prayer) and good of both the worlds.

The prayer asks for a longing for Allah's sight but the longing should not effect the supplicant's path along mysticism and on adab or manners and on compliance with commands.

PRAYER FOR PROFITABLE KNOWLEDGE, APPROVED DEEDS & LAWFUL SUSTENANCE

(٢٤٩٨) وَعَنْ أُمِّ سَلَمَةَ اَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ كَانَ يَقُوْلُ فِي دُبُرِ الْفَجْرِ اَللّٰهُمَّ اِنِّي اَسْأَلُكَ عِلْمًا نَافِعًا وَعَمَلًا مُتَقَبَّلًا وَرِزْقًا طَيِّبًا۔ رَوَاهُ اَحْمَدُ وَابْنُ مَاجَةَ وَالْبَيْهَقِيُّ فِي الدَّعْوَاتِ الْكَبِيْرِ۔

2498. Sayyidah Umm Salamah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم used to pray after the salah (prayer) of fajr.

{O Allah, I beseech you for beneficial knowledge, approved deeds and lawful sustenance.}[1]

(٢٤٩٩) وَعَنْ اَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ دُعَاءٌ حَفِظْتُهُ مِنْ رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَا اَدَعُهُ اَللّٰهُمَّ اجْعَلْنِي اُعَظِّمُ شُكْرَكَ وَاُكْثِرُ ذِكْرَكَ وَاَتَّبِعُ نُصْحَكَ وَاَحْفَظُ وَصِيَّتَكَ۔ (رواه الترمذی)

2499. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ said, "I have learnt a supplication from Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم that I never fail to make:

اَللّٰهُمَّ اجْعَلْنِي اُعَظِّمُ شُكْرَكَ وَاُكْثِرُ ذِكْرَكَ وَاَتَّبِعُ نُصْحَكَ وَاَحْفَظُ وَصِيَّتَكَ

{O Allah, cause me to be much grateful to you, one who remembers you most and who follows your counsel and obeys your commands.}[2]

COMMENTARY: The counsel (نصح) are the rights of fellowmen and the command (وصیت) are Allah's rights. Hence, "O Allah cause me to give rights of your creatures and your own rights."

PRAYER FOR HEALTH

(٢٥٠٠) وَعَنْ عَبْدِ اللّٰهِ بْنِ عَمْرٍو قَالَ كَانَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُوْلُ اَللّٰهُمَّ اِنِّي اَسْأَلُكَ الصِّحَّةَ وَالْعِفَّةَ وَالْاَمَانَةَ وَحُسْنَ الْخُلُقِ وَالرِّضٰى بِالْقَدَرِ۔

2500. Sayyiduna Abdullah ibn Amr رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم used to pray:

اَللّٰهُمَّ اِنِّي اَسْأَلُكَ الصِّحَّةَ وَالْعِفَّةَ وَالْاَمَانَةَ وَحُسْنَ الْخُلُقِ وَالرِّضٰى بِالْقَدَرِ

{O Allah, I ask you for sound health (or body, and deeds), abstinence, integrity, a good character and being pleased with the decree.}[3]

---

[1] Ibn Majah # 924, Musnad Ahmad 6.294.

[2] Tirmidhi # 3617, Musnad Ahmad 2-311.

[3] Bazzaz as par Kanz ul Ammal # 3690.

PRAYER TO KEEP AWAY FROM SIN

(٢٥٠١) وَعَنْ أُمِّ مَعْبَدٍ قَالَتْ سَمِعْتُ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُوْلُ اَللّٰهُمَّ طَهِّرْ قَلْبِي مِنَ النِّفَاقِ وَعَمَلِي مِنَ الرِّيَاءِ وَلِسَانِي مِنَ الْكِذْبِ وَعَيْنِي مِنَ الْخِيَانَةِ فَإِنَّكَ تَعْلَمُ خَائِنَةَ الْاَعْيُنِ وَمَا تُخْفِي الصُّدُوْرُ۔ رَوَاهُمَا الْبَيْهَقِيُّ فِي الدَّعَوَاتِ الْكَبِيْرِ۔

2501. Sayyidah Umm Ma'bad رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that she heard Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم pray:

اَللّٰهُمَّ طَهِّرْ قَلْبِي مِنَ النِّفَاقِ وَعَمَلِي مِنَ الرِّيَاءِ وَلِسَانِي مِنَ الْكِذْبِ وَعَيْنِي مِنَ الْخِيَانَةِ فَإِنَّكَ تَعْلَمُ خَائِنَةَ الْاَعْيُنِ وَمَا تُخْفِي الصُّدُوْرُ

{O Allah, cleanse my heart from hypocrisy, my deeds from pretence, my tongue from falsehood and my eye from sneaky glances, for you know the secret looks of the eyes and what is concealed in the breasts.}[1]
{"Treachery of the eyes and what the hearts conceal"} (40:9)

PRAYER FOR BLESSING IN BOTH WORLDS

(٢٥٠٢) وَعَنْ أَنَسٍ أَنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ عَادَ رَجُلًا مِنَ الْمُسْلِمِيْنَ قَدْ خَفَتَ فَصَارَ مِثْلَ الْفَرْخِ فَقَالَ لَهُ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ هَلْ كُنْتَ تَدْعُو اللّٰهَ بِشَيْءٍ اَوْ تَسْأَلُهُ إِيَّاهُ قَالَ نَعَمْ كُنْتُ اَقُوْلُ اَللّٰهُمَّ مَا كُنْتَ مُعَاقِبِيْ بِهِ فِي الْاٰخِرَةِ فَعَجِّلْهُ لِي فِي الدُّنْيَا فَقَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ سُبْحَانَ اللّٰهِ لَا تُطِيْقُهُ وَلَا تَسْتَطِيْعُهُ اَفَلَا قُلْتَ اَللّٰهُمَّ اٰتِنَا فِي الدُّنْيَا حَسَنَةً وَّفِي الْاٰخِرَةِ حَسَنَةً وَّقِنَا عَذَابَ النَّارِ قَالَ فَدَعَا اللّٰهَ بِهٖ فَشَفَاهُ اللّٰهُ۔ (رواه مسلم)

2502. Sayyiduna Anas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم visited a Muslim man who had gone weak and had become like the young of a bird. Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم asked him, "Did you pray to Allah for something, or ask Him for anything?" He said, "I used to pray: O Allah, whatever punishment you will give me in the hereafter, hasten it for me in this world." Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم remarked, "SubhanAllah, you have not the strength nor ability to bear it. Why do you not pray:

اَللّٰهُمَّ اٰتِنَا فِي الدُّنْيَا حَسَنَةً وَّفِي الْاٰخِرَةِ حَسَنَةً وَّقِنَا عَذَابَ النَّارِ

{O Allah, grant us good in this world and good in the hereafter and preserve us from the punishment of hell?}"
Then he supplicated Allah with that and Allah cured him.[2]

PRAY NOT FOR THE UNENDURABLE

(٢٥٠٣) وَعَنْ حُذَيْفَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَا يَنْبَغِي لِلْمُؤْمِنِ اَنْ يُذِلَّ نَفْسَهُ قَالُوا

---

[1] Bayhaqi in Da'waat ul Kabir (both foregoing).
[2] Muslim # 23.2688, Tirmidhi # 3498, Musnad Ahmad 3-107.

وَكَيْفَ يُذِلُّ نَفْسَهُ قَالَ يَتَعَرَّضُ مِنَ الْبَلَاءِ لِمَا لَايُطِيْقُ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَابْنُ مَاجَةَ وَالْبَيْهَقِيُّ فِي شُعَبِ الْإِيْمَانِ وَقَالَ التِّرْمِذِيُّ هٰذَا حَدِيْثٌ حَسَنٌ غَرِيْبٌ۔

2503. Sayyiduna Hudhayfah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "It does not behave a believer to humiliate himself." He was asked, "How can one humiliate oneself?" He said, "He involves himself in a calamity out of which he cannot extract himself."[1]

COMMENTARY: It is contrary to a believer's shrewdness that he should accept something or a responsibility that is beyond his capacity and reach. If he does it, he disgraces himself. On the face of it, this hadith (tradition) seems to be out of place in this chapter. However, if it is read with the previous hadith (tradition), we shall see that it is deeply connected with this chapter. It says that a man should not even pray for what he cannot tolerate.

A BETTER INNER NATURE

(٢٥٠٤) وَعَنْ عُمَرَ قَالَ عَلَّمَنِيْ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ قُلِ اللّٰهُمَّ اجْعَلْ سَرِيْرَتِيْ خَيْرًا مِنْ عَلَانِيَتِيْ وَاجْعَلْ عَلَانِيَتِيْ صَالِحَةً اَللّٰهُمَّ اِنِّيْ اَسْأَلُكَ مِنْ صَالِحِ مَاتُؤْتِي النَّاسَ مِنَ الْاَهْلِ وَالْمَالِ وَالْوَلَدِ غَيْرِ الضَّالِّ وَلَا الْمُضِلِّ۔ (رواه الترمذى)

2504. Sayyiduna Umar رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم taught him to pray:

اَللّٰهُمَّ اجْعَلْ سَرِيْرَتِيْ خَيْرًا مِنْ عَلَانِيَتِيْ وَاجْعَلْ عَلَانِيَتِيْ صَالِحَةً اَللّٰهُمَّ اِنِّيْ اَسْأَلُكَ مِنْ صَالِحِ مَاتُؤْتِي النَّاسَ مِنَ الْاَهْلِ وَالْمَالِ وَالْوَلَدِ غَيْرِ الضَّالِّ وَلَا الْمُضِلِّ

{O Allah, cause my unseen to be better than my known conduct, and let my known conduct to be righteous. O Allah, I ask you for the good of what you grant people of family, wealth and children, neither misled nor misleading.}[2]

---

[1] Tirmidhi # 2261, Ibn Majah # 4016.

[2] Tirmidhi # 3597

BOOK - XI

THE RITES OF THE PILGRIMAGE كتاب المناسك

ABOUT THE ACTIONS OF HAJJ(PILGRIMAGE)

The dictionary meaning of Hajj (pilgrimage) is to resolve to go to a sacred place. In the terminology of Shari'ah, Hajj (pilgrimage) is to circumambulate the ka'bah and stand of Arafah in the specific manner taught by the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم during the specific period of time as prescribed by Shari'ah.

Hajj (pilgrimage) is one of the great five basic pillars of religion on which the enter edifice of beliefs and deeds of Islam stands. The obligation of Hajj (pilgrimage) (which in the terminology of Shari'ah is called fard(compulsory)) is established by the Quran explicitly just as the obligation of zakah is established.

WHEN WAS HAJJ (PILGRIMAGE) MADE FARD(COMPULSORY)

The obligation of Hajj (pilgrimage) (as a fard(compulsory)) was applied to the ummah of the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم. It is the distinction of this ummah though the custom of performing Hajj (pilgrimage) continues from the times of Prophet Ibrahim عليه السلام. It was not then prescribed as a fard(compulsory). The correct opinion is that Hajj (pilgrimage) became fard(compulsory) (a prescribed duty) only on the ummah of Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم.

Different opinion are expressed on when Hajj (pilgrimage) became fard(compulsory). Some say that it became fard(compulsory) in 5 AH, some put it in 6AH, but the most correct date is the close of 9AH with the command of Allah.

وَلِلّٰهِ عَلَى النَّاسِ حِجُّ الْبَيْتِ مَنِ اسْتَطَاعَ إِلَيْهِ سَبِيْلًا

{And pilgrimage to the House is a duty of mankind towards Allah for him who is able to make his way to it.} (3: 97)

The command was given towards the end of the year. So, the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم was engaged in teaching the rites of the pilgrimage and in making preparations for the journey next year. Therefore, he did not perform Hajj (pilgrimage) that (first) year. He appointed Sayyiduna Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه as amir of the pilgrims and sent the to Makkah.

Next year, 10AH, he travelled for the pilgrimage himself. It was a coincidence that, after Hajj (pilgrimage) was made fard(compulsory), he performed this his first pilgrimage and it was also his last pilgrimage, so this Hajj (pilgrimage) is known as *Hajj (pilgrimage)*atul wada' (the farewell pilgrimage). After this Hajj (pilgrimage), he departed from this world.

COMMAND OF HAJJ (PILGRIMAGE)

Hajj (pilgrimage) is fard(compulsory) once in a life time when all the conditions that make it fard(compulsory) are found.

If anyone does not perform Hajj (pilgrimage) even after all conditions are found in him making Hajj (pilgrimage) fard(compulsory) on him, then he is a sinner. And, he who rejects the obligation of Hajj (pilgrimage) is a disbeliever.

The correct thing is that if the conditions of Hajj (pilgrimage) are found then it is fard(compulsory) to perform Hajj (pilgrimage) promptly. It is a sin to put it off till the following year. Hajj (pilgrimage) is wajib (obligatory) for one who enter the miqat without assuming the ihram (pilgrim-robe). He must assume the ihram (pilgrim-robe) of Hajj (pilgrimage) after that. Hajj (pilgrimage) is fard(compulsory) on one who has vowed to perform Hajj (pilgrimage), too.

It is unlawful and makruh(unbecoming) tahrimah to perform Hajj (pilgrimage) with unlawful wealth for one who performs Hajj (pilgrimage) without the permission of those whose permission he is bound to take. It is makruh(unbecoming) tahrimah for one who performs Hajj (pilgrimage) without making arrangements for ample provision for those people whose provision is his responsibility as wajib (obligatory).

CONDITIONS THAT MAKE HAJJ (PILGRIMAGE) AS FARD(COMPULSORY)

Hajj (pilgrimage) becomes fard(compulsory) when these conditions are found:

(1) The pilgrim should be a Muslim.

(2) He should be a free man, for Hajj (pilgrimage) is not fard(compulsory) on a male or female slave.

(3) The pilgrim should be sane. Hajj (pilgrimage) is not fard(compulsory) on a mad, insane or unconscious person.

(4) He should be an adult. Children and who have not attained puberty are not obliged to perform Hajj (pilgrimage).

(5) He should be of sound health. Hajj (pilgrimage) is not fard(compulsory) on a sick, blind, lame or handicapped person.

(6) He should be capable, possessing wealth beyond his real needs and debts payable, enough for his travelling expenses and provision during the journey. And the excess should be enough also to provide necessities to those who are his dependents and it is wajib (obligatory) on him to provide provision to them, he must leave for them enough for their expenses till he returns.

(7) There should be peace and safety along his route. If most people make the journey safely then it is said to be safe and Hajj (pilgrimage) becomes fard(compulsory) (if other conditions are met). For example, if most of the travellers are robbed on the way, or ships sink generally or there is any other kind of fear than Hajj (pilgrimage) is not fard(compulsory). But, if these accidents occur only sometime, then (this conditions is not unfulfilled and) Hajj (pilgrimage) is fard(compulsory) (as for as this condition is concerned).

(8) A woman must be accompanied by her husband or a mahram if the journey from her residence to Makkah is equal to the distance defined by Shari'ah as a journey, meaning a three day travel. If she is not accompanied by her husband or a mahram than it is not allowed to her to undertake the journey. Moreover, the mahram should be a sane, adult man, not a Magian and a sinner. The woman is responsible for the provision of the mahram whom she takes along with her for Hajj (pilgrimage). Besides a woman on whom Hajj (pilgrimage) is fard(compulsory), may proceed to perform Hajj (pilgrimage) with a mahram even without her husband's permission.

If a minor boy, or a slave, turns into an adult, or becomes free, after assuming the ihram (pilgrim-robe), and he performs the Hajj (pilgrimage), then his fard(compulsory) is not discharged. If the boy assumes the ihram (pilgrim-robe) for Hajj (pilgrimage) afresh (all over again on attaining adulthood) than it will be correctly performed. As for the slave, his ihram (pilgrim-robe) will not be proper even in this condition.

NUMBER OF FARD(COMPULSORY) IN THE HAJJ (PILGRIMAGE)

Five actions are fard(compulsory) for a Hajj (pilgrimage) to be correct.

(1) The ihram (pilgrim-robe). It is both a condition for Hajj (pilgrimage) and a rukn or part essential, meaning fard(compulsory).

(2) Wuquf Arafat which is the standing at Arafat even for a minute whether during the day or in the night.

(3) Tawaf uz Ziyarah. It is also called Tawaf ul ifadah or tawaf ur rukn.

(4) Sequence should be observe in the foregoing fard(compulsory) duties. The ihram (pilgrim-robe) should precede the wuquf which should precede the tawaf ziyarat.

(5) Each of these fard(compulsory) must be discharged at its appointed place, like wuquf (staying) at Arafat and tawaf (circumambulation) around the ka'bah. And every fard(compulsory) at its appointed time as prescribed by Shari'ah, like the wuquf on the ninth Dhull *Hajj (pilgrimage)*ah at the time of Zuhr till before the fajr of the tenth Tawaf is performed after that.

NUMBER OF WAJIB (OBLIGATORY) OF HAJJ (PILGRIMAGE)

These things are wajib (obligatory) in Hajj (pilgrimage).

(1) Wuquf Muzdilah or the standing or stopping at Muzdilah.

(2) Sa'ee between safa and Marwah.

(3) Rami Jimar or casting pebbles at the jimar.

(4) Tawaf Qudum for non-Makkans who are called aafaqi.

(5) Halq or taqsir which is to shave off or cut hair.

(6) Every such thing omitting which makes a dumm or sacrifice of an animal wajib (obligatory).

Apart from these fard(compulsory) and wajib (obligatory) things, there are many things termed as sunnah(Practice of Holy Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم*)* and adab of Hajj (pilgrimage). They will be discussed at their proper places in the pages following.

SECTION I الفصل الأول

HAJJ (PILGRIMAGE) IS FARD(COMPULSORY) ONCE IN A LIFE TIME

(٢٥٠٥) عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ خَطَبَنَا رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَقَالَ أَيُّهَا النَّاسُ قَدْ فُرِضَ عَلَيْكُمُ الْحَجُّ فَحُجُّوْا فَقَالَ رَجُلٌ أَكُلَّ عَامٍ يَارَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ فَسَكَتَ حَتّٰى قَالَهَا ثَلَاثًا فَقَالَ لَوْقُلْتُ نَعَمْ لَوَجَبَتْ وَلَمَا اسْتَطَعْتُمْ ثُمَّ قَالَ ذَرُوْنِي مَاتَرَكْتُكُمْ فَإِنَّمَا هَلَكَ مَنْ كَانَ قَبْلَكُمْ بِكَثْرَةِ سُوَالِهِمْ وَاخْتِلَافِهِمْ عَلٰى أَنْبِيَائِهِمْ فَإِذَا أَمَرْتُكُمْ بِشَيْءٍ فَأْتُوا مِنْهُ مَا اسْتَطَعْتُمْ وَإِذَا نَهَيْتُكُمْ عَنْ شَيْءٍ فَدَعُوْهُ۔ (رواه مسلم)

2505. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضى الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم delivered to them a sermon in which he said, "O you people, indeed, Hajj (pilgrimage) is made obligatory for you. So, perform Hajj (pilgrimage)." A man asked, "Is it every year. O Messenger of Allah?" He observed silence till the man had asked it three times. Then, he said "Were I to say, 'Yes' it would became obligatory and you would not be able to observe it." Then, he added, "Leave me alone as long as I have spared you, for people before you were ruined because of their excessive questions and their differences with their prophets when I instruct you to do something, obey it as much as you are able to when I disallow anything, leave it alone."[1]

COMMENTARY: The sahabi who had put t he question was Sayyiduna Aqra ibn Habis رضی الله عنه. He had supposed that like salah (prayer), fasting and zakah, this worship would be a recurring duty.

The Prophet's saying that it would have become fard(compulsory) every year if he had said, 'yes' meant that he only said what Allah commanded him to say and he never passed on a command of Shari'ah without Allah commanding him and if Hajj (pilgrimage) were made fard(compulsory) every year, it would have been impossible to perform it every year. If he did not specify the number of times then they were to do that thing without further questioning. If he specified how many times, then they were to do it accordingly. He said, "I have been sent to convey the commands of Islam and I do that exactly as I am told."

He also said that they were to discharge Allah's commands as much as they were able to do. Thus if anyone cannot stand for the salah (prayer), he may offer it sitting, and so on. Other commands may be understood accordingly.

THE BEST DEED

(٢٥٠٦) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ سُئِلَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَيُّ الْعَمَلِ اَفْضَلُ؟ قَالَ اِيْمَانٌ بِاللّٰهِ وَرَسُوْلِهٖ قِيْلَ ثُمَّ مَاذَا قَالَ الْجِهَادُ فِيْ سَبِيْلِ اللّٰهِ قِيْلَ ثُمَّ مَاذَا قَالَ حَجٌّ مَّبْرُوْرٌ۔ (متفق عليه)

2506. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم was asked, 'Which of the deeds is the most excellent?" He said, "Belief in Allah and His Messenger." He was then asked about the next and he said, "Jihad in Allah's path." Again, he was asked, "What next?" He said, "Hajj (pilgrimage) that gains acceptance."[2]

COMMENTARY: The most excellent deed is described differently in different ahadith (tradition). Actually, the answer depends on the person asking, the circumstances and the surroundings.

HONOUR OF ONE WHO PERFORMS HAJJ (PILGRIMAGE) ONLY FOR ALLAH'S SAKE

(٢٥٠٧) وَعَنْهُ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ حَجَّ لِلّٰهِ فَلَمْ يَرْفُثْ وَلَمْ يَفْسُقْ رَجَعَ كَيَوْمِ وَلَدَتْهُ اُمُّهٗ۔ (متفق عليه)

2507. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم said, "If anyone performs Hajj (pilgrimage) for the sake of Allah without having sexual intercourse with his wife (during the pilgrimage) or being immodest and sinful, then he returns (sinless) as on the day his mother had delivered him."[3]

COMMENTARY: One who performs Hajj (pilgrimage) for Allah's sake does not do it to be praised or to be seen. If anyone combines business with the pilgrimage, then he would earn a smaller reward than one who performs it only for Allah's sake.

---

[1] Muslim # 412.1337, Nasa'i # 2619.

[2] Bukhari # 26, Muslim # 83-135, Tirmidhi # 1664, Nasa'i # 625, Musnad Ahmad 4.372.

[3] Bukhari # 1521, Muslim # 438.1350, Tirmidhi # 811, Nasa'i # 2627, Darimi # 1796, Ibn Majah # 2889, Musnad Ahmad 2-246.

The pilgrim does not have sexual intercourse with his wife during the pilgrimage, does not talk immodestly and does not talk with women in a manner that suggest indecency or leads to it. This is what (رفث) (rafatha) means.

And, the other word (فسق) (fasaqa) implies that he does not perpetrate a g rave sin during the pilgrimage and does not commit minor sins repeatedly. It must be understood that if one does not repent for his sins, then that is tantamount to Committing a major sin. This is as Allah says:

وَمَنْ لَّمْ يَتُبْ فَأُولٰٓئِكَ هُمُ الظّٰلِمُوْنَ

{And whosoever repents not, then those are the evil doers} (49: 11)

In short, if anyone performs Hajj (pilgrimage) only for Allah's pleasure without engaging in immodesty or sin then he returns from the pilgrimage free from sin as he was born innocent.

REWARD FOR HAJJ (PILGRIMAGE) IS PARADISE

(٢٥٠٨) وَعَنْهُ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَلْعُمْرَةُ إِلَى الْعُمْرَةِ كَفَّارَةٌ لِمَا بَيْنَهُمَا وَالْحَجُّ الْمَبْرُوْرُ لَيْسَ لَهُ جَزَاءٌ إِلَّا الْجَنَّةُ. (متفق عليه)

2508. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "The umrah, from one to the next, is an expiation of what is between them (of minor sins). And, as for the Hajj (pilgrimage) that is accepted there is no reward for it but paradise."[1]

UMRAH IN RAMADAN

(٢٥٠٩) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِنَّ عُمْرَةً فِيْ رَمَضَانَ تَعْدِلُ حَجَّةً.

(متفق عليه)

2509. Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "surely as umrah performed in Ramadan is equal to (one) Hajj (pilgrimage)."[2]

MINOR ALSO GETS A REWARD

(٢٥١٠) وَعَنْهُ قَالَ إِنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَقِيَ رَكْبًا بِالرَّوْحَاءِ فَقَالَ مَنِ الْقَوْمُ قَالُوا الْمُسْلِمُوْنَ فَقَالُوا مَنْ أَنْتَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ فَرَفَعَتْ إِلَيْهِ امْرَأَةٌ صَبِيًّا فَقَالَتْ أَلِهٰذَا حَجٌّ قَالَ نَعَمْ وَلَكِ أَجْرٌ (رواه مسلم)

2510. Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم met some riders at ar-Rawha. He asked, "who are these people?" They said, "Muslims!" And, they asked, "Who are you?" He said, "Allah's Messenger. A woman carried a boy high up to him and asked. "May he (too) perform Hajj (pilgrimage)?" He said, "Yes, and you will get a reward."[3]

---

[1] Bukhari # 1773, Musim # 437.1349, Tirmidhi # 810, Ibn Majah # 2688, Muwatta Maalik # 20.21-66, Musnad Ahmad 2-246.

[2] Bukhari # 1782, Muslim # 221-1256, Nasa'i # 2110, Ibn Majah # 2994, Darimi # 1851, Musnad Ahmad 1.229.

[3] Muslim # 409-1336, Ibn Majah # 2910, (Ar-Rawha is the name of several places. This one is between Madinah and Makkah – Mu'jum ul Buldah.

COMMENTARY: The Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم said to the woman that the child may perform Hajj (pilgrimage). Though it was not fard(compulsory) on him, it would be treated as an optional pilgrimage and he would earn a reward. She too would get a reward for that because of her supervision and guardianship.

The ruling is that if a minor performs Hajj (pilgrimage), the fard(compulsory) due on him is not discharge but continues to be due if the conditions are found in him. Similarly, if a slave performs Hajj (pilgrimage) that will not be counted as a fard(compulsory), and if he gets freedom from slavery and the condition of Hajj (pilgrimage) found in him, then he will have to perform Hajj (pilgrimage) again. Contrary to this if a poor man performs Hajj (pilgrimage) then that will count as a fard(compulsory). If he becomes rich then he will not have to perform Hajj (pilgrimage) again.

PERFORM HAJJ (PILGRIMAGE) FOR SOMEONE ELSE

(٢٥١١) وَعَنْهُ قَالَ إِنَّ امْرَأَةً مِنْ خَثْعَمٍ قَالَتْ يَارَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ إِنَّ فَرِيْضَةَ اللّٰهِ عَلَى عِبَادِهٖ فِي الْحَجِّ أَدْرَكَتْ أَبِيْ شَيْخًا كَبِيْرًا لَا يَثْبُتُ عَلَى الرَّاحِلَةِ أَفَأَحُجُّ عَنْهُ قَالَ نَعَمْ وَذٰلِكَ فِيْ حَجَّةِ الْوَدَاعِ۔ (متفق عليه)

2511. Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضى الله عنه narrated that a woman of Khatha'am said. "O Messenger o Allah, the command of Allah making Hajj (pilgrimage) fard(compulsory) on his slaves has come when my father is a very old infirm man. He cannot sit on a camel firmly. May I perform Hajj (pilgrimage) in his place?" He said, "Yes." This was at the time of the Farewell Pilgrimage.[1]

COMMENTARY: The woman's father became rich at an old age. Hajj (pilgrimage) became fard(compulsory) but he had not the strength to perform it. The Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم permitted her to perform Hajj (pilgrimage) for her father.

The ruling is that if Hajj (pilgrimage) is fard(compulsory) on anyone and he cannot perform it for some reason like weakness, blindness etc. and is not likely to recover during his life time, then another person may perform Hajj (pilgrimage) on his behalf, provided the handicapped person bears all expenses and instructs him to perform it for him.

Moreover even after a person's death another person may perform Hajj (pilgrimage) for him if he had left instructions for t his to be done. Some ulama (Scholars) say that if children perform Hajj (pilgrimage) for their parents then it is not necessary to have their prior instructions and commands.

As for optional Hajj (pilgrimage), any person, handicapped or not, can get another to perform an optional Hajj (pilgrimage) for him.

As for the woman in this hadith (tradition), it is presumed that her father had instructed her to perform Hajj (pilgrimage) for him and had borne the expenses too.

This deduction is based on the explanation of Shaykh Abdul Haq Dahlawi رحمه الله against the hadith (tradition) of Abu Razin رحمه الله (# 2528).

Some ulama (Scholars) maintain that children may perform Hajj (pilgrimage) on behalf of their parents even without their instructions. In this case, this hadith (tradition) supports their contention because the woman did not say anything about her father's instructions.

---

[1] Bukhari # 1513, Muslim # 408.1335, Abu Dawud # 1809, Tirmidhi # 928, Nasa'i # 2641, Ibn Majah # 2907, Darimi # 1831, Muwatta Maalik # 20.30-98.

(٢٥١٢) وَعَنْهُ قَالَ اَتَى رَجُلٌ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَقَالَ اِنَّ اُخْتِي نَذَرَتْ اَنْ تَحُجَّ وَاِنَّهَا مَاتَتْ فَقَالَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَوْكَانَ عَلَيْهَا دَيْنٌ اَكُنْتَ قَاضِيَهُ قَالَ نَعَمْ قَالَ فَاقْضِ دَيْنَ اللّٰهِ فَهُوَ اَحَقُّ بِالْقَضَاءِ۔ (متفق عليه)

2512. Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that a man came to the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم and said, "My sister had vowed to perform Hajj (pilgrimage) but has died (before that)." The Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم asked, "If she were in debt, would you have paid it?" He said, "Yes," He said, 'then pay the debt payable to Allah, for, He is the most deserving one to be repaid."

RULING: The heir is permitted to perform Hajj (pilgrimage) on behalf of the legator without his permission or legacy. He may do it himself or get it done.

However, others need to have permission, and instructions in the will to perform Hajj (pilgrimage) on a dead person.' Behalf.[1]

WOMAN CANNOT TRAVEL WITHOUT HUSBAND OR MAHRAM

(٢٥١٣) وَعَنْهُ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَايَخْلُوَنَّ رَجُلٌ بِامْرَأَةٍ وَلَاتُسَافِرَنَّ امْرَأَةٌ اِلَّا وَمَعَهَا مَحْرَمٌ فَقَالَ رَجُلٌ يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ اُكْتُتِبْتُ فِي غَزْوَةِ كَذَاوَكَذَا وَخَرَجَتِ امْرَأَتِي حَاجَّةً قَالَ اذْهَبْ فَاحْجُجْ مَعَ امْرَأَتِكَ۔ (متفق عليه)

2513. Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "No man must be alone with a woman. And no woman must travel without a mahram." A man submitted, "O Messenger of Allah, I have been enlisted in such and such a battle while my wife has decided to travel to perform Hajj (pilgrimage) with her."[2]

COMMENTARY: Woman and man who are not in the category of mahram should not remain alone.

A woman cannot travel alone to a distance (of journey defined by Shari'ah, 48 miles or 78 kilometres) or more without her husband or a mahram. She is not allowed to undertake a journey to perform Hajj (pilgrimage), too, without one of them. It is a condition that makes Hajj (pilgrimage) fard(compulsory) on her.

In the terminology of Shariah, a mahram is one with whom marriage is forbidden for ever either because or close relationship or fosterage or being in-laws. Moreover, A mahram must be sane, adult and not a Magian or a sinner.

THE JIHAD OF WOMEN IS HAJJ (PILGRIMAGE)

(٢٥١٤) وَعَنْ عَائِشَةَ قَالَتِ اسْتَأْذَنْتُ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فِي الْجِهَادِ فَقَالَ جِهَادُكُنَّ الْحَجُّ۔ (متفق عليه)

2514. Sayyidah Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہا narrated that she sought permission of the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم to participate in jihad. He said, "The jihad of you (woman)

---

[1] Bukhari # 6699, Musnad Ahmad 1-310.

[2] Bukahri # 3006, Muslim # 424-1314.

is the Hajj (pilgrimage)."[1]

LIMIT OF A WOMAN'S JOURNEY

(٢٥١٥) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَاتُسَافِرُ امْرَأَةٌ مَسِيْرَةَ يَوْمٍ وَّلَيْلَةٍ اِلَّا وَمَعَهَا ذُوْمَحْرَمٍ۔ (متفق عليه)

2515. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم said, "A woman must not set out on a journey of a day and a night without there being with her a mahram."[2]

COMMENTARY: There might be an apparent contradiction in hadith (tradition) and juristic rulings.

The Hidayah writes that it is allowed to women to travel (without their husband or mahram) to a place that is of a distance lesser than the limit of Shari'ah (three manzils - or, 48 miles). This hadith (tradition), however disallows women to travel without husband or mahram even to a place that is to a distance of one day and one night (which is one manzil). Moreover, a hadith (tradition) in Bukhari and Muslim says, "No woman should undertake a journey of a distance undertake a journey of a distance of two days and two nights unless accompanied by her husband or a mahram."

The ulama (Scholars) reconcile the ahadith (tradition) by saying that the distance measure (48 miles) is the same but it is normally completed in three days and three nights with halts. If one travels with fewer halts or ceaselessly then it may be completed in one day and one night too. This explains the difference in days though the measure remains 48 miles.

It is also explained to depend on circumstances. It might be risky for women to travel beyond two days and nights or sometimes even one day and one night.

The explanation of Shaykh Abdul Haq Muhaddith Dahlawi is more appealing. He said that the essence of all these ahadith (tradition) is that women must not travel alone. The aim is not to determine the distance is measure. Hence, today when words are at the lowest ebb, care demands that women must not travel alone at all, even short distances.

THE MAWAQIT OF HAJJ (PILGRIMAGE)

(٢٥١٦) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ قَالَ وَقَّتَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لِاَهْلِ الْمَدِيْنَةِ ذَا الْحُلَيْفَةِ وَلِاَهْلِ الشَّامِ الْجُحْفَةَ وَلِاَهْلِ نَجْدٍ قَرْنَ الْمَنَازِلِ وَلِاَهْلِ الْيَمَنِ يَلَمْلَمَ فَهُنَّ لَهُنَّ وَلِمَنْ اَتٰى عَلَيْهِنَّ مِنْ غَيْرِ اَهْلِهِنَّ لِمَنْ كَانَ يُرِيْدُ الْحَجَّ وَالْعُمْرَةَ فَمَنْ كَانَ دُوْنَهُنَّ فَمُهَلُّهُ مِنْ اَهْلِهٖ وَكَذَالِكَ حَتّٰى اَهْلُ مَكَّةَ يُهِلُّوْنَ مِنْهَا۔ (متفق عليه)

2516. Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم fixed the miqat (places at which the ihram (pilgrim-robe) must be assumed before going further):

For: the people of Madinah: Dhull Hulayfah,
- people of Syria: Al-Juhfah,
- people of Najd: Qarn al-Manazil, and

---

[1] Bukhari # 2875, Ibn Majah # 201, Musnad Ahmad 6-67.

[2] Bukhari # 1088, Muslim # 413-1338, Tirmidhi # 1169, Ibn Majah # 2898.

- people of Yemen: Yalamlam.

These being for these regions and for the people of other regions who arrive there intending to perform Hajj (pilgrimage) and umrah

For those who reside nearer to Makkah, they should assume the ihram (pilgrim-robe) were they reside. (In this way) for the nearer and the nearer up to the residents of Makkah itself who should assume it in Makkah.[1]

COMMENTARY: The meaning of ihram (pilgrim-robe) (احرام) is 'to make unlawful.' Many things are forbidden to a pilgrim. To demonstrate that those things stand forbidden from that time an attire is put on consisting only of a sheet of cloth (rida) and a waist wrapper (izar) with an intention to perform Hajj (pilgrimage). It is called the ihram (pilgrim-robe). However, the ihram (pilgrim-robe) is said to be assumed when, after putting on the attire, the intention is formed to perform Hajj (pilgrimage) and talbiyah (or labayk) is recited, or any such things is done that resembles the talbiyah like sending forth the sacrificial animal. It anyone merely dons the attire of the ihram (pilgrim-robe), he does not become a muhrim (one who has assumed the ihram (pilgrim-robe)). (Both pieces of attire are unstitched.)

The word muwaqit is the plural of miqat. It is the place where any one whose destination is Makkah must assume the ihram (pilgrim-robe) (if he has not already done so). No one is allowed to proceed to Makkah beyond this point without the ihram (pilgrim-robe).

DHUL HULAYFAH: It is to the south of Madinah about ten kilometers away. It is also called Abyar Ali. It is the miqat of the inhabitants of Madinah travelling to Makkah.

JUHFAH: It is about 188 kilometers away from Makkah and a few miles to the south of Rabigh. The Quraysh trade caravans used to half here, but not it is a deserted place. It is the miqat for the travellers from Shaam and Egypt.

NAJD: Actually, an elevated place is called Najd, but it is the name of region of Saudi Arabia. It is very high from sea-level, and presently, all the central portion of the Arabian peninsula. In the north it begins at the southern tip of the desert of Syria to the velley of Al-Awasir or Ar-Rab al Khal in the south, and breadh wise from Ahsa to the Hijaz. The capital of Saudi Arabia, Riyadh, is in najd.

QARN UL MANAZI: It is a mountainous range of Tihamah about 48 kilometers to the south of Makkah on the highway from Yemen to Makkah. Sa'diyah is a village there. It is the miqat of pilgrims from yemen. The people for India and Pakistan also go from this route, so it is their miqat too.

There also isDhat Irq, about 97 kilometers from Makkah towards the north east on the route to Iraq. It is the miqat of travellers from Iraq.[2]

The words of the hadith (tradition):

لِمَنْ كَانَ يُرِيْدُ الْحَجَّ وَالْعُمْرَةَ

{for those intending to perform Hajj (pilgrimage) and umrah} are evidence that if any non-resident of Makkah passes through the miqat with any other intention then it is not necessary from him to assume the ihram (pilgrim-robe). This is the contention of Imam (leader) Shafi'I رحمه الله However, Imam (leader) Abu Hanifah's رحمه الله opinion is that it is not allowed to enter Makkah without assuming the ihram (pilgrim-robe)

---

[1] Bukhari # 1526, Muslim # 11-1181, Abu DAwud # 1732, Nasa'i # 2658, Musnad Ahmad 10332.

[2] The original does not mention Yalamlam, the Miqat of Yemenis. It is to the south of Makkah. Here, the mosque of Sayyiduna Mu'adh ibn Jabal رضى الله عنه is situated.

whether the intention is to perform Hajj (pilgrimage) and umrah or not. It means that if a non-resident of Makkah goes into Makkah for Hajj (pilgrimage) and umrah or for any other purpose then it is wajib (obligatory) for him to assume the ihram (pilgrim-robe) at the miqat. He cannot enter without the ihram (pilgrim-robe). The hanafis cite the Prophet Muhammad's صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم saying.

لَا يُجَاوِزُ حَدَّ الْمِيْقَاتِ إِلَّا مُحْرِمًا

{It is not allowed to go beyond the miqat (to enter Makkah) without assuring the ihram (pilgrim-robe).}

This hadith (tradition) is absolute without specifying the purpose of visit as Hajj (pilgrimage) and umrah. Moreover, the ihram (pilgrim-robe) is assumed to show respect to the sacred place Ka'bah whether one performs Hajj (pilgrimage) and umrah or not. Hence, this command applies to the pilgrim as well as to the trader, the tourist, etc. However, those people who reside within the miqat are exempt from assuming the ihram (pilgrim-robe) when going to Makkah for their needs because they have to travel there very often. So, they attract the same command as the residents of Makkah who can travel out of it and came back without the ihram (pilgrim-robe).

Those who reside within the miqat but outside the limits of the Haram may assume the ihram (pilgrim-robe) at their homes up to the limits of the Haram. It is not necessary for them to travel to the miqat even if they reside near to it.

The hadith (tradition) says nothing of those who reside in the main miqat itself. The ulama (Scholars) say that they are bracketed with those who reside in the miqat.

This command applies also to those who reside between the limits of the Haram to the miqat. They will assume the ihram (pilgrim-robe) there (at their homes) whether they are nearer the miqat or nearer the Haram. In this way, the residents of Makkah will assume the ihram (pilgrim-robe) within Makkah. Those who reside outside the city of Makkah but within the limits of Haram will assume the ihram (pilgrim-robe) at the Haram of Makkah.

The hadith (tradition) specifies that when the residents of Makkah perform Hajj (pilgrimage), they may assume the ihram (pilgrim-robe) within Makkah, but when they intend to perform umrah, they must go to Hill to assume the ihram (pilgrim-robe) and then go to the Haram. The reason is that the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم had instructed Sayyidah Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہا to go to Tan'im which is in hill to assume the ihram (pilgrim-robe) for umrah.

(٢٥١٧) وَعَنْ جَابِرٍ عَنْ رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ مُهَلُّ اَهْلِ الْمَدِيْنَةِ مِنْ ذِى الْحُلَيْفَةِ وَالطَّرِيْقُ الْاٰخَرُ الْجُحْفَةُ وَمُهَلُّ اَهْلَ الْعِرَاقِ مِنْ ذَاتِ عِرْقٍ وَمُهَلُّ اَهْلِ نَجْدٍ قَرْنٌ وَمُهَلُّ اَهْلِ الْيَمَنِ يَلَمْلَمُ۔ (رواه مسلم)

2517. Sayyiduna Jabir رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "The place to assume the ihram (pilgrim-robe) for the people of Madinah is Dhul Hulayfah, and on the other road is Al-Juhfah. For the people of Iraq, it is Dhat Irq. For the people of Najd, it is Qarn. And for the people of Yemen, it is Yalamlam."[1]

COMMENTARY: The other road from Madinah led to Makkah through Juhfah so it was also the miqat for the Madinah. However, now there only is one route via Dhul Hulayfah though Juhfah falls on the route. This means that there are two miqats for the people of Madinah. The ulama (Scholars) say that the ihram (pilgrim-robe) should be assumed at a place more distant from Makkah and that is Dhul Hulayfah, but if anyone assumes it at Juhfah then that, too, is allowed.

---

[1] Muslim # 18-1183, Nasa'i # 2651.

NUMBER OF UMRAH & HAJJ (PILGRIMAGE) PERFORMED BY THE PROPHET MUHAMMAD صلى الله عليه وسلم

(٢٥١٨) وَعَنْ اَنَسٍ قَالَ اعْتَمَرَ رَسُولُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَرْبَعَ عُمَرٍ كُلُّهُنَّ فِي ذِي الْقَعْدَةِ اِلَّا الَّتِي كَانَتْ مَعَ حَجَّتِهٖ عُمْرَةٌ مِنَ الْحُدَيْبِيَةِ فِي ذِي الْقَعْدَةِ وَعُمْرَةٌ مِنَ الْعَامِ الْمُقْبِلِ فِي ذِي الْقَعْدَةِ وَعُمْرَةٌ مِنَ الْجِعِرَّانَةِ حَيْثُ قَسَمَ غَنَائِمَ حُنَيْنٍ فِي ذِي الْقَعْدَةِ وَعُمْرَةٌ مَعَ حَجَّتِهٖ۔ (متفق عليه)

2518. Sayyiduna Anas رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم performed four umrahs, all of them in (the month of) Dhul qa'dah except the one that was performed along with his Hajj (pilgrimage). One of these was performed from Hudaybiyah in Dhul-qa'dh, a second in the year following in Dhul qadah, another from J'iranah where he disbursed the booty of hunayn in Dhul qa'dah, and an umrah performed along with his Hajj (pilgrimage).[1]

COMMENTARY: Hudaybiyah is a place about 26 kilometers to the north west of Makkah towards Jiddah. The mountain Jabal ash-Shumaysi is situated here because of which it is also called Shumaysiyah. Most of this place lies within the Haram but some of it outside its limits, in the Hill.

A brief account of the umrah of Hudaybiyah follows. The Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم departed from Madinah on Monday. 1st Dhul qadah 6 AH with intention to perform the umrah. He was accompanied by one thousand and four hundred, or some more, companions. When he came to Hudaybiyah, the quraysh of Makkah disallowed him to visit the BaytAllah. A lengthy discussion followed where after the peace Treaty of Hudaybiyan was concluded 'The Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم and his companions were to go back to Madinah that year, but would be allowed to perform umrah the next year.' So, the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم returned to Madinah without performing umrah. However, he did earn reward for an umrah (as did the other) so this is regarded as his first umrah, and the command of besiege came to be operative. The prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم came next year to Makkah to redeem the umrah. He stayed there for three days during which he performed the umrah and returned from there on the fourth day. This is counted as his second umrah and is called 'umrah al qada' on the redeeming umrah and this term is applied to it in ahadith (tradition) too. The Hanafis deduce from it that if a pilgrim has to relinquish his ihram (pilgrim-robe) out of compulsion on being prevented or surrounded then it is wajib (obligatory) for him to redeem the pilgrimage, but Imam (leader) Shafi'I رحمه الله rules that it is not wajib (obligatory) to redeem it.

The Prophet Muhammad's صلى الله عليه وسلم third umrah was the one he performed on coming to Makkah from Ji'ranah. Here, he had divided the spoils of the Battle of Hunayn. Ji'ranah is a place between Makkah and Ta'if. After the conquest of Makkah, the Battle of Hunayn was fought in 8 AH and a very huge booty was collected. The Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم stayed at Ji'ranah for fifteen or sixteen days and distributed the booty among the Sahabah

---

[1] Bukhari # 4148, Muslim # 217.1253, Abu Dawud # 1994, Tirmidhi # 815, Darimi # 1787, Musnad Ahmad 3-134.

(Prophet's companions) رضی اللہ عنہم. During those days, he went to Makkah one right after isha and performed the umrah. He returned to Ji'ranah on the same night and offered the salah (prayer) of fajr.

The fourth umrah of the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم was the one he performed, after Hajj (pilgrimage) was prescribed in 10 AH, alongwith Hajj (pilgrimage). So this umrah was performed in Dhul Hijjah while the others were performed in Dhul qadah. These were his umrah performed four times.

During Islam, he performed Hajj (pilgrimage) only once, after it was made fard(compulsory). The qurysh used to perform Hajj (pilgrimage) during the jahiliyah and the prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم had performed Hajj (pilgrimage) during those days, too, but the ulama (Scholars) donot know how many times he did that.

DIFFERENCE BETWEEN HAJJ (PILGRIMAGE) AND UMRAH

Hajj (pilgrimage) and Umrah will be described later on. Here, we must see the difference between Hajj (pilgrimage) and umrah. Hajj (pilgrimage) comprises the wuquf at Arafat, tawaf of Bayt Allah and the sa'I between safa and Marwah. Umrah is made up of the tawaf and the sa'I Ihram (pilgrim-robe) is a condition for both. Neither is valid without the ihram (pilgrim-robe). Hajj (pilgrimage) may be a fard(compulsory), a sunnah(Practice of Holy Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم) or an optional pilgrimage. Umrah is never fard(compulsory), but only a sunnah(Practice of Holy Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم) or an optional performance and if any one vows to perform an umrah then it becomes wajib (obligatory) for him to perform it.

PROPHET MUHAMMAD صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم UMRAH BEFORE HIS HAJJ (PILGRIMAGE)

(٢٥١٩) وَعَنِ الْبَرَاءِ بْنِ عَازِبٍ قَالَ اعْتَمَرَ رَسُولُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فِي ذِي الْقَعْدَةِ قَبْلَ اَنْ يَّحُجَّ مَرَّتَيْنِ۔ (رواہ البخاری)

2519. Sayyiduna Al-Bara ibn Aazib رضی اللہ عنہ said that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم performed umrah two times in Dhul qa'dah before he performed Hajj (pilgrimage).[1]

COMMENTARY: The previous hadith (tradition) count the umrah of Hudaybiyah when he had relinquished the ihram (pilgrim-robe) at Allah's command as an accomplished umrah because of the reward that was given to him. This hadith (tradition) does not count that umrah because the acts of umrah were not performed. Hence, this hadith (tradition) mentions two umrahs before his Hajj (pilgrimage) (and the previous hadith (tradition) three before Hajj (pilgrimage)), but he earned reward for three umrah before Hajj (pilgrimage).

SECTION II الفصل الثانی

HAJJ (PILGRIMAGE)* IS FARD(COMPULSORY) ONLY ONCE

(٢٥٢٠) عَنِ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَا اَيُّهَا النَّاسُ اِنَّ اللّٰهَ كَتَبَ عَلَيْكُمُ الْحَجَّ فَقَامَ الْاَقْرَعُ بْنُ حَابِسٍ فَقَالَ اَفِيْ كُلِّ عَامٍ يَارَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ قَالَ لَوْ قُلْتُهَا نَعَمْ لَوَجَبَتْ وَلَوْ وَجَبَتْ لَمْ تَعْمَلُوْا بِهَا وَلَمْ تَسْتَطِيْعُوْا وَالْحَجُّ مَرَّةً فَمَنْ زَادَ فَتَطَوُّعٌ۔ (رواہ احمد والنسائی والدارمی)

2520. Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said,

---

[1] Bukhari # 1781

"O you people, surely Allah has made Hajj (pilgrimage) fard(compulsory) for you." On that, al-Aqra ibn Habis رضی اللہ عنہ got up and asked, "Is it every year, O Messenger of Allah?" He said, "Were I to say, 'Yes' then it would become obligatory and if it became obligatory, you would not do it and would not be able to do it too. Hajj (pilgrimage) is to be performed just once. If anyone performs it more than that, it is a supererogatory performance."[1]

NOT PERFORMING HAJJ (PILGRIMAGE) IN SPITE OF ABILITY

(٢٥٢١) وَعَنْ عَلِيٍّ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ مَلَكَ زَادًا وَرَاحِلَةً تُبَلِّغُهُ إِلٰى بَيْتِ اللّٰهِ وَلَمْ يَحُجَّ فَلَاعَلَيْهِ أَنْ يَمُوْتَ يَهُوْدِيًا أَوْنَصْرَانِيًّا وَذٰلِكَ أَنَّ اللّٰهَ تَبَارَكَ وَتَعَالٰى يَقُوْلُ وَلِلّٰهِ عَلَى النَّاسِ حِجُّ الْبَيْتِ مَنِ اسْتَطَاعَ إِلَيْهِ سَبِيْلًا رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَقَالَ هٰذَا حَدِيْثٌ غَرِيْبٌ وَفِي إِسْنَادِهٖ مَقَالٌ وَهِلَالُ بْنُ عَبْدِ اللّٰهِ مَجْهُوْلٌ وَالْحَارِثُ يُضَعَّفُ فِي الْحَدِيْثِ۔

2521. Sayyiduna Ali رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "A person who possesses ample provision and a riding beast to carry him the House of Allah but does not perform Hajj (pilgrimage) may die a Jew or a Christian, it matters not, in the light of the words of Allah, Blessed and Exalted:

وَلِلّٰهِ عَلَى النَّاسِ حِجُّ الْبَيْتِ مَنِ اسْتَطَاعَ إِلَيْهِ سَبِيْلًا

{And pilgrimage to the House is a duty of mankind towards Allah for him who is able to make his way to it.} (3: 97)[2]

COMMENTARY: A person has money enough to bear his expenses of the journey and to leave enough for the upkeep of his family in his absence and also has a means of conveyance his own or against fare. But, he does not perform Hajj (pilgrimage) is spite of that till he dies. Then, he dies a Jew or a Christian.

If he did not perform Hajj (pilgrimage) because he rejected it as an obligation, then, as a Jew or Christian, he resembles a disbeliever. If he does not reject its obligation yet does not perform it then he dies like a sinning Jew or Christian. In short, to neglect the performance of Hajj (pilgrimage) is a very grave sin. The Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم had to make such a serious comparison.

The remaining portion of the verse is:

وَمَنْ كَفَرَ فَإِنَّ اللّٰهَ غَنِيٌّ عَنِ الْعَالَمِيْنَ

{As for him who disbelieves, surely Allah is Independent of the worlds} (3: 97)

People may obey or not obey, that does not benefit or harm Allah. It is they who derive benefit or suffer loss, through deliverance or punishment.

The Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم may have recited the entire verse but the narrator cited it up to (إِلَيْهِ سَبِيْلًا).

(٢٥٢٢) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَاصَرُوْرَةَ فِي الْإِسْلَامِ۔ (رواہ ابوداؤد)

---

[1] Abu Dawud # 1721, Nasa'i # 2620, Ibn Majah # 2886, Darimi # 1788, Musnad Ahmad 1-255.

[2] Tirmidhi # 812.

2522. Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "There is no sayrurah in Islam."[1]

COMMENTARY: Sayrurah refers to one who does not perform Hajj (pilgrimage). Hence, the hadith (tradition) means: 'one who does not perform Hajj (pilgrimage) in spite of it being obligatory on him is not a Muslim."

This saying is as a warning or it means that such a man is not a perfect Muslim.

Some people say that sayrurah means 'abstinence from marriage' and 'neglecting to perform Hajj (pilgrimage).' Hence the hadith (tradition) means that to refrain from marrying and performing Hajj (pilgrimage) is un Islamic. It is the practice of monks, or it is celibacy. A Muslim should not neglect marriage and Hajj (pilgrimage).

OBLIGATION TO PERFORM HAJJ (PILGRIMAGE) MUST NOT BE DEFERRED

(۲۵۲۳) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ أَرَادَ الْحَجَّ فَلْيُعَجِّلْ۔ (رواہ ابوداؤد والدارمی)

2523. Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, 'He who intends to perform Hajj (pilgrimage) must perform it promptly."[2]

COMMENTARY: If anyone is able to perform Hajj (pilgrimage) then he must not procrastinate but seize the opportunity lest circumstances change and he become unable to make the pilgrimage.

According to Imam (leader) Abu Hanifah رحمہ اللہ when Hajj (pilgrimage) becomes fard(compulsory) (meaning one is able to perform it), one must discharge the obligation promptly. If he defers and, meanwhile, becomes unable to do it, then the obligation will remain binding on him. (If he does not perform Hajj (pilgrimage), he will be regarded as a sinner.) Imam (leader) Maalik رحمہ اللہ and Imam (leader) Ahmad رحمہ اللہ too, subscribe to the same view.

Imam (leader) Shafi'I رحمہ اللہ holds that the obligation need not be discharge promptly it may be deferred till the last age just as it is allowed to delay the salah (prayer) till its last time. Imam (leader) Muhammad رحمہ اللہ agrees with this contention. However, both of them maintain that delay is permitted only when there is no likelihood of missing the Hajj (pilgrimage) altogether, otherwise it should not be deferred. If anyone on whom Hajj (pilgrimage) is fard(compulsory) dies without performing it, then all the ulama (Scholars) hold that he would die as a sinner and he would be questioned for not having performed Hajj (pilgrimage).

The Hanafi ulama (Scholars) say that if anyone on whom Hajj (pilgrimage) was fard(compulsory) deferred it and meanwhile, he suffers a financial set back, then he must borrow money and perform Hajj (pilgrimage) even if he is unable to repay the debt. It is hoped that Allah will not punish him for non-payment of debt provided he intends to repay it as soon as he gains ability to do so.

PERFORMING HAJJ (PILGRIMAGE) & UMRAH TOGETHER

(۲۵۲۴-۲۵۲۵) وَعَنِ ابْنِ مَسْعُوْدٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ تَابِعُوْا بَيْنَ الْحَجِّ وَالْعُمْرَةِ فَإِنَّهُمَا

---

[1] Abu Dawud # 1729, Musnad Ahmad 1-312.

[2] Abu Dawud # 1732, Ibn Majah # 1883, Musnad Ahmad 1-274.

يَنْفِيَانِ الْفَقْرَ وَالذُّنُوبَ كَمَا يَنْفِي الْكِيرُ خَبَثَ الْحَدِيدِ وَالذَّهَبِ وَالْفِضَّةِ وَلَيْسَ لِلْحَجَّةِ الْمَبْرُوْرَةِ ثَوَابٌ إِلَّا الْجَنَّةُ۔ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَالنَّسَائِيُّ وَرَوَاهُ أَحْمَدُ وَابْنُ مَاجَةَ عَنْ عُمَرَ إِلَى قَوْلِهِ خَبَثَ الْحَدِيْدِ۔

2524. Sayyiduna Ibn Mas'ud رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم said, "Let Hajj (pilgrimage) and umrah follow one another because they remove poverty and sin as the bellows remove rust form iron, gold and silver. And, there is no removed for an accepted Hajj (pilgrimage) but paradise."[1]

2525. Sayyiduna Umar رضی الله عنه (also) narrated this hadith (tradition) (but) up to the Prophet Muhammad صلی الله علیه وسلم words, from iron."[2]

COMMENTARY: This calls for the qiran form of Hajj (pilgrimage) which is the most excellent form of Hajj (pilgrimage). This will be explained later on.

This hadith (tradition) could also mean that if you have already performed umrah, now perform Hajj (pilgrimage), and if you have already made Hajj (pilgrimage), now make umrah. Poverty could mean the apparent lack of wealth but also the inner feeling. Thus, Allah would bestow wealth and property, or richness of heart to one who performs Hajj (pilgrimage) and umrah.

CONDITIONS OF HAJJ (PILGRIMAGE)

(٢٥٢٦) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عُمَرَ قَالَ جَاءَ رَجُلٌ إِلَى النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَقَالَ يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ مَا يُوْجِبُ الْحَجَّ قَالَ الزَّادُ وَالرَّاحِلَةُ۔ (رواه الترمذی وابن ماجة)

2526. Sayyiduna Ibn Umar رضی الله عنه said that a man came to the Prophet Muhammad صلی الله علیه وسلم and asked, "O Messenger of Allah, what makes Hajj (pilgrimage) obligatory?" He said, "Provision of journey and a means of conveyance."[3]

COMMENTARY: There are other conditions too, but this hadith (tradition) mentions the two main ones. They are the basic conditions.

This hadith (tradition) also rejects Imam (leader) Maalik's رحمه الله contention that Hajj (pilgrimage) is also obligatory on one who can travel on foot and also earn his expenses through trade or labour.

PILGRIM DESCRIBED

(٢٥٢٧) وَعَنْهُ قَالَ سَأَلَ رَجُلٌ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَقَالَ مَا الْحَاجُّ قَالَ الشَّعِثُ التَّفِلُ فَقَامَ اٰخَرُ فَقَالَ يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ اَىُّ الْحَجِّ اَفْضَلُ قَالَ وَالثَّجُّ فَالْعَجُّ فَقَامَ اٰخَرُ فَقَالَ يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ مَا السَّبِيْلُ قَالَ زَادٌ وَرَاحِلَةٌ۔ رَوَاهُ فِي شَرْحِ السُّنَّةِ وَرَوَى ابْنُ مَاجَةَ فِي سُنَنِهِ إِلَّا أَنَّهُ لَمْ يَذْكُرِ الْفَصْلَ الْاَخِيْرَ۔

2527. Sayyiduna Ibn Umar رضی الله عنه narrated that a man asked Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم, "Who is a pilgrim?" He said, "with dishevelled hair and bad-smelling (body)" Another man got up and asked, "O Messenger of Allah, which part of Hajj (pilgrimage) is the most excellent?" He said, "To raise the voice while calling the

---

[1] Tirmidhi # 810, Nasa'i # 2630.

[2] Ibn Majah # 2887, Musnad Ahmad 1-387.

[3] Tirmidhi # 813, Ibn Majah # 2896.

talbiyah and to shed blood of the sacrificial animal." Yet another arose and asked, "O Messenger of Allah, what is as sabil?" (A reference to hadith (tradition) # 2521, Qur'anic verse 3: 97) He said, "Provision and a riding beast."[1]

PERFORMING HAJJ (PILGRIMAGE) FOR FATHER

(٢٥٢٨) وَعَنْ اَبِي رَزِيْنِ الْعُقَيْلِيِّ اَنَّهُ اَتَى النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَقَالَ يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ اِنَّ اَبِي شَيْخٌ كَبِيْرٌ لَا يَسْتَطِيْعُ الْحَجَّ وَلَا الْعُمْرَةَ وَلَا الظَّعْنَ قَالَ حُجَّ عَنْ اَبِيْكَ وَاعْتَمِرْ۔ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَاَبُوْدَاوُدَ وَالنَّسَائِيُّ وَقَالَ التِّرْمِذِيُّ هٰذَا حَدِيْثٌ حَسَنٌ صَحِيْحٌ۔

2528. Sayyiduna Abu Razin Al-Uqayli رضی اللہ عنہ came to the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم and submitted, "O Messenger of Allah, my father is a very old man. He cannot perform Hajj (pilgrimage) and umrah, and he cannot sit firmly on a riding beast." He said, "perform Hajj (pilgrimage) on behalf of your father, and perform umrah, too."[2]

REFERENCE: See hadith (tradition) # 2511 of a similar nature. Comments follow there.

OWN HAJJ (PILGRIMAGE) BEFORE PERFORMING FOR ANOTHER

(٢٥٢٩) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ قَالَ اِنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ سَمِعَ رَجُلًا يَقُوْلُ لَبَّيْكَ عَنْ شُبْرُمَةَ قَالَ مَنْ شُبْرُمَةُ قَالَ اَخٌ لِّي اَوْ قَرِيْبٌ لِّي قَالَ اَحَجَجْتَ عَنْ نَفْسِكَ قَالَ لَا قَالَ حُجَّ عَنْ نَفْسِكَ ثُمَّ حُجَّ عَنْ شُبْرُمَةَ۔ (رواه الشافعی وابوداؤد وابن ماجة)

2529. Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم heard a man call 'Labayk for shubrumah.' He asked, "Who is shubrumah?" He said, "My brother," (he said) "A relative of mine." He asked, "Have you performed Hajj (pilgrimage) for yourself?" He said, "No" He said, "Perform Hajj (pilgrimage) for yourself, first. Then perform it for shubrumah."[3]

COMMENTARY: Imam (leader) Shafi'I رحمہ اللہ and Imam (leader) Ahmad رحمہ اللہ contend that one who has not performed his own Hajj (pilgrimage) must not perform Hajj (pilgrimage) for another. They cite this hadith (tradition). Imam (leader) Abu Hanifah رحمہ اللہ and Imam (leader) Maalik رضی اللہ عنہ hold that even if one has not performed his own Hajj (pilgrimage), he may perform Hajj (pilgrimage) for another, though it is better for him to perform his Hajj (pilgrimage) first. According to them the command in this hadith (tradition) is of the kind of mustahab (desirable). It is also said that this hadith (tradition) is weak or abrogated.

MIQAT OF THOSE FROM THE EAST

(٢٥٣٠) عَنْهُ قَالَ وَقَّتَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لِاَهْلِ الْمَشْرِقِ الْعَقِيْقَ۔ (رواه الترمذی وابوداؤد)

---

[1] Ibn Majah # 2896, Baghawi in Sharth us sunnah(Practice of Holy Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم) # 1847, (Ibn Majah does not mention the last portion (of the third man.

[2] Tirmidhi # 931, Abu Dawud # 1810, Nasa'i # 2617, Ibn Majah # 2906, Musnad Ahmad # 16184.

[3] Abu Dawud # 1811, Ibn Majah # 2903, Shafi'I رحمہ اللہ.

2530. Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم appointed al-Aqiq as the miqat of the people of the east.[1]

COMMENTARY: Al-Atiq is a place around Dhat Irq. The people of the east are those whose lands are to the east of Makkah outside the Haram. They are also called the Iraqis.

(٢٥٣١) وَعَنْ عَائِشَةَ اَنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَقَّتَ لِاَهْلِ الْعِرَاقِ ذَاتَ عِرْقٍ۔ (رواہ ابوداؤد والنسائی)

2531. Sayyidah Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہا narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم fixed Dhat Irq as the miqat of the people of Iraq.[2]

PREFERABLE TO ASSUME THE IHRAM (PILGRIM-ROBE) BEFORE THE MIQAT

(٢٥٣٢) وَعَنْ اُمِّ سَلَمَةَ قَالَتْ سَمِعْتُ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُوْلُ مَنْ اَهَلَّ بِحَجَّةٍ اَوْ عُمْرَةٍ مِنَ الْمَسْجِدِ الْاَقْصٰى اِلَى الْمَسْجِدِ الْحَرَامِ غُفِرَ لَهُ مَا تَقَدَّمَ مِنْ ذَنْبِهِ وَمَا تَأَخَّرَ اَوْ وَجَبَتْ لَهُ الْجَنَّةُ۔ (رواہ ابوداود وابن ماجة)

2532. Sayyidah Umm Salamah رضی اللہ عنہا narrated that she heard Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم say that if anyone assumes the ihram (pilgrim-robe) for Hajj (pilgrimage) or umrah from Masjid Al-Aqsa to the Masjid Al-Haram then his sins, the previous as well as the latest, are forgive, or paradise is assured to him.[3]

COMMENTARY: The 'or' between the words 'Hajj (pilgrimage)' and 'umrah' is to differentiate 'one of the two, But the or between forgiven and paradise is the narrator's uncertainty about which of the two the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم spoke.

Anyone who begins his journey for Hajj (pilgrimage) from Bayt ul Maqdis (Jerusalam) at Masjid al-Aqsa passes through Madinah on his way to Makkah. He is very fortunate that he touches three sacred cities and his journey too is for a sacred cause. Hence, he entitles himself to the great reward promised in the hadith (tradition).

Some scholars say that this hadith (tradition) suggests that the further the place where the ihram (pilgrim-robe) is assumed, the more the reward. Therefore Imam (leader) Abu Hanifah رضی اللہ عنہ said that to assume the ihram (pilgrim-robe) at a place ahead of the miqat, or even at one's home, is better, Imam (leader) Shafi'I رحمہ اللہ gave one verdict in agreement with this opinion of Abu Hanifah رحمہ اللہ, but this is on condition that one is able to respect the conditions and prohibitions of the ihram (pilgrim-robe). If he is unable to do so then he should assume the ihram (pilgrim-robe) at the miqat itself.

The Hanafis have both allowed and classified as makruh(unbecoming) the assumption of the ihram (pilgrim-robe) before the months of Hajj (pilgrimage) (Shawwal, Dhul qa'dah and Dhul *Hajj (pilgrimage)*ah before its ten initial days) Imam (leader) Maalik رحمہ اللہ and Imam (leader) Ahmad رضی اللہ عنہ also regard it as makruh(unbecoming) (disliked). Imam (leader) Shafi'I رضی اللہ عنہ grave one verdict that it is not correct to assume the ihram (pilgrim-robe) before the months of Hajj (pilgrimage), but his operative ruling is that if anyone assumes the ihram (pilgrim-robe) before the months of Hajj (pilgrimage) then his ihram (pilgrim-robe) will be regarded to be of umrah, not of Hajj (pilgrimage).

---

[1] Abu Dawud # 1740, Tirmidhi # 832.

[2] Abu Dawud # 1739, Nasa'i # 2656.

[3] Abu Dawud # 1741, Ibn Majah # 3001, Musnad Ahmad 6.299.

SECTION III اَلْفَصْلُ الثَّالِثُ

AVOID BEGGING DURING HAJJ (PILGRIMAGE)

(٢٥٣٣) عَنِ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ قَالَ كَانَ اَهْلُ الْيَمَنِ يَحُجُّوْنَ فَلَا يَتَزَوَّدُوْنَ وَيَقُوْلُوْنَ نَحْنُ الْمُتَوَكِّلُوْنَ فَإِذَا قَدِمُوْا مَكَّةَ سَأَلُوا النَّاسَ فَأَنْزَلَ اللّٰهُ تَعَالٰى وَتَزَوَّدُوْا فَإِنَّ خَيْرَ الزَّادِ التَّقْوٰى۔ (رواه البخاری)

2533. Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ said that when the people of Yemen performed Hajj (pilgrimage), they did not bring provision but pleaded that they had trust in Allah. When they arrived in Makkah, however, they resorted to begging from the people. So, Allah revelled:

وَتَزَوَّدُوْا فَإِنَّ خَيْرَ الزَّادِ التَّقْوٰى

{And take provision with you, (however) the best provision indeed in piety.}[1](2: 197)

COMMENTARY: Those people had a misconception of tawakkal (trust in Allah). They were told to keep provision with them and not to stop too low to begging. It is not correct to proceed for Hajj (pilgrimage) without equipping oneself with provision of the journey if one is not confident that he will not beg and put himself to inconvenience and not be able to discharge the rites of Hajj (pilgrimage) perfectly, and put others to inconvenience too.

The verse and the hadith (tradition) suggest that it is not contrary to tawakkal to carry necessary provisions. Of course, if anyone adopts only tawakkal and caries no means there is no harm if he is resolute and persevering. That should be true tawakkal, however.

WOMEN'S JIHAD IS HAJJ (PILGRIMAGE) & UMRAH

(٢٥٣٤) وَعَنْ عَائِشَةَ قَالَتْ قُلْتُ يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ عَلَى النِّسَاءِ جِهَادٌ قَالَ نَعَمْ عَلَيْهِنَّ جِهَادٌ لَاقِتَالَ فِيْهِ الْحَجُّ وَالْعُمْرَةُ۔ (رواه ابن ماجة)

2534. Sayyidah Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہا narrated that she asked, "O Messenger of Allah, is jihad fard(compulsory) on women?" He said, 'Yes. It is jihad in which is no fighting. It is Hajj (pilgrimage) and u mrah."[2]

COMMENTARY: Islam has not prescribed jihad on woman but rather than deprive them of its great reward has elevated Hajj (pilgrimage) and umrah to its level for them. Though there is no fighting in it, it calls for strenuous effort and a journey away from home.

WARNING TO THOSE WHO FAIL TO PERFORM HAJJ (PILGRIMAGE) FOR NO REASON

(٢٥٣٥) وَعَنْ اَبِي اُمَامَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ لَمْ يَمْنَعْهُ مِنَ الْحَجِّ حَاجَةٌ ظَاهِرَةٌ اَوْ سُلْطَانٌ جَائِرٌ اَوْ مَرَضٌ حَابِسٌ فَمَاتَ وَلَمْ يَحُجَّ فَلْيَمُتْ إِنْ شَاءَ يَهُوْدِيًّا وَإِنْ شَاءَ نَصْرَانِيًّا۔ (رواه الدارمی)

2535. Sayyiduna Abu Umamah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "If any one is not obstructed from performing Hajj (pilgrimage) by an obvious excuse, an oppressive king or an illness that confines him yet he dies without performing Hajj (pilgrimage), then he may die, if he wishes as a Jew, or, if he

---

[1] Bukhari # 1523, Abu Dawud # 1730.

[2] Ibn Majah # 2901.

wishes, as a Christian."[1]

COMMENTARY: If anyone fears for his life and property during the journey at the hands of a monarch or rulers who are cruel then Hajj (pilgrimage) is not fard(compulsory) on him even though he may have met the other conditions of Hajj (pilgrimage). Similar, such diseases as restrict movement absolve one from the obligation of Hajj (pilgrimage). These include the bind, paralyzed, etc.

Hence, the hadith (tradition) means that if anyone meets all the conditions of Hajj (pilgrimage) and nothing hinders him from proceeding yet he does not perform Hajj (pilgrimage) then he may die a Jew or a Christian. This warning has been explained against hadith (tradition) # 2521.

PILGRIMS ARE ALLAH'S GUESTS

(٢٥٣٦) وَعَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ أَنَّهُ قَالَ الْحَاجُّ وَالْعُمَّارُ وَفْدُ اللّٰهِ إِنْ دَعَوْهُ أَجَابَهُمْ وَإِنِ اسْتَغْفَرُوْهُ غَفَرَلَهُمْ۔ (رواه ابن ماجة)

2536. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "The pilgrims whether performing Hajj (pilgrimage) or performing umrah are guests of Allah. If they pray to him, he answers them and if they seek His forgiveness, He forgives them."[2]

COMMENTARY: Ka'bah is Allah's House. Visitors to it are His guests. As their host, Allah cares for all their permissible needs.

(٢٥٣٧) وَعَنْهُ قَالَ سَمِعْتُ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُوْلُ وَفْدُاللّٰهِ ثَلَاثَةٌ الْغَازِیْ وَالْحَاجُّ وَالْمُعْتَمِرُ۔ (رواه النسائی والبیهقی فی شعب الایمان)

2537. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that he heard Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم say, "The guests of Allah are of three kinds; the warrior, the pilgrim who performs Hajj (pilgrimage) and the pilgrim who performs umrah."[3]

SALAAM & HANDSHAKE WITH RETURNING PILGRIMS

(٢٥٣٨) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عُمَرَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِذَا لَقِيْتَ الْحَاجَّ فَسَلِّمْ عَلَيْهِ وَصَافِحْهُ وَمُرْهُ أَنْ يَسْتَغْفِرَلَكَ قَبْلَ أَنْ يَدْخُلَ بَيْتَهُ فَإِنَّهُ مَغْفُوْرٌ لَّهٗ۔ (رواه احمد)

2538. Sayyiduna Ibn Umar رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "When you meet him who has performed Hajj (pilgrimage) greet him with salaam, shake hands with him and request him to make istighfar for you before he enters his house because he is one who is forgiven."[4]

COMMENTARY: A person who has performed Hajj (pilgrimage) has his prayers answered from the time he enters Makkah till forty days after he returns home. In the past , people used to receive returning pilgrims warmly. Their objective was to shake h ands with them

[1] Darimi # 1785.

[2] Ibn Majah # 2892.

[3] Ibn Majah # 2892, Nasa'i # 2626, Bayhaqi I shabul Eeman.

[4] Musnad Ahmad 2-69.

who has been forgiven and gain some of the blessings before they occupied themselves with worldly pursuits. Today, this spirit has given way to ostentation and pretence.

This hadith (tradition) to instructs that even before a pilgrim enters his home, we must shake hands with him before he engages in worldly tasks and mingles with his family. Till this time, he is said to be in Allah's path and innocent of sins and hence one whose prayers are granted. We are instructed to request him to make istighfar for us so that Allah will answer his prayer and forgive us.

The ulama (Scholars) say that one who performs umrah, who wages jihad and who seeks religious knowledge are all like the pilgrim who has performs Hajj (pilgrimage). When these people return home, we should offer them salaam, shake hands with them and request them to make istighfar for us before they enter their homes because they are forgiven.

A PILGRIM WHO DIES GETS FULL REWARD

(٢٥٣٩) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ خَرَجَ حَاجًّا اَوْ مُعْتَمِرًا اَوْ غَازِيًا ثُمَّ مَاتَ فِيْ طَرِيْقِهٖ كَتَبَ اللّٰهُ لَهٗ اَجْرَ الْغَازِيْ وَالْحَاجِّ وَالْمُعْتَمِرِ۔ رَوَاهُ الْبَيْهَقِيُّ فِيْ شُعَبِ الْاِيْمَانِ۔

2539. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "If anyone proceeds to perform Hajj (pilgrimage) or umrah, or as a warrior and dies on his way, then Allah writes for him the reward of the warrior, the pilgrim performing Hajj (pilgrimage) and the pilgrims performing umrah."[1]

COMMENTARY: The seeker of religious knowledge is also in the fold of these people. If anyone goes out of his home in pursuit of religious knowledge and dies on his way then he will get the reward of a scholar.

MAKKAH & MADINAH

Some basic information about Hajj (pilgrimage) has been given in this chapter and its commands and rules will follow in succeeding chapter. Makkah is the central place of this great worship and good fortune. Madinah is the heartbeat of every Muslim. It is the land of the beloved. Every pilgrim loves to visit Madinah.

Hence, we present a brief historical and geographical account of these two places. Of course chapters, on the merits of these two places will follow.

MAKKAH: The Bayt Allah or house of Allah is situated here. It is a city of al-HIjaz in Saudi Arabia, in the wadi (valley) Ibrahim. It is about three hundred and fifty feet above sea level. Its latitude is 21°N and longitude 29.5°E. Its population is four hundred thousand, or more than that. It is situated about 78 kilometres away from the seashore.

Makkah is also known as Bakkah, Umm ul Qura and Balad ul Amin, but the most common and well-known name is Makkah. The land where it is situated is uncultivable, a narrow and deep valley. It was once a waterless, grassless desert, uninhabited. It extends in the valley more than five miles from east to west and is more than two miles breadth wise. It is also called Batha because it lies in the path of onrushing flood waters. The valley of Makkah is surrounded by two mountain ranges extending from the west to the east, one of them is in the north and the other in the south, and both ranges are called Akhshaban. The Torah refers to them as Jibal Faran (Faran mountains).

About four thousand years ago, Prophet Ibrahim علیہ السلام brought his wife, Sayyidah Hajrah

---

[1] Bayhaqi # 4100.

عليه‌السلام, and young son, Sayyiduna Ismail عليه‌السلام to this desert wilderness, and settles them here. He also rebuilt the ka'bah at that time. Besides, he prayed to Allah to cause some of mankind to inhabit the land. Since then this desolate place attracted the neighbouring people - rather, all the worlds dwellers - to it. Allah's worshippers turn toward it five times a day for salah (prayer) and will keep facing it.

The progeny of Sayyiduna Ismail عليه‌السلام settled here and even spread in the surroundings. The Quraysh became the trustee and residents of this place. And, it was here that, among the Quraysh, was born the supreme guide and Allah's last Messenger the chief of the two worlds صلى الله عليه وسلم. He conveyed to the world, from this sacred city. Allah's last message and religion, Islam. Here, began every effort and exertion to propagate Islam worldwide.

In the beginning the makkans dwelled in tents. Two hundred years before the hijrah, the Prophet Muhammad's صلى الله عليه وسلم ancestor Qusay ibn Kilab came from shaam (Syria and adjoining areas) and he initiated erection of houses. With the advent of Islam, the city continued to prosper so that, presently, it is the biggest city of its neighbourhood and Islam's most important and central city.

There is only one spring in the city, the only source of water, called zamzam. There is no well. Paucity of water forbade cultivation of any sort, but not a large supply of water has made it possible to grow some grass and plants. Earlier a river was diverted at a point near Ta'if and it was called River Zubaydah having been commissioned by the mother of Amin ur Rashid, Zubaydah. It was expended with time and other means of water supply were tapped. The present government has made a solid arrangement for supply of water so that there is no shortage of water now.

Since Makkah is sandwiched between mountains, it is a very hot place. Its winter is very mild. It is very unbearable in summer. It rains only in winter, not more than about five inches annually. Summer begins in March and continues till October.

MADINAH: Madinah is about four hundred and thirty two kilometers to the north of Makkah. To its western side at about one hundred kilometers lies the sea and the famous seaport of the area, Yanbu al Bahr.

Madinah lies about the middle of the highway between Makkah and Shaam. It is situated at 24.35° North and 39.52 East.

When the infidels of Makkah made life difficult for the Muslims and persecuted them, it became nearly impossible to preach Islam. So, on receiving Allah's commands, the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم instructed the sahabah (Prophet's companions) رضى الله عنهم to emigrate to Madinah and he himself followed them to it. Thus the centre of propagation of Islam moved to Madinah. From here. The light of Islam dispersed beyond the limits of Arabia into the entire world.

Before the Prophet Muhammad's صلى الله عليه وسلم arrival, this city was known as yathrib. He changed its name to Madinah and it came to be called Madinatur Rasul, the city of the Messenger. Its other names are: Tabah, Tayyibah, Ta'ibah, Ardullah, Darul hijrah, Bayt RasulAllah Haram Rasul Allah, Mahbubah, Hasanah, and so on. These are found in ahadith (tradition) and other texts, but Madinah is the most famous name.

In contrast to Makkah, Madinah is an evergreen, verdurous, cultivable city, Apart from its western side, there are gardens on all its other sides producing dates, grapes and variety of other fruits in a large quantity. Its fields are cultivated and its climate is moderate. There are no mountain surrounding it, but gardens enclose it from different sides and it is twelve thousand five hundred feet above sea level. It has extreme summer and winter, and it is said to be an invigorating, healthy city.

When the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم arrived here, its climate was very unpleasant. Illness and epidemics were common. Both Sayyiduna Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه and Sayyiduna Bilal رضى الله عنه became seriously ill on coming here. The Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم prayed for its climate to become aggreable and his prayer was granted.

The mountains Hurratul Waqim and Hurratul Wabrah lie on its east and west respectively. On its south is the Mount Uhud in whose proximity the Battle of uhud was fought. There are at this place graves of many sahabah (Prophet's companions) رضى الله عنهم including of Sayyiduna Hamzah رضى الله عنه. The Mount uhud is about two and a half miles away from the city. To its south are two mountains ayr (جبال عير) and two suburbs, Quba and Awaly. Between Hurratul Waqim and Hurratul Wabrah, to the north but somewhat isolated is the Mount sal (جبل سلع) It was here that the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم and his sahabah (Prophet's companions) رضى الله عنهم has dug trenches together in 4 AH to block the path of the infidels into Madinah. This event came to be known as Ghazwah Ahzab (Battle of the confederates) or Ghazwah Khandaq (Battle of the Trenches).

The trenches were dug in the form of a crescent from Hurratul Waqim to Hurratul Wabrah and dug from behind the Mount sal. The Muslim army was positioned at the base of Mount sal.

The Prophet Muhammad's صلى الله عليه وسلم beautiful mosque is situated in about the centre of the city in a rectangular form. In the eastern portion of the mosque at the southern corner is t he Prophet Muhammad's صلى الله عليه وسلم grave In which he rests. His two honourable companions. Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه and Umar Faruq رضى الله عنه are also buried by his side.

CHAPTER - II

THE IHRAM (PILGRIM-ROBE) AND THE TALBIYAH (ASSUMING THE IHRAM (PILGRIM-ROBE) AND CALLING HE LABAYK)

بَابُ الْإِحْرَامِ وَالتَّلْبِيَةِ

'Ihram (pilgrim-robe)' means to make unlawful. Many things become unlawful for the pilgrim, so this word is used to denote that (as of that moment) these things are forbidden. The clothing consists only of a sheet of cloth covering the upper body and a waist-wrapper over the lower body waist-wrapper over the lower body waist-down, with the intention to perform Hajj (pilgrimage) or umrah, and it is called the ihram (pilgrim-robe).

'Talbiyah' is to call the labayk. It is:

لَبَّيْكَ اَللّٰهُمَّ لَبَّيْكَ لَبَّيْكَ لَا شَرِيْكَ لَكَ لَبَّيْكَ إِنَّ الْحَمْدَ وَالنِّعْمَةَ لَكَ وَالْمُلْكَ لَكَ لَا شَرِيْكَ لَكَ

SECTION I

اَلْفَصْلُ الْاَوَّلُ

APPLYING PERFUME WHILE IN THE STATE OF IHRAM (PILGRIM-ROBE)

(٢٥٤٠) عَنْ عَائِشَةَ قَالَتْ كُنْتُ أُطَيِّبُ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لِإِحْرَامِهِ قَبْلَ أَنْ يُّحْرِمَ وَلِحِلِّهٖ قَبْلَ أَنْ يَّطُوْفَ بِالْبَيْتِ بِطِيْبٍ فِيْهِ مِسْكٌ كَأَنِّيْ أَنْظُرُ إِلٰى وَبِيْصِ الطِّيْبِ فِيْ مَفَارِقِ رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ

عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَهُوَ مُحْرِمٌ۔ (متفق عليه)

2540. Sayyidah Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہا narrated that she used to apply perfume to Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم for his ihram (pilgrim-robe) before he assumed the ihram (pilgrim-robe) and when he relinquished his ihram (pilgrim-robe) before he circumambulated the House with a perfume of musk. She said, "It is as though I still see the shine of the perfume at the parting of the hair of Allah's Messenger while he was in the state of the ihram (pilgrim-robe)."[1]

COMMENTARY: If perfume is applied on the clothing of ihram (pilgrim-robe) before it is assumed then there is no harm in it even if the fragrance persists after assuming the ihram (pilgrim-robe). Imam (leader) Abu Hanifah رحمہ اللہ and Imam (leader) Ahmad رحمہ اللہ hold this contention that perfume may be applied before assuming the ihram (pilgrim-robe) but not afterwards. Imam (leader) Malik رحمہ اللہ and Imam (leader) Shafi'I رحمہ اللہ, however, contend that it is makruh(unbecoming) to apply a perfume before assuming the ihram (pilgrim-robe) it its fragrance persists even after assuming the ihram (pilgrim-robe).

Before we explain the second portion of the hadith (tradition), we must remember that on the 10th Dhul Hijjah, the pilgrims come to Mina from Muzdalifah. There they perform the rami jamrah uqbah and put off their ihram (pilgrim-robe) so that whatever (lawful) was forbidden in the state of ihram (pilgrim-robe) becomes legal again except sexual intercourse or suggestion of it to women. This becomes permissible only after tawaf ifadah in Makkah. Sayyidah Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہا said that she applied perfume to Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم again when he relinquished the ihram (pilgrim-robe) on coming to Mina and making the rami jimrat uqbah though he had not yet performed the tawaf ifadah.

TALBID & TALBIYAH (MATTED HAIR & LABBAYK)

(٢٥٤١) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عُمَرَ قَالَ سَمِعْتُ رَسُولَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يُهِلُّ مُلَبِّدًا يَقُوْلُ لَبَّيْكَ اَللّٰهُمَّ لَبَّيْكَ لَبَّيْكَ لَا شَرِيْكَ لَكَ لَبَّيْكَ اِنَّ الْحَمْدَ وَالنِّعْمَةَ لَكَ وَالْمُلْكَ لَا شَرِيْكَ لَكَ لَا يَزِيْدُ عَلٰى هٰؤُلَاءِ الْكَلِمَاتِ۔ (متفق عليه)

2541. Sayyiduna Ibn Umar رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that he heard Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم call (the talbiyah) in a loud voice while his hair was matted:

لَبَّيْكَ اَللّٰهُمَّ لَبَّيْكَ لَبَّيْكَ لَا شَرِيْكَ لَكَ لَبَّيْكَ اِنَّ الْحَمْدَ وَالنِّعْمَةَ لَكَ وَالْمُلْكَ لَا شَرِيْكَ لَكَ

{I am here, O Allah! I am here! I am here; you have no partner. I m here! Surely, all praise and grace are Yours, and the dominion. You have no partner.}
He did not add over these words.[2]

COMMENTARY: The Arabic word (تلبيد) (talbid) translated as 'matted' implies applying henna or any other sticking material to the hair on the head to keep hair together. Also, dust and lice will be kept away. The pilgrims may do it before assuming the ihram (pilgrim-robe).

The ulama (Scholars) differ on the saying of the talbiyah or labayk. Imam (leader) Abu

---

[1] Bukhari # 1539, Muslim # 37-1189, Abu Dawud # 1745, Tirmidhi # 918, Nasa'i # 2693, Ibn Majah # 2926, Muwatta # 17, Musnad Ahmad 6.98, Darimi # 183.

[2] Bukhari # 1540, Muslim # 21-1184, Abu Dawud # 1747, Ibn Majah # 3047, Musnad Ahmad 2-131.

Hanifah رحمه الله regards it as a condition for the ihram (pilgrim-robe) to be correct. Imam (leader) Maalik says that while talbiyah is not wajib (obligatory) but if it is neglected then one will have to pay the dumm (which is sacrificing an animal). Imam (leader) Shafi'I رحمه الله says that talbiyah is a sunnah(Practice of Holy Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم) and if it is neglected, no expiation (dumm) is necessary.
The prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم used only these words in talbiyah generally. Other versions give more words and the verdict is that it is makruh(unbecoming) to cut down the words of talbiyah as given here, and to add (those) more words is not makruh(unbecoming), but mustahab (desirable).
All the ulama (Scholars) agree that it is mustahab (desirable) to call t! e talbiyah in a raised voice.

WHEN TO CALL THE TALBIYAH

(٢٥٤٢) وَعَنْهُ قَالَ كَانَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِذَا اَدْخَلَ رِجْلَهُ فِي الْغَرْزِ وَاسْتَوَتْ بِهٖ نَاقَتُهُ قَآئِمَةً اَهَلَّ مِنْ عِنْدِ مَسْجِدِ ذِى الْحُلَيْفَةِ۔ (متفق عليه)

2542. Sayyiduna Ibn Umar رضى الله عنه narrated that when Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم put his feet in the stirrup and his she camel stoop up with him (seated on it), he called the talbiyah in a loud voice from near the mosque of Dhul Hulayfah.[1]

COMMENTARY: The Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم prepared for his journey for the Farewell pilgrimage and offered the salah (prayer) of zuhr in Madinah. He offered the salah (prayer) of asr at Dhul Hulayfah which is the miqat of the people of Madinah. He spent the night there and assumed the ihram (pilgrim-robe) in the morning.
While this hadith (tradition) says that the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم sat down on the camel's back and called the labayk after the camel stood up, another hadith (tradition) says that he offered two raka'at optional salah (prayer) for the ihram (pilgrim-robe) and called the labayk. Another hadith (tradition) says that he reached bayda, an elevated place, and called the labayk. Hence, there are three different versions of when the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم called the labayk.
Imam (leader) Shafi'I رحمه الله abides by the first version which is the hadith (tradition) under discussion. According to him, the pilgrim must call the labayk after sitting on his camel or whatever kind of conveyance be uses.
Imam (leader) Abu Hanifah رحمه الله, Imam (leader) Maalik رحمه الله and Imam (leader) Ahmad رحمه الله have followed the second version. According to these three Imam (leader)s, it is mustahab (desirable) to offer two raka'at salah (prayer) (optional), form the intention to assume the ihram (pilgrim-robe) and while still at the prayer rug the labayk may be called, but it is better to call it immediately after the salah (prayer).
The three versions are reconciled by assuming that the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم offered this salah (prayer) and called the labayk while at the prayer rug. Again he called the labayk after sitting on the she camel. And, once again, he called the labayk at Bayda.
This is why the ulama (Scholars) have said that labayk may be called with every change in situation, time and place. Such a repetition is mustahab (desirable).

---

[1] Bukhari # 2865, Muslim # 22-1187, Abu Dawud # 1773, Nasa'i # 2757, Ibn Majah # 2916, Darimi # 1929, Musnad Ahmad 2-18, Muwatta Maalik # 20-9-29.

So, the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم called the labayk three times in this manner. The narrator, in each case, thought that he had called it where he had heard the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم. Therefore, each of them reported just as he had heard the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم. This reconciliation is based on the hadith (tradition) of Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ that Shaykh Abdul Haq رحمہ اللہ has cited in Ash'ah al lam'at on the authority of the sharh kitab Kharqi.

ABOUT TALBIYAH & KINDS OF HAJJ (PILGRIMAGE)

(٢٥٤٣) وَعَنْ اَبِي سَعِيْدِنِ الْخُدْرِيِّ قَالَ خَرَجْنَا مَعَ رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ نَصْرُخُ بِالْحَجِّ صُرَاخًا۔

(رواہ مسلم)

2543. Sayyiduna Abu Sa'eed Khudri رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that they set out with Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم with their voices very loud for the Hajj (pilgrimage) (calling the labayk).[1]

COMMENTARY: Only Hajj (pilgrimage) is mentioned because Hajj (pilgrimage) is the real pilgrimage, Besides, the narrator spoke of himself and of those who called the talbiyah only for Hajj (pilgrimage), or this hadith (tradition) speaks of those who performed the Hajj (pilgrimage) ifrad and assumed the ihram (pilgrim-robe) for it.

This hadith (tradition) says nothing about The Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم. This will be explained in the next hadith (tradition). Hence, this hadith (tradition) cannot be said to contradict other ahadith (tradition).

(٢٥٤٤) وَعَنْ اَنَسٍ قَالَ كُنْتُ رَدِيْفَ اَبِي طَلْحَةَ وَاِنَّهُمْ لَيَصْرَخُوْنَ بِهِمَا جَمِيْعًا اَلْحَجِّ وَالْعُمْرَةِ۔ (رواہ البخاری)

2544. Sayyiduna Anas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that he was a co-rider with Abu Talhah رضی اللہ عنہ, and they (the suhabah) رضی اللہ عنہ were calling out aloud for both of them, the Hajj (pilgrimage) and the umrah.[2]

COMMENTARY: This hadith (tradition) is evidence that Hajj (pilgrimage) of the form qiran is more excellent. Imam (leader) Abu Hanifah رحمہ اللہ holds this view because the sahabah (Prophet's companions) رضی اللہ عنہم were with the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم they would never be willing to do anything different from what the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم did. He may have observed the form qiran and they emulated him. The form qiran is explained in the next hadith (tradition).

(٢٥٤٥) وَعَنْ عَائِشَةَ قَالَتْ خَرَجْنَا مَعَ رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ عَامَ حَجَّةِ الْوَدَاعِ فَمِنَّا مَنْ اَهَلَّ بِعُمْرَةٍ وَمِنَّا مَنْ اَهَلَّ بِحَجٍّ وَعُمْرَةٍ وَمِنَّا مَنْ اَهَلَّ بِالْحَجِّ وَاَهَلَّ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ بِالْحَجِّ فَاَمَّا مَنْ اَهَلَّ بِعُمْرَةٍ فَحَلَّ وَاَمَّا مَنْ اَهَلَّ بِالْحَجِّ اَوْجَمَعَ الْحَجَّ وَالْعُمْرَةَ فَلَمْ يَحِلُّوْا حَتّٰى كَانَ يَوْمُ النَّحْرِ۔ (متفق علیہ)

2545. Sayyiduan Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہا: we set out with Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم in the year of the Farewell pilgrimage. Some of us assumed the ihram (pilgrim-robe) for umrah (alone and called aloud the talbiyah). Some of us assumed the ihram

---

[1] Muslim # 211-1247, Musnad Ahmad 3-5.

[2] Bukhari # 1526, Muslim # 118.1211, Abu Dawud # 1779, Ibn Majah # 3000, Muwatta Maalik # 56 (Hajj).

(pilgrim-robe) for Hajj (pilgrimage) and umrah (both) and some of us assumed it for Hajj (pilgrimage) (alone). Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم assumed the ihram (pilgrim-robe) for Hajj (pilgrimage). Those who had assumed the ihram (pilgrim-robe) for umrah (alone), relinquished it while those who had assumed it for Hajj (pilgrimage) or for both Hajj (pilgrimage) and umrah together did no it relinquish it till the day of sacrifice.[1]

COMMENTARY: There are three kinds of people who perform Hajj (pilgrimage):

(i) Mufrid.
(ii) Qarin.
(iii) Mutamatta.

The mufrid assumes the ihram (pilgrim-robe) of Hajj (pilgrimage) only. Hence, ifrad is to assume the ihram (pilgrim-robe) of only Hajj (pilgrimage) and to confine oneself to performance of Hajj (pilgrimage).

The qarin assumes the ihram (pilgrim-robe) for both Hajj (pilgrimage) and umrah. He performs the umrah first and then t he Hajj (pilgrimage). To assume the ihram (pilgrim-robe) for both Hajj (pilgrimage) and umrah and perform umrah and Hajj (pilgrimage) in this sequence is called qiran.

The mutamatta is one who assumes the ihram (pilgrim-robe) for umrah at the miqat during the months of Hajj (pilgrimage), and performs the rites of umrah. If he has brought the hadi (animal for sacrifice) with him, then he should retain the ihram (pilgrim-robe) and if he has not brought the hadi, then he must relinquish t he ihram (pilgrim-robe), but remain in Makkah. When the days of Hajj (pilgrimage) arrive, he must assume the ihram (pilgrim-robe) of Hajj (pilgrimage) from the Haram, and must perform Hajj (pilgrimage). To assume the ihram (pilgrim-robe) for umrah first in the months of Hajj (pilgrimage) and after performing umrah but before returning to one's native land and without relinquishing the ihram (pilgrim-robe) if the animal of sacrifice is brought along - or after relinquishing the ihram (pilgrim-robe), assuming the ihram (pilgrim-robe) of Hajj (pilgrimage) at the Haram and performing the Hajj (pilgrimage) is called tamattu.

Only definitions are given here in brief a detailed exposition of commands will follow later, insha Allah.

THE PROPHET MUHAMMAD'S صلى الله عليه وسلم IHRAM (PILGRIM-ROBE)*: The question arises; what kind of ihram (pilgrim-robe) the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم had assumed during the farewell pilgrimage? Was he a mufrid, a qarin or a mutamatta? The ahadith (tradition) differ on this subject. Some of them, like the one under discussion, suggest that he was a mufrid. But, most ahadith (tradition) say that he was a qarin, and some say t hat he was mutamatta.

The differences in the ahadith (tradition) may be explained on the hearing of the narrators. Some heard him say (لَبَّيکَ بِحَجَّۃٍ) (labayk for Hajj (pilgrimage)), other also heard the words (لَبَّيکَ بِحَجَّۃٍ وَ عُمْرَۃٍ) (and umrah with Hajj (pilgrimage)), and others heard only (لَبَّيکَ بِعُمْرَۃٍ) (for umrah. Or the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم may have said at different moments each of these: (لبیک بحجۃ) and (لبیک بعمرۃ). Thus, the sahabah (Prophet's companions) رضی الله عنهم reported according to what they heard.

Some sahabah might have used the word tamatta in its literal meaning which his 'to benefit,' 'to profit.' This benefit is also derived in qiran for the pilgrim qarin benefits from umrah, too, that he performs with Hajj (pilgrimage).

---

[1] Bukhari # 294, Muslmi # 1211, Tirmidhi # 820, Nasa'i # 242, Abu Dawud # 1250, Ibn Majah # 2963.

Those who has assumed the ihram (pilgrim-robe) for u mrah relinquished it after observing the tawaf and sa'I and having their head shaved. Later, they assumed the ihram (pilgrim-robe) for Hajj (pilgrimage). The others retained their ihram (pilgrim-robe) whether it was only for Hajj (pilgrimage) or for Hajj (pilgrimage) and umrah. Then all of them put off their ihram (pilgrim-robe) till the day of sacrifice was over. That day they observed ram (casting pebbles) of Jamratul aqabah, had their heads shaved and relinquished their ihram (pilgrim-robe). There after, everything that was disallowed to them because of the ihram (pilgrim-robe) became permissible to them, except sexual intercourse with women. This was permitted to them after the tawaf rukn (also called ifadah).

THE PROPHET MUHAMMAD'S صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم HAJJ (PILGRIMAGE)

(٢٥٤٦) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عُمَرَ قَالَ تَمَتَّعَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فِيْ حَجَّةِ الْوَدَاعِ بِالْعُمْرَةِ إِلَى الْحَجِّ بَدَأَ فَأَهَلَّ بِالْعُمْرَةِ ثُمَّ أَهَلَّ بِالْحَجِّ۔ (متفق عليه)

2546. Sayyiduna Ibn Umar رضی اللہ عنہ said that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم performed the Hajj (pilgrimage) tamatta in t he farewell pilgrimage (deriving benefit with) umrah before Hajj (pilgrimage), calling the labayk loudly for umrah first and afterwords for Hajj (pilgrimage). (Thus, he combined Hajj (pilgrimage) and umrah and become qarin.)[1]

SECTION II الفصل الثانی

CLOTHING OF THE IHRAM (PILGRIM-ROBE)

(٢٥٤٧) وَعَنْ زَيْدِ بْنِ ثَابِتٍ أَنَّهُ رَأَى النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ تَجَرَّدَ لِإِهْلَالِهِ وَاغْتَسَلَ۔ (رواه الترمذی والدارمی)

2547. Sayyiduna Zayd ibn Thabit رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that he saw that the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم took off his clothing to put on his ihram (pilgrim-robe) after having a bath.[2]

COMMENTARY: 'He took off his clothing and put on the ihram (pilgrim-robe);' means he changed into the ihram (pilgrim-robe) which is a waist wrapper and an upper sheet of cloth. Both are unstitched. In the state of the ihram (pilgrim-robe), stitched garments are not allowed, like shirt, pajamas, cap, overalls, socks and so on.
It is Masnun to have a bath for the ihram (pilgrim-robe) and also better. If a bath is not possible, then ablution is enough. Bath is masnun even for the women who menstruate or experience post childbirth bleeding and for minor children.

TALBID

(٢٥٤٨) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عُمَرَ أَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَبَّدَ رَأْسَهُ بِالْغِسْلِ۔ (رواه ابوداؤد)

2548. Sayyiduna Ibn Umar رضی اللہ عنہ said that the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم matted his hair with ghisl (which is a sticking material of various kind to keep off dust, etc. from the hair during the ihram (pilgrim-robe).[3]

---

[1] Bukhari # 1691, Muslim # 174-1227, Abu Dawud # 1805, Nasa'i # 2732, Musnad Ahmad 2-139.
[2] Tirmidhi # 831, Darimi # 1794.
[3] Abu Dawud # 1748.

RAISING THE VOICE IN THE TALBIYAH

(٢٥٤٩) وَعَنْ خَلَّادِ بْنِ السَّائِبِ عَنْ اَبِيْهِ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَتَانِيْ جِبْرِيْلُ فَاَمَرَنِيْ اَنْ اٰمُرَ اَصْحَابِيْ اَنْ يَّرْفَعُوْا اَصْوَاتَهُمْ بِالْاِهْلَالِ اَوِالتَّلْبِيَةِ۔ (رواہ مالك والترمذی وابوداؤد والنسائی وابن ماجة والدارمی)

2549. Sayyiduna Khallad ibn as-Sa'ib رضی اللہ عنہ reported that his father narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "Jibril علیہ السلام came to me and instructed me to command my companions that they should raise their voices when calling the ihlal or the talbiyah."[1]

COMMENTARY: Raising voices is for men. They must raise voices but not to such an extent as requires extra exertion. Women may call it softly so that only they hear it. Others should not hear their voice.

MERIT OF ONE WHO CALLS THE LABAYK

(٢٥٥٠) وَعَنْ سَهْلِ بْنِ سَعْدٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَا مِنْ مُسْلِمٍ يُلَبِّيْ اِلَّا لَبّٰى مَنْ عَنْ يَمِيْنِهٖ وَشِمَالِهٖ مِنْ حَجَرٍ اَوْ شَجَرٍ اَوْ مَدَرٍ حَتّٰى تَنْقَطِعَ الْاَرْضُ مِنْ هٰهُنَا وَهٰهُنَا۔ (رواہ الترمذی وابن ماجة)

2550. Sayyiduna Sahl ibn Sa'd رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "No Muslim calls the talbiyah aloud but all on his right and left, stones, trees and even clouds say the same, penetrating the earth hither and thither."[2]

COMMENTARY: This hadith (tradition) highlights the excellence of the person who say labayk and of labayk.

TWO RAKA'AT FOR THE IHRAM (PILGRIM-ROBE)

(٢٥٥١) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عُمَرَ قَالَ كَانَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَرْكَعُ بِذِى الْحُلَيْفَةِ رَكْعَتَيْنِ ثُمَّ اِذَا اسْتَوَتْ بِهِ النَّاقَةُ قَائِمَةً عِنْدَ مَسْجِدِ ذِى الْحُلَيْفَةِ اَهَلَّ بِهٰؤُلَاءِ الْكَلِمَاتِ وَيَقُوْلُ لَبَّيْكَ اَللّٰهُمَّ لَبَّيْكَ لَبَّيْكَ وَسَعْدَيْكَ وَالْخَيْرُ فِيْ يَدَيْكَ لَبَّيْكَ وَالرَّغْبَاءُ اِلَيْكَ وَالْعَمَلُ۔ مُتَّفَقٌ عَلَيْهِ وَلَفْظُهٗ لِمُسْلِمٍ۔

2551. Sayyiduna Ibn Umar رضی اللہ عنہ said that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم used to offer two raka'at salah (prayer) at Dhul Hulayfah. Then, as the she-camel stood up (erect) with him near the mosque of Dhul Hulayfah, he called the talbiyah in a loud voice, saying:

لَبَّيْكَ اَللّٰهُمَّ لَبَّيْكَ لَبَّيْكَ وَسَعْدَيْكَ وَالْخَيْرُ فِيْ يَدَيْكَ لَبَّيْكَ وَالرَّغْبَاءُ اِلَيْكَ وَالْعَمَلُ

{I am here, O Allah! I am here! I am here, obedient to you. All good is in your hands. I am here! Desires are directed towards you and deeds are for you}[3]

COMMENTARY: The two raka'at for the ihram (pilgrim-robe) are masnun. In these, he

---

[1] Tirmidhi # 830, Abu Dawud # 1814, Nasa'i # 2752, Ibn Majah # 2922, Musnad Ahmad # 16569, Muwatta Maalik # 34 (Hajj)

[2] Tirmidhi # 8291, Ibn Majah # 2921.

[3] Bukhari # 1549, Muslim # 19-1184, Abu Dawud # 1812, Tirmidhi # 826, Nasa'i # # 2750, Ibn Majah # 2918, Muwatta Maalik # 20.9-28, (This hadith (tradition) belongs to section I but is placed in II).

recited the surahs al-Kafirun and al-Ikhlas. Then he formed the intention and called the labayk. Then, he mounted the she camel near the mosque of Dhul Hulayfah and as it stood up with him on its back, he called the labayk in the well-known words and then in the additional form given in this hadith (tradition).

DUROOD & SUPPLICATION AFTER TALBIYAH

(٢٥٥٢) وَعَنْ عُمَارَةَ بْنِ خُزَيْمَةَ بْنِ ثَابِتٍ عَنْ اَبِيْهِ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَنَّهُ كَانَ اِذَا فَرَغَ مِنْ تَلْبِيَتِهٖ سَأَلَ اللّٰهَ رِضْوَانَهُ وَالْجَنَّةَ وَاسْتَعْفَاهُ بِرَحْمَتِهٖ مِنَ النَّارِ۔ (رواه الشافعی)

2552. Sayyiduna Umarah ibn Khuzaymah ibn Thabit رحمہ اللہ reported on the authority of his father[1] that when the prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم finished reciting his talbiyah, he prayed to Allah for His pleasure and paradise, and sought His (protection by) forgiveness through His mercy from hell.[2]

COMMENTARY: The hanafi ulama (Scholars) say that after reciting the talbiyah, it is mustahab (desirable) for the pilgrim to invoke blessings on the prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم in a voice subdued relative to his voice for the talbiyah. He must pray to Allah for His pleasure and paradise as also for deliverance from hell. Then, he may pray for his religious and worldly prosperity and good for whatever he wishes.

It is makruh(unbecoming) to greet one who is reciting the talbiyah, but if he himself offers salaam while reciting the talbiyah then a response may be given.

The hanafi ulama (Scholars) hold that it is fard(compulsory) to recite the talbiyah once. To recite more times is sunnah(Practice of Holy Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم), such a sunnah(Practice of Holy Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم) that to neglect it is regarded as bad.

SECTION III اَلْفَصْلُ الثَّالِثُ

INTENTION TO PERFORM FAREWELL PILGRIMAGE PROCLAIMED

(٢٥٥٣) عَنْ جَابِرٍ اَنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَمَّا اَرَادَ الْحَجَّ اَذَّنَ فِي النَّاسِ فَاجْتَمَعُوْا فَلَمَّا اَتَى الْبَيْدَاءَ اَحْرَمَ۔ (رواه البخاری)

2553. Sayyiduna Jabir رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that when Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم intended to perform Hajj (pilgrimage), he informed the people through a proclamation. So they gathered together. When he arrived at al-Bayda'. He assumed the ihram (pilgrim-robe).[3]

COMMENTARY: The Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم had assumed the ihram (pilgrim-robe) already at Dhul Hudayfah after offering two raka'at optional salah (prayer) for the ihram (pilgrim-robe) At Bayda he called the labayk once again and this is what assuming the ihram (pilgrim-robe) there implies. By calling the labayk, he demonstrated that he was a muhrim (one who was in ihram (pilgrim-robe)).

TALBIYAH OF THE POLYTHEISTS

(٢٥٥٤) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ قَالَ كَانَ الْمُشْرِكُوْنَ يَقُوْلُوْنَ لَبَّيْكَ لَا شَرِيْكَ لَكَ فَيَقُوْلُ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى

---

[1] Sayyiduna Khuzaymah رضی اللہ عنہ

[2] Al-Umm, Imam (leader) Shafi رحمہ اللہ 2-157.

[3] Muslim 147-1218, (Not found in Bukhari)

اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَيْلَكُمْ قَدٍ قَدٍ اِلَّا شَرِيْكًا هُوَ لَكَ تَمْلِكُهٗ وَمَا مَلَكَ يَقُوْلُوْنَ هٰذَا وَهُمْ يَطُوْفُوْنَ

بِالْبَيْتِ۔ (رواه مسلم)

2554. Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضى الله عنه narrated that the polytheists used to call (the talbiyah). "labayk, you have no partner..." Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم would remark, 'woe to you! Enough said (and say not) 'except a partner you have and whom you own, but he partner) owns not." They would call thus and circumambulate the House (Ka'bah).[1]

COMMENTARY: The polytheists also used to perform Hajj (pilgrimage), umrah tawaf and so on. They also sanctified the ka'bah, but their talbiyah was conditional as stated in the hadith (tradition). The prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم would advice them to stop before the additional words, but the polytheists were deficient of understanding and did not follow guidance. They did not desist from speaking the additional words. Their stupidity was evident when they conceded that the idols were Allah's Possessions, but also said that they were His partners. How could something owned be a partner of its owner?

CHAPTER - III

THE NARRATIVE OF THE FAREWELL PILGRIMAGE (*HAJJ (PILGRIMAGE)*AT UL WIDA')

بَابُ قِصَّةِ حَجَّةِ الْوَدَاعِ

Wida (وداع) means to bid farewell. The *Hajj (pilgrimage)*at ul wida' is the Hajj (pilgrimage) of the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم in 10 AH after pilgrimage was prescribed. The Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم taught the commands of Hajj (pilgrimage) during this pilgrimage and bade farewell to his shabah رضى الله عنه. He informed them of his departure from this world. He made them witnesses that he had discharged his responsibilities as messenger and conveyed the commands of Shari'ah and imposed them.

The first hadith (tradition) of this chapter is of Sayyiduna Jabir رضى الله عنه. It is lengthy and the most comprehensive of the ahadith (tradition). One hundred and fifty juristic rulings are derived from it. Rather, if anyone studies it in greater depth, he might derive more rulings.

SECTION I — اَلْفَصْلُ الْاَوَّلُ

A COMPLETE ACCOUNT OF THE FAREWELL PILGRIMAGE

(٢٥٥٥) عَنْ جَابِرِ بْنِ عَبْدِاللّٰهِ اَنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَكَثَ بِالْمَدِيْنَةِ تِسْعَ سِنِيْنَ لَمْ يَحُجَّ ثُمَّ

اَذَّنَ فِي النَّاسِ بِالْحَجِّ فِي الْعَاشِرَةِ اَنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ حَاجٌّ فَقَدِمَ الْمَدِيْنَةَ بَشَرٌ كَثِيْرٌ

فَخَرَجْنَا مَعَهٗ حَتّٰى اِذَا اَتَيْنَا ذَا الْحُلَيْفَةِ فَوَلَدَتْ اَسْمَاءُ بِنْتُ عُمَيْسٍ مُحَمَّدَ بْنَ اَبِي بَكْرٍ فَاَرْسَلَتْ اِلٰى رَسُوْلِ

اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ كَيْفَ اَصْنَعُ قَالَ اغْتَسِلِيْ وَاسْتَثْفِرِيْ بِثَوْبٍ وَاَحْرِمِيْ فَصَلّٰى رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ

عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فِي الْمَسْجِدِ ثُمَّ رَكِبَ الْقَصْوَاءَ حَتّٰى اِذَا اسْتَوَتْ بِهٖ نَاقَتُهٗ عَلَى الْبَيْدَاءِ اَهَلَّ بِالتَّوْحِيْدِ لَبَّيْكَ اَللّٰهُمَّ

[1] Muslim # 22-1185.

لَبَّيْكَ لَبَّيْكَ لَا شَرِيْكَ لَكَ لَبَّيْكَ اِنَّ الْحَمْدَ وَالنِّعْمَةَ لَكَ وَ الْمُلْكَ لَا شَرِيْكَ لَكَ قَالَ جَابِرٌ لَسْنَا نَنْوِى اِلَّا الْحَجَّ لَسْنَا نَعْرِفُ الْعُمْرَةَ حَتّٰى اِذَا اَتَيْنَا الْبَيْتَ مَعَهٗ اسْتَلَمَ الرُّكْنَ فَطَافَ سَبْعًا فَرَمَلَ ثَلَاثًا وَمَشٰى اَرْبَعًا ثُمَّ تَقَدَّمَ اِلٰى مَقَامِ اِبْرَاهِيْمَ فَقَرَاَ وَاتَّخِذُوْا مِنْ مَّقَامِ اِبْرَاهِيْمَ مُصَلًّى فَصَلّٰى رَكْعَتَيْنِ فَجَعَلَ الْمَقَامَ بَيْنَهٗ وَ بَيْنَ الْبَيْتِ، وَفِىْ رِوَايَةٍ اَنَّهٗ قَرَاَ فِى الرَّكْعَتَيْنِ قُلْ هُوَ اللّٰهُ اَحَدٌ وَقُلْ يَآ اَيُّهَا الْكَافِرُوْنَ ثُمَّ رَجَعَ اِلَى الرُّكْنِ فَاسْتَلَمَهٗ ثُمَّ خَرَجَ مِنَ الْبَابِ اِلَى الصَّفَا فَلَمَّا دَنَا مِنَ الصَّفَا قَرَاَ اِنَّ الصَّفَا وَالْمَرْوَةَ مِنْ شَعَآئِرِ اللّٰهِ اَبْدَاُ بِمَا بَدَاَ اللّٰهُ بِهٖ فَبَدَاَ بِالصَّفَا فَرَقِىَ عَلَيْهِ حَتّٰى رَاَى الْبَيْتَ فَاسْتَقْبَلَ الْقِبْلَةَ فَوَحَّدَ اللّٰهَ وَكَبَّرَهٗ وَقَالَ لَا اِلٰهَ اِلَّا اللّٰهُ وَحْدَهٗ لَا شَرِيْكَ لَهٗ لَهُ الْمُلْكُ وَلَهُ الْحَمْدُ وَهُوَ عَلٰى كُلِّ شَىْءٍ قَدِيْرٌ لَا اِلٰهَ اِلَّا اللّٰهُ وَحْدَهٗ اَنْجَزَ وَعْدَهٗ وَنَصَرَ عَبْدَهٗ وَهَزَمَ الْاَحْزَابَ وَحْدَهٗ ثُمَّ دَعَا بَيْنَ ذٰلِكَ قَالَ مِثْلَ هٰذَا ثَلَاثَ مَرَّاتٍ ثُمَّ نَزَلَ وَمَشٰى اِلَى الْمَرْوَةِ حَتّٰى انْصَبَّتْ قَدَمَاهُ فِىْ بَطْنِ الْوَادِىْ ثُمَّ سَعٰى حَتّٰى اِذَا صَعِدَتَا مَشٰى حَتّٰى اَتَى الْمَرْوَةَ فَفَعَلَ عَلَى الْمَرْوَةِ كَمَا فَعَلَ عَلَى الصَّفَا حَتّٰى اِذَا كَانَ اٰخِرُ طَوَافٍ عَلَى الْمَرْوَةِ نَادٰى وَهُوَ عَلَى الْمَرْوَةِ وَالنَّاسُ تَحْتَهٗ فَقَالَ لَوْ اَنِّىْ اسْتَقْبَلْتُ مِنْ اَمْرِىْ مَا اسْتَدْبَرْتُ لَمْ اَسُقِ الْهَدْىَ وَجَعَلْتُهَا عُمْرَةً فَمَنْ كَانَ مِنْكُمْ لَيْسَ مَعَهٗ هَدْىٌ فَلْيَحِلَّ وَلْيَجْعَلْهَا عُمْرَةً فَقَامَ سُرَاقَةُ بْنُ مَالِكِ بْنِ جُعْشُمٍ فَقَالَ يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ اَلِعَامِنَا هٰذَا اَمْ لِاَبَدٍ فَشَبَّكَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَصَابِعَهٗ وَاحِدَةً فِى الْاُخْرٰى وَقَالَ دَخَلَتِ الْعُمْرَةُ فِى الْحَجِّ مَرَّتَيْنِ لَا بَلْ لِاَبَدِ اَبَدٍ وَ قَدِمَ عَلِىٌّ مِنَ الْيَمَنِ بِبُدْنِ النَّبِىِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَقَالَ لَهٗ مَاذَا قُلْتَ حِيْنَ فَرَضْتَ الْحَجَّ قَالَ قُلْتُ اَللّٰهُمَّ اِنِّىْ اُهِلُّ بِمَا اَهَلَّ بِهٖ رَسُوْلُكَ قَالَ فَاِنَّ مَعِىَ الْهَدْىَ فَلَا تَحِلُّ قَالَ فَكَانَ جَمَاعَةُ الْهَدْىِ الَّذِىْ قَدِمَ بِهٖ عَلِىٌّ مِنَ الْيَمَنِ وَالَّذِىْ اَتٰى بِهِ النَّبِىُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مِائَةً۔

قَالَ فَحَلَّ النَّاسُ كُلُّهُمْ وَ قَصَّرُوْا اِلَّا النَّبِىُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَمَنْ كَانَ مَعَهٗ هَدْىٌ فَلَمَّا كَانَ يَوْمُ التَّرْوِيَةِ تَوَجَّهُوْا اِلٰى مِنًى فَاَهَلُّوْا بِالْحَجِّ وَرَكِبَ النَّبِىُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَصَلّٰى بِهَا الظُّهْرَ وَالْعَصْرَ وَالْمَغْرِبَ وَالْعِشَاءَ وَالْفَجْرَ ثُمَّ مَكَثَ قَلِيْلًا حَتّٰى طَلَعَتِ الشَّمْسُ وَاَمَرَ بِقُبَّةٍ مِنْ شَعَرٍ تُضْرَبُ لَهٗ بِنَمِرَةَ فَسَارَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَلَا تَشُكُّ قُرَيْشٌ اِلَّا اَنَّهٗ وَاقِفٌ عِنْدَ الْمَشْعَرِ الْحَرَامِ كَمَا كَانَتْ قُرَيْشٌ تَصْنَعُ فِى الْجَاهِلِيَّةِ فَاَجَازَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ حَتّٰى اَتٰى عَرَفَةَ فَوَجَدَ الْقُبَّةَ قَدْ ضُرِبَتْ لَهٗ بِنَمِرَةَ فَنَزَلَ بِهَا حَتّٰى اِذَا زَاغَتِ الشَّمْسُ اَمَرَ بِالْقَصْوَاءِ فَرُحِلَتْ لَهٗ فَاَتٰى بَطْنَ الْوَادِىْ فَخَطَبَ النَّاسَ وَقَالَ اِنَّ دِمَاءَكُمْ وَاَمْوَالَكُمْ حَرَامٌ عَلَيْكُمْ كَحُرْمَةِ يَوْمِكُمْ هٰذَا فِىْ شَهْرِكُمْ هٰذَا فِىْ بَلَدِكُمْ هٰذَا اَلَا كُلُّ شَىْءٍ مِنْ اَمْرِ

الْجَاهِلِيَّةِ تَحْتَ قَدَمَيَّ مَوْضُوعٌ وَ دِمَاءُ الْجَاهِلِيَّةِ مَوْضُوعَةٌ وَإِنَّ أَوَّلَ دَمٍ أَضَعُ مِنْ دِمَائِنَا دَمُ ابْنِ رَبِيعَةَ بْنِ
الْحَارِثِ وَكَانَ مُسْتَرْضِعًا فِي بَنِي سَعْدٍ فَقَتَلَهُ هُذَيْلٌ وَرِبَا الْجَاهِلِيَّةِ مَوْضُوعٌ وَأَوَّلُ رِبًا أَضَعُ مِنْ رِبَانَا رِبَا
عَبَّاسِ بْنِ عَبْدِ الْمُطَّلِبِ فَإِنَّهُ مَوْضُوعٌ كُلُّهُ فَاتَّقُوا اللّٰهَ فِي النِّسَاءِ فَإِنَّكُمْ أَخَذْتُمُوهُنَّ بِأَمَانِ اللّٰهِ
وَاسْتَحْلَلْتُمْ فُرُوجَهُنَّ بِكَلِمَةِ اللّٰهِ وَلَكُمْ عَلَيْهِنَّ أَنْ لَا يُوطِئْنَ فُرُشَكُمْ أَحَدًا تَكْرَهُونَهُ فَإِنْ فَعَلْنَ
ذٰلِكَ فَاضْرِبُوهُنَّ ضَرْبًا غَيْرَ مُبَرِّحٍ وَ لَهُنَّ عَلَيْكُمْ رِزْقُهُنَّ وَكِسْوَتُهُنَّ بِالْمَعْرُوفِ وَقَدْ تَرَكْتُ فِيكُمْ مَا لَنْ
تَضِلُّوا بَعْدَهُ إِنِ اعْتَصَمْتُمْ بِهِ كِتَابُ اللّٰهِ وَأَنْتُمْ تُسْئَلُونَ عَنِّي فَمَا أَنْتُمْ قَائِلُونَ قَالُوا نَشْهَدُ أَنَّكَ قَدْ
بَلَّغْتَ وَ أَدَّيْتَ وَ نَصَحْتَ فَقَالَ بِإِصْبَعِهِ السَّبَابَةِ يَرْفَعُهَا إِلَى السَّمَاءِ وَيَنْكُتُهَا إِلَى النَّاسِ اَللّٰهُمَّ اشْهَدْ اَللّٰهُمَّ
اشْهَدْ ثَلَاثَ مَرَّاتٍ ثُمَّ أَذَّنَ بِلَالٌ ثُمَّ أَقَامَ فَصَلَّى الظُّهْرَ ثُمَّ أَقَامَ فَصَلَّى الْعَصْرَ وَلَمْ يُصَلِّ بَيْنَهُمَا شَيْئًا ثُمَّ
رَكِبَ حَتّٰى أَتَى الْمَوْقِفَ فَجَعَلَ بَطْنَ نَاقَتِهِ الْقَصْوَاءِ إِلَى الصَّخَرَاتِ وَجَعَلَ حَبْلَ الْمُشَاةِ بَيْنَ يَدَيْهِ وَاسْتَقْبَلَ
الْقِبْلَةَ فَلَمْ يَزَلْ وَاقِفًا حَتّٰى غَرَبَتِ الشَّمْسُ وَ ذَهَبَتِ الصُّفْرَةُ قَلِيلًا حَتّٰى غَابَ الْقُرْصُ وَأَرْدَفَ أُسَامَةَ وَدَفَعَ
حَتّٰى أَتَى الْمُزْدَلِفَةَ فَصَلّٰى بِهَا الْمَغْرِبَ وَالْعِشَاءَ بِأَذَانٍ وَاحِدٍ وَإِقَامَتَيْنِ وَلَمْ يُسَبِّحْ بَيْنَهُمَا شَيْئًا ثُمَّ اضْطَجَعَ
حَتّٰى طَلَعَ الْفَجْرُ فَصَلَّى الْفَجْرَ حِينَ تَبَيَّنَ لَهُ الصُّبْحُ بِأَذَانٍ وَإِقَامَةٍ ثُمَّ رَكِبَ الْقَصْوَاءَ حَتّٰى أَتَى الْمَشْعَرَ
الْحَرَامَ فَاسْتَقْبَلَ الْقِبْلَةَ فَدَعَاهُ وَكَبَّرَهُ وَهَلَّلَهُ وَوَحَّدَهُ فَلَمْ يَزَلْ وَاقِفًا حَتّٰى أَسْفَرَ جِدًّا فَدَفَعَ قَبْلَ أَنْ تَطْلُعَ
الشَّمْسُ وَأَرْدَفَ الْفَضْلَ بْنَ عَبَّاسٍ حَتّٰى أَتَى بَطْنَ مُحَسِّرٍ فَحَرَّكَ قَلِيلًا ثُمَّ سَلَكَ الطَّرِيقَ الْوُسْطٰى الَّتِي تَخْرُجُ
عَلَى الْجَمْرَةِ الْكُبْرٰى حَتّٰى أَتَى الْجَمْرَةَ الَّتِي عِنْدَ الشَّجَرَةِ فَرَمَاهَا بِسَبْعِ حَصَيَاتٍ يُكَبِّرُ مَعَ كُلِّ حَصَاةٍ مِنْهَا مِثْلَ
حَصَى الْخَذْفِ رَمٰى مِنْ بَطْنِ الْوَادِي ثُمَّ انْصَرَفَ إِلَى الْمَنْحَرِ فَنَحَرَ ثَلَاثًا وَسِتِّينَ بَدَنَةً بِيَدِهِ ثُمَّ أَعْطٰى عَلِيًّا
فَنَحَرَ مَا غَبَرَ وَأَشْرَكَهُ فِي هَدْيِهِ ثُمَّ أَمَرَ مِنْ كُلِّ بَدَنَةٍ بِبَضْعَةٍ فَجُعِلَتْ فِي قِدْرٍ فَطُبِخَتْ فَأَكَلَا مِنْ لَحْمِهَا
وَشَرِبَا مِنْ مَرَقِهَا ثُمَّ رَكِبَ رَسُولُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَأَفَاضَ إِلَى الْبَيْتِ فَصَلّٰى بِمَكَّةَ الظُّهْرَ فَأَتٰى عَلٰى
بَنِي عَبْدِ الْمُطَّلِبِ يَسْقُونَ عَلٰى زَمْزَمَ فَقَالَ انْزِعُوا بَنِي عَبْدِ الْمُطَّلِبِ فَلَوْلَا أَنْ يَغْلِبَكُمُ النَّاسُ عَلٰى
سِقَايَتِكُمْ لَنَزَعْتُ مَعَكُمْ فَنَاوَلُوهُ دَلْوًا فَشَرِبَ مِنْهُ. (رواه مسلم)

2555. Sayyiduna Jabir ibn Abdullah narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم had been in Madinah for nine years (after coming here) but had not performed Hajj (pilgrimage). Then in 10AH, he had it proclaimed that he intended to perform the Hajj (pilgrimage) that year. A very large number of people arrived in Madinah and all of them accompanied him. (They departed five days before the end of the month of Dhul Qa'dah between zuhr and asr) When they came to Dhul Hulayfah, Sayyidah Asma bint Umays رضی اللہ عنہ gave birth to Muhammad ibn Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ, she required from Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم what she ought to do (assume the ihram (pilgrim-robe) or not)? He sent instruction that she should have a bath for the ihram (pilgrim-robe), bandage her private parts with a piece of cloth and assume the ihram (pilgrim-robe). After that, Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم offered the salah (prayer) in the mosque and after he mounted (his camel) al-Qaswa and it stood erect with him on its back at al-Bayda (when he reached it), he declared Allah's unity in a loud voice and recited the talbiyah. 'Here am I, O Allah. Here am I. Here am I. You have no partner. Here am I. All praise and blessings are yours, and the dominion. You have no partner.

Sayyiduna Jabir رضی اللہ عنہ continued to say that their intention was merely to perform Hajj (pilgrimage). They had not umrah in mind. When they came with him to the House, he touched the rank (corner, making istilam of the Black stone and kissed it). He made seven rounds, ramal (or running) in three and walking in four. Then he came to the station of Ibrahim and recited.

وَاتَّخِذُوْا مِنْ مَّقَامِ اِبْرَاهِيْمَ مُصَلًّى

{Take the station of Ibrahim as your place of worship} (2: 25)

Then he offered the salah (prayer), two raka'at, keeping the station between him and the house.

According to a version; he recited in the two raka'at (قُلْ هُوَ اللّٰهُ) (al Ikhlas, 112) and (قُلْ يٰاَيُّهَا الْكٰفِرُوْنَ) (al-Kafirun, 109). Then he returned to the rukn and made the istilam of it. Then he went out of the gate to as-Safa. As he approached as-Safa, he recited:

اِنَّ الصَّفَا وَالْمَرْوَةَ مِنْ شَعَائِرِ اللّٰهِ

{Surely As-Safa and al-Marwa are among the landmarks of Allah} (2: 158)

And he said, "I begin from the very safa mentioned in this verse by Allah first (and then He mentioned al-Marwa, So I too ascend the Safa first and will go up Marwah afterwards). So he claimed as Safá till he could see the House. He faced the qiblah and declared Allah's unity, proclaimed His greatness and said.

لَا اِلٰهَ اِلَّا اللّٰهُ وَحْدَهٗ لَا شَرِيْكَ لَهٗ لَهُ الْمُلْكُ وَلَهُ الْحَمْدُ وَهُوَ عَلٰى كُلِّ شَيْءٍ قَدِيْرٌ لَا اِلٰهَ اِلَّا اللّٰهُ وَحْدَهٗ اَنْجَزَ

وَعْدَهٗ وَنَصَرَ عَبْدَهٗ وَهَزَمَ الْاَحْزَابَ وَحْدَهٗ

{None is worthy of worship besides Allah. He is one and has no partner. To Him belongs the kingdom and for Him is all praise and He is over all things powerful. There is no God but Allah, Alone, He has fulfilled His promise, helped His servant and routed the confederates by Himself}

He then made supplication between that, repeating the like of it three times. Then he descended and walked towards al-Marwa till his feet touched the bottom of the valley, he ran. Again, as he approached the ascent, he walked till he was at al-Marwa. Here, he did what he had done at as-Safa. When he was at al-Marwa for the last time, he called out while he was on it and the people below him. He said, "If I had realized earlier what I realize not, I would not have brought the animals of sacrifice from Madinah but made it an umrah. Thus if any of you have no sacrificial animal, he may relinquish the ihram (pilgrim-robe) and regard it as an ummah.'

Suraqah ibn Maalik ibn Ju'shum رضی اللہ عنہ arose and asked, 'O Messenger of Allah صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم, does it apply to the current year only, or is it for ever?" He intertwined his fingers of both hands and said twice, "The umrah is part of Hajj (pilgrimage).. No, but for ever and ever."

And Sayyiduna Ali رضی اللہ عنہ came from yemen with the Prophet Muhammad's صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم sacrificial animals. He asked him what intention he had formed when he has assumed the ihram (pilgrim-robe) to perform Hajj (pilgrimage). He said that he had resolved, 'O Allah, I assume the ihram (pilgrim-robe) with the same intention as the intention formed by your Messenger on assuming it.'

He said, "Indeed, I have with me the sacrificial animals, so do not relinquish the ihram (pilgrim-robe)."

Jabir رضی اللہ عنہ continued that the number of animals brought by Sayyiduna Ali رضی اللہ عنہ from Yemen and those that the Prophet had brought added up to one hundred.

Then all the people relinquished the ihram (pilgrim-robe) and shaved (or clipped) their hair, but not the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم and those who had the sacrificial animals with them. The, when it was the day of tarwiyah (8th of Dhul Hijjah, all people set out for Mina and (those who had put off the ihram (pilgrim-robe)) assumed the ihram (pilgrim-robe) for Hajj (pilgrimage). The Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم rode and offered there the salah (prayer) of zuhr, asr, maghrib isha and fajr. Then, the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم waited some time till the sun rose before giving an order for tent of hair to be pitched up for him at Namirah (in Arafah).

Then he set out (from Mina to Arafat). The Quraysh were certain that he would half at the holy place (Mash'ar al-Haram in Muzdalifah) as they had been doing during the Jahiliyah (for the Hajj (pilgrimage)). But, he went ahead till he came to Arafat He found his tent pitched for him at Namirah. He dismounted there and (stayed there and) when the sun began to decline, he called for (his she camel) al-Qaswa. It was saddled for him and (sitting on it,) he went down into the valley (Namirah) where he delivered sermon to the people. He said:

{O People! You lives, your properties and your honour be as sacred to each other of you as this your sacred day as this your sacred month and as this your sacred month and as this your sacred town. Known will that everything pertaining to the days of ignorance is trampled under my feet. (I proclaim their end and annulment)

This day, retaliation for all murders committed then is cancelled. The foremost of all (is the killing of a member of my own family) that I remit is the son of Rabi'ah ibn Harith (ibn Abdul Muttalib) who was suckled among the Banu Sa'd. He was killed by Hudhayl.

This day, all gums of interest of pre-Islamic days are written off. The first of our interest that I waive is that of (my uncle) Abbas ibn Abdul Muttalib. All of it is written off.

O people! Fear Allah in respect of the rights of your women, for, you have taken them as a trust of Allah in your hands. To derive satisfaction from them has been made legitimate for you by His command. Your claim on them is that they do not permit into your house anyone you do not like to come, and to sit in your place and on your bed. If they over do that, beat them but not severely. Their claim on you is that you are responsible to provide them food and clothing in a proper way.

I leave behind (for your guidance) something that if you abide by it and stick to it, you shall never go astray. It is the Book of Allah - the quran
(On the day or resurrection,) you will be asked concerning me. What will you say?}
(The valley resounded with their reply) They said, "We testify that you have conveyed to us the message and fulfilled (the mission). You have guided us."
On that, he raised his forefinger towards the sky and pointed it to the people and said thrice, 'O Allah (I beseech you) be you witness to it!"
Thereafter, Sayyiduna Bilal رضی اللہ عنہ called t he adhan and then the iqamah. The Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم led the salah (prayer) of zuhr. Again Sayyiduna Bilal رضی اللہ عنہ called the iqamah and the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم led the salah (prayer) of asr. He offered no salah (prayer) between the two (neither sunnah(Practice of Holy Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم*)* nor optional).
Then, the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم mounted (his camel) and came to the mawquf (or place of standing in Arafat). He made his she camel al-Qaswa turn is back to the rock. He had the Habl ul Mashat in front of him. He faced the qiblah and remained standing till sunset (maghrib) till the yellowness had faded somewhat and the sun disc was gone. He took Usamah (on the animal) behind him and advanced rapidly till he was at Muzdalifah and, here, he offered the salah (prayer) of maghrib and isha with a single adhan and two iqamahs. Between the two (*salah (prayer)*s), he did not glorify Allah (or recite any tasbih at all). Then he rested till dawn. He offered the salah (prayer) of fajr when the light of dawn was apparent to him, only one adhan and iqamah was called for that.
Then, he mounted al-Qaswa (and rode) till he came to al-Mash'arul Haram, he faced the qiblah, prayed to Allah, extolled Him, declared His unity and oneness (meaning (لاالٰہ الااللہ) and (لاالٰہ الااللہ وحدہ لاشریک لہ)) and did not cease to stand till the morning was very bright. Then, before sunrise, he rode quickly having taken Fadl ibn Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ behind him. He came to the valley of Muhassir. He urged the camel a little and took the middle path that leads to al-jamrat ul kubra. He came to the jamrah that is beside the tree. He threw at it seven pebbles. Saying Allahu Akbar at the throw of each pebble. Which was like a grain of bean. He cast them from the bottom of (the valley) Muhassir.
Then he went to the place of sacrifice (in Mina). He sacrificed sixty three camels with his own hands, Then, he let Sayyiduna Ali رضی اللہ عنہ sacrifice the rest. He shared with him in the sacrificial animals. Then, the prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم had a piece of meat from every camel that was sacrificed cooked in a cauldron and he and Sayyiduna Ali رضی اللہ عنہ ate some of the meat and drank some of the broth. After that, he preceded to the House on his camel. He offered the salah (prayer) of zuhr at Makkah. After the salah (prayer), He went to the Banu Abd al-Muttalib who were drawing water at zam zam (and giving it to the people to drink). He said (to them), "Draw water, O Banu Abd al-Muttalib. If there was not the likelihood of people forcibly taking away from you the right to draw water, I would have drawn water alongwith you." They drew out a pitcher from zamzam and offered it to the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم who drank from it.[1]

[1] Muslim # 147-1218.

COMMENTARY: As to the number of people accompanying the prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم during the farewell pilgrimage, they are said to be between ninety thousand and one hundred and thirty thousand, or more.

Sayyiduna Asma bint Umays رضى الله عنه was married first to Sayyiduna Ja'far ibn Abu Talib رضى الله عنه. After his death, Sayyiduna Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه married her, and after his death, Sayyiduna Ali رضى الله عنه married her.

When the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم set out for the farewell pilgrimage, she was the wife of Sayyiduna Abu Bakr. رضى الله عنه (Sayyiduna) Muhammad ibn Abu BAkr رضى الله عنه was born to her.

The Prophet Muhammad's صلى الله عليه وسلم instruction to her to bathe herself is evidence that it is masnun for a women experiencing lochia to have a bath for the ihram (pilgrim-robe). This bath is for cleanliness and not to obtain purity. This is why a lochial woman is not asked to make tayammum. The same ruling applies to a menstruating women. Moreover, the Prophet Muhammad's صلى الله عليه وسلم directions to her to assume the ihram (pilgrim-robe), meaning, 'to form the intention and to call the labayk, is evidence that the assuming of ihram (pilgrim-robe) by a woman experiencing post child birth bleeding is correct. The ulama (Scholars) are unanimous on this ruling.

The prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم offered the two raka'at for ihram (pilgrim-robe) in the mosque of Dhul Hulayfah. If there is a mosque in the place of miqat, then it is better to offer the two raka'at in the mosque though if any one offers it anywhere else then too there is no harm, but this salah (prayer) should not be offered at a time that is makruh(unbecoming) for salah (prayer). The ulama (Scholars) hold that the fard(compulsory) salah (prayer) stands for the salah (prayer) of ihram (pilgrim-robe) as it stands for the tahiyat ul masjid, if their times coincide.

During the jahiliyah, people used to think of umrah in the months of Hajj (pilgrimage) as sinful. So, the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم by his action rejected their contention and the doubts of the sahabah (Prophet's companions) رضى الله عنهم were also set at rest. This issue will be discussed later.

They came to the House of Allah from the elevated site thaniyah ul ulya. There they did not offer the tahiyatul masjid because the tahiyatul masjid of BaytAllah is the tawaf.

In the tawaf, they observed ramal three times and used their normal pace in four circuits. There are seven circuits of the tawaf. Each circuit begins at the black stone, and ends at it. Each circuit or round is called (شوط) (shawt) in the terminology of Shari'ah.

In the first three rounds of tawaf, ramal is observed. The shoulders are jerked and the swaggering gait of a wrestler is adopted, walking rapidly with feet place in short steps. The remaining four rounds are completed in the normal manner at a regular pace.

The reason why ramal is observed is that when the prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم came to Makkah to make the redeeming umrah, the idolaters of Makkah said that the fever of Madinah had weakened them. Thus, the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم instructed the Muslims to walk in this manner -ramal and display their strength and vigour. Though that time has gone and the reason is no more valid yet the command is still operative.

This hadaith does not mention (اضطباع) (idtiba). But, it is masnun while observing the tawaf. Other ahadith (tradition) speaks of it.

Idtiba is to put a sheet of cloth over oneself in a way that one side of it goes from under the right shoulder from the right armpit round over the left shoulder. It leaves the right shoulder bare. This command was of the same nature as of ramal to demonstrate strength and alertness. It stands operative even today.

The station of Ibrahim was where Prophet Ibrahim عليه السلام stood. It is a stone on which he stood to build the Ka'bah. The imprint of his feet remains to date an this stone.

Some people say that maqam Ibrahim (station of Ibrahim) is a stone. When Prophet Ibrahim عليه السلام came to meet his son Prophet Isma'il عليه السلام in Makkah,he alighted from the camel on this stone. And, when he departed, he stood on it to mount the camel. The imprint of both his feet transferred on the stone.

This stone is now preserved in a casing in front of the ka'bah. The Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم completed tawaf and offered two raka'at salah (prayer) behind this maqam Ibrahim. It is better to offer the two raka'at salah (prayer) here, but it is allowed anywhere in the haram within the sacred mosque or outside it. Imam (leader) Abu Hanifah رحمه الله holds that it is wajib (obligatory) after every tawaf but Imam (leader) Shafi'I رحمه الله contends that it is sunnah(Practice of Holy Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم).

The hadith (tradition) says that the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم recited (قل هو الله احد) (al-Ikhlas) and (قل يا ايها الكافرون) (al-Kafirun) in the two raka'at. In its literal sense, it implies that a succeeding surah (al-Ikhlas) was recited before a preceding surah (al-kafirun). The ulama (Scholars) say that it is not so but the hadith (tradition) only says that the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم recited these two surahs. Teebi رحمه الله said that (قل هو الله احد) declares Allah's unity while (قل يا ايها الكافرون) condemns polytheism. So, tawheed (or Allah's unity) is a great declaration and significant, so is mentioned first.

Moreover, some version are explicit that they mention (قل يا ايها الكفرون) first and (قل هو الله احد) next.

The Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم observed Sa'I between as Safa and al Marwa in the mannr that from al-Safa to al-Marwa was one time and again to as-Safa the second time. The seven times were counted in this manner. Sa'I began at as-Safa and ended at al-Marwa. Sa'I is wajib (obligatory) Its origin lies in Sayyiduna Ismail عليه السلام being a child and his mother Sayyidah Hajrah عليه السلام began her search for water. When she was on the slope or declivity, the lost sight of him, so she went from as-Safa to al-Marwa to climb them and look at him. This sa'I is her sunnah(Practice of Holy Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم). The Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم kept it alive. Since the declivity is now filled over the years with sand, it cannot be distinguished but for the sign posts erected between which the pilgrims run to keep alive the sunnah(Practice of Holy Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم) of Sayyidah Hajrah عليه السلام.

When the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم was in Makkah and had performed the umrah, he instructed his sahabah (Prophet's companions) رضى الله عنهم who had not brought a sacrificial animal with them that they should relinquish their ihram (pilgrim-robe). The ihram (pilgrim-robe) of Hajj (pilgrimage) should be considered as the ihram (pilgrim-robe) of umrah and when the days of Hajj (pilgrimage) arrived, they should assume the ihram (pilgrim-robe) of Hajj (pilgrimage) again and perform Hajj (pilgrimage). Those who had taken the sacrificial animal along should not relinquish the ihram (pilgrim-robe) but retain it till after Hajj (pilgrimage). The Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم remained in ihram (pilgrim-robe) because he had the sacrificial animal with him. The sahabah (Prophet's companions) رضى الله عنهم found it difficult in the sense that they had relinquished the ihram (pilgrim-robe) but the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم had retained it so that they were not emulating him with which situation they could not compromise. Secondly, they saw that only five days remained for the day of Arafah. So, it was not reasonable that they should put off the ihram (pilgrim-robe) and enjoy their women during these days and on the day of Arafah they should assume the ihram (pilgrim-robe) promptly and go to Arafah and perform Hajj (pilgrimage). They wished to retain the ihram (pilgrim-robe) even for those five days and follow the Prophet Muhammad's صلى الله عليه وسلم example and refrain from their natural tendencies towards women. They also had fresh in their minds the practice of the jihiliyah when it was considered bad to perform umrah in the months of Hajj (pilgrimage). They did not like that they should go through a complete from of umrah at that time. They wished that the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم should not command them to put off the ihram (pilgrim-robe). This enraged the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم. He explained to them that he could not do anything in a religious matter and Allah's command will have to be obeyed, like it or not. He said, "If I had known that you would have had to abandon emulating me against your will then I, too, would not have it have brought an animal of sacrifice. And, I too would have come out of the ihram (pilgrim-robe) and converted Hajj (pilgrimage) (ihram (pilgrim-robe)) into umrah. I did not know that Allah would give this command."

Imam (leader) Nawawi رحمه الله said: the ulama (Scholars) disagree on this conversion of ihram (pilgrim-robe) from Hajj (pilgrimage) to umrah whether it was only for those sahabah (Prophet's companions) رضى الله عنهم or it is a perpetual command. Imam (leader) Ahmad and some of the ahluz-Zahir hold that this conversion was not only for those sahabah (Prophet's companions) رضى الله عنهم, but it is a perpetual command. Hence, if anyone assumes the ihram (pilgrim-robe) of Hajj (pilgrimage) but does not have the hadi with him, then it is allowed to him to convert the ihram (pilgrim-robe) of Hajj (pilgrimage) into umrah and after performing the rites of umrah, he may relinquish the ihram (pilgrim-robe).

Imam (leader) Abu Hanifah رحمه الله, Imam (leader) Maalik رضى الله عنه and Imam (leader) Shafi'I رحمه الله and most of the ulama (Scholars), predecessors and their successors, hold that this command was valid only that year for those sahabah (Prophet's companions) رضى الله عنهم, for, it was considered then that it was forbidden to perform umrah in the months of Hajj (pilgrimage). This misconception had to be rejected (and corrected, so it was done).

Further, Imam (leader) Abu Hanifah رضى الله عنه and Imam (leader) Ahmad رضى الله عنه derive from this hadith (tradition) the ruling that if anyone assumes the ihram (pilgrim-robe) of umrah and does not take along the hadi, then, after performing umrah, he may relinquish the ihram (pilgrim-robe). If he takes the hadi along with him, then he must not put off the ihram (pilgrim-robe) till, on the day of sacrifice, his hadi is slaughtered.

However, Imam (leader) Shafi رحمه الله and Imam (leader) Maalik رحمه الله hold that it is allowed to put off the ihram (pilgrim-robe) after performing umrah whether the pilgrim has the hadi with him or not.

Mashar ul Haram is a mountain in Muzdalifah. In the pre-Islamic days, the Quraysh did not observe the wuquf (standing) for Hajj (pilgrimage) in Arafat, but they stood in Muzdalifah. They said that and mawquf hims, meaning the place of standing for the quraysh and the dwellers for the Haram was Muzdalifah. All the other Arabs would observe the standing in the Arafat. Since the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم was a Quraysh, the Quraysh presumed that he would observe the wuquf in muzdalifah, but he did not do so. Rather, he went straight to Arafat, and delivered the sermon in the valley of Namirah. He delivered two sermons. In the first, he mentioned the commands of Hajj (pilgrimage) and urged that much dhikr and supplication must dhikr and supplication must be made at Arafat. The second was relatively smaller and was made up only of supplication.

The account of the bloodshed of the son of Rabi'ah ibn Harith is that Harith was the paternal uncle of the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم and son of Abdul Muttalib. He had a son Rabi'ah. Rabi'ah had a infant son, Iyas. According was handed over to Banu Sa'd for suckling. Those days, there existed hostility between Banu Sa'd and the Hudhayl (tribe). Iyas was among Banu Sa'd. During the hostilities, someone from the Hudayl struck Iyas with a stone and he died because of it. Iyas was the grandson of the Prophet Muhammad's صلى الله عليه وسلم uncle, so the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم had a right to seek retaliation. However, he forgave the bloodshed.

Sayyiduna Abbas ibn Abdul Muttalib رضى الله عنه was the Prophet Muhammad's صلى الله عليه وسلم paternal uncle. He was engaged in the business of lending money against interest and had a huge amount of interest receivables from the people. The Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم wrote off all the interest receivables.

The salah (prayer) of zuhr was held that day. Then at its heels, salah (prayer) of asr was offered. These two *salah (prayer)*s were sort of combined. It is called jama taqdeem (combining by advancing). Both these salah (prayer) are offered together at Arafat at the time of zuhr. The four fard(compulsory), of zuhr are offered and then the second iqamah is called by the mu'adhdhin and the salah (prayer) of asr is offered. No sunnah(Practice of Holy Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم) or nafl salah (prayer) etc is offered in-between the two lest the combination becomes invalid because of a time lag between the two because it is wajib (obligatory) of offer them in quick succession, one upon the other.

The Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم proceeded quickly to Mazdalifah. It is between Mina and Arafat. The Hanafis regard it as a sunnah(Practice of Holy Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم) to stop in Muzdalifah on the night of the 10th. The Shafi is and Hambalis consider it a wajib (obligatory).

The hadith (tradition) says that at Muzdalifah, the prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم offered the salah (prayer) of maghrib and isha for which one adhan and two iqamahs were called in the same way as he had combined zuhr and asr at Arafat. Imam (leader) Shafi'I رحمه الله, Imam (leader) Maalik رحمه الله and Imam (leader) Ahmad رحمه الله rule accordingly. But, Imam (leader) Abu رحمه الله Hanifah rules that both these *salah (prayer)*s are offered at Muzdalifah with one adhan and one iqamah because the salah (prayer) of isha is offered at its proper time and it only involves an excess salah (prayer). At Arafat, the salah (prayer) of asr was advanced ahead of its time into the time of zuhr. Sahih Muslim has this version from Ibn Umar رضى الله عنه and Tirmidhi too has narrated it (Muslim # 1288, Tirmidhi # 888,Abu Dawud # 1932,)

As stated earlier, Mash'aril Haram is a mountain in Arafat. The wuquf (as standing) there on the tenth is wajib (obligatory) in the view of Imam (leader) Abu Hanifah, رحمه الله but a rukn, or part of Hajj (pilgrimage) in the sight of Imam (leader) Shafi'I رحمه الله.

Muhassir is a valley between Muzdalifah and Mina. It is said that the ashab ul feel (the people of the elephant, Abraha's men who had attacked Makkah) were punished here when Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم came from Muzdalifah, he hastened his beast at this place and passed through it very quickly. It was his habit that he hastened through a place on his route where any people has been punished.

Some authorities contend that the Christians and the Arab idolaters used to observe the standing in the valley of Muhassir during the pilgrimage. So, the prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم hastened through it to make it clear that their action had no sanction.

In any case, it is incumbent on every pilgrim to emulate the prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم and hurry through the valley of Muhassir.

The Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم took a route different from the one he had taken while going down. This return route took him to jamrat ul kubra or jamrat ul aqabah. The route that he had taken to Arafat and Muzdalifah was called Tariq Dabb while this return route that led to Mina for rami jamrah was called Tariq Maazmam. Dabb and Maazmam are two mountains.

Jamrah is a pillar. There are many such in Mina. Pebbles are cast at them. Insha Allah, we shall speak about them shortly.

The Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم had shared his sacrificial animals with Sayyiduna Ali رضى الله عنه in the sense that he had given him some of his camels so that he might sacrifice them on his own account. He may have given him those camels from the remainder of his stock or he may have had him given from the other camels. The Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم eating the meat of his sacrifice and drinking its both with Sayyiduna Ali رضى الله عنه establishes that it is mustahab (desirable) to consume from one's own sacrifice.

Then the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم went to the Ka'bah and made its tawaf. This tawaf is called tawaf ifadah or tawaf rukn. It is a rukn (or part) of Hajj (pilgrimage). With this tawaf, the last action of Hajj (pilgrimage) is done and Hajj (pilgrimage) is accomplished. While it is better to perform this tawaf on the day of sacrifice, yet it is allowed to make it later.

He offered the salah (prayer) of zuhr in Makkah according to this hadith (tradition). However, the hadith (tradition) (# 2652) of Ibn Umar رضى الله عنه is that he offered zuhr in Mina. Now, we might presume that he had, indeed, offered the zuhr in Makkah but Sayyiduna Ibn Umar رضى الله عنه might have supposed, on seeing him offer the optional salah (prayer) in Mina, that he had offered the zuhr. Or, since the two tradition differ, both stand rejected and, sins it is better to offer salah (prayer) in Makkah, we shall prefer to say that he offered the zuhr in Makkah. (Allah knows best.)

KINDS OF HAJJ (PILGRIMAGE)

(٢٥٥٦) وَعَنْ عَائِشَةَ قَالَتْ خَرَجْنَا مَعَ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فِي حَجَّةِ الْوَدَاعِ فَمِنَّا مَنْ اَهَلَّ بِعُمْرَةٍ وَمِنَّا مَنْ اَهَلَّ بِحَجٍّ فَلَمَّا قَدِمْنَا مَكَّةَ فَقَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ اَهَلَّ بِعُمْرَةٍ وَلَمْ يُهْدِ فَلْيَحْلِلْ وَمَنْ اَحْرَمَ بِعُمْرَةٍ وَاَهْدٰى فَلْيُهِلَّ بِالْحَجِّ مَعَ الْعُمْرَةِ ثُمَّ لَا يَحِلَّ حَتّٰى يَحِلَّ مِنْهُمَا وَفِي رِوَايَةٍ فَلَا يَحِلُّ حَتّٰى يَحِلَّ بِنَحْرِ هَدْيِهٖ وَمَنْ اَهَلَّ بِحَجٍّ فَلْيُتِمَّ حَجَّهٗ قَالَتْ فَحِضْتُ وَلَمْ اَطُفْ بِالْبَيْتِ وَلَا بَيْنَ الصَّفَا وَالْمَرْوَةِ فَلَمْ اَزَلْ حَائِضًا حَتّٰى كَانَ يَوْمُ عَرَفَةَ وَلَمْ اُهْلِلْ اِلَّا بِعُمْرَةٍ فَاَمَرَنِي النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَنْ اَنْقُضَ رَأْسِي

وَامْتَشِطْ وَأَهِلَّ بِالْحَجِّ وَاتْرُكَ الْعُمْرَةَ فَفَعَلْتُ حَتَّى قَضَيْتُ حَجِّيْ بَعَثَ مَعِي عَبْدَالرَّحْمٰنِ بْنِ اَبِي بَكْرٍ وَاَمَرَنِي اَنْ اَعْتَمِرَ مَكَانَ عُمْرَتِي مِنَ التَّنْعِيْمِ قَالَتْ فَطَافَ الَّذِيْنَ كَانُوا اَهَلُّوا بِالْعُمْرَةِ بِالْبَيْتِ وَبَيْنَ الصَّفَا وَ الْمَرْوَةِ ثُمَّ حَلُّوا ثُمَّ طَافُوا طَوَافًا بَعْدَ اَنْ رَجَعُوا مِنْ مِنًى وَاَمَّا الَّذِيْنَ جَمَعُوا الْحَجَّ وَالْعُمْرَةَ فَإِنَّمَا طَافُوْا طَوَافًا وَاحِدًا۔ (متفق عليه)

2556. Sayyidah Ayshah رضی الله عنها narrated that they set out with the Prophet Muhammad صلی الله علیه وسلم at the farewell pilgrimage. Some of them called aloud the talbiyah for an umrah and others for a Hajj (pilgrimage) (or Hajj (pilgrimage) and umrah, and had assumed the ihram (pilgrim-robe) accordingly). At Makkah, Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم instructed those who has assumed the ihram (pilgrim-robe) for an umrah and had not brought sacrificial animals that they relinquish the ihram (pilgrim-robe) (after performing the umrah with its rites). Those who had assumed the ihram (pilgrim-robe) for an umrah and had brought sacrificial animals should calls aloud the talbiyah for the Hajj (pilgrimage) together with the umrah (and become a Qarin and not relinquish the ihram (pilgrim-robe) till they had finished and performed both of them – or, according to a version. Not relinquish the ihram (pilgrim-robe) till they had finished after sacrificing their animals. Those who had assumed the ihram (pilgrim-robe) for Hajj (pilgrimage) (whether they has brought the animals or not and whether they had combined umrah with Hajj (pilgrimage) or not). Were complete their Hajj (pilgrimage).
Sayyidah Ayshah رضی الله عنها said that she was menstruating, so did not make the tawaf of the House or observe the sa'I between as Safa and al Marwah. She continued to menstruate till the day of Arafah. Since she had assumed the ihram (pilgrim-robe) for umrah only, the Prophet Muhammad صلی الله علیه وسلم instructed her to undo her hair and comb it. Then, she was to assume the ihram (pilgrim-robe) of Hajj (pilgrimage) and forgo the umrah. (she was to redeem the umrah later.) She obeyed and performed the Hajj (pilgrimage) (when that was done,) the Prophet Muhammad صلی الله علیه وسلم sent Sayyiduna Abdur Rahman ibn Abu Bakr رضی الله عنه along with her and instructed her to perform an umrah, to redeem the one she had forgone, from at Tamim.
Sayyidah Ayshah رضی الله عنها said that those people who had assumed the ihram (pilgrim-robe) for umrah, relinquished it after performing the tawaf of the H Ouse and the sa'I between as safa and al-Marwah. On returning from Mina, they performed the tawaf (again), but those who has assumed the ihram (pilgrim-robe) for both Hajj (pilgrimage) and umrah performed only one tawaf.[1]

COMMENTARY: At-Tamim is about three miles away from Makkah to its north west. It is outside the limits of the Haram. The pilgrims go these to assume the ihram (pilgrim-robe) for umrah.
It is necessary that the ihram (pilgrim-robe) for umrah should be assumed outside the limits of the Haram which is called the hill (حل) and it is a condition too. The applies to both a resident of Makkah and an outsider. As for the ihram (pilgrim-robe) for Hajj (pilgrimage), an outsider must assume it at the hill, meaning outside the limits of the Haram, but a resident of Makkah may assume it any where within the limits of the Haram.

[1] Bukhari # 319, Muslim # 111-1211, Abu Dawud # 1781, Nasa'i # 2764, Musnad Ahmad 6-177.

The hadith (tradition) implies that a qarin may perform only one tawaf for both Hajj (pilgrimage) and umrah. Imam (leader) Shafi'I رحمه الله has ruled along these lines. Imam (leader) Abu Hanifah رحمه الله said that a qarin must perform two tawafs, one for umrah after entering Makkah and the second for Hajj (pilgrimage) after the wuquf of Arafat. It is clear from the hadith (tradition) that the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم was a qarin. When he came to Makkah, he performed one tawaf and the second, tawaf ziyarah, he made after the wuquf at Arafat.

Daraqutni has also transmitted one hadith (tradition) whose essence is also that the qarin should make two tawafs and two sa'is between as Safa and al-Marwah.

The same things ascribed to Sayyiduna Ali رضى الله عنه and Sayyiduna Abdullah ibn Mas'ud رضى الله عنه. They said that the qarin must make two tawafs and two sa'is.

(٢٥٥٧) وَعَنْ عَبْدِاللّٰهِ بْنِ عُمَرَ قَالَ تَمَتَّعَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فِي حَجَّةِ الْوَدَاعِ بِالْعُمْرَةِ إِلَى الْحَجِّ فَسَاقَ مَعَهُ الْهَدْىَ مِنْ ذِى الْحُلَيْفَةِ وَبَدَأَ فَأَهَلَّ بِالْعُمْرَةِ ثُمَّ أَهَلَّ بِالْحَجِّ فَتَمَتَّعَ النَّاسُ مَعَ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ بِالْعُمْرَةِ إِلَى الْحَجِّ فَكَانَ مِنَ النَّاسِ مَنْ أَهْدٰى وَمِنْهُمْ مَنْ لَمْ يُهْدِ فَلَمَّا قَدِمَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَكَّةَ قَالَ لِلنَّاسِ مَنْ كَانَ مِنْكُمْ أَهْدٰى فَإِنَّهُ لَا يَحِلُّ مِنْ شَيْءٍ حَرُمَ مِنْهُ حَتّٰى يَقْضِيَ حَجَّهُ وَمَنْ لَمْ يَكُنْ مِنْكُمْ أَهْدٰى فَلْيَطُفْ بِالْبَيْتِ وَبِالصَّفَا وَالْمَرْوَةِ وَلْيُقَصِّرْ وَلْيَحْلِلْ ثُمَّ لِيُهِلَّ بِالْحَجِّ وَلْيُهْدِ فَمَنْ لَمْ يَجِدْ هَدْيًا فَلْيَصُمْ ثَلَاثَةَ أَيَّامٍ فِي الْحَجِّ وَسَبْعَةٍ إِذَا رَجَعَ إِلَى أَهْلِهِ فَطَافَ حِيْنَ قَدِمَ مَكَّةَ وَاسْتَلَمَ الرُّكْنَ أَوَّلَ شَيْءٍ ثُمَّ خَبَّ ثَلَاثَةَ أَطْوَافٍ وَمَشٰى أَرْبَعًا فَرَكَعَ حِيْنَ قَضٰى طَوَافَهُ بِالْبَيْتِ عِنْدَ الْمَقَامِ رَكْعَتَيْنِ ثُمَّ سَلَّمَ فَانْصَرَفَ فَأَتَى الصَّفَا فَطَافَ بِالصَّفَا وَالْمَرْوَةِ سَبْعَةَ أَطْوَافٍ ثُمَّ لَمْ يَحِلَّ مِنْ شَيْءٍ حَرُمَ مِنْهُ حَتّٰى قَضٰى حَجَّهُ وَنَحَرَ هَدْيَهُ يَوْمَ النَّحْرِ وَأَفَاضَ فَطَافَ بِالْبَيْتِ ثُمَّ حَلَّ مِنْ كُلِّ شَيْءٍ حَرُمَ مِنْهُ وَفَعَلَ مِثْلَ مَا فَعَلَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ سَاقَ الْهَدْيَ مِنَ النَّاسِ۔ (متفق عليه)

2557. Sayyiduna Abdullah ibn Umar رضى الله عنه narrated that during the farewell pilgrimage, Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم took the benefit by assuming the ihram (pilgrim-robe) for umrah first and after wards for Hajj (pilgrimage). He drove with him the hadi from Dhull Hulayfah. Thus, he first called the talbiyah for umrah and then for Hajj (pilgrimage). When he arrived at Makkah, he said to the people, "Those of you who have brought the sacrificial animals should not make lawful of anything that is forbidden to them (because of the ihram (pilgrim-robe) and not put it off). Those of you who have not brought the sacrificial animals should make the tawaf of the House and (the rounds of) as Safa and al-Marwah, and clip or shave off their hair, and relinquish the ihram (pilgrim-robe). Then, they must assume the ihram (pilgrim-robe) of Hajj (pilgrimage) and bring the sacrificial animals (and make the sacrifice). Those who cannot get the sacrificial animals should fast for three days during the Hajj (pilgrimage) and seven days on returning to t heir families. (The three should be observed before sacrifice, better on 7th, 8th and 9th. The seven should be observed after completing Hajj (pilgrimage) in makkah or on reaching home.)

The Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم circumambulated the ka'bah when he came to Makah, kissed (or made istislam of) the Black stone and made ramal of three rounds and walked the other four (at normal pace). On finishing his tawaf of the house. He offered two raka'at salah (prayer) at the maqam (Ibrahim). Then he gave the sanitation (of the salah (prayer) to end it) and departed till he came to as-Safa and made the seven rounds of as-Safa and al-Marwah. Then, he did not regard anything that was forbidden to him (because of the ihram (pilgrim-robe)) as lawful till he had accomplished his Hajj (pilgrimage) and sacrificed his animals on the day of sacrifice, and made the tawaf ifadah of the House. Then everything was lawful to him what had become unlawful to him. And everyone who had brought sacrificial animals did as Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم did.[1]

COMMENTARY: Though it seems from this hadith (tradition) that the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم performed Hajj (pilgrimage) tamatta, the correct thing is that he performed the qiran from. We might say that the word tamatta is used here in the sense of 'to benefit.' This meaning is found in the qiran from too in that umrah is joined to it so it is beneficial' in the sense.

UMRAH ALLOWED IN MONTHS OF HAJJ (PILGRIMAGE)

(۲۵۵۸) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ هٰذِهٖ عُمْرَةٌ اسْتَمْتَعْنَا بِهَا فَمَنْ لَمْ يَكُنْ عِنْدَهُ الْهَدْيُ فَلْيَحِلَّ الْحِلَّ كُلَّهُ فَإِنَّ الْعُمْرَةَ قَدْ دَخَلَتْ فِي الْحَجِّ إِلٰى يَوْمِ الْقِيَامَةِ۔ (رواه مسلم)

2558. Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضى الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "This umrah we have profited thereby. He who has no sacrificial animal with him (may relinquish his ihram (pilgrim-robe) completely and) may treat as lawful what the sacred state had denied him, for, indeed, the umrah may be performed in the months of Hajj (pilgrimage) till the Last Hour."[2]

COMMENTARY: In this hadith (tradition), too, Tamatta' is used in the sense of 'to benefit,' This has been explained earlier.
This chapter does not have Section II.

SECTION III اَلْفَصْلُ الثَّالِثُ

SAHABAH'S رضى الله عنه HESITATION TO ALTER NATURE OF IHRAM (PILGRIM-ROBE)

(۲۵۵۹) وَعَنْ عَطَاءٍ قَالَ سَمِعْتُ جَابِرَ بْنَ عَبْدِاللّٰهِ فِي نَاسٍ مَعِيَ قَالَ اَهْلَلْنَا اَصْحَابُ مُحَمَّدٍ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ بِالْحَجِّ خَالِصًا وَحْدَهُ قَالَ عَطَاءٌ قَالَ جَابِرٌ فَقَدِمَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ صُبْحَ رَابِعَةٍ مَضَتْ مِنْ ذِي الْحِجَّةِ فَاَمَرَنَا اَنْ نَحِلَّ قَالَ عَطَاءٌ قَالَ حِلُّوا وَاَصِيْبُوا النِّسَاءَ قَالَ عَطَاءٌ وَلَمْ يَعْزِمْ عَلَيْهِمْ وَلٰكِنْ اَحَلَّهُنَّ لَهُمْ فَقُلْنَا لَمَّا لَمْ يَكُنْ بَيْنَنَا وَبَيْنَ عَرَفَةَ اِلَّا خَمْسٌ اَمَرَنَا اَنْ نُفْضِيَ اِلٰى نِسَائِنَا فَنَأْتِيَ عَرَفَةَ تَقْطُرُ مَذَاكِيْرُنَا الْمَنِيَّ قَالَ يَقُوْلُ جَابِرٌ بِيَدِهٖ كَاَنِّيْ اَنْظُرُ اِلٰى قَوْلِهٖ يُحَرِّكُهَا قَالَ فَقَامَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فِيْنَا فَقَالَ قَدْ

---

[1] Bukahri # 1691, Muslim # 174, 1227, Abu Dawud # 1805, Nasa'i # 2732, Musnad Ahmad 2.139.
[2] Muslim # 203-1241, Nasa'i # 2815, Darimi # 1856, Musnad Ahmad 1-236.

عَلِمْتُمْ إِنِّي أَتْقَاكُمْ لِلّٰهِ وَأَصْدَقُكُمْ وَأَبَرُّكُمْ وَلَوْ لَا هَدْيِي لَحَلَلْتُ كَمَا تَحِلُّوْنَ وَلَوِ اسْتَقْبَلْتُ مِنْ أَمْرِي مَا اسْتَدْبَرْتُ لَمْ أَسُقِ الْهَدْيَ فَحِلُّوا فَحَلَلْنَا وَسَمِعْنَا وَأَطَعْنَا قَالَ عَطَاءٌ قَالَ جَابِرٌ فَقَدِمَ عَلِيٌّ مِنْ سِعَايَتِهِ فَقَالَ بِمَ أَهْلَلْتَ قَالَ بِمَا أَهَلَّ بِهِ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَقَالَ لَهُ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَأَهْدِ وَامْكُثْ حَرَامًا قَالَ وَأَهْدَى لَهُ عَلِيٌّ هَدْيًا فَقَالَ سُرَاقَةُ بْنُ مَالِكِ بْنِ جُعْشُمٍ يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ أَلِعَامِنَا هٰذَا أَمْ لِأَبَدٍ قَالَ لِأَبَدٍ۔ (رواه مسلم)

2559. Sayyiduna Ata رحمه الله narrated that he, along with some people with him, heard Sayyiduna Jabir ibn Abdullah رضی الله عنه say, "We the sahabah of Muhammad صلی الله علیه وسلم called aloud the talbiyah for Hajj (pilgrimage) only (having assumed the ihram (pilgrim-robe) for only Hajj (pilgrimage))."

Ata رضی الله عنه said further that Jabir رضی الله عنه narrated that the Prophet Muhammad صلی الله علیه وسلم arrived (in Makkah) on the morning of the 4th Dhul Hijjah and commanded them to relinquish the ihram (pilgrim-robe). Ata رحمه الله quoted him as saying, "Come out of the sacred state and have sexual intercourse with your wives." Ata رحمه الله elaborated that he did not make it wajib (obligatory) but meant to say that it was lawful for them to go to their women. (The command to cede the ihram (pilgrim-robe) made it wajib (obligatory) but to have intercourse was to make it clear that after ceding the ihram (pilgrim-robe) it become permissible.)

(Ata رحمه الله remarked:) "We wondered that only five days remained between us and Arafat and he commands us to go to our wives, so we shall come to Arafat while our perises will be dripping with prostates fluid.

And, he said that Jabir رضی الله عنه gestured with his hand, moving it such that he still saw do it. (During the jahiliyah, it was considered very abominable to have sexual intercourse with wives on the eve of the days of Hajj (pilgrimage).)

Jabir رضی الله عنه said that the Prophet Muhammad صلی الله علیه وسلم stood among them and said, "You know very well that I fear Allah more than you do, I am more truthful and pious than you are. Had I not brought the sacrificial animals with me, I too would have put off the ihram (pilgrim-robe) as you do now. If I had known earlier about this state of mine what I have now know, I would not have brought the sacrificial animals (meaning, if I had realized that putting off the ihram (pilgrim-robe) would tax you, I would not have brought the sacrificial animals with me and would have put off the ihram (pilgrim-robe) as you do). So (do not hesitate but) remove the ihram (pilgrim-robe)." Hence, they relinquished the ihram (pilgrim-robe) (in the spirit of) hearing and obeying (see Quran, 2: 285)

Ata رحمه الله added that Jabir رضی الله عنه continued to narrated that Sayyiduna Ali رضی الله عنه arrived on an errand (having been sent as judge to Yemen and he came from there on some mission). He asked him, "What kind of ihram (pilgrim-robe) have you assumed?" He said, "The same as the Prophet Muhammad صلی الله علیه وسلم had assumed." So, bring the sacrificial animals (and sacrifice on the day of sacrifice because it is wajib (obligatory) on the qarin) and retain the sacred state (of the ihram (pilgrim-robe), as I do)."

He said further that Sayyiduna Ali رضی اللہ عنہ brought the sacrificial animals for him (meaning, for the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم or for himself). And, Sayyiduna Suraqa ibn Maalik ibn Jush'um رضی اللہ عنہ asked, "O Messenger of Allah, it is for this year of ours or for ever?" He said, "For always,"[1]

COMMENTARY: As for the ihram (pilgrim-robe) some people had assumed it only for Hajj (pilgrimage) as Sayyiduna Jabir رضی اللہ عنہ said in this hadith (tradition). But there were those too who has assumed it for only umrah and for umrah and Hajj (pilgrimage) combined as we read in the hadith (tradition) of Sayyidah Ayshsh رضی اللہ عنہ previously.

PROPHET MUHAMMAD'S صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم DISPLEASURE AT SAHABAH'S رضی اللہ عنہ HESITATION

(٢٥٦٠) وَعَنْ عَائِشَةَ اَنَّهَا قَالَتْ قَدِمَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لِاَرْبَعٍ مَضَيْنَ مِنْ ذِى الْحِجَّةِ اَوْخَمْسٍ فَدَخَلَ عَلَىَّ وَهُوَ غَضْبَانُ فَقُلْتُ مَنْ اَغْضَبَكَ يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ اَدْخَلَهُ اللّٰهُ النَّارَ قَالَ اَوَ مَا شَعَرْتِ اَنِّى اَمَرْتُ النَّاسَ بِاَمْرٍ فَاِذَا هُمْ يَتَرَدَّدُوْنَ وَلَوْ اِنِّى اَسْتَقْبَلْتُ مِنْ اَمْرِىْ مَا اسْتَدْبَرْتُ مَا سُقْتُ الْهَدْىَ مَعِىْ حَتّٰى اَشْتَرِيَهُ ثُمَّ اَحِلُّ كَمَا حَلُّوْا۔ (رواه مسلم)

2560. Sayyidah Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہا narrated that (during the Farewell pilgrimage) Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم came to her (in Makkah) on the fourth or fifth of Dhul Hijjah in an angry mood. She asked, "Who has angered you O Messenger of Allah? May Allah consign him to hell!" He said, "Do you not know that I commanded the people (to suffice with umrah) but they hesitate? If I had known afore hand about my predicament as I now learn, I would never have brought the sacrificial animals with me. Rather, I would have relinquished the ihram (pilgrim-robe) as the people have done and would have bought the sacrificial animals (here)."[2]

CHAPTER - IV

ENTRY INTO MAKKAH & CIRCUMAMBULATING THE KA'BAH

بَابُ دُخُوْلِ مَكَّةَ وَالطَّوَافِ

The literal meaning of (مکّ) (makk) is 'to ruin,' 'to destroy.'

This blessed city is called 'Makkah' because it ruins and destroys sins and it destroys (in this world or the next) the person who is oppressive and evil, pursuing wrong ways.

This chapter will direct those who come to Makkah how they may enter this sacred city and from which side, and how and from where they may depart from it, when may they arrive and what the manners and rules of admittance are. The nature and rules of tawaf will be mentioned together with of those things associated with it, like kissing the Hajr Aswad or the Black Stone which is the istilam of it.

---

[1] Muslim # 141-1216, Nasa'i # 2805, Ibn Majah # 1980, Musnad Ahmad 4-175.

[2] Muslim # 130-1211.

SECTION I — اَلْفَصْلُ الْأَوَّلُ

ENTRY INTO & EXIT FROM MAKKAH

(٢٥٦١) عَنْ نَافِعٍ قَالَ إِنَّ ابْنَ عُمَرَ كَانَ لَا يَقْدِمُ مَكَّةَ إِلَّا بَاتَ بِذِي طُوًى حَتّٰى يُصْبِحَ وَيَغْتَسِلَ وَيُصَلِّيَ فَيَدْخُلَ مَكَّةَ نَهَارًا وَإِذَا نَفَرَ مِنْهَا مَرَّ بِذِي طُوًى وَبَاتَ بِهَا حَتّٰى يُصْبِحَ وَيَذْكُرُ أَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ كَانَ يَفْعَلُ ذٰلِكَ۔ (متفق عليه)

2561. Sayyiduna Nafi رحمه الله said that Sayyiduna Ibn Umar رضى الله عنه never came to Makkah without spending the night at Dhu Tuwa. In the morning, he would have a bath, offer salah (prayer) and enter Makkah by day when he departed from it, he went by the route of Dhu Tuwa where he spend the night till the morning. And, he used to say that the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم did that.[1]

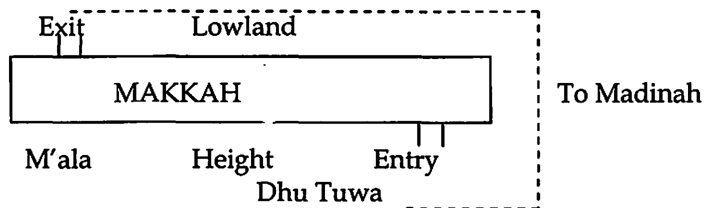
COMMENTARY: Dhu Tuwa is a place towards Tan'im within the limits of the Haram. The Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم used to rest here overnight. In the morning, he had a bath and offered salah (prayer) before going into the sacred city. The salah (prayer) that he offered was supererogatory salah (prayer) prior to entering Makkah.

While returning, he again stopped here to permit all companions to join him with their luggage. Ibn Maalik رحمه الله said that it is established though this hadith (tradition) that it is mustahab (desirable) to enter Makkah during day time. The House of Allah will be seen clearly in the day and supplication may be made.

(٢٥٦٢) وَعَنْ عَائِشَةَ قَالَتْ إِنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَمَّا جَاءَ إِلٰى مَكَّةَ دَخَلَهَا مِنْ أَعْلَاهَا وَخَرَجَ مِنْ أَسْفَلِهَا۔ (متفق عليه)

2562. Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها narrated that on coming to Makkah, the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم entered through its heights. And, when he departed, he went through its lowlands.[2]

COMMENTARY: Dhu Tuwa is in the elevated portion of Makkah. The famous graveyard of Makkah al-Mala is on this side. The other side of the city is the lower portion.



This does not contradict the previous hadith (tradition). When he departed from the lower portion of Makkah and came to the road leading to Madinah he touched Dhu Tuwa. He stayed there overnight and set out for Madinah in the morning.

---

[1] Bukhari # 1773, Muslim # 226-1259, Abu Dawud # 1865, Nasa'i # 2862, Darimi # 1927, Muwatta Maalik # 20 (Hajj).

[2] Bukhari # 1755, Muslim # 224-1258, Tirmidhi # 854, Abu Dawud # 1869, Nasa'i # 2865, Ibn Majah # 2940, Musnad Ahmad 6-40.

TAWAF ONLY IN A STATE OF PURITY

(٢٥٦٣) وَعَنْ عُرْوَةَ ابْنِ الزُّبَيْرِ قَالَ قَدْ حَجَّ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَأَخْبَرَتْنِي عَائِشَةُ أَنَّ أَوَّلَ شَيْءٍ بَدَأَ بِهِ حِيْنَ قَدِمَ مَكَّةَ أَنَّهُ تَوَضَّأَ ثُمَّ طَافَ بِالْبَيْتِ ثُمَّ لَمْ تَكُنْ عُمْرَةٌ ثُمَّ حَجَّ أَبُوْ بَكْرٍ فَكَانَ أَوَّلُ شَيْءٍ بَدَأَ بِهِ الطَّوَافَ بِالْبَيْتِ ثُمَّ لَمْ تَكُنْ عُمْرَةٌ ثُمَّ عُمَرُ ثُمَّ عُثْمَانُ مِثْلَ ذٰلِكَ۔ (متفق عليه)

2563. Sayyiduna Urwah ibn Zubayr said that the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم performed Hajj (pilgrimage). Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها told him that when the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم came to Makkah, the first things he did was to make ablution. Then he circumambulated the House, but there was no umrah.
The Sayyiduna Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه performed Hajj (pilgrimage) and the first things he did was to circumambulate the House, but there was no umrah.
Then Sayyiduna Umar رضى الله عنه and after him Sayyiduna Uthman did like that.[1]

COMMENTARY: Before observing the tawaf, the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم made a fresh ablution though he was already in a state of ablution. He has had a bath at Dhu Tuwa as we learnt from an earlier hadith (tradition) (# 2561) which clearly included ablution.
The Tawaf can only be proper with purity. The ulama (Scholars) say that it is a condition for making tawaf to first obtain purity. However, the hanafis say that it is not a condition but it is wajib (obligatory) to obtain purity before making tawaf.
We learn from the previous ahadith (tradition) that the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم and the sahabah (Prophet's companions) رضى الله عنهم performed umrah on arriving in Makkah. Those who had the sacrificial animals with them retained their ihram (pilgrim-robe), but those who had it not relinquish their ihram (pilgrim-robe). Hence this hadith (tradition), when it says 'but there was no umrah.' Means that the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم did not alter the ihram (pilgrim-robe) of Hajj (pilgrimage) into umrah, and did not relinquish the ihram (pilgrim-robe) but remained in the sacred state of the ihram (pilgrim-robe) because he was a qarin. He put off the ihram (pilgrim-robe) finally on the day of sacrifice. The narrator included these words to reject those people who presume that the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم infringed the ihram (pilgrim-robe) of Hajj (pilgrimage) and performed umrah.
These words could also imply that all these people did not perform another umrah after Hajj (pilgrimage) but let it suffice with the umrah that was combined with Hajj (pilgrimage).

RAMAL

(٢٥٦٤) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عُمَرَ قَالَ كَانَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِذَا طَافَ فِي الْحَجِّ أَوِ الْعُمْرَةِ أَوَّلَ مَا يَقْدَمُ سَعٰى ثَلَاثَةَ أَطْوَافٍ وَمَشٰى أَرْبَعَةً ثُمَّ سَجَدَ سَجْدَتَيْنِ ثُمَّ يَطُوْفُ بَيْنَ الصَّفَا وَالْمَرْوَةِ۔ (متفق عليه)

2564. Sayyiduna Ibn Umar رضى الله عنه narrated that when Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم circumambulated (the Ka'bah) for Hajj (pilgrimage) or umrah (when he arrived), he first walked rapidly (at near-running pace) in the first three rounds (which is normal). The next four he walked (at normal pace). Then he offered two raka'at salah (prayer) and after that made sa'I (the rounds) between as-Safa and al-Marwah.[2]

---

[1] Bukhari # 1614, Muslim # 190-1235.

[2] Bukhari # 1616, Muslim # 231-1261, Abu Dawud # 1893, Nasa'i # 2941, Musnad Ahmad 2-125.

COMMENTARY: One rounds of the Ka'bah is called a shawt (شوط). Seven circuits make up a tawaf. The Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم walked rapidly in the first three rounds without running or jumping. The remaining four he walked.

SA'I IS WAJIB (OBLIGATORY) - BETWEEN AS SAFA & AL-MARWAH

(٢٥٦٥) وَعَنْهُ قَالَ رَمَلَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مِنَ الْحَجَرِ إِلَى الْحَجَرِ ثَلَاثًا وَمَشٰى أَرْبَعًا وَكَانَ يَسْعٰى بِبَطْنِ الْمَسِيْلِ إِذَا طَافَ بَيْنَ الصَّفَا وَالْمَرْوَةِ۔ (رواه مسلم)

2565. Sayyiduna Ibn Umar said that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم made ramal (walked briskly) in the (first) three rounds from the (Black) stone to (Black) stone and he walked at normal pace in the (remaining) four. At as-Safa and al-Marwah, he run in the batn nasil when (makilg the Sa'i)[1]

COMMENTARY: The hanafis regard Sa'I as Wajib (obligatory) while the Shaf'I'is say that it is a rukn (part, essential).

Batn Masil (rain water passage, bottom of the valley) is marked between as Safa and al-Marwah by two green pillars. It is sunnah(Practice of Holy Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم) in the sight of all ulama (Scholars) to run between these pillars.

KISSING THE HAJR ASWAD

(٢٥٦٦) وَعَنْ جَابِرٍ قَالَ إِنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَمَّا قَدِمَ مَكَّةَ أَتَى الْحَجَرَ فَاسْتَلَمَهُ ثُمَّ مَشٰى عَلٰى يَمِيْنِهٖ فَرَمَلَ ثَلَاثًا وَمَشٰى أَرْبَعًا۔ (رواه مسلم)

2566. Sayyiduna Jabir رضى الله عنه said that when Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم came to Makkah, he approached the (Black) Stone, made its istilaam (kissed or touched it) and moving to his right, made ramal in three circuits and walked normally in four.[2]

(٢٥٦٧) وَعَنِ الزُّبَيْرِ بْنِ عَرَبِيٍّ قَالَ سَأَلَ رَجُلٌ ابْنَ عُمَرَ عَنِ اسْتِلَامِ الْحَجَرِ فَقَالَ رَأَيْتُ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَسْتَلِمُهُ وَيُقَبِّلُهُ۔ (رواه البخارى)

2567. Sayyiduna Az-Zubayr ibn Arabi رضى الله عنه narrated that a man asked Sayyiduna Ibn Umar رضى الله عنه about the istilam of the stone. He said, "I saw Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم touch it and kiss it."[3]

ISTILAM OF RUKN YAMANI

(٢٥٦٨) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عُمَرَ قَالَ لَمْ أَرَ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَسْتَلِمُ مِنَ الْبَيْتِ إِلَّا الرُّكْنَيْنِ الْيَمَانِيَّيْنِ۔ (متفق عليه)

2568. Sayyiduna Ibn Umar رضى الله عنه said that he had seen Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم make istilam of only the two Yamani corners of the House (they are to the Yamani side).[4]

COMMENTARY: The Ka'bah has four corners. The Black stone is pitched in one. The other

---

[1] Bukhari # 1644, Muslim # 230-1261, Tirmidhi # 856, Muwatta Maalik # 108 (Hajj) Darimi # 1841, Musnad Ahmad 2-40.

[2] Muslim # 232-1261, Tirmidhi # 857, Nasa'i # 2939, Darimi # 1840.

[3] Bukhari # 1611, Tirmidhi # 862, Nasa'i # 2946.

[4] Bukhari # 1609, Muslim # 247-1269, Tirmidhi # 859, Musnad Ahmad 2-114.

opposite to it is truly the Yamani corner. Both these are called the Yamani rukn. Of the other two, one is Rukn Iraqi and the other Rukn Shaami. Both, however, are called Rukn Shaami.
The corner with the Blacvk stone is excellent twice over. First, it is made by prophet Ibrahim عليه السلام. Secondly, it has the Black Stone. The rukn Yamani has only one excellence. It is that Prophet Ibrahim عليه السلام had built it. In short, both these corners are more excellent than the two corners rukn Shaami and rukn Iraqi. Istilam is therefore, associated with only these two corners.
Istilam means 'to touch' with the hands or a kiss, or both. When this word is used with the Black stone, it implies kissing it. With the rukn Yamani, it stands for only touching it.
Since the rukn aswad (corner with Black stone) is better than rukn Yamani, it is kissed either by touching it with the hands or any other thing by gestures towards it and a symbolic kiss. The Yamini corner is only touched, not kissed. The remaining two corners are neither kissed nor touched.
Thus, the ruling is that no stone, apart from the Hajr Aswad and the Yamani corner, is kissed or touched.

CIRCUITS OF KA'BAH RIDING A CAMEL

(٢٥٦٩) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ قَالَ طَافَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فِي حَجَّةِ الْوَدَاعِ عَلَى بَعِيْرٍ يَسْتَلِمُ الرُّكْنَ بِمِحْجَنٍ۔ (متفق عليه)

2569. Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضى الله عنه narrated that during the Farewell Pilgrimage, Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم made the tawaf (of the House) on a camel. He touched the rukn (corner) with a mihjan (crooked stick).[1]

COMMENTARY: The hanafis hold that it is wajib (obligatory) to perform the tawaf on foot. So, they explain that the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم had some reason to do it on a camel. This tawaf is exclusive with him and no one else is permitted to do it.
Teebi رحمه الله that though it is better to make the tawaf on foot, the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم rode a camel to allow everyone to see him.
However, a question arises that it is confirmed through ahadith (tradition) that while making tawaf during the farewell pilgrimage, the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم had observed ramal in the first three rounds. Clearly, he could not have done that on a camel.
The fact is that those ahadith (tradition) refer to his tawaf Qudoom (when he had come to Makkah for the pilgrimage) while the tawaf made on camel back was tawaf ifadah which was fard(compulsory) and is performed on the day of sacrifice (the tenth). It is also called tawaf ur rukn. His aim was that the people might see him and learn the motions and rules.
Mihjan is a stick with an etched edge. The stick was pointed towards the Hajr Aswad and given a light kiss.

METHOD OF ISTILAM OF HAJR ASWAD

(٢٥٧٠) وَعَنْهُ اَنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ طَافَ بِالْبَيْتِ عَلَى بَعِيْرٍ كُلَّمَا اَتَى عَلَى الرُّكْنِ اَشَارَ اِلَيْهِ بِشَيْءٍ فِي يَدِهٖ وَكَبَّرَ۔ (رواه البخارى)

2570. Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضى الله عنه narrated that rounds of the House on a camel.

[1] Bukhari # 1607, Muslim # 223-1272, Abu Dawud # 1877, Nasa'i # 2954, Ibn Majah # 2948.

Every time he came to the corner, he pointed to it with something in his hand and called the takbir (Allahu Akbar).[1]

COMMENTARY: Both hands are placed on the Black Stone and both lips are brought to it. Because there were very many people and a crowd around the Black Stone, the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم pointed towards it and blew a kiss at it,

(٢٥٧١) وَعَنْ اَبِي الطُّفَيْلِ قَالَ رَأَيْتُ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَطُوْفُ بِالْبَيْتِ وَيَسْتَلِمُ الرُّكْنَ بِمِحْجَنٍ مَعَهُ وَيُقَبِّلُ الْمِحْجَنَ۔ (رواه مسلم)

2571. Sayyiduna Abu at-Tufayl رضى الله عنه narrated that he saw Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم make the tawaf of the House. He made istilam of the rukn with a mihjan that he had and then kissed it.[2]

COMMENTARY: The Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم sometimes kissed the Black Stone directly, but when there was a crowd around he touched it with something and kissed that or he blew a kiss at the Black Stone from afar. This happened in a single tawaf in its different rounds or from tawaf to tawaf depending on circumstances and the situation.

MENSTRUATING WOMEN NEED MAKE NO TAWAF OR SA'I

(٢٥٧٢) وَعَنْ عَائِشَةَ قَالَتْ خَرَجْنَا مَعَ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَا تَذْكُرُ إِلَّا الْحَجَّ فَلَمَّا كُنَّا بِسَرِفَ طَمِثْتُ فَدَخَلَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَاَنَا اَبْكِيْ فَقَالَ لَعَلَّكِ نُفِسْتِ قُلْتُ نَعَمْ قَالَ فَإِنَّ ذٰلِكِ شَيْءٌ كَتَبَهُ اللّٰهُ عَلٰى بَنَاتِ اٰدَمَ فَافْعَلِيْ مَا يَفْعَلُ الْحَاجُّ غَيْرَ اَنْ لَا تَطُوْفِيْ بِالْبَيْتِ حَتّٰى تَطْهُرِيْ۔ (متفق عليه)

2572. Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها narrated that they set out with the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم mentioning nothing but Hajj (pilgrimage). (some people interpret it to mean that their objective was to perform Hajj (pilgrimage) not umrah. So not mentioning umrah does not necessitate that they had not formed an intention to perform umrah alongwith it). When they were at Sarif, she began to menstruate. The Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم went to her to find her weeping. He asked, "It seems that you have your menses?" She said, "Yes." He said, "That is what Allah has decreed for the daughters of Aadam عليه السلام. So, do what the pilgrims do but do not circumambulate the House (and do not make Sa'I which is proper only after circumambulation) till you are purified of your menses and have had a bath)."[3]

COMMENTARY: Sarif is a place about six miles from Makkah, three or four miles to the south of Tanim on the route to Shaam. By a rare coincidence, here also lies the grave of the mother of believers, Sayyidah Maymunan رضى الله عنه and, indeed, it was here that she was married to the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم and here their marriage was consummated. The words of Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها that they mentioned nothing but Hajj (pilgrimage) seem to contradict her words in hadith (tradition) # 2556. She said there that the people

---

[1] Bukhari # 1612, Tirmidhi # 866, Nasa'i # 2952, Darimi # 1845.

[2] Muslim # 257-1275, Ibn Majah # 2949.

[3] Bukhari # 294, Muslim # 120.1211, Abu Dwud # 1782, Nasa'i # 2741, Ibn Majah # 2963, Darimi # 1846, Muwatta Maalik # 224 (Hajj).

performed the different forms of Hajj (pilgrimage); ifrad, tamatta and qiran. Hence, here she meant to say that their true objective was to perform Hajj (pilgrimage). The three forms of Hajj (pilgrimage) fall under the objective to perform Hajj (pilgrimage). She had opted for tamatta but when she had her menses the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم instructed her to give up the ihram (pilgrim-robe) for umrah and retain that of Hajj (pilgrimage) and perform deeds of Hajj (pilgrimage).

IDOLATERS DISALLOWED TO PERFORM TAWAF

(۲۵۷۳) وَعَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ بَعَثَنِي أَبُو بَكْرٍ فِي الْحَجَّةِ الَّتِي أَمَّرَهُ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ عَلَيْهَا قَبْلَ حَجَّةِ الْوَدَاعِ يَوْمَ النَّحْرِ فِي رَهْطٍ أَمَرَهُ أَنْ يُؤَذِّنَ فِي النَّاسِ أَلَا لَا يَحُجُّ بَعْدَ الْعَامِ مُشْرِكٌ وَلَا يَطُوفَنَّ بِالْبَيْتِ عُرْيَانٌ۔ (متفق علیه)

2573. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that on the day of sacrifice during the Hajj (pilgrimage) that preceded the Farewell pilgrimage and over which the Prophet had made him the amir, Sayyiduna Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ sent him (Abu Hurayrah) رضی اللہ عنہ along with some others with instructions to proclaim among the masses, "know! After this year no idolater (and polytheist) may perform Hajj (pilgrimage) and no one may make the tawaf of the House naked."[1]

COMMENTARY: As stated earlier, Hajj (pilgrimage) was made fard(compulsory) towards the close of 9AH. The Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم was occupied in various religious affairs, so did not proceed himself. He sent Sayyiduna Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ as amir of the pilgrims. This was one year before the farewell Pilgrimage.

As the amir, Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ made the proclamation through Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ and some others. Only Muslims would benefit from this great honour. His proclamation was made in the light of this verse of the Quran:

إِنَّمَا الْمُشْرِكُونَ نَجَسٌ فَلَا يَقْرَبُوا الْمَسْجِدَ الْحَرَامَ بَعْدَ عَامِهِمْ هٰذَا

{The associators are indeed filthy so let them not come near the sacred Mosque after this year of theirs.} (9: 28)

Sayyiduna Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ also instructed them to proclaim that no one should make the tawaf while he is a naked form. During the jahiliyah, people used to undress and circumambulate the House on the plea that they could not go round Allah's House that is a mighty worship in their unseemly clothing in which they had committed sin day and night.

Islam put an end to this obnoxious practice.

SECTION II الفصل الثانی

MY HAND BE RAISED WHEN MAKING SUPPLICATION ON SEEING THE KA'BAH

(۲۵۷٤) عَنِ الْمُهَاجِرِ الْمَكِّيِّ قَالَ سُئِلَ جَابِرٌ عَنِ الرَّجُلِ يَرَى الْبَيْتَ يَرْفَعُ يَدَيْهِ فَقَالَ قَدْ حَجَجْنَا مَعَ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَلَمْ نَكُنْ نَفْعَلُهُ۔ (رواہ الترمذی وابوداؤد)

---

[1] Bukhari # 369, Muslim # 435-1347, Abu Dawud # 1946, (Also Bu khari # 1622, 3177, 4363, 4655, 4656, 4657.)

2574. Sayyiduna Al-Muhajir Al-Makki رحمه الله said that Sayyiduna Jabir ibn Abdullah رضی الله عنه was asked about the man who sees the House and raises his hands. He said, "Indeed, we did perform Hajj (pilgrimage) with the Prophet Muhammad صلی الله علیه وسلم but we never did so."[1]

COMMENTARY: When a visitor to Makkah enters the sacred mosque and his eyes fall on the Ka'bah and he makes a supplication, his prayer is answered, Hence, he must pray to Allah for whatever he wishes.

The hadith (tradition) says that he must not raise his hands to make supplication. Imam (leader) Abu Hanifah رحمه الله Imam (leader) Shafi'I رحمه الله and Imam (leader) Maalik رحمه الله have ruled in accordance with the hadith (tradition) the hands should not be raised when making supplication. Imam (leader) Ahmad رحمه الله, however, holds that one must raise hands when making supplication on seeing the Ka'bah (Teebi)

Mulla Ali Qari, رحمه الله however, says that Imam (leader) Abu Hanifah رحمه الله and Imam (leader) Shafi'I رحمه الله have ruled like Imam (leader) Ahmad رحمه الله that hands may be raised. Again, the same Mulla Ali Qari رحمه الله has termed it, in his book 'Manasik'. To be makruh(unbecoming). Some ulama (Scholars) hold that it is allowed. The Hidayah and Durr Mukhtar affirm that hands should not be raised.

LOOKING AT THE KA'BAH DURING SA'I AND SUPPLICATING WITH HANDS RAISED

(٢٥٧٥) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ اَقْبَلَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَدَخَلَ مَكَّةَ فَاَقْبَلَ اِلَى الْحَجَرِ فَاسْتَلَمَهُ ثُمَّ طَافَ بِالْبَيْتِ ثُمَّ اَتَى الصَّفَا فَعَلَاهُ حَتّٰى يَنْظُرَ اِلَى الْبَيْتِ فَرَفَعَ يَدَيْهِ فَجَعَلَ يَذْكُرُ اللّٰهَ مَا شَاءَ وَيَدْعُوْ۔

(رواہ ابوداؤد)

2575. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم came (for the pilgrimage) and entered Makkah, he came to the (black) Stone and kissed it. Then he made the tawaf of the House. Then, he came to as-Safa and climbed it till he could look at the House and he raised his h ands and began to make zikr (remembrance of Allah) as much as he wished and made supplication.[2]

COMMENTARY: When the pilgrim is as-Safa while observing Sa'I, and stand. Then he must call Allahu Akbar and recite the Kalimah and invoke blessings on Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم. Then, he must raise his hands and make supplication.

Some people raise their hands with takbir (Allahu Akbar) as in salah (prayer). They must know that it is not sanctioned in Shari'ah. It is not legal and not masnun.

RESEMBLANCE IN SALAH (PRAYER) & TAWAF

(٢٥٧٦) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ اَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ الطَّوَافُ حَوْلَ الْبَيْتِ مِثْلُ الصَّلٰوةِ اِلَّا اَنَّكُمْ تَتَكَلَّمُوْنَ فِيْهِ فَمَنْ تَكَلَّمَ فِيْهِ فَلَا يَتَكَلَّمَنَّ اِلَّا بِخَيْرٍ۔ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَالنَّسَائِيُّ وَالدَّارِمِيُّ وَذَكَرَ التِّرْمِذِيُّ جَمَاعَةً وَقَفُوْهُ عَلَى ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ۔

---

[1] Tirmidhi # 856, Abu Dawud # 1870, Nasa'i # 1946.

[2] Muslim # 84-1780, Abu Dawud # 1872.

2576. Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "The tawaf round the House is like salah (prayer) except that you converse while performing it. He who converses must do so with a good word."[1]

COMMENTARY: Salah (prayer) and tawaf are alike in the great reward associated with them. Speech, however, is the nullifier of salah (prayer) but not of tawaf. Whatever attracts the command of speech like eating and drinking does not nullify tawaf but nullifies salah (prayer). There are other differences too in salah (prayer) one faces the qiblah but not in tawaf. Salah (prayer) is offered at appointed time, not tawaf.

Purity is a condition for both. However, salah (prayer) is more excellent then tawaf. Their resemblance lies in their reward and singular sanctity.

ORIGIN OF THE BLACK STONE

(٢٥٧٧) وَعَنْهُ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ نَزَلَ الْحَجَرُ الْاَسْوَدُ مِنَ الْجَنَّةِ وَهُوَ اَشَدُّ بَيَاضًا مِنَ اللَّبَنِ فَسَوَّدَتْهُ خَطَايَا بَنِي اٰدَمَ۔ رَوَاهُ اَحْمَدُ وَالتِّرْمِذِيُّ وَقَالَ هٰذَا حَدِيْثٌ حَسَنٌ صَحِيْحٌ۔

2577. Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "The Hajr Aswad came down from paradise. It was whiter than milk, but the sins of the children of Aadam علیہ السلام blackened it."[2]

COMMENTARY: It is something to ponder. If man's sins can have this effect on a stone, what could they be doing to the hearts on mankind? We seek refuge in Allah!

TESTIMONY OF THE BLACK STONE ON THE DAY OF RESURRECTION

(٢٥٧٨) وَعَنْهُ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فِي الْحَجَرِ وَاللّٰهِ لَيَبْعَثَنَّهُ اللّٰهُ يَوْمَ الْقِيَامَةِ لَهُ عَيْنَانِ يُبْصِرُ بِهِمَا وَلِسَانٌ يَنْطِقُ بِهٖ يَشْهَدُ عَلٰى مَنِ اسْتَلَمَهٗ بِحَقٍّ۔ (رواه الترمذی وابن ماجة والدارمی)

2578. Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said about the (Black) Stone, "By Allah! Surely, Allah will raise it on the day of resurrection. It will have eyes with which it shall see and a tongue with which it shall speak and give testimony for those who had touched it (and kissed it) truthfully."[3]

COMMENTARY: The testimony will be in favour of anyone who had made the istilam of the Black Stone sincerely.

This hadith (tradition) means what it Says. Allah will give sight and speech to all inanimate things. He is Omnipotent and can do it just as He gives these things to a creature of blood and flesh.

BLACK STONE & MAQAM IBRAHIM RUBIES OF PARADISE

(٢٥٧٩) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عُمَرَ قَالَ سَمِعْتُ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُوْلُ اِنَّ الرُّكْنَ وَالْمَقَامَ يَاقُوْتَتَانِ مِنْ يَّاقُوْتِ الْجَنَّةِ طَمَسَ اللّٰهُ نُوْرَهُمَا وَلَوْ لَمْ يَطْمِسْ نُوْرَهُمَا لَاَضَاءَ مَا بَيْنَ الْمَشْرِقِ وَالْمَغْرِبِ۔ (رواه الترمذی)

---

[1] Tirmidhi # 961, Nasa'i # 2972, Darimi # 1847, Musnad Ahmad 5-377.
[2] Tirmidhi # 878, Musnad Ahmad 1-307.
[3] Tirmidhi # 963, Ibn Majah # 2944, Darimi # 1839.

2579. Sayyiduna Ibn Umar رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that he heard Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم say, "Surely the Rukn (the Black Stone) and the Maqam (Station of Ibrahim) are two rubies from the rubies of paradise. Allah has blotted out their light. If He had not done so, they would have illuminated whatever is between the east and the west."[1]

EXCELLENCE OF ISTILAAM & OF TAWAF

(٢٥٨٠) وَعَنْ عُبَيْدِ بْنِ عُمَيْرٍ اَنَّ ابْنَ عُمَرَ كَانَ يُزَاحِمُ عَلَى الرُّكْنَيْنِ زِحَامًا مَا رَأَيْتُ اَحَدًا مِّنْ اَصْحَابِ رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يُزَاحِمُ عَلَيْهِ قَالَ اِنْ اَفْعَلْ فَاِنِّيْ سَمِعْتُ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُوْلُ اِنَّ مَسْحَهُمَا كَفَّارَةٌ لِلْخَطَايَا وَسَمِعْتُهُ يَقُوْلُ مَنْ طَافَ بِهٰذَا الْبَيْتِ اُسْبُوْعًا فَاَحْصَاهُ كَانَ كَعِتْقِ رَقَبَةٍ وَسَمِعْتُهُ يَقُوْلُ لَا يَضَعُ قَدَمًا وَلَا يَرْفَعُ اُخْرٰى اِلَّا حَطَّ اللّٰهُ عَنْهُ بِهَا خَطِيْئَةً وَكَتَبَ لَهُ بِهَا حَسَنَةً۔ (رواه الترمذى)

2580. Sayyiduna Ubayd ibn Umayr رحمہ اللہ narrated that Sayyiduan Ibn Umar رضی اللہ عنہ used to precede (the people) at the two corners in a way he had not observed any of the sahabah (Prophet's companions) رضی اللہ عنہم of Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم do. Also, he used to say. "If I do that, it is because I had heard Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم say, 'Touching them is an expiation of sins." And, I had heard him say, "If anyone makes tawaf of this House (for a week or) seven times,[2] mindful of it (by observing its details), it is tantamount to setting free a slave." And, I heard him say, 'No one places a foot on the ground or raises the other but Allah removes a sin from him because of that and records a pious deed because of that."[3]

COMMENTARY: He stepped ahead to make istilam of the two corners even when there was a crowd but without inconveniencing anyone. So, it is not but sinful if anyone pushes people to make it to these corners. If there is a rush, he must do it by making a gesture from afar.

There are three possible explanations for 'makes tawaf... seven times.

(i) He makes the seven rounds of one tawaf.

(ii) He makes seven tawaf.

(iii) He makes tawaf for seven days (which is a week).

PROPHET MUHAMMAD'S صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم SUPPLICATION BETWEEN TWO RUKN

(٢٥٨١) وَعَنْ عَبْدِ اللّٰهِ بْنِ السَّائِبِ قَالَ سَمِعْتُ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُوْلُ مَا بَيْنَ الرُّكْنَيْنِ رَبَّنَا اٰتِنَا فِى الدُّنْيَا حَسَنَةً وَّفِى الْاٰخِرَةِ حَسَنَةً وَّقِنَا عَذَابَ النَّارِ۔ (رواه ابوداؤد)

2581. Sayyiduna Abdullah ibn Sa'ib رضی اللہ عنہ said that he heard Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم pray between the two corners (Black Stone and Yamani corner):

رَبَّنَا اٰتِنَا فِى الدُّنْيَا حَسَنَةً وَّفِى الْاٰخِرَةِ حَسَنَةً وَّقِنَا عَذَابَ النَّارِ

{Our Lord, grant us what is good in this world and what is good in the hereafter and

---

[1] Tirmidhi # 879, Musnad Ahmad # 7017.

[2] The Arabic urdu could be translated 'a week.'

[3] Tirmidhi # 961, Nasa'i # 2919, Musnad Ahmad # 5706.

save us from the chastisement of the Fire.][1] (2: 201)

COMMAND TO OBSERVE SA'I

(٢٥٨٢) وَعَنْ صَفِيَّةَ بِنْتِ شَيْبَةَ قَالَتْ اَخْبَرَتْنِي بِنْتُ اَبِي تُجْرَاةَ قَالَتْ دَخَلْتُ مَعَ نِسْوَةٍ مِنْ قُرَيْشٍ دَارَ اٰلِ اَبِي حُسَيْنٍ نَنْظُرُ اِلَى رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَهُوَ يَسْعٰى بَيْنَ الصَّفَا وَالْمَرْوَةِ فَرَأَيْتُهُ يَسْعٰى وَاِنَّ مِئْزَرَهُ لَيَدُوْرُ مِنْ شِدَّةِ السَّعْيِ وَسَمِعْتُهُ يَقُوْلُ اسْعَوْا فَاِنَّ اللّٰهَ كَتَبَ عَلَيْكُمُ السَّعْيَ۔ رَوَاهُ فِي شَرْحِ السُّنَّةِ وَرَوَى اَحْمَدُ مَعَ اخْتِلَافٍ۔

2582. Sayyidah Safiyah bint Shaybah رضی الله عنه said that she was informed by the daughter of Abu Tujrah that she went to the house of Abu Husayn in the company of some women of the Quraysh that they might observe Allah's Messengerرضی الله عنه perform Sa'I between as-Safa and al-Marwah. She saw him ran and his lower wrapper moved round because of the effort he put in it. She heard him say, "Run (in Sa'i) because Allah has prescribed Sa'I for you."[2]

COMMENTARY: Sa'I is to make seven rounds between as-Safa and al-Marwah, the two mountains. It is main part of Hajj (pilgrimage). The mountains are no more. Over the years they have shrinked and now only their position can be identified with a few symbolic steps to lead up. The two are separate, by a distance of about one and a half furlong.

As stated earlier, Sa'I is reminiscent of the running of Sayyidah Hajrah علیه السلام and her restlessness for her infant, Sayyiduna Ismail علیه السلام for whom she searched for water. She ran between the maintains. The Allah created zamzam.

Before Islam, the idolater Arabs had erected idols one each on the two mountains. The one at as Safa was called Isaf and the one at al-Marwah was Na'ilah. As-Safa was next to the Mount Abu Qays. Sa'I is initiated from there. The path between as-Safa and al-Marwah is called Masa. It is to the cast of the Ka'bah. It used to lie outside the sacred mosque. Now it is made part of it.

Imam (leader) Sha'fi رحمه الله regards Sa'I as fard(compulsory). So, if anyone does not make SA'I then his Hajj (pilgrimage) becomes invalid and void. But, Imam (leader) Abu Hanifah رحمه الله regards Sa'I as wajib (obligatory), so if anyone does not do it then he will have to have to atone with durum, meaning that he will have to slaughter a ram, or something as a wajib (obligatory). His Hajj (pilgrimage) does not become batil (invalid).

(٢٥٨٣) وَعَنْ قُدَامَةَ بْنِ عَبْدِاللّٰهِ بْنِ عَمَّارٍ قَالَ رَأَيْتُ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَسْعٰى بَيْنَ الصَّفَا وَالْمَرْوَةِ عَلٰى بَعِيْرٍ لَا ضَرْبَ وَلَا طَرْدَ وَلَا اِلَيْكَ اِلَيْكَ رَوَاهُ فِي شَرْحِ السُّنَّةِ۔

2583. Sayyiduna Qudamah ibn Abdullah ibn Ammar رضی الله عنه narrated that he did see Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم observe the Sa'I between as Safa and al-Marwah on a camel without there being any striking (the camel), driving people away, or shouting 'Give way, give way.'[3]

---

[1] Abu Dawud # 1892, Musnad Ahmd 3-411.

[2] Daraqutni in Kitab Hajj # 87 in chapter Mawaqit, Baghawi Sharh Sunnah(Practice of Holy Prophet Muhammad صلی الله علیه وسلم) # 858, Musnad Ahmad 2-114.

[3] Sharh us Sunnah(Practice of Holy Prophet Muhammad صلی الله علیه وسلم)

COMMENTARY: We saw in the previous ahadith (tradition) that the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم made Sa'I on foot. This one on camel is an exception, made to teach the ummah that it may be done if there is a reason for it. Imam (leader) Abu Hanifah رحمه الله has ruled that it is wajib (obligatory) to make Sa'I on foot unless there is an excuse and if anyone uses a conveyance without an excuse then it will be wajib (obligatory) on him to atone with a dumm (slaughtering an animal).

The Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم did not do as rulers are prone to do with naughty motives to degrade their subjects.

TAWAF WITH IDTIBA

(٢٥٨٤) وَعَنْ يَعْلَى ابْنِ أُمَيَّةَ قَالَ اِنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ طَافَ بِالْبَيْتِ مُضْطَبِعًا بِبُرْدٍ اَخْضَرَ۔

(رواه الترمذی وابوداؤد ابن ماجة والدارمی)

2584. Sayyiduna Ya'la ibn Umayyah رضى الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم circumambulated the house observing idtiba with a green mantle.[1]

(Idtiba is to pass the upper wrapper of the ihram (pilgrim-robe) from below the right arm pit and have both or one of its ends over the left shoulder).

IDTIBA IS A SUNNAH IN TAWAF

(٢٥٨٥) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ اَنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَاَصْحَابَهُ اِعْتَمَرُوْا مِنَ الْجِعِرَّانَةِ فَرَمَلُوْا بِالْبَيْتِ ثَلَاثًا وَجَعَلُوْا اَرْدِيَتَهُمْ تَحْتَ اٰبَاطِهِمْ ثُمَّ قَذَفُوْهَا عَلٰى عَوَاتِقِهِمِ الْيُسْرٰى۔ (رواه ابوداؤد)

2585. Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضى الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم and his sahabah (Prophet's companions) رضى الله عنهم made an umrah from Ji'ranah (a place between Makkah and Ta'if). In the first three circuits,-they observed ramal. They drew their upper wrapper from under their (left(armpits and placed the ends over their left shoulders. [2]

COMMENTARY: Idtiba is a sunnah(Practice of Holy Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم) in the entire tawaf while ramal is observe in the first two or three circuits of the tawaf. Idtiba is mustahab (desirable) only In tawaf, not otherwise. There is no sanction for observing the idtiba immediately on assuming the ihram (pilgrim-robe). In fact, if observe while offering salah (prayer), then it is makruh(unbecoming).

SECTION III اَلْفَصْلُ الثَّالِثُ

SIGNIFICANCE OF ISTILAM

(٢٥٨٦-٢٥٨٧) عَنِ ابْنِ عُمَرَ قَالَ مَاتَرَكْنَا اسْتِلَامَ هٰذَيْنِ الرُّكْنَيْنِ الْيَمَانِيِّ وَالْحَجَرِ فِي شِدَّةٍ وَلَا رُخَاءٍ مُنْذُ رَأَيْتُ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَسْتَلِمُهُمَا۔ مُتَّفَقٌ عَلَيْهِ وَفِي رِوَايَةٍ لَهُمَا قَالَ نَافِعٌ رَأَيْتُ ابْنَ عُمَرَ يَسْتَلِمُ الْحَجَرَ بِيَدِهٖ ثُمَّ قَبَّلَ يَدَهُ وَقَالَ مَا تَرَكْتُهُ مُنْذُ رَأَيْتُ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَفْعَلُهُ۔

2586. Sayyiduna Ibn Umar رضى الله عنه said, "We did not give up the istilam of these two corners, the yamani and the (Black) stone, neither in a rush nor in ease, ever since I saw Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم make their istilam."[1]

---

[1] Tirmidhi # 860, Abu Dawud # 1883, Ibn Majah # 2954, Musnad Ahmad 4-223.

[2] Abu Dawud # 1884, Musnad Ahmad # 1-306.

2587. Sayyiduna Nafi' رحمه الله said (in another version) that he saw Ibn Umar رضى الله عنه make istilam of the stone with his hand and then he kissed his hand. And he said, "I have not given it up ever since I saw Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم do it."[2]

IN CASE OF EXCUSE TAWAF MAY BE MADE ON CONVEYANCE

(٢٥٨٨) وَعَنْ أُمِّ سَلَمَةَ قَالَتْ شَكَوْتُ إِلَى رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَنِّي اَشْتَكِي فَقَالَ طُوْفِي مِنْ وَرَاءِ النَّاسِ وَاَنْتِ رَاكِبَةٌ فَطُفْتُ وَرَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يُصَلِّي اِلَى جَنْبِ الْبَيْتِ يَقْرَأُ بِالطُّوْرِ وَكِتَابٍ مَّسْطُوْرٍ۔ (متفق عليه)

2588. Sayyiduna Umm Salamah رضى الله عنه said that (during the performance of Hajj (pilgrimage), being disabled) she complained to Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم that she was unwell. He instructed her to make the tawaf behind the people while she rode a beast. She did that. Allah's Messenger was offering salah (prayer) by the House. He recited:

بِالطُّوْرِ وَكِتَابٍ مَّسْطُوْرٍ

(Surah at-Tur 52)[3]

COMMENTARY: The Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم may have recited surah at-Tur in one rakah and some other in the second, or he may have completed surah at Tur in parts in two raka'at.

It is permitted to make the tawaf on a conveyance, if there is a handicap. But, if there is no reason then it is wajib (obligatory) to make the tawaf on foot.

UMAR'S رضى الله عنه REMARKS WHILE KISSING THE STONE

(٢٥٨٩) وَعَنْ عَابِسِ بْنِ رَبِيْعَةَ قَالَ رَأَيْتُ عُمَرَ يُقَبِّلُ الْحَجَرَ وَيَقُوْلُ اِنِّي لَاَعْلَمُ اَنَّكَ حَجَرٌ مَا تَنْفَعُ وَلَا تَضُرُّ وَلَوْ لَا اَنِّي رَأَيْتُ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يُقَبِّلُكَ مَا قَبَّلْتُكَ۔ (متفق علية)

2589. Sayyiduna Aabis ibn Rabi'ahj رحمه الله said that he saw Sayyiduna Umar رضى الله عنه kiss the stone and say, "I know for sure that you are a stone. You can neither benefit nor hurt. Had I not seen Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم kiss you, I would never have kissed you."[4]

COMMENTARY: Sayyiduna Umar رضى الله عنه aimed to nip in the bud any misconception in the minds of the neo. Muslims that the Black Stone could be worshipped. The only advantage was t hat reward could be excepted from Allah.

---

[1] Bukhari # 1606, Muslim # 245-1268, Nasa'i # 2952, Darimi # 1838.

[2] Muslim # 246.1268, Abu Dawud # 1876.

[3] Bukhari # 1633, Muslim # 258-1276, Abu Dawud # 1882, Ibn Majah # 2961, Nasa'i # 2926, Muwatta Maalik # 123 (Hajj).

[4] Bukhari # 1597, Muslim # 251-1270, Abu Dawud # 1773, Tirmidhi # 861, Nasa'i # 2937, Ibn Majah # 2943,Muwatta Maalik # 115 (Hajj) Musnad Ahmad 1-54.

PRAYER AT RUKN YAMANI & THE ANGELS AAMEEN

(٢٥٩٠) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ اَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ وُكِّلَ بِهٖ سَبْعُوْنَ مَلَكًا يَعْنِي الرُّكْنَ الْيَمَانِيَّ فَمَنْ قَالَ اَللّٰهُمَّ اِنِّيْ اَسْئَلُكَ الْعَفْوَ وَالْعَافِيَةَ فِي الدُّنْيَا وَالْاٰخِرَةِ رَبَّنَا اٰتِنَا فِي الدُّنْيَا حَسَنَةً وَّفِي الْاٰخِرَةِ حَسَنَةً وَّقِنَا عَذَابَ النَّارِ قَالُوْا اٰمِيْنَ۔ رَوَاهُ ابْنُ مَاجَةَ۔

2590. Sayyiduna Abu Hurahrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said (about the Yamani corner). "Seventy angels have been given charge over it, meaning the Yamani corner. If anyone prays (here):

اَللّٰهُمَّ اِنِّيْ اَسْئَلُكَ الْعَفْوَ وَالْعَافِيَةَ فِي الدُّنْيَا وَالْاٰخِرَةِ رَبَّنَا اٰتِنَا فِي الدُّنْيَا حَسَنَةً وَّفِي الْاٰخِرَةِ حَسَنَةً وَّقِنَا عَذَابَ النَّارِ

{O Allah, I pray to you for pardon and security in this world and the next, our Lord, grant us what is good in t his world and what is good in the next and preserve us from the punishment in hell}
then they (the angels) say, 'Aameen!"[1]

COMMENTARY: Given this excellence of the Yamani corner, the excellence of the hajr aswad will be more than it. Perhaps, this excellence might be exclusive to the rukn Yamani and that of the hajr aswad might be more but of another kind.

There is no contradiction in this hadith (tradition) and hadith (tradition) # 2581 which says that the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم made this prayer between the two corners. Clearly, he made the prayer between Rukn Yamani and hajr aswad and he could not have paused there. It is not proper to stop walking while making the tawaf. Those people who do so to make supplication do much wrong. (The prayer in both ahadith (tradition) is identical.)

TASBIH, TAHIL, ETC DURING TAWAF

(٢٥٩١) وَعَنْهُ اَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ مَنْ طَافَ بِالْبَيْتِ سَبْعًا وَّلَا يَتَكَلَّمُ اِلَّا بِسُبْحَانَ اللّٰهِ وَالْحَمْدُ لِلّٰهِ وَلَا اِلٰهَ اِلَّا اللّٰهُ وَاللّٰهُ اَكْبَرُ وَلَا حَوْلَ وَلَا قُوَّةَ اِلَّا بِاللّٰهِ مُحِيَتْ عَنْهُ عَشْرُ سَيِّئَاتٍ وَكُتِبَ لَهٗ عَشْرُ حَسَنَاتٍ وَرُفِعَ لَهٗ عَشْرُ دَرَجَاتٍ وَمَنْ طَافَ فَتَكَلَّمَ وَهُوَ فِيْ تِلْكَ الْحَالِ خَاضَ فِي الرَّحْمَةِ بِرِجْلَيْهِ كَخَائِضِ الْمَاءِ بِرِجْلَيْهِ۔ (رواه ابن ماجة)

2591. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said that if anyone performs the rounds of the House seven times not talking but saying only.

سُبْحَانَ اللّٰهِ وَالْحَمْدُ لِلّٰهِ وَلَا اِلٰهَ اِلَّا اللّٰهُ وَاللّٰهُ اَكْبَرُ وَلَا حَوْلَ وَلَا قُوَّةَ اِلَّا بِاللّٰهِ

{Allah is without blemish; All praise belongs to Allah and there is no god but Allah; And, Allah is the Greatest; There is no might and power save with Allah.} then ten evil deeds are erased from him, ten pious deeds are recorded for him and he is elevated by ten degrees.
If he who makes the rounds speaks while performing tawaf, then he walks in the pool of mercy with his two feet like one who walks in a pool of water.[1]

[1] Ibn Majah # 2957.

COMMENTARY: The second portion of the hadith (tradition) is actually a repetition of the first portion. The speech is the same tasbih takbir, tahlil, etc with the same words of glorifying, praising, extolling, and declaring unity of, Allah. The repetition is made to emphasise the reward of uttering these words while making tawaf. These are two kinds of rewards. The ulama (Scholars) also say that the second portion refers to other petitions, supplication etc. as taught by mashaykhs and others.

CHAPTER - V

AL-WUQUF THE STANDING AT ARAFAH — بَابُ الْوُقُوْفِ بِعَرَفَةَ

'Arafah' (عرفة) is the name of a specific place. It is also used in the sense of time in that the ninth of Dhul Hijjah is called the day of Arafah.

As for the plural form of Arafat (عرفات), it is used only for this particular place. The plural form is inclusive of the adjoining and neighbouring territories.

Arafat is about twenty five Kilometres away from Makkah. It is a large valley or plain surrounded on three sides by mountains. The Jabal (mountain) Ar-Rahmah is in the centre to its northern side.

Many reasons are suggested for the name 'Arafat.'

(i) It is said that Sayyiduna Aadam عليه السلام and Sayyidah Hawa عليه السلام who were sent down to earth met one another again at this place. This recognition (تعارف) came to be known as Arafah; and the place got its name Arafat.

(ii) When Sayyiduna Jibril عليه السلام taught, hare, Sayyiduna Ibrahim عليه السلام the method of performing Hajj (pilgrimage), he asked: (عرفت) (have you learnt?) Prophet Ibrahim عليه السلام answer (عرفت) (I know). Finally, their repetition of the word gave this place the name (عرفه) (Arafah).

There are other opinions too.

The wuquf at Arafat, which is the pilgrims arrival at Arafah on the ninth Dhul Hijjah, is a great essential part of his fulfillment of Hajj (pilgrimage). The pilgrimage is not accomplish without it. Of the two essentials of Hajj (pilgrimage), the tawaf ifadah and wuquf Arafat, the standing at Arafat is the greatest part of Hajj (pilgrimage). If this is omitted, then the Hajj (pilgrimage) will be invalid.

SECTION I — اَلْفَصْلُ الْاَوَّلُ

TAKBIR & TALBIYAH ON DAY OF ARAFAH

(٢٥٩٢) عَنْ مُحَمَّدِ بْنِ اَبِيْ بَكْرٍ الثَّقَفِيِّ اَنَّهُ سَأَلَ اَنَسَ بْنَ مَالِكٍ وَهُمَا غَادِيَانِ مِنْ مِنًى اِلٰى عَرَفَةَ كَيْفَ كُنْتُمْ تَصْنَعُوْنَ فِيْ هٰذَا الْيَوْمِ مَعَ رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَقَالَ كَانَ يُهِلُّ مِنَّا الْمُهِلُّ فَلَا يُنْكَرُ عَلَيْهِ وَيُكَبِّرُ الْمُكَبِّرُ مِنَّا فَلَا يُنْكَرُ عَلَيْهِ. (متفق عليه)

2592. Sayyiduna Muhammad ibn Abu Bakr al-Thaqafi narrated that he asked Sayyiduna Anas ibn Maalik رضى الله عنه while they travelled in the morning from Mina to Arafah, "How did you people behave on this day when you were with Allah's Messenger?" He said, "He of us who called the talbiyah would not be forbidden and he of us who called the takbir would not be forbidden."[1]

---

[1] ibid (Ibn Majah # 2957).

COMMENTARY: Teebi رحمه الله said that though the pilgrims are permitted to call the takbir on the day of Arafah, it is not sunnah(Practice of Holy Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم) Rather, it is sunnah(Practice of Holy Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم) for them to call the talbiyah on this day till they have observed the rami of jamrah aqabah.

Also, it is wajib (obligatory) for all whether a pilgrim or not to call the takbir after every fard(compulsory) salah (prayer) during the days of tashriq, from the morning of the day of Arafah (9th Dhul HIjjah) to the asr of the thirteenth.

SACRIFICE IN MINA & WUQUF IN ARAFAT & MUZDALIFAH

(٢٥٩٣) وَعَنْ جَابِرٍ اَنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ نَحَرْتُ هٰهُنَا وَمِنًى كُلُّهَا مَنْحَرٌ فَانْحَرُوْا فِي رِحَالِكُمْ وَوَقَفْتُ هٰهُنَا وَعَرَفَةُ كُلُّهَا مَوْقِفٌ وَوَقَفْتُ هٰهُنَا وَجَمْعٌ كُلُّهَا مَوْقِفٌ۔ (رواه مسلم)

2593. Sayyiduna Jabir رضى الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "I have made the sacrifice at this place. And, Mina all of it is a place of sacrifice. Hence, sacrifice where you are lodged. I have made wuquf (the standing) at this place, and Arafah, all of it, is a place of standing. And, I have stood here. And, Jam' (مزدلفه) (Muzdalifah), all of it, is a place of standing."

COMMENTARY: It is sunnah(Practice of Holy Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم) to make sacrifice anywhere in Mina and the place where the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم made the sacrifice is called place where the Prophet sacrificed.'

Similarly, the standing may be observed anywhere in Arafat, except the valley.

Muzdalifah is also called jam.' The Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم observed the standing Mash'arul Haram, but all of muzdalifah is a place of standing, except the valley of Muhassir.

However, it is better to make the sacrifice and observe the standings where the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم did in Mina, Arafat and Muzdalifah.

EXCELLENCE OF THE DAY OF ARAFAH

(٢٥٩٤) وَعَنْ عَائِشَةَ قَالَتْ اِنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ مَا مِنْ يَوْمٍ اَكْثَرُ مِنْ اَنْ يُعْتِقَ اللّٰهُ فِيْهِ عَبْدًا مِنَ النَّارِ مِنْ يَوْمِ عَرَفَةَ وَاِنَّهُ لَيَدْنُوْ ثُمَّ يُبَاهِيْ بِهِمُ الْمَلَائِكَةَ فَيَقُوْلُ مَا اَرَادَ هٰؤُلَاءِ۔ (رواه مسلم)

2594. Sayyidah Ayshash رضى الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said. "There is no day on which Allah liberates more (of His) slaves from hell than on the day of Arafah. He draws near (to them with His mercy and forgiveness) and takes pride in them before the angel, asking, "What do they want?"[2]

---

[1] Bukhari # 1659, Muslim # 274-1285, Muwatta Maalik # 43 (Hajj), Musnad Ahmad 3-110.

[2] Muslim # 436-1348, Nasa'i # 3003, Ibn Majah # 3014.

SECTION II اَلْفَصْلُ الثَّانِيْ

MAY STAND FAR FROM THE IMAM (LEADER)

(٢٥٩٥) وَعَنْ عَمْرِو بْنِ عَبْدِاللّٰهِ بْنِ صَفْوَانَ عَنْ خَالٍ لَهُ يَزِيْدُ ابْنُ شَيْبَانَ قَالَ كُنَّا فِيْ مَوْقِفٍ لَنَا بِعَرَفَةَ يُبَاعِدُهُ عَمْرٌو مِنْ مَوْقِفِ الْاِمَامِ جِدًّا فَأَتَانَا ابْنُ مِرْبَعٍ الْاَنْصَارِيُّ فَقَالَ اِنِّيْ رَسُوْلُ رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اِلَيْكُمْ يَقُوْلُ لَكُمْ قِفُوْا عَلٰى مَشَاعِرِكُمْ فَاِنَّكُمْ عَلٰى اِرْثٍ مِنْ اِرْثِ اَبِيْكُمْ اِبْرَاهِيْمَ عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ۔ (رواه الترمذی وابوداؤد والنسائی وابن ماجة)

2595. Sayyiduna Amr ibn Abdullah ibn Safwan رحمه الله reported that one of his maternal uncles Sayyiduna Yazid ibn Shayban رضی الله عنه said that they were standing at their place Arafat which Amr pointed out was very far off from the Imam (leader)'s standing place. Sayyiduna ibn Mirba al Ansari رضی الله عنه. Came to them and informed them that he had for them a message from Allah's Messenger, saying "Stand at your masha'ir (place of worship) for you are following the legacy of your father, Sayyiduna Ibrahim [1]عليه السلام

COMMENTARY: In the pre-Islamic days the standing of every tribe was determined and its members stood together at that place. The place Yazid ibn shayban was very far from where the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم stood. The hadith (tradition) referes to him as the Imam (leader).

The word masha'ir in the hadith (tradition) refers to their ancient mawquf. At Arafat, distance from the Imam (leader) is of no consequence. Moreover, everyone cannot be near the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم and the entire Arafat is equally the mawquf everywhere.

SACRIFICE ANYWHERE WITHIN LIMITYS OF HARAM

(٢٥٩٦) وَعَنْ جَابِرٍ اَنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ كُلُّ عَرَفَةَ مَوْقِفٌ وَكُلُّ مِنًى مَنْحَرٌ وَكُلُّ الْمُزْدَلِفَةِ مَوْقِفٌ وَكُلُّ فِجَاجِ مَكَّةَ طَرِيْقٌ وَمَنْحَرٌ۔ (رواه ابوداؤد والدارمی)

2596. Sayyiduna Jabir رضی الله عنه reported that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "The entire Arafat is a place of standing. All of Mina is a place of sacrifice. The Muzdalifah all of it is a place of standing. And all the roads of Makkah are thoroughfares and places of sacrifice.[2]

COMMENTARY: The concluding words of the hadith (tradition) mean that it is proper to go to Makkah from whichever road that heads to it and sacrifice may be made anywhere within the Haram, Makkah being in the Haram. It is a different thing that it is a custom to make the sacrifice in Mina because pilgrims are there on the day of sacrifice 10th Dhul Hijjah.

The Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم said this to make it clear that these things are permitted. As for the better course, it is where the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم made wuquf, where he sacrificed the animal and the road that he took to Makkah.

---

[1] Abu Dawud # 1919, Tirmidhi # 884, Nasa'i # 3014, Ibn Majah # 3048, Musnad Ahmad 3-326, Darimi # 1879.

[2] Abu Dawud # 1937, Ibn Majah # 3048, Darimi # 1879, Musnad Ahmad # 3-326.

DELIVERY OF PROPHET MUHAMMAD'S صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم SERMON

(٢٥٩٧) وَعَنْ خَالِدِ بْنِ هَوْذَةَ قَالَ رَأَيْتُ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَخْطُبُ النَّاسَ يَوْمَ عَرَفَةَ عَلٰى بَعِيْرٍ قَائِمًا فِي الرِّكَابَيْنِ۔ (رواه ابوداؤد)

2597. Sayyiduna Khalid ibn Hawdah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that he saw the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم deliver the sermon to the people on the day of Arafah standing (with his feet) in the stirrups on a camel.[1]

COMMENTARY: The Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم stood up in the stirrups of the camel to be on a higher level to deliver the sermon.

SUPPLICATION ON THE DAY OF ARAFAH

(٢٥٩٨) وَعَنْ عَمْرِو بْنِ شُعَيْبٍ عَنْ اَبِيْهِ عَنْ جَدِّهٖ اَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ خَيْرُ الدُّعَاءِ دُعَاءُ يَوْمِ عَرَفَةَ وَخَيْرُ مَا قُلْتُ اَنَا وَالنَّبِيُّوْنَ مِنْ قَبْلِي لَا اِلٰهَ اِلَّا اللّٰهُ وَحْدَهٗ لَا شَرِيْكَ لَهٗ لَهُ الْمُلْكُ وَلَهُ الْحَمْدُ وَهُوَ عَلٰى كُلِّ شَيْءٍ قَدِيْرٌ۔ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَرَوٰى مَالِكٌ عَنْ طَلْحَةَ ابْنِ عُبَيْدِ اللّٰهِ اِلٰى قَوْلِهٖ لَا شَرِيْكَ لَهٗ۔

2598. Sayyiduna Amr ibn Shu'ayb رحمہ اللہ narrated that on the authority of his father from his grandfather that the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "The best of supplications is the supplication made on the day of Arafah. And, the best of what I said and the Prophets before me have said is (this prayer): "

لَا اِلٰهَ اِلَّا اللّٰهُ وَحْدَهٗ لَا شَرِيْكَ لَهٗ لَهُ الْمُلْكُ وَلَهُ الْحَمْدُ وَهُوَ عَلٰى كُلِّ شَيْءٍ قَدِيْرٌ

[There is no God but Allah who is Alone. He has no partner. To Him belongs the dominion and to Him belongs all praise and He is over all things powerful.][2]

2599. Sayyiduna Talhah ibn Ubaydulah رضی اللہ عنہ, too, narrated this hadith (tradition) but up to the Prophet Muhammad's صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم words: لاشریک لہ [He has no partner.][3]

DAY OF ARAFAH CAUSES DISGRACE TO DEVIL MORE THAN OTHER DAYS

(٢٦٠٠) وَعَنْ طَلْحَةَ بْنِ عُبَيْدِ اللّٰهِ بْنِ كَرِيْزٍ اَنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ مَا رَاٰى الشَّيْطَانُ يَوْمًا هُوَ فِيْهِ اَصْغَرُ وَلَا اَدْحَرُ وَلَا اَحْقَرُ وَلَا اَغْيَظُ مِنْهُ فِيْ يَوْمِ عَرَفَةَ وَمَا ذَاكَ اِلَّا لِمَا يَرٰى مِنْ تَنَزُّلِ الرَّحْمَةِ وَتَجَاوُزِ اللّٰهِ عَنِ الذُّنُوْبِ الْعِظَامِ اِلَّا مَا اُرِيَ يَوْمَ بَدْرٍ فَقِيْلَ مَا رُئِيَ يَوْمَ بَدْرٍ؟ قَالَ فَاِنَّهٗ قَدْ رَاٰى جِبْرِيْلَ يَزَعُ الْمَلَائِكَةَ۔ رَوَاهُ مَالِكٌ مُرْسَلًا وَفِيْ شَرْحِ السُّنَّةِ بِلَفْظِ الْمَصَابِيْحِ۔

2600. Sayyiduna Talhah ibn Ubaydullah ibn Kariz رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "Never on a day is the devil found more trivial, more strongly put away, more humiliated and more angry than on the day of Arafah, only because of the mercy he sees descending and Allah's forgiveness of great sins, except for that which was seen on the day of Badr." Someone asked him about what

---

[1] Abu Dawud # 1817, Musnad Ahmad 5-30.

[2] Tirmidhi # 3596.

[3] Muwatta Maalik # 246 (Hajj)

was seen on the day of Badr. He said, "He had seen Jibril عليه السلام arrange the angels in battle-order."[1]

GREATNESS OF THE DAY OF ARAFAH

(٢٦٠١) وَعَنْ جَابِرٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِذَا كَانَ يَوْمُ عَرَفَةَ إِنَّ اللّٰهَ يَنْزِلُ إِلَى السَّمَاءِ الدُّنْيَا فَيُبَاهِي بِهِمُ الْمَلَائِكَةَ فَيَقُوْلُ انْظُرُوْا إِلَى عِبَادِي أَتَوْنِي شُعْثًا غُبْرًا ضَاجِّيْنَ مِنْ كُلِّ فَجٍّ عَمِيْقٍ أُشْهِدُكُمْ إِنِّي قَدْ غَفَرْتُ لَهُمْ فَيَقُوْلُ الْمَلَائِكَةُ يَا رَبِّ فُلَانٌ كَانَ يُرْهَقُ وَفُلَانٌ وَفُلَانَةٌ قَالَ يَقُوْلُ اللّٰهُ عَزَّوَجَلَّ قَدْ غَفَرْتُ لَهُمْ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَمَا مِنْ يَوْمٍ أَكْثَرُ عَتِيْقًا مِنَ النَّارِ مِنْ يَوْمِ عَرَفَةَ۔ (رواه في شرح السنة)

2601. Sayyiduna Jabir رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم said, "On the day of Arafah, Allah comes to the lowest heaven and takes pride in them before the angels, saying. 'Look at My slaves. They have come to my dishevelled, dusty and calling out from every deep valley. I make you witnesses to (the fact) that I have forgiven them.' The angels submit, 'O Lord, (among them is) he who is said to have committed sin, and that man and that woman (too, known sinner).'"

The Prophet Muhammad صلی الله علیه وسلم said, "Allah, Mighty and Glorious, says, 'I have forgiven them, too."

Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم said, "There is no day on which more people are delivered from hell than the day of Arafah."[2]

SECTION III الفصل الثالث

COMMAND TO OBSERVE STANDING AT ARAFAT

(٢٦٠٢) عَنْ عَائِشَةَ قَالَتْ كَانَ قُرَيْشٌ وَمَنْ دَانَ دِيْنَهَا يَقِفُوْنَ بِالْمُزْدَلِفَةِ وَكَانَ يُسَمُّوْنَ الْحُمْسَ فَكَانَ سَائِرُ الْعَرَبِ يَقِفُوْنَ بِعَرَفَةَ فَلَمَّا جَاءَ الْإِسْلَامُ أَمَرَ اللّٰهُ تَعَالَى نَبِيَّهُ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ أَنْ يَأْتِيَ عَرَفَاتٍ فَيَقِفُ بِهَا ثُمَّ يُفِيْضُ مِنْهَا فَذٰلِكَ قَوْلُهُ عَزَّوَجَلَّ ثُمَّ أَفِيْضُوْا مِنْ حَيْثُ أَفَاضَ النَّاسُ۔ (متفق عليه)

2602. Sayyidah Ayshah رضی الله عنها narrated that the Quraysh and those who emulated their ways (and followed their religion) observed the standing at Muzdalifah. They were called al-Hums. All the (other) Arabs observed the standing at Arafah. When Islam came, Allah, the exalted command his prophet Muhammad صلی الله علیه وسلم that he should come to Arafa't and observe the standing there. Then he should hasten onward from there. This is as the words of Allah, Mighty and Glorious:

ثُمَّ أَفِيْضُوْا مِنْ حَيْثُ أَفَاضَ النَّاسُ

{Then hasten onward from the place where from the people hasten onward}[3]

---

[1] Muwatta Maalik # 245 (Hajj) Baghawi in Sharh us sunnah(Practice of Holy Prophet Muhammad صلی الله علیه وسلم) # 1930.

[2] Baghawi in Sharh us Sunnah(Practice of Holy Prophet Muhammad صلی الله علیه وسلم*)* # 1931.

[3] Bukhari # 4520, Muslim # 1219, Tirmidhi # 885, Abu Dawud # 1910, Nasa'i # 3009.

COMMENTARY: While Muzdalifah is within the limits of the Haram, Arafat is outside its limits. The Quraysh and their henchmen demonstrated their excellence over other people by observing the wuquf in Muzdalifah. They said that they were the 'people of Allah' and residents of His Haram so could not observe the wuquf outside the Haram.

Those others than the Quraysh and all the residents of Arab lands stood at Arafat. However, when Islam eliminated class distinction and tribal classification, it gave the command that the wuquf should be observed at the Arafat by all. Thus the Quraysh too were required to make the wuquf there and throw out their obsession.

PROPHET MUHAMMAD'S صلى الله عليه وسلم PRAYER IN MUZDALIFAH GRANTED & IBLIS DISTRESS

(٢٦٠٣) وَعَنْ عَبَّاسِ بْنِ مِرْدَاسٍ اَنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ دَعَا لِاُمَّتِهٖ عَشِيَّةَ عَرَفَةَ بِالْمَغْفِرَةِ فَاُجِيْبَ اَنِّيْ قَدْ غَفَرْتُ لَهُمْ مَاخَلَا الظَّالِمَ فَاِنِّيْ اٰخِذٌ لِلْمَظْلُوْمِ مِنْهُ قَالَ اَىْ رَبِّ اِنْ شِئْتَ اَعْطَيْتَ الْمَظْلُوْمَ مِنَ الْجَنَّةِ وَغَفَرْتَ لِلظَّالِمِ فَلَمْ يُجَبْ عَشِيَّتَهٗ فَلَمَّا اَصْبَحَ بِالْمُزْدَلِفَةِ اَعَادَ الدُّعَاءَ فَاُجِيْبَ اِلٰى مَاسَاَلَ قَالَ فَضَحِكَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَوْ قَالَ تَبَسَّمَ فَقَالَ لَهٗ اَبُوْبَكْرٍ وَعُمَرُ بِاَبِيْ اَنْتَ وَاُمِّيْ اِنَّ هٰذِهٖ لَسَاعَةٌ مَا كُنْتَ تَضْحَكُ فِيْهَا فَمَا الَّذِيْ اَضْحَكَكَ اَضْحَكَ اللّٰهُ سِنَّكَ قَالَ اِنَّ عَدُوَّ اللّٰهِ اِبْلِيْسَ لَمَّا عَلِمَ اَنَّ اللّٰهَ عَزَّوَجَلَّ قَدِاسْتَجَابَ دُعَائِيْ وَغَفَرَ لِاُمَّتِيْ اَخَذَ التُّرَابَ فَجَعَلَ يَحْثُوْهُ عَلٰى رَاْسِهٖ وَيَدْعُوْ بِالْوَيْلِ وَالثُّبُوْرِ فَاَضْحَكَنِيْ مَارَاَيْتُ مِنْ جَزْعِهٖ. رَوَاهُ ابْنُ مَاجَةَ وَرَوَى الْبَيْهَقِيُّ فِيْ كِتَابِ الْبَعْثِ وَالنُّشُوْرِ نَحْوَهٗ.

2603. Sayyiduna Abbas ibn Mirdas رضى الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم made a supplication for his ummah on the evening of Arafah that they be forgiven. He received an answer, "I have indeed forgiven them but not the oppressive acts. I shall seize retribution from the oppressor for the oppressed." He prayed, 'O my Lord, if you wish, you may grant the oppressed the blessing of paradise (as a recompense) and forgive the oppressor." But he got no answer that evening. On the morning (following) in Muzdalifah, he repeated the supplication and was granted what he asked.

The narrator added: Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم laughed - or, he said that he smiled. (seeing that) Sayyiduna Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه and Sayyiduna Umar رضى الله عنه asked him. "May our parents be ransomed to you This is such a time at the like of which you have never laughed, so what has made you laugh? May Allah please you all your life (so that you may laugh always)!" He said "The enemy of Allah, Iblis, when he learnt that Allah, Mighty and Glorious, has granted my prayer and has forgiven my mmah, he took some dust and began to pour it on his head, cursing himself and he called destruction on himself."[1]

COMMENTARY: We might add a condition to this complete forgiveness for the ummah, including rights of Allah and even rights of fellow men, that this forgiveness applies to those people who had made the pilgrimage that year with the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه

[1] Ibn Majah # 3013, Musnad Ahmed 4-14.

وسلم, Or, it applies to such people whose Hajj (pilgrimage) is accepted there being no commission of indecency or sin during their pilgrimage.
Or, it may apply to the oppressor who may have made a sincere repentance but was unable to give back the usurped right.
Moreover, Divine mercy embraces anyone Allah wishes to forgive. It is as He says:

إِنَّ اللّٰهَ يَغْفِرُ أَنْ يُّشْرَكَ بِهٖ وَيَغْفِرُ مَا دُوْنَ ذٰلِكَ لِمَنْ يَّشَآءُ

{Surely Allah shall not forgive that anything be associated with Him and He shall forgive all besides that to whom He will} (4: 116)

Shah Waliullah Dahlawi رحمه الله said that the Prophet Muhammad's صلى الله عليه وسلم intercession will include every Muslim, both the righteous and the sinner. Because of it, Allah will raise the ranks in paradise of the righteous people and He will forgive most of the sinners and admit them to paradise. Those that remain in hell after that, their punishment will be softened and the term of punishment will be softened and the term of punishment will be decreased.
Similarly, Allah's forgiveness will include all Muslims, both righteous and sinners. The ranks of the righteous will be raised in paradise beyond what they deserve. As for the sinners, Allah will either forgive them through His mercy and favour and admit them to paradise, or mitigate the seventy of their punishment which is also a form of forgiveness.

CHAPTER - VI

THE RETURN FROM ARAFAH & AL-MUZDALFAH — بَابُ الدَّفْعِ مِنْ عَرَفَةَ وَالْمُزْدَلِفَةِ

SECTION I — اَلْفَصْلُ الْاَوَّلُ

THE PROPHET MUHAMMAD'S صلى الله عليه وسلم RETURN FROM ARAFAH

(٢٦٠٤) عَنْ هِشَامِ بْنِ عُرْوَةَ عَنْ أَبِيْهِ قَالَ سُئِلَ أُسَامَةُ بْنُ زَيْدٍ كَيْفَ كَانَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَسِيْرُ فِيْ حَجَّةِ الْوَدَاعِ حِيْنَ دَفَعَ قَالَ كَانَ يَسِيْرُ الْعَنَقَ فَإِذَا وَجَدَ فَجْوَةً نَصَّ۔ (متفق عليه)

2604. Sayyiduna Hisham ibn Urwah رحمه الله reported from his father who narrated that Sayyiduna Usamah ibn Zayd رضى الله عنه was asked, "How did Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم proceed while returning on the Farewell Pilgrimage?" He said, "He proceeded swiftly and when he found a wide path, he made his beast run."[1]

(٢٦٠٥) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ أَنَّهُ دَفَعَ مَعَ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَوْمَ عَرَفَةَ فَسَمِعَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَرَاءَهُ زَجْرًا شَدِيْدًا وَضَرْبًا لِلْإِبِلِ فَأَشَارَ بِسَوْطِهٖ إِلَيْهِمْ وَقَالَ يَآ أَيُّهَا النَّاسُ عَلَيْكُمْ بِالسَّكِيْنَةِ فَإِنَّ الْبِرَّ لَيْسَ بِالْإِيْضَاعِ۔ (رواه البخارى)

2605. Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضى الله عنه is said to have returned along with the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم on the day of Arafah (towards Mina).
(He said that on the way,) the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم heard behind him an

---

[1] Bukhari # 1666, Muslim # 283-1286, Nasa'i # 3023, Darimi # 1880, Muwatta Maalik # 176 (Hajj), Musnad Ahmad 5-210.

uproar and a beating of t he camels. He pointed his whip towards them and said, "O you people! Observe peace and quit! Piety does not lie in making haste."[1]

COMMENTARY: It is not piety to just push the animals at a quick pace. Rather, piety is to perform the deeds of Hajj (pilgrimage) and refrain from the forbidden. While hastening to do good is commendable, it should not be carried too far into disliked deeds or to commission of Sin. This explains this hadith (tradition) and the preceding one.

TALBIYAH RECITED TILL RAMI JAMRAH ALAQABAH

(٢٦٠٦) وَعَنْهُ اَنَّ اُسَامَةَ بْنَ زَيْدٍ كَانَ رِدْفَ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مِنْ عَرَفَةَ اِلَى الْمُزْدَلِفَةِ ثُمَّ اَرْدَفَ الْفَضْلَ مِنَ الْمُزْدَلِفَةِ اِلٰى مِنًى فَكِلَاهُمَا قَالَ لَمْ يَزَلِ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يُلَبِّيْ حَتّٰى رَمٰى جَمْرَةَ الْعَقَبَةِ۔

(متفق علیه)

2606. Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضی الله عنه narrated that Sayyiduna Usamah ibn Zayd رضی الله عنه was riding behind the Prophet Muhammad صلی الله علیه وسلم on his camel from Arafah to Muzdalifah. Then he took al-Fadl as his co-rider from Muzdalifah to Mina. Both of them reported that the Prophet Muhammad صلی الله علیه وسلم did not cease to recite the talbiyah till he had cast pebbles at the jamratul aqabah.[2]

TWO SALAH (PRAYER) TOGETHER IN AL-MUZDALIFAH

(٢٦٠٧) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عُمَرَ قَالَ جَمَعَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ الْمَغْرِبَ وَالْعِشَاءَ بِجَمْعٍ كُلَّ وَاحِدَةٍ مِنْهُمَا بِاِقَامَةٍ وَلَمْ يُسَبِّحْ بَيْنَهُمَا وَلَا عَلٰى اِثْرِ كُلِّ وَاحِدَةٍ مِنْهُمَا۔ (رواه البخاری)

2607. Sayyiduna Ibn Umar رضی الله عنه narrated that the Prophet Muhammad صلی الله علیه وسلم combined the salah (prayer) of maghrib and isha (in Muzdalifah, at the time of isha). The iqamah was called for each (salah (prayer)). He did not offer any (optional) salah (prayer) between them or at the end of each of them.[3]

COMMENTARY: Not offering any optional salah (prayer) between these two *salah (prayer)*s does not necessitate that the sunnah(Practice of Holy Prophet Muhammad صلی الله علیه وسلم) and witr salah (prayer) not offered between them.

Previously, the hadith (tradition) of Jabir رضی الله عنه in the chapter on the Farewell Pilgrimage (# 2555) has been narrated on this subject. Mulla Ali Qari رحمه الله explained that after the Prophet Muhammad صلی الله علیه وسلم had offered both maghrib and isha, he also observed the sunnah(Practice of Holy Prophet Muhammad صلی الله علیه وسلم) of maghrib and isha and the witr. This is also found in hadith (tradition) (Durr Mukhtar)

Shaykh Aabid Sindhi رحمه الله has recounted the different opinions of the ulama (Scholars) on this subject and concluded that it is correct that after the salah (prayer) of isha. The Prophet Muhammad صلی الله علیه وسلم offered the sunnah(Practice of Holy Prophet Muhammad صلی الله علیه وسلم) and witr.

---

[1] Bukhari # 1671.

[2] Bukhari # 1686, 1687, Musilm # 266-1280, Tirmidhi # 919, Nasa'i # 3081, Ibn Majah # 3040, Darimi # 1904, Musnad Ahmad 1-114.

[3] Bukhari # 1682, Muslim # 292-1289, Abu Dawud # 1936.

(٢٦٠٨) وَعَنْ عَبْدِاللّٰهِ بْنِ مَسْعُوْدٍ قَالَ مَارَأَيْتُ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ صَلّٰى صَلَاةً اِلَّا لِمِيْقَاتِهَا اِلَّا صَلَاتَيْنِ صَلَاةَ الْمَغْرِبِ وَالْعِشَاءِ بِجَمْعٍ وَصَلَّى الْفَجْرَ يَوْمَئِذٍ قَبْلَ مِيْقَاتِهَا۔ (متفق عليه)

2608. Sayyiduna Abdullah ibn Mas'ud رضی الله عنه asserted that he did not ever see Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم offer a salah (prayer) at an hour other than its proper hour, except two *salah (prayer)*s: The *salah (prayer)*s of maghrib and isha together and the salah (prayer) of fajr, one day, before its proper hour.[1]

COMMENTARY: The salah (prayer) of maghrib and isha only are mentioned here, the maghrib and isha at Muzdalifah, though the Prophet Muhammad صلی الله علیه وسلم had combined the zuhr and asr too at Arafat, advancing the asr ahead of its hour and offering it at the hour of zuhr. These were offered during the day and everyone is aware that the Prophet Muhammad صلی الله علیه وسلم had advanced the asr ahead of its hour, so they are not mentioned here specifically.

He has offered the salah (prayer) of fajr that day before when light had not spread as get and it was still dark. It does not mean that the Prophet Muhammad صلی الله علیه وسلم had offered the fajr even before its time had set in because the ulama (Scholars) are unanimous that the salah (prayer) of fajr is not permitted before its hour begins.

PERMITTED TO SEND WOMEN & CHILDREN FROM MUZDALIFAH BEFOREHAND

(٢٦٠٩) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ قَالَ اَنَا مِمَّنْ قَدَّمَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَيْلَةَ الْمُزْدَلِفَةِ فِيْ ضَعَفَةِ اَهْلِهٖ۔ (متفق عليه)

2609. Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضی الله عنه said, "I was among those whom the Prophet Muhammad صلی الله علیه وسلم had sent ahead (of others) on the night of Muzdalifah being the weak members of his family."[2]

COMMENTARY: The 'weak' refer to the women and children. The Prophet Muhammad صلی الله علیه وسلم had sent them ahead of others on the tenth Dhul Hijjah to Mina. Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضی الله عنه was among them. The Prophet Muhammad صلی الله علیه وسلم departed for Mina before sunrise but after the dawn was bright on his riding beast. This is a sunnah(Practice of Holy Prophet Muhammad صلی الله علیه وسلم). He had sent forward his family so that they might not feel inconvenienced because of the crowd. It is allowed to do so.

SCHEDULE OF RAMI JIMAR: According to another tradition to follow (# 2601), the Prophet Muhammad صلی الله علیه وسلم sent them ahead with instructions that they should cast pebbles at Jamrah aqabah after sunrise. Imam (leader) Abu Hanifah رحمه الله abides by this dictate. However, some traditions say that the Prophet Muhammad صلی الله علیه وسلم sent them saying only. "Go and pelt pebbles at Jamrah aqabah," there being no provision of sunrise. So, Imam (leader) Shafi'I رحمه الله and Imam (leader) Ahmad رحمه الله have preferred this tradition and they hold that the time of rami (pelting pebbles) at jamrah aqabah begins after midnight.

---

[1] Bukhari # 1682, Muslim # 292.1289. Abu Dawud # 1936.

[2] Bukhari # 1678, Muslim # 301-1293, Abu Dawud # 1939, Tirmidhi # 894, Nasa'i # 3032, Musnad Ahmad 1-344.

COLLECTING PEBBLES AT MUZDALIFAH OR ON THE WAY

(٢٦١٠) وَعَنِ الْفَضْلِ بْنِ عَبَّاسٍ وَكَانَ رَدِيفَ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَنَّهُ قَالَ فِي عَشِيَّةِ عَرَفَةَ وَغَدَاةِ جَمْعٍ لِلنَّاسِ حِيْنَ دَفَعُوْا عَلَيْكُمْ بِالسَّكِيْنَةِ وَهُوَ كَافٌّ نَاقَتَهُ حَتّٰى دَخَلَ مُحَسِّرًا وَهُوَ مِنْ مِنًى قَالَ عَلَيْكُمْ بِحَصَى الْخَذْفِ الَّذِيْ يُرْمٰى بِهِ الْجَمْرَةُ وَقَالَ لَمْ يَزَلْ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يُلَبِّي حَتّٰى رَمَى الْجَمْرَةَ۔ (رواه مسلم)

2610. Sayyiduna Al-Fadl ibn Abbas رضی الله عنه was taken by Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم to ride behind him. He said, "On the evening of Arafah and the morning of Jam as the pilgrims began to return, he said to them, 'observe a calm attitude.' He cheeked his she camel till he had entered Muhassir which is a part of Mina when he said, 'Collect small pebbles to be pelted at the jamrah.' Al-Fadl رضی الله عنه added, "Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم did not cease to call the talbiyah till he had pelted pebbles at the jamrah."[1]

COMMENTARY: Fadl رضی الله عنه was not with the Prophet Muhammad صلی الله علیه وسلم when he departed from Arafah for Muzdalifah on the evening of Arafah. However, he was with him the next day, 10th Dhul Hijjah in the morning, for Mina, as his co-rider.

The Arabic word in the hadith (tradition) (خذف) truly means small pebbles or date seeds being thrown with both forefingers after holding them by them. Here, (خذف) means small pebbles like grams.

The rule is to gather the pebbles at Muzdalifah before departure from there or on the way while going, or from wherever one wishes, but not from near the jamrah those that have been thrown. This is makruh(unbecoming). If any one picks up the used pebbles then though it is permitted yet it is not preferable. Shamsi رحمه الله has said the sharh niqayah that it is bed to do so.

Opinion differ on how many pebbles may be picked up? Only seven for that day? Or, seventy of which seven will be used on the first day for pelting on jamrah aqabah and sixty three to be used on next three days for the three j amrahs.

PROPHET MUHAMMAD صلی الله علیه وسلم SOUNDED HIS IMPENDING DEATH

(٢٦١١) وَعَنْ جَابِرٍ قَالَ اَفَاضَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مِنْ جَمْعٍ وَعَلَيْهِ السَّكِيْنَةُ وَاَمَرَهُمْ بِالسَّكِيْنَةِ وَاَوْضَعَ فِيْ وَادِيْ مُحَسِّرٍ وَاَمَرَهُمْ اَنْ يَّرْمُوْا بِمِثْلِ حَصَى الْخَذْفِ وَقَالَ لَعَلِّيْ لَا اَرَاكُمْ بَعْدَ عَامِيْ هٰذَا ... لَمْ اَجِدْ هٰذَا الْحَدِيْثَ فِي الصَّحِيْحَيْنِ اِلَّا فِيْ جَامِعِ التِّرْمِذِيِّ مَعَ تَقْدِيْمٍ وَتَاخِيْرٍ۔

2611. Sayyiduna Jabir رضی الله عنه reported that the Prophet Muhammad صلی الله علیه وسلم hastened from the jam in a dignified and peaceful manner. He instructed the people to observe a peaceful attitude, He (urged his she camel and it) moved on swiftly in Muhassar. He instructed the people to make rami with small pebbles. He disclosed (to the sahabah) رضی الله عنه. "Perhaps, I shall not see you after this my year."[2]

COMMENTARY: The hadith (tradition) concludes with the Prophet Muhammad's صلی الله علیه

---

[1] Muslim # 268, 1282, Nasa'i # 3055.

[2] Tirmidhi # 887, Abu Dawud # 1944, Muslim # 310-1297, Nasa'i # 3021, Ibn Majah # 3023, Musnad Ahmad # 14559.

وسلم words that herald tidings; 'he was in his last year of life and would depart from this world next year.' They were advised to learn from him. This is why this pilgrimage is known as the Farewell pilgrimage. During it, he perfectly taught the people the essences of religion and he bade farewell to his sahabah (Prophet's companions) رضی اللہ عنہم He died next year, 12 AH, in the month of Rabi ul Awwal.

The compiler of Mishkat points out that this hadith (tradition) has been placed in section I of the Masabih by its compiler where ahadith (tradition) of Bukhari and Muslim are placed, but this does not belong to either of them. (However, its concluding words are found in Muslim # 310.1297)

SECTION II الفصل الثاني

WHEN TO RETURN FROM ARAFAT & TO DEPART FROM MUZDALIFAH

(٢٦١٢) عَنْ مُحَمَّدِ بْنِ قَيْسِ بْنِ مَخْرَمَةَ قَالَ خَطَبَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَقَالَ اِنَّ اَهْلَ الْجَاهِلِيَّةِ كَانُوْا يَدْفَعُوْنَ مِنْ عَرَفَةَ حِيْنَ تَكُوْنُ الشَّمْسُ كَاَنَّهَا عَمَائِمُ الرِّجَالِ فِيْ وُجُوهِهِمْ قَبْلَ اَنْ تَغْرُبَ وَمِنَ الْمُزْدَلِفَةِ بَعْدَ اَنْ تَطْلُعَ الشَّمْسُ حِيْنَ تَكُوْنُ كَاَنَّهَا عَمَائِمُ الرِّجَالِ فِيْ وُجُوهِهِمْ وَاِنَّا لَا نَدْفَعُ مِنْ عَرَفَةَ حَتّٰى تَغْرُبَ الشَّمْسُ وَنَدْفَعُ مِنَ الْمُزْدَلِفَةِ قَبْلَ اَنْ تَطْلُعَ الشَّمْسُ هَدْيُنَا مُخَالِفٌ لِهَدْيِ عَبَدَةِ الْاَوْثَانِ وَالشِّرْكِ۔ رَوَاهُ الْبَيْهَقِيُّ فِيْ شُعَبِ الْاِيْمَانِ وَقَالَ خَطَبَنَا وَسَاقَهُ وَنَحْوَهُ۔

2612. Sayyiduna Muhammad ibn Qays ibn Makhramah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم delivered a sermon. He said, "The people of the jahiliyah used to depart from Arafah when the sun seemed before it set to shine in the faces of people as though it was men's turban. They departed from Muzdalifah after the sun rose and seemed to shine in their faces as though it was men's turban. And, we do not return from Arafah till the sun sets, and we return from Muzdalifah before the sun rises. Because our ways are opposed to the ways of the idol-worshippers and the associators."[1]

COMMENTARY: When the sun has not set fully as yet and half of it is visible it looks like a turban. The idolaters departed from Arafat at such a time. They went away from Muzdalifah when the sun was in a similar position at the time of its rising.

RAMI NOT ALLOWED AT NIGHT

(٢٦١٣) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ قَالَ قَدَّمَنَا رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَيْلَةَ الْمُزْدَلِفَةِ اُغَيْلِمَةَ بَنِيْ عَبْدِالْمُطَّلِبِ عَلٰى حُمُرَاتٍ فَجَعَلَ يَلْطَحُ اَفْخَاذَنَا وَيَقُوْلُ اُبَيْنِيَّ لَا تَرْمُوا الْجَمْرَةَ حَتّٰى تَطْلُعَ الشَّمْسُ۔ (رواہ ابوداؤد والنسائی وابن ماجة)

2613. Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم sent them, the small boys of the Banu Abdul Muttalib, ahead (of others) on asses, from Muzdalifah in the night. He patted their things and said, "My little children, (when you are there) do not cast pebbles at the jamrah till the sun rises."[2]

COMMENTARY: This hadith (tradition) is evidence that rami is not permitted in the night.

---

[1] Haakim in Mustadrak 2.777 Bayhaqi in Shu'ab u eeman the like of it.

[2] Abu Dawud # 1940, Nasa'i # 3064, Ibn Majah # 3025, Musnad Ahmad.

Imam (leader) Abu Hanifah رضی اللہ عنہ and most other scholars abide by this hadith (tradition), but Imam (leader) Shafi'I رحمہ اللہ permits rami after midnight.

Moreover, though all the ulama (Scholars) hold that rami is allowed after dawn even before sunrise. Yet Imam (leader) Abu Hanifah رحمہ اللہ says that it is permitted with a dislike. He holds that only after sunrise it is mustahab (desirable).

HADITH IN SUPPORT OF IMAM SHAFI'I رحمہ اللہ EXPLAINED

(٢٦١٤) وَعَنْ عَائِشَةَ قَالَتْ اَرْسَلَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ بِاُمِّ سَلَمَةَ لَيْلَةَ النَّحْرِ فَرَمَتِ الْجَمْرَةَ قَبْلَ الْفَجْرِ ثُمَّ مَضَتْ فَاَفَاضَتْ وَكَانَ ذٰلِكَ الْيَوْمُ الَّذِيْ يَكُوْنُ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ عِنْدَهَا۔

(رواہ ابوداؤد)

2614. Sayyidah Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہا narrated that the prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم sent Sayyidah Umm Salamah رضی اللہ عنہ on the night preceding the nahr (sacrifice on 10th Dhul Hijjah. She cast the pebbles at the jamrah before dawn. Then she hastened and performed the tawaf (ifadah at Makkah, this being fard(compulsory)). That was the day when Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم was with her (that being her turn with him).[1]

COMMENTARY: The last portion of the hadith (tradition) indicates why the prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم sent sayyidah Umm Salamah رضی اللہ عنہ to Mina that night, why she observed the rami in the night and why she performed the tawaf ifadah during the day while the other wives of the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم performed the tawaf ifadah in the next night.

This hadith (tradition) is cited by Imam (leader) Shafi'I رحمہ اللہ in support of his contention that rami may be made before dawn. Other scholars say that this concession was allowed only to Sayyidah Umm Salamah رضی اللہ عنہ, but the hadith (tradition) (# 2613) of Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ does not allow rami before fajr to others. It is possible also that fajr refers to salah (prayer) of fajr (not dawn but the salah (prayer) of morning and Sayyidah Umm Salamah رضی اللہ عنہ may have performed rami before the salah (prayer) of farj and after rise of dawn.

WHEN TO STOP TALBIYAH IN UMRAH

(٢٦١٥) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ قَالَ يُلَبِّي الْمُقِيْمُ اَوِالْمُعْتَمِرُ حَتّٰى تَسْتَلِمَ الْحَجَرَ۔ رَوَاهُ اَبُوْدَاوٗدَ وَقَالَ وَرَوٰى مَوْقُوْفًا عَلَى ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ۔

2615. Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ said that the residents of Makkah and those who perform umrah should call the talbiyah till they make istilam of the hajr aswad.[2]

COMMENTARY: 'The resident' refers to one who stays in Makkah and performs the umrah while 'those who perform umrah' refers to non-residents performing umrah.

---

[1] Abu Dawud # 1942.

[2] Abu Dawud # 1817.

SECTION III الفصل الثالث

THE PROPHET MUHAMMAD صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم USED A RISING BEAST FROM ARAFAT TO MUZDALIFAH

(٢٦١٦) عَنْ يَعْقُوْبَ بْنِ عَاصِمِ بْنِ عُرْوَةَ اَنَّهُ سَمِعَ الشَّرِيْدَ يَقُوْلُ اَفَضْتُ مَعَ رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَمَا مَسَّتْ قَدَمَاهُ الْاَرْضَ حَتّٰى اَتٰى جَمْعًا۔ (رواه ابوداؤد)

2616. *S*ayyiduna Ya'qub ibn Aasim ibn Urwah رحمه الله said that he heard Sayyiduna Sharid رضی الله عنه say. "I hastened with Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم (while returning from Arafat). His feet did not touch the ground (to walk) till he arrived at Jami' (Muzdalifah)."[1]

COMMENTARY: This does not mean that the Prophet Muhammad صلی الله علیه وسلم never alighted from his best during the ride between Arafat and Muzdalifah. It is stated in Sahih al-Bukhari that he had got down (from the beast) and went into a mountain pass to pass water. Then, he made ablution. On seeing that Sayyiduna Usamah رضی الله عنه submitted, "Is it the time for salah (prayer), O Messenger of Allah?" He said, "Salah (prayer) will be offered ahead." (He meant that it would be offered at Muzdalifah.)

TWO *SALAH (PRAYER)*S COMBINED AT ARAFAT

(٢٦١٧) وَعَنِ ابْنِ شِهَابٍ قَالَ اَخْبَرَنِيْ سَالِمٌ اَنَّ الْحَجَّاجَ بْنَ يُوْسُفَ عَامَ نَزَلَ بِابْنِ الزُّبَيْرِ سَأَلَ عَبْدَاللّٰهِ كَيْفَ نَصْنَعُ فِي الْمَوْقِفِ يَوْمَ عَرَفَةَ فَقَالَ سَالِمٌ اِنْ كُنْتَ تُرِيْدُ السُّنَّةَ فَهَجِّرْ بِالصَّلَاةِ يَوْمَ عَرَفَةَ فَقَالَ عَبْدُاللّٰهِ بْنُ عُمَرَ صَدَقَ اِنَّهُمْ كَانُوْا يَجْمَعُوْنَ بَيْنَ الظُّهْرِ وَالْعَصْرِ فِي السُّنَّةِ فَقُلْتُ لِسَالِمٍ اَفَعَلَ ذٰلِكَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَقَالَ سَالِمٌ وَهَلْ يَتَّبِعُوْنَ ذٰلِكَ اِلَّا سُنَّتَهُ۔ (رواه البخاری)

2617. *S*ayyiduna Ibn Shihab رحمه الله reported that he was informed by Saalim رحمه الله that *Hajj (pilgrimage)*aj ibn Yusuf asked Sayyiduna Abdullah, during the year of (*Hajj (pilgrimage)*aj) had slain Sayyiduan Ibn Zubayr رضی الله عنه. "How may we conduct ourselves at the wuquf at Arafah?" Saalim رضی الله عنه said, "If you wish to abide by the sunnah(Practice of Holy Prophet Muhammad صلی الله علیه وسلم*)*, then offer the (combined zuhr and asr) salah (prayer) early on the day of Arafah." Sayyiduna Abdullah ibn Umar رضی الله عنه said, "He speaks the truth. They (the sahabah (Prophet's companions) رضی الله عنهم were used to combine the salah (prayer) of zuhr and asr in keeping with the sunnah(Practice of Holy Prophet Muhammad صلی الله علیه وسلم*)*."
Ibn Shihab رحمه الله asked Saalim, "Did Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم do that?" Saalim quipped, "Do they seek any thing but his sunnah(Practice of Holy Prophet Muhammad صلی الله علیه وسلم*)* when they do that?"[2]

COMMENTARY: Anyone who is acquainted with the history of Islam in the least knows well that *Hajj (pilgrimage)*aj ibn Yusuf is a compendium of tyranny and barbarism. Part of his name of Synonymous with 'an oppressor.' He is said to have had one hundred and twenty thousand men bound before being killed. He had attacked Makkah at the command of Abdul Maalik ibn Marwan and had hanged the glorious sahabi, Abdullah ibn Zubayr رضی اللہ عنہ.

---

[1] Musnad Ahmad 4.389.

[2] Bukhari # 1662.

After that, Abdul Maalik ibn Marwan appointed him as amir of the pilgrims with instructions to emulate Sayyiduna Abdullah ibn Umar رضی اللہ عنہ in all deeds and saying about Hajj (pilgrimage). He was to ask him about the rules of Hajj (pilgrimage) and was not to oppose or contradict him in any affair.

This is why he had asked Sayyiduna Abdullah ibn Umar رضی اللہ عنہ the ruling about the combined *salah (prayer)*s in Arafat.

CHAPTER - VII

RAMI AL-JIMAR (CASTING PEBBLES AT THE PILLAR) بَابُ رَمْیِ الْجِمَارِ

Jimar (plural of jamrah) are small pebbles. Jimar Hajj (pilgrimage) are those small pebbles that are pelted by the pilgrims at the pillars, These pillars are called jamrat in relation to jimar.

There are three jamrat or pillar on which pebbles are pelted.

(i) Jamrah as-oola (the first).
(ii) Jamrah al-Wusta (the middle).
(iii) Jamrah al-aqabah (the last).

They are situated in Mina. On the edul adha or 10th Dhul Hijjah, pebbles are thrown only at Jamrah al-aqabah.

Then, on the 11th, 12th and 13th, it is wajib (obligatory) to pelt pebbles on all three jamrat (At a time seven pebbles are thrown at them.)

SECTION I اَلْفَصْلُ الْاَوَّلُ

RAMI OF JAMRAH AQABAH WHILE RIDING BEAST

(٢٦١٨) عَنْ جَابِرٍ قَالَ رَأَيْتُ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَرْمِي عَلٰى رَاحِلَتِهٖ يَوْمَ النَّحْرِ وَيَقُوْلُ لِتَاخُذُوْا مَنَاسِكَكُمْ فَاِنِّيْ لَا اَدْرِيْ لَعَلِّيْ لَا اَحُجُّ بَعْدَ حَجَّتِيْ هٰذِهٖ۔ (رواه مسلم)

2618. Sayyiduna Jabir رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that he saw the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم cast pebbles on the day of sacrifice, seated on his riding beast. And, he said, "Learn your rites (of Hajj (pilgrimage) from me), for, I cannot say that I shall perform Hajj (pilgrimage) after this Hajj (pilgrimage) of mine."[1]

COMMENTARY: Imam (leader) Shafi'I رحمہ اللہ said that if anyone comes to Mina on foot, then he should cast pebbles at jimrah aqabah while on foot. Then, on the 11th and 12th he should cast pebbles on all three jamrat. On the 13th, he should cast pebbles riding on a beast.

It is stated in the Hidayah the well known book of the Hanafi fiqh that if a rami is followed by another rami like jamrah al-oola and jamrah al-Wusta, then it is better to make this rami on foot, because after this rami there is some standing and invocating blessing on the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم and making supplication, etc: Hence, when one is on foot he can be more humble and submissive.

As for the practice of the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم, the gist of whatever is taught in the ahadith (tradition) is that he made the rami of jamrah aqabah on the day of sacrifice seated on a riding beast. He made the rami of the other days on foot.

[1] Muslim # 31`0-1297, Abu Dawud # 1970.

NUMBER OF PEBBLES & HOW TO THROW THEM

(٢٦١٩) وَعَنْهُ قَالَ رَأَيْتُ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ رَمَى الْجَمْرَةَ بِمِثْلِ حَصَى الْخَذْفِ۔ (رواه مسلم)

2619. Sayyiduna Jabir رضی الله عنه narrated that he saw Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم throw small pebble at the jamrah like al-Khadhaf (taking pebble in thumb and finger and throwing it).[1]

COMMENTARY: There are many ways suggested for casting pebbles at the pillars. One is to hold them with the forefinger and thumb and sling. This is the more correct and easy manner.

TIME OF MAKING RAMI JIMAR

(٢٦٢٠) وَعَنْهُ قَالَ رَمٰى رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ الْجَمْرَةَ يَوْمَ النَّحْرِ ضُحًى وَاَمَّا بَعْدَ ذٰلِكَ فَاِذَا زَالَتِ الشَّمْسُ۔ (متفق علیه)

2620. Sayyiduna Jabir رضی الله عنه reported that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم cast pebbles at this jamrah on the day of sacrifice at the time of duha (which is forenoon). As for after that, (he cast them) when the sun had passed the meridian.[2]

COMMENTARY: Duha is the portion of the day from sunrise to before the declination of the sun. The words 'after that' refer to the days of tashriq which are the 11th 12th and 13th. On these days the Prophet Muhammad صلی الله علیه وسلم made rami after zawal (or the declination of the sun).

Ibn Hammam رحمه الله said that on the 11th and 12th, rami is made after zawal as per this hadith (tradition). If anyone decides after thsat to go to Makkah, then he may go before dawn of the 13th. But, if he wishes to go after dawn then he will have to make rami of that day, as a wajib (obligatory). He cannot proceed to Makkah without doing rami jimar though doing it before zawal of 13th is allowed to him.

If anyone does not throw the pebbles on the pillars but simply drops them on them, then that suffices though it is not a like thing to do. As against this if any one merely places the pebbles on the pillars, then that is not enough.

TAKBIR AT THE TIME OF RAMI JIMAR

(٢٦٢١) وَعَنْ عَبْدِاللّٰهِ بْنِ مَسْعُوْدٍ اَنَّهُ انْتَهٰى اِلَى الْجَمْرَةِ الْكُبْرٰى فَجَعَلَ الْبَيْتَ عَنْ يَسَارِهٖ وَمِنًى عَنْ يَمِيْنِهٖ وَرَمٰى بِسَبْعِ حَصَيَاتٍ يُكَبِّرُ مَعَ كُلِّ حَصَاةٍ ثُمَّ قَالَ هٰكَذَا رَمَى الَّذِىْ اُنْزِلَتْ عَلَيْهِ سُوْرَةُ الْبَقَرَةِ۔ (متفق علیه)

2621. Sayyiduna Abdullah ibn Mas'ud رضی الله عنه is known to have come to al-Jamrah al-Kubra (which is al-jamrah al-aqabah). He stood with the house to his left and Mina to his right and he threw seven pebbles, calling Allahu Akbar (the takbir) at each throw. Then, he said, "This is how he threw to whom surah al-Baqarah was revealed."[3]

---

[1] Muslim # 343-1299.

[2] Bukhari, Muslim 314-1299, Abu Dawud # 1971, Tirmidhi # 895, Nasa'i # 2063, Ibn Majah # 3053, Darimi # 1896, Musnad Ahmad 3-319.

[3] Bukhati # 1749, Muslim # 1305-1296, Abu Dawud # 1974, Tirmidhi # 902, Nasa'i # 3072, Ibn Majah # 3030, Musnad Ahmad 1-458.

COMMENTARY: While Sayyiduna Ibn Mas'ud رضی الله عنه stood at jamrah aqabah with the Ka'bah to his left and Mina to his right, it is mustahab (desirable) to stand at other jamarat with one's face towards the qiblah.

Seven pebbles are cast at each of the jamarat and at each the takbir is called. According to a version in Bayhaqi, the prophet Muhammad صلی الله علیه وسلم called the takbir at the threw of each pebble in this manner:

اَللّٰهُ اَكْبَرُ اَللّٰهُ اَكْبَرُ اَللّٰهُمَّ اجْعَلْهُ حَجًّا مَّبْرُوْرًا وَذَنْبًا مَّغْفُوْرًا وَعَمَلًا مَّشْكُوْرًا

Of course, the entire Quran was revealed to the Prophet Muhammad صلی الله علیه وسلم but here he is remembered with surah al-Baqarah. This is because this surah mentions the commands and rules of Hajj (pilgrimage).

WAJIB (OBLIGATORY) TO CAST SEVEN PEBBLES AT THE JAMRAT

(٢٦٢٢) وَعَنْ جَابِرٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ الْاِسْتِجْمَارُ تَوٌّ وَرَمْيُ الْجِمَارِ تَوٌّ وَالسَّعْيُ بَيْنَ الصَّفَا وَالْمَرْوَةِ تَوٌّ وَالطَّوَافُ تَوٌّ وَاِذَا اسْتَجْمَرَ اَحَدُكُمْ فَلْيَسْتَجْمِرْ بِتَوٍّ۔ (رواه مسلم)

2622. Sayyiduna Jabir رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم said, "Abstersion (or istinja or cleaning oneself after relieving oneself) is with an odd number (of lumps of clay, three). Throwing pebbles at the jamrat is with an odd number (seven). The Sa'I or running between as-Safa and al-Marwah is with an odd number (seven) the tawaf or circumambulation (of the House) is with an odd number (seven). And when one of you wishes, he may fumigate himself with aloes wood an odd number of times (three, five or seven)." (This last is translated by A H Sidiqi in Sahih Muslim as 'Whenever any one of you is required to use stones (to clean the private parts) he should use odd number of stones (three, five or seven).[1]

COMMENTARY: It is wajib (obligatory) to throw seven pebbles at each of the jamarat (pillars). T o make seven rounds of Sa'I is also wajib (obligatory) And, most of the ulama (Scholars) say that seven rounds of the Ka'bah for one tawaf are fard(compulsory), but the Hanafis hold that four rounds are fard(compulsory) and the remaining are wajib (obligatory).

SECTION II اَلْفَصْلُ الثَّانِي

RAMI JIMAR ON A RIDING BEAST

(٢٦٢٣) وَعَنْ قُدَامَةَ ابْنِ عَبْدِاللّٰهِ بْنِ عَمَّارٍ قَالَ رَاَيْتُ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَرْمِي الْجَمْرَةَ يَوْمَ النَّحْرِ عَلٰى نَاقَةٍ صَهْبَاءَ لَيْسَ ضَرْبٌ وَّلَا طَرْدٌ وَّلَيْسَ قِيْلُ اِلَيْكَ اِلَيْكَ۔ (رواه الشافعی والترمذی والنسائی وابن ماجة والدارمی)

2623. Sayyiduna Qudamah ibn Abdullah ibn Ammar رضی الله عنه narrated that he saw the Prophet Muhammad صلی الله علیه وسلم throw pebbles at the jamrah on the day of sacrifice riding a redish she camel. There was no striking, no pushing, and no shouting, 'Aside aside!'[2]

COMMENTARY: Sahba is a white she camel with a reddish tinge. Its hair are red at the trims but white at the roots.

The Prophet Muhammad صلی الله علیه وسلم was not like a ruler preceded by escorts and guard.

---

[1] Muslim # 315-1300.

[2] Tirmidhi # 904, Nasa'i # 3062, Ibn Majah # 3035, Darimi # 1901, Musnad Ahmad 3-412, 413.

clearing the way as the ruler have. (see hadith (tradition) # 25583)

SA'I & RAMI JIMAR ARE FORMS OF DHIKR

(٢٦٢٤) وَعَنْ عَائِشَةَ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ إِنَّمَا جُعِلَ رَمْيُ الْجِمَارِ وَالسَّعْيُ بَيْنَ الصَّفَا وَالْمَرْوَةِ لِإِقَامَةِ ذِكْرِ اللّٰهِ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَالدَّارِمِيُّ وَقَالَ التِّرْمِذِيُّ هٰذَا حَدِيثٌ حَسَنٌ صَحِيحٌ۔

2624. Sayyidah Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہا narrated that the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said. "The throwing of pebbles at the jamarat and the rounds between as-Safa and al-Marwah are prescribed only to establish remembrance of Allah."[1]

COMMENTARY: On their faces, these things do not give an impression of worship of Allah. Hence, the hadith (tradition) makes it clear that they are imposed that Allah may be remembered. It is a sunnah(Practice of Holy Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم) to call the takbir at each throw and to make supplication during Sa'I as stated previously.

NO ONE HAS A PLACE RESERVED FOR HIM IN MINA

(٢٦٢٥) وَعَنْهَا قَالَتْ قُلْنَا يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ أَلَا نَبْنِيْ لَكَ بِنَاءً يُظِلُّكَ بِمِنًى قَالَ لَا مِنًى مُنَاخُ مَنْ سَبَقَ۔ (رواه الترمذی وابن ماجة والدارمی)

2625. Sayyidah Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہا narrated that they asked, "O Messenger of Allah, shall we not build for you a shade in Mina?" He said. "No, Mina is a resting place for the camels of those who arrive (here first."[2]

COMMENTARY: The Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم made it amply clear that distinction in Mina depends on arriving here before others. There is no question of building a resting place or setting aside a site. Whoever arrives here and occupies a place, he deserves that place.

SECTION III الفصل الثالث

(٢٦٢٦) عَنْ نَافِعٍ قَالَ إِنَّ ابْنَ عُمَرَ كَانَ يَقِفُ عِنْدَ الْجَمْرَتَيْنِ الْأُوْلَيَيْنِ وُقُوْفًا طَوِيْلًا يُكَبِّرُ اللّٰهَ وَيُسَبِّحُهُ وَيَحْمَدُهُ وَيَدْعُو اللّٰهَ وَلَا يَقِفُ عِنْدَ جَمْرَةِ الْعَقَبَةِ۔ (رواه مالك)

2626. Sayyiduna Nafi رحمہ اللہ narrated that Sayyiduna Ibn Umar رضی اللہ عنہ used to stand for a long time near the first two jamrat. He would extol Allah, glorify Him and praise Him. And, he would (raise hands to) make supplication to Allah. But, he did not stand at Jamrah aqabah.[3]

COMMENTARY: The first two jamrat are jamrah oola and jamrah wusta. Ibn Umar رضی اللہ عنہ would cast pebbles at each of them and engage himself in prayer and dhikr. It is masnun to do so. The ulama (Scholars) say that one must stand at these for so long as takes to recite surah al-Baqarah. Some men of Allah are known to have stood here so long that they had swelling on their feet.

He did not stand at Jamrah aqabah on the day of sacrifice to make supplication after casting pebbles at it, nor on other days. But, it does not necessitate giving up supplication altogether. Later on, in the chapter XI we shall find the hadith (tradition) (# 2661) in which Ibn Umar

---

[1] Abu Dawud # 1888, Tirmidhi # 903, Musnad Ahmad 6-139, Darimi # 1853.

[2] Abu Dawud # 2019, Ibn Majah # 3007, Darimi # 1937, Musnad Ahmad.

[3] Muwatta Maalik # 212 (Hajj)

رضی اللہ عنہ affirms that he observed Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم do it.

CHAPTER - VIII

AL-HADYI (OR AL-HADI)THE SACRIFICIAL ANIMAL بَابُ الْهَدْيِ

The word is (هدی) (hadyi). (It is generally spelt hadi). It is the word for the animals that are slaughtered in the Haram to seek reward. They may be sheep, goat, ram, lamb, cow, ox, buffalo or camel.

As for age and other conditions, the same apply as are prescribed for animals of sacrifice. While sheep and small animals of it kind are eligible for sacrifice at all times, yet they are not allowed when atoning and offering a penalty for observing tawaf Ziyarah in a sexually defiled state or while menstruating, or for having a sexual intercourse after wuquf of Arafat but before shaving head. In such cases, a badah which is a camel or cow must be sacrificed.

There are two kinds of hadyi.

(i) Wajib (obligatory)

(ii) Optional

There are many kinds of hadyi wajib (obligatory); hadyi qiran, hadyi tammatu hady jinayat, hadyi nadhar (vow) and hadyi ihsar.

The reason why it is called hadyi is that a person presents the sacrificial animal as a hadyah (gift) to Allah. He hopes to gain nearness to Allah because of it. Hence, this animal is called hdyi.

SECTION I اَلْفَصْلُ الْاَوَّلُ

MARKING & GARLANDING

(۲٦۲۷) عَنِ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ قَالَ صَلَّى رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ الظُّهْرَ بِذِى الْحُلَيْفَةِ ثُمَّ دَعَا بِنَاقَتِهٖ فَأَشْعَرَهَا فِى صَفْحَةِ سَنَامِهَا الْاَيْمَنِ وَسَلَتِ الدَّمَ عَنْهَا وَقَلَّدَهَا نَعْلَيْنِ ثُمَّ رَكِبَ رَاحِلَتَهٗ فَلَمَّا اسْتَوَتْ بِهٖ عَلَى الْبَيْدَاءِ اَهَلَّ بِالْحَجِّ۔ (رواه مسلم)

2627. Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم offered the salah (prayer) of zuhr at Dhul Hulayfah. Then he called for his female camel (that was to be sacrificed) and branded (or marked) it on the right side of its hump and wiped off the blood from it. Then, he garlanded it with two sandals. After that, he mounted his riding beast and when it stood with him at Bayda he called aloud the talbiyah for Hajj (pilgrimage).[1]

COMMENTARY: Let us first see what (اشعار) (branding, marking) and (تقلید) (garlanding) are? The animal that a pilgrim takes along is hadyi. A wound is inflicted on its side. This is called (اشعار) or ashar. A garland of shoe or bones etc. is put in its neck and it is called (تقلید) taqlid. Both these things are done to distinguish the animal as hadyi.

When the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم set out from Madinah to perform the Hajj (pilgrimage), he offered salah (prayer) at Dhul Hulayfah, the miqat for Madinah. Then he took his she-camel chosen as sacrifice. He marked it and wiped off the blood oozing because of it and put two shoes in its neck for its garland to distinguish it as a hadyi. People would treat the animal as hadyi and robbers would not touch it. If this animal wondered away, people would bring it to its destination. During the jahiliyah, people were used to snatch (host) animals that were not hadyi but did not touch animals with the distinguishing mark. Hence, the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم also (marked his animal as hadyi and) retained that custom as allowed to attain the objective.

---

[1] Muslim # 205-1243, Abu Dawud # 1252, Tirmidhi # 907, Nasa'i # 2774, Darimi # 1912, Musnad Ahmad 1-216.

RULING AN ASH'AR: We now come to the juristic ruling. The Imam (leader)s are unanimous that it is a sunnah(Practice of Holy Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم) to mark the animals in this way, but not the (جثم)[1] meaning sheep, goat, lamb and the like because they are weak animals should be garlanded only.

However, Imam (leader) Abu Hanifah رحمه الله holds that while (taqlid تقليد garlanding is mustahb (اشعار ashar) branding or marking is makruh(unbecoming), absolutely whatever the animal. The ulama (Scholars) interpret that Abu Hanifah رحمه الله did not rule that ash'ar was makruh(unbecoming) outright, but he only had in mind his own times when people wounded the animal severely to brand it as hadyi, and the wound was likely to suppurate or to main the animal.

The hadith (tradition) (of Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas) رضى الله عنه says that the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم offered the salah (prayer) of zuhr in dhul Hulayfah in t he mosque there. However, in the chapter XLII on salah (prayer). while travelling hadith (tradition) (# 1323), Sayyiduna Anas رضى الله عنه narrated that the prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم had offered the salah (prayer) of zuhr in Madinah and he offered the asr in Dhul Hulayfah on reaching there. This is the hadith (tradition) of Bukhari and Muslim. So, perhaps of Bukhari and Muslim. So, perhaps Ibn Abbas رضى الله عنه who had not offered the zuhr in Madinah with the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم presumed on seeing him offer salah (prayer) in dhul Hulayfah that he was offering the zuhr. So, he said as he did.

The calling of talbiyah for Hajj (pilgrimage) does not mean that he excluded umrah. The hadith (tradition) of Anas رضى الله عنه in both Bukhari and Muslim makes it very clear that the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم called labayk for both Hajj (pilgrimage) and umrah. Here, the narrator may not have mentioned umrah because the real objective was Hajj (pilgrimage) so he sufficed with mentioning Hajj (pilgrimage). Or, though the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم called the talbiyah for both, the narrator may have heard only Hajj (pilgrimage) and did not hear him mention umrah.

(٢٦٢٨) وَعَنْ عَآئِشَةَ قَالَتْ اَهْدَى النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَرَّةً اِلَى الْبَيْتِ غَنَمًا فَقَلَّدَهَا۔ (متفق عليه)

2628. Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها narrated that the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم sent sheep as hadyi to the House once and he garlanded them.[2]

COMMENTARY: All the ulama (Scholars) agree that it is not permitted to mark the sheep. But, they may be garlanded. Imam (leader) Maalik however, disagrees.

---

1 (جثم) (jithm) dinging to earth, sitting down, inclined to be motionless

2 Muslim # 367.1321, Ibn Majah # 3096, Musnad Ahmad 6-42.

MAKING SACRIFICE FOR ANOTHER

(٢٦٢٩) وَعَنْ جَابِرٍ قَالَ ذَبَحَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ عَنْ عَائِشَةَ بَقَرَةً يَوْمَ النَّحْرِ۔ (رواه مسلم)

2629. Sayyiduna Jabir رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم slaughtered a cow on the day of sacrifice on behalf of Sayyidah Ayshah رضی الله عنها[1]

(٢٦٣٠) وَعَنْهُ قَالَ نَحَرَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ عَنْ نِسَائِهٖ بَقَرَةً فِيْ حَجَّتِهٖ۔ (رواه مسلم)

2630. Sayyiduna Jabir رضی الله عنه narrated that the Prophet Muhammad صلی الله علیه وسلم sacrificed a cow on behalf of his wives during his (farewell) pilgrimage.[2]

COMMENTARY: The ulama (Scholars) say that, in both the foregoing cases the prophet Muhammad صلی الله علیه وسلم must have previously obtained permission of his wives to make the sacrifice. A sacrifice on behalf of another may only be made with that person's permission.

The well-know ruling of the Imam (leader)s is that one cow suffices sacrifice of seven people. However, Imam (leader) Maalik رحمه الله has ruled that one cow or one sheep is enough for the sacrifice of all members of a family. So, this hadith (tradition) may serve as evidence for Imam (leader) Maalik's رحمه الله ruling provided the prophet Muhammad صلی الله علیه وسلم may have made the sacrifice for more than seven people.

The other Imam (leader)s maintain that this hadith (tradition) means to say that the Prophet Muhammad صلی الله علیه وسلم made the sacrifice of one cow for only seven people.

SENDING HADYI WITHOUT PROCEEDING FOR HAJJ (PILGRIMAGE)

(٢٦٣١) وَعَنْ عَائِشَةَ قَالَتْ فَتَلْتُ قَلَائِدَ بُدْنَةِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ بِيَدَيَّ ثُمَّ قَلَّدَهَا وَاَشْعَرَهَا وَاَهْدَاهَا فَمَا حَرُمَ عَلَيْهِ شَيْءٌ كَانَ اُحِلَّ لَهٗ۔ (متفق علیه)

2631. Sayyidah Ayshah رضی الله عنها said that she herself twisted the garlands for the Prophet Muhammad's صلی الله علیه وسلم sacrificial camels and then garlanded t hem. She then branded t hem (at their humps) and sent them as hadyi (to the ka'bah in 9 AH when Hajj (pilgrimage) was made fard(compulsory) and Abu Bakr رضی الله عنه was sent as amir and these camels of the Prophet Muhammad صلی الله علیه وسلم were sent with him). Nothing that was lawful for the Prophet Muhammad صلی الله علیه وسلم (before that) became unlawful (because of this).[3]

COMMENTARY: The concluding sentence of the hadith (tradition) means that by sending the animals as hadyi, the stipulations of the ihram (pilgrim-robe) did not apply to the Prophet Muhammad صلی الله علیه وسلم. Sayyidah Ayshah رضی الله عنها said this because she had heard that Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضی الله عنه said that if anyone who does not proceed to perform Hajj (pilgrimage) but sends his hadyi to Makkah then everything that becomes unlawful because of the ihram (pilgrim-robe) will become unlawful to him till this hadyi arrives at the Haram and is slaughtered. She thus corrected Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضی الله عنه.

(٢٦٣٢) وَعَنْهَا قَالَتْ فَتَلْتُ قَلَائِدَهَا مِنْ عِهْنٍ كَانَ عِنْدِيْ ثُمَّ بَعَثَ بِهَا مَعَ اَبِيْ۔ (متفق علیه)

---

[1] Muslim # 356-1319.

[2] Muslim # 357-1319.

[3] Bukhari # 1696, Muslim # 369-1321, Nasa'i # 2793, Muwatta Maalik # 51 (Hajj).

2632. Sayyidah Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہا said that she made the garlands of the animals from dyed wool that she possessed. Then, (putting them on the necks of his camels) he sent them at the hands of her father (Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ to the Ka'bah). [1]

RIDING THE HADYI

(٢٦٣٣) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ اَنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ رَاٰى رَجُلًا يَسُوْقُ بُدْنَةً فَقَالَ اِرْكَبْهَا فَقَالَ اِنَّهَا بُدْنَةٌ قَالَ اِرْكَبْهَا فَقَالَ اِنَّهَا بُدْنَةٌ قَالَ اِرْكَبْهَا وَيْلَكَ فِي الثَّانِيَةِ اَوِ الثَّالِثَةِ۔ (متفق عليه)

2633. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم saw a man drive a camel. So, he said, "Ride on it!" The man submitted. "It is a badanah (or a hadyi)." He insisted, "Ride on it," but the man again pleaded that it was a hadyi. The Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم repeated, "Ride on it, how regretful of you. (you continue to forward excuses.)" He said that in his second or third command.[2]

(٢٦٣٤) وَعَنْ اَبِي الزُّبَيْرِ قَالَ سَمِعْتُ جَابِرَ بْنَ عَبْدِاللّٰهِ سُئِلَ عَنْ رُكُوْبِ الْهَدْيِ فَقَالَ سَمِعْتُ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُوْلُ ارْكَبْهَا بِالْمَعْرُوْفِ اِذَا اُلْجِئْتَ اِلَيْهَا حَتّٰى تَجِدَ ظَهْرًا۔ (رواه مسلم)

2634. Sayyiduna Abu Az-Zubayr رحمہ اللہ reported that he heard Sayyiduna Jabir ibn Abdullah رضی اللہ عنہ being asked about riding the hadyi. He said that he had heard the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم say. "Ride on them carefully (so as not to hurt them) if you have nothing other than that till you find something to ride on."[3]

COMMENTARY: The ulama (Scholars) differ on the question whether one may ride on the hadyi or the sacrificial animals or not. Some of them say that if the animals are not likely to be hurt, then it is allowed to ride on them. The Hanafis, however, maintain that if it is necessary and t here is no choice then one may ride on them, otherwise not. They permit riding on the hadyi are based on this proviso.

WHEN HADYI IS ON POINT OF DEATH

(٢٦٣٥) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ قَالَ بَعَثَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ سِتَّةَ عَشَرَ بَدَنَةً مَعَ رَجُلٍ وَاَمَّرَهٗ فِيْهَا فَقَالَ يَارَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ كَيْفَ اَصْنَعُ بِمَا اُبْدِعَ عَلَيَّ مِنْهَا قَالَ انْحَرْهَا ثُمَّ اصْبَغْ نَعْلَيْهَا فِيْ دَمِهَا ثُمَّ اجْعَلْهَا عَلٰى صَفْحَتِهَا وَلَا تَاْكُلْ مِنْهَا اَنْتَ وَلَا اَحَدٌ مِنْ اَهْلِ رُفْقَتِكَ۔ (رواه مسلم)

2635. Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم sent sixteen sacrificial animals (hadyis) with a man (called Najiyah Aslami) رضی اللہ عنہ putting him incharge of them (during the journey and responsible to slaughter them in the Haram). He asked, "O Messenger of Allah, what may I do with any that might not be able to walk (out of fatigue, or any that might be near death)?" He said, "Slaughter them and dye their shoes (of garland) in their blood and place

---

[1] Bukhari # 1700, Musilm # 369-1321.

[2] Bukhri # 1689, Muslim # 371-1322, Abu Dawud # 1760, Tirmidhi # 912, Nasa'i # 2799, Muwatta Maalik # 139 (Hajj), Musnad Ahmad 2-505.

[3] Muslim # 374.1324, Abu Dawud # 1761, Nasa'i # 2802.

them on the sides of their humps. Do not eat their meat yourself and do not feed any of your companions."

COMMENTARY: Their shoes were to be dyed and marked on their humps to distinguish them as hadyi. Passerby may know that and only the pour and deserving eat them. The rich may abstain, their meat being unlawful to them.

The Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم forbade them (the guardians) to eat their meat so that they might not be tempted to slaughter a not so fatigued animal.

The people living nearby or passing caravans would consume the meat. So, it would not be wasted.

To sum up, if any animal is necessarily slaughtered on the way then those people in the same caravan are barred from eating it. The juristic ruing on it s found in Multhaqi al Abhur ad Dhur Mukhtar is:

(1) If the hadyi is wajib (obligatory) and is on the point of death on the way or becomes defective in such a way that it is not valid to offer as hadyi then it is not permitted to sacrifice it. A replacement hadyi must be sent. The first animal may be slaughtered and eaten by the owner himself or fed to others, or he may act as he likes.

(2) If the hadyi is optional, then, when it is on the point of death and is slaughtered, the shoes may be dyed with its blood and placed on its neck. Neither the owner nor the rich may consume its meat.

(3) If a hadyi arrives at its destination where it is slaughtered then it is stated in the commentary of the last hadith (tradition) of this section (# 2639) that it is mustahab (desirable) for the owner to consume the meat of a sacrifice and hadyi of n optional tamatta and qiran, but not proper for him to eat meat of hadyi of other kinds.

Here, we might sound a note of caution that some scholars have erred in commenting on this hadith (tradition) when they state that the meat of such animals is disallowed in this hadith (tradition) as one has made wajib (obligatory) on oneself, like against a vow but they assert that meat is allowed if the hadyi is optional. They have made the conclusion on the basis of the hadyi of the road that is slaughtered at the destination when it reaches there. But, this is not what the hadith (tradition) means and it is absolutely against it.

SHARES IN HADYI

(٢٦٣٦) وَعَنْ جَابِرٍ قَالَ نَحَرْنَا مَعَ رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ عَامَ الْحُدَيْبِيَةِ الْبَدَنَةَ عَنْ سَبْعَةٍ وَالْبَقَرَةَ عَنْ سَبْعَةٍ۔ (رواه مسلم)

2636. Sayyiduna Jabir رضى الله عنه said that in the year of al-Hudaybiyah, they alongwith Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم sacrificed a camel in which seven people shared and a cow in which seven people shared.[1]

COMMENTARY: Seven people shared in a camel and so in a cow. Imam (leader) Abu Hurayrah رحمه الله and many other scholars abide by this hadith (tradition). They stipulate that all seven must have a genuine ambition to earn reward. Their ambition may be of one kind, like hadyi, or may be diverse, like some may intend hadyi and some sacrifice. Imam (leader) Shafi'I رحمه الله said that their participation is allowed even if some from intention of hadyi or sacrifice and some of only collecting meat.

---

[1] Muslim # 350-1318, Abu Dawud # 2809, Tirmidhi # 905, Ibn Majah # 3132, Muwatta Maalik # 9 (Dihiyah- Sacrificial Animals), Musnad Ahmad 3-293.

Imam (leader) Maalik رحمه الله holds that sharing in simply not proper in any kind of animal if the sacrifice or hadyi is wajib (obligatory).
As for sheep and goat, all the alama agree that sharing is not allowed in them.

METHOD OF SLAUGHTERING CAMELS

(٢٦٣٧) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عُمَرَ أَنَّهُ أَتَى عَلَى رَجُلٍ قَدْ أَنَاخَ بَدَنَتَهُ يَنْحَرُهَا قَالَ ابْعَثْهَا قِيَامًا مُقَيَّدَةً سُنَّةَ مُحَمَّدٍ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ۔ (متفق عليه)

2637. Sayyiduna Ibn Umar رضی الله عنه came upon a man who had made his camel kneel and was trying to sacrifice it. He said to him, "Let it stand up lettered (at its left leg and sacrifice it), following the sunnah(Practice of Holy Prophet Muhammad صلی الله علیه وسلم) of Muhammad رضی الله عنه."[1]

COMMENTARY: To strike a spear at a camel's chest is called (نحر) (nahr) and to slit the throat of the cow, etc. is called (ذبح) (dhabh). It is better to sacrifice the camel in the manner of nahr and the cow, sheep, goat etc. in the manner of dhabh.
The camel is made to stand and its left leg is tied. Then a spear is struck at its chest so that blood pours out and it falls down.
Ibn Hammam رحمه الله said that it is better to sacrifice the camel by making it to stand. If that is not possible, then making it sit is better then making it lie down. Those animals that are slaughtered (in the manner of dhabh) must be made to lie down on their left side.
It is known even from the Quran that a camel should be sacrificed in the manner of nahr.

فَصَلِّ لِرَبِّكَ وَانْحَرْ

{So pray to your Lord and sacrifice} (108: 2)

This verse is explained that the camel is sacrificed by nahr.
About dhabh, the Quran says:

أَنْ تَذْبَحُوا بَقَرَةً ۔

{(Allah command you) to sacrifice a cow.} (2: 67)

ABOUT HADYI

(٢٦٣٨) وَعَنْ عَلِيٍّ قَالَ أَمَرَنِيْ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ أَنْ أَقُوْمَ عَلَى بُدْنِهِ وَأَنْ أَتَصَدَّقَ بِلَحْمِهَا وَجُلُوْدِهَا وَأَجِلَّتِهَا وَأَنْ لَا أُعْطِيَ الْجَزَّارَ مِنْهَا قَالَ نَحْنُ نُعْطِيْهِ مِنْ عِنْدِنَا۔ (متفق عليه)

2638. Sayyiduna Ali رضی الله عنه Said that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم made him supervise his sacrificial camels. He instructed him to give their meat, skins and saddle-cloths in charity, but to give nothing to the butcher (in lieu of wages), saying. "We shall pay him ourselves."[2]

COMMENTARY: The camels were those that the Prophet Muhammad صلی الله علیه وسلم had taken as hadyi to Makkah during the Farewell pilgrimage. They had numbered one hundred. This has been discussed earlier.

---

[1] Bukhari # 1713, Muslim # 358-1320, Abu Dawud # 1767.
[2] Bukhari # 1716, Muslim # 348-1317, Abu Dawud # 1769, Ibn Majah # 3099.

The butcher should not be given anything of the hadyi in remuneration. However, if anything is given out of kindness or courtesy then there is no harm.
The hide may be given in charity to anyone. Or, it may be sold and the sale proceeds could be given as charity.
The animal should not be milked but cold water should be sprinkled on its udders so that its milk stops coming down. However, if the animal is restless because of full udders then it should be milked and t he milk may be disbursed as charity.

OWNER MAY EAT FLESH OF HADYI

(٢٦٣٩) وَعَنْ جَابِرٍ قَالَ كُنَّا لَا نَأْكُلُ مِنْ لُحُوْمِ بُدْنِنَا فَوْقَ ثَلَاثٍ فَرَخَّصَ لَنَا رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَقَالَ كُلُوْا وَتَزَوَّدُوْا فَاَكَلْنَا وَتَزَوَّدْنَا۔ (متفق عليه)

2639. Sayyiduna Jabir رضی اللہ عنہ said, "We did not use to eat the flesh of t he sacrificial animals for more than three days. Then, Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم gave us permission. He said, 'Eat and preserve it (even beyond three days).' So, we ate it and preserved it."[1]

COMMENTARY: In early Islam, there were many people who could not make a sacrifice and meat was required in large quantities. Hence, the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم gave instruction that people who made a sacrifice must not preserve it beyond three/days but give away the excess to the poor and deserving in charity. Later on when all people were able to make a sacrifice, the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم gave permission to preserve it beyond three days and consume it.
Shammi رحمہ اللہ said that the owner is permitted to consume the flesh of his optionl hadyi and sacrifice of tamatta and qiran. But, it is not proper to eat the flesh of other kinds of hadyi because they are against expiation and penalty (for serious offences).

SECTION II اَلْفَصْلُ الثَّانِيْ

MUSTAHAB (DESIRABLE)* TO GRIEVE ENEMIES OF ISLAM

(٢٦٤٠) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ اَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَهْدٰى عَامَ الْحُدَيْبِيَةِ فِيْ هَدَايَا رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ جَمَلًا كَانَ لِاَبِيْ جَهْلٍ فِيْ رَأْسِهٖ بُرَةٌ مِنْ فِضَّةٍ وَفِيْ رِوَايَةٍ مِنْ ذَهَبٍ يَغِيْظُ بِذٰلِكَ الْمُشْرِكِيْنَ۔

(رواه ابوداؤد)

2640. Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ reported that in the year of al-Hudaybiyah, the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم took alongwith his sacrificial animals a camel (previously) belonging to Abu Jahl that had a silver nose ring - according to a version a gold nose-ring. He did that to enrage the idolaters.[2]

COMMENTARY: In 6AH, the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم departed from Madinah to perform umrah. However, the idolaters did not allow him and his sahabah (Prophet's companions) رضی اللہ عنہم to proceed beyond Hudaybiyah. They did not allow them to come to Makkah. This is a well-known historical happening. Among the camels the Prophet

[1] Bukhari # 1719, Muslim # 30-1972, Musnad Ahmad 3-388.
[2] Abu Dawud # 1749, Ibn Majah # 3100, Musnad Ahmad 1-234.

Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم had taken along as hadyi to slaughter was one that had belonged to Abu Jahl. It was seized in the Battle of Badr as part of the spoils. He took it along to distress the idolaters on seeing it in the hands of the Muslim and on being slaughtered. Thus, it is mustahab (desirable) to cause grief and distress to the enemies of Allah.

THE HADYI THAT IS DYING

(٢٦٤١-٢٦٤٢) وَعَنْ نَاجِيَةَ الْخُزَاعِيِّ قَالَ قُلْتُ يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ كَيْفَ اَصْنَعُ بِمَا عَطَبَ مِنَ الْبُدْنِ قَالَ انْحَرْهَا ثُمَّ اغْمِسْ نَعْلَهَا فِيْ دَمِهَا ثُمَّ خَلِّ بَيْنَ النَّاسِ وَبَيْنَهَا فَيَأْكُلُوْهَا۔ رَوَاهُ مَالِكٌ وَالتِّرْمِذِيُّ وَابْنُ مَاجَةَ وَرَوَاهُ اَبُوْدَاوُدَ وَالدَّارِمِيُّ عَنْ نَاجِيَةَ الْاَسْلَمِيِّ۔

2641. Sayyiduna Najiyah Al-Khuza'I رضى الله عنه said that he asked Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم how he should deal with the animals of hadyi that are on the point of death. He said, "Slaughter t hem and dye their shoes with their blood. Then leave them for the people to eat."[1]

2642. Najiyah al-Aslami رضى الله عنه narrated the (same) hadith (tradition).[2]

COMMENTARY: The people who will eat are those excluding the companions in the caravan whether rich or poor. Other poor people passers by might eat from it. Previously this had been explained.

There was only one sahabi by the name of Najiyah. Some ascribed him to the Khuza'I tribe and some to t he Aslami tribe.

VIRTUE OF THE DAY OF SACRIFICE

(٢٦٤٣) وَعَنْ عَبْدِاللّٰهِ بْنِ قُرْطٍ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ اِنَّ اَعْظَمَ الْاَيَّامِ عِنْدَ اللّٰهِ يَوْمَ النَّحْرِ ثُمَّ يَوْمُ الْقَرِّ قَالَ ثَوْرٌ وَهُوَ الْيَوْمُ الثَّانِى قَالَ وَقُرِّبَ لِرَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ بَدَنَاتٌ خَمْسٌ اَوْسِتٌّ فَطَفِقْنَ يَزْدَلِفْنَ اِلَيْهِ بِاَيَّتِهِنَّ يَبْدَأُ قَالَ فَلَمَّا وَجَبَتْ جُنُوْبُهَا قَالَ فَتَكَلَّمَ بِكَلِمَةٍ خَفِيَّةٍ لَمْ اَفْهَمْهَا فَقُلْتُ مَا قَالَ قَالَ مَنْ شَاءَ اقْتَطَعَ۔ (رواه ابوداؤد)

2643. Sayyiduna Abdullah ibn Qurt رضى الله عنه narrated that the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "The greatest day in the sight of Allah is the day of sacrifice (with Dhul HIjjah). Then, is the day of al-qarr (11th Dhul Hijjah)." Sayyiduna Thawr رضى الله عنه said, "That is the next day."

Abdullah رضى الله عنه added that five or six camels were brought to Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم and they began to draw nearer to him (vying with each other to covet the blessing) to see which of them he would sacrifice first.

He added: when they fell down on their sides (meaning, when they were slaughtered), he (the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم said something so softly that he (Abdullah) رضى الله عنه could not understand. So, he asked (one who was near to him), "What did he say?" (He said that) he said, "whose wishes may cut off a piece."[3]

---

[1] Tirmidhi # 911, Ibn Majah # 3106, Muwatta Maalik # 148 (Hajj), Musnad Ahmad 4-334.

[2] Abu Dawud # 1762, Darimi # 1909.

[3] Abu Dawud # 1765.

COMMENTARY: Teebi رحمه الله explained that the greatest day in the sight of Allah is the day of sacrifice means that it is one of the greatest days because other ahadith (tradition) name the ten days of (Dhul Hijjah) better then other days. Those ten days being excellent, the 10th of Dhul Hijjah, which is one of them, is also excellent.

The ahadith (tradition) also say that the last ten days of Ramadan are the most excellent. We may explain that, the last ten days of Dhul Hijjah are the most excellent days of the months of Haram while the last ten days of Ramadan are the most excellent of all days (in all respect).

We may also explain that excellence is measured in terms of nature of the days. Fasting is observed in Ramadan. Reward is multiplied in this month and I'tikaf is observed during its last ten days. So, these ten days are excellent in this regard.

As for Dhul Hijjah, Hajj (pilgrimage) is performed in this month and sacrifice is made. In this regard, it is excellent.

The day of al-qarr is the 11th Dhul Hijjah. It is so called because the pilgrims get some rest on this day after they have discharge their duties and worked hard.

If anyone argues that the day of Arafah has been termed as excellent in sahih hadith (tradition). We may say again that al-qarr is one of the days that are excellent.

That the camels tried to outdo each other in coming nearer to the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم was truly a miracle of the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم. Animals too have a sentiment and a longing to gain blessings that, actually, is idiosyncrasy of mankind.

The hadith (tradition) of Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضى الله عنه and of Sayyiduna Jabir have been mentioned in the chapter (الاضحية) (no sacrifices), - respectively # 1469 and 1461.

SECTION III الفصل الثالث

FLESH OF THE SACRIFICE

(٢٦٤٤) عَنْ سَلَمَةَ بْنِ الْأَكْوَعِ قَالَ قَالَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ ضَحّٰى مِنْكُمْ فَلَا يُصْبِحَنَّ بَعْدَ ثَالِثَةٍ وَفِي بَيْتِهِ مِنْهُ شَيْءٌ فَلَمَّا كَانَ الْعَامُ الْمُقْبِلُ قَالُوْا يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ نَفْعَلُ كَمَا فَعَلْنَا الْعَامَ الْمَاضِيَ قَالَ كُلُوْا وَأَطْعِمُوْا وَادَّخِرُوْا فَإِنَّ ذٰلِكَ الْعَامَ كَانَ بِالنَّاسِ جُهْدٌ فَأَرَدْتُ أَنْ تُعِيْنُوْا فِيْهِمْ۔ (متفق عليه)

2644. Sayyiduna Salamah ibn Al-Akwa رضى الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, 'He among you has made a sacrifice should not begin the morning after three day while he has anything of the (flesh of the animal) in his house." When the next year arrived, they (the sahabah) رضى الله عنه asked, "O Messenger of Allah, shall we do as we had done last year (and give out all the meat in three days)?" He said. "Eat, feed others and keep in store some. Last year, the people (had to work hard and toil and) were helpless. So, I intended that you should help them."[1]

COMMENTARY: There was a severe drought in the region around Madinah. Therefore, many of those people came to Madinah crowding it. This is why the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم forbade people to store meat beyond three days. The year following conditions had improved and the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم permitted them to hold back some of the flesh.

---

[1] Bukhari # 5569, Muslim # 34-1974, (see also Bukhari # 5570).

(٢٦٤٥) وَعَنْ نُبَيْشَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِنَّا كُنَّا نَهَيْنَا كُمْ عَنْ لُحُوْمِهَا اَنْ تَأْكُلُوهَا فَوْقَ ثَلَاثٍ لِكَيْ تَسَعَكُمْ جَاءَ اللّٰهُ بِالسَّعَةِ فَكُلُوْ وَادَّخِرُوْا وَاتَّجِرُوا اَلَا وَإِنَّ هٰذِهِ الْاَيَّامَ اَيَّامُ اَكْلٍ وَشُرْبٍ وَذِكْرِ اللّٰهِ۔ (رواه ابوداؤد)

2645. Sayyiduna Nubayshah رضی الله عنها narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم said, "We used to forbid you to eat their meat meaning, of sacrificial animals) beyond three days so that you may find abundance (and the poor may derive benefit from the meat). Now, Allah has provided plenty. So, eat and hold back and seek reward (by giving in the charity). Know! These (four) days (in Mina) are days of eating, drinking (so it is disallowed to fast these days) and (days) to remember Allah."[1]

COMMENTARY: The concluding words reflect the words of Allah:

فَإِذَا قَضَيْتُمْ مَّنَاسِكَكُمْ فَاذْكُرُوا اللّٰهَ كَذِكْرِكُمْ اٰبَاءَكُمْ اَوْ اَشَدَّ ذِكْرًا

{When you have performed you devotional rites, remember Allah, like your remembrance of your forefathers, or even with a stronger remembrance} (2: 200)

CHAPTER - IX

(AL-HALQ) SHAVING بَابُ الْحَلْقِ

On the 10th of Dhul HIjjah, pebbles are thrown at al Jamrah Aqabah. Then the hadyi is slaughtered there, in Mina. Then, the head is shaved, or hair are clipped and the ihram (pilgrim-robe) is relinquished. Everything except sexual intercourse, that had been forbidden in the state of the ihram (pilgrim-robe) becomes lawful again.

This chapter is about shaving the head and clipping the hair, both topics. The compiler of the Mishkat has mentioned only shaving in the heading because it is better to shave the head than to merely clip the hair to which will follow at the proper time, insha Allah.

It must be known that the Prophet Muhammad صلی الله علیه وسلم never shaved his head apart from (the performance of the rites of Hajj (pilgrimage) and umrah).

SECTION I اَلْفَصْلُ الْاَوَّلُ

BETTER TO SHAVE HEAD

(٢٦٤٦) عَنِ ابْنِ عُمَرَ اَنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ حَلَقَ رَأْسَهُ فِي حَجَّةِ الْوَدَاعِ وَأُنَاسٌ مِّنْ اَصْحَابِهٖ وَقَصَّرَ بَعْضُهُمْ۔ (متفق عليه)

2646. Sayyiduan Ibn Umar رضی الله عنه reported that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم had his head shaved during the Farewell pilgrimage as did a number of his sahabah, but some of them had t heir hair clipped.[2]

COMMENTARY: Those who had their heads shaved emulated the Prophet Muhammad

---

[1] Abu Dawud # 2813, Ibn Majah (brief) # 3160, Darimi # 1958.

[2] Bukhari # 4411, Muslim # 316-1301, Abu Dawud # 1980, Musnad Ahmad 2-128.

صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم aiming at the blessings. Those who had their hair clipped seized the permission to do so. It is stated in a hadith (tradition) in Bukhari, Muslim and other books of hadith (tradition) that during the redeeming umrah (umrah al-Qada), the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم had his hair clipped instead of shaving his head. So, both things are known from the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم though it is better to shave the head.

PROPHET MUHAMMAD صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم HAD HIS HAIR CLIPPED

(٢٦٤٧) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ قَالَ قَالَ لِيْ مُعَاوِيَةُ اِنِّيْ قَصَّرْتُ مِنْ رَأْسِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ عِنْدَ الْمَرْوَةِ بِمِشْقَصٍ۔ (متفق علیه)

2647. Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Sayyiduna Mu'awiyah رضی اللہ عنہ said to him that he had clipped some hair of the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم at Marwah with a mishqas (a arrowhead or a pair of large scissors).[1]

COMMENTARY: The word mishqas is either a large or broad arrowhead, or large scissors. The latter seems more appropriate.

Since it is established through ahadith (tradition) that the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم had never had his hair on the head clipped after performing Hajj (pilgrimage) but had them shaved so this statement of Mu'awiyah رضی اللہ عنہ concerns umrah. This is corroborated by his words that he did it at Marwah. If he had cut them after Hajj (pilgrimage), then he would have said, at Mina.'

PROPHET'S PRAYER FOR THOSE WHO SHAVE HEAD

(٢٦٤٨) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عُمَرَ اَنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ فِيْ حَجَّةِ الْوَدَاعِ اَللّٰهُمَّ ارْحَمِ الْمُحَلِّقِيْنَ قَالُوْا وَالْمُقَصِّرِيْنَ يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ قَالَ اَللّٰهُمَّ ارْحَمِ الْمُحَلِّقِيْنَ قَالُوْا وَالْمُقَصِّرِيْنَ يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ قَالَ وَالْمُقَصِّرِيْنَ۔ (متفق علیه)

2648. Sayyiduna Ibn Umar صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم narrated that during the Farewell pilgrimage, Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said:

اَللّٰهُمَّ ارْحَمِ الْمُحَلِّقِيْنَ قَالُوْا وَالْمُقَصِّرِيْنَ

{O Allah, have mercy on those who have had their heads shaved.}
They (the sahabah) رضی اللہ عنہ submitted "And those who have had their hair clipped, O Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم of Allah! but, he prayed again as before:

اَللّٰهُمَّ ارْحَمِ الْمُحَلِّقِيْنَ قَالُوْا وَالْمُقَصِّرِيْنَ and they submitted again, 'those who had their hair clipped, too, O Messenger of Allah! So, he agreed:

وَالْمُقَصِّرِيْنَ

{and they who have clipped their hair.}[2]

---

[1] Bukhari # 1330, Muslim # 209-1246, Abu Dawud # 1802, Nasa'i # 2987, Musnad Ahmad 4.96.
[2] Bukhari # 1727, Muslim # 317-1301.

COMMENTARY: The excellence of those who shave their head (during Hajj (pilgrimage)) is clear from this hadith (tradition) over those who merely clip their hair.

(٢٦٤٩) وَعَنْ يَحْيٰى بْنِ الْحُصَيْنِ عَنْ جَدَّتِهٖ اَنَّهَا سَمِعَتِ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فِيْ حَجَّةِ الْوَدَاعِ دَعَا لِلْمُحَلِّقِيْنَ ثَلَاثًا وَلِلْمُقَصِّرِيْنَ مَرَّةً وَّاحِدَةً۔ (رواه مسلم)

2649. Sayyiduna Yahya ibn al-Husayn رحمه الله reported from his grandmother that during the farewell pilgrimage, she heard the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم pray for those who had had their heads shaved three times, but for those who had their hair clipped (only) once.[1]

COMMENTARY: The Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم prayed for those who shaved their hair thrice - or according to another hadith (tradition) four times - and once for those who merely clipped their hair. This last may have been included with the prayer for those who shaved or may have been made separately.

The Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم may have made these prayers at different times and in different gatherings. This explains the varying numbers of supplications - three and four. Or, the different narrators may have narrated whatever they had heard.

SUNNAH(PRACTICE OF HOLY PROPHET MUHAMMAD (صلى الله عليه وسلم) TO BEGIN SHAVING AT THE RIGHT SIDE

(٢٦٥٠) وَعَنْ اَنَسٍ اَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَتٰى مِنًى فَاَتَى الْجَمْرَةَ فَرَمَاهَا ثُمَّ اَتٰى مَنْزِلَهٗ بِمِنًى وَنَحَرَ نُسُكَهٗ ثُمَّ دَعَا بِالْحَلَّاقِ وَنَاوَلَ الْحَالِقَ شِقَّهُ الْاَيْمَنَ فَحَلَقَهٗ ثُمَّ دَعَا اَبَا طَلْحَةَ الْاَنْصَارِيَّ فَاَعْطَاهُ اِيَّاهُ ثُمَّ نَاوَلَ الشِّقَّ الْاَيْسَرَ فَقَالَ احْلِقْ فَحَلَقَهٗ فَاَعْطَاهُ اَبَا طَلْحَةَ فَقَالَ اقْسِمْهُ بَيْنَ النَّاسِ۔ (متفق عليه)

2650. Sayyiduna Anas رضى الله عنه narrated that the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم came to Mina. Then he went to jamrah (aqabah) and threw pebbles at it. Then he went to his dwelling place in Mina and sacrificed his animal. Then he called the barber (who was Ma'mar ibn Abdullah) رضى الله عنه and turned his right side (of his head) towards him and he shaved it. Then he called Abu Talhah al-Ansari رضى الله عنه and gave him the hair that had been shaved off. Then, he turned his left side and asked the barber to shave it and he shaved it and he gave the hair to Abu Talhah, رضى الله عنه saying, "Distribute it among the people."[2]

COMMENTARY: The head is shaved from the right side as a sunnah(Practice of Holy Prophet Muhammad (صلى الله عليه وسلم). It is shaved from the right side of the person being shaved. Some authorities maintain that it is the right side of the person who shaves.

USING PERFUME

(٢٦٥١) وَعَنْ عَائِشَةَ قَالَتْ كُنْتُ اُطَيِّبُ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَبْلَ اَنْ يُّحْرِمَ وَيَوْمَ النَّحْرِ قَبْلَ اَنْ يَّطُوْفَ بِالْبَيْتِ بِطِيْبٍ فِيْهِ مِسْكٌ۔ (متفق عليه)

---

[1] Muslim # 321-1303.

[2] Muslim # 326.1305, Abu Dawud # 1981, Tirmidhi # 913, Musnad Ahmad 2-137.

2651. Sayyidah Ayshah رضی الله عنها said that she used to apply perfume to Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم before he assumed the ihram (pilgrim-robe) and on the day of sacrifice before he circumambulated the House, the perfume containing musk.[1]

COMMENTARY: The ulama (Scholars) say that at the times mentioned by Sayyiduna Ayshah رضی الله عنها it is better to apply perfume with musk or rose because they are purely fragrant without any colour.

On the 10th Dhul Hijah after (the sacrifice and having the head shaved, the pilgrim comes out of the ihram (pilgrim-robe) and that which was disallowed to him because of the ihram (pilgrim-robe) becomes lawful again but not sexual intercourse with his wife. After he finishes making the tawaf ziyarat, even that becomes lawful to him.

THE SALAH (PRAYER) OF ZUHR OF THE PROPHET MUHAMMAD صلى الله عليه وسلم ON THE DAY OF SACRIFICE

(٢٦٥٢) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عُمَرَ اَنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَفَاضَ يَوْمَ النَّحْرِ ثُمَّ رَجَعَ فَصَلَّى الظُّهْرَ بِمِنًى - (رواه مسلم)

2652. Sayyiduna Ibn Umar رضی الله عنه narrated that on the day of sacrifice, Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم hastened to Makkah (and performed the fard(compulsory) circumambulation in the forenoon) and returned (in time) to offer the salah (prayer) of zuhr in Mina.[2]

COMMENTARY: It has been explained against hadith (tradition) # 2555 (chapter on the farewell pilgrimage) that the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم offered the zuhr in Makkah but offered the optional in Mina which Ibn Umar رضی الله عنه mistook for zuhr.

SECTION II اَلْفَصْلُ الثَّانِي

WOMEN NOT ALLOWED TO SHAVE HEAD

(٢٦٥٣) وَعَنْ عَلِيٍّ وَعَائِشَةَ قَالَا نَهٰى رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَنْ تَحْلِقَ الْمَرْأَةُ رَأْسَهَا - (رواه الترمذى)

2653. Sayyiduna Ali رضی الله عنه and Sayyidah Ayshah رضی الله عنها narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم forbade the women from shaving their heads.[3]

COMMENTARY: When a woman puts off her ihram (pilgrim-robe) she should not shave her head (as men do). It also applies even otherwise. It is forbidden to women to shave their heads as to men to shave their beards.

ONLY CLIP HAIR

(٢٦٥٤) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَيْسَ عَلَى النِّسَاءِ الْحَلْقُ اِنَّمَا عَلَى النِّسَاءِ التَّقْصِيْرُ - (رواه ابوداؤد والترمذى والدارمى)

---

[1] Bukhari # 1539, Muslim # 46.1191, Abu Dawud # 1745, Tirmidhi # 918, Nasa'i # 2685, Majah # 2926, Muwatta Maalik # 17 (Hajj), Musnad Ahmad 6-186.

[2] Muslim # 335-1308

[3] Tirmidhi # 915

2654. Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said woman are not required to shave their head. They need only clip their hair."[1]

COMMENTARY: It is not wajib (obligatory) on a woman to shave her hair on relinquishing the ihram (pilgrim-robe) but it wajib (obligatory) on her to clip her hair on relinquishing the ihram (pilgrim-robe).

However, it is wajib (obligatory) on men do one of these things: either shave hair or clip some of it though shaving is better.

THE LIMIT: According to the Hanafis, if the head is shaved, it is wajib (obligatory) to share only one fourth of it though better to shave all of it. If hair is only clipped then it is wajib (obligatory) to clip only one fourth of all hair on head to the limit of the one division or portion of a finger, but mustahab (desirable) to clip all hair on the head. Ibn Hamman رحمہ اللہ, however, agrees with Imam (leader) Maalik رحمہ اللہ that it is wajib (obligatory) to either shave all hair or clip all hair on the head, saying only that is correct.

This chapter has no Section III.

CHAPTER - X

ABOUT WHAT IS PERMITTED (DIFFERENT DEEDS) بَابٌ

SECTION I اَلْفَصْلُ الْاَوَّلُ

OUT OF SEQUENCE DEEDS OF HAJJ (PILGRIMAGE)

(٢٦٥٥) عَنْ عَبْدِاللّٰهِ بْنِ عَمْرِوبْنِ الْعَاصِ اَنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَقَفَ فِي حَجَّةِ الْوَدَاعِ بِمِنًى لِلنَّاسِ يَسْأَلُوْنَهُ فَجَاءَهُ رَجُلٌ فَقَالَ لَمْ اَشْعُرْ فَحَلَقْتُ قَبْلَ اَنْ اَذْبَحَ فَقَالَ اِذْبَحْ وَلَا حَرَجَ فَجَاءَ اٰخَرُ فَقَالَ لَمْ اَشْعُرْ فَنَحَرْتُ قَبْلَ اَنْ اَرْمِيَ فَقَالَ ارْمِ وَلَا حَرَجَ فَمَا سُئِلَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ عَنْ شَيْءٍ قُدِّمَ وَلَا اُخِّرَ اِلَّا قَالَ افْعَلْ وَلَا حَرَجَ۔ مُتَّفَقٌ عَلَيْهِ وَفِي رِوَايَةٍ لِمُسْلِمٍ اَتَاهُ رَجُلٌ فَقَالَ حَلَقْتُ قَبْلَ اَنْ اَرْمِيَ قَالَ ارْمِ وَلَا حَرَجَ وَاَتَاهُ اٰخَرُ فَقَالَ اَفَضْتُ اِلَى الْبَيْتِ قَبْلَ اَنْ اَرْمِيَ قَالَ ارْمِ وَلَا حَرَجَ۔

2655. Sayyiduna Abdullah ibn Amr ibn Al-Aas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم stopped at Mina during the Farewell Pilgrimage to enable the people to ask him what they wished to know. One man came and submitted, 'I did not know and I shaved before I sacrificed." He said, "Sacrifice now, it does not matter." Another man came and submitted that he was not aware and made the sacrifice before casting the pebbles, so he set him at rest, saying, "Cast them, now It does not matter." The Prophet was not asked about anything being done out of sequence without his pacifying them, "Do it (now). It does not matter."

According to another version: A man came and submitted, "I shaved before throwing the pebbles." He convinced him that he could throw them (again), for, it did not matter. Another came with the problem that he had hastened to the house before throwing the pebbles and was told that he could throw them then and that did not matter.[2]

---

[1] Abu Dawud # 1985, Darimi # 1906, Daraqutni # 165 (Hajj)

[2] Bukhari # 1736, Muslim # 327-1306, Tirmidhi # 917, Abu Dawud # 2014, Ibn Majah # 3051, Muwatta Maalik # 242 (Hajj) Musnad ahmad 2159.

COMMENTARY: On the day of sacrifice, four things are done. The sequence is:

(1) On coming to Mina, seven pebbles are thrown at jamrah aqabah which is a pillar.

(2) The animals are sacrificed. The details have been mentioned previously.

(3) Next, the head is shaved or hair are clliped.

(4) Then the pilgrim goes to Makkah and perform the tawaf.

Most ulama (Scholars) say that in the light of the foregoing hadith (tradition), these deeds are performed in this sequence as a sunnah(Practice of Holy Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم*)*. Imam (leader) Shafi'I رحمہ اللہ and Imam (leader) Ahmad رحمہ اللہ are among them. If the sequence is disturbed them no atonement is called for. However, some ulama (Scholars), including Imam (leader) Abu Hanifah رحمہ اللہ and Imam (leader) Maalik رحمہ اللہ, assert that it is wajib (obligatory) to observe this sequence. They say that the Prophet Muhammad's صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم words merely mean that there is no sin if the sequence is upset because of lack of knowledge, but it is wajib (obligatory) to slaughter an animal as dumm which is a goat or the like of it.

Teebi رحمہ اللہ pointes out that Sayyiduna ibn Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ has narrated that a similar hadith (tradition) and he himself has made dumm wajib (obligatory) because of the actions being performed out of sequence. So, the contention of Imam (leader) Abu Hanifah رحمہ اللہ and others is proved as correct.

(٢٦٥٦) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ قَالَ كَانَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يُسْئَلُ يَوْمَ النَّحْرِ بِمِنٰى فَيَقُوْلُ لَا حَرَجَ فَسَأَلَهُ رَجُلٌ فَقَالَ رَمَيْتُ بَعْدَ مَا اَمْسَيْتُ فَقَالَ لَا حَرَجَ۔ (رواه البخاری)

2656. Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ said that on the day of sacrifice, the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم was being asked (about advancing an act or putting it back). He would say. "It does not matter." A man asked him, "I cast pebbles after it was evening." He said, "It does not matter."[1]

COMMENTARY: The others Imams (leaders) (apart from Abu Hanifah) رحمہ اللہ hold that if any one delays the casting of pebbles beyond sunset then dumm becomes wajib (obligatory) on him. So, they interpret the hadith (tradition) to mean 'after asr' when it say 'after evening.'

The Hanafis say that on the tenth Dhul Hijjah it is allowed to throw the pebbles after dawn (and before sunrise) but with a dislike. After sunrise to zawal, it is masnun. After zawal to sunset it is allowed without dislike but the hours of masnun are missed. After sunset, which is night time, though allowed there is a dislike for it.

It must be understood, however, that there is a dislike if anyone delays it without a reason till after sunrise and casts pebbles in the night. Thus, if shepherds and people like them can only cast pebbles in the night because they are disabled before that then there is no dislike for them. The Prophet Muhammad's صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم words in the hadith (tradition), 'It does not matter' suggest that the person asking was a shepherd who could not cast pebbles during the day.

Ibn Hammam رحمہ اللہ said that if anyone delays casting of pebbles to such an extent that it is morning then he should cast pebbles but he will have to atone and slaughter an animal. It is wajib (obligatory) to do so. This is the opinion of Imam (leader) Abu Hanifah رحمہ اللہ but his two companions differ with him. On the two days after the day of sacrifice, the 11th and 12th of Dhul Hijjah, the masnun time of casting pebbles is from after zawal to sunset. After that till dawn is makruh(unbecoming) time. Thus according to Imam (leader) Abu Hanifah رحمه الله the time of doing it is over after da'wn his two companions, Imam (leader) Abu Yusuf رحمه الله and Imam (leader) Muhammad رحمه الله contend that the time of doing it remains even after dawn. In other words, even after dawn, there is time to cast pebbles according to consensus though Imam (leader) Abu Hanifah رحمه الله says that valid time is over and it is redeeming time but the others say that it is valid time.

---

[1] Bukhari # 1735.

On the fourth day, 13th Dhul Hijjah, according to all of them the time, both valid and the redeeming, expires with sunset. So, not even a delayed rami is allowed.

SECTION II — اَلْفَصْلُ الثَّانِي

(٢٦٥٧) وَعَنْ عَلِيٍّ قَالَ اَتَاهُ رَجُلٌ فَقَالَ يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ اِنِّي اَفَضْتُ قَبْلَ اَنْ اَحْلِقَ قَالَ اِحْلِقْ اَوْ قَصِّرْ وَلَا حَرَجَ وَجَاءَ اٰخَرُ فَقَالَ ذَبَحْتُ قَبْلَ اَنْ اَرْمِيَ قَالَ ارْمِ وَلَا حَرَجَ۔ (رواه الترمذی)

2657. Sayyiduna رضی الله عنه Ali said that a man came and submitted, "O Messenger of Allah, I (went to Makkah and) performed the tawaf ifadah before shaving my head." He said, "Shave or clip hair (now). It does not matter, And another come and said, "I sacrificed before throwing pebbles." He said, "Throw pebbles (now). There is no harm."[1]

SECTION III — اَلْفَصْلُ الثَّالِثُ

(٢٦٥٨) وَعَنْ اُسَامَةَ بْنِ شَرِيْكٍ قَالَ خَرَجْتُ مَعَ رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ حَاجًّا فَكَانَ النَّاسُ يَأْتُوْنَهُ فَمِنْ قَائِلٍ يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ سَعَيْتُ قَبْلَ اَنْ اَطُوْفَ اَوْ اَخَّرْتُ شَيْئًا اَوْ قَدَّمْتُ شَيْئًا فَكَانَ يَقُوْلُ لَا حَرَجَ اِلَّا عَلٰى رَجُلٍ اقْتَرَضَ عِرْضَ مُسْلِمٍ وَهُوَ ظَالِمٌ فَذٰلِكَ الَّذِيْ حَرَجَ وَهَلَكَ۔ (رواه ابوداؤد)

2658. Sayyiduna Usamah ibn Sharik رضی الله عنه narrated that he went out with Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم to perform Hajj (pilgrimage). (He reported that) people thronged to him (with their enquiries). Someone asked, "O Messenger of Allah, I performed the Sa'I (or Sa'i) before I made the tawaf." Or, I did something after its due time." Or I did something before its due time." He would say, "It does not matter. Only (it matters) to one who defames a Muslim, One who is a wrongdoer. He is the sinful and he will perish."[2]

COMMENTARY: If Sa'I is done before assuming the ihram (pilgrim-robe) or before performing the tawaf qudum or optional tawaf then that would not be proper. There is no harm in performing Sa'I before tawaf ifadah. But, it is imperative that Sa'I should be observed after assuming the ihram (pilgrim-robe) and performing the tawaf, even if it is an optional tawaf.

For an outsider the questioner's making Sa'I before tawaf would imply tawaf ifadah, but tawaf qudum. For a Makkan, it would be after an optional tawaf.

The hadith (tradition) concludes with a note of warning to one who wrong or defames anyone. However, if such a thing is done for the sake of religion, then there is no harm, and the doer is not sinful.

---

[1] Tirmidhi # 917 (narrated by Abdullah ibn Amir) رضی الله عنه, Bukhari # 83 Muslim # 1306, Abu Dawud # 2014, Ibn Majah # 3051, Musnad Ahmad # 6499.

[2] Abu Dawud # 2015.

CHAPTER - XI

THE SERMON ON THE DAY OF SACRIFICE CASTING PEBBLES ON THE DAY OF TASHRIQ AND BIDDING FAREWELL

بَابُ خُطْبَةِ يَومِ النَّحْرِ وَرَمْيِ اَيَّامِ التَّشْرِيْقِ وَالتَّوْدِيْعِ

SECTION I

اَلْفَصْلُ الْاَوَّلُ

SERMON ON THE DAY OF SACRIFICE

(٢٦٥٩) عَنْ اَبِي بَكْرَةَ قَالَ خَطَبَنَا النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَوْمَ النَّحْرِ قَالَ اِنَّ الزَّمَانَ قَدِ اسْتَدَارَ كَهَيْئَتِهٖ يَوْمَ خَلَقَ اللّٰهُ السَّمٰوٰتِ وَالْاَرْضَ السَّنَةُ اثْنَا عَشَرَ شَهْرًا مِنْهَا اَرْبَعَةٌ حُرُمٌ ثَلَاثٌ مُتَوَالِيَاتٌ ذُوالْقَعْدَةِ وَذُو الْحَجَّةِ وَالْمُحَرَّمُ وَ رَجَبُ مُضَرَ الَّذِى بَيْنَ جُمَادىٰ وَشَعْبَانَ وَ قَالَ اَىُّ شَهْرٍ هٰذَا قُلْنَا اللّٰهُ وَرَسُوْلُهٗ اَعْلَمُ فَسَكَتَ حَتّٰى ظَنَنَّا اَنَّهٗ سَيُسَمِّيْهِ بِغَيْرِ اسْمِهٖ فَقَالَ اَلَيْسَ ذَا الْحَجَّةِ قُلْنَا بَلٰى قَالَ اَىُّ بَلَدٍ هٰذَا قُلْنَا اللّٰهُ وَرَسُوْلُهٗ اَعْلَمُ فَسَكَتَ حَتّٰى ظَنَنَّا اَنَّهٗ سَيُسَمِّيْهِ بِغَيْرِ اسْمِهٖ قَالَ اَلَيْسَ الْبَلْدَةَ قُلْنَا بَلٰى قَالَ فَاَىُّ يَوْمٍ هٰذَا قُلْنَا اللّٰهُ وَرَسُوْلُهٗ اَعْلَمُ فَسَكَتَ حَتّٰى ظَنَنَّا اَنَّهٗ سَيُسَمِّيْهِ بِغَيْرِ اسْمِهٖ قَالَ اَلَيْسَ يَومَ النَّحْرِ قُلْنَا بَلٰى قَالَ فَاِنَّ دِمَاءَكُمْ وَ اَمْوَالَكُمْ وَاَعْرَاضَكُمْ عَلَيْكُمْ حَرَامٌ كَحُرْمَةِ يَوْمِكُمْ هٰذَا فِيْ بَلَدِكُمْ هٰذَا فِيْ شَهْرِكُمْ هٰذَا وَسَتَلْقَوْنَ رَبَّكُمْ فَيَسْأَلُكُمْ عَنْ اَعْمَالِكُمْ اَلَا فَلَا تَرْجِعُوا بَعْدِى ضُلَّا لَايَضْرِبُ بَعْضُكُمْ رِقَابَ بَعْضٍ اَلَا هَلْ بَلَّغْتُ قَالُوْا نَعَمْ قَالَ اَللّٰهُمَّ اشْهَدْ فَلْيُبَلِّغِ الشَّاهِدُ الْغَائِبَ فَرُبَّ مُبَلَّغٍ اَوْعٰى مِنْ سَامِعٍ۔

(متفق عليه)

2659. Sayyiduna Abu Bakrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم delivered to them a sermon on the day of sacrifice. He said, "(O people!) Time (meaning the year) has covered its cycle according to the nature on which it was when Allah had created the heavens and the earth. The year is made up of twelve months, four of which are sacred three of them consecutive, namely Dhul qadah, Dhul hijjah and Muharrram, and (the fourth) Rajab of Mudar which lies between Jumada (ath-thani) and Sha'ban."
Then, he asked, 'what month is this?" They said, "Allah and His Messenger know best." He observed silence so that they presumed that he would give it a new name, but he asked, "Is it not Dhul Hijjah?" They confirmed, "of course!" He asked, "What town is it?" They submitted, "Allah and His Messenger know best." So, he observed silence till they presumed that he would give it a new name, but he asked, "Is it not al-Baldah?" they affirmed, "Of course!"
He asked, "What day is it?" They submitted that Allah and His Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم know best. He remained silent till they presumed that he would give it a new name when he asked, "Is it not the day of sacrifice?" They confirmed, "Of course!" He said, "Your blood, your properties and your honour are as sacred to you as the sacredness of this day of yours, in this town of yours, in this month of yours. You shall meet your Lord and He shall ask you about your deeds. Beware! Do not revert after my death to misguidance. Do not cut off necks of each other."

"Know! Have I conveyed (the message, commands of Allah"?" They affirmed, "Yes!" He said, "O Allah, be witness! So, those who are present here must convey to those who are not present here, for, many a one to whom it is conveyed remembers more than him who hears."[1]

COMMENTARY: The Shafi'is content that it is mustahab (desirable) to deliver a sermon on the first day of sacrifice, 10th Dhul Hijjah. But, the Hanafis say that it is mustahab (desirable) on the second day. 11th Dhul Hijjah. Thus, according to the Hanafis, three sermons are delivered in Dhul Hijjah: on the 7th, 9th and 11th. The rules of hajj are mentioned in these sermons. Other ahadith speak of the Prophet Muhammad's صلى الله عليه وسلم sermon on the 11th. It is said about this hadith that the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم may have delivered this sermon by way of a reminder and an admonition while he may have delivered the principal sermon on the very next day.

The year being of twelve months is mentioned in the Quran:

إِنَّ عِدَّةَ الشُّهُورِ عِنْدَ اللّٰهِ اثْنَا عَشَرَ شَهْرًا فِي كِتَابِ اللّٰهِ يَوْمَ خَلَقَ السَّمٰوٰتِ وَالْأَرْضَ الاية

{Surely, the number of the months, with Allah, is twelve month in the Book of Allah since the day when He created the heavens and the earth...} (9:36)

This saying of the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم rejects the Arabs who had made changes to the month of the year. They had a year of twelve months followed by another of thirteen months. In this way, they put off the performance of hajj by one month after every two years. Other months also changed and the sacred months were no exception. They lost their sanctity and other became sacred. For instance, they forbade fighting in months when it was not forbidden and fought during the sacred month when it was forbidden. Thus, Muharram, Safar and other months also changed their places in the calendar. Allah says about it:

إِنَّمَا النَّسِيءُ زِيَادَةٌ فِي الْكُفْرِ

{The shifting of sacred month is only an addition into dis-belief.} (9:37)

Allah declared their calculation as false and brought back each month at its proper place. The month of Dhul Hijjah was at its original place when the prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم performed the farewell pilgrimage. This is what the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم stressed when he began the address. And, he forbade that months be changed.

Baydawi رحمه الله said that when the Arabs of the jahiliyah had to fight in a sacred month, they called it lawful and replaced some other month as a sacred month. They changed the peculiarities of every month, but retained only the numbers.

The sentence: 'The year is made up of twelve months' stands by itself, elaborating the preceding sentence. Four of these months are sacred. There can be no killing, fighting, warfare are wrangling in these months. Allah says:

فَلَا تَظْلِمُوا فِيهِنَّ أَنْفُسَكُمْ

{....So wrong not yourselves during them} (9:36)

Most ulama (Scholars), however, assertt hat the command not to fight in the sacred months and not to engage in warfare has been abrogated. They interpret the word (تظلما) - (ظلم) - 'wrongdoing' - 'wrong' - to mean 'perpetrating evil.' In this case, the verse would mean: 'Do not cause yourselves to suffer by perpetrating sin during these months because just as it is very bad to commit sin in the the state of ihram (pilgrim-robe), so too it is very bad to commit sin in these months.

---

[1] Bukhari # 1741, Muslim # 31-1679, Ibn Majah # 233, Darimi # 1916, Musnad Ahmad 5-40.

Mudar was a tribe of the Arabs. They gave too much respect to the month of Rajab and sanctified it. This is why the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم ascribed the month to this tribe, 'Rajab Mudar.'

The prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم asked the people the names of the month, day and town to get them to realize their sanctity. They may know the importance of what he said and resolve to abide by what he said next.

Their answer that only Allah and His Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم know best was not only out of respect but also to know what the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم meant.

Some versions have instead of 'do not revert to misguidance (ضلالا) after my death' the word (كفارا) disbelief. The sentence would then mean: 'do not resemble the infidels in your deeds after my death lest like them you slay each other.

SCHEDULE OF RAMI ON ELEVENTH & TWELFTH

(٢٦٦٠) وَعَنْ وَبَرَةَ قَالَ سَأَلْتُ ابْنَ عُمَرَ مَتٰى اَرْمِي الْجِمَارَ قَالَ إِذَا رَمٰى إِمَامُكَ فَارْمِهِ فَأَعَدْتُ عَلَيْهِ الْمَسْأَلَةَ فَقَالَ كُنَّا نَتَحَيَّنُ فَإِذَا زَالَتِ الشَّمْسُ رَمَيْنَا۔ (رواه البخارى)

2660. Sayyiduna Wabarah رحمه الله said that he asked Sayyiduna Ibn Umar رضى الله عنه "When may I cast pebbles at the jamarat (on the 11th and 12th Dhul Hijjah)?" He said, "Cast them when your imam casts them." (He meant that he should follow one who knows these things better.) But, he repeated his query to him. He said, "we used to wait for the right time to do it and when the sun declined, we cast the pebbles."[1]

SEQUENCE OF RAMI JAMARAT

(٢٦٦١) وَعَنْ سَالِمٍ عَنِ ابْنِ عُمَرَ أَنَّهُ كَانَ يَرْمِي جَمْرَةَ الدُّنْيَا بِسَبْعِ حَصَيَاتٍ يُكَبِّرُ عَلٰى إِثْرِ كُلِّ حَصَاةٍ ثُمَّ يَتَقَدَّمُ حَتّٰى يُسْهِلَ فَيَقُوْمُ مُسْتَقْبِلَ الْقِبْلَةِ طَوِيْلًا وَيَدْعُوْ وَ يَرْفَعُ يَدَيْهِ ثُمَّ يَرْمِي الْوُسْطٰى بِسَبْعِ حَصَيَاتٍ يُكَبِّرُ كُلَّمَا رَمٰى بِحَصَاةٍ ثُمَّ يَاخُذُ بِذَاتِ الشِّمَالِ فَيُسْهِلُ وَيَقُوْمُ مُسْتَقْبِلَ الْقِبْلَةِ ثُمَّ يَدْعُوْ وَيَرْفَعُ يَدَيْهِ وَيَقُوْمُ طَوِيْلًا ثُمَّ يَرْمِي جَمْرَةَ ذَاتِ الْعَقَبَةِ مِنْ بَطْنِ الْوَادِيْ بِسَبْعِ حَصَيَاتٍ يُكَبِّرُ عِنْدَ كُلِّ حَصَاةٍ وَلَا يَقِفُ عِنْدَهَا ثُمَّ يَنْصَرِفُ فَيَقُوْلُ هٰكَذَا رَأَيْتُ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَفْعَلُهُ۔ (رواه البخارى)

2661. Sayyiduna Saalim رحمه الله said that Sayyiduna Ibn Umar رضى الله عنه used to cast seven pebbles at the nearest of the jamarat (which is jamarah oola) calling 'Allahu Akbar,at each casting. Then he went forward will he came to a smooth land where he stood facing the qiblah for a long time during which he made supplication with his hands raised (till the time it takes one to recite surah al-Baqarah). Then he cast seven pebbles at Jamrah wusta calling the takbir at each throw. Then, he moved to the left side and went till he came to smooth land, stood facing the qiblah and made supplication with raised hands, standing there for a long time till he finally cast seven pebbles at jamrah aqabah from the depth of the valley calling the takbir at each pebble he threw but did not stand near this jamrah. Then, he departed from there, saying "This is how I saw the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم do it."[1]

[1] Bukhari # 1746, Abu Dawud # 1972.

COMMENTARY: Though the foregoing sequence is sunnah(Practice of Holy Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم) according to the Hanafis, yet it is better not to upset it because this sequence is wajib (obligatory) in the sight of Imam Shafi'I رحمه الله and others. It is also sunnah(Practice of Holy Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم) to make the rami at all the jamrat one after the other, but Imam Maalik رحمه الله regards it as wajib (obligatory).

The rami at jamrah aqabah is made from the depths of the valley and it is a sunnah(Practice of Holy Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم). Hidayah has it that they may also be cast from the height but that would be against the sunnah(Practice of Holy Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم). No reason is given why standing and making supplication near the jamrah aqabah is not established. Some ulama (Scholars) have, however, suggested some reasons for that.

IS IT WAJIB (OBLIGATORY) OR SUNNAH(PRACTICE OF HOLY PROPHET MUHAMMAD صلى الله عليه وسلم) TO STOP OVERNIGHT IN MINA

(٢٦٦٢) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عُمَرَ قَالَ اسْتَأْذَنَ الْعَبَّاسُ بْنُ عَبْدِ الْمُطَّلِبِ رَسُولَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ أَنْ يَّبِيْتَ بِمَكَّةَ لَيَالِيَ مِنًى مِنْ أَجْلِ سِقَايَتِهٖ فَأَذِنَ لَهٗ۔ (متفق عليه)

2662. Sayyiduna Ibn Umar رضى الله عنه said that Sayyiduna Abbas ibn Abdul Muttalib رضى الله عنه sought permission of Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم to remain in Makkah on the nights that are spent in Mina because of his assignment of supplying water (of zamzam). So, he gave him permission.[2]

COMMENTARY: It is mustahab (desirable) to drink the water of zamzam after tawaf ifadah. There used to be several ponds near the well of zamzam for the convenience of the pilgrims. The supervision of this arrangement was in the hands of the Prophet Muhammad's صلى الله عليه وسلم uncle, Abbas ibn Abdul Muttalib رضى الله عنه. He had a team of assistants to discharge this assignment.

Many ulama (Scholars) maintain that it is wajib (obligatory) to stay in Mina on these nights. Imam Abu Hanifah رحمه الله says that it is sunnah(Practice of Holy Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم) and one verdict of Imam Shafi'I رحمه الله and Imam Ahmad رحمه الله agrees with him.

It must be understood that staying overnight means staying most of the night which is more than half of it. The same ruling applies to nights during which it is mustahab (desirable) to keep vigil in the night for worship, like the laylat ul qadr etc. To stay awake on these nights is to keep awake for most part of the night.

Imam Abu Hanifah رحمه الله and others point out that if it was wajib (obligatory) to stay overnight in Mina, then the prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم would not have permitted Sayyiduna Abbas رضى الله عنه to go to Makkah on these nights so it is sunnah(Practice of Holy

---

[1] Bukhari # 1752.

[2] Bukhari # 1745, Muslim # 346. 1315, Abu Dawud # 3065, Darimi # 1943, Musnad Ahmad 2-19.

Prophet Muhammad (صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم) to stay here.

Some hanafi ulama (Scholars) say that if anyone has a valid, strong reason to go out of Mina, then he may give up stay in Mina on the nights when one stays here. In others words, they means that it is not proper to give up the sunnah(Practice of Holy Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم) without reason.

THE PROPHET MUHAMMAD صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم AT THE PLACE OF DISTRIBUTION OF ZAMZAM

(٢٦٦٣) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ اَنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ جَاءَ اِلَى السِّقَايَةِ فَاسْتَسْقٰى فَقَالَ الْعَبَّاسُ يَا فَضْلُ اذْهَبْ اِلٰى اُمِّكَ فَأْتِ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ بِشَرَابٍ مِنْ عِنْدِهَا فَقَالَ اسْقِنِيْ فَقَالَ يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ اِنَّهُمْ يَجْعَلُوْنَ اَيْدِيَهُمْ فِيْهِ قَالَ اسْقِنِيْ فَشَرِبَ مِنْهُ ثُمَّ اَتٰى زَمْزَمَ وَهُمْ يَسْقُوْنَ وَيَعْمَلُوْنَ فِيْهَا فَقَالَ اعْمَلُوْا فَاِنَّكُمْ عَلٰى عَمَلٍ صَالِحٍ ثُمَّ قَالَ لَوْ لَا اَنْ تُغْلَبُوْا لَنَزَلْتُ حَتّٰى اَضَعَ الْحَبْلَ عَلٰى هٰذِهٖ وَ اَشَارَ اِلٰى عَاتِقِهٖ۔ (رواه البخاری)

2663. Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم came to the source of drinking water and sought some of it. Sayyiduna Al-Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ instructed Fadl to go to his mother and bring for Allah's Messenger some drink from her (out of the water of zamzam that she had). But, he again asked for water (from that pool). Sayyiduna Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ said, "O Messenger of Allah, people put their hands into it." But, he said "Give me to drink (from here. It does not matter if they put their hands into it)." He drank some of it.

Then he went to the (well of) zamzam where they strived hard to supply water. He urged them, Saying, 'Carry on, for you are doing a good task!" Then he said, "were it not that the people would presurise you, I would go down and put the rope on this." Pointing to his shoulder (He meant that the people would then vie with each other to emulate him).[1]

COMMENTARY: Sayyiduna Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ said that most of the people had dirty hands and they immersed their hands in the pool. He had fresh, pure zamzam at home and had instructed Fadl, his son, to bring for the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم from that. But, the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم did not accept that offer. He said that there was no harm in that and preferred to have water from the common pool. The people loved to drink water that remained after the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم had drunk as a means of blessing. Also, Sayyiduna Anas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated in a marfu form: "It is part of humbleness that a man drink what is left-over by his brother." However, what is generally quoted by people: (سور المؤمنین شفاء) (there is healing in the left-over of the believers), the ulama (Scholars) write that this hadith is unknown. There is no proof of its being sound.

According to this hadith under discussion, the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم did not come down from his camel to draw water from the well. But, according to the tradition of Sayyiduna Ata رضی اللہ عنہ, after he had performed the tawaf ifadah, he drew water from the well of zamzam in a bucket without anyone's help and dropped back into the well whatever remained in the bucket.

[1] Bukhari # 1635.

The fact is that the first time he did not alight from the she camel because of a heavy crowd. This is as the hadith of Ibn Abbas رضی الله عنه. Then he came again and, finding an opportunity, he pulled a bucketful of water. This is the hadith of Ata. رضی الله عنه.

THE PROPHET MUHAMMAD'S صلی الله علیه وسلم FAREWELL TAWAF

(٢٦٦٤) وَعَنْ اَنَسٍ اَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ صَلَّى الظُّهْرَ وَالْعَصْرَ وَالْمَغْرِبَ وَالْعِشَآءَ ثُمَّ رَقَدَ رَقْدَةً بِالْمُحَصَّبِ ثُمَّ رَكِبَ اِلَى الْبَيْتِ فَطَافَ بِهٖ۔ (رواه البخاری)

2664. Sayyiduna Anas رضی الله عنه said that the Prophet Muhammad صلی الله علیه وسلم offered the salah (prayer) of zuhr, asr, maghrib and isha in al-Muhassab. Then he rode to the House and performed the tawaf.[1]

COMMENTARY: Muhassab is a land where too many pebbles are found, but this one Al-Muhassab is the proper name of a place between Makkah and Madinah. It is called Abtah. Batha and Khayf Banu Kinanah. Hence, another version says that the Prophet Muhammad صلی الله علیه وسلم offered the salah (prayer) at abtah.

PROPHET MUHAMMAD'S صلی الله علیه وسلم SALAH (PRAYER) ON THE DAYS OF AT-TARWIYAH & AN-NAFR

(٢٦٦٥) وَعَنْ عَبْدِالْعَزِيْزِ بْنِ رُفَيْعٍ قَالَ سَأَلْتُ اَنَسَ بْنَ مَالِكٍ قُلْتُ اَخْبِرْنِىْ بِشَیْءٍ عَقَلْتَهٗ عَنْ رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَيْنَ صَلَّى الظُّهْرَ يَوْمَ التَّرْوِيَةِ قَالَ بِمِنًى قَالَ فَاَيْنَ صَلَّى الْعَصْرَ يَوْمَ النَّفْرِ قَالَ بِالْاَبْطَحِ ثُمَّ قَالَ افْعَلْ كَمَا يَفْعَلُ اُمَرَاؤُكَ۔ (متفق علیه)

2665. Sayyiduna Abdul Aziz ibn rufay رحمه الله said that he asked Sayyiduna Anas ibn Maalik to inform him what he knew about Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم, "Where did he offer the salah (prayer) of zuhr on the day of at-tarwiyah (which is 8th Dhul Hijjah)?" He said, "At Mina." Then he asked, "Where did he offer the salah (prayer) of asr on the day of an-nafr (Which is 13th of Dhul Hijjah)?" He said, "At al-Abtah" Then Anas رضی الله عنه advised him to do as his leaders do.[2]

COMMENTARY: He advised Abdul Aziz رحمه الله to do as the amir did because if he did otherwise he might suffer wrath of the amir. Moreover, it is not necessary in this case to offer salah (prayer) of zuhr and asr on the day of at-tarwiyah and,an nafr at the same place where the Prophet Muhammad صلی الله علیه وسلم offered these salah (prayer).

The preceding tradition mentions the salah (prayer) of zuhr in muhassab on the day of an-nafr. In the second hadith, Anas رضی الله عنه was not asked about it, so he said nothing.

IS IT SUNNAH TO STAY IN ABTAH?

(٢٦٦٦) وَعَنْ عَائِشَةَ قَالَ نُزُوْلُ الْاَبْطَحِ لَيْسَ بِسُنَّةٍ اِنَّمَا نَزَلَهٗ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لِاَنَّهٗ كَانَ اَسْمَحَ لِخُرُوْجِهٖ اِذَا خَرَجَ۔ (متفق علیه)

---

[1] Bukhari # 1756, Darimi # 1873.

[2] Bukhari # 1763, Muslim # 336-1309, Abu Dawud # 1912, Tirmidhi # 964, Nasa'i # 2997.

2666. Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنه said that it is not a sunnah(Practice of Holy Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم) to stop at Al-Abtah. Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم had stopped there only that it might be easier for him to depart (from Makkah) when he had returned from there. [1]

COMMENTARY: On the 13th Dhul Hijjah, when the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم returned, from mina, he stopped at abtah or Muhassab only to leave his luggage there and proceed to Makkah. After performing tawaf al-wada (farewell circumambulation) and when he decided to return to Madinah, he would travel lightly.

Some people, however, insist that it is a sunnah(Practice of Holy Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم) to stop at Muhassab and it is a part of the deeds of hajj. This is the view of Sayyiduna Ibn Umar رضى الله عنه. His evidence is that the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم had said in Mina. "Tomorrow, insha Allah, we shall be at Khayf Banu Kinanah (which is Muhassab) and stay there. The background of this was that it was here in khayf Banu Kinanah that the idolaters had covenanted a pact while the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلمwas in Makkah to interdict Banu Hashim and Banu Abdul Muttalib completely - socially and commercially - till they handed over the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم to them. Thus when Islam became dominant, the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم wished to make manifest the symbols of Islam in a place where till recently idolatry had dominated and had conspired against Islam. In this way, he expressed gratitude for Allah's blessings when He gave Islam power and dominance.

Tabarani رحمه الله has quoted Sayyiduna Umar رضى الله عنه in Awsat that it is a sunnah(Practice of Holy Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم) to stay overnight at Abtah on the day of an-nafr. Moreover, Umar رضى الله عنه used to command people to stay here on this night.

It is stated in the Hidayah, the most famous book of Hanafi fiqh, "The more correct fact is that the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم stayed in abtah for the night to demonstrate to the idolaters the power of Allah. The place where they had sat together to proscribe the Muslims and show their might came under Muslim dominance by the mercy of Allah. so it is sunnah(Practice of Holy Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم) to spend the night here.

However, some authorities assert that it is not a sunnah(Practice of Holy Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم) to spend the night in Muhassab because the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم stay was by a coincidence the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم freedman Abu Rafi رضى الله عنه who was incharge of the Prophet Muhammad's صلى الله عليه وسلم luggage stopped there. He had no prior command of the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم. Among those who say that the stay at Muhassab is not a sunnah(Practice of Holy Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم) are Sayyiduna ibn Abbas رضى الله عنه and Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها as may be deduced from the hadith under discussion (# 2666).

In short, the correct thing is that the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم had stayed in Muhassab even by a coincidence so, it is better that one should stay here as other sahabah (Prophet's companions) رضى الله عنهم and the righteous caliphs رضى الله عنه did. But, if any one does not stop here, then there is no harm in it.

---

[1] Bukhari # 1765, Muslim # 339-1311, Abu Dawud # 2008, Tirmidhi # 923, Ibn Majah # 3067, Musnad Ahmad 6-230.

PROPHET MUHAMMAD'S صلى الله عليه وسلم DEPARTURE AFTER THE FAREWELL TAWAF

(٢٦٦٧) وَعَنْهَا قَالَتْ اَحْرَمْتُ مِنَ التَّنْعِيْمِ بِعُمْرَةٍ فَدَخَلْتُ فَقَضَيْتُ عُمْرَتِيْ وَانْتَظَرَنِيْ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ بِالْاَبْطَحِ حَتّٰى فَرَغْتُ فَاَمَرَ النَّاسَ بِالرَّحِيْلِ فَخَرَجَ فَمَرَّ بِالْبَيْتِ فَطَافَ بِهٖ قَبْلَ صَلَاةِ الصُّبْحِ ثُمَّ خَرَجَ اِلَى الْمَدِيْنَةِ هٰذَا الْحَدِيْثُ مَا وَجَدْتُهٗ بِرِوَايَةِ الشَّيْخَيْنِ بَلْ بِرِوَايَةِ اَبِيْ دَاوٗدَ مَعَ اخْتِلَافٍ يَسِيْرٍ فِيْ اٰخِرِهٖ۔

2667. Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها narrated that she assumed the ihram (pilgrim-robe) for umrah at Tanim. She then came in and performed her umrah. Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم waited for her at Abtah till she had finished. Then he asked the People to set out and he to get out. As he come by the House, he performed the tawaf before the salah (prayer) of fajr. Then he went out towards Madinah. {This hadith was not found by the compiler in Bukhari and Muslim but in Abu Dawud with some difference}[1]

FAREWELL TAWAF IS WAJIB (OBLIGATORY)

(٢٦٦٨) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ قَالَ كَانَ النَّاسُ يَنْصَرِفُوْنَ فِيْ كُلِّ وَجْهٍ فَقَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَا يَنْفِرَنَّ اَحَدُكُمْ حَتّٰى يَكُوْنَ اٰخِرُ عَهْدِهٖ بِالْبَيْتِ اِلَّا اَنَّهٗ خُفِّفَ عَنِ الْحَائِضِ۔ (متفق عليه)

2668. Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضى الله عنه said that the people dispersed in every direction. So, Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "None of you must depart without fulfilling his last duty at the House, except that it is waived for the menstruating woman."[2]

COMMENTARY: The last thing a pilgrim does after doing all the rites of the pilgrimage is to perform a tawaf before he departs. It is called tawaf wada and also tawaf sadr and it is wajib (obligatory) on the aafaqi (a foreigner) though he may continue to stay in Makkah after that for as many more days as he likes, but it is better to perform it just before going from Makkah. In fact, Imam Abu Hanifah رحمه الله said that if anyone performs the tawaf wada (farewell) during the day but stays on till after isha, then it is better for him to make another tawaf wada (farewell) before departing from Makkah.

This tawaf is wajib (obligatory) neither on the Makkans nor on those who reside within the miqat. It is also not wajib (obligatory) on anyone who has settled in Makkah. And.intends to depart from there.

This tawaf is also not wajib (obligatory) on one who has missed his hajj. It is not wajib (obligatory) on one who performs the umrah.

Moreover, there is neither raml in this tawaf nor sa'I thereafter.

TAWAF WADA WAIVED IF THERE IS AN EXCUSE

(٢٦٦٩) وَعَنْ عَائِشَةَ قَالَتْ حَاضَتْ صَفِيَّةُ لَيْلَةَ النَّفْرِ فَقَالَتْ مَا اُرَانِيْ اِلَّا حَابِسَتَكُمْ قَالَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ عَقْرٰى حَلْقٰى اَطَافَتْ يَوْمَ النَّحْرِ قِيْلَ نَعَمْ قَالَ فَانْفِرِيْ۔ (متفق عليه)

2669. Sayyiduna Ayshah رضى الله عنها said that Sayyidah Safiyah experienced menstruation on the right preceding (or following see commentary) yawm un nafr

---

[1] Abu Dawud # 2006, but Masabih has it in Section I.

[2] Bukhari # 1755, Muslim # 379. 1327, Abu Dawud, Ibn Majah, Ahmad.

and lamented, 'I think I shall hold you back." The Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم expressed words of astonishment and regret, and asked, 'Had she performed the tawaf (of ziyarah) on the day of sacrifice?" He was told,"Yes" So, he said, "Go (no need to stay back)."[1]

COMMENTARY: The words (ليلة يوم النحر) the night preceding the day of sacrifice is the one on which the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم stayed in Muhassab, the night of 13th Dhul Hijjah. It must be borne in mind that in the references to hajj, the night is related to the day that has passed (as spoken in English) not to the day that will follow (as spoken in Arabic and Urdu, for instance Thursday night precedes Thursday and comes at sunset on Wednesday. In the light of this explanation, the translation of the hadith will have to be amended) the right of Yawm us nafr (13th Dhul Hijjah) is, therefore, the one that follows the day of 13th.

Sayyidah Safiyah رضى الله عنه presumed that tawaf wada could not be omitted even if there is a reason for that just as tawaf ziyarah could not be omitted. So, she said that she ill be the cause of detention of everyone till her menses ended and she had a both and performed the tawaf. The Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم had presumed that she had not made the tawaf ziyarah. On learning that she had, indeed, performed it, he said that she could return to Madinah without tawaf wada' because if there is a reason its wajib (obligatory) nature is waived. If, however, the tawaf ziyarah was pending, then she would have had to wait.

The words (عقرى حلقى) literally mean 'perish and to be wounded' and though it is a curse, the Arabs are accustomed to use such sentences out of love without meaning to curse.

SECTION II — اَلْفَصْلُ الثَّانِيْ

PROPHET'S ADVICE ON THE DAY OF SACRIFICE

(٢٦٧٠) عَنْ عَمْرِو بْنِ الْاَحْوَصِ قَالَ سَمِعْتُ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُوْلُ فِيْ حَجَّةِ الْوَدَاعِ اَيُّ يَوْمٍ هٰذَا قَالُوْا يَوْمُ الْحَجِّ الْاَكْبَرِ قَالَ فَاِنَّ دِمَاءَكُمْ وَاَمْوَالَكُمْ وَاَعْرَاضَكُمْ بَيْنَكُمْ حَرَامٌ كَحُرْمَةِ يَوْمِكُمْ هٰذَا اَلَا لَا يَجْنِيْ جَانٍ عَلٰى نَفْسِهٖ اَلَا لَا يَجْنِيْ جَانٍ عَلٰى وَلَدِهٖ وَلَا مَوْلُوْدٌ عَلٰى وَالِدِهٖ اَلَا وَاِنَّ الشَّيْطَانَ قَدْ اَيِسَ اَنْ يُّعْبَدَ فِيْ بَلَدِكُمْ هٰذَا اَبَدًا وَلٰكِنْ سَتَكُوْنُ لَهٗ طَاعَةٌ فِيْمَا تَحْتَقِرُوْنَ مِنْ اَعْمَالِكُمْ فَسَيَرْضٰى بِهٖ۔ رَوَاهُ ابْنُ مَاجَةَ وَالتِّرْمِذِيُّ وَصَحَّحَهٗ۔

2670. Sayyiduna Amir ibn al Ahwas رضى الله عنه narrated that he heard Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم ask the people on the day of the Farewell pilgrimage, 'what day is it today?" They said, So, indeed, your blood, your properties and your honour are sacred to each other of you as he sanctity of this your day in this your town. Know! A saw only wrong himself. Know! A wrongdoer must not wrong his child nor a child must wrong its parent. Indeed, the devil has despaired of ever being worshipped in this your town, yet obedience will be shown to him in what you consider minor deeds of no significance and you perform them He will be pleased with that."[2]

COMMENTARY: The great hajj, or hajj akbar, means the hajj itself, Allah says:

---

[1] Bukhari # 1731, Muslim # 387. 1211, Ibn Majah # 3072, Musnad Ahmad 6-85.

[2] Tirmidhi # 2166, Ibn Majah # 3055

وَاَذَانٌ مِّنَ اللّٰهِ وَرَسُوْلِهٖۤ اِلَى النَّاسِ يَوْمَ الْحَجِّ الْاَكْبَرِ اَنَّ اللّٰهَ بَرِىْۤءٌ مِّنَ الْمُشْرِكِيْنَ وَرَسُوْلُهٗ

{And (this is) a proclamation from Allah and His Messenger to (all) the people on the day of the Greater pilgrimage that Allah is free from obligation to the associators, and so is His Messenger.} (9:3)

The qualifying word akbar (great) is used with hajj because umrah is called hajj asghar (minor hajj). The well known exegete Baydawi رحمه الله said that eed ul adha, which is 10th Dhul Hijjjah, is called the day of hajj akbar because not only is hajj perfected this day but also all great deeds of hajj are performed this day. According to a tradition, during the farewell pilgrimage, the prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم stood near the jamrat on the day of sacrifice (eed ul adha) and said, "This is the day of hajj akbar (the great hajj)."

No wrongdoer wrongs his son... It means that wrongdoing of father or of son is not blamed on son or father respectively. The wrongdoer is himself blamed and seized. This is like the verse of the Quran;

وَلَا تَزِرُ وَازِرَةٌ وِّزْرَ اُخْرٰى

{No burdened soul will bear the burden of another} (17:15)

Of course, this is not limited to father and son but it is a universal concept. No one is blamed for another's faults, be they related or not.

Some exponents drop the word (الا) and hold that the sentence is negative to mean: 'no wrongdoer must wrong himself.' If anyone wrongs another then he actually wrongs himself, for, by doing so, he becomes liable to be punished.

The devil is despaired for ever that he would be worshipped in Makkah or would be obeyed by having anyone else worshipped. It means that no non Muslim would enter this town. It is a different thing that anyone comes disguised and worships someone other than Allah secretly.

However, deeds would be performed in obedience to the devil. They will be sins like slaying someone, robbing people and so on, and giving no thought to minor sins. Actually, one who does not worry about minor sins obeys the devil who is pleased with this attitude. Those deeds then lead him to more and a greater mischief.

(٢٦٧١) وَعَنْ رَافِعِ بْنِ عَمْرٍو الْمُزَنِيِّ قَالَ رَأَيْتُ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَخْطُبُ النَّاسَ بِمِنًى حِيْنَ ارْتَفَعَ الضُّحٰى عَلٰى بَغْلَةٍ شَهْبَاءَ وَعَلِيٌّ يُعَبِّرُ عَنْهُ وَالنَّاسُ بَيْنَ قَائِمٍ وَقَاعِدٍ۔ (رواه ابوداؤد)

2671. Sayyiduna Rafi ibn Amr al Muzani رضى الله عنه narrated that he saw Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم in Mina on the day of sacrifice in t he forenoon sitting on a mule who had hair reddish on top but grey at the roots. He addressed the people Sayyiduna Ali رضى الله عنه relayed whatever he said (for the convenience of those who were afar). The people were either seated or standing.[1]

SCHEDULE OF TAWAF ZIYARAH

(٢٦٧٢) وَعَنْ عَآئِشَةَ وَابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ اَنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَخَّرَ طَوَافَ الزِّيَارَةِ يَوْمَ النَّحْرِ اِلَى

---

[1] Abu Dawud # 1956.

اللَّيْلِ۔ (رواہ الترمذی وابوداؤد وابن ماجة)

2672. Sayyiduana Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہا and Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم deferred the tawaf ziyarah on the day of sacrifice till night.[1]

COMMENTARY: The Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم gave permission to women and others to put off the tawaf ziyarah on the day of sacrifice till nightfall. It does not say that he postponed his own tawaf ziyarah, for, he is known to have made it at the time of the sacrifice and then offered the salah (prayer) of zuhr in Makkah or Mina.

Teebi رحمہ اللہ said that Imam Shafi'I رحمہ اللہ hold its time commences after midnight of eed ul adha. Other imams say that it begins after dawn of that day and there is no closing time. Imam Abu Hanifah رحمہ اللہ holds that it is wajib (obligatory) in the days of sacrifice. After that dumm will be due and it will be wajib (obligatory) to slaughter an animal as penalty.

NO RAML IN TAWAF ZIYARAH

(٢٦٧٣) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ اَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَمْ يَرْمَلْ فِي السَّبْعِ الَّذِى اَفَاضَ فِيْهِ۔

(رواہ ابوداؤد وابن ماجة)

2673. Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم did not make ramal in the tawaf ziyarah.[2]

COMMENTARY: Ramal has been explained previously as walking rapidly while jerking shoulder and pulling out the chest.

The Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم did not observe ramal in tawaf ziyarah which is fard(compulsory) because he had observed that in tawaf qudum.

The ruling is based on this. If anyone has made there is no ramal in tawaf ziyarah and no sa'I thereafter. If anyone has not done both these things in tawaf qudum then he must do both of them with tawaf ziyarah.

WHEN DOES ONE IS SACRED STATE FIND THE PROHIBITED BECOME LAWFUL

(٢٦٧٤-٢٦٧٥) وَعَنْ عَآئِشَةَ اَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ اِذَا رَمٰى اَحَدُكُمْ جَمْرَةَ الْعَقَبَةِ فَقَدْ حَلَّ لَهُ كُلُّ شَيْءٍ اِلَّا النِّسَاءَ۔ رَوَاهُ فِيْ شَرْحِ السُّنَّةِ وَقَالَ اِسْنَادُهُ ضَعِيْفٌ وَفِيْ رِوَايَةِ اَحْمَدَ وَالنَّسَائِيِّ عَنِ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ قَالَ اِذَا رَمَى الْجَمْرَةَ فَقَدْ حَلَّ لَهُ كُلُّ شَيْءٍ اِلَّا النِّسَاءَ۔

2674. Sayyidah Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہا narrated that the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "when one of you casts pebbles at jamrat ul aqabah everything becomes lawful to him but not women."[3]

2675. Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that he said, "when he casts pebbles at the jamrah, everything becomes lawful to him but not women (after shaving or clipping hair)."[4]

---

[1] Abu Dawud # 2000, Tirmidhi # 921, Ibn Majah # 5059, Musnad Ahmad 1-309

[2] Abu Dawud # 2001, Ibn Majah # 3060.

[3] Abu Dawud # 1978, Daraqutni # 179, (Muwaqat) Musnad Ahmad 6-143, Sharh us sunnah(Practice of Holy Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم).

[4] Nasa'i # 3084, Musnad Ahmad

THE PROPHET MUHAMMAD'S صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم RAMI OF JAMARAT

(٢٦٧٦) وَعَنْهَا قَالَتْ اَفَاضَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مِنْ اٰخِرِ يَوْمِهٖ حِيْنَ صَلَّى الظُّهْرَ ثُمَّ رَجَعَ اِلٰى مِنًى فَمَكَثَ بِهَا لَيَالِيَ اَيَّامِ التَّشْرِيْقِ يَرْمِي الْجَمْرَةَ اِذَا زَالَتِ الشَّمْسُ كُلَّ جَمْرَةٍ بِسَبْعِ حَصَيَاتٍ يُكَبِّرُ مَعَ كُلِّ حَصَاةٍ وَيَقِفُ عِنْدَ الْاُوْلٰى وَالثَّانِيَةِ فَيُطِيْلُ الْقِيَامَ وَيَتَضَرَّعُ وَيَرْمِي الثَّالِثَةَ فَلَا يَقِفُ عِنْدَهَا۔ (رواہ ابوداؤد)

2676. Sayyidah Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہا reported that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم observed that fard(compulsory) tawaf towards t he end of his day when he offered the salah (prayer) of zuhr. Then, he returned to Mina and stayed there through the nights of the days of tashriq (11th, 12th, 13th Dhul Hijjah). He threw pebbles at the jamrah after the declination of the sun, casting seven at each and calling the takbir simultaneously with each pebble. He stood long at the first and the second making supplication humbly. And he cast pebbles at the third but did not stand next to it.[1]

COMMENTARY: This hadith says explicitly that the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم offered the salah (prayer) of zuhr on the 10th Dhul Hijjah in Makkah, not in Mina.

He did not stand next to jamrah aqabah, but it does not imply that he simply did not stand. Rather, he did not stand long for supplication, but made supplication while he was in motion from there.

SEQUENCE OF RAMI ON DAYS OF TASHRIQ

(٢٦٧٧) وَعَنْ اَبِي الْبَدَّاحِ بْنِ عَاصِمِ بْنِ عَدِيٍّ عَنْ اَبِيْهِ قَالَ رَخَّصَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لِرِعَاءِ الْاِبِلِ الْبَيْتُوْتَةِ اَنْ يَرْمُوْا يَوْمَ النَّحْرِ ثُمَّ يَجْمَعُوْا رَمْيَ يَوْمَيْنِ بَعْدَ يَوْمِ النَّحْرِ فَيَرْمُوْهُ فِيْ اَحَدِهِمَا۔ رَوَاهُ مَالِكٌ وَالتِّرْمِذِيُّ وَالنَّسَائِيُّ وَقَالَ التِّرْمِذِيُّ هٰذَا حَدِيْثٌ صَحِيْحٌ۔

2677. Sayyiduna Abul Badah ibn Aasim ibn Adi رحمہ اللہ reported on he authority of his father that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم gave permission to the hardsmen of the camels to skip the night of Mina and to cast pebbles on the day of sacrifice. Thereafter, they cold make the casting (of pebbles of two days together after the day of sacrifice and cast on any of these days.[2]

COMMENTARY: Teebi رحمہ اللہ said that the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم had permitted the shepherds not to stay the nights in Mina during the days of tashriq to be able to tend to their animals.

They were to cast pebbles on the jamrah aqabah on the tenth, skip the eleventh and cast pebbles on twelfth for two days together.

The ulama (Scholars) say that the casting of the eleventh cannot be advanced and of the twelfth cannot be made on the eleventh. But, it can be put off twelfth.

---

[1] Abu Dawud # 1973, Daraqutni # 179 (Muwaqit) Musnad Ahmad 6-90.

[2] Abu Dawud # 1975, Tirmidhi # 956, Nasa'i # 3069, Ibn Majah # 3037, Muwatta Maalik # 218 (Hajj) Musnad Ahmad 5-450.

CHAPTER - XII

THAT FROM WHICH ONE WHO IS IN IHRAM (PILGRIM-ROBE) MUST REFRAIN

بَابُ مَا يَجْتَنِبُهُ الْمُحْرِمُ

We have stated earlier that with the assumption of the ihram (pilgrim-robe), certain things become unlawful to the muhrim. It is necessary for him to abstain from them. Some of them are such that if perpetrated dumm which is to slaughter an animal, does not become wajib (obligatory) on him. In this chapter those things are mentioned from which a muhrim must keep away. Additionally. Such things are also stated as are permissible to him.

Some of these prohibited things when perpetrated make sadaqah (charity) wajib (obligatory) to the extent of half a sa (which is one kilogram and 633 grams) of wheat, or one sa' (which is three kilograms and 266 grams) of barley.

Some make a lesser amount of sadaqah (charity) wajib (obligatory).

Some call for any unspecified thing in a little quantity as wajib (obligatory) (A muhrim is one who has assumed the ihram (pilgrim-robe).)

SECTION I — اَلْفَصْلُ الْاَوَّلُ

THAT WHICH HE IS DISALLOWED TO WEAR

(٢٦٧٨) عَنْ عَبْدِاللّٰهِ بْنِ عُمَرَ اَنَّ رَجُلًا سَاَلَ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَايَلْبَسُ الْمُحْرِمُ مِنَ الثِّيَابِ فَقَالَ لَا تَلْبَسُوا الْقُمُصَ وَلَا الْعِمَائِمَ وَلَا السَّرَاوِيْلَاتِ وَلَا الْبَرَانِسَ وَلَا الْخِفَافَ اِلَّا اَحَدٌ لَا يَجِدُ نَعْلَيْنِ فَيَلْبَسْ خُفَّيْنِ وَلْيَقْطَعْهُمَا اَسْفَلَ مِنَ الْكَعْبَيْنِ وَلَا تَلْبَسُوْا مِنَ الثِّيَابِ شَيْئًا مَسَّهُ زَعْفَرَانٌ وَلَا وَرْسٌ۔ مُتَّفَقٌ عَلَيْهِ وَزَادَ الْبُخَارِيُّ فِي رِوَايَةٍ وَلَا تَنْتَقِبُ الْمَرْاَةُ الْمُحْرِمَةُ وَلَا تَلْبَسِ الْقُفَّازَيْنِ۔

2678. Sayyiduna Abdullah ibn Umar رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that a man asked Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم, "What may a muhrim wear of the clothing?" He said, 'Do not wear the shirt turbans, trousers, hooded cloaks, or socks but if any of you does not have sandals then he may wear socks cutting them below the ankles. And do not wear clothing on which saffron or wurs is applied."

According to a version of Bukhari, he also said, "A woman muhrim should not put a veil over her face and not wear hand gloves."[1]

COMMENTARY: The shirt, trousers, etc. may not be worn in the normal manner, but may be thrown over, or wrapped round, the body to cover the nakedness. This will not amount to wearing them.

The same applies to the cap, turban or head coverings like burnus. If anything unconventional is carried on the head then it is not wearing it. A pitcher or any vessel may be carried on the head.

As for the socks, Imam Abu Hanifah رحمہ اللہ means the bone at the back of the foot and Imam Shafi'I رحمہ اللہ means the ankles as generally understood and which are washed in ablution.

---

[1] Bukhari # 1542, Muslim # 1-1177, Tirmidhi # 834, Abu Dawud # 1823, Nasa'i # 2667, Ibn Majah # 2929, Darimi # 1798, Muwatta Maalik # 8 (Hajj), Musnad Ahmad 2-32.

They must be bared.

The scholars differ on whether one who does not have sandals and puts on socks, will he have to pay the fidyah (ransom) as wajib (obligatory)? Imam Maalik رحمه الله and Imam Shafi'I رحمه الله say that nothing is wajib (obligatory) on him, but Imam Abu Hanifah رحمه الله says that it is wajib (obligatory) on him to pay the fidyah just as one who is in a state of ihram (pilgrim-robe) is compelled to shave his hair for some reason then he may do so and pay the fidyah.

Wurs is a kind of grass yellowish in colour. It is used for dying. Clothes dyed in saffron wars are disallowed because these things have fragrance.

Women may not veil their faces but they may conceal their faces in such a way that the covering does not touch their faces. The Hanafis also forbid men from covering their faces while they are in a state of ihram (pilgrim-robe). Imam Maalik رحمه الله and Imam Ahmad رحمه الله also hold the same opinion according to one version. However, Imam Shafi'I رحمه الله holds a different opinion.

It is disallowed to sit in a howdah if the head touches it, otherwise it is not disallowed. It is also not allowed to stand underneath the covering of the ka'bah and a tent if the head touches it, otherwise it is not disallowed.

(٢٦٧٩) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ قَالَ سَمِعْتُ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَخْطُبُ وَهُوَ يَقُوْلُ إِذَا لَمْ يَجِدِ الْمُحْرِمُ نَعْلَيْنِ لَبِسَ خُفَّيْنِ وَإِذَا لَمْ يَجِدْ إِزَارًا لَبِسَ سَرَاوِيْلَ۔ (متفق عليه)

2679. Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضی الله عنه narrated that he heard Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم say while he delivered a sermon, "When the muhrim does not find shoes, he may put on socks. And when he does not find the waist wrapper, he may wear trousers."[1]

COMMENTARY: When a waist wrapper is not available, the pilgrim may wear trousers. According to Imam Shafi'I رحمه الله no fidyah will be wajib (obligatory) on him. Imam Abu Hanifah رحمه الله said that he should tear the trousers and wrap them around, but if he wears them in the conventional fashion then he will be liable to pay dumm which means that it is wajib (obligatory) on him to slaughter an animal.

(٢٦٨٠) وَعَنْ يَعْلَى ابْنِ أُمَيَّةَ قَالَ كُنَّا عِنْدَ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ بِالْجِعِرَّانَةِ إِذَا جَاءَهُ رَجُلٌ أَعْرَابِيٌّ عَلَيْهِ جُبَّةٌ وَهُوَ مُتَضَمِّخٌ بِالْخَلُوْقِ فَقَالَ يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ إِنِّي أَحْرَمْتُ بِالْعُمْرَةِ وَهٰذِهٖ عَلَيَّ فَقَالَ أَمَّا الطِّيْبُ الَّذِي بِكَ فَاغْسِلْهُ ثَلَاثَ مَرَّاتٍ وَأَمَّا الْجُبَّةُ فَانْزِعْهَا ثُمَّ اصْنَعْ فِي عُمْرَتِكَ كَمَا تَصْنَعُ فِي حَجِّكَ۔ (متفق عليه)

2680. Sayyiduna Ya'la ibn Umayyah رضی الله عنه narrated: We were with the prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم in ji'ranah when a villager came to him wearing an overflowing long coat heavily perfumed with khuluq (prepared with saffron and of Yellowish red colour). He submitted, "O Messenger of Allah, I assumed the ihram (pilgrim-robe) of umrah while I had this coat on me." He said, "Wash off the perfume that is on you three times and as for the shirt, take it off. Then perform your umrah as you would perform your hajj."[2]

---

[1] Bukhari # 1841, Muslim # 4-1178, Abu Dawud # 1829, Nasa'i # 2671, Ibn Majah # 2931, Darimi # 1799, Musnad Ahmad 1-215.

[2] Bukhari # 1536, Muslim # 6-1180, Abu Dawud # 1819

COMMENTARY: Men are forbidden to use saffron; and Khuluq is prepared chiefly with saffron. So the prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم asked him to wash it off. He said that it should be done three times only to get rid of it absolutely, otherwise the purpose was to remove it.

The concluding sentence means that whatever is forbidden to one who has assumed the ihram (pilgrim-robe) of hajj is also forbidden to the pilgrim who performs umrah.

RULING: It is allowed to a muhrim to apply collyrium that is not perfumed provided it is not done to beautify oneself. If anyone applies scented collyrium, it is makruh (unbecoming) even if that be not for adornment.

Whatever is forbidden because of the ihram (pilgrim-robe) will make fidyah essential if perpetrated willfully according to the unanimous verdict of the ulama (Scholars). But, if anyone does that unintentionally then fidyah will not be wajib (obligatory) according to Imam Shafi'I رحمه الله, Thawri رحمه الله, Ahmad رحمه الله and Ishaq رحمه الله. On the other hands. Imam Abu Hanifah رحمه الله and Imam Maalik رحمه الله hold that, even in this case, fidyah is wajib (obligatory).

CONTRACTING MARRIAGE WHILE IN A STATE OF IHRAM (PILGRIM-ROBE)

(٢٦٨١) وَعَنْ عُثْمَانَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَا يَنْكِحُ الْمُحْرِمُ وَلَا يُنْكَحُ وَلَا يَخْطُبُ۔

(رواه مسلم)

2681. Sayyiduna Uthman رضى الله عنه said that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "The muhrim should not marry and should not give someone on marriage (as a guardian or attorney). He also should not undertake to marry."[1]

COMMENTARY: Imam Shafi'I رحمه الله and most of the scholars hold that it is makruh(unbecoming) tahrimi (disliked to the point of being unlawful) to marry oneself or get someone else married. To make a betrothal is makruh(unbecoming) tanzihi (approaching lawful but disliked). Imam Abu Hanifah رحمه الله holds that all these three things are forbidden as makruh(unbecoming) tanzihi, citing the prophet Muhammad's صلى الله عليه وسلم marriage to Sayyidah Maymunah. رضى الله عنه

(٢٦٨٢) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ اَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ تَزَوَّجَ مَيْمُوْنَةَ وَهُوَ مُحْرِمٌ۔ (متفق عليه)

2682. Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضى الله عنه narrated that the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم married Sayyidah Maymunah رضى الله عنه while he was a muhrim (having assumed the ihram (pilgrim-robe) for the redeeming umrah).[2]

(٢٦٨٣) وَعَنْ يَزِيْدَ بْنِ الْاَصَمِّ ابْنِ اُخْتِ مَيْمُوْنَةَ عَنْ مَيْمُوْنَةَ اَنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ تَزَوَّجَهَا وَهُوَ حَلَالٌ۔ رَوَاهُ مُسْلِمٌ قَالَ الشَّيْخُ الْاِمَامُ مُحِيُّ السُّنَّةِ وَالْاَكْثَرُوْنَ عَلٰى اَنَّهُ تَزَوَّجَهَا حَلَالًا وَظَهَرَ اَمْرُ تَزْوِيْجِهَا وَهُوَ مُحْرِمٌ ثُمَّ بَنٰى بِهَا وَهُوَ حَلَالٌ بِسَرِفَ فِيْ طَرِيْقِ مَكَّةَ۔

2683. Sayyiduna Yazid ibn al-Asamm رحمه الله the nephew of Sayyidah Maymunah, رضى

---

[1] Muslim # 42-2409, Abu Dawud # 1841, Tirmidhi # 841, Nasa'i # 2844, Ibn Majah # 1966, Darimi # 2198, Muwatta Maalik # 70 (Hajj) Musnad Ahmad 1-67.

[2] Bukhari # 1837, Muslim # 46-1410, Abu Dawud # 1844, Tirmidhi # 843, Nasa'i # 2840, Ibn Majah # 1965, Darimi # 1822, Musnad Ahmad 1-266.

رضی اللہ عنہ said on the authority of Sayyidah Maymunah رضی اللہ عنہ that when Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم married her, he was not muhrim.[1]

Shaykh Imam Muhyi us-sunnah(Practice of Holy Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم) asserted that most ulama (Scholars) (apart from Abu Hanifah) رضی اللہ عنہ believe that he married her when he was not a muhrim, but he disclosed the fact of his marriage with her while he was a muhrim. Later, he consummated his marriage with her while he was out of the sacred state (of the ihram (pilgrim-robe)) at Sarif which lies on the route to Makkah.

COMMENTARY: As stated earlier (harith # 2532) Sarif is a place about six miles from Makkah and about three miles to the north of Tan'im. We stated the strange coincidence at Sarif where Sayyidah Mymunah رضی اللہ عنہ was married, her marriage was consummated and she died too. All three things transpired here.

The two consecutive hadith here contradict one another. The Hanafis go by the hadith of Ibn Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ who was more knowledgeable and had more retentive memory than Yazid رحمہ اللہ. Also he was more sagacious. Besides, Ibn Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ hadith is carried by both Bukhari and Muslim, but Yazid's by only Muslim.

As for the hadith (# 2681) of Sayyiduna Uthman رضی اللہ عنہ that a muhrim should not marry, the Hanafis say that it does not prescribe marriage outright. It only means to point out that it is not reasonable to marry while one is engaged in a form of worship. As we stated there against it is makruh(unbecoming) tanzihi.

The Shafi'is explain that the prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم declared his marriage to her when he was a muhrim and that ibn Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ had not known of it till then, so he presumed that the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم had married while he was a muhrim. This explanation by the Shafi'is is at best a mere formality.

HAIR MAY BE WASHED

(٢٦٨٤) وَعَنْ اَبِي اَيُّوْبَ اَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ كَانَ يَغْسِلُ رَأْسَهٗ وَهُوَ مُحْرِمٌ۔ (متفق علیه)

2684. Sayyiduna Abu Ayyub رضی اللہ عنہ said that the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم used to wash his head while he was a muhrim.[2]

COMMENTARY: While it is allowed to wash the head, the muhrim must be careful not to break any hair. If he uses marshmallows then according to Imam Abu Hanifah رحمہ اللہ and Imam Maalik رحمہ اللہ dumm would be wajib (obligatory) on him and he would have to slaughter an animal. The reason is Khatmi (or marsh mellows) is scented and it also kills lice. However, soap that is not perfumed to lotus leaves or such other things may be used for washing head and they do not make anything wajib (obligatory) as compensation.

ALLOWED TO CUP ONESELF

(٢٦٨٥) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ قَالَ احْتَجَمَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَهُوَ مُحْرِمٌ۔ (متفق علیه)

2685. Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ said that the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم had

---

[1] Muslim # 48-1411, Abu Dawud # 1843, Tirmidhi # 846, Ibn Majah # 1964, Musnad Ahmad 6-335.

[2] Bukhari # 1840, Muslim # 91-1205, Abu Dawud # 1840, Nasa'i # 2665, Ibn Majah # 2934, Musnad Ahmad 5-418.

himself cupped whle he was a muhrim.[1]

COMMENTARY: Most scholars say that in a state of ihram (pilgrim-robe), cupping is permitted provided on hair breaks.

ABOUT COLLYRIUM

(٢٦٨٦) وَعَنْ عُثْمَانَ حَدَّثَ عَنْ رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فِي الرَّجُلِ إِذَا اشْتَكَى عَيْنَيْهِ وَهُوَ مُحْرِمٌ ضَمَّدَهُمَا بِالصَّبِرِ۔ (رواہ مسلم)

2686. Sayyiduna Uthman رضی اللہ عنہ narrated a hadith of Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم about a muhrim who has a complaint in his eyes - or his eyesight becomes weak - then he may bandage aloes to his eyes.[2]

COMMENTARY: While this translation of bandage for (تضمید) is from Taj ul Masadir, some ulama (Scholars) say that it means to apply inside the eyes so like collyrium, aloes is applied inside. Teebi رحمہ اللہ said that it is to bandage a wound. It is also to apply medicine to a wound. As stated earlier, collyrium may be applied if it is not scented and if it is not used to adorn oneself otherwise it is makruh(unbecoming).

If collyrium is lightly scanted then only sadaqah (charity) (charity) will be wajib (obligatory). If it is heavily scented then dumm will become wajib (obligatory) and an animal should be sacrificed. If a muhrim bandages any of his limbs apart from his head and face then though nothing is wajib (obligatory) on him, yet it is makruh(unbecoming). If he covers his head or face to the extend of one fourth or more with cloth or any thing then dumm will be due from him. If he covers less then one-fourth of it. Then only sadaqah (charity) (charity) will be wajib (obligatory).

PUTTING SHADE OVER HEAD

(٢٦٨٧) وَعَنْ أُمِّ الْحُصَيْنِ قَالَتْ رَأَيْتُ أُسَامَةَ وَبِلَالًا وَأَحَدُهُمَا آخِذٌ بِخِطَامِ نَاقَةِ رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَالْآخَرُ رَافِعٌ ثَوْبَهُ يَسْتُرُهُ مِنَ الْحَرِّ حَتّٰى رَمٰى جَمْرَةَ الْعَقَبَةِ۔ (رواہ مسلم)

2687. Sayyidah Umm al-Husayn narrated that she saw Sayyiduna Usamah رضی اللہ عنہ and Sayyiduna Bilal رضی اللہ عنہ. One of them held the helter of the she-camel of Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم and the other covered him with his garment raised high from the heat, till he had cast pebbles at the jamrah al-aqabah.[3]

COMMENTARY: Sayyiduna Usamah رضی اللہ عنہ had raised the cloth fairly high so that it did not touch the prophet Muhammad's صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم head.

Most ulama (Scholars) abide by this hadith and say that as long as the cloth does not touch the muhrim's head, he is allowed to shelter himself with it. But Imam Maalik رحمہ اللہ and Imam Ahmad say that it is makruh(unbecoming) to do so.

MAKING UP FOR SHAVING HEAD

(٢٦٨٨) وَعَنْ كَعْبِ بْنِ عُجْرَةَ أَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَرَّبِهٖ وَهُوَ بِالْحُدَيْبِيَّةِ قَبْلَ أَنْ يَدْخُلَ مَكَّةَ

---

[1] Bukhari # 1835, Muslim # 87-1202, Abu Dawud # 1835, Tirmidhi # 840, Nasa'i # 2845, Ibn Majah # 3081, Darimi # 1819, Musnad Ahmad 1-215.

[2] Muslim # 840, Nasa'i # 2845, Ibn Majah # 3081, Darimi # 1819, Musnad Ahmad 1-215.

[3] Muslim # 312-1298, Abu Dawud # 1834, Nasa'i # 3060.

وَهُوَ مُحْرِمٌ وَهُوَ يُوْقِدُ تَحْتَ قِدْرٍ وَالْقَمْلُ تَتَهَافَتُ عَلٰى وَجْهِهٖ فَقَالَ اَتُؤْذِيْكَ هَوَامُّكَ قَالَ نَعَمْ قَالَ فَاحْلِقْ رَأْسَكَ وَاَطْعِمْ فَرَقًا بَيْنَ سِتَّةِ مَسَاكِيْنَ وَالْفَرَقُ ثَلَاثَةُ اٰصُعٍ اَوْصُمْ ثَلَاثَةَ اَيَّامٍ اَوِانْسُكْ نَسِيْكَةً۔ (متفق عليه)

2688. Sayyiduna Ka'b ibn Ujrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم passed by him at Hudaybiyah while he was a Muhrim before he could enter Makkah. Ka'b was kindling a fire under a vessel. Lice dropped on his face profusely. The Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم asked him, "Do your insects irk you?" He submitted, "Yes!" So, he said, "Shave your head and feed a faraq to six needy people. A faraq is three sa's Or, fast three days, or sacrifice an animal that is eligible to slaughter."[1]

COMMENTARY: Sayyiduna Ka'b ibn Ujrah رضی اللہ عنہ was a glorious ansar sahabi. He was present at Hudaybiyah when the peace treaty was worked out. The story of his Islam is very interesting and lesson. Bearing.

He had an idol that he worshiped. Ubadah ibn Samit رضی اللہ عنہ was his friend. One day he came to Ka'b who had worshipped the idol and departed from his house. Ubadah رضی اللہ عنہ took the opportunity, went in and smashed t he idol. When Ka'b returned home, he saw his idol in pieces and learnt that Ubadah رضی اللہ عنہ, but checked himself and wondered why the idol had not defended itself. It had no power to do it. That brought a change in him and the darkness of idolatry gave way to light of faith in his heart and mind. He embraced Islam. Truly, when Allah guides anyone, He enables him to receive guidance.

This hadith allows anyone afflicted to shave his head and make an atonement. It is a commentary of the verse:

فَمَنْ كَانَ مِنْكُمْ مَّرِيْضًا اَوْبِهٖ اَذًى مِّنْ رَّاْسِهٖ فَفِدْيَةٌ مِنْ صِيَامٍ اَوْصَدَقَةٍ اَوْنُسُكٍ

{If any of you is ill or has an ailment of the head, he shall effect a redemption by fasting, or by giving alms, or by any other act of worship} (2:196)

SECTION II اَلْفَصْلُ الثَّانِي

WHAT IS FORBIDDEN TO WOMEN WHO ARE IN IHRAM (PILGRIM-ROBE)

(٢٦٨٩) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عُمَرَ اَنَّهٗ سَمِعَ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَنْهٰى النِّسَاءَ فِيْ اِحْرَامِهِنَّ عَنِ الْقُفَّازَيْنِ وَالنِّقَابِ وَمَامَسَّ الْوَرْسُ وَالزَّعْفَرَانُ مِنَ الثِّيَابِ وَلْتَلْبَسْ بَعْدَ ذٰلِكَ مَا اَحَبَّتْ مِنْ اَلْوَانِ الثِّيَابِ مُعَصْفَرًا اَوْخَزًّا اَوْ حُلِيًّا اَوْ سَرَاوِيْلَ اَوْ قَمِيْصٍ اَوْ خُفٍّ۔ (رواه ابوداؤد)

2689. Sayyiduna Ibn Umar رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that he heard Allah's Messenger رضی اللہ عنہ forbid women to wear hand gloves, veils (that touch their faces) or any garment to which wars or saffron is applied when they are in the sacred state (having assumed the ihram (pilgrim-robe)). After that, they may wear whatever garments they like dyed yellow, silk jwellery, trousers, shirts or socks.[2]

COMMENTARY: The words in the hadith (بعد ذلک) (after that) are interpreted by shaykh

---

[1] Bukhari # 1814, Muslim # 83-1201, Tirmidhi # 954, Muwatta Maalik # 238 (Hajj), Musnad Ahmad 1-241.

[2] Abu Dawud 1827.

Abdul Haq Muhaddith Dahlawi رحمه الله to mean 'after relinquishing the ihram (pilgrim-robe). But, Mulla Ali Qari رحمه الله had interpreted them to mean 'after these named things.' It is 'apart from those things that are forbidden in the hadith' and she may wear whatever other kind of clothing.

Mulla Ali Qari رحمه الله also wrote that (after interpreting (بعد ذلک) in this manner) the hadith apparently says that while it is disallowed t o wear garment dyed in saffron when the pilgrim is in t he state of ihram (pilgrim-robe), yet it is not disallowed to wear clothing dyed with sunflower, However, the Hanafis hold that dyed garments are disallowed to a pilgrim when he has assumed the ihram (pilgrim-robe). It is stated in books of high that if a muhrim wears clothing dyed in saffron or sunflower for one day then dumm will become wajib (obligatory) on him, for less than one day then sadaqah (charity) will become due.

Hence it is better to interpret (بعد ذلک) as Shaykh Abdul Haq رحمه الله has interpret ed. Or, we may say that the hadith speaks of clothing dyed with the sunflower that has been washed and its fragrance is gone.

Teebi رحمه الله said that jewellery is mentioned symbolically.

HOW TO DRAW THE VEIL IN IHRAM (PILGRIM-ROBE)

(٢٦٩٠) وَعَنْ عَائِشَةَ قَالَتْ كَانَ الرُّكْبَانُ يَمُرُّوْنَ بِنَا وَنَحْنُ مَعَ رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مُحْرِمَاتٌ فَإِذَا حَاذُوْا بِنَا سَدَلَتْ بِنَا إِحْدَانَا جِلْبَابَهَا مِنْ رَأْسِهَا عَلٰى وَجْهِهَا فَإِذَا جَاوَزُوْنَا كَشَفْنَاهُ۔ رَوَاهُ أَبُوْدَاوُدَ وَلِابْنِ مَاجَةَ مَعْنَاهُ۔

2690. Sayyidah Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہا said that they were with Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم in a state of ihram (pilgrim-robe) (so their faces were uncovered). Riders would pass t hem. When they came near to them each of them would drop her covering sheet from her head over her face (such that it did not touch the face). When they were gone, they uncovered their faces.[1]

PERFUMED OIL DISALLOWED IN IHRAM (PILGRIM-ROBE)

(٢٦٩١) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عُمَرَ أَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ كَانَ يَدَّهِنُ بِالزَّيْتِ وَهُوَ مُحْرِمٌ غَيْرُ الْمُقَتَّتِ يَعْنِي غَيْرَ الْمُطَيَّبِ۔ (رواه الترمذی)

2691. Sayyiduna Ibn Umar رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that even as a muhrim the prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم used to apply to himself olive oil that was not perfumed.[2]

COMMENTARY: The word (مقتت) (muqattat) is oil that is cooked after sweet-smelling flowers are immersed in it. Or a scanted oil is mixed with this oil.

It is makruh(unbecoming) to use scanted oil when one is in a state of the ihram (pilgrim-robe). If a mahrim applied perfumed oil of any kind on allot one of his limbs, or on many or all of his limbs, then, according to the Hanafis, he will have to alone with a dumm, meaning that it is wajib (obligatory) to slaughter an animal. In fact, Imam Abu Hanifah رضی اللہ عنہ holds that if olive oil or sesame oil is applied in large quantity then, even if there is no

---

[1] Abu Dawud # 1833, Ibn Majah # 2935, Musnad Ahmad 6-30, (Ibn Majah is similar)

[2] Tirmidhi # 964, Ibn Majah # 3083, Musnad Ahmad 2-145.

perfume, dumm will be wajib (obligatory) but his two companions Imam Abu Yusuf رحمه الله and Imam Muhammad رحمه الله hold that sadaqah (charity) is wajib (obligatory). However, this difference of opinion is only when both oils are un perfumed and not cooked with frequent flowers. If that is so (and they are perfumed) then the unanimous ruling is that dumm is wajib (obligatory) and there is no differing opinion. Besides, the foregoing difference of opinion is when the oil is applied in large quantity. If a small quantity is applied then they all agree that only sadaqah (charity) is wajib (obligatory)

Moreover, dumm or sadaqah (charity) will be wajib (obligatory) on using these oils if they are used only for fragrance. But, if they are used as medicine then the unanimous decision is that nothing will be wajib (obligatory).

The question of musk and other perfume is different from this issue. If they are used then dumm will be wajib (obligatory) in any case whether used as perfume for fragrance or as medicine.

SECTION III الفصل الثالث

THAWING STITCHED GARMENTS OVER A MUHRIM

(٢٦٩٢) وَعَنْ نَافِعٍ أَنَّ ابْنَ عُمَرَ وَجَدَ الْقُرَّ فَقَالَ أَلْقِ عَلَيَّ ثَوْبًا يَا نَافِعُ فَأَلْقَيْتُ عَلَيْهِ بُرْنُسًا فَقَالَ تُلْقِي عَلَيَّ هٰذَا وَقَدْ نَهٰى رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ أَنْ يَلْبَسَهُ الْمُحْرِمُ۔ (رواه ابوداؤد)

2692. Sayyiduna Nafi' رحمه الله narrated that (when he was in a state of ihram (pilgrim-robe)) Sayyiduna Ibn Umar رضى الله عنه felt cold that and said, "Throw over me a garment, O Nafi." He threw over him a hooded cloak, but he protested, "Do you throw this over me when Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم has forbidden the muhrim to wear this?"[1]

COMMENTARY: The Hanafis say that it is disallowed to wear stitched garments when one is in the state of ihram (pilgrim-robe), but he may throw them over himself in an unconventional manner for instance as a blanket is thrown. This has been explained earlier. Perhaps Ibn Umar رضى الله عنه abstained from using stitched garments in any manner or Nafi may have covered his head too.

THE PROPHET MUHAMMAD صلى الله عليه وسلم HAD HIMSELF CUPPED

(٢٦٩٣) وَعَنْ عَبْدِ اللّٰهِ ابْنِ مَالِكٍ ابْنِ بُحَيْنَةَ قَالَ احْتَجَمَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَهُوَ مُحْرِمٌ بِلَحْيِ جَمَلٍ مِنْ طَرِيْقِ مَكَّةَ فِيْ وَسَطِ رَأْسِهٖ۔ (متفق عليه)

2693. Sayyiduna Abdullah ibn Maalik (End) Ibn Buhaynal رضى الله عنه said that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم had himself cupped at lahy Jamal (a place) on the road to Makkah in the middle of his head. At that time, he was a muhrim.[2]

COMMENTARY: Abdullah's father was Maalik and mother was Buhaynah. He was known as Ibn Maalik as well as Ibn Buhaynah.

There must have been a reason for the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم to have had himself cupped in the middle of his head where because of that some hair would have broken definitely. If a muhrim has himself cupped where there is no hair then no fidyah is wajib (obligatory).

---

[1] Abu Dawud # 1828.

[2] Bukhari # 1836, Musilm # 88-1203, Nasa'i # 2850, Darimi # 1820, Muwatta Maalik # 47 (Hajj).

RULING: If a muhrim shaves less than one-fourth of his head, or less than one fourth break when he undergoes cupping then sadaqah (charity) will be wajib (obligatory) on him. This means that by way of atonement, he should either feed a hungry needy person to a full stomach, or give him half sa' of wheat.

If a muhrim shaves hair on head, more than one-fourth of it, without a reason, or has himself cupped without reason and more than one fourth hair of his head break then dumm is wajib (obligatory). He will have to sacrifice a goat or something like it. But, if he does one of these things for a reason, then he may do one of three things:

(i) Slaughter a goat,

(ii) Give to six needy people three sa' wheat at the rate on half sa' each.

(iii) Fast three days on consecutive days or of different days with break.

If a muhrim decides to have himself cupped (in the head) and for that reason, shaves hair from that place then according to Imam Abu Hanifah رحمه الله, dumm will became wajib (obligatory) on him. But his two companions rule that sadaqah (charity) will be wajib.

The place of cupping implies he two sides of the neck and nape of the neck. If he shaves the entire neck then the unanimous verdict is that dumm will be wajib (obligatory) on him. If he shaves lesser than the full neck then sadaqah (charity) will be wajib (obligatory).

If hair break by themselves then nothing is wajib (obligatory).

(٢٦٩٤) وَعَنْ اَنَسٍ قَالَ احْتَجَمَ رَسُوْلُ الله صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَهُوَ مُحْرِمٌ عَلٰى ظَهْرِ الْقَدَمِ مِنْ وَجَعٍ كَانَ بِهٖ۔ (رواه ابوداؤد والنسائی)

2694. Sayyiduna Anas رضی الله عنه said that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم was a muhrim when he had himself cupped on the back of his foot because of a pain he had.[1]

COMMENTARY: There are no hair on the surface of the foot so there was no question of hair breaking. Besides, he had a reason for it – pain.

PROPHET MUHAMMAD'S صلی الله علیه وسلم MARRIAGE WITH SAYYIDAH MAYMUNAH رضی الله عنها

(٢٦٩٥) وَعَنْ اَبِي رَافِعٍ قَالَ تَزَوَّجَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَيْمُوْنَةَ وَهُوَ حَلَالٌ وَبَنٰى بِهَا وَهُوَ حَلَالٌ وَكُنْتُ اَنَا الرَّسُوْلَ بَيْنَهُمَا۔ رَوَاهُ اَحْمَدُ وَالتِّرْمِذِيُّ وَقَالَ هٰذَا حَدِيْثٌ حَسَنٌ۔

2695. Sayyiduna Abu Rafi رضی الله عنه narrated, "Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم married Sayyidah Maymunah رضی الله عنه when he was not a muhrim. And when he consummated the marriage, he was not a muhrim.[2]

I was the envoy between them.

COMMENTARY: This hadith also contradicts the hadith # 2682 of Ibn Abbas رضی الله عنه. We have spoken on this subject against hadith # 2683.

The hadith of Ibn Abbas رضی الله عنه is preferred because both Bukhari and Muslim have transmitted it while none of them carries this hadith.

---

[1] Abu Dawud # 1837, Nasa'i # 2839.

[2] Tirmidhi # 842, Darimi # 1825, Musnad Ahmad 6-333.

CHAPTER - XIII

THAT MUHRIM MUST ABSTAIN FROM HUNTING بَابُ الْمُحْرِمِ يَجْتَنِبُ الصَّيْدَ

The ulama (Scholars) agree unanimously that hunting as well as assisting a hunter are both forbidden to a muhrim. Therefore, if a muhrim kills or assists in killing a hunted animal then jaza or an atonement or recompense will become binding on him.

THE JAZA OR EXPIATION FOR HUNTING: The expiation that becomes binding on the muhrim for hunting is the value of the animal hunted that two just and experienced men would determine. This value will be relative to the place where the animal was killed but if no value is known at that place then the value should be relative to the nearest place because value of anything differs from place to place. Besides, the value will be determined on the basis of rates prevailing at the time of hunting, because values differ at different times. Then the muhrim will have the option to either buy an animal of that value and sacrifice it in Haram (unlawful), or he may buy provision of that value and feed the poor - if he buys wheat then he will give half sa' to each poor, but if he buys barley or dates then one sa' to each poor. He must not give any poor person less than this quantity.

Alternatively, he may fast for the number of days equal to the amount of sadaqah (charity) (half sa' wheat or one sa' barley) for each poor man, and if any portion of sadaqah (charity) remains in this method then he may give it away as charity, or in lieu of that, too, he may fast. It may be understood that expiation against hunting is wajib (obligatory) on the muhrim whether he hunts deliberately or by mistake.

If a muhrim wounds an animal and it does not die, or he pulls out its hair, or breaks it limb, then he will have to pay that amount to which extent the animal's value has decreased.

If a muhrim maims an animal or pulls out the wings of a bird because of which they cannot defend themselves then he will have to pay the full price of the animal. If he milks it then he will have to pay the price of the milk as wajib (obligatory). If he breaks its egg, he must pay its price.

EATING THE GAME: Whether the muhrim may eat the hunted animal or not is a complex question. If he has hunted it himself or another muihrim has hunted it, then the muhrim is forbidden to eat the game. This is an unanimous verdict of all ulama (Scholars).

If one who is not a muhrim hunts an animal for himself or for the muhrim with his permission of without his permission, then the scholars differ on the issue; may he eat or not? Some of the sahabah (Prophet's companions) رضی اللہ عنہم including Sayyiduna Ali رضی اللہ عنہ and same of the tabi'un رحمہ اللہ said that a muhrim is forbidden absolutely to eat the game. They cite of hadith of Sayyiduna Sa'd ibn Jaththamah رضی اللہ عنہ (# 2696). Imam Shafi'I رحمہ اللہ and Imam Ahmad رحمہ اللہ say that if the muhrim hunts himself or anyone else does it for him with or without his permission then it is forbidden to him to eat from it. But, if one who is not a muhrim hunts for himself and gives some meat from it to him as a gift, then it is lawful for him to eat from it.

Imam Abu Hanifah رضی اللہ عنہ and his followers say that a muhrim is permitted to eat the game even if it is hunted for him, provided:

- he has not hunted the animal,
- he has not instructed anyone to hunt it,

- he has not guided anyone to the animal,
- he has not diverted anyone's attention to it (hunting) and
- he or any other muhrim has not helped anyone to hunt it.

The Hanafis cite the hadith of Sayyiduna Abu Qatadah رضی اللہ عنہ (# 2697)

THE GAME DEFINED: The animal that a muhrim is forbidden to hunt is to kill a wild animal. The wild animals are those that are born and bred in dry lands or in deserts or wilderness, though they may reside in water, like wild ducks, etc. Also, a game is a wild animal by birth or nature though it may have been domesticated, like deer which becomes familiar with anyone who domesticates it but is by nature wild. So it is called a game wherever it lives, in the wild or with human beings. If it is hunted an expiation becomes wajib (obligatory).

If an animal is not wild then it is allowed to kill it even if one is in a state of ihram (pilgrim-robe). Thus a muhrim is allowed to slaughter a goat, sheep, ram, cow, camel and domesticated duck.

The jurists have classified the pigeon as a wild bird by nature, so an expiation will become wajib (obligatory) if it is hunted.

As for sea animals, both the muhrim and non-muhrim are allowed to hunt them in the light of the verse:

أُحِلَّ لَكُمْ صَيْدُ الْبَحْرِ وَطَعَامُهُ

(al-Mai'dah 5:96)

These animal may be those that are eaten and those that are not consumed.

The wild animals that are eaten may not be hunted. It is forbidden hunt them and there is unanimity on this issue. As for those that are not eaten, the author of Bidai has classified them into two classes:

(1) Those that are ferocious and cause damages and often do that unprovoked and take the initiative in hurting, like the lion, cheetah, half etc. So, the muhrim is permitted to kill them. No penalty or expiation will be wajib (obligatory) on him.

(2) Those that do not take the initiative in hurting anyone, like hawk or falcon, etc. If they begin to attack the muhrim, then he may kill them and no expiation will be wajib (obligatory) on him. But, if they do not attack then it is not permitted to the muhrim to kill them unprovoked. It he takes the initiative then an expiation will be wajib (obligatory) on him.

SECTION I اَلْفَصْلُ الْاَوَّلُ

PROPHET MUHAMMAD صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم ABSTAINED FROM HUNTING WHEN HE WAS A MUHRIM

(٢٦٩٦) عَنِ الصَّعْبِ بْنِ جُثَّامَةَ اَنَّهُ اَهْدٰى لِرَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ حِمَارًا وَحْشِيًّا وَهُوَ بِالْاَبْوَاءِ اَوْبِوَدَّانَ فَرَدَّ عَلَيْهِ فَلَمَّا رَاٰى مَا فِيْ وَجْهِهٖ قَالَ اِنَّا لَمْ نَرُدَّهُ عَلَيْكَ اِلَّا اَنَّا حُرُمٌ۔ (متفق علیه)

2696. Sayyiduna As-Sab ibn Jaththamah narrated that he presented to Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم wild ass when he was at al-Abwa or Waddan (which are between Makkah and Madinah). But, he returned it to him. When he observed the reaction on his face, he said, "We have not returned it to you but only because we have assumed the ihram (pilgrim-robe)."[1]

COMMENTARY: On the face of it, this hadith is evidence for those people who contend that a muhrim is forbidden to eat the flesh of game outright, However, the contention of the hanafis is based on the opinion of Sayyiduna(s) Umar رضی الله عنه, Abu Hurayrah رضی الله عنه, Talhah ibn Ubauydullah رضی الله عنه and Sayyidah Ayshsh رضی الله عنه. Hence, they in terpret this hadith that since a live game of wild ass was present ed to the Prophet Muḥammad صلی الله علیه وسلم and it is not proper for a muhrim to accept a game, so the Prophet Muhammad صلی الله علیه وسلم turned down the offer. However, there is another doubt created; it is stated explicitly in one version that meat of wildass was presented. Another version says that the leg piece of the wild ass was presented, yet another version says that a piece of the animal was sent.

These versions make clear that a live wild ass was not presented. So, perhaps this hadith, too, under discussion, says that some meat of the wild ass was presented? The plausible explanation is that first live wild ass may have been presented which he did not accept. Then some piece of meat of another wild ass was presented and this has described in another version as piece of leg.

A stronger evidence of the Hanafis is that the Prophet Muhammad صلی الله علیه وسلم was presented the wild ass then he was at Arj (عرج) having assumed the ihram (pilgrim-robe). So, he instructed Sayyiduna Abu Bakr رضی الله عنه to distribute it among the companions.

The Shafi'is say about the hadith under discussion that the prophet Muhammad صلی الله علیه وسلم may have returned the wild ass because he presumed that it was hunt ed for him specifically.

HADITH ON WHICH THE HANAFIS RELY

(٢٦٩٧) وَعَنْ اَبِي قَتَادَةَ اَنَّهٗ خَرَجَ مَعَ رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَتَخَلَّفَ مَعَ بَعْضِ اَصْحَابِهٖ وَهُمْ مُحْرِمُوْنَ وَهُوَ غَيْرُ مُحْرِمٍ فَرَاَوْا حِمَارًا وَحْشِيًّا قَبْلَ اَنْ يَّرَاهُ فَلَمَّا رَاَوْهُ تَرَكُوْهُ حَتّٰى رَاٰهُ اَبُوْ قَتَادَةَ فَرَكِبَ فَرَسًا لَهٗ فَسَاَلَهُمْ اَنْ يُّنَاوِلُوْهُ سَوْطَهٗ فَاَبَوْا فَتَنَاوَلَهٗ فَحَمَلَ عَلَيْهِ فَعَقَرَهٗ ثُمَّ اَكَلَ فَاَكَلُوْا فَنَدِمُوْا فَلَمَّا اَدْرَكُوْا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ سَاَلُوْهُ قَالَ هَلْ مَعَكُمْ مِنْهُ شَيْءٌ قَالُوْا مَعَنَا رِجْلُهٗ فَاَخَذَهَا النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَاَكَلَهَا۔ مُتَّفَقٌ عَلَيْهِ وَفِيْ رِوَايَةٍ لَهُمَا فَلَمَّا اَتَوْا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ اَمِنْكُمْ اَحَدٌ اَمَرَهٗ اَنْ يَّحْمِلَ عَلَيْهَا اَوْ اَشَارَ اِلَيْهَا قَالُوْا لَا قَالَ فَكُلُوْا مَا بَقِيَ مِنْ لَحْمِهَا۔

2697. Sayyiduna Abu Qatadah رضی الله عنه narrated that he set out with Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم but he lagged behind with some of his companions who had assumed the ihram (pilgrim-robe) for umrah but he had not. They saw a wild ass (on their way at some place)but he did not see it. They saw it but left it alone (and did not bother about it). Finallv, Abu Qatadah رضی الله عنه also saw it. He mounted a horse of his and asked them to let him have his whip, but they declined (lest they be deemed to have aided him in the hunt). He (alighted and) took it himself, chased the wild ass and killed it. Then he (prepared its meat and) they ate it, but they repent ed (presuming that a muhrim was disallowed to eat it).

---

[1] Bukhari # 1825, Muslim # 50-1193, Tirmidhi # 850, Nasa'i # 2819, Ibn Majah # 3090, Darimi # 1830, Muwatta Maalik # 83 (Hajj), Musnad Ahmad 4-37.

So, when they joined Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم, they asked him about it, He required, "Do you have anything of that with you?" They said, "We have with us its leg." The Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم took it, (had it prepared) and ate it.

According to another version: When they joined Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم (and put their question to him), he asked them, "Did any of you instruct him to hunt it or point it out to him?" They said "No!" He said, 'Eat what remains of it."[1]

COMMENTARY: Accordingly to another tradition, the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم did not eat from the game. Perhaps, he may have presumed that a muhrim had a part in the hunting and may have abetted in some way, like suggesting, pointing out or helping. So, he did not eat, when he learnt that no muhrim was involved in the hunting, he ate some of it.

A muhrim is disallowed to point out the animal verbally or in gestures or signs both within the Haram and outside it. A non Muhrim is disallowed within the Haram, not outside.

A muhrim is permitted to consume flesh of a game provided he is not involved in hunting in anyway whatsoever - by actual hunting, commanding or suggesting to hunt, indicating verbally, allegorically or in gestures, or helping.

This hadith upholds the contention of the Hanafis. It rejects the opinion of those who hold that a muhrim may not eat anything of the game.

ANIMALS THAT MAY BE KILLED BY THE MUHRIM & IN THE HARAM

(٢٦٩٨) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عُمَرَ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ خَمْسٌ لَا جُنَاحَ عَلٰى مَنْ قَتَلَهُنَّ فِي الْحَرَمِ وَالْإِحْرَامِ الْفَارَةُ وَالْغُرَابُ وَالْحِدَاةُ وَالْعَقْرَبُ وَالْكَلْبُ الْعَقُوْرُ۔ (متفق عليه)

2698. Sayyiduna Ibn Umar رضى الله عنه narrated that the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "No sin is attached to killing five creatures in the Haram and in the state of ihram (pilgrim-robe). They are: the rat, the crow, the kite, the scorpion and the biting dog."[2]

COMMENTARY: The crow is (الغراب الابقع) or the one that subsists on carrion and impurity. This is elucidated in the next hadith. It is not allowed to kill the crow that eats from the fields. It is jet black but its beak and claws are red.

The biting dog includes all animals t hat attack.

(٢٦٩٩) وَعَنْ عَآئِشَةَ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ خَمْسٌ فَوَاسِقُ يُقْتَلْنَ فِي الْحِلِّ وَالْحَرَمِ الْحَيَّةُ وَالْغُرَابُ الْأَبْقَعُ وَالْفَارَةُ وَالْكَلْبُ الْعَقُوْرُ وَالْحُدَيَّا۔ (متفق عليه)

2699. Sayyiduna Ayshah رضى الله عنها said that the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Five creatures there are that may be killed in the hill (outside the sacred area) and the Haram (within the sacred area): the snake, the pied crow (الغراب الابقع), the rat, the biting dog and the kite."

COMMENTARY: It is forbidden to kill the dog that may be beneficial and also that causes no damage even though it is not beneficial.

The creatures that may be killed are not the only ones mentioned in these two hadith.

---

[1] Bukhari # 1824, Muslim # 56-1196, Abu Dawud # 1852, Tirmidhi # 848, Nasa'i # 2816, Ibn Majah # 3092,Muwatta Maalik # 76 (Hajj).

[2] Bukhari # 3315, Muslim # 72-1199, Abu Dawud # 1846, Nasa'i # 2828, Ibn Majah # 3088, Muwatta Maalik # 89 (Hajj), Musnad Ahmad 2-8.

Rather, all the creatures that harm are included in this command, like the rats, fleas, ticks bed bugs, etc. If lice are killed then it is wajib (obligatory) to give sadaqah (charity) according to one's ability.

SECTION II اَلْفَصْلُ الثَّانِي

HADITH ON WHICH IMAM MAALIK رحمه الله & IMAM SHAFI'I رحمه الله RELY

(٢٧٠٠) وَعَنْ جَابِرٍ اَنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ لَحْمُ الصَّيْدِ لَكُمْ فِي الْاِحْرَامِ حَلَالٌ مَالَمْ تَصِيْدُوْهُ اَوْيُصَادُ لَكُمْ۔ (رواه ابوداؤد والترمذی والنسائی)

2700. Sayyiduna Jabir رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم said, "The meat of game is lawful for you when you are in the state of ihram (pilgrim-robe) as long as you have not hunted it or it had not been hunted for you."

COMMENTARY: The hadith says that if you are a muhrim and hunt an animal or anyone also hunts it for you even if he is not muhrim then it is not proper for you to eat from it. Imam Maalik رحمه الله and Imam Shafi'I رحمه الله cite this hadith in support of their contention that a Muhrim is forbidden to eat from the game that is hunted even by a non-muhrim.

However, the Hanafis interpret this hadith to mean that if you are a muhrim and a live game is sent to you as a gift then it is forbidden to you to eat its meat. But, if its meat is sent to you as a gift then it is not forbidden to you to consume. If the animal was hunted at your behest then it is not proper for you to eat its flesh.

Hence, the flesh of a game is not forbidden to a muhrim if a non-muhrim has slaughtered it provided the muhrim has no hand in the hunting, like asking for it to be hunted, helping in doing so, pointing it out or guiding to it.

HUNTING LOCUSTS

(٢٧٠١) وَعَنْ اَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ الْجَرَادُ مِنْ صَيْدِ الْبَحْرِ۔ (رواه ابوداؤد والترمذی)

2701. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی الله عنه narrated that the Prophet Muhammad صلی الله علیه وسلم said, "Locusts are like the game of the sea."[1]

COMMENTARY: The hanafis say that the hadith compares locusts to game of the sea because like fish that is eaten without being slaughtered, locusts may be eaten without being slaughtered. A muhrim is not allowed to kill locusts. If he kills any, he will have to pay sadaqah (charity) (as much as he can). It is stated in 'Hidayah' that locust attracts the same command as the game of the desert. Ibn Hammam also said that most of the ulama (Scholars) subscribe to this view.

Some ulama (Scholars) say that according to this hadith a muhrim is permitted to hunt locusts because it is like a game of the sea. They cite the verse of the Quran:

وَاُحِلَّ لَكُمْ صَيْدُ الْبَحْرِ مَادُمْتُمْ حُرُمًا

{Lawful to you is the game of the sea....} (5:96)

KILL THE BEAST THAT ATTACKS

(٢٧٠٢) وَعَنْ اَبِي سَعِيْدٍ الْخُدْرِيِّ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ يَقْتُلُ الْمُحْرِمُ السَّبُعَ الْعَادِيَ۔ (رواه

---

[1] Abu Dawud # 1853, Tirmidhi # 851, Ibn Majah # 322, Musnad Ahmad 2-306.

الترمذی وابوداؤد وابن ماجة)

2702. Sayyiduna Abu Sa'eed al-Khudri رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "The muhrim may kill a beast that attacks."[1]

COMMENTARY: It is like a lion, etc. that rushes at man on seeing him to kill a main him.

(٢٧٠٣) وَعَنْ عَبْدِ الرَّحْمٰنِ بْنِ اَبِي عَمَّارٍ قَالَ سَأَلْتُ جَابِرَ بْنَ عَبْدِ اللّٰهِ عَنِ الضَّبُعِ اَصَيْدٌ هِيَ فَقَالَ نَعَمْ فَقُلْتُ اَيُؤْكَلُ فَقَالَ نَعَمْ فَقُلْتُ سَمِعْتَهُ مِنْ رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ نَعَمْ۔ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَالنَّسَائِيُّ وَالشَّافِعِيُّ وَقَالَ التِّرْمِذِيُّ هٰذَا حَدِيْثٌ حَسَنٌ صَحِيْحٌ۔

2703. Sayyiduna Abdur Rahman ibn Abu Ammar رحمہ اللہ said that he asked Sayyiduna Jabir ibn Abdullah رضی اللہ عنہ whether the hyena may be hunted. He said, "Yes!" So, he asked 'May it be eaten?" He said, "Yes!" Then he asked, "Did you hear it from Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم?" He said, "Yes!"[2]

COMMENTARY: Leaving aside the muhrim there is a basic difference of opinion whether hyena is lawful food or not. Imam Shafi'I رحمہ اللہ goes by this hadith and says that the hyena is lawful food, but Imam Maalik رحمہ اللہ and Imam Abu Hanifah رحمہ اللہ say that the hyena is not lawful to eat. They rely on the hadith (# 2705) of Sayyiduna Khuzaymah ibn Jazyi رضی اللہ عنہ.

(٢٧٠٤) وَعَنْ جَابِرٍ قَالَ سَأَلْتُ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ عَنِ الضَّبُعِ قَالَ هُوَ صَيْدٌ وَيَجْعَلُ فِيْهِ كَبْشًا اِذَا اَصَابَهُ الْمُحْرِمُ۔ (رواه ابوداؤد وابن ماجة والدارمی)

2704. Sayyiduna Jabir رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that he asked Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم about the hyena. He said, "It is game. If a muhrim perpetrates it then he must atone by given a sheep."[3]

COMMENTARY: If a muhrim hunts it or buys it then he must atone with a sheep or ram as a wajib (obligatory).

HYENNA IS NOT LAWFUL

(٢٧٠٥) وَعَنْ خُزَيْمَةَ بْنِ جَزْيٍ قَالَ سَأَلْتُ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ عَنْ اَكْلِ الضَّبُعِ قَالَ اَوَيَاْكُلُ الضَّبُعَ اَحَدٌ وَسَأَلْتُهُ عَنْ اَكْلِ الذِّئْبِ قَالَ اَوَيَاْكُلُ الذِّئْبَ اَحَدٌ فِيْهِ خَيْرٌ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَقَالَ لَيْسَ اِسْنَادُهُ بِالْقَوِيِّ۔

2705. Sayyiduan Khuzaymah ibn Jazyi رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that he asked Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم about eating a hyena. He asked. "Does anyone eat hyena?" He then asked him about eating wolf and he put the question, "Does anyone with any good in him eat wolf.?"[4]

---

[1] Abu Dawud # 1848, Tirmidhi # 839, Ibn Majah # 3089, Musnad Ahmad 3-3.

[2] Tirmidhi # 1789, Nasa'i # 4323, Daraqutni # 45 (Muwaqit), Musnad Ahmad 3-318, (Abu Dawud # 3801 similar)

[3] Abu Dawud # 3801, Ibn Majah # 3236, Darimi # 1941, Daraqutni # 48 (Mawaqit).

[4] Tirmidhi # 1799, Ibn Majah # 3237.

SECTION III الفصل الثالث

A MUHRIM MAY EAT MEAT OF GAME

(٢٧٠٦) وَعَنْ عَبْدِالرَّحْمٰنِ بْنِ عُثْمَانَ التَّيْمِيِّ قَالَ كُنَّا مَعَ طَلْحَةَ بْنِ عُبَيْدِاللّٰهِ وَنَحْنُ حُرُمٌ فَأُهْدِيَ لَهُ طَيْرٌ وَطَلْحَةُ رَاقِدٌ فَمِنَّا مَنْ أَكَلَ وَمِنَّا مَنْ تَوَرَّعَ فَلَمَّا اسْتَيْقَظَ طَلْحَةُ وَافَقَ مَنْ أَكَلَهُ قَالَ فَأَكَلْنَاهُ مَعَ رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ۔ (رواه مسلم)

2706. Sayyiduna Abdur Rahman ibn Uthman at Taymi رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that they were with Talhah ibn Ubaydullah رضی اللہ عنہ and they were all in the state of ihram (pilgrim-robe) (muhrims). A bird (meaning its cooked flesh) was presented to him and he was asleep. Some of them ate from it but others abstained. When Talhah رضی اللہ عنہ woke up he agreed with those who had eaten it. He said, "We had eaten it along with Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم (meaning, as muhrims we ate flesh of a hunted creature)."[1]

COMMENTARY: This is to which Imam Abu Hanifah رضی اللہ عنہ abides. If t he muhrim has no part in the hunting then he may eat the meat.

As for a bird, the Arabic (طير) could be a collective noun, implying (flesh of) several birds, or (of) a bird sufficiently large to satiate all the people.

CHAPTER - XIV

BEING DETAINED AND MISSING HAJJ بَابُ الْإِحْصَارِ وَفَوْتِ الْحَجِّ

IHSAR: The word ihsar means 'to be detained.' 'to be prevented.' In the terminology of the jurists, it means 'to be prevented from performing hajj or umrah after having assumed the ihram (pilgrim-robe).'

The person who had assumed the ihram (pilgrim-robe) for hajj or umrah and it prevented from performing it is called a muhsir.

KINDS OF IHSAR (DETENTION): According to the Hanafi school, the are many forms of ihsar whereby the pilgrimage is detained and not permitted to perform hajj or umrah, for whichever he had assumed the ihram (pilgrim-robe), whether practically or in terms of Shari'ah (legally). These forms are explained in the lines following:

(1) Fear of an enemy. It is a wide meaning word and 'enemy' could refer to a human being or a beast. For example, an enemy could be in wait for the pilgrims on their route and pesters the pilgrims, or robs them, or beats them, preventing their progress. Or, a lion etc. is present on the pilgrim's path.

(2) Illness. A pilgrim may fall seriously ill after assuming the ihram (pilgrim-robe) so that he cannot proceed further, or if he attempts then his illness may become dangerously severe.

(3) A woman loses her mahram. After she assumes the ihram (pilgrim-robe), her mahram or husband may die, or disappear, or refuse to accompany her any further.

(4) Lack of resources. For instance, after the ihram (pilgrim-robe) is assumed, the pilgrim is deprived of money or property by thieves or robbers, or his resources are exhausted during the pilgrimage and he cannot meet his expenses any more for the remaining journey.

---

[1] Muslim # 65-1197, Nasa'i # 2817, Darimi # 1829, Musnad Ahmad 1-161.

(5) A woman might have to observe her iddah (waiting period) when, after she assumes the ihram (pilgrim-robe), her husband dies or divorces her. Her iddah will prevent her, meaning be her ihsar. However, if she is a muqim (resident) and her residence is not as far away from Makkah as qualifies as a journey then it is not ihsar.
(6) The pilgrim gets lost on the way and there is no one to guide him.
(7) A woman's husband disallows her from going ahead provided she had assumed the ihram (pilgrim-robe) for hajj without his permission. However, the husband has no authority to prevent his wife from performing the fard(compulsory) hajj, and from the optional hajj after he had given permission for it (the optional hajj).
(8) A slave, male or female, is disallowed by their master.
All these forms of ihsar are according to Hanafi School of thought. All the three other imams hold that there is only one kind of ihsar which is fear of the enemy. They maintain that ihsar is not found in the other forms, so the ihram (pilgrim-robe) remains intact.

RULING ON IHSAR: When a muhrim encounters one of the foregoing forms of ihsar, and if he is a mufrid or a qarin then, respectively he must acquire one animal of hadyi (say a goat) or two animals of hadyi and send the hadyi to the Haram with someone with instructions to sacrifice it there on his behalf. Or, he may send its price to buy there and sacrifice. He must also specify the day and time when the sacrifice may be done. When the specified time passes, he may relinquish the ihram (pilgrim-robe). It is not necessary to shave the head or have the hair clipped, Then, he must redeem the pilgrimage in the following year. If he had put off the ihram (pilgrim-robe) of hajj, then he will perform one hajj and one umrah. If he had put off the ihram (pilgrim-robe) of qiran, then he will redeem it with one hajj and two umrahs. If he had removed the ihram (pilgrim-robe) of umrah then he will perform only one umrah.
If, after he sends the animal of hadyi, the ihsar is lifted and it is possible for him to reach here before the hadyi is sacrificed and be able to participate in the hajj, then it is wajib (obligatory) that he should proceed there promptly. If that is not possible, then it is not wajib (obligatory) that he depart promptly. However, if he proceeds to perform hajj and when he arrives there finds that the hadyi was sacrificed and the time of hajj is over then he must perform umrah and relinquish the ihram (pilgrim-robe).

MEANING & RULING OF MISSING THE HAJJ: If someone departs for hajj having assumed the ihram (pilgrim-robe) but for some unforeseen reason he could not make the wuquf at Arafat between zawal (declination of the sun) on the day of Arafah and the morning of eed ul adha for even one minute, then he has missed his hajj. (The wuquf at Arafat begins on the day of Arafah as the sun passes its meridian and ends as down rises on eed ul adha and the wuquf may be observed even for one minute during this period.)
One who misses his hajj is called (فائت الحج) (fa'it ul hajj).
The person who misses the hajj must perform the umrah which is to circumambulate the Ka'bah, make sa'I between as-Safa and al-Marwah and relinquish the ihram (pilgrim-robe). If he is a mufrid then he must perform one umrah and if he is a qarin then two umrahs. Then he must have or clip his hair and next year he must redeem the hajj.

A VERY COMPLEX QUESTION: If a pilgrim is likely to miss hajj, he faces a very difficult choice. Suppose, he arrives there in the very best portion of the night (following the day of Arafah and) preceding eed ul Adha while he still has to offer the salah (prayer) of isha and is also apprehensive that he might miss it altogether if he goes to Arafat, and if he offers it them wuquf of Arafat would be lost. So, what should he do? Some people say that he must offer the isha even if he misses the wuquf of Arafat. Others say that he must defer the salah (prayer) of isha and proceed to Arafat. This is what Hanafi fiqh book Durr Mukhtar says.

SECTION I اَلْفَصْلُ الْاَوَّلُ

THE PROPHET MUHAMMAD'S صلى الله عليه وسلم DETENTION

(٢٧٠٧) عَنِ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ قَالَ قَدْ أُحْصِرَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَحَلَقَ رَأْسَهُ وَ جَامَعَ نِسَائَهُ وَ نَحَرَ هَدْيَهُ حَتّٰى اعْتَمَرَ عَامًا قَابِلًا۔ (رواه البخاری)

2707. Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضى الله عنه narrated that (in the year of al-Hudaybiyah) Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم was detained (and prevented from performing umrah). So, he had his head shaved and (after relinquishing the ihram (pilgrim-robe)) had intercourse with his wives, and slaughtered his (animal of) hadyi. Then, next year he performed the umrah.[1]

COMMENTARY: The Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم had assumed that ihram (pilgrim-robe) for umrah and set out for Makkah but the idolaters of Makkah stopped him at Hudaybiyah along with his companions and disallowed them to proceed for umrah. So, he put off his ihram (pilgrim-robe) there.

The hadith next mentions that he had sexual intercourse with his wives. The sequence is not followed in the report, for, shaving head, etc precedes that. Actually, he slaughtered the animal, relinquished the ihram (pilgrim-robe) and then he was out of the sacred state (on shaving his head) and could go to his wives.

According to another hadith in Bukhari and Muslim: The Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم and his companions رضى الله عنه relinquished their ihram (pilgrim-robe) when the idolaters of Makkah barred their way ahead. The Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم had assumed the ihram (pilgrim-robe) for umrah. He sacrificed the animals of hadyi, shaved his head and instructed his companions رضى الله عنه to get up, make the sacrifice and shave their heads. Hidayah writes after that; 'then they relinquished the iham.'

Ibn Hammam رحمه الله said that these words of Hidayah make it clear that the muhsir cannot put off the ihram (pilgrim-robe) before slaughtering the animal. Hence, if a muhsir sends the hadyi to the Haram with specific instructions to slaughter it on a certain day and hour and at that hour he comes out of the ihram (pilgrim-robe) and acts as a non-muhrim only to learn that his instruction could not be carried out at the specified hour or at the Haram then, for everything that he has done that a muhrim should not do, he will have to make an atonement or a recompense (jaza).

WHERE TO SLAUGHTER HADYI OF IHSAR: The Hanafis and the Shafi'is are unanimous all hadyi apart from that of ihsar should be slaughtered only in the Haram, no where else. But, they differ on the hadyi of ihsar of hajj and umrah. Imam Shafi'i رحمه الله hold that it should be slaughtered where the ihsar was imposed. Imam Abu Hanifah رحمه الله contends that it should be sent to the Haram and slaughtered there and no where else because to slaughter it on specified days and at specified place is a worship. So if it is not slaughtered at its specified place then that is not worship and if that is so then how is it proper to relinquish the ihram (pilgrim-robe) on that basis.

[1] Bukhari # 1809.

Imam Shafi'I رحمه الله stands by the hadith under discussion. The prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم and the sahabah (Prophet's companions) رضى الله عنهم slaughtered the hadyi in Hudaybiyah which is hill meaning outside the limits of the Haram. The Hanafis explain that it was not possible at that time to send the animals of hadyi to the Haram. So out of compulsion they slaughtered the animals at Hudaybiyah. Besides, some ulama (Scholars) maintain that part of Hudaybiyah I shill alright but some of it is in the Haram. Hence, the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم and his sahabah (Prophet's companions) رضى الله عنهم may have slaughtered their animals of hadyi in the portion that is within the Haram.

IT IS WAJIB (OBLIGATORY) ON THE MUHSIR TO REDEEM: We read in his hadith that since the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم could not complete the umrah because of the ihsar, he redeemed it the next year in 7AH. This redeemed umrah is called umrat ul qada. This means that if anyone is detained and is prevented from performing hajj or umrah then he must redeem it. The Hanafis say that it is wajib (obligatory) to redeem it but Imam Shafi'I رحمه الله says that it is not wajib (obligatory) to redeem it.
The Prophet Muhammad's صلى الله عليه وسلم umrah in 7AH is called umrat ul qada and this itself is evidence for the Hanafi point of view.

THE QUESTION OF SHAVING OR CLIPPING FOR THE MUHSIR

(٢٧٠٨) وَعَنْ عَبْدِ اللّٰهِ بْنِ عُمَرَ قَالَ خَرَجْنَا مَعَ رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَحَالَ كُفَّارُ قُرَيْشٍ دُوْنَ الْبَيْتِ فَنَحَرَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ هَدَايَاهُ وَحَلَقَ وَقَصَّرَ اَصْحَابُهٗ۔ (رواه البخاری)

2708. Sayyiduna Abdullah ibn Umar رضى الله عنه narrated that they set out with Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم (for umrah) but the disbelievers of the Quraysh intercepted them before (they could reach) the House (at Hudaybiyah). So, the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم slaughtered the animals of his hadyi (there) and shaved his head and his sahabah (Prophet's companions) رضى الله عنهم shaved or clipped their heads.[1]

COMMENTARY: The Hidayah says that Imam Abu Hanifah رحمه الله and Imam Ahmad رحمه الله say that a muhsir is not bond to shave or clip his hair because it is not part of the deeds of hajj. Since hajj is not performed at all, this cannot be counted as worship.
As for the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم and the sahabah (Prophet's companions) رضى الله عنهم they shaved or clipped their hair to make it obvious that they were determined to return and that there was no possibility of performing umrah. Imam Yusuf, رحمه الله however, said that a mushir must shave or clip his hair, but if he does not, then too he shall have come out of the ihram (pilgrim-robe), nothing will be wajib (obligatory) as atonement.

(٢٧٠٩) وَعَنِ الْمِسْوَرِ بْنِ مَخْرَمَةَ قَالَ اِنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ نَحَرَ قَبْلَ اَنْ يَّحْلِقَ وَ اَمَرَ اَصْحَابَهٗ بِذٰلِكَ۔ (رواه البخاری)

2709. Sayyiduna Al-Miswar ibn Makhramah رضى الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم sacrificed before having his head shaved and instructed his

[1] Bukhari # 1812.

sahabah (Prophet's companions) رضی اللہ عنہم to do like that.[1]

IHSAR AND MISSING THE HAJJ

(٢٧١٠) وعن ابنِ عُمَرَ أنَّهُ قَالَ أَلَيْسَ حَسْبُكُمْ سُنَّةَ رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِنْ حُبِسَ أَحَدُكُمْ عَنِ الْحَجِّ طَافَ بِالْبَيْتِ وَ بِالصَّفَا وَالْمَرْوَةِ ثُمَّ حَلَّ مِنْ كُلِّ شَيْءٍ حَتّٰى يَحُجَّ عَامًا قَابِلًا فَيُهْدِيَ أَوْيَصُوْمَ إِنْ لَمْ يَجِدْ هَدْيًا۔ (رواه البخاری)

2710. Sayyiduna Ibn Umar رضی اللہ عنہ asked, "Does the sunnah(Practice of Holy Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم*)* of Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم not suffice you? If any of you is precluded from performing hajj (and prevented from observing the wuquf at Arafat), then he should make the tawaf of the house and t he Sa'I between as Safa and al-Marwah. Then he should come out of the ihram (pilgrim-robe) and make the hajj next year, and slaughter the hadyi or fast if he cannot find a hadyi (to slaughter)."[2]

COMMENTARY: Ibn Umar رضی اللہ عنہ warned some people who might have contravened the sunnah(Practice of Holy Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم*)* in cases of detention or ihsar. If anyone is prevented from performing hajj then he must complete the umrah and put off the ihram (pilgrim-robe) and redeem the hajj in the following year.

We must know that there is a slight difference in the ruling for a muhsir and fa'itul hajj (who has missed the hajj). As for the letter if he is a mufrid (who has assumed the ihram (pilgrim-robe) only for hajj) then he will make the tawaf and Sa'I and relinquish his ihram (pilgrim-robe). Only the redeeming hajj next year will be wajib (obligatory) on him. Umrah and hadyi will not be wajib (obligatory) on him.

As for the muhsir, if he is a mufrid and is prevented from proceeding even before he can make it to the Haram, then he must send the hadyi to the Haram. When that reaches there and is slaughtered he must relinquish the ihram (pilgrim-robe) and redeem the hajj next year and perform an umrah too with it.

However, Imam shafi رحمہ اللہ said that it is wajib (obligatory) on him to perform only hajj next year. It is not necessary to perform umrah because he was restrained from hajj only and he had sent the hadyi and put off the ihram (pilgrim-robe), so only hajj is due from him.

If the muhsir is a qarin (meaning one who had assumed the ihram (pilgrim-robe) for hajj and umrah, both), he must send the animal of hadyi to the Haram and after it is slaughtered there, he may relinquish his ihram (pilgrim-robe). It will be wajib (obligatory) on him to redeem this hajj and to perform two umrahs in the year following, the hajj and one umrah to replace what he missed and the additional umrah as a recompense (jaza) of what he missed.

If ihsar does not occur before arrival at the Haram, but on arrival there and the pilgrim is unable to observe the wuquf at Arafat though he can make the tawaf and sa'I, then he must make the tawaf and Sa'I, meaning acts of umrah, and relinquish the ihram (pilgrim-robe). Next year, he should redeem the hajj and slaughter the animal of hadyi. If he cannot slaughter the hadyi hen he must fast. The hadith under discussion describes this very possibility.

---

[1] Bukahri # 1811, Musnad Ahmad 4-327.

[2] Nasa'i # 2769.

If the fa'it ul hajj (one who has missed the hajj) is a qarin, then he will first make tawaf and Sa'I for umrah and then make (another) tawaf and Sa'I in place of the hajj that he missed. Then he must shave or cut hair and relinquish the ihram (pilgrim-robe). He will be absolved of making the sacrifice of qiran.
If he is a mutamatta, then his tamatta is void and he will be absolved of the sacrifice of tamtta and if he has brought an animal to sacrifice then he may do with it whatever he likes.
Just as when a mufrid misses the hajj, it becomes wajib (obligatory) on him to redeem only hajj next year, so too the qiran and tamatta, make only hajj wajib (obligatory) on the pilgrim next year.

UMRAH IS NEVER MISSED: Umrah is never missed because it may be performed any time during the year, except on the day of Arafah, the day of eed ul Adha and the days of tashriq. On the other hand, hajj may be performed on the specified time and day as determined day Shari'ah.

(٢٧١١) وَعَنْ عَائِشَةَ قَالَتْ دَخَلَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ عَلٰى ضُبَاعَةَ بِنْتِ الزُّبَيْرِ فَقَالَ لَهَا لَعَلَّكِ اَرَدْتِّ الْحَجَّ وَاللّٰهِ مَا اَجِدُنِيْ اِلَّا وَجِعَةً فَقَالَ لَهَا حُجِّيْ وَاشْتَرِطِيْ وَقُوْلِيْ اَللّٰهُمَّ مَحِلِّيْ حَيْثُ حَبَسْتَنِيْ۔ (متفق عليه)

2711. Sayyidah Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہا narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم visited (his paternal cousin) Sayyidah Duba'ah bint Zubayr رضی اللہ عنہ (when he was proceeding for hajj). He asked her, 'Perhaps you intend to perform hajj (with us)?" She submitted. By Allah, I suffer from pain." He comforted her, "Do perform hajj but (when you assume the ihram (pilgrim-robe)) make the condition:

اَللّٰهُمَّ مَحِلِّيْ حَيْثُ حَبَسْتَنِيْ

{O Allah, the place where I relinquish the ihram (pilgrim-robe) is where you restrain me (because my illness.}[1]

COMMENTARY: The prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم advised her to include in her resolve the words that she would put off the ihram (pilgrim-robe) where her illness intensified and she found it impossible to proceed further.
The imams رحمہ اللہ who contend that there is only one form of ihsar, fear of the enemy, cite this hadith. If it was permitted to put off the ihram (pilgrim-robe) because of illness then there was no point in making the stipulation, they argue.
Imam Abu Hanifah رحمہ اللہ says that one of the forms of ihsar is illness. He cites the hadith of Sayyiduna *Hajj*aj ibn Amr Ansari رضی اللہ عنہ (# 2713). He also points out that Sayyiduna Ibn Umar صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم denied that any conditional clause can be included in the resolve. He used to say to those who made a stipulation, "Does not the Prophet Muhammad's صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم sunnah(Practice of Holy Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم) suffice you?" As for the Prophet advised to Sayyidah Duba'ah رضی اللہ عنہ (in this hadith), the Hanafis say that it was to permit her to release herself from the restrictions of the ihram (pilgrim-robe) quickly. Without the stipulation, she would have had to wait for the hadyi; to reach the Haram and be slaughtered there before putting off her ihram (pilgrim-robe). Hence, Imam Abu Hanifah رحمہ اللہ abides by this procedure that unless the animal is slaughtered the ihram (pilgrim-robe) cannot be relinquished, but if he condition in included in the intention then the ihram (pilgrim-robe) may be discarded simply on encountering the ihsar without the animal being scarified.

[1] Bukhari # 5089, Muslim # 104. 1207, Nasa'i # 2768, Musnad Ahmad 6. 164.

SECTION II اَلْفَصْلُ الثَّانِيْ

HADYI OF MUHSIR SLAUGHTERED ONLY IN THE HARAM

(٢٧١٢) عَنِ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ اَنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَمَرَ اَصْحَابَهُ اَنْ يُبَدِّلُوا الْهَدْىَ الَّذِىْ نَحَرُوْا عَامَ الْحُدَيْبِيَةِ فِىْ عُمْرَةِ الْقَضَاءِ۔ رَوَاهُ۔

2712. Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم commanded his sahabah (Prophet's companions) رضی الله عنهم that, at the umrat ul qada (the redeeming umrah), they should sacrifice animals in place of the animals of hadyi that they had slaughtered in the year of al-Hudaybiyah.[1]

COMMENTARY: At the Umrat ul qada, the sahabah were to sacrifice animals at the Haram so that the hadyi may be slaughtered in the Haram. The animal of hadyi against ihsar is slaughtered in the Haram. Imam Abu Hanifah رحمه الله abides by this ruling. This meaning will apply if it is confirmed that during the year of Hudaybiyah the animals of h adyi were slaughtered outside the Haram. But, if it is said that they were slaughtered in the Haram because most of Hudaybiyah is within the Haram (see commentary to hadith # 2707, but there it is said that some - not most - of it is part of Haram) then this command would be of a precautionary nature and to earn more excellence. The command would be said to be of the kind of mustahab (desirable).

Some copies of the mishkat do not have the name of the transmitter. Some do have 'Abu Dawud.' Yet another has the word {(وفيه قصة) - It has a story.}

[The story is: Maymun ibn Mahran رحمه الله was stopped by the people of Syria from proceeding ahead when they had besieged Sayyiduna Ibn Zubayr رضی الله عنه at Makkah. He sacrificed the animals at that spot and put off his ihram (pilgrim-robe) and returned. Next year he redeemed his umrah and sought advice of Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضی الله عنه who advised him to get another animal and narrated to him the hadith.]

ILLNESS AMOUNTS TO IHSAR

(٢٧١٣) وَعَنِ الْحَجَّاجِ بْنِ عَمْرٍو الْاَنْصَارِيِّ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ كُسِرَ اَوْ عُرِجَ فَقَدْ حَلَّ وَعَلَيْهِ الْحَجُّ مِنْ قَابِلٍ۔ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَاَبُوْدَاوُدَ وَالنَّسَائِيُّ وَابْنُ مَاجَةَ وَالدَّارِمِيُّ وَزَادَ اَبُوْدَاوُدَ فِىْ رِوَايَةٍ اُخْرٰى اَوْ مَرِضَ وَقَالَ التِّرْمِذِيُّ هٰذَا حَدِيْثٌ حَسَنٌ وَفِى الْمَصَابِيْحِ ضَعِيْفٌ۔

2713. Sayyiduna al-*Hajj*aj ibn Amr al-Ansari رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "If anyone breaks a limb or becomes lame then he comes out of the ihram (pilgrim-robe). It is wajib (obligatory) on him to perform hajj next year."[2]

According to another version of Abu Dawud, he also said, "or falls ill."[3]

COMMENTARY: This hadith confirms that there can be other hindrances to the path of hajj

---

[1] Abu Dawud # 1864.

[2] Tirmidhi # 941, Abu Dawud # 1862, Nasa'i # 3861, Ibn Majah # 3077, Daraqutni # 19 (Muwaqit), Musnad Ahmad 3-450.

[3] Abu Dawud.

or umrah besides the enemy, like illness. In such cases, the pilgrim may relinquish the ihram (pilgrim-robe). This hadith is rated hasan by Tirmidhi, so if Bagawi calls it da'if it does not matter. Tirmidhi's rating is preferred.

STANDING AT ARAFAT IS MAIN PART OF HAJJ

(٢٧١٤) وَعَنْ عَبْدِالرَّحْمٰنِ بْنِ يَعْمُرَ الدِّيْلِيِّ قَالَ سَمِعْتُ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُوْلُ الْحَجُّ عَرَفَةُ مَنْ أَدْرَكَ عَرَفَةَ لَيْلَةَ جَمْعٍ قَبْلَ طُلُوْعِ الْفَجْرِ فَقَدْ أَدْرَكَ الْحَجَّ أَيَّامُ مِنًى ثَلَاثَةٌ فَمَنْ تَعَجَّلَ فِيْ يَوْمَيْنِ فَلَا إِثْمَ عَلَيْهِ وَمَنْ تَأَخَّرَ فَلَا إِثْمَ عَلَيْهِ۔ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَ أَبُوْدَاوٗدَ وَالنَّسَائِيُّ وَابْنُ مَاجَةَ وَالدَّارِمِيُّ وَ قَالَ التِّرْمِذِيُّ هٰذَا حَدِيْثٌ حَسَنٌ صَحِيْحٌ۔

2714. Sayyiduna Abdur Rahman ibn Ya'mar ad Dilyi رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that he heard the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم say, "Hajj is (standing at) ARafah. If anyone gets to Arafat on the night of Muzdalifah (10th Dhul Hijjah) before dawn (of 10th) then he has made hajj. The days of Mina are three (11th to 13th):

فَلَا إِثْمَ عَلَيْهِ وَمَنْ تَأَخَّرَ فَلَا إِثْمَ عَلَيْهِ

{Whosoever hastens out after his stay of two days (at Mina) there is no sin in him and whosoever delays there is no sin on him}[1] (2:203)

COMMENTARY: If anyone casts pebbles on the three pillars on the twelfth after zuhr and returns to Makkah then he earns no sin and he will not have to stay at Mina on the night preceding the 13th and to cast pebbles on the 13th.

Similarly, if anyone delays and stays beyond the 12th into the 13th and casts pebbles on the night, there is no sin on him too. Both these ways are allowed but it is better to delay because there is more chance of worship in it.

During the jahiliyah some people said that it was sin to hasten and others called delay a sin. So, this command corrects the nation.

This chapter does not have Section III

CHAPTER - XV

THE HARAM (OR THE SACRED TERRITORY) OF MAKKAH - MAY ALLAH, THE EXALTED, PRESERVE ITS SANCTITY!

بَابُ حَرَمِ مَكَّةَ حَرَسَهَا اللّٰهُ تَعَالٰى

Haram is that piece of land that is around the Ka'bah. Allah has made this territory sacred because of the sacredness of the Ka'bah. This land is called Haram because of whose sanctity and greatness Allah has made many things haraam, forbidden, within its limits which are not forbidden elsewhere. For instance, it is not proper to hunt, chop trees, pester animals, etc within its limits.

Some ulama (Scholars) say that this piece of (land became Haram (sacred) when Allah sent down Sayyiduna Aadam علیہ السلام. He was afraid of the devils lest they ruin him. So, Allah sent the angels to him and they surrounded Makkah from all the sides. The area that they surrounded became the limits of the Haram and the territory between the Ka'bah and the positions of the angels became the Haram.

---

[1] Abu Dawud # 1949, Tirmidhi # 890, Ibn Majah # 3015, Darimi # 1887, Nasa'i # 3044, Musnad Ahamad 4. 335.

Some authorities say that when Sayyiduna Aadam عليه السلام placed the Hajr Aswad (Black Stone) at its position while building the Ka'bah, a large tract of land around was illuminated. The entire illuminated surrounding was made the Haram.

The limits of the Haram are:

- towards Madinahi three miles (up to Tan'im),
- towards yemen, Ta'if, Ja'ranah and Jeddah: seven miles.

Some books write that towards Jeddah, it is ten miles and towards Ja'rannah nine miles.

On all sides where the land of the Haram ends, boundary marks are erected to show the limit. However, they are not erected on the side towards Jeddah and Ja'ranah.

SECTION I اَلْفَصْلُ الْاَوَّلُ

MERIT OF THE HARAM OF MAKKAH

(٢٧١٥-٢٧١٦) عَنِ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَوْمَ فَتْحِ مَكَّةَ لَا هِجْرَةَ وَلٰكِنْ جِهَادٌ وَنِيَّةٌ وَاِذَا اسْتُنْفِرْتُمْ فَانْفِرُوْا وَقَالَ يَوْمَ فَتْحِ مَكَّةَ اِنَّ هٰذَا الْبَلَدَ حَرَّمَهُ اللّٰهُ يَوْمَ خَلَقَ السَّمٰوَاتِ وَالْاَرْضَ فَهُوَ حَرَامٌ بِحُرْمَةِ اللّٰهِ اِلٰى يَوْمِ الْقِيَامَةِ وَاِنَّهُ لَمْ يَحِلَّ الْقِتَالُ فِيْهِ لِاَحَدٍ قَبْلِيْ وَلَمْ يَحِلَّ لِيْ اِلَّا سَاعَةً مِنْ نَّهَارٍ فَهُوَ حَرَامٌ بِحُرْمَةِ اللّٰهِ اِلٰى يَوْمِ الْقِيَامَةِ لَا يُعْضَدُ شَوْكُهُ وَلَا يُنَفَّرُ صَيْدُهُ وَلَا يَلْتَقِطُ لُقَطَتَهُ اِلَّا مَنْ عَرَّفَهَا وَلَا يُخْتَلٰى خَلَاهَا فَقَالَ الْعَبَّاسُ يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ اِلَّا الْاِذْخِرَ فَاِنَّهُ لِقَيْنِهِمْ وَلِبُيُوْتِهِمْ فَقَالَ اِلَّا الْاِذْخِرَ۔ مُتَّفَقٌ عَلَيْهِ وَفِيْ رِوَايَةِ اَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ لَا يُعْضَدُ شَجَرُهَا وَلَا يَلْتَقِطُ سَاقِطَتَهَا اِلَّا مُنْشِدٌ۔

2715. Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضى الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said on the day of the conquest of Makkah, "There is now no hijrah (from Makkah to Madinah as farad). Rather, there is jihad and (in deeds, the sincerity of) intention. So, when you are called to (join in) jihad, go forward (and participate)." And, he also said on the day of the conquest of Makkah, "Surely, this town, Allah made it sacred on the day He created the heavens and the earth. Hence, it is sacred by the sacredness conferred on it by Allah till the day of resurrection. (So, it is forbidden to mankind to violate its sancitity.) Without doubt, neither to anyone before me nor to me was (killing and) fighting permitted in it, and it was made lawful to me only during an hour on one day (of the conquest of Makkah). So, it is sacred by the sacredness conferred on it by Allah till the day of resurrection (till the first trumpet is blown on that day). Its thorns should not be cut. Its game should not be hurt, all that is dropped should not be picked up except by one who makes a public announcement about it, and its fresh herbage should not be plucked."

Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضى الله عنه submitted. "But idhkar (a kind of grass), O Messenger of Allah, for it is useful to their blacksmiths (ironsmiths and goldsmiths) and to their houses (for their roofs)." So, he agree, "Except idhkar."[1]

---

[1] Bukhari # 1834, Musilm # 445-1353, Nasa'i # 2874, Ibn Majah # 2109, Musnad Ahmad 1-259.

2716. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated it with these words, "Its trees should not be chopped and what is dropped may be picked up by none save one who makes an announcement for it."[1]

COMMENTARY: When the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم emigrated to Madinah from Makkah, hijrah (or emigration) was fard(compulsory) on every person who was able to do so. When Makkah was liberated, this hijrah came to an end because Makkah was no more Darul-Harb, land of battle or enemy territory. However, jihad and good intention to do deeds will continue to earth reward forever. So, too the hijrah that one undertakes for Islam, and its commands and symbols, remains and will also fetch reward.

Since it is disallowed to cut thorny trees, the chopping down of trees without thorns is more wrong. According to the Hidayah, if anyone plucks grass or cuts trees that do not belong to anyone then it is wajib (obligatory) on him to reimburse its price, but it will not be wajib (obligatory) if dry grass is cut off though even that is wrong. It is also disallowed to graze on its grass, but adhkar may be cut and grazed on, and like it truffle is also exempted. Imam Shafi'I رحمہ اللہ however, said that is allowed to graze animals on the land of the Haram.

'Luqtah' is anything unclaimed on the ground. Its owner is not known and is untraced. Elsewhere, apart from the Haram, if anyone finds such a thing, he must continue to announce the find but if the owner is not traced and he himself is poor he may take it otherwise give it away as charity. If after that, the owner comes up he must pay him its price. As for such property found in the Haram, the finder will have to make announcement till the owner is traced. He can neither use it himself no give it away as charity. Imam Shafi'I رحمہ اللہ abides by this. But, most ulama (Scholars) and the Hanafis maintain that the same command applies to luqtah in the Haram as elsewhere. They cite the hadith that speaks of luqtah generally and will be narrated in the chapter of luqtah.

The ulama (Scholars) interpret the hadith to mean that the finder of luqtah of Haram must announce it for one year in Makkah as is done elsewhere. He must not do it only in the days of hajj. No one should misunderstand that the luqtah of Haram should be announced only in the days of hajj.

NOT PROPER TO CARRY WEAPONS IN MAKKAH UNNECESSARILY

(٢٧١٧) وَعَنْ جَابِرٍ قَالَ سَمِعْتُ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُوْلُ لَا يَحِلُّ لِاَحَدِكُمْ اَنْ يَحْمِلَ بِمَكَّةَ السِّلَاحَ۔ (رواه مسلم)

2717. Sayyiduna Jabir رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that he heard Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم say, "It is not permitted to any of you to carry weapon is Makkah."[2]

COMMENTARY: Most ulama (Scholars) hold that it is not proper to carry weapons in Makkah unnecessarily. However, Imam Hasan رضی اللہ عنہ said that it is not proper even when necessary.

QUESTION OF RETALIATION & PRESCRIBED PUNISHMENT IN MAKKAH

(٢٧١٨) وَعَنْ اَنَسٍ اَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ دَخَلَ مَكَّةَ يَوْمَ الْفَتْحِ وَعَلٰى رَأْسِهِ الْمِغْفَرُ فَلَمَّا نَزَعَهُ جَاءَ رَجُلٌ وَقَالَ اِنَّ ابْنَ خَطَلٍ مُتَعَلِّقٌ بِاَسْتَارِ الْكَعْبَةِ فَقَالَ اقْتُلْهُ۔ (متفق عليه)

---

[1] Muslim # 447-1355, Abu Dawud # 2017, Musnad Ahmad 2-288.

[2] Muslim # 149-1356.

2718. Sayyiduna Anas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم entered Makkah on the day of the conquest (of Makkah). He had a helmet on his head. As he removed it, a man (Sayyiduna Fadl ibn Ubayd) رضی اللہ عنہ came to him and said that Ibn Khatal (a renegade) was hanging on to the curtain of the Ka'bah. He instructed him to kill him.[1]

COMMENTARY: Teebi رحمہ اللہ said that Imam Shafi'I رحمہ اللہ cites the Prophet Muhammad's صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم example of coming to Makkah with a helmet to prove that one who has no intention of performing hajj or umrah may enter Makkah without assuming the ihram (pilgrim-robe). The Hanafis, however, maintain that no outsider can enter Makkah without assuming the ihram (pilgrim-robe) at the miqat whether he comes for the pilgrimage or for any other purpose. They rely on the Prophet Muhammad's صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم instructions to this effect. Moreover, the ihram (pilgrim-robe) is assumed to respect the sanctity of Makkah whatever the purpose of arrival.

On the day of conquest of Makkah, on the particular hour of confrontation, the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم was permitted to enter without the ihram (pilgrim-robe). He said in an earlier hadith (2715) that it was made lawful for him during that hour.

Allamah Teebi رحمہ اللہ said about Ibn Khatal that he was a Muslim but had turned apostate and he had killed a Muslim. Who was his servant. He had also hired a singing girl who composed satirical poem about the prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم, his sahabah (Prophet's companions) رضی اللہ عنہم and Islam.

Imam Maalik رحمہ اللہ and Imam Shafi'I رحمہ اللہ deduce from this hadith that it is allowed to seek retaliation and to impose the limits in Makkah. Imam Abu Hanifah رحمہ اللہ said that it is not allowed and the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم had imposed the punishment on Ibn Khatal during the hour that was made lawful to him.

ENTERING MAKKAH WITHOUT IHRAM (PILGRIM-ROBE)

(٢٧١٩) وَعَنْ جَابِرٍ أَنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ دَخَلَ يَوْمَ فَتْحِ مَكَّةَ وَعَلَيْهِ عِمَامَةٌ سَوْدَاءُ بِغَيْرِ إِحْرَامٍ۔ (رواه مسلم)

2719. Sayyiduna Jabir رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that, on the day of the conquest of Makkah, Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم entered (Makkah) wearing a black turban but he had not assumed the ihram (pilgrim-robe).[2]

COMMENTARY: The Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم had a helmet on him and a turban over it. See commentary on hadith # 2718. This hadith is evidence that a black turban may be worn, being mustahab (desirable).

FOR WARNING ABOUT MISCHIEF AT THE KA'BAH

(٢٧٢٠) وَعَنْ عَائِشَةَ قَالَتْ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَغْزُوْ جَيْشٌ بِ الْكَعْبَةَ فَإِذَا كَانُوا بِبَيْدَاءَ مِنَ الْأَرْضِ يُخْسَفُ بِأَوَّلِهِمْ وَاٰخِرِهِمْ قُلْتُ يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ وَكَيْفَ يُخْسَفُ، بِأَوَّلِهِمْ وَاٰخِرِهِمْ وَفِيْهِمْ أَسْوَاقُهُمْ

[1] Bukhari # 1836, Muslim # 450. 1357, Tirmidhi 1693, Nasa'i # 2867, Muwatta Maalik 247 (Hajj) Musnad Ahmad 3-164.

[2] Muslim # 451-1358, Nasa'i # 2869, Darimi # 2869.

وَمَنْ لَيْسَ مِنْهُمْ قَالَ يُخْسَفُ بِأَوَّلِهِمْ وَاٰخِرِهِمْ ثُمَّ يُبْعَثُوْنَ عَلٰى نِيَّاتِهِمْ۔ (متفق عليه)

2720. Sayyidah Ayshah رضی الله عنها narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم said, "An army will advance to attack the Ka'bah but the first of them and the last of them will be swallowed up in a wide desert." She asked him, "O Messenger of Allah, how will the first and the last of them be swallowed up when there would be among them their merchants and those not belonging to them?" He repeated, "The first of them and the last of them will be swallowed up. However, later they would be resurrected in keeping with their intentions."[1]

COMMENTARY: The Prophet Muhammad صلی الله علیه وسلم gave this advance warning of the times when the world would be towards its closing days. After the coming of Imam Mahdi, an army of the rulers of Egypt, Sufyani, will set out towards Makkah to desecrate the Ka'bah. However, they will not achieve their vile ambition. The earth will swallow them up.

At the time of resurrection, those who were not part of the army but were compulsorily taken along to swell numbers will be judged according to their intentions.

HE WHO WOULD DEFILE THE KA'BAH

(۲۷۲۱) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يُخَرِّبُ الْكَعْبَةَ ذُوالسُّوَيْقَتَيْنِ مِنَ الْحَبَشَةِ۔ (متفق عليه)

2721. Sayyiduna Abu hurayrah رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم said, "Dhu as suwaqatayn (the one possessing short and thin legs) from Ethiopia will desecrate the Ka'bah."[2]

COMMENTARY: It is destined that the venerated Ka'bah will be destroyed by a lowly man. After that, the last Hour would follow and this earth would be eliminated. The creatures in this earth are closely linked with the Ka'bah.

(۲۷۲۲) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ كَاَنِّيْ بِهٖ اَسْوَدَ اَفْحَجَ يَقْلَعُهَا حَجَرًا حَجَرًا۔ (رواه البخاری)

2722. Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضی الله عنه narrated that the Prophet Muhammad صلی الله علیه وسلم said, "It is as though I see the black deformed toed man demolishing it (the Ka'bah) stone by stone."[3]

COMMENTARY: (اَفْحَج) is one with overlapping toes and heels are separated from shins. (He is proud and walks with toes turned inwards and heels outward. - Arabic English Disctionary - wortabet.)[4]

SECTION II اَلْفَصْلُ الثَّانِيْ

HOARDING IN THE HARAM TO MAKE MONEY

(۲۷۲۳) عَنْ يَعْلَى ابْنِ اُمَيَّةَ قَالَ اِنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ احْتِكَارُ الطَّعَامِ فِي الْحَرَمِ اِلْحَادٌ فِيْهِ۔ (رواه ابوداؤد)

---

[1] Bukhari # 2118, Muslim # 8-2884 (with words differing).

[2] Bukhari # 1591, Muslim # 57-2909, Nasa'i # 2904, Musnad Ahmad 2-310.

[3] Bukhari # 1595.

[4] See before & After the last hear Ibn Kathir (English tr) Darul Isha'at Karachi.

2723. Sayyiduna Ya'la ibn Umayyah رضی اللہ عنہ said that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "Hoarding food in the sacred territory (of the Haram) to be able to sell at exorbitant prices is irreverence to it."[1]

COMMENTARY: This kind of a thing is a social injustice as well as sin in the eyes of Shari'ah. It is forbidden everywhere, but in the Haram it is severely detested and it to turn away from the truth to falsehood. Allah says about such waywardness in the Haram:

وَمَنْ يُّرِدْ فِيْهِ بِاِلْحَادٍ بِظُلْمٍ نُّذِقْهُ مِنْ عَذَابٍ اَلِيْمٍ

{And whose intends Profanity therein wrongfully, we shall make him taste of a painful chastisement} (22:25)

It is makruh(unbecoming) to hoard provision of man and animals in a city whose dwellers feel the pinch of it.

EXCELLENCE OF MAKKAH

(٢٧٢٤) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لِمَكَّةَ مَا اَطْيَبَكِ مِنْ بَلَدٍ وَاَحَبَّكِ اِلَيَّ وَلَوْ لَا اَنَّ قَوْمِي اَخْرَجُوْنِي مِنْكِ مَاسَكَنْتُ غَيْرَكِ۔ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَقَالَ هٰذَا حَدِيْثٌ حَسَنٌ صَحِيْحٌ غَرِيْبٌ اِسْنَادًا۔

2724. Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said to Makkah, "What an excellent town you are! How dear to me you are! Had not my people driven me away from you, I would not live anywhere besides you."[2]

COMMENTARY: This hadith is evidence that Makkah is more excellent then Madinah. This is what most ulama (Scholars) say but Imam Maalik رحمہ اللہ maintained that Madinahy is more excellent then Makkah.

(٢٧٢٥) وَعَنْ عَبْدِاللّٰهِ بْنِ عَدِيِّ بْنِ حَمْرَاء قَالَ رَأَيْتُ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَاقِفًا عَلَى الْحَزْوَرَةِ فَقَالَ وَاللّٰهِ اِنَّكِ لَخَيْرُ اَرْضِ اللّٰهِ وَاَحَبُّ اَرْضِ اللّٰهِ اِلَى اللّٰهِ وَلَوْ لَا اِنِّيْ اُخْرِجْتُ مِنْكِ مَاخَرَجْتُ۔

(رواه الترمذی وابن ماجة)

2725. Sayyiduna Abdullah ibn Adil ibn Hamra رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that he saw Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم stand at Hazwarah and say, "By Allah, the best portion of Allah's earth and the dearest of it to Him are you. Here I not driven away from you, I would not have gone."[3]

COMMENTARY: Hazwarah is a place in Makkah.

A believer must regard his residence in Makkah as a great honour. He must not surrender this privilege unless he is compelled by a religious or worldly need to emigrate. To enter Makkah is a honour and to gout of it is ill-luck.

It is stated in Durr Mukhtar that if anyone is certain that he will not commit sin then he must take up residence in these two cities (Makkah and Madinah). But, if anyone is not sure, then he must not take up residence in these places.

---

[1] Abu Dawud # 2020.

[2] Tirmidhi # 3952.

[3] Tirmidhi # 3951, Ibn Majah # 3108, Musnad Ahmad 4-305, Darimi # 2510.

SECTION III — اَلْفَصْلُ الثَّالِثُ

(٢٧٢٦) عَنْ اَبِي شُرَيْحٍ نِ الْعَدَوِيِّ اَنَّهُ قَالَ لِعَمْرِو بْنِ سَعِيْدٍ وَهُوَ يَبْعَثُ الْبُعُوْثَ اِلٰى مَكَّةَ اِئْذَنْ لِي اَيُّهَا الْاَمِيْرُ اُحَدِّثْكَ قَوْلًا قَامَ بِهِ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ الْغَدَ مِنْ يَوْمِ الْفَتْحِ سَمِعَتْهُ اُذُنَايَ وَوَعَاهُ قَلْبِيْ وَاَبْصَرَتْهُ عَيْنَايَ حِيْنَ تَكَلَّمَ بِهِ حَمِدَ اللّٰهَ وَاَثْنٰى عَلَيْهِ ثُمَّ قَالَ اِنَّ مَكَّةَ حَرَّمَهَا اللّٰهُ وَلَمْ يُحَرِّمْهَا النَّاسُ فَلَا يَحِلُّ لِامْرِءٍ يُؤْمِنُ بِاللّٰهِ وَالْيَوْمِ الْاٰخِرِ اَنْ يَّسْفِكَ بِهَا دَمًا وَلَا يَعْضُدُ بِهَا شَجَرَةً فَاِنْ اَحَدٌ تَرَخَّصَ بِقِتَالِ رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فِيْهَا فَقُوْلُوْا لَهُ اِنَّ اللّٰهَ قَدْ اَذِنَ لِرَسُوْلِهِ وَلَمْ يَأْذَنْ لَكُمْ وَاِنَّمَا اَذِنَ لِي فِيْهَا سَاعَةً مِنْ نَهَارٍ وَقَدْ عَادَتْ حُرْمَتُهَا الْيَوْمَ كَحُرْمَتِهَا بِالْاَمْسِ وَلْيُبَلِّغِ الشَّاهِدُ الْغَائِبَ فَقِيْلَ لِاَبِي شُرَيْحٍ مَا قَالَ لَكَ عَمْرٌو قَالَ قَالَ اَنَا اَعْلَمُ بِذٰلِكَ مِنْكَ يَا اَبَا شُرَيْحٍ اِنَّ الْحَرَمَ لَا يُعِيْذُ عَاصِيًا وَلَا فَارًّا بِدَمٍ وَلَا فَارًّا بِخَرْبَةٍ۔ مُتَّفَقٌ عَلَيْهِ وَفِي الْبُخَارِيِّ الْخَرْبَةُ الْجِنَايَةُ۔

2726. Sayyiduna Abu Shurayh al-Adawi رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that he said to Amr ibn Sa'eed when he was dispatching an army to Makkah, "Permit me, O amir, to narrate to you what Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said standing on the morning after the conquest (of Makkah). My two ears heard it and my heat remember it, and my both eyes observed it while he spoke. He praised Allah and glorified Him. He said:
"Allah has made Makkah sacred and men have not made it sacred. It is not allowed to a man who believes in Allah and the Last Day to shed blood here or to cut down its trees. So, if anyone regards fighting allowed because of the fighting of Allah's Messenger here, then tell them that Allah had permitted His Messenger and has not permitted him. And permission was granted to me only for some time during the day and the sanctity is restored hereafter today as its sanctity was last evening. So, let those who are present convey it to those who are not present here."
Sayyiduna Abu Shurayh رضی اللہ عنہ was asked, "What did amr say to you?" He said that he boasted, "I know that better than you, O Abu Shurayh. Surely the Haram does not give sanctuary to the disobedient and the fugitives who shed blood and the fugitives who commit crime."[1]
Bukhari's version has "who commit fault."[2]

COMMENTARY: Amr ibn Sa'eed was governor of Madinah for the caliph Abdul Maalik ibn Marwan. When be decided to send an army to Makkah to annihilate Sayyiduna Abdullah ibn zubayr رضی اللہ عنہ, Sayyiduna Abu Shurayh رضی اللہ عنہ, a sahabi, expressed disgust at this move. He conveyed to him the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم message that even one deserving to be killed should not be killed in Makkah, what then to say of a glorious sahabi to kill whom he was dispatching an army. Amr argued that Makkah did not give refuge to one who disobeyed the caliph. In other words, Amr thought that Abdul Malik was a genuine caliph and Abdullah ibn Zubayr رضی اللہ عنہ a rebel. The Marwan was not a genuine caliph so anyone who rejected him could not be legally called a rebel. Moreover, Amr ibn Sa'eed accused Sayyiduna Abdullah ibn Zubayr رضی الله عنه of shedding blood and robbery and held him liable to be punished.

---

[1] Bukhari # 1832, Muslim # 446-1354, Tirmidhi # 809, Nasa'i # 1873, Musnad Ahmad 6-385.
[2] Bukhari # 104.

Indeed, they did martyr him in the Haram.

(٢٧٢٧) وَعَنْ عَيَّاشِ بْنِ اَبِي رَبِيْعَةَ الْمَخْزُوْمِيِّ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَا تَزَالُ هٰذِهِ الْاُمَّةُ بِخَيْرٍ مَا عَظَّمُوْا هٰذِهِ الْحُرْمَةَ حَقَّ تَعْظِيْمِهَا فَاِذَا ضَيَّعُوْا ذٰلِكَ هَلَكُوْا۔ (رواه ابن ماجة)

2727. Sayyiduna Ayyash ibn Abu Rabi'ah al-Makhzumi رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم said, "This ummah will not cease to follow good (and prosper) as long as they give respect to this sacredness (of Makkah and the Haram of Makkah) the way it deserves respect. When they abandon the respect due to it, they will perish.

CHAPTER - XVI

THE HARAM OF MADINAH - MAY ALLAH THE EXALTED PRESERVE ITS SANCTITY

بَابُ حَرَمِ الْمَدِيْنَةِ حَرَسَهَا اللّٰهُ تَعَالٰى

There are ahadith on the sacredness of Madinah and its surrounding land, But, the ulama (Scholars) have different opinion about it. The Hanafi ulama (Scholars) say that their sacredness means that the city and land on all its four sides must be sanctified and respected, but it is not the same command with as much severity as for Makkah and its surroundings. Thus, according to the Hanafi School it is not forbidden to cut trees etc and to hunt in Madinah and its surrounding lands.

However, the other three imams contend that the gravity of the sacredness of the Haram of Makkah and of the Haram of Madinah are at par. Hence, their contention is that the same things are forbidden in Madinah and its surroundings as are forbidden in Makkah and its surroundings However, they do concede that if these things are perpetrated in the Haram of Madinah, jaza or recompense will not be wajib (obligatory).

SECTION I — اَلْفَصْلُ الْاَوَّلُ

THE LIMIT OF THE HARAM OF MADINAH

(٢٧٢٨) عَنْ عَلِيٍّ قَالَ مَا كَتَبْنَا عَنْ رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اِلَّا الْقُرْاٰنَ وَمَا فِيْ هٰذِهِ الصَّحِيْفَةِ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَلْمَدِيْنَةُ حَرَامٌ مَا بَيْنَ عَيْرٍ اِلٰى ثَوْرٍ فَمَنْ اَحْدَثَ فِيْهَا حَدَثًا اَوْ اٰوٰى مُحْدِثًا فَعَلَيْهِ لَعْنَةُ اللّٰهِ وَالْمَلَائِكَةِ وَالنَّاسِ اَجْمَعِيْنَ لَا يُقْبَلُ مِنْهُ صَرْفٌ وَلَا عَدْلٌ۔ ذِمَّةُ الْمُسْلِمِيْنَ وَاحِدَةٌ يَسْعٰى بِهَا اَدْنَاهُمْ فَمَنْ اَخْفَرَ مُسْلِمًا فَعَلَيْهِ لَعْنَةُ اللّٰهِ وَالْمَلَائِكَةِ وَالنَّاسِ اَجْمَعِيْنَ لَا يُقْبَلُ مِنْهُ صَرْفٌ وَلَا عَدْلٌ وَمَنْ وَالٰى قَوْمًا بِغَيْرِ اِذْنِ مَوَالِيْهِ فَعَلَيْهِ لَعْنَةُ اللّٰهِ وَالْمَلَائِكَةِ وَالنَّاسِ اَجْمَعِيْنَ لَا يُقْبَلُ مِنْهُ صَرْفٌ وَلَا عَدْلٌ۔ مُتَّفَقٌ عَلَيْهِ وَفِيْ رِوَايَةٍ لَهُمَا مَنِ ادَّعٰى اِلٰى غَيْرِ اَبِيْهِ اَوْ تَوَلّٰى غَيْرَ مَوَالِيْهِ فَعَلَيْهِ لَعْنَةُ اللّٰهِ وَالْمَلَائِكَةِ وَالنَّاسِ

اَجْمَعِيْنَ لَا يُقْبَلُ مِنْهُ صَرْفٌ وَّلَا عَدْلٌ۔

2728. Sayyiduna Ali رضی اللہ عنہ narrated, "We did not write anything on the authority of Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم but the Quran and that which is in this sahifah." He also narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "Madinah is sacred between ayr and Thawr. Hence, if anyone innovates here a bid'ah, or gives protection to an innovator then on him is the curse of Allah, the angels and the people all together and no (deed) obligatory and supererogatory are accepted from him. The protection extended by the Muslims is the same for which the humblest of them may endeavour. Hence, if anyone breaks a covenant made by a Muslim, the curse of Allah, the angels and the people all together is on him. No obligation and supererogatory (deeds) are accepted from him. If anyone contracts alliance with a people without permission of his own compatriots, then the curse of Allah, the angels and the people all together is on him. No obligatory and supererogatory (deeds) are accepted from him."

Another version of Bukhari and Muslim also has: "If anyone ascribes his parentage to other than his father or his service to other than his master, then the curse of Allah, t he angels and all the people together is on him and no obligatory and supererogatory (deeds) are accepted from him."[1]

COMMENTARY: Perhaps some people may have had a misconception that the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم had given Sayyiduna Ali رضی اللہ عنہ something apart from the Quran of which no one else knew anything. Sayyiduna Ali رضی اللہ عنہ denied that he had anything, saying that he had written only the Quran as he dictated it to him, or some ahadith about the commands that he had jotted down in a sahifah (document). 'this sahifah' means sheets of paper with written material about commands of blood wit and of some other subjects. He kept it in the sheath of his sword. Of the other material was the command about Madinah that Sayyiduna Ali رضی اللہ عنہ mentioned in the hadith under discussion. Its territory is defined and such things are forbidden therein as do not behave its high standing and sanctity.

However, Imam Shafi'I رحمہ اللہ considers (حرام or mean (حرم) meaning, "Madinah is like the Haram (حرم) of Makkah. Whatever is haraam (حرام) – forbidden) in Haram Makkah are also forbidden in Haram Madinah. He defines the limits of Haram Madinah between the two mountains Ayr and Thawr to either side of Madinah.

'Fard(compulsory) (obligatory) and supererogatory will not be accepted from him.' The word (صرف) stands for both. The sentence could also mean 'repentance and intercession will not be accepted from him.' Similarly, the word (عدل) stands for both 'supererogatory' and 'fard(compulsory) or obligatory.' And, as some say (عدل) could also mean intercession and 'repentance.'

The next command that Sayyiduna Ali رضی اللہ عنہ read from the sahifah concerned protection extended by a Muslim to someone. It must be honoured by all other Muslims.

The next concerned forming an alliance with some people without permission of the parent body. This refers to the word (ولا). This word also refers to a freedman. If a master sets his slave free, and the slave has no posterity as heir then the rights of inheritance belong to his master.

---

[1] Bukhari # 1870, Muslim # 467-1370, Tirmidhi # 2134, Abu Dawud # 2034, Darimi # 2529, Musnad Ahmad 1-81.

SAYINGS OF SHI'AH REJECTED: The Shi'ah claim that the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم had his will written down by Sayyiduna Ali رضى الله عنه. 'He had dictated many things therein. Among these things was the nomination of Sayyiduna Ali رضى الله عنه as his Caliphate, succeeding him immediately on his death. Only a few of the ahlul bayt had knowledge of this will (Among them Sayyiduna Ali رضى الله عنه, Sayyidah Fatimah رضى الله عنه and so on.) No one else know of that.' This saying of the Shi'ahs is simply falsehood because the hadith under discussion rejects it, and Sayyiduna Ali رضى الله عنه himself said it explicitly that he did not write anything for the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم but the Quran and those sheets of paper. This hadith tells us that it is mustahab (desirable) to write down what is knowledge. It is a great service and earns much reward.

RESIDENCE IN MADINAH SPELLS PROSPERITY IN BOTH WORLDS

(٢٧٢٩) وَعَنْ سَعْدٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اِنِّيْ اُحَرِّمُ مَابَيْنَ لَابَتَيِ الْمَدِيْنَةِ اَنْ يُّقْطَعَ عِضَاهُهَا اَوْيُقْتَلَ صَيْدُهَا وَقَالَ الْمَدِيْنَةُ خَيْرٌ لَّهُمْ لَوْ كَانُوْا يَعْلَمُوْنَ لَا يَدَعُهَا اَحَدٌ رَغْبَةً عَنْهَا اِلَّا اَبْدَلَ اللّٰهُ فِيْهَا مَنْ هُوَخَيْرٌ مِّنْهُ وَلَا يَثْبُتُ اَحَدٌ عَلٰى لَاوَائِهَا وَجَهْدِهَا اِلَّاكُنْتُ لَهٗ شَفِيْعًا اَوْ شَهِيْدًا يَوْمَ الْقِيَامَةِ۔ (رواه مسلم)

2729. Sayyiduna Sa'd رضى الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "I declare sacred the land between the bases of the two mountains of Madinah. Thus its thorny trees must not be chopped nor its game be killed."
He said also, "Madinah is best for them (who reside here) only if they realize it. No one goes away from it out of dislike of it, but Allah brings in it someone better than he (who goes away) to replace him. No one remains here enduring hardship and anxiety but I will intercede for him on the day of resurrection" - or, he said - "be witness in his favour."[1]

COMMENTARY: This hadith gives glad tidings to those who reside in Madinah permanently. It is necessary for a believer to be grateful to Allah for making him a citizen of the two noble Harams (Makkah and Madinah) for it is a mighty blessing. He must endure difficulties and must not ignore these places and be attracted by the outward glory of other cities. Real blessing and comfort are of the next world:

اَللّٰهُمَّ لَاعَيْشَ اِلَّاعَيْشُ الْاٰخِرَةِ

{O Allah, there is no comfort but the comfort of the hereafter.}
(Hadith of Bukhari # 2835, Muslim # 130-1805, Musnad Ahmad 3-172)

ONE WHO ENDURES DIFFICULTY & ANXIETY IN MADINAH

(٢٧٣٠) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ اَنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ لَا يَصْبِرُ عَلٰى لَاْوَاءِ الْمَدِيْنَةِ وَشِدَّتِهَا اَحَدٌ مِنْ اُمَّتِيْ اِلَّاكُنْتُ لَهٗ شَفِيْعًا يَوْمَ الْقِيَامَةِ۔ (رواه مسلم)

2730. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضى الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "None of my ummah endures the hardship of Madinah and its severity, but I shall be an intercessor for him on the day of resurrection."[1]

[1] Muslim # 459-1363, Musnad Ahmad 1-181.

PROPHET'S PRAYER FOR MADINAH

(٢٧٣١) وَعَنْهُ قَالَ كَانَ النَّاسُ إِذَا رَأَوْا أَوَّلَ الثَّمَرَةِ جَاءُوْا بِهِ إِلَى النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَإِذَا أَخَذَهُ قَالَ اَللّٰهُمَّ بَارِكْ لَنَافِي ثَمَرِنَا وَ بَارِكْ لَنَا فِي مَدِيْنَتِنَا وَ بَارِكْ لَنَا فِي صَاعِنَاوَ بَارِكْ لَنَا فِي مُدِّنَا اَللّٰهُمَّ إِنَّ إِبْرَاهِيْمَ عَبْدُكَ وَخَلِيْلُكَ وَنَبِيُّكَ وَإِنِّي عَبْدُكَ وَنَبِيُّكَ وَإِنَّهُ دَعَاكَ لِمَكَّةَ وَأَنَا أَدْعُوْكَ لِلْمَدِيْنَةِ بِمِثْلِ مَا دَعَاكَ لِمَكَّةَ وَمِثْلِهِ مَعَهُ ثُمَّ قَالَ يَدْعُو أَصْغَرَ وَلِيْدٍ لَهُ فَيُعْطِيْهِ ذٰلِكَ الثَّمَرَ۔ (رواه مسلم)

2731. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی الله عنه narrated that when the people saw the first fruit (it was their practice that) they brought the fruit to the Prophet Muhammad صلی الله علیه وسلم. When he took it, he prayed:

اَللّٰهُمَّ بَارِكْ لَنَافِي ثَمَرِنَا وَ بَارِكْ لَنَا فِي مَدِيْنَتِنَا وَ بَارِكْ لَنَا فِي صَاعِنَاوَ بَارِكْ لَنَا فِي مُدِّنَا اَللّٰهُمَّ إِنَّ إِبْرَاهِيْمَ عَبْدُكَ وَخَلِيْلُكَ وَنَبِيُّكَ وَإِنِّي عَبْدُكَ وَنَبِيُّكَ وَإِنَّهُ دَعَاكَ لِمَكَّةَ وَأَنَا أَدْعُوْكَ لِلْمَدِيْنَةِ بِمِثْلِ مَا دَعَاكَ لِمَكَّةَ وَمِثْلِهِ مَعَهُ

[O Allah, bless us in our fruits and bless us in our city. And bless us in our Sa' and bless us in our mudd.
O Allah, surely Ibrahim was Your slave and your friend and your prophet. And, indeed, I am your slave and your prophet. He had prayed to you for Makkah and I pray to you for Madinah the like of what he had prayed for Makkah, and as much of it again]
After that, he invited the youngest child to him and he gave him that fruit.[2]

COMMENTARY: The words 'bless us' mean 'to increase for us.' Hence, give us more fruit, make our city more expansive and accommodating; As a result of his prayer, the area of the city and its population increased and its culture and civic life prospered and became exemplary. The Masjid Nabawi (Prophet's mosque) too was expanded. People came and settled here. Blessing in Sa' and mudd means 'more provision.'
Sayyiduna Ibrhim علیه السلام is Allah's Khalil (friend) and the Prophet Muhammad صلی الله علیه وسلم is His habib (dear one). The rank of the habib is higher than a Khalil's, but the Prophet Muhammad صلی الله علیه وسلم only mentioned Prophet Ibrahim's علیه السلام epithet in his prayer and omitted his own out of humility. He sufficed to call himself Allah's slave and Prophet.

SACREDNESS OF MADINAH

(٢٧٣٢) وَعَنْ أَبِي سَعِيْدٍ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ إِنَّ إِبْرَاهِيْمَ حَرَّمَ مَكَّةَ فَجَعَلَهَا حَرَامًا وَإِنِّي حَرَّمْتُ الْمَدِيْنَةَ حَرَامًا مَابَيْنَ مَا زَمَيْهَا أَنْ لَا يُهْرَاقَ فِيْهَا دَمٌ وَلَا يُحْمَلَ فِيْهَا سِلَاحٌ لِقِتَالٍ وَلَا تُخْبَطَ فِيْهَا شَجَرَةٌ إِلَّا لِعَلَفٍ۔ (رواه مسلم)

---

[1] Musilm # 484-1378, Muwatta Maalik # 3 (Madinah) Musnad Ahmad 2-288.

[2] Muslim # 473-1373, Tirmidhi # 3465, Ibn Majah # 3329, Darimi # 2072, Muwatta Maalik # 2 Madinah Musnad Ahmad 2-330.

2732. Sayyiduna Abu Sa'eed رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "Ibrahim علیہ السلام made Makkah sacred and made it (the) Haram (sacred area) and I have made Madinah respectable and made it a Haram, all the land between its two mountains. It demands that blood should not be shed in it, weapons should not be carried in it to fight and the leaves (of its trees) should not be beaten off in it save for fodder.[1]

COMMENTARY: Allamah Toorpushti رحمہ اللہ said that (وانی حرمت المدینۃ) does not mean: I have made Madinah sacred, but I have made it respectable and it does not refer to the commands that concern the Haram (that forbid hunting, etc) This is clear from the Prophet Muhammad's صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم words: 'Its leaves should not be beaten off but for fodder, because it is never proper in Makkah at all. As for hunting, though some sahabah (Prophet's companions) رضی اللہ عنہم have called it unlawful (in Madinah), yet many sahabah (Prophet's companions) رضی اللہ عنہم did not forbid hunting birds in Madinah. Moreover we have never heard of the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم forbidden it (in any hadith).

This was the gist of what Toorpushti رحمہ اللہ said, Mulla Ali Qari has discussed it in great detail. Scholars may see his sharh.

SA'D'S SPOILS

(٢٧٣٣) وَعَنْ عَامِرِ بْنِ سَعْدٍ أَنَّ سَعْدًا رَكِبَ إِلَى قَصْرِهِ بِالْعَقِيقِ فَوَجَدَ عَبْدًا يَقْطَعُ شَجَرًا أَوْ يَخْبِطُهُ فَسَلَبَهُ فَلَمَّا رَجَعَ سَعْدٌ جَاءَهُ أَهْلُ الْعَبْدِ فَكَلَّمُوْهُ أَنْ يَرُدَّ عَلَى غُلَامِهِمْ أَوْ عَلَيْهِمْ مَا أَخَذَ مِنْ غُلَامِهِمْ فَقَالَ مَعَاذَ اللّٰهِ أَنْ أَرُدَّ شَيْئًا نَفَّلَنِيْهِ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَأَبَى أَنْ يَّرُدَّ عَلَيْهِمْ۔ (رواہ مسلم)

2733. Sayyiduna Aamir ibn Sa'd رحمہ اللہ reported that Sayyiduna Sa'd (ibn Abu Waqqas) رضی اللہ عنہ rode to his castle in al-Aqiq (near Madinah). He found (on his way) slave cutting down tree or beating of their leaves. So (punish him), he took away his garments. When Sa'd رضی اللہ عنہ returned (to Madinah), the slave's masters came to him and requested him to return to their slave, or to them, what he had taken from their slave. But, he said, "I seek refuge in Allah, lest I returned anything that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم has let me get as spoils." He refused to return it to them.[2]

COMMENTARY: Sa'd's رضی اللہ عنہ saying that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم let him get those things as spoils means that he gave permission that if anyone was caught hunting or cutting trees in Madinah then his clothes must be confiscated. So, perhaps this hadith is abrogated or the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم permission was only by way of warning. Teebi رحمہ اللہ said that Imam Maalik رحمہ اللہ and Imam Shafi'I رحمہ اللہ contend that hunting and chopping trees in Madinah do not make an expiation Wajib (obligatory). These things are forbidden in Madinah without calling for an atonement or recompense. Some other ulama (Scholars) maintain, however, that just as recompense becomes wajib (obligatory) in Makkah so too it becomes wajib (obligatory) in Madinah when these things are perpetrated. On the other hand, Imam Abu Hanifah رحمہ اللہ said that these things are not forbidden in Madinah but merely makruh(unbecoming).

---

[1] Muslim # 475-1374.

[2] Muslim # 461-1364, Musnad Ahmad 1-168.

PROPHET MUHAMMAD'S صلى الله عليه وسلم PRAYER FOR MADINAH'S CLIMATE

(٢٧٣٤) وَعَنْ عَائِشَةَ قَالَتْ لَمَّا قَدِمَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ الْمَدِيْنَةَ وُعِكَ اَبُوْ بَكْرٍ وَ بِلَالٌ فَجِئْتُ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَاَخْبَرْتُهُ فَقَالَ اَللّٰهُمَّ حَبِّبْ اِلَيْنَا الْمَدِيْنَةَ كَحُبِّنَا مَكَّةَ اَوْاَشَدَّ وَصَحِّحْهَا وَبَارِكْ لَنَا فِي صَاعِهَا وَ مُدِّهَا وَانْقُلْ حُمَّاهَا فَاجْعَلْهَا بِالْجُحْفَةِ۔ (متفق عليه)

2734. Sayyduna Ayshah رضی الله عنها narrated that when Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم came to Madinah, Sayyiduna Abu Bakr رضی الله عنه and Sayyiduna Bilal رضی الله عنه fell ill and had fever. So, he informed Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم about it. Then, he prayed:

اَللّٰهُمَّ حَبِّبْ اِلَيْنَا الْمَدِيْنَةَ كَحُبِّنَا مَكَّةَ اَوْاَشَدَّ وَصَحِّحْهَا وَبَارِكْ لَنَا فِي صَاعِهَا وَ مُدِّهَا وَانْقُلْ حُمَّاهَا فَاجْعَلْهَا بِالْجُحْفَةِ

{O Allah, make Madinah dear to us as you had made Makkah dear to us, or more than that. And make it (more) healthy. And bless us in its sa' and its mudd. And, transfer its fever putting it al-Jufah.}[1]

COMMENTARY: It is said that when Sayyidah Ayshah رضی الله عنها paid visit to see her ailing father, Sayyiduna Abu Bakr رضی الله عنه, he made mention of Makkah and its emigrating atmosphere. She mentioned this to the Prophet Muhammad صلی الله علیه وسلم who made the foregoing prayer.

Al-Juhfah is a place between Makkah and Madinah. The Jews lives there. This hadith is evidence that Muslims may pray for the disbelievers to be overcome by destructive illnesses and for their cities to be destroyed. Indeed, there is another tradition too mentioning illnesses and diseases in Madinah before the Prophet Muhammad's صلی الله علیه وسلم emigration to Madinah. So the Prophet Muhammad صلی الله علیه وسلم had those diseases sent to the territories of the infidels (though prayers to Allah).

PROPHET MUHAMMAD'S صلی الله علیه وسلم DREAM INTERPRETED

(٢٧٣٥) وَعَنْ عَبْدِ اللّٰهِ بْنِ عُمَرَ فِي رُؤْيَا النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فِي الْمَدِيْنَةِ رَأَيْتُ امْرَأَةً سَوْدَاء ثَائِرَةَ الرَّأْسِ خَرَجَتْ مِنَ الْمَدِيْنَةِ حَتّٰى نَزَلَتْ مَهْيَعَةَ فَتَأَوَّلْتُهَا اَنَّ وَبَاء الْمَدِيْنَةِ نُقِلَ اِلٰى مَهْيَعَةَ وَهِيَ الْجُحْفَةُ۔

(رواه البخاری)

2735. Sayyiduna Abdullah ibn Umar رضی الله عنه narrated that concerning the dream of the Prophet Muhammad صلی الله علیه وسلم about Madinah. (He, the Prophet Muhammad صلی الله علیه وسلم, said) "I saw a black woman with dishevelled hair go out of Madinah and into Mahya'ah. So I interpreted it to mean that the pestilence of Madinah had transferred to Mahya'ah which is al-Juhfah."[2]

---

[1] Bukhari # 1889, Muslim # 480. 1376, Muwatta Maalik # 14 (Jami) Musnad Ahmad 6-56.

[2] Bukhari # 7039, Tirmidhi # 2290, Ibn Majah # 3924, Darimi # 2161, Musnad Ahmad 2-107.

SOME PEOPLE OF MADINAH

(٢٧٣٦) وَعَنْ سُفْيَانَ بْنِ أَبِي زُهَيْرٍ قَالَ سَمِعْتُ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُوْلُ يُفْتَحُ الْيَمَنُ فَيَأْتِيْ قَوْمٌ يَبُسُّوْنَ فَيَتَحَمَّلُوْنَ بِأَهْلِيْهِمْ وَمَنْ أَطَاعَهُمْ وَالْمَدِيْنَةُ خَيْرٌ لَّهُمْ لَوْ كَانُوْا يَعْلَمُوْنَ وَيُفْتَحُ الشَّامُ فَيَأْتِيْ قَوْمٌ يَبُسُّوْنَ فَيَتَحَمَّلُوْنَ بِأَهْلِيْهِمْ وَمَنْ أَطَاعَهُمْ وَالْمَدِيْنَةُ خَيْرٌ لَّهُمْ لَوْ كَانُوْا يَعْلَمُوْنَ وَيُفْتَحُ الْعِرَاقُ فَيَأْتِيْ قَوْمٌ يَبُسُّوْنَ فَيَتَحَمَّلُوْنَ بِأَهْلِيْهِمْ وَمَنْ أَطَاعَهُمْ وَالْمَدِيْنَةُ خَيْرٌ لَّهُمْ لَوْ كَانُوْا يَعْلَمُوْنَ۔ (متفق عليه)

2736. Sayyiduna Sufyan ibn Abu Zuhayr رضى الله عنه narrated that he heard Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم say, "Yemen will be conquered and a people will come (to it) who will be very slow (meaning, such people will rise in Madinah who will shirk away from hard work and seek the world's pleasures). They will go away (from Madinah) with their folk and those who obey them, though Madinah would be better for them, if they but knew. Syria (Shaam) will be conquered and people will come (to it) who will be very slow (meaning, such people will rise who will shirk away from hard work and seek world's pleasures). They will go away with their folk and who obey them, though madinah would be better for them, if they but knew Iraq will be conquered and people will come (to it) who will be very slow. (they will shirk labour and look for pleasures of the world). They will go away with their folk and those who obey them, though Madinah would be better for them, if they but knew."[1]

COMMENTARY: The Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم fore warned about some people of Madinah. They should emigrate from Madinah in search of worldly pleasures and an easy life. If they had an eye on the hereafter and good fortune in the world then they would not go away from Madinah.

MADINAH CASTS OUT THE EVIL

(٢٧٣٧) وَعَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ أُمِرْتُ بِقَرْيَةٍ تَأْكُلُ الْقُرٰى يَقُوْلُوْنَ يَثْرِبُ وَهِيَ الْمَدِيْنَةُ تَنْفِي النَّاسَ كَمَا يَنْفِي الْكِيْرُ خَبَثَ الْحَدِيْدِ۔ (متفق عليه)

2737. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضى الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "I have been commanded to emigrate to a town that will overshadow all towns. They call it Yathrib and it is Madinah. It expels the (evil) people as the bellows casts out impurity from iron."[2]

COMMENTARY: Those people who reside in Madinah overpower other people and conquer cities. This is borne out by history. Examples are the Amaliqah conquered many cities, then the Jews and then the Christians followed finally by the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم under whom Islam spread far and wide.

This city was called yathrib and Athrab. When the prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم came here, he gave it the name Madinah in keeping with its development into a city and large population. He gave instructions that it should not again called yathrib because it was a pre

---

[1] Bukhari # 1875, Musim # 497-1388, Muwatta Maalik # 7 (Jami), Musnad Ahmad 2-384.

[2] Bukhari # 1871, Muslim # 488-1382, Tirmidhi # 3920, Muwatta Maalik # 5 (Jami), Musnad Ahmad 2-384.

Islamic name smacking of the jahiliyah. Besides, it had a very inappropriate meaning, for yathrib means 'to reproach' or 'to destroy'. It is also suggested that it was an idol or name of a very cruel oppressive person.

According to Bukhari رحمه الله in his Tarikh, there is a tradition that if anyone says 'Yathrib' once, then he must say 'Madinah' ten times so that he atones for taking a name of the sacred city that he should not have taken. According to another tradition, 'If anyone says yathrib, he must seek forgiveness."

The (evil) people thrown out of Madinah are the disbelieving, polytheistic people. The gates of this city are closed on them forever.

NAME GIVEN TO MADINAH BY ALLAH

(٢٧٣٨) وَعَنْ جَابِرِ بْنِ سَمُرَةَ قَالَ سَمِعْتُ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُوْلُ إِنَّ اللّٰهَ سَمَّى الْمَدِيْنَةَ طَابَةَ۔ (رواه مسلم)

2738. Sayyiduna Jabir ibn Samurah رضى الله عنه narrated that he heard Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم say, "Indeed, Allah has named Madinah (طابة) (Tabbah).[1]

COMMENTARY: Allah caused the tongue of His habib (dear one) prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم to call Madinah Tabah. According to another version it is Tabah, meaning 'pure and happy.' The city is pure of the filth of disbelief and idolatry. Its climate suits sound natures and its people are happy.

PECULIARITY OF MADINAH

(٢٧٣٩) وَعَنْ جَابِرِ بْنِ عَبْدِ اللّٰهِ أَنَّ أَعْرَابِيًّا بَايَعَ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَأَصَابَ الْأَعْرَابِيَّ وَعْكٌ بِالْمَدِيْنَةِ فَأَتَى النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَقَالَ يَا مُحَمَّدُ أَقِلْنِيْ بَيْعَتِيْ فَأَبَى رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ ثُمَّ جَاءَهُ فَقَالَ أَقِلْنِيْ بَيْعَتِيْ فَأَبَى ثُمَّ جَاءَهُ فَقَالَ أَقِلْنِيْ بَيْعَتِيْ فَأَبَى فَخَرَجَ الْأَعْرَابِيُّ فَقَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِنَّمَا الْمَدِيْنَةُ كَالْكِيْرِ تَنْفِيْ خَبَثَهَا وَتَنْصَعُ طَيِّبَهَا۔ (متفق عليه)

2739. Sayyiduna Jabir ibn Abdullah رضى الله عنه narrated that a villager pledged allegiance to Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم. Later, when he suffered from fever in Madinah, he came to the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم and said, "O Muhammad do withdraw my pledge of allegiance," but Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم declined. He came again and made the same demand, but he declined. Again, he came (a third time) with the same demand and again he declined. Then, the villager departed (without the Prophet Muhammad's صلى الله عليه وسلم permission from Madinah. So, Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Indeed, Madinah is like bellows that drives away its filth and purifies the good."[2]

COMMENTARY: The Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم declines to annul the pledge of allegiance because it is not allowed to annul the pledge both of Islam and of staying with

---

[1] Muslim # 491-1385, Musnad Ahmad 5-108.

[2] Bukhari # 1883, Muslim # 489. 1383, Nasa'i # 4185, Muwatta Maalik # 4 (Jami), Musnad Ahmad 2-306.

the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم.

The ulama (Scholars) say that the characteristic of Madinah to throw out the evil people and to purify the good people was either only during the Prophet Muhammad's صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم times or it will be apparent during the last period near the day of resurrection. When the dajjal will make his appearance, Madinah will be shaken three times and all the evil people (disbelievers and hypocrites) will go away from there to the dajjal.

It is also possible that this characteristic is demonstrated in all periods, throughout time.

(٢٧٤٠) وَعَنْ اَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَاتَقُوْمُ السَّاعَةُ حَتّٰى تَنْفِي الْمَدِيْنَةُ شِرَارَهَا كَمَا يَنْفِي الْكِيْرُ خَبَثَ الْحَدِيْدِ۔ (رواه مسلم)

2740. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, The last Hour will not be established till Madinah expels its evil people as the bellows eradicates the impurity of iron.[1]

PLAGUE & THE DAJJAL WILL NOT ENTER MADINAH

(٢٧٤١) وَعَنْهُ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ عَلٰى اَنْقَابِ الْمَدِيْنَةِ مَلَائِكَةٌ لَا يَدْخُلُهَا الطَّاعُوْنُ وَلَا الدَّجَّالُ۔ (متفق علیه)

2741. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "Angels are deputed on the roads or gates of Madinah (as watchers). Neither plague nor the dajjal will enter it."[2]

COMMENTARY: The word (طاعون) ta'un translated 'plague' has been said by Shaykh Abdul Haq Muhaddith Dahlawi رحمہ اللہ to mean (وباء) pestilence. He said it will not enter Madinah either when the dajjal will appear or at all times.

(٢٧٤٢) وَعَنْ اَنَسٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَيْسَ مِنْ بَلَدٍ اِلَّا سَيَطَؤُهُ الدَّجَّالُ اِلَّا مَكَّةَ وَالْمَدِيْنَةَ لَيْسَ نَقْبٌ مِنْ اَنْقَابِهَا اِلَّا عَلَيْهِ الْمَلَائِكَةُ صَافِّيْنَ يَحْرُسُوْنَهَا فَيَنْزِلُ السَّبِخَةَ فَتَرْجُفُ الْمَدِيْنَةُ بِاَهْلِهَا ثَلَاثَ رَجَفَاتٍ فَيَخْرُجُ اِلَيْهِ كُلُّ كَافِرٍ وَمُنَافِقٍ۔ (متفق علیه)

2742. Sayyiduna Anas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "There is no town, apart from Makkah and Madinah, that the dajjal will not flatten. None of their mountain road is without angels arranged in rows to guard it. When the dajjal will appear at shawr (outside Madinah, a marshy land), Madinah will quake three times with its inhabitants driving every disbeliever and hypocrite out of it to the dajjal."[3]

PUNISHMENT TO ONE WHO CHEATS THE MADINAHS

(٢٧٤٣) وَعَنْ سَعْدٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَا يَكِيْدُ اَهْلَ الْمَدِيْنَةِ اَحَدٌ اِلَّا انْمَاعَ كَمَا يَنْمَاعُ

---

[1] Muslim # 487-1381

[2] Bukhari # 1880, Muslim # 486-1379, Tirmidhi # 2242, Muwatta Maalik # 16 (Jami), Musnad Ahmad 3-393.

[3] Bukhari # 1881, Muslim # 123-2943, Musnad Ahmad 3-191, See also before or After the last hour, Ibn kathir (English translation) Darul Isha'at Karachi, esp pp 736.

الْمِلْحُ فِي الْمَاءِ۔ (متفق عليه)

2743. Sayyiduna Sa'd رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "If anyone deceives the people of Madinah, then he will be dissolved as salt dissolves in water."[1]

COMMENTARY: This is what happened to the notorious man in the history of Islam, Yazid. He died of tuberculosis consumed to death.

PROPHET MUHAMMAD'S صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم LOVE FOR MADINAH

(٢٧٤٤) وَعَنْ أَنَسٍ أَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ كَانَ إِذَا قَدِمَ مِنْ سَفَرٍ فَنَظَرَ إِلَى جُدُرَانِ الْمَدِيْنَةِ أَوْضَعَ رَاحِلَتَهُ وَإِنْ كَانَ عَلَى دَابَّةٍ حَرَّكَهَا مِنْ حُبِّهَا۔ (رواه البخاری)

2744. Sayyiduna Anas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that when the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم returned from a journey and observed the walls of Madinah (meaning, its buildings). He made his camel run and if he was on a horse or mule, he urged it to hurry. This was out of love for Madinah.[2]

MERIT OF MOUNT UHUD

(٢٧٤٥) وَعَنْهُ أَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ طَلَعَ لَهُ أُحُدٌ فَقَالَ هٰذَا جَبَلٌ يُحِبُّنَا وَ نُحِبُّهُ اَللّٰهُمَّ إِنَّ إِبْرَاهِيْمَ حَرَّمَ مَكَّةَ وَإِنِّي أُحَرِّمُ مَابَيْنَ لَابَتَيْهَا۔ (متفق عليه)

2745. Sayyiduna Anas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that when the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم looked at Uhud, he said, "It is a mountain that loves us and we love it. O Allah, Ibrahim علیہ السلام regarded Makkah as sacred and I regard the tract of land between the two lava plains of Madinah as sacred."[3]

COMMENTARY: Allah has placed sentiments and sense in the inanimate objects too (like stones, etc.) according to their condition. He has created in them love for the Prophet علیہ السلام. awliya (men of Allah) and particularly the chief of the Prophets, Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم. Moreover, when Allah takes anyone as a friend, everything befriends him because all are His creatures and obedient to him. This statement is corroborated by the weeping of the trunk of a palm tree.

The Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم stated that the tract of land between two lava plains of Madinah is sacred. It means it is worthy of respect and madinah is included in that. It does not imply that it is as sacred and holy as Makkah is where it is forbidden to cut trees and hunt game.

(٢٧٤٦) وَعَنْ سَهْلِ بْنِ سَعْدٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ أُحُدٌ جَبَلٌ يُحِبُّنَا وَنُحِبُّهُ۔ (رواه البخاری)

2746. Sayyiduna Sahl ibn Sa'd narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "Uhud is a mountain that loves us and we love it."[4]

---

[1] Bukhari # 1877, Muslim # 494-1378, Ibn Majah # 3114.

[2] Bukhari # 1886, Tirmidhi # 3441, Musnad Ahmad 3-159.

[3] Bukhari # 7333, Muslim # 464-1365, Ibn Majah # 3115, Muwatta Maalik # 10 (Jami), Musnad Ahmad 3-149.

[4] Bukhari # 1482, Muslim # 504-1393.

SECTION II الفصل الثاني

THE HARAM OF MADINAH

(٢٧٤٧) عَنْ سُلَيْمَانَ بْنِ اَبِي عَبْدِاللّٰهِ قَالَ رَأَيْتُ سَعْدَ بْنَ اَبِي وَقَّاصٍ اَخَذَ رَجُلًا يَصِيْدُ فِي حَرَمِ الْمَدِيْنَةِ الَّذِي حَرَّمَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَسَلَبَهُ ثِيَابَهُ فَجَاءَ مَوَالِيْهِ فَكَلَّمُوْهُ فِيْهِ فَقَالَ اِنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ حَرَّمَ هٰذَا الْحَرَمَ وَقَالَ مَنْ اَخَذَ اَحَدًا يَصِيْدُ فِيْهِ فَلْيَسْلُبْهُ فَلَا اَرُدُّ عَلَيْكُمْ طُعْمَةً اَطْعَمَنِيْهَا رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَلٰكِنْ اِنْ شِئْتُمْ دَفَعْتُ اِلَيْكُمْ ثَمَنَهُ۔ (رواه ابوداؤد)

2747. Sayyiduna Sulayman ibn Abu Abdullah رحمه الله narrated that he saw Sayyiduna Sa'd ibn Abu Waqqas رضى الله عنه seize a man who had hunted in the Haram of Madinah which Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم had proclaimed was sacred. So, he took away his garments. His masters came and spoke to him concerning it. He said, "Indeed, Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم has asserted that this Haram was sacred (or forbidden territory). He had said that if a person apprehends someone hunting in it, then he should take away from him what he possesses. So, I shall not return to you that which Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم let me have as provision. But, if you like, I shall pay to you its value (as a favour and kindness)."[1]

(٢٧٤٨) وَعَنْ صَالِحٍ مَوْلًى لِسَعْدٍ اَنَّ سَعْدًا وَجَدَ عَبِيْدًا مِنْ عَبِيْدِ الْمَدِيْنَةِ يَقْطَعُوْنَ مِنْ شَجَرَةِ الْمَدِيْنَةِ فَاَخَذَ مَتَاعَهُمْ وَقَالَ يَعْنِي لِمَوَالِيْهِمْ سَمِعْتُ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَنْهٰى اَنْ يُّقْطَعَ مِنْ شَجَرِ الْمَدِيْنَةِ شَيْءٌ وَقَالَ مَنْ قَطَعَ مِنْهُ شَيْئًا فَلِمَنْ اَخَذَهُ سَلَبُهُ۔ (رواه ابوداؤد)

2748. Sayyiduna Salih رحمه الله the freedman of Sayyiduna Sa'd رضى الله عنه narrated that Sayyiduna Sa'd saw some slaves of Madinah cut down some of the trees of Madinah. He took away their belongings. He said to their masters that he has heard Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم prohibit cutting down of the trees of Madinah and say, "If anyone chops any of them then whatever is seized from them belongs to one who nabs them."[2]

COMMENTARY: While the narration gives the impression that salih رحمه الله the freedman of Sa'd رضى الله عنه narrated the hadith, the fact is that Salih رحمه الله narrated from the freedman of Sa'd رضى الله عنه salih رحمه الله was not the freedman of Sa'd رضى الله عنه but of Tawamah (or tawamah).

PROHIBITION EXTENDS TO WAJJ

(٢٧٤٩) وَعَنِ الزُّبَيْرِ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اِنَّ صَيْدَ وَجٍّ وَعِضَاهَهُ حِرْمٌ مُحَرَّمٌ لِلّٰهِ۔ رَوَاهُ اَبُوْدَاوُدَ وَقَالَ مُحيُّ السُّنَّةِ وَجٌّ ذَكَرُوْا اَنَّهَا مِنْ نَاحِيَةِ الطَّائِفِ وَقَالَ الْخَطَّابِيُّ اَنَّهُ بَدَلَ اَنَّهَا۔

2749. Sayyiduna Zubayr رضى الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "The game and the thorny trees of wajj are haram (sacred), made sacred by Allah (or

---

[1] Abu Dawud # 2037, Musnd Ahmad 1-170.

[2] Abu Dawud # 2038.

forbidden because of Allah's dear slaves, meaning the Ghazis."[1]
(Muhyi us sunnah(Practice of Holy Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم) said that wajj is said to be in the neighbourhood of Ta'if)

COMMENTARY: The ulama (Scholars) say that the prohibition to hunt, etc. in wajj might have been by way of (حمى) - a forbidden (enclosure of) grazing place where another's animals are barred. At wajj grass was preserved for the horses of the warriors.

The hadith does not say that the prohibition was because of the Haram. If we presume that the forbidding was in the sense of Haram then it was only during a particular period of time and was later rescinded.

Imam Shafi'I رحمه الله contends that at wajj, game should not be hunted and trees. Etc should not be cut down. But he says nothing about jaza or expiation being wajib (obligatory).

PRIVILEGE OF DYING IN MADINAH

(٢٧٥٠) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عُمَرَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنِ اسْتَطَاعَ اَنْ يَّمُوْتَ بِالْمَدِيْنَةِ فَلْيَمُتْ بِهَا فَاِنِّيْ اَشْفَعُ لِمَنْ يَّمُوْتُ بِهَا۔ رَوَاهُ اَحْمَدُ وَالتِّرْمِذِيُّ وَقَالَ هٰذَا حَدِيْثٌ حَسَنٌ صَحِيْحٌ غَرِيْبٌ اِسْنَادًا۔

2750. Sayyiduna Ibn Umar رضى الله عنه said that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "He who can die in Madinah, let him die in Madinah, for I shall intercede for him who dies in it."[2]

COMMENTARY: It means that if anyone can stay in Madinah till he dies then he must stay there. The Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم will get his sins forgiven if he was a sinner, but ranks elevated if he was a pious man.

In this case, intercession will be of an exclusive nature for only the residents of Madinah but not to anyone else. However, the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم general intercession will be available to every Muslim. Hence one should try to spend his last days in Madinah. In this respect, the Prayer of Sayyiduna Umar رضى الله عنه is worth emulating:

اَللّٰهُمَّ ارْزُقْنِيْ شَهَادَةً فِيْ سَبِيْلِكَ وَاجْعَلْ مَوْتِيْ بِبَلَدِ رَسُوْلِكَ

{O Allah cause me to die a martyr in your path and give me death in the city of your Messenger.}

May Allah grant us the same thing! Aameen!

MADINAH IS LAST PLACE TO BE DESOLATE

(٢٧٥١) وعن اَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اٰخِرُ قَرْيَةٍ مِّنْ قُرَى الْاِسْلَامِ خَرَابًا اَلْمَدِيْنَةُ۔ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَقَالَ هٰذَا حَدِيْثٌ حَسَنٌ غَرِيْبٌ۔

2751. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضى الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "The last city of the cities of Islam to be destroyed will be Madinah."[3]

COMMENTARY: Before the last Hour all the cities will be ruined and uninhabited Madinah will be the last of them to lose its inhabitants. This distinction is available to Madinah because of the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم.

---

[1] Abu Dawud # 2032, Musnad Ahmad 1-165.
[2] Tirmidhi # 3943, Ibn Majah # 3112, Musnad Ahmad 2-74.
[3] Tirmidhi # 3945.

MADINAH CHOSEN FOR PROPHET MUHAMMAD'S صلى الله عليه وسلم EMIGRATION

(٢٧٥٢) وعن جريربن عبد الله عن النبي صلى الله عليه وسلم قال إن الله اوحى إلى اى هؤلاء الثلاثة نزلت فهي دار هجرتك المدينة او البحرين او قنسرين. (رواه الترمذى)

2752. Sayyiduna Jarir ibn Abdullah رضى الله عنه narrated that the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Indeed, Allah revealed to me (asked) that in whichever of these three places I took up residence that will be the city of my emigration: Madinah, Bahrayn or Qinnasrin."[1]

COMMENTARY: Bahrayn is the collective name of a cluster of island in the western gulf to its south west tip. The largest of these islands is Manamah also called Bahrayn which gives this name to the entire country too. This is as the current maps depict it, but the hadith and books of history apply bahrayn to the area to the eastern coast of the Arabian peninsula, spreading from Gulf of Busra to Qatar and Oman, and to the west of the present Bahrayn. Now it is called Ahsa (or Hasa). This hadith refers to what is Hasa nowadays.

Qinnasrin is a city in Syria.

This hadith mentions three cities from which the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم had to choose his place of emigration. But the tarikh Madinah says that finally Madinah was named, so the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم came to Madinah.

SECTION III الفصل الثالث

MADINAH PROTECTED FROM THE DAJJAL

(٢٧٥٣) عن ابي بكرة عن النبي صلى الله عليه وسلم قال لايدخل المدينة رعب المسيح الدجال لها يومئذ سبعة ابواب على كل باب ملكان. (رواه البخارى)

2753. Sayyiduna Abu Bakrah رضى الله عنه narrated that the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "The fear of al-Masih ad-Dajjal will never infiltrate madinah. That day, it will have seven gates (meaning, seven paths on the day he will appear). At each gate (path will be two angels (charged with guarding Madinah).[2]

PROPHET MUHAMMAD'S صلى الله عليه وسلم PRAYER FOR BLESSING OVER MADINAH

(٢٧٥٤) وعن انس عن النبي صلى الله عليه وسلم قال اللهم اجعل بالمدينة ضعفى ما جعلت بمكة من البركة. (متفق عليه)

2754. Sayyiduna Anas رضى الله عنه narrated that the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم prayed (for Madinah):

اللهم اجعل بالمدينة ضعفى ما جعلت بمكة من البركة

{O Allah, let Madinah have twice as much blessing as you have made Makkah have.}[3]

COMMENTARY: The prayer for blessing means: 'O Allah, cause Madinah to have twice as

---

[1] Tirmidhi # 3949.

[2] (1): Bukhari 1879, Musnad Ahmad 5-47.

[3] Bukhari # 1885, Muslim # 466-1369.

much glory and honour as Makkah has. This prayer does not contradict Makkah's excellence over Madinah because the good things in Makkah in abundance are themselves great evidence of its being more excellent.

RESIDENCE IN THE TWO HARAM IS AN HONOUR

(٢٧٥٥) وَعَنْ رَجُلٍ مِنْ اٰلِ الْخَطَّابِ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ مَنْ زَارَنِيْ مُتَعَمِّدًا كَانَ فِيْ جِوَارِيْ يَوْمَ الْقِيَامَةِ وَمَنْ سَكَنَ الْمَدِيْنَةَ وَصَبَرَ عَلٰى بَلَائِهَا كُنْتُ لَهٗ شَهِيْدًا وَ شَفِيْعًا يَوْمَ الْقِيَامَةِ وَمَنْ مَاتَ فِيْ اَحَدِ الْحَرَمَيْنِ بَعَثَهُ اللّٰهُ مِنَ الْاٰمِنِيْنَ يَوْمَ الْقِيَامَةِ۔

2755. A man of the family of al-Khattab reported that the prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "He who visits me deliberately will receive my protection on the day of resurrection. He who resides in Madinah patiently bearing its difficulties will have me as a witness and intercessor on the day of resurrection. He who dies in either of the two Harams, Allah will raise him on the day of resurrection with those who are safe."[1]

COMMENTARY: Visiting deliberately is that the visitor is not motivated by business, ostentation or a worldly aim. He only hopes for reward.

VISITING THE RAWDAH

(٢٧٥٦) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عُمَرَ مَرْفُوْعًا مَنْ حَجَّ فَزَارَ قَبْرِيْ بَعْدَ مَوْتِيْ كَانَ كَمَنْ زَارَنِيْ فِيْ حَيَاتِيْ۔ رَوَاهُمَا الْبَيْهَقِيُّ فِيْ شُعَبِ الْاِيْمَانِ۔

2756. Sayyiduna Ibn Umar رضى الله عنه narrated that in a marfu form (that the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم said), "If anyone performs the hajj and visits my grave after my death then he is as one who visited me during my lifetime."[2]

COMMENTARY: The visitor after the Prophet's death is as one wлu visits him in his life time because he is alive. This hadith is also evidence that a pilgrim must visit his grave after performing hajj.

According to ahadith, the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم also said, "If anyone visits my grave then my intercession is assured for him." And, he said, "He who performs hajj but does not visit my grave, has been unjust to me." He also said, "If anyone set out for Makkah (meaning aimed to perform hajj) and decided to visit me and my mosque then (in his record of deeds) two approved hajj are written down for him."

PROPHET'S LOVE FOR MADINAH

(٢٧٥٧) وَعَنْ يَحْيٰى بْنِ سَعِيْدٍ اَنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ كَانَ جَالِسًا وَقَبْرٌ يُحْفَرُ بِالْمَدِيْنَةِ فَاطَّلَعَ رَجُلٌ فِي الْقَبْرِ فَقَالَ بِئْسَ مَضْجَعُ الْمُؤْمِنِ فَقَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ بِئْسَمَا قُلْتَ قَالَ الرَّجُلُ اِنِّيْ لَمْ اُرِدْ هٰذَا اِنَّمَا اَرَدْتُ الْقَتْلَ فِيْ سَبِيْلِ اللّٰهِ فَقَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَا مِثْلَ الْقَتْلِ فِيْ سَبِيْلِ اللّٰهِ

---

[1] Bayhaqi in Shu'ab ul Eeman.

[2] Bayhaqi Shu'ab ul Eeman.

مَا عَلَى الْاَرْضِ بُقْعَةٌ اَحَبُّ اِلَيَّ اَنْ يَكُوْنَ قَبْرِىْ بِهَا مِنْهَا ثَلَاثَ مَرَّاتٍ۔ رَوَاهُ مَالِكٌ مُرْسَلًا۔

2757. Sayyiduna Yahya ibn Sa'eed رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم was sitting while a grave was being dug in Madinah. A man glanced into the grave and remarked, "How awful a bed for the believer!" So, Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم reproached him, "What a bad thought you have expressed! "The man said, "I did not mean to say so. I only intended to refer to being killed in Allah's path as very good." Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "being killed in Allah's path is incomparable. But, there is no place in the world where I would like my grave to be but here." He said it three times.[1]

COMMENTARY: The Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم corrected the man saying that a believer's grave was not awful, but is a garden of the gardens of paradise. When that man explained that he was speaking relative to martyrdom, the Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم agreed that to be killed in Allah's path is an incomparable death.

The Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم then highlighted the excellence of death in Madinah whether as a martyr or otherwise.

SALAH (PRAYER) IN WADI AL-AQIQ

(۲۷۵۸) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ قَالَ قَالَ عُمَرُ بْنُ الْخَطَّابِ سَمِعْتُ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَهُوَ بِوَادِى الْعَقِيْقِ يَقُوْلُ اَتَانِى اللَّيْلَةَ اٰتٍ مِنْ رَبِّىْ فَقَالَ صَلِّ فِىْ هٰذَا الْوَادِى الْمُبَارَكِ وَقُلْ عُمْرَةٌ فِىْ حَجَّةٍ وَفِىْ رِوَايَةٍ وَقُلْ عُمْرَةٌ وَحَجَّةٌ۔ (رواه البخاری)

2758. Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ reported that Sayyiduna Umar ibn Khattab رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that he heard Allah's Messenger رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that he heard Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم say while he was in the wadi of al-Aqiq (a desert in Madinah). "Last night a visitor from my Lord visited me (meaning an angel came to me) and said, 'Offer salah (prayer) in this blessed wadi and say umrah with *Hajj*aj." According to another version, the visitor instructed to say umrah and *hajj*ah.[2]

COMMENTARY: According to the rules of Arabic grammar (قول) may be used for a verb too. Hence, the concluding sentence of the hadith would mean; 'and regard this salah (prayer) as that umrah which is performed with hajj.' In other words, the merit of the salah (prayer) offered in the wadi al-Aqiq is mentioned. Its reward is like the umrah that is performed with hajj.

As for the other version (وقل عمرة وحجة), it means that the salah (prayer) in wadi al-Aqiq is like an umrah and hajj.

MORE MERITS OF MADINAH

PANACEA: The ulama (Scholars) say that Allah has put healing powers in the dust and fruit of Madinah. The ahadith affirm, "In the dust of Madinah is cure for every kind of ailment." Some ahadith assert, "In the dust of Madinah lies cure for leprosy." The Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم had instructed his sahabah (Prophet's companions) رضی اللہ عنہم to use its dust to cure fever. Hence, not only did the Madinahs use it, but also there are aathar about its dust being taken out of Madinah by visitors. Some ulama (Scholars) like Shaykh Majduddin Firozabadi رحمه الله confinn having tried it.

---

[1] Muwatta Imam Maalik 21-14-33,

[2] Bukhari # 1534, Abu Dawud # 1800, Ibn Majah # 2976, Musnad Ahmad 1-24.

Shaykh Abdul Haq رحمه الله also recounted his experience in curing his foot ailment when doctors had given up the case.
Similar properties are attached to the dates of Madinah. The ahadith say that seven ajwah dates every morning on an empty stomach are an antidote for poison and sorcery.

GIVE RESPECT: It is because of the greatness and glory of this city that the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم had instructed his ummah to respect his neighbours, meaning the people of Madinah always. They should give them their rights and overlook their faults and they must forgive them their lapses as long as they do not commit grave sins. He said that he would stand as witness and intercessor for those who give them respect always. And, if anyone does not do so then he will be given puss from (طينة الخبال) to drink. (It is a pond in hell where puss and blood of the dwellers of hell is accumulated.)
One day the prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم raised his hands and prayed, "O Allah, if anyone decides to hurt me and my fellow citizens then destroy him." He said, "If anyone scares the people of Madinah, he scares me." According to a hadith in Nasa'i. "If anyone terrises the people of Madinah with his cruelty, Allah will put in him fear, and curse will fall on him of Allah, of his angels and of all mankind." And, "Deeds, obligatory or supererogatory, of such people will never be accepted by Allah."

SOME RULINGS OF HAJJ & METHOD OF PERFORMING IT

It is appropriate to conclude the Book of hajj (Pilgrimage) by summing up the rulings and method of its performance.
Four things are fard(compulsory) (absolute obligatory) in hajj: (1) ihram (pilgrim-robe), (2) standing on the day of Arafah or wuquf Arafat, (3) tawaf ziyarat and (4) observing these fard(compulsory) in this sequence.
The wajib (obligatory) (obligatory duties secondary to fard(compulsory)) in hajj are: wuquf (standing) at Muzdalifah, sa'I between as-Safa and al-Marwah casting pebbles at the jimar, for the outsider tawaf qudum, shaving head or cutting hair assuming the ihram (pilgrim-robe) at the miqat, wuquf at Arafat till sunset, to begin the tawaf at hajr aswad (but some ulama (Scholars) say it is a sunnah(Practice of Holy Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم)) to begin the tawaf at the right side, to make tawaf on foot unless there is an ecuse, to make tawaf in a purified state,
to onceal the satr during tawaf,
to begin sa'I at as-Safa,
to make sa'I on foot unless there is an excuse, the Qarin and the Mutamatta must sacrifice a sheep or a similar animal, to offer two raka't salah (prayer) after every tawaf, to observe sequence in rami sacrifice, shaving hair and tawaf ziyarat in this order, to make tawaf ziyarat during the days of sacrifice, to enclose the hatim within the tawaf, to make sa'I after tawaf, to shave in the Haram during days of sacrifice, to refrain from the things forbidden during the state of ihram: (pilgrim-robe) after wuquf of

Arafat, and,
these things are also wajib (obligatory) of hajj that call for dumm if neglected.
Apart from these, all other are mustahab (desirable) and aadab (Meyers) of hajj.

OPTIONAL: The hajj of the rich is better then the poor man's, while the fard(compulsory) hajj is better than obedience to parents, the supererogatory hajj is not better. Rather obedience to parents is batter than optional hajj. To build inns (or serai) is better than optional hajj. As for sadaqah (charity) (or charity) the ulama (Scholars) differ on whether it is better or hajj is better.

SINS: The hajj in which wuquf of Arafah falls on Friday is more excellent than seventy hajj (s). Everyone is forgiven in that hajj directly. But, the ulama (Scholars) differ on whether major sins are forgiven or not. Some ulama (Scholars) say that rights of followmen are not forgiven.
Qadi Iyad رضی الله عنه said that the ulama (Scholars) of ahl us sunnah(Practice of Holy Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم) agree that major or grave sins are forgiven only on making tawbah or repentance. Also, they agree that debt is not waived because of hajj, even if the debt is due to Allah, like salah (prayer), zakah etc. but the sin of delaying debt repayment or salah (prayer) is forgiven.

COVER OF KA'BAH: It is mustahab (desirable) to enter the Ka'bah provided no one, not even one who enters, is put to inconvenience. It is not allowed to purchase its covering from the Banu Shaybah but allowed to take it from the imam or his deputy. It is allowed to use the covering (ghilaf) of the Ka'bah for one's clothing even by a sexually defiled person or a menstruating woman.
QISAS: If a murderer has taken shelter in the Haram then as long as he is there, retaliation cannot be taken from him but if he had committed murder within the Haram then he may be killed there in retaliation. In no case, however, may he be killed in the Ka'bah even if he has perpetrated the murder inside it.

ZAMZAM: It is makruh(unbecoming) to make istinja (abstersion) with water of zamzam, but not makruh(unbecoming) to have a bath with it.

PROPHET MUHAMMAD'S صلى الله عليه وسلم GRAVE MOST EXCELLENT: Makkah is more excellent than Madinah. But, the piece of land where the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم is resting is absolutely excellent more than the Ka'bah, the Throne and the chair. To visit the Prophet Muhammad's صلى الله عليه وسلم grave is mustahab (desirable). Rather, same ulama (Scholars) maintain that it is wajib (obligatory) for the person who has enough time. When anyone performs hajj fard(compulsory), he must perform hajj before he visits the prophet Muhammad's صلى الله عليه وسلم grave. If he performs an optional hajj then he may use his own discretion and do whichever he likes first. When visiting the prophet Muhammad's صلى الله عليه وسلم grave, he must decide to visit Masjid Nabawi too at the same time because the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم has said, "One salah (prayer) offered in (my mosque) Masjid Nabawi is better than one thousand salah (prayer) offered in any other mosque but not the Masjid Haram (of Makkah). (One salah (prayer) offered in Masjid Haram fetches reward equal to the reward of one million salah (prayer) elsewhere.")

METHOD OF PERFORMING HAJJ: When anyone decides to perform hajj, he must first make a sincere intention only to please Allah and have no worldly profit in mind. He must be motivated to only discharge the fard(compulsory), otherwise the entire exercise shall be futile. Then he must take leave of his parents and bid farewell to his relatives, and seek forgives from everyone. He should arrange to reach Makkah before the seventh dhul Hijjah to be able to listen to the sermon of this date. He must assume the ihram (pilgrim-robe) at the miqat (which is yalamlam for Indians and Pakistanis). If he is a mufrid then he must assume the ihram (pilgrim-robe) for only hajj, if a qarin then for both hajj and umrah and if a mutamatta then for only umrah. It is mustahab (desirable) before assuming the ihram (pilgrim-robe) to clip nails and remove unwanted hair, have a haircut and comb his hair or shave his head if that is his habit. He may have sexual intercourse with his wife if she is alongwith him. He must make ablution or have bath, but to have bath is better. Then he must put on the apparel of the ihram (pilgrim-robe). It is a waist wrapper and a sheet of cloth for the upper torso leaving his head bare. If these two pieces are new then that is better, otherwise clean, washed would do. If anyone does not have two pieces then even a single piece that cover his satr would do. Then he must form his intention for qiran, tamatta or ifrad, and he must call the labayk and he will become a muhrim instantly. The words of intention and talbiyah are mentioned previously. He must repeat the talbiyah in an audible voice often with every change of situation. He should refrain from everything that is disallowed in the sacred state of the ihram (pilgrim-robe), like stitched garments, etc. using perfume, covering head and face, killing, etc. fighting, hunting wild desert animals or pointing them out, etc, but it is allowed to hunt sea animals. The muhrim may not clip nails, cut hair or pluck them anywhere on the body. He can have a bath, sit under the shade of his house or litter for the camel, carry a purse on his waist and fight a defensive battle with his enemy. Certain animals may be killed by the muhrim. They are mentioned previously.

Enter Makkah after having a bath. This is mustahab (desirable). Use the gate al-Mu'alla. After depositing your luggage, go first to the Masjid Haram, calling the labayk, from laib us Salaam in a very humble manner. As the sight falls on the Ka'bah, pray to Allah for whatever you wish, Recite the takbir, tahlil.Praise Allah, invoke blessings on the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم and come before the Black stone and kiss it raising both hands as in takbir of the salah (prayer). If there is a heavy rush, simply touch it and kiss your hand and if even that is not possible, then touch the Black Stone with a stick and kiss it. Again, if that too cannot be done, then simply point both palms towards the Black Stone and kiss the palms. This is istilaam. Then, begin the tawaf qudum from your right as you are against the Black Stone, making seven circuits up to it and repeating and istilaam. Make the idtiba and make ramal in the first three rounds. Istilaam should also be made of rukn Yamani without kissing. At the end of the tawaf, offer two raka'at salah (prayer) at maqam Ibrahim, or, it there is no place there, then anywhere in the mosque. Then go to the well of zamzam and drink the water to a full stomach. Come to the multazim, make istilaam of the Black Stone and reciting the takbir, tahlil and praise of Allah and invocation of blessings on the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم go to as-Safa and make the rounds between it and al-Marwah. The method is mentioned previously (in this book of hajj). But, tawaf precedes Sa'I otherwise sa'I will have to be repeated after tawaf. It is not necessary to be in a purified state - though it is better - for this sa'I, wuquf Arafat, wuquf Muzdalifah and rami jamrah. But, purification is a condition for a tawaf. It is makruh(unbecoming) to converse during tawaf and Sa'I. After sa'I go to the Masjid Haram and offer two raka'at salah (prayer) but it is not wajib (obligatory). Then stay in Makkah and continue to perform optional tawaf in which is no ramal and after which no tawaf. Then, on the 7th Dhul Hijjah, listen to the sermon in the Masjid Haram. It is delivered after the salah (prayer) of zuhr.

Then, if you have relinquished the ihram (pilgrim-robe) previously, assume it again on the eighth for the hajj, and go towards Mina after sunrise. There is no harm even if you reach there after the salah (prayer) of zuhr. Spend the night in Mina and on the ninth offer the salah (prayer) of fajr at its first time in darkness and go to Arafat after sunrise. If anyone does not go to Mina on the eight but goes straight to Arafat on the ninth then that too is allowed though it is contrary to the sunnah(Practice of Holy Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم). You may alight anywhere in Arafat apart from Batn Arnah and it is best to alight near the Mount Arafat. Have a bath after zawal (it being a sun nah) and make the wuquf in Arafat. (It is fard(compulsory) and without it, hajj is not accomplished.) Then listen to the sermon of the imam and offer the salah (prayer) of zuhr and asr at one time with him subject to the ihram (pilgrim-robe) being assumed. Stand near the Jabl (mount) Rahmah and engage humbly in devotional exercises.

At Muzdalifah, offer maghrib and Isha with the imam at one time together. It is wajib (obligatory) to stay there overnight, making supplication and worship. In the morning (of the tenth), offer the salah (prayer) of fajr at the earliest time and make wuquf which may be observed anywhere in Muzdalifah but not at Batn Muhassir. Just before sunrise, end the wuquf and reach Mina before sunrise. Cast seven pebbles at jamrah al aqabah and with the very first pebble stop calling the talbiyah. Then make the sacrifice, shave head or cut hair. Everything that was forbidden because for the ihram (pilgrim-robe) becomes lawful again except sexual intercourse with the spouse. Offer the salah (prayer) of eed in Mina and go to Makkah and make tawaf ziyarah but Sa'I is not made. However if Sa'I was not made earlier, then you may make Sa'I. Now, even sexual intercourse becomes allowed. Return to Mina and stay overnight.

On the eleventh, cast pebbles at all three jamarat beginning with the one nearest Masjid Khayf, jamarh al-oola, then to the one next to it, called jamrah al-wusta. Then ride or walk up to jamrah aqabah and cast seven pebbles, calling the takbir at each throw. Do the samething on the twelfth. If you continue to stay in Mina on the thirteenth, do the same thing again because it is wajib (obligatory). If you depart from Mina on the twelfth then nothing is wajib (obligatory) on the thirteenth. On the eleventh, twelfth and thirteenth, the time for rami is after zawal but on the thirteenth is allowed after dawn and before zawal though only after zawal it is masnun. On the eleventh and twelfth, it is not allowed before zawal.

On the last day, after rami, you must go to Makkah breaking journey for a while at Muhassab. When you about to depart from Makkah to your native land, make the tawaf wada (farewell tawaf) without after the tawaf and drink plenty of water of zamzam. Look at the Ka'bah again and again with a tremendous longing wipe this blessed water on the face, head and body. Come to the ka'bah and if possible go in otherwise kiss its sacred doorsill, put your chest and face on the multazim and hold its curtain and pray. And making istighfar and supplication depart in reverse stops without turning you back to the Ka'bah. Come out of the masjid Haram in this way. The rites of hajj are over.

COMMANDS OF UMRAH: Umrah is not wajib (obligatory). Once in a life-time, it is sunnah(Practice of Holy Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم) muwakkadah to perform umrah. No particular time is stipulated for it. Rather, one may perform umrah many times in one year. However, for one who is not a qarin, it is makruh(unbecoming) to perform umrah in the days of hajj. The days of hajj are; the day of Arafah, the day of sacrifice and the days of tashriq.

The rukn of part of umrah is the tawaf and two things are wajib (obligatory) in it: the Sa'I between as-safa and al-Marwah and shaving head or clipping the hair.
The sunnah(Practice of Holy Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم*)* and aaddab are the same as for hajj.

JINAYAT RUINGS FOR: These are crimes or offences. In the subject of hajj, jinayah is the forbidden deed that is forbidden because of the ihram (pilgrim-robe) or the Haram, and on whose perpetrated jaza or expiation is wajib (obligatory). This differs according to the nature of wrong done from sacrifice of one animal to two, merely sadaqah (charity) of wheat, feeding the poor or fasting. Details have been given in the relative have been given in the relative chapter. The offences may have been committed deliberately or otherwise, with desire and demand, and so on, expiation is due nevertheless.

RULINGS & CONDUCT AT PROPHET MUHAMMAD'S صلى الله عليه وسلم GRAVE: Anyone who goes to perform hajj must visit the grave If it is the fard(compulsory), hajj then he must perform it first and then visit the Prophet Muhammad's صلى الله عليه وسلم grave. If it is optional then he may go before or after the hajj, unless Madinah falis on his way to Makkah. He must from an intention before he goes for the visit; 'I undertake the journey to visit the Prophet Muhammad's صلى الله عليه وسلم grave and his mosque.' Every mosque he comes to on the way, he must visit and offer salah (prayer) in it. Throughout the journey he must invoke blessing on the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم. As he approaches Madinah he must esteem it more in his heart and when it is before him, he must alight from his conveyance and, if possible, go up to the mosque on foot. If possible, he must first have a bath otherwise make ablution, wear nice, white garments and apply perfume. He must go first to the Masjid Nabawi and off tahiyat ul masjid and salah (prayer) at gratitude. Then with due respect and humility, he must visit the grave overcome with love and awe and stand there with hand folded as in salah (prayer) facing the Chief of mankind صلى الله عليه وسلم with his back to the qiblah being convinced that the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم known that he is there and responds to his salaam and says 'aameen' to his supplication. Then in a moderately audible voice, he must present the salaam and salah (prayer) (greetings and invocation of blessings and make his submissions. After that he must convey the salaam of those of his relatives and friends who had asked him to convey their salaam.
Then, he must stand before the graves of Sayyiduna Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه and Sayyiduna Umar رضى الله عنه, one after the other, on the side of their head and present salaam to them. Again, he must stand at the grave of the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم in line with his head, as he stood earlier, and present to him his salaam and make supplication to Allah for all his needs by virtue of the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم.
Moving from there, he must offer optional salah (prayer), as much as he can, at the pillar of Sayyiduna Abu Lubabah رضى الله عنه make repentance to Allah and seek His forgiveness.
Then, with the guidance of the mu'allims, he must go and observe the relics of the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم. He must go to jannat ul baqi 'and to the graves of the sahabah (Prophet's companions) رضى الله عنهم and the ahlul bayt رضى الله عنه and to the graves of the martyrs رضى الله عنه of uhud, particularly the chief of the martyrs Sayyiduna Amir Hamzah رضى الله عنه. He msut offer al-Fatihah at all these graves.
On Saturday, or any other day, he must go to Masjid Quba and offer two raka'at salah (prayer) as tahiyatul masjid.

For as long as one stays in Madinah, he must seize the opportunity and remain most of the time in the mosque, observing I'tikaf and worship in kindred ways. He must keep looking of the Prophet Muhammad's صلى الله عليه وسلم hujrah and, when he goes out, at the dome.

He must try to spend, if not more at least one night in the mosque. The best thing to do on that night is to recite durood (invocation blessings on the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم). He must ward off all evil speech and thoughts and everything that is less than the preferable. If it is necessary, he must speak to someone very briefly and then revert to concentration on the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم. He must be mindful of the manners to be observed in the mosque. He must not have his place reserved in the mosque but go there early to get the place between the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم grave and the pulpit. He must recite the entire Quran at east once at the place where the Quran was revealed and Jibril عليه السلام come. He must read books on the life of the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم. Every time he passes by the grave, he must observe proper manners and respectfully offer salaam and durood. He must give respect to the people of Madinah and the attendants of masjid Nabawi even if he find them contravening Shri'ah and sunnah(Practice of Holy Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم*)* because their greatest excellence is that they are neighbours of the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم. No sin or innovation will deprive them of this neighbourhood and of the honour of a good death and forgiveness.

THE HOMEWARD JOURNEY: When it is time for a person to depart from Madinah, he must offer salah (prayer) at the Prophet Muhammad's صلى الله عليه وسلم musalla (prayer rug) or nearest to it and make supplication. He must come out of the Masjid Nabawi but not before visiting the graves of the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم. Sayyiduna Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه and Sayyidua Umar رضى الله عنه. He must pray to Allah for himself and for his relatives and associated people for the honour of the two worlds and for the acceptance of all his worship in the sacred lands. He must pray for a safe return to his family and make this prayer:

اَللّٰهُمَّ اِنَّا نَسْأَلُكَ فِيْ سَفَرِنَا هٰذَا الْبِرَّ وَالتَّقْوٰى وَمِنَ الْعَمَلِ مَاتُحِبُّ وَتَرْضٰى اَللّٰهُمَّ لَاتَجْعَلْ هٰذَا اٰخِرُ الْعَهْدِ بِنَبِيِّكَ وَمَسْجِدِهٖ وَ حَرَمِهٖ وَيَسِّرْلِي الْعَوْدَاِلَيْهِ وَالْعُكُوْفَ لَدَيْهِ وَارْزُقْنِي الْعَفْوَ وَالْعَافِيَةَ فِي الدُّنْيَا وَالْاٰخِرَةِ وَرَدَدْنَا اِلٰى اَهْلِنَا سَالِمِيْنَ غَانِمِيْنَ اٰمِنِيْنَ

The symbol of acceptance of prayer and achievement of the desire is that eyes shed tears suddenly by themselves uninvited and the heart grieves at the separation. That he makes supplication all the time humbly is a sign of getting increased provision and of hope for mercy. If he is not overcome by a condition of grief and weeping then he must bring that upon himself forcibly. He must take leave and depart but not walk backwards because that is done only at the Ka'bah. He must give sadaqah (charity) as much as possible and observe the manners prescribed while returning from a journey. When he is near his city he must pray:

اَللّٰهُمَّ اِنِّيْ اَسْأَلُكَ خَيْرَهَا وَخَيْرَ اَهْلِهَا وَخَيْرَ مَافِيْهَا وَاَعُوْذُبِكَ مِنْ شَرِّهَا وَشَرِّاَهْلِهَا وَشَرِّ مَافِيْهَا اَللّٰهُمَّ اجْعَلْ لَنَا بِهَا قَرَارًا وَرِزْقًا حَسَناً

And on reaching it:

لَا إِلٰهَ إِلَّا اللّٰهُ وَحْدَهُ لَا شَرِيْكَ لَهُ لَهُ الْمُلْكُ وَلَهُ الْحَمْدُ وَهُوَ عَلٰى كُلِّ شَيْءٍ قَدِيْرٌ اٰئِبُوْنَ تَائِبُوْنَ عَابِدُوْنَ سَاجِدُوْنَ لِرَبِّنَا حَامِدُوْنَ لَا إِلٰهَ إِلَّا اللّٰهُ وَحْدَهُ صَدَقَ وَعْدَهُ وَنَصَرَ عَبْدَهُ وَهَزَمَ الْأَحْزَابَ وَحْدَهُ وَاَعَزَّ جُنْدَهُ فَلَاشَيْءَ بَعْدَهُ

He must give advance information to his people of his arrival on a certain date. He must not reach there suddenly uninformed. The best time to arrive there is in the forenoon or evening, but not at night Before entering his house, he must go to the mosque and offer two raka'ah salah (prayer) if that is not a time makruh(unbecoming) for salah (prayer). He must make supplication there and show gratitude to Allah for his safe return, saying:

اَلْحَمْدُ لِلّٰهِ الَّذِيْ بِنِعْمَتِهٖ وَجَلَالِهٖ تَتِمُّ الصَّالِحَاتُ

Here the Urdu original has the words of praise for Allah and date (8th Dhul Hijjah 1386 corresponding to 20th March 1967) on which the second volume was completed with the help of Allah. (It was a Monday and the time was 11:15 PM.) "May Allah accept service from me."

صَلَّى اللّٰهُ تَعَالٰى عَلٰى خَيْرِ خَلْقِهٖ مُحَمَّدٍ وَّعَلٰى اٰلِهٖ وَاَصْحَابِهٖ اَجْمَعِيْنَ بِرَحْمَتِكَ يَا اَرْحَمَ الرَّاحِمِيْنَ

Abdullah Jawaid

بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم

BOOK - XII

KITAB AL BUYOO كِتَابُ الْبُيُوْعِ

"BUSINESS TRANSACTIONS"

From the Islamic point of view the practical life of Mankind evolves round two axes. They are rights of Allah which are (عبادات) worship, and rights of fellow men which are (معاملات) mutual dealings of conduct. Both of these alone from the base of all principles, rules and lows of human life.

The first of these - 'rights of Allah' - has a universal application and concerns every member of the human society. Hence, the compiler of this book gave them priority in his book. Now, he begins with the second - 'rights of fellow man.' Its most significant part is (بيع) 'business transactions.'

MEANING OF (بيع) (BAI): It means 'to sell.' Sometimes it means 'to buy.' Hence, in the terminology, it means; 'to buy and sell.'

Fakhrul Islam said that in the terminology of Shari'ah (divine law), Bai' is 'to exchange goods for goods with mutual consent.'

LEGALITY OF BAI': Bai' or 'buying and selling' is established as legal by the verse of the Quran cited here and the ahadith that will be narrated further down.

وَاَحَلَّ اللّٰهُ الْبَيْعَ وَحَرَّمَ الرِّبٰوا

{Allah has permitted trading and forbidden usury} (2: 275)

KINDS OF BAI': There are three basic things in Bai', meaning 'buying & selling.'

(i) The agreement between the seller and the buyer.
(ii) The commodity sold.
(iii) The price.

From the point of these three things jurists classify Bai' into various kinds.

Thus, as for as the transaction and its ruling whether Bai' is correct or not are concerned, there are four kinds of Bai' (1) enforced, (2) held in abeyance, (3) improper (4) invalid.[1]

The enforced is that the seller has the commodity and the buyer has the price, and both of them are sensible, further, they must conclude the transaction either directly or though an attorney or a broker. When these three things are found in a sole, then it is very correct and enforced.

The Bai' mawquf or held in abeyance is when someone sells something belonging to another person without his permission or power of attorney. The ruling is that this transaction will be correct only when the permission of the real owner is received.

The Bai' that is fasid or improper may be correct is essence, meaning as for as the transaction is concerned but is improper as for as its quality is concerned, or for some particular reason. (There may be a shortcoming).

The Bai' batil or invalid is not proper both in essence and in quality. Details and examples of both fasid and batil will follow, insha Allah, in the chapter

---

[1] The English equivalent of the terminology is adopted from the Heavenly permanent translation of Muhammad Muhammadi (Darul Isha'at Karachi) pp 305f, 3114f etc.

BUSINESS TRANSACTIONS THAT ARE FORBIDDEN بَابُ الْمَنْهِيِّ عَنْهَا مِنَ الْبُيُوْعِ

Bai' from the point of view 'buying' is of four kinds:

(i) Muqayadh (مقايضة) or bartering.
(ii) Sarf (صرف) or money exchange
(iii) Salam (سلم) or forwarding buying.
(iv) Bai mutlaq or cash sale.

The Muqayadah is exchange of commodities or bartering.
The sarf is exchange of money or one currency for another, or coins for paper money.
The salam is to receive advance payment for delivery of merchandise at a future agreed date.
The mutlaq is sale against cash payment.
There are four kinds of Bai' in terms of price.

(i) Murabahah in which the seller sells to the buyer at a profit.
(ii) Tawalliyah in which the seller sells to the buyer at his cost price.
(iii) Wadi'ah in which the seller sells to the buyer at a loss.
(iv) Musawimah in which the two parties agree at a price of a commodity (by bargaining or otherwise) without consideration of the seller's coast price.

CHAPTER - I

EARNING & SEEKING WHAT IS LAWFUL بَابُ الْكَسْبِ وَطَلَبِ الْحَلَالِ

It is to earn a livelihood through lawful means and lawful occupation. This chapter speaks of the excellence of earning livelihood and points out the appropriate and good earning and occupant.
The books of fiqh (Islamic jurisprudence) underline jihad as the best occupation, followed by trading, cultivation and handiwork or mnual effort (like writing, etc).
It is fard (compulsory) to earn and it is also mustahab (desirable). It is also permitted and forbidden too. Hence, it is fard (compulsory) for a man to earn so much as is enough for himself and his family's needs and to repay a debt, if any.
To earn more than that is mustahab (desirable) provided his intention is to spend on the poor and needy and his other deserving relatives.
Similarly, it is permissible to earn more than one's needs if it is to maintain his status in life. However, it is forbidden to earn merely to hoard money and boast, even if the earning is through lawful means.
It is necessary for the earner to spend his earning on himself and his family without being extravagant or miserly, but pursuing a middle course.
If anyone is able to earn his livelihood then it is binding on him to use lawful means to provide the economic needs of his family and safeguard his and their honourable way of living. He must not depend on other people. If anyone is helpless and cannot make a living for himself then it is necessary for him to ask other for help to protect his life. If anyone refrains from seeking help because of modesty and sense of honour so that hunger and poverty take away his life then he will be responsible for his own death and he will have committed sin.
Moreover, if anyone is unable to earn a living then it is binding on whoever is aware of his condition that he should look after the helpless person. He must feed him or if he cannot do it himself, then he must recommend other people to help him.

Mawlana Shah Abdul Aziz Dahlawi رحمه الله has quoted this verse:

يَا اَيُّهَا الَّذِيْنَ اٰمَنُوْا كُلُوْا مِنْ طَيِّبَاتِ مَارَزَقْنٰكُمْ

{O you who believe, eat of the wholesome things wherewith we have provided you.} (2: 172)

JIHAD: He has explained it, saying that the best occupation is jihad provided when one decides to participate in it, he does not crave for the spoils at all. His intention should be sincere.

TRADING: Next ranks trade as a profession particularly the import and export business to bring and send commodities for Muslims of different countries or cities. If the businessmen who engages in this business aims at profit making but also aims at serving the Muslims by getting them what they need then his business is a form of worship for him.

FARMING: Next ranks cultivation. This occupation too fetches immense reward in the hereafter apart from providing worldly profit. The cultivator's intention should be to provide the means of sustenance to mankind and to beasts and reliance should be places on Allah's mercy, rain, wind, etc.

SCRIBE: Apart from these three occupations, other occupations do not excel over each other though the profession of the scribe is better because it is instrumental in service to knowledge and learning and enables one to refresh religious knowledge, commands and lives of the Prophets (عليهم السلام) and scholars.

OTHERS: The occupations that keep knowledge in circulation or have a deep connection with society and culture like building, extracting oil, tailoring and so on follow the foregoing occupations in importance. These professions are better than those that are only superficial or money making like painting. Decorating, sweetmeat making, perfumery, etc. However, if these occupations are suitable to the occasion and they do not contravene Shari'ah (divine law) then they too are not undesirable.

DISTASTEFUL: The occupations that are bad and filthy and lead the creatures astray are calumny, sweeping, tanning, hoarding grain, washing the dead, selling the shroud, indulging in immoral activities, brothel-keeping, dancing, singing, mimicking, brokerage, pleading for someone (and lying in the process), receiving wages for leading congregational salah (prayer) (as imam) and for calling adhan and for working in the mosque, receiving remuneration to recite and teach the Quran, and so on. These professions are all disliked (Shah Abdul Aziz)

LAWFUL: It is stated in Mughni-ul-Talib that the ahadith abound with merits of lawful earning and the earner. At the same time, a severe warning is sounded to one who begs of others out of lethargy though he is capable of earning. However, he is an exception who trusts Allah and relies in Him and does not beg of anyone nor interrupts his religious pursuits, worship and devotional exercises to work for a living. Also, he does not hope for anyone's help because this is an inward begging which is worse than the oral begging:

RICH: If anyone is rich enough and earns without putting in hours than he must devote his time to worship. The same command applies to teachers of religious knowledge to Muftis, judges and others of the same kind. If they earn enough for their livelihood then they must continue to occupy themselves in their work and not divert their attention to earning a livelihood.

CONCEALED POLYTHEISM: A person who engages in an occupation, like trading, must earn only lawful livelihood. He must refrain completely from the unlawful. He must abide by the commands of Shari'ah (divine law) and while working hard he must place trust in Allah knowing that only He is the sustainer and the profession is only an outward means of livelihood. He must not regard his profession as a provider otherwise that will be (equal to) a concealed polytheism. He must abstain from unlawful earning, for, the prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم has said about it, "If anyone gives charity from his unlawful earning then that is not accepted." The unlawfully earned wealth does not remain after its owner's death but as a provision of the journey to hell.

SMALL EARNINGS: Some people abstain from large quantities of unlawful wealth but do not mind small earnings of the unlawful. They must realize that even the smallest among of it will mingle with their lawful wealth and make all of it doubtful. The ruling again is the same that we must abstain from the doubtful, too.

GIFTS: If anyone presents something to another of whose status he is uncertain whether it is lawful or not, then he must return it to the giver politely and kindly. If that might hurt him then it must not be returned. Similarly, if probing the nature of a gift might hurt the giver then the receiver should not investigate whether the gift is doubtful, because it is forbidden to annoy or displease a Muslim, whereas examing anything for its doubtful nature is taqwa (piety). The ruling is that the unlawful should not be perpetrated for the sake of taqwa (piety). However, if it is known without a shadow of doubt that the gift is from unlawful sources then it must be returned even if the giver is hurt, unless there is likelihood of trouble arising in which case instead of returning it, the gift may be passed on to someone in dire straits. If the receiver himself if hard-pressed then he may use it himself.

BAD PLACES: One must keep away from such markets where the unlawful things are traded. Unless it is known of something that it is unlawful or doubtful, it is not necessary to probe into its nature, when the unlawful or doubtful nature of anything is not known, an unnecessary probe and investigation everywhere and for everything will be merely an evil suggestion.

WAGES: The remuneration of unlawful profession is also unlawful. Examples are stitching silk garments for men or making golden jewelery for them. Similarly, profit and wealth derived from illegal trading are also unlawful, like selling hoarded grain.

DRAPERS: The best of all businesses is that of the drapers and the best of all professions is to prepare and stitch water skins.

FAKE CURRENCY: It is absolutely forbidden to circulate counterfeit coins (and currency). If anyone gets any, he must throw them into a well or dispose of in such manner.

HONESTY: Every trader and shopkeeper must not deceive anyone. It is wrong to take oath to support his statements and he must not hide defects in his wares. He must not overdo when describing his wares as good.

SELLING TO A WRONG DOER: No trader must sell anything to such a person who might use it to prepare or do something unlawful, like grapes to a winemaker, weapons to a bandit and so on. No trader must resort to adulteration, cheat in weight and measures or deceive in any other way.

UNLAWFUL INCOME: Every trader must tell himself that even a paltry sum of money acquired unlawfully and through improper means will prevent him from entering paradise. He must suffice himself with little income because that is mustahab (desirable) and he must content himself with the business that earns for him enough livelihood. He must not yearn to engage in other businesses to earn more. Rather, he must use his spare time to work for the next world. It is foolish to devote oneself wholly to this fleeting world all the time and do noting for the everlasting hereafter.

SECTION I اَلْفَصْلُ الْاَوَّلُ

MANUAL LABOUR IS BEST

(٢٧٥٩) عَنِ الْمِقْدَامِ بْنِ مَعْدِى كَرِبَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَا اَكَلَ اَحَدٌ طَعَامًا قَطُّ خَيْرًا مِّنْ اَنْ يَّاْكُلَ مِنْ عَمَلِ يَدَيْهِ وَاِنَّ نَبِيَّ اللّٰهِ دَاوُدَ عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ كَانَ يَاْكُلُ مِنْ عَمَلِ يَدَيْهِ۔ (رواه البخارى)

2759. Sayyiduna Miqdam ibn Ma'dikarib رضى الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "No one has eaten food better than what he eats on earning from the labour of his hands. Indeed, the Prophet of Allah, Dawud عليه السلام used to eat from the earnings of his hands' labour."[1]

COMMENTARY: Sayyiduna Dawud عليه السلام was not only a glorious prophet but he also was sovereign over a vast territory that Allah had granted him. It was his habit that he went about his subjects disguised and asked them about their kings. Once, Allah sent an angel in the likeness of man and Prophet Dawud عليه السلام asked him about himself. He said, "Dawud is a good man, but he eats from the Bayt ul Maal (State Treasury)." That was it! He was moved terribly and he prayed, "O Lord of the worlds, make me independent of the state Treasury and teach me some things whereby I may earn a living for myself." Allah taught him to make armour. [Allah softened iron in his hands and he was the first one skilled in making armour from iron.][2]

He sold that for four thousand dirhams and some ulama (Scholars) say that he sold them for six thousand dirhams making one armour each day. He spent two thousand dirhams on himself and on his family and disbursed the remaining four thousand as charity to poor of Banu Isr'ail.

In this hadith, the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said that to earn one's one living is the sunnah (Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم practice) of the Prophets عليه السلام. He encouraged the people to earn through their own manual labour. There is much benefit in that not only to one who works himself but also to those others who use his product. This man occupies himself so is safe from bad things and from pride and rebellion. Most of all he is not dependent on anyone else and lives an honourable life.

ADVANTAGE OF ABSTAINING FROM THE UNLAWFUL

(٢٧٦٠) وَعَنْ اَبِىْ هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اِنَّ اللّٰهَ طَيِّبٌ لَا يَقْبَلُ اِلَّا طَيِّبًا وَاِنَّ اللّٰهَ اَمَرَ الْمُؤْمِنِيْنَ بِمَا اَمَرَ بِهِ الْمُرْسَلِيْنَ فَقَالَ يَآاَيُّهَا الرُّسُلُ كُلُوْا مِنَ الطَّيِّبَاتِ وَاعْمَلُوْا صَالِحًا وَقَالَ يَآاَيُّهَا الَّذِيْنَ اٰمَنُوْا كُلُوْا مِنْ طَيِّبَاتِ مَا رَزَقْنَاكُمْ ثُمَّ ذَكَرَ الرَّجُلَ يُطِيْلُ السَّفَرَ اَشْعَثَ اَغْبَرَ يَمُدُّ يَدَيْهِ اِلَى السَّمَاءِ يَارَبِّ

---

[1] Bukhari # 2072

[2] Stories of the Prophet (عليهم السلام) (p267), Ibn Kathir. (English tr. Dar ul Ishaat, Karachi)

يَارَبِّ وَمَطْعَمُهُ حَرَامٌ وَمَشْرَبُهُ حَرَامٌ وَمَلْبَسُهُ حَرَامٌ وغُذِيَ بِالْحَرَامِ فَأَنَّى يُسْتَجَابُ لِذٰلِكَ۔ (رواه مسلم)

2760. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "Surely Allah is pure (of all defects) and only such (charity and deeds) are accepted (by him) as are pure (of shortcomings and defective intention). And, indeed, Allah has commanded the believers with the same command as He has given the Messengers, saying:

يَآاَيُّهَا الرُّسُلُ كُلُوْا مِنَ الطَّيِّبَاتِ وَاعْمَلُوْا صَالِحًا

{O you Messengers! Eat of the good things and do righteous deeds.} (23: 51)
And He said:

يَآاَيُّهَا الَّذِيْنَ اٰمَنُوْا كُلُوْا مِنْ طَيِّبَاتِ مَارَزَقْنَاكُمْ

{O you who believe, eat of the wholesome things wherewith we have provided you.} (2: 172)

Then, he mentioned (by way of an example) a man who undertakes a long journey, his hair unkempt and he in a dusty state, stretching out his hands to heaven in prayer, 'My Lord! My Lord!'` But, his food is unlawfully acquired His drink is unlawful His clothing is un lawful acquired and he is nourished by the unlawful then, he asked, "How may such a one expect an answer (to his prayer)?"[1]

COMMENTARY: This hadith emphasizes the excellence of earning what is lawful. It is the demand of servitude that one must consume pure food. This will enable him to draw near to Allah.

The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم also said that if anyone does not refrain from consuming the unlawful then his prayers will not be heard. He gave the example of one who undertakes along journey for Hajj (pilgrimage) or any other worship and prayers on such occasions and such auspicious prayers are not granted because he does not refrain from unlawful provision. Supplication has two wings: lawful food and truthful speech (which ensure that prayer will be granted).

THINGS TO COME

(۲۷٦۱) وَعَنْهُ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَأْتِيْ عَلَى النَّاسِ زَمَانٌ لَا يُبَالِي الْمَرْءُ مَا اَخَذَ مِنْهُ اَمِنَ الْحَلَالِ اَمْ مِنَ الْحَرَامِ۔ (رواه البخاری)

2761. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "There will come a time to people when no one will worry whether what he acquires comes from a lawful source or an unlawful source."[2]

COMMENTARY: As the last Hour approaches, many misdeeds will be perpetrated. Among them will be lack of distinction between the lawful and unlawful incomes. This thing is very apparent these days. No Section of society and no group of people are safe from this malady.

---

[1] Muslim # 65-1015, Tirmidhi # 3000, Musnad Ahmad 2-328, Darimi # 2717.
[2] Bukhari # 2059.

AVOID THE DOUBTFUL TOO

(٢٧٦٢) وَعَنِ النُّعْمَانِ بْنِ بَشِيْرٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَلْحَلَالُ بَيِّنٌ وَ الْحَرَامُ بَيِّنٌ وَبَيْنَهُمَا مُشْتَبِهَاتٌ لَا يَعْلَمُهُنَّ كَثِيْرٌ مِنَ النَّاسِ فَمَنِ اتَّقَى الشُّبُهَاتِ اسْتَبْرَأَ لِدِيْنِهٖ وَعِرْضِهٖ وَمَنْ وَقَعَ فِي الشُّبُهَاتِ وَقَعَ فِي الْحَرَامِ كَالرَّاعِيْ يَرْعٰى حَوْلَ الْحِمٰى يُوْشِكُ اَنْ يَرْتَعَ فِيْهِ اَلَا وَاِنَّ لِكُلِّ مَلِكٍ حِمًى اَلَا وَ اِنَّ حِمَى اللّٰهِ مَحَارِمُهٗ اَلَا وَاِنَّ فِي الْجَسَدِ مُضْغَةً اِذَا صَلَحَتْ صَلَحَ الْجَسَدُ كُلُّهٗ وَاِذَا فَسَدَتْ فَسَدَ الْجَسَدُ كُلُّهٗ اَلَا وَهِيَ الْقَلْبُ۔ (متفق عليه)

2762. Sayyiduna Nu'man ibn Bashir رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "The lawful is clearly defined, but between them are matters that are doubtful. Many of the people cannot pick them up. He who avoids the doubtful things preserves his religion and his honour from blame, but he who stumbles into them lands into what is unlawful. It is like a shepherd who grazes his animals on the borders of a sanctuary, he will soon encroach with them into it. Every king has a sanctuary and know that Allah's sanctuary is what He has declared unlawful. Indeed, there is in the body a piece of flesh. When it is sound, the whole body is sound. When it is bad, the whole body is bad. And, it is the heart."[1]

COMMENTARY: The lawful and unlawful that are well known are pious deed, good speech, marriage and such things as lawful things, and wine, swine, carrion, adultery, usury, falsehood, backbiting, etc which are unlawful. Some things there are that cannot be defined either way. It is not easy for the common man to recognize them. The ulama (Scholars) have three opinions about these things:

(i) Do not regard them as lawful or as unlawful or as permitted. This is the most correct opinion and it should be followed which calls upon us to desist from them.
(ii) Regard them as unlawful.
(iii) Regard them as permissible.

Suppose a man marries a woman and another woman appears and claims to have suckled both the man and the woman (husband and wife). This raises doubts about their marriage because they are said to be faster brother and sister. In that case, their marriage is absolutely disallowed. But, the woman is the lone claimant without any witness recognizes by Shari'ah (divine law). She could be lying. This means that the marriage is legal. This situation where arguments differ makes it a doubtful case. Hence, it is better that the man should divorce the woman because it is better to keep away from the doubtful.

Another example of the doubtful is that someone has lawfully acquired wealth as well as unlawfully acquired and both are inseparable. So, all his money is of the doubtful kind and he must refrain from using all his money.

The hadith compares to grazing animals in forbidden sanctuaries, the prohibitions of Shari'ah (divine law). It is wajib (obligatory) to refrain from doing them and the doubtful things are like borders of sanctuaries of the common people. These should be avoided lest one trespasses them. Anyone who perpetrates the forbidden is liable to punishment. Some of these things are such as will not be forgiven, like polytheism. Some of them Allah may pardon if he will. However, if a sincere repentance is made and forgiveness sought then everything will be forgiven.

[1] Bukhari # 52, Muslim # 107. 1599, Abu Dawud # 3329, Tirmidhi # 1209, Nasa'i # 4453, Ibn Majah # 3984, Musnad Ahmad 4-267.

Shaykh Ali Muttaqi رحمه الله has penned down a sequence; necessary, permissible, makruh (disapproved), forbidden disbelief. If a person suffices in all fields of his life with such necessities as maintain him and his honour then he is safe in his religion from every danger. If he tries to go beyond the limit of the necessities then he lands in the territory of the makruh (disapproved) (disliked) till greed takes him further into the forbidden limits. His next step is disbelief. We seek refuge in Allah from that.

The hadith sums up with reference to a person's heart. If it spoils, the entire body spoils because of sin and disobedience. Every sensible person must concentrate on his heart and keep it away from base desires otherwise it respects no limits and plunges into darkness.

The good of the body lies in lawful sustenance because it keeps the heart clean. A clean pure heart gets all limbs to do good deeds and to refrain from evil.

THREE AHADITH: The ulama (Scholars) agree that this hadith bears a large treasure of knowledge and answers to queries. There are three ahadith on which evolve Islamic laws and commands. They are:

إِنَّمَا الْأَعْمَالُ بِالنِّيَّاتِ

(Deeds are judged according to the intentions behind them).[1]

مِنْ حُسْنِ إِسْلَامِ الْمَرْءِ تَرْكُهُ مَا لَا يَعْنِيْهِ

(The beauty of anyone's Islam lies in his abandoning what does not concern him),[2] and

اَلْحَلَالُ بَيِّنٌ الخ۔

(The lawful is clearly defined....)[3]

WAGES OF AN ADULTERESS ARE UNLAWFUL

(٢٧٦٣) وَعَنْ رَافِعِ بْنِ خَدِيْجٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ ثَمَنُ الْكَلْبِ خَبِيْثٌ وَ مَهْرُ الْبَغِيِّ خَبِيْثٌ وَكَسْبُ الْحَجَّامِ خَبِيْثٌ۔ (رواه مسلم)

2763. Sayyiduna Rafi' ibn Khadij رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم said, "The price paid for a dog is impure, the wages paid to a prostitute are impure and the earning of a cupper are impure."[4]

COMMENTARY: The Arabic word (خبيث) (Khabith) in the hadith means 'impure' or 'bad'. However, jurists interpret it according to the context; unlawful, impure, makruh (disapproved) (undesirable), etc.

---

[1] Bukhari # 54, Muslim # 155-1907, Tirmidhi # 1653, Musnad Ahmad 1-25.

[2] Tirmidhi # 2324, Muwata Maalik 47. 1-3, Ibn Majah # 3976.

[3] Tirmidhi under demission (# 2762)

[4] Muslim # 41-1568, Tirmidhi # 1279, Abu Dawud # 3421, Nasa'i # 429, Musnad Ahmad 3-464, Darini # 2621.

Imam Shafi'I رحمه الله has translated the first portion: 'The price paid for a dog is unlawful.' Therefore, buying and selling of dogs is forbidden, both the trained and untrained dog. Imam Abu Hanifah رحمه الله, Imam Ahmad رحمه الله and some other imams said that trade of such dogs, cheetahs and beasts is permitted as are beneficial whether trained or untrained. They say that the price paid for a dog is impure or makruh (disapproved), not unlawful. The earnings of the cupper are undesirable, disliked. The prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم had himself paid wages for cupping. Hence, his (cupper's) wages are makruh tanzihi (disapproved for purification). Therefore, the word (خبيث) is not merely 'unlawful.'

QUESTION ABOUT PRICE OF DOG

(٢٧٦٤) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ مَسْعُوْدِ الْاَنْصَارِيِّ اَنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ نَهٰى عَنْ ثَمَنِ الْكَلْبِ وَ مَهْرِ الْبَغِيِّ وَ حُلْوَانِ الْكَاهِنِ۔ (متفق عليه)

2764. Sayyiduna Abu Mas'ud al Ansari رضى الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم for bade the price paid for a dog, the wages paid to a prostitute and the offerings made to a soothsayer."[1]

COMMENTARY: In the commentary on the previous hadith the buying and selling and price of a dog have been discussed exhaustively. As for this hadith forbidding the price paid for a dog, the Hanafi ulama (Scholars) say that this applied when the dogs should be killed and he had forbidden, too, that benefit should be derived from the dogs, Later, however, he gave permission that dogs should be used for beneficial purposes. It is also reported that someone killed a hunting dog and the prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم commanded him to reimburse the owner with forty dirhams. When someone else killed a dog guarding a herd of sheep, he commanded him to give the owner one ram.

Teebi said رحمه الله that most ulama (Scholars) say that it is not allowed to trade is dogs and also it is not necessary to pay to the owner for his dog if it is killed whether the dog is trained or untrained and whether it is allowed to keep the dog as a pet or not allowed. But, Imam Abu Hanifah رحمه الله has declared that buying and selling is allowed of the dog from which benefit may be derived, like a watch dog for the house or for sheep. Also, he has ruled that if such a dog is killed then the such a dog is killed then the person killing it must pay its price to the owner. The commentary on the previous hadith mentions about the ruling on the wages to an evil woman.

The soothsayer predicts the future. His wages described as (حلوان) mean sweetmeat. However, the terminology gives its meaning as a soothsayer's salary, in whatever form sweetmeat, clothing, cash, etc.

It is forbidden to visit soothsayers to learn of the future as also to visit astrologers, palmists and their likes to know the future. It is forbidden to believe them. This will be discussed in detail in the chapter on sorcery and prediction; (Divination). (باب السحر و الكهانة)

FORBIDDEN TO SELL BLOOD

(٢٧٦٥) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ جُحَيْفَةَ اَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ نَهٰى عَنْ ثَمَنِ الدَّمِ وَ ثَمَنِ الْكَلْبِ وَكَسْبِ الْبَغِيِّ وَ

---

[1] Bukhari # 2237, Muslim # 39-1567, Tirmidhi # 1280, Abu Dawud # 3428, Ibn Majah # 2159, Musnad Ahmad 2-118, Muwatta Maalik # 31. 29-68.

لَعَنَ اٰكِلَ الرِّبَا وَ مُؤْكِلَهٗ وَالْوَاشِمَةَ وَالْمُسْتَوْشِمَةَ وَالْمُصَوِّرَ۔ (رواه البخاری)

2765. Sayyiduna Abu Juhayfah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم forbade the price paid for blood, price paid for a dog and the earnings of a prostitute. He cursed the receiver of interest and its payer, the one who tattoos and the one who gets himself tattooed, and the one who draws or snaps pictures or sculptures.[1]

COMMENTARY: It is forbidden to buy and sell blood because it is impure. Accordingly, the price paid for it is also disallowed. Some people interpret it to refer to cupping in which case the prohibition will be makruh tanzihi (disapproved for purification).

Tattooing is to punch holes on the body, or some of it, with needles and fill the holes with collyrium or oil. The colour is then visible, black or bluish. This is the work of the perverse and the infidels. This process tends to alter Allah's creation. If a Muslim has done it, he must find some way to undo it but if that will cause great pain then he must not put himself to pain but repent and ask Allah for forgiveness. After that, he will not remain a sinner.

The drawing of pictures of living creatures is disallowed. It is not forbidden to draw or snap pictures of inanimate objects, or to cast sculptures.

Khattabi رحمہ اللہ has written that pictures can be of two kinds. One is that the picture itself is the objective and that on which it is drawn is secondary. The other kind is that the picture is secondary while that on which it is drawn is the real objective, like vessels, walls carpets, etc. While it is allowed to buy and sell and second kind, yet making both kinds of pictures is forbidden.

BUYING & SELLING FORBIDDEN THINGS IS ALSO FORBIDDEN

(٢٧٦٦) وَعَنْ جَابِرٍ اَنَّهٗ سَمِعَ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُوْلُ عَامَ الْفَتْحِ وَ هُوَ بِمَكَّةَ اِنَّ اللّٰهَ وَرَسُوْلَهٗ حَرَّمَ بَيْعَ الْخَمْرِ وَ الْمَيْتَةِ وَالْخِنْزِيْرِ وَالْاَصْنَامِ فَقِيْلَ يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ اَرَاَيْتَ شُحُوْمَ الْمَيْتَةِ فَاِنَّهٗ تُطْلٰى بِهَا السُّفُنُ وَيُدْهَنُ بِهَا الْجُلُوْدُ وَيَسْتَصْبِحُ بِهَا النَّاسُ فَقَالَ لَا هُوَ حَرَامٌ ثُمَّ قَالَ عِنْدَ ذٰلِكَ قَاتَلَ اللّٰهُ الْيَهُوْدَ اِنَّ اللّٰهَ لَمَّا حَرَّمَ شُحُوْمَهَا اَجْمَلُوْهُ ثُمَّ بَاعُوْهُ فَاَكَلُوْا ثَمَنَهٗ۔ (متفق علیه)

2766. Sayyiduna Jabir رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that, in the year of the conquest, he heard Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم say when he was in Makkah, "Allah and His messenger have forbidden the sale of wine, dead animals, swine and idols." Someone asked him about the fat of dead animals because it was used to coat and plate ships and to anoint skins and people lighted lamps with it. He said, "No that is unlawful."

Then, he said, "May Allah ruin the Jews! Allah made fat of these animals unlawful for them but they melted it and sold it to devour its price."[2]

COMMENTARY: Ata رحمہ اللہ said that the command of wine etc. includes music, drums etc. it is not allowed to buy and sell them. If any one destroys a musical instrument then it is not wajib (obligatory) on him to pay compensation to the owner.

---

[1] Bukhari # 2238, Musnad Ahmad 2-309.

[2] Bukhari # 2236, Muslim # 71-581, Tirmidhi # 1301, Abu Dawud # 3486, Nasa'i # 4669, Ibn Majah # 2167, Musnad Ahmad # 14479.

Imam Shafi'I رحمه الله holds that it is not allowed to trade in fat of a dead animal, to eat it or to rub on one's body, but it is allowed to put it to other uses. This it may be used to grease ships or light lamps, etc. He also holds that if impurity drops in butter oil or olive oil or any oil then it may be used to light lamps or make soap. However, the majority holds that like buying and selling, it is disallowed to use it in any way whatsoever, because the prohibition of the dead is general but dyed hide is excepted because its permission is known in particular.

Imam Abu Hanifah رضی الله عنه and his students have allowed that impure olive oil may be sold. But, they say that it is makruh (disapproved) to light lamps with impure oil, particularly in mosques.

The hadith winds up with a reference to the play of the Jews who found a round about way to disobey Allah's command.

It is wrong to circumvent a command to perpetrate the unlawful. Also, any thing's price attracts the same command as that thing if it is forbidden then its price is forbidden too.

THE DECEIT OF THE JEWS

(٢٧٦٧) وَعَنْ عُمَرَ اَنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ قَاتَلَ اللّٰهُ الْيَهُوْدَ حُرِّمَتْ عَلَيْهِمُ الشُّحُوْمُ فَجَمَلُوْهَا فَبَاعُوْهَا۔ (متفق عليه)

2767. Sayyiduna Umar رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم said, "May Allah curse the Jews, they were forbidden fats (of dead animals),[1] but they melted them and sold them."

CAT AS A MERCHANDISE

(٢٧٦٨) وَعَنْ جَابِرٍ اَنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ نَهٰى عَنْ ثَمَنِ الْكَلْبِ وَالسِّنَّوْرِ۔ (رواه مسلم)

2768. Sayyiduna Jabir رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم forbade payments for dogs and cats.[2]

COMMENTARY: Teebi رحمه الله said that the disallowance to use the price paid for a cat is of the nature of makruh tanzihi (disapproved for purification). Nearly all the ulama (Scholars) hold that it is allowed to trade in cats, give them as gifts, lend them. However, Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی الله عنه and some of the tabi'un abides by the literal meaning of this hadith. They held that these things were not allowed.

PROFESSION OF CUPPING IS LAWFUL

(٢٧٦٩) وَعَنْ اَنَسٍ قَالَ حَجَمَ اَبُوْطَيْبَةَ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَاَمَرَلَهُ بِصَاعٍ مِنْ تَمْرٍ وَ اَمَرَ اَهْلَهُ اَنْ يُّخَفِّفُوْا عَنْهُ مِنْ خَرَاجِهٖ۔ (متفق عليه)

2769. Sayyiduna Anas رضی الله عنه said that Sayyiduna Abu Taybah رضی الله عنه cupped Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم. so, he gave instructions that he should be given one sa' of dates. He also commanded his masters to collect a lesser amount from his earnings (meaning they should reduce from his Kharaj (homage revenue)).[1]

---

[1] Bukhari # 2233, Muslim # 22-1582, Nasai # 4257, Darimi # 2104, Musnad Ahmad 1-25.

[2] Muslim # 42-1569, Tirmidhi # 1284, Abu Dawud # 3479, Ibn Majah # 2161, Daraqutni # 271 (Buyu-Sales).

COMMENTARY: The Arabs used to put their slaves, both male and female, to work in different professions and had them commit to pay to them a certain part of their earnings. Abu Taybah رضی الله عنه was a slave of Banu Harithah. He served the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم so that he was very pleased with him and recommended to the masters of Abu Taybah رضی الله عنه to reduce the amount they took from him every day.

This hadith is evidence that cupping is a lawful profession. Wages may be paid for it.

SECTION II اَلْفَصْلُ الثَّانِي

EARNINGS OF OFFSPRING'S MAY BE USED

(٢٧٧٠) عَنْ عَآئِشَةَ قَالَتْ قَالَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِنَّ أَطْيَبَ مَا أَكَلْتُمْ مِنْ كَسْبِكُمْ وَإِنَّ أَوْلَادَكُمْ مِنْ كَسْبِكُمْ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَالنَّسَائِيُّ وَابْنُ مَاجَةَ وَفِي رِوَايَةِ أَبِي دَاوُدَ وَالدَّارِمِيِّ إِنَّ أَطْيَبَ مَا أَكَلَ الرَّجُلُ مِنْ كَسْبِهِ وَإِنَّ وَلَدَهُ مِنْ كَسْبِهِ۔

2770. Sayyidah Ayshah رضی الله عنها narrated that the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم said, "The best of what you earn is from your earnings and surely your children are part of your earnings."[2]

COMMENTARY: The last words of this hadith assert that if parents are no longer able to earn for themselves then they are allowed to consume from their children's earnings. However, if parents can make a living for themselves then it is not permitted to them to burden their children unless the children wish that their parents eat from their earnings. In that ease, they are allowed to do so.

Allamah Teebi رحمه الله said that if parents are helpless then it wajib (obligatory) on their son to provide them their necessities of life. But, Imam Shafi'I رحمه الله said that the condition for the wajib (obligatory) is that they also are unable to earns. Other scholars do not place this condition.

THE COMMAND ABOUT THE UNLAWFUL PROPERTY

(٢٧٧١) وَعَنْ عَبْدِاللّٰهِ بْنِ مَسْعُوْدٍ عَنْ رَّسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ لَا يَكْسِبُ عَبْدٌ مَالَ حَرَامٍ فَيَتَصَدَّقُ مِنْهُ فَيُقْبَلُ مِنْهُ وَلَا يُنْفِقُ مِنْهُ فَيُبَارَكُ لَهُ فِيهِ وَلَا يَتْرُكُهُ خَلْفَ ظَهْرِهِ إِلَّا كَانَ زَادَهُ إِلَى النَّارِ إِنَّ اللّٰهَ لَا يَمْحُو السَّيِّئَ بِالسَّيِّئِ وَلٰكِنْ يَمْحُو السَّيِّئَ بِالْحَسَنِ إِنَّ الْخَبِيثَ لَا يَمْحُوا الْخَبِيثَ رَوَاهُ أَحْمَدُ وَكَذَا فِي شَرْحِ السُّنَّةِ۔

2771. Sayyiduna Abdullah ibn Mas'ud رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم said, "If anyone earns unlawful property and gives charity from it then that is not accepted from him. If he spends from it (on himself and his family), then he gets no blessing for it. When he leaves it behind him, it is his provision to hell.

---

[1] Bukhari # 2102, Muslim # 64-1577, Abu Dawud # 3424, Tirmidhi # 1282, Muwatta Maalik 26 (Iztidhm) Musnad Ahmad 3-174.

[2] Tirmidhi # 1363, Abu Dawud # 3528, Nasa'i # 4461, Ibn Majah # 2290, Musnad Ahmad 6-162.

Surely, Allah does not erase evil with evil, but He erases evil with good. Surely, the impure does not erase the impure."[1]

COMMENTARY: People are amazing for the sake of this fleeting life, they are prepared to ruin the never ending life to follow. Here, a man lies, deceives, sucks the blood of the poor, misappropriates rights of fellow man and stoops so law as to throw away his religion and faith:. Finally, it becomes for him a provision that sees him to hell. He not only earns the unlawful but also derives benefit from it. After him, his heirs use what he leaves behind so they too commit sin. The sins being committed till the last day are recorded against him in his record of deeds.

If anyone hopes to be forgiven by giving charity from his unlawful earnings then that is not possible because to give charity from the unlawful is itself a sin. In fact, some ulama (Scholars) say that if anyone gives charity from unlawful property and hopes for reward there against then he gets near to the borders of disbelief. Further, if a poor man to whom he gives this charity known that it is from unlawful property and yet he prays for him then this poor man to reaches the borders of disbelief.

Sins are forgiven or their punishment mitigated by pious deeds. If any one gives charity, for example, from the lawful property, then it is a pious deed. A person not only gets re ward for spending in Allah's path from his lawful wealth, but also his sins are obliterated. It is as this verse of the Quran says:

إِنَّ الْحَسَنَاتِ يُذْهِبْنَ السَّيِّئَاتِ

{Surely good deeds will drive away the evil deeds} (11: 114)

These sentences are by way prelude of the last portion of the hadith (ان الخبيث) 'Surely, the impure does not erase the impure.'

GROWTH FROM THE UNLAWFUL

(٢٧٧٢) وَعَنْ جَابِرٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَايَدْخُلُ الْجَنَّةَ لَحْمٌ نَبَتَ مِنَ السُّحْتِ وَ كُلُّ لَحْمٍ نَبَتَ مِنَ السُّحْتِ كَانَتِ النَّارُ أَوْلٰى بِهٖ- رَوَاهُ أَحْمَدُ وَالدَّارِمِيُّ وَالْبَيْهَقِيُّ فِيْ شُعَبِ الْاِيْمَانِ-

2772. Sayyiduna Jabir رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "The flesh that is reared on the unlawful will not enter paradise. For every flesh that is bred on the unlawful, the Fire is the most appropriate place."[2]

COMMENTARY: A person who breeds on the unlawful will not enter paradise before first undergoing punishment in hell, or he will not make it to the elevated ranks of paradise, or such people will not be admitted to paradise who consume the unlawful under the assumption that it is the lawful. Or, the hadith really means to sound a warning against the evil of consuming the unlawful earnings, that people might stay way from it.

Such a person is exempted from this warning whom Allah forgives when he repents sincerely or simply out of His mercy and Allah makes those people happy with away their wealth, or, Allah accepts someone's intercession for him.

LEAVE WHAT IS DOUBTFUL

(٢٧٧٣) وَعَنِ الْحَسَنِ بْنِ عَلِيٍّ قَالَ حَفِظْتُ مِنْ رَّسُوْلِ اللهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ دَعْ مَايُرِيْبُكَ إِلٰى مَالَا يُرِيْبُكَ

---

[1] Baghawi in Sharh us sunnah (Prophet's صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم practice) # 2030, Musnad Ahmad 3-387.

[2] Darimi # 2776, Musnad Ahmad 3-321, Bayhaqi in Sha'bul-eeman # 5761.

فَإِنَّ الصِّدْقَ طُمَأْنِينَةٌ وَإِنَّ الْكَذِبَ رِيبَةٌ۔ رَوَاهُ أَحْمَدُ وَالتِّرْمِذِيُّ وَالنَّسَائِيُّ وَرَوَى الدَّارِمِيُّ الْفَصْلَ الْأَوَّلَ۔

2773. Sayyiduna Hasan ibn Ali رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that he had preserved (in his memory the hadith) from Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم (who said), "Abandon that which puts you in doubt and take up that which does not cause you doubt, because truth promotes contentment (of heart) while Falsehood raises confusion and doubt."[1]

COMMENTARY: Refrain from those things which involve you in doubt. Some ulama (Scholars) say that when your conscience becomes doubtful about the permissibility or prohibition of a deed or saying then you must abstain from that thing and adopt what your conscience approves. A man's conscience does not mislead him. This is an axiom to determine the nature of something whether it is lawful or not. However, not everyone is qualified to judge in this manner. Only those righteous people whose minds and thinking and hearts are repositories of taqwa (piety) and faith and rectitude, can judge by their conscience.

DISTINGUISHING GOOD FROM BAD

(٢٧٧٤) وَعَنْ وَابِصَةَ بْنِ مَعْبَدٍ أَنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللهِ صَلَّى اللهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ يَا وَابِصَةُ جِئْتَ تَسْأَلُ عَنِ الْبِرِّ وَالْإِثْمِ قُلْتُ نَعَمْ قَالَ فَجَمَعَ أَصَابِعَهُ فَضَرَبَ بِهَا صَدْرَهُ وَ قَالَ اسْتَفْتِ نَفْسَكَ اِسْتَفْتِ قَلْبَكَ ثَلَاثًا اَلْبِرُّ مَا اطْمَأَنَّتْ إِلَيْهِ النَّفْسُ وَاطْمَأَنَّ إِلَيْهِ الْقَلْبُ وَالْإِثْمُ مَا حَاكَ فِي النَّفْسِ وَ تَرَدَّدَ فِي الصَّدْرِ وَإِنْ أَفْتَاكَ النَّاسُ۔ (رواه احمد و الدارمی)

2774. Sayyiduna Wabisah ibn Ma'bad رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "O Wabisah, have you come to ask about piety and sin?" He said, "Yes" He went on to narrate that the prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم joined his fingers and struck his (wabisah's) chest with them and said, "Ask yourself the question. Ask your heart for a ruling." He said that three times. "Righteousness is that with which your self is content and the heart is content. And, sin is that which confuses the soul and perplexes the heart, even though the people may uphold it."

COMMENTARY: This hadith emphasizes that a decision about what is good and pious and about what is bad and evil, of any word or deed, should be left to one's conscience. If one's conscience does not hesitate then the words or deeds are pious but if there is a confusion then they are bad even though the people might recommend it and a mufti gives his verdict in its favour. A mufti's verdict (fatwa) is not the same as righteousness (taqwa (piety)). It is much better to abide by taqwa (piety) than to obey a fatwa.

As suggested in the commentary to the previous hadith, not everyone's heart is a repository of taqwa (piety) to be able to judge by his conscience. Hence, too, the common 'ask your heart' applies to the righteous people whose hearts are pure and free of base desires but filed with taqwa (piety) and love of Allah. Their hearts incline only to the good and turn away from evil. Moreover, this command is applied when a clear ruling of Shari'ah (divine law) is not found. Thus, when the verses of the Quran cannot be easily interpreted, resort should be made to ahadith as a wajib (obligatory) and a decision should be arrived at. If an interpretation alludes even from them, then resort should be made to the ulama (Scholars) as a wajib (obligatory). If no clear answer is forthcoming even from them, the heart should be asked and one of the opinion on which it seems convinced should be followed.

---

[1] Tirmidhi # 2526, Nasa'i # 5711, DArami # 2532 (first portion).

When Sayyiduna Wabisah رضی الله عنه came to the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم, he did not ask him anything but the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم perceived his intention because of the gift of perception and disclosed his intention. He then patted wabisah's رضی الله عنه heart with his fingers to bless it and enable it to understand. He also meant to tell him to ask his heart.

PERFECT ABSTINENCE

(٢٧٧٥) وَعَنْ عَطِيَّةَ السَّعْدِيِّ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَا يَبْلُغُ الْعَبْدُ اَنْ يَكُوْنَ مِنَ الْمُتَّقِيْنَ حَتّٰى يَدَعَ مَا لَا بَاْسَ بِهٖ حَذَرًا لِمَا بِهٖ بَاْسٌ۔ (رواه الترمذی وابن ماجة)

2775. Sayyiduna Atiyah as-Sa'di رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم said, "A person will never make it to (perfect) righteousness (and the rank of the God fearing) till he abandons what is not harmful to be able to be on guard against what is harmful."[1]

COMMENTARY: From the point view of Shari'ah (divine law) a muttaqi or the God-fearing is the person who keep himself away from those things which is perpetrated invite Allah's displeasure and punishment on the perpetrator.

Some ulama (Scholars) hold that taqwa (piety) or righteousness has three degrees:

(i) To shun polytheism or associating with Allah. Anyone who keeps away from it earns perpetual deliverance and this is stated in the verse:

اَلْزَمَهُمْ كَلِمَةَ التَّقْوٰى

{...made them stick to the word of piety} (48: 26)

(ii) To abstain from every sin, even the minor sins, and some ulama (Scholars) insist that this is taqwa (piety). This agrees with the verse:

وَلَوْ اَنَّ اَهْلَ الْقُرٰى اٰمَنُوْا وَ اتَّقَوْا

{And had the people of (those) townships believed and feared (Allah)} (7: 96)

(iii) To exercise extreme care in everything so much so that even some permissible things are avoided, not to let the heart think of anyone besides Allah and to concentrate only on Him. This is the message of the verse:

اِتَّقُوا اللّٰهَ حَقَّ تُقٰتِهٖ

{Fear Allah as He should be feared} (3: 102)

In fact, the hadith under discussion also says the same things about the perfect degree of taqwa (piety).

The essence of the hadith is that no one becomes a perfect muttaqi or abstinent unless he shuns even the permitted things for fear lest they lead him to commit the unlawful or makruh (disapproved) (disapproved) or doubtful. For instance, if he is a bachelor, he has more sexual appetite, so he must shun such things as arouse his emotions, like perfume, etc. In short, after keeping away from the unlawful, makruh (disapproved) and doubtful, one must also give up some permissible, things as a cautionary measure to attain a perfect degree of taqwa (piety) and abstinence. Sayyiduna Umar رضی اللہ عنہ used to say, "Lest we fall into the unlawful, we used to keep away from nine out of ten portions of the lawful." Sayyiduna Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ used to say, "We used to shun seventy portions of the permissible for fear we might commit what is unlawful."

[1] Tirmidhi # 2459, Ibn Majah # 4215.

CURSE ON THOSE CONNECTED WITH WINE

(٢٧٧٦) وَعَنْ اَنَسٍ قَالَ لَعَنَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فِي الْخَمْرِ عَشَرَةً عَاصِرَهَا وَ مُعْتَصِرَهَا وَشَارِبَهَا وَ حَامِلَهَا وَالْمَحْمُوْلَةَ اِلَيْهِ وَسَاقِيَهَا وَبَائِعَهَا وَاٰكِلَ ثَمَنِهَا وَالْمُشْتَرِيْ لَهَا وَالْمُشْتَرٰى لَهٗ۔ (رواه الترمذی وابن ماجة)

2776. Sayyiduna Anas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم cursed ten people connected with wine: The one who extracts it, the one who gets it extracted, the one who consumes it, the one who delivers it, the one to whom it is delivered, the one who serves it, the one who sells it. The one who uses its price for his good. The one who buys it and the one for whom it is bought.[1]

(٢٧٧٧) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عُمَرَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَعَنَ اللّٰهُ الْخَمْرَ وَشَارِبَهَا وَسَاقِيَهَا وَ بَائِعَهَا وَ مُبْتَاعَهَا وَعَاصِرَهَا وَمُعْتَصِرَهَا وَحَامِلَهَا وَالْمَحْمُوْلَةَ اِلَيْهِ۔ (رواه ابوداؤد وابن ماجة)

2777. Sayyiduna Ibn Umar رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "Allah has cursed wine, its drinker, its server, its seller its buyer the person who extracts it, the person for whom it is extracted, its deliverer and the person to whom it is delivered."[2]

COMMENTARY: Wine is Umm-ul-KhaBaith (the root of all evils). Therefore, it is cursed. However, it is possible that here 'wine' could refer to one who uses the price paid for wine.

WAGES OF THE CUPPER

(٢٧٧٨) وَعَنْ مُحَيِّصَةَ اَنَّهُ اسْتَاْذَنَ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فِيْ اُجْرَةِ الْحَجَّامِ فَنَهَاهُ فَلَمْ يَزَلْ يَسْتَاْذِنُهُ حَتّٰى قَالَ اَعْلِفْهُ نَاضِحَكَ وَاَطْعِمْهُ رَقِيْقَكَ۔ (رواه مالك والترمذی وابوداؤد وابن ماجة)

2778. Sayyiduna Muhaysah رضی اللہ عنہ reported that he sought permission of Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم for (collecting) the wages of the cupper, but he disallowed it, He did not cease to ask for his permission, so finally he consented, "Feed the earnings (from it) to your watering camels and feed your slaves (male and female) with it."

COMMENTARY: Many Sahabah (Prophet's Companions) رضی اللہ عنہم had a retinue of slaves some of whom they had appointed to the profession of cupping. The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم did not permit Sayyiduna Muhaysah رضی اللہ عنہ to use the share of earnings he received from his slave but permitted him to feed the camels and the slaves from his share. Though these earnings were not unlawful yet they were makruh tanzihi (disapproved for purification) and not proper for the sahabah (Prophet's Companions) رضی اللہ عنہم. He encouraged them in this way to work hard for a living.

---

[1] Tirmidhi # 1299, Ibn Majah # 3381.

[2] Abu Dawud # 3674, Ibn Majah # 3380, Musnad Ahmad 2-25.

EARNINGS OF SONGSTRESS DISALLOWED

(٢٧٧٩) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ نَهَى رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ عَنْ ثَمَنِ الْكَلْبِ وَكَسْبِ الزَّمَّارَةِ۔ رَوَاهُ فِيْ شَرْحِ السُّنَّةِ۔

2779. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم forbade the (use of the) price of the dog and the wages of the songstress.[1]

COMMENTARY: Some ulama (Scholars) say that the word (الزمارة) (az-zammarah) means the beautiful woman who is lecherous. Some others say that it means 'making signs with the eyes.' Prostitutes do lure men by signs with the eyes. (These meanings are suggested instead of 'songstress!')

BUYING AND SELLING SINGING GIRLS

(٢٧٨٠) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ اُمَامَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَاتَبِيْعُوا لْقَيْنَاتِ وَلَا تَشْتَرُو هُنَّ وَلَا تُعَلِّمُوْ هُنَّ وَثَمَنُهُنَّ حَرَامٌ وَفِيْ مِثْلِ هٰذَا اُنْزِلَتْ وَمِنَ النَّاسِ مَنْ يَّشْتَرِىْ لَهْوَ الْحَدِيْثِ۔ رَوَاهُ اَحْمَدُ وَالتِّرْمِذِيُّ وَابْنُ مَاجَةَ وَقَالَ التِّرْمِذِيُّ هٰذَا حَدِيْثٌ غَرِيْبٌ وَعَلِيُّ بْنُ يَزِيْدَ الرَّاوِيُّ يُضَعَّفُ فِي الْحَدِيْثِ وَسَتَذْكُرُ حَدِيْثَ جَابِرٍ نَهَى عَنْ اَكْلِ الْهِرِّ فِيْ بَابِ مَايَحِلُّ اَكْلُهُ اِنْ شَاءَ اللّٰهُ تَعَالٰى۔

2780. Sayyiduna Abu Umamah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "Do not sell singing girls, nor buy them, nor teach them (to sing). The price paid for them is unlawful. The like of it has been revealed.

وَمِنَ النَّاسِ مَنْ يَّشْتَرِىْ لَهْوَ الْحَدِيْثِ

{And of mankind is he who buys frivolous discourse} (1)[2] (31;6)

COMMENTARY: Some ulama (Scholars) interpret the hadith to mean: it is not allowed to sell the singing girls. All the others say that while it is permitted to sell them, yet the hadith merely forbids receiving wages of their singing. Wages acquired for their songs are unlawful. It is like grapes sold to the processor of wine, their price is forbidden, but not the price of grapes as a commodity. In both cases, the wages or price are forbidden because they are got from unlawful means. Neither grapes nor singing girls are disallowed to be bought and sold.

The words 'frivolous discourse' (or, playthings as translated in Urdu) in the verse cited in the hadith mean the songs and forbidden voices that keep a person away from remembrance of Allah and cause him to commit sin. Every kind of vain talk comes under this meaning. A man by the name of Nasr ibn Harith used to purchase singing girls so that he could lead people away from Allah's path through them. This verse was revealed to censure him. Some ulama (Scholars) say that Nasr ibn Harith had bought certain books of the ajamis (non Arabs) from which he read stories to the Quraysh, saying, "Muhammad relates to you the stories of the Aad and Thamud, but I narrate to you the tales of Rustum, Isfandyar and kings."

---

[1] Baghawi in Sharh us sunnah (Prophet's صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم practice) # 2038.

[2] Tirmidhi # 1286, Ibn Majah # 2118, Musnad Ahmad 5-264.

وَسَنَذْكُرُ حَدِيْثَ جَابِرٍ نُهِىَ عَنْ اَكْلِ الْهِرِّفِيْ بَابِ مَا يَحِلُّ اَكْلُهُ اِنْ شَآءَ اللّٰهُ تَعَالٰى

We shall mention the hadith of Jabir (# 128) forbidding eating of cats in the chapter on what is allowed to be eaten, Insha Allah.

SECTION III اَلْفَصْلُ الثَّالِثُ

FARD (COMPULSORY) TO EARN LAWFUL SUSTENANCE

(٢٧٨١) عَنْ عَبْدِاللّٰهِ بْنِ مَسْعُوْدٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ طَلَبُ كَسْبِ الْحَلَالِ فَرِيْضَةٌ بَعْدَ الْفَرِيْضَةِ۔ (رواه البيهقى فى شعب الايمان)

2781. Sayyiduna Abdullah ibn Mas'ud رضى الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Seeking to earn to lawful livelihood is obligatory duty after the obligatory duties."[1]

COMMENTARY: The hadith means that it is fard (compulsory) to earn a living with one's family. However, the obligatory duties, like salah (prayer) zakah (Annual due charity) etc. prescribed by Allah are of prime importance and must be discharged without fail and earning lawful sustenance follows next.

According to the ruling of fiqh (Islamic jurisprudence), it is fard (compulsory) for that person to earn for the upkeep of himself and his family who is dependent on the earnings.

The hadith calls for lawful livelihood which means that is must not be unlawful. So, here lawful sustenance could include doubtful earning too because the other ahadith call for keeping away from doubtful provision only by way of caution, not as an obligatory duty. Also, it is not fard (compulsory) on everyone to seek a livelihood for himself, because many there are whose upkeep is wajib (obligatory) on other people so it is not necessary for them to earn for themselves.

PERMITTED TO SEEK REMUNERATION FOR WRITING DOWN THE QURAN

(٢٧٨٢) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ اَنَّهُ سُئِلَ عَنْ اُجْرَةِ كِتَابَةِ الْمُصْحَفِ فَقَالَ لَا بَاسَ اِنَّمَا هُمْ مُصَوِّرُوْنَ وَاِنَّهُمْ اِنَّمَا يَاكُلُوْنَ مِنْ عَمَلِ اَيْدِيْهِمْ۔ (رواه رزين)

2782. Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضى الله عنه was asked about wages paid for writing down the (copies of the) Quran. He said, "It does not matter. They are only those who sketch lines and they only eat what their hands earn."[2]

COMMENTARY: Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضى الله عنه explained to the man who wondered if the scribe could get wages for writing down the Quran that the scribe merely drew lines on pages. He might do that for the Quran or for any other book. It is his art and his profession and a means of his lawful sustenance.

THE MOST EXCELLENT EARNING

(٢٧٨٣) وَعَنْ رَافِعِ بْنِ خَدِيْجٍ قَالَ قِيْلَ يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ اَيُّ الْكَسْبِ اَطْيَبُ قَالَ عَمَلُ الرَّجُلِ بِيَدِهٖ وَكُلُّ بَيْعٍ مَبْرُوْرٍ۔ (رواه احمد)

---

[1] Bayhaqi in shu'ab ul Eeman # 8741.

[2] Razin.

2783. Sayyiduna Rafi ibn Khadij رضى الله عنه narrated that Someone asked (the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم), "O Messenger of Allah, which kind of earning is the purest (meaning, best)?" He said, "A person's work with his hand and every trade that is approved (being according to principles and rules of Shari'ah (divine law))."[1]

COMMENTARY: The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said that while the best profession was of manual labour, yet if anyone cannot earn his living with his hands then he must engage in some business conducting it honestly and in a trustworthy manner. This too is a pure and lawful earning.

PRICE OF MILK

(٢٧٨٤) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ بَكْرِ بْنِ اَبِيْ مَرْيَمَ قَالَ كَانَتْ لِمِقْدَامِ بْنِ مَعْدِيْ كَرِبَ جَارِيَةٌ تَبِيْعُ اللَّبَنَ وَيَقْبِضُ الْمِقْدَامُ ثَمَنَهُ فَقِيْلَ لَهُ سُبْحَانَ اللّٰهِ اَتَبِيْعُ اللَّبَنَ وَتَقْبِضُ الثَّمَنَ فَقَالَ نَعَمْ وَمَا بَاْسٌ بِذٰلِكَ سَمِعْتُ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُوْلُ لَيَاْتِيَنَّ عَلَى النَّاسِ زَمَانٌ لَا يَنْفَعُ فِيْهِ اِلَّا الدِّيْنَارُ وَالدِّرْهَمُ۔ (رواه احمد)

2784. Sayyiduna Abu Bakr ibn Abu Maryam رضى الله عنه said that Sayyiduna Miqdan ibn Ma'dikarib had a female slave who sold milk (of the domestic animals) and Miqdam took its price. Someone exclaimed, "Subhan Allah, is it that she sell the milk and you keep its price?" He said, "Yes! There is no harm in it. I had heard Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم say, 'A time will come to man without doubt when nothing will benefit him but the dinar and the dirham."[2]

COMMENTARY: People questioned Sayyiduna Miqdam رضى الله عنه why he collected the price of milk because it was better that milk should be given away to the poor or distributed to friends and acquaintances. It did not behave him to sell milk and get its price. He clarified that it was not disallowed by Shari'ah (divine law) and neither was it otherwise disallowed nor disliked. Besides, he was not driven to sell milk out of greed but only made two ends meet with it.

He also said that a time would come when people would think only of wealth and expand the sphere of their needs but paucity of funds would involve them in different kinds of difficulties. Hence, neither will they pay attention to leaning nor will they respect the learned. Rather, they will have only one goal; money, and they will esteem the monied class.

The sahabah (Prophet's Companions) رضى الله عنهم used to encourage each other to collect enough wealth to be able to preserve a respectable way of life. They reminded others that a time would come when the needy and hard-pressed would first of all risk his religion and faith.

RETAIN THE SOURCE OF PROVISION APPOINTED BY ALLAH

(٢٧٨٥) وَعَنْ نَافِعٍ قَالَ كُنْتُ اُجَهِّزُ اِلَى الشَّامِ وَاِلٰى مِصْرَ فَجَهَّزْتُ اِلَى الْعِرَاقِ فَاَتَيْتُ اُمَّ الْمُؤْمِنِيْنَ عَائِشَةَ فَقُلْتُ لَهَا يَا اُمَّ الْمُؤْمِنِيْنَ كُنْتُ اُجَهِّزُ اِلَى الشَّامِ فَجَهَّزْتُ اِلَى الْعِرَاقِ فَقَالَتْ لَا تَفْعَلْ مَا لَكَ وَلِمَتْجَرِكَ فَاِنِّيْ سَمِعْتُ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُوْلُ اِذَا سَبَّبَ اللّٰهُ لِاَحَدِكُمْ رِزْقًا مِنْ وَجْهٍ فَلَا يَدَعْهُ حَتّٰى

---

[1] Musnad Ahmad 4-141.

[2] Musnad Ahmad 4-133.

يَتَغَيَّرَ لَهُ اَوْيَتَنَكَّرَ لَهُ۔ (رواه احمد وابن ماجة)

2785. Sayyiduna Nafi رحمه الله said that he was in the habit of preparing (merchandise for) his business expeditions to Syria and Egypt (under the supervision of his staff and attorneys). Then, he decided to send on to Iraq and met the mother of the believers, Sayyidah Ayshah رضی الله عنها and said to her, 'O Mother of the believers, used to prepare expeditions to Syria and now I have prepared one for Iraq." She said, "Do not do so. What is wrong with you and with the place with which you were trading? For, I did hear Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم say. 'When Allah has caused for any of you sustenance from one place, he should not abandon it unless it changes for him or gets bad for him.'

COMMENTARY: Teebi رحمه الله said that if anyone receives something good of the permissible then he must regard it as a blessing of Allah and continue to work for it. He must not give it up without a valid reason to go for something else.

ABU BAKR'S رضی الله عنه CAUTION AND TAQWA (PIETY)

(٢٧٨٦) وَعَنْ عَآئِشَةَ قَالَتْ كَانَ لِاَبِيْ بَكْرٍ غُلَامٌ يُخْرِجُ لَهُ الْخَرَاجَ فَكَانَ اَبُوْبَكْرٍ يَاكُلُ مِنْ خَرَاجِهٖ فَجَاءَ يَوْمًا بِشَيْءٍ فَاَكَلَ مِنْهُ اَبُوْبَكْرٍ فَقَالَ لَهُ الْغُلَامُ تَدْرِيْ مَاهٰذَا فَقَالَ اَبُوْبَكْرٍ وَمَا هُوَ قَالَ كُنْتُ تَكَهَّنْتُ لِاِنْسَانٍ فِي الْجَاهِلِيَّةِ وَمَا اُحْسِنُ الْكَهَانَةَ اِلَّا اَنِّيْ خَدَعْتُهٗ فَلَقِيَنِيْ فَاَعْطَانِيْ بِذٰلِكَ فَهٰذَا الَّذِيْ اَكَلْتَ مِنْهُ قَالَتْ فَاَدْخَلَ اَبُوْبَكْرٍ يَدَهٗ فَقَاءَ كُلَّ شَيْءٍ فِيْ بَطْنِهٖ۔ (رواه البخاری)

2786. Sayyidah Ayshah رضی الله عنها narrated that Sayyiduna Abu Bakr رضی الله عنه had a slave who paid to (Sayyiduna) Abu Bakr رضی الله عنه a specified portion of his earnings (as per the custom of the Arabs) and he consumed from what he brought. One day, he brought something to him and Sayyiduna Abu Bakr رضی الله عنه ate from it. Then the slave asked him, 'Do you relies what it is?" Abu Bakr رضی الله عنه asked, "what is it?" He said, "I used to predict the future for one man during the jahiliyh but I was not good at it, so I duped him. He happened to meet me today and gave that to me. It is of this that you have eaten." She said, "Abu Bakr put his hand in his mouth and vomited everything that was in his belly."[1]

COMMENTARY: Sayyiduna Abu Bakr رضی الله عنه vomited what he had eaten of the earnings through soothsaying and deceit. He vomited not only what he had eaten of it but also everything else lest it had mixed up with it.

Imam Ghazzali رضی الله عنه wrote in Minhaj ul Aabideen that he work of Abu Bakr رضی الله عنه was his taqwa (piety) and fear of Allah. He also wrote that fear of Allah demands that nothing should be taken from another unless its lawfulness is verified, after that it should be confirmed that there is no dubious nature in it. If these things cannot be confirmed the it should not be taken and it already taken then it should be returned.

---

[1] Bukhari # 3842.

CONSEQUENCES OF DEVOURING THE UNLAWFUL

(٢٧٨٧) عَنْ اَبِيْ بَكْرٍ اَنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ لَايَدْخُلُ الْجَنَّةَ جَسَدٌ غُذِیَ بِالْحَرَامِ۔ (رواہ البیہقی فی شعب الایمان)

2787. Sayyiduna Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "The body that has been nourished with the unlawful shall not enter paradise."[1]

AN EXAMPLE OF SAYYIDUNA UMAR رضی اللہ عنہ

(٢٧٨٨) وَعَنْ زَيْدِ بْنِ اَسْلَمَ اَنَّهٗ قَالَ شَرِبَ عُمَرُ بْنُ الْخَطَّابِ لَبَنًا وَاَعْجَبَهٗ وَقَالَ لِلَّذِیْ سَقَاهُ مِنْ اَيْنَ لَكَ هٰذَا اللَّبَنُ فَاَخْبَرَهٗ اَنَّهٗ وَرَدَ عَلٰى مَاءٍ قَدْ سَمَّاهُ فَاِذَا نَعَمٌ مِنْ نَعَمِ الصَّدَقَةِ وَهُمْ يَسْقُوْنَ فَحَلَبُوْا لِیْ مِنْ اَلْبَانِهَا فَجَعَلْتُهٗ فِیْ سِقَائِیْ وَهُوَ هٰذَا فَاَدْخَلَ عُمَرُ يَدَهٗ فَاسْتَقَاءَهٗ۔ رَوَاهُ الْبَيْهَقِیُّ فِیْ شُعَبِ الْاِيْمَانِ۔

2788. Sayyiduna Zayd ibn Aslam رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that (once) Sayyiduna Umar رضی اللہ عنہ drank milk that pleased (or seemed strange to)[2] him. So, he asked the person who had given him to drink, "From where did you get this milk? He informed him that he had gone to a watering place, naming it. There some animals of the zakah (Annual due charity) were gathered and were drinking water. The supervisors who were watering the animals milked them for him and he put it in his milk skin. He gave him that, so, Umar رضی اللہ عنہ put his hand in his mouth and vomited (out the milk because it was property of zakah (Annual due charity) not allowed to him).[3]

COMMENTARY: Sayyid Jamaluddin Muhaddith has pointed out that this hadith is not found at this place in most copies of Mishkat and it is also not found in the copy from which their teacher narrated ahadith to them. Rather, it is written in the margin at this place in that book. Hence, it is proper that it should be omitted from this chapter. (Besides, this hadith is found in Mishkat's Book of zakah (Annual due charity) with minor changes of words # 1836. So, it is not proper here again).

WORSHIP IS REJECTED IF WEALTH IS REQUIRED UNLAWFULLY HOWSOEVER INSIGNIFICANT

(٢٧٨٩) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عُمَرَ قَالَ مَنِ اشْتَرٰى ثَوْبًا بِعَشْرَةِ دَرَاهِمَ وَفِيْهِ دِرْهَمٌ حَرَامٌ لَمْ يَقْبَلِ اللّٰهُ تَعَالٰى لَهٗ صَلَاةً مَادَامَ عَلَيْهِ ثُمَّ اَدْخَلَ اِصْبَعَيْهِ فِیْ اُذُنَيْهِ وَقَالَ صُمَّتَا اِنْ لَمْ يَكُنِ النَّبِیُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ سَمِعْتُهٗ يَقُوْلُهٗ رَوَاهُ اَحْمَدُ وَالْبَيْهَقِیُّ فِیْ شُعَبِ الْاِيْمَانِ وَقَالَ اِسْنَادُهٗ ضَعِيْفٌ۔

2789. Sayyiduna Ibn Umar رضی اللہ عنہ said that if any one buys a clothing, say for ten dirhams, of which one dirham is unlawfully acquired, Allah, the Exalted, shall not accept from him salah (prayer) as long as that is on his body. Then, he put a finger (his fore fingers) in each ear and said, "May they (both ears) become deaf if I had

---

[1] Bayhaqi in Sha'bul Eeman.

[2] Parenthesis depict translation as in Urdu text for Ajabahu (pleased him). – Mazahir Haq p 52.

[3] Bayhaqi in Shu'ab ul eeman # 5771.

not heard the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم say it!"[1]

COMMENTARY: Even a small amount of wealth illegally acquired will have the effect of salah (prayer) not being accepted to get him reward for it though his obligation will have been discharged. It is like one offering salah (prayer) on illegally taken property belonging to someone else in which case his obligation may stand discharged but he will get no reward for his salah (prayer).
Ibn Umar رضى الله عنه confirmed that he had heard the hadith from the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم.

CHAPTER - II

BEING GENTLE IN DEALINGS بَابُ الْمُسَاهَلَةِ فِي الْمُعَامَلَةِ

It is very necessary to be gentle in mutual dealings and in business affairs. This will strengthen social relations and mutual cooperation and kindness. Ahadith on this subject are narrated in this chapter.

SECTION I اَلْفَصْلُ الْاَوَّلُ

PROPHET'S PRAYER FOR THE GENTLE

(٢٧٩٠) عَنْ جَابِرٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ رَحِمَ اللّٰهُ رَجُلًا سَمْحًا إِذَا بَاعَ وَإِذَا اشْتَرٰى وَإِذَا اقْتَضٰى۔ (رواه البخاری)

2790. Sayyiduna Jabir رضى الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "May Allah have mercy on a man who is gentle when he sells, when he buys and when he demands."[2]

BE MILD ALLAH WILL SHOW MILDNESS TO YOU

(٢٧٩١) وَعَنْ حُذَيْفَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِنَّ رَجُلًا كَانَ فِيْمَنْ كَانَ قَبْلَكُمْ أَتَاهُ الْمَلَكُ لِيَقْبِضَ رُوْحَهُ فَقِيْلَ لَهُ هَلْ عَمِلْتَ مِنْ خَيْرٍ قَالَ مَا أَعْلَمُ قِيْلَ لَهُ أُنْظُرْ قَالَ مَا أَعْلَمُ شَيْئًا غَيْرَ أَنِّيْ كُنْتُ أُبَايِعُ النَّاسَ فِي الدُّنْيَا وَأُجَازِيْهِمْ فَأُنْظِرُ الْمُوْسِرَ وَأَتَجَاوَزُ عَنِ الْمُعْسِرِ فَأَدْخَلَهُ اللّٰهُ الْجَنَّةَ! مُتَّفَقٌ عَلَيْهِ وَفِيْ رِوَايَةٍ لِمُسْلِمٍ نَحْوَهُ عَنْ عُقْبَةَ بْنِ عَامِرٍ وَأَبِيْ مَسْعُوْدٍ الْأَنْصَارِيِّ فَقَالَ اللّٰهُ أَنَا أَحَقُّ بِذَا مِنْكَ تَجَاوَزُوْا عَنْ عَبْدِيْ۔

2791. Sayyiduna Hudhayfah رضى الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "There was a man among the people who preceded you. The angel came to him to take away his soul. He was asked, 'Have you done any thing good?' He said, 'I do not know.' He was asked to think over. He said, 'I do not know anything beyond that I had business dealings with people in the world and when I demanded my dues from them, I allowed respite to the rich and let the poor off.' So Allah admitted him to paradise."[3]

---

[1] Bayhaqi in Sha'b ul eeman 6114, Musnad Ahmad.
[2] Bukhari # 2056, Ibn Majah # 2203.
[3] Bukhari # 3451, Muslim # 26-1560, Darimi # 2546, Musnad Ahmad 5-395.

2292. Sayyiduna Uqbah ibn 'Aamir رضی اللہ عنہ and Sayyiduna Abu Mas'ud Ansari رضی اللہ عنہ narrated samething like it: Allah said, "I have more right to do that than you have forgive my slave!"[1]

COMMENTARY: The angel who came to the man was either Sayyiduna Izra'il علیہ السلام himself or one of his sub-ordinates to take away his soul. It is more likely that he (Izra'il) علیہ السلام had come as Allah says:

قُلْ يَتَوَفّٰكُمْ مَلَكُ الْمَوْتِ الَّذِىْ وُكِّلَ بِكُمْ

{Say, 'The angel of death who has been given your charge shall take your souls.} (32: 11)

If it is a pure soul, the angels of mercy take it but if it is a bad soul, the angels of punishment get hold of it. However, it must be known that the angel of death (whether Izra'il علیہ السلام or any other angel) is only a means of extracting anyone's soul otherwise the soul is taken and death given only by Allah, the Exalted, as the says so:

اَللّٰهُ يَتَوَفَّى الْاَنْفُسَ حِيْنَ مَوْتِهَا

{Allah takes the souls (of people) at the time of their death....} (89: 42)

As for the question to the man (when his soul was being taken), it was asked either by Allah himself, or by the angels. The greater possibility is that the question was put to him before his soul was taken as understood from the hadith. But, it is also possible that it was put after he was buried in grave as Shaykh Mazhar رحمہ اللہ said. At the same time, Allamah Teebi رحمہ اللہ has also sounded the possibility that the question shall be asked (in the hereafter) after resurrection.

The hadith says that it is very rewarding to give respite to one who is able to repay and to write off for one who is unable.

AVOID SWEARING OFTEN WHILE TRADING

(٢٧٩٣) وَعَنْ اَبِىْ قَتَادَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اِيَّاكُمْ وَكَثْرَةَ الْحَلْفِ فِى الْبَيْعِ فَاِنَّهُ يُنَفِّقُ ثُمَّ يَمْحَقُ۔ (رواہ مسلم)

2793. Sayyiduna Abu Qatadah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "Beware of much swearing while buying and selling, for, though it may promote sale yet it removes blessing."[2]

COMMENTARY: A man who swears much tends to lie too. That removes blessings and people begin to mistrust him. They gradually stop buying from him.

(٢٧٩٤) وَعَنْ اَبِىْ هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ سَمِعْتُ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُوْلُ الْحَلْفُ مُنَفِّقَةٌ لِلسِّلْعَةِ مُمْحِقَةٌ لِلْبَرَكَةِ۔ (متفق علیہ)

2794. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that he heard Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم say, "Swearing does get quick sale (in the beginning) for the merchandise but (eventually) removes blessing."[3]

---

[1] Muslim # 26-1560, Musnad Ahmad 4-118.

[2] Muslim # 132-1607, Ibn Majah # 2209, Musnad Ahmad 4-118.

[3] Bukhari # 2087, Muslim # 131-1606, Abu Dawud # 3335, Nasa'i # 4461.

COMMENTARY: The hadith might mean too much swearing as also false swearing. Whatever it be, swearing wipes out blessings from the merchandise and property. Eventually, it is either misused or lost. There is no benefit in this world or the next.

WARNING AGAINST FALSE SWEARING

(٢٧٩٥) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ ذَرٍّ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ ثَلَاثَةٌ لَا يُكَلِّمُهُمُ اللّٰهُ يَوْمَ الْقِيَامَةِ وَلَا يَنْظُرُ اِلَيْهِمْ وَلَا يُزَكِّيْهِمْ وَلَهُمْ عَذَابٌ اَلِيْمٌ قَالَ اَبُوْذَرٍّ خَابُوْا وَخَسِرُوْا مَنْ هُمْ يَارَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ قَالَ الْمُسْبِلُ وَالْمَنَّانُ وَالْمُنَفِّقُ سِلْعَتَهُ بِالْحَلْفِ الْكَاذِبِ۔ (رواه مسلم)

2795. Sayyiduna Abu Dharr رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "Three people there are to whom Allah will not speak (kindly) on the day of resurrection at whom He shall not look (mercifully), and whom He shall not purify (from sins). For them is a painful punishment." Sayyiduna Abu Dharr رضی اللہ عنہ exclaimed, "They are failures and lost!" (And, he asked) "Who are they, O Messenger of Allah?" He said, "He who wears a trailing robe. He who recounts his favours. And, He who expands his business by false swearing."[1]

COMMENTARY: A trailing robe may also be any (trailing) lower garment hanging down the ankles out of arrogance.

Anyone who reminds of his favours gets no reward for it whether it is an act of kindness, of charity, or help.

Previously, anyone who swears falsely is defined.

SECTION II اَلْفَصْلُ الثَّانِیْ

TRUTHFUL MERCHANT

(٢٧٩٦-٢٧٩٧) عَنْ اَبِيْ سَعِيْدٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ التَّاجِرُ الصَّدُوْقُ الْاَمِيْنُ مَعَ النَّبِيِّيْنَ وَالصِّدِّيْقِيْنَ وَالشُّهَدَاءِ۔ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَالدَّارِمِيُّ وَالدَّار قُطْنِيُّ وَرَوَاهُ ابْنُ مَاجَةَ عَنِ ابْنِ عُمَرَ وَقَالَ التِّرْمِذِيُّ هٰذَا حَدِيْثٌ غَرِيْبٌ۔

2796. Sayyiduna Abu Sa'eed narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "The truthful, trustworthy merchant will be (bracketed) with the Prophet علیہ السلام, the upright true one and the martyrs."[2]

2797. Sayyiduna Ibn Umar رضی اللہ عنہ also narrated this hadith.[3]

COMMENTARY: The merchant may be an ordinary trader or monopolist. The best of all trades is business of cloth followed by a perfumes (drapery and perfumery).

This person could be with those three great men in place of gathering in the shade of mercy, or with them in paradise as their companion. He will be with the Prophets علیہ السلام because of obedience to them, with the truthful people because of his own quality of truthfulness and with the martyrs because they shall bear testimony to his honesty (the word shuhada means martyrs and witnesses).

---

[1] Muslim # 171-106, Nasa'i # 4458, Ibn Majah # 2208, Darimi # 2605, Musnad Ahmad 5-158.

[2] Tirmidhi # 1213, Darimi # 2539.

[3] Ibn Majah # 2139.

CHARITY NECESSARY WITH TRADING

(٢٧٩٨) وَعَنْ قَيْسِ بْنِ اَبِيْ غَرَزَةَ قَالَ كُنَّا نُسَمّٰى فِيْ عَهْدِ رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ السَّمَاسِرَةَ فَمَرَّبِنَا رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَسَمَّانَا بِاسْمٍ هُوَ اَحْسَنُ مِنْهُ فَقَالَ يَامَعْشَرَ التُّجَّارِ اِنَّ الْبَيْعَ يَحْضُرُهُ اللَّغْوُ وَالْحَلْفُ فَشُوْبُوْهُ بِالصَّدَقَةِ۔ (رواه ابوداؤد والترمذی والنسائی وابن ماجة)

2798. Sayyiduna Qays ibn Abu Gharazah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that during the time of Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم they were known as as-Samasirah (brokers). One day, Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم passed by them and give them a name better than that. He said, "O company of traders (tujjar), surely, in business vain talk and swearing do crop up, so blend that with sadaqah (charity) (or charity)."[1]

COMMENTARY: Samasirah is plural of samsar meaning a broker .or a proprietor or supervisor. The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم called them tujjar which is a plural of tajir (merchant, trader). It is a better name and Allah has used it to praise business as in the verse:

هَلْ اَدُلُّكُمْ عَلٰى تِجَارَةٍ تُنْجِيْكُمْ مِنْ عَذَابٍ اَلِيْمٍ

{Shall I direct you to a commerce that shall deliver you from a painful chastisement?} (61: 10)

Or:

تِجَارَةً عَنْ تَرَاضٍ

{trading between you by mutual agreement....} (4: 29)

Or:

تِجَارَةً لَنْ تَبُوْرَ

{A commerce that perishes not } (35: 29)

The concluding command is to blend 'meaningless talk and swearing' with charity as an expiation for inviting Allah's anger. Charity removes Divine wrath.

WARNING TO MERCHANTS

(٢٧٩٩-٢٨٠٠) وَعَنْ عُبَيْدِ بْنِ رِفَاعَةَ عَنْ اَبِيْهِ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ التُّجَّارُ يُحْشَرُوْنَ يَوْمَ الْقِيَامَةِ فُجَّارًا اِلَّامَنِ اتَّقٰى وَبَرَّوَصَدَقَ۔ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَابْنُ مَاجَةَ وَالدَّارِمِيُّ وَرَوَى الْبَيْهَقِيُّ فِيْ شُعَبِ الْاِيْمَانِ عَنِ الْبَرَآءِ وَقَالَ التِّرْمِذِيُّ هٰذَا حَدِيْثٌ حَسَنٌ صَحِيْحٌ۔

2799. Sayyiduna Ubayd ibn Rifa'ah رحمہ اللہ narrated that from his father that the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "The merchant shall be raised on the day of resurrection as sinners, except those who fear Allah and are pious and truthful."[2]

2800. Sayyiduna Al-Bara رضی اللہ عنہ also narrated that this hadith.[3]

---

[1] Tirmidhi # 1212, Abu Dawud # 3325, Nasa'i # 3803, Ibn Majah # 2145, Musnad Ahmad # 16134.

[2] Tirmidhi # 1214, Ibn Majah # 2146, Darimi # 2538, Musnad Ahmad 3-428.

[3] Bayhaqi in shu'b ul eeman.

CHAPTER - III

OPTION TO CONFIRM OR TO REVOKE A TRANSACTION بَابُ الْخِيَارِ

The word Khiyar is derived from ikhtiyar which means 'to select or choose one of two things.' Thus, the choice to cancel or retain a business transaction available to both parties is called al-khiyar in the terminology of figh. There are many kinds of al-khiyar in business transactions details of which may be seen in books of fiqh (Islamic jurisprudence). However, we deem it necessary to name those kinds and to define them.

KHIYAR ASH SHART: (choice of stipulation) After a transaction is concluded, the seller or the buyer or both have the right to revoke or retain the transaction. This is called khiyar ash-shart. For instance, a seller sells something which a buyer buys, but, thereafter, one of them says. "Though the sale is transacted, have the right for one day, two days or three days to confirm or annual it." This kind of stipulation is allowed in such transactions and if a transaction is revoked within the stipulated period then it would be cancelled but if it is confirmed, or nothing is said, then after the stipulated period it will became final. The period of stipulation is a maximum of three days according to Imam Abu Hanifah. رحمه الله

KHIYAR UL AYB (CHOICE WHEN DEFECTIVE): It is the option available to the buyer, after a sale transaction is concluded, on discovery of a defect, to hold on the purchased item or to return it and get a refund of the price he had paid. However, if at the time of sale, the seller had declared to the buyer that he is not responsible for any kind of defect detected in the commodity so he may or may not purchase it. If the buyer buys is willingly in spite of that, then whatever defect he discovers thereafter he has no right to return it.

KHIYAR US RU'YAH (OPTION TO INSPECT: The right of a buyer, who had bought the merchandise without inspecting it, to return it, after having examined it, is called khiyar ur riyah. A buyer is allowed to buy anything without examing it. Then, on seeing it, whenever he likes, he may keep it or return it to the seller.

KHIYAR AT-TAYYIN (OPTION TO DETERMINE): It is the option available to the buyer, who has bought a few things, to retain what he likes and return the others to the seller. When he buys, he stipulates that he would keep one (or some) and return the others.

OTHERS: One more kind of Khiyar will be mentioned in this chapter Khiyar ul majlis. It is that when buyer and seller conclude a transaction at a place then before that assembly closes and they separate, both of them have the option individually to revoke the agreement. Once the assembly is over, none of them has the option to annul the agreement to transact. However, opinion differ on this kind of khiyar. Imam Shafi'I رحمه الله and some other ulama (Scholars) accept this option but Imam Abu Hanifah رحمه الله and a few others do not subscribe to this option, saying that when a transaction was concluded by mutual agreement, no one has the right to annul it. If khiyar ush shart was agreed at that time and its maximum limit is three days then after three days this option too expires.

SECTION I اَلْفَصْلُ الْاَوَّلُ

ABOUT KHIYAR UL MAJLIS

(٢٨٠١) عَنِ ابْنِ عُمَرَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ الْمُتَبَايِعَانِ كُلُّ وَاحِدٍ مِّنْهُمَا بِالْخِيَارِ عَلٰى صَاحِبِهٖ مَا لَمْ يَتَفَرَّقَا اِلَّا بَيْعَ الْخِيَارِ۔ مُتَّفَقٌ عَلَيْهِ وَفِيْ رِوَايَةٍ لِّمُسْلِمٍ اِذَا تَبَايَعَ الْمُتَبَايِعَانِ فَكُلُّ وَاحِدٍ مِّنْهُمَا

بِالْخِيَارِ مِنْ بَيْعِهِ مَالَمْ يَتَفَرَّقَا اَوْ يَكُوْنَ بَيْعُهُمَا عَنْ خِيَارٍ فَإِذَا كَانَ بَيْعُهُمَا عَنْ خِيَارٍ فَقَدْ وَجَبَ وَفِيْ رِوَايَةٍ لِلتِّرْمِذِيِّ اَلْبَيِّعَانِ بِالْخِيَارِ مَالَمْ يَتَفَرَّقَا اَوْيَخْتَارَا وَفِي الْمُتَّفَقِ عَلَيْهِ اَوْ يَقُوْلُ اَحَدُهُمَا لِصَاحِبِهِ اخْتَرْ بَدَلَ اَوْيَخْتَارَا۔

2801. Sayyiduna Ibn Umar رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "The two parties (buyer and seller) in a business transaction own a right to annul it as long as they have not separated except in Bai ul Khiyar (a transaction of optional sale in which they enjoy the right to annul it).

A version in Muslim says: "The two parties in a business transaction enjoy a right to revoke it till they do not separate, or the right to cancel is stipulated therein. When that condition is made it remains valid."

A version in Tirmidhi says: "The two parties (to a transaction) have a right to revoke the transaction as long as they do not separate, or retain the right (to cancel it later)."

A version: in Bukhari and Muslim says: "Or one of them says to the other party, 'exercise the right stipulated' (and the other agrees)" instead of 'or retain the right (to cancel it later.'[1]

COMMENTARY: This hadith seems to uphold Khiyar ul majlis, but those who do not agree that khiyar ul majlis is a permitted kind (like Imam Abu Hanifah) رحمہ اللہ say that, 'separating from one another' is not the same as 'conclusion of the assembly.' Rather, they say that separating signifies 'conclusion of their discussion about the trade transaction and suspension.' While the offer and acceptance is yet unconcluded, each of them has choice to call it off or continue it. However, once the seller confirms the sale and the buyer affirms that he has bought it, neither of them has a right to revoke the transaction. These people cite in support of this meaning of 'separating' in this verse

وَاِنْ يَتَفَرَّقَا يُغْنِ اللّٰهُ كُلًّا مِّنْ سَعَتِهٖ

{And if they separate, Allah will enrich each of them out of His abundance} (4: 130)
This verse does not imply separating from an assembly. Rather, it is divorce, parting of husband and wife.

(۲۸۰۲) وَعَنْ حَكِيْمِ بْنِ حِزَامٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَلْبَيِّعَانِ بِالْخِيَارِ مَالَمْ يَتَفَرَّقَا فَإِنْ صَدَقَا وَبَيَّنَا بُوْرِكَ لَهُمَا فِيْ بَيْعِهِمَا وَإِنْ كَتَمَا وَكَذَبَا مُحِقَتْ بَرَكَةُ بَيْعِهِمَا۔ (متفق علیه)

2802. Sayyiduna Hakim ibn Hizam رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "Both (the seller and the buyer) have the option to annul (or retain their transaction) as long as they do not separate. If they speak the truth and disclose everything they are blessed in their business transaction. But, if they conceal something and speak lies, the blessing is withdrawn from their transaction."[2]

DO NOT DECEIVE

(۲۸۰۳) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عُمَرَ قَالَ قَالَ رَجُلٌ لِلنَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اِنِّيْ اُخْدَعُ فِي الْبُيُوْعِ فَقَالَ اِذَا بَايَعْتَ فَقُلْ

---

[1] Bukhari # 2107, Muslim # 431531, Abu Dawud # 3454, Tirmidhi # 1249, Nasa'i # 4465, Ibn Majah # 2181, Muwatta Maalik # 79 (Buyu), Musnad Ahmad 2-52.

[2] Bukhari # 2079, Muslim # 47-1532, Tirmidhi # 1250, Musnad Ahmad 3-403.

لَاخِلَابَةَ فَكَانَ الرَّجُلُ يَقُوْلُهُ۔ (متفق عليه) .

2803. Sayyiduna Ibn Umar رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that a man submitted to the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم, "I become a prey to deception in business transactions." He instructed him, "when you make a transaction, say (لاخلابة) (there is no deception)." The man made it a practice of saying that.[1]

[(لاخلابة) – la khilabah no deception.]

COMMENTARY: Different meanings have been attributed to the concluding words 'there is no deception.' Of these, the explanation offered by Toorpushti رحمہ اللہ which Teebi رحمہ اللہ has preferred is that the man was instructed to say to the seller. "I am naive in these matters. So, be straight forward with me. Do not try to deceive me." In those days, every Muslim was a well-wisher of another Muslim. So, they took great care of such a one.

SECTION II اَلْفَصْلُ الثَّانِیْ

MUTUAL CONSENT

(٢٨٠٤) عَنْ عَمْرِو بْنِ شُعَيْبٍ عَنْ اَبِيْهِ عَنْ جَدِّهٖ اَنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ الْبَيِّعَانِ بِالْخِيَارِ مَالَمْ يَتَفَرَّقَا اِلَّا اَنْ يَكُوْنَ صَفْقَةُ خِيَارٍ وَلَا يَحِلُّ لَهُ اَنْ يُفَارِقَ صَاحِبَهُ خَشْيَةَ اَنْ يَسْتَقِيْلَهُ۔ (رواه الترمذی وابوداؤد والنسائی)

2804. Sayyiduna Amr ibn Shu'ayb رحمہ اللہ reported from his father from his grandfather that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "As long as they do not separate, the seller and the buyer have a right to annul a transaction unless it is a transaction with the right to annul it (even after they separate) included in it. And it is not allowed to either of them to separate from the other apprehending that he might call for an annulment of the transaction."[2]

(٢٨٠٥) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ لَايَتَفَرَّقَنَّ اثْنَانِ اِلَّا عَنْ تَرَاضٍ۔ (رواه ابوداؤد)

2805. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "The two people (seller and buyer) must not separate except by mutual consent."[3]

COMMENTARY: Both of them must not part from the another before finalising the terms of the transaction with willingness, like price and custody of the item being sold. If they do not follow this procedure, there is possibility of causing loss to one of them. This is disallowed by Shari'ah (divine law). Or, the hadith means that when they have finalised the transaction and one of them intends to depart, he must first ask the other if he has agreed willingly to the terms or has any objection. If he wishes to revoke the transaction then he too must revoke it and if he is willing to retain it, then he may separate after the finalisation. In this way, this hadith will confirm to the previous, meaning wise. It must be understood that the disallowance to separate is nahi tanzihi, because all the ulama

---

[1] Bukhari # 2117, Muslim # 48. 1533, Abu Dawud # 3500, Nasai # 4484, Muwatta Maalik # 98 (Bayu) Musnad Ahmad 2-8.

[2] Tirmidhi # 1251, Abu Dawud # 3456, Nasa'i # 4490

[3] Abu Dawud # 3458.

(Scholars) agree that it is lawful to separate without one another's permission.

SECTION III الفصل الثالث

RIGHT TO REVOKE AFTER AGREEMENT

(٢٨٠٦) عَنْ جَابِرٍ اَنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ خَيَّرَ اَعْرَابِيًّا بَعْدَ الْبَيْعِ۔ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِیُّ وَقَالَ هٰذَا حَدِيْثٌ حَسَنٌ صَحِيْحٌ غَرِيْبٌ۔

2806. Sayyiduna Jabir رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم gave a villager the option to annul a transaction (with the consent of the other party).[1]

CHAPTER - IV

AR-RIBA INTEREST (& USURY) بَابُ الرِّبٰوا

Interest (receiving and paying) is a social curse and an ogre. It has always sucked the blood of the poor to irrigate and feed the rich. Allah has warned those who are involved in this cure with these words:

فَإِنْ لَّمْ تَفْعَلُوْا فَأْذَنُوْا بِحَرْبٍ مِّنَ اللّٰهِ وَرَسُوْلِهٖ۔ (البقره: ٢: ٢٧٩)

{And if you do it not, then be notified of war from Allah and His Messenger} (2: 279)
(If you do it not' mean if you obey not the command to desist from taking or paying interest,)
Islam has forbidden interest dealings in both business and loans. To deal in it is a grave sin and if any Muslim does not agree that interest (taking and giving) is forbidden then Islamic law holds that he is a disbeliever.
This malady is very ancient. Even prior to Islam, the quraysh and the Jews, in Makkah and Madinah respectively, were known to do interest business not only against loans, etc. but also in their normal trading activities. At the same time, its evil effects have been acknowledged always and even those who were engaged in interest dealings conceded to its evil effects and unhealthy repercussions. However a fresh development is observed since the Europeans have gained control over the economies of the world. They have introduced it in new fashions with modern nomenclatures, where it was regarded as an evil, now it is an essential element of every business so that no trade, industry of economic activity can progress without interest. However, every learned economist with foresight who casts a deep look into a realizes that it is a virus that must be removed to clear the terrible confusion in the economy.
Interest dealings are so widespread and deep rooted in every economy that let alone individuals and groups, whole nations cannot eliminate it from their lives. Even religious minded, god fearing Muslim have now given up efforts to circumvent it in their day to day businesses. Now, the righteous Muslim who abide by Shariah diligently are at par with ordinary and law ranked Muslims as for as interest dealings are concerned.
In spite of that, it is wrong to take cover behind the common helplessness and be mindless of this great curse; and a huge forbidden thing. The different explanations given for interest and the new forms in which it is presented today are all as unlawful and forbidden as interest is in its original form. Hence, Muslims must conduct their businesses in such a manner that they preserve themselves from this curse as for as possible. If they cannot change the current economic set up to rid themselves of interest dealings, they can, at least, correct their private affairs to minimize the curse of interest and as Muslim fulfil the little demand to avoid the forbidden.

---

[1] Tirmidhi # 1259.

In this chapter, ahadith will be mentioned concerning this subject. Relative commands and rulings will be presented under them. It is necessary, however, to first give some basic information on this subject.

DEFINITION OF RIBA: The dictionary meaning of riba is 'increase, addition, elevation. In the terminology of Shari'ah (divine law), riba is an increase that is receive without a monetary recompense.

DIFFERENCE BETWEEN RIBA AND INTEREST: That which is forbidden in the Quran by the name of riba is translated generally as interest. This often causes a misunderstanding to people and they presume that riba and prevailing interest are two words for the same thing. But, it is not so. Riba is a common and wide meaning word while interest is a kind of riba and its branch. Interest in the current form means 'to loan to someone a specified some of money for a specified period of time at a specified rate of profit or increase.' Certainly, this is one definition of riba, but riba is not merely profit or increase on a loan or debt. Rather, riba has a wider application because the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم gave it a wider meaning in the light of divine revelation. Thus he included such exchanges of commodities and such buying and selling of items as involve reduction or increase in their barter or sale in purchase in riba and there is a debt transaction too even though there is no increase in the principal amount but an equal giving and taking.

KIND OF RIBA AND COMMANDS: In the light of the wide meaning of riba, the jurists have classified riba in different kinds of which five are generally known. They are: riba qard, riba rahn, riba sharakat, riba nasi'ah and riba fadl.

RIBA QARD (LOAN): The creditor receives from the debtor, as previously stipulated, more than the principal amount on the expiry of the determined time. Examples are the current form of interest which is payable every month while the principal continues to be payable in full. This form of riba is completely unlawful without any shadow of doubt whatsoever.

RIBA RAHN (MORTGAGE): It is the profit without any monetary recompense a mortgage gets from the mortgagor or from the things mortgaged. An example for it is that someone (the Mortgagor) keeps some of his possession like jewellary or property with someone else (the mortgagee) as a pledge against some amount of money borrowed from him. The mortgagee uses the pledged item to his benefit or receives profit from the mortgagor by way of interest on the loan advanced. Both these kinds of mortgage are unlawful and forbidden.

RIBA SHARAKAT (PARTNERSHIP): It is a partnership in which one partner determines the profit of another partner and himself becomes responsible for loss and eligible for the remaining profit. This too is forbidden and unlawful.

RIBA NASI'AH (ADVANCING MONEY AGAINST INTEREST): It is to better two things on loan against interest or not. For example, a man gives another some grain on spot and the other returns the same amount of grain (in future) a couple of days or a couple of months later without any reduction of excess. However, riba nasi'ah is to increase or deduct or the original and it was practiced during the jihiliyah (ignorance period) and is operative currently in the form of interest and is similar to riba qard.

RIBA FADL: It is to barter two commodities on spot but against excess or deduction.

Both these kinds of riba -an nasi'ah and al-fadl-are forms of mutual buying and selling but unwary people do not detect the element of interest in them. Hence, before describing their rules and working, it is proper to mention some warning and precautions to enable an easy understanding of the rules and working.

1. Buying and selling, and trading, can be of three kinds; by weight, be capacity, by any other method. The first two are weighed or measured and in the terminology of Shari'ah (divine law) they are called qadr (قدر). This word must be remembered. (It means quantity, weight or capacity.)

2. Everything is distinct with its reality. It is its jins (جنس) or kind (genus). This word must be remembered too.

3. The things that are exchanged could be identical in qadr (quantity) but different in jins (kind), or identical in jins but different in qadr. Sometimes, they could be identical both in qadr and jins, or not at all identical in either qadr or in jins. These days business is conducted in the last manner because monetary currency (rupees, pounds,etc) is paid for the merchandise which are identical neither in qadr nor in jins. Therefore, there are four kinds of exchanges; (i) identical qadr and identical jins, (ii) identical qadr but verying jins, (iii) identical jins but varying qadr, and (iv) both qadr and jins varying, not identical at all.

Having outlined this introduction, the general rule to be observed when buying and selling, or doing business, should be borne in mind. If that is done then all the rulings of this chapter will be understood easily and also it will be easy to preserve oneself from riba and sin in one's practical life.

The general rule is that when both things are identical in qadr as swell as jins then Shari'ah (divine law) demands two things when they are traded against one another:

(a) They must be equal in weight or measure (capacity) and

(b) They are exchanged on the spot.

For instance, if wheat is paid for wheat, there should be no reduction or increase. The two people involved must pay the same weight to one another, say one kilogram here and there. Also, it is wrong for one to take possession on spot and for the other to receive it the next day or after a while. Rather, it is wajib (obligatory) for each to get his right in the same sitting and at the same time.

When the two things are identical in qadr (quantity) but different in jins (kind), or vice-versa (dentical in jins but different in qadr), reduction and increase is allowed in buying or selling them but credit sale is disallowed. For instance, if wheat is exchanged for gram, they are of different jins but identical qadr so it is allowed to reduce or increase their weight and one kg of wheat may be exchanged with 1. 25 kg of gram, but it is not allowed to give one of the spot and get the other commodity later. Similarly, if any one wishes to exchange his goat for another's, the goats are of identical jins but not qadr because they are neither weighed nor measured, so it is permitted to reduce or increase and give one goat for two goats, but credit is disallowed.

When two things are neither of identical jins nor identical qadr, both reduction or increase as well as spot and future delivery are allowed. For instance, if grain is sold against money, it is not necessary that they should be equal in quantity and also credit sale is permitted.

The transaction may be executed on the spot or in the future.
This general rule may be summed up in four parts:

(i) When things are of uniform qadr and jins it is wajib (obligatory) that the transaction should be on an equal basis and on spot delivery.

(ii) When they are neither of identical qadr nor of jins, neither of the two foregoing condition is wajib (obligatory).

(iii) When they are of identical jins but different qadr, spot delivery is essential but not equal basis.

(iv) When they are of identical qadr but different jins, it is essential that delivery must be spot but not necessary to be on equal basis.

RULINGS: Let us now turn to the rules of riba: nasiyah and fadl. They have been mentioned earlier.

If a transaction involves such things as are uniform or identical both in jins and in qadr. Imam Abu Hanifah رحمه الله holds that both kinds of riba, nisiah and fadl are forbidden. Both jins and qadr have been explained previously. We must remember that such things which the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم has called measurable will not be weighed even if in custom they may be regarded as weighable. Similarly, what he has called weighable will not be measurable even though they are customarily measured. For example, the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم has included wheat among the measurable items though today it is weighed. (in some places, it continues to be measured.) So, it is not allowed to exchange wheat with wheat by weight.

Similarly, the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم has said that silver and gold are weighable. Hence, it is not allowed to barter silver with silver and gold with gold by measure. We must know that a clear command of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم is stronger and more important than general practice and custom, but if he has not given a command for anything to be weighed or measured then custom may be followed.

However, we must know that among the Hanafis, Imam Abu Yusuf رحمه الله has relied completely on general practice and custom. He said that it is allowed to trade by weight those things which Shari'ah (divine law) has prescribed should be measured provided customarily they are trailed by weight. Kamal رحمه الله has given preference to the opinion of Abu Yusuf رحمه الله. Therefore, he has permitted that gold and silver coins may be counted for lending and flour may be traded by weight. Besides, it is stated in the most reliable book Kafi that the Hanafis go by the ruling of Imam Abu Yusuf رحمه الله. This means that though the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم had declared wheat (or other provision) as measurable yet it is allowed to trade in them by weight because this is how they are traded now-a-days.

Anyway, it is established that both riba nasiah and riba fadl are forbidden in dealing in things that are an identical jins and qadr. Further, if trading is in such things as are identical in one of two things jins or qadr then riba nasiah is forbidden but riba fadl is not unlawful. Therefore, if wheat is bartered with wheat, gram with gram, lime with lime, gold with gold, iron with iron then both fadl (which is reduction and increase as well as spot exchange) and nasi'ah (which is a credit transaction) are forbidden. The reason is that both qadr and jins are respectively identical.

If wheat is exchanged with gram or gold with silver or iron with copper then fadl (which is trading with deduction and increase as also spot exchange) is allowed but nasiah is disallowed (this being a credit transaction) because only qadr is identical in both items, in the sense that wheat and gram are traded by measure or weight, iron is traded by weight as is copper and silver too, but, in these cases, jins is not identical.

If a piece of cloth is traded with another piece of this cloth, or a horse with another horse, even then fadl will be allowed and nasiah forbidden because jins only is identical but not qadr, in the sense that neither is cloth measured or weighed nor is horse, while the standard of Shari'ah (divine law) is by measure or by weight. And yard, etc. are not recognized by Shari'ah (divine law) as standards.

If trading is in such two things as are not identical in qadr as well as jins, then while trading in them both fadl and nasiah are lawful. For example, if wheat is exchanged with silver or iron then both fadl and nasiah are allowed because neither is jins identical nor is qadr identical in the sense that wheat is measurable and silver or iron weighable. Similarly, if iron is bartered with gold, or gold with iron, both fadl and nasiah are allowed, because again they lack the identical aspect in jins and qadr, both. Gold is weighed in a way different from the way iron is weighed. The same ruling applies to trading in wheat against lime, because the same situation presents, itself. The measure of wheat is in a different way from lime, (This applies in places where instead of weighing measurement is the practice)

SECTION I اَلْفَصْلُ الْاَوَّلُ

CURSE ON RECEIVER & GIVER OF INTEREST

(٢٨٠٧) عَنْ جَابِرٍ قَالَ لَعَنَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اٰكِلَ الرِّبَا وَمُؤْكِلَهُ وَكَاتِبَهُ وَشَاهِدَيْهِ وَقَالَ هُمْ سَوَاءٌ۔ (رواه مسلم)

2807. Sayyiduna Jabir رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم cursed the person who receives interest, who pays it, who records it (the transaction) and the two who bear witness to it. And he said, "They are alike" (in the sin they commit though degrees of sin may differ).[1]

COMMENTARY: The scribe who record the deal of interest and the witnesses are cursed because they are the one who cooperate in doing the illegal. It is forbidden to do so.

INTEREST ON EXCHANGE OF ITEMS OF SAME KIND

(٢٨٠٨) وَعَنْ عُبَادَةَ بْنِ الصَّامِتِ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَلذَّهَبُ بِالذَّهَبِ وَالْفِضَّةُ بِالْفِضَّةِ وَالْبُرُّ بِالْبُرِّ وَالشَّعِيْرُ بِالشَّعِيْرِ وَالتَّمْرُ بِالتَّمْرِ وَالْمِلْحُ بِالْمِلْحِ مِثْلًا بِمِثْلٍ سَوَاءً بِسَوَاءٍ يَدًا بِيَدٍ فَاِذَا اخْتَلَفَتْ هٰذِهِ الْاَصْنَافُ فَبِيْعُوْا كَيْفَ شِئْتُمْ اِذَا كَانَ يَدًا بِيَدٍ۔ (رواه مسلم)

2808. Sayyiduna Ubadah ibn as-Samit رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "If gold is exchanged with gold, silver with silver, wheat with wheat, barley with barley, dates with dates and salt with salt then the exchange must be like for like and qual for equal (in quantity) and hand to hand. But, if kinds differ (like wheat for barley) then you may sell as you wish provided the exchange is hand to hand (on the spot)."[2]

COMMENTARY: It is this hadith that has given riba a comprehensive meaning to include some buying and selling and exchanges within the purview of riba. This hadith means that if the six things mentioned here are exchanged with one another of their own kind or bought and sold (mutually) then it is imperative that the exchange should be like for like and equal for equal and delivery should be on spot. If anyone gives another his wheat against barter than he must take from him the same quantity that he had given him. 'Hand to hand' or 'on spot' means that each party must take hold of his right in the same meeting in which the transaction is finalized, before separating from one another. Neither of them must put off his delivery. If these things mentioned here are not observed then the transaction will fall under the purview of riba.

[1] Muslim # 106-1598, Tirmidhi # 1210.

[2] Muslim # 51-1587.

The question arises whether the ruling of riba applies to only these six things that are mentioned in the hadith, or are they presented by way of example and are other things included in this command? If they are then what is in ruling for them?

The ulama (Scholars) who have studied it deeply, deduce that this hadith mentions the six things by way of example. They have deduced that other things like iron, lime, etc. are also of the same type. They have each made independent deduction for each of these six things to show why riba does not cover them. The detailed explanation follows.

Imam Maalik رحمه الله said that of the six things, gold and silver fall under the purview of riba because of their price factor and the other four things because of their quality of being preservable. Imam Maalik رحمه الله has ruled that the other things will be based on these six if they have the price factor or are preservable. Thus vegetables, fruit and eatables that cannot be preserved for long may be exchanged with their kind or bought and sold with riba meaning decrease or increase, this being allowed.

Imam Shafi agrees that the price factor of gold and silver is the cause of riba, but riba operates in the remaining four things because of their esculent nature (being eatables). According to him, the ruling or riba will be applicable to from sections of vegetables, fruit and medicines. It is permitted to exchange these things (homogeneous) equal to equal but not allowed to deal in them with reduction or excess. Imam Shafi'I رحمه الله also holds that riba will not be operative in the homogeneous trading of iron, copper, tin, minerals, lime and such other things. For instance, it is correct to receive two measure (of capacity) of lime against one measure of lime, of two kilograms of iron or copper against one.

Imam Abu Hanifah رحمه الله holds that riba is present because of qadr cum jins.' On this basis, according to the Hanafis, since weight determines riba and gold and silver, it will applicable in every such thing that is bought or sold by weight, like iron copper etc. As for the remaining four things, riba becomes applicable because of measure (of capacity), so the command of riba will apply to every such thing exchanged on the basis of measure, like lime, etc. Besides, it has been explained previously that the command of Shari'ah (divine law) cannot be amended. Hence, gold and silver are bought and sold by weight as per Shari'ah (divine law) and attract the command of weighable and wheat, barley, dates and salt are defined by Shari'ah (divine law) as measurable so they attract the command of trading by measure. The usage of custom may be otherwise but that does not change the command of Shari'ah (divine law). Hence, the criteria for a transaction of gold or silver being permissible, weight will be considered. If gold is gold for gold and silver for silver then it is necessary for weight to be equal for equal and it Is not allowed that weight should be less or more. If any one sells or buys the measurable like wheat then it will not be allowed if he sells one kilogram of wheat for one kilogram, but it will be correct if wheat is equal in measure (of capacity) from both sides (However, we have stated previously that Imam Abu Yusuf رحمه الله of the Hanafis contends that custom and usage will dictate whether any things is measurable weighable and the Hanafis go by his verdict.) The same command applies to barley, dates and salt.

If Shari'ah (divine law) has not classified anything as weighable or measurable then custom will be followed. Thus, iron and copper are exchanged by weight in usage, so it is necessary that transactions of these should be by weight - equal for equal. If they are unequal then riba will be deemed to have been applied.[1]

(٢٨٠٩) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ سَعِيْدٍ الْخُدْرِيِّ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ الذَّهَبُ بِالذَّهَبِ وَالْفِضَّةُ بِالْفِضَّةِ وَالْبُرُّ بِالْبُرِّ وَالشَّعِيْرُ بِالشَّعِيْرِ وَالتَّمْرُ بِالتَّمْرِ وَالْمِلْحُ بِالْمِلْحِ مِثْلًا بِمِثْلٍ يَدًا بِيَدٍ فَمَنْ زَادَ اَوِ اسْتَزَادَ فَقَدْ اَرْبٰى الْاٰخِذُ وَالْمُعْطِيْ فِيْهِ سَوَاءٌ۔ (رواه مسلم)

2809. Sayyiduna Abu Sa'eed al-Khudri رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم said, "Payment for gold is by gold, for silver by silver, for wheat by wheat, for barley by barley, for dates by dates and for salt by salt, like for like (homogeneous) and (exchange being made) hand to hand. Hence, whose gives more or demands more is as though he has received interest or paid interest. The receiver and giver are at par (in guilt)."[2]

TRANSACTION OF GOLD & SILVER (OF HOMOGENOUS NATURE)

(٢٨١٠) وَعَنْهُ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَا تَبِيْعُوا الذَّهَبَ بِالذَّهَبِ اِلَّا مِثْلًا بِمِثْلٍ وَلَا تُشِفُّوْا بَعْضَهَا عَلٰى بَعْضٍ وَلَا تَبِيْعُوا الْوَرِقَ بِالْوَرِقِ اِلَّا مِثْلًا بِمِثْلٍ وَلَا تُشِفُّوْا بَعْضَهَا عَلٰى بَعْضٍ وَلَا تَبِيْعُوا مِنْهَا غَائِبًا بِنَاجِزٍ مُتَّفَقٌ عَلَيْهِ وَفِيْ رِوَايَةٍ لَا تَبِيْعُوا الذَّهَبَ بِالذَّهَبِ وَلَا الْوَرِقَ بِالْوَرِقِ اِلَّا وَزْنًا بِوَزْنٍ۔

2810. Sayyiduna Abu Sa'eed al-Khudri رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم said, "Do not sell gold, except like for like and do not increase one part over another, Do not sell silver for silver, except like for like and do not increase one part over another. Do not exchange prompt delivery with delayed delivery."[3]

COMMENTARY: This hadith is evidence that even gold jewellery or silver ornaments must be exchanged with gold and silver of (same) equal weight. It is not permitted to collect 'making charges' because that would amount to interest.

EXCHANGE THE HOMOGENEOUS EQUAL FOR EQUAL

(٢٨١١) وَعَنْ مَعْمَرِ بْنِ عَبْدِاللّٰهِ قَالَ كُنْتُ اَسْمَعُ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُوْلُ الطَّعَامُ بِالطَّعَامِ مِثْلًا بِمِثْلٍ۔ (رواه مسلم)

---

[1] See: English translation of Hidaya v2 pg 6596. Darul Isha'at Karachi. And Tirmidhi v1 pp 530, 531. (English tr) Darul Ishat, Karachi.

[2] Muslim # 82-1584.

[3] Bukhari # 2177, Muslim # 75-1584, Nasa'i # 4570, Muwatta Maalik # 30 (Buyu), Musnad Ahmad 3-93.

2811. Sayyiduna Ma'mar ibn Abdullah رضی اللہ عنہ said that he often heard Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم say "Provision for provision (should be) like for like."[1]

CREDIT IS DISALLOWED IN EXCHANGE OF THE HOMOGENEOUS THINGS

(٢٨١٢) وَعَنْ عُمَرَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَلذَّهَبُ بِالذَّهَبِ رِبًا اِلَّاهَاءَ وَهَاءِ وَالْوَرِقُ بِالْوَرِقِ رِبًا اِلَّاهَاءِ وَهَاءَ وَالْبُرُّ بِالْبُرِّ رِبًا اِلَّا هَاءَ وَهَاءَ وَالشَّعِيْرُ بِالشَّعِيْرِ رِبًا اِلَّاهَاءَ وَهَاءَ وَالتَّمْرُ بِالتَّمْرِ رِبًا اِلَّاهَاءَ وَهَاءَ۔ (متفق علیہ)

2812. Sayyiduna Umar رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "Gold for gold (equal for equal too) is riba (interest) unless is hand to hand. Silver for silver is interest unless it is hand to h and. Wheat for wheat is interest unless it is hand to hand. Barley for barley is interest unless it is hand to hand. Dates for dates is interest unless it is hand to hand."[2]

COMMENTARY: There can be three possibilities of exchange of things of the same jins (the homogeneous).

(i) They are either weighable or measurable.

(ii) They are either spot delivery (cash) both ways or deferred both ways.

(iii) They are spot one side but deferred for a few or more days on the other side.

Of these three, the first possibility is allowed for buying and selling provided they are equal for equal in that if they are weighable they are of equal weight and if measurable of equal measure, and both ways they are spot.

The other two are not allowed even though they be equal for equal in qadr and homogeneous because they are deferred payment both way or one way.

SUPERIORITY OR INTERIORITY HAS NO EFFECT ON APPLICATION OF USARY

(٢٨١٣) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ سَعِيْدٍ وَاَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ اَنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اِسْتَعْمَلَ رَجُلًا عَلٰى خَيْبَرَ فَجَاءَهُ بِتَمْرٍ جَنِيْبٍ فَقَالَ اَكُلُّ تَمْرِ خَيْبَرَ هٰكَذَا قَالَ لَاوَاللّٰهِ يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ اِنَّا لَنَاْخُذُ الصَّاعَ مِنْ هٰذَا بِالصَّاعَيْنِ وَالصَّاعَيْنِ بِالثَّلَاثِ فَقَالَ لَا تَفْعَلْ بِعِ الْجَمْعَ بِالدَّرَاهِمِ ثُمَّ ابْتَعْ بِالدَّرَاهِمِ جَنِيْبًا وَقَالَ فِي الْمِيْزَانِ مِثْلُ ذَالِكَ مُتَّفَقٌ عَلَيْهِ۔

2813. Sayyiduna Abu Sa'eed رضی اللہ عنہ and Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم appointed a man (as an officer) over Khaybar. He brought him (when he came back) dates of very good quality. He asked him. "Are all dates of Khaybar like that?" He said, "No, by Allah, O Messenger of Allah. Rather, we take a sa' of this kind for two (sa') and two sa' for three (sa' of the poor quality)." He said, "Do not do that. Rather, sell them all for dirhams and then buy the dates of very good quality for dirhams.' And, he said, "The same applies when anything is sold by weight."[3]

---

[1] Muslim # 93-1592.

[2] Bukhari # 2134, Muslim # 75-1586, Abu Dawud # 3348, Darimi # 1247, Nasa'i # 1558, Ibn majah # 2759, Muwatta Maalik # 38 (Bayu) Damin # 2578.

[3] Bukhari # 2201, Muslim # 95-1593, Nasa'i # 4553, Darimi # 2577, Muwatti Maalik # 21 (Buyu)

COMMENTARY: The same command applies to things bought and sold by weight as applies to measurable. 'If two homogeneous things are exchanged, it is not allowed to give less weight of the superior things against the interior, Rather, the inferior things may be sold for money and of that money the desired superior may be bought.

(٢٨١٤) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ سَعِيْدٍ قَالَ جَاءَ بِلَالٌ اِلَى النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ بِتَمْرٍ بَرْنِيٍّ فَقَالَ لَهُ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مِنْ اَيْنَ هٰذَا قَالَ عِنْدَنَا تَمْرٌ رَدِيٌّ فَبِعْتُ مِنْهُ صَاعَيْنِ بِصَاعٍ فَقَالَ اَوَّهْ عَيْنُ الرِّبَا لَا تَفْعَلْ وَلٰكِنْ اِذَا اَرَدْتَّ اَنْ تَشْتَرِيَ فَبِعِ التَّمْرَ بَيْعٍ اٰخَرَ ثُمَّ اشْتَرِبِهٖ۔ (متفق عليه)

2814. Sayyiduna Abu Sa'eed narrated that Sayyiduna Bilal رضی اللہ عنہ came to the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم with dates of good quality. So, the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم asked him. "From where have you bought these?" He said, "I had some inferior dates. So, I exchange two sa' of that with one sa' (of the superior ones)." He said, "Ah! That's exactly riba! Exactly riba! Do not do it, but when you intend to buy (the choicest), sell the (inferior) dates in a deal apart and then buy (the superior) with it (meaning with the proceeds)."[1]

TWO SLAVES FOR ONE

(٢٨١٥) وَعَنْ جَابِرٍ قَالَ جَاءَ عَبْدٌ فَبَايَعَ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ عَلَى الْهِجْرَةِ وَلَمْ يَشْعُرْ اَنَّهُ عَبْدٌ فَجَاءَ سَيِّدُهُ يُرِيْدُهُ فَقَالَ لَهُ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ بِعْنِيْهِ فَاشْتَرَاهُ بِعَبْدَيْنِ اَسْوَدَيْنِ وَلَمْ يُبَايِعْ اَحَدًا بَعْدَهُ حَتّٰى يَسْاَلَهُ اَعَبْدٌ هُوَ اَوْحُرٌّ۔ (رواه مسلم)

2815. Sayyiduna Jabir رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that a slave came and pledged allegiance to the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم emigrate (promising to move from his native land to the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم). He said not know that he was a slave. Then, (after some days) his master came looking for him. The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said to him, "Sell him to me," and he bought him for two black slaves. After that, he never took a pledge of allegiance from any one without (first) asking him whether he was a slave or a free man."[2]

COMMENTARY: We know from this hadith that it is allowed to take or give against one slave two. Also, it is permitted to deal in those things that do not attract riba, in such a way that less is exchanged for more. According to sharh us sunnah (Prophet's صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم practice), the ulama (Scholars) have deduced from it that it is allowed to take or give two animals against one on the spot even if they are of the same jins (specifies) both way, or of two jins. But, the ulama (Scholars) differ on whether it is permitted to give and take animal against animal on credit. Some of the sahabah (Prophet's Companions) رضی اللہ عنہم did not approve it, as also Ata ibn Abu Ribah رحمہ اللہ and Imam Abu Hanifah رحمہ اللہ. They cite that the prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم forbade credit transaction of animal against animal. However, some sahabah (Prophet's/Companions) رضی اللہ عنہم said that it is allowed and Imam Shafi'I رحمہ اللہ also subscribed to this opinion.

---

[1] Bukhari # 2312, Muslim # 96-1594, Nasa'i # 4557.

[2] Muslim # 123. 1602, Tirmidhi # 1243, Musnad Ahmad # 14778, Ibn Majah # 2869, Abu Dawud # 3358.

HOMOGENEOUS ITEMS OF UNKNOWN QUANTITY AGAINST KNOWN QUANTITY DISALLOWED

(٢٨١٦) وَعَنْهُ قَالَ نَهٰى رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ عَنْ بَيْعِ الصُّبْرَةِ مِنَ التَّمْرِ لَا يُعْلَمُ مَكِيْلَتُهَا بِالْكَيْلِ الْمُسَمّٰى مِنَ التَّمْرِ۔ (رواه مسلم)

2816. Sayyiduna Jabir رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم forbade the sale of a pile of dates of unknown measure against dates of a specific measure.[1]

COMMENTARY: (the word (کیل), measure, not weight, is used for dates.)

The pile of dates could be more or less than the specific measure of dates. Such exchange would be usurious. This kind of transaction is forbidden for things of a homogeneous nature, of the same jins. But, this kind is not forbidden for heterogeneous things, because it is allowed to buy and sell things of different kinds of more or less quantities against one another.

BUYING SELLING GOLD

(٢٨١٧) وَعَنْ فَضَالَةَ بْنِ اَبِيْ عُبَيْدٍ قَالَ اِشْتَرَيْتُ يَوْمَ خَيْبَرَ قِلَادَةً بِاِثْنَيْ عَشَرَ دِيْنَارًا فِيْهَا ذَهَبٌ وَخَرَزٌ فَفَصَّلْتُهَا فَوَجَدْتُ فِيْهَا اَكْثَرَ مِنَ اثْنَيْ عَشَرَ دِيْنَارًا فَذَكَرْتُ ذٰلِكَ لِلنَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَقَالَ لَا تُبَاعُ حَتّٰى تُفَصَّلَ۔ (رواه مسلم)

2817. Sayyiduna Fadalah ibn Ubayd رضی اللہ عنہ (Ansari) narrated that on the day (of the battle) of Khaybar he had bought a necklace of gold adorned with gems for twelve dinars. When he removed the gems, he found that it was worth more than twelve dinars. He informed the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم about it and he said, "It should never be sold till they are separately valued."[2]

COMMENTARY: If two things on which riba might operate are traded with one another both being of the same jins and one of them contains something heterogeneous then this trade is disallowed. Thus if an ornament has gold and pearls, then it may only be exchange with other gold, like for like and equal for equal, after its pearls are removed from it the same applies to silver. The transaction of exchange in either case may be in money or in any other form, the gems, pearls or such like must be removed first. This command is made to prevent homogeneous things being exchanged with excess or deduction and thus become usurious.

If jewellery of gold with its ornaments (gems, etc.) is sold against silver whether silver coins or otherwise, or silver jewellery with gems etc. is sold against gold whether gold coins (ashrafis) or otherwise, then in such cases the ornaments (gams, etc.) need not be removed. This is because things of different jins may be bought and sold against one another with excess and deduction too. Any reduction or addition does not amount to interest.

---

[1] Muslim # 42. 1530, Nasa'i # 4547.

[2] Muslim # 90-1591, Tirmidhi # 1259, Abu Dawud # 3352, Nasa'i # 4573, Musnad Ahmad 6-21.

SECTION II اَلْفَصْلُ الثَّانِيْ

PROPHET'S صلى الله عليه وسلم PREDICTION ABOUT RIBA

(٢٨١٨) عَنْ أَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ عَنْ رَّسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ لَيَاتِيَنَّ عَلَى النَّاسِ زَمَانٌ لَا يَبْقَىٰ اَحَدٌ اِلَّا اٰكِلَ الرِّبَا فَاِنْ لَّمْ يَاكُلْهُ اَصَابَهٗ مِنْ بُخَارِهٖ وَيُرْوٰى مِنْ غُبَارِهٖ۔ (رواه احمد وابوداؤد والنسائی وابن ماجة)

2818. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "A time will come over the people, certainly, when no one will be spared from receiving riba. If he does not take it, he will get its vapour nevertheless. (Some versions have instead of 'its vapour':) or get its dust."[1]

COMMENTARY: Its (بخار) or (غبار) (dust) implies its effects. When that time comes and anyone manages to live without consuming interest, he will endure its effects nevertheless. For instance, he might be employed with a person who is engaged in interest taking or giving, or, be associated with him in any way, or have business relations with him etc. when the field of interest expands to every kind of business and industry and economy (as it is today), the merchandise on which interest is paid will come in the hands of everyone. For example, in these our times, a man may be exceptionally pious and god fearing, abstaining even from the doubtful, but when he buys toffees for his children, how can he be sure that what insignificant thing he buys has not gone through any stages of interest payments and receipts. The hadith says the same things: a time will come when the curse of interest will be so wise spread that knowingly or unknowingly every one will be involved in it somehow or other. There will be those who involve themselves in it on purpose, but here will also be some who are absolutely unaware that they are affected by it.

ELEMENT OF INTEREST IN TRANSACTIONS OF HETEROGENEOUS NATURE IS PERMITTED

(٢٨١٩) وَعَنْ عُبَادَةَ بْنِ الصَّامِتِ اَنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ لَا تَبِيْعُوا الذَّهَبَ بِالذَّهَبِ وَلَا الْوَرِقَ بِالْوَرِقِ وَلَا الْبُرَّ بِالْبُرِّ وَلَا الشَّعِيْرَ بِالشَّعِيْرِ وَلَا التَّمْرَ بِالتَّمْرِ وَلَا الْمِلْحَ بِالْمِلْحِ اِلَّا سَوَاءً بِسَوَاءٍ عَيْنًا بِعَيْنٍ يَدًا بِيَدٍ وَلٰكِنْ بِيْعُوا الذَّهَبَ بِالْوَرِقِ وَالْوَرِقَ بِالذَّهَبِ وَالْبُرَّ بِالشَّعِيْرِ وَالشَّعِيْرَ بِالْبُرِّ وَالتَّمْرَ بِالْمِلْحِ وَالْمِلْحَ بِالتَّمْرِ يَدًا بِيَدٍ كَيْفَ شِئْتُمْ۔ (رواه الشافعی)

2819. Sayyiduna Ubadah ibn as-Samit narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Sell not gold for gold, silver for silver, wheat for wheat, barley for barley, dates for dates, or salt for salt except equal for equal and hand to hand. But, you may sell gold for silver, silver for gold, wheat for barley, barley for wheat, dates for salt and salt for dates, hand to hand (meaning spot deliveries), as you wish."[2]

COMMENTARY: If two homogeneous things are bartered then they must be exchanged equal for equal and hand to hand. If two heterogeneous things are bartered than the transaction must be hand to hand and it is not necessary that they be equal for equal.

---

[1] Abu Dawud # 4560, Ibn Majah # 2254 (or 2278).

[2] Nasa'i # 4560, Ibn Majah # 2254.

EXCHANGE OF DRY & FRESH DATES

(٢٨٢٠) وَعَنْ سَعْدِ بْنِ اَبِىْ وَقَّاصٍ قَالَ سَمِعْتُ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ سُئِلَ عَنْ شِرَاءِ التَّمْرِ بِالرُّطَبِ فَقَالَ اَيَنْقُصُ الرُّطَبُ اِذَا يَبِسَ فَقَالَ نَعَمْ فَنَهَاهُ عَنْ ذَالِكَ۔ (رواه مالك والترمذی وابوداؤد والنسائی وابن ماجة)

2820. Sayyiduna Sa'd ibn Abu Waqqas رضی الله عنه narrated that he heard Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم being asked about purchase of dry dates for fresh dates. So he asked, "Do fresh dates lose weight when they become dry?" He was told "Yes!" He then disallowed that.[1]

COMMENTARY: The Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم disallowed barter of fresh and dried dates because that defeats the condition of both being and will become a usurious transaction. Imam Maalik رحمه الله, Imam Shafi'I رحمه الله, Imam Ahmad رحمه الله and most other ulama (Scholars) as also the Hanafi imams, Abu Yusuf رحمه الله and Muhammad رحمه الله abide by this hadith. However, Imam Abu Hanifah رحمه الله has said that homogeneous dry and fresh fruit are allowed to be bartered, provided fruit of both sides are equal in weight or quantity (qadr). He classified this hadith as nasi'ah, saying that the disallowance in the hadith is if one p[arty gives prompt delivery while the other defers delivery. His deduction is supported by another hadith: "The Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم forbade exchange of fresh dates with dried when it is a credit sale."

Besides, the command that applies to dried and fresh dates applies equally to all fruit including grapes, etc. It also applies to dry and fresh meat.

EXCHANGE OF FLESH & ANIMALS

(٢٨٢١) وَعَنْ سَعِيْدِ بْنِ الْمُسَيِّبِ مُرْسَلًا اَنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ نَهٰى عَنْ بَيْعِ اللَّحْمِ بِالْحَيَوَانِ قَالَ سَعِيْدٌ كَانَ مِنْ مَيْسِرِ اَهْلِ الْجَاهِلِيَّةِ۔ (رواه فی شرح السنة)

2821. Sayyiduna Sa'eed ib al-Musayyib رضی الله عنه reported in a mursal form that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم forbade sale of meat for animals. He also said that sale of meat for animals was a kind of gamble of the days of ignorance.[2]

COMMENTARY: Imam Shafi رحمه الله cites this hadith to say that it is unlawful to barter meat with an animal, even if the meat is of an animal of the same jins as the animal traded or of another species, whether that animal is lawful food or not. But, Imam Abu Hanifah رحمه الله says that this thing is allowed because that which is weighed is sold for that which is not weighed and in such cases it is not necessary that both times be equal. This sort of business is permitted but delivery must be prompt both ways. The hadith disallows the transaction of animal against when delivery is not on spot, but prompt on one side and deferred on the other.

---

[1] Tirmidhi # 1229, Abu Dawud # 3359, Nasa'i # 4545, Ibn Majah # 2264, Muwatta Maalik # 22 (Buyu), Musnad Ahmad 1-175.

[2] Sharh us sunnah (Prophet's صلی الله علیه وسلم practice). Muwatta Maalik # 64 (Banu).

BETTER ON DEFERRED BASIS IS DISALLOWED

(٢٨٢٢) وَعَنْ سَمُرَةَ بْنِ جُنْدُبٍ اَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ نَهٰى عَنْ بَيْعِ الْحَيَوَانِ بِالْحَيَوَانِ نَسِيْئَةً۔

(رواہ الترمذی وابوداؤد والنسائی وابن ماجۃ والدارمی)

2822. Sayyiduna Samurah ibn Jundub رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم forbade sale of animals for animals if payment was to be deferred to a later date.[1]

ABOUT CREDIT ON HETEROGENEOUS THINGS

(٢٨٢٣) وَعَنْ عَبْدِاللّٰهِ بْنِ عَمْرِو بْنِ الْعَاصِ اَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَمَرَهٗ اَنْ يُّجَهِّزَ جَيْشًا فَنَفِدَتِ الْاِبِلُ فَاَمَرَهٗ اَنْ يَّاْخُذَ عَلٰى قَلَائِصِ الصَّدَقَةِ فَكَانَ يَاْخُذُ الْبَعِيْرَ بِالْبَعِيْرَيْنِ اِلٰى اِبِلِ الصَّدَقَةِ۔ (رواہ ابوداؤد)

2823. Sayyiduna Abdullah ibn Amr ibnal-Aas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم instructed him to prepare equipment for an army (to be able to join it himself). So, when the camels fell short (and some people, Abdulllah رضی اللہ عنہ among them, could not get a camel), Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم instructed him to take (as loan) a camel against the camels of zakah (Annual due charity) (when he could get it). So he took a camel against two camels of zakah (Annual due charity) payable when he got them.[2]

COMMENTARY: Loan or debt is allowed only of such a thing as has a like of it. This means that the debtor will be able to return the like of what he borrows, for example, rice, eggs, meat, cash etc. These things are called (مثلی) (mithli - like). It is not proper to borrow a thing the like of which is difficult to return to the creditor. Such things are called (غیر مثلی) (ghayr mithli - unlike).

In this hadith, the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم instructed Sayyiduna Abdullah رضی اللہ عنہ to borrow a camel from someone on the condition that when the camels receivable against zakah (Annual due charity) arrived, he would repay his debt. Now according to Imam Abu Hanifah رحمہ اللہ, it is disallowed to borrow a ghayr mithli thing and the camel is one such. Hence, the Hanafis say that at the time the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم had given this instruction, it was permitted to borrow ghayr mithli things too. But, later the permission was withdrawn, so this hadith stands abrogated.

However, Shaykh Abdul Haq رحمہ اللہ has regarded the command of this hadith as based on Bai' (buying and selling) and said that it seems that it is allowed to borrow an animal against an animal. However, our ulama (Scholars) (of the Hanafi school) have disallowed it in the light of the (previous) hadith of Samurah رضی اللہ عنہ (# 2822). Hence, Toorpushti رحمہ اللہ has classified this hadith of Abdullah ibn Amr رضی اللہ عنہ as da'if (weak) while the hadith of samurah رضی اللہ عنہ is much more sound than this. Therefore, the Hanafis abide by the hadith of Sayyiduna Samurah رضی اللہ عنہ.

Or, the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم had given this instruction when the barter of two homogeneous items was not regarded as riba if exchanged on loan or debt. But, when this sort of exchange was classified as riba, this hadith was abrogated.

---

[1] Tirmidhi # 1241, Abu Dawud # 1237. Nasa'i # 4620, Ibn Majah # 2270, Musnad Ahmad 5-12.

[2] Abu Dawud # 3357, Musnad Ahmad 2-171.

SECTION III اَلْفَصْلُ الثَّالِثُ

ABOUT RIBA IN CREDIT TRANSACTION

(٢٨٢٤) عَنْ أُسَامَةَ بْنِ زَيْدٍ أَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ الرِّبٰوا فِي النَّسِيْئَةِ وَفِيْ رِوَايَةٍ قَالَ لَا رِبٰوا فِيْمَا كَانَ يَدًا بِيَدٍ۔ (متفق عليه)

2824. Sayyiduna Usamah ibn Zayd رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "Riba (interest) is found in credit transaction."
According to another version: "In a hand-to-hand transaction, there is no riba."[1]

COMMENTARY: If two equal qadr things are bartered on credit, one of them paying cash and the other promising to pay later then though the jins may be different and they be equal for equal, the element of riba is found in the transaction. Thus if anyone gives barley for wheat then deduction and addition is allowed in this transaction provided it is hand to hand transaction but if one of the sides defers payment then this thing is disallowed and it will amount to interest.

If two people exchange two things of the same jins equal for equal and take delivery on the spot then it is allowed and it is without interest. If both things are not of the same jins then reduction and increase is allowed in the transaction and there will be no element of interest provided delivery is on spot both ways.

WARNING AGAINST INTEREST

(٢٨٢٥) وَعَنْ عَبْدِاللّٰهِ ابْنِ حَنْظَلَةَ غَسِيْلِ الْمَلَائِكَةِ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ دِرْهَمُ رِبٰوا يَاكُلُهُ الرَّجُلُ وَهُوَ يَعْلَمُ اَشَدُّ مِنْ سِتَّةٍ وَثَلَاثِيْنَ زِنْيَةً رَوَاهُ اَحْمَدُ وَالدَّار قُطْنِيُّ وَرَوَى الْبَيْهَقِيُّ فِيْ شُعَبِ الْاِيْمَانِ عَنِ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ وَزَادَ وَقَالَ مَنْ نَبَتَ لَحْمُهُ مِنَ السُّحْتِ فَالنَّارُ اَوْلٰى بِهٖ۔

2825. Sayyiduna Abdullah ibn Hanzalah رضی اللہ عنہ ghasil al-mala'ikah (meaning, he who was given both by the angels) narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "One dirham of riba that a man takes knowing that it is interest is more serious than committing adultery thirty six times."
Bayhaqi reported it from Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ with the addition that the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم also said, "If anyone's flesh is nourished with the unlawful then hell is better for him."[2]

COMMENTARY: This warning applies to one who consumes riba knowing. But, it also applies to one who takes riba unknowingly while he is careless in being unaware of the commands. One who consumes interest is worse than him who commits adultery because Allah has spoken more angrily about him than about the latter. He says about the interest receiver.

فَأْذَنُوْا بِحَرْبٍ مِّنَ اللّٰهِ وَرَسُوْلِهٖ۔ (البقره ٢: ٢٧٩)

{....be notified of war from Allah and His Messenger.} (2: 279)

Every sensible man known what a declaration of war means. If Allah and His Messenger

---

[1] Bukhari # 2179, Muslim # 102-1596, Nasa'i # 4580, Ibn Majah # 2257, Darimi # 2580, Musnad Ahmad 5-200.

[2] Musnad Ahmad 5-225, Daraqutni and (from Ibn Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ Bayhaqi in Sha'b ul Eeman.

declare war against anyone, or if anyone is at war against Allah and His Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم, then what can be said of his deprivation, wretchedness and utter ruin in both worlds? The ulama (Scholars) say that such a serious warning and strong anger is not merely because there is a practical straying when one deals in interest but since it is not easily detected one strays into wrong belief too so that most people do not believe that interest is forbidden. They are misled mentally to such an extent that they say that interest is lawful. This leads them to disbelief ultimately. This means that they cannot hope for forgiveness. In contrast, adultery is a very bad thing, a grave sin and every religion condemns it. No one say that it is allowed.
Why is it said to be thirty six times worse? Only Allah and His Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم know why.

(٢٨٢٦) وَعَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ الرِّبٰوا سَبْعُوْنَ جُزْءًا أَيْسَرُهَا أَنْ يَنْكِحَ الرَّجُلُ أُمَّهُ۔

2826. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضى الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Riba (interest) has seventy parts. The lowest (of these in importance) is that a man has sexual intercourse with his mother."[1]

(٢٨٢٧) وَعَنِ ابْنِ مَسْعُوْدٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِنَّ الرِّبٰوا وَإِنْ كَثُرَ فَإِنَّ عَاقِبَتَهُ تَصِيْرُ إِلٰى قُلٍّ رَوَاهُمَا ابْنُ مَاجَةَ وَالْبَيْهَقِيُّ فِي شُعَبِ الْإِيْمَانِ وَرَوٰى أَحْمَدُ الْأَخِيْرَ۔

2827. Sayyiduna (Abdullah) Ibn Mas'ud رضى الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Receipts from interest may seem abundant but the end is poverty (meaning deprival of blessings)."[2]

COMMENTARY: This is not a mere warning but a fact that there is not good or blessing in the property derived through interest. The result is it wastes away leaving no trace at all. This reality is observed in our day to day lives. The Qura says about it:

يَمْحَقُ اللّٰهُ الرِّبَا وَيُرْبِي الصَّدَقَاتِ۔ (البقرة ٢: ٢٧٦)

{Allah blots out usury and augments charity} (2: 276)

This verse mentions both interest and charity at once. While pointing out the contradiction in these two things, it also discloses their diverse natures. Without any greed or reimbursement, man gives charity only to please Allah while he devours interest from others without compensating them, out of greed multiplying his disgrace. The intention of doers on both sides is different: one seeks Allah's pleasure the other invites His anger.
The exegetes say that these results will be seen in the next world. The interest-taker will get nothing in the hereafter but punishment while the property given in charity will provide him everlasting honour and comfort. Besides that, some effects of these things are witnessed in this world too. Millionaires become paupers overnight when they have made money through interest earnings. Not all rich men go through this experience but usurous people do lose money so rapidly.
We should not be deceived by the fleeting luxury of the usurous people, for in spite of all things that they possess, they lack comfort. This comfort is available only through spiritual peace. This is available sometimes to people without their possessing anything at all, not only to men but also to animals, but not available to some who have everything. Even sleep evades then.

---

[1] Ibn Majah # 2274.

[2] Ibn Majah # 2279, Musnad Ahmad 1-395.

How stupid are they who wear themselves out for the sake of the means to comfort but have nothing of comfort.
This state of their continuous uneasiness and mental discomfort causes them to be hard-hearted and wretched. They have no mercy for the poor and needy. They are very cruel. These traits can never earn them respect. They are looked down upon and detested. They do not get even the most elementary respect from fellowmen.

INTERNATIONAL UNCERTAINTY IS BROUGHT ABOUT BY THE DEVOURERS OF INTEREST

When we are speaking of it, let us examine another side of interest taking. Progress in the scientific field and intense materialism has changed man's outlook of survival and manner of thinking. He uses all his talents to gain material progress and has deprived his thought and his emotions of the ability to distinguish between good and bad. He now concentrates on the superfluous worldly momentary gains and is a prisoner seeking physical ease.
The result is that the hitherto accepted truths are now rejected. Centuries old ideologies are considered to be worthless and unworkable.
Islam regards interest as unlawful for every individual and every section of people at all times in all conditions. However, some seemingly educated people are put off from the true path of religion and Shari'ah (divine law) by modern thought into the labyrinth of ignorance. They say that the disallowance of interest is not only impossible to observe in these times but also a hurdle and obstacle to commercial success and to material prosperity. They hold that the current economic order based on interest is necessary for the common good of all people and for their prosperity. They consider the large capitalist countries, who have entangled the developing countries in the web of interest, as the only hope for the prosperity of mankind. Rather, it is their own selfish motives that the big powers hope to grind and they suck the blood of the poor in the same manner as individuals used to do in the past.
The poor developing countries are under a burden of debt and mounting interest. The result is that they obey the dictates of the large capitalist countries and there is utter unrest everywhere...

AN OBJECTION: some people having acquired modern education assert that the riba forbidden in the Quran is not the customary interest. It was usury charged on loan advanced to the poor and needy who faced dire circumstances. The cruel lender, instead of helping the hard-stricken, advanced a loan with a specified rate of interest that broke the back of the borrower. He took full advantage of the man's plight. Those people who say that the Quran does not forbid interest assert that it forbade that kind of usury. Any similar usury collected today also falls under purview of that prohibition and such usury is charged by private lenders and individuals. Today's commercial agencies, banks and other such institutions deal in a different kind of interest business. They pay rather than receive interest. The poor people can invest a small sum of money and get regular returns. Hence, according to these people present-day interest is not disallowed.

THE ANSWER: Any command of Islamic Shari'ah (divine law) concerns the principles and the entire. Its operations is not changed by parts and kinds. Whatever Shari'ah (divine law) has declared as forbidden, is forbidden wholly with all its parts and kinds. No one has a right to exclude only portion of Allah's Command from operation or to limit its operation. For instance, no one can say about the prohibition of wine that the prohibition applies to wine of the ancient times served in bad quality vessels, but since vessels of today are good quality and production is in a refined, scientific manner, the command should not apply anymore. Only one who is ignorant of the Shari'ah (divine law) will say such a thing. If the commands of the Quran are changed in this way, then nothing will remain prohibited, not even gambling, theft, robbery, adultery, indecency, etc. Every evil is not done in the same way as it was done in the past. This does not mean that they become allowed.

Now, let us examine the question of riba. The Quran prohibits riba not once but in many verses of different surahs. More than forty ahadith declare that it is disallowed. None of these - not even a single word of them - gives a hint that the prohibition of riba is on a particular occasion or a particular situation. Nowhere is it stated that the prohibition applies to individual transactions of riba and not to trade dealings. Rather, historically, it is wrong to say that when the Quran was revealed the only kind of interest applicable was charged to the poor and commercial interest dealings never existed. If we study the background of the revelation of the verses, we shall learn that apart from private transactions, commercial transactions of interest were also common. The Arabs, particularly the Quraysh, were merchants and they paid and received interest for trade purposes. Baghawi رحمه الله has written that Sayyiduna Abbas رضی الله عنه and Sayyiduna Khalid ibn Walid رضی الله عنه did business in partnership. They traded with the Banu Thaqif of Ta'if. Abbas رضی الله عنه ad a heavy amount of interest receivable from them. When he demanded from them his past dues, the prophet reminded him that the Quran had made riba unlawful, and instructed him - his paternal uncle - to write off the large amount of money. He announced this is the sermon of the farewell pilgrimage in these words:

وَرِبَا الْجَاهِلِيَّةِ مَوْضُوْعٌ وَ اَوَّلُ رِبًوا اَضَعُ مِنْ رِبٰوا نَا رِبٰوا عَبَّاسِ بْنِ عَبْدِالْمُطَّلِبِ

[The riba of pre-Isamic days is written off. The first of these from our riba that I write off is the riba of Abbas ibn Abdul Muttalib.]

There are other examples of tribes and families having claims of interest on other tribes and families because of their mutual business dealings. Loans are not known to have been extended generally for personal needs but there were business transactions continuously. In fact, they had regarded riba to as a kind of business. The Quran rejected this idea and warned those who advocated it.

As for the banks paying interest to the poor on their deposits, this is a deception. These deposits are loaned to businessmen and industrialists expand their businesses and industries. They pay interest to bank out of their huge earnings and banks pay a paltry some to their depositers. The true beneficiaries from the banks are the rich, and the deprived are the poor. Instead of depositing the money at the bank, the poor ought to invest in a small business.

The few rich take large loans and control much of the industry and business and drive out the small traders. Business that could have been of benefit to the whole nation comes down in the hands of a few people. Prices rise and the poor are squeezed. The interest that they earn on their deposits goes into thin air....

This is why Islam has disallowed interest whatever its form.

(٢٨٢٨) وَعَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ أَتَيْتُ لَيْلَةَ أُسْرِيَ بِي عَلٰى قَوْمٍ بُطُوْنُهُمْ كَالْبُيُوْتِ فِيْهَا الْحَيَّاتُ تُرٰى مِنْ خَارِجِ بُطُوْنِهِمْ فَقُلْتُ مَنْ هٰؤُلَاءِ يَا جِبْرِيْلُ قَالَ هٰؤُلَاءِ أَكَلَةُ الرِّبَا۔ (رواه احمد وابن ماجة)

2828. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "On the night I was taken to the heavens (which was the night of al-Isra or al-Miraj). I came across people whose bellies were like houses. There were snakes in them what could be seen from outside their bellies. I asked, 'They are those who consumed riba."[1]

PROPHET'S صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم CURSE ON INTEREST RECEIVERS

(٢٨٢٩) وَعَنْ عَلِيٍّ أَنَّهُ سَمِعَ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَعَنَ اٰكِلَ الرِّبَا وَمُؤْكِلَهُ وَكَاتِبَهُ وَمَانِعَ الصَّدَقَةِ وَكَانَ يَنْهٰى عَنِ النَّوْحِ۔ (رواه النسائی)

2829. Sayyiduna Ali رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that he heard Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم curse those people who received interest, those people who paid it those people who recorded the transaction and those people who declined to give sadaqah (charity). Also, he forbade wailing.[2]

COMMENTARY: Those who decline to give sadaqah (charity) could also be those who prevent others from giving sadaqah (charity). They could also be those who do not pay the wajib (obligatory) sadaqah (charity) which is zakah (Annual due charity).

Wailing includes to praise the dead person and to cry loudly in a shrieking voice. It is a very undignified act.

UMAR'S رضی اللہ عنہ EXPLANATION OF RIBA

(٢٨٣٠) وَعَنْ عُمَرَ بْنِ الْخَطَّابِ إِنَّ اٰخِرَ مَا نَزَلَتْ اٰيَةُ الرِّبَا وَاِنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قُبِضَ وَلَمْ يُفَسِّرْهَا لَنَا فَدَعُوا الرِّبَا وَالرِّيْبَةَ۔ (رواه ابن ماجة والدارمی)

2830. Sayyiduna Umar ibn al-Khattab رضی اللہ عنہ said, "The last of what was revealed (of the Quran) was the verse of riba, but Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم was taken without his explaining it to us. So abstain from usury and what is doubtful."[3]

COMMENTARY: We have stated in the very initial pages that even before Islam profit was taken at a specified rate on loans and debts, during the jihiliyah (ignorance period). When the Quran forbade riba, the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم not any imposed the command on the interest as known and practice at that time but he also gave it a wider application as explained in the previous pages. However, he did not live long after the verse was revealed and could not expound the command beyond that.

Sayyiduna Umar رضی اللہ عنہ meant to ask "was the application limited to the six things only or

---

[1] Ibn Majah # 2273, Musnad Ahmad 2-363.

[2] Nasa'i # 5103.

[3] Ibn Majah # 2276, Darimi.

did the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم name them only or did the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم name them only by way of example? (hadith # 2808). (They were gold silver, wheat, barley, dates and salt) As we explained, the imams who came later drew out a rule and included other things too according to the rule.

In short, before the revelation of the Quran, the Arabic word riba was used in the sense; 'to receive profit on the amount given as loan.' It was practiced all over Arabia. The people of Arabia understood only this particular thing as riba and there was no confusion or doubt about this word. Therefore, when the Quran announced that riba was disallowed, no one found it difficult to understand to obey the order. However when the prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم unlarged its sphere in the light of a revelation and they were at variance with what the Arabs had under stood and additional to what they knew as interest and, by a coincidence, the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم died before explaining those addition as practically, Sayyiduna Umar رضی اللہ عنہ found it difficult to fathom their details. So, he made ijtihad and pursued a safe course. He said that riba should be abandoned completely where it was very clear and known as per usage, and also the mutual buying and selling which was pointed out by the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم to be riba. He also said that anything that created doubt or was similar to riba should be given up too.

A MISUNDERSTANDING: Some people have used this saying of Sayyiduna Umar رضی اللہ عنہ to cast doubt on riba in general. However, he only had wondered whether the six things that the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم had named as usurous were the only ones or others which were like them came in the same category. He was worried that the people might suppose that only these six transactions were usurous accord not be careful about others. This is why he instructed the people to abstain from the doubtful and those that were similar to the six things named by the Prophet علیہ السلام in which there was likelihood of interest being practiced.

While his words were about these things specifically, these people included all kinds of interest in this saying. They did more mischief by alleging that umar's رضی اللہ عنہ words meant that interest (receiving and giving) was not disallowed.

CREDITOR SHOULD NOT ACCEPT GIFT OF THE DEBTOR

(٢٨٣١) وَعَنْ اَنَسٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اِذَا اَقْرَضَ اَحَدُكُمْ قَرْضًا فَاَهْدٰى اِلَيْهِ اَوْحَمَلَهُ عَلَى الدَّابَّةِ فَلَا يَرْكَبْهُ وَلَا يَقْبَلْهَا اِلَّا اَنْ يَكُوْنَ جَرٰى بَيْنَهُ وَبَيْنَهُ قَبْلَ ذٰلِكَ۔ رَوَاهُ ابْنُ مَاجَةَ وَالْبَيْهَقِيُّ فِيْ شُعَبِ الْاِيْمَانِ۔

2831. Sayyiduna Anas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "When one of you lends some money (to someone) and the debtor sends him a gift or offers him an animal to ride, he must neither ride it nor accept it unless this had been customary between them before that."[1]

COMMENTARY: The creditor must not accept any sort of a gift from his debtor because that might look like interest. Whether the creditor earns from the debtor is counted as interest. However, if the two had been used to exchange gifts then the creditor may accepted the debtor's gift because, in this case, he would not be under pressure to give him a present. Rather, it would be a reciprocal gesture.

[1] Ibn Majah # 2432, Bayhaqi in Shu'ab ul eeman # 5532.

It is reported about Imam Abu Hanifah رحمه الله that he had lent money to someone. One day, he went to his home to get a repayment. He waited outside in the heat for the man to come out but did not stand in the shade of his house because, though there was no bar to it in Shari'ah (divine law), yet it was against perfect righteousness to benefit from the shade of the man's wall. He stood in the sun for a very long time before the man came out. This was his perfect example of taqwa (piety) that he refrained from the shade of the debtor's wall.

It is written in Malabudminhu that according to a hadith if a loan is liable to benefit the lender then it is regarded as riba. The lender must not accept the borrower's invitation, too unless they were on friendly terms already visiting one another. It is also written that it is makruh (disapproved) for the lender to use the shade of the borrower's wall.

(٢٨٣٢) وَعَنْ أَنَسٍ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ إِذَا أَقْرَضَ الرَّجُلُ الرَّجُلَ فَلَا يَأْخُذْ هَدِيَّةً۔ رَوَاهُ الْبُخَارِيُّ فِيْ تَارِيْخِهٖ هٰكَذَا فِي الْمُنْتَقٰى۔

2832. Sayyiduna Anas رضی الله عنه narrated that the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم said, "When a man extends a loan to another man, he should not take a gift."[1]

(٢٨٣٣) وَعَنْ أَبِيْ بُرْدَةَ ابْنِ أَبِيْ مُوْسٰى قَالَ قَدِمْتُ الْمَدِيْنَةَ فَلَقِيْتُ عَبْدَاللّٰهِ بْنَ سَلَامٍ فَقَالَ إِنَّكَ بِأَرْضٍ فِيْهَا الرِّبٰوا فَاشٍ فَإِذَا كَانَ لَكَ عَلٰى رَجُلٍ حَقٌّ فَأَهْدٰى إِلَيْكَ حِمْلَ تِبْنٍ أَوْحِمْلَ شَعِيْرٍ أَوْحَبْلَ قَتٍّ فَلَا تَأْخُذْهُ فَإِنَّهٗ رِبٰوا۔ (رواه البخاری)

2833. Sayyiduna Abu Burdah رحمه الله son of Abu Musa رضی الله عنه narrated that when he came to Madinah he met Sayyiduna Abdullah ibn Salaam رضی الله عنه who said to him, "You are in a land where riba is common. So, if you have right over anyone (meaning that if any one is your debtor) and he presents you a load of straw, or a load of barley, or a bundle of grass, do not take it because that is interest."[2]

COMMENTARY: The ulama (Scholars) say that every loan to which a condition of some sort of profit is attached is riba (or interest). Every gain that the lender derives from the borrower because of the pressure of the debt of gratitude for it is interest.

RULING: If the creditor derives some benefit from the debtor before advancing to him a loan then it will depend on whether the profit was promised (previously) and was part of a condition. If it was promised and part of a condition then there is no doubt whatsoever of its unlawfulness. That profit is riba (or interest). If it was not previously promised and part of a condition then scholars differ on its status. Imam Muhammad رحمه الله holds that it is allowed. A section of them, however, say that it is disallowed. The correct thing, however, say that it is disallowed. The correct things, however, is that if the profit is bestowed because of a pressure or out of gratitude, or to gain time or to be excused (from repayment), then it is unlawful in any case. If it is out of regard, kindness or already existing relationship then it is u undoubtedly allowed.

---

[1] Bukhari in his Tarikh and so it is in al-Muntaqa.

[2] Bukhari # 3814.

While it is disallowed to fix the terms of the debt, the correct thing is that there is no harm is fixing the term. The ruling is that if a debt is given and received on condition of a fixed period of times, then that period of time will be binding as a condition but noit binding as a debt. If the creditor demands his money before the specified time, then he has the right to do it and the debtor must try his utmost to repay the debt.

If a person loans some money on condition that it should be repaid in a certain city then this condition as a binding is unlawful.

Some people deposit their money in bank for safe keeping without taking profit or interest on it. The fact is that the money which is deposited in banks is not preserved exactly as deposited but is invested in business. So, it is not a trust or safe-keeping, but becomes a debt. These people may not take interest on their money but they do help those who collect interest by loaning money in a way, and to aid those who give or take interest is a sin. Hence, it is not proper to deposit one's money in a bank.

CHAPTER - V

SALES & PURCHASE THAT ARE DIS-ALLOWED بَابُ الْمَنْهِيِّ عَنْهَا مِنَ الْبُيُوْعِ

The Shari'ah (divine law) of Islam has forbidden some forms of business transactions as also buying transactions as also buying and selling of some things. Some of these are forbidden because the dealings and those things are unlawful, like Bai' batil (vain sale as of wine, swine, etc.) and Bai' fasid (not legal). Some others are disallowed only because of dislike for them, like engaging in business at the time of the adhan on Friday.

Those that are forbidden because the dealings or the merchandise are unlawful are, according to the Hanafi School, of two kinds:

(i) Bai' fasid.

(ii) Bai' batil.

BAI'* FASID: It is a business transaction that is correct in so far as the principles of Bai' are found in it, but is not lawful because some conditions for the Bai' (sale and purchase) to be sound are lacking, so it is necessary to cancel such a transaction. The jurists call it mashru' binafsihi (legal by itself) but manu biwasfihi (illegal because of the conditions and characteristics)

BAI'* BATIL: It is a business transaction that is not recognized by Shari'ah (divine law) because it is neither correct in terms of the principles of Bai' (buying and selling) nor lawful as for as its conditions and characteristics are concerned.

We may now present some rulings on this subject to elaborate on the foregoing definitions. It is also necessary to know more of the subject of this chapter.

If the (مبيع) (mabi) – that which is sold and bought is not 'property' in the eyes of Shari'ah (divine law) then sale and purchase of such a thing is Bai batil (invalid, void) Examples are blood, carrion, free person, mukatab, urine and a very worthless thing. Also, if the mabi' (merchandise) is 'property' but it is not a decent item then its buying and selling is batil if sold for money, but if it is bartered against another thing then the sale of that thing is fasid and of this property that is not a decent thing is batil. Examples of such things are wine and swine.

The difference between Bai' batil and Bai' fasid is that in the former case the thing sold never comes in the possession of the buyer. In the latter (Bai' fasid), nothing applies to it before handing over possession but after possession it becomes property of the buyer as an unlawful or forbidden thing, and it is binding on him to pay for it in cash, but it is wajib (obligatory) on him to annul the sale even after taking possession provided the mabi' is with the buyer in its exact form.

Selling milk that is yet in the udders of an animal is batil (void), (for, that may not really exist. Its udders may seem to be full and if milk is sold on that basis, there might be no milk at all but the udders could be swollen for some other reason. In such cases, sale of purported milk would be a deceptive, fraudulent act.

It is also not allowed to sell birds that fly in the air unless they are trained to return. It is allowed to sell a flying pigeon.

Similarly, it is disallowed to sell fish that have not been caught but are still in the sea, or are caught and released in a pond from where they can be caught only in a net.

Other sales disallowed are the unborn in the womb of a female slave or an animal, the pearl that is in the shell and the meat of an animal before it is slaughtered and skinned.

It is disallowed to sell the hair of a pig. However, these hair may be used to sew the gunny bags which are laden on the back of beasts of burden after filling them with provision, etc. Human hair may neither be sold nor put to use in any way.

Any sale that might cause altercation is fasid. Examples are sale of wool on the back of a goat, link of a chain nailed on the ceiling one yard of cloth from a large piece of cloth or a sale in which time of payment of price is defined vaguely like 'when it will rain or high winds will blow I shall pay you. However, if in all these cases, the buyer does not revoke the transaction and the seller gives delivery to the buyer by removing the link from the ceiling or tearing one yard from the large piece of cloth and the buyer specifically defines dates of payment, then the sale shall be carefully transacted.

A sale and purchase transaction is fasid when fasid (not legal) condition is placed. A fasid condition obstructs the correct execution of the transaction. It is favourable either to the seller on to the buyer. For example, the seller may sell a house but impose a condition that he would use it for a month before handed it over, or the buyer may buy a piece of cloth on condition that it is delivered to him duly stitched. Or, the nabi' (that which is sold) may stand to gain when a human being - male or female slave - is sold, when a seller stipulates that the buyer must set the slave he buys free, or get him or her married. Condition of this kind are fasid and a business transaction also becomes fasid because of them.

If a buyer stipulates that he should be handed over ownership then that is not contrary to the correct execution of the agreement to sell. So it is not fasid. If a trader stipulates while selling, say cloth, that the buyer should not re-sell it then though this condition is contrary to the transaction, it is not fasid because no one stands to benefit from it.

If anyone sells a horse and stipulates that the buyer should make the horse fat then though this condition is favourale to what is sold yet, not being a human being who is eligible for the benefit, the condition is not fasid. But, the condition will be vain and dropped and the Bai' will be proper.

The books of fiqh (Islamic jurisprudence) have more details of Bai' fasid and batil. They must be studied so that such business transactions as are unacceptable by Shari'ah (divine law) may be avoided.

It is necessary to expound some more rulings.

It is unlawful for a seller to cheat in weights and measures and for a buyer to deduct from the agreed price at the time of payment. Those who contravene it, the Quran has warned them thus:

وَيْلٌ لِّلْمُطَفِّفِيْنَ

{Woe to the defrauders.} (83: 1)

It is unlawful to delay payment without reason; to the seller for the price of the item sold and for a prompt debt and to the labourers. The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "Any delay (in payment of demand) by a rich man is oppression (or cruelty). So, pay the labourer his wages before his perspiration dries."

It is reported that when the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم paid anyone his dues, he paid more than the wajib (obligatory) amount. If the dues were half wasq, then he paid one wasq. If the dues were one wasq, he paid two wasqs. He used to say, "This is your right and as much more is paid from me." We must remember that the additional payment is not interest. It would have been regarded as interest, if the addition was stipulated beforehand. If there is no advance condition and the payer pays more, then it is allowed, and, in fact, it is mustahab (desirable).

When dealing with anyone to break a promise is makruh (disapproved), fraud and falsehood. It turns lawful earnings into unlawful. So, it is essential to refrain from these things. Once the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم examined a pile of wheat at a shop and found them moist deep inside. The shopkeeper explained that rain water had seeped into the pile. The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "You ought to have placed the moist wheat on top (so that no one might be cheated). Know! He who deceives a Muslim does not belong to us."

There are other kinds of business transactions; Bai' murabahah (to sell at a profit over cost price) and Bai tawliyah ((تولیت) to sell at cost price). In these transactions, the cost price must be disclosed to the buyer without reduction nor addition. If the seller has incurred additional cost on that for incidentals like labour cost, octroi, etc., then he must add them to his cost price and disclose to the buyer that he had spend 'so much money' on procuring that thing instead of saying that he bought it for so much, which would be a lie.

If any one sells a piece of cloth for rupees ten and, while the buyer has not paid the money to him, he re-purchases it from the buyer for half the price, or at the same price but with another piece of cloth too then this transaction is not correct. If he does so then it will amount to riba. It is unlawful to use anything bought before obtaining its possession when it is a movable thing (مبیع منقول) - movable thing that is sold/bought). Thus, to sell a movable item before taking possession of it is disallowed.

Someone bought from a seller something that is measured in a scale[1] after measuring it as a measure. He had it duly measured in the scale by the seller. Then he sold by the seller. Then he sold it to another as a measure. Now, it is necessary for this second buyer that he must first have it duly measured in a scale by the first buyer who in his seller. Only after that may he use it or sell it to another person because the first (weighing or) measurement is not sufficient. It is better to have it measured afresh lest it turns out to be more and that could be the seller's property.

If a Muslim makes an offer of a price while he discusses a bargain to buy or sell something, or a Muslim has sent proposal of marriage to a woman then no one else is permitted to make a counter offer or proposal unless the first person has been spurned.

It is makruh (disapproved) to engage in a business transaction at the time of adhan on Friday because any activity at that time interrupts the preparations for the salah (prayer) which are wajib (obligatory) on the worshipper. If there are many mosques around where the salah (prayer) of Friday is observed, then one must suspend business activity when the adhan is called in that mosque in which he will pray.

---

[1] Perhaps measure of capacity.

If two slaves whether both grown up or young, or one grownup and the other young, are closely elated to one another as mahrams then it is makruh (disapproved) and forbidden to sell them separately. Some ulama (Scholars) say that this sale is unlawful.

It is disallowed to sell the fat of the dead.

Imam Abu Hanifah رحمه الله regards sale of oil of the impure as allowed. But, other imams regard it as disallowed. Imam Abu Hanifah رحمه الله regards as makruh (disapproved) the sale of human excrete when nothing is mixed with it, but if ashes, etc. are mingled with it then it is allowed.

Imam Abu Hanifah رحمه الله holds that it is not allowed to sell dung and it is also not allowed to use it for one's benefit.

The king or any ruler should not determine prices of the things. It is makruh (disapproved) for them to do so. However, if the merchants commit excess in raising prices of provision and other things and the masses are worried because of that, then they are allowed to fix prices on the advice of experienced and adept people.

SECTION I — اَلْفَصْلُ الْاَوَّلُ

(٢٨٣٤) عَنِ ابْنِ عُمَرَ قَالَ نَهٰى رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ عَنِ الْمُزَابَنَةِ اَنْ يَّبِيْعَ ثَمَرَ حَائِطِهٖ اِنْ كَانَ نَخْلًا بِتَمْرٍ كَيْلًا وَاِنْ كَانَ كَرْمًا اَنْ يَّبِيْعَهٗ بِزَبِيْبٍ كَيْلًا اَوْ كَانَ۔ وَعِنْدَ مُسْلِمٍ وَاِنْ كَانَ زَرْعًا اَنْ يَّبِيْعَهٗ بِكَيْلِ طَعَامٍ نَهٰى عَنْ ذٰلِكَ كُلِّهٖ۔ مُتَّفَقٌ عَلَيْهِ وَفِيْ رِوَايَةٍ لَهُمَا نَهٰى عَنِ الْمُزَابَنَةِ قَالَ وَالْمُزَابَنَةُ اَنْ يُّبَاعَ مَا فِيْ رُؤُوْسِ النَّخْلِ بِتَمْرٍ بِكَيْلٍ مُسَمًّى اِنْ زَادَ فَلِيْ وَاِنْ نَقَصَ فَعَلَيَّ۔ (بخاری و مسلم)

2834. Sayyiduna Ibn Umar رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم forbade muzabanah. It is that a man sells the fresh fruit of his garden. If it is dates, then for dried dates by measure. (For instance, if any one has ten measures of dried dates then he takes that for ten measures of fresh dates on his tree by approximate measure). Or, if it is grapes, then for raisins by measure. (So, muzabanah is to sell fresh fruit on the tree for dried fruit). Or – as Muslim transmits – if he has a field then (the muzabanah) he sells it for a measure of corn. (It means that he buys a measure of wheat from another approximating the produce in his field). Are Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم forbade all these kinds of exchanges.

According to another version (also of Bukhari and Muslim): He forbade muzabanah, saying, "Muzabanah is that fresh dates on the tree are sold to someone for his dried dates by a specified measure. The seller says, 'If it is more, that is mine. And if it is less, that is on me."[1]

COMMENTARY: The word 'muzabanah' is derived from (زبن) (zaban) meaning. 'to push away' 'to put off.'

The prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم forbade Bai' muzabanah because this transaction is based on surmise and approximation. The two parties are likely to either benefit or suffer loss. So, that might create altercation and bad blood between them. And they might push one another away.

---

[1] Bukhari # 2205, Muslim # 76-1542, Tirmidhi (narrated zayd ibn habit) # 1304, Nasa'i # 4549, Ibn Majah # 2265, Muwatta Maalik # 23 (Buyu) Musnad Ahmad 2-7.

Of the two versions, the first defines muzabanah with fruit implying a general application. The second uses the word 'dates.' It does not exclude other fruit but refers to dates as an examples.

(٢٨٣٥) وَعَنْ جَابِرٍ قَالَ نَهَى رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ عَنِ الْمُخَابَرَةِ وَالْمُحَاقَلَةِ وَالْمُزَابَنَةِ وَالْمُحَاقَلَةُ اَنْ يَّبِيْعَ الرَّجُلُ الزَّرْعَ بِمِائَةِ فَرَقٍ حِنْطَةٍ وَالْمُزَابَنَةُ اَنْ يَّبِيْعَ التَّمْرَ فِيْ رُءُوْسِ النَّخْلِ بِمِائَةِ فَرَقٍ وَالْمُخَابَرَةُ كِرَاءُ الْاَرْضِ بِالثُّلُثِ وَالرُّبُعِ۔ (رواه مسلم)

2835. Sayyiduna jabir رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم forbade Mukhabarah, muhaqalah and murabanah. And, muhaqalah is that a man sells a cultivated field for one hundred faraqs of wheat. And, muzabanah is that he sells dates on the palm trees for one hundred faraqs (dates that are in stock). And, mukhabarah is to rent one's land at one-third or one fourth portion of cultivation as rent.

COMMENTARY: Faraq is a measure of capacity of three sa's. And farq is also a measure of capacity larger that faraq. It is merely an example that the hadith determines the figure of one hundred faraqs.

A previous hadith gave the same meaning of muzabanah as this gives of muhaqalah. However, muzabanah has a wider application. It covers fruit as well as fields and corns while muhaqalah is used only for fields and corn. However, sometimes muzabanah is used for fruit only..

Mukhabarah is to give one's land for cultivation to someone else. The person to when it is rented may be asked to give as rent one third or one fourth of the produce.

This hadith disallows Mukhbirah, too, because it is a form of wages, and wages remain concealed in it. Besides, that which is to be received in lacking or non-existent. Nothing can be determined of that which is non-existent.

Mukhabah is also called muzari'ah, but they are different in that in the former, seed is provided by the cultivator while in the latter by the owner of the land.

Both muzari'ah (and mukhabarah) are not allowed by Imam Abu Hanifah رحمه الله as clear from this hadith. But, the two companions Imam Abu Yusuf رحمه الله and Imam Muhammad رحمه الله, say that they are correct. The Hanafis observe the ruling of these two imams, because this thing is needed very often and encountered many times. If not allowed then people will face much trouble.

(٢٨٣٦) وَعَنْهُ قَالَ نَهَى رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ عَنِ الْمُحَاقَلَةِ وَالْمُزَابَنَةِ وَالْمُخَابَرَةِ وَالْمُعَاوَمَةِ وَعَنِ الثُّنْيَا وَرَخَّصَ فِي الْعَرَايَا۔ (رواه مسلم)

2836. Sayyiduna Jabir رضی الله عنه said that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم forbade muhaqalah, muzabanah, mukhabarah, mu'awamah and thunya, but permitted 'araya.[1]

COMMENTARY: The first three kinds have been defined previously. Mu'awanah is to sell fruit on trees one year, two years, three years or more in advance, Thunya is to sell the fruit on the trees excepting on unspecified quantity (which is not sold).

[1] Muslim # 85-1536, Tirmidhi # 1317, Musnad Ahmad 3-313.

Araya is plural of 'ariyah. It is a palm tree given to a needy and poor person by its owner for its fruit.[1]

The hadith means that after some people gave one tree or two from their garden to a poor man, and when he happened to come to his tree and they too were in the garden with their families, they did not like that, so they gave to him some dates from their own possession instead of from the tree and let him depart. They retained the dates on the tree themselves. The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم let this practice continue. However, it is allowed as long as it is less than five wasqs but not proper if more than that. This is stated in the hadith of Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضى الله عنه to follow (# 2838)

(٢٨٣٧) وَعَنْ سَهْلِ بْنِ اَبِيْ حَثْمَةَ قَالَ نَهٰى رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ عَنْ بَيْعِ التَّمْرِ بِالتَّمْرِ اِلَّا اَنَّهُ رَخَّصَ فِي الْعَرِيَّةِ اَنْ تُبَاعَ بِخَرْصِهَا تَمْرًا يَاكُلُهَا اَهْلُهَا رُطَبًا۔ (متفق عليه)

2837. Sayyiduna Sahl ibn Abu Hathmah رضى الله عنه said that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم disallowed sale of dates (on a tree) for dried dates. But he allowed concerning ariyah after estimating (those on the tree) what they would weigh when dry (so that the poor may be given as many dried dates). The owners may (take the dates on the tree and) eat the fresh dates.[2]

(٢٨٣٨) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ اَنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَرْخَصَ فِيْ بَيْعِ الْعَرَايَا بِخَرْصِهَا مِنَ التَّمْرِ فِيْمَا دُوْنَ خَمْسَةِ اَوْسُقٍ اَوْفِيْ خَمْسَةِ اَوْسُقٍ شَكَّ دَاوٗدُ بْنُ الْحُصَيْنِ۔ (متفق عليه)

2838. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضى الله عنه said that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم gave permission regarding the sale of araya that their amount when they would dry might be estimated (and as many dried dates may be taken against them). But (this kind of sale is) with the proviso that they be less then five wasqs or as many as five wasqs.[3]

COMMENTARY: The proviso of less then five wasqs is because this permission is only for the needy, and anyone (cannot need more then five wasq but) needs only less then five wasqs. The ulama (Scholars) are unanimous about less then five wasqs but disagree about five wasqs. It is better to observe the permission for less than five wasqs. Moreover, the ulama (Scholars) include the rich also in this permission. So, the permission may be said to be for both, rich and poor. Wasq is a measure equal to sixty sa' (It is a camel load.)

RAW FRUIT MUST NOT BE SOLD

(٢٨٣٩) وَعَنْ عَبْدِاللّٰهِ بْنِ عُمَرَ نَهٰى رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ عَنْ بَيْعِ الثِّمَارِ حَتّٰى يَبْدُوَ صَلَاحُهَا، نَهٰى الْبَائِعَ وَالْمُشْتَرِيَ مُتَّفَقٌ عَلَيْهِ۔ وَفِيْ رِوَايَةٍ لِمُسْلِمٍ نَهٰى عَنْ بَيْعِ النَّخْلِ حَتّٰى تَزْهُوَ وَعَنِ السُّنْبُلِ حَتّٰى يَبْيَضَّ وَيَاْمَنَ الْعَاهَةَ۔ (بخاری و مسلم)

2839. Sayyiduna Abdullah ibn Umar رضى الله عنه said that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم forbade sale of fruit till their good condition was apparent. He forbade both the seller and the buyer.

[1] Elsewhere it is stated to be for one year.

[2] Bukhari # 2191, Muslim # 2-1540, Nasa'i # 4542.

[3] Bukhari # 2190, Muslim # 1541, Abu Dawud # 3364, Tirmidhi # 1305, Muwatta Maalik # 14 (Buyu).

According to another version in Muslim: he forbade sale of palm trees (meaning, dates) till they were red and yellow (meaning, ripe). He also forbade sale of ears of corn till they had turned white and were safe from disease.[1]

COMMENTARY: The seller is forbidden lest he take someone's money without providing him anything. The buyer is forbidden lest he incur loss, for, he might buy unripe fruit but before it ripens a natural calamity might destroy it.

(٢٨٤٠) وَعَنْ اَنَسٍ قَالَ نَهٰى رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ عَنْ بَيْعِ الثِّمَارِ حَتّٰى تُزْهِيَ قِيْلَ وَمَا تُزْهِيَ قَالَ حَتّٰى تَحْمَرَّ وَ قَالَ اَرَأَيْتَ اِذَا مَنَعَ اللّٰهُ الثَّمَرَةَ بِمَ يَاخُذُ اَحَدُكُمْ مَالَ اَخِيْهِ۔ (متفق عليه)

2840. Sayyiduna Anas رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم forbade sale of fruit till it tuzhiya. He was asked, "What is tuzhiya?" He said, "Till it turns red." Then, he said, "What do you say that when Allah withholds the fruit (from becoming ripe), why should any of you take the property of his brother?"[2]

COMMENTARY: Given the two sides of the seller and buyer, the best course is to preserve and wait. When the fruit is ripe, buying and selling may be done.

DISALLOWED TO SELL FRUIT BEARING TREES IN ADVANCE BY MANY YEARS

(٢٨٤١) وَعَنْ جَابِرٍ قَالَ نَهٰى رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ عَنْ بَيْعِ السِّنِيْنَ وَاَمَرَ بِوَضْعِ الْجَوَائِحِ۔ (رواه مسلم)

2841. Sayyiduna Jabir رضی الله عنه said that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم forbade that anyone should sell fruit years ahead. He also ordered that anyone stricken by calamity must be *Bai*led out for losses suffered through blight.[3]

COMMENTARY: The hadith recommended to the seller that he should remit some money if he has not received payment from the buyer before some calamity or harm befell his purchases. If he has already received the payment then he should return some money to him though he is not bound to do so but as a gesture of goodwill. The Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم command in this regard is to show that it is mustahab (desirable) and it aims to invite the seller to a moral duty. As for as the juristic ruling is concerned, the seller is under no obligation to make any concession. The buyer is responsible for every profit and loss of that which he has bought. If he bought item is lost through a calamity, the buyer alone suffers the loss. Nothing is wajib (obligatory) on the seller once possession is taken of the item.

(٢٨٤٢) وَعَنْهُ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَوْ بِعْتَ مِنْ اَخِيْكَ ثَمَرًا فَاَصَابَتْهُ جَائِحَةٌ فَلَا يَحِلُّ لَكَ اَنْ تَأْخُذَ مِنْهُ شَيْئًا بِمَ تَاخُذُ مَالَ اَخِيْكَ بِغَيْرِ حَقٍّ۔ (رواه مسلم)

2842. Sayyiduna Jabir رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم said, "If you have sold some fruit to your brother and a calamity (or blight) strikes the fruit, it is not lawful to you to take anything from him. How would you take your brother's Property unjustly?"[4]

---

[1] Bukhari # 2794, Muslim # 49-1531, Abu Dawud # 3367, Ibn Majah # 2214.
[2] Bukhari # 2198, Muslim # 15-1555, Nasa'i # 4526, Muwatta Maalik # 11 (Buyu).
[3] Muslim # 101-1536, 17-1554, Abu Dawud # 3374, Nasa'i # 4531`, Ibn Majah # 2218, Musnad Ahmad 3-309.
[4] Muslim # 14. 1554, Abu Dawud # 3470, Nasa'i # 4527, Ibn Majah # 2219.

COMMENTARY: The commentary of the previous hadith may be read with this hadith too. The command in this hadith must be observed if the buyer suffers total loss of his property because of a calamity or disease. If there is some loss then the seller must make some compensation.

Ibn Maalik رحمه الله explained that if the sold property is ruined before going into the buyer' hand, the seller must bear the loss. If it happens after the buyer takes possession of the property then the seller must not take anything from the buyer as a mesure of taqwa (piety) and good manners.

MOVABLE PROPERTY MUST NOT BE RESOLD BEFORE RECEIVING POSSESSION

(٢٨٤٣) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عُمَرَ قَالَ كَانُوْا يَبْتَاعُوْنَ الطَّعَامَ فِيْ اَعْلَى السُّوْقِ فَيَبِيْعُوْنَهُ فِيْ مَكَانِهٖ فَنَهَاهُمْ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ عَنْ بَيْعِهٖ فِيْ مَكَانِهٖ حَتّٰى يَنْقُلُوْهُ رَوَاهُ اَبُوْدَاوُدَ وَلَمْ اَجِدْهُ فِي الصَّحِيْحَيْنِ۔

2843. Sayyiduna Ibn Umar رضی الله عنه narrated that the People bought grain in the upper area of the market and also sold it there in its place. So, Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم forbade them to sell it as its very place. (It should be moved from there and sold thereafter)[1]

COMMENTARY: The bought property must first be taken in one's possession before being re-sold. A movable property is taken possession of by taking it away to some other place, even if it is very near.

If the item purchased is bought by measure or weight then the buyer must have it taken immediately after it is measured or weighed. If it is purchased without weight or measure then it must be taken away without weighing or measuring. In short a movable property is resold only after taking its possession.

This hadith ought to have been placed in Section II because it is not found in both Bukhari and Muslim (but it is there: Bukhari # 2167, Muslim # 33-1527.

(٢٨٤٤-٢٨٤٥) وَعَنْهُ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنِ ابْتَاعَ طَعَامًا فَلَا يَبِعْهُ حَتّٰى يَسْتَوْفِيَهُ وَفِيْ رِوَايَةِ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ حَتّٰى يَكْتَالَهُ۔ (متفق علیه)

2844. Sayyiduna Ibn Umar رضی الله عنه said that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم said, "If any one buys grain then he must not re-sell it before taking full possession of it."[2]

2845. Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضی الله عنه narrated with the words: "before he has measured it."[3]

COMMENTARY: This had been explained in the previous commentary about first taking possession. Imam Shafi'I رحمه الله and of the Hanafis, Imam Muhammad رحمه الله hold that both movable and immovable property must not be re-sold before first taking possession of it. Imam Maalik رحمه الله said that only grain should not be sold before taking possession. Other things may be sold. Imam Abu Hanifah رحمه الله and Imam Abu Yusuf رحمه الله hold that it is allowed to re-sell land (immovable property) before taking possession of it but none of the

---

[1] Bukhari # 2167, Muslim # 33. 1527, Abu Dawud # 3493, Nasa'i # 4606, Muwatta # 42 (Buyu)

[2] Bukhari # 2126, Muslim # 32-1526, Abu Dawud # 3492, Nasa'i # 4604, Ibn Majah # 2226, Ibn Majah 2-22.

[3] Muslim # 32-1525, Abu Dawud # 3496, Tirmidhi # 1291, Nasa'i # 4597, Ibn Majah # 2227.

movable properties may be sold before taking possession. The views of Imam Muhammad رحمه الله are the same apparently.

The version of Ibn Abbas رضی الله عنه means that the seller's weighing in the presence of the buyer is sufficient. It is not necessary for the buyer to weigh it all over again.

(٢٨٤٦) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ قَالَ اَمَّا الَّذِی نَهَی عَنْهُ النَّبِیُّ صَلَّی اللّٰهُ عَلَیْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَهُوَا لطَّعَامُ اَنْ یُبَاعَ حَتّٰی یُقْبَضَ قَالَ ابْنُ عَبَّاسٍ وَلَا اَحْسِبُ کُلَّ شَیْءٍ اِلَّا مِثْلَهٗ۔(متفق علیه)

2846. Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضی الله عنه narrated that, "That which the prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم disallowed was to sell grain before taking possession of it." And, Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضی الله عنه said that he thought that everything was like grain in the application of this command.[1]

COMMENTARY: According to the interpretation of this hadith by Sayyiduna ibn Abbas رضی الله عنه just as it is not allowed to sell grain before taking it into possessions. It is also disallowed to sell any thing before one receives possession of it. This was the presumption of Ibn Abbas رضی الله عنه He felt that the same rule applied to 'everything other than grain' as to grain.

(٢٨٤٧) وَعَنْ اَبِیْ هُرَیْرَةَ اَنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّی اللّٰهُ عَلَیْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ لَا تَلَقَّوُا الرُّکْبَانَ لِبَیْعٍ وَلَا یَبِعْ بَعْضُکُمْ عَلٰی بَیْعِ بَعْضٍ وَلَا تَنَاجَشُوْا وَلَا یَبِعْ حَاضِرٌ لِبَادٍ وَلَا تُصَرُّوا الْاِبِلَ وَالْغَنَمَ فَمَنِ ابْتَاعَهَا بَعْدَ ذٰلِكَ فَهُوَ بِخَیْرِ النَّظَرَیْنِ بَعْدَ اَنْ یَحْلُبَهَا اِنْ رَضِیَهَا اَمْسَکَهَا وَاِنْ سَخِطَهَا رَدَّهَا وَصَاعًا مِنْ تَمْرٍ مُتَّفَقٌ عَلَیْهِ، وَفِیْ رِوَایَةٍ لِمُسْلِمٍ مَنِ اشْتَرٰی شَاةً مُصَرَّاةً فَهُوَ بِالْخِیَارِ ثَلَاثَةَ اَیَّامٍ فَاِنْ رَدَّهَا رَدَّ مَعَهَا صَاعًا مِنْ طَعَامٍ لَا سَمْرَاءَ۔

2847. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم said,. Do not go out to meet riders (of the caravan with grain, etc.) to conclude business with them and no one among you must buy against another. Do not bid against each other. No one from the city may sell for a villager (or a man of the desert). Do not tie up the udder of the camels and sheep. If anyone buys such animals after this has been done to then he has two options to choose from other milking them; he may keep them if he is pleased with them or he may giving also no sa' of dates.

Another version say; "He who buys a sheep whose udders were tied up has three days within which he may decide to keep it or return it. If he returns it, their he must also give alongwith it one sa' of grain but not wheat."[2]

COMMENTARY: The Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم forbade traders in a town or city to go out of it and buy from in-coming trade caravans that which they have brought for sale. This closed the door to deception of the visiting men who might otherwise be deceived into selling at prices lower than those prevailing in the city markets.

If two people are conducting a bargain do not interfere by outbidding the buyer or quoting a lower price than the seller's to the buyer, or persuading the buyer who has bought on

---

[1] Bukhari # 2135, Muslim # 30-1525.

[2] Bukhari # 2150, Musilm # 11-1515, Abu Dawud # 3443, Nasa'i # 4487, Ibn Majah # 22389, Muwatta Maalik # 96 (Buyu).

khiyar to return his purchase so that you would get him a better bargain. It is very bad to unsettle someone in order to gather some gain oneself and if it is not done to collect some gain but only to disturb others and mess up their business then it is very bad.

Some ulama (Scholars) say that this thing is disallowed as long as the business of those people does not contravene Shari'ah (divine law). However, if they do something that is disapproved by Shari'ah (divine law) like selling snatched or stolen property, then it is allowed to have their transaction annulled.

The next command is (نجش) is to provoke and to deceive. If two people are finalizing a bargain, a third person intervenes and speaks highly of the thing that is being sold and quotes a higher price for it not within intent to buy but to make it look like a better bargain for the buyer. The prophet disallowed it because it is the worst form of deception.

A city dweller is disallowed to sell for a villager his grain that he brings to the city to sell. He might offer to do the job for him quickly and at a better price but the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم forbade this because it is to keep Allah's creatures away from profit. Imam Shafi'I رحمه الله said that this is forbidden and the Hanafis regard it as makruh (disapproved).

To tie the udder of an animal is also a form of deception. A person who wishes to sell his milk-yielding animal stops milking it for a couple of days or a few (times of) milking before offering it for sale. Its udder will bulge and buyers might be deceived into thinking that it has much milk. If anyone is deceived into buying such an animal and discovers that the animal yields little milk, then he has option to return, or retain, the animal. If he returns it then he must also give with it one sa' dates to compensate for the milk of the animal he had used.

A question arises here. Why are dates given instead of returning the milk or paying its price? The answer is that some of the milk may have been produced in the amimal's udder after it became the property of the purchaser and some was already there at the time of purchase. So it is impossible to determine how much milk should be returns. The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, therefore, determined that one sa' of dates be paid alongwith the animal to the seller irrespective of the quantity of milk consumed. It resembles the diyah (or blood money) which is a fixed amount of one hundred camels for unjust killing irrespective of the statues and standing of the slain person.

Imam Shafi'I رحمه الله goes by the hadith and says that the option to cancel or retain the transaction remains with the buyer as stated in the hadith. But, Imam Abu Hanifah رحمه الله disagrees and says that the command in the hadith is withdrawn, saying that it was enforced before riba was made unlawful.

Ibn Hajr رحمه الله explains the concluding portion of the hadith that one sa' dates should be given not wheat. The reason is that dates and milk were the main diet of the Arabs. This is prescribed even if the seller may be willing to take any thing instead of dates. Some people say that if the seller agrees, anything may be given instead of dates.

(٢٨٤٨) وَعَنْهُ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَا تَلَقَّوُا الْجَلَبَ فَمَنْ تَلَقَّاهُ فَاشْتَرٰى مِنْهُ فَإِذَا أَتَى سَيِّدُهُ السُّوْقَ فَهُوَ بِالْخِيَارِ۔ (رواه مسلم)

2848. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضى الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Do not go forward to meet the caravan that brings grain, etc. If anyone goes forward and meets them and buys from them, then when their chief comes to the market he has option (to revoke the sale)."[1]

COMMENTARY: The ulama (Scholars) say that it is forbidden to proceed out of the city to the incoming caravan if the intention is to buy from them to the disadvantage of the citizens as well as of the caravan to whom the market price is not disclosed. However, if the citizens are not caused loss and market price is not concealed from the merchants of the caravan who are not cheated, then this is not forbidden.

The Shafi'is say that when the chief or members of the caravan come to the city and discover, the true price structure which is higher than what they had been paid, then they have the option to revoke the sale and take back the grain (or whatever they had sold) or they may keep the sale intact. If they learn that the buyer has paid a higher price or the ruling price then they have no option.

The Hanafi view point is that the Chief on the members of the caravan will have this option only when they learn on coming to the city that the buyer had committed a fraud with them. If it is not so then they have no option.

(٢٨٤٩) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عُمَرَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَا تَلَقَّوُا السِّلَعَ حَتّٰى يُهْبَطَ بِهَا إِلَى السُّوْقِ۔

(متفق عليه)

2849. Sayyiduna Ibn Umar رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "Do not go out to meet the (merchants who bring the) merchandise. Rather, wait till it is brought to the market."[2]

INTERFERE NOT IN OTHER'S BUSINESS DEALINGS

(٢٨٥٠) وَعَنْهُ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَا يَبِيْعُ الرَّجُلُ عَلٰى بَيْعِ أَخِيْهِ وَلَا يَخْطُبُ عَلٰى أَخِيْهِ إِلَّا أَنْ يَّأْذَنَ لَهُ۔ (رواه مسلم)

2850. Sayyiduna Ibn Umar رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "No one must make an offer above his brother's deal. And, no one must propose a woman when his brother has already made a proposal unless he gives him permission."[3]

COMMENTARY: The first part of the hadith has been explained against hadith # 2847. Similarly, if anyone has proposed marriage to a woman, then no one else may propose to her. This is disallowed if the two sides have agreed on a dower and other formalities attached to marriage and only the formal ceremony (of oath taking) remaining to be concluded.

These disallowances of interference in anyone's business bargains and marriage proposal are only for so long as the two sides do not give up their efforts or withdraw from their discussions.

(٢٨٥١) وَعَنْ أَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ أَنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ لَا يَسُمِ الرَّجُلُ عَلٰى سَوْمِ أَخِيْهِ الْمُسْلِمِ۔ (رواه مسلم)

---

[1] Muslim # 17-1519, Abu Dawud # 3437, Tirmidhi # 1225, Nasa'i # 4501, Ibn Majah # 2178, Darimi # 2566.

[2] Bukhari # 2165, Muslim # 14-1517, Abu Dawud # 3436, Tirmidhi # 1224, Darimi # 2567, Musnad Ahmad 2567, Musnad Ahmad 2-91.

[3] Bukhari # 5142, Muslim # 8-1412, Abu Dawud # 2081, Nasa'i # 3243, Ibn Majah # 1868, Darimi # 2176, Muwatta Maalik # 2 (Mikah), Musnad Ahmad 2-42.

2851. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم said, "No one should outbid the bidding of his brother Muslim."[1]

COMMENTARY: This command applies when the two sides have agreed on a price. After this, it is makruh (disapproved) for anyone to offer a higher price and mess up their transaction. However, though makruh (disapproved), the sale will be correct.

Ibn Hajar رحمه الله said that the 'Muslim' in the hadith includes the dhimmi (non-Muslim resident of a Muslim country who pays the jizyah), the mu'ahid (with whom a Muslim has an accord) and the mustamin (who is under a Muslim's protection).

A CITY DWELLER MUST NOT SELL FOR VILLAGER

(٢٨٥٢) وَعَنْ جَابِرٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَا يَبِعْ حَاضِرٌ لِبَادٍ دَعُوا النَّاسَ يَرْزُقُ اللّٰهُ بَعْضَهُمْ مِنْ بَعْضٍ۔ (رواہ مسلم)

2852. Sayyiduna Jabir رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم said, "No city dweller must sell for a villager. Leave people alone, Allah gives them provision, some from others."[2]

COMMENTARY: The villagers may be left to themselves so that they may sell grain brought by them to the city dwellers at low prices. This will benefit the city dwellers too. The remaining portion of the hadith has been explained against the hadith # 2847.

TWO WAYS OF DRESSING AND BUSINESSES DISALLOWED

(٢٨٥٣) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ سَعِيْدِنِ الْخُدْرِيِّ قَالَ نَهٰى رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ عَنْ لِبْسَتَيْنِ وَعَنْ بَيْعَتَيْنِ نَهٰى عَنِ الْمُلَامَسَةِ وَالْمُنَابَذَةِ فِي الْبَيْعِ وَالْمُلَامَسَةُ لَمْسُ الرَّجُلِ ثَوْبَ الْآخَرِ بِيَدِهٖ بِاللَّيْلِ اَوْ بِالنَّهَارِ وَلَا يُقَلِّبُهٗ اِلَّا بِذٰلِكَ وَالْمُنَابَذَةُ اَنْ يَنْبِذَ الرَّجُلُ اِلَى الرَّجُلِ بِثَوْبِهٖ وَيَنْبِذَ الْآخَرُ ثَوْبَهٗ وَيَكُوْنُ ذٰلِكَ بَيْعُهُمَا عَنْ غَيْرِ نَظَرٍ وَلَا تَرَاضٍ وَاللِّبْسَتَيْنِ اشْتِمَالُ الصَّمَّاءِ وَالصَّمَّاءُ اَنْ يَجْعَلَ ثَوْبَهٗ عَلٰى اَحَدِ عَاتِقَيْهِ فَيَبْدُوْ اَحَدُ شِقَّيْهِ لَيْسَ عَلَيْهِ ثَوْبٌ وَاللِّبْسَةُ الْاُخْرٰى اِحْتِبَاؤُهٗ بِثَوْبِهٖ وَهُوَ جَالِسٌ لَيْسَ عَلٰى فَرْجِهٖ مِنْهُ شَيْءٌ۔ (متفق علیه)

2853. Sayyiduna Abu Sa'eed al Khudri رضی الله عنه said that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم forbade two ways of dressing and two kinds of business transactions. He disallowed mulama (Scholars)rah and munabadhah. In a business transaction. Mulama (Scholars)sah is that a man (the buyer) touches another's (seller's) garment (that he wishes to buy) with his hand whether it is night or day, without turning it over beyond that (touching). And, munabadhah is that a man throws his garment to another and the other throws his garment. This confirms their deal, without any inspection or (verbal) expression of willingness. One of the ways of dressing is to wrap the Samma' and samma' is for a man to put his garment over one of his shoulders in such a way that his other side is bare. The other (manner of dressing which is disallowed) is for a man to wrap himself up in his garment while he sits in such a way that nothing of it covers his private parts.[3]

---

[1] Muslim # 9-1515, Ibn Majah # 2172, Musnad Ahmad 2-259.

[2] Muslim # 20-1522, Tirmidhi # 1227, Abu Dawud # 3443, Nasa'i # 4495, Ibn Majah # 2176.

[3] Bukhari # 5820, Muslim # 3-1512, Abu Dawud # 3377, Nasa'i # 4515, Ibn Majah # 2710, Darimi # 2562, Musnad Ahmad 3-95.

COMMENTARY: Mulama (Scholars)sah was a way of buying and selling without any oral exchange of words during the jahliyah. It was a wrong method, so the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم disallowed it.

Munabadhah was a method in which both parties did not find it necessary to examine the merchandise. They simply threw their garment on one another. This too was a practice of the jihiliyah (ignorance period). So it was disallowed, too.

Samma is as described in the hadith. However, it has another meaning, more clear and well-known it is that someone puts a garment over himself in such a way that he is covered from head to toe and his hands too are inside. His body is not bare from where. Obviously, a person in this garb is totally helpless and immovable. So, the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم disallowed this sort of dressing.

He also prohibited the form of dress in which a person sits on this buttocks and keeps his knees erect wrapping a garment round his knees and back leaving his satr (private parts) (private parts) uncovered (so if it disallowed). But if any one wraps a garment round himself in this way with his private parts covered too then this is not disallowed

In passing we may say that it is masnun to sit with hands round one's upright knees (soles on the ground, flat).

BAI' HASAH AND GHARAR FORBIDDEN

(٢٨٥٤) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ نَهٰى رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ عَنْ بَيْعِ الْحَصَاةِ وَعَنْ بَيْعِ الْغَرَرِ۔ (رواه مسلم)

2854. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضى الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم forbade Bai' hasah and Bai' gharar.[1]

COMMENTARY: Bai' hasah is when a buyer tells the seller that when he hits a pebble at his ware, Bai' would become wajib (obligatory). Or, the seller tells the buyer that he has sold him that thing of his merchandise on which his pebble lands. Or, he says, "I have sold to you this piece of land till where your pebble falls." This method of business was customary during the jahiliyah (ignorance period). The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم disallowed it.

Bai' gharar is the transaction in which the thing sold is unknown or not in the hands of the seller. It is like fish in the water, a bird in the air or a runaway slave.

BAI' HABAL UL HABLAH DISALLOWED

(٢٨٥٥) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عُمَرَ قَالَ نَهٰى رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ عَنْ بَيْعِ حَبَلِ الْحَبَلَةِ وَكَانَ بَيْعًا يَتَبَايَعُهُ اَهْلُ الْجَاهِلِيَّةِ كَانَ الرَّجُلُ يَبْتَاعُ الْجَزُوْرَ اِلٰى اَنْ تُنْتَجَ النَّاقَةُ ثُمَّ تُنْتِجُ الَّتِيْ فِيْ بَطْنِهَا۔ (متفق عليه)

2855. Sayyiduna Ibn Umar رضى الله عنه said that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم forbade Bai' hablul habalah. This was practiced by the people of the jahiliyah (ignorance period). It was that a man would buy a she-camel that would be born to a she-camel that was yet in its mother's womb (He would not pay its price till then.)[2]

COMMENTARY: It is disallowed because that which is offered for sale is non-existent. When it is not allowed to sell what an animal carries in its womb then how could it be allowed to sell what the yet unborn would deliver?

---

[1] Muslim # 4-1513, Tirmidhi # 1234, Abu Dawud # 3376, Nasa'i # 4518, Ibn Majah # 2194, Darimi 2563, Musnad Ahmad 2-250.

[2] Bukhari # 2143, Muslim # 5-1514, Tirmidhi # 1233, Abu Dawud # 3380, Nasa'i # 4625, Ibn Majah # 2197, Muwatta Maalik # 62, (Buyu) Musnad Ahmad 2-15.

Some people define Bai' habal ul habalah is the sale of a pregnant she camel on the promise of payment for it when her young one is born. Sayyiduna Ibn Umar رضی الله عنه took this meaning, for this is how he has explained the concluding portion of the hadith from (وكان مبيعا) (and would pay then).

DISALLOWED TO CHARGE FOR A STALLION'S COVERING

(٢٨٥٦) وَعَنْهُ قَالَ نَهٰى رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ عَنْ عَسْبِ الْفَحْلِ۔ (رواه البخاری)

2856. Sayyiduna Ibn Umar رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم disallowed (them) to charge for pairing male and female (animals).[1]

COMMENTARY: It is forbidden to charge money for letting someone use one's male animal to copulate with his females. For one thing, the male may or may not pair with the female when left among them, and the other is that the female might or might not become pregnant most of the sahabah and jurists said that this thing is unlawful. However, to lend the male animal to pair with the females is mustahab (desirable), and it is proper to accept any gift from the owner of the female animal after the male is lent.

DISALLOWED TO SELL WATER

(٢٨٥٧) وَعَنْ جَابِرٍ قَالَ نَهٰى رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ عَنْ بَيْعِ ضِرَابِ الْجَمَلِ وَعَنْ بَيْعِ الْمَاءِ وَالْاَرْضِ لِتُحْرَثَ۔ (رواه مسلم)

2857. Sayyiduna Jabir رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم forbade seeking a return for pairing a he camel with a she camel and selling water and land to be tilled.[2]

COMMENTARY: If anyone gives to another person his land and water on condition that the two things belong to him while the other would toil on the land and sow his seed but he would take a certain share of the produce. This is called mukhabarah. See commentary to hadith # 2835, 2836 for this term.

DISALLOWED TO SELL EXCESS WATER

(٢٨٥٨) وَعَنْهُ قَالَ نَهٰى رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ عَنْ بَيْعِ فَضْلِ الْمَاءِ۔ (رواه مسلم)

2858. Sayyiduna Jabir رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم forbade the sale of excess water.[3]

COMMENTARY: If anyone has water beyond his needs then he must not keep it away from others to sell it. Rather, he must disburse it gratis, if they need it to drink or to water their animals. However, if they need it for their plants and fields then he may charge them for the water.

(٢٨٥٩) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَا يُبَاعُ فَضْلُ الْمَاءِ لِيُبَاعَ بِهِ الْكَلَاءُ۔ (متفق علیه)

2859. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه

[1] Bukhari # 2284, Tirmidhi # 1277, Abu Dawud # 3429, Musnad Ahmad 2-14.

[2] Muslim # 35-1565, Nasa'i # # 4670.

[3] Muslim # 34-1565, Ibn Majah # 2477.

وسلم said, "Do not sell excess water lest it become necessary to sell herbage that grows from it."[1]

COMMENTARY: Selling water necessitates selling herbage. If animals cannot have water without paying for it then it amounts to selling herbage of pasture. This means the it is disallowed to sell herbage too.

However, the ulama (Scholars) disagree on whether the disallowance is tahrimi or tanzihi. It seems more probable that it is tanzihi.

DO NOT DECEIVE

(٢٨٦٠) وَعَنْهُ اَنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَرَّ عَلٰى صُبْرَةِ طَعَامٍ فَاَدْخَلَ يَدَهٗ فِيْهَا فَنَالَتْ اَصَابِعُهٗ بَلَلًا فَقَالَ مَا هٰذَا يَا صَاحِبَ الطَّعَامِ قَالَ اَصَابَتْهُ السَّمَاءُ يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ قَالَ اَفَلَا جَعَلْتَهٗ فَوْقَ الطَّعَامِ حَتّٰى يَرَاهُ النَّاسُ ـ مَنْ غَشَّ فَلَيْسَ مِنِّيْ ـ (رواه مسلم)

2860. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم passed by a heap of grain. When he put his hand into it, his finger felt the moistness there. He asked, "What is this, O owner of the gain?" He said, "Rain water has gone into it" So he asked, "Why did you not bring the moist portion on the top? The people would have seen it. He who deceives does not belong to me (and does not follow my path)."[2]

SECTION II اَلْفَصْلُ الثَّانِيْ

BAI' THUNYA FORBIDDEN

(٢٨٦١) عَنْ جَابِرٍ قَالَ اِنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ نَهٰى عَنِ الثُّنْيَا اِلَّا اَنْ يُّعْلَمَ ـ (رواه الترمذی)

2861. Sayyiduna Jabir رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم forbade the Bai' thunya unless (the exception) was specified.[3]

COMMENTARY: When a seller sells something but makes an exception of a part of it without disclosing how much, then it is Bai' thunya. The Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم forbade this transaction. But, if he says clearly how much of the sales he would exclude, then this sale is allowed.

SELL FRUIT ONLY WHEN RIPE

(٢٨٦٢) وَعَنْ اَنَسٍ قَالَ نَهٰى رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ عَنْ بَيْعِ الْعِنَبِ حَتّٰى يَسْوَدَّ وَعَنْ بَيْعِ الْحَبِّ حَتّٰى يَشْتَدَّ هٰكَذَا رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَاَبُوْدَاوٗدَ وَلَيْسَ عِنْدَهُمَا بِرِوَايَتِهٖ نَهٰى عَنْ بَيْعِ التَّمْرِ حَتّٰى تَزْهُوَ اِلَّا بِرِوَايَةِ ابْنِ عُمَرَ قَالَ نَهٰى عَنْ بَيْعِ التَّمْرِ حَتّٰى تَزْهُوَ وَرَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَاَبُوْدَاوٗدَ عَنْ اَنَسٍ وَالزِّيَادَةُ الَّتِيْ فِي الْمَصَابِيْحِ وَهِيَ قَوْلُهٗ نَهٰى عَنْ بَيْعِ التَّمْرِ حَتّٰى تَزْهُوَ اِنَّمَا ثَبَتَتْ فِيْ رِوَايَتِهِمَا عَنِ ابْنِ عُمَرَ قَالَ نَهٰى عَنْ بَيْعِ النَّخْلِ حَتّٰى تَزْهُوَ وَقَالَ التِّرْمِذِيُّ هٰذَا حَدِيْثٌ حَسَنٌ غَرِيْبٌ ـ

---

[1] Bukhari # 2353, Muslim # 38. 1563, Tirmidhi # 1276, Abu Dawud # 3473, Ibn Majah # 2478, Muwatta Maalik # 29 (Abdiyah) Musnad Ahmad 2-273.

[2] Muslim # 164-102, Tirmidhi # 1319, Ibn Majah # 2224.

[3] Muslim # 85-1536, Abu Dawud # 3404, Tirmidhi # 1294, Nasa'i # 4633, Musnad Ahmad 3-364.

2862. Sayyiduna Anas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم disallowed sale of grapes till they were black and of grain till they hardened.[1] (Tirmjidhi Abu Dawud did transmit it from Anas رضی اللہ عنہ)

(And) Sayyiduna Anas رضی اللہ عنہ said that he forbade the sale of dates till they were ripe. This is the addition is al-Masabih, but it is transmitted by them from) Ibn Umar رضی اللہ عنہ (who) narrated that the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم forbade sale of palm trees till the fruit was ripe (brilliant in colour).[2]

COMMENTARY: The compiler of Mishkat has pointed out two discrepancies in al-Masabih by Baghawi. رحمه الله. The second portion is narrated by Ibn Umar رضی اللہ عنہ not Anas رضی اللہ عنہ, and the words in it are (بیع الثمر) not (بیع النخل).

WRITING OFF DEBT WITH DEBT

(٢٨٦٣) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عُمَرَ اَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ نَهٰى عَنْ بَيْعِ الْكَالِئِ بِالْكَالِئِ۔ (رواه الدارقطني)

2863. Sayyiduna Ibn Umar رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم forbade Bai' al-Kali bil Kali (debt for debt at a later date).[3]

COMMENTARY: The word kali' or kali is derived from kala (كلاء). It means 'delay, deferring, deb.'

Selling debt for debt is to buy something on the promise of payment at a future date when the merchandise would be delivered. But, the buyer is unable to pay on the due date, so he requests the seller to put off the due date with a raised sale price. The seller concedes. The transaction is thus concluded without delivery of the item or payment of money. The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم forbade this sale because possession is not handed over in this kind.

Some people describe this sale in another manner. It is that a debt is transferred from one debtor to another. This too is disallowed.

BAI' URBAN

(٢٨٦٤) وَعَنْ عَمْرِو بْنِ شُعَيْبٍ عَنْ اَبِيْهِ عَنْ جَدِّهٖ قَالَ نَهٰى رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ عَنْ بَيْعِ الْعِرْبَانِ۔ (رواه مالك وابوداؤد وابن ماجة)

2864. Sayyiduna Amr ibn Shu'ayb رحمه الله reported from his father from his grandfather that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم forbade Bai' urban [4] (which is a transaction with an unrefundable deposit if the buyer retracts).[5]

COMMENTARY: Bai' urban is a transaction in which a buyer pays an advance to the seller which would be adjusted when the balance price is paid, but if the buyer fails to pay the balance and take delivery then the advance would be forfeited. The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم forbade because the sale is invalid.

However, Sayyiduna Ibn Umar رضی اللہ عنہ and Imam Ahmad رحمه الله hold that Bai' urban is allowed. The Hanafis say that if the advance is returned to the buyer when he fails to make

---

[1] Tirmidhi # 1232, Abu Dawud # 3371, Ibn Majah # 2217, Musnad Ahmad 3. 221.

[2] Tirmidhi # 1230, Abu Dawud # 3308, Muslim # 1535, Nasa'i # 4565, Musnad Ahmad # 4493.

[3] Daraqutni # 269 (Buyu)

[4] Some places it is spelt urban

[5] Abu Dawud # 3502, Ibn Majah # 2192, Muwatta ibn Maalik # 1 (Buyu)

the payment and complete the deal then it is permitted.

BAI' MUD TAR DISALLOWED

(٢٨٦٥) وَعَنْ عَلِيٍّ قَالَ نَهَى رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ عَنْ بَيْعِ الْمُضْطَرِّ وَعَنْ بَيْعِ الْغَرَرِ وَعَنْ بَيْعِ الثَّمَرَةِ قَبْلَ اَنْ تُدْرِكَ۔ (رواہ ابوداؤد)

2865. Sayyiduna Ali رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم forbade Bai' mudtar, Bai' gharar and sale for fruit before it turns ripe.[1]

COMMENTARY: Bai' mudtar is a forced buying in which the buyer compels the seller to sell. It falls under the purview of Bai fasid (defined in the introduction to chapter V). The word Bai' is used here in the sense of buying.

Alternatively, mudtar means 'helpless.' 'needy,' who is compelled to sell his property owing to a hardship or circumstances for example, a debtor might sell his belonging or some of them to repay his debt and he does that throwawav prices. So it is not proper for anyone to buy his property at low prices and take advantage of his plight. Rather, he should be helped by advancing a loan to him or paying him the full price for what he sells. In this case the buying will not void or invalid, but it will be correct though with dislike.

Previously, Bai' gharar has been explained (see hadith # 2854).

Also, sale of unripe fruit has been treated earlier (see hadith # 2839, 2840).

NOT ALLOWED TO CHARGE FOR PAIRING ANIMALS

(٢٨٦٦) وَعَنْ اَنَسٍ اَنَّ رَجُلًا مِنْ كِلَابٍ سَأَلَ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ عَنْ عَسْبِ الْفَحْلِ فَنَهَاهُ فَقَالَ يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ اِنَّا نُطْرِقُ الْفَحْلَ فَنُكْرَمُ فَرَخَّصَ لَهُ فِي الْكَرَامَةِ۔ (رواہ الترمذی)

2866. Sayyiduna Anas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that a man from kilab asked the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم about lending a male animal to pair with a female on hire. He disallowed him to do so. However, the man said, "O Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم of Allah. We lend the male to pair with a female and are given a gift." So, he gave him permission to receive the gift.[2]

DO NOT SELL WHAT YOU DO NOT POSSESS

(٢٨٦٧) وَعَنْ حَكِيْمِ بْنِ حِزَامٍ قَالَ نَهَانِيْ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَنْ اَبِيْعَ مَا لَيْسَ عِنْدِيْ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ۔ وَفِيْ رِوَايَةٍ لَهُ وَلِاَبِيْ دَاوُدَ وَالنَّسَائِيِّ قَالَ قُلْتُ يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ يَأْتِيْنِي الرَّجُلُ فَيُرِيْدُ مِنِّي الْبَيْعَ وَلَيْسَ عِنْدِيْ فَاَبْتَاعُ لَهُ مِنَ السُّوْقِ قَالَ لَا تَبِعْ مَا لَيْسَ عِنْدَكَ۔

2867. Sayyiduna Hakim ibn Hizam رضی اللہ عنہ said, "Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم forbade me to sell that which I do not possess."

According to another version: He said, "I asked, O Messenger of Allah, someone comes to me and wishes to buy from me something that I do not have, so I buy it from the market for him.' He said, 'Do not sell what you do not have.'[3]

---

[1] Abu Dawud # 3382, Musnad Ahmad 1-116.

[2] Tirmidhi # 1278.

[3] Tirmidhi # 1237, Abu Dawud # 3503, Musnad Ahmad 3-402, Nasa'i # 4613, Ibn Majah # 2787

COMMENTARY: There can be two cases of this:

(1) He neither owns that thing nor has it with him. In this case, the sale is not correct at all.

(2) He does not own it but has it in his hands and it belongs to someone else. In this case, the sale is correct only with the owner's permission. If he sells it without the owner's permission then Imam Ahmad رحمه الله Imam Maalik رحمه الله and Imam Ahmad رحمه الله hold that the soundness of otherwise of the sale depends on the owner's willingness. If he approves then it is correct, otherwise not. On the other hand, Imam Shafi'I رحمه الله contends that it is not correct at all irrespective of the owner's approval or otherwise.

The first case includes sale of such a thing as has not been possessed, or has been lost, or has disappeared like a slave, or he is not able deliver it to the buyer like birds in the air and fish in the sea.

It must be borne in mind that the disallowance is in cases apart from Bai' as-salam because it is allowed in the sight of all the ulâma (Scholars) with specified and known conditions. A detailed discourse on Bai' as-salam will follow in the chapter on it, insha Allah.

DO NOT COMBINE TWO SALES IN ONE

(٢٨٦٨) وَعَنْ اَبِیْ هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ نَهٰی رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّی اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ عَنْ بَيْعَتَيْنِ فِیْ بَيْعَةٍ۔ (رواه مالك والترمذی وابوداؤد والنسائی)

2868. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم forbade that two transactions should be combined in one.[1]

COMMENTARY: There can be two ways of combining two sales in one.

(1) Someone offers to sell to another a thing for a certain sum of money but stipulates that he too should sell a certain thing belonging to him for a certain sum of money. This kind of sale is not correct.

(2) Someone offers to sell to another person something belonging to him on part cash and part deferred. This too is disallowed, provided one of these two things is not determined and the buyer has choice to either pay cash or to pay later. If one of them is determined and the transaction is not dubious then it is a correct bargain.

(٢٨٦٩) وَعَنْ عَمْرِو بْنِ شُعَيْبٍ عَنْ اَبِيْهِ عَنْ جَدِّهٖ قَالَ نَهٰی رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّی اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ عَنْ بَيْعَتَيْنِ فِیْ صَفْقَةٍ وَاحِدَةٍ۔ (رواه فی شرح السنة)

2869. Sayyiduna Amr ibn Shu'ayb رحمه الله narrated on the authority of his father (Shu'ayb) رحمه الله from his grandfather (Sayyiduna Abdullah ibn Amr) رضی الله عنه that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم forbade two sales in a single transaction.

COMMENTARY: The commentary of the previous hadith applies here too.

DO NOT LINK CREDIT WITH SALE

(٢٨٧٠) وَعَنْهُ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّی اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَا يَحِلُّ سَلَفٌ وَبَيْعٌ وَلَا شَرْطَانِ فِیْ بَيْعٍ وَلَا رِبْحُ مَالَمْ

---

[1] Tirmidhi # 1235, Abu Dawud # 3461, Nasa'i # 4632.

يَضْمَنْ وَلَا بَيْعُ مَا لَيْسَ عِنْدَكَ۔ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَأَبُوْدَاوُدَ وَالنَّسَائِيُّ وَقَالَ التِّرْمِذِيُّ هٰذَا حَدِيثٌ صَحِيْحٌ۔

2870. Sayyiduna Amr ibn Shu'ayb رحمه الله reported that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "linking a loan to a sale is not lawful. Placing two conditions for one sale is not allowed. Profit on that of which he is not a possessor is not allowed. And, it is not lawful to sell what is not in your possession."[1]

COMMENTARY: The two things loan and selling (or business transaction) must not be connected together. Thus, it is not allowed to any one to sell anything to a person on condition that he give him a loan. Or, it is forbidden also that any one who lends money to another, sells to the debtor something at higher than prevailing rates. This is unlawful because the debtor pays more only for the loan he has received. If any one derives a profit from a loan extended then that is unlawful. It is a ploy worked out by the interest takers or usurers.

The issue of combining two sales in one transaction has been explained previously (see commentary on hadith # 2868, 2869). Some ulama (Scholars) say, however, that it means that the seller must not sell anything of his on two conditions. For instance, a seller might say to the buyer, "I sell to you this piece of cloth at so much on condition that I shall get it washed too." This is not allowed. The hadith forbids two conditions by a coincidence otherwise even one condition in a business transaction is disallowed.

Profit of what one is not a possessor is not allowed to him. If someone buys a thing from a seller but has not yet received in it his possession and meanwhile, the seller gets rent on it, the buyer cannot claim the rent himself as its owner because if that thing had been destroyed, in the hands of the seller, the loss would be borne by the seller and the buyer would not lose anything. On the same basis, whatever profit accrues in this course belongs to the seller. The buyer has no right over it.[2]

CHANGE OF CURRENCY ALLOWED WHILE PAYING PRICE

(٢٨٧١) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عُمَرَ قَالَ كُنْتُ أَبِيْعُ الْإِبِلَ بِالنَّقِيْعِ بِالدَّنَانِيْرِ فَآخُذُ مَكَانَهَا الدَّرَاهِمَ وَأَبِيْعُ بِالدَّرَاهِمِ فَآخُذُ مَكَانَهَا الدَّنَانِيْرَ فَأَتَيْتُ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَذَكَرْتُ ذٰلِكَ لَهُ فَقَالَ لَا بَأْسَ أَنْ تَأْخُذَهَا بِسِعْرِ يَوْمِهَا مَا لَمْ تَفْتَرِقَا وَبَيْنَكُمَا شَيْءٌ۔ (رواه الترمذی وابوداؤد والنسائی والدارمی)

2871. Sayyiduna Ibn Umar رضى الله عنه said, "I used to sell the camels at an Naqi' for

---

[1] Tirmidhi # 1238, Abu Dawud # 3504, Nasa'i # 4611 or 4642, Ibn Majah # 2198, Musnad Ahmad 2-178.

[2] We reproduce comments on this hadith from Tirmidhi (hadith # 1238)

Ishaq ibn Mansur asked Ahmad what was meant by prohibition of salaf and Bai? He said, "Someone gives a loan to another and then sells something to him for more then its price. It is also possible that someone offers the cost of something as loan, saying that if he could not pay back the loan the thing stand sold to him." Ishaq then asked Ahmed what it meant to say that profit is not allowed if one is not a guarantor. He said, "I think this concerns only grain and the like, till it is in one's possession." Ishaq said that the same ruling applied to that which is weighed and measured, meaning it is not lawful to sell them before they are on hand. Ahmed said: If anyone says, "I have sold you this piece of cloth on condition that I am responsible for stitching and washing". Then it is an example of two conditions in one transaction. But if he says, "I sell you this piece of cloth and its stitching is also on me", then there is no harm in that. Similarly, if only the condition washing applies then too it is allowed because that is only one condition.

(Tirmidhi English translation Darul Isha'at Karachi vol I) dinars but take in their place dirhams. And I would sell for dirhams but take in place of them dinars. Then I came to the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم and mentioned this to him. He said, 'It does not matter if you take them at the rate of the day as long as you do not part from one another with something unfinished (between you two)."[1]

COMMENTARY: It is mustahab (desirable) to exchange currency at the prevailing rate but allowed to charge any rate.

The two parties must settle their matter in the very meeting in which they make the bargain. They must take hold of their things when they decide on buying and selling and it is on this condition that they are allowed to exchange dirhams for dinars and vice versa (any currency). If this is not done then the cash transaction will fall under the purview of a credit transaction and become unlawful because of resemblance to riba. It is said of Shaykh ali Muttaqi رحمه الله that when he sent his servant to the market in Makkah, he gave him instructions to ensure hand to hand delivery when concluding a bargain.

Ibn Hammam رحمه الله said that the currency (dirham) is fluctuating (in value). So if a shopkeeper is shown a dirhams against which he is asked to sell something then the dirham may be replaced with another dirham provided it is of the same value.

A DOCUMENT FROM THE PROPHET صلى الله عليه وسلم

(٢٨٧٢) وَعَنِ الْعَدَّاءِ بْنِ خَالِدِ بْنِ هَوْذَةَ أَخْرَجَ كِتَابًا هٰذَا مَا اشْتَرَى الْعَدَّاءُ بْنُ خَالِدِ بْنِ هَوْذَةَ مِنْ مُحَمَّدٍ رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اشْتَرَى مِنْهُ عَبْدًا أَوْ أَمَةً لَادَاءَ وَلَا غَائِلَةَ وَلَا خِبْثَةَ بَيْعَ الْمُسْلِمِ الْمُسْلِمَ۔ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَقَالَ هٰذَا حَدِيْثٌ غَرِيْبٌ۔

2872. Sayyiduna Al 'Adda' ibn Khalid ibn Hawdhah رضى الله عنه is known to have taken out a writing that read; "This is what al-Adda ibn Khalid ibn Hawdhah bought from Muhammad Messenger of Allah. He bought from him a slave, or a female slave, with no disease and no wickedness, and he is not unlawful. This is a transaction between two Muslims."[2]

COMMENTARY: The words 'a slave or a female slave' express the narrator's uncertainty as to the correct word used, for he had forgotten which was said.

'There is no disease' means that there is no insanity in him, no leprosy or any other contagious disease.

'There is no wickedness' means that he is not a thief and not liable to runaway.

'He is not unlawful' means that his nature is good and he has no evil manner or deeds. He is not an illegitimate child, an indecent, a liar or a robber.

The concluding words are 'a transaction between a Muslim and a Muslim.' These words call for mutual respect, goodwill and giving rights of Islam. Every Muslim must be mindful of these things in his dealings with other Muslims.

In short, this 'writing' confirms that the slave is good with no defect. It also confirms that the two parties have not deceived one another.

Imam Tirmidhi رحمه الله has said that this hadith is hasan gharib. It is transmitted only through Abbad ibn Layth and through no other sanad. Moreover, the scholars of hadith regard Abbad as da'if (weak) in transmission.

---

[1] Tirmidhi # 1242, Abu Dawud # 3354, Nasa'i # 4582, Ibn Majah # 2262, Darimi # 2581.

[2] Bukhari book of Buyu ch 19 subheading above hadith 2079, Tirmidhi # 1220, Ibn Majah # 2251, Musnad Ahmad # 20357.

The ulama (Scholars) say that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم did not engage in any business transaction of a worthwhile nature after hijrah. If he had, then that was of a rare degree. Before hijrah, of course, he had engaged in both buying and selling.
The version in Bukhari is:

هٰذَا مَا اشْتَرٰى مُحَمَّدٌ رَّسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مِنْ عَدَّاء بْنِ خَالِد

{This is what Muhammad, Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم bought from al-Adda ibn Khalid رضى الله عنه.....}

Thus, Bukhari's version means that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was the buyer and al'Adda رضى الله عنه the seller. However, the version narrated here is contrary to it, for, it say that Al-Adda ibn Khalid رضى الله عنه was the buyer and the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was the seller.

AUCTION SALE IS ALLOWED

(٢٨٧٣) وَعَنْ أَنَسٍ أَنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ بَاعَ حِلْسًا وَقَدَحًا فَقَالَ مَنْ يَّشْتَرِيْ هٰذَا الْحِلْسَ وَالْقَدَحَ فَقَالَ رَجُلٌ اٰخُذُهُمَا بِدِرْهَمٍ فَقَالَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ يَزِيْدُ عَلٰى دِرْهَمٍ فَأَعْطَاهُ رَجُلٌ دِرْهَمَيْنِ فَبَاعَهُمَا مِنْهُ۔ (رواه الترمذی وابوداؤد وابن ماجة)

2873. Sayyiduna Anas رضى الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم offered for sale a woolen covering (placed under a saddle) and bowl, asking, "who will buy this woolen covering and bowl?" A man offered, "I shall take them both for a dirhams." The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم then asked, "Who will give more than a dirham?" So, another man paid him two dirhams and he sold the two things to him."[1]

COMMENTARY: The background of this sale is that a man requested the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم for some help. He asked him if he possessed something and he said that he had only a woolen covering that is kept under a saddle cloth over a camel and a bowl. So, the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم asked him to sell them and get something to feed himself. After that, when he had nothing, he might ask for charity. Then, the two things were sold as described in the hadith. This kind of sale is called (بيع من يزيد) (sale to one who will increase or raise price) and (حراج) (haraj - auction or public sale). This kind of sale is allowed in Shari'ah (divine law).

As for the prohibition to bid against anyone else or outbid him, that is when buyer and seller have agreed on a transaction. In such cases, it is disallowed to interfere in their deal and mess up their transaction. The kind of sale here is quite different. The seller's intention is to invite higher bids as in an auction.

It is enough that the seller gives the merchandise and the buyer gives the price, even if they say nothing.

---

[1] Tirmidhi # 1222, Abu Dawud # 1614, Nasa'i # 4508, Ibn Majah # 2198, Musnad Ahmad 3. 114.

SECTION III الفصل الثالث

WARNING TO SELLER OF DEFECTIVE THINGS FRAUDULENTLY

(٢٨٧٤) عَنْ وَاثِلَةَ بْنِ الْأَسْقَعِ قَالَ سَمِعْتُ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُوْلُ مَنْ بَاعَ عَيْبًا لَمْ يُنَبِّهْ لَمْ يَزَلْ فِيْ مَقْتِ اللّٰهِ اَوْلَمْ تَزَلِ الْمَلَائِكَةُ تَلْعَنُهُ۔ (رواه ابن ماجة)

2874. Sayyiduna Wathilah ibn Asqa رضی الله عنه narrated that he heard Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم say, "If anyone sells something that is defective without disclosing the defect, then he does not cease to be in Allah's anger" - or (he said) "the angels do not cease to curse him."[1]

CHAPTER - VI

(MORE CONCERNING THE PREVIOUS CHAPTER) بَابٌ

SECTION I الفصل الأول

SALE OF FRUIT BEARING TREES

(٢٨٧٥) عَنِ ابْنِ عُمَرَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنِ ابْتَاعَ نَخْلًا بَعْدَ اَنْ تُؤَبَّرَ فَثَمَرَتُهَا لِلْبَائِعِ اِلَّا اَنْ يَشْتَرِطَ الْمُبْتَاعُ وَمَنِ ابْتَاعَ عَبْدًا وَلَهُ مَالٌ فَمَالُهُ لِلْبَائِعِ اِلَّا اَنْ يَشْتَرِطَ الْمُبْتَاعُ۔ رَوَاهُ مُسْلِمٌ وَرَوَى الْبُخَارِيُّ الْمَعْنَى الْاَوَّلَ وَحْدَهُ۔

2875. Sayyiduna Ibn Umar رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "If anyone buys palm trees after the dates are fertilized then its fruit belongs to the seller unless the buyer places a condition. And if anyone buys a slave who owns property then the property belongs to the seller unless the buyer places a condition."[2]
Bukhari has only something like the first part.

COMMENTARY: The Arabs believed that if the flower of a male palm tree was placed in the female palm tree, they would have more fruit.
The hadith speaks of such a tree. If anyone buys from the seller a fertised tree, then the fruit that is on the tree at the time of the bargain belong to the seller unless the buyer stipulates that he buys the tree with the fruit on it. In the latter case, the fruit will belong to the buyer. The Hanafis hold that this command applies also to the trees that are not fertilized. But, Imam Shafi'I رحمه الله and Imam Ahmad رحمه الله hold that the fruit of trees that are not fertilized are not part of the bargain at all.
A slave does not own any property, so the hadith indicates that if he has something when the bargain is struck then that belongs to the seller unless the buyer makes it a provide of the contract.
The clothes that a slave wears at the time of the bargain are not included in the sale unless the buyer makes them part of the transaction. Some ulama (Scholars) of the Hanafi school

---

[1] Ibn Majah # 2274.
[2] Bukhari # 1106, Muslim # 80-1543, Tirmidhi # 1248, Ibn Majah # 2211, Abu Dawud # 3433, Nasa'i # 4636, Musnad Ahmad 2-178.

say that the clothes are part of the bargain. Some others say that only the clothes that are enough to cover his satr (private parts) are part of the bargain. (Satr is that part of the body that must be covered before other people in all circumstances.) However, the more correct thing is that, according to the apparent meaning of the hadith, nothing meaning of the hadith, nothing belonging to him and no part of it (like clothing) can be part of the sale.

CONDITIONAL BARGAIN

(٢٨٧٦) وَعَنْ جَابِرٍ أَنَّهُ كَانَ يَسِيْرُ عَلَى جَمَلٍ لَهُ قَدْ أَعْيَى فَمَرَّ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ بِهِ فَضَرَبَهُ فَسَارَ سَيْرًا لَيْسَ يَسِيْرُ مِثْلَهُ ثُمَّ قَالَ بِعْنِيْهِ بِوُقِيَّةٍ قَالَ فَبِعْتُهُ فَاسْتَثْنَيْتُ حُمْلَانَهُ إِلَى أَهْلِيْ فَلَمَّا قَدِمْتُ الْمَدِيْنَةَ أَتَيْتُهُ بِالْجَمَلِ وَ نَقَدَنِيْ ثَمَنَهُ- وَفِيْ رِوَايَةٍ فَأَعْطَانِيْ ثَمَنَهُ وَرَدَّهُ عَلَيَّ مُتَّفَقٌ عَلَيْهِ وَفِيْ رِوَايَةٍ لِلْبُخَارِيِّ إِنَّهُ قَالَ لِبِلَالٍ إِقْضِهِ وَزِدْهُ فَأَعْطَاهُ وَزَادَهُ قِيْرَاطًا-

2876. Sayyiduna Jabir رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that while he was travelling on a camel of his (to Madinah), it had fatigued (seemingly unable to walk). So, when the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم passed by it, he struck it (with a stick or whip). Thus, it ran (as fast) as it had never before sped. Then he said, "Sell it to me for one ooqiyah (or waqiyay)." He said, "I have sold it to you but I stipulated that I should ride it up to my family." When he came to Madinah, he brought it to him (the Prophet) صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم and he paid him its price promptly.

According to a version: He paid him its price and turned it to him.

According to another version (only in Bukhari): He said to Bilal, "Pay him and increase on that." So he paid him and gave one qirat over that.[1]

COMMENTARY: Waqiyah or ooqiyah was about forty dirhams.

It is allowed for a seller to stipulate that he would keep the animal for a certain period of time before delivering it. Imam Ahmad رحمہ اللہ abides by it. Imam Maalik رحمہ اللہ says that it is allowed to place this condition when selling something provided the distance is short and in this case Jabir رضی اللہ عنہ had to go only till Madinah. Hence, he placed the condition because of the short distance and it was accepted. However, Imam Abu Hanifah رحمہ اللہ and Imam Shafi'I with any such condition in which the seller or the buyer stands to gain whether the distance is short or long. They cite the hadith in which the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم forbade a conditional sale. They explain this hadith as an exceptional concession to Sayyiduna Jabir رضی اللہ عنہ not allowed to any one else. Or, Jabir رضی اللہ عنہ may have sought permission to use the animal after the sale was transacted and the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم let him use his animal up to Madinah.[2]

RIGHT OF WALA BELONGS TO ONE WHO SETS FREE

(٢٨٧٧) وَعَنْ عَائِشَةَ قَالَتْ جَاءَتْ بَرِيْرَةُ فَقَالَتْ إِنِّيْ كَاتَبْتُ عَلَى تِسْعِ أَوَاقٍ فِيْ كُلِّ عَامٍ وَقِيَّةٌ فَأَعِيْنِيْنِيْ فَقَالَتْ عَائِشَةُ إِنْ أَحَبَّ أَهْلُكِ إِنْ أَعُدَّهَا لَهُمْ عَدَّةً وَاحِدَةً وَأُعْتِقَكِ فَعَلْتُ وَيَكُوْنُ وَلَاؤُكِ لِيْ فَذَهَبَتْ إِلَى

[1] Bukhari # 2718, Muslim # 109-715.

[2] See 'The life of Prophet Muhammad p 845 (English of Ibn Kathir sirat) urdu MIrades - Dar ul Isha'at, Karachi.

اَهْلِهَا فَاَبَوْا اِلَّا اَنْ تَكُوْنَ الْوَلَاءُ لَهُمْ فَقَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ خُذِيْهَا وَاَعْتِقِيْهَا ثُمَّ قَامَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فِي النَّاسِ فَحَمِدَ اللّٰهَ وَ اَثْنٰى عَلَيْهِ ثُمَّ قَالَ اَمَّا بَعْدُ فَمَا بَالُ رِجَالٍ يَشْتَرِطُوْنَ شُرُوْطًا لَيْسَتْ فِيْ كِتَابِ اللّٰهِ مَاكَانَ مِنْ شَرْطٍ لَيْسَ فِيْ كِتَابِ اللّٰهِ فَهُوَ بَاطِلٌ وَاِنْ كَانَ مِائَةَ شَرْطٍ فَقَضَاءُ اللّٰهِ اَحَقُّ وَشَرْطُ اللّٰهِ اَوْثَقُ وَاِنَّمَا الْوَلَاءُ لِمَنْ اَعْتَقَ۔ (متفق عليه)

2877. Sayyiduna Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہا narrated that Sayyidah Barirah رضی اللہ عنہا came to her and said, "I have concluded a mukatabah (to buy my own freedom from my masters) for nine ooqiyas, at one ooqiyah every year. So, help me." Sayyiduna Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہا said, "If your masters wish then I shall count them out to them all at once for setting you free and I shall have the right of wala (which is the right of inheritance) from you." She went to her masters but they declined unless wala' belonged to them. So, Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم (on learning of it) and, "Take her and set her free." Afterwards he stood before the people, praised and glorified Allah and addressed them, "To proceed, what is wrong with the people who impose conditions that are not found in Allah's Book? A condition not found in Allah's Book is of no standing, even if they are one hundred conditions. Allah's decree is the most valid and Allah's condition is the most obligatory. And, wala is only for one who sets (a slave) free."[1]

COMMENTARY: Mukatabah is an agreement between a slave and his master in which the slave commits to pay a specified sum of money to buy his freedom when his master sets this condition. If he fails to pay the amount he remains in slavery. The agreement is called mukatabah or kitabah and the slave (male or female) is mukatab.

Wala is the right conferred on the slave's master on setting him free. If such a slave dies as a freeman and leaves behind some property and has no relatives surviving him then all his legacy goes to the master who set him free.

Sayyidah Barirah رضی اللہ عنہا was the female slave of Sayyidah Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہا. She belonged to a Jews before that. The rest of the account is apparent from the hadith.[2]

NOT ALLOWED TO TRANSFER RIGHT OF WALA TO ANYONE

(٢٨٧٨) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عُمَرَ قَالَ نَهٰى رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ عَنْ بَيْعِ الْوَلَاءِ وَعَنْ هِبَتِهٖ۔ (متفق عليه)

2878. Sayyiduna Ibn Umar رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم forbade the selling or giving away as gift the right of wala (inheritance from an emancipated slave).[3]

COMMENTARY: If anyone gets a right of wala on setting his slave free then he cannot sell his right nor make a gift of it because it is not a property of any kind. All the ulama (Scholars) hold this contention.

---

[1] Bukhari # 2168, Muslim # 6-1504, Abu Dawud # 3929, Tirmidhi # 1260, Ibn Majah # 2525, Muwatta Maalik # 17 (Irq) Musnad Ahmad 6-213.

[2] See also 'Sirat un Nabi Allama Shibli Numani and Sajjad Suleman Nadvi (v7 p 47) English translation Darul Ishaat, Karachi.

[3] Bukhari # 2135, Muslim # 16.1502 Tirmidhi # 1240, Abu Dawud # 2919, Ibn Majah # 2747, Darimi # 3156, Muwatta Maalik # 20 (Itq) Musnad Ahmad # 4560.

SECTION II الفصل الثاني

PROFIT BELONGS TO ONE WHO BEARS LOSS

(٢٨٧٩) عَنْ مَخْلَدِ بْنِ خُفَافٍ قَالَ اِبْتَعْتُ غُلَامًا فَاسْتَغْلَلْتُهُ ثُمَّ ظَهَرْتُ مِنْهُ عَلٰى عَيْبٍ فَخَاصَمْتُ فِيْهِ إِلٰى عُمَرَ بْنِ عَبْدِالْعَزِيْزِ فَقَضٰى لِيْ بِرَدِّهٖ وَقَضٰى عَلَيَّ بِرَدِّ غَلَّتِهٖ فَاَتَيْتُ عُرْوَةَ فَاَخْبَرْتُهٗ فَقَالَ اَرُوْحُ اِلَيْهِ الْعَشِيَّةَ فَاُخْبِرُهٗ اَنَّ عَائِشَةَ اَخْبَرَتْنِيْ اَنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَضٰى فِيْ مِثْلِ هٰذَا اَنَّ الْخَرَاجَ بِالضَّمَانِ فَرَاحَ اِلَيْهِ عُرْوَةُ فَقَضٰى لِيْ اَنْ اٰخُذَ الْخَرَاجَ مِنَ الَّذِيْ قَضٰى بِهٖ عَلَيَّ لَهٗ رَوَاهُ فِيْ شَرْحِ السُّنَّةِ۔

2879. Sayyiduna Makhlad ibn Khufaf رحمه الله said that he bought a slave when he engaged to earn something for him. But, after that, he detected a defect in him (that was inherent in him but the seller had not informed him of it). So he raised the dispute before Sayyiduna Umar ibn Abdul Aziz رحمه الله. He decided in his favour that he might return the slave (to the seller) and against him that his earnings should be returned (to him too). Therefore, (not satisfied) he met Sayyiduna Urwah (ibn Zubayr, رحمه الله a learned tabi'e jurist) and informed him (of Umar's judgement). He said that he would go to him that evening and enlighten him that Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها had informed him that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم had passed judgement in a case like it that after a sale any profit belongs to the buyer (who shoulders responsibility). Urwah رحمه الله went to him and (informed him of it, and) he decided in his favour that he should take the Kharaj (homage revenue) (profit) from him for whom he had decided against him.[1]

COMMENTARY: If the slave dies or a defect grows in him while he is in the buyer's possession that would be the buyer's loss. So, by the some taken, all (profit) earnings by the slave while in his possession will go to him.

WHEN BUYER & SELLER DISAGREE

(٢٨٨٠) وَعَنْ عَبْدِاللّٰهِ بْنِ مَسْعُوْدٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اِذَا اخْتَلَفَ الْبَيِّعَانِ فَالْقَوْلُ قَوْلُ الْبَائِعِ وَ الْمُبْتَاعُ بِالْخِيَارِ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ۔ وَفِيْ رِوَايَةِ ابْنِ مَاجَةَ وَالدَّارِمِيِّ قَالَ الْبَيِّعَانِ اِذَا اخْتَلَفَا وَالْمَبِيْعُ قَائِمٌ بِعَيْنِهٖ وَلَيْسَ بَيْنَهُمَا بَيِّنَةٌ فَالْقَوْلُ مَا قَالَ الْبَائِعُ اَوْ يَتَرَادَّانِ الْبَيْعَ۔ (ترمذى)

2880. Sayyiduna Abdullah ibn Mas'ud رضى الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "when the buyer and seller disagree, the seller's word prevails and the buyer has option to revoke the bargain or retain it."[2]

According to another version: "When the buyer and seller disagree and the item being sold and bought is there intact (in its original condition) and there is no witness between them, then the seller's word prevails or they both may revoke the bargain."[3]

COMMENTARY: Buyer and seller do disagree now and then on different aspects of the

---

[1] Tirmidhi # 1289, Abu Dawud # 3509, Nasa'i # 4490, Musnad Ahmad 6. 49, Sharh us Sunnah (Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم practice).

[2] Tirmidhi # 1274.

[3] Abu Dawud # 3511, Nasa'i # 4648, Ibn Majah # 2186, Darimi # 2549, Musnad Ahmad 1-466.

bargain. The hadith says that the seller's word held good, if he speaks on oath. After that the buyer has option to retain the deal or make a counter statement on oath in which case the deal will be maintained only when one of then accepts the other's word. If none of them submits, then the judge or ruler may conceal the deal whether the commodity is there in its original condition or not. This is the option of Imam Shafi'I رحمه الله. But, Imam Abu Hanifah رحمه الله and Imam Maalik رحمه الله contend that if the commodity is not intact then both the parties need not swear both the parties need not swear but the word of the buyer on oath will be reliable. The words if the item that is being sold and bought is intact' support the contention of these two (imams). The words in the second version that 'the sellers' word prevails also up hold the Hanafi view. If the item remains in its original from then the seller should affirm on oath what he says. If he does, then the buyer has option to accept the seller's word or counter him with his own word on oath. Or, both of them may annul the bargain. If the item is not intact in its original form then the buyer's word on oath will be accepted, and the seller will not be asked to swear.

This issue has been treated here briefly but the Hidayah has dealt with it exhaustively. The scholars may refer to it.[1]

THE ISSUE OF IQALAH BAI'

(٢٨٨١) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ اَقَالَ مُسْلِمًا اَقَالَهُ اللّٰهُ عَثْرَتَهُ يَوْمَ الْقِيَامَةِ۔ رَوَاهُ اَبُوْدَاوٗدَ وَابْنُ مَاجَةَ وَفِيْ شَرْحِ السُّنَّةِ بِلَفْظِ الْمَصَابِيْحِ عَنْ شُرَيْحٍ الشَّامِيِّ مُرْسَلًا۔

2881. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضى الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "If anyone cancels a sale with a Muslim, then Allah will forgive him his sins on the day of resurrection.[2]

COMMENTARY: Iqalah is to cancel a transaction, to return the commodity purchases. It is stated in Saharh us sunnah (Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم practice) that in Bai' and salam iqalah is permitted both before and after possession.

This hadith is transmitted muttasil by Abu Dawud and Ibn Majah and even Haakim. But Masabih has reported it in a mursal form.

SECTION III اَلْفَصْلُ الثَّالِثُ

A DIDACTIC EVENT

(٢٨٨٢) عَنْ اَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اشْتَرٰى رَجُلٌ مِمَّنْ كَانَ قَبْلَكُمْ عَقَارًا مِنْ رَجُلٍ فَوَجَدَ الَّذِي اشْتَرَى الْعَقَارَ فِيْ عَقَارِهٖ جَرَّةً فِيْهَا ذَهَبٌ فَقَالَ لَهُ الَّذِي اشْتَرَى الْعَقَارَ خُذْ ذَهَبَكَ عَنِّيْ اِنَّمَا اشْتَرَيْتُ الْعَقَارَ وَلَمْ اَبْتَعْ مِنْكَ الذَّهَبَ فَقَالَ بَائِعُ الْاَرْضِ اِنَّمَا بِعْتُكَ الْاَرْضَ وَمَا فِيْهَا فَتَحَاكَمَا اِلٰى رَجُلٍ فَقَالَ الَّذِيْ تَحَاكَمَا اِلَيْهِ اَلَكُمَا وَلَدٌ فَقَالَ اَحَدُهُمَا لِيْ غُلَامٌ وَقَالَ الْاٰخَرُ لِيْ جَارِيَةٌ فَقَالَ اَنْكِحُوا الْغُلَامَ الْجَارِيَةَ وَاَنْفِقُوْا عَلَيْهِمَا مِنْهُ وَتَصَدَّقُوْا۔ (متفق عليه)

---

[1] The Hidaya v2 p578 etc (Eng tr) Darul Isha'at, Karachi (in two volumes)

[2] Abu Dawud # 3460, Ibn Majah # 2199, Musnad Ahmad 2-252.

2882. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayurah صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "A man among those who lived before you bought a piece of land from another man. This man who had bought it found in it a pit that had gold inside. So, the buyer said to him (the seller). Take your gold from me, for, I had bought only the piece of land and did not buy gold from you." The seller of the land said, 'I had indeed sold to you the (piece of) land and whatever was in it.' So, they took their affair to a man to arbitrate between them. The arbitrator asked them, "Do you have children?" One of them said, "I have a son. The other said, 'I have a daughter.' So he said, 'Marry the boy to the girl and spend on them both from it and give charity."[1]

COMMENTARY: This had taken place in the times of prophet Dawud عليه السلام. Some ulama (Scholars) assert that the two men had requested him to decide their case for them. He gave a judgment that only a Prophet could give. This hadith is evidence that it is meritorious to reconcile two people. It is mustahab (desirable) to do so both for a judge or ruler and for one who is not a judge or ruler.

CHAPTER - VII

AS-SALAM WA AR RAHN (PROMPT PAYMENT & PLEDGING OR PAWNING) بَابُ السَّلَمِ وَالرَّهْنِ

Salam is a business transaction in which the thing purchased is deferred while payment is prompt. Delivery of what is bought is given later and of price is on the spot.

This kind of bargain is called salam and also salaf. The buyer is called rabbus salaam the price is rasul maal, the seller is musallam ilaihi (or musallam us salaam) and the thing bought is musallam fihi.

This kind of sale is allowed by Shari'ah (divine law) provided all its conditions are met. There are sixteen conditions, six pertain to ra'sul maal and ten to musallam fihi (respectively price and the wares bought and sold).

The six conditions pertaining to ra'sul maal are:

(1) To disclose the jins, meaning to name the currency: dinar or dirham or ashrafi or rupees, etc.

(2) To disclose what nature of currency: silver, gilt or paper.

(3) To disclose their kind: genuine or counterfeit.

(4) To disclose how many: one hundred or more, or less.

(5) To pay cash on spot and not defer payment.

(6) The seller should take possession of ra'sul maal in the very meeting in which the business contract is concluded.

The ten conditions pertaining to musallam fihi (the item purchased) are:

(1) To disclose the jins which is to say explicitly what the commodity is, for instance, wheat, barley, gram.

(2) To disclose its peculiarity, like wheat of such a kind and origin.

(3) To disclose its quality: good, bad, mediocre.

(4) To disclose clearly its quantity.

(5) To disclose whether it is weighable, measurable in capacity or in cubits, or in numbers.

---

[1] Bukhari # 3472, Muslim # 21-1721, Ibn Majah # 2511, Musnad Ahmad 2-316.

(6) To define time of delivery: when will it be taken and the least time is one month.
(7) The item sold and bought should be available continuously in the market from the time of agreement till the time of delivery, so that the transaction is not of something non-existent.
(8) Bai' salam should be concluded without the condition of khiyar, meaning it should not include the option to retain or cancel the transaction of sale and purchase.
(9) If the item sold is very heavy that it has to be transported then place of delivery must be defined, meaning that it should be stipulated in clear terms that it would be handed over at such-and-such a place.
(10) The item bought should be such as is determined and known by mentioning its jins, kind and nature. If anything cannot be known and determined by mentioning its jins, nature and kind like an animal or cloth of some kind then its Bai' salam is not lawful.

SECTION I الفصل الاول

SOUND CONDITIONS OF BAI' SALAM

(٢٨٨٣) عَنِ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ قَالَ قَدِمَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ الْمَدِيْنَةَ وَهُمْ يُسْلِفُوْنَ فِي الثِّمَارِ السَّنَةَ وَالسَّنَتَيْنِ وَالثَّلٰثَ فَقَالَ مَنْ اَسْلَفَ فِيْ شَيْءٍ فَلْيُسْلِفْ فِيْ كَيْلٍ مَعْلُوْمٍ وَوَزْنٍ مَعْلُوْمٍ اِلٰى اَجَلٍ مَعْلُوْمٍ۔

(متفق عليه)

2883. Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that when Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم came to Madinah, they contracted Bai' salam for fruit for one, two or three years (which is to pay in advance and ask for delivery after one, two or three years). So, he said, "Those who make Bai' slam must make it for a specified measure, specified weight with a specified time period."[1]

COMMENTARY: Apart from fixing the weight and measure of the commodity that is sold under salam, the time too should be fixed.
Fixing the time is a condition for the Bai' to be sound. Imam Abu Hanifah رحمه الله. Imam Maalik رحمه الله and Imam Ahmad رحمه الله go by this hadith but Imam Shafi رحمه الله holds that it is not necessary and not a condition to determine the time period.

BUYING ON CREDIT & PLEDGING ARE ALLOWED

(٢٨٨٤) وَعَنْ عَآئِشَةَ قَالَتْ اِشْتَرٰى رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ طَعَامًا مِنْ يَهُوْدِيٍّ اِلٰى اَجَلٍ وَرَهَنَهٗ دِرْعًا لَهٗ مِنْ حَدِيْدٍ۔ (متفق عليه)

2884. Sayyidah Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہا narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم bought some grain from a Jew on credit payable at a specified time and pledged with him a coat of mail belonging to him.

COMMENTARY: This hadith teaches us some rulings.
First, it is allowed to buy something on credit and pledge any of one's belongings.
Secondly, it is allowed to pledge something in one's residence too apart from during a journey, though the Quran has restricted pledging any thing only during a journey:

---

[1] Bukhari # 2239, Muslim # 127. 1604, Abu Dawud # 3463, Tirmidhi # 1315, Nasa'i # 4616, (4620), Ibn Majah # 2280, Darimi # 2583, Musnad Ahmad 1-217.

وَاِنْ كُنْتُمْ عَلٰى سَفَرٍ وَّلَمْ تَجِدُوْا كَاتِبًا فَرِهَانٌ مَّقْبُوْضَةٌ۔ (البقرة ۲: ۲۸۳)

{And if you are on a journey and you cannot find a scribe, a pledge in hand may be taken.} (2: 283)

The ulama (Scholars) write that the conditional clause 'if you are on a journey' is merely accidental. This command is equally operated 'in residence' when one is not on a journey. Thirdly, it is allowed to engage in transactions with the dhimmis (the peoples of the Book, Jews or Christians, who reside in the Islamic state after paying jizyah). All the ulama (Scholars) say that it is allowed to buy sell with the dhimmis and the infidels, provided it is established that what they have is not unlawful. But, Muslims are not allowed to sell weapons or war materials to the enemy or people on war with the Muslims. Similarly, it Is not allowed to sell to any disbeliever anything as may propagate or give strength to his religion. It is also not allowed to sell to the disbeliever the mashaf (copy of the Quran) and a Muslim's slave.

Allamah Nawawi رحمه الله said that this hadith makes it very clear that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم did not own worldly property. It is strong example of his indifference to material wealth and of his trust in Allah.

This hadith is proof that it is allowed to pledge war equipment of the Muslims with the dhimmis. The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم did this to show that this thing is allowed otherwise he could have pledged the weapon with one of the sahabah (Prophet's Companions) رضى الله عنهم. This is what the u lama say. However, some ulama (Scholars) say that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم pledge his coat of mail with a Jew because no one but Jews had surplus grain at that time.

(۲۸۸۵) وَعَنْهَا قَالَتْ تُوُفِّيَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَدِرْعُهُ مَرْهُوْنَةٌ عِنْدَ يَهُوْدِيٍّ بِثَلَاثِيْنَ صَاعًا مِنْ شَعِيْرٍ۔ (رواه البخاری)

2885. Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم died leaving his coat of mail in pledge with a Jew for thirty sa' of barley.[1]

(۲۸۸٦) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ الظَّهْرُ يُرْكَبُ بِنَفَقَتِهٖ اِذَا كَانَ مَرْهُوْنًا وَلَبَنُ الدَّرِّ يُشْرَبُ بِنَفَقَتِهٖ اِذَا كَانَ مَرْهُوْنًا وَعَلَى الَّذِيْ يَرْكَبُ وَيَشْرَبُ النَّفَقَةُ۔ (رواه البخاری)

2886. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضى الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "The pledged animal may be ridden if it is fed and so the milk of the pledged which animals may be drunk if payment is made for it. He who rides and he who drinks is responsible for the expenses incurred."[2]

COMMENTARY: Mulla Ali Qari رحمه الله has deduced a ruling from the first portion of the hadith. The gist of it is that if any one pledges his animal with anyone else then its expenses of feeding etc are on him (the mortgagor), so he may use it for transporting. Imam Abu Hanifah رحمه الله and Imam Shafi رحمه الله rule accordingly.

However, Shaykh Abdul Haq رحمه الله has concluded from the last portion of the hadith that whosoever rides, or uses the milk of a pledge animal will be liable to shoulder its expenses

---

[1] Bukhari # 4467.

[2] Bukhari # 2512, Abu Dawud # 3526, Tirmidhi # 1258, Ibn Majah # 2440, Musnad Ahmad 2-472.

whether he is the mortgagor (pledger) or the mortgagee. In other words, whichever of the two bears the expenses of feeding, etc. of the mortgaged animal is authorized to use to for riding and milking.

Thus, the hadith would mean that one with whom the animal is pledged or mortgaged is allowed to expend on it and use it to his benefit. But, most ulama (Scholars) disagree. Accordingly, the Hidayah, too says that the mortgagee is not allowed to use the animal and the mortgagor is responsible for its upkeep and feeding. The mortgagee is not permitted because any debt that fetches profit is unlawful. Therefore, the ulama (Scholars) say that this hadith is abrogated by the hadith following.

SECTION II اَلْفَصْلُ الثَّانِي

MORTGAGED THING IS MORTGAGOR'S PROPERTY

(٢٨٨٧-٢٨٨٨) عَنْ سَعِيْدِ بْنِ الْمُسَيِّبِ اَنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ لَا يَغْلَقُ الرَّهْنُ الرَّهْنُ مِنْ صَاحِبِهِ الَّذِىْ رَهَنَهُ لَهُ غُنْمُهُ وَعَلَيْهِ غُرْمُهُ۔ رَوَاهُ الشَّافِعِيُّ مُرْسَلًا وَرُوِىَ مِثْلُهُ اَوْمِثْلُ مَعْنَاهُ لَا يُخَالِفُ عَنْهُ عَنْ اَبِىْ هُرَيْرَةَ مُتَّصِلًا۔

2887. Sayyiduna Sa'eed ibn Musayyib رضى الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "A pledge is never lost to its owner if he does not redeem it in time. So, every profit or appreciation in its value is for him and every loss will be borne by him."[1]

2888. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضى الله عنه is also known to have narrated that like of it or of like meaning in a muffasil (connected) manner.[2]

COMMENTARY: If a person places some of his property in mortgage, he does not lose ownership over it. That thing continues to be his property. If rent accrues on it or there are other kinds of income from it, the mortgagor is the beneficiary. If it is an animal, he can use it and if it breeds, its young belong to him.

In the same way, he is liable to bear all loss even if it occurs in the custody of the mortgagee. In that case, nothing of the rights of the mortgagee will be forfeited and he will get the full amount loaned by him.

In some copies of Mishkat, Imam Shafi'I رحمه الله is the transmitter of the hadith (2888) of Abu Hurayrah رضى الله عنه.

THE CUSTOMARY FORM OF MEASURING OR WEIGHING IS THE STANDARD

(٢٨٨٩) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عُمَرَ اَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ الْمِكْيَالُ مِكْيَالُ اَهْلِ الْمَدِيْنَةِ وَالْمِيْزَانُ مِيْزَانُ اَهْلِ مَكَّةَ۔ (رواه ابوداؤد والنسائى)

2889. Sayyiduna Ibn Umar رضى الله عنه narrated that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "The measure (of capacity) is what the people of Madinah use and the (measure of) weight is what the people of Makkah use."[3]

COMMENTARY: For zakah (Annual due charity) and other Shari'ah (divine law) rights,

---

[1] Daraqutni # 133 (Buyu)

[2] Mustadrak Haakim 3-51.

[3] Abu Dawud # 3340, Nasa'i # 2594.

the standard for buying and selling is the measure of capacity that is used in Madinah and the weighing as used in Makkah. In the times of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم forms of measure and weight used in Makkah and Madinah were different. This might have caused some confusion in calculating zakah (Annual due charity), sadaqatul fitr, etc. Thus, zakah (Annual due charity) would be wajib (obligatory) on dirhams when they confirm to the weight of Makkah and are two hundred. For sadaqatul fitr and other wajib (obligatory) sadaqat the sa' of the people of Madinah is reliable. In those days, grain was transacted by measure of capacity and the people of Madinah were agriculturists who were adopt at these measure the merchant's of Makkah could use weight better.

WARNING TO THE DEFRAUDER

(٢٨٩٠) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لِأَصْحَابِ الْكَيْلِ وَالْمِيْزَانِ إِنَّكُمْ قَدْ وُلِّيْتُمْ أَمْرَيْنِ هَلَكَتْ فِيْهِمَا الْأُمَمُ السَّابِقَةُ قَبْلَكُمْ۔ (الترمذی)

2890. Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said to the people who (when they bought and sold) measured by capacity and by weight, 'you are, indeed, entrusted with two matters on account of which people who lived before your time perished."[1]

COMMENTARY: People of ancient times were known for giving less weight and measure but receiving in full. This is why Allah punished them. The most evil of them were the people of Prophet Shu'ayb عليه السلام.

SECTION III — اَلْفَصْلُ الثَّالِثُ

ADVANCE SALE OF PURCHASE OF BAI' PURCHASE OF BAI' SALAM DISALLOWED

(٢٨٩١) عَنْ أَبِيْ سَعِيْدِنِ الْخُدْرِيِّ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ أَسْلَفَ فِيْ شَيْءٍ فَلَا يَصْرِفْهُ إِلَى غَيْرِهِ قَبْلَ أَنْ يَقْبِضَهُ۔ (رواه ابوداؤد وابن ماجة)

2891. Sayyiduna Abu Sa'eed al-Khudri رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "If anyone concludes Bai' salam (with anyone) for something (paying cash for a later delivery) then he must not transfer it to another before taking possession of it."[2]

COMMENTARY: He must not sell or present to anyone that thing (for which he has paid advance) till he gets hold of it. It may also mean that he should not change that thing for any other thing before he gets delivery of it.

---

[1] Tirmidhi # 1221.

[2] Abu Dawud # 3468, Ibn Majah # 2283.

CHAPTER - VIII

AL-IHTIKAR WITH HOLDING FOOD ITEMS TILL THEIR PRICES RISE

بَابُ الْاِحْتِكَارِ

MEANING OF IHTIKAR: The dictionary meaning of ihtikar is 'to hoard grain and provision to be able to sell at higher prices.' In the terminology of Shari'ah (divine law) ihtikar means 'to withhold all kinds of food items of men and animals to be able to sell at higher prices.' An example is of a person who buys grain, etc. when prices are rising and Allah's creatures need it more. His intention is to hoard it with him till inflation goes higher when he would sell it.

THE COMMAND: In the eyes of Shari'ah (divine law), ihtikar is haram (forbidden, unlawful). One how perpetrates this deed is extremely disliked by Shariah. However, if any one stores grain from the produce of his own land, or grain that he bought when it was cheap to sell when it becomes dear then it is not haram (unlawful, forbidden). Similarly, it is not forbidden to withhold such things as are not used as provision and are not food necessities.

According to the Hidayah, however, it is makruh (disapproved) to withhold food necessities of men and animals provided when it will cause harm to the dwellers of the city, like a small city. It is disallowed in such places. In a large city where it is not likely to hart anyone, it is not disallowed.

It is also mentioned in the Hidayah, that if any one withholds grain of his own land or what he brings from another city after buying it there, then this person will not be a withholder in the eyes of Shari'ah (divine law).[1]

SECTION I

اَلْفَصْلُ الْاَوَّلُ

WITHHOLDER OF GRAIN IS A SINNER

(٢٨٩٢) عَنْ مَعْمَرٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنِ احْتَكَرَ فَهُوَ خَاطِئٌ - (رواه مسلم)

2892. Sayyiduna Ma'mar رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم said, "He who holds back grain till price goes up is a sinner."[2]

We shall narrate the hadith of Sayyiduna Umar رضی الله عنه (كانت اموال بنی نضیر) in the chapter Fai (Book XVIII Ch XII Hadith # 4052)

SECTION II

اَلْفَصْلُ الثَّانِيْ

WARNING TO THE WITHHOLDER

(٢٨٩٣) عَنْ عُمَرَ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ الْجَالِبُ مَرْزُوْقٌ وَالْمُحْتَكِرُ مَلْعُوْنٌ - رَوَاهُ ابْنُ مَاجَةَ وَالدَّارِمِيُّ

2893. Sayyiduna Umar رضی الله عنه narrated that the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم said, "The trader is given provision while the withholder till prices rise is accured."[3]

[1] Hidayah v2 p 458 (English tr) Darul Ish'at, Karachi.

[2] Muslim # 129-1605, Abu Dawud # 3447, Ibn Majah # 2154, Darimi # 2543, Musnad Ahmad 6-400.

[3] Ibn Majah # 2153, Darimi # 2544.

COMMENTARY: Allah blesses with provision the person who buys and brings grain from other places to the city and sells it to its dwellers at normal, prevailing rates. In contrast, one who takes advantage of the plight of people enduring shortage of people enduring shortage of food and hoards items of food, is a sinner. He is far removed from good. As long as he is involved in it, he is deprived of blessing.

RULER SHOULD NOT FIX PRICES

(٢٨٩٤) وَعَنْ اَنَسٍ قَالَ غَلَا السِّعْرُ عَلٰى عَهْدِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَقَالُوْا يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ سَعِّرْ لَنَا فَقَالَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اِنَّ اللّٰهَ هُوَ الْمُسَعِّرُ الْقَابِضُ الْبَاسِطُ الرَّازِقُ وَاِنِّيْ لَاَرْجُوْاَنْ اَلْقٰى رَبِّيْ وَلَيْسَ اَحَدٌ مِّنْكُمْ يَطْلُبُنِيْ بِمَظْلِمَةٍ بِدَمٍ وَّلَا مَالٍ۔ (رواه الترمذى، وابوداؤد و ابن ماجة)

2894. Sayyiduna Anas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that prices increased in the times of Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم. So they pleaded, 'O Messenger of Allah, do fix the prices for us." He said, Indeed, Allah is (المسعر) (Al-Musa'ir - one who fixes prices), (القابض) (Al-Qabid - He who withholds), (الباسط) (Al-Basit He who bestows). And (الرزاق) (Ar Razzaq - one who provided provision). And, I hope that I meet my Lord in such a condition that none of you has a demand over me for an injustice concerning blood and property."[1]

COMMENTARY: Rise and decline of prices is only in Allah's hand. He causes provision of the people to be generous through changes in prices. Some people call it 'heavenly rates.' So, when it is time of high prices and inflation, resort must be had to Allah and help must be sought from Him. One must correct one's beliefs and deeds and seek to earn Allah's pleasure so that He may be pleased with His slaves and multiply their provision.

The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم declined to fix prices because that would be an unnecessary interference in the affairs of people. It amounts to using their property without their permission and wish. This is a kind of oppression and may drive people to wind up their businesses, causing trading activities to suffer a depression. It might lead to scarcity and famine-like conditions. The result is that the step taken purportedly for the good of the creatures turns out to be means of worry and hardship for them.

The Prophet's صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم words mean that traders must be motivated to show compassion and love for the people and be just and well-wishing to them. Their conscience must be awakened to the plight of the people.

SECTION III اَلْفَصْلُ الثَّالِثُ

MORE WARNING TO HOARDER

(٢٨٩٥) عَنْ عُمَرَ بْنِ الْخَطَّابِ قَالَ سَمِعْتُ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُوْلُ مَنِ احْتَكَرَ عَلَى الْمُسْلِمِيْنَ طَعَامَهُمْ ضَرَبَهُ اللّٰهُ بِالْجُذَامِ وَالْاِفْلَاسِ۔ رَوَاهُ ابْنُ مَاجَةَ وَالْبَيْهَقِيُّ فِيْ شُعَبِ الْاِيْمَانِ وَرَزِيْنٌ فِيْ كِتَابِهٖ۔

(ابن ماجه، بیهقی، رزین)

2895. Sayyiduna Umar ibn al-Khattab رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that he heard Allah's

[1] Tirmidhi # 1318, Abu Dawud # 3451, Ibn Majah # 2200, Musnad Ahmad 3-156, Darimi # 2545.

Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم say, "If anyone keeps away grain from the Muslims to sell at higher prices then Allah smites him with tubercular leprosy and poverty."[1]

COMMENTARY: If anyone hurts Allah's creatures, particularly the Muslims, then Allah imposes on him trials, both physical and monetary. But, as for him who causes them to benefit, Allah blesses him both in his body and property.

(٢٨٩٦) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عُمَرَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنِ احْتَكَرَ طَعَامًا اَرْبَعِيْنَ يَوْمًا يُرِيْدُ بِهِ الْغَلَاءَ فَقَدْ بَرِئَ مِنَ اللّٰهِ وَبَرِئَ اللّٰهُ مِنْهُ۔ (رواه رزين) .

2896. Sayyiduna Ibn Umar رضى الله عنه said that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "He who withholds grain for forty days waiting for prices to rise has sort of absolved himself of Allah and Allah absolves himself of him."[2]

COMMENTARY: This means that he has violated his covenant with Allah to abide by the commands of Shari'ah (divine law) and to show compassion to His creatures.
When Allah absolves himself of anyone, He removes his protection and kind sight from Him.

(٢٨٩٧) وَعَنْ مُعَاذٍ قَالَ سَمِعْتُ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُوْلُ بِئْسَ الْعَبْدُ الْمُحْتَكِرُ اِنْ اَرْخَصَ اللّٰهُ الْاَسْعَارَ حَزِنَ وَاِنْ اَغْلَاهَا فَرِحَ۔ رَوَاهُ الْبَيْهَقِيُّ فِيْ شُعَبِ الْاِيْمَانِ وَرَزِيْنٌ فِيْ كِتَابِهٖ۔

2897. Sayyiduna Mu'adh رضى الله عنه narrated that he heard Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم say, "Evil is the man who hoards grain (to get higher price)! If Allah lowers prices, he is grieved. But, if He raises them, then he is jubilant."[3]

(٢٨٩٨) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ اُمَامَةَ اَنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ مَنِ احْتَكَرَ طَعَامًا اَرْبَعِيْنَ يَوْمًا ثُمَّ تَصَدَّقَ بِهٖ لَمْ يَكُنْ لَهٗ كَفَّارَةً۔ (رواه رزين)

2898. Sayyiduna Abu Umamah رضى الله عنه said that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "If anyone withholds grain for forty days seeking higher prices thereby here after disburses it in charity, then that cannot serve as an expiation for him."[4]

COMMENTARY: This is punishment for any one who withholds grain for forty days. If any one does it for fewer days, then he too is punished but to a lesser degree.

---

[1] Ibn Majah # 2155, Musnad Ahmad # 1-21.
[2] Razin.
[3] Bayhaqi in Shu'ab ul Eeman # 112150, Razin.
[4] Razin.

CHAPTER - IX

BANKRUPTCY & RESPITE بَابُ الْإِفْلَاسِ وَالْإِنْظَارِ

Humam life is never stable and alike all the time. It is common experience that circumstances keep changing. Pampers become millionaires overnight and great affluent men tumble down to poverty in no time. This is the working of destiny. No one has over been able to maintain himself on one condition, and no one will ever be able to do so. The vicissitudes of life as ordained by Allah.

However, it is in human hands to adjust with changed circumstances and to help others to adjust with them. Man can sympathise with others and they are able to share each other's problems and grief. They get help to correct their affairs.

The ahadith in this chapter urge people to fulfil their duty and sympathise with the stricken and if he is unable to honour his commitment then the owner of right should give him respite till he is in a better position to discharge his obligation.

SECTION I اَلْفَصْلُ الْاَوَّلُ

BANKRUPTCY & THE CREDITOR

(٢٨٩٩) عَنْ اَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَيُّمَا رَجُلٍ اَفْلَسَ فَاَدْرَكَ رَجُلٌ مَالَهٗ بِعَيْنِهٖ فَهُوَ اَحَقُّ بِهٖ مِنْ غَيْرِهٖ۔ (متفق عليه)

2899. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "If anyone becomes insolvent and a man (who had loaned him something) finds his property in its exact position with him, then he is more entitled to it then others besides him."[1]

COMMENTARY: Suppose, Zayd bought some good from Bakr but become bankrupt before paying for it and the ruler too declared him to be bankrupt. Bakr finds his proper intact, as it was, with zayd. Neither is it used in the practical sense nor is it lost in the sense of Shari'ah (divine law), like through a gift or a waqf, figuratively. So, in this case, Bakr has a right to annual the sale and take back his goods from Zayd. He has first preference over other creditors. If zayd had made a part payment at the time of buying the goods, then Bakr must take only so much of the goods and remain unpaid. Imam Sahfi'I رحمه الله and Imam Maalik رحمه الله hold this contention and they interpret the hadith in this way.

However, the Hanafis say that the seller has no right to cancel the bargain or to take back the goods. They say that this hadith is about a transaction based on Khiyar. It means that the bargain included the clause that he seller had option to nullify the sale up to a certain time. So, if the buyer become a pauper and an insolvent after the transaction and the seller learns of it within the period of option then it is better for him to cancel the sale and take back his goods.

---

[1] Bukhari # 2402, Muslim # 1559, Tirmidhi # 1266, Abu Dawud # 3520, Nasa'i # 4676, Ibn Majah # 2590, Muwatta Maalik # 88 (Buyu) Musnad Ahmad 2-468.

HELP ONE WHO TURNS POOR

(٢٩٠٠) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ سَعِيْدٍ قَالَ أُصِيْبَ رَجُلٌ فِيْ عَهْدِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فِيْ ثِمَارٍ ابْتَاعَهَا فَكَثُرَ دَيْنُهُ فَقَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ تَصَدَّقُوْا عَلَيْهِ فَتَصَدَّقَ النَّاسُ عَلَيْهِ فَلَمْ يَبْلُغْ ذٰلِكَ وَفَاءَ دَيْنِهِ فَقَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لِغُرَمَائِهِ خُذُوْا مَا وَجَدْتُّمْ وَلَيْسَ لَكُمْ اِلَّا ذٰلِكَ۔ (رواه مسلم)

2900. Sayyiduna Abu Sa'eed رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that in the time of the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم a man suffered loss of fruit that he had bought and (as a result) he became indebted (and was in bad condition). So, Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "Give him charity." The people gave him charity but that was not enough to pay off the debt, so Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said to his creditors, "Take what you find and that is all you can have."[1]

COMMENTARY: This man had bought a fruit bearing tree. However, he had not been able to use the fruit before they were lost though a calamity. He had yet to pay for them, so he borrowed money from different people and paid the dues of the seller so that he become heavily indebted. The prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم called people's attention to him that they might help him out. The people tried to Bail him out but his debts very still un paid. When he was utterly helpless to pay the remaining debts, the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said to the creditors, "that is all you can have."

In other words, seeing the man's plight and total inability, it was not proper for them to pester him and threaten him. They ought to give him respite and when he had earned enough, they could demand their money. The prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم certainly did not mean that the creditors had lost their right. He only meant that they should give him time to recover.

REWARD FOR WAIVING DEBT

(٢٩٠١) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ اَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ كَانَ رَجُلٌ يُدَايِنُ النَّاسَ فَكَانَ يَقُوْلُ لِفَتَاهُ اِذَا اَتَيْتَ مُعْسِرًا تَجَاوَزْ عَنْهُ لَعَلَّ اللّٰهَ اَنْ يَتَجَاوَزَ عَنَّا قَالَ فَلَقِيَ اللّٰهَ فَتَجَاوَزَ عَنْهُ۔ (متفق عليه)

2901. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم related that there was a man who loaned money to people often. He would say to hi servant, "When you came to one who is in straitened circumstances (to recover the debt), forgive him. Perhaps Allah will forgive us." He said further, "when he met Allah (meaning, after his death). He forgave him (and did not ask him about his sins)."[2]

(٢٩٠٢) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ قَتَادَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ سَرَّهُ اَنْ يُنْجِيَهُ اللّٰهُ مِنْ كُرَبِ يَوْمِ الْقِيَامَةِ فَلْيُنَفِّسْ عَنْ مُعْسِرٍ اَوْيَضَعْ عَنْهُ۔ (رواه مسلم)

2902. Sayyiduna Abu Qatadah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "He to whom it would please that Allah should save him from the anxieties of the day of resurrection, should give respite to one who is in straitened circumstances, or he should write off his debt."[1]

---

[1] Muslim # 18-1556, Tirmidhi # 655, Abu Dawud # 3469, 4678, Ibn Majah # 2356, Musnad Ahmad # 11551.

[2] Bukhari # 2078, Muslim # 31-1562, Musnad Ahmad 2-263.

COMMENTARY: Normally fard (compulsory) deeds are more excellent than the nafl (optional) by seventy degrees. However, in some cases the optional deeds are superior to the fard (compulsory) (or obligatory, prescribed). One of them is to forgive one's right on the hard pressed or one in difficulty, like remitting his debt. Which act is mustahab (desirable) yet better than giving respite to the debtor in difficulty which is wajib (obligatory).
Secondly, to be the first one to greet with salaam is sunnah (Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم practice), but it is better than giving a response to salaam which is fard (compulsory).
Thirdly, it is mustahab (desirable) to perform ablution. But, it is better than performing ablution after the time (of salah (prayer)) begins which is fard (compulsory).

(٢٩٠٣) وَعَنْهُ قَالَ سَمِعْتُ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُوْلُ مَنْ اَنْظَرَ مُعْسِرًا اَوْ وَضَعَ عَنْهُ اَنْجَاهُ اللّٰهُ مِنْ كُرَبِ يَوْمِ الْقِيَامَةِ۔ (رواه مسلم)

2903. Sayyiduna Abu Qatadah رضى الله عنه narrated that he heard Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم say, "IF anyone grants respite to a person who is in straitened circumstance, or remits his debt, then Allah will deliver him from the anxieties of the day of resurrection."[2]

(٢٩٠٤) وَعَنْ اَبِي الْيَسَرِ قَالَ سَمِعْتُ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُوْلُ مَنْ اَنْظَرَ مُعْسِرًا اَوْ وَضَعَ عَنْهُ اَظَلَّهُ اللّٰهُ فِيْ ظِلِّهٖ۔ (رواه مسلم)

2904. Sayyiduna Abu Al-Yasar رضى الله عنه narrated that he heard Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم say, "He who gives respite to one who is in straitened circumstances or remits his debt Allah will take him in the shade of His mercy (on the day of resurrection)."

COMMENTARY: Imam Ahmad رضى الله عنه, Ibn Majah رحمه الله and Haakim رحمه الله have reported that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said that if anyone grants respite to a poor person then till the day of repayment comes, he will get reward every day for charity equivalent, to the debt. The same recurs when he gives him further respite on the day of repayment, and again on the day of repayment, he will get every day the reward of charity equal to twice the loan extended.

BEST IS HE WHO REPAYS DEBT WILLINGLY

(٢٩٠٥) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ رَافِعٍ قَالَ اسْتَسْلَفَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ بَكْرًا فَجَاءَتْهُ اِبِلٌ مِّنَ الصَّدَقَةِ قَالَ اَبُوْرَافِعٍ فَاَمَرَنِيْ اَنْ اَقْضِيَ الرَّجُلَ بَكْرَهٗ فَقُلْتُ لَا اَجِدُ اِلَّا جَمَلًا خِيَارًا رَبَاعِيًا فَقَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَعْطِهٖ اِيَّاهُ فَاِنَّ خَيْرَ النَّاسِ اَحْسَنُهُمْ قَضَاءً۔ (رواه مسلم)

2905. Sayyiduna Abu Rafi رضى الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم borrowed a young camel. When he received the camels of sadaqah (charity) (zakah (Annual due charity)) he instructed him (Abu Rafi) رضى الله عنه to return to the man a young camel. He said (to him), "I do not find but a camel better than that and (which is) in its seventh year." He said, "Give it to him. The best of all people is he

---

[1] Muslim # 32-1563.
[2] Muslim.

who discharge his debt in the best way."[1]

COMMENTARY: According to this hadith, it is allowed to borrow an animal. Imam Shafi'I رحمه الله, Imam Maalik رضی اللہ عنہ and most ulama (Scholars) abide by it. But, Imam Abu Hanifah رحمه الله does not hold it as allowed. He regards this hadith as abrogated.

It is mustahab (desirable) to return a loan with something better provided no such condition was placed at the time of borrowing.

CREDITOR MAY DEMAND

(٢٩٠٦) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ اَنَّ رَجُلًا تَقَاضٰى رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَاَغْلَظَ لَهٗ فَهَمَّ اَصْحَابُهٗ فَقَالَ دَعُوْهُ فَاِنَّ لِصَاحِبِ الْحَقِّ مَقَالًا فَاشْتَرُوْا لَهٗ بَعِيْرًا فَاَعْطُوْهُ اِيَّاهُ قَالُوْا لَا نَجِدُ اِلَّا اَفْضَلَ مِنْ سِنِّهٖ قَالَ اشْتَرُوْهُ فَاَعْطُوْهُ اِيَّاهُ فَاِنَّ خَيْرَكُمْ اَحْسَنُكُمْ قَضَاءً۔ (متفق عليه)

2906. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that a man demanded repayment of a debt in a rough manner from the Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم of Allah. His sahabah (Prophet's Companions) رضی اللہ عنہم become angry, but he said, "Leave him alone. One who has a right is allowed to speak out. Buy for him camel and give it to him." They submitted, "We do not find but a camel of a better age then what he had given." He said, "Buy it and give it to him. The best of you is he who repays his debt in the best way."[2]

COMMENTARY: The rude man may have been a non-Muslim or an ignorant villager, unaware of the manners of the Prophet's صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم assembly and of the respect due t o him. But, the prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم tolerated his rude behaviour in a way as only a prophet can do. Ibn Maalik رحمه الله interpreted the words of the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم to mean that a creditor may demand his dues strictly if there is a delay in repayment. If he does not repay then he may have recourse to the ruler or judges.

WRONG TO DELAY REPAYMENT IN SPITE OF ABILITY

(٢٩٠٧) وَعَنْهُ اَنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ مَطْلُ الْغَنِيِّ ظُلْمٌ فَاِذَا اُتْبِعَ اَحَدُكُمْ عَلٰى مَلِيٍّ فَلْيَتْبَعْ۔ (متفق عليه)

2907. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "The rich man's delay in repayment is unjust. If any of you is referred for payment to a man of means then he should accept the referral."[3]

COMMENTARY: Some ulama (Scholars) say that if anyone delays repayment of debt or payment for purchases in spite of ability to pay then he commits sin. The testimony of such people is rejected even if they may have done it the first time. But, some other u lama say that the testimony of a habitual delayer of payment is spite of ability is rejected.

---

[1] Muslim # 118-1600, Abu Dawud # 3346, Tirmidhi # 1322, Nasa'i # 4617, Ibn Majah # 2285, Darimi # 2565.

[2] Bukhari # 2306, Muslim # 120. 1601, Tirmidhi # 1321, Musnad Ahmad 2-416.

[3] Bukhari # 2287, Muslim # 33-1564, Abu Dawud # 3345, Tirmidhi # 1308, Nasa'i # 4651, Ibn Majah # 2304, Muwatta 84 (Buyu) Musnad Ahmad 2-71.

If a debtor transfer his debt to another person who is able to pay then the transfer must be accepted. In this way the creditor's money would not be lost. This command is a recommendation actually, mustahab (desirable). But, some ulama (Scholars) say that it is wajib (obligatory) (obligatory), yet others say that is merely a permission.

ALLOWED TO RECONCILE CREDITOR & DEBTOR

(٢٩٠٨) وَعَنْ كَعْبِ بْنِ مَالِكٍ اَنَّهُ تَقَاضٰى ابْنَ اَبِيْ حَدْرَدٍ دَيْنًا لَهُ عَلَيْهِ فِيْ عَهْدِ رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فِي الْمَسْجِدِ فَارْتَفَعَتْ اَصْوَاتُهُمَا حَتّٰى سَمِعَهَا رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَهُوَ فِيْ بَيْتِهٖ فَخَرَجَ اِلَيْهِمَا رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ حَتّٰى كَشَفَ سِجْفَ حُجْرَتِهٖ وَنَادٰى كَعْبَ بْنَ مَالِكٍ قَالَ يَا كَعْبُ قَالَ لَبَّيْكَ يَارَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ فَاَشَارَ بِيَدِهٖ اَنْ ضَعِ الشَّطْرَ مِنْ دَيْنِكَ قَالَ كَعْبٌ قَدْ فَعَلْتُ يَارَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ قَالَ قُمْ فَاقْضِهٖ۔

(متفق عليه)

2908. Sayyiduna Ka'b ibn Maalik رضى الله عنه is reported to have demanded repayment of debt due to him from Sayyiduna Ibn Abu Hadrad رضى الله عنه in the mosque (Masjid Nabawi) in the time of Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم. Their voices rose and Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم, who was in his room heard them. He came towards them by pulling aside the curtain over (the door of) his room. He called Sayyiduna Ka'b ibn Maalik رضى الله عنه, "O Ka'b!" He said, "Here am I, O Messenger of Allah!" He gestured with his hand to say that he should write off half the debt receivable by him. Ka'b رضى الله عنه said, "Indeed, I have done that, O Messenger of Allah!" Then he said (to Ibn Abu Hadar) رضى الله عنه, "Get up and pay it" (meaning, the balance).[1]

COMMENTARY: This hadith says that it is allowed to ask for repayment of debt while one is in the mosque. It is allowed also to intercede for one who has a right due to him, to reconcile the quarrelling duo, to accept someone's recommendation provided it is not to promote sin and disobedience,

A TERRIFYING CASE OF A DELAYER OF REPAYMENT OF DEBT

(٢٩٠٩) وَعَنْ سَلَمَةَ بْنِ الْاَكْوَعِ قَالَ كُنَّا جُلُوْسًا عِنْدَ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اِذَا اُتِيَ بِجَنَازَةٍ فَقَالُوْا صَلِّ عَلَيْهَا فَقَالَ هَلْ عَلَيْهِ دَيْنٌ قَالُوْا لَا فَصَلّٰى عَلَيْهَا ثُمَّ اُتِيَ بِجَنَازَةٍ اُخْرٰى فَقَالَ هَلْ عَلَيْهِ دَيْنٌ قِيْلَ نَعَمْ قَالَ فَهَلْ تَرَكَ شَيْئًا قَالُوْا ثَلَاثَةَ دَنَانِيْرَ فَصَلّٰى عَلَيْهَا ثُمَّ اُتِيَ بِالثَّالِثَةِ فَقَالَ هَلْ عَلَيْهِ دَيْنٌ قَالُوْا ثَلَاثَةُ دَنَانِيْرَ قَالَ هَلْ تَرَكَ شَيْئًا قَالُوْا لَا قَالَ صَلُّوْا عَلٰى صَاحِبِكُمْ قَالَ اَبُوْ قَتَادَةَ صَلِّ عَلَيْهِ يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ وَعَلَيَّ دَيْنُهٗ فَصَلّٰى عَلَيْهِ۔ (رواه البخارى)

2909. Sayyiduna Salamah ibn al-Akwa رضى الله عنه narrated that while they were seated with the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم a funeral was brought and they (People who brought it) requested him to offer the salah (prayer) over it. He asked, "Had he a debt payable?" They said, "No!" So, he offered the funeral salah (prayer) over him. Then another

---

[1] Bukhari # 457, Muslim # 20. 1558, Abu Dawud # 3595, Nasa'i # 5408, Ibn Majah # 2429, Musnad Ahmad 6-390.

funeral was brought and he asked, "Had he a debt over him?" when it was said, "Yes," he asked, "Did he leave behind anything?" They said, "Three dinar." So, he offer the funeral salah (prayer) over it. Then, a third (bier) was brought and he asked, "Was he in debt?" They said, "(He owed) three dinars" He asked "Did he leave behind anything?" They said, "No!" He said, "Offer salah (prayer) over your companion" Abu Qataday رضى الله عنه said, "Do offer salah (prayer) over him, O Messenger of Allah. His debt is over me." So, he offered the salah (prayer) over him. [1]

COMMENTARY: These three funerals may have been brought one after the other or on different occasions.

The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم declined to lead the funeral salah (prayer) of the man who had a debt over him. Perhaps he intended to teach the people that they should refrain from borrowing and if they have to, then they must not delay repayment. Or he may have feared that his prayer may not be accepted because the man had rights of man dischargeable by him.

It is allowed to give guarantee on behalf of the dead person. Imam Shafi'I رحمه الله and most ulama (Scholars) abide by this verdict. Imam Abu Hanifah رحمه الله said that it is not allowed. However, some Hanafi ulama (Scholars) say Imam Maalik رحمه الله, Imam Shafi'I رحمه الله, Imam Ahmad رحمه الله and from the Hanafis, Imam Abu Yusuf رحمه الله and Imam Muhammad رحمه الله deduce from this hadith that if a dead person has not left behind anything and is in debt then it is allowed to stand guarantee for him. They point our that if it was allowed, then the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم would not have offered the funeral salah (prayer) over the third funeral.

Imam Abu Hanifah رحمه الله disagree, saying that it is not correct to stand guarantee over a poor, indigent dead person. He said that it amounts is standing guarantee over a dropped debt. Guarantee over such a debt is invalid.

As for this hadith, Imam Abu Hanifah رحمه الله say that it cannot be established by the words of the hadith that Sayyiduna Abu Qatadah رضى الله عنه had not given guarantee for that man during his life time. Here, he is quoted to affirm merely that he had stood guarantor for that man. He was then responsible for his debt. So, the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم accepted his confirmation and offered the funeral salah (prayer).

We may also say that Sayyiduna Abu Qatadah رضى الله عنه had not stood guarantee for the dead man but he had shown kindness and promised to pay his debt.

ALLAH HELPS HIM WHO HAS INTENTION TO PAY HIS DEBT

(٢٩١٠) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ مَنْ اَخَذَ اَمْوَالَ النَّاسِ يُرِيْدُ اَدَاءَ هَا اَدَّى اللّٰهُ عَنْهُ وَمَنْ اَخَذَ يُرِيْدُ اِتْلَافَهَا اَتْلَفَهُ اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ۔ (رواه البخارى)

2910. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضى الله عنه narrated that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "If anyone takes the property of other people intending to repay it, then Allah gets it re-paid back for him. If anyone takes it intending to waste it, then Allah destroys his property." [2]

ALLAH DOES NOT FORGIVE RIGHTS OF CREATURES AGAINST EACH OTHER

(٢٩١١) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ قَتَادَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَجُلٌ يَارَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ اَرَاَيْتَ اِنْ قُتِلْتُ فِيْ سَبِيْلِ اللّٰهِ صَابِرًا مُحْتَسِبًا مُقْبِلًا

---

[1] Bukhari # 2289, Abu Dawud # 3843.

[2] Bukhari # 2387, Musnad Ahmad 1-361.

غَيْرَ مُدْبِرٍ يُكَفِّرُ اللّٰهُ عَنِّيْ خَطَايَايَ فَقَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ نَعَمْ فَلَمَّا اَدْبَرَ نَادَاهُ فَقَالَ نَعَمْ اِلَّا الدَّيْنَ كَذٰلِكَ قَالَ جِبْرِيْلُ۔ (رواہ مسلم)

2911. Sayyiduna Abu Qatabah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that a man asked, "O Messenger of Allah, what do you say if I am slain in Allah's path being patient and hopeful of reward, on the advance and not retreat, will Allah forgive me my sins? Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "Yes!" However, when he turned to go, he called him and said, "Yes! But not a debt. This is what Jibril علیہ السلام said to me."[1]

COMMENTARY: The issue of rights of fellowmen is very serious. Allah forgives His right pertaining to worship, disobedience and sin. HE does not forgive rights of men, like debts. We also learn from this hadith that Jibril علیہ السلام brought to the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم not only the revelation which is the Qur'an but also other guidance and commands regularly.

(۲۹۱۲) وَعَنْ عَبْدِاللّٰهِ بْنِ عَمْرٍو اَنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ يُغْفَرُ لِلشَّهِيْدِ كُلُّ ذَنْبٍ اِلَّا الدَّيْنَ۔ (رواہ مسلم)

2912. Sayyiduna Abdullah ibn Amr رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "The martyr is forgiven everything but a debt."[2]

COMMENTARY: Debt (دین) covers rights of fellowmen. Allah does not forgive rights of men.However, Ibn Maalik رحمہ اللہ said that some u lama say that martyrs in this hadith excludes those who are slain in a naval war. There is in hadith in Ibn Majah of Sayyiduna Abu Umamah رضی اللہ عنہ that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "Those who are martyred in a naval battle have all their sins forgiven, even debt (meaning rights of fellow men)." (Hadith # 2778.)

PROPHET صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم DID NOT OFFER SALAH (PRAYER) OVER A DEBTOR

(۲۹۱۳) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ كَانَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يُؤْتٰى بِالرَّجُلِ الْمُتَوَفّٰى عَلَيْهِ الدَّيْنُ فَيَسْأَلُ هَلْ تَرَكَ لِدَيْنِهٖ قَضَاءً فَاِنْ حُدِّثَ اَنَّهٗ تَرَكَ وَفَاءً صَلّٰى وَاِلَّا قَالَ لِلْمُسْلِمِيْنَ صَلُّوْا عَلٰى صَاحِبِكُمْ فَلَمَّا فَتَحَ اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ الْفُتُوْحَ قَامَ قَالَ اَنَا اَوْلٰى بِالْمُؤْمِنِيْنَ مِنْ اَنْفُسِهِمْ فَمَنْ تُوُفِّيَ مِنَ الْمُؤْمِنِيْنَ فَتَرَكَ دَيْنًا فَعَلَيَّ قَضَاؤُهٗ وَمَنْ تَرَكَ مَالًا فَهُوَ لِوَرَثَتِهٖ۔ (متفق علیہ)

2913. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that if a debtor's body was brought to Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم for the funeral salah (prayer), he would ask, "Has he left anything to repay debts?" If he was told that he had left enough to pay off his debts, then he would lead his funeral salah (prayer), otherwise he would ask the Muslims to pray over their companion. Then, when Allah opened for him (a number of) victories, he stood up and said, "I am better for the believers then their own selves. Hence, if any of the believers dies leaving a debt, then his debt is on

---

[1] Muslim # 117-1885, Tirmidhi # 1718, Nasa'i # 3156, Darimi # 2412, Muwatta Maalik # 31 (Jihad), Musnad Ahmad 5-297.

[2] Muslim # 119-1886.

me. If he leaves behind property then that belongs to his heirs."[1]

COMMENTARY: The words 'I am better for the Muslim' imply that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم has a better right over them then their own selves. Hence, it is established that it is wajib (obligatory) on the Muslims that they should hold him dearer and more loved than themselves. They should prefer his command and his wishes over all other things and regards his right worthier than the right of their own lives.

The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم is more kind and compassionate to the Muslims than they are to themselves. Their lives and honour are dearer to him than to them. When Allah enabled him to make many conquests, he continued to live a simple, content life but spent the spoils over the Muslims. He undertook to pay the debts of those Muslims who died under a burden of debt.

He paid their outstanding debts from the Bayt ul Maal (State Treasury) though some say that he paid them from his own resources.

Some say that it was wajib (obligatory) on him to pay their debts but others say that it was not wajib (obligatory). He paid them as a gesture of goodwill, on his own accord.

SECTION II — اَلْفَصْلُ الثَّانِي

THE BANKRUPT'S PROPERTY

(٢٩١٤) عَنْ اَبِيْ خَلْدَةَ الزُّرَقِيِّ قَالَ جِئْنَا اَبَاهُرَيْرَةَ فِيْ صَاحِبٍ لَنَا قَدْ اَفْلَسَ فَقَالَ هٰذَا الَّذِيْ قَضٰى فِيْهِ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَيُّمَارَجُلٍ مَاتَ اَوْ اَفْلَسَ فَصَاحِبُ الْمَتَاعِ اَحَقُّ بِمَتَاعِهٖ اِذَا وَجَدَهٗ بِعَيْنِهٖ۔ رَوَاهُ الشَّافِعِيُّ وَابْنُ مَاجَةَ۔

2914. Sayyiduna Abu Khaldah az-Zaraqi رحمه الله narrated that they went to Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضى الله عنه (to ask) about one of their friends who had become insolvent (but had with him the properties of others for which he had not paid). He said, "This is like what Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم had decided about one. If a person dies or becomes insolvent (having debts payable and the owner of goods finds them as they had been originally, then he has more right to them (then anyone else."[2] (See hadith # 2899 for commentary.)

DEBTOR'S SOUL REMAINS SUSPENDED TILL DEBT IS PAID

(٢٩١٥) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ نَفْسُ الْمُؤْمِنِ مُعَلَّقَةٌ بِدَيْنِهٖ حَتّٰى يُقْضٰى عَنْهُ۔ (رواه الشافعى واحمد والترمذى وابن ماجة والدارمى)

2915. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضى الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "A believer's soul remains suspended because of his debt till it is paid (for him).[3]

COMMENTARY: Some ulama (Scholars) say that it is the debt that is borrowed without reason from someone and is used on unnecessary cause extravagantly. However, if a debt

---

[1] Bukhari # 2299, Muslim # 4-1618, Tirmidhi # 1072, Abu Dawud # 3343, Nasa'i # 1963, Ibn Majah # 2415, Musnad Ahmad 2-453.

[2] Abu Dawud # 3523, Ibn Majah # 2360, Shafi'I.

[3] Tirmidhi # 1080, Ibn Majah # 2413, Darimi # 2519, Musnad Ahmad 2-440.

is incurred for genuine reasons and the debtor dies then, insha Allah, it will not preclude him from entering paradise and the company of the righteous.
However, it is a moral duty of the ruler (or the debtor's relatives who are well-off) to pay his debt. If they do not do it, then Allah will please the creditor on the day of resurrection so that they do not make any demand on the debtor in the hereafter.

(٢٩١٦-٢٩١٧-٢٩١٨) وَعَنِ الْبَرَاءِ بْنِ عَازِبٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ صَاحِبُ الدَّيْنِ مَأْسُوْرٌ بِدَيْنِهِ يَشْكُوْ إِلَى رَبِّهِ الْوَحْدَةَ يَوْمَ الْقِيَامَةِ رَوَاهُ فِي شَرْحِ السُّنَّةِ وَرُوِيَ أَنَّ مُعَاذًا كَانَ يَدَّانُ فَأَتَى غُرَمَاؤُهُ إِلَى النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَبَاعَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَالَهُ كُلَّهُ فِي دَيْنِهِ حَتّٰى قَامَ مُعَاذٌ بِغَيْرِ شَيْءٍ مُرْسَلٌ هٰذَا لَفْظُ الْمَصَابِيْحِ وَلَمْ أَجِدْهُ فِي الْأُصُوْلِ إِلَّا فِي الْمُنْتَقٰى. وَعَنْ عَبْدِالرَّحْمٰنِ بْنِ كَعْبِ بْنِ مَالِكٍ قَالَ كَانَ مُعَاذُ بْنُ جَبَلٍ شَابًّا سَخِيًّا وَكَانَ لَا يُمْسِكُ شَيْئًا فَلَمْ يَزَلْ يَدَّانُ حَتّٰى أَغْرَقَ مَالَهُ كُلَّهُ فِي الدَّيْنِ فَأَتَى النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَكَلَّمَهُ لِيُكَلِّمَ غُرَمَاءَهُ فَلَوْ تَرَكُوْا لِأَحَدٍ لَتَرَكُوْا لِمُعَاذٍ لِأَجْلِ رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَبَاعَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَهُمْ مَالَهُ حَتّٰى قَامَ مُعَاذٌ بِغَيْرِ شَيْءٍ. رَوَاهُ سَعِيْدٌ فِي سُنَنِهِ مُرْسَلًا.

2916. Sayyiduna Al-Bara' ibn Aazib رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "The debtor will be confined because of his debt (not being allowed admittance to paradise and the company of the righteous). So, on the day of resurrection, he will complain to his Lord of his loneliness."[1]

2917. Sayyiduna Mu'adh ibn Jabal رضی اللہ عنہ is reported to have been in debt. His creditors (once) come to the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم who sold all the property of Mu'adh رضی اللہ عنہ was left with nothing. (This is as in al-Masabih but I did not find it in the usul (six books of hadith) and found it only in al-Muntaqa, but it is in the form as in # 2918)

2918. Sayyiduna Abdur Rahman ibn Ka'b ibn Maalik رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that (Sayyiduna) MU'adh ibn Jabal رضی اللہ عنہ was a generous young man who could not save anything with him. He borrowed continuously and spent all he had on debts. So, he met the prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم and requested him to pay in a word (for him) with his creditors. If they had written off debts for anyone, they would have written off (debts) of Mu'adh رضی اللہ عنہ for the sake of Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم sold to them his property till Mu'adh رضی اللہ عنہ was left with nothing.[2]

COMMENTARY: On the day of resurrection, the debtor will find himself deprived of paradise and pious company. He will also not find anyone to intercede for him. He will be terrified and complain to his Lord. He will get relief only after surrendering his pieties to the creditors or shouldering their sins against the debt payable by him. Or, Allah will show mercy and grace and please the creditors so that they would forgive the debtor. Till this happens, he will remain lonely. This will be like a punishment to him from which he will feel grieved and painful.
According to another narration, the debtor will be confined in his grave because of the debts over him. He will complain to Allah.

---

[1] Baghawi in Sharh us sunnah (Prophet's صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم practice) # 2148.

[2] Daraqutni # 95 (المراة تقتل اذا), Saed in his sunnah (Prophet's صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم practice) in a Mursal form.

The usul are the books of hadith in which they are transmitted with the line of transmission. Muntaqa is a book of Ibn Taymiyah رحمه الله. The compiler of Mishkat says that he could not find the hadith as transmitted in the Masabih in the usul but he found it in Muntaqa from Abdur Rahman رضی الله عنه.

Allamah Teebi رحمه الله point out that the compiler of Mishkat has reproduced the words of Muntaqa. If it had not found a place in the usul then the compiler of Muntaqa would not have reproduced it.

DEBTOR WHO IS ABLE TO PAY BUT PROCRASTINATES

(٢٩١٩) وَعَنِ الشَّرِيْدِ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَيُّ الْوَاجِدِ يُحِلُّ عِرْضَهٗ وَعُقُوْبَتَهٗ قَالَ ابْنُ الْمُبَارَكِ يُحِلُّ عِرْضَهٗ يُغَلَّظُ لَهٗ وَعُقُوْبَتَهٗ يُحْبَسُ لَهٗ۔ (رواه ابوداؤد والنسائی)

2919. Sayyiduna Ash Sharid رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم said, "If anyone delays repayment (of debt) in spite of being able (to pay), then it is lawful to disgrace and punish him." Ibn Mubarak رحمه الله said that to disgrace him is to speak to him in harsh tones and to punish is to imprison him for it.[1]

COMMENTARY: To procrastinate in repayment of debt in spite of having the means to pay is unjust. Recourse should be had to the ruler or court of law to lock him in prison.

PROPHET صلی الله علیه وسلم DECLINED TO OFFER FUNERAL SALAH (PRAYER) OF DEBTOR

(٢٩٢٠) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ سَعِيْدِنِ الْخُدْرِيِّ قَالَ اُتِيَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ بِجَنَازَةٍ لِيُصَلِّيَ عَلَيْهَا فَقَالَ هَلْ عَلٰى صَاحِبِكُمْ دَيْنٌ قَالُوْا نَعَمْ قَالَ هَلْ تَرَكَ لَهٗ مِنْ وَفَاءٍ قَالُوْا لَا قَالَ صَلُّوْا عَلٰى صَاحِبِكُمْ قَالَ عَلِيُّ بْنُ اَبِيْ طَالِبٍ عَلَيَّ دَيْنُهٗ يَارَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ فَتَقَدَّمَ فَصَلّٰى عَلَيْهِ وَفِيْ رِوَايَةٍ مَعْنَاهُ وَقَالَ فَكَّ اللّٰهُ رِهَانَكَ مِنَ النَّارِ كَمَا فَكَكْتَ رِهَانَ اَخِيْكَ الْمُسْلِمِ لَيْسَ مِنْ عَبْدٍ مُسْلِمٍ يَقْضِيْ عَنْ اَخِيْهِ دَيْنَهٗ اِلَّا فَكَّ اللّٰهُ رِهَانَهٗ يَوْمَ الْقِيَامَةِ۔ (رواه فی شرح السنة)

2920. Sayyiduna Abu Sa'eed al-Khudri رضی الله عنه narrated that a funeral was brought to the prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم that he might offer the funeral salah (prayer) over it. He asked, 'Did your friend have a debt to pay?" They said, "Yes!" He asked, "Did he leave behind enough to pay it?" They submitted "No!" He said, "Offer salah (prayer) (Yourselves) over your friend." (He declined to offer it.) Sayyiduna Ali ibn Abu Talib رضی الله عنه submitted, "On me is his debt, O Messenger of Allah." So, he stopped forward and offered his funeral salah (prayer).

According to another version of about the same meaning, he then said, (to Sayyiduna Ali) رضی الله عنه, "May Allah deliver your soul from hell fire just as you have delivered your Muslim brother's soul (from debt). There is no Muslim person who pays off his brother's debt but Allah delivers his soul on the day of resurrection."[2]

---

[1] Abu Dawud # 3628, Nasa'i # 4690, Ibn Majah # 2427, Musnad Ahmad 4-389.

[2] BAghawi in Sharh us sunnah (Prophet's صلی الله علیه وسلم practice) # 2155, Daraqutni # 291 (Buyu).

GOOD NEWS TO ONE WHO REPAY HIS DEBT BEFORE HE DIES

(٢٩٢١) وَعَنْ ثَوْبَانَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ مَاتَ وَهُوَ بَرِيْءٌ مِنَ الْكِبْرِ وَالْغُلُوْلِ وَالدَّيْنِ دَخَلَ الْجَنَّةَ۔ (رواه الترمذی وابن ماجة والدارمی)

2921. Sayyiduna Thawban رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "He who dies while he is without pride, free of cheating in spoils (of war) and of debt, will enter paradise."[1]

GRAVE SIN TO DIE IN INSOLVENCY AS A DEBTOR

(٢٩٢٢) وَعَنْ اَبِي مُوْسٰى عَنِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ اِنَّ اَعْظَمَ الذُّنُوْبِ عِنْدَ اللّٰهِ اَنْ يَلْقَاهُ بِهَا عَبْدٌ بَعْدَ الْكَبَائِرِ الَّتِيْ نَهَى اللّٰهُ عَنْهَا اَنْ يَمُوْتَ رَجُلٌ وَعَلَيْهِ دَيْنٌ لَا يَدَعُ لَهُ قَضَاءً۔ (رواه احمد وابوداؤد)

2922. Sayyiduna Abu Musa رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "The greatest sin in the sight of Allah which a man can come to Him, after the grave sins that Allah has prohibited, is that he should die in debt leaving not enough to clear it."[2]

COMMENTARY: Dying with debt remaining payable and being insolvent is called the greatest sin after grave sins because the letter are forbidden while borrowing in itself is not disallowed. Rather, according to some ahadith it is mustahab (desirable) to borrow to meet one's real needs. It is disallowed at certain times because sometimes rights of people are violated and their property is wasted when the debtor does not repay the debt. In such cases borrowing becomes a sin.

Some people say that dying in insolvency with a debt over one is among those grave sins that are other than the more notorious than grave sins, like polytheism, adultery etc.

FORBIDDEN TO COMPROMISE ON THE UNLAWFUL

(٢٩٢٣) وَعَنْ عَمْرِو بْنِ عَوْفٍ الْمُزَنِيِّ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ الصُّلْحُ جَائِزٌ بَيْنَ الْمُسْلِمِيْنَ اِلَّا صُلْحًا حَرَّمَ حَلَالًا اَوْ اَحَلَّ حَرَامًا وَالْمُسْلِمُوْنَ عَلٰى شُرُوْطِهِمْ اِلَّا شَرْطًا حَرَّمَ حَلَالًا اَوْ اَحَلَّ حَرَامًا رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَابْنُ مَاجَةَ وَاَبُوْدَاوُدَ وَانْتَهَتْ رِوَايَتُهُ عِنْدَ قَوْلِهِ عَلٰى شُرُوْطِهِمْ۔

2923. Sayyiduna Amr ibn Awf al-Muzami رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "Reconciliation between Muslim is permitted but not that which makes lawful to be unlawful and the forbidden to be permissible. And, Muslims must be faithful to the conditions they have accepted, but not a condition that turns the lawful into unlawful and the unlawful into lawful."[3]

COMMENTARY: A forbidden reconciliation can be like a man compromising with his wife not to have sexual intercourse with his second wife. This is not a correct reconciliation because he makes unlawful to himself that which is perfectly allowed.

An example of a compromise that makes what is unlawful to be lawful is to agree to consume wine or pork. In this case, a person makes it lawful for himself that which is

---

[1] Tirmidhi # 1578, Ibn Majah # 2412, Darami # 2592, Musnad Ahmad 5-276.

[2] Abu Dawud # 3342, Musnad Ahmad 4-392.

[3] Tirmidhi # 1357, Abu Dawud # 3594, Ibn Majah # 2353, Musnad Ahmad # 8792.

perfectly unlawful.
Example of conditions are to assure one's wife that one would not have sexual intercourse with one's female slave though that is allowed. Or, a man may stipulate that he would marry his wife's sister while his wife is alive and their matrimonial relations are intact, though he makes lawful that which is clearly forbidden.
This hadith does not seem to belong to this chapter. However, it does happen in buying and selling that when anyone becomes insolvent, compromise has to be made and condition are to be placed now and then. So this hadith is placed here.

SECTION III — اَلْفَصْلُ الثَّالِثُ

THE PROPHET صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم BOUGHT TROUSERS

(٢٩٢٤) عَنْ سُوَيْدِ بْنِ قَيْسٍ قَالَ جَلَبْتُ اَنَا وَمُخْرَفَةُ الْعَبْدِيُّ بَزًّا مِنْ هَجَرٍ فَاَتَيْنَا بِهٖ مَكَّةَ فَجَاءَنَا رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَمْشِيْ فَسَاوَمَنَا بِسَرَاوِيْلَ فَبِعْنَاهُ وَثَمَّ رَجُلٌ يَزِنُ بِالْاَجْرِ فَقَالَ لَهٗ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ زِنْ وَاَرْجِحْ۔ رَوَاهُ اَحْمَدُ وَاَبُوْدَاوٗدَ وَالتِّرْمِذِيُّ وَابْنُ مَاجَةَ وَالدَّارِمِيُّ وَقَالَ التِّرْمِذِيُّ هٰذَا حَدِيْثٌ حَسَنٌ صَحِيْحٌ۔

2924. Sayyiduna Suwayd ibn Qays رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that he and Mukhrafah al-Abdi رضی اللہ عنہ bought some clothing from Hajar and brought it to Makkah. Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم walked up to them and struck a deal for trousers. They sold them to him Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم then said to the man who was weighing things for the people against wages, "weigh and tilt the scale (to give them more silver coins than agreed).[1]

COMMENTARY: Sayyiduna Abu Layla رحمہ اللہ narrated that from Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ that the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم bought those trousers for four dirhams. The ahadith do establish that he bought the trousers but do not say whether he wore them or not.
Also he paid to the seller more than the agreed sum of money.
This hadith, too, does not belong here. However, it is placed here to show that more than the agreed may be paid to the seller who may be poor.

ALLOWED TO PAY MORE THAN DEBT PROVIDED NOT AGREED BEFORE HAND

(٢٩٢٥) وَعَنْ جَابِرٍ قَالَ كَانَ لِيْ عَلَى النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ دَيْنٌ فَقَضَانِيْ وَزَادَنِيْ۔ (رواہ ابوداؤد)

2925. Sayyiduna Jabir رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that he had a debt receivable from the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم he repaid it to Jabir رضی اللہ عنہ and gave him something over it.[2]

COMMENTARY: The two foregoing narrations make it clear that if anyone returns a demand (like debt, etc) against him, he may give something extra on his own without that being agreed previously. This extra is not interest which is a condition placed by the creditor when he extends a loan. That condition is interest and is forbidden.

---

[1] Tirmidhi # 1309, Abu Dawud # 3336, Nasa'i # 2592, Darimi # 2585, Musnad 4. 352.
[2] Abu Dawud # 3347, Nasa'i # 4591.

REPAY DEBT QUICKLY

(٢٩٢٦) وَعَنْ عَبْدِاللّٰهِ بْنِ اَبِيْ رَبِيْعَةَ قَالَ اسْتَقْرَضَ مِنِّي النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَرْبَعِيْنَ اَلْفًا فَجَاءَهُ مَالٌ فَدَفَعَهُ اِلَيَّ وَقَالَ بَارَكَ اللّٰهُ تَعَالٰى فِيْ اَهْلِكَ وَمَالِكَ اِنَّمَا جَزَاءُ السَّلَفِ الْحَمْدُ وَالْاَدَاءُ۔ (رواه النسائى)

2926. Sayyiduna Abdullah ibn Abu Rairah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated: The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم borrowed from me forty thousand (perhaps, dirham). When he received abundant property (or receipts), he repaid (all that) to me, saying: (بارک اللہ تعالٰی فی اھلک ومالک) "[may Allah, the exalted, bless you and your family and your property]. The reward for a loan is nothing but gratitude and repayment."[1]

REWARD ACCRUES TO ONE WHO GIVES RESPITE

(٢٩٢٧) وَعَنْ عِمْرَانَ بْنِ حُصَيْنٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ كَانَ لَهُ عَلٰى رَجُلٍ حَقٌّ فَمَنْ اَخَّرَهُ كَانَ لَهُ بِكُلِّ يَوْمٍ صَدَقَةٌ۔ (رواه احمد)

2927. Sayyiduna Imran ibn Husayn رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "If anyone has a sight (like a debt) receivable from a man and he puts it off (giving respite to the man) then he earns a reward of sadaqah (charity) for every day (that he allows to the other)."[2]

DEBT IS PAID FIRST OF ALL

(٢٩٢٨) وَعَنْ سَعْدِ بْنِ الْاَطْوَلِ قَالَ مَاتَ اَخِيْ وَتَرَكَ ثَلَاثَمِائَةِ دِيْنَارٍ وَتَرَكَ وَلَدًا صِغَارًا فَاَرَدْتُ اَنْ اُنْفِقَ عَلَيْهِمْ فَقَالَ لِيْ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اِنَّ اَخَاكَ مَحْبُوْسٌ بِدَيْنِهٖ فَاقْضِ عَنْهُ قَالَ فَذَهَبْتُ فَقَضَيْتُ عَنْهُ ثُمَّ جِئْتُ فَقُلْتُ يَارَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ قَدْقَضَيْتُ عَنْهُ وَلَمْ تَبْقَ اِلَّا امْرَاَةٌ تَدَّعِيْ دِيْنَارَيْنِ وَلَيْسَتْ لَهَا بَيِّنَةٌ قَالَ اَعْطِهَا فَاِنَّهَا صَادِقَةٌ۔ (رواه احمد)

2928. Sayyiduna Sa'd ibn al-Atwal رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that his brother died leaving behind three hundred dinars and some young kids (children). He decided to put them for their upkeep, but Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم instructed him to repay his brother's debt who was confined because of it. So, he went and did that and returned to confirm to Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم that he had done that but only one woman remained with a claim of two dinars for which she could produce no proof. He said, "Give that (money demanded to her, for, she is truthful."[3]

COMMENTARY: The ruler is allowed to use his information and issue a command as the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم did with Sa'd رضی اللہ عنہ.

This hadith is evidence that debt repayment takes precedence over inheritance.

MARTYRDOM AFTER MARTYRDOM MANY TIMES WILL NOT ATONE FOR DEBT

(٢٩٢٩) وَعَنْ مُحَمَّدِ بْنِ عَبْدِاللّٰهِ بْنِ جَحْشٍ قَالَ كُنَّا جُلُوْسًا بِفِنَاءِ الْمَسْجِدِ حَيْثُ يُوْضَعُ الْجَنَائِزُ وَرَسُوْلُ

---

[1] Nasa'i # 4683, Ibn Majah # 2424.

[2] Musnad Ahmad 4-442.

[3] Musnad Ahmad 4-136.

اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ جَالِسٌ بَيْنَ ظَهْرَيْنَا فَرَفَعَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ بَصَرَهٗ قِبَلَ السَّمَاءِ
فَنَظَرَ ثُمَّ طَأْطَأَ بَصَرَهٗ وَوَضَعَ يَدَهٗ عَلٰى جَبْهَتِهٖ قَالَ سُبْحَانَ اللّٰهِ سُبْحَانَ اللّٰهِ مَاذَا نَزَلَ مِنَ التَّشْدِيْدِ
قَالَ فَسَكَتْنَا يَوْمَنَا وَلَيْلَتَنَا فَلَمْ نَرَ اِلَّا خَيْرًا حَتّٰى اَصْبَحْنَا قَالَ مُحَمَّدٌ فَسَأَلْتُ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ
وَسَلَّمَ مَا التَّشْدِيْدُ الَّذِيْ نَزَلَ قَالَ فِي الدَّيْنِ وَالَّذِيْ نَفْسُ مُحَمَّدٍ بِيَدِهٖ لَوْ اَنَّ رَجُلًا قُتِلَ فِيْ سَبِيْلِ اللّٰهِ
ثُمَّ عَاشَ ثُمَّ قُتِلَ فِيْ سَبِيْلِ اللّٰهِ ثُمَّ عَاشَ ثُمَّ قُتِلَ فِيْ سَبِيْلِ اللّٰهِ ثُمَّ عَاشَ وَعَلَيْهِ دَيْنٌ مَادَخَلَ الْجَنَّةَ حَتّٰى
يُقْضٰى دَيْنُهٗ۔ رَوَاهُ اَحْمَدُ وَفِيْ شَرْحِ السُّنَّةِ نَحْوُهٗ۔

2929. Sayyiduna Muhammad ibn Abdullah ibn Jahsh رضی الله عنه said, "we were sitting in the courtyard of the mosque (Masjid Nabawi) where the biers were put down (for salah (prayer) over them). Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم was sitting with us. Suddenly, he raised his sight to the sky and looked. Then he lowered his sight, put his hand on his forehead and said (سبحن الله) – (سبحن الله) (Allah is without blemish! Allah is without blemish!) what has come down of the dreadful thing!' We did not say any thing that day and night and nothing but good prevailed till we came to morning."
Muhammad رضی الله عنه added, "Then I asked Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم, 'What is the dreaded that has come down?' He said, "It concerns debt. By Allah in whose hand is the soul of Muhammad if a man was slain in Allah's path and again rose up alive, and was slain again in Allah's path and revived again, and was slain again and arose alive once more, having a debt payable by him, then he would not get admittance to paradise till his debt was settled.'[1]
This is a similar tradition is Sharh us sunnah (Prophet's صلی الله علیه وسلم practice).

COMMENTARY: This hadith is evidence that the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم and his sahabah (Prophet's Companions) رضی الله عنهم did not offer the funeral salah (prayer) in the mosque. They offered it outside the mosque, elsewhere.

CHAPTER - X

PARTNERSHIP & AGENCY

بَابُ الشِّرْكَةِ وَالْوَكَالَةِ

In common parlance, shirkah is to join together. In the terminology of Shari'ah (divine law), it is a partnership or a contract between two (or more) people in which they are partners in the capital as well as in profits.
There are two kinds of shirkah. Shirkatu milk (شرکة ملک) and shirkatu uqd (شرکة عقد).
Shirkatu milk applies where two are more person are proprietors of one thing. They may have purchased it, or it may have been presented to them as a gift (which they accept), or it may have been left to them be bequest (which they accept). Or, it is where two person acquire jointly something that is permissible, for example, two men may hunt together and the game will be their joint property. Or, where their separate properties of the same kind may be united in such a way that one is not distinguishable from the other, or where they unite their properties deliberately. These are examples of Shirkatu milk.

[1] Musnad Ahmad 5-289.

In this kind of partnership, each partner is like a stranger with respect to the other's share. But, either partner is allowed to sell his own share to the other partner or to others without his partner's consent, excepting only in the last two cases (when their separate properties unite together, or when they are combined with one another deliberately). In both these instances, neither partner can lawfully sell the share of the other to a third person without his partner's permission.

Shirakatu uqd or partnership by contract is effected by proposal and consent. It is to combine or unite the rights and properties of one another. A person may say to another, "I make you my partner in such a property, right and transactions, meaning business." And, the other confirms, "I consent." There should be no condition as defeats the basic principles of Shirkah like one of them stipulating that he would take away so much money from the profits of their business each month. This condition is totally against a combined partnership and defeats the basic principles and objectives of Shirkah.

There are four kinds of Shirakatu uqd:

(1) Shirkatu mufawidah or partnership by reciprocacy.

(2) Shirkatu inan (عنان), or partnership in traffic or in purchase and sale.

(3) Shirkatu Sana'I (صنائع) or shirakatu taqbil or partnership in arts & industry.

(4) Shirakatu wujooh or partnership on personal credit (without any capital)

(1)SHIRAKATU MUFAWIDAH: Two person agree to be partners in disposal of property and debt as agent of one another and as guarantors of one another. However both should have a common religion and be equal, so there can be no partnership between a Muslim and a dhimmi, a slave and a free man, a minor and an adult, because both have to be equal status and station.

It is necessary to explain the word mufawidah (equality) and its demands. It is not necessary for the partners to unite or give their properties or goods at the time of the contract or agreement. If anyone of them buys anything, apart from the substance of his family, of food and clothing, then it will belong to all the partners.

Imam Muhammad رحمه الله contends that shirakatu Mufawidah and Shirkatu inan can be correct only in such capital and property as is in the shape of prevailing currency that is legal tender. It is also allowed in gold and silver bars (bullions) and pieces, provided they are used in transactions. If anyone of the partners inherits or gets ownership in some other way of such property as is valid for shirakatu mufawidah, then shirkatu mufawidah becomes void and it will become shirakatu inan. However, if any of the partners inherits such property in which shirakatu mufawidah is not valid, like thing, piece of land, house, etc then shirakatu mufawidah survives.

(2)SHIRKATU INAN: Two person enter into partnership for a particular business, like trading, and both of them are at par and equal in the foregoing things, like use religion and sect, etc. or they are not par and equal. While this partnership make one another's agency necessary, if does not necessitate their guarantee of one another. Of course, the partners while they are agents mutually may be guarantors and trustees too but in only the affair in which they are partners.

(3)SHIRAKATU SANA'I OR TAQBIL: Two artisans or professionals become partners on condition that they would undertake work in partnership and do it together, like tailoring, dyeing, etc, and they would share the wages. If they agree to do the work equally but to divide their profit two third and one-third then this condition is allowed whichever of the two gets business, both will have to do it equally and it cannot be that the one who is given work (by the customer) will have to do it by himself. Also, the person who gives them work may ask either of them to hand over the finished work and either of them may receive the wages from their customer who will be absolved of his responsibility. Both the partners will share the profit accruing from their work whether they both do it or either of them does that piece of work.

(4)SHIRAKATU WUJOOH: Two persons who have no asset of their own agree to engage in business jointly by using their own influence to bring goods on credit and sell them and then drive the profit between them.

If they agree to the conditions of Mufawidah then that would be correct but if they do not include the condition of mufawidah and leave it independent then it will be shirkatu inan. This partnership makes attorney ship necessary for goods purchased for business. They will be attorneys of the another concerning their trade merchandise. The ratio of profit will be according to their share in the merchandise purchase for their trade. Any condition that reduces or increases profit will be void. They cannot share equally in the stock or trade goods and yet have different ratio of share in profits. The reason for his is that profit is according to ownership. Each can have the some share of profit as his share of ownership of goods is. Profit is deserved according to responsibility which is turn depends on the ownership of that which is bought. Profit will be according to ownership.

Partnership is not allowed where they agency is defective. Examples are chopping wood, cutting grass, hunting and getting water. Whichever of the two fetches water will be its owner. If the other helps him then he will be entitled to the customary wages.

Wakalah or agency is to make another one's substitute in one's rights and property (meaning in buying and selling or transactions). It is correct when one who appoints an agent is the owner of what he deals in, and the agent must be knowledgeable and aware of t hat for which he is made an agent.

A person is allowed to appoint an attorney for that thing which he himself is allowed to do. On the same basis, that which a person is not allowed to do, he cannot appoint on attorney for that. For example, it is disallowed to appoint an attorney to transact in wine, interest or any other forbidden things.

It is allowed to appoint an attorney to give or receive all kinds of rights, Similarly, it is allowed to appoint on attorney to get possession of one's rights. However, it is not permitted to appoint an attorney in matters of hudood (prescribed punishments) and qisas (retribution). Even if the person himself is not present, it is not proper to appoint a representive for such things.

Imam Abu Hanifah رحمه الله said that it is not allowed to appoint an agent (or attorney) to represent is disposing of rights without the permission of the second party. However, it is allowed, if the principal (who appoints the attorney) is ill or away at a distance of three manzils or more.

And, Imam Abu Yusuf رحمه الله and Imam Muhammad رحمه الله say that it is allowed to appoint an attorney to oversee the rights even without the permission of the second party.

These basic information about shirkah and wakalah and derived from the books of fiqh

(Islamic jurisprudence). Scholars may see those books.[1]

SECTION I اَلْفَصْلُ الْاَوَّلُ

PARTNERSHIP IN BARGAIN

(٢٩٣٠) عَنْ زُهْرَةَ بْنِ مَعْبَدٍ اَنَّهُ كَانَ يَخْرُجُ بِهِ جَدُّهُ عَبْدُاللّٰهِ بْنُ هِشَامٍ اِلَى السُّوْقِ فَيَشْتَرِى الطَّعَامَ فَيَلْقَاهُ ابْنُ عُمَرَ وَ ابْنُ الزُّبَيْرِ فَيَقُوْلَانِ لَهُ اَشْرِكْنَا فَاِنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَدْدَعَا لَكَ بِالْبَرَكَةِ فَيُشْرِكُهُمْ فَرُبَّمَا اَصَابَ الرَّاحِلَةَ كَمَا هِيَ فَيَبْعَثُ بِهَا اِلَى الْمَنْزِلِ وَكَانَ عَبْدُاللّٰهِ ابْنُ هِشَامٍ ذَهَبَتْ بِهِ اُمُّهُ اِلَى النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَمَسَحَ رَأْسَهُ وَدَعَالَهُ بِالْبَرَكَةِ۔ (رواه البخارى)

2930. Sayyiduna Zuhrah ibn Ma'bad رحمه الله narrated that his grandfather Sayyiduna Abdullah ibn Hisham رضى الله عنه used to take him out to the market where he purchased grain. Sayyiduna Ibn Umar رضى الله عنه and Sayyiduna Ibn Az-Zubayr رضى الله عنه met him there often. They would request him to take them as (his) partners because the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم had prayed for a blessing on him. So, he would take them as his partners. He often earned a camel-load as profit which he sent home. Indeed Sayyiduna Abdullah ibn HIsham رضى الله عنه has been taken to the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم by his mother. He had stroked his head with his hand and had prayed for a blessing on him.[2]

SHARING WITH THE ANSAR BY THE MUHAJIR

(٢٩٣١) وَعَنْ اَبِىْ هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَتِ الْاَنْصَارُ لِلنَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اقْسِمْ بَيْنَنَا وَ بَيْنَ اِخْوَانِنَا النَّخِيْلَ قَالَ لَا تَكْفُوْنَنَا الْمُؤْنَةَ وَنُشْرِكُكُمْ فِى الثَّمَرَةِ قَالُوْا سَمِعْنَا وَاَطَعْنَا۔ (رواه البخارى)

2931. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضى الله عنه narrated that the ansar requested the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. "Divide the palm trees between us and our brothers (the muhajirs (emigrants))." He said, "No Rather, you do that upkeep for us (meaning, the muhajirs (emigrants)). We shall share with you the fruit" (meaning, only the produce not the trees). They submitted "we hear and we obey."[3]

COMMENTARY: When the emigrants left their belongings in Makkah and came to Madinah, the ansar (helpers, who were people of Madinah) offered to share their belongings with the Makkans. The ansar took upon themselves the responsibility to look after the muhajirs (emigrants) (emigrants). So, they are called ansar (helpers). The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم had established a fraternity between the two and the ansar had made the muhajirs (emigrants) their partners in their properties.

When they offered to share the palm trees too, the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said to them that the emigrants would not be able to maintain them so they should retain them and maintain them and he would divide the fruit when it is produced.

It is mustahab (desirable) to help fellow Muslims and to work and behalf of them. Also,

---

[1] See the Hidaya (English translation) v1 pp 540, Darul Isha'at Karachi.

[2] Bukhari # 2501.

[3] Bukhari # 2325.

Shirkah or sharing together is a correct thing.[1]

AN AGENT MAY BE APPOINTED

(٢٩٣٢) وَعَنْ عُرْوَةَ بْنِ اَبِي الْجَعْدِ الْبَارِقِيِّ اَنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَعْطَاهُ دِيْنَارًا لِيَشْتَرِيَ لَهُ شَاةً فَاشْتَرَى لَهُ شَاتَيْنِ فَبَاعَ اِحْدَاهُمَا بِدِيْنَارٍ وَاَتَاهُ بِشَاةٍ وَّدِيْنَارٍ فَدَعَا لَهُ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فِيْ بَيْعِهٖ بِالْبَرَكَةِ فَكَانَ لَوِاشْتَرَى تُرَابًا لَرَبِحَ فِيْهِ۔ (رواه البخاری)

2932. Sayyiduna Urwah ibn Abu Al-jad Al-Bariqi رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم gave him one dinar to buy a sheep for him. However, he bought two sheep for him, sold one of them for one dinar and brought to him one sheep and one dinar. Then, Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم invoked a blessing on him in his buying and selling. So, he prospered to the extent that if he had bought dust even that would have earned him profit.[2]

COMMENTARY: Ibn Malik رحمہ اللہ says that it is allowed to appoint an agent to conduct one's business dealings as also to transact all those things for which a deputy or a representative may take over.

If any one sells another's property without his consent, then the sale is effected but the owner's permission makes it correct. This is the contention of the Hanafis, but Imam Shafi'I رحمہ اللہ said that it is absolutely disallowed to sell anything without the permission of its owner even if he gives his permission afterwords.

SECTION II اَلْفَصْلُ الثَّانِيْ

ALLAH PROTECT TRUSTWORTHY PARTNERS

(٢٩٣٣) عَنْ اَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ رَفَعَهُ قَالَ اِنَّ اللّٰهَ عَزَّوَجَلَّ يَقُوْلُ اَنَا ثَالِثُ الشَّرِيْكَيْنِ مَالَمْ يَخُنْ اَحَدُهُمَا صَاحِبَهُ فَاِذَا خَانَهُ خَرَجْتُ مِنْ بَيْنِهِمَا۔ رَوَاهُ اَبُوْدَاوٗدَ زَادَ رَزِيْنٌ وَجَاءَ الشَّيْطَانُ۔

2933. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that the hadith in a marfu form! Surely, Allah, mighty and glorious say, "I am between two partners as a third (watching over) till one of them does not deceive the other. When he deceives him, I go out from them."[3]

COMMENTARY: Till such time as partners in a venture are honest and faithful to each other, Allah protects them and blesses them. They prosper and he helps them, too.

However when they begin to cheat and dupe each other, Allah removes the shade of His mercy and blessing from them. The devil misleads them and they fall into loss.

Partnership in dealings particularly business, is mustahab (desirable). It attracts such blessings as sole proprietorship does not get. As long as a person is engeaged in helping his brother, Allah's help is for him.

---

[1] The hadith (2325) in Bukhari differs both in Arabic text And in translation (see v3 # 2325 Darus Salam, Riyadh).

[2] Bukhari # 3642, Tirmidhi # 1262, Abu Dawud # 3384, Ibn Majah # 2402, Musnad Ahmad 4. 375.

[3] Abu Dawud # 3383.

DO NOT AVENGE THE DECEIVER WITH DECEPTION

(٢٩٣٤) وَعَنْهُ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ اَدِّا لْاَمَانَةَ اِلٰى مَنِ ائتَمَنَكَ وَلَا تَخُنْ مَنْ خَانَكَ۔ (رواه الترمذی، وابوداؤد، والدارمی)

2934. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that the prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "Return the trust to him who has placed it with you. But, do not deceive one who deceives you."[1]

COMMENTARY: If you do the same thing to one who deceives you then you are in the same class as he is –a deceiver! This excludes one who takes back his property from an unjust person who had taken his property and denies having taken it. Imam Abu Hanifah رضی اللہ عنہ said that he may take back the unjust man's property if it is of the same kind as his (and as much as his, the rest the must leave alone).

(٢٩٣٥) وَعَنْ جَابِرٍ قَالَ اَرَدْتُّ الْخُرُوْجَ اِلٰى خَيْبَرَ فَاَتَيْتُ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَسَلَّمْتُ عَلَيْهِ وَقُلْتُ اِنِّيْ اَرَدْتُّ الْخُرُوْجَ اِلٰى خَيْبَرَ فَقَالَ اِذَا اَتَيْتَ وَكِيْلِيْ فَخُذْ مِنْهُ خَمْسَةَ عَشَرَ وَسْقًا فَاِنِ ابْتَغٰى مِنْكَ اٰيَةً فَضَعْ يَدَكَ عَلٰى تَرْقُوَتِهٖ۔ (رواه ابوداؤد)

2935. Sayyiduna Jabir رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that he decided to go to Khaybar, so he met the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم and offered him salaam (the greeting). Then he said, "I wish to go to Khaybar."He said, "when you meet my agent, take from him fifteen wasqs (camel-loads). If he seeks a sign from you put your h and on his caller bone."[2]

COMMENTARY: The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم had arranged beforehand with his agent in Khaybar to ask for a sign from any one who came from him. It was to place hand on his clavicle. Sayyiduna Jabir رضی اللہ عنہ was to take fifteen wasqs of dates from him.

SECTION III اَلْفَصْلُ الثَّالِثُ

BLESSING IN SHIRKAH MUQARADAH

(٢٩٣٦) عَنْ صُهَيْبٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ ثَلَاثٌ فِيْهِنَّ الْبَرَكَةُ اَلْبَيْعُ اِلٰى اَجَلٍ وَالْمُقَارَضَةُ وَاِخْلَاطُ الْبُرِّ بِالشَّعِيْرِ لِلْبَيْتِ لَا لِلْبَيْعِ۔ (رواه ابن ماجة)

2936. Sayyiduna Suhayb رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "Three things contain blessing (meaning that they have much good in them):
(1) To sell with time specified (meaning to allow the buyer time to pay)
(2) Muqaradah (mudarabah)
(3) To mix wheat and barley for domestic consumption (of oneself) but not for sale."[3]

COMMENTARY: Mudarabah is that a man gives his money or property to another to do business and he works. When any profit is received, they divide it between them.
Wheat and barley are mixed for domestic consumption to economise. However, this is disallowed for sale and is sinful.

---

[1] Tirmidhi # 1268,. Abu Dawud # 1535, Darimi # 1597.
[2] Abu Dawud # 3632.
[3] Ibn Majah # 2289.

AN AGENT'S INITIATIVE

(٢٩٣٧) وَعَنْ حَكِيْمِ بْنِ حِزَامٍ اَنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ بَعَثَ مَعَهٗ بِدِيْنَارٍ لِيَشْتَرِىَ لَهٗ بِهٖ اُضْحِيَّةً فَاشْتَرٰى كَبْشًا بِدِيْنَارٍ وَبَاعَهٗ بِدِيْنَارَيْنِ فَرَجَعَ فَاشْتَرٰى اُضْحِيَّةً بِدِيْنَارٍ فَجَاءَ بِهَا وَبِالدِّيْنَارِ الَّذِىْ اسْتَفْضَلَ مِنَ الْاُخْرٰى فَتَصَدَّقَ رَسُوْلُ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ بِالدِّيْنَارِ فَدَعَا لَهٗ اَنْ يُّبَارِكَ لَهٗ فِىْ تِجَارَتِهٖ۔

(رواه الترمذی وابوداؤد)

2937. Sayyiduna Haakim ibn HIzam رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم sent him with a dinar to buy a sacrificial animal for him. He bought a sheep for one dinar and sold it for two. Then he returned and bought a sacrificial animal for one dinar. He came with it and with the dinar that he had saved from the other. Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم gave that dinar as sadaqah (charity) and invoked a blessing on him in his trading.[1] (See hadith # 2932)

SOME RULINGS ON PARTNERSHIP & AGENCY

Some basic things have been mentioned as introduction to this chapter on Shirkah and wakalah. Some rulings have followed in the commentaries of the ahadith. The chapter concludes, so we think it appropriate to mention some more necessary issue regarding this subject.

PARTNERSHIP CONCERN: The persons who constitute a partnership in a business concern can be of two forms.

(1) Each partner is the proprietor or owner and absolute authority, or the absolute authority only. This concern works on the mutual consultation of all the partners. Of this form are those four kinds mentioned in the introduction to this chapter: Shirkatu mufawidah, shirkatu inan, shirakatu taqbil and shirkatu wujooh.

(2) Some people combine to be partners and share holder in a business enterprise and they are bound by a set of laws rules and regulations. Each partner (shareholder) must regard himself without ownership. This form may be said to be like the current trading associations and joint stock companies.

The juristic ruling in this regards is:

1. The company should be run and its day to day affairs conducted, by one man or a committee of men who should be nominated from among the share-holders or from outside their body.

2. None of the share holders enjoys any authority but every one of them has the right of property.

3. All the shareholders as a single entity will be owner and authority and this single entity may be received by consensus or by a majority decision.

4. Any of these share-holders may become a servant or employee of his jointstock company.

5. None of the share-holders can separate (from the company) but may transfer his share through a gift or sale.

6. When the number of share holders becomes limited and complete and any of them desires to sell his share, the other share-holders will be given preference.

7. If a share is divided through inheritance or sale, etc. then the employees and officers of the company will be compelled to endure deal with the heirs and rightful owners of t his share either with all of them jointly or through their agent. The group of partners of such a share will be considered to be a single entity.

---

[1] Tirmidhi # 1201, Abu Dawud # 3386.

8. The shareholders of the company will be bound to observe the rules that are drafted to run the company. However, it is a sin to frame a rule contrary to Shari'ah (divine law) and it is disallowed to obey it.

9. All such rules and regulations that are drafted to maintain discipline and order will be merely of the permissible kind. They will not overrun the laws and canons of Shari'ah (divine law).

10. The stipulation that the share-holders will not be responsible for a debt or loss in their individual capacity will be valid only when this is announced.

DISSOLUTION OF PARTNERSHIP: There are two reasons for winding up a partnership or trading or any activity conducted in the association of two people.

(1) Both parties agree to terminate their business.

(2) One of the two parties wishes to withdraw. He might die, lose sanity, has to surrender his assets so become capital-less or there is some other reason for withdrawal.

In all these cases the partnership will stand dissolved and division will be effective even if the heirs of the dead of the insane wish to retain it.

The juristic guidance in this regard is:

(1) All the demands (dues) must be settled first of all.

(2) All commitments must be honoured.

(3) The rights should be disbursed as though valuable property.

(4) The outstandings would be disbursed according to share of every shareholder as and when received and each shareholder will be considered to be the agent of the other and continue to demand and obtain (the outstandings).

(5) In case of the second reason for winding up two things must necessary observed: (a) the withdrawing party or his representative (heir, etc) will not be absolved of responsibilities, and (b) he will have no claim or right on the assets like property, goodwill, etc.

(6) The dissolution will have no effect no other companies apart from the prescribed law or ruler's directives because it is not concerned with any individual's death, insanity, etc.

DIVIDING AFTER DISSOLUTION: When the partnership dissolves and the assets, etc are disbursed to the outgoing partners or shareholders, these factors must be observed:

1. Allowance must be made for the demand on the company to be paid and the contracts must be honoured.

2. The rights and valuables must be evaluated. In case of dispute, it is permitted by Shari'ah (divine law) to decide by ballot.

3. The retiring party is not entitled to rights anymore but is not absolved of responsibility.

4. Demands of the company on others will remain as heretofore and will be distributed according to share as and when received.

RULES ABOUT AGENCY

(1) The agent and the principal must not be insane, minor, slave or confined.

(2) It is not allowed to appoint an agent for that which one does not own. Like gathering grass or chopping wood from somewhere, fetching water or pearls from a river or collecting charity.

(3) It is allowed to an agent to work free, or ask for remuneration, or share in profits.

(4) In such actions in which, the agent may represent both himself and his principal, he is like the real person and can be plaintiff or defendant as in buying and selling. On the other h and, when he cannot represent himself, he has no concern with the rights of contract, like marriage, divorce.

(5) An agent cannot use authority as of the owner for his personal ends because he is only a trustee.

(6) The principal may dismiss his agent before he begins work or does something. Once the agent begin to take any action, he has no right but to accept and approve the works done by the agent.

(7) The agent is within his rights to hand over what ever he has brought for his principal only after receiving payment for it, but he cannot take it back after handing it over.

(8) As long as the agent does not withhold what he has brought, he is a trustee, but once he withholds it, he is a guarantor.

(9) An agent is not allowed to use the authority vested in him for his own needs.

MISCELLANEOUS RULINGS

1. If Zayd sends his servant to buy something from a shop and he purchases it on credit, the shopkeeper cannot demand payment from Zayd. He can ask the servant for it and he will ask Zayd for it if he has not paid him already. Similarly, if Zayd's servant sells for him something then he cannot demand payment from the purchaser who will pay to him from whom he has received it, But, if the buyer pays the money to Zayd of his own accord then it is allowed and if he does not pay him, Zayd cannot demand it, nor compel him.

2. If Zayd instructs his servant to buy for him one kilogram of wheat and he brings one and a half kilogram then Zayd is not bound to take the extra half kilogram. If he does not take it, the servant will have to keep it.

3. If an agent is instructed to buy something specific (like the goat belonging to so-and-so) then he cannot buy that for himself at the price given to him. However, it is allowed to him if he buys it for more than the price at which his principal had instructed him to buy. If the principal had mentioned no price beyond instructing him to buy the goat, then the agent is not allowed to buy it at all.

4. The agent bought a goat for Zayd but before he could give it to him, the goat died or was stolen, zayd will have to bear the coast of the goat. If Zayd alleges that his agent had bought it for himself, not for Zayd, then his word will not believed, provided Zayd had paid the agent for it beforehand. If Zayd had not paid him in advance and Zayd says on oath that his agent had bought it for himself then zayd will be believed and the agent will have to bear the loss of the goat. If Zayd does not say on oath then the agent will be believed.

5. If Zayd's servant buys for Zayd something at a higher price and there is not much of a difference, then Zayd will have to take it and pay for it. But, if the difference is much and no one would buy it at that high price then it is not wajib (obligatory) for Zayd to take it. If Zayd does not take it, the servant will be responsible for it.

6. If Zayd gives something to Bakr to sell then it is not allowed to Bakr to buy it himself and pay its price to Zayd similarly, if Zayd asks Bakr to buy something for him then Bakr is not allowed to give Zayd what he has with him and get from him its price.

These may be done, however, if Zayd is told by Bakr explicitly that he takes that thing and he may give it to him, or Zayd may take what he has, but it is disallowed to do so without informing him.

7. If Zayd had sent his servant to bring for him goat's meat but he get s him beef then Zayd may or may not take it. Or if he sent him to bring potatoes but he gets onion, Zayd is at liberty to refuse to take that. If Zayd refuses to take it, his servant will have to keep it.

8. If Zayd sends two men to buy something for him from the market, then it is necessary for both of them to be present at the time of buying. It is not allowed for only one to buy the thing and if only one of them buys it, the transaction will be suspended, unless Zayd accepts the purchase by only one man.

9. If Zayd asks someone to buy for him something from the market and he deputes another person to buy it for him, then it Is not wajib (obligatory) for Zyad to take that thing. He has option to take it or refuse to take it. If that (Zayd's) man buys it himself then Zayd will have to take the thing.

DISMISSING THE AGENT

The agent may be dismissed any time before he discharge the responsibility assigned to him. For instance, Zayd asked someone to buy for him a goat, but soon reversed his decision and asked him not to buy it. If he buys it in spite of that, then Zayd need not keep that goat. But, if he had bought the animal before Zayd asked him not to buy then it is wajib (obligatory) for Zayd to take the goat from him, and pay him for that.

If Zayd does not forbid him directly but writes to him a letter to the effect or sends that message to him through someone, then too he is no more Zayd's agent.

If Zayd does not inform him but another man tells him that Zayd has removed him then this will be deemed to be a reliable information if that man is trustworthy and an adherent of Shari'ah (divine law), or if two men give him this information, and the agent will have been displaced. If it is not so, then the agent will continue to be in his assignment and if he has bought the goat, Zayd will have to keep it.

CHAPTER - XI

UNJUST & COMPULSORY APPROPRIATION AND ASSIGNING SOMETHING TO ANOTHER

بَابُ الْغَصَبِ وَالْعَارِيَةِ

Ghasab (غصب) is to 'snatch', In the terminology of Shari'ah (divine law) it is to appropriate someone's property unjustly and coercion, as distinct from stealing. The person who does it is Ghasib. The thing that is taken away unjustly is ma'sub (معصوب) whatever it be.

Aariyyah (عارية) is what is taken by request. In the terminology of Shari'ah (divine law) it is to make another the recipient of one's profit without seeking a return for it.

SECTION I — اَلْفَصْلُ الْاَوَّلُ

PUNISHMENT TO THE UNJUST SNATCHER

(٢٩٣٨) عَنْ سَعِيْدِ بْنِ زَيْدٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ اَخَذَ شِبْرًا مِنَ الْاَرْضِ ظُلْمًا فَاِنَّهُ يُطَوَّقُهُ يَوْمَ الْقِيَامَةِ مِنْ سَبْعِ اَرْضِيْنَ۔ (متفق عليه)

2938. Sayyiduna Sa'eed ibn Zayd رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "If anyone takes a span of land unjustly, then, on the day of resurrection, as much earth taken from the seven earths will be put round his neck."[1]

COMMENTARY: Apart from a social evil, to take away anything belonging to another unjustly is a severe crime in the eyes of Shari'ah (divine law) and so a grave sin. This is an example of the punishment Islam aware to those who usurp even so much as a span of land. Not merely that earth, but seven such will be garlanded round his neck (we seek refuge in Allah.)

Sharh us sunnah (Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم practice) explains the hadith thus: On the day of resurrection, Allah will cause him to be swallowed by the earth and the piece of the land that he had usurped would squeeze his neck as a garland on it.

MILK AN ANIMAL WITH OWNER'S PERMISSION

(٢٩٣٩) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عُمَرَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَا يَحْلُبَنَّ اَحَدٌ مَاشِيَةَ امْرِئٍ بِغَيْرِ اِذْنِهٖ اَيُحِبُّ اَحَدُكُمْ اَنْ يُؤْتٰى مَشْرُبَتُهٗ فَتُكْسَرَ خِزَانَتُهٗ فَيُنْتَقَلَ طَعَامُهٗ وَاِنَّمَا تَخْزُنُ لَهُمْ ضُرُوْعُ مَوَاشِيْهِمْ اَطْعِمَاتِهِمْ۔ (رواه مسلم)

2939. Sayyiduna Ibn Umar رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم said, "Let no one milk another man's animal without his permission. Would one of you like that his storeroom should be intruded into and his provision taken away? It is only for them that the udders of their animals preserve their food."[2]

COMMENTARY: The hadith says: "Do not keep your eyes on other's property with evil intention." Sharh us sunnah (Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم practice) quotes most of the ulama (Scholars) to say that only when one is compelled by hunger may be milk another's animal but only enough to help at that moment. Then he must pay for it promptly but if he has not the money at the time then later.

A JEALOUS MOTHER

(٢٩٤٠) وَعَنْ اَنَسٍ قَالَ كَانَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ عِنْدَ بَعْضِ نِسَائِهٖ فَاَرْسَلَتْ اِحْدٰى اُمَّهَاتِ الْمُؤْمِنِيْنَ بِصَحْفَةٍ فِيْهَا طَعَامٌ فَضَرَبَتِ الَّتِي النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فِيْ بَيْتِهَا يَدَ الْخَادِمِ فَسَقَطَتِ الصَّحْفَةُ فَانْفَلَقَتْ فَجَمَعَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فِلَقَ الصَّحْفَةِ ثُمَّ جَعَلَ يَجْمَعُ فِيْهَا الطَّعَامَ الَّذِيْ كَانَ فِي الصَّحْفَةِ وَيَقُوْلُ غَارَتْ اُمُّكُمْ ثُمَّ حَبَسَ الْخَادِمَ حَتّٰى اُتِيَ بِصَحْفَةٍ مِنْ عِنْدِ الَّتِيْ هُوَ فِيْ بَيْتِهَا فَدَفَعَ الصَّحْفَةَ الصَّحِيْحَةَ اِلَى الَّتِيْ كُسِرَتْ صَحْفَتُهَا وَاَمْسَكَ الْمَكْسُوْرَةَ فِيْ بَيْتِ الَّتِيْ كَسَرَتْ۔ (رواه البخاری)

2940. Sayyiduna Anas رضی الله عنه narrated that the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم was with one of his wives رضی الله عنه (Sayyidah Ayshah) رضی الله عنه, when another of the mothers of the faithful (Sayyidah Zaynab رضی الله عنه or Sayyidah Safiyah رضی الله عنه or Sayyidah Umm Salamah رضی الله عنه) sent a bowl in which was some food. She in whose house was the

---

[1] Bukhari # 3198, Muslim # 140. 1610, Tirmidhi # 1422, Darimi # 2606, Musnad Ahmad 1-187.

[2] Bukhari # 2435, Muslim # 13-1226, Abu Dawud # 2623, Ibn Majah # 2303, Muwattaa Maalik 17 (Ista'zan)

Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم struck the servant's hand (in such a way) that the bowl fell and broke into pieces. The prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم picked up the pieces of the bowl and collect ed the food it had contained into it. He said, "Your mother is envious." He made the servant wait till another bowl was presented by her in whose house he was. He gave the sound bowl to her whose bowl had been broken and retained the broken one in the house of the one who had broken it.[1]

COMMENTARY: The servant was the female slave who worked with Sayyidah Ayshash رضی الله عنها. The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم showed extreme forbearance and Humbleness and he was very, kind and loving to his wives رضی الله عنهن. Also, he displayed much respect to Allah's blessing of food.

The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم made it sure that people did not think of the work of Sayyidah Ayshah رضی الله عنها as bad. He reminded them that any woman may envy a co-wife, that being human nature.

The hadith finds place in thus chapter because the bowl was broken intentionally. This is a kind of compulsory appropriation through it was for a different reason. Also, the food was sent as a gift but the bowl in which it was sent an aariyyah.

FORBIDDEN TO PLUNDER

(٢٩٤١) وَعَنْ عَبْدِاللّٰهِ بْنِ يَزِيْدَ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَنَّهُ نَهٰى عَنِ النُّهْبَةِ وَالْمُثْلَةِ۔ (رواه البخاری)

2941. Sayyiduna Abdullah ibn Yazid رضی الله عنه narrated that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم forbade plundering and mutilation.[2]

COMMENTARY: It is forbidden to plunder anyone's property Muslim or non Muslim. It violates right of fellowmen and creates chaos and disorder in society.

Mutilation is to cut off limbs of the body. Shari'ah (divine law) has forbidden it. It amounts to spoiling Allah's creation.

STEALING FROM PILGRIMS

(٢٩٤٢) وَعَنْ جَابِرٍ قَالَ انْكَسَفَتِ الشَّمْسُ فِيْ عَهْدِ رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَوْمَ مَاتَ اِبْرَاهِيْمُ ابْنُ رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَصَلّٰى بِالنَّاسِ سِتَّ رَكَعَاتٍ بِاَرْبَعِ سَجَدَاتٍ فَانْصَرَفَ وَقَدْ اٰضَتِ الشَّمْسُ وَقَالَ مَا مِنْ شَيْءٍ تُوْعَدُوْنَهُ اِلَّا قَدْرَاَيْتُهُ فِيْ صَلَاتِيْ هٰذِهٖ لَقَدْ جِيْئَ بِالنَّارِ وَذٰلِكَ حِيْنَ رَاَيْتُمُوْنِيْ تَاَخَّرْتُ مَخَافَةَ اَنْ يُصِيْبَنِيْ مِنْ لَفْحِهَا وَحَتّٰى رَاَيْتُ فِيْهَا صَاحِبَ الْمِحْجَنِ يَجُرُّ قُصْبَهُ فِي النَّارِ وَكَانَ يَسْرِقُ الْحَاجَّ بِمِحْجَنِهٖ فَاِنْ فُطِنَ لَهُ قَالَ اِنَّمَا تَعَلَّقَ بِمِحْجَنِيْ وَاِنْ غُفِلَ عَنْهُ ذَهَبَ بِهٖ وَحَتّٰى رَاَيْتُ فِيْهَا صَاحِبَةَ الْهِرَّةِ الَّتِيْ رَبَطَتْهَا فَلَمْ تُطْعِمْهَا وَلَمْ تَدْعْهَا تَاكُلُ مِنْ خَشَاشِ الْاَرْضِ حَتّٰى مَاتَتْ جُوْعًا ثُمَّ جِيْءَ بِالْجَنَّةِ وَذٰلِكَ حِيْنَ رَاَيْتُمُوْنِيْ تَقَدَّمْتُ حَتّٰى قُمْتُ فِيْ مَقَامِيْ وَلَقَدْ مَدَدْتُ يَدِيْ وَاَنَا اُرِيْدُ اَنْ اَتَنَاوَلَ مِنْ ثَمَرِهَا لِتَنْظُرُوْا اِلَيْهِ ثُمَّ بَدَالِيْ اَنْ لَااَفْعَلَ۔ (رواه مسلم)

---

[1] Bukhari # 5225, Nasa'i # 3955, Musnad Ahmad 3-263.

[2] Bukhari # 2474.

2942. Sayyiduna Jabir رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that the sun was eclipsed in the time of Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم on the day Ibrahim, his son, died. He offered salah (prayer) leading the people through six ruku (bowings) and four sajdah (prostrations),[1] and finished (the salah (prayer)) as the sun emerged from the eclipse. Then he said, "All that you have been promised (of paradise and hell), I have seen during this salah (prayer) of mine. Hell was brought (before me). That was when you saw me move back lest some of its heat cover me. I saw in it the one with the etched stick (Amr ibn Luhayy) drag his intestines in the fire. He stole (the things) of the pilgrims with his etched stick. If he was detected, he would say 'If entangled to my stick by itself, "If he was not seen, he went off with it. I saw too the woman owner of the cat which she had tied up. She neither fed it nor allowed it to go and eat the insects on the earth till it died of hunger. Then paradise was brought (before me). That was when you saw me lean forward. Then I stood still in my place and stretched out my hand that I might pick some of its fruit and you might see it. But, it dawned on me that I should not do it (So that your belief in the unseen may not falter)."[2]

COMMENTARY: We lean from this hadith:

(i) Paradise and hell are in existence.

(ii) It is sunnah (Prophet's صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم practice) to move away from the place where punishment is being given and destruction is likely.

(iii) Some people are already being punished in hell.

(iv) A slight movement in salah (prayer) (or action) does not make salah (prayer) invalid. The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم leaned forward and drew back on seeing paradise and hell during the salah (prayer).

MAY BORROW AN ANIMAL

(٢٩٤٣) وَعَنْ قَتَادَةَ قَالَ سَمِعْتُ اَنَسًا يَقُوْلُ كَانَ فَزَعٌ بِالْمَدِيْنَةِ فَاسْتَعَارَا النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَرَسًا مِنْ اَبِيْ طَلْحَةَ يُقَالُ لَهُ الْمَنْدُوْبُ فَرَكِبَ فَلَمَّا رَجَعَ قَالَ مَارَأَيْنَا مِنْ شَيْءٍ وَاِنْ وَجَدْنَاهُ لَبَحْرًا۔ (متفق عليه)

2943. Sayyiduna Qatadah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that he heard Sayyiduna Anas رضی اللہ عنہ say that (once) fear griped Madinah. So, the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم borrowed a horse called al-Mundub (lazy) from Sayyiduna Abu Talhah رضی اللہ عنہ. He rode it. When he returned, he said, "I found nothing (of alarm). I found, however, that the horse could run as swiftly as a river."[3]

COMMENTARY: It is allowed to borrow an animal from someone and to name an animal. It is also allowed to name equipment of war.

SECTION II اَلْفَصْلُ الثَّانِیْ

BARREN LAND BELONGS TO HIM WHO MAKES IT FERTILE

(٢٩٤٤-٢٩٤٥) عَنْ سَعِيْدِ بْنِ زَيْدٍ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَنَّهُ قَالَ مَنْ اَحْيٰى اَرْضًا مَيْتَةً فَهِيَ لَهُ وَلَيْسَ

---

[1] In two raka'at, he made three bowing and two prostrations in each, making them six and four.

[2] Muslim # 10. 904, Musnad Ahmad 3-318.

[3] Bukhari # 2627, Muslim # 49-2307, Abu Dawud # 4988, Tirmidhi # 1691, Musnad Ahmad 3. 171.

لِعِرْقٍ ظَالِمٍ حَقٌّ۔ رَوَاهُ أَحْمَدُ وَالتِّرْمِذِيُّ وَأَبُوْدَاوُدَ وَ رَوَاهُ مَالِكٌ عَنْ عُرْوَةَ مُرْسَلًا وَقَالَ التِّرْمِذِيُّ هٰذَا حَدِيْثٌ حَسَنٌ غَرِيْبٌ۔

2944. Sayyiduna Sa'eed ibn Zayd رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "If anyone revives a dead land (meaning, cultivate an infertile land) then it belongs to him, but if anyone wrongfully plants (a tree) on a land already cultivated then he gets no right on it."[1]

2945. Sayyiduna Urwah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that it in a mursal form.[2]

COMMENTARY: The person who revives an infertile, barren land owns it if it is not already a Muslim's property nor is it an amenity plot in a city or a village for animals, to stack and pile hay, etc. for washroom, or for any common good. Imam Abu Hanifah رحمہ اللہ holds that permission of the government is essential. Imam Shafi'I رحمہ اللہ, Imam Ahmad رحمہ اللہ and of the Hanafis Imam Abu Yusuf رحمہ اللہ and Imam Muhammad رحمہ اللہ - all say that permission is not necessary. Their arguments may be seen in books of fiqh (Islamic jurisprudence).

If anyone plants or cultivates another person's fertile land then he does not become its owner because of that.

PROPERTY OF OTHER PEOPLE

(٢٩٤٦) وَعَنْ أَبِيْ حُرَّةَ الرَّقَاشِيِّ عَنْ عَمِّهٖ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ أَلَا لَا تَظْلِمُوْا أَلَا لَا يَحِلُّ مَالُ امْرِءٍ إِلَّا بِطِيْبِ نَفْسٍ مِنْهُ۔ رَوَاهُ الْبَيْهَقِيُّ فِيْ شُعَبِ الْإِيْمَانِ وَالدَّارُ قُطْنِيُّ فِي الْمُجْتَبٰى۔

2946. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah Ar-Raqashi رحمہ اللہ narrated on the authority of his paternal uncle that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "Do not oppress anyone. And, know! The property of another is not lawful unless it is with his willingness."[3]

PLUNDERER IS UNWORTHY OF ISLAMIC FRATERNITY

(٢٩٤٧) وَعَنْ عِمْرَانَ بْنِ حُصَيْنٍ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ أَنَّهٗ قَالَ لَا جَلَبَ وَلَا جَنَبَ وَلَا شِغَارَ فِي الْإِسْلَامِ وَمَنِ انْتَهَبَ نُهْبَةً فَلَيْسَ مِنَّا۔ (رواه الترمذی)

2947. Sayyiduna Imran ibn Husayn رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "There is no jalaba, no janaba and no Shighar in Islam and he who plunders is not one of us."[4]

EXPLANATION: Jalab and Janab may refer to racing or to sadaqah (charity). Jalab is that one man runs after a horse urging it forward in a race between two horses. Janab is to keep a spare horse along in case the one that is ridden get tired it may be replaced.

Or, if it is sadaqah (charity), jalaba is that the collector should encamp outside habitation and not go to the people. He must send a messenger to the inhabitants to say that whoever is liable to pay zakah (Annual due charity) must bring his zakah (Annual due charity) to

---

[1] Tirmidhi # 1383, Abu Dawud # 3078.

[2] Muwatta Maalik # 26 (al-Aqdiyah).

[3] Musnad Ahmad 5-72, Bayhaqi in Shu'ab al Eeman, Daraqutni in al-Mujtaba.

[4] Tirmidhi # 1126, Abu Dawud # 2581, Nasa'i # 3832, Musnad Ahmad 4. 439.

him outside the city or village limits.

Janab, in this case, is that the payer takes away his property to a distance from his house and informs the zakah (Annual due charity) collector get his zakah (Annual due charity) from him at that place.

This has been mentioned previously in the Book of Zakah (Annual due charity). (see hadith # 1785) The two things, jalab and janab are disallowed here too whether they mean racing or sadaqah (charity) (zakah (Annual due charity)).

Shighar is that a man marries his sister or daughter to someone without fixing a dower but on condition that the dower would be that the other man marry his sister or daughter to him. The hadith declares this kind of reciprocal marriage as contrary to Islam. Most u lama say that such a contract is void. Imam Abu Hanifah رحمه الله and Sufyan رحمه الله say that this marriage is correct, but mahr mithal (proper dower) is wajib (obligatory). Moreover anyone who does it is a sinner, so it should not be done.

DO NOT TAKE AWAY ANOTHER'S THING JOKINGLY

(٢٩٤٨) وَعَنِ السَّائِبِ بْنِ يَزِيْدَ عَنْ أَبِيْهِ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ لَا يَأْخُذُ أَحَدُكُمْ عَصَا أَخِيْهِ لَاعِبًا جَادًّا فَمَنْ أَخَذَ عَصَا أَخِيْهِ فَلْيَرُدَّهَا إِلَيْهِ۔ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَأَبُوْدَاؤدَ وَرِوَايَتُهُ إِلَى قَوْلِهِ جَادًّا۔

2948. Sayyiduna Sa'ib ibn Yazid رحمه الله narrated on the authority of his father that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Let none of you take away a staff of his brother in jest to keep it with himself. He who takes his brother's staff must return it to him."[1]

COMMENTARY: In this hadith, Staff is mentioned by way of example to show that even such little things should not be taken away from anyone.

STOLEN PROPERTY IF DISCOVERED, TAKE IT BACK

(٢٩٤٩) وَعَنْ سَمُرَةَ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ مَنْ وَجَدَ عَيْنَ مَالِهِ عِنْدَ رَجُلٍ فَهُوَ أَحَقُّ بِهِ وَيَتَّبِعُ الْبَيِّعَ مَنْ بَاعَهُ۔ (رواه احمد وابوداؤد والنسائی)

2949. Sayyiduna Samurah رضی الله عنه narrated that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "He who find his property, exactly his, has perfect right to it. (and to take it back). The buyer must pursue the person who had sold it to him."[2]

COMMENTARY: If anyone finds his own thing that was lost or snatched from him, then he has every right to take it back from whoso has it. This person may then demand his money from the one who had sold it to him.

RETURN WHAT YOU TAKE

(٢٩٥٠) وَعَنْهُ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ عَلَى الْيَدِ مَا أَخَذَتْ حَتّٰى تُؤَدِّيَ۔ (رواه الترمذی وابوداؤد وابن ماجة)

2950. Sayyiduna Samurah رضی الله عنه narrated that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "The hand is responsible for what it takes till it returns it."[3]

COMMENTARY: It is wajib (obligatory) to return to the owner what is snatched from him even if he does not demand it. What is borrowed must be returned to the owner when it

---

[1] Tirmidhi # 2167, Abu Dawud # 5003, Musnad Ahmad 4-221.

[2] Abu Dawud # 3531, Nasa'i # 461, Musnad Ahmad 5-13.

[3] Tirmidhi # 1270, Abu Dawud # 3561, Ibn Majah # 2400, Darimi # 2596, Musnad Ahmad 5-8.

becomes returnable at the expiry of the period of borrowing. What is placed with anyone as a trust must be returned when it is demanded though it is not wajib (obligatory) to return it before demand.

DAMAGE TO PLANTS BY SOMEONE'S ANIMAL

(٢٩٥١) وَعَنْ حَرَامِ بْنِ سَعْدِ بْنِ مُحَيِّصَةَ أَنَّ نَاقَةً لِلْبَرَاءِ بْنِ عَازِبٍ دَخَلَتْ حَائِطًا فَأَفْسَدَتْ فَقَضَى رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ أَنَّ عَلٰى أَهْلِ الْحَوَائِطِ حِفْظَهَا بِالنَّهَارِ وَأَنَّ مَا أَفْسَدَتِ الْمَوَاشِيْ بِاللَّيْلِ ضَامِنٌ عَلٰى أَهْلِهَا۔ (رواه مالك وابوداؤد و ابن ماجة)

2951. Sayyiduna Haraam ibn Sa'd ibn Muhayyisah رضی الله عنه narrated that a she camel of Sayyiduna Bara ibn Azib رضی الله عنه went into a garden and caused some damage. Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم passed judgement that the owners of the garden are responsible to guard it during the day, and that if the animals cause any damage during the night, the responsibility rests on their owners.[1]

COMMENTARY: The owner of the animal must pay damage for his animal's intrusion and mischief in the garden during the night. As for day time, the garden must be looked after by its owner and the animal's entry prevented. In spite of that, if the animal's owner is with it in the day time then he will be responsible for his animals doings whether it causes loss with its legs or with its month.

This is what Imam Maalik رحمه الله and Imam Shafi'I رحمه الله hold. The Hanafi's contention is that if the animal's owner is not with it then damages are not on him whether it is during day or during night.

(٢٩٥٢) وَعَنْ أَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ أَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ الرِّجْلُ جُبَارٌ وَقَالَ النَّارُ جُبَارٌ۔ (رواه ابوداؤد)

2952. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی الله عنه narrated that the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم said, "The treading on (something) of the foot is forgiven." And, he said, "Burning of the fire is forgiven."[2]

COMMENTARY: No demand is made on an animal's owner if it crushes and, ruins something with its feet provided he is not with it at that time.

If anyone kindles fire for his need with no intention to hurt anyone and a spark of fire lands on another's property burning it down then he is not responsible in any way provided it is not breezy at that time. However, it he kindles the fire when the wind blows and causes it to spared then he will be made to pay damages.

MILK OF ANOTHER'S ANIMAL

(٢٩٥٣) وَعَنِ الْحَسَنِ عَنْ سَمُرَةَ أَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ إِذَا أَتٰى أَحَدُكُمْ عَلٰى مَاشِيَةٍ فَإِنْ كَانَ فِيْهَا صَاحِبُهَا فَلْيَسْتَأْذِنْهُ وَإِنْ لَمْ يَكُنْ فِيْهَا فَلْيُصَوِّتْ ثَلَاثًا فَإِنْ أَجَابَهُ أَحَدٌ فَلْيَسْتَأْذِنْهُ وَإِنْ لَمْ يُجِبْهُ أَحَدٌ فَلْيَحْتَلِبْ وَلْيَشْرَبْ وَلَا يَحْمِلْ۔ (رواه ابوداؤد)

---

[1] Abu Dawud # 3569, Ibn Majah # 2332, Muwatta Maalik # 37 (Al-Aqdiyah), Musnad Ahmad 5-436.

[2] Abu Dawud # 4592, Ibn Majah # 2676.

2953. Sayyiduna Hasan رحمه الله narrated on the authority of Sayyiduna Samurah رضی الله عنه that the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم said, "when one of you comes upon (milk yielding) animals and their owner is present there, he must get his permission (to drink their milk). And, if he is not there, then he must call three times and if anyone responds, he must get his permission. If no response is had, then he may draw some milk (only to quench his thirst for it) and drink it, but he must not carry any milk (with him)."[1]

COMMENTARY: This hadith applies to one who is in dire need of some food.

FRUIT FROM ANOTHER'S GARDEN

(٢٩٥٤) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عُمَرَ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ مَنْ دَخَلَ حَائِطًا فَلْيَأْكُلْ وَلَا يَتَّخِذْ خُبْنَةً۔ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَابْنُ مَاجَةَ وَقَالَ التِّرْمِذِيُّ هٰذَا حَدِيْثٌ غَرِيْبٌ۔

2954. Sayyiduna Ibn Umar رضی الله عنه narrated that the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم said, "He who goes into (someone's) garden may eat (its fruit), but not take anything in his clothing."[2]

COMMENTARY: This is not a permission for everyone to eat from other people's property. Rather, like the previous hadith it gives permission to anyone driven by hunger and compulsion. Or, it applies to garden where it is not necessary to get the owner's permission.

BORROWED THINGS ARE RETURNABLE

(٢٩٥٥) وَعَنْ أُمَيَّةَ بْنِ صَفْوَانَ عَنْ أَبِيْهِ أَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اسْتَعَارَ مِنْهُ أَدْرَاعَهُ يَوْمَ حُنَيْنٍ فَقَالَ أَغَصْبًا يَا مُحَمَّدُ قَالَ بَلْ عَارِيَةٌ مَضْمُوْنَةٌ۔ (رواه ابوداؤد)

2955. Sayyiduna Umayyah ibn Safwan رضی الله عنه said that his father (Safwan who had not embraced Islam when this took place) narrated that the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم borrowed from him (several) coats of nail on the day of Hunayn. He asked, 'O Muhammad, do you take them by force?" He said, "Rather, I borrow them on assurance of returning them."[3]

COMMENTARY: At the time of the Battle of Hunayn, Safwan had not embraced Islam. So he put that question in a rude manner. Later, he become a Muslim رضی الله عنه.

Sayyiduna Shurayh, Nakh'ee, Sufyan Thawri, Imam Abu Hanifah رحمه الله say that whatever is borrowed is a trust with the borrower. If it is wasted or damaged then it is not wajib (obligatory) to replace it. But if the borrower is negligent and he is responsible for wasting it deliberately then it is wajib (obligatory) on him to replace that thing. However, Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضی الله عنه Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی الله عنه Imam Shafi'I رحمه الله and Imam Ahmad رحمه الله hold that it is wajib (obligatory) on the borrower to pay the price of what he had borrowed and is damage (while in his possession). This is why they translate the word (مضمونة) (...returning them) as 'will be replaced.'

WAJIB (OBLIGATORY) TO RETURN WHAT IS BORROWED

(٢٩٥٦) وَعَنْ أَبِيْ أُمَامَةَ قَالَ سَمِعْتُ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُوْلُ اَلْعَارِيَةُ مُؤَدَّاةٌ وَالْمِنْحَةُ مَرْدُوْدَةٌ

1 Abu Dawud # 2619, Tirmidhi # 1300.

2 Tirmidhi # 1291, Ibn Majah # 2301.

3 Abu Dawud # 3562, Musnad Ahmad 6-465.

وَالدَّيْنُ مَقْضِيٌّ وَالزَّعِيْمُ غَارِمٌ۔ (رواه الترمذی و ابوداؤد)

2956. Sayyiduna Abu Umamah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that he heard Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم say, "what is borrowed must be repaid, a minhah must be returned, a debt must be cleared and the guarantor is responsible."[1]

FRUIT THAT DROPS FROM TREES

(٢٩٥٧) وَعَنْ رَافِعِ بْنِ عَمْرٍو بْنِ الْغِفَارِيِّ قَالَ كُنْتُ غُلَامًا اَرْمِيْ نَخْلَ الْاَنْصَارِ فَأُتِيَ بِيْ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَقَالَ يَا غُلَامُ لِمَ تَرْمِيْ النَّخْلَ قُلْتُ اٰكُلُ قَالَ فَلَاتَرْمِ وَكُلْ مِمَّا سَقَطَ فِيْ اَسْفَلِهَا ثُمَّ مَسَحَ رَأْسَهٗ فَقَالَ اللّٰهُمَّ اَشْبِعْ بَطْنَهٗ۔ (رواه الترمذی و ابوداود و ابن ماجة)

2957. Sayyiduna Rafi' ibn Amr al Ghifari رحمہ اللہ narrated that when he was a boy he threw stones at palm trees belonging to the ansar. He was (caught by them and) taken to the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم who asked, "O boy, why do you throw stones at the palm. Trees?" He said, "To eat something (that drops)." He said, "Do not throw stones. But, eat what falls down (the trees)." Then he stroked his head and prayed. "O Allah, satiate his belly."[2]

COMMENTARY: Allamah Teebi رحمہ اللہ said that if Sayyiduna Rafi was pressed by hunger, the prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم would not have forbidden him to pluck fruit from the trees.

وَسَنَذْكُرُ حَدِيْثَ عَمْرِو بْنِ شُعَيْبٍ فِيْ بَابِ اللُّقْطَةِ اِنْ شَاءَ اللّٰهُ تَعَالٰى

We shall mention the hadith of Sayyiduna Amr ibn Shu'ayb رضی اللہ عنہ in the chapter of al-Luqtah (اللقطة) - finds, insha Allah Ta'ala (hadith # 3036).

SECTION III اَلْفَصْلُ الثَّالِثُ

WRONG APPROPRIATION OF PIECE OF LAND

(٢٩٥٨) عَنْ سَالِمٍ عَنْ اَبِيْهِ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ اَخَذَ مِنَ الْاَرْضِ شَيْئًا بِغَيْرِ حَقِّهٖ خُسِفَ بِهٖ يَوْمَ الْقِيَامَةِ اِلٰى سَبْعِ اَرَضِيْنَ۔ (رواه البخاری)

2958. Sayyiduna Saalim رحمہ اللہ narrated on the authority of his father that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "If anyone takes any land (belonging to some others) without possessing a right (over it) then he will be swallowed up seven earths deep on the day of resurrection."[3]
(see hadith 2938)

(٢٩٥٩) وَعَنْ يَعْلٰى بْنِ مُرَّةَ قَالَ سَمِعْتُ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُوْلُ مَنْ اَخَذَ اَرْضًا بِغَيْرِ حَقِّهَا كُلِّفَ اَنْ يَحْمِلَ تُرَابَهَا الْمَحْشَرَ۔ (رواه احمد)

---

[1] Tirmidhi # 1269, Abu Dawud # 3565, Ibn Majah # 2398, Musnad Ahjmad 5-267.
[2] Tirmidhi # 1292, Abu Dawud # 2622, Ibn Majah # 2299, Musnad Ahmad 6-31.
[3] Bukhari # 2454, Musnad Ahmad 2-99.

2959. Sayyiduna Ya'la ibn Murrah رضی اللہ عنہ said that he heard Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم say. "If anyone takes any land to which he has no right then he will be charged on the day of gathering with carrying (all) its earth (on his head)."[1]

COMMENTARY: Different kinds of punishment are mentioned for people who appropriate land of anyone else unjustly. We have seen the hadith # 2938 earlier and two traditions (# 2958 and 2959) here. Another (# 2960) follows.
Different wrongdoers will get punishment of a different kind.

(٢٩٦٠) وَعَنْهُ قَالَ سَمِعْتُ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُوْلُ اَيُّمَا رَجُلٍ ظَلَمَ شِبْرًا مِنَ الْاَرْضِ كَلَّفَهُ اللّٰهُ عَزَّوَجَلَّ اَنْ يَحْفِرَهُ حَتّٰى يَبْلُغَ اٰخِرَ سَبْعِ اَرْضِيْنَ ثُمَّ يُطَوِّقَهُ اِلٰى يَوْمِ الْقِيَامَةِ حَتّٰى يَقْضِيَ بَيْنَ النَّاسِ۔ (رواه احمد)

2960. Sayyiduna Ya'la ibn Murrab رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that he heard Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم say, "If anyone takes a span of land unjustly then Allah, Mightý and Glorious, will impose on him the task of digging it till he comes to the end of seven earths. Then He will get it tied round his neck (leaving him in this manner) till the day of resurrection when the people have gone through judgement."[2]

CHAPTER - XII

ASH SHUF'AH RIGHT OF PRE-EMPTION بَابُ الشُّفْعَةِ

Ash-Shuf'ah is derived from Shafa (شفع) which is 'to complement, join, double, couple.' In the terminology of fiqh (Islamic jurisprudence) it means 'neighbourhood or sharing.' This gives right to a neighbour or partner to buy the land or house of his neighbour or partner that is being sold and it is an exclusive right. This right is further specific with land or house. The person who enjoys this right is called shafi (شفیع) (one possessing the right of premption). This right is called Shuf'ah because this specific right joins the land or house being sold to the land or house of the shafi.
Imam Shafi'I رحمہ اللہ Imam Maalik رحمہ اللہ and Imam Ahmad رحمہ اللہ hold that the right of Shuf'ah is available only to a partner. It is not allowed to the neighbour. Imam Abu Hanifah رحمہ اللہ said that like a partner, a neighbour too is entitled to this right.
A sound tradition affirms that Imam Ahmad رحمہ اللہ too subscribes to this contention. Ahadith are narrated establishing the right of Shuf'ah for the neighbour and they are of the rank of sahih. In the light of that, it is meaningless to deny the right of shuf'ah to the neighbour.
According to the Hanafis, there are three ranks of Shafi':

(1) (خلیط فی النفس المبیع) meaning that many people are partners in the ownership of the house that is being sold. They may all have inherited the house. Or, they may have all bought it jointly. Or, someone may have given it to all of them jointly as a gift.

(2) (خلیط فی حق المبیع) meaning that they are not partners in the ownership of the house or land that is being, sold. Rather, they are partners in the rights to this land or

[1] Musnad Ahmad 4-172.
[2] Musnad Ahmad 4-173.

house, like the right to come to it and to go out of it, the right to draw water from it and the right to irrigate its fields through channels. Etc.

(3) (جار) meaning the neighbour whose house adjoins the house that is being sold. The walls of these two houses are attached (or common) and their doors have a common path.

There can be no other shafi' apart from these three. Therefore, the right of Shuf'ah is deserved first of all by the person who is a partner in the ownership of the house or land that is being sold. If he is there, then the right will be available neither to the partner in rights nor to the neighbour. If this partner withdraws from the right of Shuf'ah, then this right of pre-emption will go to him who is a partner in rights. If he too chooses to withdraw, then the right of Shuf'ah will belong to the neighbour. If this person also abandons his right, then no one else has the right of Shuf'ah.

SECTION I — الفصل الأول

RIGHT OF SHUF'AH ONLY FOR PARTNER OR NEIGHBOUR TOO

(٢٩٦١) عَنْ جَابِرٍ قَالَ قَضَى النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ بِالشُّفْعَةِ فِيْ كُلِّ مَالَمْ يُقْسَمْ فَإِذَا وَقَعَتِ الْحُدُوْدُ وَصُرِفَتِ الطُّرُقُ فَلَا شُفْعَةَ۔ (رواه البخاری)

2961. Sayyiduna Jabir رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم gave a ruling that the right of pre-emption to neighbouring property applied to everything that is undivided. However, when boundaries are defined and separate `roads curved out, no option available. (No one has the right of Shuf'ah.)[1]

COMMENTARY: When a land or house has many joint owners, each of them as a partner has a right or Shufah till so long as the land or house is not divided among them. If the partners have divided it and defined everyone's portion with a separate path to each portion, then none of them enjoys the right of shuf'ah. In this sense, this hadith is evidence that only partners own this right but not neighbours. This is with what Imam Shafi'I رحمہ اللہ abides.

Imam Abu Hanifah رحمہ اللہ holds that the neighbour also enjoys the right of shuf'ah and he cites other ahadith and he interprets this hadith to mean that shuf'ah for the partners lapses after the division of the land or house. So if this meaning is taken of the hadith then it does not imply denial of the neighbours right of shuf'ah.

SHUF'AH ONLY APPLIES TO HOUSE AND LAND

(٢٩٦٢) وَعَنْ جَابِرٍ قَالَ قَضٰى رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ بِالشُّفْعَةِ فِيْ كُلِّ شِرْكَةٍ لَمْ تُقْسَمْ رَبْعَةٍ اَوْحَائِطٍ لَايَحِلُّ لَهٗ اَنْ يَبِيْعَ حَتّٰى يُؤْذِنَ شَرِيْكَهٗ فَإِنْ شَاءَ اَخَذَ وَإِنْ شَاءَ تَرَكَ فَإِذَا بَاعَ وَلَمْ يُؤْذِنْهُ فَهُوَ اَحَقُّ بِهٖ۔ (رواه مسلم)

2962. Sayyiduna Jabir رحمہ اللہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم gave a ruling that the right to pre-emption applied to all that is shared, be it a house or a garden, as long as it is undivided. It is not lawful (to any of the partners of such jointly shared land) to sell his share before informing his partner. Then he may take it or leave it as he choose. If, however, he sells without informing his partner, then he (the partner) is most rightful to it (to buy the portion sold)."[1]

[1] Bukhari # 2213, Abu Dawud # 3513, Tirmidhi # 1370, Ibn Majah # 2499, Musnad Ahmad 3-399.

COMMENTARY: This hadith make it clear that the right to Shufah applies only to immovable property. Besides, it is not restricted only to Muslim, but may be concluded between a Muslim and a dhimmi.

It is also clear that if a partner of land or house jointly owner wished to sell his share then at the time of selling, he must inform his partner(s) so that he might buy it if he wishes to buy. If he does not inform then the partner has the right to acquire the portion through Shuf'ah.

NEIGHBOUR HAS A RIGHT TO SHUF'AH

(٢٩٦٣) وَعَنْ اَبِیْ رَافِعٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَلْجَارُ اَحَقُّ بِسَقَبِهٖ۔ (رواه البخاری)

2963. Sayyiduna Abu Rafi رضی اللہ عنہ said that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "The neighbour enjoys more right because of his nearness."[2]

COMMENTARY: The neighbour has more right to Shuf'ah if he is near and adjacent.

This hadith is evidence that the right of Shuf'ah is not only for a partner. It also is for a neighbour.

RIGHT OF NEIGHBOURHOOD

(٢٩٦٤) وَعَنْ اَبِیْ هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَا يَمْنَعُ جَارٌ جَارَهٗ اَنْ يَّغْرِزَ خَشَبَةً فِیْ جِدَارِهٖ۔ (متفق علیه)

2964. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "Let no neighbour forbid his neighbour to fix a beam in his wall."[3]

COMMENTARY: This command not to forbid is on condition that fixing the beam will not cause damage. Imam Ahmad رحمہ اللہ and the scholars of hadith hold that the command is of the level of wajib (obligatory) (obligatory). Imam Abu Hanifah رحمہ اللہ, Imam Maalik رحمہ اللہ and Imam Shafi'I رحمہ اللہ hold that it is of the level of mustahab (desirable) (recommended).

BREADTH OF ROAD

(٢٩٦٥) وَعَنْ اَبِیْ هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اِذَا اخْتَلَفْتُمْ فِی الطَّرِيْقِ جُعِلَ عَرْضُهٗ سَبْعَةَ اَذْرُعٍ۔ (رواه مسلم)

2965. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "when you differ concerning a road, let its breadth be seven cubits."[4]

COMMENTARY: If a road exists on a piece of land and some people wish to erect a house and a difference of opinion crops up on the width of the road, then it should be left seven cubits wide. No kind of construction should be raised on it.

---

[1] Muslim # 134-1608.

[2] Bukhari # 2258.

[3] Bukhari # 2463, Muslim # 36. 1609, Tirmidhi # 1358, Abu Dawud # 3634, Ibn Majah # 2335, Muwatta Maalik # 32 (Aqdiyah), Musnad Ahmad 2-463.

[4] Bukhari # 2474, Muslim # 143-1613, Tirmidhi # 1361, Abu Dawud # 3633, Ibn Majah # 2338.

However, if a road is already more than seven cubits broad, no one should raise anything on it. Its breadth should not be narrowed under any circumstances

· SECTION II اَلْفَصْلُ الثَّانِيْ

BETTER NOT TO SELL IMMOVABLE PROPERTY

(٢٩٦٦) عَنْ سَعِيْدِ بْنِ حُرَيْثٍ قَالَ سَمِعْتُ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُوْلُ مَنْ بَاعَ مِنْكُمْ دَارًا

أَوْعَقَارًا قَمِنٌ أَنْ لَا يُبَارَكَ لَهُ إِلَّا أَنْ يَجْعَلَهُ فِيْ مِثْلِهِ۔ (رواه ابن ماجة والدارمى)

2966. Sayyiduna Sa'eed ibn Hurayth رضی الله عنه narrated that he heard Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم say, "If anyone of you sells a house or piece of land, then it is appropriate that he has no blessing (in its price) unless he uses what he gets (by way of its price) on (buying) something like it (of on immovable property)."[1]

COMMENTARY: It is not advisable to sell immovable property unnecessarily. There is much profit in it and it is a safe investment. Only if other immovable property is bought from its proceeds may it be sold."

NEIGHBOUR HAS RIGHT OF SHUF'AH

(٢٩٦٧) وَعَنْ جَابِرٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَلْجَارُ اَحَقُّ بِشُفْعَتِهٖ يُنْتَظَرُ لَهَا وَإِنْ كَانَ

غَائِبًا إِذَا كَانَ طَرِيْقُهُمَا وَاحِدًا۔ (رواه احمد والترمذى وابوداؤد وابن ماجة والدارمى)

2967. Sayyiduna Jabir رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم said, "The neighbour has a greater right of Shuf'ah. If he is absent, its operation must be deferred if both properties have the some path."[2]

SHUF'AH APPLIES TO ALL IMMOVABLE PROPERTIES

(٢٩٦٨-٢٩٦٩) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ الشَّرِيْكُ شَفِيْعٌ وَالشُّفْعَةُ فِيْ كُلِّ شَيْءٍ۔

رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ قَالَ وَقَدْ رُوِيَ عَنِ ابْنِ أَبِيْ مُلَيْكَةَ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مُرْسَلًا وَهُوَ أَصَحُّ۔

2968. Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضی الله عنه narrated that the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم said. The partner is shafi (being a right holder to buy neighbouring property) and shuf'ah (the option to buy) covers everything (that is immovable)."[3]

2969. Sayyiduan ibn Abu Mulaykah narrated from the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم (the same hadith) in a mursal form. It is more sahih.[4]

DO NOT CHOP DOWN LOTE TREE

(٢٩٧٠) وَعَنْ عَبْدِاللّٰهِ ابْنِ حُبَيْشٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ قَطَعَ سِدْرَةً صَوَّبَ اللّٰهُ رَأْسَهُ

فِي النَّارِ۔ رَوَاهُ أَبُوْدَاوُدَ وَقَالَ هٰذَا الْحَدِيْثُ مُخْتَصَرٌ يَعْنِيْ مَنْ قَطَعَ سِدْرَةً فِيْ فَلَاةٍ يَسْتَظِلُّ بِهَا ابْنُ السَّبِيْلِ

---

[1] Ibn Majah # 2490, Darimi # 2625, Musnad Ahmad 4-307 (3-303)

[2] Tirmidhi # 1374, Abu Dawud # 3518, Ibn Majah # 2494, Musnad Ahmad # 14257.

[3] Tirmidhi # 1376.

[4] Tirmidhi # 1376.

وَالْبَهَائِمُ غَشْمًا وَظُلْمًا بِغَيْرِ حَقٍّ يَكُوْنُ لَهُ فِيْهَا صَوَّبَ اللّٰهُ رَأْسَهُ فِي النَّارِ۔

2970. Sayyiduna Abdullah ibn Hubaysh رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "He who chops down a lote tree, Allah will fling him face down in the fire." Abu Dawud transmitted it saying that this hadith is shortened, meaning. "He who chops down a lote tree in a desert cruelly, unjustly without right to it, and in whose shade the travellers and animals get rest, Allah will cast him in the Fire head first."[1]

COMMENTARY: The words in the hadith (غشما و ظلما بغير حق) are emphatic (ظلما بغير حق) lay stress on (غشما) (cruelly). Or, (ظلما) (unjustly) emphasizes (غشما) while (بغير حق) means shaf'ah.

It is stated in the book Mirqat as-Sa'ood of Abu Dawud that Tabarani has explained in his book Awsat that this warning applies to one who chops down a lote tree in the limits of the Haram. Some others say that here reference is to the lote tree of Madinah. Some describe it as the lote tree in a desert under which travellers and animals get shade. Some ulama (Scholars) say that the warning is to the person who cut down a lote tree of another cruelly and unjustly.

SECTION III — اَلْفَصْلُ الثَّالِثُ

SHUF'AH APPLIES TO EVERY IMMOVABLE PROPERTY

(٢٩٧١) عَنْ عُثْمَانَ بْنِ عَفَّانَ قَالَ إِذَا وَقَعَتِ الْحُدُوْدُ فِي الْأَرْضِ فَلَا شُفْعَةَ فِيْهَا وَلَا شُفْعَةَ فِيْ بِئْرٍ وَلَا فَحْلِ النَّخْلِ۔ (رواه مالك)

2971. Sayyiduna Uthman ibn Affan رضی اللہ عنہ said, "There is no pre-emption when boundaries are fixed on land (meaning the joint and is divided among the partner and shares of each have been determined separately). And, pre-emption (or shuf'ah or option) does not apply to a well, or to male palm trees."[2]

COMMENTARY: The well cannot be divided. Shuf'ah applies only to the land that can be divided (usefully), so there is no Shuf'ah with a well. Imam shafi'I رحمہ اللہ abides by it but the Hanafis hold that shuf'ah is known and confirmed in every land whether divisible like houses. Gardens etc. or indivisible like wells baths, Hand mills. They cite the prophet's صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم words (الشفعة فى كل شئى) (Shuf'ah applies to every thing - immovable).

A male palm tree is indivisible and it is not a piece of land. Hence, Shuf'ah does not apply to it. The partners have no right of pre-emption with it.

---

[1] Abu Dawud # 5239.

[2] Muwatta Maalik # 4-35. 2.

CHAPTER - XIII

AL-MUSAQAH WA AL-MUZARA'AH TENDING PALM-TREES & TILLING LAND AGAINST SOME PRODUCE (CROP SHARING)

بَابُ الْمُسَاقَاةِ وَالْمُزَارَعَةِ

Musaqah is that one person hands over his palm-trees to another to tend them and water them on condition that they could share the fruit at an agreed proportion, half and half, one third and two thirds, or one fourth and three fourths, etc.

Muzara'ah is to hand over one's land to another to cultivate it on condition that the owner would receive a fixed share of the produce (as agreed between them: half, one-fourth, etc).

In other words, both musaqah and muzara'ah have a common significance which is a division of crop between cultivator and landlord. The only difference that the former has to do with trees and the latter with land. The same command of fiqh (Islamic jurisprudence) applies to both of them.

Musaqah and muzara'ah - that is, using one's trees and land between oneself and cultivator by dividing the crop - is invalid according to Imam Abu Hanifah رحمه الله, but it is permitted according to Imam Shafi'I رحمه الله Imam Maalik رحمه الله, Imam Ahmad رحمه الله and the two disciples (of Abu Hanifah رضی الله عنه) Imam Abu Yusuf رحمه الله and Imam Muhammad رحمه الله.

The argument of Imam Abu Hanifah رحمه الله is that each of these is such a contract or lease in which the return is unkown and non-existent. Besides, the prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم is known to have rejected al-mukhabarah (muzara'ah). But, the Hanafis go by the verdict of Imam Abu Yusuf and Imam Muhammad رحمه الله, so they too regard musaqah and muzara'ah as permitted.

SECTION I

اَلْفَصْلُ الْاَوَّلُ

ARRANGEMENT AT KHAYBAR FIELDS

(٢٩٧٢) عَنْ عَبْدِاللّٰهِ ابْنِ عُمَرَ اَنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ دَفَعَ اِلٰى يَهُوْدَ خَيْبَرَ نَخْلَ خَيْبَرَ وَاَرْضَهَا اِلٰى اَنْ يَعْتَمِلُوْهَا مِنْ اَمْوَالِهِمْ وَلِرَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ شَطْرَ ثَمَرِهَا۔ رَوَاهُ مُسْلِمٌ وَفِيْ رِوَايَةِ الْبُخَارِيِّ اَنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَعْطٰى خَيْبَرَ الْيَهُوْدَ اَنْ يَعْمَلُوْهَا وَيَزْرَعُوْهَا وَلَهُمْ شَطْرُ مَا يَخْرُجُ مِنْهَا۔

2972. Sayyiduna Abdullah ibn Umar رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم entrusted to the Jews of Khaybar the palm - trees and land of Khaybar on the condition that they exert their selves and use their properties in toiling on them. And for Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم should be half of its fruit. (This is as in Muslim. The version in Bukhari is:) Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم gave (the land and trees of) khaybar to the Jews that they should work on it and cultivate it and collect half of what it produces (the other half being for him).[1]

---

[1] Bukhari # 2285, Muslim # 5-551, Tirmidhi # 1388, Abu Dawud # 3409, Ibn Majah # 2467, Darimi # 2614, Musnad Ahmad 2-17.

COMMENTARY: Khaybar is a habitation about sixty miles from Madinah to the north, It used to be a famous place where the Jews resided. Today, it is made up of a few villages. People do not lie to reside there because its climate is not suitable. Its prime produce is dates. The hadith is cited by all those scholars who say that musaqah and muzara'ah are permitted. Imam Abu Hanifah رحمه الله (who is the lane dissenter) says that the entrusting of the land and trees of Khaybar to the Jews has nothing to do with musaqah and muzara'ah because they did not belong to the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that he would give to the Jews by way of musaqah and muzara'ah. Rather that land and those trees were the properties of the Jews. The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم entrusted to them their properties and fixed half of the produce as Kharaj (homage revenue) for himself.

Kharaj (homage revenue) is of two kinds:

(1) Kharaj (homage revenue) (wazifah or) muwazzif

(2) Muqasamah.

The first kind is that the ruler specifies some amount to be taken every year from those on whom the Islamic state imposes kharaj (homage revenue). For example, the people of Najran were made to pay one thousand two hundred pairs of clothing each year.

The second kind, muqasamah, is that when kharaj (homage revenue) is imposed on some people, the produce of their land is divided between them and the Islamic state in a specified manner. This is as with the people of Khaybar produce of whose land and trees was divided between them and the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم half and half.

MUKHABARAH DISALLOWED

(٢٩٧٣) وَعَنْ عَبْدِاللّٰهِ بْنِ عُمَرَ قَالَ كُنَّا نُخَابِرُ وَلَا نَرٰى بِذٰلِكَ بَأْسًا حَتّٰى زَعَمَ رَافِعُ بْنُ خُدَيْجٍ اَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ نَهٰى عَنْهَا فَتَرَكْنَاهَا مِنْ اَجْلِ ذٰلِكَ۔ (رواه مسلم)

2973. Sayyiduna Abdullah ibn Umar رضى الله عنه said that they used to observe makhabarah and found nothing wrong in it. However, when (Sayyiduna) Rafi ibn Khadij رضى الله عنه informed them that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم had forbidden it, they gave it up for that reason.[1]

COMMENTARY: Mukhabarah is what is mentioned in the hadith (2972) preceding this. Imam Abu Hanifah رحمه الله cites this hadith to establish his point that muzara'ah is forbidden.

RANTING LAND FOR PRODUCE

(٢٩٧٤) وَعَنْ حَنْظَلَةَ بْنِ قَيْسٍ عَنْ رَافِعِ بْنِ خَدِيْجٍ قَالَ اَخْبَرَنِىْ عَمَّاىَ اَنَّهُمْ كَانُوْا يُكْرُوْنَ الْاَرْضَ عَلٰى عَهْدِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ بِمَا يَنْبُتُ عَلَى الْاَرْبَعَاءِ اَوْ شَيْءٍ يَسْتَثْنِيْهِ صَاحِبُ الْاَرْضِ فَنَهَانَا النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ عَنْ ذٰلِكَ فَقُلْتُ لِرَافِعٍ فَكَيْفَ هِيَ بِالدَّرَاهِمِ وَالدَّنَانِيْرِ فَقَالَ لَيْسَ بِهَا بَأْسٌ وَكَانَ الَّذِىْ نُهِيَ عَنْ ذٰلِكَ مَا لَوْ نَظَرَ فِيْهِ ذَوُوا الْفَهْمِ بِالْحَلَالِ وَالْحَرَامِ لَمْ يُجِيْزُوْهُ لِمَا فِيْهِ مِنَ الْمُخَاطَرَةِ۔ (متفق عليه)

2974. Sayyiduna Hanzalah ibn Qays رحمه الله reported on the authority of Sayyiduna Rafi ibn Khadij رضى الله عنه that his two paternal uncles narrated to him that, in the time of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم they used to rent land and receive (for that) the produce

---

[1] Muslim # 106-1547, Ibn Majah # 2450.

(that was) along the streamlets, or (the produce) of the (portion of) land set aside by the landlord. (Those to whom they rented out the land retained the produce of the remaining portion of the land.) The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم forbade them to do that (because it was an uncertain proposition).
He (Hanzalah) رحمه الله asked Rafi رضى الله عنه, "How it would be if dirhams and dinars were paid?" He said, "There would be no harm in that (payment)."
That which was disallowed (meaning, the two forms of muzara'ah) are such that anyone with some knowledge of the lawful and unlawful would not allow, if he gave some thought to it realizing the risk factor in it.[1]

COMMENTARY: The ulama (Scholars) who maintain that muzara'ah is allowed are also among those who agree that these two forms of renting out one's land for cultivation are not permitted.
Both sides of the ulama (Scholars) who regard muzara'ah as permitted and who consider it as disallowed cite ahadith as evidence for their points of view, there being different ahadith on this subject.
As stated earlier, most of the ulama (Scholars) hold that muzara'ah is allowed. Imam Abu Hanifah رحمه الله disagrees, but his two students Abu Yusuf رحمه الله and Muhammad رحمه الله are among those who say it is allowed. Besides, it is a necessary practice, so the Hanifah give the verdict that Muzara'ah is allowed.

DISALLOWED FORM OF MUZARA'AH

(٢٩٧٥) وَعَنْ رَافِعِ بْنِ خَدِيْجٍ قَالَ كُنَّا اَكْثَرَ اَهْلِ الْمَدِيْنَةِ حَقْلًا وَكَانَ اَحَدُنَا يُكْرِيْ اَرْضَهُ فَيَقُوْلُ هٰذِهِ الْقِطْعَةُ لِيْ وَهٰذِهِ لَكَ فَرُبَّمَا اَخْرَجَتْ ذِهْ وَلَمْ تُخْرِجْ ذِهْ فَنَهَاهُمُ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ۔ (متفق عليه)

2975. Sayyiduna Rafi ibn Khadij رضى الله عنه narrated that most of them, the people of Madinah, were cultivators. Some of them let out their land agreeing (with the tenant) that they would have what was produced in a certain portion (towards their rent) while the produce of the other portion should go to him (to whom it was rented). Sometimes, there was production on one portion but none on the other. So, the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم disallowed them to do that.[2]

BETTER TO RENT OUT LAND

(٢٩٧٦) وَعَنْ عَمْرٍو قَالَ قُلْتُ لِطَاوُسٍ لَوْتَرَكْتَ الْمُخَابَرَةَ فَاِنَّهُمْ يَزْعُمُوْنَ اَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ نَهٰى عَنْهُ قَالَ اَيْ عَمْرُو اِنِّيْ اُعْطِيْهِمْ وَاُعِيْنُهُمْ وَاِنَّ اَعْلَمَهُمْ اَخْبَرَنِيْ يَعْنِي ابْنَ عَبَّاسٍ اَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَمْ يَنْهَ عَنْهُ وَلٰكِنْ قَالَ اَنْ يَمْنَحَ اَحَدُكُمْ اَخَاهُ خَيْرٌ لَّهُ مِنْ اَنْ يَأْخُذَ عَلَيْهِ خَرْجًا مَعْلُوْمًا۔ (متفق عليه)

2976. Sayyiduna Amr (ibn Dinar) رحمه الله said that he said to Sayyiduna Tawus رضى الله عنه. "If you abandon muzara'ah that would be better, because the ulama (Scholars) assert that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم had forbidden it." He said, "O Amr! I give them

---

[1] Bukhari # 2332, Musnad Ahmad 4-142, Muslim # 115-1547.
[2] Bukhari # 2332, Muslim # 117-1547.

my land and help them (thereby). The most learned of men, Ibn Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ informed me that the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم had not forbidden it, but has said, 'It is better for any of you to lend to his brother (his land) to cultivate) than to receive from him a specified sum (of revenue)."[1]

COMMENTARY: Muza'ra'ah is to give something and get something. But, if someone is shown favour by giving him one's land as a concession so that he might earn something from it then it is better.

CULTIVATE OR LEND YOUR FIELD

(٢٩٧٧) وَعَنْ جَابِرٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ كَانَتْ لَهُ اَرْضٌ فَلْيَزْرَعْهَا اَوْ لِيَمْنَحْهَا اَخَاهُ فَاِنْ اَبٰى فَلْيُمْسِكْ اَرْضَهٗ۔ (متفق علیه)

2977. Sayyiduna Jabir رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "If anyone has land then he should cultivate it (himself), or (if he cannot do it then) he must lend it to his brother, If he refuses then he must keep it with himself."[2]

COMMENTARY: Shaykh Mazhar رحمہ اللہ says that this hadith calls upon man to put his property to profitable use. If he does not cultivate his own land then he may land it to a Muslim brother to earn a livelihood for himself and his family. If the owner does not choose either of the two courses, then he may keep his land with himself but not give it to anyone by way of muzara'ah. This also is a warning to those who do not use their property for their own good nor give benefit to others from it (and earn reward from Allah for themselves).

Some people interpret the hadith to mean that if no one is willing to take the land on loan, then he may keep his land with himself. In this case, the command is to show that it is permissible to do so. (This is a sin hadith # 2632 or Bukhari.)

WORKING TO CULTIVATORS WHO ABANDOM JIHAD

(٢٩٧٨) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ اُمَامَةَ وَرَاٰى سِكَّةً وَشَيْئًا مِنْ اٰلَةِ الْحَرْثِ فَقَالَ سَمِعْتُ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُوْلُ لَايَدْخُلُ هٰذَا بَيْتَ قَوْمٍ اِلَّا اَدْخَلَهُ اللّٰهُ الذُّلَّ۔ (رواه البخاری)

2978. Sayyiduna Abu Umamah رضی اللہ عنہ saw a ploughshare and some agricultural implements, and said that he had heard the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم say, "This will not enter the house of a people but Allah will make shame to enter it."[3]

COMMENTARY: The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم did not condemn agriculture but he meant that jihad should not be neglected because of agriculture.

If anyone engages in cultivation for a livelihood the that is not a disliked thing.

Some ulama (Scholars) say that it applies to those who have their fields along the borders with the enemy. If they concentrate on cultivation and neglect jihad, then the enemy will invade and overpower them, thereby disgracing them.

---

[1] Bukhari # 2330, Muslim # 120. 1550, Abu Dawud # 3389, Nasa'i # 3873, Musnad Ahmad 1-234.

[2] Bukhari # 2340, Muslim # 89. 1536, Nasa'i # 3874, Ibn Majah # 2451, Musnad Ahmad 3-373.

[3] Bukhari # 2321.

SECTION II الفصل الثانی

DO NOT SOW IN FIELDS OF OTHER WITHOUT PERMISSION

(٢٩٧٩) عَنْ رَافِعِ بْنِ خَدِيْجٍ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ مَنْ زَرَعَ فِيْ اَرْضِ قَوْمٍ بِغَيْرِ اِذْنِهِمْ فَلَيْسَ لَهُ مِنَ الزَّرْعِ شَيْءٌ وَلَهُ نَفَقَتُهُ۔ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَاَبُوْدَاوُدَ وَقَالَ التِّرْمِذِيُّ هٰذَا حَدِيْثٌ غَرِيْبٌ۔

2979. Sayyiduna Rafi ibn Khadij رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "He who sows on a land belonging to other people without their permission, has no right to any of its produce, but he may take his cost from it."[1]

COMMENTARY: If anyone sows on someone's field without his permission, then all the production on it belongs to the owner of the land. Of course, he will get his expenses on sowing the field, nothing more. Imam Ahmad goes by this hadith.

Other ulama (Scholars) say that he who sows will get all its crop, but will have to pay to the owner of the land the loss of the land. Some ulama (Scholars) of the Hanafis say the same thing. Ibn Maalik رحمہ اللہ said that he will have to bear, as a wajib (obligatory), the reimbursement of the land from the day of took over the land till the day of cultivation when he clears the land. The produce will belong to him.

SECTION III الفصل الثالث

PROOF OF VALIDITY OF MUZARA'AH

(٢٩٨٠) عَنْ قَيْسِ بْنِ مُسْلِمٍ عَنْ اَبِيْ جَعْفَرٍ قَالَ مَا بِالْمَدِيْنَةِ اَهْلُ بَيْتِ هِجْرَةٍ اِلَّا يَزْرَعُوْنَ عَلَى الثُّلُثِ وَالرُّبُعِ وَزَارَعَ عَلِيٌّ وَسَعْدُ بْنُ مَالِكٍ وَعَبْدُاللّٰهِ بْنُ مَسْعُوْدٍ وَعُمَرُ بْنُ عَبْدِالْعَزِيْزِ وَالْقَاسِمُ وَعُرْوَةُ وَاٰلُ اَبِيْ بَكْرٍ وَاٰلُ عَلِيٍّ وَابْنُ سِيْرِيْنَ وَقَالَ عَبْدُالرَّحْمٰنِ بْنُ الْاَسْوَدِ كُنْتُ اُشَارِكُ عَبْدَالرَّحْمٰنِ بْنَ يَزِيْدَ فِي الزَّرْعِ وَعَامَلَ عُمَرُ النَّاسَ عَلٰى اِنْ جَاءَ عُمَرُ بِالْبَذْرِ مِنْ عِنْدِهٖ فَلَهُ الشَّطْرُ وَاِنْ جَاءُوْا بِالْبَذْرِ فَلَهُمْ كَذَا۔ (رواہ البخاری)

2980. Sayyiduna Qays ibn Muslim رضی اللہ عنہ reported on the authority of Sayyiduan Abu Ja'far رضی اللہ عنہ that there was not any house of the muhajirs (emigrants) in Madinah that did not cultivae land (for the ansars) for one third on one fourth of the yield.

(Sayyiduna) Ali, Sa'd ibn Maalik, Abdullah ibn Mas'ud, Umar ibn Abdul Aziz, al Qasim, Urwa, the family of Abu Bakr, the family of Umar, the family Ali and Ibn Sirin رضی اللہ عنہ cultivates the land against a part of the produce.

Abdur Rahman ibn al Aswad رحمہ اللہ said that he was partner of Abdur Rahman ibn Yazid رحمہ اللہ in cultivation. Umar رضی اللہ عنہ contracted with people that if he supplied the seed, he would receive half of the produce and if they provided the seed they would get a certain share.[2]

COMMENTARY: Mirak Shah رحمہ اللہ said that it is clear even from Bukhari's text that

---

[1] Tirmidhi # 1371, Abu Dawud # 3404, Ibn Majah # 2466, Musnad Ahmad 3-465.

[2] Bukhari (Book 41, Chapter 8 - Heading, sub-heading before hadith # 2328).

Sayyiduan Abu Ja'far's رضی الله عنه words end at (والربع) (and one fourth of the yield). This is apparent also from its expositions. The words after that are Bukhari's own, and are all aathar, meaning words of the sahabah and the tabi'un. Bukhari has reproduced them without a chain of transmission, so has placed them as a sub-heading.

CHAPTER - XIV

AL-IJARAH - HIRE

بَابُ الْإِجَارَةِ

Ijarah means to give something on rent. In the terminology of Shari'ah (divine law), it means to make someone owner of the use of something belong to oneself.
From the point of view of fiqh (Islamic jurisprudence), since profit is lacking from Ijarah, it should not be permitted. However, in view of the need of the people, Shari'ah (divine law) has declared it to be lawful. Also it is established through ahadith and aather.

SECTION I

اَلْفَصْلُ الْاَوَّلُ

IJARAH IS ALLOWED

(٢٩٨١) عَنْ عَبْدِ اللّٰهِ بْنِ مُغَفَّلٍ قَالَ زَعَمَ ثَابِتُ بْنُ الضَّحَّاكِ اَنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ نَهٰى عَنِ الْمُزَارَعَةِ وَاَمَرَ بِالْمُؤَاجَرَةِ وَقَالَ لَا بَأْسَ بِهَا۔ (رواه مسلم)

2981. Sayyiduna Abdullah ibn Mughaffal رحمه الله said that (Sayyiduna) Thabit ibn Dahhak رضی الله عنه said that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم forbade muzara'ah but commanded that Ijarah should be observed. He said, 'There is no harm in it."[1]

COMMENTARY: The disallowance of Muzara'ah is of its two forms that are mentioned in hadith # 2974. (They are the land along streamlets and setting aside portion of the land, both whose produce is reserved for the owner.)

(٢٩٨٢) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ اَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اِحْتَجَمَ فَاَعْطَى الْحَجَّامَ اَجْرَهُ وَاسْتَعَطَ۔ (متفق عليه)

2982. Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضی الله عنه narrated that the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم had himself cupped (once) and paid the cupper his wages. And, he poured medicine into his nose.[2]

COMMENTARY: This hadith clarifies that the profession of the cupper is lawful. To pay wages is permissible and so it is to use medicine.

THE PROPHET صلی الله علیه وسلم GRAZED SHEEP AGAINST WAGES.

(٢٩٨٣) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ مَا بَعَثَ اللّٰهُ نَبِيًّا اِلَّا رَعَى الْغَنَمَ فَقَالَ اَصْحَابُهُ وَاَنْتَ فَقَالَ نَعَمْ كُنْتُ اَرْعٰى عَلٰى قَرَارِيْطَ لِاَهْلِ مَكَّةَ۔ (رواه البخارى)

2983. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی الله عنه narrated that the prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم said, "Allah has not sent such a prophet who has not grazed sheep." The sahabah (Prophet's Companions) رضی الله عنهم asked, "And you too?" He said, "Yes, I was a shepherd for the people of Makkah for a payment of (some) qararit."[3]

---

[1] Muslim # 119-1549.
[2] Bukhari # 5691, Muslim # 65-1202, Abu Dawud # 3423, Ibn Majah # 2162, Musnad Ahmad 1-258.
[3] Bukhari # 2263, Ibn Majah # 2149.

COMMENTARY: Given the responsibilities of a prophet, he has to experience every kind of life and profession to be able to propagate religion effectively. The shepherd's profession is one such. This seems to be very lowly but if we examine it, this profession promotes love and compassion, hard work and toiling, mutual cooperation and well wishing, and supervision. Those qualities are essential for a guide and reformer. Every Prophet had this experience to be able to lead his people. It enables him to endure hardship and obstinacy of his people. Besides, this life enables him to go through attitude which is necessary during the initial life of prophethood.

WARNING FOR NOT PAYING WAGES TO LABOURER

(٢٩٨٤) وَعَنْهُ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ اللّٰهُ تَعَالٰى ثَلَاثَةٌ اَنَا خَصْمُهُمْ يَوْمَ الْقِيَامَةِ رَجُلٌ اَعْطٰى بِيْ ثُمَّ غَدَرَ وَرَجُلٌ بَاعَ حُرًّا فَاَكَلَ ثَمَنَهٗ وَرَجُلٌ اسْتَاْجَرَ اَجِيْرًا فَاسْتَوْفٰى مِنْهُ وَلَمْ يُعْطِهٖ اَجْرَهٗ۔ (رواه البخاری)

2984. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said that Allah, the exalted, says, "Three there are against whom I shall initiate action on the day of resurrection: a man who holds out an assurance in my name, but then fails to fulfil it, a man who sells a free man and devours the proceeds. And a man who hires a labourer and gets the work done by him but does not pay him his wages."[1]

COMMENTARY: To break a promise is wrong and when it is given in Allah's name, it is extremely bad to break it.

To sell a freeman is wrong too. The words 'devours the proceeds' are to stress that it is very bad.As for not paying the wages, it is very sinful and cruel. The perpetrator deserves to be punished.

WAGES FOR INCANTATION

(٢٩٨٥) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ اَنَّ نَفَرًا مِنْ اَصْحَابِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَرُّوْا بِمَاءٍ فِيْهِمْ لَدِيْغٌ اَوْ سَلِيْمٌ فَعَرَضَ لَهُمْ رَجُلٌ مِنْ اَهْلِ الْمَاءِ فَقَالَ هَلْ فِيْكُمْ مِنْ رَاقٍ اِنَّ فِي الْمَاءِ لَدِيْغًا اَوْ سَلِيْمًا فَانْطَلَقَ رَجُلٌ مِنْهُمْ فَقَرَاَ بِفَاتِحَةِ الْكِتَابِ عَلٰى شَاءٍ فَبَرَاَ فَجَاءَ بِالشَّاءِ اِلٰى اَصْحَابِهٖ فَكَرِهُوْا ذٰلِكَ وَقَالُوْا اَخَذْتَ عَلٰى كِتَابِ اللّٰهِ اَجْرًا حَتّٰى قَدِمُوا الْمَدِيْنَةَ فَقَالُوْا يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ اَخَذَ عَلٰى كِتَابِ اللّٰهِ اَجْرًا فَقَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اِنَّ اَحَقَّ مَا اَخَذْتُمْ عَلَيْهِ اَجْرًا كِتَابُ اللّٰهِ۔ رَوَاهُ الْبُخَارِيُّ وَفِيْ رِوَايَةٍ اَصَبْتُمْ اِقْسِمُوْا وَاضْرِبُوْا لِيْ مَعَكُمْ سَهْمًا۔

2985. Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that some of the sahabah (Prophet's Companions) رضی اللہ عنہم of the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم came to a watering place or a village) where someone had been stung by a scorpion or by a snake. One of the dwellers of that place came to the sahabah (Prophet's Companions) رضی اللہ عنہم and asked, "Can anyone of you invoke (to cure snake bite), for a man at the watering place is stung by a scorpion or a snake?" One of the sahabah accompanied him and recited surah al-fatihah against some sheep. The man was cured. However, when he came with the sheep to his colleagues, they did not like it and complained. "You have taken payment for Allah's Book." On coming to Madinah, they complained to Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم that he had collected payment for Allah's Book. He said, "The most rightful thing for which you receive wages is Allah's Book."

[1] Bukhari # 2227, Ibn Majah # 2156, Musnad Ahmad 3-83.

According to a version, he also said, "you did the right thing. Divide the sheep (among yourselves) and let me have a share along with you."[1]

COMMENTARY: Some ulama (Scholars) say that the sahabi who had recited surah al-Fatihah was Sayyiduna Abu Sa'eed Khudri رضى الله عنه. There were thirty sahabah in that group. So he had taken thirty sheep.

The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم asked for his share too because that would make clear to the sahabah (Prophet's Companions) رضى الله عنهم that it was correct to collect wages for the recital.

It is correct to apply charm with the verses of the Quran and get wages for it. So, there is nothing wrong in asking for payment to apply charm or make talisman with verses of the Quran or other known supplication.

However, we cannot say because of this it is allowed to get a payment for reciting the Quran. Reciting the Quran is a form of worship for which it is not permitted to get wages. To blow on a patient who is cured because of it is not a worship, so wages may be collected for that. This also makes clear that wages may be had for writing down the Quran and other religious books and to buy and sell them.

The letter day (or succeeding) ulama (Scholars) have given an identical ruling about teaching the Quran. However, the preceding ulama (Scholars), like Imam Abu Hanifah رحمه الله had said that it is unlawful to seek wages for teaching the Quran.

SECTION II — اَلْفَصْلُ الثَّانِي

INCANTATION NOT SANCTIONED BY SHARI'AH (DIVINE LAW) IS UNLAWFUL

(٢٩٨٦) عَنْ خَارِجَةَ بْنِ الصَّلْتِ عَنْ عَمِّهِ قَالَ اَقْبَلْنَا مِنْ عِنْدِ رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَاَتَيْنَا عَلٰى حَيٍّ مِنَ الْعَرَبِ فَقَالُوْا اِنَّا اُنْبِئْنَا اَنَّكُمْ قَدْ جِئْتُمْ مِنْ عِنْدِ هٰذَا الرَّجُلِ بِخَيْرٍ فَهَلْ عِنْدَكُمْ مِنْ دَوَاءٍ اَوْ رُقْيَةٍ فَاِنَّ عِنْدَنَا مَعْتُوْهًا فِي الْقُيُوْدِ فَقُلْنَا نَعَمْ قَالَ فَجَاءُوْا بِمَعْتُوْهٍ فِي الْقُيُوْدِ فَقَرَأْتُ عَلَيْهِ بِفَاتِحَةِ الْكِتَابِ ثَلَاثَةَ اَيَّامٍ غُدْوَةً وَعَشِيَّةً اَجْمَعُ بُزَاقِيْ ثُمَّ اَتْفُلُ قَالَ فَكَاَنَّمَا اُنْشِطَ مِنْ عِقَالٍ فَاَعْطُوْنِيْ جُعْلًا فَقُلْتُ لَا حَتّٰى اَسْاَلَ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَقَالَ كُلْ فَلَعَمْرِيْ لَمَنْ اَكَلَ بِرُقْيَةٍ بَاطِلٍ لَقَدْ اَكَلْتَ بِرُقْيَةٍ حَقٍّ۔ (رواه احمد وابوداؤد)

2986. Sayyiduna Kharijah ibn Salt (as in sullt) reported from his paternal uncle that he said, "When we departed from Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم we met a tribe of the Arabs (on the way) who said to us that they had learnt that we had brought from this man (Allah's Messenger) صلى الله عليه وسلم what is good and had we a medicine or a charm because they had a mad man in chains? We confirmed that we had and they brought (to us) a mad man in chains and I recited surah al-Fatihah over him for three days, morning and evening, I a such a way that I collected my saliva (while reciting) and (after I finished) I spat on him."

---

[1] Bukhari # 5737, Ibn Majah # 2156, Musnad Ahmad 3-83.

The narrator reported that his paternal uncle continued to say, 'After that (he recovered quickly so that) be seemed to have been released from fetters. They paid me something but I said, 'Not till in have asked the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم!' He said, 'Take it (or eat it)! By my life, he who accepts for a wrong (invalid) incantation (does bad). You have taken for a true charm.'[1]

COMMENTARY: A wrong or invalid incantation or charm is what refers to the stars, evil spirits, jinns and other things besides Allah. Help is sought from them. They are not approved by Shari'ah (divine law). It is not allowed to use them and to get wages for them. The true incantation or charm is mention of Allah and verses of the Quran and they are either recited and blown or written down as talismans or amulets.

The words (فلعمرى) (by my life) are not an oath. Rather, the Arabs use the words (Arabic) in their speech. Perhaps when the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم spoke these words there was no disallowance to take oath on others besides Allah at that time (but was disallowed later). Allamah Teebi رحمه الله said that perhaps Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. It may have been one of those things permitted to him but not to the others.

DO NOT DELAY PAYMENT OF WAGES

(٢٩٨٧) وَعَنْ عَبْدِاللّٰهِ بْنِ عُمَرَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَعْطُوا الْاَجِيْرَ اَجْرَهٗ قَبْلَ اَنْ يَّجِفَّ عَرَقُهٗ۔ (رواه ابن ماجة)

2987. Sayyiduna Abdullah ibn Umar رضى الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Pay the wages to the labourere before his perspiration dries."[2]

(٢٩٨٨) وَعَنِ الْحُسَيْنِ بْنِ عَلِيٍّ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لِلسَّائِلِ حَقٌّ وَاِنْ جَاءَ عَلٰى فَرَسٍ۔ رَوَاهُ اَحْمَدُ وَاَبُوْدَاوُدَ وَفِي الْمَصَابِيْحِ مُرْسَلٌ۔

2988. Sayyiduna Hussain ibn Ali رضى الله عنه said that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "The begger has a right even if he comes on a horse."[3]

COMMENTARY: This hadith means to say that a beggar must not be returned empty handed. Qadi رحمه الله said that if anyone begs though his apparent condition shows that he is well-off, he must be given something, for without need he would not have disgraced himself. This hadith has no bearing with this chapter unless that which is given to the beggar is regarded as his wages.

The ulama (Scholars) have questioned the Isnad of this hadith. Imam Ahmad رحمه الله has rejected it as without base. But, Abu Dawud رحمه الله has adopted silence which means that he considers it worthy of reference.

---

[1] Abu Dawud # 3420, Musnad Ahmad 5-210.
[2] Ibn Majah # 2443.
[3] Abu Dawud # 1665, Musnad Ahmad # 1-201, Muwatta Maalik # 58. 1-3.

SECTION III اَلْفَصْلُ الثَّالِثُ

PROPHET MUSA عليه السلام AS A LABOURERE

(٢٩٨٩) عَنْ عُتْبَةَ بْنِ الْمُنْذِرِ قَالَ كُنَّا عِنْدَ رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَقَرَأَ طٰسٓمٓ حَتّٰى بَلَغَ قِصَّةَ مُوْسٰى قَالَ إِنَّ مُوْسٰى عَلَيْهِ السَّلَامُ اٰجَرَ نَفْسَهٗ ثَمَانَ سِنِيْنَ اَوْ عَشْرًا عَلٰى عِفَّةِ فَرْجِهٖ وَطَعَامِ بَطْنِهٖ۔ (رواه احمد وابن ماجة)

2989. Sayyiduna Utbah ibn Mundhir رضی الله عنه narrated that they were with Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم when he recited (طسم) (Ta seen meem, 28:1-28). As he came to the story of (Prophet) Musa عليه السلام, he said, Musa عليه السلام had submitted himself to manual labour for eight or ten year to be able to preserve his chastity and till his belly with food."[1]

COMMENTARY: Ta seem meem is the surah al-Qasas. Prophet Musa عليه السلام came to Madyan where he met Sayyiduna Shuayb عليه السلام who married his daughter to him and he hired himself with Sayyiduna Shu'ayb عليه السلام in return.

To preserve his chastity means to marry. Prophet Musa عليه السلام married the daughter of Sayyiduna Shu'ayb عليه السلام on the terms that he would tend his sheep for eight or ten years. He described that as her dower. This practice was allowed in their Shari'ah (divine law). The service of a free man was declared as the dower of his wife. In this case of Prophet Musa عليه السلام, howeve,r it is possible that he may have determined something else as his wife's dower and agreed to act as a shepherd as a gesture of goodwill.

HUSBAND'S SERVICE AS WIFE'S DOWER: The jurists differ on this question. The Hanafis say that it is not allowed for a woman to be married on condition that her husband who is a free man (not a slave) would serve her for some time (like a year). However, it is permitted for her to marry him on condition that his slave would serve her for a certain time, say one year.

The Shafi'is hold that it is permitted to marry against some kind of service provided the work done by the servant and the service offered are known and specified.[2]

REMUNERATION FOR TEACHING RELIGION

(٢٩٩٠) وَعَنْ عُبَادَةَ بْنِ الصَّامِتِ قَالَ قُلْتُ يَارَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ رَجُلٌ اَهْدٰى اِلَيَّ قَوْسًا مِمَّنْ كُنْتُ اُعَلِّمُهُ الْكِتَابَ وَالْقُرْاٰنَ وَلَيْسَتْ بِمَالٍ فَاَرْمِيْ عَلَيْهَا فِيْ سَبِيْلِ اللّٰهِ قَالَ اِنْ كُنْتَ تُحِبُّ اَنْ تُطَوَّقَ طَوْقًا مِنْ نَارٍ فَاقْبَلْهَا۔ (رواه ابوداؤد وابن ماجة)

2990. Sayyiduna Ubadah ibn Samit رضی الله عنه said that he submitted, "O Messenger of Allah, a man has presented me with a bow. He is one of those whom I used to teach the Book and the Quran. It cannot be deemed to be a property (so I think that there is no harm in accepting it). I shall shoot (arrows) with it in Allah's path." He said, "If you like that a necklace of fire be put on you, then do take it."[3]

COMMENTARY: Sayyiduna Ubadah رضی الله عنه said that a bow was not a worthwhile

---

[1] Ibn Majah # 2444, Musnad Ahmad.

[2] See stories of the Prophet. Ibn Kathir English translation pp 1906, Dar ul Isha'at Karachi.

[3] Abu Dawud # 3416, Ibn Majah # 2157, Musnad Ahmad 5-315.

property. The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم worked him that it would wipe out his sincerity with which he had taught those people religion and the Quran. So he should not accept it. Those scholars who say that it is unlawful to ask for wages for teaching religion and the Quran cite this hadith.

CHAPTER - XV

REVIVING BARREN LAND AND IRRIGATING بَابُ اِحْيَاءِ الْمَوَاتِ وَالشِّرْبِ

It is stated in 'Nihayah' that (الموات) Mawat (dead, barren) is the land that has no cultivation, no house and no owner. And, it is written in 'Hidayah:[1] "Mawat (rendered here as waste land) signifies any pieces of ground incapable of yielding advantage either from want of water, an inundation, or any other cause, such as prevents tillage. It is termed mawat or dead because like the dead it is of no use."

It is described thus: Any piece of land that from a long time has lain waste without belonging to any person, or which has been formerly the property of Muslim, who is not then known, and is likewise so far removed from a village that, if a person call out from thence his voice cannot be heard there.[2] Such a land is termed mawat.

The word (احياءموات) (ahya mawat) in the title in Arabic (literally 'revival of the dead,' in plural form) mean 'to make the lands habitable.' This may be done by building homes on it, by planting trees by sowing seeds, by cultivating it or by irrigating it or by ploughing it.

The command of Shari'ah (divine law) is that whoever revives it becomes its owner. However, the scholars differ on it slightly. Imam Abu Hanifah رحمہ اللہ said that before doing any revival work on it permission to proceed must be obtained from the imam (the relevant authority). Imam shafi'I رحمہ اللہ and the two disciples (of Abu Hanifah رحمہ اللہ, namely Imam Abu Yusuf رحمہ اللہ and Imam Muhammad) رضی اللہ عنہ said that it is not necessary to obtain permission. Shurb (شرب) means 'drinking water' in the literal sense. It is a share of water, riverside or place of drawing water. In the terminology of Shari'ah (divine law), the word means: 'the right to seize advantage of water for drinking, using, watering field or garden or watering the animals that is available to every person. As long as water is in its source (like river, pond, etc), it is not anyone's personal property. Everyone, without distinction, has a right to use it to his benefit and no one is permitted to prevent access to it.

However, there is a difference between water of rivers, streams, aqueducts on the one hand and the water that is collected in vessels. The books of fiqh (Islamic jurisprudence) may be consulted for details on this subject. It is enough to know here that according to the Hanafis, every human being has an equal right to the water of the river, howsoever he may use it. He may use it for drinking and irrigating and may channel it to the fields and gardens. No one can prevent him from using it. It is like using to advantage the moon, the sun and the air, Allah has placed these blessings at the disposal of everyone without distinction. Their benefit is not for any specific person or group. All are equal partners in taking advantage from them.

Similarly, everyone has a right to use the water of a well or river. However, if anyone wishes to irrigate his field or garden with the water of the well or river, then the people of the area where they are situated have a right to forbid him and prevent him whether their water will decrease or not. They have every right to the well and river because they are situated in their locality.

---

[1] Vol 2 p 465, Darul Isha'at, Karachi.

[2] ibid.

The water that is filled in a vessels or tank belongs to the owner of these things and to none else. It is like game that becomes, the property of the hunter who hunts it.

If a well or river lies in someone's private land then he is authorized to prevent entry and access to other people, provided they are able to get water from the vicinity and not belonging to anyone. If there is no water nearby, then the owner of that land will have to bring them water from his well or river himself, or allow them to enter his land and get it themselves, on condition that they cause no damage to the well or the bank of the river.

If a well had been dug in a mawat land already, then one who inhabits the land has no right to prevent people from drawing water from the well because though the land comes in his ownership when he make it habitable, the water of the well is not his property. If he disallows a person who wants to drink the water himself or to water his animal and he or his animal is liable to die of thirst, then he may get water by force even if he had to fight for it and use weapons.

A well can be anyone's property but its water is not owned by him or by any one else. Rather, it is allowed to everyone. This is in contrast to the water that a person fills in his vessel, for that is his personal property. However, if anyone is dying of thirst and this person refuses to give him water then he is within his right if he fights him and gets the water by force, provided there really is threat to life if he does not get water and he does not use a weapon against him. It is exactly like the case of a hungry man who may die of hunger if he does not eat any food and another person with enough food refuses to oblige him then he has a right to force the other person to give him to eat to save his life. He may even fight but he is not allowed to use weapons.

Some ulama (Scholars) say that if an owner does not permit a thirsty person to collect water then the least permitted to him is to fight against him without weapons. This is permitted because it is a sin to stop a person from a general blessing of Allah like water. To fight such a person is like enforcing Allah's limits on him.

SECTION I — اَلْفَصْلُ الْاَوَّلُ

DEVELOPING A LAND THAT HAS NO OWNER

(٢٩٩١) عَنْ عَآئِشَةَ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ مَنْ عَمَرَ اَرْضًا لَيْسَتْ لِاَحَدٍ فَهُوَ اَحَقُّ قَالَ عُرْوَةُ قَضٰى بِهٖ عُمَرُ فِيْ خِلَافَتِهٖ۔ (رواه البخاری)

2991. Sayyidah Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہا narrated that the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "He who habitates a land that has no owner has more right to it (than anyone else)." Sayyiduna Urwah رحمہ اللہ said that Sayyiduna Umar رضی اللہ عنہ decided according to this (saying) during his khilafah (caliphate).[1]

COMMENTARY: Urwah's رضی اللہ عنہ words are evidence that his hadith is not abrogated.

---

[1] Bukhari # 2335, Musnad Ahmad 6-120.

CANNOT MAKE GRAZING LAND EXCLUSIVE

(٢٩٩٢) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ اَنَّ الصَّعْبَ بْنَ جَثَّامَةَ قَالَ سَمِعْتُ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُوْلُ

لَاحِمٰى اِلَّا لِلّٰهِ وَرَسُوْلِهٖ۔ (رواه البخارى)

2992. Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ reported that Sayyiduna Sa'b ibn Jath thamah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that he heard Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم say, "There is no sanctuary (or grazing land exclusive for anyone) except that which belong to Allah."[1]

COMMENTARY: Hima is a restricted grazing ground for animals to which other people are not allowed to send their animals.

The hadith says that it is not proper to reserve pastures without permission of Allah and his Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم.

During the Jahiliyah (ignorance period), the chiefs of tribes disallowed animals of other people to such lands that had much grass and profuse water and reserved these lands for themselves. The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم disallowed this practice but did permit creation of exclusive grazing grounds for such animals as were used in jihad and for the animals received against zakah (Annual due charity). Now, however, after the death of the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم no ruler is permitted to set aside a grazing ground for himself or for any purpose. Some ulama (Scholars) do say that a grazing ground may be reserved when it is exigent for the general body of Muslims unless it causes difficulty to most citizens.

A DISPUTE ABOUT WATER

(٢٩٩٣) وَعَنْ عُرْوَةَ قَالَ خَاصَمَ الزُّبَيْرُ رَجُلًا مِنَ الْاَنْصَارِ فِيْ شِرَاجٍ مِنَ الْحَرَّةِ فَقَالَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اسْقِ يَازُبَيْرُ ثُمَّ اَرْسِلِ الْمَاءَ اِلٰى جَارِكَ فَقَالَ الْاَنْصَارِيُّ اَنْ كَانَ ابْنُ عَمَّتِكَ فَتَلَوَّنَ وَجْهُهُ ثُمَّ قَالَ اِسْقِ يَازُبَيْرُ ثُمَّ احْبِسِ الْمَاءَ حَتّٰى يَرْجِعَ اِلَى الْجَدْرِ ثُمَّ اَرْسِلِ الْمَاءَ اِلٰى جَارِكَ فَاسْتَوْعَى النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لِلزُّبَيْرِ حَقَّهٗ فِيْ صَرِيْحِ الْحُكْمِ حِيْنَ اَحْفَظَهُ الْاَنْصَارِيُّ وَكَانَ اَشَارَ عَلَيْهِمَا بِاَمْرٍ لَهُمَا فِيْهِ سَعَةٌ۔ (متفق عليه)

2993. Sayyiduna Urwah رحمہ اللہ narrated that Sayyiduna Zubayr رضی اللہ عنہ had a dispute with an ansar about the streamlets originating form the mountains (to the fields). The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم (when it was brought to him) said, "O Zubayr, water your field, the let it flow to your neighbour." The ansar complained, "Of course, he is your cousin." That brought a change of colour on his face and he said,"Zubair! Irrigate your land and hold in till it flows to the embankment. Then let it flow to your neighbour!" Thus, the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم allowed Zubayr رضی اللہ عنہ his right by the clear judgement when the ansar angered him though he had offered them an advice that could have made it convenient for each of them.[2]

COMMENTARY: Sayyiduna Urwah ibn zubayr ibn al-Awam رحمہ اللہ was a great glorious tabi. He was one of the seven great jurists of Madinah. His mother was the famous sahabiyah Sayyidah Asma رضی اللہ عنہ daughter of Sayyiduna Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ His (Urwah's)

---

[1] Bukhari # 2370, Musnad Ahmad 4-38.

[2] Bukhari # 2359, Muslim # 129-2357, Tirmidhi # 1368, Abu Dawud # 3637, Nasa'i # 5407, Ibn Majah # 2480, Musnad Ahmad 4-5.

رضی اللہ عنہ father was Sayyiduna Zubayr رضی اللہ عنہ the famous sahabi (Prophet's Companion) and son of Sayyidah Safiyah bint Abdul Muttalib, the aunt of the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم one of the chief distinctions of Sayyiduna Zubayr رضی اللہ عنہ is that he was among the earliest to embrace Islam. He had embraced Islam in the very beginning of the Prophet's صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم call. At that time he was only sixteen years old, but his cruel paternal uncle gave him different kinds of punishment for it, like throwing him in smoke. The young man did not falter. Rather, he continued to stop forward. He participated in all battles with the prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم and displayed exemplary bravery. He was one the ten fortunate sahabah (Prophet's Companions) رضی اللہ عنہم whom the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم gave glad tiding of paradise in this world and who are called the ashrah mubashshirah.

It is about Sayyiduna Zubayr رضی اللہ عنہ that he had an nasar irrigated their respective fields through the same channel. Once they had an altercation about who had right of water before the other since they could not agree with one another, they took their case to the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم for a judgement.

He gave the judgment considering that Zubayr's رضی اللہ عنہ land was on a higher level and nearer to the channel then the ansar's رضی اللہ عنہ. The latter, however, accused him of bias and favouritism.

The result was that the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم withdraw the little concession he had given to the ansar رضی اللہ عنہ.

The concluding words of the hadith suggest that the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم had advised Zubayr رضی اللہ عنہ to forgo some of his rights as a matter of goodwill. On the reaction of the ansar, he asked Zybayr رضی اللہ عنہ to seize all his right without consideration.

Some people say that the ansar was actually a hypocrite. Hypocrites never let an opportunity go to hurt the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم. He was called and ansar because he belonged to the tribe of ansars. Some of them were hypocrites like Abdullah ibn Ubayy.

If that is so, then why was he not punished? He ought to have been killed at that moment for being rude to the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم. The answer is that either it was to get him to the straight path by showing him leniency, or the Prophet's صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم patience did not allow him to kill him, for, he always endured and mischief of the hypocrites, and their taunts. Besides the enemies would have said, "Muhammad kills his companions," for, the hypocrites did call themselves Muslims and presented themselves as the Prophet's صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم companions.

However, some ulama (Scholars) have dug up an unearthed that the ansar was reallv a believer. Annoyance and impatience had made his mind restless and he blundered into misbehaving with the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم.[1]

DO NOT WITHHOLD EXCESS WATER

(٢٩٩٤) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَا تَمْنَعُوْا فَضْلَ الْمَاءِ لِتَمْنَعُوْا بِهِ فَضْلَ الْكَلَاءِ۔ (متفق عليه)

2994. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم

---

[1] See also Siratun Nabi, Shibli Nu'mani, Dar ul Isha'at Karachi, v7 p46, v1 p195 and v2 p78.

said, "Do not withhold excess water (from the animals) lest it stop extra herbage from growing."[1]

COMMENTARY: If animals are prevented from water, no one will get their animals there to graze. Once who disallows water directly, prevents grazing. It is the main diet of the animals, so it is not correct to disallow it. Of course, if there is no excess water then it is not wrong to prefer one's needs.

(٢٩٩٥) وَعَنْهُ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ ثَلَاثَةٌ لَا يُكَلِّمُهُمُ اللّٰهُ يَوْمَ الْقِيَامَةِ وَلَا يَنْظُرُ إِلَيْهِمْ رَجُلٌ حَلَفَ عَلٰى سِلْعَةٍ لَقَدْ أُعْطِيَ بِهَا أَكْثَرَ مِمَّا أُعْطِيَ وَهُوَ كَاذِبٌ وَرَجُلٌ حَلَفَ عَلٰى يَمِيْنٍ كَاذِبَةٍ بَعْدَ الْعَصْرِ لِيَقْتَطِعَ بِهَا مَالَ رَجُلٍ مُسْلِمٍ وَرَجُلٌ مَنَعَ فَضْلَ مَاءٍ فَيَقُوْلُ اللّٰهُ اَلْيَوْمَ أَمْنَعُكَ فَضْلِيْ كَمَا مَنَعْتَ فَضْلَ مَاءٍ لَمْ تَعْمَلْ يَدَاكَ۔ (متفق عليه)

2995. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Three there are to whom Allah shall not speak on the day of resurrection and shall not look at them (with mercy), (they are:)

1. A man who swears (falsely) about his goods (to the buyer) that he was getting a better price than what he is being given, and he is a liar.

2. A man who swears a false oath after asr (salah (prayer)) to cheat a Muslim of his property.

3. A man who denies (to others) excess water. So Allah will say (on the day of resurrection)."Today, I deny you My favour just as you had denied excess water that your hands had not produced."[2]

COMMENTARY: The time 'after asr' has been mentioned either because false swearing is made at this time generally or it is more sinful to swear falsely after asr.

Allah will say to him that he acted unjustly though he had no hand in producing the water. How would he have acted if the water was his product? He denied Allah's blessing to other, so Allah will deny His blessing to him.

Though a well or stream may have man's effort in building them, yet the water therein is Allah's blessing and favour. The owner cannot deny it to others.

وَذُكِرَ حَدِيْثُ جَابِرٍ فِيْ بَابِ الْمَنْهِيِّ عَنْهَا مِنَ الْبُيُوْعِ

(Jabir's رضی الله عنه hadith is mentioned previously in the chapter of 'Sales and purchases that are disallowed.' # 2857)

SECTION II اَلْفَصْلُ الثَّانِيْ

WALL ROUND A BARREN LAND

(٢٩٩٦) عَنِ الْحَسَنِ عَنْ سَمُرَةَ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ مَنْ أَحَاطَ حَائِطًا عَلَى الْأَرْضِ فَهُوَ لَهُ۔

(رواه ابوداؤد)

---

[1] Bukhari # 2354, Muslim # 37-1566, Tirmidhi # 1276, Abu Dawud # 3473, Ibn Majah # 2478, Musnad Ahmad 2. 244.

[2] Bukhari # 2369, Muslim # 173-103, Abu Dawud # 3474, Nasa'i # 4462, Ibn Majah # 2207, Musnad Ahmad 2-253.

2996. Sayyiduna Hasan (Busri) رحمه الله reported that Sayyiduna Samurah رضى الله عنه narrated that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "He who surrounded a (barren) land with a wall, it belongs to him."

COMMENTARY: According to the hadith, ownership of a barren land is established by the erection of a boundary wall round it. Imam Ahmad رحمه الله abides by this direction while the other three imam hold that ownership of such land is established only after it is made habitable. This has been explained in the beginning of the chapter. The hadith will be interpreted to mean that the wall is put up round the land to enable residence thereon.

PROPHET'S صلى الله عليه وسلم GIFTS OF BARREN LAND TO THE SAHABAH (PROPHET'S COMPANIONS) رضى الله عنهم

(٢٩٩٧) وَعَنْ اَسْمَاءَ بِنْتِ اَبِيْ بَكْرٍ اَنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَقْطَعَ لِلزُّبَيْرِ نَخِيْلًا۔ (رواه ابوداؤد)

2997. Sayyidah Asma bint Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم handed over ownership of some palm trees to (Sayyiduna) Zubayr رضى الله عنه.[1]

COMMENTARY: Those trees were either from the Khums, or they stood on the barren land presented to Sayyiduna Zubayr رضى الله عنه.

(٢٩٩٨) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عُمَرَ اَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَقْطَعَ لِلزُّبَيْرِ حُضْرَ فَرَسِهٖ فَاَجْرٰى فَرَسَهٗ حَتّٰى قَامَ ثُمَّ رَمٰى بِسَوْطِهٖ فَقَالَ اَعْطُوْهُ مِنْ حَيْثُ بَلَغَ السَّوْطُ۔ (رواه ابوداؤد)

2998. Sayyiduna Ibn Umar رضى الله عنه narrated that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم allot ed to (Sayyiduna) Zubayr رضى الله عنه all the land his horse could cover at a run so, he made it run and when it stopped (at a distance), he threw his whip (from there), so, the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Let him have it till where his whip has reached."[2]

(٢٩٩٩) وَعَنْ عَلْقَمَةَ بْنِ وَائِلٍ عَنْ اَبِيْهِ اَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَقْطَعَهٗ اَرْضًا بِحَضْرَمَوْتَ قَالَ فَاَرْسَلَ مَعِيَ مُعَاوِيَةَ قَالَ اَعْطِهَا اِيَّاهُ۔ (رواه الترمذى والدارمى)

2999. Sayyiduna Alqamah ibn Wa'il رحمه الله narrated on the authority of his father that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم allotted to him a piece of land in Hadramawt. He said, "He sent Mu'awiyah with me instructing him, 'Give it to him.'[3]

COMMENTARY: The mount as sarah extends from Yemen to the Arabian peninsula, from its south west corner to the east turning along the southern coast to a long distance. The area this mountain range covers is called Hardramawt nearly all of it is barren and made up of desolate mountains. They are not very high and are uncultivable because of poor rain. However, some of their valleys are relatively hospitable, one such is the valley Hadramawt.

Sayyiduna wa'il ibn Hajr رضى الله عنه was a prince of the decent royal family of this area. His father was the monarch of the place. When he learnt of the Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم call to

---

[1] Abu Dawud # 3069.

[2] Abu Dawud # 3072, Musnad Ahmad 2-156.

[3] Tirmidhi # 1386, Abu Dawud # 3058, Darimi # 2609, Musnad Ahmad 6-399.

Islam, he took a deputation of his people to meet him. As he departed from Hadramawt, the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم informed the Sahabah (Prophet's Companions) رضی اللہ عنہم before his arrival: (وهو بقية ابناء الملوک) (and he is the surviving son of the kings). When he came and met the prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم, he received him warmly and made him sit near him on his mat. Then he made him ruler of Hadramawt, bestowing on him some of its lands.

(۳۰۰۰) وَعَنْ اَبْيَضَ بْنِ حَمَّالٍ الْمَأْرِبِيِّ اَنَّهُ وَفَدَ اِلٰى رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَاسْتَقْطَعَهُ الْمِلْحَ الَّذِيْ بِمَارِبَ فَاَقْطَعَهُ اِيَّاهُ فَلَمَّا وَلّٰى قَالَ رَجُلٌ يَارَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ اِنَّمَا اَقْطَعْتَ لَهُ الْمَاءَ الْعِدَّ قَالَ فَرَجَعَهُ مِنْهُ قَالَ وَسَأَلَهُ مَاذَا الْحِمٰى مِنَ الْاَرَاكِ قَالَ مَالَمْ تَنَلْهُ اَخْفَافُ الْاِبِلِ۔ (رواه الترمذى وابن ماجة والدارمى)

3000. Sayyiduna Abyad ibn Hammal al-Marabi narrated that he came to Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم and requested him to allot to him the (mine of) salt in Ma'rib. So, he gave it to him. But, as he turned to go, a man pointed out, "O Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم of Allah, you have given him the ceaseless (ready) water (meaning, salt that is absolutely ready)." (This man was Aqra ibn Habis Tamimi.) رضی اللہ عنہ So, he took it back from him. He then requested him about the land that had arak (thorny) trees growing in it. He said, "The land where the camels do not reach."[1]

COMMENTARY: Marib is a city in Yemen, sixty miles to the east of Sana'a, four thousand feet above the sea level. It was the capital of Yemen up to the first century of the Gregorian calendar, under the Saba dynasty. It also was a busy trade centre. Abyad رضی اللہ عنہ was called Ma'rabi because of his residence there.

Ceaseless or ready water means always ready and perpetual. It alludes to the salt in the mine that is always at h and. The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم gave it to Abyad رضی اللہ عنہ under the impression that he would have to work over it but when Aqra رضی اللہ عنہ pointed out that it was developed and no work was necessary to extract the salt, he reversed his decision because all people had a right over it, the mine as well as the salt.

It is evidence that the ruling government may assign a mine to any one if it is underground and undeveloped. The mines that are developed and productive may not be given to any individual. Like grass and water, all people will share their utility.

The hadith also establishes that a ruler may annul his decision if it transpires that it was not based on correct information.

The words 'where the camels do not reach' mean a land distant from pastures and buildings. Hence, it is not allowed to revive the barren land that is near houses because animals graze there and citizens use it for different purposes.

THERE BLESSINGS OF ALLAH FOR ALL

(۳۰۰۱) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَلْمُسْلِمُوْنَ شُرَكَاءُ فِيْ ثَلَاثٍ فِي الْمَاءِ وَالْكَلَاءِ وَالنَّارِ۔ (رواه ابوداؤد وابن ماجة)

3001. Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "The Muslims are co-sharers in three things; water, herbage and fire."[2]

[1] Tirmidhi # 1385, Ibn Majah # 2475, Darimi # 2608, Abu Dawud # 3064.

[2] Abu Dawud # 3477, Ibn Majah # 2472, Musnad Ahmad 5. 361.

COMMENTARY: Of the three blessings, water is found in the rivers, ponds, seas, wells, etc. It is not what anyone has in his vessels. This has been dealt with in the beginning of the chapter. Herbage is grown in the open.

If anyone possesses fire, he has no right to deny it to others or prevent him from burning a lantern or from sitting in its light. But, the wood that is being burnt is not allowed to anyone because that would cause the fire to decrease or to extinguish. Some people say that it refers to flint that is used to ignite a spark. NO one may be prevented to take it from a barren land (mawat).

THE FIRST TO TAKE POSSESSES IT, IF IT IS A PERMISSIBLE THING

(٣٠٠٢) وَعَنْ اَسْمَرَبْنِ مُضَرِّسٍ قَالَ اَتَيْتُ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَبَايَعْتُهُ فَقَالَ مَنْ سَبَقَ اِلٰى مَاءٍ لَمْ يَسْبِقْهُ اِلَيْهِ مُسْلِمٌ فَهُوَلَهٗ۔ (رواه ابوداؤد)

3002. Sayyiduna Asmar Mudarris رضی اللہ عنہ recalled his coming to the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم when he swore allegiance to him. He said to him (Asmar) رضی اللہ عنہ. "If anyone precedes (others) to water to which no Muslim has overtaken him, then it belongs to him."[1]

COMMENTARY: If any one takes water from a permissible source like river, etc. that portion becomes his property and what remains in the source is not his but continues to be permissible for all. In the same way other permissible things are treated.

EVIL OVERTAKES THE PEOPLE WHOSE WEAK ARE DENIED THEIR RIGHTS

(٣٠٠٣-٣٠٠٤) وَعَنْ طَاؤسٍ مُرْسَلًا اَنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ مَنْ اَحْيَا مَوَاتًا مِنَ الْاَرْضِ فَهُوَلَهٗ وَعَادِيُّ الْاَرْضِ لِلّٰهِ وَرَسُوْلِهٖ ثُمَّ هِيَ لَكُمْ مِنِّيْ۔ رَوَاهُ الشَّافِعِيُّ وَرُوِيَ فِيْ شَرْحِ السُّنَّةِ اَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَقْطَعَ لِعَبْدِاللّٰهِ بْنِ مَسْعُوْدٍ الدُّوْرَ بِالْمَدِيْنَةِ وَهِيَ بَيْنَ ظَهْرَانِيْ عِمَارَةِ الْاَنْصَارِ مِنَ الْمَنَازِلِ وَالنَّخْلِ فَقَالَ بَنُوْ عَبْدِبْنِ زُهْرَةَ نَكِّبْ عَنَّا ابْنَ اُمِّ عَبْدٍفَقَالَ لَهُمْ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَلِمَ ابْتَعَثَنِيَ اللّٰهُ اِذًا اِنَّ اللّٰهَ لَا يُقَدِّسُ اُمَّةً لَا يُؤْخَذُ لِلضَّعِيْفِ فِيْهِمْ حَقُّهٗ۔

3003. Sayyiduna Tawus رضی اللہ عنہ narrated in a mursal form that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "He who revives barren land, it belongs to him. Ancient land belongs to Allah and His Messenger. Then it is for you from me."[2]

3004. It is reported that Sharh us sunnah (Prophet's صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم practice) that the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم allotted to Sayyiduna Abdullah ibn Mas'ud رضی اللہ عنہ some houses in Madinah between the dwellings and palm trees of the ansar. At that, the Banu Abd ibn Zuhrah pleaded. "Send away the son of Umm Abd from us!" (Ibn Mas'ud's) رضی اللہ عنہ mother was Umm Abd.) He said, "Then why has Allah sent me? Allah does not grant sanctity to a people who do not get the weak his rights."[3]

COMMENTARY: Ancient land is the barren land whose owner is unknown. The Arabic Word

---

[1] Abu Dawud # 3071.

[2] Abu Dawud # 3071.

[3] Shafi in al-Umm 4-45 (kitab ul Jihad, chapter on Huma and Qita).

for it (عادى) refer to (عاد) Aad, the people of Prophet Hud عليه السلام merely to depict its primeval or ancient nature because prophet Hud عليه السلام and his people are very early in history.
The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "belongs to and His Messenger." It means 'all old. Ownerless barren lands belong to me. They are under m y authority. I use them as I deem best and give them to whom I like and allow them to develop them.' Allah's name is taken by way of introduction and His Greatness to demonstrate His Messenger's صلى الله عليه وسلم status, for, the Messenger's صلى الله عليه وسلم decision reflects Allah's decision This (last sentence) is what Qadi said.
Banu Abd ibn Zuhrah wanted Ibn Mas'ud رضى الله عنه to be sent away because they were opposed to his father, Mas'ud, during the jahiliyah (ignorance period). Besides, his mother, Umm Abd was among their servants. So, they demonstrated their apathy for Ibn Mas'ud رضى الله عنه.
The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم told them that one of the reasons for which he was sent was to help the weak people and remove the imaginary wall between men dividing them as high and low. He had to infuse common sense into the arrogant and confidence into the weak and needy.
He said that the people who do not care for their weak section are the worst of human beings whom Allah does not clear from sins and evil. When the strong suppress the weak and deny them their rights, their social life is smeared with evil and sin. They are not worthy and not righteous, and deprive themselves of Allah's mercy.
Therefore, the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم explained to Banu (children of) Abd ibn Zuhrah that they should not try to deny Abdullah ibn Mas'ud his rights. He could choose to live where he wished. And the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said to them "I am his helper and am bound to support him."

RELEASING WATER TO FIELDS AND GARDENS

(٣٠٠٥) وَعَنْ عَمْرِو بْنِ شُعَيْبٍ عَنْ اَبِيْهِ عَنْ جَدِّهٖ اَنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَضٰى فِي السَّيْلِ الْمَهْزُوْرِ اَنْ يُمْسَكَ حَتّٰى يَبْلُغَ الْكَعْبَيْنِ ثُمَّ يُرْسِلَ الْاَعْلٰى عَلَى الْاَسْفَلِ۔ (رواه ابوداؤد وابن ماجة)

3005. Sayyiduna Amr ibn Shu'ayb رحمه الله narrated that on the authority of his father (Shu'ayb) from his grandfather (Abdullah ibn Amr) رضى الله عنه that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم had decided about the stream al-Mahzur that its water should be withheld till it was ankle deep and then the upper waters should be released to flow to the lower.[1]

COMMENTARY: Al-Mahzur is a valley in Madinah situated in the land of Banu Qurayzah and irrigating their fields. The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم had instructed that the land near to the canal carrying water from this valley should be given preference and water should be released to it first. When this land was well watered the sign of which was that water stood ankle deep, the water should be released and allowed to go to the lower land.
The same procedure applies to every river flows naturally without anyone's effort in building it.

DO NOT TROUBLE OTHERS

(٣٠٠٦) وَعَنْ سَمُرَةَ بْنِ جُنْدُبٍ اَنَّهٗ كَانَتْ لَهٗ عَضُدٌ مِنْ نَخْلٍ فِيْ حَائِطِ رَجُلٍ مِنَ الْاَنْصَارِ وَمَعَ الرَّجُلِ اَهْلُهٗ فَكَانَ سَمُرَةُ يَدْخُلُ عَلَيْهِ فَيَتَاَذّٰى بِهٖ فَاَتَى النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَذَكَرَ ذٰلِكَ لَهٗ فَطَلَبَ اِلَيْهِ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى

---

[1] Abu Dawud # 3639, Ibn Majah # 2482, Muwatta Maalik # 28 (al-Aqdiyah).

اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لِيَبِيْعَهُ فَأَبٰى فَطَلَبَ اَنْ يُنَاقِلَهُ فَأَبٰى قَالَ فَهَبْهُ لَهُ وَلَكَ كَذَا اَمْرًا رَغَّبَهُ فِيْهِ فَأَبٰى فَقَالَ اَنْتَ مُضَارٌّ فَقَالَ لِلْاَنْصَارِيِّ اذْهَبْ فَاقْطَعْ نَخْلَهُ رَوَاهُ اَبُوْدَاوُدَ۔

3006. Sayyiduna Samurah ibn Jundub رضی اللہ عنہ is reported to have had some palm-trees in the garden of a man of the ansar (purportedly Malik ibn Qays) رضی اللہ عنہ who had his family with him. Sayyiduna Samurah رضی اللہ عنہ used to enter it (to look after his trees). This caused inconvenience to the ansar. So, he met and told the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم about it. He (called Samurah) رضی اللہ عنہ and asked him to sell it (meaning, the palm trees to the ansar), but he declined. So, he advised him to exchange them for something else, but he declined. Then, he instructed him to present them to ansar and have a certain thing for it but he declined. Then, he said, "You are a difficult man." And to the ansar, "Go, cut down his palm-trees!"

COMMENTARY: The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم did not give a command to Sayyiduna Samurah of a wajib (obligatory) nature that he had no option but to obey. He merely suggested to him or recommended him to do one of those things. The last option was also an encouragement to earn reward. If it was otherwise, then Sayyiduna Samurah رضی اللہ عنہ would not have declined so easily. Rather, being an obedient sahabi, he would have agreed without hesitation.

The question arises why did the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم instruct the ansar to chop down Samurah's رضی اللہ عنہ trees. The answer is that since he declined every offer, he seemed to be bent on causing distress to the ansar. There was only one way to give relieve to the ansar instruct him to cut down those trees.

وَذُكِرَ حَدِيْثُ جَابِرٍ مَنْ اَحْيٰى اَرْضًا فِيْ بَابِ الْغَصَبِ بِرِوَايَةِ سَعِيْدِ بْنِ زَيْدٍ وَسَنَذْكُرُ حَدِيْثَ اَبِيْ صِرْمَةَ مَنْ ضَارَّ اَضَرَّ اللّٰهُ بِهٖ فِيْ بَابِ مَا يُنْهٰى مِنَ التَّهَاجُرِ

And, the hadith of Jabir رضی اللہ عنہ about reviving barren land has been narrated already in the chapter on 'unjust & compulsory appropriation, hadith # 2944.

مَنْ ضَارَّ ضَرَّ اللّٰهُ بِهٖ الخ باب ماينهى من التّهاجر

And, we shall narrate the hadith of Abu Sirmah (# 5042) about one who hurts, Allah will cause him hurt...in the chapter on that which is forbidden about severing ties of kinship or staying apart. (The compiler of Masabih had reproduced were both these traditions.)

SECTION III — اَلْفَصْلُ الثَّالِثُ

DO NOT REFUSE TO GIVE WATER, SALT & FIRE

(٣٠٠٧) عَنْ عَائِشَةَ اَنَّهَا قَالَتْ يَارَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ مَا الشَّيْءُ الَّذِيْ لَا يَحِلُّ مَنْعُهُ قَالَ الْمَاءُ وَالْمِلْحُ وَالنَّارُ قَالَتْ قُلْتُ يَارَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ هٰذَا الْمَاءُ قَدْ عَرَفْنَاهُ فَمَا بَالُ الْمِلْحِ وَالنَّارِ قَالَ يَا حُمَيْرَاءُ مَنْ اَعْطٰى نَارًا فَكَاَنَّمَا تَصَدَّقَ بِجَمِيْعِ مَا اَنْضَجَتْ تِلْكَ النَّارُ وَمَنْ اَعْطٰى مِلْحًا فَكَاَنَّمَا تَصَدَّقَ بِجَمِيْعِ مَا طَيَّبَتْ تِلْكَ الْمِلْحُ وَمَنْ سَقٰى مُسْلِمًا شَرْبَةً مِنْ مَاءٍ حَيْثُ يُوْجَدُ الْمَاءُ فَكَاَنَّمَا اَعْتَقَ رَقَبَةً وَمَنْ سَقٰى مُسْلِمًا شَرْبَةً مِنْ مَاءٍ حَيْثُ لَا يُوْجَدُ الْمَاءُ فَكَاَنَّمَا اَحْيَاهَا۔

(رواه ابن ماجة)

3007. Sayyidah Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہا narrated that she asked, 'O Messenger of Allah صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم, what thing is it that it is not lawful to deny?" He said, "Water, Salt and fire," She said, "O Messenger of Allah, this water we understand (that this blessing of Allah is essential and a necessity of life). But, why salt and fire? (It is difficult to comprehend.) He said, "O Humayra, he who gives fire is like one who gives a charity of everything that the fire cooks. And, he who gives salt is as though he gives charity of everything that the salt makes tasty. He who gives water to drink to a Muslim where water is available is as though he has emancipated a slave. And he who gives water to a Muslim to drink where water is scarce is as though he has given him life."

COMMENTARY: The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم also described the need to give water though Sayyidah Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہا had said that she understood the need to give water to someone.[1]

CHAPTER - XVI

GIFTS بَابُ الْعَطَايَا

The word (عطایا) (ataya) is the plural of (عطا) (ata) meaning 'gift.' grant. It is to transfer ownership and right to use of something belonging to oneself to another person, or to give away something to another without any return.

In this chapter, all kinds of gift and grants will be mentioned. They are:

(وقف) (waqf) or endowment,

(هبه) (hibah) grant, donation,

(عمیری) (umra) donation for life,

(رقبی) (ruqba) donation with provision as to death of donar or donee.[2]

Mulla Ali Qari رحمہ اللہ has stated that ataya mean 'the grants and rewards of the chiefs, rulers, monarchs and heads of states."

Imam Ghazali رحمہ اللہ has written in Minhaj ul Aabideeen that the ulama (Scholars) have expressed different opinions on accepting the gifts of rulers and monarchs and the rewards of state. Some of them say that if the gifts and rewards are of such things of whose unlawfulness one is not certain then it is correct to accept them. Others say that unless one is certain that they are lawful, it is better not to accept them because in present times, most of the property and valuables with the kings and in state Treasuries are acquired through sources not recognized and approved by Shari'ah (divine law).

Some ulama (Scholars) say that it is lawful for both the rich and the poor to receive gifts from the rulers as long as it is not established definitely that their property is unlawfully acquired. Their evidence is that the prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم had accepted the gift of Muqawqis king of Alexandria and had taken a loan from a Jew though the Qaran says about the Jews.

أَكَّالُونَ لِلسُّحْتِ

{devourers of the unlawful} (5:42)

Some others have said that if it is not known about some property that it is unlawful then the poor (destitute, needy) is allowed to take it but the rich (who can afford) is not permitted to take it.

---

[1] Ibn Majah # 2474.

[2] These definitions are from mujan lughat al Fuqaha, Idaratul Quran, Karachi.

In conclusion and as a summary the ruling may be understood that there is no harm if a poor person accepts anything from the rulers because if it is the ruler's personal property then undoubtedly it is correct to take it, and if it is from the spoils, Kharaj (homage revenue) (tribute or tax and land) or ushr (one tenth or title) then the poor person deserves to take it. The scholars too have a right to the revenue of the spoils, tribute or one-tenth of land tax. Sayyiduna Ali رضی اللہ عنہ said that if any one embraces Islam willingly and learns the Quran, then he has a right to take two hundred dirhams from the state Treasury every year. If he does not receive his right in this world then he will get its reward in the hereafter.

SECTION I الفصل الاول

UMAR'S LAND OF KHAYBAR GIVEN AS WAQF

(٣٠٠٨) عن ابن عمر ان عمر اصاب ارضا بخيبر فاتى النبي صلى الله عليه وسلم فقال يا رسول الله اني
اصبت ارضا بخيبر لم اصب مالا قط انفس عندي منه فما تامرني به قال ان شئت حبست اصلها
وتصدقت بها فتصدق بها عمر انه لا يباع اصلها ولا يوهب ولا يورث وتصدق بها في الفقراء وفي القربى
وفي الرقاب وفي سبيل الله وابن السبيل والضيف لا جناح على من وليها ان ياكل منها بالمعروف او يطعم
غير متمول قال ابن سيرين غير متاثل مالا۔ (متفق عليه)

3008. Sayyiduna Ibn Umar رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that (Sayyiduna) Umar رضی اللہ عنہ got some land in Khaybar (as his share of spoils). He went to the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم and submitted. "O Messenger of Allah, I have received land in Khaybar that I think is more valuable then any other I have ever had." (And he expressed desire to use it in Allah's path.) "Command me how I may use it?" He said, "If you wish, make a waqf (endowment) of the property and give its produce as charity." So, Umar made a sadaqah (charity) of the land in Allah's path stipulating that the land itself should not be sold gifted or inherited. He gave its produce as sadaqah (charity) to be disbursed to the poor the relatives, the slaves to buy their freedom, in Allah's path (for the warriors, pilgrims), the travellers and the guest. The trustee of the land may eat from it and feed his family (who are not self supporting) only to the extent of his needs, there being no sin on him for that, provided he does not build up (from it) to become rich.

Ibn Sirin رحمہ اللہ explained that the trustee should not make the land a means to collect wealth for himself.[1]

COMMENTARY: This hadith is proof that waqf may be made. All Muslim agree that a Muslim is allowed to make waqf of his property like land or house, etc. for a pious purpose and a good objective to please Allah. A person who makes the waqf is bestowed with a huge reward.

This hadith is also an evidence that the property of which a waqf is made may neither be sold nor given in gift. It cannot be inherited too.

---

[1] Bukhari # 2737, Muslim # 15-1632, Nasa'i # 3629, 3630, Ibn Majah # 2396, Musnad Ahmad 2-12.

This hadith bears out the excellence of waqf which is a recurring charity The person who makes a waqf receives its reward perpetually.
Khaybar is a habitation about sixty miles to the north of Madinah. Dates are grown here. The Muslims had conquered it in the times of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. After that, its lands were distributed as spoils among the warriors and Sayyiduna Umar رضى الله عنه also got a share which he set aside as waqf in Allah's path.
Sharh us sunnah (Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم practice) says that this hadith confirms that it is allowed to the person making a waqf to receive from it a reasonable profit for his needs. He may use that on the necessities of life of himself and his family. He is the trustee of his waqf.
At one time, the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم had asked, "Is there anyone who will buy bi'r (the well named) roomah? (It had belonged to a Jew and the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم had asked for one who would buy it and make an endowment of it for the Muslim). "His bucket in the well will be like a Muslim's." (It meant that he could use the well like other Muslim could.) Sayyiduna Uthaman bought the well and made a waqf of it for the Muslims.

UMRA IS ALLOWED

(٣٠٠٩) وَعَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ الْعُمْرٰى جَائِزَةٌ۔ (متفق عليه)

3009. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضى الله عنه narrated that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Umra is allowed."[1]
(Umra is a life time donation, as distinct from umrah, the pilgrimage.)

COMMENTARY: Mutual dealings and exchange of gifts promote love for each other. One of the ways to give gifts is umra which is permissible according to this hadith. (the word is pronounced umra)

WHAT IS UMRA: It has been defined earlier. For example, someone gives to another his house for the life time of the recipient. This is allowed and as long as the person to whom the house is given lives, the house cannot be taken back. However, when he dies, may house be taken back or not?
The ulama (Scholars) differ on this question. There are three kinds of umraa:

(1) A person gives his house to another. Saying, "I have given you my house for your lifetime. After your death, it will go to your heir and children." All the ulama (Scholars) agree that this is a gift and it is no more the property of the donor. It becomes the recipient's property. After his death, his heirs become owners of the house. If he has no heirs then it goes to the state Treasury.

(2) The giver says only. "This is your house for your life time." Most ulama (Scholars) say that the same ruling applies as in the previous case. However, some ulama (Scholars) say that it will not go to the heirs but will revert to the donor who is the original owner.

(3) The giver says, "This house is your for your lifetime. After your death it will become my and my heir's property." However, the more correct thing is that the same ruling applies in this case as the first case. The Hanafis say that the condition 'it will revert to me and my heirs after my death' is void. However, the gift does not become void because of the faulty condition. Imam Shafi'I رحمه

[1] F khari # 2626, Muslim # 32-162, Abu Dawud # 2548, Nasa'i # 3785, Musnad Ahmad 2. 347.

رحمه الله agrees with this opinion, but Imam Ahmad رحمه الله says that the void condition makes the gift void.

Imam Maalik رحمه الله says that in all these cases, the basic purpose is to make the recipient owner of the benefit of the thing given.

UMRA BECOMES PROPERTY OF HEIR OF RECIPIENT

(٣٠١٠) وَعَنْ جَابِرٍ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ إِنَّ الْعُمْرٰى مِيْرَاثٌ لِأَهْلِهَا۔ (رواه مسلم)

3010. Sayyiduna Jabir رضی الله عنه narrated that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Surely, umra becomes the inheritance of the heirs of its owner (who is the recipient of the gift)."[1]

COMMENTARY: The hadith confirms that if a house is given as umra then it will remain property of the one to whom it is given. On his death, it will become the property of his heirs. Thus, the contention of the majority of the ulama (Scholars) (as mentioned earlier) is upheld.

(٣٠١١) وَعَنْهُ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ أَيُّمَا رَجُلٍ أُعْمِرَ عُمْرٰى لَهُ وَلِعَقِبِهٖ فَإِنَّهَا لِلَّذِيْ أُعْطِيَهَا لَا يَرْجِعُ إِلَى الَّذِيْ أَعْطَاهَا لِأَنَّهُ أَعْطٰى عَطَاءً وَقَعَتْ فِيْهِ الْمَوَارِيْثُ۔ (متفق عليه)

3011. Sayyiduna Jabir رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "If any man is given a thing as umra for himself and for his heirs, then the umra belongs to him to whom it is given. It does not return to the donor, because he gave a gift in which inheritance follows."[2]

COMMENTARY: Of the three kinds of umra mentioned in the hadith of Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی الله عنه (# 3009), this hadith refers to the very first kind. It has been explained there concerning the juristic difference of opinion/

HADITH THAT CONTRADICTS GENERAL OPINION

(٣٠١٢) وَعَنْهُ قَالَ إِنَّمَا الْعُمْرٰى الَّتِيْ أَجَازَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ أَنْ يَقُوْلَ هِيَ لَكَ وَلِعَقِبِكَ فَأَمَّا إِذَا قَالَ هِيَ لَكَ مَا عِشْتَ فَإِنَّهَا تَرْجِعُ إِلٰى صَاحِبِهَا۔ (متفق عليه)

3012. Sayyiduna Jabir رضی الله عنه narrated that the umra which Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم permitted is that the giver should say, "It belongs to you and to your heirs (after your death)." If he says, "It is yours as long as you live.' Then it will return to its (original owner (who gave it).[3]

COMMENTARY: This hadith seems to contradict the opinion of the majority of the ulama (Scholars) as mentioned in the commentary of the hadith of Abu Hurayrah رضی الله عنه (# 3009). The ulama (Scholars) say that this hadith is not marfu which means that it communicates the saying of Sayyiduna Jabir رضی الله عنه, not of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم So, it does not affect the majority opinion.

---

[1] Muslim # 31-1625.

[2] Bukhari # 2625, Muslim # 20. 1625, Tirmidhi # 1358, Abu Dawud # 3553, Ibn Majah # 2380.

[3] Muslim # 23-1625, Abu Dawud # 3551, Musnad Ahmad 3-294.

SECTION II الفصل الثاني

UMRA & RAQBA DISALLOWED

(٣٠١٣) عَنْ جَابِرٍ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ لَا تُرْقِبُوْا وَلَا تُعْمِرُوْا فَمَنْ أُرْقِبَ شَيْئًا اَوْ أُعْمِرَ فَهِيَ لِوَرَثَتِهٖ۔ (رواه ابوداؤد)

3013. Sayyiduna Jabir رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "Do not give a gift as ruqba or as umra. If anyone is given anything as ruqba or as umra then it goes to his heirs."[1]

COMMENTARY: Like umra, ruqba is a kind of gift, defined earlier in the chapter. A man gives his house to another stipulating, "If I die before you the house will be your property. If you die before me, it will become my property again." Thus, one waits for the other to die.

Previously, we learnt that both these kinds are allowed. Now we are asked to abstain from them. So, either this hadith is abrogated as this prohibition might have been of an earliei date, Or, we are told that both umra and ruqba are not judicious yet if they are observed, then Shariah deems them correct.

While the Hanafis regard umrah as allowed, ruqba is not and imam Ahmad Abu Hanifah رحمہ اللہ Yusuf رحمہ اللہ regards it as allowed.

Some Hanafi scholars say that one should not give one's property as gift for a specified period of time with intention to take it back at the end of that time. The reason is that when anything is given as gift, it is no longer the giver's property whether he gives it explicitly as hibah (gifts) or as umra or ruqba.

BOTH UMRA AND RUQBA ARE ALLOWED

(٣٠١٤) وَعَنْهُ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ الْعُمْرٰى جَائِزَةٌ لِاَهْلِهَا وَالرُّقْبٰى جَائِزَةٌ لِاَهْلِهَا (رواه احمد والترمذی وابوداؤد)

3014. Sayyiduna Jabir رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "The umra is allowed (as a gift) to those who are given (a gift as) umra. And the ruqba is allowed to those who are given (a gift as) ruqba."[2]

SECTION III الفصل الثالث

IS UMRA DISALLOWED

(٣٠١٥) عَنْ جَابِرٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَمْسِكُوْا اَمْوَالَكُمْ عَلَيْكُمْ لَا تُفْسِدُوهَا فَإِنَّهُ مَنْ أَعْمَرَ عُمْرٰى فَهِيَ لِلَّذِيْ أُعْمِرَ حَيًّا وَمَيِّتًا وَلِعَقِبِهٖ۔ (رواه مسلم)

3015. Sayyiduna Jabir رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "Retain your properties with yourself. Do no waste them, for he who gives anything as umra (to another) gives it to him for (all his) life and after his death, to his children."[3]

---

[1] Abu Dawud # 3556, Nasa'i # 3731.

[2] Tirmidhi # 1358, Abu Dawud # 3558, Nasa'i # 2739, Ibn Majah # 2383, Musnad Ahmad 3-303.

[3] Muslim # 26-1625, Musnad Ahmad 3-312.

COMMENTARY: The validity of umra seems doubtful in the light of this hadith. However, if the explanation to hadith # 3013 is read, the doubt will be cleared.

CHAPTER - XVII

MORE ABOUT THE PREVIOUS بَابٌ

SECTION I اَلْفَصْلُ الْاَوَّلُ

DO NOT RETURN GIFT OF SWEET FLOWER

(٣٠١٦) عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ عُرِضَ عَلَيْهِ رَيْحَانٌ فَلَا يَرُدُّهُ فَإِنَّهُ خَفِيْفُ الْمَحْمَلِ طَيِّبُ الرِّيْحِ۔ (رواه مسلم)

3016. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "He who is presented a fragrant flower must not return it for, it is light to carry (meaning, a small gift) and is sweet smelling."[1]

COMMENTARY: The same command not to return a gift applies to every gift that seems small and not a great favour but is great in benefit and promoting goodwill. The person who gives the gift should not feel hurt.

(٣٠١٧) وَعَنْ أَنَسٍ أَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ كَانَ لَا يَرُدُّ الطِّيْبَ۔ (رواه البخاری)

3017. Sayyiduna Anas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم never returned (the gift of) perfume.[2]

TAKING BACK A GIFT

(٣٠١٨) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَلْعَائِدُ فِيْ هِبَتِهِ كَالْكَلْبِ يَعُوْدُ فِيْ قَيْئِهِ لَيْسَ لَنَا مَثَلُ السَّوْءِ۔ (رواه البخاری)

3018. Sayyiduna Ibn Abas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "He who asks for a return of his gift is like a dog who returns (to lick) its vomit. It is not for us to be compared to an evil thing."[3]

COMMENTARY: The hadith concludes with the words that our people are bestowed with great honour and lofty principles. So, it does not behave any one of us to do anything that is against the greatness of his people lest he be remembered as an evil example.

A person should not take back any gift he has presented to another. T his is moral side of the hadith.

As for its juristic angle, Imam Abu Hanifah رحمہ اللہ said that while it is allowed to take back what one has given to another as a gift, yet it is makruh (disapproved) to do so. In some cases, however, it is not even allowed. This will be explained against the hadith # 3020 (Section II).

The Hanafis say of this hadith that it speaks of 'dislike' to show that it is impolite. The three other imams read the hadith to say that is disallowed to take back a gift, but Imam Shafi'I

---

[1] Muslim # 20. 2253, Tirmidhi # 2791(?), Abu Dawud # 4172, Nasa'i # 5259.

[2] Bukahri # 5928, Nasa'i # 5258.

[3] Bukhari # 2622, Muslim # 5-1622, Abu Dawud # 3538, Nasa'i # # 37601, Ibn Majah # 2385.

رحمه الله say that a father may take back a gift he gives to his son.
According to one report, Imam Ahmad رحمه الله also has the same opinion. Some ahadith that follow lead to the same conclusion but their deduction by the Hanafis is also mentioned there.

DO NOT DIFFERENTIATE BETWEEN CHILDREN

(٣٠١٩) وَعَنِ النُّعْمَانِ بْنِ بَشِيْرٍ اَنَّ اَبَاهُ اَتٰى بِهٖ اِلٰى رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَقَالَ اِنِّىْ نَحَلْتُ ابْنِىْ هٰذَا غُلَامًا فَقَالَ اَكُلَّ وَلَدِكَ نَحَلْتَ مِثْلَهٗ قَالَ لَا قَالَ فَارْجِعْهُ وَفِىْ رِوَايَةٍ اَنَّهٗ قَالَ اَيَسُرُّكَ اَنْ يَّكُوْنُوْا اِلَيْكَ فِى الْبِرِّ سَوَاءً قَالَ بَلٰى قَالَ فَلَا اِذًا وَفِىْ رِوَايَةٍ اَنَّهٗ قَالَ اَعْطَانِىْ اَبِىْ عَطِيَّةً فَقَالَتْ عَمْرَةُ بِنْتُ رَوَاحَةَ لَا اَرْضٰى حَتّٰى تُشْهِدَ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَاَتٰى رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَقَالَ اِنِّىْ اَعْطَيْتُ ابْنِىْ مِنْ عَمْرَةَ بِنْتِ رَوَاحَةَ عَطِيَّةً فَاَمَرَتْنِىْ اَنْ اُشْهِدَكَ يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ قَالَ اَعْطَيْتَ سَائِرَ وَلَدِكَ مِثْلَ هٰذَا؟ قَالَ لَا قَالَ فَاتَّقُوا اللّٰهَ وَاعْدِلُوْا بَيْنَ اَوْلَادِكُمْ قَالَ فَرَجَعَ فَرَدَّ عَطِيَّتَهٗ وَفِىْ رِوَايَةٍ اَنَّهٗ قَالَ لَا اَشْهَدُ عَلٰى جَوْرٍ۔ (متفق عليه)

3019. Sayyiduna Nu'man ibn Bashir رضى الله عنه said that his father took him to Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم and submitted, "I have given to this my son a slave." He asked, "Have you given all your children like this?" He submitted, "No." So, he commanded, "Take him back."

According to another version: he asked him, "will it not please you that all of them be kind to you in the same manner?" He said, "Of course!" So, he commanded, "Then do it not."

According to another version: Nu'man رضى الله عنه said that his father gave him a gift, but (his mother) Amrah bint رضى الله عنه Rawahah protested, "I shall not agree till you request Allah's Messenger to witness this (gift)." So he came to Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم and submitted, "I have given my son from Amrah daughter of Rawadhah a gift but she has asked me to request you to witness (this presentation), O Messenger of Allah." He asked, "Have you given all your children the same thing?" He said, "No" So, he warned, "Fear Allah, Be just to all your children." Nu'man رضى الله عنه said that he came back and took back his gift.

According to another version: He (the Prophet) صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "I shall not be a witness to an unjust act."[1]

COMMENTARY: It is very unreasonable to treat the children unfairly. So, it is mustahab (desirable) to not present something to only one child at the exclusion of other sons and daughters. Rather, it should be given to all children equally.

The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم command to Sayyiduna Nu'man رضى الله عنه to return the slave was based on the preferred course. So, Imam Abu Hanifah رضى الله عنه. Imam Shafi'I رحمه الله and Imam Maalik رحمه الله say that if any man presents a gift to some, not all, of his children then though the gift is correct yet it is with distaste.

---

[1] Bukhari # 2587, Muslim # 9. 1623, Tirmidhi # 1372, Nasa'i # 3672, Ibn Majah # 2375, Muwatta Maalik # 39 (Akram), Musnad Ahmad 4-269.

However, Imam Ahmad رحمه الله, Thawri رحمه الله and Ishaq رحمه الله and others hold that it is forbidden. They cite the saying of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم (لاأشهدعلى جَوْرٍ) (I shall not be witness to an unjust act). But, Imam Abu Hanifah رحمه الله deduces from these words of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, as also in another version.

فَأَشْهِدْ عَلٰى هٰذَا غَيْرِى

(He said to Bashir:) رضى الله عنه "Get some other than me for a witness."
They maintain that if this gift (of a slave to Bashir) رضى الله عنه was forbidden or void then he would not have instructed him to get another witness, The Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم words show that in any case Bashir's gift was correct and allowed, but disliked so he did not consider himself as a witness.

SECTION II اَلْفَصْلُ الثَّانِى

NOT PROPER TO TAKE BACK A GIFT

(٣٠٢٠) عَنْ عَبْدِاللّٰهِ بْنِ عَمْرٍو قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَايَرْجِعُ اَحَدٌ فِىْ هِبَتِهٖ اِلَّا الْوَالِدُ مِنْ وَلَدِهٖ۔ (رواه النسائى وابن ماجة)

3020. Sayyiduna Abdullah ibn Amr رضى الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "No one may take back his gift. But a father (may take it back) from his son."[1]

COMMENTARY: This hadith is on which Imam Shafi'I رحمه الله based his ruling.
Imam Abu Hanifah's رحمه الله contention is that just as a father can take the property of his son for his own use. So too he may take back his (other) gifts, for his personal use.

WHEN IT IS DISALLOWED TO TAKE BACK A GIFT: As stated earlier, Imam Abu Hanifah رحمه الله regards it permissible to take back a gift but calls it makruh (disapproved). Those ahadith that disallow it, he interprets them as makruh (disapproved). However, there are seven cases when he too rules that taking back a gift is disallowed. Some books of fiqh (Islamic jurisprudence) say that the seven cases are in (دمع خزقه) each letter of which stands for one case (د،م،ع،خ،ز،ق،ه) (daal, meem, 'ain, Khah, za, qaf, ha)
The first letter daal (د) means additions. If something is added to or mixed with, a gift then returning it is not proper. An open plot on which he builds a house or plants trees. The donor cannot ask for a return of the donated land.
The second letter meem (م) stands for death of one of the two. Thus, if a person gives something to another and dies thereafter, his heirs have no right to ask the surviving recipient to return to them that which their forebear had given to him. Or, if the recipient died, the giver cannot ask his heir for the return of the gift.
The third 'ain (ع) refers to an exchange of gifts. The giver cannot ask the recipient for the return his gift (against which he had given something).
The fourth letter is Kha (خ). It is that the recepient of the gift sells it or hands it over to another. The giver cannot demand its return.
The fifth letter is za (ز). If one of the spouses gives a gift to the other, then the giver cannot ask for a return of it.

---

[1] Nasa'i # 3689, Ibn Majah # 2378, Musnad Ahmad 2-182.

The sixth letter qaaf (ق) signifies relationship of the kind of mahram, like father, son, mother, grandfather, siblings, gifts by one of them to another are unreturnable.
The seventh letter ha (ه) refers to the ruin of the thing gifted. The giver cannot ask the recipient for a return of the gift if it has perished.

UNCIVIL TO DEMAND RETURN OF A GIFT

(٣٠٢١) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عُمَرَ وَابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ اَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ لَا يَحِلُّ لِلرَّجُلِ اَنْ يُعْطِيَ عَطِيَّةً ثُمَّ يَرْجِعُ فِيْهَا اِلَّا الْوَالِدُ فِيْمَا يُعْطِيْ وَلَدَهٗ وَمَثَلُ الَّذِيْ يُعْطِي الْعَطِيَّةَ ثُمَّ يَرْجِعُ فِيْهَا كَمَثَلِ الْكَلْبِ اَكَلَ حَتّٰى اِذَا شَبِعَ قَاءَ ثُمَّ عَادَ فِيْ قَيْئِهٖ۔ (رواہ ابوداؤد والترمذی والنسائی وابن ماجۃ وصححہ الترمذی)

3021. Sayyiduna Ibn Umar رضی اللہ عنہ and Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "It is not lawful for anyone to present a gift to another and then take it back. But, a father to his son. The example of one who gives a gift and then takes it back is that of a dog that eats and when it is satiated vomits. Then it returns to its vomit."[1]

GIFT FOR GIFT

(٣٠٢٢) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ اَنَّ اَعْرَابِيًّا اَهْدٰى لِرَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ بَكْرَةً فَعَوَّضَهٗ مِنْهَا سِتَّ بَكَرَاتٍ فَتَسَخَّطَ فَبَلَغَ ذٰلِكَ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَحَمِدَ اللّٰهَ وَاَثْنٰى عَلَيْهِ ثُمَّ قَالَ اِنَّ فُلَانًا اَهْدٰى اِلَيَّ نَاقَةً فَعَوَّضْتُهٗ مِنْهَا سِتَّ بَكَرَاتٍ فَظَلَّ سَاخِطًا لَقَدْ هَمَمْتُ اَنْ لَا اَقْبَلَ هَدِيَّةً اِلَّا مِنْ قُرَشِيٍّ اَوْ اَنْصَارِيٍّ اَوْ ثَقَفِيٍّ اَوْ دَوْسِيٍّ۔ (رواہ الترمذی وابوداؤد والنسائی)

3022. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that a villager presented to Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم a young she camel. He reciprocated by giving him six young she camels. But, the man was displeased. This was bought to the prophet's صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم knowledge. So, he praised and glorified Allah and said, "So and so presented me a she camel and I give him six young she-camels as a reciprocal gesture, but he was not pleased. I resolved. Therefore, that I shall not accept a gift except from a Quraysh Ansar, a Thaqafi or a Dawsi."[2]

COMMENTARY: When you give someone a gift, it is contrary to your spirit of sincerity to except a return gift. But, if any one reciprocates your gesture, you should regard it highly. The sahabah never had a semblance of wish that when they presented something to the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم he would give them a return gift, but he was very generous and always reciprocated their gesture willingly.
The villager in this hadith showed extreme greed. His attitude reflected that he had brought the gift only to get a greater return. The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم was displeased with his attitude and decided not to accept a gift from anyone but the four people he named.
The Quraysh belonged to the tribe of Quraysh. The Ansar were the ansar of Madinah.

---

[1] Tirmidhi # 2138, Abu Dawud # 3539, Nasa'i # 3690, Ibn Majah # 2377, Musnad Ahmad 1-237.
[2] Tirmidhi # 3971, Abu Dawud # 3537, Nasa'i # 3759.

Thaqafi and Dawsi were two tribes. He named them as exceptions because they were very courageous and generous.

(٣٠٢٣) وَعَنْ جَابِرٍ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ مَنْ أُعْطِيَ عَطَاءً فَوَجَدَ فَلْيَجْزِ بِهٖ وَمَنْ لَمْ يَجِدْ فَلْيُثْنِ فَإِنَّ مَنْ أَثْنٰى فَقَدْ شَكَرَ وَمَنْ كَتَمَ فَقَدْ كَفَرَ وَمَنْ تَحَلّٰى بِمَا لَمْ يُعْطَ كَانَ كَلَابِسِ ثَوْبَيْ زُوْرٍ۔ (رواه الترمذى وابوداؤد)

2023. Sayyiduna Jabir رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "He who is presented something and is capable, must reciprocate it. But, if he cannot, then he should praise (the giver of gift), for, he who extols has indeed expressed gratitude. But, he who 'conceals has indeed been ungrateful. He who adorns himself with what he is not given puts on two garments of falsehood."[1]

COMMENTARY: To praise anyone is tantamount to show gratitude to him. Gratitude is to have love in the heart, to praise with the tongue and to serve with hands and feet.

The hadith concludes with the message that if anyone describes himself with a merit of religion or the world which he does not possess then he is as though wearing a pair of garments of falsehood. It, means that he presents himself as a scholar and a righteous man which he is not.

PRAYER FOR THE GOOD DOER

(٣٠٢٤) وَعَنْ أُسَامَةَ بْنِ زَيْدٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ صُنِعَ إِلَيْهِ مَعْرُوْفٌ فَقَالَ لِفَاعِلِهٖ جَزَاكَ اللّٰهُ خَيْرًا فَقَدْ أَبْلَغَ فِي الثَّنَاءِ۔ (رواه الترمذى)

3024. Sayyiduna Usamah ibn Zayd رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that, "If a favour is shown to anyone and he says to the kindly person (جزاک اللہ خیرا) (jazak Allah Khayra may Allah reward you heavily) then he has showered perfect praise for him."[2]

COMMENTARY: By saying those words, he confesses that he is unable to return the favour and thank the benevolent person perfectly. So, he prays to Allah to reward him in this world and the next.

STEADY ON STRAIGHT PATH: The glorious shaykh Abdul Wahhab Muttaqi رحمہ اللہ asserted that a sufi must not come out of straight path whether the creatures gives him or give him not. He must not let his feet stagger from the true path. If a sinning, worthless person gives him something then he must not praise him as though he was a righteous person. Rather, he must pray for him, 'May Allah grant you a good reward.'

If he suffers harm or grief at the hands of a righteous God fearing man, then he must not throw him out from the fold of the righteous simply because of that suffering at his hands. And, he must not deride him. Rather, he must pray for him (غفر اللہ لہ ولنا) (may Allah forgive him and forgive us).

This is how the people on the steady straight path conduct themselves and act.

---

[1] Tirmidhi # 2041, Abu Dawud # 4813.

[2] Tirmidhi # 2042.

HE WHO IS UNGRATEFUL TO MEN IS UNGRATEFUL TO ALLAH

(٣٠٢٥) وَعَنْ اَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ لَمْ يَشْكُرِ النَّاسَ لَمْ يَشْكُرِ اللّٰهَ۔

(رواہ احمد والترمذی)

3025. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "He who is not grateful to the people will not be grateful to Allah."[1]

COMMENTARY: Allah is thanked by obeying Him and men who are the means of delivering Allah's blessing should be thanked. If anyone lags behind in this then he has not thanked Allah.

If any one fails to t hank his benefactor he is ungrateful for the blessings and does not thank Allah.

(٣٠٢٦) وَعَنْ اَنَسٍ قَالَ لَمَّا قَدِمَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ الْمَدِيْنَةَ اَتَاهُ الْمُهَاجِرُوْنَ فَقَالُوْا يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ مَارَأَيْنَا قَوْمًا اَبْذَلَ مِنْ كَثِيْرٍ وَلَا اَحْسَنَ مُوَاسَاةً مِنْ قَلِيْلٍ مِنْ قَوْمٍ نَزَلْنَا بَيْنَ اَظْهُرِهِمْ لَقَدْ كَفَوْنَا الْمُؤْنَةَ وَاَشْرَكُوْنَا فِي الْمَهْنَا حَتّٰى لَقَدْ خِفْنَا اَنْ يَذْهَبُوْا بِالْاَجْرِ كُلِّهٖ فَقَالَ لَا مَادَعَوْتُمُ اللّٰهَ لَهُمْ وَ اَثْنَيْتُمْ عَلَيْهِمْ۔ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَصَحَّحَهٗ۔

3026. Sayyiduna Anas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that when Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم arrived in Madinah, the muhajirs (emigrants) came to him and submitted. "O Messenger of Allah, these people to whom we have come are more generous is spending when they have wealth, and kindly and helpful when they have little than any we have come across. They keep us away from hard working but associate us in their comfort, so we fear that they will take away all the reward." He said, "No! Not until you pray to Allah for them and continue to praise them."[2]

COMMENTARY: When the emigrants from Makkah came to Madinah, its people - called ansar or helpers - not only welcomed them but helped them in every possible way. They even shared their gardens and fields, palm-trees and other belonging with them. They did not make the emigrants work but shared the product of their labour with them willingly.

The emigrants wondered if their hijrah (emigration) and worship would earn them no reward which might go to the ansar. The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم comforted them that they would not lose their reward as long as they prayed for the ansar.

EXCHANGE OF GIFTS REMOVES GRUDGES

(٣٠٢٧) وَعَنْ عَائِشَةَ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ تَهَادَوْا فَاِنَّ الْهَدِيَّةَ تُذْهِبُ الضَّغَائِنَ۔ (رواہ الترمذی)

3027. Sayyidah Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہا narrated that the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "Give presents to each other, for, a gift removes ill will."[3]

EVEN A SMALL GIFT

(٣٠٢٨) وَعَنْ اَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ تَهَادَوْا فَاِنَّ الْهَدِيَّةَ تُذْهِبُ وَحَرَ الصَّدْرِ وَلَا

---

[1] Tirmidhi # 1961, Musnad Ahmad # 2-258, Abu Dawud # 4811.

[2] Tirmidhi # 2495, Musnad Ahmad # 3938.

[3] Tirmidhi # 2137 (narrated Abu Hurahrah) رضی اللہ عنہ

تَحْقِرَنَّ جَارَةٌ لِجَارَتِهَا وَلَوْ شِقَّ فِرْسَنِ شَاةٍ۔ (رواه الترمذی)

3028. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "Give presents to each other, for, a gift removes ill will from the heart. And, let not a woman look down upon the gift of her neighbour of a piece of a sheep's trotter."[1]

COMMENTARY: It is both ways, applying to a woman who receives a part of a sheep's trotter and to a woman who sends it to her neighbour. Neither in sending nor in receiving may a woman think little of the gift. The receiving woman must receive it with a cheerful face.

(٣٠٢٩) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عُمَرَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ ثَلَاثٌ لَا تُرَدُّ الْوَسَائِدُ وَالدُّهْنُ وَاللَّبَنُ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَقَالَ هٰذَا حَدِيْثٌ غَرِيْبٌ قِيْلَ اَرَادَ بِالدُّهْنِ الطِّيْبَ۔

3029. Sayyiduna Ibn Umar رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "Three things are not refused (to be accepted): a pillow or cushion, (scented) oil and milk."[2]

COMMENTARY: The second thing is (الدهن) (ad-duhn) which really is oil. The Arabs used to apply oil generally.

DO NOT REJECT SCENTED FLOWER

(٣٠٣٠) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ عُثْمَانَ النَّهْدِيِّ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اِذَا اُعْطِيَ اَحَدُكُمُ الرَّيْحَانَ فَلَا يَرُدَّهُ فَاِنَّهُ خَرَجَ مِنَ الْجَنَّةِ۔ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ مُرْسَلًا۔

3030. Sayyiduna Abu Uthman An-Nahdi narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "If anyone of you is given rayhan, he must not reject it, for, it is from paradise."[3] (Rayhan: is scented flower)

COMMENTARY: Flower is from paradise in the sense that its origin (or root) is from paradise.

SECTION III اَلْفَصْلُ الثَّالِثُ

NOT PROPER TO PREFER ANY CHILD OVER OTHER

(٣٠٣١) عَنْ جَابِرٍ قَالَ قَالَتْ اِمْرَأَةُ بَشِيْرٍ اَنْحَلِ ابْنِيْ غُلَامَكَ وَاَشْهِدْ لِيْ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَاَتٰى رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَقَالَ اِنَّ ابْنَةَ فُلَانٍ سَأَلَتْنِيْ اَنْ اَنْحَلَ ابْنَهَا غُلَامِيْ وَقَالَتْ اَشْهِدْ لِيْ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَقَالَ اَلَهٗ اِخْوَةٌ قَالَ نَعَمْ قَالَ اَفَكُلَّهُمْ اَعْطَيْتَهُمْ مِثْلَ مَا اَعْطَيْتَهٗ قَالَ لَا قَالَ فَلَيْسَ يَصْلُحُ هٰذَا وَاِنِّيْ لَا اَشْهَدُ اِلَّا عَلٰى حَقٍّ۔ (رواه مسلم)

3031. Sayyiduna Jabir رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Sayyiduna Bashir's رضی اللہ عنہ wife said to him, "Give my son (Nu'man) your slave and request Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم to witness it for my sake." So, he came to Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم and submitted. "The daughter of so-and-so (meaning, Amrah bint Rawahah) asks me to give her son

---

[1] Tirmidhi # 2137, Musnad Ahmad 2-264 (Bukhari # 2566 Muslim # 1030).

[2] Tirmidhi # 2799.

[3] Tirmidhi # 2800

my slave and stipulates that I should get Allah's Messenger as witness for her." He asked, "Has he brother?" He submitted, "Yes!" He asked, "Have you given every one of them the like of what you give him (now)?" He said, "No!" He said, "Then, this is not correct. And, I will not be a witness except for what is correct."[1]

COMMENTARY: See commentary on hadith # 3012. [2]

WHEN FRESH FRUIT WAS PRESENTED TO THE PROPHET صلى الله عليه وسلم

(٣٠٣٢) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ رَأَيْتُ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اِذَا اُتِيَ بِبَاكُورَةِ الْفَاكِهَةِ وَضَعَهَا عَلٰى عَيْنَيْهِ وَعَلٰى شَفَتَيْهِ وَقَالَ اللّٰهُمَّ كَمَا اَرَيْتَنَا اَوَّلَهُ فَاَرِنَا اٰخِرَهُ ثُمَّ يُعْطِيْهَا مَنْ يَكُوْنُ عِنْدَهُ مِنَ الصِّبْيَانِ ـ رَوَاهُ الْبَيْهَقِيُّ فِي الدَّعَوَاتِ الْكَبِيْرِ ـ

3032. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضى الله عنه narrated that when a first fruit was brought to Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم, he saw him put it on his eyes and lips. Then he prayed:

اللّٰهُمَّ كَمَا اَرَيْتَنَا اَوَّلَهُ فَاَرِنَا اٰخِرَهُ

(O Allah, just as you have shown us the first of it, show us the last of it). Then he gave it to one of the boys who was present with him.[3]

COMMENTARY: "The last of it" could be a prayer for a long life. Or it could refer to the hereafter to mean, 'O Allah, let us have the blessing in the hereafter.' That indeed is the real blessing.[4]

CHAPTER - XVIII

AL-LUQATAH TROVES (OR FOUND PROPERTY) بَابُ اللُّقْطَةِ

The word (لقطة) is read luqitah, and luqtah. The scholars of hadith know it best as luqatah. Luqatah is that which is found somewhere (say, on a road) and its owner is not known. In this regard, the command of Shari'ah (divine law) is that if anything is found lying somewhere, it is mustahab (desirable) to pick it up, provided one is confident of oneself that one would make an announcement of the find and hand it over to its owner when traced. If one is not sure of oneself then it must be left where it lies. Again, if one apprehends that if it is left there, then it might waste or perish then it is wajib (obligatory) to pick it up. If one who detects it but does not pick it up and it wastes away then he will have committed a sin. This is the general principle of luqatah. We now present some of its rulings in detail.

Luqatah is a trust with the person who picks it up provided he calls someone to witness it, saying, "I have picked it up to preserve it or to hand it over to its owner." In this case, no ransom will be wajib (obligatory) on him if it perishes. But, if he does not call anyone to bear

---

[1] Muslim # 19-1624, Musnad Ahmad 3-326.

[2] See also 'Bringing up Children in Islam (p 127) Dar ul Isha'at, Karachi (up bring of children in Islam p 172 Darul Tasnif Jamiatal Uloom of Islamiyah Karachi)

[3] Bayhaqi in Ad-Dawat al Kabir

[4] See also bringing up children in Islam (P 251 and 382) Darul Isha'at, Karachi Also, upbringing of Children in Islam.

witness and the luqatah perishes then it will be wajib (obligatory) on him to make amends for it provided the owner denies that he had picked it up to hand it over to him.

The announcement of the find must be made where the luqatah was picked up and where people are found in large numbers generally, "who owns this things?" This announcement must be made till the person who picks it up is convinced that its owner will not demand it any more. However, the sahibayn (the two disciples) Imam Abu Yusuf رحمه الله and Imam Muhammad رحمه الله hold that the announcement should be made for one year. If anything is perishable then it should be announced only till the time it is likely to perish.

If the owner is traced during t he times of announcement then that thing must be handed over to him. After that, the thing must be given away as charity. If the owner appears after that and upholds the charity then he will deserve reward for it from Allah. Or, he may ask the person who had picked it up to redeem for that. Or, he may get it back from the person to whom the charity was handed over, but if that thing is no more with him then he may get a recompense from him as is the procedure with an animal found as luqatah.

Luqatah is allowed in animals too. If anyone finds a lost animal, then he may catch it, announce it and deliver it to its owner. Whatever is spent during the period of announcement would be counted as a favour. The owner will not be asked to pay for it if the expenses were made without the permission of the ruler. However, if the man who caught the animal stipulated that he would claim the expenses, and spent on it with the permission of the ruler, then it will be like a debt whose repayment will be wajib (obligatory) on the owner, who will repay it when he gets his animal. The man who has the luqatah has the right to detain the animal till its owner pays him all that he had spent on it.

The ruler and the judge are instructed that if the thing found as luqatah is such that benefit may be derived from it, like a runaway slave then he may be made to work. What he earns may be used to pay for his expenses. If it is something from which benefit cannot be derived, like an animal, then the judge may give permission to bear its expenses and to get them from the owner provided that is good for the owner. If the judge deems that it will cause loss to the owner instead of being good for him then he may get the thing sold and retain its price to be handed over to the owner when he appears.

If a person has a luqatah and someone claims it as his property describing the thing correctly, then it is allowed to hand it over to the claimant and it is not necessary to have witnesses. However, if he cannot described it then the luqatah must not be handed over to him without witnesses to it.

If the person who finds the luqatah is poor then when the time expires for the announcement, he may use it himself. If he is rich then he may give it away as charity. In this case, he is permitted to give it in charity to his antecedents, that is parents, and to his descendants, that is, children, and to his wife, provided they are poor and needy.

It is mustahab (desirable), for one who can, to nab a runaway slave. Similarly, if a slave has lost his way then it is mustahab (desirable) to keep him with oneself.

If anyone catches a runaway slave and takes him to his master at a distance of more than three days' journey, then he is eligible to get from the slave's master forty dirhams as his wages, even if the slave is worth less then forty dirhams. However, he who brings him must have called someone to witness that he nabs the slave to take him to his master.

If anyone brings a distance lesser than three days then he deserves wages in that proportion, for example, if the distance is half of that then he will get twenty dirhams.

If the slave escapes from this person too who had nabbed him then he will not be responsible to pay damages if he had called someone to witnesses his effort. If he had not any witnesses then not only will he receive wages (or fare) for the journey, but also damages will be wajib (obligatory) on him to pay.

PICKING UP AN ABANDONED CHILD

Laqit (or, an abandoned child) if found anywhere may be picked up, it being mustahab (desirable) to do so. If there is likelihood of its death then it is wajib (obligatory) to pick it up. If it is not established that the child is a slave then it will be presumed that he is free. The sustenance and blood wit of a laqit is the responsibility of the state treasury. Any thing that he leaves behind will go to the State Treasury. No one has a right to take away the laqit from the person who has picked it up. If anyone claims that the child belongs to him then his claim will be deemed to be reliable if he makes the claim on oath, and the child's parentage will be established thereby. If two people claim the child to be theirs, then the more rightful to take him will be the one who discloses any identification mark on the child's body and if his disclosure is confirmed.

If a slave claims parentage to the child then his claim will be deemed to be correct, but that child will continue to be a Muslim if he is found in the habitation of the Muslims or in their neighbourhood. If the child is found among the dhimmis or their house of worship, then he will be said to be dhimmi.

If some property is tied to the laqit or he wears jewellery, or any other thing, then, after the judgement of a judge, it must be spent on the laqit alone, though some ulama (Scholars) say that it may be done even without a judge's judgement.

The more correct opinion is that it is allowed to one who has picked up the laqit to send him to a professional to acquire some professional skill, but it is not allowed to him to marry him to someone, to use his wealth and property, or to make him work.

RULINGS ABOUT LUQATAH

(1) Suppose a man takes off his shoes and places them aside somewhere. Another man comes and does the same thing. Then the first man comes back from where he had gone and put on the shoes of the second man by mistake and departs. Now, what should the second man do when he comes to find his shoes replaced? The agreed ruling is that he is not allowed to put on shoes of the first man if they are like his own or better than his. If these shoes are worse than his own (Second man's) then he is allowed to use them.

(2) A man may find scattered on the ground one of two kinds of things:

- (a) Of immaterial and inconsequential value: Anyone who picks it up may use it knowing that its owner will never ask for it though has the right to demand it. But, shaykh ul Islam رحمه الله says that its ownership transfers to him.
- (b) Something invaluable like gold and silver: He who picks them up must preserve them and announce the find till he hands them over to their owner.

(3) If anyone find a loaf of bread or something else as much as a loaf of bread, or less then that, then, even when he is well-off, he is allowed to eat it.

(4) If wheat or corn is ground in a mill and residue particles of that which were previously subjected to grinding get mixed with it then there is no harm in it. This happens generally. IF a straw from a broom belonging to someone else is used to pick teeth, there is to harm in it too.

(5) The dung of the animals of guests in an inn do not belong to the inn-keeper when the guests depart from there with their animals. They become property of one who picks them up first of all.

SECTION I ‏اَلْفَصْلُ الْاَوَّلُ

WHEN ONE FINDS DROPPED THINGS

(٣٠٣٣) عَنْ زَيْدِ بْنِ خَالِدٍ قَالَ جَاءَ رَجُلٌ إِلَى رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَسَأَلَهُ عَنِ اللُّقَطَةِ فَقَالَ اِعْرِفْ عِفَاصَهَا وَوِكَاءَهَا ثُمَّ عَرِّفْهَا سَنَةً فَإِنْ جَاءَ صَاحِبُهَا وَإِلَّا فَشَأْنُكَ بِهَا قَالَ فَضَالَّةُ الْغَنَمِ قَالَ هِيَ لَكَ أَوْ لِأَخِيْكَ أَوْ لِلذِّئْبِ قَالَ فَضَالَّةُ الْإِبِلِ قَالَ مَا لَكَ وَلَهَا مَعَهَا سِقَاءُهَا وَحِذَاءُهَا تَرِدُ الْمَاءَ وَتَأْكُلُ الشَّجَرَ حَتّٰى يَلْقَاهَا رَبُّهَا مُتَّفَقٌ عَلَيْهِ وَفِيْ رِوَايَةٍ لِمُسْلِمٍ فَقَالَ عَرِّفْهَا سَنَةً ثُمَّ اَعْرِفْ وِكَاءَهَا وَعِفَاصَهَا ثُمَّ اسْتَنْفِقْ بِهَا فَإِنْ جَاءَ رَبُّهَا فَأَدِّهَا إِلَيْهِ۔

3033. Sayyiduna Zayd ibn Khalid رضی الله عنه narrated that a man came to Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم and asked him about luqatah. Bear in mind its nature (contained in a cloth or a leather bag) and its cork (or that with which is it fastened). Make an announcement for a year. If its owner appears, hand it over to him, otherwise it is your wish how you use it." The man asked about lost sheep (if anyone catches them). He said, "It belongs to you. Your brother or the wolf." The man then asked about lost camel He posed. "How is it your concern? They have their water (in their bellies) and their feet with them and can go to their feet with them and can go to the water and can eat trees till their master locates them." According to another version in Muslim:

(When the man asked about luqatah,) the prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم said, "Announce about it for one year, bear in mind its fastening and that in which it is placed. Use it for yourself. If its owner comes, hand it over to him (if you have it intact otherwise its value).[1]

COMMENTARY: Ibn Maalik رحمه الله said that the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم instructed anyone who picks up the luqatah to bear in mind that nature of it because when any one claims it he would know whether he describes it correctly or not. Imam Maalik رحمه الله and Imam Ahmad رحمه الله Say that in that case it is wajib (obligatory) to hand over the luqatah to the claimant without having any witness. Imam Shafi'I رحمه الله and the hanafis say that if any one describe, the nature and fastening, weight and number of the luqat ah and the man who has picked it up is satisfied about the claimant 's truthfulness, then it is allowed to hand it over to him. But the claimant cannot compel him to hand it over to him without any witnesses. The wisdom in having to know well the nature and fastening is also that he should be able to pick it out from his own goods.

The announcement of the find should be made where it is found and also in all public places. Imam Shafi'I رحمه الله, Imam Maalik رحمه الله, Imam Ahmad رحمه الله and Imam Muhammad رحمه الله say that the announcement should be made for one year. But, Imam Abu Hanifah رحمه الله and Imam Yusuf رحمه الله, say that no time period is fixed. They say that the hadith says one year to suggest the waiting without making it binding. Hidayah quotes Imam Abu Hanifah رحمه الله as saying that if the value of luqatah is less than ten dirhams, it will be announced for a few days. If it is worth ten dirhams then it should be made known for one month and if it is two hundred dirhams then it will be announced for one year.

---

[1] Bukahri # 2429, Muslim # 1-1722, Tirmidhi # 1377, Abu Dawud # 1704, Ibn Majah # 2504, Muwatta Maalik # 46 (Aqdiyah), Musnad Ahmad 4. 116

Some ulama (Scholars) say that even this is not a fixed limit. It depends on the judgement of the picker till he is convinced that no claimant is likely to show up. According to one version in Muslim, the period of one year is not mentioned.

If luqatah is something perishable than the announcement should be made till it begins to not.

If it is something very insignificant and of negligible value then no announcement is necessary. However, the owner has the right to demand his thing.

If the owner of the luqatah comes after the announcement then it must be given to him if he has witnesses with him then it is wajib (obligatory) on the person who had picked it up to hand it over. If he has no witnesses then it is not wajib (obligatory) but permissible. If the owner does not turn up after the announcement then the picker may keep it for his sown use whether he is rich or poor. This is as most sahabah (Prophet's Companions) رضى الله عنهم say and Imam Shafi'I رحمه الله says. Some of the sahabah (Prophet's Companions) رضى الله عنهم say that if he is rich, he must give it to some poor person as a charity. This is to what Ibn Abbas رضى الله عنه Sufyan Thawri رحمه الله, Ibn Mubarak رحمه الله and the Hanafis subscribe. If the owner turns after the charity is given, then he may let the charity stay or get a redemption from the picker of luqatah or the poor man to whom the charity was given, if that thing is no more there. Whichever of the two pays the damages will not demand anything from the other. If the luqatah is intact as it was then the owner will have to take it.

It is stated in Nihayah that it is better to keep the luqat ah for oneself after the announcement though it is allowed to make a charity of it. If you catch a goat as luqatah and the owner comes after the announcement, he will take it otherwise you will use it. So if he takes it, he is your brother or if you do not catch it, then someone else will take it as your brother. It is allowed to benefit from it, otherwise the wolf would devour it. The same command applies to every animal that its owner cannot take care of or he is not there and it cannot be safe from the wolf.

The camel's belly is like a water skin that conserves water. The camel can go without drinking water for days together.

The camel's feet are strong. It can go up to its food and protect itself from wild animals. The ulama (Scholars) say that this example of the camel applies to every such animal that protects itself even in the absence of its master from wolf, etc. like horses and donkeys. Imam shafi'I رحمه الله and Imam Maalik رحمه الله deduce from this hadith that the camel, cow, etc,. cannot be caught as luqatah in the desert. It is not allowed, but they may be caught in villages and cities. The Hanafis say that it is mustahab (desirable) to catch all animals everywhere and to announce the find in order to protect the property of the people both in the desolate places and habitations.

The Hanafis say about this hadith that the command not to catch the camel was valid during those times when most people were honest and good doers and the deceivers were therefore, prevented from touching them. The same cannot be said these days.

LUQATAH MAY NOT BE KEPT WITHOUT ANNOUNCEMENT

(٣٠٣٤) وَعَنْهُ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ اٰوٰى ضَالَّةً فَهُوَ ضَالٌّ مَا لَمْ يُعَرِّفْهَا۔ (رواه مسلم)

3034. Sayyiduna Zayd ib Khalid رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "If anyone (picks up and) retains a stray thing (belonging to another) is misled unless he makes the find known."[1]

LUQATAH OF THE HIL (LAWFUL) & OF THE HARAM (SACRED TERRITORY)

(٣٠٣٥) وَعَنْ عَبْدِالرَّحْمٰنِ بْنِ عُثْمَانَ التَّيْمِيِّ اَنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ نَهٰى عَنْ لُقَطَةِ الْحَاجِّ۔

(رواه مسلم)

3035. Sayyiduna Abdur Rahman ibn Uthman al-Taymi رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم forbade anything that the pilgrims might drop.[2]

COMMENTARY: The luqatah in the sacred territory must be preserved till the owner appears whenever that is and the announcement must be made. Imam Shafi'I رحمہ اللہ abides by this dictate. But, Imam Abu Hanifah رحمہ اللہ maintain that the same ruling applies to the luqatah of the haram (sacred territory) and of the hil (territory outside the haram). See the chapter on Haram Makkah.

(Note: According to another copy of the Urdu translation: Anything found in the Haram must be left where it is till its owner comes and take his ting. This is what Imam Shafi'I رحمہ اللہ abides by. The Hanafi view is as stated in the foregoing lines.)

SECTION II اَلْفَصْلُ الثَّانِيْ

LUQATAH OF UNINHABITED PLACE AND BURIED TREASURE

(٣٠٣٦) عَنْ عَمْرِو بْنِ شُعَيْبٍ عَنْ اَبِيْهِ عَنْ جَدِّهٖ عَنْ رَّسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَنَّهٗ سُئِلَ عَنِ الثَّمَرِ الْمُعَلَّقِ فَقَالَ مَنْ اَصَابَ مِنْهُ مِنْ ذِيْ حَاجَةٍ غَيْرِ مُتَّخِذٍ خُبْنَةً فَلَا شَيْءَ عَلَيْهِ وَمَنْ خَرَجَ بِشَيْءٍ مِنْهُ فَعَلَيْهِ غَرَامَةُ مِثْلَيْهِ وَالْعُقُوْبَةُ وَمَنْ سَرَقَ مِنْهُ شَيْئًا بَعْدَ اَنْ يُؤْوِيَهُ الْجَرِيْنُ فَبَلَغَ ثَمَنَ الْمِجَنِّ فَعَلَيْهِ الْقَطْعُ وَذَكَرَ فِيْ ضَالَّةِ الْاِبِلِ وَالْغَنَمِ كَمَا ذَكَرَ غَيْرُهٗ قَالَ وَسُئِلَ عَنِ اللُّقَطَةِ فَقَالَ مَا كَانَ مِنْهَا فِي الطَّرِيْقِ الْمِيْتَاءِ وَالْقَرْيَةِ الْجَامِعَةِ فَعَرِّفْهَا سَنَةً فَاِنْ جَاءَ صَاحِبُهَا فَادْفَعْهَا اِلَيْهِ وَاِنْ لَمْ يَاْتِ فَهُوَ لَكَ وَمَا كَانَ فِي الْخَرَابِ الْعَادِيِّ فَفِيْهِ وَفِي الرِّكَازِ الْخُمُسُ۔ رَوَاهُ النَّسَائِيُّ وَرَوٰى اَبُوْدَاؤدَ عَنْهُ مِنْ قَوْلِهٖ وَسُئِلَ عَنِ اللُّقَطَةِ اِلٰى اٰخِرِهٖ۔

3036. Sayyiduna Amr ibn Shu'ayb رحمہ اللہ narrated on the authority of his father from his grandfather (Abdullah ibn Amr) رضی اللہ عنہ that someone asked Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم about fruit hanging (from trees). He said, "If a needy person takes some thing without carrying away any in his garment, then he is not to be blamed. But, if anyone goes out with some of it, then he is to be fined twice its value and to be punished. If anyone steals after they are placed where date s are dried and their value comes to the prices of a shield, then his hands should be amputated." He mentioned about camels and sheep that are found (as luqatah) as the other narrators have mentioned. He also narrated that he was asked about luqatah. He said, if it is

---

[1] Muslim # 12-1725, Musnad Ahmad 4-117.

[2] Muslim # (1-1724, Abu Dawud # 1719, Musnad Ahmad 3-499.

on a road commonly used in a large town, make the announcement for one year. If its owner appears, give it to him. If he does not, then it belongs to you. If it is an old (deserted) waste land, or if it is a hidden treasure of the jahiliyah (ignorance period), then it calls for one fifth payment." The version in Abu Dawud is from the Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم words: "And he was asked about luqatah"....till the end.[1]

COMMENTARY: The needy may be any poor man who is in dine need or not in dine need and bad shape. He may pluck fruit from the tree only as much as necessary. If he carries any outside the according to Ibn Maalik رحمه الله though he will not be a sinner, yet he has to pay for those fruit as wajib (obligatory). Or, this command was imposed in early Islam but it stands abrogated now.

As for the words that he will have to pay twice its price, Ibn Maalik رحمه الله says that this is only a warning, for, it is only the actual price that he will have to pay. Imam Ahmad رحمه الله also holds the same opinion. Some ulama (Scholars) says: that this command was operative in early Islam and is now abrogated.

As for punishment, it refers to the persons fate. His hand will not be cut but he will be awarded some punishment. In those days, gar dens were not protected and enclosed. If any one stole from the piles of fruit of provision to the value of one seer then sin punishment according to Shari'ah (divine law) was amputation of hand, which, at that time amounted to three or four dirhams, or more. The Hanafis say ten dirhams and the Shafi is say four dirham call for amputation of the hand. Shamni رحمه الله has said that a seer (of the fruit) was valued at ten dirhams in those times.

The luqatah found on a frequented path near a habitation must be made known, it being wajib (obligatory) to do so. It is because there is every likelihood that it would belong to a Muslim. As for the for luqatah that lies in an ancient unfrequented place where there is no Muslim residence around, the command is that one-fifth should be paid in Allah's path as charity. The rest may be used by the picker himself whether the luqatah is gold, silver or any kind of jewellery or any other thing.

The same command applies to buried treasures in an ancient land.

REPLACEMENT IF LUQATAH HAS BEEN USED

(٣٠٣٧) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ سَعِيْدِنِ الْخُدْرِيِّ اَنَّ عَلِيَّ بْنَ اَبِيْ طَالِبٍ وَجَدَ دِيْنَارًا فَاَتٰى بِهٖ فَاطِمَةَ فَسَأَلَ عَنْهُ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ هٰذَا رِزْقُ اللّٰهِ فَاَكَلَ مِنْهُ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَاَكَلَ عَلِيٌّ وَفَاطِمَةُ فَلَمَّا كَانَ بَعْدَ ذٰلِكَ اَتَتِ امْرَأَةٌ تَنْشُدُ الدِّيْنَارَ فَقَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَا عَلِيُّ اَدِّ الدِّيْنَارَ۔ (رواه ابوداؤد)

3037. Sayyiduna Abu Sa'eed al KHudri رضى الله عنه narrated that Sayyiduna Ali رضى الله عنه found one dinar (as luqatah, abandoned property). He bought it to Sayyidah fatimah رضى الله عنه. He then asked Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم about it and he said, "This is a provision from Allah's" So, Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم consumed it and Sayyiduna Ali رضى الله عنه and Sayyidah Fatimah رضى الله عنه also ate from it (what they had bought with it). After that, a woman came looking for the dinar. So, Allah's

[1] Tirmidhi # 1293, Abu Dawud # 1710, Nasa'i # 1958, Ibn Majah # 2596, Musnad Ahmad 2280.

Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "O Ali, pay the dinar (to her)."[1]

COMMENTARY: We cannot say from the hadith that Sayyiduna Ali رضی اللہ عنہ had used the money without making an announcement about it. There is every possibility that he had done that before spending the dinar.

The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم had the dinar paid to the woman because she might have described the coin. Or, he might have learnt of her from other sources.

DO NOT PICK UP WITH EVIL INTENT

(٣٠٣٨) وَعَنِ الْجَارُوْدِ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ ضَالَّةُ الْمُسْلِمِ حَرَقُ النَّارِ۔ (رواه الدارمی)

3038. Sayyiduna Al-Jarud رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "The lost property of the Muslim is a flame of fire."[2]

COMMENTARY: If anyone picks up a lost property with an evil intention then that will take him to hell.

HAVE A WITNESS

(٣٠٣٩) وَعَنْ عِيَاضِ بْنِ حِمَارٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ وَجَدَ لُقْطَةً فَالْيُشْهِدْ ذَاعَدْلٍ أَوْذَوَىْ عَدْلٍ وَلَا يَكْتُمْ وَلَا يُغَيِّبْ فَإِنْ وَجَدَ صَاحِبَهَا فَلْيَرُدَّهَا عَلَيْهِ وَإِلَّا فَهُوَ مَالُ اللّٰهِ يُؤْتِيْهِ مَنْ يَّشَاءُ۔

(رواه احمد وابوداؤد والدارمی)

3039. Sayyiduna Iyad ibn Himar رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "If anyone finds a stray thing somewhere, then he must have one just man or two just men as his witness. He must make announcement of it and not conceal it nor consign it elsewhere. When he finds it owner, he should return it to him, otherwise it is Allah's property. He gives it to whom He pleases."[3]

COMMENTARY: The finder of the luqatah must get someone to witness it so that no one may accuse him of theft or pilferage. In this way, he himself will not be instigated to keep the find for his own use. Moreover, if he dies suddenly, his heirs will not include that property as his legacy.

Some ulama (Scholars) say that this command is mustahab (desirable) to obey others say that it is wajib (obligatory) in nature. This hadith and the foregoing assert that if the owner is not located, it luqatah is Allah's property. This means that it is lawful for the person who picks it up when the owner turns up he will be reimbursed with a replacement.

WHEN IT IS NOT NECESSARY TO MAKE KNOWN

(٣٠٤٠) وَعَنْ جَابِرٍ قَالَ رَخَّصَ لَنَا رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فِي الْعَصَا وَالسَّوْطِ وَالْحَبْلِ وَأَشْبَاهِهٖ يَلْتَقِطُهُ الرَّجُلُ يَنْتَفِعُ بِهٖ۔ (رواه ابوداؤد)

3040. Sayyiduna Jabir رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم had given permission that a man might pick up (and put to his use) a stick a whip, a rope and

---

[1] Abu Dawud # 1714.

[2] Darimi # 2601, Tirmidhi # 1801, Musnad Ahmad 5-80.

[3] Abu Dawud # 1709, Musnad Ahmad 4. 161 Darimi, Ibn Majah # 2505

such other things that he picks up to use them himself.[1]

COMMENTARY: If he who picks up the luqatah (droped thing) is not well off, he may put to his own use such things. as are mentioned in this hadith.

The ulama (Scholars) define the things of little value as worth less then dirhams, but some of them say that there is worth one dinar or less then that as in the hadith (# 3038) about Sayyiduna Ali رضی اللہ عنہ

وَذُكِرَ حَدِيثُ الْمِقْدَامِ بْنِ مَعْدِيْ كَرِبَ أَلَا لَا يَحِلُّ فِيْ بَابِ الْاِعْتِصَامِ

And the hadith of Sayyiduna al-Miqdam ibn Ma'dikarib رضی اللہ عنہ is narrated in the Chapter V (# 163)

CHAPTER - XIX

AL-FARA'ID (SHARES OF INHERITANCE) بَابُ الْفَرَائِضِ

The word fara'id is the plural of faridah which is derived from fard (compulsory) (meaning, obligatory).

Fara'id are the shares of inheritance as determined by the Quran or hadith. This chapter enumerates the heirs of a person who dies, namely his or her relatives who will be become their heirs, and in what ratio the legacy will be distributed among them.

Some important basic things and some principles and necessary rulings are here brought together.

SEQUENCE OF HEIRS

The ulama (Scholars) say that four rights are attached to the legacy of a dead person.

(1) The body should be shrouded and buried, meaning that it should be given a bath and enshrouded, funeral salah (prayer) should be offered over it, and it should be taken to the graveyard and buried in a grave. The expenses should be borne from the legacy without being thrifty or extravagant.

(2) Then if there is a debt people or other outstanding then they should be paid. Thereafter

(3) If the dead person had left behind a will then one-third of the residue should be used for it. Then after that:

(4) All the remaining wealth and property should be disbursed among the heirs in the following order: The dhawil furud should be dispensed with first of all by giving them their due share. After that whatever remains will go to the asabat nasabi of the dead person because whatever remains after paying the dhawil furud goes to the asabat nasabi being their right.

If the dead person has no dhawil furud then all the remainder will go to the asabat nasabi. If there are no asabat nasabi then whatever remains after giving to the dhawil furud will be given to one who had set him free if the dead had been a slave and had been freed. If the one who had set him free is not alive then it will be given to the male asabat of the person who had set him free. If there is none of them then the remaining portion of the legacy will also go to the dhawil furud but not to the spouses because they have no share in the second time distribution.

[1] Abu Dawud # 1717.

However, if there is none of these surviving - not dhawil furud, not asabat nasabi not sabbi, then the inheritance will go to the dhawil arham. If even they are not there, then to mawla-at mawalat. If they too are not there, then all the legacy will go to the person whose relationship the dead person had mentioned, for instance, he may have said of Zayd, "He is my father's son" though this cannot be proved in any other way what ever. In spite of that he will be deserving of the legacy of the dead person. If there is no such person too then the legacy will go to the person whom the dead person had named as the beneficiary of all his property are wealth. If there is no such person too, then all the property and wealth will go to the state Treasury. Finally. If there is no such thing to then it will be spent on the heads of the state Treasury, like madrasahs (religious schools), mosques, or the poor people, the needy, etc.

ABOUT DHAWIL FURUD

They are twelve in number:

(1) Father, (2) Grandfathers including great grandfathers, great, great grandfather and so an (antecedent). (3) Akhyafi brother (that is, having different fathers but a common mother). (4) Wife. (5) Husband. (6) Mother. (7) Grandmothers (either paternal or maternal), including great grandmothers, great great grandmothers, and so on (antecedents) (8) Daughter (9) Grand daughter. (10) Real sister. (11) Step sister. (12) Akhyafi sister.

SHARES OF DHAWIL FURUD

The father of the dead person get one-sixth portion when the dead person's son, grandson or great grandson are alive. It these are not but the dead person's daughter, granddaughter or great grand daughter are alive, then the dead person's father gets one-sixth portion and will also be regarded an asbah. However, if the dead is survived by none of these descendants of his father, then the father will only be an asbah.

In short, in the first case, the father is entitled to only the prescribed (fard (compulsory)) share. In the second case, he is not only entitled to the fard (compulsory) but also is an asabah. In the third case, he is only an asabah.

If the dead person's father is not alive, then his grandfather will be like his father in all three cases. If both his father and grandfather are alive then the grandfather stands deprived, getting no inheritance at all.

They akhyafi brother and the akhyafi sister will get one sixth share of the legacy if there is one of them. If they are two or more then all of them get one-third share to be divided equally between males and females. If the dead person's father or grandfather is alive or his son or son's children are there then the akhyafi brothers and sisters will be deprived.

If a man's wife dies without being survived by a son or a daughter and by children of her son, then her husband will get half of her legacy. But, if her son or daughter or son's children are there then he will get one fourth of the share.

When a woman's husband dies leaving behind no children and no children of his sons, then she will get one fourth of the share but if any of them are alive then she will get one-eighth of the share. If the husband had only one wife then she will get all that is mentioned here. If he had two, three or four wives, then all of them together will get these shares which they will divide among themselves.

The dead person's mother will inherit from him or her one-sixth of the legacy provided the dead person's:

- son or daughter, or
- son's son, or
- his children, or
- one sister, or
- two brothers and two sisters, or more of them (whether real of step or akhyafi) are alive.

If none of them is alive, the mother will get one-third of the total legacy.

If the father or a spouse is alive with the mother, then after the share is given to them, the mother will get one-third of the residue.

If instead of father the paternal grandfather is alive, then the mother will get one third of the total legacy because, in this case, the grandfather does not take the father's place.

The paternal and maternal grandmothers get one-sixth share whether there be one or many. If there is only the paternal grandmother she gets all the one-sixth. If there also is the maternal grandmother, they both get the one-sixth which they shall divide, and so if there are two paternal and two maternal grandmothers, they will divide among themselves the one-sixth, provided they are all of the same rank (meaning, they are grandmothers and none of them is a great grandmother). If they are of different rank then the distant relative will remain deprived (meaning that the great grandmother will not get anything). In the same way, in the presence of the mother, the grandmothers will get nothing. Besides, in the presence of the grandfather, the father's grandmothers get nothing but the wife of the grandfather, meaning father's mother is not deprived.

The daughter of the dead person is never deprived of inheritance. If her brother, meaning the son of the dead, is present then she is asabah, otherwise she is dhawil furud. There are two or three possibilities for a daughter deserving an inheritance.

(1) There is only one daughter and she has no real or step brother. In this case, she gets half of the legacy. (If there is no other heir than she gets the remaining half too.)

(2) If there are two or more daughters and they have no real or step brother, they get two thirds of the legacy. They shall divide that equally among them.

(3) If there is a son too with the dead man's daughters, then the daughter has no inheritance. Rather, she becomes an asabah. This means that every daughter will get half of what a son gets no matter how many daughters there are. Thus, if a dead person has many daughters, and many sons, the distribution of the legacy will be:

two shares for every son and one share for every daughter.

In the absence of a daughter, a son and son's son of a dead person who has only one granddaughter (son's daughter), this grand daughter will get half of the legacy If he has two or more (such) grand daughters, they will be given two-thirds of the legacy. They will distribute that among themselves equally.

If the dead person has no son no son's son and no son's grandson but only one daughter, the granddaughter (from his son) will get one-sixth share even if there are more of them. (They will share)

If the dead person has two or more daughters, the granddaughter will be deprived completely.

If, however, there is, besides the grand daughter, a grandson too even down the line (great grandson) or a real or step-brother of this granddaughter or paternal cousin, then even if the dead person had many daughters or only one, the granddaughter will become an asabah. This means that atter dhawil furud have been given their shares, the residue will be distributed between the grandson and granddaughter in the ration of zil.

It must be remembered that if the dead person's son is alive then this granddaughter will get nothing at all.

If the dead person is survived by no children and grandchildren (from his son), then his grand daughter will take place of all of them. If the daughter is alive then her children will be deprived If the granddaughter (from son) is there, then the children of the granddaughter will be deprived.

In the presence of the dead person's children or his son's children, the akhyafi brothers and sisters will get nothing.

If the dead person's father or paternal grandfather is alive, the akhyafi brothers and sisters will stand deprived.

In the absence of the dead person's sons, daughters, their children and their grandchildren but the presence of only one real sister, she will take the place of his daughter. If she is alone she will get half of the legacy but if they are two or more, they will get two thirds of the entire legacy which they will disburse amongst themselves. The some ruling applies to a stepsister in the foregoing case if there is no real sister.

If the dead person's daughter or granddaughter (from his son) is there up to the lowest descendant even if they are many or just one then the real sister and in her absence the stepsister will became an asabah.

If there is a real brother, then a real sister will become as asabah with him.

If there is no real brother but there is a stop brother then a real sister will become a dhawil furud.

There is one real brother and some step brothers and sisters. In this case the top brothers and sisters will get nothing.

In the presence of one real sister, the step sister - one of more than one - will get one sixth share.

If there are more than one real sisters then the step sister will remain deprived. But, if there is a step brother too, then she will not be deprived and even if there be one or more real sisters, the step sister will become an asabah with the step brother. This means that after the dhawil fara'id have been given their shares, the remaining legacy will be theirs because of their being asabah.

If the dead person's real sister or daughter or granddaughter (from son) down the line to the lowest become asabah then the step siblings will get nothing.

EXPLANATORY NOTE : In the presence of the dead person's son and grandson (from son) to the lowest line, all the real and step siblings will be deprived. Also, in the presence of the dead person's father or paternal grandfather, the siblings, real or step will be deprived.

ABOUT ASABAT

Whatever remains after disbursing the shares of the legacy of the dead person to the dhawil furud will be distributed among the asabat. In another words, dhawil furud are the heirs of the first degree and asabat are heirs of the second degree.

1. There are four kinds of asabat Son, his son and his son down the line
2. Father, his brother (paternal uncle), paternal grandfather and paternal great grandfather.
3. Real and step brothers and their sons down the line.
4. Uncle (paternal), father's paternal uncle, paternal grandfather's paternal uncle and son of these (paternal) uncles and their sons and theirs down the line.

THE SEQUENCE OF THESE FOUR

The sequence of these four kinds is: The foremost are sons followed by grandsons to the lowest degree.

Next are father and grandfather up to the highest level (of ancestors).

Then follow the brother, sister and nephew to the lowest level.

On their heels are the paternal uncle and his children to the lowest level.

Thus, if an asabh is there from the first kind, then all the remaining three kinds will be deprived. If there is none from the first kind but one from the second kind then the next two kinds will be deprived. If there is none from the first and the second but there is one from the third then there will be none from the fourth.

The other thing is that in each of these four kinds, the close asabah will get preference over the distant one when the closer one is there is distance will be deprived. For example if both son and grandson are, there both being from the first kind, the son will be preferred over the grandson, because he is the closer. He will get the legacy of the dead person while the distant relative (the grandson) will be deprived.

In the same way, the real asabah will be preferred over the step relation,

The grandsons of the dead person (or his paternal uncles) will be preferred to his paternal uncles, and to his father's paternal uncles. The grandsons of the paternal uncles of the father of the dead person are preferred to paternal uncles of the dead person.

ABOUT DHAWIL ARHAM

The first degree of the heirs of the dead person is dhawil furud. The second is asabat when both these degrees are not found in the heirs then the legacy will go to the dhawil arham. This is the third degree of heirs of the dead. Like asabah, Dhawil arham also has four kinds. They are:

1. Daughterof the dead person, her daughter deep down the line.
2. False grandfather (called (جدفاسد) jadd fasid meaning from the mother's side, that is the maternal grandfather), false grandmother (jadeh fasidah) both paternal and maternal, or father of maternal grandmother, mother of false maternal grandmother, mother of the father of grandmother (paternal/maternal). All of them are dhawil arham while the real grand father (paternal) and real (paternal/maternal) grandmother are dhawil furud and these go up the line like the great grandfather and great grandmother, etc. there being no woman between them and no jadd fasid between them.
3. Children of real sisters, step sister, akhyafi sister and akhyafi brother. Daughter of real brother and step brothers.
4. Aunts - real, step or akhyafi, uncles (paternal and maternal) all akhyafi.

These are the four kinds of dhawil arham. The same sequence is observed as for asabah.

If those heirs of the first kind are there or their children (no matter how low in line of descent) then the remaining three are deprived. So with the second, if their heirs of this kind are there (in the absence of the first kind) then the next two are deprived. Again (when the first and second are lacking and) if the heirs of the third kind are there then those of the fourth are deprived. If all the first three are lacking then the heirs of the fourth will be considered.

Like the asabah, in every kind the closer dhu rahm is preferred to the distant.

THAT WHICH PREVENTS INHERITANCE BEING RECEIVED

Allah has prescribed the share of inheritance to the heirs of the dead person because of their singular relationship with him or her. Thus, if this relationship is disturbed in some way and they separate and detest one other then that heir loses his right to inherit from the dead relative. There are four things that deprive one of the right to inheritance. They are:

(1) Slavery. Neither can a free man be an heir of a slave nor can a slave be an heir of a free man. The reason is a slave is not recognized by Shari'ah (divine law) to be an owner of anything and he owns nothing.

(2) Murder, if an adult heir kills his legator then he is disqualified from receiving an inheritance. However, this is killing that makes qisas (retaliation) or kaffarah (expiation) wajib (obligatory) on the killer. There are five kinds of killing. (They will be discussed at the relevant place, insha Allah) Four of them are such as make wajib (obligatory) qisas or kaffarah or diyat (retaliation or expiation or blood wit). According to the Hanafis, the heir is disqualified in all these four kinds if he kills the legator (willfully and) unjustly. But, he is not disqualified if he does not kill him unjustly like in self-defence or at the command of the ruler or judge as part of a punishment. In these letter cases, the heir is not deprived of inheritance.

One of the five kinds of killing (قتل بالسبب) (killing by tasbib or sabab). In this kind neither retaliation nor expiation becomes wajib (obligatory). Rather, it is essential to pay the diyat or bloodwit. The killer or murderer is not deprived of inheritance in this kind of killing. An example of it is that someone places a stone in the land of another person without his permission or digs a well not asking for permission and a visitor stumbles on the stone or falls in the well and dies. On account of this, diyat is wajib (obligatory) on this person who had placed the stone or dug the well.

Also, the Hanafis maintain that if a minor or an insane person kills his legator, then he is not disqualified from getting his inheritance. The reason is that Shari'ah (divine law) does not prescribe punishment on most of the doings of a minor and an insane.

(3) Different religion. The difference of religion practiced also deprives one from inheritance. Thus if the heir is a Muslim but the legator is a non-Muslim or vice-versa, the Muslim will not inherit from a non Muslim neither will a Muslim's legacy go to a non Muslim.

(4) Different residences. This implies residences in different countries and native lands. If the heir and the legator reside in different native lands, it deprives the heir of inheritance. Suppose, one of them resides in Dar ul Islam (a Islamic country) and another in dar ul harb (enemy territory). This disqualifies them from inheriting from one another. But this command applies to the non Muslim. If a Msulim heir and a Muslim legator reside in different countries, they have the right to inherit from another.[1]

TERMINOLOGY

(1)(ذوی الفروض) DHAWIL FUR'UD

They are the shaers. The heirs whose shares are determined by the Qur'an and sunnah (Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم practice). or, by general consensus. They number twelve, four men and eight woman.

There are:

[1] We reproduce here under the terminology from Tirmidhi VI pp 844f

Men: (1) Father (2) Grand Father (3) Uterine brothers (half brothers by the same mother) and (4) Husband Woman: (1) Daughter (Grand Daughter (Son's daughter) (3) Full (real) Sister (4) Half Sisters by same Father (5) Uterine Sister (half sisters by same mother) (6) Wife (7) Mother and (8) True Grandfather.

(2)(عصبات) (ASA'BAT)

They are the residuaries. They are relatives besides Dhawil Furud who are males and are also connected to the deceased through males. Their share is not determined. Anything remaining after giving to Dhawil Furud will go to them. They are mentional in the table by sequence. A nearer asbah (residuary) excludes the remote one, though he may get a share by virtue of his inclusion in Dhawil Furud.

(3)(ذوی الارحام) (DHAWIL AHRAM)

They are relatives apart from dhawil furud and asabat.

(4)(عینی) (AYNI) BROTHER OR SISTERS

They are real brothers and sisters.

(5)(علاتی) (ALAQI) BROTHERS OR SISTERS

They are have a common father but separate mothers.

(6)(اخیافی) (AKHYAFI) BROTHERS OR SISTERS

They are uterine siblings, having the same mother but not the same father.

(7)REAL (OR TRUE) GRANDFATHER

There is no female interruption in the relationship with the deceased. Thus, for example, he is father's or father's father's father.

(8)UNREAL GRANDFATHER

A female relative connect him to the deceased, for example, mother's father (material grandfather), or father's mother's father.

(9)REAL (OR TRUE) GRANDMOTHER

Her relationship with the deceased does not involve the unreal grandfather, like father's mother (Paternal grandmother), mother's mother, paternal grandmother's mother and paternal grandfather's mother. There can be only one real grandmother from the mother's side while more are possible from the father's side.

(10)UNREAL GRANDMOTHER

She is related to the deceased through the unneal grandfather, like mother's father's mother, mother's father's mother's mother's mother's mother's father's mother.

(11)(ترکة) (TARKAH)

It is a legacy, a bequest, an inheritance. It includes all livestock cash and liquid, and property that the deceased leaves behind on death.

(12)(عول) (AUL)

The total of the share of dhawil Furud exceed the payable, for example:

1/2	for	husband	3
1/2	for	Sister	3
1/2	for	mother	1

(Six) The total becomes 7 which is in excess of the payable

(13)(رد) (RADD):

The total of the share of dhawil furud falls short of the payable, for example

1/8	Wife	3
1/2	daughter	12
1/6	mother	4

(Twenty-four) this 19 while the payable is twenty four and it falls short of twenty four.

(14)(مناسخه) (MUNASAKHAH) ABOLISHMENT

Before legacy is distributed, an heir may die. His share will then go to his heirs.

(15)(اولاد) (AWLAD)

They are sons, daughter, children of sons and children of the sons of sons.

THE CHART EXPLAINED

The first column has the serial number and relationship with the deceased. The second mentions the serial number of relatives deprived of relatives deprived of inheritance because of the relative mentioned in column one who received the share mentioned in column three. Thus for example, the son deprives serial # 6 to 8 etc.

CHART OF SHARE OF INHERITANCE OF VARIOUS RELATIVES

Relationship with deceased and number of them with S No.	Serial number of those deprived because of column one	Share of inheritance
1. Husband, one	----	1/2 if childless, else ¼
2. Wife, one or more	----	1/2 if childless, else 1/8
3. Son, one or more	6 to 8, 14 to 13	Asbah
4. Daughter two or more	7, 8, 22, 23	2/3 provided there is not (S.No.3)
5. Daughter, one	22,23	2/3 provided there is not (S.No.3)
6. Son's son, one or more	14 to 30	Asbah
7. Son's daughter two or more	22, 23	2/3 provided there is no daughter, else 1/6
8. Son's daughter, one	22, 23	2/3 provided there is no daughter, else 1/6
9. Father	11, 12, 14 to 30	Asbah +1/6 provided there is not S.No.3 to 6, else 1/6
10. Mother	12, 13	If she has children, or a brother a brother and sister 1/6. If she mother, father 1/3, if nothing of this then 1/3 of all legacy.
11. Paternal grandfather	14 to 30	Asbah+ 1/6 provided S.No. 3 or 6 is not there, else only 1/6.
12. Paternal grandmother one or more	-----
13. Maternal grandmother one.	-----	1/6 equal in all of them.
14. Real brother, 2 or more	18 to 21,	Asbah

15. Real brother, one.	24 to 30	Asbah
16. Real sister, 2 or more	18 to 21, 24, 30	Asbah with S.No.4 & 5 or 7 & 8, if 5 & 8 are not then 2/3
17. Real sister, one	20, 21 -----	Asbah with S.No.4, 5 or 7, 8 if 5 & 8 not there 1/2
18. Half brother on father's side two or more
19. Half brother on father's side, one.	24 to 30	Asbah.
20. Half sister from father side, two or more	24 to 30	Asbah
21. Half sister from father's		Asbah with S.No.4, 5 or 7, 8 if 5, 8, 17 not there then 2/3, with 17 1/6 if there side, one.		Asbah with S.No.45 or 7,8 if 5,8,17 not there then 1/6
22. Uterine brothers & sisters, 2 or more		1/3equally among all brother & sister.
23. Uterine brother sister	-----	1/6.
24. Son of real brother one or more	-----	Asbah.
25. Son of half brother from father's side	25 - 30	Asbah.
26. Real paternal uncle, one or more	26 - 30	Asbah.
27. Father's half brother from father's side, one or more	27 - 30	Asbah.
28. Son of real paternal uncle, one more	28 - 30	Asbah.
29. Son of father's half brother from father's one or more	29 - 30	Asbah.
30. Dhawil Arham	30 -----	Detail follow this chart.

Dhawil Arham. If there is none of the dhawil furud or asbat, except one of the spouses, then, after giving him or her the share, the remainder will be given to dhawil arham. They are of four kind:

1. DESCENDANTS: Children of daughters and of son's daughter, and so lower down.

2. ASCENDANTS:Line false grandfather and false grandmother, and so going up.

3. FATHER'S DESCENDANTS: Like daughters of real and consanguine brother children of uterine brothers and of all sisters.

4. DESCENDANTS OF GRANDFATHERS: Like daughters of real uncles and consanguine uncles, uterine uncles aunt, maternal uncles, mother's sister and their children.

Those of them that are alone will be entitled to all wealth. If there are a few then the nearer ones are preferred to the remote. The full or real is preferred over the step relative who is preferred to the uterine, whether male or female. If they are equal in that then the Qura'n's edict is followed:

لِلذَّكَرِ مِثْلُ حَظِّ الْأُنْثَيَيْنِ

For the male is the share equivalent of that of two females. (4:11)

If relations are different then the father's relatives get two-thirds and mother's relatives get one-third. (FA)

SECTION I اَلْفَصْلُ الْاَوَّلُ

HEIRS HAVE RIGHT OF INHERITANCE TO LEGACY OF DEAD

(٣٠٤١) عَنْ اَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ اَنَا اَوْلٰى بِالْمُؤْمِنِيْنَ مِنْ اَنْفُسِهِمْ فَمَنْ مَاتَ وَعَلَيْهِ دَيْنٌ وَلَمْ يَتْرُكْ وَفَاءً فَعَلَيَّ قَضَاؤُهُ وَمَنْ تَرَكَ مَالًا فَلِوَرَثَتِهٖ وَفِيْ رِوَايَةٍ مَنْ تَرَكَ دَيْنًا اَوْضِيَاعًا فَلْيَاتِنِيْ فَاَنَا مَوْلَاهُ وَفِيْ رِوَايَةٍ مَنْ تَرَكَ مَالًا فَلِوَرَثَتِهٖ وَمَنْ تَرَكَ كَلًّا فَاِلَيْنَا۔ (متفق عليه)

3041. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضى الله عنه narrated hat the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "I am nearer to the believers than they are to themselves. So, he who dies leaving an unpaid debt but not leaving the means to repay it, his debt is payable by me. And, he who leaves behind property (enough to pay his debts and execute his will leaving a balance thereafter), it belongs to his heirs."

According to a version: "He who leaves a debt or children without maintenance, let it come to me. I am his guardian."

According to a version: "He who leaves property behalf him, it belongs to him heirs. And he who leaves children without maintenance they are on us."[1]

COMMENTARY: In the early days, the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم did not offer the funeral salah (prayer) of anyone who died leaving an unpaid debt but asked his sahabah (Prophet's Companions) رضى الله عنهم to offer it themselves. Later, as Muslims prospered, he paid all such debts. (see hadith # 2913) This reflects the Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم love and kindness for all Muslims.

DHAWIL FURUD FIRST PREFERENCE

(٣٠٤٢) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَلْحِقُوا الْفَرَائِضَ بِاَهْلِهَا فَمَا بَقِيَ فَهُوَ لِاَوْلٰى رَجُلٍ ذَكَرٍ۔ (متفق عليه)

3042. Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضى الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Give the shares of inheritance (as prescribed in the Quran and hadith) to those who are entitled to (inheritance) shares. What remains (after that) is for the (asabah) nearest male heir."[2]

COMMENTARY: In other words, the shares of inheritance should be given first to

---

[1] Bukhari # 2399, Muslim # 15-1619, Abu Dawud # 2955, Nasa'i # 1963, Ibn Majah # 2415, Musnad Ahmad 2-456.

[2] Bukhari # 6732, Muslim # 2-1615, Darimi # 2987, Tirmidhi # 2098, Abu Dawud # 2898.

dhawil furud. The Quran has determined their shares. When their specified shares are given, the asabah should be given their shares. Preference in this is for the nearest relative of the dead person.

The closing words 'male heir' mean that the eunuch is excluded.

practice) explains that some heirs are obstacles to صلى الله عليه وسلم Sharh us sunnah (Prophet's

حجب نقصان حجب حرمان others. This can be in two ways:

Hajab nuqsan and hajab Harman.

The definition of both together is that some heirs are a cause of getting shares of others reduced. For example if the dead person had no children, his mother would have received one-third share of the legacy, but if he has children then she gets only one-sixth share. This is hajab nuqsan (obstacle that decreases, or part exclusion from inheritance).

Some heirs eliminate other heirs (who are relatives). For example, if the person has a son then the dead person's brother gets nothing. This is hajab Harman (obstacle that prevents, or total absolute exclusion).

DIFFERENCE OF RELIGION

(٣٠٤٣) وَعَنْ أُسَامَةَ بْنِ زَيْدٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَا يَرِثُ الْمُسْلِمُ الْكَافِرَ وَلَا الْكَافِرُ الْمُسْلِمَ۔ (متفق عليه)

3043. Sayyiduna Usamah ibn Zayd رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "A Muslim does not inherit from an infidel nor does an infidel from a Muslim."[1]

COMMENTARY: Allamah Nawawi رحمه الله said that the scholars agree that a disbeliever cannot inherit from a Muslim relative legator. As for a Muslim heir inheriting from an infidel relative, most scholars assert that he will not inherit from the disbeliever but some of the sahabah (Prophet's Companions) رضی الله عنهم and tabi'un رحمه الله said that a Muslim can inherit from a disbelieving relative. Imam Maalik رحمه الله said the same thing.

Again, it is agreed that an apostate cannot inherit from a Muslim but the question whether a Muslim may inherit from an apostate is disputed. Imam Maalik رحمه الله, Imam Shafi's رحمه الله, Sayyiduna Rabi'ah رحمه الله and Ibn abu Laylah رحمه الله and others say that a Muslim cannot inherit from an apostate. Imam Abu Hanifah رحمه الله says that whatever the apostate earned after he apostated will go to the state Treasury and what he had earned when he was a Muslim will go to the Muslim heirs.

THE MAWLA INHERITS FROM A SLAVE

(٣٠٤٤) وَعَنْ أَنَسٍ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ مَوْلَى الْقَوْمِ مِنْ أَنْفُسِهِمْ۔ (رواه البخاری)

3044. Sayyiduna Anas رضی الله عنه narrated that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "The mawla of a people belongs to them."[2]

COMMENTARY: The word mawla means the one who sets a slave free.' The hadith means the this person who sets the slave free inherits the freedman's property when he dies. But,

---

[1] Bukhari # 6764, Muslim # 1-1614, Tirmidhi # 2114, Ibn Majah # 2729, Muwatta # 10 (Faraid) Musnad Ahmad 5-209.

[2] Bukhari # 6761.

this freedman cannot be heir of the ex-master who gave him freedom.
However, some authorities say that mawla means 'the slave who was set free.' The freedman. Hence, the hadith means that the same command or ruling applies to the freedman as applies to the people or tribe who have set him free. For instance, if the Banu Hashim (who are Sayyid) set him free then the same commands will apply to him as apply to the Sayyid. Thus, the sayyid are precluded from receiving zakah (Annual due charity) and their freedman is also precluded from it, that being haram for them.

NEPHEW RECEIVES INHERITANCE FROM MATERNAL UNCLE

(٣٠٤٥) وَعَنْ اَنَسٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ ابْنُ اُخْتِ الْقَوْمِ مِنْهُمْ۔ (متفق عليه)

3045. Sayyiduna Anas رضى الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "The son of a sister of a people belongs to them."

COMMENTARY: A nephew inherits from his maternal uncle and belongs to the category of dhawil arham. Imam Abu Hanifah رحمه الله and Imam Ahmad رضى الله عنه hold that dhawil arham are h eirs of the dead person. This is when the dhawil'furud and asabat are not present. This has been discussed in the introduction to this chapter.

وَذُكِرَ حَدِيْثُ عَائِشَةَ اِنَّمَا الْوَلَاءُ فِيْ بَابٍ قَبْلَ بَابِ السَّلَمِ وَسَنَذْكُرُ حَدِيْثَ الْبَرَاءِ الْخَالَةُ بِمَنْزِلَةِ الْاُمِّ فِيْ

بَابِ بُلُوْغِ الصَّغِيْرِ وَحَضَانَتِهِ اِنْ شَاءَ اللّٰهُ تَعَالٰى

The hadith of Sayyiduna Ayshah رضى الله عنها about the right of inheritance belonging to ... is narrated earlier (hadith # 2877)
The hadith of Sayyiduna Bara about the maternal aunt being like the mother follow later (# 3377).

SECTION II اَلْفَصْلُ الثَّانِيْ

MUSLIM & NON MUSLIM INHERITING ONE ANOTHER

(٣٠٤٦، ٣٠٤٧) عَنْ عَبْدِاللّٰهِ بْنِ عَمْرٍو قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَا يَتَوَارَثُ اَهْلُ الْمِلَّتَيْنِ

شَتّٰى رَوَاهُ اَبُوْدَاوُدَ وَابْنُ مَاجَةَ وَرَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ عَنْ جَابِرٍ۔

3046. Sayyiduna Abdullah ibn Amr رضى الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Adherents of two different religions do not inherit from one another."[1]
3047. Sayyiduna Jabir رضى الله عنه narrated that same hadith.[2]

MURDERER DOES NOT INHERIT

(٣٠٤٨) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَلْقَاتِلُ لَا يَرِثُ۔ (رواه الترمذى وابن ماجة)

3048. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضى الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "The murderer does not inherit."[3]

COMMENTARY: This means that one who kills his legator unjustly cannot inherit from him. This has been discussed earlier in the chapter.

---

[1] Abu Dawud # 291, Ibn Majah # 2371, Musnad Ahmad 2-195.
[2] Tirmidhi # 2115.
[3] Tirmidhi # 2116, Ibn Majah # 2735.

GRANDMOTHER GETS ONE-SIXTH

(٣٠٤٩) وَعَنْ بُرَيْدَةَ اَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ جَعَلَ لِلْجَدَّةِ السُّدُسَ إِذَا لَمْ تَكُنْ دُوْنَهَا أُمٌّ۔ (رواه ابوداؤد)

3049. Sayyiduna Buraydah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم specified one sixth share (of inheritance) for a grandmother as long as no mother excludes her (by inheriting before her).[1]

COMMENTARY: If the dead person's mother is alive then the grandmother of this person will get no inheritance. If she is not alive then the grandmother, whether paternal or maternal, will get one-sixth share.

NEW BORN SURVIVING CHILD IN AS HEIR

(٣٠٥٠) وَعَنْ جَابِرٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِذَا اسْتَهَلَّ الصَّبِيُّ صُلِّيَ عَلَيْهِ وَوُرِّثَ۔

(رواه ابن ماجة والدارمی)

3050. Sayyiduna Jabir رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "If an infant emits a sound (at birth before dying), funeral salah (prayer) is offered over him and he qualifies as an heir."[2]

COMMENTARY: Emits a sound means 'shows signs of life by breathing, sneezing or moving. If the child dies after that,, then a funeral salah (prayer) will be offered over it and it is entitled to be called an heir and get a share of inheritance.

In the light of this hadith, if a person dies and his child is yet in its mother's womb, then its share if inheritance will be kept aside. When the child is born alive, its share of inheritance will be entrusted to its guardians and it will be deemed to be on heir. But, if it is still-born then it will not be an heir and the inheritance will be distributed to other heirs.

PART OF THE PEOPLE

(٣٠٥١) وَعَنْ كَثِيْرِ بْنِ عَبْدِاللّٰهِ عَنْ اَبِيْهِ عَنْ جَدِّهٖ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَوْلَى الْقَوْمِ مِنْهُمْ

وَحَلِيْفُ الْقَوْمِ مِنْهُمْ وَابْنُ أُخْتِ الْقَوْمِ مِنْهُمْ۔ (رواه الدارمی)

3051. Sayyiduna Kathir ibn Abdullah رحمہ اللہ reported from his father (Sayyiduna Abdullah) رحمہ اللہ from his (Kathi'r's) grandfather (Sayyiduna Amr ibn Awf Muzani) رضی اللہ عنہ that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "The mawla of a people belongs to them. The ally of a people is one of from them. And, the son of a sister of a people belongs to them."[3]

COMMENTARY: The portion about the mawla has been explained in the commentary on the hadith # 3051. As for the ally, the Arabs used to form a pact, two men with one another. It was an alliance to co-operate in difficulties, sorrow, death, ease, etc. throughout life their blood was common and their agreements were binding on one another. 'Their enemies were common. If one of them was fined, the other was bound to share the burden with him. They also shared inheritance of one another but when the

---

[1] Abu Dawud # 2895, Daraqutni # 74 (Fara'id)

[2] Ibn Majah # 2750, Darimi # 3126.

[3] Darami # 2527.

Quran defined the share of inheritances, this custom was done away with. Also, this part of the hadith was annulled.

As for sister's son being one of the people, see hadith # 3045, and the commentary on it.

MATERNAL UNCLE IS DHURAHM HEIR OF HIS NEPHEW

(٣٠٥٢) وَعَنِ الْمِقْدَامِ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَنَا اَوْلٰى بِكُلِّ مُؤْمِنٍ مِنْ نَفْسِهٖ فَمَنْ تَرَكَ دَيْنًا اَوْ ضَيْعَةً فَاِلَيْنَا وَمَنْ تَرَكَ مَالًا فَلِوَرَثَتِهٖ وَاَنَا مَوْلٰى مَنْ لَا مَوْلٰى لَهٗ اَرِثُ مَالَهٗ وَاَفُكُّ عَانَهٗ وَالْخَالُ وَارِثُ مَنْ لَا وَارِثَ لَهٗ يَرِثُ مَالَهٗ وَيَفُكُّ عَانَهٗ وَفِيْ رِوَايَةٍ وَاَنَا وَارِثُ مَنْ لَا وَارِثَ لَهٗ اَعْقِلُ عَنْهُ وَاَرِثُهٗ وَالْخَالُ وَارِثُ مَنْ لَا وَارِثَ لَهٗ يَعْقِلُ عَنْهُ وَيَرِثُهٗ۔ (رواه ابوداؤد)

3052. Sayyiduna Miqdam رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "I am nearer to every believer (wishing him well) than he himself is. Hence, if anyone dies leaving a debt or an unsupported family, then I am responsible (to pay his debt and support his family). If anyone leaves property, that belongs to his heirs. I am guardian of him who has no guardian as his heir who relieves him of his liabilities (like paying off penalties or blood money that he is liable to pay).

A maternal uncle is heir of him who has none. He inherits his property and liberates him from his liabilities.

According to a version: "I am heir of him who has none. I pay for him bloodwit (due on him) and I inherit from him. A maternal uncle is heir of him who has none. He pays bloodwit for him and inherits from him."[1]

WOMEN INHERITS FROM THREE MEN

(٣٠٥٣) وَعَنْ وَاثِلَةَ بْنِ الْاَسْقَعِ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ تَحُوْزُ الْمَرْاَةُ ثَلَاثَ مَوَارِيْثَ عَتِيْقَهَا وَلَقِيْطَهَا وَوَلَدَهَا الَّذِىْ لَاعَنَتْ عَنْهُ۔ (رواه الترمذى وابوداؤد)

3053. Sayyiduna Wathilah ibn Al-Asqa رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "A woman can have legacy from three sources. (1) The slave whom she sets free, (2) the child she foundles (and rears up), (3) her own child about whom she has invoked a curse on herself (in lian) assuring her husband that he was a legitimate child."[2]

COMMENTARY: the slave whom the woman had set free may have died leaving no asabah relative. Thus, in such cases a man becomes on heir of his freedman and a woman also becomes his heir.

As for the second source, the ulama (Scholars) say that this command that a woman is heir of the child she foundles is abrogated. However, Ishaq ibn Rahu رحمہ اللہ abides by this hadith.

Qadi رحمہ اللہ said that the hadith means that whatever this child leaves will go to the state Treasury. The woman who had picket up the child has more right that this money be spent on her from the state Treasury.

As for the third source, li'an (invoking a curse on oneself) is that when a man accuses his wife that the child she has begotten does not belong to her, they curse one another. This will be discussed, In-sha-Allah, in the chapter on al-li'an (اللعان). The child for whom lian was observed is not attributed its father and the child and father cannot be one another's heir because patronage is not established. However, since the child's paternage is duly establish with its mother, the two of them will be heirs of one another.

---

[1] Abu Dawud # 2900, Ibn Majah # 2738.

[2] Tirmidhi # 2122, Abu Dawud # 2908, Ibn Majah # 2742, Musnad Ahmad 3-490.

The same command applies to walad us zina (child born through adultery or out of wedlock).

CHILD BORN OUT OF WEDLOCK

(٣٠٥٤) وَعَنْ عَمْرِو بْنِ شُعَيْبٍ عَنْ أَبِيهِ عَنْ جَدِّهِ أَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ أَيُّمَا رَجُلٍ عَاهَرَ بِحُرَّةٍ أَوْ أَمَةٍ فَالْوَلَدُ وَلَدُ زِنًا لَا يَرِثُ وَلَا يُوْرَثُ۔ (رواه الترمذى)

3054. Sayyiduna Amr ibn Shu'ayb رحمه الله narrated on the authority of his father (Shu'ayb) رحمه الله that his (father's) grandfather said that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "If a man commits adultery with a free woman or a female slave (and a child is conceived), then their child is walad uz zina (illegitimate child) who will neither be anyone's heir nor have an heir (meaning, will neither inherit nor will any one inherit from him)"[1]

COMMENTARY: The reason is that relationship is not established with the man who commits fornication, or with the man's relatives. However, the child's relationship is clear with its mother, so they will inherit from one another.

LEGACY OF A FREEDMAN

(٣٠٥٥) وَعَنْ عَائِشَةَ أَنَّ مَوْلًى لِرَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَاتَ وَتَرَكَ شَيْئًا وَلَمْ يَدَعْ حَمِيْمًا وَلَا وَلَدًا فَقَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ أَعْطُوْا مِيْرَاثَهُ رَجُلًا مِنْ أَهْلِ قَرْيَتِهِ۔ (رواه ابوداؤد والترمذى)

3055. Sayyidah Ayshsh رضى الله عنه narrated that a freedman of Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم died, leaving some property. He left behind no relative and no child (to inherit him). So, Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Hand over what he has left to a man of his village."[2]

COMMENTARY: When a person dies, leaving on heir, the 'inheritance goes the state treasury whose funds are payable to the poor and needy. So the prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم diverted the freedman's legacy to the needy and deserving of the village.

PROPHETS ARE HEIRS TO NONE

It has been stated previously that if a freedman has no asabah relative then the right of wala belongs to one who has set him free. In other words, after he dies, he who had emancipated him owns his legacy (if he has no heir). According to this procedure when the Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم freedman died, his legacy ought to have gone to the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. However, Prophets صلى الله عليه وسلم never inherit from anyone nor are inherited by other. So, the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم did not take the inheritance of the freedman. He gave it where the state Treasury's property is spent.
The reason for this is that the Prophet عليه السلام not only preach abstinence but also practice

[1] Tirmidhi # 2120, Ibn Majah # 2745.
[2] Tirmidhi # 2112, Ibn Majah # 2733, Abu Dawud # 2902.

what they preach. Hence, they had no interest in the legacy of other people and they did not grieve at leaving this world without their property. Moreover, they never had any worthwhile property with them in this world. Thus, Allah commanded that whatever (little they left behind was no one's property, nor would they receive anyone's legacy. The prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said:

إِنَّا مَعَاشِرُ الْأَنْبِيَاءِ لَا نُوْرِثُ مَاتَرَكْنَا صَدَقَةٌ

"We the company of prophet are not inherited, what we leave is sadaqah (charity)."

IN ABSENCE OF HEIR LEGACY GOES TO BAYT UL MAAL(TREASURY)

(٣٠٥٦) وَعَنْ بُرَيْدَةَ قَالَ مَاتَ رَجُلٌ مِنْ خُزَاعَةَ فَأُتِيَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ بِمِيْرَاثِهِ فَقَالَ اِلْتَمِسُوْا لَهُ وَارِثًا اَوْذَارَحِمٍ فَلَمْ يَجِدُوْا لَهُ وَارِثًا وَلَا ذَا رَحِمٍ فَقَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَعْطُوْهُ الْكُبْرَ مِنْ خُزَاعَةَ رَوَاهُ اَبُوْدَاوُدَ وَفِيْ رِوَايَةٍ لَهُ قَالَ اُنْظُرُوْا اَكْبَرَ رَجُلٍ مِنْ خُزَاعَةَ۔

3056. Sayyiduna Burayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that a man of the Khuza'ah died and his legacy was brought to the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم. He said, "Look for an heir of his (from among the dhawil furud and, if none, from among the asabah) otherwise a dhu rahm." But, they could find neither an heir (from dhawil farud and asabah) nor a dhu rahm. So, Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "Hand it over to an elder (old man of the tribe) of Khuza'ah.

According to another version, he said, 'Look for an old man of the Khuza'ah.

COMMENTARY: The same explanation applies to this ahadith as to the previous. In the absence of on heir, the legacy goes to the state Treasury. An old man of the same tribe is most deserving of the funds of the state Treasury.

REPAYMENT OF DEBT TAKES PRECEDENCE

(٣٠٥٧) وَعَنْ عَلِيٍّ قَالَ اِنَّكُمْ تَقْرَؤُوْنَ هٰذِهِ الْآيَةَ مِنْ بَعْدِ وَصِيَّةٍ تُوْصُوْنَ بِهَا اَوْدَيْنٍ وَاِنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَضٰى بِالدَّيْنِ قَبْلَ الْوَصِيَّةِ وَاِنَّ اَعْيَانَ بَنِي الْاُمِّ يَتَوَارَثُوْنَ دُوْنَ بَنِي الْعَلَّاتِ الرَّجُلُ يَرِثُ اَخَاهُ لِاَبِيْهِ وَاُمِّهِ دُوْنَ اَخِيْهِ لِاَبِيْهِ۔ رواه الترمذى وابن ماجه وفى رواية الدارمى: قال "اِلاخوةُ من الاُمِّ يتوارثون دون بنى العلات ...... اِلٰى اخره۔"

3057. Sayyiduna Ali رضی اللہ عنہ said, "You people recite this verse:

مِنْ بَعْدِ وَصِيَّةٍ تُوْصُوْنَ بِهَا اَوْدَيْنٍ

{after (having paid) he bequest that may have been bequeathed, or a debt...} (4:12)
But, Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم ruled that a debt should be discharged before the legacy is executed. And, (he ruled) that (real) brothers from the same mother inherit from each other but not brother from the same father by different mothers. One inherits from his brother having the same father and mother, but not his brother having the same father and a different mother."

According to a version in Darami, he said, "The brothers from the same mother inherit from each other, but not brothers from the same father and different mothers."[1]

COMMENTARY: Sayyiduna Ali رضی الله عنه explained to the people that they should nor misread the verse (4:12). Though it mentions will before debt, vet the debt has to be paid before executing the will of the dead person and before distributing the inheritance. The objective of the said verse is to impress that the dead person's will must not be disregarded. Rather, it ought to be executed faithfully.

BACKGROUND OF THE VERSE OF INHERITANCE

(٣٠٥٨) وَعَنْ جَابِرٍ قَالَ جَاءَتْ امْرَأَةُ سَعْدِ بْنِ الرَّبِيْعِ بِابْنَتَيْهَا مِنْ سَعْدِ ابْنِ الرَّبِيْعِ إِلَى رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَقَالَتْ يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ هَاتَانِ ابْنَتَا سَعْدِ بْنِ الرَّبِيْعِ قُتِلَ أَبُوْهُمَا مَعَكَ يَوْمَ أُحُدٍ شَهِيْدًا وَإِنَّ عَمَّهُمَا أَخَذَ مَالَهُمَا وَلَمْ يَدَعْ لَهُمَا مَالًا وَلَا تُنْكَحَانِ إِلَّا وَلَهُمَا مَالٌ قَالَ يَقْضِي اللّٰهُ فِيْ ذٰلِكَ فَنَزَلَتْ اٰيَةُ الْمِيْرَاثِ فَبَعَثَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِلَى عَمِّهِمَا فَقَالَ أَعْطِ لِابْنَتَيْ سَعْدٍ الثُّلُثَيْنِ وَأَعْطِ أُمَّهُمَا الثُّمُنَ وَمَا بَقِيَ فَهُوَ لَكَ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَأَبُوْدَاوُدَ وَابْنُ مَاجَةَ وَقَالَ التِّرْمِذِيُّ هٰذَا حَدِيْثٌ غَرِيْبٌ۔

3058. Sayyiduna Jabir رضی الله عنه narrated that the wife of Sayyiduna Sa'd ibn Rabi brought her two daughter of Sa'd to Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم She said, "O Messenger of Allah, these are two daughters of Sa'd ibn Rabi. Their father had fought by your side on the day of Uhud and was martyred. Their paternal uncle took away their wealth and left nothing for them and they cannot be married unless they have some wealth." He said, "Allah will decide about this issue," and the verse of inheritance (4:11) was revealed. So, Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم sent for their paternal uncle and instructed him to give to the two daughters of Sa'd رضی الله عنه two thirds and to their mother one eight and what remained was for him.[2]

COMMENTARY: In pre-Islamic days that which a dead person left behind went complete to an adult man capable of engaging in battle. Women, children and the weak got nothing at all. They were helpless and desperate against the strong adult men whether paternal uncles or brothers.

The prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم was sent as a merciful to mankind, and as in every other field he removed the misery of the weak in this field of inheritance too, The first case was that of Sayyiduna Aws ibn Thabit Ansari رضی الله عنه. When he died, he left behind his wife, Umm Kamhah (ام کمحه) and three daughters (or two daughters and an infant son. He had made two men guardians and executors of his will. They followed the custom of the pre Islamic times and gave away the entire property of Sayyiduna Aws رضی الله عنه to his paternal cousin (or to his two real brothers). His wife complained to the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم, the guardian and solace of the poor, that she and her children were deprived of all the wealth of her husband which was handed over to Khalid ibn Urfutah (or Khalid and urfutah). "What will happen to us?" The Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم was very pained at this but he could not do any thing promptly because he was not a dictator and not a partner in Allah's domain. He consoled the wife of Awf رضی الله

---

[1] Tirmidhi # 2129, Ibn Majah # 2739, Darimi # 2984, Musnad Ahmad 1-144.

[2] Tirmidhi # 2099, Abu Dawud # 2891, Ibn Majah # 2720, Musnad Ahmad 3. 352.

عنه and requested her to go home and wait Allah's Command. He waited for the revelation from the Judge of the judges. Soon this verse was revealed:

لِلرِّجَالِ نَصِيبٌ مِّمَّا تَرَكَ الْوَالِدَانِ وَالْأَقْرَبُونَ وَلِلنِّسَاءِ نَصِيبٌ مِّمَّا تَرَكَ الْوَالِدَانِ وَالْأَقْرَبُونَ

مِمَّا قَلَّ مِنْهُ أَوْ كَثُرَ نَصِيبًا مَّفْرُوضًا ـ (النساء ۴: ۷)

{For men is a share of what their parents and near relatives leave, and for women is a share of what their parents and the near relatives leave, whether it be small or large - a share determined} (4:7)

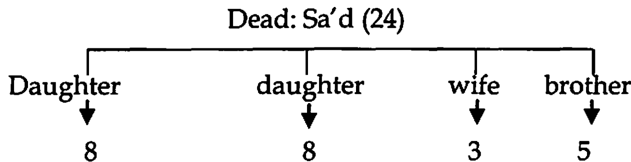
Thus ended the injustice matted out to woman and girls in distributing the shares of inheritances. No longer were man the sole inheritors.

However, she shares were not determined till then. So, the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم sent message to the executors of Aws رضی الله عنه will that they should preserve his wealth and spend nothing from it till the shares were determined. After a little time Sa'd ibn Rabi Ansari died a martyr in the Battle of Uhud in 3 AH as in the forging hadith. The prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم advised his wife too to await Allah's command. After a few day the verse of inheritance was revealed:

يُوصِيكُمُ اللَّهُ فِي أَوْلَادِكُمْ لِلذَّكَرِ مِثْلُ حَظِّ الْأُنثَيَيْنِ الخ ـ (آخری رکوع تک، النساء ۴: ۱۱)

{Allah enjoins you concerning your children for the male is she share equivalent of that of two females…} (4:11 complete subject).

The Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم sent message to Sa'd's brother in accordance with it apportioning the shares.



SHARES OF DAUGHTERS, SON'S DAUGHTER, SISTER

(۳۰۵۹) وَعَنْ هُزَيْلِ بْنِ شُرَحْبِيْلٍ قَالَ سُئِلَ اَبُوْمُوْسٰی عَنْ ابْنَةٍ وَبِنْتِ ابْنٍ وَاُخْتٍ فَقَالَ لِلْبِنْتِ النِّصْفُ وَلِلْاُخْتِ النِّصْفُ وَأْتِ ابْنَ مَسْعُوْدٍ فَسَيُتَابِعُنِیْ فَسُئِلَ ابْنُ مَسْعُوْدٍ وَاُخْبِرَ بِقَوْلِ اَبِیْ مُوْسٰی فَقَالَ لَقَدْ ضَلَلْتُ اِذًا وَمَا اَنَا مِنَ الْمُهْتَدِيْنَ اَقْضِیْ فِيْهَا بِمَا قَضَی النَّبِیُّ صَلَّی اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لِلْبِنْتِ النِّصْفُ وَلِابْنَةِ الْاِبْنِ السُّدُسُ تَكْمِلَةَ الثُّلُثَيْنِ وَمَا بَقِیَ فَلِلْاُخْتِ فَاَتَيْنَا اَبَا مُوْسٰی فَاَخْبَرْنَاهُ بِقَوْلِ ابْنِ مَسْعُوْدٍ فَقَالَ لَا تَسْاَلُوْنِیْ مَادَامَ هٰذَا الْحَبْرُ فِيْكُمْ ـ (رواه البخاری)

3059. Sayyiduna Huzayl ibn Shurahbil رحمه الله reported that Sayyiduna Abu Musa رحمه الله was asked about (the inheritance of) a daughter, son's daughter and a sister. He said, "The daughter will get half and the sister half (but the granddaughter will get nothing). So to Ibn Mas'ud and you will see that he concurs with me." So, Ibn Mas'ud رضی الله عنه was asked and informed of the opinion of Abu Musa رضی الله عنه. He said, "In that case, I would have gone astray and would not be among those who are guided. Rather, I shall decide in this case as (Allah's) Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم had done. The daughter will get half, the son's daughter one-sixth which adds up to two-thirds, and the rest the sister will get.' (The narrator said:) "We went to Abu Musa رضى الله عنه and reported him of the words of Ibn Mas'ud رضى الله عنه. He exclaimed, 'Ask me not as long as this scholar is among you.[1]

COMMENTARY: What Sayyiduna Abdullah ibn Mas'ud رضى الله عنه said was that the legacy of the dead person be divided in six portions in such a way that the daughter gets three shares, granddaughter (from son) one share and sister two shares.

PATERNAL GRANDFATHER'S SHARE

(٣٠٦٠) وَعَنْ عِمْرَانَ بْنِ حُصَيْنٍ قَالَ جَاءَ رَجُلٌ إِلَى رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَقَالَ إِنَّ ابْنِي مَاتَ فَمَالِيْ مِنْ مِيْرَاثِهِ قَالَ لَكَ السُّدُسُ فَلَمَّا وَلّٰى دَعَاهُ قَالَ لَكَ سُدُسٌ اٰخَرُ فَلَمَّا وَلّٰى دَعَاهُ قَالَ إِنَّ السُّدُسَ الْاٰخَرَ طُعْمَةٌ لَكَ۔ رَوَاهُ اَحْمَدُ وَالتِّرْمِذِيُّ وَاَبُوْدَاوُدَ وَقَالَ التِّرْمِذِيُّ هٰذَا حَدِيْثٌ حَسَنٌ صَحِيْحٌ۔

3060. Sayyiduna Imran ibn Husayn رضى الله عنه narrated that a man came to Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم and submitted, "My son's son has died. What do I get as inheritance?" He said, "For you is one-sixth." AS he prepared to depart, he called him and said, 'You get an additional one-sixth too." And, as he turned to go, he called him again and said, "The second one-sixth is your provision (and nor mafrudah or prescribed)."[2]

COMMENTARY: The first one-sixth was because the grandfather was a dhawil furud while the second portion was an account of his being an asabah. In this way, he got one third of the legacy.

The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم did not give him all one third together lest he suppose that a grandfather gets from his son's son as a dhawil furud one third.

As for the ruing, suppose that a man died leaving two daughters and a paternal grandfather. The two daughters qualify for two thirds of the legacy. Of the remaining, the grandfather qualifies for half of one third or one six of the legacy as a dhawil furud and he will also get the remainder (one sixth of the legacy) being an asabah too. It is like this:

Dead person's legacy
- 6 -
daughter, daughter
(4) grandfather
bil furud & asabah
(2)

GRANDMOTHER'S SHARE

(٣٠٦١) وَعَنْ قَبِيْصَةَ بْنِ ذُوَيْبٍ قَالَ جَاءَتِ الْجَدَّةُ إِلَى اَبِيْ بَكْرٍ تَسْأَلُهُ مِيْرَاثَهَا فَقَالَ لَهَا مَا لَكِ فِيْ كِتَابِ اللّٰهِ شَيْءٌ وَمَا لَكِ فِيْ سُنَّةِ رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ شَيْءٌ فَارْجِعِيْ حَتّٰى اَسْأَلَ النَّاسَ فَسَأَلَ فَقَالَ الْمُغِيْرَةُ

[1] Bukhari # 6736, Tirmidhi # 2100, Ibn Majah # 2721, Darimi # 2890, Musnad Ahmad 7-389.

[2] Tirmidhi # 2106, Abu Dawud # 2896.

بْنُ شُعْبَةَ حَضَرْتُ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَعْطَاهَا السُّدُسَ فَقَالَ اَبُوْبَكْرٍ هَلْ مَعَكَ غَيْرُكَ فَقَالَ مُحَمَّدُ بْنُ مَسْلَمَةَ مِثْلَ مَاقَالَ الْمُغِيْرَةُ فَاَنْفَذَهُ لَهَا اَبُوْبَكْرٍ ثُمَّ جَاءَتِ الْجَدَّةُ الْاُخْرٰى اِلٰى عُمَرَ تَسْأَلُهُ مِيْرَاثَهَا فَقَالَ هُوَ ذٰلِكَ السُّدُسُ فَاِنِ اجْتَمَعْتُمَا فَهُوَ بَيْنَكُمَا وَاَيَّتُكُمَا خَلَتْ بِهٖ فَهُوَ لَهَا۔ (رواہ مالك واحمد والترمذی وابوداؤد والدارمی وابن ماجة)

3061. Sayyiduna Qabisah ibn Dhu'ayn رضی الله عنه narrated that a grandmother came to Sayyiduna Abu Bakr رضی الله عنه and pleaded for her share of legacy. He said that nothing was specified for her in Allah's Book or in the sunnah (Prophet's صلی الله علیه وسلم practice) of His Messenger رضی الله عنه but advised her to go home and let him consult the people (meaning, the scholars among the sahabah) رضی الله عنه. So, he made enquires and Sayyiduna Mughirah ibn Shu'bah رضی الله عنه said, "I was with Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم when he gave a grandmother one sixth (share)." Abu Bakr رضی الله عنه asked him if anyone else had been with him (at that time) and Sayyiduna Muhammad ibn Masalamah رضی الله عنه confirmed what Mughirah had said. So, Abu Bakr رضی الله عنه gave her that (one sixty) portion.

Another grandmother came to Sayyiduna Umar رضی الله عنه pleading for her inheritance. He said, "It is that (same) one-sixth. If there are two of you, it is between both of you survives (the other), she gets all (of it)."[1]

COMMENTARY: The grandmother could be maternal or paternal. The one who had come to Sayyiduna Abu Bakr رضی الله عنه was a maternal grandmother while she who came to Sayyiduna Umar رضی الله عنه was a paternal one. This is explicit in another version.

Sayyiduna Abu Bakr رضی الله عنه had presumed that there was only one grandmother. But, when Sayyiduna Umar رضی الله عنه learnt that there also was a paternal grandmother, he instructed that they divide the share between themselves, one-sixth for both together.

GRANDMOTHER'S SHARE WHEN SON IS ALIVE

(٣٠٦٢) وَعَنِ ابْنِ مَسْعُوْدٍ قَالَ فِي الْجَدَّةِ مَعَ ابْنِهَا اَنَّهَا اَوَّلُ جَدَّةٍ اَطْعَمَهَا رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ سُدُسًا مَعَ ابْنِهَا وَابْنُهَا حَيٌّ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَالدَّارِمِيُّ وَالتِّرْمِذِيُّ ضَعَّفَهٗ۔

3062. Sayyiduna Ibn Ma'sud رضی الله عنه narrated that about a grandmother who had her son that she was the first grandmother whom Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم gave one-sixth (share) while she had a son who was alive.[2]

COMMENTARY: Someone died leaving his paternal grandmother and father. The prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم had one-sixth of the legacy given to her though her son - the dead person's father - was alive. The ulama (Scholars) rule that if the dead man's dad is living, then the grandmother gets noting from the legacy. She is deprived of her grandson's inheritance when his father is alive.

---

[1] Tirmidhi # 2107, Abu Dawud # 2894, Ibn Majah # 2723, Darimi # 2939, Muwatta Maalik # 4 (Fara'id), Musnad Ahmad 4-225.

[2] Tirmidhi # 2109, Darimi # 2932.

The ulama (Scholars) do not abide by this hadith because it is da'if and not eligible as evidence. Only sahih ahadith serve as sources of deduction.
Or, we may say that this was an exceptional case. The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم had something given to her as a favour and kindness not as an inheritance.

BLOOD MONEY IS FOR HEIRS OF THE SLAIN

(٣٠٦٣) وَعَنِ الضَّحَاكِ بْنِ سُفْيَانَ اَنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ كَتَبَ اِلَيْهِ اَنْ وَرِّثِ امْرَأَةَ اَشْيَمَ الضِّبَابِيِّ مِنْ دِيَةِ زَوْجِهَا۔ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَاَبُوْدَاوُدَ وَقَالَ التِّرْمِذِيُّ هٰذَا حَدِيْثٌ حَسَنٌ صَحِيْحٌ۔

3063. Sayyiduna Ad-Dahhak ibn Sufyan رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم wrote to him instructing him to let the wife of Ashyam Dadabi have her share of bloodwit (which was paid for her husband.[1]

COMMENTARY: Ashyam Dadabi was killed by mistake, unintentionally. So the man responsible was bound to pay blood wit. The prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم instructed Dahhak رضی اللہ عنہ to let his wife have her share of inheritance from that blood wit.
According to sharh us sunnah (Prophet's صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم practice), this hadith is evidence that it is wajib (obligatory) to pay bloodwit for the slain person and the receipts there from revert to the heirs as other property of the slain person. Most ulama (Scholars) agree with it.
It is reported that the amir ul mu'minin (commander of the faith) umar ibn Khattab رضی اللہ عنہ used to deny women from a share in the boodwit of their slain husbands. So, Dahhak رضی اللہ عنہ presented to him this hadith to prove that a wife is eligible to receive the share of inheritance from bloodwit paid against the killing of her husband.[2]

(٣٠٦٤) وَعَنْ تَمِيْمٍ الدَّارِيِّ قَالَ سَاَلْتُ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَا السُّنَّةُ فِي الرَّجُلِ مِنْ اَهْلِ الشِّرْكِ يُسْلِمُ عَلٰى يَدَىْ رَجُلٍ مِنَ الْمُسْلِمِيْنَ فَقَالَ هُوَ اَوْلَى النَّاسِ بِمَحْيَاهُ وَمَمَاتِهِ۔ (رواہ الترمذی وابن ماجۃ والدارمی)

3064. Sayyiduna Tamim Dari رضی اللہ عنہ reported that he asked Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم "what is the sunnah (Prophet's صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم practice) about a man of the polytheists who embraces Islam at the hands of a Muslim?" He said, "He is the nearest to him in life and death (having the greatest right to him as his mawla)."[3]

COMMENTARY: Sayyiduna Tamim Dari رضی اللہ عنہ was a glorious and great sahabi. He had been a Christian who embraced Islam in 9 AH. Thereafter, his life was an example of fear of Allah and devoted worship to such on extent that he was distinguished for vigil in the night. In one raka'ah of salah (prayer) in the night, he recited the entire Quran and sometimes he kept repeating just and verse till it was morning. By a coincidence, he missed the tahajjud (supererogatory prayer) one night, so he punished himself by refraining from

---

[1] Tirmidhi # 2117, Abu Dawud # 2927, Ibn Majah # 2642, Muwatta Maalik # (Uqul). Musnad Ahmad 3. 452.

[2] See hadith of Sayyiduna Sa'eed ibn Musayyib (# 2117, Tirmidhi). Dahhak رضی اللہ عنہ convinced Umar رضی اللہ عنہ hat it is payable.

[3] Bukhari (Book of Inheritance chapter 22) heading Tirmidhi # 2119, Abu Dawud # 2918, Ibn Majah # 2752, Darimi # 3022, Musnad Ahmad 4. 103.

sleep for one year continuously.

Sayyiduna Tamim Dari رضی اللہ عنہ is also distinguished as the first person to light a lamp in a mosque.

If anyone embraces Islam at the hands of another then the Muslim becomes the mawla of the neo-Muslim. In early Islam, the mawla (and new Muslim) were heirs of one another. Later, this command was withdrawn.

Some authorities interpret the concluding words to mean that he who prompts anyone to become a Muslim has the duty imposed on him most of all else to help the neo Muslim in his life time and on his death lead his funeral salah (prayer).

EMANCIPATED SLAVE & HE WHO SETS HIM FREE

(٣٠٦٥) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ اَنَّ رَجُلًا مَاتَ وَلَمْ يَدَعْ وَارِثًا اِلَّا غُلَامًا كَانَ اَعْتَقَهُ فَقَالَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ هَلْ لَهُ اَحَدٌ؟ قَالُوْا لَا اِلَّا غُلَامٌ لَهُ كَانَ اَعْتَقَهُ فَجَعَلَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مِيْرَاثَهُ لَهُ۔ (رواه ابوداؤد والترمذی وابن ماجة)

3065. Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that a man died leaving no heir except a slave whom he had set free. The prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم asked, "Has he any heir?" They said, 'No, save one slave whom he had emancipated." So the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم got the legacy of the man given to the f reedman.[1]

COMMENTARY: The prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم had the legacy of the man who set him free given to the freedman as a gesture of goodwill otherwise he is not an heir of the one who freed him according to Shariah. It is like the hadith # 3055 of Sayyidah Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہا where it has been explained why the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم did so.

Shurayh رحمہ اللہ and Tawus رضی اللہ عنہ deduce from the apparent meaning of this hadith that just as the master who sets free his slave can be an heir of his freedman. So, too the freedman may become the heir of him who emancipates him.

WHO INHERITS WALA

(٣٠٦٦) وَعَنْ عَمْرِو بْنِ شُعَيْبٍ عَنْ اَبِيْهِ عَنْ جَدِّهٖ اَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ يَرِثُ الْوَلَاءَ مَنْ يَرِثُ الْمَالَ۔ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَقَالَ هٰذَا حَدِيْثٌ اِسْنَادُهٗ لَيْسَ بِالْقَوِيِّ۔

3066. Sayyiduna Amr ibn Shu'ayb رحمہ اللہ narrated from his father from his grandfather that the prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "He inherits wala who inherits the property."[2]

COMMENTARY: The property of the freedman is called wala. Thus, if Zayd's father dies and afterwards his father's freedman dies then zayd will inherit his property. Just as he is heir to his father's property, he also is heir to his father's wala. However, this ruling applies only to asabah meaning the asabah heir like a son. So, the daughter of one who sets free cannot be heir to her father's wala because, though she inherits her father's property, she is not asabah. Only men are asabah binafsihi. A woman can inherit the property of a freed slave (male or female) whom she herself has set free or whom her freed slave may have freed.

---

[1] Tirmidhi # 2113, Abu Dawud # 2905, Ibn Majah # 2714, Musnad Ahmad 1-221.

[2] Tirmidhi # 2121.

SECTION III الفصل الثالث

LEGACY DISBURSED BEFORE ISLAM IS RETAINED

(٣٠٦٧) عَنْ عَبْدِاللّٰهِ ابْنِ عُمَرَ اَنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ مَا كَانَ مِنْ مِيْرَاثٍ قُسِمَ فِي الْجَاهِلِيَّةِ فَهُوَ عَلٰى قِسْمَةِ الْجَاهِلِيَّةِ وَمَا كَانَ مِنْ مِيْرَاثٍ اَدْرَكَهُ الْاِسْلَامُ فَهُوَ عَلٰى قِسْمَةِ الْاِسْلَامِ۔ (رواه ابن ماجة)

3067. Sayyiduna Abdullah ibn Umar رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم said, "The inheritance that was distributed during the jahiliyah (ignorance period) (days of ignorance) will be retained according to the distributed of those days. And the legacy of Islam will be in conformity with the division approved by Islam."[1]

COMMENTARY: Whatever inheritance was divided in pre-Islamic period would not be disturbed after Islam whether it was unjust to some or favourable to others. But, any distribution after Islam would follow its commands.

UMAR'S رضی الله عنه SURPRISE AT THE EXCLUSION OF PATERNAL AUNTS

(٣٠٦٨) وَعَنْ مُحَمَّدِ بْنِ اَبِيْ بَكْرِ بْنِ حَزْمٍ اَنَّهٗ سَمِعَ اَبَاهُ كَثِيْرًا يَقُوْلُ كَانَ عُمَرُ بْنُ الْخَطَّابِ يَقُوْلُ عَجَبًا لِلْعَمَّةِ تُوْرِثُ وَلَا تَرِثُ۔ (رواه مالك)

3068. Sayyiduna Muhammad ibn Abu Bakr ibn Hazm reported that he heard his father say many times that Sayyiduna Umar ibn Khattab رضی الله عنه would say, "How surprising that one may inherit from a paternal aunt but she does not inherit!"[2]

COMMENTARY: Umar رضی الله عنه expressed surprise only because a man's intelligence cannot grasp the reasoning for it, otherwise from the point of view of submission or knowledge that only Allah knows the wisdom behind it there is nothing to be surprised about.

A paternal aunt cannot inherit from her nephew, for instance, but he can inherit from her, some ulama (Scholars) hold that a dhawil arham is not an heir of the dead person. On the other hand according to some ulama (Scholars) who place her as a dhawil arham, she can inherit from her nephew because they go by the details in the science of fara'id which may be consulted.

NECESSARY TO ACQUIRE KNOWLEDGE OF FARA'ID (LAW OF INHERITANCE)

(٣٠٦٩) وَعَنْ عُمَرَ قَالَ تَعَلَّمُوا الْفَرَائِضَ وَزَادَ ابْنُ مَسْعُوْدٍ وَالطَّلَاقَ وَالْحَجَّ قَالَا فَاِنَّهٗ مِنْ دِيْنِكُمْ۔ (رواه الدارمی)

3069. Sayyiduna Umar رضی الله عنه said that one must learn the rules of inheritance. Sayyiduna Ibn Mas'ud رضی الله عنه also added (that the rules) "of divorce and of the pilgrimage" (must also be learnt). Both of them said, "Because this is part of your religion."[3]

---

[1] Ibn Majah # 2749.

[2] Muwatta Maalik # (Fara'id).

[3] Darimi # 2851.

CHAPTER - XX

(AL-WASAYA) WILLS بَابُ الْوَصَايَا

Wasaya is the plural of wasiyah in the same way as Khataya is plural of Khatiyah. Wasiyah is that a person instruct his heirs during his lifetime to do certain things for him after his death like a will: to build a mosque or any such thing, or to pay someone some money, or to atone for his lapses in discharging obligatory duties like salah (prayer) or zakah (Annual due charity). Sometimes, wasiyah stand for advice, counsel, recommendation.

According to the ulama (Scholars) zawahir it is wajib (obligatory) to make a wasiyah. (they are the ulama (Scholars) who abide by the zahir or apparent meaning of the Quran and hadith.) However, according to all the other ulama (Scholars) it was wajib (obligatory) to make a wasiyah or will initially which means that a person had to specify shares at will for his parents, relatives, etc, from his property. When the verse of inheritance was revealed and Allah Himself defined the shares, this command was abrogated. Hence, it is not proper now for anyone to make a will for an heir, but a will may still be drawn for one-third of one's property if one desires). In this way, a person may leave instructions to spend in Allah's path on his behalf to atone for his shortcoming during his life, Or, he may leave something for a distant relative, friend or servant, from the one third.

The ulama (Scholars) say that if anyone has to repay a debt or return someone's trust then it is binding on him to leave instructions for repayment of debt or return of the trust. He should write down a will duly attested by witnesses.

SECTION I اَلْفَصْلُ الْاَوَّلُ

COMMAND TO DRAW A WILL

(٣٠٧٠) عَنِ ابْنِ عُمَرَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَا حَقُّ امْرِءٍ مُسْلِمٍ لَهُ شَيْءٌ يُوصٰى فِيْهِ يَبِيْتُ لَيْلَتَيْنِ اِلَّا وَوَصِيَّتُهُ مَكْتُوْبَةٌ عِنْدَهُ۔ (متفق عليه)

3070. Sayyiduna Ibn Umar رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "It does not behave a Muslim, who possesses something for which he ought to make a bequest, to let two nights go by without drawing a will for it."[1]

COMMENTARY: If a person has to discharge a duty or a right or a trust of some people then he must write down a will within two nights, meaning in the shortest possible time.' Life is unpredictable and if a person dies without discharging his obligations then he will carry the punishment with him to the next world.

A will should be drawn for such things in the shortest possible time and fuly witnessed by two people.

WILL MAY BE DRAWN FOR ONE-THIRD PROPERTY

(٣٠٧١) وَعَنْ سَعْدِ بْنِ اَبِيْ وَقَّاصٍ قَالَ مَرِضْتُ عَامَ الْفَتْحِ مَرَضًا اَشْفَيْتُ عَلَى الْمَوْتِ فَاَتَانِيْ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى

---

[1] Bukhari # 2738, Muslim # 1-1627, Tirmidhi # 2125, Abu Dawud # 2862, Nasa'i # 3612, Ibn Majah # 2702, Darimi # 3175, Muwatta Maalik # 1 (Washiyah) Musnad Ahmad 2-4.

اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَعُوْدُنِيْ فَقُلْتُ يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ إِنَّ لِيْ مَالًا كَثِيْرًا وَلَيْسَ يَرِثُنِيْ إِلَّا ابْنَتِيْ أَفَأُوْصِيْ بِمَا لِيْ كُلِّهِ قَالَ لَا قُلْتُ فَثُلُثَيْ مَالِيْ قَالَ لَا قُلْتُ فَالشَّطْرُ قَالَ لَا قُلْتُ فَالثُّلُثُ قَالَ الثُّلُثُ وَالثُّلُثُ كَثِيْرٌ إِنَّكَ أَنْ تَذَرَ وَرَثَتَكَ أَغْنِيَاءَ خَيْرٌ مِنْ أَنْ تَذَرَهُمْ عَالَةً يَتَكَفَّفُوْنَ النَّاسَ وَإِنَّكَ لَنْ تُنْفِقَ نَفَقَةً تَبْتَغِيْ بِهَا وَجْهَ اللّٰهِ إِلَّا أُجِرْتَ بِهَا حَتّٰى اللُّقْمَةَ تَرْفَعُهَا إِلٰى فِيْ امْرَأَتِكَ۔ (متفق عليه)

3071. Sayyiduna Sa'd ibn Abu Waqqas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that he fell ill in the year of the conquest (of Makkah) with an illness that took him near death. Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم visited him and he submitted, "O Messenger of Allah, I have abundant wealth and my daughter is my only heir, may I make a will of all my wealth?" He said, "No," so he asked, "Two thirds of my wealth?" He said, "No" Then he asked, "Half?" He said, "No!" He asked, "Then one third?" He said, "One third but one third is much. If you leave your heirs rich, it is better than your leaving them poor and begging from people. You will not spend anything seeking thereby Allah's pleasure but you will earn a reward for it, even a morsel that you raise up to the mouth of your wife."

COMMENTARY: Sayyiduna Sa'd رضی اللہ عنہ did not have an heir from dhawil furud. Or, he meant that he had no heir about whom he was not apprehensive that he would squendar his wealth, except a daughter. It has been deduced that he had many asabah heirs.

This hadith is evidence that it is allowed to collect wealth. Also, the heirs must be treated fairly with justice.

The ulama (Scholars) say unanimously that if there are successors of a dead person then his will cannot be executed beyond one-third of his legacy. If the heirs give their willing consent then not only more than one-third but all the legacy may be given away in accordance with his will provided, of course, all the heirs are sane adults and present there. Even if there is no heir of anyone then most ulama (Scholars) maintain that only one-third is allowed for a will, not more. However, Imam Abu Hanifah رحمہ اللہ and his followers regard it is permissible in this case to make a will for more than one-third of the total wealth. Imam Ahmad and Ishaq رحمہ اللہ hold the same opinion.

This hadith calls for kind treatment to relatives and love and compassion be shown to the heirs. It teaches us other things too.

(1) It is better to spend one's wealth on one's own relatives than to give it to others.

(2) If Allah's pleasure is in mind then spending on one's family earns a reward.

(3) If Allah's pleasure is aimed at then even something that is permissible is regarded as obedience and worship. For instance, one's wife is a source of physical and worldly pleasure and if, by way of enjoyment, a man puts a morsel of food in her mouth, it has nothing to do with obedience and worship or affairs of the hereafter, yet the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said that if it is done to please Allah, it fetches reward. Hence in other conditions, more and better reward will be received.

SECTION II اَلْفَصْلُ الثَّانِيْ

(٣٠٧٢) عَنْ سَعْدِ بْنِ اَبِيْ وَقَّاصٍ قَالَ عَادَنِيْ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَاَنَا مَرِيْضٌ فَقَالَ اَوْصَيْتَ قُلْتُ نَعَمْ قَالَ بِكَمْ قُلْتُ بِمَالِيْ كُلِّهٖ فِيْ سَبِيْلِ اللّٰهِ قَالَ فَمَا تَرَكْتَ لِوَلَدِكَ قُلْتُ هُمْ اَغْنِيَاءُ بِخَيْرٍ فَقَالَ اَوْصِ بِالْعُشْرِ فَمَا زِلْتُ اُنَاقِصُهٗ حَتّٰى قَالَ اَوْصِ بِالثُّلُثِ وَالثُّلُثُ كَثِيْرٌ۔ (رواه الترمذی)

3072. Sayyiduna Sa'd ibn Abu Waqqas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم visited him when he was ill. He asked him whether he had drawn a will. He said, "Yes." He asked, "For how much?" He said, "For all my wealth to be given away in Allah's path." He asked, "How much have you left for your children." He said, "They are rich and well-off." He said, "Draw the will for only one-tenth," and Sa'd did not ceased to say that it was to little till he said, "Make a will for one third though one third is too much."[1]

WILL FAVOURING HEIR IS NOT PROPER

(٣٠٧٣-٣٠٧٤) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ اُمَامَةَ قَالَ سَمِعْتُ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُوْلُ فِيْ خُطْبَتِهٖ عَامَ حَجَّةِ الْوَدَاعِ اِنَّ اللّٰهَ قَدْ اَعْطٰى كُلَّ ذِيْ حَقٍّ حَقَّهٗ فَلَا وَصِيَّةَ لِوَارِثٍ۔ رواه ابوداؤد وابن ماجة وزاد الترمذی "اَلْوَلَدُ لِلْفِرَاشِ وَلِلْعَاهِرِ الْحَجَرُ وَحِسَابُهُمْ عَلَى اللّٰهِ" وَيُرْوٰى عَنْ اِبْنِ عَبَّاسٍ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ لَا وَصِيَّةَ لِوَارِثٍ اِلَّا اَنْ يَّشَاءَ الْوَرَثَةُ مُنْقَطِعٌ هٰذَا لَفْظُ الْمَصَابِيْحِ وَفِيْ رِوَايَةِ الدَّارِ الْقُطْنِيِّ قَالَ لَا تَجُوْزُ وَصِيَّةٌ لِوَارِثٍ اِلَّا اَنْ يَّشَاءَ الْوَرَثَةُ۔

3073. Sayyiduna Abu Umamah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that he heard Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم say in his sermon in the year of the Farewell Pilgrimage, "Allah has assigned every owner of rights, his right. There is no will for an heir" (Abu Dawud, Ibn Majah. But, Tirmidhi added:)

"The child belongs to the (owner of the) bed. For the adulterer are stones and his reckoning is with Allah."

3074. Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated in a munqata form that the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "There is no will for an heir unless the (other) heirs wish so."[2]

(These are the words of 'al Masabih. The version of Daraqutni is that he said:)

"No will is allowed for an heir except when the (other) heirs consent."[3]

COMMENTARY: Allah has given right to every owner of rights. This means that Allah has specified shares to the heirs. So if the dead person leaves a will favouring an heirs, it will be disregarded by Shari'ah (divine law). However, if all the heirs are sane and adult and they abide by the dead person's will be give one of them more than the specified share then that

---

[1] Tirmidhi # 977, Nasa'i # 3631, However, Tirmidhi has Sa'd ibn Maalik رضی اللہ عنہ because he was called so too.

[2] Tirmidhi # 2127, Abu Dawud # 2870, Ibn Majah # 2713, Nasa'i # 3671, Musnad Ahmad 5-267.

[3] Daraqutni # 89.

is acceptable as stated previously.
Before the verse of inheritance was revealed, it was wajib (obligatory) to draw a will in favour of the relatives. When that verse came down specifying shares for all heirs, the command to draw a will for the heirs was abrogated.
The word (فراش) firash applies to woman but here it implies (صاحب فراش) (husband of the woman). The child will not be attributed to the adulterer but to the owner of the bed be he husband of the woman or her master if she is a slave, or the man who had mistakenly sexual intercourse with the woman. (see hadith # 3362 too)
The words 'for the adulterer are stones' mean that he is deprived. He gets nothing. He will get no inheritance from the illicit child. Or it means that he would be stoned to death (if he was married).
His fate is in Allah's hand. In this world he is punished but in the hereafter Allah may punish him or forgive him. Even if he escapes worldly punishment, Allah might punish him or pardon him.

DO NOT WILL FOR ANOTHER AT THE COST OF YOUR HEIR

(٣٠٧٥) وَعَنْ اَبِیْ هُرَيْرَةَ عَنْ رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ اِنَّ الرَّجُلَ لَيَعْمَلُ وَالْمَرْاَةُ بِطَاعَةِ اللّٰهِ سِتِّيْنَ سَنَةً ثُمَّ يَحْضُرُهُمَا الْمَوْتُ فَيُضَارَّانِ فِی الْوَصِيَّةِ فَتَجِبُ لَهُمَا النَّارُ ثُمَّ قَرَاَ اَبُوْهُرَيْرَةَ مِنْۢ بَعْدِ وَصِيَّةٍ يُّوْصٰى بِهَاۤ اَوْ دَيْنٍ غَيْرَ مُضَآرٍّ اِلٰى قَوْلِهٖ تَعَالٰى وَذٰلِكَ الْفَوْزُ الْعَظِيْمُ۔ (رواه احمد والترمذی وابوداؤد وابن ماجة)

3075. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم said, "Indeed, a man and a woman perform deeds in obedience to Allah for sixty years. Then death looms over them and they err in making a will causing loss (to heirs) so the fire becomes necessary for them." Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی الله عنه then recited:

وَصِيَّةٍ يُّوْصٰى بِهَاۤ اَوْ دَيْنٍ غَيْرَ مُضَآرٍّ ...... وَذٰلِكَ الْفَوْزُ الْعَظِيْمُ

{...after (paying) bequest he may have bequeathed or debt.... And that is a mighty triumph.}[1] (4:11-13)

COMMENTARY: This hadith emphasizes the right of fellowmen. Some people spend their lives in worship and devotion but do not cease to hurt fellow men and they earn the wrath of Allah. The Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم gave the example of those who unjust with their heirs. Apart from causing wrong to fellowmen, it is a disobedience to Allah's command.
The verses recited by Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی الله عنه also disallow the testator to draw a will for more than one-third of his wealth, thereby depriving the heirs.

SECTION III اَلْفَصْلُ الثَّالِثُ

TIDINGS FOR ONE WHO DRAWS A CORRECT WILL

(٣٠٧٦) عَنْ جَابِرٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ مَاتَ عَلٰى وَصِيَّةٍ مَاتَ عَلٰى سَبِيْلٍ وَسُنَّةٍ وَمَاتَ عَلٰى تُقًى وَشَهَادَةٍ وَمَاتَ مَغْفُوْرًا لَهٗ۔ (رواه ابن ماجة)

---

[1] Tirmidhi # 2124, Abu Dawud # 2867.

3076. Sayyiduna Jabir رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "He who dies leaving a will dies on a path (the straight path) and a sunnah (Prophet's صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم practice) (that is approved), and he dies on piety and a martyr's death, and he dies forgiven."[1]

(The translation in Ibn Majah is 'testifying the truth' instead of 'a martyr's death.')

INFIDEL'S GET NO REWARD FOR GOOD DEEDS

(٣٠٧٧) وَعَنْ عَمْرِو بْنِ شُعَيْبٍ عَنْ اَبِيْهِ عَنْ جَدِّهٖ اَنَّ الْعَاصَ بْنَ وَائِلٍ اَوْصٰى اَنْ يُّعْتَقَ عَنْهُ مِائَةُ رَقَبَةٍ فَاَعْتَقَ ابْنُهٗ هِشَامٌ خَمْسِيْنَ رَقَبَةً فَاَرَادَ ابْنُهٗ عَمْرٌو اَنْ يُّعْتِقَ عَنْهُ الْخَمْسِيْنَ الْبَاقِيَةَ فَقَالَ حَتّٰى اَسْاَلَ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَاَتَى النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَقَالَ يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ اِنَّ اَبِيْ اَوْصٰى اَنْ يُّعْتَقَ عَنْهُ مِائَةُ رَقَبَةٍ وَاِنَّ هِشَامًا اَعْتَقَ عَنْهُ خَمْسِيْنَ وَبَقِيَتْ عَلَيْهِ خَمْسُوْنَ رَقَبَةً اَفَاُعْتِقُ عَنْهُ فَقَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اِنَّهٗ لَوْ كَانَ مُسْلِمًا فَاَعْتَقْتُمْ عَنْهُ اَوْ تَصَدَّقْتُمْ عَنْهُ اَوْ حَجَجْتُمْ عَنْهُ بَلَغَهٗ ذٰلِكَ۔ (رواہ ابوداؤد)

3077. Sayyiduna Amr ibn Shu'ayb رحمہ اللہ narrated from his father (Shu'ayb) رحمہ اللہ who from his grandfather (Abdullah) رضی اللہ عنہ that Aas ibn Wail had willed that one hundred slaves should be set free on his behalf. His son Hisham رضی اللہ عنہ set fifty slaves free. And, his (other) son Amr رضی اللہ عنہ intended to set free the remaining fifty for him only after he had asked Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم (about it). So he came to the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم and asked, "O Messenger of Allah, my father left a will (instructing us) that one hundred slaves should be set free on his behalf. Hisham has set fifty free at his behest and fifty remain. Shall I set them free on his behalf?" Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "If he was a Muslim and you had set slaves free for him, or given sadaqah (charity) for him, or performed the Hajj (pilgrimage) in his place that (reward) would have reached him."[2]

COMMENTARY: Aas ibn Wa'il did not embrace Islam though he was alive when the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم invited people to Islam. He died a disbeliever. He had two sons, Hisham رضی اللہ عنہ and Amr رضی اللہ عنہ both of who had received guidance. They were among the Prophet's صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم sahabah (Prophet's Companions) رضی اللہ عنہم.

The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said to Amr رضی اللہ عنہ that if his father were a Muslim, reward could have been consigned to him. If any good deed was done at his behest that will be of no avail and will deliver him from punishment.

WARNING TO THOSE WHO USURP RIGHT OF THE HEIRS

(٣٠٧٨) وَعَنْ اَنَسٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ قَطَعَ مِيْرَاثَ وَارِثِهٖ قَطَعَ اللّٰهُ مِيْرَاثَهٗ مِنَ الْجَنَّةِ يَوْمَ الْقِيَامَةِ۔ رَوَاهُ ابْنُ مَاجَةَ۔

3078. Sayyiduna Anas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "He who cuts off the inheritance of his heirs, Allah will cut off his inheritance of

[1] Ibn Majah # 2702, Abu Dawud #

[2] Abu Dawud # 2883.

paradise on the day of resurrection."[1]

(٣٠٧٩) وَرَوَاهُ الْبَيْهَقِيُّ فِيْ شُعَبِ الْإِيْمَانِ عَنْ أَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ۔

3079. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated the same hadith.[2]

COMMENTARY: Allah has promised in the Quran that He would make the believers heirs to paradise.

يَرِثُوْنَ الْفِرْدَوْسَ

{(They) shall inherit paradise.} (23:11)

The Prophet's words mean that such a man will not be admitted to paradise in the beginning.

[1] Ibn Majah # 2703.

[2] Bayhaqi in Shu'ab ul Eeman.

بسم الله الرحمٰن الرحيم

BOOK - XIII

NIKAH (WEDLOCK) كِتَابُ النِّكَاح

MARRIAGE

WHAT IS NIKAH (WEDLOCK): Nikah (wedlock) means to meet and get together. It is applied to the contract of marriage and to copulation which also is coming together. However, authorities differ on which is the true meaning and which the metaphorical.
The jurists say that nikah (wedlock) is the particular agreement between a man and a wife. It creates a matrimonial relationship between the two.

IMPORTANCE OF NIKAH (WEDLOCK)

NIKAH (WEDLOCK)* & BELIEF: Nikah (wedlock) or marriage is not merely a social union between two people, a need of an individual a natural longing or only a personal affair. Rather, it is a basic pillar of the sustenance of human society and, from point of view of Shariah, it possesses a special significance which can be gauged from the fact that every ء (divine law) from the time of Sayyiduna Aadam عليه السلام down to the ء (divine law) of prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم has recognized nikah (wedlock). The ulama (Scholars) say that there is no other worship that is practiced continuously to date from the times of Sayyiduna Aadam عليه السلام and will continue in paradise too other than nikah (wedlock) and belief. They are the only ones. So, in every ء (divine law), the marriage of man and woman is legal under a distinctive agreement. This marriage of the two is not legal without the agreement or pact in any Shariah or religion. Of course, the form of the agreement varies and its conditions and rules differ (from religion to religion). This chapter discusses the conditions and commands imposed by Islam as also the rules and regulations concerning this subject.

ADVANTAGES & DISADVANTAGES OF MARRIAGE

VIRTUES: The singular and general advantage of marriage is the survival and continuance of the human race and raising of the offspring. There also are other advantages and they are:

(1) Marriage checks sexual excitement which if unchecked leads a person to ruin. This appetite transgresses all barriers of religion and manners and violates all norms of nobility and human values but when lawful means are available to it through marriage it obeys and respects all barriers of conduct.

(2) The married couple set together their house in peace and comfort. They depend on, and support, one another through vicissitudes of life.

(3) The family expands through marriage and a person finds himself strong and self-supporting.

(4) Marriage causes a person to work hard and it removes lethargy and carelessness. This is helpful in the worldly life as well as in religion and worship.

(5) Pious children are born through marriage. They are the most previous asset in life. A person finds solace through them in this world and earns success in the next world.

AAFAT: However, there are some things that cause hardship and difficulty to some people because of marriage. They are termed aafat of marriage and are six in number.

(1) Inability to seek the lawful earnings because of additional expense and new kinds of worries. The urge to seek the lawful is not as strong as during single life.

(2) Greater involvement in unlawful affairs. The family life enhances needs and raises standard of living on one's mind and to keep it up prohibited things are sought without hesitation.

(3) Negligence in giving rights of women. Islam has allowed great rights to women. They include kindness and love for wife, but very few people observe them and they do not allow wives the high rank Islam has given them. Rather, they regard wives as subordinates. So, women's rights are violated. Not only is it a social evil, it also is a grave sin and causes loss both in the hereafter and in this life.

(4) Men do not tolerate any kind of bed temper in women. This is because they consider themselves as superior to them. They lose patience on the slightest expression of displeasure by wives.

(5) Disunited house when a wife is very bad tempered and nagging. This causes immense discord and life is very disturbed for husbands.

(6) Rights of Allah are flouted because of additional responsibility to wife and children. Very few men maintain their religious life while looking after their wives and children. They give up performance of many pious deeds.

Keeping the advantages and disadvantages (or aafat) before oneself, that should be preferred which helps further a religious life. If one fears a nagging wife, and must realize that unbridled sexual appetite will plunge one into sin. So it is better to bear the nagging wife, and to marry, otherwise it would cause great religious loss.

THE COMMANDS TO MARRY

(1) According to the Hanafis, it becomes fard (compulsory) to marry when sexual excitement is so strong that one is liable to commit fornication. A man is able to pay the dower and to provide sustenance to his wife and he is confident that he would not be unjust and cruel to his wife, but will be kind to her.

(2) It is wajib (obligatory) to marry when the sexual excitement and urge is within limits and not likely to lead to illicit sex and the man is able to pay the dower and to maintain his wife. Also, he is not likely to be cruel to his wife. If anyone has the sexual urge but is unable to pay the dower and to maintain his wife then if he does not marry, that would not be sinful. On the other hand, if one who is able to pay the dower and maintain his wife does not marry then it is a sin.

(3) When the urge is moderate, it is sunnah muwakkadah (emphasized practice of Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم) to marry. This means that the sexual urge is suppressible but the man has the potency to cohabit with his wife and is able to pay the dower and to maintain his wife. In this situation, it is a sin not to marry but to marry with intention to keep oneself away from fornication and to have a large progeny earns a large reward.

(4) It is makruh (disapproved) to marry when one is likely to be unjust or cruel to one's wife.
(5) It is forbidden to marry a woman when a man is certain that he would be cruel to his wife.

GIST: We know, therefore, that ﺓ (divine law) has made allowance for different temperaments and situations. It is sometimes fard (compulsory), to marry, sometimes wajib (obligatory), sometimes sunnah muwakkadah (emphasized practice of Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم) and sometimes makruh (disapproved). At other times it is forbidden. Hence, a person must act according to the situation best suited to him.

THE MUSTAHBAT OF NIKAH (WEDLOCK)

When a man or woman intends to marry, before making the proposal, they should find out the background, habits and surroundings of one another. If they do not do that and later find out something disagreeable in their partner that would create much unpleasantness in their married life.

CRITERIA: It is mustahab (desirable) that the wife should be of a lower age, standing pedigree and richness than her husband. But she should excel herself over him in manners, good habits, beauty and piety. It is masnun for man to first see the woman he wishes to marry provided he is confident of his proposal being accepted.

MAKE KNOWN: It is mustahab (desirable) to announce the marriage to the people. The wedding should be conducted in public in the presence of relatives and friends from both sides as also some ulama (Scholars).

THE QADI & THE WITNESSES: The nikah (wedlock) should be conducted by a pious and righteous man. The witnesses too should be just, pious and God fearing.

PROPOSAL & ACCEPTANCE

Marriage takes place through proposal and acceptance. Both these words should be used in the past tense (to imply that the marriage has taken place). The woman should say, "I have given myself in marriage to your." Or her guardian should say to the man, "I have married the woman whose name is....to you." The man should answer, 'I have accepted." Or, one of the words of the proposal and acceptance should be in the past tense, like the woman offers, "Marry me," or her guardian says to the man, "Marry that woman whose name is....," and the man consents, "I have married her." Or, it may be the other way about. The man may say, "I have married you." The woman responds, "I consent." If the man asks the woman, "Have you presented yourself tome in marriage?" or, "Have you accepted me?" and the woman says only 'yes, have given" or "Yes, have given" or "Yes, have accepted" without using the word 'I" the marriage will be valid nevertheless. However, it is not enough to say before the witnesses, 'We are wife and husband," because marriage is not contracted in this way.

Apart from using the past tense in proposal and acceptance, it is also necessary to use the words nikah (wedlock) (marriage) and tazweej (marrying). Thus one may say, "I have concluded nikah (wedlock) with you, or "I have made tazweej with you." Or, a synonym be used that gives the meaning of marriage clearly, like a man saying. "I have made you my wife," or "I have become your husband," or "you have become mine." He may not specifically use the words nikah (wedlock) and tazweej or their synonyms but use a figurative expression. This too is allowed provided it suggests someone's perfect ownership in fact and in reality, like, gift, sadaqah (charity), ownership, sale or purchase, the wife saying, for instance, "I have presented to you my marriage," or "I have given you my being as a sadaqah (charity)," or "I have made you owner of my being," or "I have bought you for so much money." The man should say in answer, "I have accepted." However, for it to be correct is the condition that the speaker should have meant nikah (wedlock) by his speech, and the context, too, suggests it, but if there is no such suggestion in the text, the person accepting may have confirmed it and the witnesses may have understood the meaning that the speech refers to marriage whether through a suggestion in the text or by being told.

MUST HEAR ONE ANOTHER: The bride and bridegroom must each hear the other making the proposal and accepting it. This may be directly from one another, or through their attorney, or through their guardian.

WITNESSES: It is a condition that two men must witness the proposal and consent for the marriage to be valid. The witnesses may be two men or one man and two women. They must be free men or women, because the testimony of a female slave or a male slave is not accepted. Also, they must be sane and Muslims. The testimony of Muslims is acceptable even whether they are pious or sinners or they have been awarded the prescribed punishment (or hadd) of qadhaf (for slander, eighty stripes). It is not a condition that the witness should not be blind and not related to the spouses. Thus, the testimony of the blind and of the relatives of the spouse will be accepted, even their sons or sons of either of them. It is imperative that the witness must both together hear the proposal and consent and now by them that the marriage is being contracted, though they may not understand the meaning of the words (if they are in an alien language). If the witnesses do not both of them hear the proposal and consent at the same time, but at different times then the marriage is not validly conducted.

MINOR GIRL: If a man says to another, "Marry my minor daughter to so and so," and he conducted her marriage to that man in the presence of her father and another man, then the marriage is valid. But, if her father is not there, then the marriage will not be valid without the presence of two men or one man and two women.

SECTION I الفصل الأول

YOUNG PEOPLE SHOULD MARRY

(٣٠٨٠) عَنْ عَبْدِاللّٰهِ بْنِ مَسْعُوْدٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَا مَعْشَرَ الشَّبَابِ مَنِ اسْتَطَاعَ مِنْكُمُ الْبَاءَةَ فَلْيَتَزَوَّجْ فَإِنَّهُ أَغَضُّ لِلْبَصَرِ وَأَحْصَنُ لِلْفَرْجِ وَمَنْ لَمْ يَسْتَطِعْ فَعَلَيْهِ بِالصَّوْمِ فَإِنَّهُ لَهُ وِجَاءٌ۔

(متفق عليه)

3080. Sayyiduna Abdullah ibn Mas'ud رضى الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "O group of young people!' Those of you who can bear the burden (or a family) should marry for it keep the eyes down (from ogling at women) and preserves one from immorality. And those (of you) who cannot let him fast for it dries up his lust."[1]

COMMENTARY: The prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم mentioned two great advantages of marriage -

[1] Bukhari # 5066, Muslim # 1-1400, Abu Dawud # 2046, Tirmidhi # 1083, Nasa'i # 2242, Ibn Majah # 1845, Darimi # 2165, Musnad Ahmad 1-432.

abstaining from staring at strange women and from illicit sex.

LIMIT OF YOUNG AGE: When a person attains adulthood, he is among young men. But, how long does this youth last? Imam Shafi'I رحمه الله says that it ends at the age of thirty, but Imam Abu Hanifah رحمه الله puts it at forty.

LIFE OF CELIBACY DISALLOWED

(٣٠٨١) وَعَنْ سَعْدِ بْنِ اَبِيْ وَقَّاصٍ قَالَ رَدَّ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ عَلٰى عُثْمَانَ بْنِ مَظْعُوْنٍ التَّبَتُّلَ وَلَوْ اَذِنَ لَهٗ لَاخْتَصَيْنَا۔ (متفق عليه)

3081. Sayyiduna Sa'd ibn Abu Waqqas رضى الله عنه narrated, "Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم denied Uthman ibn maz'un permission to observe (a life of) celibacy. If he had permitted him, we would have had ourselves castrated."[1]

COMMENTARY: The Arabic word used in the hadith is (التبتل) (at-tabattul). It means to abstain from women and refrain from marrying. The Nasara (followers of Sayyiduna Easa عليه السلام, the Prophet) consider celibate life a good and preferable thing to observe. The ultimate aim of religion, according to them, is a man's keeping away from women and remaining unmarried. Some other religions too regard it as piety to stay away from marriage and pleasures of life. But Islam does not agree. Rather, it says that marriage is a necessary part of man's life. Islam says that to abstain completely from the pleasures of life and to endure self-imposed restrictions on oneself are not forms of worship. Rather, this kind of life is rahbaniyah (monkery, monasticism) which has no place in this religion of innate nature. Of course, Imam Shafi'I رحمه الله does say that it is better to lead an unmarried life, but this opinion of Imam Shafi'I رحمه الله does not contradict the elementary goal of Islam because it concerns mainly a superior mode which, moreover, is not concerned with marrying or not marrying but only .with marrying or not marrying but only with (تخلى العبارة) (observing solitude for worship).

SHAFI'I VIEWPOINT: In other words, Imam Shafi'I means to say that to occupy in worship is better than occupation in marriage. Mulla Ali Qari رحمه الله has reproduced in 'Mirqat' the arguments of Imam Shafi'I رحمه الله and also of Imam Abu Hanifah رحمه الله to prove that tahil (married life) is better then tajarrud (unmarried life).

PROPHET'S صلى الله عليه وسلم DISALLOWANCE: Anyway when Sayyiduna Uthman ibn Maz'un رضى الله عنه sought permission of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم to lead a celibate life, he did not permit him because Islam calls for increase in numbers through marriage so that a greater number of worshippers of Allah spread on earth, and they wage jihad against disbelief and falsehood.

SA'DS AIM: The narrator of the hadith Sayyiduna Sa'd ibn Abu Waqqas رضى الله عنه disclosed that if the prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم had given permission to Sayyiduna Uthman ibn Maz'un رضى الله عنه then the sahabah (Prophet's Companions) رضى الله عنهم would have had themselves castrated. Then, they would have had no desire for women and would not have fallen into sin.

Teebi رحمه الله said that Sa'd رضى الله عنه meant that if the Prophet had given Uthman رضى الله عنه the nod they too would have led a life of celibacy. The words he used were to emphasise tha t

---

[1] Bukhari # 5073, Muslim # 6-1402, Tirmidhi # 1085, Nasa'i # 3209, Ibn Majah # 1848, Musnad Ahmad 1-175, Darimi # 2167.

they would have gone to that extent in leading a life celibacy as though they had been castrated. He did not mean that they would have done that is reality. It is not permitted to have oneself castrated.

FORBIDDEN TO HAVE ONESELF CASTRATED: Allamah (The learned Scholar) Nawawi رحمه الله said that Sayyiduna Sa'd رضی الله عنه had not know that it is forbidden to a man, young or old, to have himself castrated.

ABOUT ANIMALS: We must know about animals that it is forbidden to castrate every animal that is not eaten. As for the animals that are eaten, it is allowed to castrated the young animals but forbidden to do it to old animals This is what Allamah (The learned Scholar) Nawawi Shafi'i رحمه الله has written but the books of fiqh Hanafi, Mukhtar and Hidayah write that it is permitted to castrate animals without specifying their age.

PREFER A RELIGIOUS WINDED WOMAN AS WIFE

(٣٠٨٢) وَعَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ تُنْكَحُ الْمَرْأَةُ لِأَرْبَعٍ لِمَالِهَا وَلِحَسَبِهَا وَلِجَمَالِهَا وَلِدِيْنِهَا فَاظْفَرْ بِذَاتِ الدِّيْنِ تَرِبَتْ يَدَاكَ۔ (متفق عليه)

3082. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم said, "A woman is married bearing four things in mind (about her): her property, her ancestry, her beauty or her religion. So, make the choice of one who is religious. May your hands be daubed with dust!"[1]

COMMENTARY: A woman chosen for her ancestry means that not only is she herself noble and dignified but her family or tribe is also very honourable. This, indeed, is a natural tendency is man to have a woman of high rank and nobility so that his children belong to a high ranking family and ancestors.

The hadith calls on every religious man to opt for a woman who is pious. This ensures good both in this world and the next.

The words 'may your hands be daubed with dust' seem to degrade someone but it is an expression encouraging the addressee to action.

PIOUS WOMAN IS THE BEST ASSET IN THE WORLD

(٣٠٨٣) وَعَنْ عَبْدِاللّٰهِ بْنِ عَمْرٍو قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ الدُّنْيَا كُلُّهَا مَتَاعٌ وَخَيْرُ مَتَاعِ الدُّنْيَا الْمَرْأَةُ الصَّالِحَةُ۔ (رواه مسلم)

3083. Sayyiduna Abdullah ibn Amr رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم said, 'The world, all of it, is to be benefitted from for a while. And, the best of the beneficial thing in the world is a righteous woman." (The word is (متاع) mata' which means 'a thing of enjoyment.')[2]

COMMENTARY: Mata' is something from which benefit is derived for sometime before it perishes. So, benefit may be derived from the world for some time. The benefit is short lived. A pious righteous woman is the best of the worldly things from which benefit may be derived because a pious woman is very helpful in doing deeds for the hereafter.

---

[1] Bukhari # 5090, Muslim # 53-1466, Abu DAwud # 2047, Nasa'i # 3230, Ibn Majah # 1858, Musnad Ahmad 2-428, Darimi # 2170.

[2] Muslim # 64. 1467, Nasa'i # 3232, Musnad Ahmad 2-268.

VIRTUE OF PIOUS WOMEN OF THE QURAYSH

(٣٠٨٤) وَعَنْ اَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ خَيْرُ نِسَاءٍ رَكِبْنَ الْاِبِلَ صَالِحُ نِسَاءِ قُرَيْشٍ اَحْنَاهُ عَلَى وَلَدٍ فِيْ صِغَرِهٖ وَاَرْعَاهُ عَلَى زَوْجٍ فِيْ ذَاتِ يَدِهٖ۔ (متفق عليه)

3084. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "The best of women who ride on camels are the pious women of the Quraysh. They are very kind and loving to the small children and are very mindful to their husband's possessions (in their hands)."[1]

COMMENTARY: The women of the Arabs used to ride the camels. So the hadith means that the best of woman of the Arabs are those of the Quraysh.

WORST OF TRIALS IS WOMEN

(٣٠٨٥) وَعَنْ اُسَامَةَ بْنِ زَيْدٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَا تَرَكْتُ بَعْدِيْ فِتْنَةً اَضَرَّ عَلَى الرِّجَالِ مِنَ النِّسَاءِ۔ (متفق عليه)

3085. Sayyiduna Usamah ibn zayd رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "I do not leave behind me a trial more harmful to men then (the trial through) women."[2]

COMMENTARY: The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم described women's trial most harmful to men because:

(i) Men are generally inclined to women, and
(ii) Men generally are more careful of woman's wishes.

The result is that men succumb to forbidden things to please women. Men fight each other for the sake of women.

The demands of women push men to worldly pursuits. Clearly, nothing is more harmful than being involved in the world. The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم Lad said about it:

حُبُّ الدُّنْيَا رَأْسُ كُلِّ خَطِيْئَةٍ

(Love of the world is the root of all evils).

The Prophet's صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم words 'behind me' show that the trial through women was not as accentuated in his time as after him. Piety was supreme then and evil was suppressed. After the Prophet's صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم death evil became stronger gradually and soon suppressed piety.

BEWARE OF TRIAL THROUGH WOMEN

(٣٠٨٦) وَعَنْ اَبِي سَعِيْدِ الْخُدْرِيِّ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ الدُّنْيَا حُلْوَةٌ خَضِرَةٌ وَاِنَّ اللّٰهَ مُسْتَخْلِفُكُمْ فِيْهَا فَيَنْظُرُ كَيْفَ تَعْمَلُوْنَ فَاتَّقُوا الدُّنْيَا وَاتَّقُوا النِّسَاءَ فَاِنَّ اَوَّلَ فِتْنَةِ بَنِيْ اِسْرَائِيْلَ كَانَتْ فِي النِّسَاءِ۔ (رواه مسلم)

3086. Sayyiduna Abu Sa'eed al-Khudri رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "The world is sweet and green. Allah has made you khalifah (caliph)

---

[1] Bukhari # 5082, Muslim # 202-2527, Musnad Ahmad 2. 2690.

[2] Bukhari # 5096, Muslim # 97-2740/1, Tirmidhi # 2789, Ibn Majah # 3998, Musnad Ahmad 5-200.

(vicegerent) in it. He watches (you) how you act. So (fear and) preserve yourselves from the world and preserve yourselves from women, for, the first trial of Banu Israil was through women."[1]

COMMENTARY: The world appeals to a man as a sweet thing does and delight the eyes as greenery does.

The world belongs to Allah. He is its Master and Ruler. He has made you His vicegerent on earth. You are His attorney in the earth to work on it. He watches you all the time how you work as His vicergrent and how you discharge you duties.

The relative words in the hadith could also mean that Allah has made you deputy of those people who have departed from this world before you (as their heirs). Whatever they had belongs to you and He sees now how you conduct yourselves and take a lesson from their lives. The next words are that you should guard yourselves from the intrigues of the world. You must not let yourselves be trapped in its net because it is not everlasting. When you are resurrected for the eternal world you will be called to reckon and to serve punishment.

So, too, guard yourselves against the deceit of women. The pious woman is a blessing of Allah but an evil woman is a trial for all. So let not the conspiracies of evil women or the demands of your wives plunge you in the unlawful and forbidden things and so into ruin and destruction.

WOMEN WAS THE FIRST TRIAL CF THE CHILDREN OF ISRA'IL LEADING THEM TO DESTRUCTION

There was a man by the name al Bal'am ibn Ba'ur in the time of prophet Musa عليه السلام. He was one whose prayers were answered very often. Because he know the great name of Allah (ism a'zam). At one juncture. Prophet Musa عليه السلام advanced with a large army to fight the jabbarun and encamped at a place of Banu Kir'an in Shaam (Syria). The tribe of Bal'am came to him and request him, "Musa has come here with a huge army to kill us and drive us out of this place. So, do curse him so that he goes away from here." Bal'am said, "You do not know what I know. How may I curse a Prophet of Allah and his followers. If I do that, I will be ruined in both the worlds." But, they persisted and pleaded with him unceasingly to curse prophet Musa عليه السلام. Finally Bal'am conceded, 'I shall seek Allah's guidance in this regard and wait for his command. Then I shall decide."

Bal'am never did anything without making istikharah (which is to seek Allah's guidance). So, when he did that, he dreamt that he should never pray against the Prophet and the believers with him. So, Bal'am informed his tribe that he was not prepared to oblige them. But, they did not give in. They brought to him precious gifts, pleaded with him and wept bitterly and, in the end, managed to compel him. He was trapped. He mounted his donkey and set out to the mount Jistan to curse Prophet Musa عليه السلام whose army was pitched near to it.

His donkey stumbled many times on the way but he beat it to resume the journey. This things prolonged and Bal'am too was exhausted picking up the donkey every time it fell down.

Then Allah enable the donkey to speak. It said, "O Bal'am, silly man! Do you not see where you are going? You push me forward but the angels drive me back!" Bal'am heard the donkey but instead of paying heed, he alighted from it and leaving it there walked ahead on foot. He climbed the mountain and began to curse. However, whenever he intended to name Prophet Musa عليه السلام and his tribe, his tongue uttered the name of his own tribe

---

[1] Muslim # 99-2742, Tirmidhi # 2198, Ibn Majah # 4000, Musnad Ahmad 3-22.

instead of Banu Isra'il

His people protested and he convinced them that he called the name of Banu Isra'il but his tongue took their name. In spite of that Bal'am did not desist. He tried to curse till he faced punishment and his tongue emerged to rest on his chest. Then he was nonplussed and lamented that he was ruined in both the worlds, yet he persisted, "We must now think of some way to eliminate the Banu 'Isra'il." Then he suggested to his people. "Adorn your women superbly. Let them carry some things in their hands and pretend to sell them. They should go to the army of Banu Isra'il as saleswomen. Advse them to lure the Banu Isra'il and submit to anyone who invites them. Even if one of them commit fornication, then you will gain success.

They did that, when the women went to the Banu Isra'il, one of them captivated one of their chiefs zamzam ibn Shalum. He took her by her hands to prophet Musa عليه السلام and asked, "Do you say that she is forbidden to me?" He said, "Yes!" But, zamzam said, "I shall not obey you concerning her" and he took her concerning her" and he took her to his tent here he committed the evil deed.

That did it! Allah wrath descended on them. In no time, seventy thousand of their men died. Fahas the grandson of Prophet Harun عليه السلام and a giant of a man who was also the guard of Prophet Musa عليه السلام took his weapon and rushed to the tent of zamzam and, in the twinkling of an eye, he consigned both zamzam and his mistress to death, saying, "Allah has destroyed us because of this man!"

As soon as they were killed, the punishment was withdrawn from them.[1]

THREE THINGS ARE INAUSPICIOUS

(٣٠٨٧) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عُمَرَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ الشُّؤْمُ فِي الْمَرْأَةِ وَالدَّارِ وَالْفَرَسِ۔ مُتَّفَقٌ عَلَيْهِ وَفِيْ رِوَايَةٍ الشُّؤْمُ فِيْ ثَلَاثَةٍ فِي الْمَرْأَةِ وَالْمَسْكَنِ وَالدَّابَّةِ۔

3087. Sayyiduna Ibn Umar رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم said, "There is ill omen in a woman, a house and a horse."

According to another version: 'Ill omen is attached to three things: a woman a residence and an animal."[2]

COMMENTARY: The Arabic word (الشؤم) (ash-Sha-um) is the opposite of yaman and it means withdrawal of blessing or inauspiciousness. Let us now see what it implies.

The ominous nature of the house could mean its smallness and had neighbourhood. It is uncomfortable and the neighbours are evil.

The woman is unfavourable when she is paid a high dower, is ill-tempered, bad mannered and barren. She cannot give comfort but causes difficulties.

When a horse is said to have ill omen attached to it, it is naughty, slow paced and not used for jihad. It is not an asset for its owner.

Some ulama (Scholars) say that the hadith means that if there was ever an ill omen in anything then it would be in these three things. In other words, to attach ill omen to any thing is meaningless. It is only a superstition and there is no truth about it. If there really was an ill omen in anything, it would be found in these three things because they can qualify for it. This saying of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم is like his words, "If any thing was outside the shphere of destiny that would be an evil eye." In other words, everything in this universe follows the set procedure of fate predetermined yet if anything could escape that predestination, it would be the evil eye.

---

[1] See 'Stories of the Prophets' Ibn Kathir. Pg 244, Darul Isha'at Karachi.

[2] Bukhari # 5093, Muslim # 115-2225, Abu Dawud # 3922, Tirmidhi # 2833, Nasa'i # 3571, Musnad Ahmad # 4544.

Hence, just as these words of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم do no mean that the evil eye is not governed by fate, so too the hadith mentioned here does not mean to say that ill omen is attached to these three things.

Some other ulama (Scholars) say that if a person has a house in which he does not like to reside, or a wife with whom he finds it disagreeable a have a sexual relationship, or a horse that he does not like, then he must part from the thing that is incompatible.

Thus this hadith does not disagree with the hadith that disallows attaching an ill omen to something. It does not say that there is an ill omen in anything.

PREFER A VIRGIN FOR A WIFE

(۳۰۸۸) وَعَنْ جَابِرٍ قَالَ كُنَّا مَعَ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فِيْ غَزْوَةٍ فَلَمَّا قَفَلْنَا كُنَّا قَرِيْبًا مِنَ الْمَدِيْنَةِ قُلْتُ يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ إِنِّيْ حَدِيْثُ عَهْدٍ بِعُرْسٍ قَالَ تَزَوَّجْتَ قُلْتُ نَعَمْ قَالَ أَبِكْرٌ أَمْ ثَيِّبٌ قُلْتُ بَلْ ثَيِّبٌ قَالَ فَهَلَّا بِكْرًا تُلَاعِبُهَا وَتُلَاعِبُكَ فَلَمَّا قَدِمْنَا ذَهَبْنَا لِنَدْخُلَ فَقَالَ أَمْهِلُوْا حَتّٰى نَدْخُلَ لَيْلًا اى عِشَاء لِكَيْ تَمْتَشِطَ الشَّعِثَةُ وَتَسْتَحِدَّ الْمُغِيْبَةُ۔ (متفق عليه)

3088. Sayyiduna Jabir رضى الله عنه narrated that they were with the prophet on an expedition and when they returned and were near Madinah, he said, "O Messenger of Allah, I have married recently" (hoping to be allowed to go ahead of the others to his wife). He asked, "So you have married?" He said, Yes!" He asked, "A virgin or a window?" He said, "Rather, a widow." He asked, "why did you not marry a virgin? You could have enjoyed her and she would have enjoyed you." When they were at Maidnah and everyone intended to go to his home, he said, "Wait. We shall enter by night, meaning in the evening, to allow the woman with disheveled hair to comb it and the woman whose husband was away (with us participating in jihad) may shave her pubes."[1]

COMMENTARY: When a man marries a virgin, they have more love for one another and are more friendly, The widow, on the other hand, remembers her first husband and if she does not adapt to living standard of the second, her outlook depicts it. So she is not as much friendly as a virgin is.

On returning from a journey, do not make haste to return home. Allow your wife time to prepare herself. In this way you will not find her in a disagreeable condition.

Other ahadith disallow travellers from returning home at night. But, this applies when advance information is not given home about one's arrival. If the family is told beforehand of the arrival then there is no harm.

---

[1] Bukhari # 5247, Muslim # 57-1466, Abu Dawud # 2048, Nasa'i # 3226, Ibn Majah # 1860, Darimi # 2216.

SECTION II اَلْفَصْلُ الثَّانِيْ

THERE WHOM ALLAH HELPS ALWAYS

(٣٠٨٩) عَنْ اَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ اَنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ ثَلَاثَةٌ حَقٌّ عَلَى اللّٰهِ عَوْنُهُمْ اَلْمُكَاتَبُ الَّذِيْ يُرِيْدُ الْاَدَاءَ وَالنَّاكِحُ الَّذِيْ يُرِيْدُ الْعَفَافَ وَالْمُجَاهِدُ فِيْ سَبِيْلِ اللّٰهِ۔ (رواه الترمذی والنسائی وابن ماجة)

3089. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "Three there are who have a right to get Allah's help (as per His promise). They are:
(i) The mukatab who resolves to pay to his master to buy his freedom.
(ii) He who married to preserve his chastity.
(iii) The warrior in Allah's path."[1]

COMMENTARY: Mukatab is the slave whose master offers to set him free if he pays him a certain sum of money. The sum of money that the master asks for his release is called badal kitabah.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR GUARDIAN OF WOMAN

(٣٠٩٠) وَعَنْهُ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اِذَا خَطَبَ اِلَيْكُمْ مَّنْ تَرْضَوْنَ دِيْنَهُ وَخُلُقَهُ فَزَوِّجُوْهُ اِنْ لَّا تَفْعَلُوْهُ تَكُنْ فِتْنَةٌ فِي الْاَرْضِ وَفَسَادٌ عَرِيْضٌ۔ (رواه الترمذی)

3090. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "When a man proposes marriage and you are pleased with his religion and character, marry (your daughter) to him, If you fail to do that then there would be mischief on earth and much corruption."[2]

COMMENTARY: This is an important instruction to the parents, or guardians of women. They should accept proposal marriage for their ward from a religious and well-mannered man and marry their girl to him. If they reject him waiting for a rich worldly man's proposal then the wait will be long. Most women will remain single and most men will continue to live a bachelor's life. Most religious families are inclined to do it. This gives rise to temptation and spreads evil. The elders will be blamed for the situation.

Teebi رضی اللہ عنہ said that this hadith is evidence for Imam Maalik's رحمہ اللہ contention that equality of the spouses is based only on religious standing. The two may suffice one another only through religion. The other ulama (Scholars), however, say that four qualities should be considered to become sufficient for (or partners of) one another. They are:

(i) religion,
(ii) freedom,
(iii) descent, and
(iv) profession.

Thus, a Muslim women should not be given in marriage to a disbeliever, to a man of unknown ancestors and (if she is the daughter of a merchant or a man of good profession, she should not be married) to a man of an unlawful profession or a makruh (disapproved) occupation.

---

[1] Tirmidhi # 1661, Nasa'i # 3218 (or 3220), Ibn Majah # 2518, Musnad Ahmad # 9637.
[2] Tirmidhi # 1086, Ibn Majah # 1967.

However, if a woman's guardian and the woman herself and pleased with the proposal of an unequal man, then the marriage will be correct.

MARRY WOMAN WHO ARE LOVING.

(٣٠٩١) وَعَنْ مَعْقِلِ بْنِ يَسَارٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ تَزَوَّجُوا الْوَدُوْدَ الْوَلُوْدَ فَإِنِّيْ مُكَاثِرٌ بِكُمُ الْأُمَمَ (رواہ ابوداؤد و النسائی)

3091. Sayyiduna Ma'qil ibn Yasar رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "Marry women who love (their husbands) and are very fecund because I shall surpass the umahs by your numbers."[1]

COMMENTARY: The aim is to have large numbers of the ummah of Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم. To achieve that a woman must possess both the qualities mentioned in the hadith.

A woman can be known to be prolific and loving by looking at her family background. If her family is large, she is liable to be fecund because that is a trend in her family.

This hadith says that it is mustahab (desirable) to marry women who are loving and inclined to give birth to many children. The prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم will take pride in large numbers of his ummah.

The hadith could also mean that a man should keep regular sexual relationship with those of his wives who are prolific.

BETTER TO MARRY A VIRGIN

(٣٠٩٢) وَعَنْ عَبْدِالرَّحْمٰنِ بْنِ سَالِمِ بْنِ عُتْبَةَ بْنِ عُوَيْمِ بْنِ سَاعِدَةَ الْأَنْصَارِيِّ عَنْ أَبِيْهِ عَنْ جَدِّهٖ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ عَلَيْكُمْ بِالْأَبْكَارِ فَإِنَّهُنَّ أَعْذَبُ أَفْوَاهًا وَ أَنْتَقُ أَرْحَامًا وَأَرْضٰى بِالْيَسِيْرِ۔ رَوَاهُ ابْنُ مَاجَةَ مُرْسَلًا۔

3092. Sayyiduna Abdur Rahman ibn Saalim ibn Utbah ibn Uwaym ibn Sa'idah Al-Ansari رحمہ اللہ narrated that his father that his grandfather (Utbah) رحمہ اللہ reported the saying of Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم that they should marry virgins for they have mouths (than others and possess sweet voices and good speech and they are not indecent speakers). They possess fertile wombs and are more pleased with little.[2]

COMMENTARY: The virgin is more prolific but this is as per apparent cause and effect conditions. It is meaningless without Allah's command. (See also the commentary to hadith # 3088)

The virgin is also content with little.

SECTION III اَلْفَصْلُ الثَّالِثُ

PECULIARITY OF MARRIAGE

(٣٠٩٣) عَنِ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَمْ تَرَ لِلْمُتَحَابَّيْنِ مِثْلَ النِّكَاحِ۔

3093. Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "You will not have seen anything like marriage that increases love

---

[1] Abu Dawud # 2050, Nasa'i # 3227.

[2] Ibn Majah # 1861

between two lovers."[1]

COMMENTARY: Husband and wife who were unrelated and were strangers begin to love one another after marriage as no two people may be expected to love one another.

MARRYING WOMEN WHO ARE FREE

(٣٠٩٤) وَعَنْ اَنَسٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ اَرَادَ اَنْ يَلْقَى اللّٰهَ طَاهِرًا مُطَهَّرًا فَلْيَتَزَوَّجِ الْحَرَائِرَ۔

3094. Sayyiduna Anas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "He who resolves to meet Allah while he is pure and purified (of the evil of fornication) must marry free women."[2]

COMMENTARY: The free woman are more pure then female slaves. They teach their children manners such are female slave cannot teach.

QUALITY OF A PIOUS WIFE

(٣٠٩٥) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ اُمَامَةَ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَنَّهُ يَقُوْلُ مَا اسْتَفَادَ الْمُؤْمِنُ بَعْدَ تَقْوَى اللّٰهِ خَيْرًا لَهُ مِنْ زَوْجَةٍ صَالِحَةٍ اِنْ اَمَرَهَا اَطَاعَتْهُ وَاِنْ نَظَرَ اِلَيْهَا سَرَّتْهُ وَاِنْ اَقْسَمَ عَلَيْهَا اَبَرَّتْهُ وَاِنْ غَابَ عَنْهَا نَصَحَتْهُ فِيْ نَفْسِهَا وَمَالِهِ رَوَى ابْنُ مَاجَةَ الْاَحَادِيْثَ الثَّلَاثَةَ۔

3095. Sayyiduna Abu Umamah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said often, "The believer earns for himself nothing better, after fear of Allah, than a righteous wife. If he commands her, she obeys him. If he looks at her, she delights him (with her beauty, purify and cheerful countenance). If he adjures her, she makes it true. And, if he is absent from her, she is sincere to him concerning her person (not being unfaithful to him, and concerning) his property (not being careless and treacherous)."[3]

COMMENTARY: Taqwa (piety) (fear of Allah) is to obey Allah's commands and to abstain from what He has disallowed.

The wife obeys her husband what is not sinful and in that which complies with ء (divine law) and she does not displease Allah. It is a command of ء (divine law) that one should not obey the command of the creatures that calls for disobedience of the creator.

This woman prefers her husband's wishes to her own. She does not what he likes and abstains from that which he does not like.

MARRIAGE IS HALF OF RELIGION

(٣٠٩٦) وَعَنْ اَنَسٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اِذَا تَزَوَّجَ الْعَبْدُ فَقَدِ اسْتَكْمَلَ نِصْفَ الدِّيْنِ فَلْيَتَّقِ اللّٰهَ فِي النِّصْفِ الْبَاقِيْ۔

3096. Sayyiduna Anas رحمہ اللہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "When

---

[1] Ibn Majah # 1847.

[2] Ibn Majah # 1862.

[3] Ibn Majah # 1875.

a person married, he (or she) has perfected half of the religion. Now, let him (or her) fear regarding the other half."[1]

COMMENTARY: Two things there are in a human body that the generally responsible for corrupting religion. These two are the private parts and the belly.

The hadith says that when one marries, he preserves himself from the mischief of his private parts. He must then concentrate on delivering himself from the mischief of the belly by fearing Allah for which he must earn lawful sustenance to feed his own self and his family. In the way, he shall perfect the entire religion.

THE MARRIED LIFE THAT IS AUSPICIOUS

(٣٠٩٧) وَعَنْ عَائِشَةَ قَالَتْ قَالَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اِنَّ اَعْظَمَ النِّكَاحِ بَرَكَةً اَيْسَرُهُ مُؤْنَةً۔ رَوَاهُمَا الْبَيْهَقِيُّ فِيْ شُعَبِ الْاِيْمَانِ۔

3097. Sayyidah Ayshsh رضی اللہ عنہا narrated that the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "The marriage that has the greatest blessing is the one that calls for the easiest effort."[2]

COMMENTARY: The least effort is when the dower is small and the wife is not demanding but is content with what she gets.

CHAPTER - II

LOOKING AT THE WOMAN TO WHOM A PROPOSAL FOR MARRIAGE IS SENT & THE LIMBS THAT MUST BE KEPT COVERED

بَابُ النَّظْرِ اِلَى الْمَخْطُوْبَةِ وَبَيَانُ الْعَوْرَاتِ

The Arabic words in the heading are al-makhtubah and al-awrat. The former means 'the woman to whom the marriage proposal is sent.' The latter means 'the limbs that one is commanded to conceal (or cover).'

LOOKING AT THE MAKHTUBAH

According to Imam Abu Hanifah رحمه الله, Imam Shafi'I رحمه الله, Imam Ahmad رحمه الله and most of the ulama (Scholars), it is permitted to man to see the woman whom he sends proposal for marriage even if she does not give permission for it. Imam Maalik رحمه الله holds that a man is permitted to see her only if he has her permission for that. It is disallowed to see her without her consent, and according to a report, Imam Maalik رحمه الله holds that it is absolutely disallowed to see her.

The juristic ruling in this connection is that, instead of looking at the woman a man proposes to marry, he should ask an experienced woman to get him the necessary information after looking at the woman he proposes to marry.

SECTION I — اَلْفَصْلُ الْاَوَّلُ

MUSTAHAB (DESIRABLE) TO SEE WOMAN BEFORE PROPOSING

(٣٠٩٨) عَنْ اَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ جَاءَ رَجُلٌ اِلَى النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَقَالَ اِنِّيْ تَزَوَّجْتُ امْرَأَةً مِنَ الْاَنْصَارِ

---

[1] Bayhaqi in Shu'ab ul Eeman # 5486.

[2] Bayhaqi in Shu'ah ul Eeman # 6566.

قَالَ فَانْظُرْ إِلَيْهَا فَإِنَّ فِيْ أَعْيُنِ الْأَنْصَارِ شَيْئًا۔ (رواه مسلم)

3098. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that a man came to the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم and said, "I intend to marry a woman of the ansar." He said, "So, look at her, for, there is something in the eyes of (some of the) ansars."[1]

COMMENTARY: The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم advised the man to look at the woman before marrying her because there was some wrong in the eyes of some of the ansars, so that later on it might not cause him dislike. Allamah (The learned Scholar) Nawawi رحمہ اللہ said something like it.

It is allowed to disclose a defect to someone else with a good intention.

It would be understood that only the face and hands of the woman may be seen but only if it would not create a sexual excitement because both these limbs are not part of satr (private parts). (Satr is the portion of a person's body that must be covered in the presence of another.)

WIFE MUST NOT DESCRIBE ANOTHER WOMAN TO HER HUSBAND

(٣٠٩٩) وَعَنِ ابْنِ مَسْعُوْدٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَا تُبَاشِرُ الْمَرْأَةُ الْمَرْأَةَ فَتَنْعَتَهَا لِزَوْجِهَا كَأَنَّهُ يَنْظُرُ إِلَيْهَا۔ (متفق علیه)

3099. Sayyiduna Ibn Mas'ud رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "No woman must touch her (naked) body to the (naked) body of another woman. And (she must) not describe her to her husband (because describing her to him is) as though he were looking at her."[2]

COMMENTARY: It is very shameful for a woman to undress before another naked woman and for both of them to embrace one another. Again it is disgraceful for her to give a rundown of the other's nudity to her husband. This could excite him and might lead to mischief.

GUIDELINES FOR MEN & WOMEN

(٣١٠٠) وَعَنْ أَبِيْ سَعِيْدٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَا يَنْظُرُ الرَّجُلُ إِلَى عَوْرَةِ الرَّجُلِ وَلَا الْمَرْأَةُ إِلَى عَوْرَةِ الْمَرْأَةِ وَلَا يُفْضِي الرَّجُلُ إِلَى الرَّجُلِ فِيْ ثَوْبٍ وَاحِدٍ وَلَا تُفْضِي الْمَرْأَةُ إِلَى الْمَرْأَةِ فِيْ ثَوْبٍ وَاحِدٍ۔ (رواه مسلم)

3100. Sayyiduna Abu Sa'eed رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "No man must look at the awrah of another man and no woman at the awrah of another woman. And no man must cover himself with another man in a single garment and no woman must cover herself with another woman in a single garment."[3]

COMMENTARY: The parts of the body of men and women that ء (divine law) has disallowed to be seen or touched by one another are called satr (private parts) or awrah. The satr (private parts) for men is from the waist to the knee (or navel to knee). For women

[1] Muslim # 74-1424, Musnad Ahmad 2-299.

[2] Bukhari # 5240, 5241, Tirmidhi # 2801, Abu Dawud # 2150, Musnad Ahmad 1-387.

[3] Muslim # 74-338, Tirmidhi # 2802, Ibn Majah # 661, Musnad Ahmad 3063.

it is from neck to feet (or entire body except face and hands).These parts ought to be covered and concealed from the sight of others. The juristic directions are outlined here.
A man's satr (private parts) is between his navel and below his knees. It is not allowed to any other man or woman to look at it unnecessarily. His wife or female slave may, however, see that portion. As for the rest of his body, both man and women may see it. However, if a woman is likely to be excited sexually then she is not allowed to see any portion of his body at all.
In the same way, a woman's body from her navel down to her knees is satr (private parts) for another woman. She may not see it unnecessarily. A woman's satr (private parts) for a man is her whole body which means that it is not allowed to a man to see any part of a stranger woman's body. But, according to one version, a woman's face, both hands and both feet are not part of her satr (private parts) which means that an outsider man may see these limbs of a woman who is a stranger to him, provided he is immune from sexual excitement. If he is liable to be excited sexually then he is not permitted to look at even these limbs.

WHEN NECESSARY: At times when it becomes necessary, a man may look at a woman whether he is immune from sexual excitement or not. Examples are of a witness when he gives testimony, or a ruler at the time of giving a judgement, they may look at these limbs.

TOUCHING: It is not allowed to an unknown man to touch these limbs of a woman, face, hands and feet even if he is not likely to be excited sexually. This applies when the woman is young but if she is very old or the man is very old so that a desire is out of question and the woman too is safe then it is allowed to touch these limbs.

WIFE'S BODY: A man is allowed to see the entire body of his wife and his female slave with whom he is allowed to have sexual intercourse.

FOR THE MAHRAM: The woman's satr (private parts) for her mahram is her back, stomach, and navel down to knees so, the mahram is not allowed to look at these limbs of the woman whose mahram he is, even if he is not likely to be sexually excited. A mahram may see her head, shins upper arms and chest because these parts of her body are not satr (private parts) for him, provided, of course, he is safe from sexual excitement.
The satr (private parts) of a female slave of another person is like the satr (private parts) of a woman whose mahram he is, meaning her back, stomach and from navel down to below knees. For a man, the same command applies for these limbs of a female slave of someone else as for these parts of the woman whose mahram he is as far as seeing and touching them is concerned.
It is forbidden to look at a handsome man with an evil desire or to touch him.
It is allowed to touch and to look at a woman while intending to propose marriage with her, or a female slave at the time of buying her in spite of likelihood of lustful desire.
As slave is like a stronger for his master's wife. She must use the veil in his presence as she does before other men. The same applies in the presence of eunuchs and emasculate men.
The jurists say that it is forbidden to look at stranger women both for sexual pleasure or otherwise.
It is forbidden and makruh (disapproved) for two men or two women to be together nude in one garment even if it is out of habit without any evil idea. In any case, it is shameful.

DISALLOWED TO BE ALONE WITH STRANGER WOMAN

(٣١٠١) وَعَنْ جَابِرٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَلَا لَايَبِيْتَنَّ رَجُلٌ عِنْدَ امْرَأَةٍ ثَيِّبٍ اِلَّا اَنْ يَّكُوْنَ نَاكِحًا اَوْذَامَحْرَمٍ۔ (رواه مسلم)

3101. Sayyiduna Jabir رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "No man must spend a night with a married woman unless he is married to her or is her mahram."[1]

COMMENTARY: Here, 'to spend a night with her' is to meet her in solitude or be alone with her, by night or by day at any place.

The words thayyib is a woman who is no longer a virgin. But, here it means a 'young woman.' Married or unmarried.

Mahram is one with whom it is disallowed to marry at all times. He can be a son, brother, son-in-law, etc. It may be because of fosterage or otherwise.

(٣١٠٢) وَعَنْ عُقْبَةَ بْنِ عَامِرٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اِيَّاكُمْ وَالدُّخُوْلَ عَلَى النِّسَاءِ فَقَالَ رَجُلٌ يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ اَرَأَيْتَ الْحَمْوَ قَالَ الْحَمْوُ الْمَوْتُ۔ (متفق علیه)

3102. Sayyiduna Uqba ibn Aamir رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "Beware of visiting women (who are not mahram)." A man asked, "O Messenger of Allah, what do you say of hamu?" He said, "The hamu are death."[2]

COMMENTARY: Hamu are the near relatives of the husband, like his brother. The father and son of the husband are not among the hamu.

Just as death ruins a person's life, so the hamu ruin a woman's life by visiting her in solitude, both her religion and her manners.

These words are parts of Arabic idiom: hamu are death, lion is death, the king is fire. These are idiomatic expressions implying 'play with death.'

PHYSICIAN MAY EXAMINE WOMAN

(٣١٠٣) وَعَنْ جَابِرٍ اَنَّ اُمَّ سَلَمَةَ اسْتَاذَنَتْ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فِي الْحِجَامَةِ فَاَمَرَ اَبَا طَيْبَةَ اَنْ يَّحْجُمَهَا قَالَ حَسِبْتُ اَنَّهٗ كَانَ اَخَاهَا مِنَ الرَّضَاعَةِ اَوْغُلَامًا لَمْ يَحْتَلِمْ۔ (رواه مسلم)

3103. Sayyiduna Jabir رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Sayyidah Umm Salamah رضی اللہ عنہ (the mother of the believers) sought permission of Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم to be cupped. He instructed Sayyiduna Abu Taybah رضی اللہ عنہ to cup her. Jabir رضی اللہ عنہ said, "I presume that he was her foster-brother, or (he was) a young boy who had not attained the age of puberty."[3]

COMMENTARY: The presumption of Sayyiduna Jabir رضی اللہ عنہ implies that Sayyidah Umm Salamah رضی اللہ عنہ did not need to be cupped because, if it was necessary, a stranger could have done the cupping and opened the veins.

---

[1] Muslim # 19. 2171.

[2] Bukhari # 5232, Muslim # 20. 2172, Tirmidhi # 1174, Musnad Ahmad 4. 149, Da'imi # 2647.

[3] Muslim # 72-2206.

We knows, therefore, that a physician may examine a woman's entire body to treat her.

ABOUT A SUDDEN GLANCE AT A WOMAN

(٣١٠٤) وَعَنْ جَرِيْرِ بْنِ عَبْدِاللّٰهِ قَالَ سَأَلْتُ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ عَنْ نَظَرِ الْفُجَاءَةِ فَأَمَرَنِيْ أَنْ أَصْرِفَ بَصَرِيْ۔ (رواه مسلم)

3104. Sayyiduna Jarir ibn Abdullah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated, "I asked Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم about a sudden (unintentional) glance (on a woman stranger, not a mahram). He instructed me that I should turn away my sight (immediately)."[1]

COMMENTARY: This means that if a man happens to look at a woman unintentionally then he must not continue to ogle at her. The first sight is not deliberate, so is forgiven, but it is wajib (obligatory) to turn away the glance. If anyone continues to look at her, then that is a sin. The same thing is known from the Quran:

قُلْ لِّلْمُؤْمِنِيْنَ يَغُضُّوْا مِنْ أَبْصَارِهِمْ۔ (النور ٢٤: ٣٠)

{Say to the believing men that they should lower their gaze.} (24: 30)

Of course, when it is necessary, like for marriage, etc, it is permitted to keep looking after the first gaze. If a woman has to have an injury or other problem examined then she might show to the physician only that portion. She must keep the rest of the body covered.[2]

WHEN TEMPTED GO TO WIFE

(٣١٠٥) وَعَنْ جَابِرٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِنَّ الْمَرْأَةَ تُقْبِلُ فِيْ صُوْرَةِ شَيْطَانٍ وَتُدْبِرُ فِيْ صُوْرَةِ شَيْطَانٍ إِذَا أَحَدُكُمْ أَعْجَبَتْهُ الْمَرْأَةُ فَوَقَعَتْ فِيْ قَلْبِهِ فَلْيَعْمِدْ إِلَى امْرَأَتِهِ فَلْيُوَاقِعْهَا فَإِنَّ ذٰلِكَ يَرُدُّ مَا فِيْ نَفْسِهِ۔ (رواه مسلم)

3105. Sayyiduna Jabir رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, 'A woman comes in the form of a devil and returns in the form of a devil. When any of you is attract ed by a (stranger) woman and she makes a home in his heart, he should head (straight) to his wife and have a sexual intercourse with her. That will put an end to the excitement in his heart (meaning the sexual urge)."[3]

COMMENTARY: The woman comes in the form of a devil. This is actually a comparison because she brings indecent thoughts to the mind and evil temptations to lead astray. These are what the devil does.

Hence, to look at a woman whose mahram a man is not is a means of mischief and evil. The ulama (Scholars) deduce from it that a woman should not emerge from her house unnecessarily. If she is compelled to come out, then she must not adorn herself.

As for man, he must not look at another woman, not even towards her garments.

This hadith is evidence that a man may call his wife for sexual intercourse even during the day time though she may be busy with her household chores which it may not be possible for to suspend. If she does not respond then man becomes rest less in mind and body and falls sick.

---

[1] Muslim # 45-2159, Tirmidhi # 2785, Abu Dawud # 2148, Musnad Ahmad 4. 358.

[2] See Tirmidhi # 2786 about persisting after first gaze. Darul Isha'at Karachi.

[3] Muslim # 9-1403, Musnad Ahmad 3-341.

SECTION II اَلْفَصْلُ الثَّانِي

MUSTAHAB (DESIRABLE) TO LOOK AT THE WOMAN BEFORE PROPOSING

(٣١٠٦) عَنْ جَابِرٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِذَا خَطَبَ أَحَدُكُمُ الْمَرْأَةَ فَإِنِ اسْتَطَاعَ أَنْ يَنْظُرَ إِلَى مَا يَدْعُوْهُ إِلَى نِكَاحِهَا فَلْيَفْعَلْ۔ (رواه ابوداؤد)

3106. Sayyiduna Jabir رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم said, "When any of you proposes marriage to a woman and is able to look at (her hands and face) that which attract him to marry her, he must do so."[1]

COMMENTARY: It has been stated earlier too (hadith # 3088) that it is mustahab (desirable) to look at the woman one wishes to marry because if he likes that woman, he will marry her and be protected from immodesty. This indeed, is the true objective of marriage.

It must be understood that a previous advice that a woman should not be married because of her beauty does not imply that looks should be ignored altogether. Rather, the meaning was that beauty should not be preferred to religion.

(٣١٠٧) وَعَنِ الْمُغِيْرَةِ بْنِ شُعْبَةَ قَالَ خَطَبْتُ امْرَأَةً فَقَالَ لِيْ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ هَلْ نَظَرْتَ إِلَيْهَا قُلْتُ لَا قَالَ فَانْظُرْ إِلَيْهَا فَإِنَّهُ أَحْرٰى أَنْ يُّؤْدَمَ بَيْنَكُمَا۔ (رواه احمد و الترمذی والنسائی وابن ماجة والدارمی)

3107. Sayyiduna Al-Mughirah ibn Shu'bah رضی الله عنه narrated that when he proposed marriage to a woman, Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم asked him, "Have you looked at her?" He submitted that he had not, so he instructed, "Look at her for that is very good and will grow love between both of you."[2]

COMMENTARY: It means: if you marry the woman you proposed to marry after looking at her, the two of you will love one another very much. Generally, there are no regrets if anyone marries a woman after looking at her. The man does not have to feel bad or perturbed about his choice.

ON UNINTENTIONAL GLANCE AT A WOMAN, GO TO YOUR WIFE FOR SOLACE

(٣١٠٨) وَعَنِ ابْنِ مَسْعُوْدٍ قَالَ رَأَى رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ امْرَأَةً فَأَعْجَبَتْهُ فَأَتٰى سَوْدَةَ وَهِيَ تَصْنَعُ طِيْبًا وَعِنْدَهَا نِسَاءٌ فَأَخْلَيْنَهُ فَقَضٰى حَاجَتَهُ ثُمَّ قَالَ أَيُّمَا رَجُلٍ رَأٰى امْرَأَةً تُعْجِبُهُ فَلْيَقُمْ إِلٰى أَهْلِهِ فَإِنَّ مَعَهَا مِثْلَ الَّذِيْ مَعَهَا۔ (رواه الدارمی)

3108. Sayyiduna Ibn Mas'ud narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم saw a woman who he found attractive. So, he came to Sayyidah Sawdah رضی الله عنه who was preparing perfume and there were some women with her. They left him (alone with her) and he had his need satisfied (with her). Then, he said, 'Whichever man sees a woman who looks good to him must come to his wife, for she has the like of what she (the other) has."[3]

---

[1] Abu Dawud # 2082

[2] Tirmidhi # 1089, Nasa'i # 3235, Ibn Majah # 1865, Darimi # 2172, Musnad Ahmad 4-246.

[3] Darimi # 2215.

COMMENTARY: The grace of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم fell on the woman involuntarily. She charmed him and that was human nature.

WOMEN SHOULD REMAIN CONCEALED

(٣١٠٩) وَعَنْهُ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ الْمَرْأَةُ عَوْرَةٌ فَإِذَا خَرَجَتْ اِسْتَشْرَفَهَا الشَّيْطَانُ ـ (رواه الترمذی)

3109. Sayyiduna Ibn Mas'ud رضی الله عنه narrated that the Prophet said, "The woman should remain in veil, for, when she emerges (out of it) the devil makes her look good (in the eyes of men)."[1]

COMMENTARY: The literal meaning of the initial words is that a woman is satr (private parts) (that which must be covered or concealed). Just as it is bad to uncover the satr (private parts) in the presence of other people, so too it is bad for a woman to come out before people.

SECOND GLANCE IS DISALLOWED

(٣١١٠) وَعَنْ بُرَيْدَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لِعَلِيٍّ يَا عَلِيُّ لَا تُتْبِعِ النَّظْرَةَ النَّظْرَةَ فَإِنَّ لَكَ الْأُوْلَى وَلَيْسَتْ لَكَ الْآخِرَةُ ـ (رواه احمد و الترمذی وابوداؤد)

3110. Sayyiduna Baraydah رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said to Sayyiduna Ali رضی الله عنه , "O Ali, do not let a gaze follow the first gaze, for, the first is forgiven (if it was not deliberate) , but the second is not allowed to you."[2]

FEMALE SLAVE IS FORBIDDEN AFTER HER MARRIAGE TO ANOTHER

(٣١١١) وَعَنْ عَمْرِو بْنِ شُعَيْبٍ عَنْ اَبِيْهِ عَنْ جَدِّهٖ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ اِذَا زَوَّجَ اَحَدُكُمْ عَبْدَهٗ اَمَتَهٗ فَلَا يَنْظُرَنَّ اِلٰى عَوْرَتِهَا وَفِيْ رِوَايَةٍ فَلَا يَنْظُرَنَّ اِلٰى مَادُوْنَ السُّرَّةِ وَفَوْقَ الرُّكْبَةِ ـ (رواه ابوداؤد)

3111. Sayyiduna Amr ibn Shu'ayb رضی الله عنه reported from his father that his grandfather narrated that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "When any of you marries his slave to his female slave, he must not look at her awrah" (parts of body that need to be concealed, because she becomes forbidden to her master after her marriage). According to another version "He must not look at (the portion of her body) that is between below the navel and above the knees."[3]

COMMENTARY: This command is when a master marries off his female slave to his own slave. This means that it will apply were forcefully when she is married to someone else's slave and she will be absolutely forbidden to her master.

Imam Abu hanifah رحمه الله contends that after her marriage, the female slave becomes like another person's slave girl for her master. The command concerning the female slave of another person has been mentioned in the hadith of Sayyiduna Abu Sa'eed (# 3100).

Imam Shafi'I رحمه الله contends that after her marriage, the satr (private parts) of the female slave is like the satr (private parts) of a man.

The arguments of both of them may be seen in the books of fiqh (Islamic jurisprudence).

---

[1] Tirmidhi # 1176.

[2] Tirmidhi # 2786, Abu Dawud # 2149, Darimi # 2709, Musnad Ahmad 5-353.

[3] Abu Dawud # 4113, Musnad Ahmad 2-187.

THIGH IS PART OF SATR (PRIVATE PARTS)

(٣١١٢) وَعَنْ جَرْهَدٍ اَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ اَمَا عَلِمْتَ اَنَّ الْفَخِذَ عَوْرَةٌ۔

(رواہ الترمذی وابوداؤد)

3112. Sayyiduna Jarhad رضی اللہ عنہ said that the prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم asked, "Do you not know tht things are awrah?"[1]

COMMENTARY: It is mentioned in the book Asad ul ghabah that once the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم saw jarhad رضی اللہ عنہ in the mosque. His thigh was uncovered. So, he told him that he should cover it. This hadith rejects the contention of these ulama (Scholars) who say that ulama (Scholars) who say that the thigh is not part of the satr (private parts). Indeed, Imam Maalik رحمہ اللہ and Imam Ahmad رحمہ اللہ are known to have held this view, according to a report.

(٣١١٣) وَعَنْ عَلِيٍّ اَنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ لَهُ يَا عَلِيُّ لَا تُبْرِزْ فَخِذَكَ وَلَا تَنْظُرْ إِلٰى فَخِذِ حَيٍّ وَلَا مَيِّتٍ۔ (رواہ ابوداؤد و ابن ماجۃ)

3113. Sayyiduna Ali رضی اللہ عنہ said that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said to him, "O Ali, do not uncover you thigh (in the presence of other people) and do not look at the thigh of anyone alive or dead.'[2]

COMMENTARY: It is clear from this hadith that the command for the satr (private parts) is the same for the living and the dead.

(٣١١٤) وَعَنْ مُحَمَّدِ بْنِ جَحْشٍ قَالَ مَرَّ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ عَلٰى مَعْمَرٍ وَفَخِذَاهُ مَكْشُوْفَتَانِ فَقَالَ يَا مَعْمَرُ غَطِّ فَخِذَيْكَ فَإِنَّ الْفَخِذَيْنِ عَوْرَةٌ۔ (رواہ فی شرح السنۃ)

3114. Sayyiduna Muhammad ibn Jahsh رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم passed by Sayyiduna Ma'mar رضی اللہ عنہ whose things were uncovered. So, he called, "O Ma'mar, cover your thighs for, the thighs are awrah."[3]

(Awrah and satr (private parts) have been defined previously. See against hadith # 3100).

SATR BE OBSERVED IN PRIVACY TOO

(٣١١٥) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عُمَرَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اِيَّاكُمْ وَالتَّعَرِّيَ فَاِنَّ مَعَكُمْ مَنْ لَا يُفَارِقُكُمْ اِلَّا عِنْدَ الْغَائِطِ وَحِيْنَ يُفْضِي الرَّجُلُ إِلٰى اَهْلِهِ فَاسْتَحْيُوْهُمْ وَاَكْرِمُوْهُمْ۔ (رواہ الترمذی)

3115. Sayyiduan Ibn Umar رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said. "Do not be naked (even when alone) because there are with you they who never separate from you (meaning) , the angels who record your deeds) , except when you are in the toilet and while a man has sexual intercourse with his wife. So be decent before them and honour them."[4]

---

[1] Bukhari heading of chapter 12, Book of salah (# 8) , Tirmidhi # 2804 to 2806, Abu Dawud # 4014, Musnad Ahmad 3-478.

[2] Abu Dawud # 3140, Ibn Majah # 1460, Musnad Ahmad 3-501.

[3] Musnad Ahmad 5-290, Sharh us sunnah (Prophet's صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم practice).

[4] Tirmidhi # 2809.

COMMENTARY: In other words, one must keep one's satr (private parts) covered at all times whatever one does. Always do good deeds and refrain from evil and indecent deeds so that shameful conduct is not observed in the presence of the angels and they are not shown any kind of dishonour.

Ibn Maalik رحمه الله said that it is not proper to uncover one's satr (private parts) unnecessarily.

WOMEN LOOKING AT MAN

(٣١١٦) وَعَنْ أُمِّ سَلَمَةَ أَنَّهَا كَانَتْ عِنْدَ رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَ مَيْمُوْنَةَ إِذْ أَقْبَلَ ابْنُ أُمِّ مَكْتُوْمٍ فَدَخَلَ عَلَيْهِ فَقَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ احْتَجِبَا مِنْهُ فَقُلْتُ يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ أَلَيْسَ هُوَ أَعْمٰى لَا يُبْصِرُنَا فَقَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ أَفَعَمْيَاوَانِ أَنْتُمَا أَلَسْتُمَا تُبْصِرَانِهِ۔ (رواه احمد والترمذی وابوداؤد)

3116. Sayyidah Umm Salamah رضی الله عنه narrated that alongwith Sayyidah Maymunah رضی الله عنه she was with Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم when Sayyiduan Ibn Umm Makhtum came to visit him. So, Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم said (to them). "Observe the veil!" She exclaimed, "O Messenger of Allah, is he not blind and unable to see us?" He asked, "Are you (both) blind and cannot see him?"[1]

COMMENTARY: According to this hadith, like men, women too are forbidden to look at stranger man. However, the ulama (Scholars) say that this saying of the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم is of the nature, of righteousness. Or, the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم meant that a woman should not look at a man exclusively, like in a company where two of them speak to one another and she looks at him intently.

The correct ruling is that a woman may look at a man but is not allowed to look between his navel and knees. This is according to the saying of Sayyidah Ayshah رضی الله عنها, "When the Ethiopians demonstrated their skill with the spear, I was looking at them." This happened in 9 AH when she was sixteen years old and the command of the veil had been imposed.

This shows that it is allowed to a woman to see men, but not their satr (private parts). However, it must be understood that this permission is subject to her being safe from sexual desire. If she is not safe then she may not look at a man at all.

KEEP SATR (PRIVATE PARTS) COVERED AT ALL TIMES

(٣١١٧) وَعَنْ بَهْزِ بْنِ حَكِيْمٍ عَنْ أَبِيْهِ عَنْ جَدِّهٖ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ احْفَظْ عَوْرَتَكَ إِلَّا مِنْ زَوْجَتِكَ أَوْمَا مَلَكَتْ يَمِيْنُكَ قُلْتُ يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ أَفَرَأَيْتَ إِذَا كَانَ الرَّجُلُ خَالِيًا قَالَ فَاللّٰهُ أَحَقُّ أَنْ يُسْتَحْيٰى مِنْهُ۔ (رواه الترمذی وابوداؤد و ابن ماجة)

3117. Sayyiduna Bahz ibn Hakim رحمه الله reported from his father (Hakim) رحمه الله that his grandfather (Mu'awiyah ibn Haydah) رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم said. "cover your satr (private parts) except from your wife or your female slave." So he asked, "O Messenger of Allah, what do you say when a man is alone by himself." He said, "Allah has more right that you observe modesty before him."[2]

COMMENTARY: It is wajib (obligatory) even when one is alone to keep one's satr (private

---

[1] Tirmidhi # 2787, Abu Dawud # 4112, Musnad Ahmad 6-296.

[2] Tirmidhi # 2778 & 2803, Abu Dawud # 4017, Ibn Majah # 1920, Musnad Ahmad 5-3.

parts) covered unless it becomes necessary to uncover it.

The exceptions mentioned in the hadith mean that ownership and marriage permit man and woman (the pair) to look at one another's satr (private parts).

(See also hadith # 3115)

DO NOT BE ALONE WITH NON MAHRAM WOMAN

(٣١١٨) وَعَنْ عُمَرَ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ لَا يَخْلُوَنَّ رَجُلٌ بِامْرَأَةٍ إِلَّا كَانَ ثَالِثُهُمَا الشَّيْطَانُ۔ (رواه الترمذی)

3118. Sayyiduna Umar رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "When a man remains alone with a stranger woman then the third among them is the devil."[1]

COMMENTARY: When a man and a woman who are not mahram are alone, the devil tempts them.

(٣١١٩) وَعَنْ جَابِرٍ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ لَا تَلِجُوا عَلَى الْمُغِيْبَاتِ فَإِنَّ الشَّيْطَانَ يَجْرِيْ مِنْ أَحَدِكُمْ مَجْرَى الدَّمِ قُلْنَا وَمِنْكَ يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ قَالَ وَمِنِّيْ وَلٰكِنَّ اللّٰهَ أَعَانَنِيْ عَلَيْهِ فَأَسْلَمُ۔ (رواه الترمذی)

3119. Sayyiduna Jabir رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that the prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "Do not pay visit to woman whose husbands are not at home, for the devil circulates in each of you as blood circulates." Some asked, "And in you too?" He said, "Also in me. But, Allah helps me over him. So I am safe."[2]

COMMENTARY: As it is staying alone with a non mahram woman is disallowed but this hadith mentions specifically one whose husband is not at home.

Shaykh Abdul Haq Dahlawi رحمہ اللہ says about where blood circulates, meaning vein. Mulla Ali Qari رحمہ اللہ says that the devil circulate s in you and is not visible just as blood is not visible and the devil overcomes you. The sense either way is the same.

The final words are in the present tense or continuous present tense but in some versions the past tense is used to imply. "The devil has become Muslim (in my favour, meaning obedient and subjugated).

SLAVE IS AS A STRANGER TO HIS MASTER'S WIFE

(٣١٢٠) وَعَنْ أَنَسٍ أَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ أَتٰى فَاطِمَةَ بِعَبْدٍ قَدْ وَهَبَهُ لَهَا وَعَلٰى فَاطِمَةَ ثَوْبٌ إِذَا قَنَّعَتْ بِهٖ رَأْسَهَا لَمْ يَبْلُغْ رِجْلَيْهَا وَإِذَا غَطَّتْ بِهٖ رِجْلَيْهَا لَمْ يَبْلُغْ رَأْسَهَا فَلَمَّا رَأٰى رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَا تَلْقٰى قَالَ إِنَّهُ لَيْسَ عَلَيْكِ بَأْسٌ إِنَّمَا هُوَ أَبُوْكِ وَغُلَامُكِ۔ (رواه ابوداؤد)

3120. Sayyiduna Anas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم came to Sayyidah Fatimah رضی اللہ عنہا with a slave whom he had presented to her. Sayyidah Fatima رضی اللہ عنہا was clothed in a garment such that when it was put on her head did not reach her feet. And when she put it over her feet, it did not reach her head. When Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم saw this, he said, "Do not worry (so much) , for, here is only

---

[1] Tirmidhi # 1174, supplement, Musnad Ahmad 1-26.

[2] Tirmidhi # 1175, Musnad Ahmad 3-309.

your father and your salve."[1]

COMMENTARY: Imam Shafi'I رحمه الله cites this hadith to say that a slave is mahram of the woman whose slave he is Imam Abu Hanifah رضى الله عنه said that the slave is a non-mahram of the woman. He says that imam Shafi'I رضى الله عنه view is not established by this hadith because the slave wit h Sayyidah Fatimah may have been a minor.

SECTION III اَلْفَصْلُ الثَّالِثُ

EFFEMINATE NOT ALLOWED AMONG WOMEN

(٣١٢١) عَنْ أُمِّ سَلَمَةَ أَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ كَانَ عِنْدَهَا وَفِي الْبَيْتِ مُخَنَّثٌ فَقَالَ لِعَبْدِ اللّٰهِ ابْنِ أَبِي أُمَيَّةَ أَخِي أُمِّ سَلَمَةَ يَا عَبْدَ اللّٰهِ إِنْ فَتَحَ اللّٰهُ لَكُمْ غَدًا الطَّائِفَ فَإِنِّي أَدُلُّكَ عَلَى ابْنَةِ غَيْلَانَ فَإِنَّهَا تُقْبِلُ بِأَرْبَعٍ وَتُدْبِرُ بِثَمَانٍ فَقَالَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَا يَدْخُلَنَّ هٰؤُلَاءِ عَلَيْكُمْ. (متفق عليه)

3121. Sayyidah Umm Salamah رضى الله عنه narrated that once while the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was with her, there was in the house an effeminate. This one boasted to Sayyiduna Abdullah ibn Abu Umayyah. رضى الله عنه the brother of Sayyidah Umm Salamah رضى الله عنه, "If Allah gives you victory over Ta'if tomorrow, O Abdullah, I shall point out to you the daughter of Ghaylan who comes with four and goes with eight." The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said (on hearing him), "Let them not visit you anymore)."[2]

COMMENTARY: The effeminate is a man who behaves like a woman Sometimes the resembles is natural which is no sin because it is beyond the man's control sometimes it is faked and the pretender lives and moves about as if a woman. This is bad and very sinful. Those who fake it deserve to be cursed. According to a hadith. "May the curse of Allah be on woman who adopt resemblance to man. And, may the curse of Allah be on men who adopt resemblance to woman."

The effeminate mentioned in this hadith was Haya'at or Mati He used to visit the houses of the Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم wives رضى الله عنها because they presumed that he was naturally deprived of manly qualities and had no sexual urge. They look him to be among the (غير اولى الاربه) {having no sexual urge} (24: 31). The Quran says that it is not wajib (obligatory) to observe veil before them.

However, the prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم Heard him. He realized that the pretender was inclined to sexual affairs and he was not among the (24"31) (غير اولى الاربه) but was one of (اولى الاربه) (having sexual urge). So he forbade him to visit the houses of the mother of the believers صلى الله عليه وسلم.

The jurists deduce from this command that not only are the effeminate disallowed to visit homes and meet women but also the castrated and eunuchs are disallowed. The same command applies to the veil before them being wajib (obligatory) as is wajib (obligatory) before certain men.

The daughter of Ghaylan was Badiyah. The words allude to her corpulence. So many folds

---

[1] Abu Dawud # 4106.

[2] Bukhari # 4324, Muslim # 32. 2180, Abu Dawud # 4929, Ibn Majah # 1902, 1614, Musnad Ahmad 6-290.

are imagined on fat people. The point is that the Arabs generally prefer fat and bulky women. So, the effeminate used those words to refer to Ghaylan's daughter.

NUDITY IS DISALLOWED

(٣١٢٢) وَعَنِ الْمِسْوَرِ بْنِ مَخْرَمَةَ قَالَ حَمَلْتُ حَجَرًا ثَقِيلًا فَبَيْنَا اَنَا اَمْشِيْ سَقَطَ عَنِّي ثَوْبِيْ فَلَمْ اَسْتَطِعْ اَخْذَهُ فَرَاٰنِي رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَقَالَ لِي خُذْ عَلَيْكَ ثَوْبَكَ وَلَا تَمْشُوْا عُرَاةً۔ (رواه مسلم)

3122. Sayyiduna Miswar ibn Makhramah narrated that he carried a large stone and as he was walking with it, his garment dropped down from him and he was unable to retrieve it. Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم saw him and said to him, "Take your garment (and wear it)." Then he added (a general command), "None of you must walk naked."[1]

THE LIMIT OF MODESTY

(٣١٢٣) وَعَنْ عَآئِشَةَ قَالَتْ مَانَظَرْتُ اَوْ مَا رَأَيْتُ فَرْجَ رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَطُّ۔ (رواه ابن ماجة)

3123. Sayyiduna Ayshah رضى الله عنها said, "I did not ever look at – or, I did not ever see –the satr (private parts) of Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم."[2]

COMMENTARY: The 'or' is the narrator's. He was not sure which of the two sentences Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها had said.

According to another of her traditions, she said. "Neither did the prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم ever saw my satr (private parts) nor did I ever see his satr (private parts)."

We must know what while it is allowed to husband and wife to see one another's satr (private parts) the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم and Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها demonstrated the limit of modesty any couple may be expected to achieve.

A SUDDEN GLANCE MUST BE CHECKED

(٣١٢٤) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ اُمَامَةَ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ مَا مِنْ مُسْلِمٍ يَنْظُرُ اِلٰى مَحَاسِنِ امْرَأَةٍ اَوَّلَ مَرَّةٍ ثُمَّ يَغُضُّ بَصَرَهُ اِلَّا اَحْدَثَ اللّٰهُ لَهُ عِبَادَةً يَجِدُ حَلَاوَتَهَا۔ (رواه احمد)

3124. Sayyiduna Abu Umamah رضى الله عنه narrated that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said. "If a Muslim happens to look at the beauty of a woman the first time (without intention) and (immediately) puts down his gaze, then Allah will create a form of worship for him in which he shall find delight."[3]

COMMENTARY: This man chose to obey his Lord and refrain from looking at a beautiful woman. He ignored the desire of his soul to please Allah.

So, Allah will create for him a worship and he will find peace at heart. This will be a recompense for the abstinence he practiced for Allah's sake.

WARNING TO ONE WHO LOOKS DELIBERATELY AT THE FORBIDDEN

(٣١٢٥) وَعَنِ الْحَسَنِ مُرْسَلًا قَالَ بَلَغَنِي اَنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ لَعَنَ اللّٰهُ النَّاظِرَ

---

[1] Muslim # 78-341, Abu Dawud # 4016.

[2] Ibn Majah # 1922, Musnad Ahmad 6-63.

[3] Musnad Ahmad 5-264.

وَالْمَنْظُوْرَ إِلَيْهِ رَوَاهُ الْبَيْهَقِيُّ فِيْ شُعَبِ الْإِيْمَانِ۔

3125. Sayyiduna Hasan (Busri) رحمه الله narrated in a mursal form that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "May Allah curse the one who looks (without valid reason and compulsion) and the one who is looked at.[1]

COMMENTARY: Curse is called on the person who looks deliberately at what he is forbidden to look at, like a non mahram woman, someone's satr (private parts) etc.

Course is also called upon the person who deliberately lets himself or herself be seen. This does not include anyone who does not make oneself be seen by intention (like a non mahram man sees a woman who is unaware of it).

CHAPTER - III

THE WALI (OR GUARDIAN) IN NIKAH (MARRIAGE) & GETTING THE WOMAN'S CONSENT

بَابُ الْوَلِيِّ فِي النِّكَاحِ وَاسْتِيْذَانِ الْمَرْأَةِ

In the literal sense wali is a guardian who oversees some task. Here, however, wali means the man who acts as a guardian and responsible man for a woman's marriage in the sense that he has authority to marry her.

The ahadith in this chapter will disclose that it is necessary to have the wali's permission and the woman's consent in her marriage.

The people who may act as wali are the woman's relatives who are asabah binafishi.Preference is given to those heirs among them who are closest (or the first in line) , or the sequence of asabat will be the same as in inheritance. If there is none of the asabah, then the mother will become wali, followed by the grandmother. (The Qaniyah gives a sequence with grandmother preceding mother.) Next is daughter, grand daughter (from son) followed by grand daughter (from daughter) , and daughter of son's son. If there is none of them, then the maternal grandfather, real sister, step sister, mother's children (male or female) and their children in this sequence. If there is none of them then the dhawil arham beginning with father's sisters, maternal uncles, mother's sisters, daughter of paternal uncles followed by their children in the same sequence.

If there is none of them, then the right to guardianship goes to mawla al-mawalat (مولى الموالات) - who have been defined in the chapter on fara'id inheritance).

If they are not there, then the ruling king will act as wali if he is a Muslim. Next will be any of his deputies like the qadi (judge) if he is authorized by the king, followed by his deputies provided the qadi has the consent and authority to appoint deputes but if he does not have it then none of his deputies can act wali.

The wilayah or guardianship is available only to a freeman; sensible, adult Muslim. If any one lacks these qualities then he cannot act as a wali of any Muslim. Also, no Muslim may act as a guardian in marriage of a disbeliever, unless there is an exceptional situation, like a Muslim being the master of an infidel female slave, or he is a king or a king's deputy. In such cases, a Muslim may act as wali of a disbeliever.

---

[1] Bayhaqi in Shabul Eeman # 7788

SECTION I — اَلْفَصْلُ الْاَوَّلُ

FIRST GET WOMEN'S CONSENT

(٣١٢٦) عَنْ اَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَا تُنْكَحُ الْاَيِّمُ حَتّٰى تُسْتَأْمَرَ وَلَا تُنْكَحُ الْبِكْرُ حَتّٰى تُسْتَأْذَنَ قَالُوْا يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ وَكَيْفَ اِذْنُهَا قَالَ اَنْ تَسْكُتَ۔ (متفق عليه)

3126. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "A woman who has no husband must not be married without getting her directions and a virgin must not be married without getting her permission." They asked, "O Messenger of Allah, how may her permission be get?" He said. "It is that she keep silent."[1]

COMMENTARY: The Arabic word is ayyim for the woman without a husband. She may be a spinster, a divorced or a widow. In this hadith, she is a divorce or a widow.

The different procedures in obtaining their consent is because the older woman will not be very shy. She will make a request herself to be married to someone or give an obvious indication. The virgin will be shy and hesitant but when she is asked she does offer an answer though generally not an audible reply but a silence.

The jurists interpret this hadith by classifying the woman in four kinds:

(i) The thayyib balighah who is an adult widow. All the ulama (Scholars) agree that it is imperative to get her permission before marrying her, provided she is sane. If she is insane then she will be married with the permission of her wali (guardian).

(ii) The minor virgin (bakirah saghirah). The ulama (Scholars) unanimously say that her permission is not necessary. Her wali may get her married without obtaining her permission.

(iii) The thayyib saghirah or the minor widow. The Hanafi scholars maintain that she may be married without her permission, but the Shafi'is say that her marriage without her permission is disallowed.

(iv) The adult virgin (bakirah balighah). The Hanafis say that her marriage is not allowed without her permission but he Shafi'is say that her marriage is valid even without her consent.

This interpretation shows that the Hanafis restrict guardianship to the minors. In other words, a guardian is within his rights to get a woman married without obtaining her permission when she is a minor whether a virgin or a widow. It also shows that the Shafi'is restrict guardianship to virginity. This means that a guardian may have a woman married without asking her permission when she is a virgin (previously unmarried) whether she is a minor or an adult.

The Hanafis base this hadith for an adult, widow or virgin. The Prophet's صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم words that a virgin may not be given in marriage without her consent are a clear rejection of the contention of the Shafi'is.

(٣١٢٧) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ اَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ الْاَيِّمُ اَحَقُّ بِنَفْسِهَا مِنْ وَلِيِّهَا وَالْبِكْرُ تُسْتَأْذَنُ فِيْ نَفْسِهَا وَاِذْنُهَا صُمَاتُهَا وَفِيْ رِوَايَةٍ قَالَ الثَّيِّبُ اَحَقُّ بِنَفْسِهَا مِنْ وَلِيِّهَا وَالْبِكْرُ تُسْتَأْمَرُ وَاِذْنُهَا

[1] Bukhari # 6968, Muslim # 64-1419, Tirmidhi # 1109, Abu Dawud # 2092, Nasa'i # 5611, Ibn Majah # 1871, Musnad Ahmad 2-250, Darimi # 2186.

سُكُوْتُهَا۔ وَفِيْ رِوَايَةٍ قَالَ الثَّيِّبُ اَحَقُّ بِنَفْسِهَا مِنْ وَلِيِّهَا وَالْبِكْرُ يَسْتَأْذِنُهَا اَبُوْهَا فِيْ نَفْسِهَا وَاِذْنُهَا صُمَاتُهَا۔

(رواہ مسلم)

3127. Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "The ayyim (meaning a widow or a divorcee, adult and sane) has more right about (marriage of) herself than her guardian. A virgin (who is an adult) must be asked for permission about herself. Her permission is her silence."
According to another version, he said, "The Thayyib (meaning, a widow) has greater right about herself than her guardian. A virgin must be asked for her opinion (concerning her marriage). Her permission is her silence.
According to another version, he said, "The thayyib has more right about herself than her guardian. As for a virgin, her father must ask her permission about herself and her permission is her silence."[1]

COMMENTARY: The widow is absolutely free or authorized concerning her marriage. She is at liberty to grant permission or not and her marriage can be valid only when she gives her oral permission. On the other hand, it is not necessary for a virgin to speak out her permission and she may do it even by observing silence. The rest of the comments are identical to the previous commentary.

WIDOW MAY REPUDIATE HER MARRIAGE IT CONSENT WAS NOT OBTAINED

(۳۱۲۸) وَعَنْ خَنْسَاءِ بِنْتِ خِذَامٍ اَنَّ اَبَاهَا زَوَّجَهَا وَهِيَ ثَيِّبٌ فَكَرِهَتْ ذٰلِكَ فَاَتَتْ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَرَدَّ نِكَاحَهَا رَوَاهُ الْبُخَارِيُّ وَفِيْ رِوَايَةِ ابْنِ مَاجَةَ نِكَاحَ اَبِيْهَا۔

3128. Sayyidah Khansa' bint Khidham رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that her father married her (without obtaining her permission, to someone). She was a widow (and an adult), and she disliked that (action of her father). So, she came to Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم (with her complaint). He annulled her marriage.
The version in Ibn Majah also has; 'the marriage (in which she was given) by her father."[2]

SAYYIDAH AYSHAH'S رضی اللہ عنہا AGE WHEN MARRIED TO PROPHET صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم

(۳۱۲۹) وَعَنْ عَائِشَةَ اَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ تَزَوَّجَهَا وَهِيَ بِنْتُ سَبْعِ سِنِيْنَ وزُفَّتْ اِلَيْهِ وَهِيَ بِنْتُ تِسْعِ سِنِيْنَ وَلُعَبُهَا مَعَهَا وَمَاتَ عَنْهَا وَهِيَ بِنْتُ ثَمَانِيْ عَشَرَةَ۔ (رواہ مسلم)

3129. Sayyidah Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہا narrated that the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم married her when she was seven years old. And she was led to his house when she was nine years old, her toys being brought with her. He died (separating) from her when she was eighteen years old.

COMMENTARY: This hadith speaks of the early life of Sayyidah Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہا she had the Prophet 's صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم company and was his wife for nine years.

---

[1] Muslim # 66-1421, Tirmidhi # 1110, Abu Dawud # 2098, Nasa'i # 3265, Ibn Majah # 1870, Darimi # 2190, Muwatta Maalik 4 (Nikah (wedlock)). Musnad Ahmad 1-219.

[2] Bukhari # 5138, Abu Dawud # 2101, Nasa'i # 3268, Ibn Majah # 1873, Darimi # 2192, Musnad Ahmad 6-328.

When she was brought, she was nine years old, the age of childhood. That is why she had her toys with her, the dolls that children generally play with.
According to a hadith, the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم did not express disapproval on seeing the dolls. This means that it is not disallowed to make dolls and children are permitted to play with them. The ulama (Scholars) say that in this way girls learn to raise children, improve the affairs at home and train as administrators of the house.
However, there is one possibility. This thing took place at the time of hijrah (emigration) till then the command prohibiting pictures was not enforced probably. The ulama (Scholars) also say that the dolls of Sayyidah Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہا did not have faces on them as in pictures that are forbidden. Rather, they were pieces of cloth and rags tied together.
(Ibn Kathir says that she was six or seven when she married the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم. See The life of Prophet Muhammad صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم p 217, Darul Isha'at, Karachi)

SECTION II اَلْفَصْلُ الثَّانِي

MARRIAGE OF MINOR GIRL WITH GUARDIAN'S NOD

(٣١٣٠) عَنْ اَبِي مُوْسٰى عَنِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ لَا نِكَاحَ اِلَّا بِوَلِيٍّ۔ (رواہ احمد.والترمذی وابوداؤد وابن ماجة والدارمی)

3130. Sayyiduna Abu Musa رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "Marriage does not take place without (the permission of) the guardian."[1]

COMMENTARY: The Hanafis say that this hadith concerns a minor girl and an insane girl. Imam Shafi'I رحمہ اللہ and Imam Ahmad رحمہ اللہ go by the literal meaning of this hadith and say that marriage can only be valid with a guardian's consent, not with woman's contracting whether the bride herself or the agent.
Imam Nawawi رحمہ اللہ said that most ulama (Scholars) deny the validity while Imam Abu Hanifah رحمہ اللہ denies its perfection (when applying it to a minor and insane girl).

(٣١٣١) وَعَنْ عَائِشَةَ اَنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ اَيُّمَا اِمْرَأَةٍ نَكَحَتْ نَفْسَهَا بِغَيْرِ اِذْنِ وَلِيِّهَا فَنِكَاحُهَا بَاطِلٌ فَنِكَاحُهَا بَاطِلٌ فَنِكَاحُهَا بَاطِلٌ فَاِنْ دَخَلَ بِهَا فَلَهَا الْمَهْرُ بِمَا اسْتَحَلَّ مِنْ فَرْجِهَا فَاِنِ اشْتَجَرُوْا فَالسُّلْطَانُ وَلِيُّ مَنْ لَا وَلِيَّ لَهٗ۔ (رواہ احمد والترمذی وابوداؤد وابن ماجة والدارمی)

3131. Sayyidah Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہا narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "Any woman who marries herself without the consent of her wali, her marriage is void. Her marriage is void. Her marriage is void. If sexual intercourse takes place, then for her is the dower because of the intercourse. If there is a dispute (between the guardian), then the king is the guardian of one who has no guardian."[2]

COMMENTARY: The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم repeated the words 'her marriage is void' three times. so, he emphasized that marriage should be conducted only with the guardian's permission. That is the basic requirement. So, this hadith and others of the same purport are contradictory to the hadith of Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ (# 3127) "The Ayyim has more right about herself..."

[1] Abu Dawud # 2085, Tirmidhi # 1101, Ibn Majah # 1881, Darimi # 3183, Musnad Ahmad 4-394.
[2] Tirmidhi # 1104, Abu Dawud # 2083, Ibn Majah # 1879, Darimi # 2184, Musnad Ahmad 6. 166.

The Hanafi explain this hadith by saying that it refers to the woman who marries one who is not her equal without the guardian's permission, or a minor girl, or a female slave, or a mukatabah marries without her guardian's permission. In such cases the marriage is void. Moreover, this hadith and the preceding one are not of the standard whereby they could be used as argument against any contention. The scholars question their soundness.

The concluding portion of the hadith means that if the guardians of a woman disagree among themselves and quarrel then their decisions are quashed. In this case the right of guardianship rests with the king. If there is a guardian then the king has no right of guardianship.

NOTE: We now present an explanation of this subject and the relative ruling from the English translation of Tirmidhi (V 1 pp463/4) published by Darul Isha'at Karachi.

The ulama (Scholars) abide by this hadith and rule that a marriage performed without guardian's consent is unsound. This is confirmed by Sa'eed ibn Musayyib, Hasan Busri Shurayh. Ibrahim Nakha'I Umar ibn Abdul Aziz and other and also Sufyan Thawri, Awza'I, Maalik Abdullah ibn Mubarak, Shafi' Ahmad and Ishaq.

RULING: The disagreement (of marriage without guardian's consent) is well known. Thus, the contention of the Shafi'I is that a marriage is simply not contracted by woman directly (on their own authority). They rely on the two foregoing hadith of Sayyidina Abu Musa رضی الله عنه and Sayyidah Ayshah رضی الله عنها. On the other-hand, the Hanafis hold that marriage is validly contracted by woman's direct execution though it is dependant on a guardian who may raise an objection or grant his approval.

The Hanafis say of these ahadith that both the ahadith are not worthy of drawing conclusion from, because it is reported from Sayyidah Ayshah رضی الله عنها that, in the absence of her brother Abdur Rahman ibn Abu Bakr رضی الله عنه she conducted the marriage of his daughter. When he returned, he expressed his disapproval for it but did not declare that the marriage was void. The event is co-related in that the Shafi'I draw on a hadith which is also by Sayyidah Ayshah رضی الله عنها and the conduct is contrary.

So there are only two aspects to it:

(1) Either Sayyidah Ayshah رضی الله عنها did not herself consider her hadith as sahih, so did not hesitate to act against it, in which case her judgement - we seek refuge in Allah from such thought - is doubtful and her hadith is not worth citing as evidence, but, of course, this is preposterous;

(2) Or, she does abide by her hadith, but the sense she implies is not what the Shafis understand, because she did marry off her niece in the absence of her guardian, Abdur Rahman ibn Abu Bakr رضی الله عنه. Thus, the hadith of Sayyidah Ayshah رضی الله عنها covers the female slaves, not free woman. This is the interpretation the Hanafis give to Sayyidah Ayshah's رضی الله عنه hadith.

As for the hadith of Abu Musa رضی الله عنه, it is not a worthy piece of evidence, because there is a contradiction in its reporting and connection. Imam Tirmizi رحمه الله has himself confirmed this. Hence, the correct position is that this hadith is mursal, as Imam Tahawi also confirms while Allamah (The learned Scholar) Hajr Asqalani said that it is not correct to deduce from it.

Following this brief discourse, we now present some of the arguments of the Hanafi School:

1. It is reported in the sihah that when the prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم sent proposal for marriage to Sayyidah Umm Salamah رضی اللہ عنہ, she submitted, "O Messenger of Allah! I have no guardian present". He said, "A widow has more right over herself than her guardian". Hence the hadith is evidence that a marriage, without a guardian, is allowed.

2. The text of the Qur'an also are evidence of the Hanafi contention. At many places, the conclusion of marriage is bracketed with woman without placing the condition of consent of the guardian. For instance;

وَإِذَا طَلَّقْتُمُ النِّسَآءَ فَبَلَغْنَ أَجَلَهُنَّ .... بِالْمَعْرُوفِ۔(البقرة:٢٣٢)

And when you have divorced (your) woman, and they have completed their (waiting) term then you should not prevent them from marrying their husbands when they have agreed among themselves. (2: 232)

This verse places on the woman authority to conduct marriage without condition of guardian's consent. Thus, it is evidence that marriage may be contracted with a woman's words.

3. The Hanafis deduce through qiyas that just as a man who can utilize her property may properly marry by word of expression, s also a woman who can utilize her property at will may conclude marriage by her word. Hence, just as she had right over her property, she also has right over her person.

In short, it is clear from the foregoing brief discussion of the Shafi'i point of view in the light of the ahadith and the text of the Quran and qiyas that the Hanafi contentin is strong and correct. (FA)

(FA) is Dr Mawlana Fazal Ahmad Professor: Islamic learning, Karachi University.
MA (Islamic learning)
MA (Islamic history)

MARRIAGE WITHOUT WITNESSES IS NOT PROPER

(٣١٣٢) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ أَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ الْبَغَايَا اللَّاتِيْ يُنْكِحْنَ أَنْفُسَهُنَّ بِغَيْرِ بَيِّنَةٍ وَالْأَصَحُّ أَنَّهُ مَوْقُوْفٌ عَلَى ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ۔ (رواه الترمذی)

3132. Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "Those women commit adultery who marry themselves without (there being) witnesses (to their marriage)."

The correct is that this hadith is mawquf at Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ (This is not a saying of the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم but of Ibn Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ[1]

COMMENTARY: There must be two men who witness the marriage being conducted. The ulama (Scholars) are unanimous about it, and the sahabah (Prophet's Companions) رضی اللہ عنہم and tabi'un رحمہ اللہ observed it.

WOMAN'S SILENCE ON BEING ASKED IS HER CONSENT

(٣١٣٣-٣١٣٤) وَعَنْ أَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ الْيَتِيْمَةُ تُسْتَأْمَرُ فِيْ نَفْسِهَا فَإِنْ صَمَتَتْ فَهُوَ إِذْنُهَا وَإِنْ أَبَتْ فَلَا جَوَازَ عَلَيْهَا۔ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَأَبُوْدَاوُدَ وَالنَّسَائِيُّ وَرَوَاهُ الدَّارِمِيُّ عَنْ أَبِيْ مُوْسٰى۔

3133. Sayyiduna Abu Hurahrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "An adult virgin woman must be asked about herself (for permission for her marriage). If she observes silence, that is her consent but if she refuses then she cannot be compelled."[1]

[1] Tirmidhi # 1105.

3134. Sayyiduna Abu Musa رضی اللہ عنہ also narrated this hadith.[2]

COMMENTARY: Marriage is a very important turning point in a person's life. If the wishes of the couple are by passed by parents or guardian, then even a slight slackness or carelessness on their part could play hell with the lives of the couple. Hence, ء (divine law) has given right to every adult Muslim man and woman to declare his wishes, like and dislikes at this juncture.

The parents and guardians of woman have been instructed very strongly that they should not let their choice and wishes dominate over the woman's decision. They should let her have an opportunity to think over and they must base their decision on her wishes and consent.

It is also made easy for her: if she is shy and ashamed to speak out then her silence is taken as an approval. However, this is only before her guardian. If any one else asks her for her consent, then she will have to give an oral reply necessarily.

SLAVE'S MARRIAGE ONLY WITH MASTER'S PERMISSION

(٣١٣٥) وَعَنْ جَابِرٍ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ اَيُّمَا عَبْدٍ تَزَوَّجَ بِغَيْرِ اِذْنِ سَيِّدِهٖ فَهُوَ عَاهِرٌ۔ (رواه الترمذی وابوداؤد والدارمی)

3135. Sayyiduna Jabir رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "If a slave marries without obtaining permission of his master then he is a fornicator."[3]

COMMENTARY: If a slave marries by passing his master's permission then when he has sexual intercourse with his wife that will amount to fornication and will be a forbidden act. Imam Shafi'I رحمہ اللہ and Imam Ahmad رحمہ اللہ abide by the hadith and hold that even if the master gives his permission after the slave's marriage, that contract will not be correct. But, Imam Abu Hanifah رحمہ اللہ says that the slave's marriage without his master's permission is proper but its enforcement depends on his master's permission. When the master permits him, it becomes sound or correct. It is like the command for the nikah (wedlock) of fuduli. (He will have to marry all over again and till then it would not be proper to enforce it.)

SECTION III اَلْفَصْلُ الثَّالِثُ

ADULT WOMAN IS AUTHORIZED TO MARRY AT WILL

(٣١٣٦) عَنِ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ قَالَ اِنَّ جَارِيَةً بِكْرًا اَتَتْ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَذَكَرَتْ اَنَّ اَبَاهَا زَوَّجَهَا وَهِيَ كَارِهَةٌ فَخَيَّرَهَا النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ۔ (رواه ابوداؤد)

3136. Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that (once) an unmarried (adult) girl came to Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم and complained that her father had married her against her will, so, the prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم gave her choice (to retain that marriage or to revoke it).[4]

---

[1] Tirmidhi # 1111, Abu Dawud # 2093, Nasa'i # 3270, Musnad Ahmad 2-259,

[2] Darimi # 2185.

[3] Tirmidhi E 113, Abu Dawud # 2078, Ibn Majah # 1959, Darimi # 2233, Musnad Ahmad 3-377.

[4] Abu Dawud # 2096, Ibn Majah # 1875.

COMMENTARY: The guardian whether a father, grandfather, or any other relative has no right to compel a woman to marry on his choice even if she is a virgin.
Imam Sha'fi's رحمه الله says, however, that this applies only to a woman who is not virgin whether adult or not. The guardian cannot compel her. But, he says, if a woman is a virgin then the guardian has authority to marry her, even if she is an adult woman.

MUSTAHAB (DESIRABLE) FOR WALI TO MARRY OFF ADULT WOMAN

(٣١٣٧) وَعَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَا تُزَوِّجِ الْمَرْأَةُ الْمَرْأَةَ وَلَا تُزَوِّجُ الْمَرْأَةُ نَفْسَهَا فَإِنَّ الزَّانِيَةَ هِيَ الَّتِي تُزَوِّجُ نَفْسَهَا۔ (رواه ابن ماجة)

3137. Sayyiduna Abu Hurahrah رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم said, "No woman should give another woman in marriage nor give herself in marriage, for she who marries by herself is an adulteress."[1]

COMMENTARY: The Hanafis say the woman who is not a guardian is disallowed to marry off another woman, or this prohibition in nahi tanzihi. An adult woman is permitted to marry without her guardian's permission or appoint anyone as her guardian, but it is mustahab (desirable) for her to entrust her guardian to get her married. As stated earlier, if there is no guardian for any one then the qadi: is her guardian.
Hence, the gist of this hadith is that it is better for a woman to let her guardian give her in marriage if he is there and no other woman may give her in marriage (instead of the guardian). If her guardian is not presents then the Qadi will give her in marriage.
The hanafis say about a woman not being allowed to give herself in marriage that it applies to a woman who marries without there being witnesses to one who is not her equal.
Imam Shafi'I رحمه الله takes it to mean that no woman should marry without her guardian's permission.
According to the Hanafis, therefore, if a woman has sexual intercourse with her husband whom she has married in the absence of witnesses and who is not her equal then that is adultery.
According to the Shafi'is, if a woman marries someone without her guardian's consent then every time she and her husband have sexual intercourse that will be adultery. Imam Shafi'I رحمه الله holds that just as a woman cannot give another woman in marriage, so too she has no authority to marry anyone by herself.

A FATHER'S DUTY

(٣١٣٨) وَعَنْ أَبِي سَعِيْدٍ وَابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ قَالَا قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ وُلِدَ لَهُ وَلَدٌ فَلْيُحْسِنِ اسْمَهُ وَأَدَبَهُ فَإِذَا بَلَغَ فَلْيُزَوِّجْهُ فَإِنْ بَلَغَ وَلَمْ يُزَوِّجْهُ فَأَصَابَ إِثْمًا فَإِنَّمَا إِثْمُهُ عَلَى أَبِيْهِ۔

3138. Sayyiduna Abu Sa'eed رضی الله عنه and Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضی الله عنه both narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم said, "When a son is born to anyone, he should give him a good name and a good training (with commands of ء (divine law) and manners). And, when he attains puberty, he should marry him. If he does not marry him when he attains puberty and he commits a sin, then the sin is blamed on his father."[2]

COMMENTARY: The base of a good society are the youth who get the elementary training

---

[1] Ibn Majah # 1882.
[2] Bahyaqi # 8666 (Sha'b ul Eeman).

of good deeds and character from their elders. If this elementary training is lacking then a terrible spate of evils spreads all over because the youth are the ones who will take over.
Today, this is the main reason for the waywardness and shameless conduct in society. Our youth are totally deprived of guidance from their elders.
The hadith draws the attention of parents to their important duty. They should teach their child with religious education and train him along the lofty principles and paths of life. Get him to practice good and act righteously.
The next dutyof parents when their child is grown is to marry him. In this way, they will keep him away from falling into sin. If he perpetrates sin, then the father is held responsible.
The same command applies for caring for slaves, male or female, as for one's own child.

ARRANGE MARRIAGE OF DAUGHTER AS SHE ATTAINS PUBERTY

(٣١٣٩) وَعَنْ عُمَرَ بْنِ الْخَطَّابِ وَاَنَسِ بْنِ مَالِكٍ عَنْ رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ فِي التَّوْرَاةِ مَكْتُوْبٌ مَنْ بَلَغَتِ ابْنَتُهُ اثْنَتَى عَشَرَةَ سَنَةً وَلَمْ يُزَوِّجْهَا فَاَصَابَتْ اِثْمًا فَاِثْمُ ذٰلِكَ عَلَيْهِ۔ رَوَاهُمَا الْبَيْهَقِيُّ فِيْ شُعَبِ الْاِيْمَانِ۔

3139. Sayyiduna Umar ibn Khattab رضی اللہ عنہ and Sayyiduna Anas ibn Maalik رضی اللہ عنہ, both, narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "It is written in the Torah: If anyone's daughter becomes twelve years old and he does not give her in marriage and she falls into sin then that sin is against him."[1]

CHAPTER - IV

LETTING A MARRIAGE BE KNOWN THE KHUTBAH (SERMON) & THE CONDITION

بَابُ اِعْلَانِ النِّكَاحِ وَالْخُطْبَةِ وَالشَّرْطِ

It is mustahab (desirable) to make the nikah (wedlock) or marriage known. Thus, we are told. "Announce the marriage even if you have to make it by beating the duff."
The ulama (Scholars) have different opinions about beating the duff. Some of them declare that it is forbidden or absolutely makruh (disapproved) to beat the duff. Some others say that it is permitted to do so. The more correct thing is that it is allowed to beat the duff on the day of eed, arrival of a respected traveller or guest and on the occasion of a marriage. Apart from these times, it is forbidden to beat the duff (Duff (دف) is tambourine, hand drum. Daff and diff have different meanings.)
KHUTBAH: This word is both Khutbah and khitbah. The latter is to sent a proposal or ask a woman's hand in marriage while the former khutbah is the marriage sermon. The caption can mean either of the two words but the more correct is khutbah or the sermon that is delivered for the marriage.
The Hanafis say that is masnun to recite the khutbah while contracting he marriage. The Shafi'is also say so but hold that it is also masnun while concluding any contract, like buying and selling, etc.

BID'AH (INNOVATION) & CUSTOMS DURING MARRIAGE

These are the conditions that are mentioned in the marriage (agreement) whether corrupt or genuine.

[1] Bahyaqi # 8669 (Shab ul Eeman).

It is unfortunate that such a pure thing as marriage to has corrupted with innovative practices and customs of non Muslims. It has come to such an extent that customs contrary to ؛ (divine law) have been introduced to the wedding of Muslims that the original character has been overshadowed. They are so many that it is difficult to point them out. Nevertheless, we do enumerate a few customs and innovative practices in the hope that they would he shunned. They are:

- The use of forbidden music and musical instruments.
- Dancing, singing and Qawwali.
- Garlanding the groom in a particular way, called sahra bandhna.
- Puppet show and such others.
- Decorating the home extravagantly.
- Luxurious wastage like covering wells with cloth.
- Riding horses.
- Leading the bridegroom in a procession throughout the city unnecessarily.
- Bridegroom's visiting shrines, and making offerings before resuming the procession.
- Playing drums with the groom's procession and singing songs by male and female singers.
- Blowing fire crackers and wasting money in this way.
- Woman bringing sweetmeat before the procession of the bridegroom.

These are evil thing that are forbidden include:

- Displaying what should be concealed.
- Having the bridegroom sit on a silken seat.
- To measure the groom's turban with a string and to give the string to a sorcerer that he might charm for the couple who might grow love for one another.
- Using gold and silver utensils.
- To shower extreme praise on the bridegroom and his party in the procession and to flatter them beyond limits speaking lies in doing that.

Other things that are forbidden are:

- The bridegroom being made to wear silk, saffron coloured dress. (These things are forbidden to men even otherwise.)
- Remove the bridegroom's turban and put it on the bride's head.
- The bridegroom circling round the bride seven times.
- Woman who are not mahram meeting the bridegroom, touching him and pulling his ears and nose and having absence talk with him.
- Bridegroom having his thumb washed in milk by the bride.
- Women feeding the bridegroom sugar.
- Woman pouring milk in the mouth of the bridegroom.
- Placing lump of sugar on the bride's body and requiring the groom to pick it up with his mouth.
- When bride and bridegroom are alone, women surrounding them.

These things are bid'ah and forbidden. They have nothing to do with ؛ (divine law) or sunnah (Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم practice).

It is necessary to shun them.

SECTION I الفصل الأوّل

DUFF IS PERMITTED AT MARRIAGES

(٣١٤٠) عَنِ الرُّبَيِّعِ بِنْتِ مُعَوِّذِ بْنِ عَفْرَاء قَالَتْ جَاء النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَدَخَلَ حِيْنَ بُنِيَ عَلَيَّ فَجَلَسَ عَلَى فِرَاشِيْ كَمَجْلِسِكَ مِنِّيْ فَجَعَلَتْ جُوَيْرِيَاتٌ لَنَا يَضْرِبْنَ بِالدُّفِّ وَيَنْدُبْنَ مَنْ قُتِلَ مِنْ اٰبَائِيْ يَوْمَ بَدْرٍ اِذْ قَالَتْ اِحْدَاهُنَّ وَفِيْنَا نَبِيٌّ يَعْلَمُ مَافِي غَدٍ فَقَالَ دَعِي هٰذِهٖ وَقُوْلِي بِالَّذِيْ كُنْتِ تَقُوْلِيْنَ۔ (رواه البخاري)

3140. Sayyidah Rubayye'i bint Mu'awwidh ibn Afra رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that "When (after my marriage) I was brought to my husband's house, the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم came and entered. He sat on my bedding just as you have sat down on my bedding (now). (She said this to Khalid ibn Dhakwan the sub-narrator of this hadith). Some girls of our family (who were present with us) began to beat the duff extolling those of my ancestors who were martyred on the day of Badr (praising to the sky their bravery). Among them one girl said,

اِحْدَاهُنَّ وَفِيْنَا نَبِيٌّ يَعْلَمُ مَافِي غَدٍ

(And among us is the Prophet who knows what will transpire tomorrow).
He (interrupted her and) said, 'Leave this, but (continue to) say what you had been saying.'[1]

COMMENTARY: Afra was the mother of Sayyiduna Mu'awwidh. رضی اللہ عنہ He was a great, high-ranking sahabi who had raised the banner of truth on the day of Badr and gained martyrdom during this. He is that distinguished personality of Islam who, alongwith his brother Sayyiduna Mu'adh رضی اللہ عنہ, had killed the accursed Abu Jahl in the battle of Badr.

The girls were the little girls who were still in their childhood days. They had not attained puberty.

Akmal ud din رحمہ اللہ said that it is clear from this hadith that at the time the bride is brought to her husband's home, it is allowed to beat the duff to make it known. Some ulama (Scholars) say that it is allowed also on some other happy occasions. However, the duff should be without bells because a duff that jingles is makruh (disapproved) in the sight of all ulama (Scholars).

The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم stopped the little girls from attributing to him knowledge of the unseen because only Allah is the knower of the unseen. One else knows that. This is the basic tenet of faith. Of course, Allah does disclose to His Messengers some of the things of the unknown.

The hadith says that poetry that does not violate ؏ (divine law) and basic tenets of faith and does not contain falsehood and indecency is allowed. It may be recited and heard.

(٣١٤١) وَعَنْ عَائِشَةَ قَالَتْ زُفَّتِ امْرَاَةٌ اِلٰى رَجُلٍ مِنَ الْاَنْصَارِ فَقَالَ نَبِيُّ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَاكَانَ مَعَكُمْ لَهْوٌ فَاِنَّ الْاَنْصَارَ يُعْجِبُهُمُ اللَّهْوُ۔ (رواه البخاري)

3141. Sayyidah Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہا narrated that a bride was brought to the house of an ansar (after their marriage). So Allah's Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم asked him, "Do you not have any entertainment?" (Shariah has allowed some of it) "The ansar like these things."[1]

---

[1] Bukhari # 5147, Ibn Majah # 1897.

MUSTAHAB (DESIRABLE) TO MARRY IN SHAWWAL

(٣١٤٢) وَعَنْهَا قَالَتْ تَزَوَّجَنِي رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فِيْ شَوَّالٍ وَبَنٰى بِيْ فِيْ شَوَّالٍ فَاَيُّ نِسَاءِ رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ كَانَ اَحْظٰى عِنْدَهُ مِنِّيْ۔ (رواه مسلم)

3142. Sayyidah Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہا narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم married her in (the month of) Shawwal. She was brought to his house (three years later) in Shawwal. (She asked) "So (tell me,) which of his wives was more fortunate than I was with him?"[2]

COMMENTARY: Some ignorant people consider it inauspicious to marry in Shawwal. It is absolutely wrong. Rather, it is mustahab (desirable) to marry in this month and to bring the bride the groom's home. The Arabs of the jahiliyah (ignorance period) also placed ill-omen with shawwal. It was to reject this nation that Sayyidah Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہا indicated that if it was really inauspicious to marry in this month, shawwal, then was it not so for her? She not only married in Shawwal but was also brought to her husband's house in the same month, Shawwal, three years later. In fact, she was most fortunate of all the wives of the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم and beloved by him of his wives رضی اللہ عنہ.

EMPHASIS ON PAYING THE DOWER

(٣١٤٣) وَعَنْ عُقْبَةَ بْنِ عَامِرٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَلشُّرُوْطُ اَنْ تُوْفُوْا بِهِ مَا اسْتَحْلَلْتُمْ بِهِ الْفُرُوْجَ۔ (متفق علیه)

3143. Sayyiduna Uqbah ibn Aamir رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "Of the conditions that you honour, the most necessary is that whereby you have made sexual intercourse lawful."[3]

COMMENTARY: The most necessary or most important condition is the wife's dower or all her rights that a husband is bound to give her.

These are called conditions because a man brings his wife home on condition that he will pay her all her rights.

DO NOT PROPOSE MARRIAGE TO ANOTHER'S FIANCÉ

(٣١٤٤) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَا يَخْطُبُ الرَّجُلُ عَلٰى خِطْبَةِ اَخِيْهِ حَتّٰى يُنْكِحَ اَوْ يَتْرُكَ۔ (متفق علیه)

3144. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "No man must sent a woman a proposal for marriage when his (Muslim) brother has made a proposal to her to marry until he marries or abandons it."[4]

---

[1] Bukhari # 5162.

[2] Muslim # 73. 1423, Tirmidhi # 1095, Ibn Majah # 1990, Darimi # 2211, Musnad Ahmad 6. 54.

[3] Bukhari # 5151, Muslim # 63. 1418, Tirmidhi # 1130, Abu Dawud # 2139, Nasai'i # 3281, Ibn Majah # 1954, Musnad Ahmad 6-54.

[4] Bukhari # 5144, Muslim # 52-1413, Tirmidhi # 2175, Abu Dawud # 2080, Nasai'i # 3241, Ibn Majah # 1867, Muwatta Darimi.

COMMENTARY: This applies when the first proposal is nearly accepted in that both have expressed willingness and the dower has been agreed upon.
If, in spite of this prohibition, a second man proposes marriage to the same woman and marries her without the permission of the first man then he will have committed a sin though the marriage would be correct.

WOMAN MUST NOT HAVE ANOTHER WOMAN DIVORCED

(٣١٤٥) وَعَنْ اَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَا تَسْأَلِ الْمَرْأَةُ طَلَاقَ اُخْتِهَا لِتَسْتَفْرِغَ صَحْفَتَهَا وَلِتَنْكِحْ فَاِنَّ لَهَا مَا قُدِّرَ لَهَا۔ (متفق عليه)

3145. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "No woman must demand that her (Muslim) sister should be divorced that she may fill from her vessel (meaning, take away what is hers) and marry her husband herself because she will have only what is decreed for her."[1]

COMMENTARY: This could be one of two things. A married man wished to take a second wife who stipulates that he must first divorce his wife before marrying her. Or, a man has two wives and one of them demands that the other should be divorced.
The prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم disallowed woman to make such a demand because every person get what is decreed for him or her and there is no use wishing another's downfall.
In the second case, the translation would be: 'and have her husband to herself...' or 'the co-wife may marry someone else.'

SHIGHAR IS DISALLOWED

(٣١٤٦) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عُمَرَ اَنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ نَهٰى عَنِ الشِّغَارِ وَالشِّغَارُ اَنْ تُزَوِّجَ الرَّجُلُ ابْنَتَهُ عَلٰى اَنْ يُزَوِّجَهُ الْاٰخَرُ بِنْتَهُ وَلَيْسَ بَيْنَهُمَا صَدَاقٌ۔ مُتَّفَقٌ عَلَيْهِ وَفِيْ رِوَايَةٍ لِمُسْلِمٍ قَالَ لَا شِغَارَ فِي الْاِسْلَامِ۔

3146. Sayyiduna ibn Umar رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم forbade shighar. And, shighar is that a man gives his daughter in marriage (to another man) stipulating that the other marry his daughter to him, there being no (payment of) dower between them.
According to another version: He (Allah's Messenger) صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "There is no shighar in Islam."[2]

COMMENTARY: In pre-Islamic days, two men would exchange one another's daughters (or sisters) and avoid paying the dower. Islam proscribes this kind of (exchange) marriage.
Imam Shafi'I رحمہ اللہ abidesby the hadith and denounces this kind of marriage.
Imam Abu Hanifah رحمہ اللہ says that while the marriage will be valid yet it will be binding to pay the mahr mithl (Proper dower). Moreover, such kind of marriage must be avoided.

MUT'AH IS FORBIDDEN

(٣١٤٧) وَعَنْ عَلِيٍّ اَنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ نَهٰى عَنْ مُتْعَةِ النِّسَاءِ يَوْمَ خَيْبَرَ وَعَنْ اَكْلِ لُحُوْمِ

---

[1] Bukhari # 2140, Muslim # 38-1408, 1413, Tirmidhi # 1194, Abu Dawud # 3438, Nasai'i # 3236, Ibn Majah # 1867, Musnad Ahmad 2-311.

[2] Bukhari # 5112, Muslim # 57-1415, Abu Dawud # 2074, Nasai'i # 4447, Ibn Majah # 1883, Darimi # 2180, Muwatta Maalik # 24 (Nikah (wedlock)) Musnad Ahmad 2-19.

الْحُمُرِ الْإِنْسِيَّةِ۔ (متفق عليه)

3147. Sayyiduna Ali رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم forbade mut'ah (temporary marriage) of women. He did this at the battle of Khaybar. He also forbade the eating of the flesh of domestic asses.[1]

COMMENTARY: Mut'ah is a marriage for a specified period of time for a specified sum of money. It was permitted in early Islam but forbidden later on.

The ulama (Scholars) say that mut'ah was made lawful twice and forbidden twice. The first time was before the Battle of Khaybar during an expedition when the sahabah (Prophet's Companions) رضی الله عنهم were uncomfortable because of a celibate life to the extent that some of them requested the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم to be allowed to have themselves castrated. On that, he told them that they could observe mut'ah but withdrew this permission again on the day of the conquest of Makkah in 8 AH declaring it unlawful for ever. This is established by sahih ahadith.

The tradition of Sayyiduna Ibn Umar رضی الله عنه has that just as a person who is restless because of hunger is allowed to eat carrion so, too, in early Islam, those who were uneasy because of being deprived of sexual satisfaction, were allowed to observe mut'ah. Later (when it was forbidden for ever) the sahabah (Prophet's Companions) رضی الله عنهم decided that every marriage of mut'ah was void.

Since then it is a unanimous judgement that mut'ah is forbidden. The sahabah (Prophet's Companions) رضی الله عنهم, the tabi'un رحمه الله the jurists, the scholars of hadith - all of them have ruled unanimously that it is forbidden. Only Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضی الله عنه initially disagreed and said that it was allowed during times when a man could not carry in without a married life, but when Sayyiduna Ali رضی الله عنه warned him seriously and made him realize that mut'ah was forbidden absolutely, did he relent and revoke his previous rulings. The books of figh mention the revoking of his ruling as also the ahadith do.

However, of these books the Hidayah is one of the best books of fiqh (Islamic jurisprudence) and highly reliable. Its compiler is of the topmost caliber among the group of jurists because of his deed, excellences and juristic insight, but, it is a fact that he has committed a gigantic academic lapse by attributing to Imam Maalik the lawfulness of mut'ah. We cannot say how he did it because Imam Maalik رحمه الله used to assert that mut'ah is forbidden, in the same way as all followers of Islam say.

Accordingly, not only ibn Hammam رحمه الله has pointed out this mistake calling it wrong to attribute to Imam Maalik رحمه الله the lawfulness of mut'ah but also nearly all the great books of fiqh (Islamic jurisprudence) compiled after Hidayah have found it necessary to disclose this error.

THE CONTENTION OF THE SHI'AH ABOUT MUT'AH

Having discussed the unlawfulness of mut'ah to temporary marriage, what remains to say is that the Shiah still continue to contend that mut'ah is lawful. We cannot understand the reason for their insistence. Whet is most astonishing is that their books transmit their sahih ahadith about mut'ah being forbidden but their practice is at variance. Not only do they insist that mut'ah is lawful but they also mention its virtues. Moreover, they allege that Sayyiduna Umar رضی اللہ عنہ had forbidden mut'ah initially, but, this absolutely wrong, for, Umar رضی اللہ عنہ had no authority to forbid it. All he did was to propagate the command as he propagated other commands of Islam with great emphasis. His final command was that if he found anyone practicing mut'ah, he would award him the punishment of adultery. As a result, those who had not known about mut'ah being forbidden became aware of its unlawfulness. So, he only published the prophet's command so, we can only say that the Shi'ah level a false allegation against Umar رضی اللہ عنہ.

[1] Bukhari # 515, Muslim # 29, 30-1460, 1407, Tirmidhi # 1124, Nasai'i # 2262, 3366, Ibn Majah # 1961, Muwatta Darimi.

(٣١٤٨) وَعَنْ سَلَمَةَ بْنِ الْأَكْوَعِ قَالَ رَخَّصَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ عَامَ أَوْطَاسٍ فِي الْمُتْعَةِ ثَلَاثًا ثُمَّ نَهٰى عَنْهَا۔ (رواه مسلم)

3148. Sayyiduna salamah ibn Akwa رضی اللہ عنہ said during the year of Awtas Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم allowed mut'ah for three nights. Then he forbade it (for always).[1]

COMMENTARY: Awtas is a valley on the road to Ta'if from Makkah. The branch tribes of the Hawazin reside around it Another name for it is Wadi Hunayn. In 8 AH in Ramadan, Makkah was conquered and Islam caused all the false ideologies in Arabia to how down before it. This caused the tribes of Hawazin and Thaqif great consternation and they combined their tremendous forces to put down the Islamic domination once and for all.
Hence in Shawwal 8 AH, the Battle of Hunayn was fought against them by the Muslims under the leadership of the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم. This battle is also called Battle of Awtas and the Battle of Hawazin.
Allah enabled the Islamic forces to emerge victorious causing truth to triumph. The Muslims got a tremendous booty. There were twenty four thousand camels, forty thousand goats and silver worth about rupees forty thousand. The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم distributed all that booty among the Muslims at that very place, Awtas.
Returning to the main subject, the second time that mut'ah was allowed and prohibited was in this battle of Awtas. Since this battle followed close on heels, the conquest of Makkah, the permission and prohibition of mut'ah is remembered with the conquest of Makkah. Thus the words in the commentary of the proceeding hadith, 'the day of the conquest of Makkah' mean 'the year of the conquest of Makkah.
Hence, the complete history is that mut'ah was forbidden and allowed the second time in the year of the conquest of Makkah in 8 AH at the Battle of Awtas.

SECTION II — اَلْفَصْلُ الثَّانِيْ

THE SERMON OF NIKAH (WEDLOCK)

(٣١٤٩) عَنْ عَبْدِاللّٰهِ بْنِ مَسْعُوْدٍ قَالَ عَلَّمَنَا رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَلتَّشَهُّدَ فِي الصَّلَاةِ وَالتَّشَهُّدَ فِي الْحَاجَةِ قَالَ التَّشَهُّدَ فِي الصَّلٰوةِ اَلتَّحِيَّاتُ لِلّٰهِ وَالصَّلَوَاتُ وَالطَّيِّبَاتُ اَلسَّلَامُ عَلَيْكَ اَيُّهَا النَّبِيُّ وَرَحْمَةُ اللّٰهِ وَبَرَكَاتُهٗ اَلسَّلَامُ عَلَيْنَا وَعَلٰى عِبَادِ اللّٰهِ الصَّالِحِيْنَ اَشْهَدُ اَنْ لَّا اِلٰهَ اِلَّا اللّٰهُ وَاَشْهَدُ اَنَّ مُحَمَّدًا عَبْدُهٗ وَرَسُوْلُهٗ وَالتَّشَهُّدُ فِي الْحَاجَةِ اَنِ الْحَمْدُ لِلّٰهِ نَسْتَعِيْنُهٗ وَنَسْتَغْفِرُهٗ وَنَعُوْذُ بِاللّٰهِ مِنْ شُرُوْرِ اَنْفُسِنَا مَنْ يَّهْدِهِ اللّٰهُ فَلَا

[1] Muslim # 180-1405, Musnad Ahmad 4-55.

مُضِلَّ لَهٗ وَمَنْ يُّضْلِلْهُ فَلَا هَادِيَ لَهٗ وَاَشْهَدُ اَنْ لَّا اِلٰهَ اِلَّا اللّٰهُ وَاَشْهَدُ اَنَّ مُحَمَّدًا عَبْدُهٗ وَرَسُوْلُهٗ وَيَقْرَأُ

ثَلَاثَ اٰيَاتٍ يَا اَيُّهَا الَّذِيْنَ اٰمَنُوا اتَّقُو اللّٰهَ حَقَّ تُقَاتِهٖ وَلَا تَمُوْتُنَّ اِلَّا وَاَنْتُمْ مُّسْلِمُوْنَ يَآ اَيُّهَا الَّذِيْنَ اٰمَنُوا

اتَّقُوا اللّٰهَ الَّذِيْ تَسَاءَلُوْنَ بِهٖ وَالْاَرْحَامَ اِنَّ اللّٰهَ كَانَ عَلَيْكُمْ رَقِيْبًا يَااَيُّهَا الَّذِيْنَ اٰمَنُوا اتَّقُوا اللّٰهَ

وَقُوْلُوْا قَوْلًا سَدِيْدًا يُّصْلِحْ لَكُمْ اَعْمَالَكُمْ وَيَغْفِرْ لَكُمْ ذُنُوْبَكُمْ وَمَنْ يُّطِعِ اللّٰهَ وَرَسُوْلَهٗ فَقَدْ فَازَ فَوْزًا

عَظِيْمًا رَوَاهُ اَحْمَدُ وَالتِّرْمِذِيُّ وَاَبُوْدَاوٗدَ وَالنَّسَائِيُّ وَابْنُ مَاجَةَ وَالدَّارِمِيُّ وَفِيْ جَامِعِ التِّرْمِذِيِّ فَسَّرَ الْاٰيَاتِ

الثَّلَاثَ سُفْيَانُ الثَّوْرِيُّ وَزَادَ ابْنُ مَاجَةَ بَعْدَ قَوْلِهٖ اَنِ الْحَمْدُ لِلّٰهِ نَحْمَدُهٗ وَبَعْدَ قَوْلِهٖ مِنْ شُرُوْرِ اَنْفُسِنَا

وَمِنْ سَيِّئَاتِ اَعْمَالِنَا وَالدَّارِمِيُّ بَعْدَ قَوْلِهٖ عَظِيْمًا ثُمَّ يَتَكَلَّمُ بِحَاجَتِهٖ وَرَوٰى فِيْ شَرْحِ السُّنَّةِ عَنِ ابْنِ مَسْعُوْدٍ فِيْ

خُطْبَةِ الْحَاجَةِ مِنَ النِّكَاحِ وَغَيْرِهٖ۔

3149. Sayyiduna Abdullah ibn Mas'ud رضی اللہ عنہ narrated: Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم taught us the tashahhud for the salah (prayer) and the tashahhud for some need. The tashahhud recited in salah (prayer) is:

اَلتَّحِيَّاتُ لِلّٰهِ وَالصَّلَوَاتُ وَالطَّيِّبَاتُ اَلسَّلَامُ عَلَيْكَ اَيُّهَا النَّبِيُّ وَرَحْمَةُ اللّٰهِ وَبَرَكَاتُهٗ اَلسَّلَامُ عَلَيْنَا وَعَلٰى عِبَادِ

اللّٰهِ الصَّالِحِيْنَ اَشْهَدُ اَنْ لَّا اِلٰهَ اِلَّا اللّٰهُ وَاَشْهَدُ اَنَّ مُحَمَّدًا عَبْدُهٗ وَرَسُوْلُهٗ۔

(All adorations of the tongue are for Allah, as also those of the body and wealth or good things. Peace be on you, O Prophet, and Allah's mercy and His blessings. Peace on us and on all righteous slaves of Allah. I bear witness that there is no God but Allah and I bear witness that Muhammad is His servant and His Messenger.)
And the tashahud for a need is:

اِنِ الْحَمْدُ لِلّٰهِ نَسْتَعِيْنُهٗ وَنَسْتَغْفِرُهٗ وَنَعُوْذُ بِاللّٰهِ مِنْ شُرُوْرِ اَنْفُسِنَا مَنْ يَّهْدِهِ اللّٰهُ فَلَا مُضِلَّ لَهٗ وَمَنْ يُّضْلِلْهُ فَلَا

هَادِيَ لَهٗ وَاَشْهَدُ اَنْ لَّا اِلٰهَ اِلَّا اللّٰهُ وَاَشْهَدُ اَنَّ مُحَمَّدًا عَبْدُهٗ وَرَسُوْلُهٗ۔

(All praise belongs to Allah. We ask Him for help and seek His forgiveness. And we seek refuge in Allah from the evils of our own selves. He whom Allah guides, none can send astray, and he whom he leaves to stray, there is no guide for him. I testify that there is no God but Allah and I testify the Muhammad is His servant and His Messengr,)
And, one should recite three verses (of the Quran):

يَآ اَيُّهَا الَّذِيْنَ اٰمَنُوا اتَّقُو اللّٰهَ حَقَّ تُقَاتِهٖ وَلَا تَمُوْتُنَّ اِلَّا وَاَنْتُمْ مُّسْلِمُوْنَ۔

{O you who believe, fear Allah as He should be feared and die not save you be Muslim.}

يَآ اَيُّهَا الَّذِيْنَ اٰمَنُوا اتَّقُوا اللّٰهَ الَّذِيْ تَسَاءَلُوْنَ بِهٖ وَالْاَرْحَامَ اِنَّ اللّٰهَ كَانَ عَلَيْكُمْ رَقِيْبًا۔

{(O you who believe!) ...fear Allah by whom you demand (your rights) of each other and fear (breaking) kinship of wombs. Surely Allah is ever watchful over you.} (4: 1)

يَآ اَيُّهَا الَّذِيْنَ اٰمَنُوا اتَّقُوا اللّٰهَ وَقُوْلُوْا قَوْلًا سَدِيْدًا يُّصْلِحْ لَكُمْ اَعْمَالَكُمْ وَيَغْفِرْ لَكُمْ ذُنُوْبَكُمْ وَمَنْ يُّطِعِ

اللّٰهَ وَرَسُوْلَهٗ فَقَدْ فَازَ فَوْزًا عَظِيْمًا۔

{O you who believe, fear Allah and speak words straight to the point. He will set right your deeds for you and will forgive your sins, and whosoever obey Allah and His Messenger, he indeed has gained a mighty triumph} (33: 70-71)

In the Jam'e of Tirmidhi, Sufyan Thawri رحمه الله gave a commentary on the three verses.

And, Ibn Majah added after 'All praise belongs to Allah's 'we praise Allah' (نحمده) and after 'from the evils of our own salves: (ومن سيئات اعمالنا) 'from our evil deed's.

And, Darimi added after 'mighty triumph (ثم يتكلم بحاجته) (then one must mention his needs).Sharh us sunnah (Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم practice) also mentions the words for a need the marriage or something else.[1]

COMMENTARY: Tashahhud is to declare testimony of faith. Zayn ul Arab has said that here tashahud means that in which is Allah's praise and both expressions for testimony.

The need is marriage or such other thing. The tashahud recited at that time is the khutbah which is recited at a marriage, etc. We have stated earlier that Imam Sahfi'I رحمه الله said that the Khutbah is recited not only at marriages but it is masnun at the times of all agreements and contracts.

The second verse in the hadith (4: 1) begins in all the scripts of Mishkat with

يٰٓاَيُّهَا الَّذِيْنَ اٰمَنُوْا

{O you who believe....}

but this verse is not in this way in the Quran. It is the first verse of surah an-Nisa and these words are part of it commencing with (واتقوا الله) upto (رقيبا). Hence, perhaps the script of the Quran with Sayyiduna Ibn Mas'ud رضى الله عنه had it in this way.

It can be understood from of al Hisn al Hasin that the Khutbah in Abu Da'wud has after (ورسوله) (and His Messenger) the words:

اَرْسَلَهٗ بِالْحَقِّ بَشِيْرًا وَّنَذِيْرًا بَيْنَ يَدَيِ السَّاعَةِ مَنْ يُّطِعِ اللّٰهَ وَرَسُوْلَهٗ فَقَدْ رَشَدَ وَمَنْ يَّعْصِهِمَا فَلَا يَضُرُّ اِلَّا نَفْسَهٗ وَلَا يَضُرُّ اللّٰهَ شَيْئًا۔

(Whom you sent with truth as a bearer of glad tidings and as a warner before the coming of the Hour. He who obeys Allah and His Messenger is indeed guided but he who disobeys them does not harm (anybody) but himself, and he does not hurt Allah in the least.)[2]

"And we beg of Allah to cause us to be among those who obey Him and obey His Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم and follow what pleases Him and refrain from disobedience to Him for indeed we exist because of Him."

(Abu Dawud) as cited in AlHisn al-Haseem p 234 (Darul Isha'at Karachi)

(Hisn Haseen p 234)

Anyone who conducts the (marriage) contract must first recite this Khutbah. Then he must

---

[1] Tirmidhi # 1107, Abu Dawud # 2118, Nasai'i # 3277, Ibn Majah # 1892, Darimi # 2202, Musnad Ahmad 1-392.

[2] After this, there is a prayer in al-Hisn al-Haseen (P 234, Darul Ish'at Karachi) obtain 'the proposal and consent' in which he must be mindful of those things that are necessary and which are mentioned in the beginning of the Book of Nikah (wedlock) (Marriage).

MARRIAGE WITHOUT KHUTBAH LACKS BLESSING

(٣١٥٠) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ كُلُّ خُطْبَةٍ لَيْسَ فِيْهَا تَشَهُّدٌ فَهِيَ كَالْيَدِ الْجَذْمَاءِ۔ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَقَالَ هٰذَا حَدِيْثٌ حَسَنٌ غَرِيْبٌ۔

3150. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم said, "Every Khutbah (sermon) that lacks the tashahhud (praise of Allah) is like the hand of a lepor (or a and or fingers cut off)."[1]

COMMENTARY: Just as a hand that is cut off is of no use. So too a marriage without a sermon is lacking is blessing so of no use.

Mulla Ali Qari has written the word as Khitbah and given its meaning as marriage. But, Shah Ishaq Dhalawi رحمه الله, "We learnt it from our teachers as Khutbah." The same thing is said by Shaykh Abdul Haq Dhalawi. رحمه الله

(٣١٥١) وَعَنْهُ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ كُلُّ اَمْرٍ ذِيْ بَالٍ لَا يُبْدَأُ فِيْهِ بِالْحَمْدِ لِلّٰهِ فَهُوَ اَقْطَعُ۔

(رواه ابن ماجة)

3151. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم said, "Every affair of importance that is not begun with praise of Allah lack blessing."[2]

MUSTAHAB (DESIRABLE) TO MAKE MARRIAGE KNOWN

(٣١٥٢) وَعَنْ عَائِشَةَ قَالَتْ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَعْلِنُوْا هٰذَا النِّكَاحَ وَاجْعَلُوْهُ فِي الْمَسَاجِدِ وَ اضْرِبُوْا عَلَيْهِ بِالدُّفُوْفِ۔ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَقَالَ هٰذَا حَدِيْثٌ غَرِيْبٌ۔

3152. Sayyidah Ayshah رضی الله عنها narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم said, "Publicise these marriages. Conduct them in mosques and beat the duff (tambourines) to announce them."[3]

COMMENTARY: If this means to have the witnesses over the marriage then this publicizing will be of the kind wajib (obligatory). It is means to make an announcement then it will be mustahab (desirable) act to make the marriage known.

It is mustahab (desirable) to arrange the marriage in the mosque It is also mustahab (desirable) to have it done on Friday.

Much blessing is derived by observing the nikah (wedlock) in a mosque the nikah (wedlock) in a mosque and on Friday.

(٣١٥٣) وَعَنْ مُحَمَّدِ بْنِ حَاطِبٍ الْجُمَحِيِّ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ فَصْلُ مَابَيْنَ الْحَلَالِ وَالْحَرَامِ الصَّوْتُ وَالدُّفُّ فِي النِّكَاحِ۔ (رواه احمد والترمذی و النسائی وابن ماجة)

---

[1] Tirmidhi # 1108, Abu Dawud # 4841, Musnad Ahmad 2-343.

[2] Abu Dawud # 4840, Ibn Majah # 1894, Musnad Ahmad 2-359.

[3] Tirmidhi # 1091, Ibn Majah # 1895.

3153. Sayyiduna Muhammad ibn Hajib Jumahi رحمه الله narrated that the prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "The difference between the lawful and the unlawful lies in the voice and the duff (tambourine)."[1]

COMMENTARY: Voice means song or mentioning the marriage to people and making it known. The hadith does not mean to say that marriage is not valid without voice and duff because it is valid even before two witnesses. Rather, this hadith urges the people to perform the marriage among people and proclaim it. The limit of this proclamation is the neighbourhood. This may be accomplished by beating the duff or by voice (like reciting poetry or song). It does not mean at all that proclamation made all over the city or beyond that or to beat drums and play musical instruments.

PERMISSION TO SING SONGS

(٣١٥٤) وَعَنْ عَآئِشَةَ قَالَتْ كَانَتْ عِنْدِیْ جَارِيَةٌ مِنَ الْاَنْصَارِ زَوَّجْتُهَا فَقَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ

يَا عَائِشَةُ اَلَا تُغَنِّيْنَ فَإِنَّ هٰذَا الْحَيَّ مِنَ الْاَنْصَارِ يُحِبُّوْنَ الْغِنَاءَ رَوَاهُ ابْنُ حِبَّانَ فِیْ صَحِيْحِهٖ۔

3154. Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها narrated that she had an Ansar girl whom she gave away in marriage (to someone). Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم asked (her) , "O Ayshah, will you not have someone sing? Because this clan of the Ansars like to sing (at weddings)?"[2]

COMMENTARY: Another hadith (to follow # 3155) discloses that this girl belonged to a relative, or she may have been an orphan whom she had adopted. The original copy of Mishkat does not have the name of the transmitter. Later on some scholar wrote down in the margin "Ibn Hibban"

(٣١٥٥) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ قَالَ اَنْكَحَتْ عَائِشَةُ ذَاتَ قَرَابَةٍ لَهَا مِنَ الْاَنْصَارِ فَجَاءَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ

فَقَالَ اَهْدَيْتُمُ الْفَتَاةَ قَالُوْا نَعَمْ قَالَ اَرْسَلْتُمْ مَعَهَا مَنْ تُغَنِّیْ قَالَتْ لَا فَقَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ

اِنَّ الْاَنْصَارَ قَوْمٌ فِيْهِمْ غَزَلٌ فَلَوْ بَعَثْتُمْ مَعَهَا مَنْ يَقُوْلُ اَتَيْنَاكُمْ اَتَيْنَاكُمْ فَحَيَّانَا وَحَيَّاكُمْ۔ (رواه ابن ماجة)

3155. Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضى الله عنه narrated that (the Mother of the believers) Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها gave away in marriage an Ansar girl (to someone). She was a relative of hers. When Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم came (after the marriage) , he asked, 'have you sent the girl to her husband's house?" They said, Yes," He asked "Did you sent along with her someone who might sing?" She said, "No!" Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Surely, the Ansar are people given to songs. Had you sent with her who would have said:

اَتَيْنَاكُمْ اَتَيْنَاكُمْ فَحَيَّانَا وَحَيَّاكُمْ

(We have come to you, we have come to you!
May Allah preserve us and may He preserve you!) "[3]

COMMENTARY: Reciting poetical verses of joy in marriages is an ancient tradition. The

---

[1] Tirmidhi # 1090, Nasai'i # 3366, Ibn Majah # 1896, Musnad Ahmad 4. 259.

[2] Ibn Hibban in his sahih.

[3] Ibn Majah # 1900, Musnad Ahmad 4-259.

Ansar were no exception. This is why the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said that if a singer was sent with the bride that would have delighted her inlaws. The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم recited only a line of the following verse:

أَتَيْنَاكُمْ أَتَيْنَاكُمْ فَحَيَّانَا وَحَيَّاكُمْ

وَلَوْلَا الْحِنْطَةُ السَّمْرَاءُ لَمْ تَسْمُنْ عَذَارَاكُمْ

(We have come to you, we have come to you!
May Allah preserve us and may
He preserve you!
Were there no red wheat,
Your virgins would not have been Soft bodies).

Some verses have the second line thus:

وَلَوْلَا الْعَجْوَةُ السَّوْدَاءُ مَا كُنَّا بِوَادِيكُمْ

(Had there been no black dates
We had not resided in Your homes).

FIRST OF TWO MARRIAGES IS CORRECT

(٣١٥٦) وَعَنْ سَمُرَةَ أَنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ أَيُّمَا امْرَأَةٍ زَوَّجَهَا وَلِيَّانِ فَهِيَ لِلْأَوَّلِ مِنْهُمَا وَمَنْ بَاعَ بَيْعًا مِنْ رَجُلَيْنِ فَهُوَ لِلْأَوَّلِ مِنْهُمَا۔ (رواه الترمذی وابوداؤد والنسائی والدارمی)

3156. Sayyiduna Samurah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "If two guardians have given away a woman in marriage, then she belongs to the first of the two. And, if anyone sells something to two men, then it goes to the first of them."[1]

COMMENTARY: If a woman has two guardians and both of them marry her to two different men one after the other, then the second guardian's giving her away in marriage will be invalid and she will be the wife of the man whom she had been married first However, this command is applicable when both guardians are of the same rank, meaning both are equally near in relation. If they are not of the same degree then the one who is nearer than the other in relation will be preferred and the woman will be the wife of the man he has chosen as her husband even if the other guardian and married her before this guardian to the man of his choice.

If both guardians of the woman, equal in rank in relation, marry her to two different men at the same time then it is the unanimous decision of the ulama (Scholars) that both marriages will be void.

SECTION III — اَلْفَصْلُ الثَّالِثُ

MU'TAH WAS PERMITTED INITIALLY

(٣١٥٧) عَنِ ابْنِ مَسْعُوْدٍ قَالَ كُنَّا نَغْزُو مَعَ رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَيْسَ مَعَنَا نِسَاءٌ فَقُلْنَا أَلَا نَخْتَصِي

---

[1] Tirmidhi # 1112, Abu Dawud # 2089, Nasa'i # 4696, Ibn Majah # 2344, Musnad Ahmad 5-8.

فَنَهَانَا عَنْ ذٰلِكَ ثُمَّ رَخَّصَ لَنَا اَنْ نَسْتَمْتِعَ فَكَانَ اَحَدُنَا يَنْكِحُ الْمَرْاَةَ بِالثَّوْبِ اِلٰى اَجَلٍ ثُمَّ قَرَاَ عَبْدُاللّٰهِ

يَآاَيُّهَا الَّذِيْنَ اٰمَنُوْا لَا تُحَرِّمُوْا طَيِّبَاتِ مَا اَحَلَّ اللّٰهُ لَكُمْ۔

3157. Sayyiduna Ibn Mas'ud رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that they were on an expedition along with Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم. They had no woman with them (neither their wives nor their female saves. This caused them to be desperate.) So they asked. "Shall we not have ourselves castrated?" But, he forbade them to do that. Then, he permitted them to observe mut'ah. So, some of them (contracted mut'ah and) every man married a woman against a garment for a specified period of time.

Then, Abdullah recited the verses:

يَا اَيُّهَا الَّذِيْنَ اٰمَنُوْا لَا تُحَرِّمُوْا طَيِّبَاتِ مَا اَحَلَّ اللّٰهُ لَكُمْ

{O you who believe, forbid not the wholesome things that Allah has made lawful for you}[1] (5: 87)

COMMENTARY: This hadith says that Muta'h allowed. This was so in early Islam but later it was prohibited as the next hadith shows, and traditions said earlier (# 3146, 3147, 3148).

Ibn Mas'ud رضی اللہ عنہ was, like Ibn Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ of the opinion that Muta was allowed. As for Ibn Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ he revoked his opinion and agreed that mutah is forbidden, but Ibn Mas'ud may or may not have revised his opinion.

(۳۱۵۸) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ قَالَ اِنَّمَا كَانَتِ الْمُتْعَةُ فِيْ اَوَّلِ الْاِسْلَامِ كَانَ الرَّجُلُ يَقْدَمُ الْبَلْدَةَ لَيْسَ لَهُ بِهَا مَعْرِفَةٌ فَيَتَزَوَّجُ الْمَرْاَةَ بِقَدْرِ مَا يُرٰى اَنَّهُ يُقِيْمُ فَتَحْفَظُ لَهُ مَتَاعَهُ وَتُصْلِحُ لَهُ شَيْئَهُ حَتّٰى اِذَا نَزَلَتِ الْاٰيَةُ اِلَّا عَلٰى اَزْوَاجِهِمْ اَوْ مَا مَلَكَتْ اَيْمَانُهُمْ قَالَ ابْنُ عَبَّاسٍ فَكُلُّ فَرْجٍ سِوَاهُمَا فَهُوَ حَرَامٌ۔ (رواه الترمذی)

3158. Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that mut'ah was practiced only in early Islam. A man would come to a habitation where he had no one known to him. So, he would marry a woman for the period of his estimated stay there. She would care for his possessions and prepare his meals for him. Finally, when the verse was revealed:

اِلَّا عَلٰى اَزْوَاجِهِمْ اَوْ مَا مَلَكَتْ اَيْمَانُهُمْ

{except in regard to their spouses or those whom their hands possess} (23: 6)

Ibn Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ said, "Sexual intercourse with everyone, except them both, became unlawful."[2]

COMMENTARY: The verse says that there is no blame on these people who do not have sexual intercourse with women other than their wives and whom their right hands possess. Ibn Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ showed by this verse that the woman with whom mut'ah is done is not one of these two.

Teebi رحمہ اللہ and Fakhruddin Qazi رحمہ اللہ also said something like this.

The opinion of the Shi'ah has been mentioned previously. It is contrary to the hadith of Sayyiduna Ali رضی اللہ عنہ (# 3143) and to that of Sayyiduna ibn Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ as in this hadith.

---

[1] Bukhari # 5075, Muslim # 11-1404, Musnad Ahmad 1-432.

[2] Tirmidhi # 112.

SONGS PERMITTED DURING MARRIAGE

(٣١٥٩) وَعَنْ عَامِرِ بْنِ سَعْدٍ قَالَ دَخَلْتُ عَلَى قَرَظَةَ بْنِ كَعْبٍ وَأَبِي مَسْعُوْدٍ الْأَنْصَارِيِّ فِي عُرْسٍ وَإِذَا جَوَارٍ يُغَنِّيْنَ فَقُلْتُ أَيْ صَاحِبَيْ رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَأَهْلَ بَدْرٍ يُفْعَلُ هٰذَا عِنْدَكُمْ فَقَالَا اِجْلِسْ إِنْ شِئْتَ فَاسْمَعْ مَعَنَا وَإِنْ شِئْتَ فَاذْهَبْ فَإِنَّهُ قَدْ رُخِّصَ لَنَا فِي اللَّهْوِ عِنْدَ الْعُرْسِ۔ (رواه النسائی)

3159. Sayyiduna Aamir ibn Sa'd رحمه الله said that he went to a wedding where he found Sayyiduna Qarazah ib Ka'b رضی الله عنه and Abu Mas'ud Ansar رضی الله عنه. There girls were singing, so he asked them, "Is this done while both of you are here companions of Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم and participants of Badr?" They said, "Sit down if you like to listen and join us. Or depart if you like. Indeed, we are permitted (to listen to) songs at a wedding."[1]

COMMENTARY: This sows that even in those days prohibition of songs was known. Some people were aware of the exception of days of festivity but some did nót know. Aamir ibn Sa'd رحمه الله was one of those who did not know that songs were allowed at weddings.

CHAPTER - V

THE FORBIDDEN WOMAN[2] بَابُ الْمُحَرَّمَاتِ

WOMAN WHO ARE FORBIDDEN TO MEN

`One of the conditions of marriage to be correct is that the woman should not be one of the mahram (forbidden women). This chapter is about women who are the mahram or those whom a man may never marry. Details about it may be seen in the books of fiqh (Islamic jurisprudence) of the Hanafis, the famous and reliable fatawa Alamgiri, for instance. It covers the subject very well and we shall reproduce from it here. (first of all).

ABOUT THE MAHRAMAT[3]

The woman who are among the mahram are of nine kinds. Or, we may say that a marriage may be forbidden for nine reasons. They are outlines here.

1. Relatives by lineage. They are: mother, daughter, sister, father's sister, mother's sister, nieces (brother's and sister's daughters). It is forbidden for ever to marry any of them, have sexual intercourse or do anything that leads to it or is connected with it.

Mother includes besides one's own mother, one's grandmother and so on up the tree.

Daughter includes one's own real daughters, grand daughters (from son as well as from daughter) so on down the pedigree line.

Sister includes real and step-sister both from father's side and from mother's side.

Nieces also embrace the three kinds, meaning children of real brothers and sisters, children of step brothers and sisters and children of half brothers and half sisters from mother's side even lower down in descent. All of them are muhramat (forbidden)

The paternal aunts are also of three kinds, meaning real paternal aunt, step aunt from father's father's side and Akhyafi (only from father's mother's side). So also paternal aunts,

---

[1] Nasai'i # 3383.

[2] or mahram, for bidden to marry. The word prohibition is used to mean this too.

[3] plural of mahram.

of father, of grandfather and of grandmother fall in the same category as one's own. They are all mahram. However, the issue of paternal aunt of one's own paternal aunt is complex. If a man's paternal aunt is the real sister of his father or step sister (from father's side) then her paternal aunt is forbidden to this man. But if his paternal aunt is his father step sister only from mother's side then her paternal aunt will not be forbidden to him.
The same applies to maternal aunt. All kinds of maternal aunts are forbidden: real and step (from father's or mother's) side. Father's and mother's maternal aunts are forbidden. Again, the issue of maternal aunt of one's maternal aunt is complex. Now, if Zayd's maternal aunt is the real sister or sister only from her mother's side then her maternal aunt is forbidden to zayd. If Zayd's maternal aunt is his mother's sister only from her father's side then she is not forbidden to zayd and they can marry.
2. Relatives from in-laws. There are four kinds of women who are forbidden inmarriage because of relationship of the in-laws. They are: the mother-in-law (who is the mother of one's wife) , the paternal and maternal grandmothers of one's wife and so their mothers, meaning grandmothers of one's wife's parents, wife's daughter and her daughter and so down the line, like daughters of wife's granddaughter, and so on. They are all forbidden if the man has had sexual intercourse with his wife and whether that daughter of his wife is maintained by him or not.
The Hanafi scholars in respect of prohibition[1] of a man's wife's daughters (from her previous marriage) to him, do not regard his solitude with his wife at par with their sexual intercourse. Her daughters will be forbidden to her husband only if it is proved that he has had a sexual intercourse with her after their marriage. If they have been alone together (allowing them full opportunity to copulate) but did have sexual intercourse them her daughters from previous marriage are not forbidden to him.
Daughter-in-law (meaning son's wife) ,wives of grandsons (whether son's sons or daughter's son) and so on down the line (wives of great grandson, etc) are forbidden to a man irrespective of whether their husbands have had sexual intercourse with them or not.
The wife of an adopted son is not forbidden. If a man's adopted son dies or divorces his wife, then he may marry her.
A man's step-mother, his step grand-mothers (paternal or maternal) and so on up the line are forbidden to him for ever. Neither may he marry them nor have sexual intercourse with them.
The prohibition to marry any of the in laws is established only when marriage with the concerned is confirmed. The prohibition is not established if the marriage is invalid. If a man commits adultery with a woman then her mother, her grandmothers (maternal and paternal) , her daughter and her grandmothers will all be forbidden to him. In the same way, his father, grandfather (both paternal and maternal), sons, grandsons will all be forbidden to the woman with whom he committed adultery.
If a man commits adultery with a woman as a result of which the wall between her vagina and rectum gives way causing them to come together, then her mother will not be forbidden to this man because he may not have penetrated her vagina (but her rectum). However, if she conceives a child and it is confirmed that this man is responsible for it, then her mother will be forbidden to him.
Just as the prohibition results from sexual intercourse so too it results from touching the woman (with desire), kissing her, looking at her private parts with lustful desires.

[1] In the sense forbidden to marry – mahram.

According to the Hanafis, these things are alike when they are observed through marriage, ownership (meaning slave master relationship) or indecency (meaning adultery). Moreover, the Hanafi scholars say that in this case doubt or certainty are alike. And, man and woman embracing one another with lust is like kissing as for as the ruling is concerned. It is the same of the lock themselves together, body with body. Again, if they bite one another with teeth in a lustful impulse, the same ruling applies. In all these cases, prohibition is confirmed.

If any one looks at a man's sexual organ, or kisses it then the same prohibitions will apply to him as for sexual intercourse, but not on looking at any of the other of his organs, or touching them, unless the looking or touching is with a lustful desire in which case same prohibitions will be effective.

As for as a woman's vagina in concerned looking at its outward position does not attract the same rulings, but looking at its inside brings down the punishment of prohibitions. The ulama (Scholars) write that if a man looks at the vagina of a woman who is standing then the prohibitions of sexual intercourse do not apply to him because in that position the inside of the woman's vagina is not seen. That is only seen when she is reclining on her back. The prohibitions also apply when there is a fine clothing or any transparent thing covering it, and, it spite of that, the inside is visible to the man.

If a man who looking in a mirror and he saw reflected therein a woman's vagina and became excited and looks at it, then neither will the mother nor the daughter of this woman be forbidden to the woman because he has seen only a reflection and not the vagina a directly.

If a woman is sitting at the banks of a stream or river, or on a bridge and a man looks at her reflection in the water and then again looks at it in the water with a sensual desire and keeps looking at it, then too prohibitions will not apply. But, if she is in the water and he looks at her vagina accidentally and then looks at it with a sensual desire then the prohibition will apply (because this is direct looking).

- If anyone touches a woman with sensual desires, the prohibitions apply and it does not matter if he touches her deliberately or forgetfully or under compulsion (or own mistake) or in sleep.
- If a man intended to awake his wife to have sexual intercourse with her but by mistake he touched his daughter and on the assumption that she was his wife, he pinched her with a sensual desire. And she, too, being young was ripe for sexual desire, so the girl's mother, meaning his own wife, will become forbidden to him.
- If a man touches with lust a woman's hair on her head then prohibition applies to him. If he touches her hair that are hanging then nothing is forbidden to him. However, Natfa رحمه الله has declared a general prohibition for touching a woman's hair without going into the details (of where the heir lie).
- The same prohibition applies if a man touches a woman's nails with a sexual desire.

In this connexion, it must be understood that the prohibition on touching a woman with sensual desire becomes effective it there is no clothing between them. If the clothing is such that the man touching her does not feel the heat of her body then no prohibition applies even if the penis becomes erect. If a man touches a woman's seeks at her soles (underside), then prohibition becomes effective, But, if a leather covering over the socks prevents any kind of sensation then no prohibition applies.

- If a man kisses a woman while there is clothing between them, prohibition will become effective provided the man senses the coolness of the woman's teeth or lips.

Prohibition becomes effective on touching. It is not necessary that the man should continue to touch for long. The ulama (Scholars) say that if a man driven by lust stretches his hand towards his wife but instead of his wife, his hand touches the nose of his daughter and with it his excitement multiplies, the girl's mother, meaning his own wife, will become forbidden for the man even if he had removed his hand instantly.

For a prohibition to be effective, the woman who is touched or kissed must be such for whom one may have a lustful desire. The jurists rule that the minimum age for whom a man can have a sexual urge is nine years. He does not feel sexual excitement for a younger girl. If a man has sexual intercourse with a minor girl who is not likely to cause sexual excitement in a man then prohibition will not arise. On the other hand, if a woman is so very old that she is beyond exciting a man, then too she becomes the means to prohibition because she had fallen under the purview of the ruling. She cannot come out of it because of old age. As for the minor, she had never attracted the prohibition.

Just as prohibition (or forbidden degrees) can take effect only if a woman is such that a man may have a sensual desire for her, so too for prohibition to be effective, man must be capable of attracting a sensual desire from a woman. Hence, if a four year old boy had sexual intercourse with his father's wife (his step mother), then prohibition will not be effective.

However, if the boy is one whose equals in age can have sexual intercourse then the same ruling will apply for him as applies to adults. The scholars describe this kind as one who is capable of having sexual intercourse, whose inclination to woman is apparent, and woman feel shy before him.

In the foregoing things about touching and looking, it is presupposed that the sexual urge (or the excitement) is there. A man will be subject to the forbidden degrees (of marriage, the topic of this subject) if he touches a woman, kisses her or looks at the inside of her vagina with a sensual desire. If when he does these things (touching and looking), he has no lustful inclination but it develops afterwards, then the forbidden degree do not apply to him. The sign of a lustful inclination in man is the erection of his penis, or, if it already was erect, increase in its rise and thickness. This ruling is observed by jurists. Hence, if a man goes to his daughter by mistake instead of going to his wife and his penis was already erect (before he goes to her) and the erection did not increase, then the girl's mother, meaning his own wife, will not be forbidden to him. This is the sign of a lustful inclination for a man who is young and potent (and able to have sex). If he is old then the sign of sensual desire in him is an urge and excitement in his heart if there was no excitement -beforehand. If the excitement in his heart was there, then an increase in the excitement is the sign for him.

The sign of a lustful desire in woman and the man who is castrated is the growth of a desire in his heart and a sexual pleasure on touching. etc., if these things were not already found in them. If these things had been there beforehand, then an increase in them.

It must be remember that the forbidden degrees apply when even one of the two - man or woman - possesses the lustful desire.

The forbidden degrees on touching kissing, etc. apply necessarily when there is no ejaculation. This is a condition. If ejaculation takes place then the forbidden degrees do not apply, because it is clear when this happens that touching, etc. did not lead to intercourse.

- If a man sees a woman's behind or commits an unnatural act at her behind then the forbidden degrees do not apply.
- Similarly, if a man perpetrates the acts of intercourse with another man then the forbidden degrees do not apply.

• If a man confesses to his wife that they are forbidden to one another (because of an illicit act on his part) , then he is to be believed. The two will be separated.

• If a man refers to a wrong that he had committed before they had married, like confessing to his wife that he had committed adultery with her mother, then his word is deemed reliable and the two will no longer be husband and wife. However, it will be wajib (obligatory) to give to the woman the dower in full (as had been specified at the time of their marriage). The contract will not be wajib (obligatory). It is not necessary that the man repeat his confession. It is enough that he confesses just once. Hence, if he retracts from his confession and denies after the first confession, the judge will not regard their marriage as valid. Of course, if the man had truly made a false confession then the woman will remain his wife in Allah's sight though the judge will separate them.

• If a man says of a woman that she is his foster mother (meaning that he had suckled him) but later when he decides to marry her, he says, 'I had lied, She is not my foster mother," then in this case a lenient view is taken and it is allowed to him to marry that woman.

• If a man kisses a woman and says that he had not done it with a sensual desire, or he touches her or looks at her vagina and denies that he was driven by a sexual urge, then in the case of kissing, the forbidding degree will be applied to him till it is known for certain that he had not been prompted by a sensual derive. In the other two cases, the command forbidding him marriage will be applied only on finding out if he had done that because of a sensual urge.

The reason is that a kiss generally follows a sensual desire touching and looking do not necessarily ensue from a sensual desire. However, this is when the man had touched the woman at any part of her body other than her vagina. If he had touched her vagina and claims that he did not do it out of a sensual urge then he will not be believed. Also, when he touches her breast, he cannot say that he was not prompted by a sexual urge.

• Similarly, if he mounted a beast with her and claims that he did not mount because of a sexual urge then he would not be believed. But, if he climbed a woman's back to go over a river and says that he was not driven by a sexual urge then he would be believed.

• If a man boasts before people that he had touched a certain woman driven by sexual urge then the testimony of the people against him will be accepted and the forbidden degree will be applied to him.

• Similarly, if the witnesses say that certain man had touched a woman with carnal desire then their testimony will be accepted because this kind of an urge is easily detected. The same applies about any one testifying that the man had kissed a woman.

Qadi Ali Sa'di رحمه الله said that if an intoxicated man nabs his daughter, clings to her and kisses her, and decides to have sexual intercourse with her but she reminds him that she is his daughter so he lets her go, then too her mother (this man's wife) will be forbidden to him.

If a man is asked, "What did you to your mother-in-law?" and he says that he had a sexual intercourse with her then the prohibition of affinity will be effective on him. (It is hurmat masahirat or the forbidden degree) This, is spite of the fact that the person asking and this man were both jesting with one another. But, he will not be believed in law, that he was joking.

If a man says of his female slave that he has had a sexual intercourse with her then she is forbidden to his son. If the man says about someone else's female slave that he has had a sexual relationship with her then his son is allowed not to trust him and to buy the female slave and have sexual intercourse with her.

• If a son inherits a female slave from his father then he may have sexual intercourse with her unless he knows for certain that his father had copulated with her.

- A man married a woman on her assurance that she is a virgin. However, after marriage when he decide to have sexual intercourse with her, he learnt that she was not a virgin. On being asked, she named his father as the one who had committed adultery with her. Now, it is upto him to believe her in which case their marriage will be broken and she will have no right to the dower. But, if he decides not to believe her then their marriage will remain intact.
- If a woman alleges that her husband's son had touched her with evil design, so her marriage to her husband had ended, then she will not be believed but her husband's son's word will be trusted.
- A man kisses his father's wife with sensual desire forcefully or a father kisses his son's wife compulsorily with sensual desire but the husband asserts that no sensual desire was involved. So, the husband's word will prevail and she will remain her wife. But, supposing the husband agrees that sensual desire was the driving force then the couple will have to separate and it will be wajib (obligatory) on the husband to pay the dower. However, the husband will be in his rights to receive the amount from the man because of whom this situation arose, provided he had done this thing to create mischief. If he had no intention to create mischief then the husband had no right to receive anything at all.

Suppose that in the foregoing case, the father or the son had not kissed but copulated with the other's wife. In this case, the husband cannot claim from the culprit the amount of dower he paid to his wife. The reason is that the hadd or prescribed punishment is imposed on an adulterer in which case no pecuniary punishment may also be imposed.

A man marries another man's female slave. Before he can come to her, she kissed her husband's son in sexual excitement. So he made this known but her master denied it. In this case, the marriage breaks because the husband acknowledges her crime. He will have to pay her only half the dower payable to her because her master had believed him. The confession of the female slave will not be relied upon.

- If a woman quarrels (at home) and (in the heat) pulls the penis of her grandfather, and says that she did not do it in sexual excitement, then her word will be accepted.
- A marriage does not end completely because of prohibition of affinity or prohibition of fosterage. Rather it becomes corrupted. (As a result, it is forbidden to have sexual intercourse. So, the husband must divorce his wife. If he does not, then the judge must cause a separation). If the husband has sexual intercourse with his wife, the hadd or prescribed punishment will not be imposed, whether he did it in uncertainly or otherwise.
- If a man has illicit relationship with a woman or does any obnoxious deed that calls for prohibition of affinity and then makes a repentance, then he will remain the mahram of the woman's daughter because it is perpetually for bidden to him to marry the girl. This is evidence that prohibition is effective after adultery and from kissing, touching etc.
- If a man, Zayd, married a woman, Khalidah, and Zayd's son (but not Khalidah's) marries the daughter of Khalidah (from her previous marriage) or the mother of Khalidah, then there is nothing wrong in it.
- If a man has sexual intercourse with his wife (who was divorced by her first husband talaqah mughallazah) with a piece of cloth round his penis then it will depend on whether the cloth permits feeling of sensation. If so, the woman will become lawful for her first husband (to remarry). If heat did not pass through the piece of cloth then she will not be lawful for her first husband.

3. FOSTER RELATIONSHIP: Woman who are forbidden (in marriage) because of fosterage: the some relatives as are forbidden because of lineage and by marriage are also forbidden because of fosterage.

If a woman has suckled a child at its age of suckling then they are related as mother and child. Her husband is its foster father. Hence, all their relatives are forbidden to the child, the same as the forbidden to children of real parents.

The prohibition by reasons of fosterage occurs on simply suckling at the child's age of suckling whether it is little milk that is consumed or more. The simple fact of suckling and milk having been drunk into the belly and having reached there with certainty is ample evidence of fosterage.

The age of suckling is:

(i) According to Imam Abu Hanifah رحمه الله thirty month, and

(ii) According to his two disciples Imam Abu Yusuf رحمه الله and Imam Muhammad رحمه الله two years.

If a child first stops suckling during the age of suckling but suckles later within the age of suckling then this is counted as fosterage. But, suckling after the period of suckling is over does not occasion the (commands of) prohibition by suckling.

The ulama (Scholars) agree that the wages for suckling are valid for a period of two years. Thus if a man divorces his wife and she demands from him wages for more than two years for suckling his child t hen her demand will not be accepted. The child's father (her ex-husband) cannot be compelled to pay to his divorced wife wags for suckling his child beyond two years. But, she can demand and compel him to pay wages for suckling the child for two years.

Just as prohibition by fosterage applies to the relatives of the foster mother, so too it applies to the relatives of the foster father. A foster father is the husband of the foster mother. He is the one who enables her to suckle after she conceives his child.

Radi (رضيع) is the child suckled. He or she is forbidden to marry its foster parents, their predecessors (parents and so on up the line) and their progeny (children and so down the line) whether related or foster. The prohibition will extend to -

- Children of his[1] foster mother before she suckled him, and
- children born to her after she suckled him whether sired by his foster father or by any other man she marries after him,
- children she suckles apart from him belonging to other parents,
- children born to his foster father from another wife.

All of them will be his foster - sisters and brothers. Their children will be his nephews and nieces. The foster father's brother will be his paternal uncle and his sister his paternal aunt. The brother and sister of his foster mother will be his maternal uncle and maternal aunt.

The father and mother of his foster father will be his grandfather and grandmother respectively. And, the mother of his foster mother will his (maternal) grandmother.

There are prohibitions by reason of parents (or lineage) in fosterage. So too there are prohibitions by reason of marriage (among in laws) in fosterage. Accordingly.

- the wife of his foster father is forbidden to the radi' (or, the foster child who had been suckled),

[1] Throughout 'his or her' may be understood.

- the wife of the radi (meaning the foster child had been suckled) is forbidden to the foster father.
- Other relatives may be understood in the same manner, except two possibilities:

(i) In real relationship (by true parents) , marriage is forbidden with the sister of real son. But, in fosterage, marriage is permitted to the sister of the foster son.

WHY: The reason is that the sister of his real son will be his own daughter or his own step daughter. So the prohibition to marry her will be effective. However, both these things are not found in fosterage. So, the sister of a foster son is not forbidden. There fore, if any of these two things is not found in real or blood relationship too, then marriage will be proper (in that case too). For example, a female slave who belongs to two men gives birth to a child. Both of them claim parentage of the child till its parentage is ascribed to both man. Now, Each of them also has a daughter from their wives, so, it is allowed to either of them to marry the daughter of the other partner because neither of the new things is found here (she is neither his real daughter nor step daughter) , though whichever of the two marries the other's daughter is as though he marries the sister of his real son.

(ii) NO one is permitted to marry the mother of one's real brother, but it is allowed in fosterage.

WHY: In the case of blood relationship, they shall be either akhyafi brothers having a common mother or have a common father in which case the brother's mother will be his father's wife. In fosterage, however, this thing is missing, so it is allowed to marry the mother of the brother.

- The sister of one's foster brother is allowed to one in marriage. This is also permitted to blood relatives, for example:

Zayd has a step brother Bakr who has a akhyafi sister (meaning, they have a common mother but different fathers). It is allowed to zayd to marry his sister of Bakr who is Zayd's step brother.

- The mother of a foster brother is not among the forbidden degrees.
- The mothers of a foster paternal or maternal uncle, paternal or maternal aunt are also not among the forbidden women.
- It is allowed too to marry the mother of one's foster granddaughter (from son's side).
- It is allowed also to marry the paternal or maternal grandmother of one's foster son.
- Marriage is allowed too to the foster son's: paternal aunts, his sister's mother, his niece (brother daughter) , his paternal aunt's daughter.
- A woman is allowed to marry the father of her foster sister, the brother of her foster son the father of her foster grand son (from son's) and the grand father and maternal uncle of her foster son.

However, where blood relations are concerned, all of these relatives are among the forbidden degrees. It is not allowed to marry them.

- A man divorces his wife who has milk in her breasts. She marries another man after her period of waiting is over. He has sexual intercourse with her. The ulama (Scholars) say unanimously about it that when a child is born to her sired by t his second husband, the milk in her breasts will be attributed to him and it will have nothing to do with her first husband anymore. But, if she does not conceive a child from her second marriage then the milk in her breasts will be said to be there because of the sexual intercourse by her first husband, previously. In case she has conceived from the second husband, then, according to Imam Abu Hanifah رحمه الله, till the child of the second husband is born, the milk in her breasts will be said to be because of the first husband's sexual intercourse.

• A couple do not have any children. After some time (suddenly) the woman had milk in her breasts (without conceiving a child). She suckled a child of someone else. The milk belong to her. Her husband has noting to do with it. In this case, there will occur no prohibition by reason of suckling between the radi (the child who is suckled) and any children this man may have from his other wives.

• A man had illicit relationship with a woman because of which she bore a child. Then she suckled someone's daughter. As a result, this adulterer and his father, grandfather and so on and his sons are not allowed to marry the girl who was suckled by the adulterers. The paternal and maternal uncles of the adulterer may marry her just as they may marry the girl born to the adulteress.

• A man had sexual intercourse with a woman by mistake (falling in doubt). She conceived a child. Then, she suckled someone's child. So, this child will be a foster child of the man who had copulated with the woman.

When a child's parentage is attributed to the man who had the intercourse, it is also a relation of fosterage that is established between them. When the child's parentage is not established with this man, a relationship of fosterage is established only with the foster mother.

• A man marries a woman and they have a child. She suckled it for some time but the milk dried up in her breasts only to grow again. She suckled another child (that milk). It is allowed to this child to marry the children of that man from his other wives.

• A virgin grows milk in her breast s and she suckles an infant girl. She becomes her foster mother. All commands of fosterage will apply to both of them. If a man marries this virgin but divorces her before having a sexual intercourse with her, then he will be permitted to marry the girl who was suckled (by the virgin). (The same command applies to wife's daughter.) But, if he divorces her after having a sexual intercourse, then it is disallowed to him to marry the girl.

• If a girl who is less than nine years old grows milk in her breasts and she suckles it to a boy, then this does not establish a prohibition by reason of fosterage between them, because this is occasioned only when milk grows in the breasts, at the age of nine or more.

• Similarly, if the breasts of a virgin secrete (or discharge) yellowish liquid, prohibition by reason of fosterage is not occasioned by suckling it.

• A woman draws a child's mouth to her nipples but it cannot be ascertained whether the child suckled any milk so, the prohibition by reason of fosterage will not be applied because of the doubtful circumstances. However, it is better to be on the safe side and apply the prohibition by reason of fosterage.

• A woman's breast discharge a thin, yellow coloured secretion. If it is swallowed by an infant while suckling then the prohibition by reason of fosterage will apply. It will be presumed that the infant suckled milk that had changed colour.

• If a man's breasts locate and he suckles a child, then t his does not occasion prohibition by reason of fosterage.

• For prohibition by fosterage to be established the command is identical for a living woman and a dead woman.

• If two children suckle milk of the same quad raped, that does not occasion prohibition by reason of fosterage.

• The command of fosterage is applied equally in Darul Islam (the Islamic territories) and Darul Harb (the territory of the enemies). Thus if a (disbelieving) woman suckles a (disbeliever's) child in the enemy territory and later she, her relatives and the child embrace Islam - or they had been adherents of Islam in the enemy territory - and emigrate to Dar ul Islam, then all command of fosterage will apply to them.

• Just as the prohibition by reason of fosterage takes effect on suckling milk from a woman's breasts, so too it occurs on putting milk in a child's month or squeezing it in its nostrils. But, it does not occur on immersing milk in the child's ears, in its penis rectum or through a wound in its brain or belly even if it reaches inside. Imam Muhammad رحمه الله , however said that the prohibition occurs if injected through an enema.

• If this milk is mixed in diet and cooked to prepare food, the characteristics of milk being altered thereby, then the prohibition is not effective on eating this food irrespective of whether milk is the dominant component or secondary.

• If the mixture containing milk is not cooked on fire, even then prohibition does not take effect, provided milk is not the dominant constituent of it. But, even if it is dominant, Imam Abu Hanifah رحمه الله holds that it does not occasion prohibition because once a flowing substance combines with a solidified ingredient, it loses the property of something drinkable and turns into a solid. So, the ulama (Scholars) say that if the other ingredient is not more than milk, and milk retains its flowing quality, then prohibition will be effective on drinking it.

• If a woman's milk gets mixed with a goat's (or any animals) milk and forms a major portion of the mixture, then prohibition becomes effective on drinking it.

• If a woman mixes bread in her milk and bread absorbs it, or she mixes her milk in parched barley, and feeds the mixture to a child, then if it tastes of milk then prohibition is occasioned. However, this depends on feeding the child morsel by morsel. If she feeds the mixture after pulverizing it draught by draught then (even if the taste does not linger) prohibition takes effect.

• If a woman's milk is mixed with water, medicine or an animal's milk, then the ruling depends on the major portion of the contents. If milk forms a dominant portion then prohibition is occasioned on drinking it. If any other content forms a major part then prohibition will not be effective.

• If a woman's milk gets into something thin and flu id or solid, then, again, the ruling depends on whether it forms a major content.

GHALIB: The word for dominant and major content is ghalib. It covers colour, odour and taste, and it means that all these three or one of them sh ould be sensed or distinguished.

• If milk as well as another constituent of the mixture are equally felt then prohibition takes effect because milk is not suppressed.

• If milk of two women mixes, Imam Abu Hanifah رحمه الله and Imam Abu Yusuf رحمه الله say that prohibition by reason of fosterage will apply to the woman whose milk is more. However, Imam Muhammad رحمه الله says that it will apply to both woman. One tradition ascribes this opinion to Imam Abu Hanifah رحمه الله too. Indeed, this opinion is more correct and nearer safe side.

• If milk of both the women is equal then the agreed opinion (of these three imams) is that prohibition by reason of fosterage will apply to both of them.

• If a woman uses her milk to prepare dilute curd, yoghurt, cheese, etc. and feeds the preparation to a child then it does not occasion a prohibition because this does not imply suckling.

• A woman of a village suckled an infant girl. After some time, no one remembered who the woman was. Then, later a man of the same village married the girl. The marriage is lawful.

• Woman must not suckle any child unnecessarily. If they do, then they must remember it or write it down.

(It is common with woman that they put a child of another woman to their breast and suckle it. They do not remember it later and are not serious about it. In this way, the forbidden degrees of fosterage are neglected and violated. So it is necessary that they exercise caution in this regard.)

It does not matter whether milk is suckled before (child's marriage) or afterwards, the prohibition by reason of fosterage is occasioned. It makes no difference whatsoever when the child was suckled. Suppose a man marries an infant girl and after that his mother (real or foster) suckles this girl. Or his wife - or, his sister or daughter suckles her. This child is now forbidden to this man and it will be wajib (obligatory) for him to pay her half her dower which he shall demand from the woman who had suckled the child if she had done it to create mischief and annul the marriage. If she had intended no mischief then he will not demand any thing from her (for, she may have been sympathetic).

• A man marries two infant girls. Later a stranger woman suckles both of them together or one after the other, then both the girls will be forbidden to the man, their husband (because of fosterage). Thereafter, he may, if he wishes, marry one of them.

• If in the previous case, he marries (not (two) but) three infant girls and the woman suckles all three together, all three will be forbidden to him. Later, he may marry one of them, if he chooses.

• If she suckles the three girls one after the other, then the first two will be forbidden to him and the third will remain his wife.

• If she suckles two girls together and then, after that, the third, the same command will apply as the foregoing.

• If she suckles one of them first and afterwards the other two together, then all the three are forbidden to him. It is wajib (obligatory) on him to pay half the dower to each of them. He will demand this from the woman who had suckled the girls provided she had done that to create mischief.

• If there were four girls whom the man married and the woman suckles all of them one after the other or all together, all four are forbidden to him.

• If she suckles one and then the three together, the same command applies.

• If she suckles three at one time first and afterwards the fourth, then the fourth will not be forbidden to him.

• If a man marries a grown up woman and an infant girl, and the woman suckles the infant, both of them will be forbidden to the husband. If he has not had a sexual intercourse with the woman then she will get no dower. It will be wajib (obligatory), however, to pay half her dower to the infant. He will get it from the elder woman provided she had done it to create trouble otherwise nothing will be demanded from her even if she was aware that the infant was her husband's wife.

• The proof of suckling is in one of two things:

(i) A woman admits that she had suckled so-and so.

(ii) Witness testify to the fact. This may be by two men or one man and two women.

The separation of the couple (because of prohibition by reason of fosterage) is enforced by the command of a judge. When two men who are just or one man and two woman testify that (a certain) husband and wife are related through fosterage, the judge may separate them on the basis of their testimony. If no sexual intercourse took place between them, then the woman will get no dower at all. If they have had a sexual intercourse then it will be wajib (obligatory) on the husband to pay her the lesser amount of the two: mahr with or mahr-e-muayyin (proper dower or specific dower). No maintenance will be wajib (obligatory) on him.

• If two just men, or one man and two woman, testify before a married woman, after the marriage is contracted, that there existed between her and her husband a relationship through fosterage, then she is not allowed to live with him because this testimony is correct and the judge would accept it if it were presented to him. If only one man gives this testimony of the woman and she see seems inclined to believe him then she must keep away from her husband. It is better but not wajib (obligatory).

• A man marries a woman. But another woman comes afterwards and tells them, "I had suckled both of you." They have four options:

(i) If they believe the woman then their marriage is corrupted. The wife would get no dower at all if they did not have a sexual intercourse.

(ii) If they do not trust the women, then the marriage will remain intact. However, if the woman is just then, to be on the safe side, the husband must separate from his wife. If he divorces her then he must give her half of her dower. It is good for the woman that she takes nothing, provided they have not had sexual intercourse. If they did have a sexual intercourse already, then it is better for the man to pay her the full dower and maintenance allowance (for the duration of her iddah or waiting period). It will be better on the part of the woman to ask for the lesser of the two, mahr mithl or mahr mu'in and to retrain from taking the maintenance allowance. However, if the husband does not divorce his wife, then it is allowed to the woman to stay on with him.

• If the testimony is unreliable, say by two women, or one man and one woman, or two unjust men, or one unjust man and two woman, about fosterage, then the same command applies that it is better for the husband to divorce his wife.

(iii) If the husband trust that woman but his wife does not, then the marriage will be void. He will have to pay the dower.

(iv) If the wife believe that woman but her husband does not, then the marriage will remain intact but it is necessary for the wife to adjure her husband (that he really does not trust that woman). If he refuses to confirm on oath then they will be separated.

• A man marries a woman. Then he says about her that she is his foster sister or some other foster relative. Then he retracts, saying that he was confuses and he was confused and what he had said was wrong. So, a lenient view will be taken and they will not be separated, provided he sticks to his retraction (that whatever he had said was wrong). But, if he sticks to his first statement and asserts that he had spoken the truth, then both of them will be separated and if he denies after that then it will be of no use.

• If the woman confirms her husband's statement, then she will get no dower (if they did not have a sexual intercourse).

• If she denies his statement, then he will have to pay half her dower as wajib (obligatory) (if he had not had a sexual intercourse with her). If he did have a sexual intercourse with her and she belies his statement then it is wajib (obligatory) on him to pay her full dower and maintenance allowance.

• If a man decides to marry a woman but says before they marry that they were foster siblings or she was his foster mother, but retracts his statement afterwards on the plea that he was mistaken, then he is allowed to marry her.
• If he does not retract his statement but sticks to it then he is not allowed to marry her.
• If he marries her in spite of that, then they should be separated.
• If he denies having made a statement (to the effect that she was his foster sister or mother) but two witnesses bear out that he had made that statement, then they will be separated.
• If a woman say about a man that he is her foster father or foster brother, etc. but the man denies it and the woman also goes back on her previous confession then he is allowed to marry this woman.
• If in the foregoing case, the man marries her before she retracts her statement then their marriage will be correct.
• If a man say about a woman (who is his wife) that she is her blood or real relative, like real mother or real sister or real daughter and no one knows this woman's lineage and the man could likely be as he says (and she might be his mother etc.) this man will be asked again about it and if he says that He was mistaken or was confused then, being soft on him, the marriage will not be disturbed. If, on being asked again, he says that his first statement was correct, then both of t hem will be separated.
• If the man does not seem to be as he says (and their ages are so far apart that what he says cannot be possible) and the woman's age shows
That she cannot be his mother, or real sister, the relationship will not be proved and the two will not be separated.
• if t he man says that she is his real daughter and then does not deny it but persists on what he says though the people know the parentage of t he girl (that she is someone else's daughter) , so they will not be separated. The same applies when he claims that she is his mother but people know it to be otherwise.

4. WOMAN TOGETHER: They are woman who when they are with other woman qualify as muharamat (forbidden degrees).
There are of two kinds:
  (i) Stranger (or unrelated) woman.
  (ii) Dhawat ul Ahram (cognate relations).

(i) Having stranger woman together means to take more wives than are permitted by ء (divine law).
Shariah had permitted a free man to take four wives at a time. The slave had permission to marry two woman at a time.
Hence no freeman, has permission to have at one time more than four women as his wives. And, no slave has permission to have more than two wives at one time.
It is allowed to a freeman to have as many female slaves (without marrying them) as he likes at any one time. But, a slave is not allowed to have female slaves at all, even if his master permits him to have them.
A freeman is allowed to marry, at a time, four women. These four may be freewomen on female slaves or of both kids together.
• If a man marries five women, one after the other, the marriage of the first four is lawful while the fifth marriage is illegal. But, if he marries all five together with one contract then all the five are illegal.

• The same ruling applies to the three marriages of a slave. (If he marries three women, one after another, the first two will be correct but not the third and if he marries all three with one contract then all three will be void.)

• If an enemy disbeliever had married five wives and all of them (the man and his wives) embrace Islam then it depends on how he had married them. If the five marriages followed one after the other then the first four are valid while the fifth is repudiated. But, if he had married all five by one contract together, then all of t hem will be separated from him, all five marriages being invalid.

• If a man marries one woman and later he marries four others together then only the first continues to be valid while the four are not proper.

• If a woman marries two men by one contract and one of them ready has four wives, then her marriage will be correct with the other (who does not have four wives).

• If, in the foregoing case, both men already have four wives - or none of them has four wives before hand - then neither or her marriage is correct.

(ii) Having together dhawil arham. It is to have two wives who are cognate and blood relatives of one another. It is forbidden to have two sisters as wives at one time. It is also forbidden to have two sisters as female slaves and cohabit with them. (If one has two sisters among one's slave then one must not have sexual intercourse with both of them. We will see more about it in the lines following.) These two may be real sisters. The command is alike.

CRITERION: The standard to decide this issue is that of the two related women, one may be supposed to be a man and then it must be seen whether their marriage would be correct as husband and wife. Their relationship may be real or foster. If their marriage would not be proper then it is not allowed to have both the women together as one's wives.

In the same way it is forbidden to have a woman and her real or foster aunt together in marriage. (This applies to both, paternal and maternal aunt.)

Other relatives of this kind are also covered by this prohibition. It is disallowed to have them together in marriage at the same time.

• It is allowed, however, to have as one's wife a woman as well as the daughter of her previous husband (from his other wife and not this woman's). The reason is clear from the criterion:

[If this woman were a man, it would have been permitted to 'him' to marry this girl.]

But, the converse is not allowed:

[If that girl were a man, it would be forbidden to marry 'his' father's wife.]

• A man is allowed to have a woman and her female slave together in marriage provided he had married the female slave first.

• If a man marries two sisters with a single contract then (the marriage is void and) both of them will be separated from their husband not consummated the marriage then they will get no dower.

• If he had cohabited with then before being separated then they will each get the lesser of mahr mithl and mahr mu'in (proper dower and specified dower)

• If a man marries two sisters at different times by separate contracts, then the second marriage would be invalid. The husband must separate from her and if he does not, then the judge must have them separated on learning of it. If this separation takes place before they could have sexual intercourse then none of the commands of separation will be enforced (like dower and iddah, etc). If, before they separated, he had sexual intercourse with her, then the lesser of mahr nihl and mahr mu'in would be paid and it would be wajib (obligatory) on her to observe the iddah. If a child is born to her then it be attributed to him.

Also, he will have to keep away from his (first) wife till her sister completes her iddah.

• If a man marries two sisters by separate contracts, meaning one after the other, but it cannot be determined which of the two he married first, then he will be commanded to disclose it. If he states (and name the first and second wives) then his statement will be followed (and the first wife will be retained and the second sister's marriage will be declared null and void). If he two cannot say then the judge will separate both of them from their husband. After that both of them will get half and dower provided their dowers are equal and were determined at the time of the contract, and their separation may have taken place without their having had sexual intercourse.

If their dowers are unequal, then each will get one-fourth of t he other's dower.

If their dowers were not determined at the time of the contract (of marriage) then, instead of half dower, each will get a pair of garments.

If their separation occurs after they had experienced a sexual intercourse, then each will get her full dower.

Abu Ja'far Hindwani رحمه الله said that the aforesaid ruling applies when each of them claims that her marriage preceded the other's and none of them has any witnesses. Both will be given half the dower. However, if both of them deny knowledge of whose marriage took place before the other's then a final decision about them would be held in abeyance till they agree on something and make peace. This will be done when they go to a judge and say, "Our dowry is wajib (obligatory) on our husband and there is no third claimant with us in our demand. So, we agree between us to receive half of the dower." The judge will then pass the judgment.

If each of them claims to have been married first and presents her witnesses then it is wajib (obligatory) on the husband to pay half of the dower between both of them. All the ulama (Scholars) are unanimous about it.

Moreover, these commands about two sisters in marriage together are applicable to all such women marrying whom together is forbidden.

• If this man from whom two sisters married to him were separated wishes to re-marry any one of them, then he may marry her provided he did not have sexual intercourse with her before separating.

• If their separation took place after they had a sexual intercourse then it is not allowed to him to marry her till both sisters have passes their waiting period (or iddah).

• If one is still passing her iddah and the other has passed it, then he can marry the sister who is in her iddah. He can marry the other only after her sister who is in iddah comes out of it.

• If before they separated, the man had a sexual intercourse with only one for the two sisters (his wives) , then he is allowed to marry the one with whom he had a sexual intercourse.

• If he wishes to marry the other with whom he did not have a sexual intercourse, then he is not allowed to marry her till the iddah of her sister with whom he had had a sexual intercourse is over.

• When the iddah of the sister with whom sexual intercourse was had is over then he may marry any of the two sisters he likes.

• In the same way as it is disallowed to marry two sisters at one time, so too it is not allowed to have sexual pleasure with two female slaves who are sisters (touching, embracing, having intercourse, etc,) In other words, if a man possesses two female slaves both sisters then he should not have sexual pleasure from both of them. Rather, he may have sexual intercourse and pleasure with any one of them only because it is forbidden to have it from the other after one of them is chosen for it. He can only enjoy the second sister when he has forbidden the first to himself.

• Similarly, if a man buys a female slave and has sexual intercourse with her and of towards he buys her sister, too then he can have sexual intercourse only with the first. He is forbidden have it with the second. He can enjoy her only after he forbids the first to himself.

The method of forbidding a female slave to oneself is:

- to marry her to someone,
- to remove her from one's ownership,
- to set her free,
- to give her to someone as a gift,
- to sell her,
- to make a charity of her,
- to contract a mukatib with her.

It must be known that to set some of her free is like setting all of her free. (For example, if an owner tells his female slave that he has set half of her or on-fourth of her free then it is tantamount to setting her free completely. And sexual intercourse will be forbidden with her.)

In the same may removing some of her from one's ownership is tantamount to removing all of her from one's ownership.

If he says simply, "The first is forbidden to me then it does not permit him to have sexual intercourse with the other. It is the same thing as when the second does not become lawful because of the menstruation of lochia and ihram of fasting of the first.

• If a man has had sexual intercourse with each of the two slave sisters in his possession then he can no more have sexual intercourse with either of them unless he forbids one of her to himself in the foregoing method.

• If a man sold one of the two slave sisters in his possession, but she was returned because of a defect in her, or, he had presented her to someone, but cancelled his gift, or, he had given her in marriage to someone, but her husband divorced, her and her iddah is over,- in these cases the man cannot have sexual intercourse with either of them without first forbidding one of them to himself.

• If a man marries a female slave but before having a sexual intercourse with her, he purchased her sister, too, then it is unlawful for him to obtain sexual pleasure with the female slave he has purchased. The reason is that the prerogative of being a wife is established through marriage. So, if he has a sexual intercourse with the newly purchase female slave then it will amount to giving the right of wifehood to two sisters at one time which is forbidden.

• If a man has sexual intercourse with his female slave and then marries her sister then his marriage is correct. Given that, he must not have sexual intercourse with the female slave even if he has not had a sexual intercourse with his new wife. Moreover, he must not have a sexual intercourse with his wife until he forbids his female slave (the sister of his wife) himself according to the foregoing method.

• If he marries the sister of his female slave without having a sexual intercourse with the female slave then he may have a sexual intercourse with his wife (the sister of his female slave).

• If a man has a sexual intercourse with his female slave and then marries her sister but that marriage was broken for some reason then the female slave will not be forbidden to her on that account. But, if he has a sexual intercourse with his wife (his slave's sister) then it is forbidden to him to have a sexual intercourse with the female slave.

- If two sisters say to a man, "We give ourselves to you in marriage for so much dower" and both speak out these words together and he accepts one of them then this marriage is allowed.
- If this man says to both these sisters, "I marry each one of you against rupees one thousand each," One of them accepts and the other rejects him, then both marriages are void.
- Imam Muhammad رحمه الله said about a man that he appointed a man as his agent to get him married. Later, he appointed another man for the same purpose. Both of them chose a woman each and contracted his marriage without the permission of these women, Later, it transpire that they were foster sisters and both the agents had uttered the words of marriage simultaneously. In this case, both their marriages will be void.
- If in the foregoing case, the marriage was performed with the permission of both the women or of one of them and not the other, then the same command applies.
- A man, zayd marries two sisters though one of them was already married to another man or was divorced by him and was till the in her iddah or waiting period. In this case, Zayd's marriage will be valid only with the other sister (the unmarried one).
- A man divorces his wife or resorts to one of the kind of steps to divorce, or his marriage to her is annulled for some reason, or he falls in doubt and has sexual intercourse with a woman. In short, the woman passes her iddah. During this period of the woman's iddah (waiting period), this man cannot marry her sister.
- In the same way, as it is not allowed to him to marry her sister during her iddah (waiting period), so, too, he is disallowed to marry any of her related woman who falls under the category of dhawal arham and her marriage at the same time as this woman to him is unlawful. For example, during her iddah (waiting period) it is forbidden him to marry her niece.
- In the same way, he is not allowed to have as wife four women beside her during her iddah (waiting period).
- If a man sets free his female slave who was an umm walad (meaning, mother of his child) then till her iddah (waiting period) is over, it is not allowed to him to marry her sister. However, Imam Abu Hanifah رحمه الله holds that during her period of iddah (waiting period), he is permitted to marry four women apart from her moreover, the two disciples, Imam Abu Yus'uf رحمه الله and Imam Muhammad رحمه الله hold that during the iddah (waiting period) he may even marry her sister.
- If a man quotes his divorced wife as saying that her waiting period after divorce (Iddah (waiting period)) is over (so he can marry her sister) , then it will be calculated how many days had passed since her divorce. If he required number of days have not passed then he should not be believed. Similarly, his divorced wife should not be believed. However, if she speaks of some other reason for her iddah (waiting period) to have been over then her words would be believed, like her citing her miscarriage. Beside if the number of days seem to have passed for the iddah (waiting period) to be over and the woman confirms her husband's statement or she is not there then he may be trusted. In that case, he would be permitted to have four other women as wives or to marry hi wife's sister.

In fact, that Hanafi scholars maintain that if the wife belies her husband, in the this situation, even then word of the husband would be believed.

- If a man's wife apostates and goes away to an enemy land, then he is allowed to marry her sister without waiting for the iddah (waiting period) of the woman to end. It is like being allowed to marry the sister of one who dies. Later, if that apostate woman returns from enemy territory having reverted to Islam, the marriage of her husband to her sister will not be revoked.

• If, in the foregoing case, she returns before he marries her sister, then according to Imam Abu Hanifah رحمه الله, even this situation he is allowed to marry her sister. But, Imam Abu Yusuf رحمه الله and Imam Muhammad both, contend that he cannot now marry her sister (when this situation arises before he could marry her).

• It is not allowed to have as wives at one time two such women as are paternal aunts or maternal aunts of one another. For example, Zayd married Amr's mother and Amr married Zayd's mother. Both couples had daughters born to them. Each girl was the paternal aunt of the other. Or Zayd married Amr's daughter and Amr married Zayd's daughter, so each daughter was the maternal aunt of the other.

In each of these cases it is unlawful to have both of them as wives at one time.

• Suppose that a man marries two women. One of them was forbidden to him for one of these reasons:

- She was a muhrim of him
- She was already married, or
- She was an idol worshiper. The other was permitted to him in marriage.

Hence, in this case, his marriage to the latter is correct, but void to the former. The specified dower will be paid in full to one whose marriage is correct. This ruling is based on the contention of Imam Abu Hanifah رحمه الله.

• If in the foregoing example the man has a sexual intercourse with the woman to whom his marriage was not lawful then she will get the dower mahr mithl whatever the amount. As for the other whose marriage was correct, she will be paid the entire dower.

5. BEING OWNED: This is about the female slaves whom it is forbidden to marry if one already has a free woman as a wife.

It is also forbidden to marry a free woman and a female slave at one time.

The same applies to a mudabbarah and to a umm walad.

(A mudabbarah is a female slave to whom her master says 'you are free after my death,' An umm walad is the female slave who begets her master's child.)

If a man marries a free woman and a slave by a single contract, then the marriage with the free woman will be correct but the marriage with the female slave will be void, provided the free woman is one with whom he is permitted to marry (not of the forbidden degrees).

However, if the free woman whom he marries if of a forbidden degree, like an aunt, then his marriage with the female slave will not be void.

• If a man divorces his wife who is a free woman with talaq ba'in (irrevocable divorce) or three pronouncements and while she is in her iddah (waiting period) (waiting period), he marries a female slave, then according to Imam Abu Hanifah رحمه الله, this marriage is disallowed. But, Imam Abu Yusuf رحمه الله and Imam Muhammad رحمه الله hold that it is permitted.

• If a ma marries a female slave after divorcing his wife with talaq raj'I (revocable divorce) and she is observing her iddah (waiting period), then the unanimous opinion is that his marriage with the slave is not lawful.

• If a man marries a female slave as well as a free woman who was observing her iddah (waiting period) for a broken invalid marriage or a doubtful marriage, then the marriage with the female slave will be correct.

• A ma divorces his wife, a female slave, with a revocable divorce and during her iddah (waiting period) marries a free woman and also revokes the divorce of the female slave (to take her back as his wife). This is permitted.

• A slave marries a free woman without his master's permission and has sexual intercourse with her. Again, without his master's permission, he marries a female slave. Then his master gives him permission for both marriage. In this situation, the marriage of the free woman is correct but that of the female slave is void.

• A man marries the female slave of another person but did not obtain his permission. He also did not consummate the marriage with her. Then he marries a free woman, too, after which the female slave's owner gave his consent. In this case, too. The marriage with the female slave is void.

• A man marries a female slave without the permission of her master. After that he marries her daughter who is a free woman. Meanwhile, the master of the female slave gave his permission for her marriage. The marriage of her daughter is correct but her own marriage is void.

• A man has an adult daughter and an adult female slave. He says to a man, "I marry both of them to you against 'so-much' dower." The man accepts to marry the female slave, but this marriage is void.

• If he accepted to marry the free woman after that, then this would be valid.

• If a man is able to marry a free woman but, in spite of that, marries a female slave who is a Muslim or a Jew or a Christian (one of the Peoples of the Book) , the marriage will be correct. However, it is mukruh to marry a female slave if one is capable and competent to marry a free woman.

• If a man marries through a single contract four female slaves and five free women, then only the marriage with the female slave would be proper.

5. WOMAN ON WHOM OTHERS HAVE A RIGHT: It is forbidden to marry those women on whom other men have a right. These are a woman who is:

- married to someone,
- observing an iddah (waiting period) for someone, of divorce, death of husband, broken marriage which was consummated, or if which there was an uncertainty.

It is not permitted to marry such woman.

• If anyone unknowingly marries another man's wife and also has sexual intercourse with her, then on separating, the iddah (waiting period) will be wajib (obligatory) on the woman to observe.

• If that man knew that she was someone else's wife then on separating from him the iddah (waiting period) will not be wajib (obligatory) on this woman. Her husband will not be disallowed to have sexual intercourse with her.

• If her husband divorces her then the (other) man responsible for her iddah (waiting period) is permitted to marry her during her iddah (waiting period) provided she is not precluded from marrying by any other reason.

• If a woman is pregnant after having committed adultery then it is allowed to marry her. However, until she is pregnant and does not deliver her child, her husband is not allowed to have sexual intercourse with her and to do everything that leads to it (like kissing, touching, etc).

• If the man who committed adultery with her and is responsible for her pregnancy marries her then their marriage is correct. Also, he is allowed to have sexual intercourse with her even before she delivers a child. The woman deserves maintenance allowance.

- A man marries a woman. After some time she had a miscarriage and the limbs were observed duly formed. If the miscarriage had taken place after marriage by four months or more then that, then the marriage is lawful. It is took place in less then four months then the marriage is not lawful, because the limbs of the foetus do not develop in less than four moths. (In the former case, the woman is deemed to have conceived her husband's child, but in the latter case, she would have conceived before their marriage someone else's child. Clearly in that case, this marriage cannot be valid,)
- If a woman is known to have conceived a child of someone legitimately then the unanimous decision is that it is not allowed to marry her.
- Imam Abu Yusuf رحمه الله reported that Imam Abu Hanifah رحمه الله said that if a woman conceives a child of a disbeliever of the enemy and emigrates or is brought to the Islamic territory as a slave then it is allowed to marry her, but it is not allowed to have sexual intercourse with her till she delivers her child. While Imam Tahawi رحمه الله abides by this very opinion, Imam Muhammad رحمه الله has cited another tradition of Imam Abu Hanifah رحمه الله that it is not allowed to marry in this case. Imam Karkhi رحمه الله goes by this opinion (of Abu Hanifah) رحمه الله. This opinion moreover is better and reliable.
- If a man marries his umm walad to another man though she was pregnant by her master, then this marriage will be invalid.
- If she was not pregnant then it is proper.
- A man has sexual intercourse with his female slave. After that, he gives her in marriage to another man. This marriage is legal but it would be mustahab (desirable) (better) for the master to get the husband to delay sexual intercourse with the female slave till she gets her menstruation in order to preserve his child if she has conceived. But, since the marriage is allowed, it is also allowed to the husband not to wait for her menses before having sexual intercourse. This is as the opinion of Imam Abu Hanifah رحمه الله and Imam Abu Yusuf رحمه الله. As for Imam Muhammad رحمه الله , he said, "I do not like that her husband should not wait for her menses before having sexual intercourse with her." The jurist Abu Layth رحمه الله preferred the opinion of Imam Muhammad رحمه الله to be on the safe side.
- However, these opinions concern the case when the master has given her in marriage without having her first experience her menses.
- If the female slave did have her menstruation after the master has copulated with her and before she was married then it is the agreed opinion that her husband need not wait anymore before having sex with her.
- A man sees a woman commit adultery and then marries her himself. In this case, Imam Yusuf رحمه الله say that he is allowed to have sexual intercourse with her without waiting for her first menses after marriage. But Imam Muhammad رحمه الله said the same thing as before that the husband should preferably wait for one menstruation of his wife.
- If a man marries the female slave of his son then the Hanafis allow it.
- If a woman is brought from enemy territory to the Islamic state as a captive and her husband was not with her then it is not wajib (obligatory) for her to observe an iddah (waiting period) and any man may marry her.
- In the foregoing case if the woman had embraces Islamic then according to Imam Abu Hanifah رحمه الله she too need not observe the iddah (waiting period) and any man may marry ier, but Imam Abu Yusuf رحمه الله and Imam Muhammad رحمه الله hold that it is wajib (obligatory) ›n her to observe the iddah (waiting period) during which no one may marry her. There is ıo difference of opinion, however, that it is not allowed to have sexual intercourse with her ill she experiences one menstruation.

'. DIFFERENCE RELIGION: These are the woman whom it is forbidden to marry because ›f their being polytheists or idolaters.

t is not allowed to marry woman who are fire worshippers or idol worshippers rrespective of whether they are free woman or slave girls.

[he idol-worshippers include woman who worship the sun and stars and their preferred ›ictures and they who subscribe to the Greek Philosophy of a powerless God. Others ımong them are the zindiq (atheists), the batinis and the abahiyahs. (They are respectively who attribute hidden meaning to the Quran and who regard every deed in the work as ›ermissible whether good or bad) In the same say, every woman is included in this ›rohibition who follows a false religion.

- Therefore, it is not allowed also to have sexual relationship with a female slave who is a fire worshipper.
- A Muslim is permitted to marry a kitabiyah (who believes in a heavenly Book , meaning a Jewess or a Christian woman) , who resides in enemy territory, and a dhimmi disbelieving woman (who pays the kharaj (homage revenue) to the Islamic state and resides in it). This woman may be free or slave. But, it is better not to marry any of them. Their slaughtered animal, too, should not be eaten unless necessary.
- If a Muslim marries a Jewess or a Christian woman, then he is authorized to forbid her from going to her house of worship (a synagogue or a church) and to prepare wine in his home. However, he has no authority to compel her to have purifying bath after menstruation, child birth bleeding and sexual intercourse.
- If a Muslim marries an enemy's woman, who follows one of the ...ooks, in enemy territory, then his marriage is lawful. But, it is makruh (disapproved). La... when the spouses come to the Islamic territory, their marriage will be retained. However, of the husband comes to the Islamic territory leaving his wife there, then there will be separation of both of them because of change of their countries of residence.
- Those people who follow a heavenly religion and they also have their heavenly Book are counted among the people of the Book. Examples are the scriptures of prophet Ibrahim عليه السلام and Prophet Shith عليه السلام , and Prophet Dawud's عليه السلام Zubur, and so on. Muslim men are allowed to marry their woman. Their slaughtered animal is also permitted to Muslim to eat.
- If one parent of a person is a follower of a heavenly book and the other a fire-worshiper, then he is regarded as one of the people of the Book.
- A Muslim man married a woman from the people of the Book. Then she converted to a fire worshipper, so she becomes forbidden to her Muslim husband, Their marriage will be revoked.
- If he had married a Jewess or a Christian woman and she converted to Christianity or Jewism, then the marriage will remain intact.
- The criterion in such cases is to see that if one of the spouses converts to another religion then is it one which would have barred them from marriage at the initial stage when they contemplated marriage? For example, a Muslim can never marry a fire-worshipper. Thus, if one of thc spouses converts from Islam to one of the spouses converts from Islam to one of such religions then the marriage will be null and void.

WHAT AFTER THAT?

If a woman is the cause of marriage being broken - say, she convert to a Magian, then the spouses will separate. The woman will not be paid her dower and she will get no maintenance, provided she had converted to another religion before having the sexual intercourse.

• If she converts to another religion (say, Margian) after her husband had sexual intercourse with her, then she will be paid her dower in full.

• If man is the cause of the marriage being broken - suppose, he converts to Magian - and the spouse separate, then he will have to pay his wife half of the agreed dower provided this situation transpired before they could have a sexual intercourse. If a dower was not determined before hand then he should give her a pair of garments. If this happened after they had a sexual intercourse then it is wajib (obligatory) to pay her the full dower.

• When a Muslim man apostates, his marriage is not lawful:
  - with an apostate woman
  - with a disbelieving woman, or
  - with a Muslim woman

• When a Muslim woman apostates, her marriage too is not lawful with any man.

• A Muslim woman's marriage is not lawful with
  - a polytheist or
  - a Jew or
  - a Christian

• The marriage of an idolatress is proper with any polytheist or disbeliever, but not with an apostate.

• The disbelieving dhimmis may marry each other though their creeds differ.

• It is allowed to a Muslim man who had a Muslim wife to marry a kitabiyah (Jew or Christian) also, and to

• a Muslim man who has a wife from the kitabiyah (Jew or Christian) to marry also a Muslim woman.

-- in each of these cases the rights of both wives should be equal (as for as allotting nights to them is concerned).

8. WOMAN OWNERS: They are the woman who are forbidden to their slaves because they are their owners.

• No woman is permitted to marry her slave.

• She is also disallowed to wed a slave who is common property of hers and of another person.

• If after a marriage, either of the spouses becomes owner of the entire or part of the other then the marriage becomes void.

• If a man marries his female slave, or a female slave of whom he is a part owner then this marriage is not correct.

However, it must be borne in mind that, in the current times, the buying and selling of slaves, male or female, is not practiced at all. Moreover, those rules and conditions governing the sexual intercourse with female slaves no more exist today.

Therefore, some ulama (Scholars) maintain that if the custom of having female slave exists any where, then (sexual intercourse must not be had with them, but) they should be married so that if they really are not the female slave but a free woman then marriage would legalize sexual intercourse with them.

• If a freeman buys his wife (who is someone's female slave) on terms of the condition of khiyar then his marriage will not void. This is decision of Imam Abu Hanifah رحمه الله.

a. DIVORCE

These are woman who are forbidden by divorce.

• If a man pronounces three divorces to his wife who is a free woman then it is not allowed to him to marry her after that. However, if she completes her iddah (waiting period) and marries another man who consummates their marriage and divorces her, then after completing her iddah (waiting period) on this divorce, the two may remarry.

• If a man marries a female slave and, later, divorces, her with two pronouncement, then it is not allowed to him to marry her.

• Also, it is also not allowed to him to have her as his slave girl and have sexual intercourse with her.

• A man marries someone else's female slave. Later, he divorces her with two pronouncements. Then he buys her and sets her free. Now. If he wishes to marry her then she must first marry someone else who consummates his marriage with her and divorces her. When her days of iddah (waiting period) are over, the man, her first husband (who had set her free) may marry her.

RELATED RULINGS

The subject of the muharrimat having been discussed, some essential rulings concerning this chapter are reproduced.

Nikah (wedlock) mut'ah is unlawful. Since it is not allowed to marry a woman in this way (mut'ah), clearly it is also forbidden to have sexual intercourse with her. Neither will divorce be pronounced on her nor will be commands of eela and zihar apply to her.

(Eala is to abandon. A husband swears not to approach his wife for a certain period of time. Zihar is a husband's telling his wife that she is to him like his mother and so unlawful to him.)

MUT'AH: The nikah (wedlock) mut'ah is a usufructuary marriage. [1]

(It is contracted for a certain period of time to make use of the woman against a specified amount of money paid to her).

It is that a man offers a woman who is not hindered or forbidden to him in any way (like being someone's wife or observing an iddah (waiting period)): 'I shall pay so much money to you and there against derive benefit from you for so much time or he says "Against so much money give me enjoyment for so many days."

MUWAQQAT: In the same way as nikah (wedlock) mut'ah, nikah (wedlock) muwaqqat is also unlawful. It may be contracted for a short time or a long time, or a defined nature or an undefined nature. Be that as it may, it is unlawful.

PERPETUAL: If both the spouses define such a long time as a beyond their life expectancy, then the command of nikah (wedlock) muwaqqat will not be applied. It will be regarded as a correct marriage in which the stipulation of time would be disregarded.

- Similarly, when the period of marriage is defined to be till the last Hour or till the day of resurrection, or till when the dajjal (Antichrist) appears, or till the descent of Prophet Easa عليه السلام – in all these cases, the marriage will be considered to be correct and the time limit would be ignored.

---

[1] The Hidaya, English Translation, Dar ul Isha'at Karachi (v1 p 62)

- Similarly, if the period for which the marriage is contracted is not defined but the husband did think mentally that he would keep her for one year then divorce her, then the marriage would be correct.
- If a man marries a woman on condition that he would divorce her after one mouth, then the marriage is correct.
- If a man stipulates at the time of the marriage, saying to his wife, "I shall stay with you by day but not at night." Then the marriage will be correct.
- A man and a woman who both have assumed the ihram are allowed to contract their marriage in this condition.
- So, too, a guardian who is in the state of ihram is permitted to give in marriage the woman whose guardian he is.
- A woman claimed (before a judge) that a man, say Zayd, had married him. She also cited two witnesses to support her petition. The judge upheld her plea and ruled that Zayd was indeed her husband but, in truth, he had not married her. However, it is allowed to them to live together and Zayd is permitted to have sexual intercourse wither if she wishes to have it.

This is the ruling of Imam Abu Hanifah رضی الله عنه. The first opinion of Imam Abu Yusuf رحمه الله was in agreement with him but his second verdict contradicts it and agrees with that of Imam Muhammad رحمه الله who said that the man is not allowed to have a sexual intercourse with the woman in this case. The judgement of the judge is about the marriage contract. (It will be presumed that he performed the marriage at the time. So, the woman could live with the man, auf Imam Abu Hanifah رحمه الله opined that, if she wished, they could have a sexual intercourse.) However, there is the condition that the woman is eligible to marry (meaning, there is no obstruction to her living as Zayd's wife). For instance, at the time of judgement:

> She was someone else's wife or, was observing an iddah (waiting period) of divorce by her first husband, or, Zayd himself may have pronounced three divorces to her.

In such cases, the judge's judgement will not be enforced. She will not Zayd's wife. Also, must ulama (Scholars) say that another condition is that witnesses should be present when the judge pronounces the judgement.

- If, on the other hand, the man, Zayd, makes a claim about a woman that he had married her and presents witnesses in support of his claim, then the same command will apply as in the previous case.
- If a woman pleads before a judge that her husband had divorced her and she brings false witnesses too then the judge will pass a judgement of divorce. Of course, the woman knowingly lies. She will be divorced and she will observed the iddah (waiting period) and after that she might marry any man. Any of the witnesses too will be eligible to marry her. She will not be lawful for her first husband and he cannot marry her.

DISSENT: Imam Abu Yusuf رحمه الله, however, ruled that in this case neither will be woman be lawful for her first husband who cannot marry her nor will it be allowed to her to marry any other man.

Imam Muhammad ruled that as long as her second husband does not have sexual intercourse with her, she is lawful for her first husband. If another man has sexual intercourse with her, then till she completes her iddah (waiting period), she will be forbidden to her first husband because the iddah (waiting period) is wajib (obligatory) on her.

In other words, Imam Muhammad رحمه الله says that her marriage with anyone else is simply not allowed.

- Suppose a man Zayd claims that a woman Khalidah had married him, but she denies that she had married him. Then, Zayd offered to make peace with her and to pay her some money if she conceded that they were married.
- If she accepts his statement, then it becomes wajib (obligatory) on Zayd to pay her the money and her acceptance would be deemed to be the contract of marriage and if she accepts it in the presence of witnesses then the marriage will be deemed to have been performed correctly and her residence with Zayd will be correct in the sight of Allah. (Not only will they be husband and wife accordingly to worldly standards but also no sin will be attached to them because of this.
- If Khalidah did not present witnesses when she accepted Zayd's statement, the marriage will not be deemed to have been performed and it would not be proper for her to live with him.

SECTION I اَلْفَصْلُ الْاَوَّلُ

AUNTS, PATERNAL & MATERNAL WITH NIECE

(٣١٦٠) عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَا يُجْمَعُ بَيْنَ الْمَرْأَةِ وَعَمَّتِهَا وَلَا بَيْنَ الْمَرْأَةِ وَخَالَتِهَا - (متفق عليه)

3160. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم said, "A woman must not be taken in marriage with her paternal aunt. And no woman may be taken in marriage with her maternal aunt."[1]

COMMENTARY: The aunts cover both sisters of father and of mother as well as the ancestors, aunts of parents, etc. This hadith speaks only of aunts because perhaps the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم might have been asked about them.

As we know and have seen previously, there are other women who may not be married when another of the forbidden degree is already a man's wife.

(٣١٦١) وَعَنْ عَائِشَةَ قَالَتْ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَحْرُمُ مِنَ الرَّضَاعَةِ مَا يَحْرُمُ مِنَ الْوِلَادَةِ -

(رواه البخاری)

3161. Sayyiduna Ayshah رضی الله عنها narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم said, "That which is unlawful because of consanguinity is unlawful (also) because of fosterage."[2]

COMMENTARY: What is forbidden by reason of birth (or blood relationship) is also forbidden by reason of suckling.

For instance, just as a real sister is forbidden to her brother so too a foster sister is forbidden. There are however, some cases of exception to this rule. Sometimes a difference arises between them and this has been discussed previously.

Allamah (The learned Scholar) Nawawi رحمه الله said that marriage is forbidden by reason of

---

[1] Bukhari # 5109, Muslim # 33-1408, Abu Dawud # 2066.

[2] Bukhari # 5099, Muslim # 2-2444, Darimi # 2249, Muwatta Maalik # 1 (Rada'ah) fosterage and looking at one another, travelling in company and being alone become permitted by the same taken. However, all commands and prerogatives of consanguinity are not available to fosterage. In the letter, relatives do not inherit from one another and they are not responsible for mutual maintenance. Also, if any of them becomes a slave of another, he does not earn an automatic emancipation. Furthermore, if a foster mother kills one whom she suckles, she gets no remittance from retaliation (or qisas).

In such cases, those foster relatives are exactly like strangers.

(٣١٦٢) وَعَنْهَا قَالَتْ جَاءَ عَمِّي مِنَ الرَّضَاعَةِ فَاسْتَأْذَنَ عَلَيَّ فَأَبَيْتُ أَنْ آذَنَ لَهُ حَتّٰى أَسْأَلَ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَجَاءَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَسَأَلْتُهُ فَقَالَ إِنَّهُ عَمُّكِ فَأْذَنِيْ لَهُ قَالَتْ فَقُلْتُ يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ إِنَّمَا أَرْضَعَتْنِي الْمَرْأَةُ وَلَمْ يُرْضِعْنِي الرَّجُلُ فَقَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِنَّهُ عَمُّكِ فَلْيَلِجْ عَلَيْكِ وَذٰلِكَ بَعْدَ مَا ضُرِبَ عَلَيْنَا الْحِجَابُ۔ (متفق عليه)

3162. Sayyidah Ayshah رضی الله عنها narrated that her paternal uncle through fosterage came and sought permission to meet her. She declined to permit him (admittance to her house) till she had first asked Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم (about it). So, when he came she asked him and he said, "He is your paternal uncle. So, let him in." She said (to him) , "O Messenger of Allah, only the woman had suckled me, not the man." Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم said, "He is your paternal uncle and may visit you." (She added:) "That was after the veil had been made wajib (obligatory) for us."[1]

COMMENTARY: The foster uncle of Sayyidah Ayshah رضی الله عنها was Aflah. The woman who had suckled her was the wife of Abu Al-Qays. He and Aflah were brothers.
Sayyidah Ayshah رضی الله عنها wondered how fosterage could be traced to the brother of the husband of the woman who had suckled her. So, she was told that the relationship through fosterage passed on to the male relatives too of both of woman and her husband.
The prohibition through fosterage applies to all these relatives on both sides, the woman's and her husband's

FOSTER NIECE IS OF FORBIDDEN DEGREE

(٣١٦٣) وَعَنْ عَلِيٍّ أَنَّهُ قَالَ يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ هَلْ لَكَ فِيْ بِنْتِ عَمِّكَ حَمْزَةَ فَإِنَّهَا أَجْمَلُ فَتَاةٍ فِيْ قُرَيْشٍ فَقَالَ لَهُ أَمَا عَلِمْتَ أَنَّ حَمْزَةَ أَخِيْ مِنَ الرَّضَاعَةِ وَأَنَّ اللّٰهَ حَرَّمَ مِنَ الرَّضَاعَةِ مَا حَرَّمَ مِنَ النَّسَبِ۔ (رواه مسلم)

3163. Sayyiduna Ali رضی الله عنه narrated that he asked, "O Messenger of Allah, why do you not like (for yourself) the daughter of your paternal uncle, Hamzah? She is the most beautiful girl of the Quraysh." He said to him, "Do you not know that Hamzah is my foster brother and Allah has forbidden through fosterage what he has forbidden through genealogy?"[2]

COMMENTARY: Sayyiduna Hamzah رضی الله عنه was the uncle of the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم like Abu Lahab. He also was the Prophet's صلی الله علیه وسلم foster brother.

---

[1] Bukhari # 2644, 5239, Muslim # 7-1445, Tirmidhi # 1151, Abu Dawud # 2057, Ibn Majah # 1949, Musnad Ahmad 6-794, Muwatta 2 (Nikah (wedlock)).
[2] Muslim # 11-1446.

Abu Lahab had a female slave named Thawbiyah. She had suckled Sayyiduna Hamzah رضی اللہ عنہ and four years later she suckled the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم

Thawbiyah is the one who had conveyed the news of the birth of the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم to Abu Lahab who was delighted at the birth of his nephew and set her free. It is reported that because of his expression of delight, punishment is softened on him on every Monday by Allah because the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم was born on this day.

Four woman had suckled the prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم. They were:

his respected mother Sayyidah Amna, Sayyidah Halimah رضی اللہ عنہا, Thawbiyah and Umm Ayman and female slave of his father the respected Abdullah.

LIMIT OF SUCKLING

(٣١٦٤-٣١٦٥-٣١٦٦) وَعَنْ أُمِّ الْفَضْلِ قَالَتْ إِنَّ نَبِيَّ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ لَا تُحَرِّمُ الرَّضْعَةُ أَوِالرَّضْعَتَانِ وَفِيْ رِوَايَةِ عَائِشَةَ قَالَ لَا تُحَرِّمُ الْمَصَّةُ وَالْمَصَّتَانِ وَفِيْ أُخْرٰى لِأُمِّ الْفَضْلِ قَالَ لَا تُحَرِّمُ الْإِمْلَاجَةُ أَوِالْإِمْلَاجَتَانِ هٰذِهٖ رِوَايَاتٌ لِمُسْلِمٍ۔

3164. Sayyidah Umm al-Fadl رضی اللہ عنہا narrated that Allah's Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "A suck or two will not cause (marriage) unlawful."[1]

3165. According to Sayyidah Ayshah's رضی اللہ عنہا version, he said, "One or two sips will not make (marriage) unlawful."[2]

3166. According to another version of Sayyidah Umm al-Fadl رضی اللہ عنہا, he said, "Drawing from the breast once or twice will not render (marriage) unlawful."[3]

COMMENTARY: According to the hadith, prohibition by reason of fosterage occurs on three sucklings or more. However, the Hanafis and most ulama (Scholars) hold that prohibition occurs on suckling milk even if once whether little or more provide the child swallows the milk into its belly and is taken during the age period of suckling. The period of suckling is two years according to most scholars including the two disciples Imam Abu Yusuf رضی اللہ عنہ and Imam Muhammad رضی اللہ عنہ, but two years and a half according to Imam Abu Hanifah رحمہ اللہ, though the Hanafis observe the verdict of the two disciples.

The ulama (Scholars) who say that prohibition by reason of fosterage occurs on suckling any number of times without distinction cite the verse of the Quran:

وَأُمَّهٰتُكُمُ الّٰتِيْ أَرْضَعْنَكُمْ۔ (النساء ۴: ۲۳)

{....and your mother who have suckled you} (4: 23)

He cannot say that fosterage occurs when a child suckles three or more sips. They cite the hadith of Sayyidah Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہا (# 3162) that prohibition by reason of fosterage occurs as prohibition by reason of genealogy.

Imam Shafi'I رحمہ اللہ cites the next hadith (# 3167) to say that prohibition by fosterage is established when a child has five sucklings.

---

[1] Muslim # 21-1451, Ibn Majah # 1940.

[2] Muslim # 17-1450, Tirmidhi # 1152, Abu Dawud # 2063, Nasai'i # 3312, Ibn Majah # 1941.

[3] Muslim # 18-1451, Nasai'i # 3310, Musnad Ahmad # 4-16.

(٣١٦٧) وَعَنْ عَائِشَةَ قَالَ كَانَ فِيمَا أُنْزِلَ مِنَ الْقُرْآنِ عَشْرُ رَضَعَاتٍ مَعْلُوْمَاتٍ يُحَرِّمْنَ ثُمَّ نُسِخْنَ بِخَمْسٍ مَعْلُوْمَاتٍ فَتُوُفِّيَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَهِيَ فِيمَا يُقْرَأُ مِنَ الْقُرْآنِ۔ (رواه مسلم)

3167. Sayyidah Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہا narrated that among that was revealed in the Quran was (the command) that ten sucklings known (to have been swallowed) made marriage unlawful. Then the command was abrogated by five (sucklings) known (to have been swallowed). Then Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم died and it continued to be recited from the Quran.[1]

COMMENTARY: The command about fosterage occurring on ten sucklings was withdrawn and the Quranic verse about five sucklings was revealed. Then the recital of this verse too was abrogated according to all the sahabah (Prophet's Companions) رضی اللہ عنہم but not according to Sayyidah Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہا Imam Shafi'I رحمہ اللہ maintains that the command is still valid, though recital is abrogated.

However, Imam Abu Hanifah رحمہ اللہ and other ulama (Scholars) say that both recital and command of this verse are abrogated.

SUCKLING AFTER PERIOD OF SUCKLING DOES NOT BRING PROHIBITION

(٣١٦٨) وَعَنْ عَائِشَةَ أَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ دَخَلَ عَلَيْهَا وَعِنْدَهَا رَجُلٌ فَكَأَنَّهُ كَرِهَ ذٰلِكَ فَقَالَتْ إِنَّهُ أَخِيْ فَقَالَ انْظُرْنَ مَنْ إِخْوَانُكُنَّ فَإِنَّمَا الرَّضَاعَةُ مِنَ الْمَجَاعَةِ۔ (متفق عليه)

3168. Sayyidah Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہا narrated that the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم came to her while a man was with her. He seemed not to like it, so, she said, "He is my brother." He said, "You (woman) must be careful who your brothers are for fosterage results from hunger."[2]

COMMENTARY: The Prophet's صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم words mean that the commands of fosterage apply only when milk is suckled as nutrition to remove hunger. Hence this thing is possible only during the period of suckling which is up to two years although Imam Abu Hanifah رحمہ اللہ regards it as upto two and a half years. The infant's food is provided through mother's milk.

If anyone suckles after that age that does not qualify him for fosterage relationship. The man sitting with Sayyidah Ayshash رضی اللہ عنہا was one such. He had suckled after the age of suckling had passed.

This is why the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم did not approved of it. (He gave a general edict concerning foster relationship.)

WOMAN'S TESTIMONY ABOUT FOSTERAGE

(٣١٦٩) وَعَنْ عُقْبَةَ بْنِ الْحَارِثِ أَنَّهُ تَزَوَّجَ ابْنَةً لِأَبِي إِهَابِ بْنِ عَزِيْزٍ فَأَتَتِ امْرَأَةٌ فَقَالَتْ قَدْ أَرْضَعْتُ عُقْبَةَ وَالَّتِي تَزَوَّجَ بِهَا فَقَالَ لَهَا عُقْبَةُ مَا أَعْلَمُ أَنَّكِ قَدْ أَرْضَعْتِنِي وَلَا أَخْبَرْتِنِي فَأَرْسَلَ إِلَى آلِ أَبِي إِهَابٍ فَسَأَلَهُمْ فَقَالُوْا مَا عَلِمْنَا أَرْضَعَتْ صَاحِبَتَنَا فَرَكِبَ إِلَى النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ بِالْمَدِيْنَةِ فَسَأَلَهُ فَقَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ

---

[1] Muslim # 24-1452, Abu Dawud # 2062, Nasai'i # 3309, Darimi # 2253.

[2] Bukhari # 5102, Muslim # 32-1455, Abu Dawud # 2058, Nasai'i # 3312, Darimi # 2256.

صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ كَيْفَ وَقَدْ قِيْلَ فَفَارَقَهَا عُقْبَةُ وَنَكَحَتْ زَوْجًا غَيْرَهُ۔ (رواه البخاری)

3169. Sayyiduna Uqbah ibn Al-Harith رضی الله عنه narrated (about himself) that he married the daughter of Abu Ihab ibn Aziz. Then a woman came and claimed that she had suckled him as well as the woman he had married. (Thus, they were foster siblings) He exclaimed, "I do not know that you had done so. Besides you did not inform me (earlier)." And, he sent (someone) to the family of Abu Ihab and asked them but they responded that they did not know about the woman having suckled their daughter. So, he rode to the prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم in Madinah and asked him (about what should he do). Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم said, "How can (you keep her as your wife when) indeed it has been disclosed (to you) ?" So, Sayyiduna Uqbah رضی الله عنه separated (from) her and she married (another) man.[1]

COMMENTARY: Imam Ahmad رحمه الله deduced from this hadith that one woman's testimony is enough to establish a fosterage relationship.

However, Imam Abu Hanifah and other scholars stated that proof of suckling is through the testimony of two men, or one man and two women, all just people. This hadith concerns taqwa (piety) and being on the safe side.

So, the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم did not consider it reasonable for uqbah رضی الله عنه to keep that woman as his wife.

WOMAN CAPTIVE FROM ENEMY TERRITORY

(٣١٧٠) وَعَنْ اَبِي سَعِيْدِنِ الْخُدْرِيِّ اَنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَوْمَ حُنَيْنٍ بَعَثَ جَيْشًا اِلَى اَوْطَاسٍ فَلَقُوْا عَدُوًّا فَقَاتَلُوْهُمْ فَظَهَرُوْا عَلَيْهِمْ وَاَصَابُوْا لَهُمْ سَبَايَا فَكَانَ نَاسًا مِنْ اَصْحَابِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ تَحَرَّجُوْا مِنْ غِشْيَانِهِنَّ مِنْ اَجْلِ اَزْوَاجِهِنَّ مِنَ الْمُشْرِكِيْنَ فَاَنْزَلَ اللّٰهُ تَعَالٰى فِيْ ذٰلِكَ وَالْمُحْصَنَاتُ مِنَ النِّسَاءِ اِلَّا مَا مَلَكَتْ اَيْمَانُكُمْ اى فَهُنَّ لَهُمْ حَلَالٌ اِذَا انْقَضَتْ عِدَّتُهُنَّ رَوَاهُ مُسْلِمٌ۔

3170. Sayyiduna Abu Sa'eed Khudri رضی الله عنه narrated that on the day of (the battle of) Hunayn, Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم sent an army to Awtas (which is near Ta'if). They encountered the enemy and fought against them and got the upper hand. They took captives (woman among them, too). Some men from the companions of the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم abstained from having sexual intercourse with them because they had their spouses who were polytheists.

Then, Allah, the Exalted, revealed concerning that:

وَالْمُحْصَنَاتُ مِنَ النِّسَاءِ اِلَّا مَا مَلَكَتْ اَيْمَانُكُمْ

{And (forbidden, too) are the married women except those whom your right hands possess} (4: 24)

(Meaning: women whom you have taken captives in the battle whose husbands are in enemy territory).

These women were lawful to them after they passed their iddah (waiting period).[2]

---

[1] Bukhari # 2640.

[2] Muslim # 33-1456, Tirmidhi # 1135, Abu Dawud # 2155, Nasai'i # 3335, Musnad Ahmad 3-72.

COMMENTARY: It is not allowed to marry another man's wife or to have sexual intercourse with her. However, women captives of war whose disbelieving husbands are in enemy territory may pass their iddah (waiting period) after which sexual intercourse may be had with them. In this case iddah (waiting period) means 'when they have had their first menstruation after capture, or, if they are pregnant, they have delivered their child, or, if they do not get menses, then after one month.

Teebi رحمه الله has said that Ibn Abbas رضی الله عنه explained this verse (4: 24) to mean that when a married slave girls is sold, her marriage breaks. The buyer may have sexual intercourse with her after she has had a menstruation, delivered her child, or she has spent one month in captivity.

Other ulama (Scholars) do not agree with him. The marriage of the captive woman does not break and the verse does not concern every female slave having a husband. Rather, it concerns only those female slaves taken into captivity in a battle.

SECTION II — اَلْفَصْلُ الثَّانِي

WOMEN WHO MAY NOT BE KEPT AS CO-WIVES

(٣١٧١) عَنْ اَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ اَنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ نَهٰى اَنْ تُنْكَحَ الْمَرْاَةُ عَلٰى عَمَّتِهَا اَوِالْعَمَّةُ عَلٰى بِنْتِ اَخِيْهَا وَالْمَرْاَةُ عَلٰى خَالَتِهَا اَوِالْخَالَةُ عَلٰى بِنْتِ اُخْتِهَا لَا تُنْكَحُ الصُّغْرٰى عَلَى الْكُبْرٰى وَلَا الْكُبْرٰى عَلَى الصُّغْرٰى رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَاَبُوْدَاوٗدَ وَالدَّارِمِيُّ وَالنَّسَائِيُّ وَرِوَايَتُهٗ اِلٰى قَوْلِهٖ بِنْتِ اُخْتِهَا۔

3171. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم forbade that a woman should be married to the same man to whom her paternal aunt is married, or a paternal aunt to the same man to whom her brother's daughter is married, or a woman to the same man to whom her maternal aunt is married, or a maternal aunt to the same man to whom her sister's daughter is married."

(He also said,) "Neither must the younger (relative) be married to the same man to whom the elder is married, not the elder (relative) be married to the same man to whom the younger is married.[1]

COMMENTARY: The second portion of the hadith emphasizes the first portion. The elder relatives are the two aunts and the younger relatives are the nieces.

If the aunt is already married to a man then he must not marry her niece while she is alive. Or, if he divorces her and she has completed her iddah (waiting period) then he may marry the niece.

If the niece is already married to a man then he can only marry her aunt when the niece dies or he divorces her and she goes thorough her iddah (waiting period).

The version in Nasa'I ends at the first portion 'to whom her sister's daughter is married.'

(The translation of Tirmidhi[2] of the second portion is:

'Neither must the younger sister be married to the man to whom her elder sister is married to the m an to whom her elder sister is married nor must the elder be married to the man to whom the younger is married already.'

---

[1] Bukhari # 5108, Abu Dawud # 2065, Nasai'i # 3293, Tirmidhi # 1129.

[2] Darul Isha'at Karachi.

FATHER'S WIFE IS FORBIDDEN

(٣١٧٢) وَعَنِ الْبَرَاءِ بْنِ عَازِبٍ قَالَ مَرَّبِيْ خَالِيْ اَبُوْ بُرْدَةَ بْنُ نِيَّارٍ وَمَعَهُ لِوَاءٌ فَقُلْتُ اَيْنَ تَذْهَبُ فَقَالَ بَعَثَنِي النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اِلٰى رَجُلٍ تَزَوَّجَ اِمْرَأَةَ اَبِيْهِ اٰتِيْهِ بِرَاْسِهٖ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَاَبُوْدَاوُدَ وَفِيْ رِوَايَةٍ لَهٗ وَلِلنَّسَائِيِّ وَابْنِ مَاجَةَ وَالدَّارِمِيِّ فَاَمَرَنِيْ اَنْ اَضْرِبَ عُنُقَهٗ وَاٰخُذَ مَالَهٗ وَفِيْ هٰذِهِ الرِّوَايَةِ قَالَ عَمِّيْ بَدَلَ خَالِيْ۔

3172. Sayyiduna Bara ibn Aazib رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that his maternal uncle Abu Bardah ibn Niyar رضی اللہ عنہ came by him carrying a standard in his hand. He asked him, "where are you headed?" He said, "Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم has sent me to a man who has married his father's wife that I might bring him the man's head."[1] According to a version: "He has commanded me to sever his head and seize his property." And, instead of 'maternal uncle' it has 'paternal uncle.'[2]

COMMENTARY: The standard in the hand of Abu Burdah رضی اللہ عنہ was a token from the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم. It showed that he was on a mission.

Teebi رحمہ اللہ said that not only did he married his father's wife, he also believed that it was lawful to do it. This was what the pre-Islamic people (of the days of ignorance did). His belief was apposed to Islamic ؒ (divine law) and anyone who believes the unlawful to be lawful is a disbeliever. He should be eliminated and his property should be confiscated.

SUCKLING AFTER PRESCRIBED TIME

(٣١٧٣) وَعَنْ اُمِّ سَلَمَةَ قَالَتْ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَا يُحَرِّمُ مِنَ الرَّضَاعِ اِلَّا مَا فَتَقَ الْاَمْعَاءَ فِي الثَّدْيِ وَكَانَ قَبْلَ الْفِطَامِ۔ (رواہ الترمذی)

3173. Sayyidah Umm Salamah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "Suckling does not make (married) unlawful unless it (the milk) enters the belly and is from the breasts and is done before weaning."[3]

COMMENTARY: The milk enter the belly and satiates the child just as a hungry stomach is fed. The milk finds its place in the intestines of the child.

This is done during the age of suckling which is upto two years or thirty months. After this age, prohibition by reason of fosterage is not effective.

The words 'from the breasts' are redundant. They merely express a procedure, otherwise it is not necessary that she should feed the infant directly from the breasts. She may spoon feed the infant or use any other way. That is as good as suckling, if her milk is used.

This portion is emphasized by the words that it must be done before the time of weaning.

The jurists say that if a child's suckling is stopped before the time of weaning then that does not mean that the prohibition will not be effective after that. For instance, if a mother stops suckling a child but within the age of suckling another woman suckles it, prohibition by reason of suckling will be effective from her nevertheless.

It is also necessary to know that it is not allowed to suckle a child after the time of weaning. It is unlawful to use a person's portion unnecessarily and clearly the use of milk as

---

[1] Tirmidhi # 1367, Abu Dawud # 4457.

[2] Nasai'i # 3331, Ibn Majah # 2607, Musnad Ahmad 4-292, Abu Dawud # 4456.

[3] Tirmidhi # 1155.

medicine after weaning is not allowed.
The physicians say that a daughter's milk is good for the eyes of parents. But, some ulama (Scholars) say that it is not allowed to use it. Other say that if it is certain that a daughter's milk is good for the eyes then it may be used and is allowed.

HOW MAY A WET NURSE BE PAID

(٣١٧٤) وَعَنْ حَجَّاجِ بْنِ حَجَّاجٍ الْأَسْلَمِيِّ عَنْ أَبِيْهِ أَنَّهُ قَالَ يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ مَا يُذْهِبُ عَنِّيْ مَذِمَّةَ الرَّضَاعِ فَقَالَ غُرَّةٌ عَبْدٌ أَوْ أَمَةٌ۔ (رواہ الترمذی وابوداؤد والنسائی والدارمی)

3174. Sayyiduna Hajj (pilgrimage)aj ibn Hajj (pilgrimage)aj Al-Aslami رضی اللہ عنہ narrated from his father that he asked Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم "O Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم how may I be relieved of the obligation due on me for fostering (me as) a child?' He said, "A good slave or slave girl."[1]

COMMENTARY: The person who asked wished to know how he might reimburse the wet nurse. She renders a great service and must be repaid well with a servant. So service is repaid with service.

PROPHET صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم RESPECTED HIS WET NURSE

(٣١٧٥) وَعَنْ أَبِي الطُّفَيْلِ الْغَنَوِيِّ قَالَ كُنْتُ جَالِسًا مَعَ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِذَا أَقْبَلَتِ امْرَأَةٌ فَبَسَطَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ رِدَائَهُ حَتّٰى قَعَدَتْ عَلَيْهِ فَلَمَّا ذَهَبَتْ قِيْلَ هٰذِهِ أَرْضَعَتِ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ۔ (رواہ ابوداؤد)

3175. Sayyiduna Abu At-Tufayl Al-Ghanawi رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that he was seated with the prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم when a woman arrived. The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم spread out his cloak (for her) so that she sat on it. When she departed, the astonishment of every one was quelled when) someone said "She had suckled the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم." (She was Sayyidah Halimah رضی اللہ عنہ.)[2]

NOT MORE THAN FOUR MARRIAGES

(٣١٧٦) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عُمَرَ أَنَّ غَيْلَانَ بْنَ سَلَمَةَ الثَّقَفِيَّ أَسْلَمَ وَلَهُ عَشْرُ نِسْوَةٍ فِي الْجَاهِلِيَّةِ وَأَسْلَمْنَ مَعَهُ فَقَالَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ أَمْسِكْ أَرْبَعًا وَفَارِقْ سَائِرَهُنَّ۔ (رواہ احمد والترمذی وابن ماجۃ)

3176. Sayyiduna Ibn Umar رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Ghaylan ibn Salamah Thaqafi رضی اللہ عنہ embraced Islam. He had ten wives (whom he had married) in pre-Islamic days and they too had embraced Islam alongwith him. So the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم instructed him to retain four of them and separate from the rest of them.[3]

COMMENTARY: This hadith confirms the marriages contracted during the jahiliyah (ignorance period) are valid. Hence, the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم did not ask him to remarry them. If they were of the prohibited degrees who could not be married at the same time,

---

[1] Tirmidhi # 1157, Abu Dawud # 2064, Nasai'i # 3329, Darimi # 2254, Musnad Ahmad 3. 45.

[2] Abu Dawud # 5144.

[3] Tirmidhi # 1131, Ibn Majah # 1953, Musnad Ahmad # 4609.

they were separated. Besides, only four wives are allowed at a time in Islam.

(٣١٧٧) وَعَنْ نَوْفِلِ بْنِ مُعَاوِيَةَ قَالَ اَسْلَمْتُ وَتَحْتِيْ خَمْسُ نِسْوَةٍ فَسَأَلْتُ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَقَالَ فَارِقْ وَاحِدَةً وَاَمْسِكْ اَرْبَعًا فَعَمِدْتُ اِلٰى اَقْدَمِهِنَّ صُحْبَةً عِنْدِيْ عَاقِرٍ مُنْذُ سِتِّيْنَ سَنَةً فَفَارَقْتُهَا۔

(رواه في شرح السنة)

3177. Sayyiduna Nawfal ibn Mu'awiyah رضی الله عنه narrated that when he embraced Islam he had five wives. So he asked the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم (about it). He said, "Separate one and retain four." So, he decided to separate the one who had been with him the longest (his first wife) and was barren since sixty years. He separated from her.[1]

MARRYING TWO SISTERS AT ONE TIME

(٣١٧٨) وَعَنِ الضَّحَّاكِ بْنِ فَيْرُوْزَ الدَّيْلَمِيِّ عَنْ اَبِيْهِ قَالَ قُلْتُ يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ اِنِّيْ اَسْلَمْتُ وَتَحْتِيْ اُخْتَانِ قَالَ اخْتَرْ اَيَّتَهُمَا شِئْتَ۔ (رواه الترمذی وابوداؤد وابن ماجة)

3178. Sayyiduna Ad-Dahhak Ibn Fayruz (or Firuz ad Daylami) رحمه الله reported that his father (Sayyidua Fayruz) رضی الله عنه narrated that he said, "O Messenger of Allah, I have embrace Islam and have two sisters as my wives." He said, "Choose whichever of the two you like."[2]

COMMENTARY: Imam Shafi'I رحمه الله and Imam Maalik رحمه الله contend that when a man becomes a Muslim and he has among his wives two sisters who too have become Muslims, then he is allowed to keep either of them as his wife, the first wife or the second of them. Imam Abu Hanifah رحمه الله says that if he had married both sisters to get her then he is not allowed to keep any of them. If he had married them one after the other then he is allowed to retain the one he had married first as his wife. He cannot retain the one he had married afterwards.

MARRIAGE OF INFIDELS WHEN ONE OF THEM BECOMES MUSLIM

(٣١٧٩-٣١٨٠) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ قَالَ اَسْلَمَتِ امْرَأَةٌ فَتَزَوَّجَتْ فَجَاءَ زَوْجُهَا اِلَى النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَقَالَ يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ اِنِّيْ قَدْ اَسْلَمْتُ وَعَلِمَتْ بِاِسْلَامِيْ فَانْتَزَعَهَا رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مِنْ زَوْجِهَا الْاٰخِرِ وَرَدَّهَا اِلٰى زَوْجِهَا الْاَوَّلِ وَفِيْ رِوَايَةٍ اَنَّهُ قَالَ اِنَّهَا اَسْلَمَتْ مَعِيْ فَرَدَّهَا عَلَيْهِ رَوَاهُ اَبُوْدَاوُدَ وَرُوِيَ فِيْ شَرْحِ السُّنَّةِ اَنَّ جَمَاعَةً مِنَ النِّسَاءِ رَدَّهُنَّ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ بِالنِّكَاحِ الْاَوَّلِ عَلٰى اَزْوَاجِهِنَّ عِنْدَ اِجْتِمَاعِ الْاِسْلَامَيْنِ بَعْدَ اخْتِلَافِ الدِّيْنِ وَالدَّارِ مِنْهُنَّ بِنْتُ الْوَلِيْدِ بْنِ مُغِيْرَةَ كَانَتْ تَحْتَ صَفْوَانَ ابْنِ اُمَيَّةَ فَاَسْلَمَتْ يَوْمَ الْفَتْحِ وَهَرَبَ زَوْجُهَا مِنَ الْاِسْلَامِ فَبَعَثَ اِلَيْهِ ابْنَ عَمِّهٖ وَهْبَ بْنَ عُمَيْرٍ بِرِدَاءِ رَسُوْلِ

---

[1] Bukhari in Sharh us Sunnah (Prophet's صلی الله علیه وسلم practice) # 2289.

[2] Tirmidhi # 1133 (and 1132), Abu Dawud # 2243, Ibn Majah # 1950, 1951, Musnad Ahmad 4-221.

اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَمَانًا لِصَفْوَانَ فَلَمَّا قَدِمَ جَعَلَ لَهُ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ تَسْيِيْرًا اَرْبَعَةِ اَشْهُرٍ حَتّٰى اَسْلَمَ فَاسْتَقَرَّتْ عِنْدَهٗ وَاَسْلَمَتْ اُمُّ حَكِيْمٍ بِنْتُ الْحَارِثِ بْنِ هِشَامٍ امْرَأَةُ عِكْرِمَةَ بْنِ اَبِيْ جَهْلٍ يَوْمَ الْفَتْحِ بِمَكَّةَ وَهَرَبَ زَوْجُهَا مِنَ الْاِسْلَامِ حَتّٰى قَدِمَ الْيَمَنَ فَارْتَحَلَتْ اُمُّ حَكِيْمٍ حَتّٰى قَدِمَتْ عَلَيْهِ الْيَمَنَ فَدَعَتْهُ اِلَى الْاِسْلَامِ فَاَسْلَمَ فَثَبَتَا عَلٰى نِكَاحِهِمَا رَوَاهُ مَالِكٌ عَنِ ابْنِ شِهَابٍ مُرْسَلًا۔

3179. Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضى الله عنه narrated that a woman embraced Islam and married (a man). But her (first) husband met the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم and submitted "O Messenger of Allah, I have embraced Islam and she had known about my Islam. (She married another man in spite of that.) " So Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم took her away from her second husband and returned her to her first (husband).
According to another version: He said, "She had embraced Islam with me." So, he returned her to him.[1]
3180. It is reported in Sharh us sunnah (Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم practice) about a number of women (like them):
The prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم returned them because of their first marriage to their husbands (respectively) who had embraced Islam alongwith them after their differences of religion and native lands. (When one of the spouses embraced Islam and moved to Islamic territory and the other resided in enemy territory, so there was a difference of religion and residence. But when the other followed suit, the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم let their previous marriage hold and joined the two again, there being no need to renew their marriage contact:)
Among these women were:
The daughter of walid ibn Mughirah. She was the wife of Safwan ibn Umayyah. She had embraced Islam (before her husband did) on the day of the conquest of Makkah but her husband had kept away from Islam. His paternal cousin wahb ibn Umayr رضى الله عنه was sent to him with the cloak of Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم as a token of security to Safwan (that he would not be harmed when he arrived Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم granted him four months' respite (to think over) before embracing Islam. She stayed with him (he having embraced Islam two months after his wife had done).
(Another woman was) Umm Hakim, daughter of Hirith ibn HIsham and wife of Ikrimah ibn Jahl who embraced Islam in Makkah on the day of the conquest of Makkah. Her husband, however, kept away from Islam and fled towards Yemen. She (got the Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم permission and after a few days) went to Yemen (herself). When she urged him to embrace Islam, he submitted. Their marriage, too, was retained.
(Imam Maalik has transmitted this hadith mursal from Ibn Shihab.)[2]

COMMENTARY: The question is whether the marriage of couple would continue as it is if one of them becomes a Muslim and the other persists on the religion they had been

---

[1] Tirmidhi # 147, Abu Dawud # 2238, Ibn Majah # 1951, Musnad Ahmad 4-271.
[2] Muwata Maalik # 44 (Nikah (wedlock)).

following. Mazhar رحمه الله cites Imam Shafi'I رحمه الله and Imam Ahmad رحمه الله as saying that if the non Muslim (partner) embraces Islam before the iddah (waiting period) or waiting period of the woman finishes (whether husband or wife) , then their marriage will remain undisturbed. It does not matter what religion they had been following (both the same or different). One may have been an idol-worshipper and the other a Christian or a Jew. It also does not matter whether they resided in Islamic territory or in enemy land, or both were divided one here and the other there.
Imam Abu Hanifah رحمه الله , however, said that they would be separated for one of three reason.

(i) The days of iddah (waiting period) are over.
(ii) The Muslim among them urges the non-Muslim to accept Islam, but to no avail.
(iii) One of them moves from Islamic territory to enemy land, or from enemy land to Islamic land.

Furthermore, Imam Abu Hanifah رحمه الله says that it is one and the same thing whether either of them had embraced Islam before they had had a sexual intercourse or after that.
(see the Life of Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم[1] Ibn Kathir - English translation of seeratun Nabi عليه السلام , p 518 - for Ikrimah's perdon and p 525 - for protection to Safwan.)
(The following is an extract on this subject from siratun Nabi صلى الله عليه وسلم of Allama Shibli Nu'mani and Sayid Sulayman Nadvi v2, Era of peace p 300)
Ikrimah was Islam's enemy and Abu Jahl's son. He himself was an arch enemy of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم in the same way as his father. He fled Makah at the time of its liberation and was headed towards Yaman. His wife had become a Muslim. She travelled to Yaman, convinced him, turned him into a Muslim and brought him back to Makkah and presented him before the Holy Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. On seeing him, the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم stood up, extremely pleased and walked towards him rapidly, his cloak falling down his body in the process.[2]
These words came to his lips:

مَرْحَبًا بِالرَّاكِبِ الْمُهَاجِرِ

"Welcome to you, O migrant rider!"[3]
Safwan ibn Umayyah was a chief of the pagan Quraysh and the staunchest enemy of Islam. He was the one who had promised Umayr Ibn Wahb a reward if he killed the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. When Makkah was liberated, he fled to jaddah having resolved to go to Yaman by sea. Umayr ibn Wahb submitted to the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. "O Messenger of Allah! Safwan ibn Umayyah is the Chief of his tribe. He has fled out of fear and will plunge himself into the sea." He said, "He is guaranteed security." The man said, "O Messenger of Allah, is there a token of the guarantee that he may trust me?" He gave him his turbgan which he took Safwan who said, "I fear for my life over there." Umayr said, "Safwan you do not yet realise how kind and forgiving Muhammad is." So, he came with Umayr to the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم and his first question was. "Umayr says that you have given me protection?" He said, "That is true!" Sufwan said, "Give me respite for two months." The Prophet صلى الله عليه

[1] Darul Isha'at Karachi.
[2] Muwatta Maalik (Nikah (wedlock)).
[3] Tirmidhi.

وسلم said, "Not two, but four month." Thereafter, he became a Muslim of his own accord. This account is found in detail in Ibn HIsham.[1]

SECTION III اَلْفَصْلُ الثَّالِثُ

THE MUHARRIMAT RELATIVES

(٣١٨١) عَنِ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ قَالَ حُرِّمَ مِنَ النَّسَبِ سَبْعٌ وَمِنَ الصِّهْرِ سَبْعٌ ثُمَّ قَرَأَ حُرِّمَتْ عَلَيْكُمْ أُمَّهَاتُكُمْ الْآيَةُ۔ (رواه البخاری)

3181. Sayyiduna Ibn·Abbas رضی الله عنه asserted that by reason of consanguinity seven kinds of women are prohibited and by reason of relationship by virtue of marriage seven kinds are forbidden. Then he recited:

حُرِّمَتْ عَلَيْكُمْ أُمَّهَاتُكُمْ (النساء ۴: ۲۳)

{Forbidden to you are your mothers....} (the verse 4: 23)

COMMENTARY: The seven women relatives through genealogy who are of the forbidden degrees are:

mother, daughter, sister, paternal aunt, maternal aunt, brother's daughter and sister's daughter.

The relationship by virtue of marriage called (مصاهرت) (Musahirat) or in - laws' are established through marriage. The seven women who are forbidden because of it include four who are prohibited for ever. It is never allowed to marry any of them at any time or in any condition. They are:

(i) Wife's mother or one's mother - in law.
(ii) Wife of son and wife of grandson (son's son) meaning daughter-in-law and grand daughter-in-law, down the family tree no matter how law.
(iii) Wives of father and grandfather and so on up the tree (wives of great grandfather....)
(iv) Daughter of one's own wife with whom one has had a sexual intercourse.

The other three relatives by marriage who are not forbidden perpetually ar e:

(i) Wife's sister
(ii) Wife's father's sister.
(iii) Wife's mother's sister.

The verse of surah on Nisa that Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضی الله عنه recited mentions all the seven women relatives by consanguinity and most of those who are forbidden because of marriage. The verse reads:

حُرِّمَتْ عَلَيْكُمْ أُمَّهٰتُكُمْ وَبَنَاتُكُمْ وَاَخَوَاتُكُمْ وَعَمَّاتُكُمْ وَخَالَاتُكُمْ وَبَنَاتُ الْاَخِ وَبَنَاتُ الْاُخْتِ وَاُمَّهَاتُكُمُ الّٰتِیْٓ اَرْضَعْنَكُمْ وَاَخَوَاتُكُمْ مِّنَ الرَّضَاعَةِ وَاُمَّهَاتُ نِسَآئِكُمْ وَرَبَآئِبُكُمُ الّٰتِیْ فِیْ حُجُوْرِكُمْ مِّنْ نِّسَآئِكُمُ الّٰتِیْ دَخَلْتُمْ بِهِنَّ فَاِنْ لَّمْ تَكُوْنُوْا دَخَلْتُمْ بِهِنَّ فَلَا جُنَاحَ عَلَيْكُمْ وَحَلَآئِلُ اَبْنَآئِكُمُ الَّذِيْنَ مِنْ اَصْلَابِكُمْ وَاَنْ تَجْمَعُوْا بَيْنَ الْاُخْتَيْنِ اِلَّا مَا قَدْ سَلَفَ اِنَّ اللّٰهَ كَانَ غَفُوْرًا رَّحِيْمًا *۔ (النساء ۴: ۲۳)

[1] Darul Isha'at Karachi.

{Forbidden to you (in marriage) are your mothers and your daughters and your sisters and your paternal aunts and your maternal aunts and your brother's daughter and your sister's daughters and your mothers who have suckled you and your foster sisters and mothers of your wives and your step daughters, who are under your ward ship, (born) of your wives to whom you have gone in - but if you have gone in to them, there is no blame on you - and the wives of your sons who are from your own loins; and that you should have two sisters together, except what has already passed. Surely Allah is ever forgiving, Merciful}

WIFE'S DAUGHTER IS FORBIDDEN

(٣١٨٢) وَعَنْ عَمْرِو بْنِ شُعَيْبٍ عَنْ اَبِيْهِ عَنْ جَدِّهٖ اَنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ اَيُّمَا رَجُلٍ نَكَحَ اِمْرَأَةً فَدَخَلَ بِهَا فَلَا يَحِلُّ لَهٗ نِكَاحُ ابْنَتِهَا وَاِنْ لَمْ يَدْخُلْ بِهَا فَلْيَنْكِحِ ابْنَتَهَا وَاَيُّمَا رَجُلٍ نَكَحَ امْرَأَةً فَلَا يَحِلُّ لَهٗ اَنْ يَنْكِحَ اُمَّهَا دَخَلَ بِهَا اَوْلَمْ يَدْخُلْ۔ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَقَالَ هٰذَا حَدِيْثٌ لَا يَصِحُّ مِنْ قِبَلِ اِسْنَادِهٖ وَاِنَّمَا رَوَاهُ ابْنُ لَهِيْعَةَ وَالْمُثَنّٰى بْنُ الصَّبَّاحِ عَنْ عَمْرِو بْنِ شُعَيْبٍ وَهُمَا يُضَعَّفَانِ فِي الْحَدِيْثِ۔

3182. Sayyiduna Amr ibn Shu'ayb رحمه الله reported on the authority of his father who from his grandfather (Sayyiduna Abdullah) رضى الله عنه that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "To a man who marries a woman and consummates the marriage, it is not lawful to marry her daughter. But, if he did not have a sexual intercourse with her, then he may marry her daughter. And, to a man who marries a woman, it is not lawful to marry her mother irrespective of whether he has consummated the marriage or not."[1]

COMMENTARY: The prohibition to marry the daughter of one's wife is in line with the verse of the Quran:

وَرَبَآئِبُكُمُ الّٰتِيْ فِيْ حُجُوْرِكُمْ مِّنْ نِّسَآئِكُمُ الّٰتِيْ دَخَلْتُمْ بِهِنَّ فَاِنْ لَّمْ تَكُوْنُوْا دَخَلْتُمْ بِهِنَّ فَلَا جُنَاحَ عَلَيْكُمْ۔ (النساء ۴: ۲۳)

{And your step daughters, who are being brought up under your care, from wives with whom you had intercourse, but if you have not had intercourse with them, then there is no harm for you} (4: 23) (that you marry them.)

The command not to marry the mother of one's wife, meaning his mother-in-law, absolutely, in any case, is borne out from this verse:

وَاُمَّهٰتُ نِسَآئِكُمْ۔

{and mothers of your wives (are forbidden to you).} (4: 23)

---

[1] Tirmidhi # 1120.

CHAPTER - VI

SEXUAL INTERCOURSE بَابُ الْمُبَاشَرَةِ

SECTION I اَلْفَصْلُ الْاَوَّلُ

A WRONG NOTION OF THE JEWS

(٣١٨٣) عَنْ جَابِرٍ قَالَ كَانَتِ الْيَهُوْدُ تَقُوْلُ اِذَا اَتَى الرَّجُلُ امْرَأَتَهُ مِنْ دُبُرِهَا فِيْ قُبُلِهَا كَانَ الْوَلَدُ اَحْوَلَ فَنَزَلَتْ نِسَاؤُكُمْ حَرْثٌ لَّكُمْ فَأْتُوْا حَرْثَكُمْ اَنّٰى شِئْتُمْ۔ (متفق عليه)

3183. Sayyiduna Jabir رضی الله عنه narrated that the Jews believed that if a man has intercourse with his wife at the vagina but comes (to it) from her rear then the child will be squint-eyed. So this verse was revealed:

نِسَاؤُكُمْ حَرْثٌ لَّكُمْ فَأْتُوْا حَرْثَكُمْ اَنّٰى شِئْتُمْ

{Your wives are tillage for you, so come to your tillage as you will}[1] (2: 223)

COMMENTARY: Wives are like tillage like their produce, children are born to wives. Men are at liberty to enter from whichever side and in whatever position they like. However, intercourse is only at the vagina, for, only then may it be compared to a tithe. Intercourse at the rectum or anus is forbidden not only by Islam but by all religions. It is an unnatural act.

COITUS INTERRUPT US

(٣١٨٤) وَعَنْهُ قَالَ كُنَّا نَعْزِلُ وَالْقُرْاٰنُ يَنْزِلُ۔ مُتَّفَقٌ عَلَيْهِ وَزَادَ مُسْلِمٌ فَبَلَغَ ذٰلِكَ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَلَمْ يَنْهَنَا۔

3184. Sayyiduna Jabir رضی الله عنه said, 'We used to practice azl (coitus interruptus). Meanwhile, the Quran continued to be revealed (but this practice was not forbidden)."

According to the version in Muslim: 'This was conveyed to the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم but he did not forbid us."[2]

COMMENTARY: Azl or coitus interruptus is to withdraw the penis before emission of semen. In this way, the woman is prevented from conceiving.

Ibn Hammam رحمه الله said that most of the ulama (Scholars) regard azl to be allowed. However, some people including a few sahabah (Prophet's Companions) رضی الله عنهم consider it as not permitted. In any case, the correct thing is that azl is permitted. It is stated in Durr Mukhtar that azl is allowed in expediencies.

While it is allowed to observe it with one's female slave without her permission, it cannot be practiced with one's free woman, meaning wife, without her consent.

If a man is married to someone else's female slave then he can practice azl with her only with her master's permission.

Imam Shafi'i رحمه الله also held that azl may be practiced with one's wife who is a free woman

---

[1] Bukhari # 2158, Muslim # 117-1435, Tirmidhi # 2989, Abu Dawud # 2163, Nasai'i, Ibn Majah # 1925, Darimi # 2213.

[2] Bukhari # 5208, Muslim # 138-1440, Tirmidhi # 1140, Ibn Majah # 1927, Musnad Ahmad 3-309.

only with her consent but no permission is necessary from a female slave whether owned or married to oneself.
Imam Nawawi رحمه الله who was a follower of Shafi'I said that azl is makruh (disapproved) because it halts procreation.

(٣١٨٥) وَعَنْهُ قَالَ إِنَّ رَجُلًا أَتَى رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَقَالَ إِنَّ لِيْ جَارِيَةً هِيَ خَادِمَتُنَا وَأَنَا أَطُوْفُ عَلَيْهَا وَأَكْرَهُ أَنْ تَحْمِلَ فَقَالَ اِعْزِلْ عَنْهَا إِنْ شِئْتَ فَإِنَّهُ سَيَأْتِيْهَا مَاقُدِّرَ لَهَا فَلَبِثَ الرَّجُلُ ثُمَّ أَتَاهُ فَقَالَ إِنَّ الْجَارِيَةَ قَدْ حَبِلَتْ فَقَالَ قَدْ أَخْبَرْتُكَ أَنَّهُ سَيَاتِيْهَا مَاقُدِّرَ لَهَا۔ (رواه مسلم)

3185. Sayyiduna Jabir رحمه الله narrated that a man came to Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم and submitted that he had a female slave who was their servant and with whom he had sexual intercourse but he did not like that she should become pregnant. So, he suggested, observe azal with her if you like. But that which is decreed for her will come to pass." After some time the man come and submitted. "The female slave has become pregnant. And, Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said. "I did tell you that whatever is decreed for her would come her."[1]

COMMENTARY: Allamah (The learned Scholar) Nawawi رحمه الله said that if a woman conceives even after observing coitus interrupt is then too the genealogy of the newborn is established in the light of this hadith.
Allamah (The learned Scholar) Ibn Hammam رحمه الله said that the question, whether the man who has observed azl may reject the child conceived in spite of observing azl, is complex.
The scholars say that if a man, having observed azl, inserted his penis in the vagina once again without having passed urine, then it is not proper to deny the child so conceived. Some drops of semen may have remained on the penis and penetrated into the oval on his second insertion.
It is why Imam Abu Hanifah رحمه الله contends that if a man has a bath (after having sexual intercourse but) before passing urine, and, after the bath, when he urinates he finds drops of semen, then he must have a fresh bath.

(٣١٨٦) وَعَنْ أَبِيْ سَعِيْدِنِ الْخُدْرِيِّ قَالَ خَرَجْنَا مَعَ رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فِيْ غَزْوَةِ بَنِي الْمُصْطَلِقِ فَأَصَبْنَا سَبْيًا مِنْ سَبْيِ الْعَرَبِ فَاشْتَهَيْنَا النِّسَاءَ وَاشْتَدَّتْ عَلَيْنَا الْعُزْبَةُ وَاحْبَبْنَا الْعَزْلَ فَأَرَدْنَا أَنْ نَعْزِلَ وَقُلْنَا نَعْزِلُ ورَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ بَيْنَ أَظْهُرِنَا قَبْلَ أَنْ نَسْأَلَهُ فَسَأَلْنَاهُ عَنْ ذٰلِكَ فَقَالَ مَا عَلَيْكُمْ أَنْ لَا تَفْعَلُوْا مَا مِنْ نَسَمَةٍ كَائِنَةٍ إِلَى يَوْمِ الْقِيَامَةِ إِلَّا وَهِيَ كَائِنَةٌ۔ (متفق عليه)

3186. Sayyiduna Abu Sa'eed al-Khudri رضى الله عنه narrated that they proceeded along with Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم on the expedition against the Banu Mustaliq. They captured some Arab woman captives, and yearned for women because of continued separation from their wives. So, they intended to observe azl (with these captives to forestall conception) and decided on that finally, but wondered if they could do it (or not particularly) when Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم was among them and not ask him? Thus they asked him about it and he said, "If you do not observe azl, you will not suffer, because every soul that is (destined) to be born till the day of resurrection will be born definitely)."[1]

---

[1] Muslim # 134-1439, Abu Dawud # 2173, Musnad Ahmad 3-312.

COMMENTARY: Imam Nawawi رحمه الله said that even the Arabs may be taken captives in battle. These people of Banu Mustaliq belonged to the tribe of Khuza'ah.

The Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم words have the word (ان) which could be read (ان) (in) or (أن) (an) (meaning "you will not lose ..." or "that you observe it, will not harm you...")

It makes no difference whether you observe azl or not. In this sense, this hadith does not approve azl.

But wit h the word (أن) (in the second meaning), it approves azl.

(٣١٨٧) وَعَنْهُ قَالَ سُئِلَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ عَنِ الْعَزْلِ فَقَالَ مَا مِنْ كُلِّ الْمَاءِ يَكُوْنُ الْوَلَدُ وَ
إِذَا أَرَادَ اللّٰهُ خَلْقَ شَيْءٍ لَمْ يَمْنَعْهُ شَيْءٌ۔ (رواه مسلم)

3187. Sayyiduna Abu Sa'eed al-Khudri رضى الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم was asked about azl (coitus interrupt us). He said, "It is not from all the semen that a child is born. When Allah decides to create something, nothing prevents him (from doing it)."[2]

COMMENTARY: The question was intended to get permission for practicing coitus interrupt us. The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم explained that a woman does not conceive every time a man's semen drops in her ovary or reproductive organ. It is only when Allah wills that the semen and the ova combine to grow a child. So it is Allah's will that decides whether she will conceive or not. If he decrees, then the reproductive process will begin and in spite of azl an active drop of semen might find its way into the ovary.

Of course, Allah has power to create a child even without semen going into the woman's ovary. On the face of it, this hadith does not approve azl. See also the commentary to a previous hadith (# 3040 3185).

(٣١٨٨) وَعَنْ سَعْدِ بْنِ أَبِيْ وَقَّاصٍ أَنَّ رَجُلًا جَاءَ إِلَى رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَقَالَ إِنِّيْ أَعْزِلُ عَنِ
امْرَأَتِيْ فَقَالَ لَهُ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لِمَ تَفْعَلُ ذٰلِكَ فَقَالَ الرَّجُلُ أُشْفِقُ عَلَى وَلَدِهَا فَقَالَ رَسُوْلُ
اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَوْ كَانَ ذٰلِكَ ضَارًّا ضَرَّ فَارِسَ وَالرُّوْمَ۔ (رواه مسلم)

3188. Sayyiduna Sa'd ibn Abu Waqqas رضى الله عنه narrated that a man came to Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم and disclosed that he practiced coitus interruptus with his wife. He asked him, "Why do you do it?" The man submitted, "I fear for her infant." Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "If that was harmful then it would surely have hurt the Persians and the Greeks!"[3]

COMMENTARY: It was presumed generally that if a man had sexual intercourse with his wife and she conceived a child during the days she also suckled an earlier child then it would render the milk poor and harm the infant. Moreover, they also imagined that it

---

[1] Bukhari # 4138, Muslim # 125-1428, Abu Dawud # 2172, (Maalik) Muwatta # 95 (Talaq).

[2] Muslim # 133-1438.

[3] Muslim # 143-1443, Musnad Ahmad 5-203.

would reduce the quantity of milk. So, this man wished to prevent his wife conceiving another child during this period of suckling.

The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم pointed out to the man that the Persians and Greeks (Romans)[1] Were used to do this thing. Their woman conceived during the period they were suckling their infant. Hence, it is not harmful to have sexual intercourse during the period of suckling or to conceive a child.

Hence, azl is of no purpose. In other words, the prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم disapproved resort to coitus interruptus.

(٣١٨٩) وَعَنْ جُدَامَةَ بِنْتِ وَهْبٍ قَالَتْ حَضَرْتُ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فِيْ أُنَاسٍ وَهُوَ يَقُوْلُ لَقَدْ هَمَمْتُ أَنْ أَنْهٰى عَنِ الْغِيْلَةِ فَنَظَرْتُ فِي الرُّوْمِ وَ فَارِسَ فَإِذَا هُمْ يُغِيْلُوْنَ أَوْلَادَهُمْ فَلَا يَضُرُّ أَوْلَادَهُمْ ذٰلِكَ شَيْئًا ثُمَّ سَأَلُوْهُ عَنِ الْعَزْلِ فَقَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ ذٰلِكَ الْوَأْدُ الْخَفِيُّ وَهِيَ وَإِذَا الْمَوْءُدَةُ سُئِلَتْ۔ (رواه مسلم)

3189. Sayyidah Judamah bint Wahb رضی الله عنه said that she went to Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم who had some people around him. He said to them, "I had intended to forbid ghilah. Then I thought of the Greeks and the Persians. Behold! They practice ghilah without it causing any harm to their children." Then, they asked him about azl. So, Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "That is a quiet burying alive (and a bad habit) referred to in this verse: "

وَإِذَا الْمَوْءُدَةُ سُئِلَتْ۔ الآية

{And when the girl-child buried alive is questioned} (81: 8)[2]

COMMENTARY: Ghilah is to suckle a child at the same time as the woman is pregnant. Nihayah says that it is to have sexual intercourse with one's wife during the days she is suckling her infant The Arabs abstained from this because they imagined that it was harmful to their suckling child. The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم had also decided to prohibit it but he did not because of the example of the Greeks and the Persians

During the jahiliyah (ignorance period), the Arabs used to bury their new born babies alive. The verse cited in the hadith speaks of it. Parents of these girls would be subject to harsh reckoning.

The prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم described azl as a kind of burying a child alive. Thus it is better and preferable to abstain from azl.

One day the prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم sahabah were assembled. Among them were Sayyiduna Ali رضی الله عنه. Zubayr رضی الله عنه and Sa'd رضی الله عنه besides the amir ul mumineen, Umar رضی الله عنه. They discussed azl and the general view was that it was permitted. However, one of them remarked that certain people compared it to burying alive one's own child, saying that it was a minor form of it. Sayyiduna Ali رضی الله عنه said that it can be so called only if the child begins to breath, meaning if an abortion is forced after the foetus stars living or a live child is born and it is buried then that is like burying alive a child.

---

[1] The Arabic (الروم) (Room) is rendered Greeks.

[2] Muslim # 141-1442, Abu Dawud # 3682, Nasai'i # 3326, Ibn Majah # 2011, Darimi # 2217, Muwatta Maalik # 16 (Rad'ah) Musnad Ahmad 6-434.

Umar رضی اللہ عنہ said, "May you live long Ali, you have spoken the truth. Accordingly, the juristic ruling also is that abortion is permitted till the foetus is lifeless. It is one hundred and twenty days after conception that soul is blown in the foetus after which abortion is disallowed.
Some people say that these words of the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم do not point to prohibition of azl but to its being makruh (disapproved). It is certainly a resemblance to burying a child alive because it is a throwing away of the sperm, the essence of conception leading to child birth.
Ibn Hammam رحمہ اللہ said that it is correctly reported of Ibn Mas'ud رضی اللہ عنہ that he compared azl to a minor form of burying alive.
Abu Umamah رضی اللہ عنہ said on being asked about azl that he had never known of a Muslim do it.
Ibn Umar رضی اللہ عنہ reported that Umar رضی اللہ عنہ beat some people for practicing azl.
Uthman رضی اللہ عنہ also forbade people from practicing azl (coitus interruptus).
However, the ulama (Scholars) say of all these prohibitions that they amount to nahi tanzihi (which is a prohibition nearer lawful).

WARNING TO ONE WHO DISCLOSES SECRETS OF HIS WIFE

(٣١٩٠) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ سَعِيْدِنِ الْخُدْرِيِّ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اِنَّ اَعْظَمَ الْاَمَانَةِ عِنْدَ اللّٰهِ يَوْمَ الْقِيَامَةِ وَفِيْ رِوَايَةٍ اِنَّ مِنْ اَشَرِّ النَّاسِ عِنْدَ اللّٰهِ مَنْزِلَةً يَوْمَ الْقِيَامَةِ الرَّجُلُ يُفْضِيْ اِلَى امْرَأَتِهٖ وَتُفْضِيْ اِلَيْهِ ثُمَّ يُنْشِرُ سِرَّهَا۔ (رواہ مسلم)

3190. Sayyiduna Abu Sa'eed al Khudri رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "The greatest trust in the sight of Allah on the day of resurrection..." But according to another version: "Surely, the most wicked of all men in the sight of Allah on the day of resurrection....is the men who has sexual intercourse with his wife and she is locked in his arms, and afterwards, he goes around revealing her secrets."[1]

COMMENTARY: Allamah (The learned Scholar) Teebi رحمہ اللہ said about the greatest trust that it is such that one who commits breach of it will be subjected to strict reckoning on the day of resurrection. This trust is the private life of husband and wife and their secrets. It is great responsibility of the husband to protect his wife from disclosure of her secrets. If a man spreads the secrets of his wife then he will be questioned on the day of resurrection.
Ashraf رحمہ اللہ said that it means that treachery in the greatest of trust as measured on the day of resurrection, in Allah's sight is to set people know about one's wife's secrets. It is what shameless people do. They disclose the shortcomings of their wives or the good qualities and characteristics of their wives which it is essential to conceal according to ء (divine law) and etiquette.
Ibn Maalik رحمہ اللہ said that it applies to both husband and wife. Neither must disclose such things of the other as that partner would not like to be known. Such disclosure is treachery.
In short, this conduct is punishable in the hereafter.
It would not be incongruous and unprofitable to recount here a didactic event.
A learned and wise man intended to divorce his wife. The people asked him what prompted him to think of that. He said, "How may I disclose her shortcoming?" (If I tell you of the reasons, that would amount to revealing her secrets. I cannot do that.) After he divorced her, they asked him again, "Why did you do that?" This time he excused himself, saying "How may I speak of the defects of a stranger woman?" (This is not proper.)

[1] Muslim # 124-1438, Abu Dawud # 4870, Musnad Ahmad 3-69.

Some of the ulama (Scholars) say that this prohibition to the couple to disclose one another's secrets is only when there is no benefit in it and no purpose served. If there is some advantage then it is not disallowed. For instance, a husband may be impotent or hard to please and uncaring. In such cases, his wife is allowed to complain of these things and this is what Allah himself permits;

لَا يُحِبُّ اللّٰهُ الْجَهْرَ بِالسُّوْٓءِ مِنَ الْقَوْلِ اِلَّا مَنْ ظُلِمَ۔

{And Allah likes not shoutting of evil words except by one who has been wronged.} (4: 148)

(The Urdu translation has 'making known' instead of 'shoutting.')

SECTION II الفصل الثانی

NO INTERCOURSE DURING MENSTRUATION & NO UNNATURAL ACT

(۳۱۹۱) عَنِ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ قَالَ اُوْحِیَ اِلٰی رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّی اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ نِسَآؤُكُمْ حَرْثٌ لَّكُمْ فَأْتُوْا حَرْثَكُمْ الْاٰيَةُ اَقْبِلْ وَاَدْبِرْ وَاتَّقِ الدُّبُرَ وَالْحَيْضَةَ۔ (رواہ الترمذی و ابن ماجة والدارمی)

3191. Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that this verse was revealed to Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم:

نِسَآؤُكُمْ حَرْثٌ لَّكُمْ فَأْتُوْا حَرْثَكُمْ۔ الآیة

{You wives are a tillage for you, so come to your tillage as you will} (2: 223)
Hence, come to it from the front or from behind (to the vagina). But refrain from (going into the) anus, and from sexual intercourse during (her) menstruation.[1]

COMMENTARY: The words 'come to it from the front' refer to coming to the vagina from the front, and the words 'come to it from the behind' also refer to the vagina but coming from the rear. They elaborate the text (فاتوا حرثكم) {So come to your tillage}. In any case penetrate the front, meaning vagina.
It is absolutely forbidden to commit an unnatural act at the anus.
Also, it is forbidden to enter the vagina too when the woman experiences her menstruation.

(۳۱۹۲) وَعَنْ خُزَيْمَةَ بْنِ ثَابِتٍ اَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّی اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ اِنَّ اللّٰهَ لَا يَسْتَحْيِيْ مِنَ الْحَقِّ لَا تَاْتُوا النِّسَاءَ فِيْ اَدْبَارِهِنَّ۔ (رواہ احمد و الترمذی و ابن ماجة و الدارمی)

3192. Sayyiduna Khuzaymah ibn Thabit رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said "Surely, Allah is not ashamed of the truth. Do not commit an unnatural act with woman through their anus."[2]

COMMENTARY: The word haya translated ahsmed is a kind of shyness depicted by a change in a person on being blamed. Since any kind of change is not associated with Allah, here haya is used figuratively to man 'to give up.' Thus: 'Allah does not give up speaking the truth and disclosing it.'

---

[1] Tirmidhi # 2991, Musnad Ahmad 1/297, Ibn Majah, Dararmi.
[2] Ibn Majah # 1924, Darimi # 2213, Musnad Ahmad 5-213, Tirmidhi # 1167.

This is spoken ahead of the subject of the hadith and a warning is sounded that approaching a woman at her anus is a forbidden act. It is so bad that even speaking of it is shameful though it be to prohibit it. But, it is a question of ؏ (divine law), so must be spoken.
The prohibition is stronger when practiced between men.
Teebi رحمه الله said that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم did not assert, "I am not ashamed of the truth..." but he attributed the words to Allah to emphasise the evil of the act. Those people who permit it are misled badly.
Teebi رحمه الله said that if anyone does it with a woman who is a stranger then he is an adulterer. If he does it to his wife or female slave then he perpetrates a grave sin. But he will not be stoned to death and will not be awarded the prescribed punishment. However, he will be punished definitely.
Nawawi رحمه الله said that if anyone commits it with his slave then he will come under the purview of one doing it to a strange.
Imam Abu Hanifah رحمه الله said that both the active and the passive men involved in the unnatural acct deserve discretionary punishment. However, if the passive one is young, mad or compelled then he will not be punished.

PERPETRATOR OF UNNATURAL WITH WIFE IS ACCURSED

(٣١٩٣) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَلْعُوْنٌ مَنْ اَتٰى اِمْرَأَتَهُ فِيْ دُبُرِهَا۔ (رواه احمد و ابوداؤد)

3193. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضى الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Accursed is he who approaches his wife through her anus."[1]

(٣١٩٤) وَعَنْهُ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اِنَّ الَّذِىْ يَأْتِىْ امْرَأَتَهُ فِيْ دُبُرِهَا لَا يَنْظُرُ اللّٰهُ اِلَيْهِ۔ (رواه فى شرح السنة)

3194. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضى الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Surely, Allah will not look (with mercy and kindness) at one who approaches his wife at her anus."[2]

(٣١٩٥) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَا يَنْظُرُ اللّٰهُ اِلٰى رَجُلٍ اَتٰى رَجُلًا اَوِ امْرَأَةً فِى الدُّبُرِ۔ (رواه الترمذى)

3195. Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضى الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Allah will not cast a look (of mercy and compassion) on a man who commits an unnatural act with a man or a woman at the anus."[3]

GHILAH IS FORBIDDEN

(٣١٩٦) وَعَنْ اَسْمَاءَ بِنْتِ يَزِيْدَ قَالَتْ سَمِعْتُ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُوْلُ لَا تَقْتُلُوْا اَوْلَادَكُمْ

---

[1] Abu Dawud # 2162, Musnad Ahmad 2-444.
[2] Ibn Majah # 1923, Baghawi in Sharh us sunnah (Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم practice) # 2297.
[3] Tirmidhi # 1168.

سِرًّا فَإِنَّ الْغَيْلَ يُدْرِكُ الْفَارِسَ فَيُدَعْثِرُهُ عَنْ فَرَسِهِ۔ (رواه ابوداؤد)

3196. Sayyidah Asma bint Yazid رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that she heard Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم say. "Do not kill your children quietly (in a secret way) because gill overtakes the horseman and hurls him down from his horse."[1]

COMMENTARY: Do not harm your children through ghilah. It was explained previously (hadith # 3189, commentary) that ghilah is to suckle an infant during pregnancy, or to have sexual intercourse during the period of suckling.

The hadith says that ghilah creates an impairment in the temperament of the child. Its energy saps, the effect remains upto his adulthood too so that he is weak in the battlefield and falls down from his horse.

So do not observe ghilah lest you be the cause of your child's destruction.

However, previously it has been affirmed that ghilah has no adverse effect on a child (for example, hadith # 3189). Teebi رحمہ اللہ explains that previously the action of the jahiliyah (ignorance period) was rejected that ghilah was the true cause of injury. This hadith speaks of ghilah as a general effective agent but the real cause lies in Allah's hands. Nothing happens without his will. Or, we may say that this hadith gives a command of the kind of nahi tanzihi, meaning it is nearer lawful then unlawful while the Prophet's صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم previous saying:

لَقَدْ هَمَمْتُ الخ

"I had intended to forbid ghilah...." is based on prohibition.

We may also say that both ahadith are based on the ijtihad (independent judgment) of the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم. When he observed that when the Arabs practiced ghilah, their children turned out to be weak, so he forbade this practice of ghilah. But, when he observed that the Greeks and the Persians also practiced it without adverse effect on their children, he reversed the decision. The hadith (# 3189) of Sayyiduna Judamah upholds this contention.

SECTION III اَلْفَصْلُ الثَّالِثُ

CONDITIONAL PERMISSION FOR AZL

(۳۱۹۷) عَنْ عُمَرَ بْنِ الْخَطَّابِ قَالَ نَهَى رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَنْ يُعْزَلَ عَنِ الْحُرَّةِ اِلَّا بِاِذْنِهَا۔

(رواه ابن ماجة)

3197. Sayyiduna Umar ibn Khattab رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم forbade coitus interruptus with a free woman without her permission.

COMMENTARY: It is a night for one's wife, a free woman; that azl may not be practiced with her without her permission. She might wish to have a child or to enjoy sexual intercourse. Both these things are denied to her if the penis is withdrawn before emission.

As for sexual intercourse with a female slave, her permission is not required to perform azl.

---

[1] Abu Dawud # 2881, Ibn Majah # 2012, Musnad Ahmad 6. 458.

CHAPTER - VII

CONTINUATION OF PREVIOUS CHAPTER بَابٌ

SECTION I اَلْفَصْلُ الْأَوَّلُ

FEMALE SLAVE MAY ANNUAL HER MARRIAGE ON EMANCIPATION

(٣١٩٨) عَنْ عُرْوَةَ عَنْ عَائِشَةَ أَنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ لَهَا فِيْ بَرِيْرَةَ خُذِيْهَا فَاَعْتِقِيْهَا وَكَانَ زَوْجُهَا عَبْدًا فَخَيَّرَهَا رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَاخْتَارَتْ نَفْسَهَا وَلَوْ كَانَ حُرًّا لَمْ يُخَيِّرْهَا۔ (متفق عليه)

3198. Sayyiduna Urwah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated on the authority of Sayyidah Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہا that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said to her concerning Sayyidah Barirah رضی اللہ عنہ, "Buy her and set her free." Her husband was a slave, so Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم gave her option (about herself) and she elected to separated herself (from her husband). If he were a free man then the prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم would not have given her option.[1]

COMMENTARY: The case of Sayyidah Barirah has been recorded in detail in the Kitab Buyu. (see hadith # 2877, and commentary).

She was the female slave of a Jew. Sayyidah Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہا bought her and set her free. Her husband was a slave, so the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم gave her choice to stay with him to revoke their marriage and separate from him because she was a free woman. She opted to separate.

The last sentence of the hadith seems to be the opinion of Urwah رضی اللہ عنہ. This coincides with the opinion of Shafi'I رحمہ اللہ Maalik رحمہ اللہ and Ahmad رحمہ اللہ that after getting freedom a female slave has the option to separated from her husband only if he is a slave, but not if he is a free man.

However, Abu Hanifah رحمہ اللہ disagrees, He says that she has a choice in any case whether her husband is a slave or a free man.

Arguments of the ulama (Scholars) of both sides may be seen in books of fiqh (Islamic jurisprudence).

If both the spouses are set free together then the ulama (Scholars) say that the wife does not have the option to revoke their marriage. Also, if only the husband gets freedom then he does not have the choice to revoke his marriage, his wife may be a slave or a free woman.[2]

(٣١٩٩) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ قَالَ كَانَ زَوْجُ بَرِيْرَةَ عَبْدًا أَسْوَدَ يُقَالُ لَهُ مُغِيْثٌ كَأَنِّيْ أَنْظُرُ إِلَيْهِ يَطُوْفُ خَلْفَهَا فِيْ سِكَكِ الْمَدِيْنَةِ يَبْكِيْ وَدُمُوْعُهُ تَسِيْلُ عَلَى لِحْيَتِهِ فَقَالَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لِلْعَبَّاسِ يَا عَبَّاسُ أَلَا تَعْجَبُ مِنْ حُبِّ مُغِيْثٍ بَرِيْرَةَ وَمِنْ بُغْضِ بَرِيْرَةَ مُغِيْثًا فَقَالَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَوْ رَاجَعْتِيْهِ فَقَالَ يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ تَأْمُرُنِيْ قَالَ إِنَّمَا أَشْفَعُ قَالَتْ لَا حَاجَةَ لِيْ فِيْهِ۔ (رواه البخاری)

3199. Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that the husband of Sayidah Barirah رضی

---

[1] Bukhari # 2536, Muslim # 8-1504, Tirmidhi # 12157, Abu Dawud # 2233, Nasai'i # 3449, Ibn Majah # 2073, Muwatta Maalik # 25 (Talaq), Musnad Ahmad 6-42, Darami # 2289.

[2] See Siratun Nabi Shibli Nu'man (Mutual Dealings Behaviour) v7 p 44.

عنه اللہ was a black slave, named Sayyiduna Mughith رضی اللہ عنہ. "It is as though I see him still going round following her though her streets of Madinah weeping. Tears rolled down to his beard." The prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said to Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ, "O Abbas, does it not astonish you how much Mughith loves Barirah and how much Barirah dislikes Mughith?" The prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم exclaimed, "Would that you take him back!" She asked, "O Messenger of Allah, do you command me (to do this) ?" He said, "I only make a recommendation." She said, "I have no need of him."[1]
(She meant that she was not willing to live with him.)

COMMENTARY: Some traditions say that Mugith was a free man. In this case it would imply that he was an ugly black man like a black slave. Or he was a slave who had been emancipated. This hadith speaks of a few things:

(i) A leader or ruler may make a recommendation for one of his subjects.
(ii) It is not wajib (obligatory) to accede to the ruler's recommendation.
(iii) The ruler has no right to call for an explanation from one who does not accept his recommendation.
(iv) It is allowed to separate from a person because of his ugly looks.

SECTION II اَلْفَصْلُ الثَّانِي

HUSBAND SHOULD BE SET FREE BEFORE WIFE

(٣٢٠٠) عَنْ عَآئِشَةَ اَنَّهَا اَرَادَتْ اَنْ تُعْتِقَ مَمْلُوْكَيْنِ لَهَا زَوْجٌ فَسَاَلَتِ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَاَمَرَهَا اَنْ تَبْدَأَ بِالرَّجُلِ قَبْلَ الْمَرْأَةِ۔ (رواه ابوداؤد و النسائی)

3200. Sayyidah Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہا reported that she intended to set free her two slaves who were husband and wife. So she asked the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم about it and he instruct ed her that she should begin with the man before the woman.[2]

COMMENTARY: If the female slave were set free before the male then she would have had an option to separate from her husband. This is as stated in the previous commentary. Generally, a man tolerates a slave girl as his wife but a woman seems uncomfortable with a husband who is a slave.

FEMALE SLAVE WHO CHOOSES HER HUSBAND CANNOT REPUDIATE MARRIAGE AFTER HER FREEDOM

(٣٢٠١) وَعَنْ عَآئِشَةَ اَنَّ بَرِيْرَةَ عَتَقَتْ وَهِيَ عِنْدَ مُغِيْثٍ فَخَيَّرَهَا رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَقَالَ لَهَا اِنْ قَرِبَكِ فَلَا خِيَارَ لَكِ۔ (رواه ابوداؤد)

3201. Sayyidah Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہا narrated that Sayyidah Barirah رضی اللہ عنہا was set free when she was with Sayyiduna Mughith رضی اللہ عنہ (as his wife). Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم offered her an option (to let her marriage stay or revoke it). But, he also said to her, "If he has sexual intercourse with you, then you will no longer have an option" (because that will suggest that you are pleased with him).[3]

---

[1] Bukhari # 5383, Tirmidhi # 1155, Abu Dawud # 2231, Darimi # 2292, Musnad Ahmad 1-215.
[2] Abu Dawud # 2237, Nasai'i # 3446, Ibn Majah # 2532.
[3] Abu Dawud # 2236.

COMMENTARY: The Hidayah states that if a female slave marries with the consent of her master, or he gives her in marriage with her permission or without her permission and she gets freedom later on then the option to retain or revoke her marriage rests with her, whether her husband is a free man or a slave.

If she marries someone without her master's consent and later he sets her free, then upon gaining freedom her marriage remains valid. She retains no option to repudiate her marriage. The three imams say that if she has married a free man then after gaining freedom she has no right to decide on her marriage.

Ibn Hamman رحمه الله said that the difference of opinion between Abu Hanifah رحمه الله and the three imams stems from the varying traditions about the husband of Sayyidah Barirah رضى الله عنه. Both Bukhari and Muslim have the hadith of Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها that the husband was a slave. But they also reproduce the hadith that he was a free man.

Similar traditions are found also in the four sun an, Trimdhi, Abu Dawud Nasa'i and Ibn Majah. Tirmidhi رحمه الله has described the hadith as hasan sahih.

The three imams رحمه الله go by the first tradition while Abu Hanifah رضى الله عنه goes by the second.

Mulla Ali Qari رحمه الله has cited this saying of Ibn Hamman رحمه الله in MIrqat in detail. We have reproduced only a summary of it.[1]

CHAPTER - VIII

THE DOWER

بَابُ الصَّدَاقِ

As Sadaq (الصداق) is the dower. It is the recompense paid to the woman by her husband against the right of wifehood. If a man decides at the time of marriage that he shall not pay the dower, then the marriage will not be valid. However, it is not necessary to mention the dower at the time of marriage, for it is not a condition, and the husband will have to pay mahr mithl (or the proper dower) in this case.

THE AMOUNT: ؛ (divine law) has not defined any amount of dower as wajib (obligatory) not has it mentioned its maximum limit. Rather, it has left it to the means of the husband. A man must determine it according to his ability to pay, However, the minimum limit of the dower is specified lest husbands begin to pay very low sums of money towards dower.

According to the Hanafis the minimum dower is ten dirhams (or 30. 62 gram of silver). If any one suggests a dower less than this then it would not be correct.

Imam Maalik رحمه الله holds that the lowest possible dower is one fourth dinar.

Imam Shafi'I رحمه الله and Imam Ahmad say that whatever is priced - or eligible to be priced - may be fixed as a dower.

DOWER OF THE PROPHET'S صلى الله عليه وسلم RESPECTED WIVES رضى الله عنها AND DAUGHTER رضى الله عنها: Apart from Sayyidah Umm Habibah رضى الله عنها among the wives of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم and Sayyidah Fatimah رضى الله عنها among his daughters, the dower of all the rest of them was five hundred dirham's equivalent silver weighing 1 to 10 gram and 530 grams. The present value is about rupees nine hundred and eighteen only.

---

[1] Hidayah (commentary on Islamic Laws) v1 pp 108-109 Dar ul Isha'at Karachi.

The dower of Sayyidah Umm Habibah رضی الله عنها was four thousand dirhams or four hundred dinars. It is equivalent to 12 Kilograms and twenty grams of silver. Its current value is Rs.7348.

The dower of Sayyidah Fatimah رضی الله عنها was about one kilogram and seven hundred and fifty grams silver. The current value of it is about Rs. 1050.

(This valuation is not correct in the current times The value keep fluctuating. So, current value of silver must be calculated.) (Asghar - meem)

SECTION I   اَلْفَصْلُ الْاَوَّلُ

MINIMUM AMOUNT OF DOWER

(٣٢٠٢) وَعَنْ سَهْلِ بْنِ سَعْدٍ اَنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ جَاءَتْهُ اِمْرَاَةٌ فَقَالَتْ يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ اِنِّيْ وَهَبْتُ نَفْسِيْ لَكَ فَقَامَتْ طَوِيْلًا فَقَامَ رَجُلٌ فَقَالَ يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ زَوِّجْنِيْهَا اِنْ لَمْ تَكُنْ لَكَ فِيْهَا حَاجَةٌ فَقَالَ هَلْ عِنْدَكَ مِنْ شَيْءٍ تُصْدِقُهَا قَالَ مَا عِنْدِيْ اِلَّا اِزَارِيْ هٰذَا قَالَ فَالْتَمِسْ وَلَوْ خَاتَمًا مِنْ حَدِيْدٍ فَالْتَمَسَ فَلَمْ يَجِدْ شَيْئًا فَقَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ هَلْ مَعَكَ مِنَ الْقُرْاٰنِ شَيْءٌ قَالَ نَعَمْ سُوْرَةُ كَذَا وَسُوْرَةُ كَذَا فَقَالَ قَدْ زَوَّجْتُكَهَا بِمَا مَعَكَ مِنَ الْقُرْاٰنِ وَفِيْ رِوَايَةٍ قَالَ انْطَلِقْ فَقَدْ زَوَّجْتُكَهَا فَعَلِّمْهَا مِنَ الْقُرْاٰنِ۔ (متفق علیه)

3202. Sayyiduna Sahl ibn Sa'd رضی الله عنه narrated that a woman come to Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم (one day) and said. "O Messenger of Allah, I present myself as a gift to you." She stood there (after saying that) for a long time. But (He did not give a response and while he was quit) a man stood up and submitted, "O Messenger of Allah, marry her to me if you have no need for her." So, he asked, "Have you anything to give for a dower?" He said, "I have this waist wrapper on me and nothing else." He said, "(Go and) see if you can find something, even an iron ring." He looked for something but could not find any thing. So, Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم asked him, "Have you any thing of the Quran with you (in your memory) ?" He submitted, "Yes! Surah so and so and surah so and so." So, he said "Indeed, I have given her to you in marriage for what is with you (in memory) of the Quran.

According to another version: He said, "Go! Indeed, I have given her to you in marriage, so teach her from the Quran."[1]

COMMENTARY: As long as he lived, whenever any woman offered herself to the prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم and he accepted her gift, she became lawful to him. No dower was wajib (obligatory) on him. This was neither permitted to any else not is it allowed now. It was among the Prophet's صلی الله علیه وسلم peculiarities, being allowed to him exclusively. The Quran confirms it:

وَامْرَاَةً مُّؤْمِنَةً اِنْ وَّهَبَتْ نَفْسَهَا لِلنَّبِيِّ اِنْ اَرَادَ النَّبِيُّ اَنْ يَّسْتَنْكِحَهَا خَالِصَةً لَّكَ مِنْ دُوْنِ

---

[1] Bukhari # 5-135, Muslim # 76. 1425, Tirmidhi # 1116, Abu Dawud # 2111, Ibn Majah # 1889, Darimi # 2201, Muwatta Maalik # 8 (Nikah (wedlock)) Musnad Ahmad 5-330.

الْمُؤْمِنِيْنَ۔ (النساء۳۳ : ۵۰)

{and a believing woman, if she dedicates herself to the prophet provided the prophet desires to wed her. This exclusively is for you only apart from the believers} (33: 50)

According to Imam Shafi'I رحمه الله a marriage without dower but only with the word (هبة) (hibah, gift) was allowed only to the prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. It is not permitted to anyone else. The Hanafis contend that marriage with the word hibah is permitted to everyone, but it was only for the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that dower was not wajib (obligatory). Thus, if a woman offers herself to a man and he accepts her gift then their marriage will be correct but the mahrmithl (proper dower) will be wajib (obligatory) on the man, though the woman does not mention any dower or even offers herself without dosing a dower. So, the verse cited (33: 50) means according to the Hanafis:

{This is exclusively for you without a dower being wajib (obligatory) on you}

AN IRON RING: This stipulation shows that any kind of property may be assigned as dower, no matter how insignificant, provided both husband and wife agree to it. While Imam Shafi'I رحمه الله and Imam Ahmad subscribe to t his edict, the ruling of Imam Abu Hanifah رحمه الله and Imam Maalik رحمه الله is mentioned at the beginning of this chapter. The Hanafis rely on the hadith of Sayyiduna Jabir رضى الله عنه in Daraqutni:

قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَاتَنْكِحُوا النِّسَاءَ اِلَّا الْاِكْفَاءَ وَلَا يُزَوِّجُهُنَّ اِلَّا الْاَوْلِيَاءَ وَلَا مَهْرَ دُوْنَ عَشْرَةِ دَرَاهِمَ۔

(Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Woman be given away in marriage only to their equals and their guardians must give them away in marriage, and a dower less than ten dirhams is not reliable.")

This is further upheld by the hadith of Sayyiduna Ali رضى الله عنه in daraqutni and Bayhiqi:

لَا صَدَاقَ اَقَلُّ مِنْ عَشْرَةِ دَرَاهِمَ

(Dower less then ten dirhams is not valid).

The Hanafis say about this hadith of Sayyiduna Sahl رضى الله عنه that it is about mahr majjal (prompt dower) because the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم used to give part of the dower immediately before consummating his marriages to his respected wives رضى الله عنهن. This is why he gave the same command to the man, "Bring whatever you find so that you may give something at least to this woman after contracting the marriage, as a dower,

It is on this basis what some ulama (Scholars) have deduced that a husband must give to his wife, after their marriage, but before having sexual intercourse, some of the dower.

Ibn Abbas رضى الله عنه Ibn Umar رضى الله عنه , Zuhri رحمه الله , and Qatadah رحمه الله , ruled on these lines they pointed out that when Sayyiduna Ali رضى الله عنه married Sayyidah Fatimah رضى الله عنها , the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم did not let him go to her unless he had paid something to her out of the dower. Sayyiduna Ali رضى الله عنه submitted, "O Messenger of Allah, I do not have anything with me now." He said, "give her your armour." So he gave her his armour. Then, he went to her and her dower was four hundred mithqal silver. The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم had instructed him to give out of that an armour's worth. Hence, these people have ruled that, before consummating the marriage, it is wajib (obligatory) to pay the woman something out of the specified dower. The Hanafis say that it is mustahab (desirable), not wajib (obligatory).

The concluding words of the hadith suggest that the prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم made 'teaching of the Quran' as a dower. So, some imams regard it as permitted. But, Imam Abu Hanifah رحمہ اللہ does not agree that it is allowed. He says about this kind of dower that the marriage will be valid but mahr mithl (Proper dower) remains wajib (obligatory) on the husband (to pay to his wife). He says about this hadith that the words 'for what is with you of the Quran do not mean 'a dower' but their being Muslims – acceptance of Islam – was the reason of their marriage. He did not specify that to serve as a dower.
"So teach her from the Quran." This command, too was not binding. Rather, it was a recommendation. Hence, this cannot be cited as evidence that the prophet رحمہ اللہ had declared teaching the Quran to serve as a dower.

AMOUNT OF DOWERS OF THE WIVES رضی اللہ عنہن OF THE PROPHET صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم

(٣٢٠٣) وَعَنْ أَبِي سَلَمَةَ قَالَ سَأَلْتُ عَائِشَةَ كَمْ كَانَ صَدَاقُ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَتْ كَانَ صَدَاقُهُ لِأَزْوَاجِهِ ثِنْتَيْ عَشْرَةَ أُوقِيَّةً وَنَشٌّ قَالَتْ أَتَدْرِيْ مَا النَّشُّ قُلْتُ لَا قَالَتْ نِصْفُ أُوقِيَّةٍ فَتِلْكَ خَمْسُمِائَةِ دِرْهَمٍ۔ رَوَاهُ مُسْلِمٌ وَنَشٌّ بِالرَّفْعِ فِي شَرْحِ السُّنَّةِ وَفِي جَمِيعِ الْأُصُولِ۔

3203. Sayyiduna Abu Salamah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that he asked Sayyidah Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہا, "What dower had the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم fixed (for his respected رضی اللہ عنہ wives) ?" She said, "His dower to his wives was twelve ooqiyas and one nashsh." Then she asked, "Do you know what a nashsh is?" He (Abu Salamah) رضی اللہ عنہ said, "No!" She said, "Half an ooqiyah and that makes it five hundred dirhams."[1]
Sharh us sunnah (Prophet's صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم practice) and other sources have nashsh in the nominative case.

COMMENTARY: Earlier in the chapter, we have spoken on the current weight and usage of five hundred dirhams.
The Shafi'i go by this hadith to say that a dower of five hundred dirhams is mustahab (desirable).
It must be clarified here that Sayyidah Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہا has mentioned the dower of all those of the Prophet's صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم wives whose dower he had himself determined. As for Sayyidah Umm Salamah رضی اللہ عنہ, her dower was fixed by the emperor of Ethiopia.

SECTION II الفصل الثانی

HEAVY DOWER DISALLOWED

(٣٢٠٤) عَنْ عُمَرَ بْنِ الْخَطَّابِ قَالَ أَلَا لَا تُغَالُوْا صَدُقَةَ النِّسَاءِ فَإِنَّهَا لَوْ كَانَتْ مَكْرُمَةً فِي الدُّنْيَا وَتَقْوًى عِنْدَ اللّٰهِ لَكَانَ أَوْلَاكُمْ بِهَا نَبِيُّ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَا عَلِمْتُ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ نَكَحَ شَيْئًا مِنْ نِسَائِهِ وَلَا أَنْكَحَ شَيْئًا مِنْ بَنَاتِهِ عَلَى أَكْثَرَ مِنْ اِثْنَتَيْ عَشْرَةَ أُوْقِيَّةً۔ (رواہ احمد والترمذی و ابوداؤد و النسائی و ابن ماجۃ و الدارمی)

---

[1] Muslim # 78-1426, Abu Dawud # 2105, Ibn Majah # 1886, Darimi # 2199.

3204. Sayyiduna Umar ibn at Khattab رضی اللہ عنہ said, "Beware! Do not be extravagant in fixing dower of the women, If it were more honorable in this world and more pious in Allah's sight, then the most qualified (among you) to do it was Allah's Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم. I do not know of Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم marrying any of his wives, or giving away any of his daughters in marriage for more then twelve ooqiyas (as dower)."[1]

COMMENTARY: the word taqwa (piety) (piety) implies a greater degree of taqwa (piety). Allah says:

إِنَّ أَكْرَمَكُمْ عِندَ اللَّهِ أَتْقَاكُمْ

{Surely the noblest among you in the sight of Allah is the most pious of you.} (49: 13)
Taqwa (piety) entitles one to be distinguished in Allah's sight.

A heavy dower is not a means of raising one in honour in this world. Rather, it also does not raise one in the sight of Allah. If that is so then why must one indulge in that which bears no fruit?

There are three traditions about the dower of the wives رضی اللہ عنہ of the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم. On the face of it, they contradict each other. We have seen the tradition of Sayyidah Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہا (# 3202) and part from this one under discussion we shall see Sayyidah Umm Habibah's رضی اللہ عنہ hadith (# 3208) which is an exception, for, the Negus of Ethiopia had fixed her dower as high as four thousand dinars out of respect for the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم.

As for the versions of Sayyidah Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہا and Sayyiduna Umar رضی اللہ عنہ , even they are not contradictory Sayyidah Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہا was precise and mentioned the half ooqiyah too while Umar رضی اللہ عنہ only gave a round figure. It may also be that Sayyiduna Umar رضی اللہ عنہ was not aware of the half ooqiyah or one nashsh.

It must be borne in mind that Sayyiduna Umar رضی اللہ عنہ did not mean to say that there cannot be dower higher than that. It is allowed to raise the dower above it.

BETTER TO PAY PART OF DOWER PROMPTLY

(٣٢٠٥) وَعَنْ جَابِرٍ أَنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ مَنْ أَعْطٰى فِيْ صَدَاقِ امْرَأَتِهٖ مِلْأَ كَفَّيْهِ سَوِيْقًا أَوْ تَمْرًا فَقَدِ اسْتَحَلَّ۔ (رواہ ابوداؤد)

3205. Sayyiduna Jabir رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "If a man gives his wife (part of) the dower (as prompt payment) , say two handfuls of flour or dates then he has made her lawful for himself."[2]

(٣٢٠٦) وَعَنْ عَامِرِ بْنِ رَبِيْعَةَ أَنَّ امْرَأَةً مِنْ بَنِيْ فَزَارَةَ تَزَوَّجَتْ عَلٰى نَعْلَيْنِ فَقَالَ لَهَا رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ أَرَضِيْتِ مِنْ نَّفْسِكِ وَمَالِكِ بِنَعْلَيْنِ قَالَتْ نَعَمْ فَأَجَازَهٗ۔ (رواہ الترمذی)

3206. Sayyiduna Aamir ibn Rabi'ah narrated that a woman of Banu Fazarah married against a dower of a pair of shoes. So, Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم asked her, "Are you leased, in spite of your wealth (and property) to give you person (in marriage) against a pair of shoes?" She said, "Yes!" And, he gave her permission.[1]

---

[1] Tirmidhi # 1100, Abu DAwud # 2106, Nasa'i # 3351, Ibn Majah # 1887, Darimi # 2200, Musnad Ahmad 1-41.

[2] Abu Dawud # 2110, Musnad Ahmad 3-355.

COMMENTARY: This hadith may also be presumed to be about prompt dower. When the woman agreed to marry against one pair of shoes, she become rightful to get the mahr mithl (Or, proper dower). On being pleased with that she surrendered her right to get more, So, the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم gave her permission.

This hadith is da'if (weak).

WHEN MAHR MITHL BECOMES WAJIB (OBLIGATORY) - ONE POSSIBILITY

(٣٢٠٧) وَعَنْ عَلْقَمَةَ عَنِ ابْنِ مَسْعُوْدٍ اَنَّهُ سُئِلَ عَنْ رَجُلٍ تَزَوَّجَ امْرَأَةً وَلَمْ يَفْرِضْ لَهَا شَيْئًا وَلَمْ يَدْخُلْ بِهَا حَتّٰى مَاتَ فَقَالَ ابْنُ مَسْعُوْدٍ لَهَا مِثْلُ صَدَاقِ نِسَائِهَا لَا وَكْسَ وَلَا شَطَطَ وَعَلَيْهَا الْعِدَّةُ وَلَهَا الْمِيْرَاثُ فَقَامَ مَعْقِلُ بْنُ سِنَانٍ الْاَشْجَعِيُّ فَقَالَ قَضٰى رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فِيْ بِرْوَعَ بِنْتِ وَاشِقٍ امْرَأَةٍ مِنَّا بِمِثْلِ مَا قَضَيْتَ فَفَرِحَ بِهَا ابْنُ مَسْعُوْدٍ۔ (رواہ الترمذی و ابوداؤد والنسائی والدارمی)

3207. Sayyiduna Alqamah رحمه الله narrated from Sayyiduna Ibn Mas'ud رضى الله عنه that he was asked about a man who married a woman but did not determine any dower for her and died before consummating the marriage. (He took time to think over it and decided through his personal deduction). He said, 'Her dower is like the dower of the women of her family (meaning, her match) , neither less nor more. She will observe the iddah (waiting period) as wajib (obligatory) and is entitled to (her share of) inheritance." Thereupon, Maqil ibn Sinan al-Ashja'I got up and said, "Indeed, Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم had decided the case of Birwa bint washiq a woman among us, just as you have decided. So, Ibn Mas'ud رضى الله عنه was delighted with it.[2]

COMMENTARY: Allah has bestowed on Ibn Mas'ud رضى الله عنه wisdom, foresight and a vast understanding of religion. He solved complex issues to be in agreement with the Quran and hadith. He took one month to study this issue before giving his verdict which was in conformity with what the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم had decided in a similar case. So, Ibn Mas'ud رضى الله عنه was deeply delighted on having given a correct judgement.

In this case, the opinion of Sayyiduna Ali رضى الله عنه and some other sahabah (Prophet's Companions) رضى الله عنهم was that because the marriage was not consummated, the woman was not entitled to any dower but it was wajib (obligatory) on her to observe the iddah (waiting period) and she deserved to get her share of inheritance, too.

Imam Shafi'I رحمه الله gave verdicts. One of these concurred with that of Sayyiduna Ali رضى الله عنه and the other with the decision of Sayyiduna Ibn Mas'ud رضى الله عنه with which Imam Abu Hanifah رحمه الله and Imam Ahmad رحمه الله agreed.

WHAT IS MAHR MITHL: It is the same dower as of the women in her father's family who are like her in age, beauty, wealth, time, intelligence, religion, virginity and woman hood, knowledge, manner and habits.

---

[1] Tirmidhi # 1115, Ibn Majah # 1888, Musnad Ahmad 3-455.

[2] Tirmidhi # 1148, Abu Dawud # 2114, Nasa'i # 3521, Ibn Majah # 1891, Musnad Ahmad 4. 279, Darimi # 2246.

SECTION III الفصل الثالث

PROPHET'S صلى الله عليه وسلم MARRIAGE WITH UMM HABIBAH رضى الله عنه & HER DOWER

(٣٢٠٨) عَنْ أُمِّ حَبِيْبَةَ أَنَّهَا كَانَتْ تَحْتَ عَبْدِاللّٰهِ بْنِ جَحْشٍ فَمَاتَ بِأَرْضِ الْحَبْشَةِ فَزَوَّجَهَا النَّجَاشِيُّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَاَمْهَرَهَا عَنْهُ اَرْبَعَةَ اٰلَافٍ وَفِيْ رِوَايَةٍ اَرْبَعَةَ اٰلَافِ دِرْهَمٍ وَبَعَثَ بِهَا اِلٰى رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَعَ شُرَحْبِيْلِ ابْنِ حَسَنَةَ۔ (رواه ابوداؤد و النسائی)

3208. Sayyidah Umm Habibah رضى الله عنها was married to Abdullah ibn Jahsh who died in Ethiopia. So, the Negus gave her away in marriage to the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم paying her a dower of four thousand on his behalf.
Another version has: four thousand dirhams.
Then he sent her to Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم with Sayyiduna Shurhbil ibn Hasanah.

COMMENTARY: The first husband of Sayyidah Umm Habibah رضى الله عنه is given in all the copies of Mishkat as Abdullah ibn Jahsh, but this is wrong. His name was Ubaydullah ibn Jahsh. This is what is found in sunan Abu Dawud and other sources.
The real name of Sayyidah Umm Habibah رضى الله عنه was Ramlah رضى الله عنه.
She was the daughter of Abu Sufyan رضى الله عنه and sister of Mu'awiyah رضى الله عنه. She was married first to Ubaydullah ibn Jahsh who had embraced Islam and had emigrated with her to Ethiopia from Makkah. There, he apostated, giving up Islam for Christianity. He died there. She remained a staunch Muslim.
The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم sent Amr ibn Umayyah Damri رضى الله عنه to the king of Ethiopia, the Negus, whose name was Ashumah asking him to convey his proposal of marriage to Sayyidah Umm Habibah رضى الله عنها. So, he sent his slave girl, Abrahah, to her with the proposal.
Sayyidah Umm Habibah رضى الله عنها accepted the proposal with great joy. She also sent someone posthaste to Sayyiduna Khalid ibn Sa'eed, رضى الله عنه her father's paternal cousin, requesting him to act as her guardian for the marriage.
She also presented Abrahah a pair of clothing and a silver ring for bringing her the good, auspicious news.
In the evening, the Negus invited Sayyiduan Ja'far ibn Abu Talib رضى الله عنه and all the Muslims who were in Ethiopia. When they were assembled, he deliverd the marriage sermon:

اَلْحَمْدُ لِلّٰهِ الْمَلِكِ الْقُدُّوْسِ السَّلَامِ الْمُؤْمِنِ الْمُهَيْمِنِ الْعَزِيْزِ الْجَبَّارِ اَشْهَدُ اَنْ لَّا اِلٰهَ اِلَّا اللّٰهُ وَ اَنَّ مُحَمَّدًا عَبْدُهٗ وَ رَسُوْلُهٗ اَرْسَلَهٗ بِالْهُدٰى وَدِيْنِ الْحَقِّ لِيُظْهِرَهٗ عَلَى الدِّيْنِ كُلِّهٖ وَلَوْ كَرِهَ الْمُشْرِكُوْنَ۔

Then, he said:
"To proceed, Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم has commanded me to conduct his marriage to Umm Habibah bint Abu Sufyan. I have obeyed him and have fixed a dower of four hundred dinars. I give the four hundred dinars, "placing them before these people."
After that Sayyiduna Khalid ibn Sa'eed رضى الله عنه delivered this sermon:

اَلْحَمْدُ لِلّٰهِ الْمَلِكِ الْقُدُّوْسِ السَّلَامِ الْمُؤْمِنِ الْمُهَيْمِنِ الْعَزِيْزِ الْجَبَّارِ اَشْهَدُ اَنْ لَّا اِلٰهَ اِلَّا اللّٰهُ وَ اَنَّ مُحَمَّدًا عَبْدُهٗ وَ رَسُوْلُهٗ اَرْسَلَهٗ بِالْهُدٰى وَدِيْنِ الْحَقِّ لِيُظْهِرَهٗ عَلَى الدِّيْنِ كُلِّهٖ وَلَوْ كَرِهَ الْمُشْرِكُوْنَ۔

Then he said:
"To proceed! I have obeyed Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم and I have married the daughter of Abu Sufyan رضى الله عنه, Umm Habibah رضى الله عنه, to the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم May Allah bless it. (Ameen)
After this proposal and acceptance, the four hundred dinars of the dower were paid to Khalid ibn Sa'eed رضى الله عنه.
The people prepared to depart as the marriage was contracted, but the Negus requested them to Stay on saying, "It is the sunnah (Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم practice) of the Prophet عليه السلام to serve a meal at a wedding." Then, he had food served to them after which they dispersed to their homes.
This took place in 7AH. At this time the father of Sayyidah Umm Habiba رضى الله عنها, Abu Sufyan was (not a Muslim but) an idolater and a sworn enemy of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم.
Later he accepted Islam.[1]

EMBRACING ISLAM AFFIXES THE SEAL

(٣٢٠٩) وَعَنْ اَنَسٍ قَالَ تَزَوَّجَ اَبُوْطَلْحَةَ اُمَّ سُلَيْمٍ فَكَانَ صَدَاقُ مَابَيْنَهُمَا الْاِسْلَامُ اَسْلَمَتْ اُمُّ سُلَيْمٍ قَبْلَ اَبِيْ طَلْحَةَ فَخَطَبَهَا فَقَالَتْ اِنِّيْ قَدْ اَسْلَمْتُ فَاِنْ اَسْلَمْتَ نَكَحْتُكَ فَاَسْلَمَ فَكَانَ صَدَاقُ مَا بَيْنَهُمَا۔ (رواه نسائى)

3209. Sayyiduna Anas رضى الله عنه narrated that (Sayyiduna) Abu Talhah رضى الله عنه married (Sayyidah) Umm Sulaym رضى الله عنها. Islam was the dower between them. (Sayyidah) Umm Sulaym رضى الله عنها embraced Islam before (Sayyiduna) Abu Talhah رضى الله عنه did. Then he proposed to her and she said, "I have, indeed, embraced Islam. So, if you submit to Islam. I shall marry you." Thus, he embraced Islam and submission to Islam become the dower between them.[2]

COMMENTARY: Sayyidah Umm Sulaym رضى الله عنه was the daughter of Milhan and mother of Anas ibn Maalik رضى الله عنه. She had been married to Maalik ibn Nadr and Anas رضى الله عنه was born to them, but Maalik did not embrace Islam and was killed as an idolater.
Afterwards Umm Sulaym embraced Islam. Abu Talhah was an idolater. He proposed marriage and she was married to him.
The Hanafis says that they were married against a dower agreed between them but when she married him in keeping with her promise when he embraced Islam, she waived her dower. In other words, his submission to Islam was their reason to marry. It was not her dower.
However, other Imam take the hadith in its literal sense. They regard his Islam as the dower arranged between them.

---

[1] See also the Life of Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم, Ibn Kathir, pp 418-19 (Darul Isha'at Karachi).
[2] Nasa'i # 3340.

CHAPTER - IX

THE WALIMAH OR THE WEDDING FEAST بَابُ الْوَلِيْمَةِ

Walimah is the food that is served at the wedding. The word comes from altiyam which means 'getting together.' So, it is the banquet thrown when the spouses get together.

WALIMAH'S* POSITION IN SHARI'AH (DIVINE LAW): Most ulama (Scholars) say that wlimah is masnun, but some call it mustahab (desirable) and yet other regard it as wajib (obligatory).

TIME: They differ also on the proper time of the Walimah. Some ulama (Scholars) say that the correct time for it is after consummation of marriage. Some of them put it with the contract of the marriage. Another opinion is that it is served at both times - at the marriage and after the consummation.

Some ulama (Scholars) say that it is makruh (disapproved) to serve it for up to two days. The most according to them is two days after marriage. Imam Maalik رحمه الله contends that it is mustahab (desirable) to serve it for one week.

However, the very correct thing is that it depends on the husband's means. If he serves only once or for many days and at many times, then he may do it.

KINDS OF FEAST: It is stated in Majma ul Bihar that there are eight kinds of feast.

(i) Walimah.
(ii) Khars. (خرس)
(iii) I'dhar. (اعذار)
(iv) Wakirah (وكيره)
(v) Naqi'ah (نقيعة)
(vi) Wadimah (وضيمة)
(vii) Aqiqah. (عقيقة)
(viii) Madbah. (مادبة)

The Walimah is at someone's marriage, Khars is to celebrate a birth. I'dhar is at a child's circumcision. Wakirah is when one's house is built and ready to occupy. Naqi'ah is when a traveller arrives. Wadimah is when one is in distress, so that it might be removed. Aqiqah is when a child is named. And Madbah is any feast that is hosted without any motive.

All these kinds are mustahab (desirable) with the exception of Walimah which some people call wajib (obligatory).

SECTION I اَلْفَصْلُ الْاَوَّلُ

COMMAND TO SERVE WALIMAH

(٣٢١٠) وَعَنْ اَنَسٍ اَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ رَأٰى عَلٰى عَبْدِالرَّحْمٰنِ بْنِ عَوْفٍ اَثَرَ صُفْرَةٍ فَقَالَ مَاهٰذَا

قَالَ اِنِّيْ تَزَوَّجْتُ امْرَاَةً عَلٰى وَزْنِ نَوَاةٍ مِنْ ذَهَبٍ قَالَ بَارَكَ اللّٰهُ لَكَ اَوْلِمْ وَلَوْ بِشَاةٍ۔ (متفق عليه)

3210. Sayyiduna Anas رضى الله عنه narrated that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم observed a trace of yellow (saffron) on (the clothing) of Abdur Rahman ibn Awf رضى الله عنه. so, he asked him, "What is this?" He submitted, "I have married a woman for one nawah of gold." He said, "May Allah bless you! Throw a wedding feast though it be only with a sheep."[1]

(Nawah also means date seed, so gold equivalent to the seed.)

COMMENTARY: The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم may have simply asked Sayyiduna Abdur Rahman ibn Awf رضی اللہ عنہ the reason for the colour on him, or he may have questioned him why he had applied it while men are disallowed to apply perfume. He explained that he had not applied in intentionally but it may have dropped on him from his new bride.

Qadi رحمه الله said that while a nashsh is twenty dirhams and an ooqiyah forty dirhams weight, so nawah is five dirhams in weight. Thus, her dower was five dirhams some authorities say that nawah means nawah tamr or seed of date and this seems more correct. In t his case, he may have given gold equivalent to the seed as dower.

'Though it be only a sheep could describe the bare minimum, but here it means 'even if it casts too much. In those days, sheep could not be said to represent a minimum amount because Muslims were not well-off. They faced dire poverty and observed the sunnah (Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم practice) with parched barley meal or such other inexpensive things. Moreover, even Abdur Rahman ibn Awf رضی اللہ عنہ was not so with at that time as to be expected to regard sheep as a minimum.

THE PROPHET'S صلى الله عليه وسلم G RAND WALIMAH WHEN HE MARRIED ZAYNAB رضی اللہ عنہ

(٣٢١١) وَعَنْهُ قَالَ مَا أَوْلَمَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ عَلٰى أَحَدٍ مِنْ نِسَائِهِ مَا أَوْلَمَ عَلٰى زَيْنَبَ أَوْلَمَ بِشَاةٍ۔ (متفق عليه)

3211. Sayyiduna Anas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم did not host a Walimah for any of his wives as he did for Sayyidah Zaynab رضی اللہ عنہا. He hosted the Walimah (for her marriage) with a sheep.[2]

COMMENTARY: The previous contention is proved that when sheep is served in a Walimah it is a sumptuous feast and very expensive.

(٣٢١٢) وَعَنْهُ قَالَ أَوْلَمَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ حِيْنَ بَنٰى بِزَيْنَبَ بِنْتِ جَحْشٍ فَأَشْبَعَ النَّاسَ خُبْزًا وَلَحْمًا۔ (رواه البخاری)

3212. Sayyiduna Anas رضی اللہ عنہ said that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم hosted a Walimah after consummating his marriage with Sayyidah Zaynab bint jahsh. He served bread and meat to the people to satiation point.[3]

EMANCIPATION AS DOWER FOR WOMAN

(٣٢١٣) وَعَنْهُ قَالَ إِنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ أَعْتَقَ صَفِيَّةَ وَتَزَوَّجَهَا وَجَعَلَ عِتْقَهَا صَدَاقَهَا وَ أَوْلَمَ عَلَيْهَا بِحَيْسٍ۔ (متفق عليه)

3213. Sayyiduna Anas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم set

---

[1] Bukhari # 5148, Musilm # 79-1427, Tirmidhi # 1034, Abu Dawud # 2109, Ibn Majah # 1907, Darimi # 2204, Muwatta Maalik # 47 (Nikah (wedlock)), Musnad Ahmad 3-205.

[2] Bukhari # 5168, Muslim # 80-1428, Abu Dawud # 3743, Ibn Majah # 1908, Musnad Ahmad 3. 227.

[3] Bukhari # 4794.

Sayyidah Safiyyah رضى الله عنها free and (after that) he married her. He made her freedom her dower. He also host ed a Walimah for her with hays. [1]
(Hays is a mixture of dates, clarified butter and dried curd.)

COMMENTARY: Sayyidah Safiyah رضى الله عنها was the daughter of Huyyay ibn Akhtab who was the chief of the tribes of Khaybar, Banu Qurayzah and Banu Qurayzah and Banu Nadir when the Muslim defeated the Jews and conquered Khaybar, she too was among the captives, and was given to the prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم as a female slave. He set her free and married her so that she earned the highest honour of the world and religion.

IS IT ALLOWED TO REGARD FREEDOM AS A DOWER: There are different views about whether freedom of a woman may serve as her dower. Some sahabah (Prophet's Companions) رضى الله عنهم and some ulama (Scholars) abide by this hadith and hold that a slave girl's emancipation may be regarded to be her dower. However, another section of the sahabah (Prophet's Companions) رضى الله عنهم and ulama (Scholars) hold that it is disallowed to do so. The Hanafis are among the latter. They say about this hadith that this is an exceptional case, exclusive for the prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم but not allowed to anyone else.

It is stated in Sharh Hidayah that if a man sets his female slave free on condition that against her freedom she should marry him and she agrees to it (no dower being payable) then setting her free would be correct. However, as for as her marriage is concerned, she is at liberty. If she marries the man t hen it will be wajib (obligatory) to pay her mahr mithl (the proper dower).

Hays is a sweet dish prepared from dates, clarified butter, cheese etc.

THE WALIMAH OF SAYYIDAH SAFIYAH رضى الله عنها

(٣٢١٤) وَعَنْهُ قَالَ اَقَامَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ بَيْنَ خَيْبَرَ وَالْمَدِيْنَةِ ثَلَاثَ لَيَالٍ يُبْنٰى عَلَيْهِ بِصَفِيَّةَ فَدَعَوْتُ الْمُسْلِمِيْنَ اِلٰى وَلِيْمَتِهٖ وَمَا كَانَ فِيْهَا مِنْ خُبْزٍ وَّلَا لَحْمٍ وَمَا كَانَ فِيْهَا اِلَّا اَنْ اَمَرَ بِالْاَنْطَاعِ فَبُسِطَتْ فَاُلْقِيَ عَلَيْهَا التَّمْرُ وَالْاَقِطُ وَالسَّمْنُ۔ (رواه البخارى)

3214. Sayyiduna Anas رضى الله عنه said that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم halted for three nights between Khaybar and Madinah after his marriage with Sayyidah Safiyah رضى الله عنها Anas رضى الله عنه invited the Muslims to his Walimah which had no bread and no meat. He had some table spreads placed. Then dates, dried curd and clarified butter were laid on them. [2]

COMMENTARY: The previous hadith had a word hays. This hadith mentions its ingredients.

THE WALIMAH OF ONE OF THE WIVES

(٣٢١٥) وَعَنْ صَفِيَّةَ بِنْتِ شَيْبَةَ قَالَ اَوْلَمَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ عَلٰى بَعْضِ نِسَائِهٖ بِمُدَّيْنِ مِنْ شَعِيْرٍ۔ (رواه البخارى)

3215. Sayyidah Safiyah bint Sahaybah رضى الله عنها said that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم host

[1] Bukhari # 5169, Muslim # 84-1365, Tirmidhi # 1115, Abu Dawud # 2054, Nasa'i # 3342, Ibn Majah # 1958, Musnad Ahmad 3-99.

[2] Bukhari # 4213, Nasa'i # 3382, Musnad Ahmad 3-264.

ed a Walimah for one of his wives (probably, Umm Salamah) رضی اللہ عنہ with two mudds of barley.[1]

ACCEPT INVITATION TO FEAST

(٣٢١٦) وَعَنْ عَبْدِاللّٰهِ ابْنِ عُمَرَ اَنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ اِذَا دُعِيَ اَحَدُكُمْ اِلَى الْوَلِيْمَةِ فَلْيَاْتِهَا۔ مُتَّفَقٌ عَلَيْهِ وَفِيْ رِوَايَةٍ لِمُسْلِمٍ فَلْيُجِبْ عُرْسًا كَانَ اَوْنَحْوَهٗ (متفق عليه)

3216. Sayyiduna Abdullah ibn Umar رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "When one of you is invited, to a Walimah, he must go to it."
According to another version in Muslim: "He must accept (the invitation) be it a Walimah or another (feast) like it." [2]

COMMENTARY: Another feast could be one of these to celebrate circumcision, aqiqah, etc. Thus Walimah stands only for wedding feast.
Some people say that it is wajib (obligatory) to accept the invitation to a Walimah. If anyone does not attend it without any excuse then he commits a sin in the light of the words of the prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم:

مَنْ تَرَكَ الدَّعْوَةَ فَقَدْ عَصَى اللّٰهَ وَرَسُوْلَهٗ

"He who rejects an invitation has indeed disobeyed Allah and his Messenger."
Some ulama (Scholars) say that it is not wajib (obligatory) to accept it, but mustahab (desirable). Moreover, to accept an invitation is to attend it. As for having the meal, if he is not fasting then it is mustahab (desirable) to eat.
As for other invitations besides Walimah, it is mustahab (desirable) to accept.
Teebi رحمہ اللہ and Ibn Maalik رحمہ اللہ hold that whether it is wajib (obligatory) or mustahab (desirable), some reasons are there to reject or not attend it. They are:
(i) The food is likely to be unlawful.
(ii) Only the rich are invited,
(iii) One of the invitees is likely to be harmful or is a disagreeable person.
Thus, if anyone does not accept an invitation in such cases, then it does not mater.
Also, if a person is invited only to flatter him, or to word off any possible harm from him, or to earn a worldly favour from him, then this invitation must not be accepted.
Similarly, the invitation need not be accepted if prohibited things like wine are served there, or dance and singing or such tings as disallowed by Shari'ah (divine law) are organized.
The foregoing also covers an invitation where silk is spread on the ground.
We must remember that most of the invitations today are not without the foregoing evils, if not all then most of them.
Therefore, the Şufis say that azlah (or staying aloof or separated) is now lawful. Rather, now a days isolation or seclusion is wajib (obligatory).
Hence, if a person exercises caution and prefers to be secluded not attending any gathering or invitation, then it is better for him to practice seclusion.

---

[1] Bukhari # 5172, Musnad Ahmad 6-113.
[2] Bukhari # 5173, Muslm # 16-1429, Darimi # 2205, Muwatta Maalik # 49 (Nikah (wedlock)) Abu Dawud # 3736, Ibn Majah # 1914, Musnad Ahmad 2-22.

(٣٢١٧) وَعَنْ جَابِرٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِذَا دُعِيَ أَحَدُكُمْ إِلَى طَعَامٍ فَلْيُجِبْ فَإِنْ شَاءَ طَعِمَ وَإِنْ شَاءَ تَرَكَ (رواه مسلم)

3217. Sayyiduna Jabir رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, When any of you is invited to a meal (of a wedding or like it), he must go it to it. There, If he likes, he may eat or if he likes, he may abstain"[1]

COMMENTARY: While accepting an invitation may be wajib (obligatory) or mustahab (desirable) eating food there is mustahab (desirable) only and that too if one is not fasting.
Ibn Maalik رحمہ اللہ said that the command to accept an invitation is of the kind of wajib (obligatory) provided the invitee has no excuse. If he has an excuse then he may not go.

VERY BAD TO INVITE ONLY THE RICH

(٣٢١٨) وَعَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ شَرُّ الطَّعَامِ طَعَامُ الْوَلِيْمَةِ يُدْعٰى لَهَا الْأَغْنِيَاءُ وَيُتْرَكُ الْفُقَرَاءُ وَمَنْ تَرَكَ الدَّعْوَةَ فَقَدْ عَصَى اللّٰهَ وَرَسُوْلَهٗ۔ (متفق عليه)

3218. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "The worst (kind) of food is the meal at the Walimah to which the wealthy are invited while the poor are ignored. If anyone skips an invitation (without an excuse) then he disobeys Allah and His Messenger."[2]

COMMENTARY: This hadith does not mean that this is the only food of the worst kind. Indeed, some may be worse than this food. Thus the words

شَرُّ النَّاسِ مَنْ أَكَلَ وَحْدَهٗ

'The worst of men is he who eats by himself.'
imply that this class is the worst. There can be many of them.
This hadith does not condemn Walimah itself but questions the one that is exclusive for the rich. Those authorities who say that it is wajib (obligatory) to accept an invitation cite this hadith. But, a majority of u lama hold that this hadith emphasizes it as a mustahab (desirable).

SERVING FOOD THE GATE CRASHER

(٣٢١٩) وَعَنْ أَبِي مَسْعُوْدٍ الْأَنْصَارِيِّ قَالَ كَانَ رَجُلٌ مِنَ الْأَنْصَارِ يُكْنٰى أَبَا شُعَيْبٍ كَانَ لَهٗ غُلَامٌ لَحَّامٌ فَقَالَ اِصْنَعْ لِيْ طَعَامًا يَكْفِيْ خَمْسَةً لَعَلِّيْ أَدْعُو النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ خَامِسَ خَمْسَةٍ فَصَنَعَ لَهٗ طُعَيِّمًا ثُمَّ أَتَاهُ فَدَعَاهُ فَتَبِعَهُمْ رَجُلٌ فَقَالَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَا أَبَا شُعَيْبٍ إِنَّ رَجُلًا تَبِعَنَا فَإِنْ شِئْتَ أَذِنْتَ لَهٗ وَإِنْ شِئْتَ تَرَكْتَهٗ قَالَ لَا بَلْ أَذِنْتُ لَهٗ۔ (متفق عليه)

3219. Sayyiduna Abu Mas'ud Al-Ansari narrated that a man of the ansar whose kunyah was Abu Shuayb had a slave (or servant or a young boy) who sold meat. (one day) he said to him, "Prepare for me food that will suffice five people that

---

[1] Muslim # 105-1430, Abu Dawud # 3140.

[2] Bukhari # 5177, Muslim # 107-1432, Abu Dawud # 3742, Ibn Majah # 1913, Darimi # 2066, Muwatta # 50 (Nikah (wedlock)), Musnad Ahmad 2-241.

might invite the prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم as the fifth of the five (meaning, four others)." Thus he prepared a little food for him. Then he came (to the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم and invited him (with four others). A man followed them. So, the prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said (when they came to his home) , "O Abu Shu'ayb, a man has followed us. If you wish you may permit him to join us (for the meal) , but if you like you may leave him (at the door, outside). He said, "No, rather, I shall permit him (to join us)."[1]

COMMENTARY: It is not allowed to anyone to go to some other person's feast uninvited. It is not allowed to a guest, too, to take along one who is not invited. If the host has given a general permission or the guest known that the host will not object then he may take along someone who is not invited. Thus hadith tells us other things too:

(i) It is not allowed to enter a person's house without his permission.

(ii) If a person invites a limited number of people and if an uninvited man goes with them, then the guests must as a mustahab (desirable), seek the hosts permission for him.

(iii) It is mustahab (desirable) for the host to not prevent an uninvited guest from eating unless the guests are inconvenienced. If a person is turned away without eating for some reason, then he must be dealt with politely and it is better that he is given some food if he deserves it.

Sharh us sunnah (Prophet's صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم practice) also says that it is not allowed to an uninvited person to join the feast.

Some ulama (Scholars) say that if a person invites someone and placing the food before him makes him owner of the food then the guest has authority to eat it, or feed it to any other man, or take it home. But, if the host lays the table spread and places the food on it then it is a sign that he has not made the guest owner of the food. He only permits him to eat there at the table spread. What ever is leftover, the host will take it away. Hence the guest must sit and eat according to procedure and custom. He may neither take any of it home nor feed another person.

It is highly laudable for people sitting around the dining mat to keep moving the platters in front of each other on the same mat. If there are more dining mats, guests on one dining mat must not offer the platters. To those on another mat.

SECTION II اَلْفَصْلُ الثَّانِي

WALIMAH OF SAYYIDAH SAFIYAH رضی اللہ عنہا

(٣٢٢٠) وَعَنْ اَنَسٍ اَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَوْلَمَ عَلٰى صَفِيَّةَ بِسَوِيْقٍ وَتَمْرٍ۔ (رواه احمد و الترمذی و ابوداؤد و ابن ماجة)

3220. Sayyiduna Anas رضی اللہ عنہ said that the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم gave the Walimah for Sayyidah safiyah رضی اللہ عنہا with fine flour and dates.[2]

COMMENTARY: A previous hadith (# 3213) about her mentions her Walimah wit h hees. It means that both these things were served in the Walimah of the Prophet's صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم marriage spoke of what they found.

---

[1] Bukhari # 5461, Muslim # 138-2036, Tirmidhi # 1101, Darimi # 2668, Musnad Ahmad 4-121.

[2] Tirmidhi # 1097, Abu Dawud # 3744, Ibn Majah # 1909, Musnad Ahmad 3/110.

PROPHET صلى الله عليه وسلم ABSTAINED FROM WORLDLY THINGS

(٣٢٢١) وَعَنْ سَفِينَةَ أَنَّ رَجُلًا ضَافَ عَلِيَّ بْنَ أَبِي طَالِبٍ فَصَنَعَ لَهُ طَعَامًا فَقَالَتْ فَاطِمَةُ لَوْ دَعَوْنَا رَسُولَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَأَكَلَ مَعَنَا فَدَعَوْهُ فَجَاءَ فَوَضَعَ يَدَيْهِ عَلَى عِضَادَتَيِ الْبَابِ فَرَأَى الْقِرَامَ قَدْ ضُرِبَ فِي نَاحِيَةِ الْبَيْتِ فَرَجَعَ قَالَتْ فَاطِمَةُ فَتَبِعْتُهُ فَقُلْتُ يَا رَسُولَ مَارَدَّكَ قَالَ إِنَّهُ لَيْسَ لِي أَوْلِنَبِيٍّ أَنْ يَدْخُلَ بَيْتًا مُزَوَّقًا۔ (رواه احمد و ابن ماجة)

3221. Sayyiduna Safinah رضی الله عنه narrated that Sayyiduna Ali Ibn Abu Talib رضی الله عنه had a guest for whom he prepared food. Sayyidah Fatimah رضی الله عنها remarked, 'would that we invited Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم and he ate with us!" So, they invited him. He came (and as he entered the house) and put his hands on the handgrip of the doors, he saw an adorned curtain hanging at the extreme of the house. So, he returned (from the house). Sayyidah Fatimah رضی الله عنها said that she pursued him and submitted, "O Messenger of Allah, what made you turn back?" He said, "It does not behave me, or (for that matter) any prophet, to enter a house that is adorned."[1]

COMMENTARY: The Arabic word in the text is qiram (قرام) It means 'a curtain.' There may not have been a picture on it but it had covered the wall in such a manner as the stage of a bride and bridegroom is decorated and covered with curtains. This is an unnecessary demonstration of the worldly minded and the affluent. The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم turned back on seeing it, thereby indicating that it was not proper to decorate walls, the useless adornment of the world will cause less in the hereafter.

GATE CRASHERS CONDEMNED

(٣٢٢٢) وَعَنْ عَبْدِاللّٰهِ بْنِ عُمَرَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُولُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَنْ دُعِيَ فَلَمْ يُجِبْ فَقَدْ عَصَى اللّٰهَ وَ رَسُولَهُ وَمَنْ دَخَلَ عَلَى غَيْرِ دَعْوَةٍ دَخَلَ سَارِقًا وَخَرَجَ مُغِيْرًا۔ (رواه ابوداؤد)

3222. Sayyiduna Abdullah ibn Umar رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "He who is invited (to a meal) but does not accept it has, indeed, disobeyed Allah and His messenger. And he who enters (someone gathering) uninvited goes in like a thief and returns like a plunderer."[2]

COMMENTARY: A thief enters someone's house furtively. So does the uninvited guest. Both commit sin.

The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم taught his ummah two basic manners.

(i) To fails to accept an invitation without reason is a sign of arrogance.

(ii) To go uninvited to an invitation or function is shameless and a sign of greed.

IF TWO INVITATIONS ARRIVE AT ONE TIME

(٣٢٢٣) وَعَنْ رَجُلٍ مِنْ أَصْحَابِ رَسُولِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ أَنَّ رَسُولَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ

---

[1] Abu Dawud # 3755, Ibn Majah # 3360, Musnad Ahmad 5-220.

[2] Abu Dawud # 3741.

إِذَا اجْتَمَعَ الدَّاعِيَانِ فَأَجِبْ أَقْرَبَهُمَا بَابًا وَإِنْ سَبَقَ أَحَدُهُمَا فَأَجِبِ الَّذِيْ سَبَقَ۔ (رواه احمد و ابوداؤد)

3223. A man from among the companions رضی اللہ عنہ of Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم narrated that he said, "When two people invite at the same time, accept the invitation of the person whose door is nearer (to your house).But, if one of them precedes (the other). Than accept the invitation of him who has preceded."[1]

COMMENTARY: If the invitee can attend both invitations then he must attend both. If two neighbours invite at the same time then the nearest neighbour's invitation is accepted. If the inviters are far off then other considerations take effect, like familiarity, reconciliation and rights. One who is more known, more pious or has more right than the other will be preferred. In the same way, if two students come to a scholar at the same time as two men who wish to know an answer to a problem or an issue then he must first attend those who had come to him before the others.

OSTENTATIONS WEDDING FEASTS FOR MANY

(٣٢٢٤) وَعَنِ ابْنِ مَسْعُوْدٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ طَعَامُ أَوَّلِ يَوْمٍ حَقٌّ وَطَعَامُ يَوْمِ الثَّانِيْ سُنَّةٌ وَطَعَامُ يَوْمِ الثَّالِثِ سُمْعَةٌ وَمَنْ سَمَّعَ سَمَّعَ اللّٰهُ بِهٖ۔ (رواه الترمذی)

3224. Sayyiduna Ibn Mas'ud رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, 'To serve food (of the wedding feast) on the first day in just; on the second day, it is a sunnah (Prophet's صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم practice); but on the third day, it is to make oneself heard. If anyone yearns to make himself heard, then Allah will make him heard."[2]

COMMENTARY: On the first day, the wedding feast is sunnah muwakkadah (emphasized practice of Holy Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم). Those who say it is wajib (obligatory), then the (حق) 'just' in the hadith implies wajib (obligatory).

If anyone invites on the second day then it is sun nah and mustahab (desirable).

However, if anyone goes on to invite on the third day too then clearly he is showing off and wants to become popular and heard. ON the day of resurrection, Allah will have it proclaimed about him that he was a liar and a forger. He will be debased before all the creatures. Teebi رحمہ اللہ said that when Allah bestows a blessing on someone then he must be grateful to him . (For instance, if he marries then he must invite people to a Walimah).

This may be done on the first or second day. Thereafter, "It is makruh (disapproved) to accept an invitation.

This hadith contradicts the contention of the Maalikis that it is mustahab (desirable) to hold the Walimah for seven days.

FORBIDDEN TO PARTAKE OF FOOD OF THE ARROGANT WHO VIE WITH ONE ANOTHER

(٣٢٢٥) وَعَنْ عِكْرَمَةَ عَنِ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ أَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ نَهٰى عَنْ طَعَامِ الْمُتَبَارِيَيْنِ أَنْ يُؤْكَلَ۔ رَوَاهُ أَبُوْدَاوُدَ وَقَالَ مُحْيِ السُّنَّةِ وَالصَّحِيْحُ أَنَّهٗ عَنْ عِكْرَمَةَ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مُرْسَلًا۔

---

[1] Abu Dawud # 3756, Musnad Ahmad 5-407.

[2] Tirmidhi # 1099.

3225. Sayyiduna Ikrimah رضى الله عنه reported that Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضى الله عنه narrated that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم forbade partaking the food of the two people who compete with one another (being boastful).[1]

COMMENTARY: These are two people who compete to cook more food each aiming to outdo the other in food and having more guests. We are instructed not to participate in their feasts.

These days care is not exercised. IN ancient times, learned men avoided such functions when they had doubts about the sincerity of the inviters.

SECTION III الفصل الثالث

(٣٢٢٦) وَعَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ الْمُتَبَارِيَانِ لَا يُجَابَانِ وَلَا يُؤْكَلُ طَعَامُهُمَا قَالَ الْإِمَامُ أَحْمَدُ يَعْنِي الْمُتَعَارِضَيْنِ بِالضِّيَافَةِ فَخْرًا وَّرِيَاءً۔

3226. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضى الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "The invitation of such two people should not be accepted as compete with one another (to prepare food). And, their food should not be eaten." Imam Ahmad رحمه الله explained that it is about the two who vie with one another to provide a meal proudly and ostentatiously.[2]

REJECT THE INVITATION OF THE SINNERS

(٣٢٢٧) وَعَنْ عِمْرَانَ بْنِ حُصَيْنٍ قَالَ نَهٰى رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ عَنْ إِجَابَةِ طَعَامِ الْفَاسِقِيْنَ۔

3227. Sayyiduna Imran ibn Husayn رضى الله عنه said that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم disallowed that invitation to meal by an indecent, (sinful or rebellious) person should be accepted.[3]

COMMENTARY: The Arabic word (فاسق) (sinner or rebellious) is one who is involved in sin in any way. His invitation must not be accepted. Most of them are cruel and unjust. They appropriate properties of the people forcibly. It is forbidden to eat their food. Besides, accept their invitation is tantamount to pleasing them and honouring them. This conduct is contrary to Shari'ah (divine law).

DO NOT PROBE LAWFULNESS OF THE FOOD OF THE PIOUS

(٣٢٢٨) وَعَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِذَا دَخَلَ أَحَدُكُمْ عَلٰى أَخِيْهِ الْمُسْلِمِ فَلْيَأْكُلْ مِنْ طَعَامِهِ وَلَا يَسْأَلْ وَيَشْرَبْ مِنْ شَرَابِهِ وَلَا يَسْأَلْ رَوَى الْأَحَادِيْثَ الثَّلَاثَةَ الْبَيْهَقِيُّ فِي شُعَبِ الْإِيْمَانِ وَقَالَ هٰذَا إِنْ صَحَّ فَلِأَنَّ الظَّاهِرَ أَنَّ الْمُسْلِمَ لَا يُطْعِمُهُ وَلَا يَسْقِيْهِ إِلَّا مَا هُوَ حَلَالٌ عِنْدَهُ۔

3228. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضى الله عنه narrated that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "When any of you goes to his Muslim brother he should eat his food without probing ad drink from his water without probing (how is it and from where?) "[4] Bayhaqi transmitted these three....a Muslim would necessarily provided the lawful.

---

[1] Abu Dawud # 3745.

[2] Bayhaqi # 6018 Sha'b ul Eeman

[3] Bayhaqi Shab ul Eeman # 5803

[4] Bayhaqi in Shab ul Eeman # 5801.

CHAPTER - X

VISITING WIVES BY TURNS بَابُ الْقَسْمِ

If a man has more wives than one then it is wajib (obligatory) to determine visits to them one after the other. He must go to them by turns. Some things must be borne in mind, for instance:

(i) Once the visits to each wife are determined, it is not allowed to go on the appointed night to another wife (other than the one whose turn it is).

(ii) It is disallowed to visit two wives on one night. But, if they consent and are prepared for that, then one may visit both of them. It is said about the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم that on one night he had sexual intercourse with more of his wives than one, because till then it was not wajib (obligatory) to fix visits to one's wives. Or, he had his wives permission in this regard. Besides, the Hanafis say that it was not wajib (obligatory) on the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم to fix his visits to his wives, but he had determined his visits on his own out of kindness for his wives.

(iii) The wives do not enjoy the right of visits during a journey. It is not necessary to be mindful of these visits but it all depends on the husband's discretion to take along on the journey any of his wives. However, the better course is to draw lots among them to accompany him on the journey.

(iv) For a resident, the visits cover the nights while days are secondary to them. However, if anyone is occupied during the night then his visits cover daytime (for example, a guard who is on night duty will determine visits to his wives by days and nights will be secondary to days.

EQUAL TREATMENT: According to Durr Mukhtar, it is wajib (obligatory) on a man with many wives to share his visits to them by night and to feed and clothe them equally. But, it Is not wajib (obligatory) to have or not have intercourse with them, and to love them equally; yet it is mustahab (desirable) to do so.

A woman's right to have sexual intercourse with her husband elapses after having it once. The husband is free to decide on the question of sexual intercourse with his wife. However, fidelity demands that he must have sexual intercourse with her now and then. It is not proper for him to put it off for the period of eela (which is four months) unless his wife so desires.

A husband must stay with each of his wives one day and one night. But, being equal and fair in necessary only for the nights. Thus, if a man goes to one of his wives after (the salah (prayer)) of maghrib and to another after (the salah (prayer)) of isha (on her turn) then his action is not fair and he has not given them equal treatment.

A man must not have sexual intercourse with one of his wives on the night his visit is scheduled for another wife and not for her similarly, he must not go to a wife on an unscheduled night on which he ought to have been with another. However, if she is ill, then he may go to her on a sick visit. Rather, if she is seriously ill then it is allowed to stay with her even when it is not her turn till she regains health or dies, provided she has no one else to look after her and share her grief.

If the husband himself is ill, then he may call to him each of his wives on the nights he is due to visit her.

SECTION I اَلْفَصْلُ الْاَوَّلُ

THE NUMBER OF WIVES OF THE PROPHET صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم

(٣٢٢٩) عَنِ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ اَنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قُبِضَ عَنْ تِسْعِ نِسْوَةٍ وَكَانَ يَقْسِمُ مِنْهُنَّ لِثَمَانٍ۔ (متفق عليه)

3229. Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ stated that when Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم died, he had nine wives. He used to visit eight of them equally.[1]

COMMENTARY: The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم has eleven wives. This hadith mentions only those of his wives who were alive when he died. They were:

(i) Sayyidah Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہا.
(ii) Sayyidah Hafsah رضی اللہ عنہا.
(iii) Sayyidah Umm Habibah رضی اللہ عنہا.
(iv) Sayyidah Sawdah رضی اللہ عنہا.
(v) Sayyidah Umm Salamah رضی اللہ عنہا.
(vi) Sayyidah Safiyah رضی اللہ عنہا.
(vii) Sayyidah Maymunah رضی اللہ عنہا.
(viii) Sayyidah Zaynab bint Jahsh رضی اللہ عنہا.
(ix) Sayyidah Juwayriyah رضی اللہ عنہا.

Of these nine, Sayyidah Sawdah رضی اللہ عنہا had surrendered her turn of his visits to Sayyidah Ayshash رضی اللہ عنہا willingly of her own accord.

The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم visited Sayyidah Ayshash رضی اللہ عنہا also on days when he was scheduled to visit Sayyidah Sawdah رضی اللہ عنہا, as the next hadith tells us.

A WIFE MAY ASSIGN HER TURN OF VISITS TO HER CO WIFE

(٣٢٣٠) وَعَنْ عَائِشَةَ اَنَّ سَوْدَةَ لَمَّا كَبُرَتْ قَالَتْ يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ قَدْ جَعَلْتُ يَوْمِيْ مِنْكَ لِعَائِشَةَ فَكَانَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقْسِمُ لِعَائِشَةَ يَوْمَيْنِ يَوْمَهَا وَيَوْمَ سَوْدَةَ۔ (متفق عليه)

3230. Sayyidah Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہا narrated that when Sayyidah Sawdah رضی اللہ عنہا advanced in years, she said, "O Messenger of Allah, I assign to Ayshash the day of your visit to me.

So, Allah's Messenger determined two days for Sayyidah Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہا her own and Sawdah's[2]

COMMENTARY: Sayyidah Sawdah رضی اللہ عنہا was the daughter of Zam'ah. Her mother was Samus. She had been married to Sayyiduna Sakran رضی اللہ عنہ. Both of them had embraced Islam during the initial days of the Prophet's mission. They had emigrated to Ethiopia. When her husband, Sakran رضی اللہ عنہ, died, the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم married her after the death of Sayyidah Khadijah رضی اللہ عنہا. After that the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم married Sayyidah

[1] Bukhari # 5067, Muslim # 51-1465, Nasa'i # 3197, Musnad Ahmad 1-231.
[2] Bukhari # 5212, Muslim # 47-1463, Ibn Majah # 1972, Musnad Ahmad 6-76.

Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہا. She died in the era of Sayyiduna Umar رضی اللہ عنہ or Sayyiduna Mu'awiyah رضی اللہ عنہ. She was buried in Madinah.

The jurists say that if a man's wife surrenders her husband's visit (to her) to her co-wife then it is allowed provided her husband has not bribed or compelled her into doing it. Moreover, this woman is permitted to withdraw her offer whenever she chooses.

(٣٢٣١) وَعَنْهَا اَنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ كَانَ يَسْأَلُ فِيْ مَرَضِهِ الَّذِيْ مَاتَ فِيْهِ اَيْنَ اَنَا غَدًا اَيْنَ اَنَا غَدًا يُرِيْدُ يَوْمَ عَائِشَةَ فَاَذِنَ لَهُ اَزْوَاجُهُ يَكُوْنُ حَيْثُ شَاءَ فَكَانَ فِيْ بَيْتِ عَائِشَةَ حَتّٰى مَاتَ عِنْدَهَا۔

(رواہ البخاری)

3231. Sayyidah Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہا narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم used to ask during his illness that led to his death, "where shall I be tomorrow?" Where shall I be tomorrow?" He intended to ask about the day of Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہا (out of love for her and waiting for her day). His (respected) wives (sense sing his internal restlessness) gave him permission to stay where he liked. So, he stayed in the house of Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہا till he died near her.[1]

COMMENTARY: He asked every day where he would be on the next day to know about his visit to Sayyidah Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہا and to get their permission to stay there. They permitted him to stay there.

CASTING LOTS ON SETTING OUT FOR JOURNEY

(٣٢٣٢) وَعَنْهَا قَالَتْ كَانَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اِذَا اَرَادَ سَفَرًا اَقْرَعَ بَيْنَ نِسَائِهِ فَاَيَّتُهُنَّ خَرَجَ سَهْمُهَا خَرَجَ بِهَا مَعَهُ۔ (متفق علیہ)

3232. Sayyidah Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہا narrated that whenever Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم intended to embark on a journey, he cast lots among his (respected) wives رضی اللہ عنہ (to select the one who would accompany him). Hence, the one whose name was drawn, she went out with him.[2]

(٣٢٣٣) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ قِلَابَةَ عَنْ اَنَسٍ قَالَ مِنَ السُّنَّةِ اِذَا تَزَوَّجَ الرَّجُلُ الْبِكْرَ عَلَى الثَّيِّبِ اَقَامَ عِنْدَهَا سَبْعًا وَقَسَمَ، وَاِذَا تَزَوَّجَ الثَّيِّبَ اَقَامَ عِنْدَهَا ثَلَاثًا ثُمَّ قَسَمَ قَالَ اَبُوْقِلَابَةَ وَلَوْ شِئْتُ لَقُلْتُ اِنَّ اَنَسًا رَفَعَهُ اِلَى النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ۔ (متفق علیہ)

3233. Sayyiduna Abu Qilabah رحمہ اللہ[3] reported that Sayyiduna Anas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that it is a sunnah (Prophet's صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم practice) for a man who marries a virgin over his previous wife who had been a widow or a divorcee that he should stay with her for seven nights before sharing visits between them. And if he marries a divorcee or a widow the he must stay with her for three nights before sharing visits between them.

---

[1] Bukhari # 5217, Muslim # 84-2443.

[2] Bukhari # 2688, Muslim # 56-277, Ibn Majah # 1970, Musnad 6-269.

[3] Bukhari # 5214, Muslim # 44-1461, Tirmidhi # 1139, Abu Dawud # 2124, Musnad Ahmad 2-178.

Abu Qilabah رحمه الله said that if he wished, he could say that Anas رضی الله عنه had narrated this hadith (in a marfu form) from the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم.

COMMENTARY: Imam Shafi'I رحمه الله goes by this hadith and says that if a man has some wives or one wife and he again marries a virgin then he must stay with her seven nights and then resume sharing nightly visits among his wives. If he marries a thayb (who is a widow or a divorced woman) then he must stay with her for the first three nights and then resume sharing visits among the new and previous wives night by night, equally.

However, Imam Abu Hanifah رحمه الله holds that there is no difference between the virgin and the thayb (a previously married woman) They are all at per as for as sharing visits is concerned. He goes by both the ahadith (# 3225, 3226) of Section II of this chapter. They make no such difference. He explains this hadith to mean that a man who is already married takes another wife then depending on whether she is a virgin or a previously married woman he will stay with her for the first seven or three nights and then the same number of nights with each of his previous wives before resuming the normal visits of one night to each.

The concluding words of Abu Qilabah رحمه الله mean that when a sahabi رضی الله عنه says, 'it is a sunnah (Prophet's صلی الله علیه وسلم practice)' then he means 'this hadith is marfu.'

(٣٢٣٤) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ بَكْرِ بْنِ عَبْدِالرَّحْمٰنِ اَنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ حِيْنَ تَزَوَّجَ اُمَّ سَلَمَةَ وَاَصْبَحَتْ عِنْدَهٗ قَالَ لَهَا لَيْسَ بِكِ عَلٰى اَهْلِكِ هَوَانٌ اِنْ شِئْتِ سَبَّعْتُ عِنْدَكِ وَسَبَّعْتُ عِنْدَ هُنَّ وَ اِنْ شِئْتِ ثَلَّثْتُ عِنْدَكِ وَدُرْتُ قَالَتْ ثَلِّثْ وَفِيْ رِوَايَةٍ اَنَّهٗ قَالَ لَهَا لِلْبِكْرِ سَبْعٌ وَّلِلثَّيِّبِ ثَلَاثٌ۔ (رواه مسلم)

3234. Sayyiduna Abu Bakr ibn Abdur Rahman رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم married Sayyidah Umm Salamah رضی الله عنها. On the morning following, he said to her, "There will be humiliation for your family about you so if you wish then I shall stay with you for seven nights and then seven (each) with them (meaning the other wives) but if you wish, then three nights with you and then.. make rounds (with the others). She said, "three nights!"

According to a version: He said to her, "For the virgin are seven nights and for the thayb (Previously married) are three nights."[1]

COMMENTARY: Sayyidah Umm Salamah رضی الله عنها was a thayb (a previously married woman). So, according to Shariah, he could stay with her for three nights and then stay with each of his other wives three nights. After that the routine of one night each would be resumed. But, he did offer to stay seven nights with her if she took three nights as an affront. Sayyidah Umm Salamah رضی الله عنها preferred to abide by Shari'ah (divine law) and to respect the disposition of the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم she opted for the three nights of the thayb.

SECTION II الفصل الثانی

NO ONE IS BOUND TO LOVE ALL HIS WIVES ALIKE

(٣٢٣٥) عَنْ عَآئِشَةَ اَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ كَانَ يَقْسِمُ بَيْنَ نِسَائِهٖ فَيَعْدِلُ وَيَقُوْلُ اَللّٰهُمَّ هٰذَا قَسْمِيْ

---

[1] Muslim # 42-1460, Abu Dawud # 2122, Darimi # 2210, Muwatta Maalik # 14 (Nikah (wedlock)).

فِيْمَا اَمْلِكُ فَلَا تَلُمْنِيْ فِيْمَا تَمْلِكُ وَلَا اَمْلِكُ۔ (رواہ الترمذی و ابوداؤد و النسائی و ابن ماجۃ و الدارمی)

3235. Sayyidah Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہا narrated that the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم did always share his time equally with his wives (and justly). And, he prayed (after being fair to them) , "O Allah, this is how I share what I own. Hence, do not blame me about what you own and I do not own."[1]

COMMENTARY: The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said in his prayer that he tried to be fair to his wives in sharing visits to them and in providing them their needs from whatever was in his power. But, he could not love them equally for that was not in his power, so he should not be questioned about it.

WARNING TO THE UNJUST WITH HIS WIVES

(۳۲۳٦) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ اِذَا كَانَتْ عِنْدَ الرَّجُلِ امْرَأَتَانِ فَلَمْ يَعْدِلْ بَيْنَهُمَا جَاءَ يَوْمَ الْقِيَامَةِ وَشِقُّهُ سَاقِطٌ۔ (رواہ الترمذی و ابوداؤد و النسائی و ابن ماجۃ و الدارمی)

3236. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah narrated that the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "When a man has two wives but he is not just to them, he will come on the day of resurrection with half his body sagging."[2]

COMMENTARY: To be equal to all wives is to share visits with them equally. It is wajib (obligatory). The husband must stay the same number of hours in the night with each wife. But, it is not wajib (obligatory) to have intercourse the same number of times with all wives. It must be understood that all wives should be given equal treatment irrespective of anyone being a new bride, the first wife, young, old, Muslim or follower of any other Book. All of them have equal rights. However, relative to a free woman, a slave girl, mukatabah, mudabbarah and umm walad have a share of visits, half of the free woman. It is not wajib (obligatory) to determine time for a slave girl.

SECTION III — اَلْفَصْلُ الثَّالِثُ

EIGHT OF PROPHET'S صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم NINE WIVES HAD A SHARE OF HIS VISITS

(۳۲۳۷) عَنْ عَطَاءٍ قَالَ حَضَرْنَا مَعَ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ جَنَازَةَ مَيْمُوْنَةَ بِسَرِفٍ فَقَالَ هٰذِهٖ زَوْجَةُ رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَاِذَا رَفَعْتُمْ نَعْشَهَا فَلَا تُزَعْزِعُوْهَا وَلَا تُزَلْزِلُوْهَا وَارْفُقُوْا بِهَا فَاِنَّهٗ كَانَ عِنْدَ رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ تِسْعُ نِسْوَةٍ كَانَ يَقْسِمُ مِنْهُنَّ لِثَمَانٍ وَلَا يَقْسِمُ لِوَاحِدَةٍ قَالَ عَطَاءٌ اَلَّتِيْ كَانَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَا يَقْسِمُ لَهَا بَلَغَنَا اَنَّهَا صَفِيَّةُ وَكَانَتْ اٰخِرَهُنَّ مَوْتًا مَاتَتْ بِالْمَدِيْنَةِ۔ مُتَّفَقٌ عَلَيْهِ وَقَالَ رَزِيْنٌ قَالَ غَيْرُ عَطَاءٍ هِيَ سَوْدَةُ وَهُوَ اَصَحُّ وَهَبَتْ يَوْمَهَا لِعَائِشَةَ حِيْنَ اَرَادَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ طَلَاقَهَا فَقَالَتْ لَهٗ اَمْسِكْنِيْ قَدْ وَهَبْتُ يَوْمِيْ لِعَائِشَةَ لَعَلِّيْ اَنْ اَكُوْنَ مِنْ نِّسَائِكَ فِي الْجَنَّةِ۔

---

[1] Tirmidhi # 1140, Abu Dawud # 2134, Nasa'i # 3943, Ibn Majah # 1971, Darimi # 2207, Musnad Ahmad 6-144.

[2] Tirmidhi # 1141, Abu Dawud # 3133, Nasa'i # 3942, Ibn Majah # 1919, Darim # 2206, Musnad Ahmad 2 347.

3237. Sayyiduna Ata رحمه الله narrated that they participated with Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضى الله عنه in the funeral of Sayyidah Maymunah رضى الله عنها at Sarif. He said, "She is the wife of Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم. So, do not jerk or shake the bier when you lift her. (Rather, be respectful) and be gentle with hr. Indeed, Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم had nine wives and gave a share of his visits to eight but he gave no time to one of them."
Sayyiduna Ata رحمه الله said that they had learnt that the one of whom Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم had not given a share was Sayyidah Safiyah رضى الله عنها, the last of them to die. She died in Madinah.
And, Razin added that authorities, other then Ata رحمه الله named her as (Sayyidah) Sawdah رضى الله عنها. And that is more correct. She had presented her day to (Sayyidah) Ayshah رضى الله عنها when Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم intended to divorce her. She pleaded with him. "Hold me! I have presented my day to Ayshah. I hope to be among you wives in paradise."[1]

COMMENTARY: Sayyidah Maymunah رضى الله عنها was the maternal aunt of Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضى الله عنه. Her father was Harith and mother was Hindah. Her own name was Barrah but the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم changed it to Maymunah رضى الله عنه.
She had been married to Mas'ud ibn Amr, and Abu Dahm after him. Then she was married to Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم in 6 AH at Sarif about eight miles from Makkah.
It was at Sarif that she was married, her marriage was consummated here and she died at the same place. She is also buried here.
There is a difference of opinion on which of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم wives had no share of the Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم visits. The correct name is Sawdah رضى الله عنه. In fact, Khattabi رحمه الله, said, that Ata رحمه الله also named her as Sawdah رضى الله عنه but one of the sub-narrators got confused and mixed up the names.
The hadith says that Sayyidah Safiyah رضى الله عنها was the last of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم wives to die. She died in Madinah. Before we dwell on it, let us see which of his wives died when.
The compiler of Mawahib has written:

- Sayyidah Safiyah رضى الله عنها died in 50 AH in the month of Ramadan. Some scholars put her death in the time of Mu'awiyah رضى الله عنه in 52 AH or 55 AH. She is buried in al-Baqi.
- Sayyidah Maymunah رضى الله عنها died in 51 AH. But, some authorities palce her death in 66 Ah or 63 AH.
- Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها died in Madinah in 57 AH but some scholars say that she died in 58 AH.
- Sayyidah Sawdah رضى الله عنها died in 54 AH.
- Sayyidah Hafsah رضى الله عنها died in 50 AH, or, as some authorities say in 41 AH.
- Sayyidah Umm Salamah رضى الله عنها died in 59 AH.
- Sayyidah Umm Habibah رضى الله عنها died in 44 AH. Some scholars however, say that she died in 43 AH.
- Sayyidah Zaynab bint Jashsh رضى الله عنها died in 60 AH or , as some say, 61 AH.

---

[1] Bukhari # 5067 Muslim # 51-1465, Nasa'i # 3196, Musnad Ahmad 1-348.

- Sayyidah Jawayriyah رضی اللہ عنہا died in 50 AH.
- Sayyidah Khadijah رضی اللہ عنہا died before the hijrah in Makkah.
- Sayyidah Zaynab bint Khuzaymah رضی اللہ عنہا died during the Prophet's صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم life time.

On looking at this detail. We can say safely that Sayyidah Sufiyah رضی اللہ عنہا was not the one who was the last of the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم to die. Also, Sayyidah Maymunah, رضی اللہ عنہا too, was not the one who died last.of all.
Only Allah known the truth.[1]

CHAPTER - XI

THE SOCIAL LIVING OF WOMEN & THE RIGHTS OF EACH OF THEM

بَابُ عِشْرَةِ النِّسَاءِ وَمَا لِكُلِّ وَاحِدَةٍ مِّنَ الْحُقُوقِ

The ahadith in this chapter are about the company of women, intercourse with them and kind treatment of women, as also the rights of each of them,
Instead of saying 'the rights of women,' the heading has 'the right of each woman.' This is because it does not concern women as a whole. Rather, it is about the kinds of women, meaning that the women who are married are of different kind:
the virgins, the divorced,
the widow, the good natured,
the bad tempered,
and so the rich, the poor, and so on.
This is why the heading has 'the rights of each of them.'

SECTION I — اَلْفَصْلُ الْاَوَّلُ

HARSHNESS CANNOT REMOVE INSOLENCY

(٣٢٣٨) عَنْ اَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اسْتَوْصُوْا بِالنِّسَاءِ خَيْرًا فَاِنَّهُنَّ خُلِقْنَ مِنْ ضِلَعٍ وَ اِنَّ اَعْوَجَ شَيْءٍ فِي الضِّلَعِ اَعْلَاهُ فَاِنْ ذَهَبْتَ تُقِيْمُهٗ كَسَرْتَهٗ وَاِنْ تَرَكْتَهٗ لَمْ يَزَلْ اَعْوَجَ فَاسْتَوْصُوْا بِالنِّسَاءِ۔ (متفق علیه)

3238. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "Go by the advice to show kindness to women, for, they are created from a rib (that is crooked) and its most crooked portion is its top. So, if you try to straighten it, you might break it, If you let it be as it is, it will remain crooked. Hence, accept the advice to be kind to women."[2]

COMMENTARY: The worthy words of the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم mention two basic essentials of a woman's creation and nature. They are:

---

[1] For a further reading of this subject, please see 'The Life of prophet Muhammad رضی اللہ عنہ' Ibn Kathir, English translation of his sirah from al Bidayah wa an-Nihayah, pp 737 to 744, And, sirat un Nabi, Era of peace by Allamah (The learned Scholar) Shibli Nu'mani and Syed Sulayman Nadvi English Translation V2 pp 331 to 344. Both books are published by Dar ul Isha'at, Karachi)

[2] Bukhari # 5186, Muslim # 60-146 8.

(i) Women have their origin in Sayyidah Hawwa عليها السلام who was created from the top portion of the rib of Sayyiduna Aadam عليه السلام. This portion is very crooked. So, there is crookedness in the original creation of women. No one can set it right.

(ii) Just as a rib will not straighten if anyone attempts to make it straight but is liable to snap, and if it is left as it is it will keep crooked, so too a woman has a twist in her deeds and manner and if any man wishes to put that twist right, he will not succeed but might snap it (which is to divorce her, as in the next hadith).

Therefore, women must be left to their nature. Then, they will work to benefit and be of use. The hadith advises that anger and harshness will serve no purpose with women. A cool attitude will be helpful. Any confrontation with them will lead to divorce which will not only harm women but will also cause difficulty to men who try to correct it.

Man should be mild and kind with his woman. He should not expect her to obey him in whatever he demands.

However, it does not mean that if they transgress into sin then too they must be left alone. In such cases, it is not proper to look the other side and let them commit sin. It will be proper to ignore only so long as they do not venture into sin.

(٣٢٣٩) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اِنَّ الْمَرْاَةَ خُلِقَتْ مِنْ ضِلَعٍ لَنْ تَسْتَقِيْمَ لَكَ عَلٰى طَرِيْقَةٍ فَاِنِ اسْتَمْتَعْتَ بِهَا اسْتَمْتَعْتَ بِهَا وَبِهَا عِوَجٌ وَاِنْ ذَهَبْتَ تُقِيْمُهَا كَسَرْتَهَا وَكَسْرُهَا طَلَاقُهَا۔ (رواه مسلم)

3239. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضى الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Woman is created from a rib (of Sayyiduna Aadam) عليه السلام. So, she will never be straight for you (on any one path). Hence, if you wish to enjoy her, do so while crookedness persists in her. But, if you wish to set her straight, you might break her. And to break her is to divorce her."[1]

COMMENTARY: A man cannot hope to bring a woman to a single course. She will keep changing because she is created in that way. She might turn ungrateful from being thankful, or become disobedient after being obedient. She may throw contentment overboard and greed mighty become her nature. Her temperament will keep changing.

DO NOT DISLIKE WOMEN

(٣٢٤٠) وَعَنْهُ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَا يَفْرَكْ مُؤْمِنٌ مُؤْمِنَةً اِنْ كَرِهَ مِنْهَا خُلُقًا رَضِيَ مِنْهَا اٰخَرَ۔ (رواه مسلم)

3240. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضى الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "No believing man must dislike a believing woman. If he dislikes some habit or quality in her, some other habit in her will please him."[2]

COMMENTARY: Not all deeds of man or his peculiarities are bad. If some of them are bad, there also are some good characteristics in man.

---

[1] Bukhari # 5184, Muslim # 59-1468, Tirmidhi # 1188 (1192) Musnad Ahmad 2-530.

[2] Muslim # 61. 1469, Musnad Ahmad 2. 329.

A husband must look at the good qualities of his wife and endure any weakness in her. One cannot find a faultless person, absolutely compatible to one's own temperament. Similarly, there cannot exist a man, chiefly a Muslim, without some good quality in him. So, intelligence demands that the good characteristics in anyone should be kept in view while a disagreeable thing must be overlooked.[1]

CROOKEDNESS IS INHERITED

(٣٢٤١) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ لَوْ لَا بَنُوْ إِسْرَائِيْلَ لَمْ يَخْنَزِ اللَّحْمُ وَلَوْ لَا حَوَّاءُ لَمْ تَخُنْ أُنْثَى زَوْجَهَا الدَّهْرَ۔ (متفق عليه)

3241. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضى الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Were it not for the Banu Isra'il meat would not have rotted. And, were it not Hawwa a woman would have been unfaithful to her husband."[2]

COMMENTARY: In the time of prophet Musa عليه السلام. A tables spread wit h manna and quails (mann and salwa) used to descend from heaven into the open for the Banu Isra'il, or the Jews. They were commanded to take from it only so much as they needed. They were forbidden to take more than necessary to store with them. But, they did not cease to disobey Allah and began to collect surplus to hoard it. But, Allah caused all that they collected beyond need to decay. Thus, the meat began to not only after they failed to trust Allah and to show excessive greed.

Thereafter, it became natural for meat to putrefy. This is why the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said that the Banu Isr'ail were responsible for the decay of meat otherwise people would have been able to store it according to their actual needs.

The hadith does not use the word 'unfaithful' for the woman to imply committing breach of trust, or cheating. Rather, it means perversity. Thus Sayyidah Hawwa عليها السلام incited Sayyiduna Aadam عليه السلام to eat from the tree which Allah had forbidden them to approach. The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said that the same habit was found in all woman. If Sayyidah Hawwa عليها السلام had not done this, other woman would not have inherited this habit.

BEATING WOMEN

(٣٢٤٢) وَعَنْ عَبْدِ اللّٰهِ بْنِ زَمْعَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَا يَجْلِدُ اَحَدُكُمْ اِمْرَأَتَهُ جَلْدَ الْعَبْدِ ثُمَّ يُجَامِعُهَا فِيْ اٰخِرِ الْيَوْمِ وَفِيْ رِوَايَةٍ يَعْمِدُ اَحَدُكُمْ فَيَجْلِدُ امْرَاَتَهُ جَلْدَ الْعَبْدِ فَلَعَلَّهُ يُضَاجِعُهَا فِيْ اٰخِرِ يَوْمِهِ ثُمَّ وَعَظَهُمْ فِيْ ضَحِكِهِمْ مِنَ الضَّرْطَةِ فَقَالَ لِمَ يَضْحَكُ اَحَدُكُمْ مِمَّا يَفْعَلُ۔ (متفق عليه)

3242. Sayyiduna Abdullah ibn Zam'ah رضى الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم admonished them concerning women that one of them should beat them as he beats his slave and then have sexual intercourse with her at the close of the day. According to another version, he said, "One of you begins to beat his wife as a slave is whipped but then lies with her at the close of the day.

Then he admonished them for laughing when one of them breaks wind. He said,

---

[1] See also the social Living of women, by Nasa'i English translation Darul Isha'at, Karachi.

[2] Bukhari # 3399, Muslim # 63-1470, Musnad Ahmad 2. 304.

"Why should any of you laugh when he himself does it?"[1]

COMMENTARY: The closing words ask man how it is that he beats the very woman with whom he has sexual intercourse later on in the evening. On the one hand, he is loving and on the other he treats her savagely. How can he justify his conduct? Of course, it is allowed to beat one's wife when she is rude but not in a savage manner. The message of the hadith is that a man should be kind and loving to his wife and treat her well.

The hadith also tells man that he should not laugh at something that is natural and happens to everyone.

Let us recount a lesson, bearing event of a great scholar. He was Aasim رحمه الله. He was not deaf but pretended to be so. This begin when a woman came to him to ask him for a ruling. While she was putting the question, she happened to break wind. Aasim رحمه الله saved her the embarrassment and discomfit. He behave as though he was deaf and said, "please speak loudly. I can't hear you." This was a relief for the woman but Aasim رحمه الله had to put up with his act for ever.

Allamah (The learned Scholar) Teebi رحمه الله pointed out that the hadith also gives a latent message that every intelligent Muslim must consider before he decides to point out his brother's shortcomings whether he himself has the same defect in himself, or any other flaw. If he does not find himself, free from any deficiency then it is better for him to concentrate on removing the deficiency in him.

A wise man did lament:

> "Often do I see people look for faults in others – but they are blind to their own faults."

(Also: "No one gossips about other people's secret virtues.' – Bertrand Russell.)

(And: Those who live in glass houses should not throw stones on others – English proverb, mid 17th century)

BE KIND TO YOUR WIFE

(٣٢٤٣) وَعَنْ عَآئِشَةَ قَالَتْ كُنْتُ اَلْعَبُ بِالْبَنَاتِ عِنْدَ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَكَانَ لِيْ صَوَاحِبُ يَلْعَبْنَ مَعِيَ فَكَانَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اِذَا دَخَلَ يَنْقَمِعْنَ مِنْهُ فَيُسَرِّبُهُنَّ اِلَيَّ فَيَلْعَبْنَ مَعِيَ۔ (متفق عليه)

3243. Sayyidah Ayshah رضی الله عنها narrated that she used to play with dolls in the Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم house (when she was a child and had been married to the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم recently) and she had companions who played with her. But, when Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم came in they went away from her and he sent them to her again so that they played with her.[2]

COMMENTARY: The hadith implies that to live with one's wife in a pleasant manner and to be mindful of her emotions is an assurance of a successful life. Without this a peaceful and content life is impossible.

As for playing with dolls, this has been spoken of in a previous chapter on wali (hadith # 3129)

---

[1] Bukhari # 4942, Muslim # 49-2855, Tirmidhi # 3343, Nasa'i # 687, Ibn Majah # 1983, Musnad Ahmad 4-12, Darimi 2-147.

[2] Bukhari # 6130, Muslim # 81-2440, Musnad Ahmad 6-234, Abu Dawud # 4931, Ibn Majah # 1982.

(٣٢٤٤) وَعَنْهَا قَالَتْ وَاللّٰهِ لَقَدْ رَأَيْتُ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُوْمُ عَلٰى بَابِ حُجْرَتِيْ وَالْحَبَشَةُ يَلْعَبُوْنَ بِالْحِرَابِ فِي الْمَسْجِدِ وَرَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَسْتُرُنِيْ بِرِدَائِهِ لِأَنْظُرَ إِلٰى لَعِبِهِمْ بَيْنَ أُذُنِهِ وَعَاتِقِهِ ثُمَّ يَقُوْمُ مِنْ أَجْلِيْ حَتّٰى أَكُوْنَ أَنَا الَّتِيْ أَنْصَرِفُ فَاقْدُرُوْا قَدْرَ الْجَارِيَةِ الْحَدِيْثَةِ السِّنِّ الْحَرِيْصَةِ عَلَى اللَّهْوِ۔ (متفق عليه)

3244. Sayyidah Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہا said, "By Allah I did see the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم stand at the door of my room while the Ethiopians played with spears in the mosque. He concealed me with his cloak so that I might watch their play over his shoulder. Then he stood up for my sake till I was the first to retire. So, imagine how much may a young girl (a few y ears old) stand to watch the play."[1]

COMMENTARY: The words mosque means the portion attached to the mosque. Of course, even if they demonstrated their skill in the mosque, then there was no harm in it because they played with spears which could be an exercise of jihad. It seems that the veil was not imposed till then.

TOKEN OF PLEASURE & DISPLEASURE OF SAYYIDAH AYSHAH رضی اللہ عنہا

(٣٢٤٥) وَعَنْهَا قَالَتْ قَالَ لِيْ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِنِّيْ لَأَعْلَمُ إِذَا كُنْتِ عَنِّيْ رَاضِيَةً وَإِذَا كُنْتِ عَلَيَّ غَضْبٰى فَقُلْتُ مِنْ أَيْنَ تَعْرِفُ ذٰلِكَ فَقَالَ إِذَا كُنْتِ عَنِّيْ رَاضِيَةً فَإِنَّكِ تَقُوْلِيْنَ لَا وَرَبِّ مُحَمَّدٍ وَإِذَا كُنْتِ عَلَيَّ غَضْبٰى قُلْتِ لَا وَرَبِّ إِبْرَاهِيْمَ قَالَتْ قُلْتُ أَجَلْ وَاللّٰهِ يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ مَا أَهْجُرُ إِلَّا اسْمَكَ۔ (متفق عليه)

3245. Sayyidah Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہا narrated that, "Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said to me, 'I do recognize when you are pleased with me and when you are displeased with me.' So, I asked, 'How do you recognize it?' He said, 'when you are pleased with me, you swear: No, by the Lord of Muhammad! But, when you are displeased with me, you swear: No, by the Lord of Ibrahim. So, I said, "Of course, by Allah, O Messenger of Allah, that is so! But, I omit only you name."[2]

COMMENTARY: She said, that she merely dropped his name on her tongue otherwise she had her love for him in her heart to the full. There was no change in that.

WOMAN MUST NOT REFUSE HUSBAND'S ADVANCES

(٣٢٤٦) وَعَنْ أَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِذَا دَعَى الرَّجُلُ امْرَأَتَهُ إِلٰى فِرَاشِهِ فَأَبَتْ فَبَاتَ غَضْبَانَ لَعَنَتْهَا الْمَلَائِكَةُ حَتّٰى تُصْبِحَ مُتَّفَقٌ عَلَيْهِ وَفِيْ رِوَايَةٍ لَهُمَا قَالَ وَالَّذِيْ نَفْسِيْ بِيَدِهِ مَا مِنْ رَجُلٍ يَدْعُوْ امْرَأَتَهُ إِلٰى فِرَاشِهِ فَتَأْبٰى عَلَيْهِ إِلَّا كَانَ الَّذِيْ فِي السَّمَاءِ سَاخِطًا عَلَيْهَا حَتّٰى يَرْضٰى عَنْهَا۔

3246. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "When a man invites his wife to his bed (to have sexual intercourse) and she refuses causing him to pass the night angry (at her) , then the angels curse her till

---

[1] Bukhari # 454, 5236, Muslim # 18, 19-892, Nasa'i # 1595, Musnad Ahmad 6-84, 85, 166, 247.

[2] Bukhari # 5228, Muslim # 80-2439, Musnad Ahmad 6-61.

it is morning.

According to another version: He said, "By Him in whose hand is my soul, "no man invites his wife to his bed and she refuses, without He who is in heaven being displeased wit h her till her husband is pleased with her."[1]

COMMENTARY: This warning applies as long as the woman does not have an excuse valid in Shariah. Some authorities say that menstruation is not a valid reason because even when a wife experiences menstruation, her husband is allowed to fondle her over her clothes. Some ulama (Scholars) say that he may caress her on her body except at the vagina when she has her menses.

The hadith says that the angels curse her till morning. This anticipates his advances in the night because generally it is so. If the husband invites her in the day and she refuses to oblige, then the angel will curse her till evening, if the husband is angry at her.

The words He who is in heaven refer to Allah. Of course, Allah is omnipresent. His command is enforced in the heavens as on earth and He is worshipped in the heavens and on earth. This is as He says.

وَهُوَ الَّذِىْ فِى السَّمَاءِ اِلٰهٌ وَّفِى الْاَرْضِ اِلٰهٌ

{He (Allah) is who in the heaven is God and in the earth is God} (43: 84)

However, the hadith mentions only the God of the heaven because that is more honourable than earth and the purpose is served when only heaven is mentioned. It is also possible that 'He who is in heaven; refer to angels.

This hadith tells us that a husbands displeasure is the means of Allah's wrath, If this is the case when a husband is displeased over sexual intercourse, then the significance of his anger on disobedience in worldly matters may be surmised.

NO WOMAN MUST HURT HER FELLOW WIFE

(٣٢٤٧) وَعَنْ اَسْمَاءَ اَنَّ اِمْرَأَةً قَالَتْ يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ اِنَّ لِىْ ضَرَّةً فَهَلْ عَلَىَّ جُنَاحٌ اِنْ تَشَبَّعْتُ مِنْ زَوْجِىْ

غَيْرَ الَّذِىْ يُعْطِيْنِىْ فَقَالَ الْمُتَشَبِّعُ بِمَا لَمْ يُعْطَ كَلَابِسِ ثَوْبَىْ زُوْرٍ۔ (متفق عليه)

3247. Sayyidah Asma رضى الله عنها narrated that a woman submitted, "O Messenger of Allah I have a co wife. Will it be sinful on my part if a brag about receiving from my husband what he does not give me?" He said, "(It is a very bad thing.) one who brags about getting that which is not given to him is like one who wears two garments of falsehood."[2]

COMMENTARY: Two garments are the cloak over the upper torso and the waist wrapper. This expression covers a liar like a person who pretends to be saintly or scholarly.

It is said that there was an Arab who put on very fine and nice garments that people might respect him and believe him even if he gave a false testimony.

This hadith compares with their very man.

WHAT IS EELA

(٣٢٤٨) وَعَنْ اَنَسٍ قَالَ اٰلٰى رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مِنْ نِسَائِهٖ شَهْرًا وَكَانَتِ انْفَكَّتْ رِجْلُهٗ فَاَقَامَ فِىْ

---

[1] Bukhari # 3237, Muslim # 122-1436, Abu Dawud # 2141, Darimi # 2228, Musnad Ahmad 2-439.

[2] Bukhari # 5219, Muslim # 126, 127-2130, Abu Dawud # 4997, Musnad Ahmad 6-345.

مَشْرَبَةٍ تِسْعًا وَعِشْرِيْنَ لَيْلَةً ثُمَّ نَزَلَ فَقَالُوْا يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ اٰلَيْتَ شَهْرًا فَقَالَ اِنَّ الشَّهْرَ يَكُوْنُ تِسْعًا وَعِشْرِيْنَ۔ (رواه البخاری)

3248. Sayyiduna Anas رضی الله عنه narrated the Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم observed eela from his wives for one month. Meanwhile, his foot had been dislocated (during this time) , so he retired to an upper room for twenty nine nights after which he came down. He told (on coming down). "O Messenger of Allah, you had decided on eela for one month." He said, "Surely, a month can be of twenty nine days (too)."[1]

COMMENTARY: Eela is to swear or take an oath. In the terminology of Shari'ah (divine law), eela is to resolve oath not to approach one's wife for four months or more. In other words, a man swears not to have sexual intercourse with his wife for four months or more. When he fulfils his oath then one divorce ba'inah takes place and if they wish to live together, then they will have to remarry. (Ba'in or ba'inah is irrevocable) However, if he does not fulfil the oath and goes to his wife before the time is over, then eela will become void and it will be wajib (obligatory) on him to make an expiation for breaking his oath.

If a man is married to someone's female slave, then the minimum period of eela is two months. If any one observes on eela for less than four months when his wife is a free woman, or less than two moths when she is a female slave, then the eela will not be termed Shari'ah (divine law) recognized. Accordingly, the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم had not observed that is Shari'ah recognized eela. It was an ordinary eela, of common parlance.

He had resolved on oath not to approach his wives for a month because they had demanded from him an enlarged allowance. He found it very discomforting and he resolved to stay way from them for one month.

One of these days, he fell down from a horse and hurt his leg. Then he remained in an upper room and did not come down. Perhaps, that month had twenty nine days. So he came down after twenty nine days.

THE EELA OBSERVED BY THE PROPHET صلی الله علیه وسلم

(٣٢٤٩) وَعَنْ جَابِرٍ قَالَ دَخَلَ اَبُوْبَكْرٍ يَسْتَاْذِنُ عَلٰى رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَوَجَدَ النَّاسَ جُلُوْسًا بِبَابِهٖ لَمْ يُؤْذَنْ لِاَحَدٍ مِنْهُمْ قَالَ فَاُذِنَ لِاَبِيْ بَكْرٍ فَدَخَلَ ثُمَّ اَقْبَلَ عُمَرُ فَاسْتَاْذَنَ فَاُذِنَ لَهٗ فَوَجَدَ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ جَالِسًا حَوْلَهٗ نِسَاؤُهٗ وَاجِمًا سَاكِتًا قَالَ فَقُلْتُ لَا قُوْلَنَّ شَيْئًا اُضْحِكُ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَقَالَ يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ لَوْ رَاَيْتَ بِنْتَ خَارِجَةَ سَاَلَتْنِي النَّفَقَةَ فَقُمْتُ اِلَيْهَا فَوَجَاْتُ عُنُقَهَا فَضَحِكَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَقَالَ هُنَّ حَوْلِيْ كَمَا تَرٰى يَسْاَلْنَنِي النَّفَقَةَ فَقَالَ اَبُوْبَكْرٍ اِلٰى عَآئِشَةَ يَجَاُ عُنُقَهَا وَقَامَ عُمَرُ اِلٰى حَفْصَةَ يَجَاُ عُنُقَهَا كِلَاهُمَا يَقُوْلُ تَسْاَلِيْنَ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مَا لَيْسَ عِنْدَهٗ فَقُلْنَ وَاللّٰهِ لَا نَسْاَلُ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ شَيْئًا اَبَدًا لَيْسَ عِنْدَهٗ ثُمَّ اعْتَزَلَهُنَّ شَهْرًا اَوْتِسْعًا وَ

[1] Bukhari # 5201.

عِشْرِيْنَ ثُمَّ نَزَلَتْ هٰذِهِ الْآيَةُ يَآ اَيُّهَا النَّبِيُّ قُلْ لِّاَزْوَاجِكَ حَتّٰى بَلَغَ لِلْمُحْسِنَاتِ مِنْكُنَّ اَجْرًا عَظِيْمًا قَالَ فَبَدَأَ بِعَائِشَةَ فَقَالَ يَا عَآئِشَةُ اِنِّيْ اُرِيْدُ اَنْ اُعْرِضَ عَلَيْكِ اَمْرًا اُحِبُّ اَنْ لَا تَعْجِلِيْ فِيْهِ حَتّٰى تَسْتَشِيْرِيْ اَبَوَيْكِ قَالَتْ وَمَاهُوَ يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ فَتَلَا عَلَيْهَا الْآيَةَ قَالَتْ اَفِيْكَ يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ اَسْتَشِيْرُ اَبَوَيَّ بَلْ اَخْتَارُ اللّٰهَ وَرَسُوْلَهُ وَالدَّارَ الْاٰخِرَةَ وَاَسْاَلُكَ اَنْ لَا تُخْبِرَ امْرَاَةً مِنْ نِسَائِكَ بِالَّذِيْ قُلْتُ قَالَ لَا تَسْاَلُنِيْ امْرَاَةٌ مِنْهُنَّ اِلَّا اَخْبَرْتُهَا اِنَّ اللّٰهَ لَمْ يَبْعَثْنِيْ مُعَنِّتًا وَلَا مُتَعَنِّتًا وَلٰكِنْ بَعَثَنِيْ مُعَلِّمًا مُيَسِّرًا۔ (رواه مسلم)

3249. Sayyiduna Jabir رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that (Sayyiduna) Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ arrived and sought permission to enter to see the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم but he found the people seated at his door, not having been allowed in (all of them having come when the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم observed eela with his wives for one month). However, Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ was given the permission and he went in. Then Umar رضی اللہ عنہ came and on seeking permission, he too was allowed in. He found that while his wives رضی اللہ عنہ were sitting around him, the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم sat looking sat and qûiet.

Sayyiduna Jabir رضی اللہ عنہ went on to narrated that Umar رضی اللہ عنہ thought to himself, "I should say something that would make the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم laugh." So, he remarked, "O Messenger of Allah, would that you had seen the daughter of kharijah (my wife) when she asked me for a raised allowed maintenance). I got up and slapped her smack on the neck." (He said it in such a way that) the prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم laughed and said, "These (my wives around me whom you see. They ash me for (more maintenance."

(Sayyiduna) Abu Bakr رضی اللہ عنہ got up, went to (his daughter) Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہا and hit (her) on her neck. Umar رضی اللہ عنہ (too) got up, went to his daughter) Hafsah رضی اللہ عنہ and hit her on her neck. They both asked. "Do you demand from Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم what he does not have?" (Is it not that you worry him?) They all (woman) agreed, "By Allah, we shall not ask Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم for any thing at all that he does not own (and we regret our folly). After that he kept away from them for one month of twenty-nine days because he had sworn to do so. The narrator was in doubt here whether Jabir رضی اللہ عنہ said 'One month' or twenty-nine days')

Then this verse was revealed:

يَآاَيُّهَا النَّبِيُّ قُلْ لِّاَزْوَاجِكَ اِنْ كُنْتُنَّ تُرِدْنَ الْحَيٰوةَ الدُّنْيَا وَزِيْنَتَهَا فَتَعَالَيْنَ اُمَتِّعْكُنَّ وَاُسَرِّحْكُنَّ سَرَاحًا جَمِيْلًا، وَاِنْ كُنْتُنَّ تُرِدْنَ اللّٰهَ وَرَسُوْلَهُ وَالدَّارَ الْاٰخِرَةَ فَاِنَّ اللّٰهَ اَعَدَّ لِلْمُحْسِنَاتِ مِنْكُنَّ اَجْرًا عَظِيْمًا۔ (الاحزاب۳۳: ۲۸، ۲۹)

{O prophet say to your wives, "If you desire the life of this world and its adornment, come! I shall provide for your comfort and allow you to depart by a fair departing. But if you desire Allah and His Messenger and the abode of the hereafter, then surely Allah has prepared for the good-doers among you a might reward} (33: 28-29)

Jabir narrated further that (after this verse was revealed) the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم went first of all to (Sayyidah) Ayshah رضى الله عنها and said, "O Ayshah, I wish to place before you a proposal and ask you not to be hasty in replying without first consulting your parents." She asked, "And what it is, O Messenger of Allah?" So, he recited to her the (foregoing) verse. She exclaimed. "O Messenger of Allah, shall I get the advice of my parents concerning you? No (I have no hesitation) I have chosen Allah, His Messenger and the abode of the hereafter. And I request you! Please do not inform any of your wives of what I have said," He said, "No! (that is not possible.) If any of them asks me, I shall inform her. Allah has not sent me that I should grieve any one or hurt him for no reason at all. Rather, He has sent me to teach (His creatures the religion) and make things easy."[1]

COMMENTARY: Clearly this happened before the veil was imposed otherwise Sayyiduna Umar رضى الله عنه would not have entered the room while the women were sitting there. They too would not have remained in the room when he came.

This hadith teaches us that if a person is sad, his friends and companions must say something that pleases him and brings a smile on his face. This is mustahab (desirable). It is said that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم did the same thing when he found any of his companions in a depressed mood.

The prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was apprehensive that Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها being young might be carried away to choose the world and so hurt her parents too. But, she displayed her sagacity and without consulting her parents chose Allah. His Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم and the abode of the hereafter.

Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها requested that prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم not to disclose to his other wives what she had chosen. Her aim was that none of them should be influenced by her decision. If any of them opted to depart from the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم , she (Sayyidah Ayshah) رضى الله عنها would have more of his love. She would no more have anyone else to share his love with her. However, the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم did not accede to her request. He had the good of everyone in mind. He could not let anyone suffer.

(It is worth consulting sirat un Nabi v1 pp 437-444. Sayid Sulaiman Nadvi. Dar ul Isha'at, Karachi, for more information on this subject)

We reproduce here some random selections from it.)

Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها and Sayyidah Hafsah رضى الله عنها had joined together an issue that was particular to them, but in the case of an increase in pocket money all the Wives had formed a union. The Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم place of mind was disturbed to such an extent that he vowed not to approach any of his wives رضى الله عنهن for a month. By a coincidence, during these days, he fell down from his horse and injured his leg. As a result, he went to the upper room to rest himself, and stayed all alone. The people supposed that he had divorced all his Wives.

The man of Quraysh exercised control over their women and had an upperhand. But, in Madinah, the Ansar woman dominated their husbands Our women observed them and began to imitate them. One day I called my wife to account but she answered me back. I reminded her that she was answering me back and she retorted. 'What are you? The wives رضی اللہ عنہ of the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم answer him back and stop speaking to him all day long I thought that was very bad and went to Hafsah رضی اللہ عنہا (my daughter and the Prophet's صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم wife). I asked her if she really got angry at the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم and she confirmed that it was so. I asked her. 'Do you not know that the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم displeasure is to invite Allah's displeasure. By Allah the prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم has my thought otherwise he would have divorced you. Then I went to Umm Salamah and made the same complaint to her She said, Umar رضی اللہ عنہ you have taken to interfering in everyone affairs, even in the private affairs of the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم and his wives رضی اللہ عنہن I kept quiet and went away.

[1] Muslim # 29. 1478.

The Arabic word for upper storey in the Hadith is (مشربہ) (Mashrabah) and it was generally used for the upper room of Umm Ibrahim (Mariyah) So, some people supposed that he went to that particular upper room but that was a wrong impression because that was out of Madinah. The impression derived from the Hadith of Sayyiduna Umar رضی اللہ عنہ which the author has cited in the following lines and which appears in all books of Sihah is also that it is the same place. It was next to the Masjid Nabawi رضی اللہ عنہ and the house of Sayyidah Hafsah رضی اللہ عنہا for Sayyiduna Umar رضی اللہ عنہ ran from here to there quickly. It is stated in Abu Dawud that the upper room was above Sayyidah Ayshah's رضی اللہ عنہا room, and it was next to Masjid Nabawi صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم and the names of other Wives رضی اللہ عنہ of the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم Abu Dawud, chapter al-Imam.

(۳۲۵۰) وَعَنْ عَآئِشَةَ قَالَتْ كُنْتُ اَغَارُ عَلَى اللَّائِيْ وَهَبْنَ اَنْفُسَهُنَّ لِرَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَقُلْتُ اَتَهَبُ الْمَرْاَةُ نَفْسَهَا فَلَمَّا اَنْزَلَ اللّٰهُ تَعَالٰى تُرْجِيْ مَنْ تَشَاءُ مِنْهُنَّ وَتُؤْوِيْ اِلَيْكَ مَنْ تَشَاءُ وَمَنِ ابْتَغَيْتَ مِمَّنْ عَزَلْتَ فَلَا جُنَاحَ عَلَيْكَ قُلْتُ مَا اَرٰى رَبَّكَ اِلَّا يُسَارِعُ فِيْ هَوَاكَ۔ (متفق علیہ)

3250. Sayyidah Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہا said, "I used to look down upon the women who offered themselves to Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم. So, I wondered (aloud) , 'Is it that a woman offers herself, ever?'

Then this verse was revealed by Allah, the Exalted:

تُرْجِيْ مَنْ تَشَاءُ مِنْهُنَّ وَتُؤْوِيْ اِلَيْكَ مَنْ تَشَاءُ وَمَنِ ابْتَغَيْتَ مِمَّنْ عَزَلْتَ فَلَا جُنَاحَ عَلَيْكَ

{You may (O prophet) put off whom you will of them and take to you whom you please; and if you desire any whom you have set aside, there is no blame on you} (33: 51)

So, I remarked, 'I see not but that your Lord hurries to satisfy your wishes and desires"[1]

COMMENTARY: Sayyidah Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہا though that it was shameful on the part of the women who dedicated shameful on the part of the woman who dedicated themselves to the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم. She wondered, "How could a woman offer herself to a stronger male?" However, the women who did dedicate themselves to him took it as a great honour. Indeed that really was honourable and they considered it to be their good fortune. But, Sayyidah Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہا thought otherwise.

The verse quoted could mean:

(i) Let those of your wives whom you choose be your wives whom you choose be your bed mates. And keep part those you went to be apart.

[1] Bukhari # 4788, Muslim # 49. 1464, Nasa'i # 3199, Ibn Majah # 2000, Musnad Ahmad 6-134.

(ii) Retain those of your wives whom you wish and divorce those you want to separate.

(iii) Marry those women of your ummah whom you like but decline those that you do not like to marry

Imam Nawawi said that this verse is actually the abrogator of the verse:

لَا يَحِلُّ لَكَ النِّسَاءُ مِنْ بَعْدُ

{(Besides these,) it is not lawful for you take (more) wives after this} (33: 52)

This is because till the Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم death other woman besides his wives رضى الله عنه were permitted to him.

Imam Baghawi رحمه الله said that this verse in his hadith is about the Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم visits to his wives, by turns. "This," He says, "is the most correct opinion." It was wajib (obligatory) on the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم too, to determine his visits to his wives but when this verse was revealed the wajib (obligatory) nature was withdrawn. He was no more bound to observe a set form of visits. He could call any of them he liked and could have intercourse with whichever wife he liked. There was no sin in that, on him. In other words, Allah slowed his excellence over other men of the ummah. He was also permitted to pass over the turn of any of his wives.

The words of Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها when the verse (33: 51) (ترجى من تشاء) was revealed were that his Lord Satisfies his desire quickly. She meant, as Nawawi رضى الله عنه says, "Allah makes some commands soft for you..."

WHICH WOMAN: The question arises who the woman was who had offered herself to the prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم is marriage. Some scholars say that she was Sayyidah Maymunah رضى الله عنها. some other name her Sayyidah as Umm Sharik رضى الله عنها. Yet others say that she was Sayyidah Zaynab bint Khuzaymah رضى الله عنها. There are those who suggest that she was Khawlah رضى الله عنه bint Hakim.

However, this hadith implies that there was not just one woman but there were many such women.

وَحَدِيثُ جَابِرٍ اِتَّقُوا اللّٰهَ فِي النِّسَاءِ ذُكِرَ فِي قِصَّةِ حَجَّةِ الْوَدَاعِ

The hadith of Jabir رضى الله عنه saying "Fear Allah concerning women" has been narrated in the account of the Farewell pilgrimage. (hadith # 2555)

SECTION II الفصل الثالث

KIND TREATMENT TO HIS WIVES

(٣٢٥١) عَنْ عَآئِشَةَ أَنَّهَا كَانَتْ مَعَ رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فِي سَفَرٍ قَالَتْ فَسَابَقْتُهُ فَسَبَقْتُهُ عَلٰى رِجْلَيَّ فَلَمَّا حَمَلْتُ اللَّحْمَ فَسَابَقْتُهُ فَسَبَقَنِي قَالَ هٰذِهٖ بِتِلْكَ السَّبْقَةِ۔ (رواه ابوداؤد)

3251. Sayyiah Ayshah رضى الله عنها spoke of a journey of hers with Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم she raced him on foot and overtook him. Later, she had become fat and again raced him but he overtook her. He remarked, "This answers for that earlier) outstripping."[1]

COMMENTARY: She raced on foot. It is to emphasise that they did not race on horse back, etc. It is like saying, 'I wrote with my own hands,' 'I saw with my eyes.

This hadith teaches the men of the ummah to be pleasant and friendly with their wives.

Qadi Khan said that competition is allowed in four things: camels mules, horses, on foot archery. These competitions should be free of betting. But, if only one.side puts conditions then it is allowed. For instance, one of them stipulates that if he wins then he would take so much but if the other wins nothing will be paid to him.

If both sides put conditions or bet then it is forbidden.

The two can put such conditions whereby the winner will get something if they include a third with them who will get nothing if he wins.

However, while the pool will be lawful yet the competitors must not yearn for that, for, Shari'ah (divine law) does not condone it. Prizes to winners are nevertheless legal. The jurists all on it.

HE IS BEST WHO IS KIND TO HIS WIFE

(٣٢٥٢-٣٢٥٣) وَعَنْهَا قَالَتْ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ خَيْرُكُمْ خَيْرُكُمْ لِأَهْلِهِ وَأَنَا خَيْرُكُمْ لِأَهْلِي

وَإِذَا مَاتَ صَاحِبُكُمْ فَدَعُوْهُ۔ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَالدَّارِمِيُّ وَرَوَاهُ ابْنُ مَاجَةَ عَنِ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ إِلَى قَوْلِهِ لِأَهْلِي۔

3252. Sayyidah Ayshah رضی الله عنها narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "The best of you is the best of you to his family, and I am the best of you to my family (for I treat my family better than any of you treats his family which includes wife, children, relatives and servants). And, when your companion dies leave him alone (and do not speak ill of him)."[2]

3253. Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضی الله عنه narrated the same hadith up to the words to my family.[3]

COMMENTARY: The best of you people if he who is kind and well-meaning to his wife and children and kith and kin, and servants and subordinates. That conduct points out to his good temperament.

When any of you dies, be he a relative or a friend, stop speaking ill of him. Do not backbite him. According to a hadith:

"Remember your, dead with good words."

Speak only of their good qualities and do not mention their shortcomings.

Some scholars interpret these words to mean: 'when anyone dies among you, do not cry and mourn over him and his love. Realise that you no more have a physical relationship with him.

Some scholars interpret the word sahib (companion) in the hadith to mean his own self. The ummah is urged, 'when I depart from this world, do not exhibit grief and restlessness because Allah is your Helper. He who had made my life a means of guidance and auspiciousness for you. Will also retain you on the same guidance and auspicious after me.'

Yet other scholars interpret it to mean: 'when I die, leave me alone by not hurting my ahl ul bayt (people of my house) , my sahabah and followers of my Shari'ah (described code of

---

[1] Abu Dawud # 2578, Ibn Majah # 1979, Musnad Ahmad 6-39.

[2] Tirmidhi # 3921, Darimi # 2260.

[3] Ibn Majah # 1977.

life), the scholars and the awliya(pious people). For if you hurt them, it is tantamount to hurting me.

TIDING OF PARADISE TO OBEDIENT WIFE

(٣٢٥٤) وَعَنْ أَنَسٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَلْمَرْأَةُ إِذَا صَلَّتْ خَمْسَهَا وَصَامَتْ شَهْرَهَا وَأَحْصَنَتْ فَرْجَهَا وَأَطَاعَتْ بَعْلَهَا فَلْتَدْخُلْ مِنْ أَيِّ أَبْوَابِ الْجَنَّةِ شَاءَتْ۔ رَوَاهُ أَبُوْ نُعَيْمٍ فِي الْحِلْيَةِ۔

3254. Sayyiduuna Anas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said. "The woman who offers the five times salah (prayer), fasts during the month (of Ramadan) , preserves her chastity and obey her husband, may enter paradise from whichever gate she chooses."[1]

PROSTRATION IF ALLOWED TO OTHERS

(٣٢٥٥) وَعَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَوْ كُنْتُ اٰمُرُ أَحَدًا أَنْ يَسْجُدَ لِأَحَدٍ لَأَمَرْتُ الْمَرْأَةَ أَنْ تَسْجُدَ لِزَوْجِهَا۔ (رواه الترمذى)

3255. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, 'Were I to command anyone to prostrate himself be fore a person. I would have definitely commanded woman to prostrate herself before her husband.[2]

COMMENTARY: It is not allowed to prostrate oneself before anyone, but the Lord, Creator. This hadith emphasizes that obedience to husband is wajib (obligatory) on a woman.

HUSBAND PLEASURE IS IMPORTANT

(٣٢٥٦) وَعَنْ أُمِّ سَلَمَةَ قَالَتْ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ أَيُّمَا امْرَأَةٍ مَاتَتْ وَزَوْجُهَا عَنْهَا رَاضٍ دَخَلَتِ الْجَنَّةَ۔ (رواه الترمذى)

3256. Sayyidah Umm Salamah رضی اللہ عنہا narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "Any woman who dies while her husband was pleased with her (always till her death) will enter paradise."[3]

COMMENTARY: This reward accrues to the woman whose husband whom she pleases is a scholar and a righteous man. But, if she pleases him and he is a sinner an ignorant then nothing may be said of this deed.

OBEY HUSBAND

(٣٢٥٧) وَعَنْ طَلْقِ بْنِ عَلِيٍّ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ إِذَا الرَّجُلُ دَعَا زَوْجَتَهُ لِحَاجَتِهِ فَلْتَأْتِهِ وَإِنْ كَانَتْ عَلَى التَّنُّوْرِ۔ (رواه الترمذى)

3257. Sayyiduna Talq ib Ali رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "when a man invites his wife to fulfill his need, she must came to him even though she be at the oven (and must satisfy his sexual urge)."[4]

---

[1] Abu Nu'aym in Hilyah

[2] Tirmidhi # 1159.

[3] Tirmidhi # 1161, Ibn Majah # 1854.

[4] Tirmidhi # 1160, Musnad Ahmad 4. 24, Bayhaqi in Sunan 7-292.

COMMENTARY: This implies that even if there are possibilities of loss or damage if a woman leaves what she is doing to respond to her husband's call to have sexual intercourse, she must go to him promptly.

DO NOT ANNOY YOUR HUSBAND

(٣٢٥٨) وَعَنْ مُعَاذٍ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ لَا تُؤْذِى امْرَأَةٌ زَوْجَهَا فِي الدُّنْيَا إِلَّا قَالَتْ زَوْجَتُهُ مِنَ الْحُوْرِ الْعِيْنِ لَا تُؤْذِيْهِ قَاتَلَكِ اللّٰهُ فَإِنَّمَا هُوَ عِنْدَكِ دَخِيْلٌ يُوْشِكُ أَنْ يُفَارِقَكِ إِلَيْنَا۔ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَابْنُ مَاجَةَ وَقَالَ التِّرْمِذِيُّ هٰذَا حَدِيْثٌ غَرِيْبٌ۔

3258. Sayyiduna Mu'adh رضى الله عنه narrated that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "No woman annoys her husband in this world without his wife among the large eyed maidens protesting, 'Do not annoy him. May Allah curse you (and deprive you of paradise and His mercy) He is nothing but a guest with you and will soon separate from you and come to us."[1]

COMMENTARY: According to another version: (لَعَنَ الْمَلَائِكَةُ الْعَاصِيَةَ الزَّوْجَ)
"The angels curse the woman who is disobedient to her husband."
These kind of ahadith disclose that the dwellers of the heaven learn of what human being do in this world.

WOMEN'S RIGHT ON HUSBAND

(٣٢٥٩) وَعَنْ حَكِيْمِ بْنِ مُعَاوِيَةَ الْقُشَيْرِيِّ عَنْ اَبِيْهِ قَالَ قُلْتُ يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ مَا حَقُّ زَوْجَةِ اَحَدِنَا عَلَيْهِ قَالَ اَنْ تُطْعِمَهَا اِذَا طَعِمْتَ وَتَكْسُوْهَا اِذَا اكْتَسَيْتَ وَلَا تَضْرِبِ الْوَجْهَ وَلَا تُقَبِّحْ وَلَا تَهْجُرْ اِلَّا فِي الْبَيْتِ۔

(رواه احمد وابوداؤد وابن ماجة)

3259. Sayyiduna Hakim ibn Mu'awiyah رحمه الله Al-Qushayri رحمه الله reported from his father that he asked, "O Messenger of Allah, what right does a wife of one of us have over him?" He said, "You should feed her when you eat, clothe her when you clothe yourself and you must not strike (her) on the face, nor revile her. You should not keep apart from her save within the house."[2]

COMMENTARY: The face is the most superior of all limbs. So, it is mentioned specifically that one should not strike on the face. It means that a man is allowed to strike a wife on any other limb when it is necessary for some serious lapse like committing indecency, omitting the obligatory duties, etc. But, he should never strike on the face.

MAY A HUSBAND BEAT HIS WIFE DISCIPLINE HER: Without doubt, man and woman are of the same status as human beings. Again, in the sight of Islam, too, they are on an equal plain. However, when man and woman marry and become life partners, there is a small difference in their positions from the point of view of Shari'ah (divine law). The husband enjoys a peculiar excellence and it is not concerned with human nobility and honour. Rather, it has to do with their mutual relationship and rights. The husband, therefore, can keep his wife bound to obey his commands that Shari'ah (divine law) has

---

[1] Tirmidhi # 1174, Ibn Majah # 2014, Musnad Ahmad 5-252.

[2] Abu Dawud # 2142, Nasa'i # 124, 447, Ibn Majah # 1850, Musnad Ahmad 4. 447.

authorized him to enforce. They relate to the fard (compulsory) and wajib (obligatory) duties. Thus if a wife does not obey her husband in these things and his entreaties and warnings have no effect and he is certain that there is no likelihood of her reforming without taking harsh measures then he may beat her provided her disobedience is within what Shari'ah (divine law) has classified so. According to Fatawa Qadi Khan, a husband may beat his wife over four things:

(i) She does not adorn herself in spite of his command.

(ii) He wishes to have a sexual intercourse but she refuses to have it though she has no excuse (like menstruation etc.)

(iii) She neglects the obligatory duties, like salah (prayer) etc. and does not have a purifying bath after her menses and sexual intercourse.

(iv) She goes out of the house without his permission.

TEMPORARILY APART: The concluding portion of the hadith means that if it become necessary to keep apart from one's wife for some reason, then instead of separating from her for ever, it is better to keep apart from her within the house. In this way, she might mend and take heed, so that the extreme step of divorce is avoided.

The Quran says about it:

وَالّٰتِيْ تَخَافُوْنَ نُشُوْزَهُنَّ فَعِظُوْهُنَّ وَاهْجُرُوْهُنَّ فِي الْمَضَاجِعِ وَاضْرِبُوْهُنَّ ط۔ (النساء ۴: ۳۴)

{And those from whom you fear defiance, admonish then first, (then if necessary) banish them to their beds apart and (as a last resort). You may beat them} (4: 34)

DIVORCE THE FOUL MOUTHED WIFE

(۳۲٦۰) وَعَنْ لَقِيْطِ بْنِ صَبِرَةَ قَالَ قُلْتُ يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ إِنَّ لِيَ امْرَأَةً فِيْ لِسَانِهَا شَيْءٌ يَعْنِي الْبَذَاءَ قَالَ طَلِّقْهَا قُلْتُ إِنَّ لِيْ مِنْهَا وَلَدًا وَلَهَا صُحْبَةٌ قَالَ فَمُرْهَا يَقُوْلُ عِظْهَا فَإِنْ يَكُ فِيْهَا خَيْرٌ فَسَتَقْبَلُ وَلَا تَضْرِبَنَّ ظَعِيْنَتَكَ ضَرْبَكَ أُمَيَّتَكَ۔ (رواه ابوداؤد)

3260. Sayyiduna Laqit ibn Saburah رضی اللہ عنہ (لقیط ابن صبرۃ) narrated that he asked, "O Messenger of Allah, I do have a wife who has something (like a bite) in her tongue," say an abusive speech. He said, "Divorce her." He submitted, "I have children from her and a (long) companionship." He said, "Command her!" He said, "Admonish her. If she has some good in her, he will (relent and) accept. Do not beat your wife, as the beating of your female slave."[1]

COMMENTARY: The word 'Admonish her" are a narrator's to explain the Prophet's صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم word s' Command her!" The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم meant to say that he should exhort her. The hadith concludes with a latent massage to first advice, urge and coax the woman to cease from abusive language and irritative conduct. If that fails, then give her a light beating.

DO NOT BEAT WOMEN

(۳۲٦۱) وَعَنْ إِيَاسِ بْنِ عَبْدِاللّٰهِ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَا تَضْرِبُوْا إِمَاءَ اللّٰهِ فَجَاءَ عُمَرُ إِلٰى رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَقَالَ ذَئِرْنَ النِّسَاءُ عَلٰى أَزْوَاجِهِنَّ فَرَخَّصَ فِيْ ضَرْبِهِنَّ فَأَطَافَ بِآلِ رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ

[1] Abu Dawud # 142, Musnad Ahmad 4-33.

صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ نِسَاءٌ كَثِيْرٌ يَشْكُوْنَ اَزْوَاجَهُنَّ فَقَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَقَدْ طَافَ بِاٰلِ مُحَمَّدٍ نِسَاءٌ كَثِيْرٌ يَشْكُوْنَ اَزْوَاجَهُنَّ لَيْسَ اُولٰئِكَ بِخِيَارِكُمْ۔ (رواه ابوداؤد وابن ماجة والدارمی)

3261. Sayyiduna Iyas ibn Abdullah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "Do not beat Allah's female servants (meaning, your wives). "Then, Sayyiduna Umar رضی اللہ عنہ came to Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم (after this command of Allah's Messenger) صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم and submitted, "The woman have become bold (against their husbands)." So, he gave permission to beat them. Then the women, plenty of them, went round the wives of Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم and complained about their husband (who beat them). Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "A great number of women have gone round Muhammad's wives and complained of their husbands. They (who beat their wives) are not the best of you."[1]

COMMENTARY: They are the best of people who do not beat their wives. They endure the hardship caused by their wives.

Imam Shafi'I رحمہ اللہ said that the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم had forbidden men to beat women before the revelation of verse (4: 34). Then he allowed it when women become daring against their husbands. This verse was revealed to uphold his command that they may be beaten.

When the women made their complaints, he advised that though it is permitted to beat women yet it is better to show patience at their daring and boldness.

INCITING WOMAN AGAINST HUSBAND IS VERY BAD

(٣٢٦٢) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَيْسَ مِنَّا مَنْ خَبَّبَ اِمْرَأَةً عَلٰى زَوْجِهَا اَوْ عَبْدًا عَلٰى سَيِّدِهٖ۔ (رواه ابوداؤد)

3262. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "One who entices a woman against her husband, or a slave against his master, dues not belong to us."[2]

COMMENTARY: It is a very wrong thing to prompt evil to woman against her husband or a slave against his master. The same command applies to inciting a man against his wife or his slave or his female slave, or a female slave against her master.

SIGN OF PERFECT FAITH

(٣٢٦٣) وَعَنْ عَائِشَةَ قَالَتْ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اِنَّ مِنْ اَكْمَلِ الْمُؤْمِنِيْنَ اِيْمَانًا اَحْسَنَهُمْ خُلُقًا وَاَلْطَفُهُمْ بِاَهْلِهٖ۔ (رواه الترمذی)

3263. Sayyiduna Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہا narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "The believer who has the most perfect faith is he who is the best of them in manners and who is most mild to his family."[3]

COMMENTARY: Anyone who possesses perfect faith and is find to his family is a perfect believer.

---

[1] Abu Dawud # 2146, Ibn Majah # 1985.

[2] Abu Dawud # 5170, Musnad Ahmad 2. 397.

[3] Tirmidhi # 2621, Musnad Ahmad 6. 47.

(٣٢٦٤) وَعَنْ اَبِىْ هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَكْمَلُ الْمُؤْمِنِيْنَ اِيْمَانًا اَحْسَنُهُمْ خُلُقًا وَخِيَارُكُمْ خِيَارُكُمْ لِنِسَائِهِمْ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَقَالَ هٰذَا حَدِيْثٌ حَسَنٌ صَحِيْحٌ، رَوَاهُ اَبُوْدَاوُدَ اِلٰى قَوْلِهٖ خُلُقًا۔

3264. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم said, "The best believers having the most perfct faith are they who possess the best m anners. And, the best of you are they who are the best to their wives."[1]

A HAPPY MOMENT WITH AYSHAH رضی الله عنها

(٣٢٦٥) وَعَنْ عَائِشَةَ قَالَتْ قَدِمَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مِنْ غَزْوَةِ تَبُوْكَ اَوْ حُنَيْنٍ وَفِىْ سَهْوَتِهَا سِتْرٌ فَهَبَّتْ رِيْحٌ فَكَشَفَتْ نَاحِيَةَ السِّتْرِ عَنْ بَنَاتٍ لِعَائِشَةَ لُعَبٍ فَقَالَ مَا هٰذَا يَا عَائِشَةُ قَالَتْ بَنَاتِىْ وَرَاٰى بَيْنَهُنَّ فَرَسًا لَهٗ جَنَاحَانِ مِنْ رِقَاعٍ فَقَالَ مَا هٰذَا الَّذِىْ اَرٰى وَسْطَهُنَّ؟ قَالَتْ فَرَسٌ قَالَ وَمَا الَّذِىْ عَلَيْهِ قَالَتْ جَنَاحَانِ قَالَ فَرَسٌ لَهٗ جَنَاحَانِ؟ قَالَتْ اَمَا سَمِعْتَ اَنَّ لِسُلَيْمَانَ خَيْلًا لَهَا اَجْنِحَةٌ قَالَتْ فَضَحِكَ حَتّٰى رَاَيْتُ نَوَاجِذَهٗ۔ (رواه ابوداؤد)

3265. Sayyidah Ayshah رضی الله عنها narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم returned from the Battle of Tabuk or Hunayn. A curtain hung before her storeroom which the wind raised high bringing into view some of her dolls. He asked, "What is this, O Ayshah?" She said, "My dolls!" He also saw among them a horse that had two wing contrived out of rags or paper. He asked, "What is it that I see among them?" She said, "A horse!" He asked, "And what is that over it?" She said, "Wings!" He asked (in astonishment). "A horse that has wings?" She quipped, "Have you not heard that (prophet) Ṣulayman علیه السلام had horses with wings?" She added that he laughed so much (on hearing her words) that she could see his back teeth.[2]

COMMENTARY: The sub-narrator was unsure whether the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم had returned from the battle of Tabuk or Hunayn. So he expresses his doubt in the hadith.
Tabuk is about 465 miles from Madinah on the road to Damascus. The Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم had led his army there in 9 AH, but the enemy retreated without contending.
Hunayn is a valley to the north east of Makkah towards Ta'if. It is also called Awtas. The Battle of Hunayn was fought here in 8 AH after the conquest of Makkah.
The ruling about playing with dolls has been mentioned previously in the chapter on wali (hadith # 3129).

SECTION III — اَلْفَصْلُ الثَّالِث

NOT ALLOWED TO PROSTRATES ONESELF BEFORE ANOTHER

(٣٢٦٦-٣٢٦٧) وَعَنْ قَيْسِ بْنِ سَعْدٍ قَالَ اَتَيْتُ الْحِيْرَةَ فَرَاَيْتُهُمْ يَسْجُدُوْنَ لِمَرْزُبَانٍ لَهُمْ فَقُلْتُ لَرَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَحَقُّ اَنْ يُسْجَدَ لَهٗ فَاَتَيْتُ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَقُلْتُ اِنِّىْ اَتَيْتُ

---

[1] Tirmidhi # 1165, Abu Dawud # 4682 but only up (Arabic) manner.
[2] Abu Dawud # 4932.

الْحِيْرَةَ فَرَأَيْتُهُمْ يَسْجُدُوْنَ لِمَرْزُبَانٍ لَهُمْ فَأَنْتَ اَحَقُّ بِأَنْ يُسْجَدَ لَكَ فَقَالَ لِي اَرَأَيْتَ لَوْ مَرَرْتَ بِقَبْرِيْ اَكُنْتَ تَسْجُدُ لَهُ فَقُلْتُ لَا فَقَالَ لَا تَفْعَلُوْا لَوْ كُنْتُ اٰمُرُ اَحَدًا اَنْ يَسْجُدَ لِاَحَدٍ لَاَمَرْتُ النِّسَاءَ اَنْ يَسْجُدْنَ لِاَزْوَاجِهِنَّ لِمَا جَعَلَ اللّٰهُ لَهُمْ عَلَيْهِنَّ مِنْ حَقٍّ۔ رَوَاهُ اَبُوْدَاوُدَ وَرَوَاهُ اَحْمَدُ عَنْ مُعَاذِ بْنِ جَبَلٍ۔

3266. Sayyiduna Qays ibn Sa'd رضی اللہ عنہ reported: I came to Hirah (a city near Kufah) and observed them prostrating themselves before their local governor. I thought (to myself). "Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم is more deserving of the prostration to be made before him." Thus, when I came to Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم, I said to him, "I had gone to Hirah. And I observed them prostrate themselves before their local governor but you have more right that people should prostrate themselves before you." He said, "What do you say? Were you to pass by my grave, would you prostrate yourself to it?" I said, "No." He said, "Do not do it any of you (even while I am alive). Were I to command anyone to prostrate himself before another, I would surely have commanded the women to prostrate themselves before their husbands because of the right over them conferred on the husbands by Allah."[1]

3267. Sayyiduna Mu'adh ibn Jabal رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that same hadith.[2]

COMMENTARY: Sayyiduna Qays رضی اللہ عنہ thought who could be more deserving of prostration being made before him then the chief of the two worlds, the prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم. He had seen the people of Hirah prostrating themselves before their ruler. But, the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم made it clear to him in a very simple manner that the human forehead is so much sacred that it may prostrate itself only before its creator and none else, not any creature at all. Allah says:

لَا تَسْجُدُوْا لِلشَّمْسِ وَلَا لِلْقَمَرِ وَاسْجُدُوْا لِلّٰهِ الَّذِيْ خَلَقَهُنَّ اِنْ كُنْتُمْ اِيَّاهُ تَعْبُدُوْنَ۔ (فصلت ۴۱: ۳۷)

{Prostrate not yourselves unto the sun nor to the moon, but prostate yourselves to Allah who created them, if it is, in truth, Him whom you warship.} (41: 37)

BEATING ONE'S WIFE

(۳۲۶۸) وَعَنْ عُمَرَ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ لَا يُسْئَلُ الرَّجُلُ فِيْمَا ضَرَبَ اِمْرَأَتَهُ عَلَيْهِ۔

(رواہ ابوداؤد وابن ماجۃ)

3268. Sayyiduna Umar رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "(If a man beats his wife for a valid reason), he will not be asked why he beat her."[3]

COMMENTARY: The words 'he will not be asked' mean that it will not be sinful for him if he beats his wife provided he observed the relative conditions and did not transgress. The word 'disobedience' is understood in words (واللاتی تخافون نشوزھن الخ) (why).

OPTIONAL FASTING ONLY ON HUSBAND'S PERMISSION

(۳۲۶۹) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ سَعِيْدٍ قَالَ جَاءَتْ اِمْرَأَةٌ اِلَى رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَنَحْنُ عِنْدَهُ فَقَالَتْ زَوْجِيْ

---

1 Abu Dawud # 2140, Darimi # 1463.

2 Musnad Ahmad 5-227.

3 Abu Dawud # 2147, Ibn Majah # 1986.

صَفْوَانُ بْنُ الْمُعَطَّلِ يَضْرِبُنِيْ إِذَا صَلَّيْتُ وَيُفَطِّرُنِيْ إِذَا صُمْتُ وَلَا يُصَلِّي الْفَجْرَ حَتّٰى تَطْلُعَ الشَّمْسُ قَالَ وَصَفْوَانُ عِنْدَهُ قَالَ فَسَأَلَهُ عَمَّا قَالَتْ فَقَالَ يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ اَمَّا قَوْلُهَا يَضْرِبُنِيْ إِذَا صَلَّيْتُ فَإِنَّهَا تَقْرَأُ بِسُوْرَتَيْنِ وَقَدْ نَهَيْتُهَا قَالَ فَقَالَ لَهُ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَوْ كَانَتْ سُوْرَةً وَاحِدَةً لَكَفَتِ النَّاسَ قَالَ وَاَمَّا قَوْلُهَا يُفَطِّرُنِيْ إِذَا صُمْتُ فَإِنَّهَا تَنْطَلِقُ تَصُوْمُ وَاَنَا رَجُلٌ شَابٌّ فَلَا اَصْبِرُ فَقَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَا تَصُوْمُ امْرَأَةٌ إِلَّا بِإِذْنِ زَوْجِهَا وَاَمَّا قَوْلُهَا إِنِّيْ لَا اُصَلِّيْ حَتّٰى تَطْلُعَ الشَّمْسُ فَإِنَّا اَهْلُ بَيْتٍ قَدْ عُرِفَ لَنَا ذَاكَ لَانَكَادُ نَسْتَيْقِظُ حَتّٰى تَطْلُعَ الشَّمْسُ قَالَ فَإِذَا اسْتَيْقَظْتَ يَا صَفْوَانُ فَصَلِّ۔ (رواه ابوداؤد وابن ماجة)

3269. Sayyiduna Abu Sa'eed رضی الله عنه narrated that a woman came to Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم while they were sitting with him. She complained, "My husband safwan ibn al-Mu'attal رضی الله عنه beats me when I offer the salah (prayer), compels me to break my fast when I fast and he himself offers the salah (prayer) of fajr only when the sun rises (or is about to rise)." (At that time,) Safwan رضی الله عنه was there. So, he asked him about what she had said, He said, "O Messenger of Allah, as for her saying that I beat her when she offers the salah (prayer), she recites two surahs though I have forbidden her (to recite lengthy two surahs in each raka'ah)." So, Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم said, "If only one surah is recited (after surah al-fatihah) that suffices the people." Then, he (Safwan) said, "As for her saying that I make her break her fast when she fasts, she goes on fasting (day after day, the supererogatory fasts). I am a young man (who does not get an opportunity in the night so I crave for her during the day) and I cannot check myself." On that, Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم said, "No woman may fast (a supererogatory fast) without her husband's permission." Then, he (Safwan) added, "As for her saying that I offer the salah (prayer) only when the sun rises, I am from a family that (works by night and) is known to awaken at sun rise. (We work on the field irrigating it all night)." He (the prophet) صلی الله علیه وسلم said, "Safwan offer the salah (prayer) when you awake."

COMMENTARY: Safwan was a former. He had to attend to his field till late in the night and went to sleep at his farm. So, the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم accepted his excuse and said to him, "Offer salah (prayer) when you awake but before attending to any other work."

OBEY HUSBAND EVEN A STRICT COMMAND

(۳۲۷۰) وَعَنْ عَائِشَةَ اَنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ كَانَ فِيْ نَفَرٍ مِنَ الْمُهَاجِرِيْنَ وَالْاَنْصَارِ فَجَاءَ بَعِيْرٌ فَسَجَدَلَهُ فَقَالَ اَصْحَابُهُ يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ تَسْجُدُ لَكَ الْبَهَائِمُ وَالشَّجَرُ فَنَحْنُ اَحَقُّ اَنْ نَسْجُدَ لَكَ فَقَالَ اعْبُدُوا رَبَّكُمْ وَاَكْرِمُوْا اَخَاكُمْ وَلَوْ كُنْتُ اٰمُرُ اَحَدًا اَنْ يَسْجُدَ لِاَحَدٍ لَاَمَرْتُ الْمَرْأَةَ اَنْ تَسْجُدَ لِزَوْجِهَا وَلَوْ اَمَرَهَا اَنْ تَنْقُلَ مِنْ جَبَلٍ اَصْفَرَ إِلٰى جَبَلٍ اَسْوَدَ وَمِنْ جَبَلٍ اَسْوَدَ إِلٰى جَبَلٍ اَبْيَضَ كَانَ يَنْبَغِيْ لَهَا اَنْ تَفْعَلَهُ۔ (رواه احمد)

3270. Sayyidah Ayshah رضی الله عنها narrated that (once) Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم

was among a company of muhajirs (emigrants) and Ansars. A camel came and prostrated itself before him. His companions رضی اللہ عنہ said, "O Messenger of Allah, the animals and the trees prostrate themselves before you, so we are more eligible to prostrate ourselves before you." He said. "Worship your Lord and honour your brother" (meaning himself). "If I would command one to prostrate himself before any (other than Allah) , I would instruct a woman to prostrate herself before her husband. And, were he to command her to move stones from a yellow mountain to a black mountain and from a black mountain to a white mountain, it would be binding on her to do it."[1]

COMMENTARY: Prostration is truly a form of worship and only Allah has the right to be worshipped. No one other than Allah - not even a prophet - can be worshipped. Do not make me Allah's partner by worshipping me, for. He has sent me as His Prophet and Messenger to you not to get you to worship me, but to bring you out of polytheism to the path of monotheism. In other words, he called their attention to the verse:

وَمَا كَانَ لِبَشَرٍ أَنْ يُؤْتِيَهُ اللّٰهُ الْكِتَابَ وَالْحُكْمَ وَالنُّبُوَّةَ ثُمَّ يَقُوْلَ لِلنَّاسِ كُوْنُوْا عِبَادًا لِّيْ مِنْ دُوْنِ اللّٰهِ

وَلٰكِنْ كُوْنُوْا رَبَّانِيِّيْنَ۔ (آل عمران ۳: ۷۹)

{It does not become a human being that Allah should grant him the Book, the wisdom and the prophethood, then he should say to mankind, 'Be you worshippers of me; instead of Allah." but (he would say) , "Be you men of God.."} (3: 79)

As for the prostration of the camel before the prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم , it should not cause any doubt because it was by way of something contrary to custom (and to the natural laws and traditions as something out of the ordinary). Allah has made the camel subservient. The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم had no say in Allah's Command. Besides, the camel was completely under command. Just as Allah had commanded the angels to prostrate themselves before (Sayyiduna) Aadam علیہ السلام and their prostrating themselves before him caused no wonder and raised no questions because they were bound to obey Allah's command, so. Too the camel was under Allah's command to prostrate itself before the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم. It had to obey Allah's command in any case.

The Prophet's صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم words that they should honour their brother, meaning himself, imply that his position and rank demanded from them only their love and obedience to him both outwardly and inwardly.

The mountains have been described with colours to suggest a long distance between them. Such mountains are not found near to one another. The sentence, therefore, means that even if two mountains are very for apart and the husband orders his wife to transfer stones from one to another mountain, then she must obey him and do that.

In short, if a husband issues such a strong and difficult command to his wife, she is bound to obey him.

SALAH (PRAYER) IS NOT APPROVED FULLY IF HUSBAND IS NOT PLEASED

(۳۲۷۱) وَعَنْ جَابِرٍ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ ثَلَاثَةٌ لَا تُقْبَلُ لَهُمْ صَلَاةٌ وَلَا يُصْعَدُ لَهُمْ حَسَنَةٌ

[1] Musnad Ahmad 6-76

الْعَبْدُ الْآبِقُ حَتّٰى يَرْجِعَ إِلٰى مَوَالِيْهِ فَيَضَعَ يَدَهٗ فِيْ أَيْدِيْهِمْ وَالْمَرْأَةُ السَّاخِطُ عَلَيْهَا زَوْجُهَا وَالسَّكْرَانُ حَتّٰى يَصْحُوَ رَوَاهُ الْبَيْهَقِيُّ فِيْ شُعَبِ الْإِيْمَانِ۔

3271. Sayyiduna Jabir رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "Three there are whose salah (prayer) is not accepted (in a perfect manner) , and their pious deeds do not ascend (to Allah):

1. A runaway slave until he comes back to his masters and puts his hand in theirs. (It means that he hands himself over to them and obeys them.)
2. And, a woman whose husband is displeased with her.
3. And, a drunkard until he gets sober."[1]

COMMENTARY: The slave must come back to his masters. The plural form is used because it includes the master and his sons. The slave has to be faithful not only to his master but also to his master's sons.

According to another version, there are after the words (زوجها) her husband, the words(رضاعنها) gets pleased with her.

In this hadith under discussion, these words are implicit, so they are not mentioned. The meaning in either case is that either her husband becomes pleased with her or divorces her.

THE BEST WIFE

(٣٢٧٢) وَعَنْ أَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قِيْلَ لِرَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ أَيُّ النِّسَاءِ خَيْرٌ قَالَ الَّتِيْ تَسُرُّهٗ إِذَا نَظَرَ وَتُطِيْعُهٗ إِذَا أَمَرَ وَلَا تُخَالِفُهٗ فِيْ نَفْسِهَا وَلَا فِيْ مَالِهَا بِمَا يَكْرَهُ رَوَاهُ النَّسَائِيُّ وَالْبَيْهَقِيُّ فِيْ شُعَبِ الْإِيْمَانِ۔

3272. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم was asked, "which woman is the best?" He said, "She who pleases (her husband) when he looks at her, obeys him when he asks her to do something (provided it does not contravene Shari'ah (divine law)) , and apposes not his wishes in regard to herself and her property by doing what he does not like."[2]

COMMENTARY: The distinction of the best women is that she pleases her husband when he looks at her. She has a very good disposition and good manners. This makes him happy. And, if she has good looks and conduct too, then his pleasure known no bunds.

Another distinction is that she does not act in a way that hurts her husband in any way. This concern both her self and property.

The property could be, her own as also her husband's. She may not use any of these in such a way as displeases her husband. It could also refer to her husband's property in her hands. She does not misuse it but spends only as her husband wished her to spend.

MERIT OF A TRUSTWORTHY WIFE

(٣٢٧٣) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ أَنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ أَرْبَعٌ مَنْ أُعْطِيَهُنَّ فَقَدْ أُعْطِيَ خَيْرَ الدُّنْيَا وَالْآخِرَةِ قَلْبٌ شَاكِرٌ وَلِسَانٌ ذَاكِرٌ وَبَدَنٌ عَلَى الْبَلَاءِ صَابِرٌ وَزَوْجَةٌ لَا تَبْغِيْهِ خَوْنًا فِيْ نَفْسِهَا وَلَا مَالِهٖ۔ رَوَاهُ الْبَيْهَقِيُّ فِيْ شُعَبِ الْإِيْمَانِ۔

---

[1] Bayhaqi # 8600 in Shu'ab ul Eeman.

[2] Nasa'i # 3231, Bayhaqi in Shu'ab ul Eeman.

3273. Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "Four things there are such as if bestowed on anyone then he is given the best in this world and the next. (They are:)

(i) A grateful heart (that thanks Allah for His bounties).

(ii) A tongue that is engaged in the remembrance of Allah in difficulty and ease).

(iii) A body that endures trials patiently.

(iv) A wife who does act treacherously (with him) in her person and his property.

CHAPTER - XII

AL-KHULA' WA AT-TALAQ KHULA' (OR SEPARATION INITIATED BY WIFE) & DIVORCE

بَابُ الْخُلْعِ وَالطَّلَاقِ

WHAT IS KHULA' (خلع): It is with a d*ummah* (ُ) of Kha (خ) , khula' and a fathah of the kha, Khala', a noun. The former in a literal sense is to remove or take out something and generally it is applied to removing or taking off a garment or socks, etc. in the terminology of Shariah, it is the removal of matrimonial bond. It is 'to get rid of the ownership by marriage against wealth with the word khula'.' Or, it is 'to acquire wealth from one's wife with the word khula' to revoke the ownership by marriage.'

This terminology of Shari'ah (divine law) is explained thus: if husband and wife are at loggerheads and there is no way they may reconcile and the husband does not pronounce divorce, then it is allowed to the woman to pay some money and pay her dower and get deliverance.

She may tell the man 'take so much money and make khula' It means 'get rid of me.' Or she tells him to get rid of her against the dower that is payable by him.

In response, the man may say, 'I get rid of you.' This causes one pronouncement of talaq ba'in on the woman (ba'in is irrevocable). Both will separate.

Mazhar رحمہ اللہ said that the ulama (Scholars) differ on whether it is divorce or annulment when a man says to his wife, 'I have made khula' with you against so much money' and she says, 'I have accepted it, and thereafter they separate. Imam Abu Hanifah رحمہ اللہ and Imam Maalik رحمہ اللہ say that it is talaq ba'in (an irrevocable divorce). An opinion of Imam Shafi'I رحمہ اللہ which is more rightly attributed to him agrees with them. However, Imam Ahmad رحمہ اللہ holds that it is faskh (an annulment) and an opinion of Imam Shafi'I رحمہ اللہ tends to agree with him.

If husband and wife are disunited because of the husband's injustice and the wife demands the khula' because of his injustices and excesses, then it is makruh (disapproved) for the husband to take anything against making khula', like money etc.

If the reason behind seeking khula is the wife's obstinacy and disobedience, then it is makruh (disapproved) for the husband to take against the khula' so much money as is in excess of what he has paid to his wife as a dower.

WHAT IS TALAQ: In the literal sense, talaq is 'to open or undo' and 'to leave or separate' In the terminology of Shari'ah (divine law) it is:

> 'a man's releasing the woman from the restrictions imposed on her because of the marriage."

Insha Allah the kind of talaq (divorce) and their commands will be mentioned in the following lines.[1]

SECTION I الفصل الأول

DIVORCE FROM DISLIKED HUSBAND

(٣٢٧٤) عَنِ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ أَنَّ امْرَأَةَ ثَابِتِ ابْنِ قَيْسٍ أَتَتِ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَقَالَتْ يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ ثَابِتُ بْنُ قَيْسٍ مَا أَعْتِبُ عَلَيْهِ فِيْ خُلُقٍ وَلَا دِيْنٍ وَلٰكِنِّيْ أَكْرَهُ الْكُفْرَ فِي الْإِسْلَامِ فَقَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ أَتَرُدِّيْنَ عَلَيْهِ حَدِيْقَتَهُ قَالَتْ نَعَمْ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اِقْبَلِ الْحَدِيْقَةَ وَطَلِّقْهَا تَطْلِيْقَةً۔ (رواه البخارى)

3274. Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضی الله عنه narrated that the wife of Thabit ibn Qays رضی الله عنه came to the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم and submitted, "O Messenger of Allah, I do not blame Thabit ibn Qays, nor do I pick faults in his character and religion, but I do not like ingratitude (or sin) in regard to) Islam." So, Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم asked her, "Will you return to him his garden (that he had given you as your dower)?" She said, "Yes!" Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم said (To Thabit) , 'Accept the garden and pronounce divorce to her once."[2]

COMMENTARY: The wife of Sayyiduna Thabit ibn Qays رضی الله عنه had no complaint against him, but she did not like him. She feared that this might cause her to be ungrateful or disobedient to him. She would not like that to happen so why should they not separate.

It is said that Sayyiduna Thabit ibn Qays رضی الله عنه was very ugly and short statured. His wife's name was (Sayyidah) Habibah or Jamilah. She was very beautiful and charming. Hence, they were unmatched - strange bedfellows! She was not disposed to him. The prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم , therefore, instructed Sayyiduna Thabit رضی الله عنه to divorce his wife but with only one pronouncement.

We know from this that it is better for a man who divorces his wife to declare it only once so that if they intend to revoke the divorce, they may do it. This was the reason why the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم told him to declare divorce only once.

We also know from this that khula' is divorce, not an annulment. The compiler of the Hidayah has cited a hadith of the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم:

اَلْخُلْعُ تَطْلِيْقَةٌ بَائِنَةٌ

"Khul'a effects an irreversible divorce."[3]

DO NOT DIVORCE A MENSTRUATING WOMEN

(٣٢٧٥) وَعَنْ عَبْدِ اللّٰهِ بْنِ عُمَرَ أَنَّهُ طَلَّقَ امْرَأَةً لَهُ وَهِيَ حَائِضٌ فَذَكَرَ عُمَرُ لِرَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَتَغَيَّظَ فِيْهِ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ ثُمَّ قَالَ لِيُرَاجِعْهَا ثُمَّ يُمْسِكْهَا حَتّٰى تَطْهُرَ ثُمَّ تَحِيْضَ فَتَطْهُرَ فَإِنْ بَدَا لَهُ أَنْ يُطَلِّقَهَا فَلْيُطَلِّقْهَا طَاهِرًا قَبْلَ أَنْ يَمَسَّهَا فَتِلْكَ الْعِدَّةُ الَّتِيْ أَمَرَ اللّٰهُ أَنْ تُطَلَّقَ لَهَا

[1] See also the hidayah v1 pp 194-200, Marghinani. Darul Isha'at Karachi.

[2] Bukhari # 5273, Nasa'i # 3463, Ibn Majah # 2056, Musnad Ahmad 3-4.

[3] Hidayah v1 p 194.

النِّسَاءَ وَفِيْ رِوَايَةٍ مُرْهُ فَلْيُرَاجِعْهَا ثُمَّ لِيُطَلِّقْهَا طَاهِرًا اَوْ حَامِلًا۔ (متفق عليه)

3275. Sayyiduna Abdullah ibn Umar رضی اللہ عنہ is reported to have divorced one of his wives while she was menstruating. Sayyiduna Umar رضی اللہ عنہ mentioned this to Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم who became angry at it, saying, "He must (atone for it and) take her back (by saying to her, 'I have taken you again as my wife). Then, he must keep her with him till she is purified and then has another menstruation and is purified again. Then, if it appears necessary to him to divorce her, he may divorce her when she is pure (of menses) before he has sexual intercourse with her. This, doing which Allah has commanded that woman be divorced (if that is to be done)." According to another version, he said, "Instruct him to take her back. Then, he may divorce her when she has purified from menstruation, or is pregnant."[1]

COMMENTARY: The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم anger is indication that it is forbidden to divorce a woman when she is menstruating. It is forbidden because the man may have divorced her out of aversion for menstruation. He may not really have divorce in mind.

However, if anyone divorces his wife while she is menstruating, then divorce takes effect. This is why the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم instructed Abdullah to reverse the divorce (or take her back). Clearly taking her back can only be after divorce.

The question arises why was he asked to defer divorce till she has had her second menses and purifies from it. The ulama (Scholars) say that there are several reasons for it.

(i) The ruju or reversing of divorce should not be with intention to divorce again. This is why the waiting period is postponed so that not only it becomes permitted to divorce but also the man has an opportunity to reconsider his decision. Perhaps, they might find something whereby it does not become necessary to divorce the woman. These two things can be possible only by deferring divorce till the second time purity is attained.

(ii) The postponement for such a long time is a punish the man for having divorced his wife while she was menstruation.

(iii) The menstruation during which the woman was divorced and the purity attained for it (and the period of purification are both, as it were, interconnected and counted as one). Thus, it divorce were given after the first menses during the first purification, it is deemed to have been given during the first menstruation.

However, it must be understood that it is not wajib (obligatory) to wait for the second purity to divorce the woman. It is better, of course.

THREE KINDS OF DIVORCE: There are three kinds of divorce depending on time and situation. They are:

(i) Ahsan.
(ii) Hasan, also called sunni
(iii) Bida'i

(i) The Ahsan form of divorce is that a talaq raji (revocable divorce) is pronounced during a purity within which sexual intercourse is not had and the woman is divorced in that very condition (meaning, he does not pronounce any more divorce and does not have sexual intercourse with her) till her iddah is over. This kind of divorce is the best.

---

[1] Bukhari # 4908, Muslim # 1-1471, Tirmdhi # 1178, Abu Dawud # 2179, Nasa'i # # 2289, Ibn Majah # 3019, Darimi # 2362, Muwatta Maalik # 53 (Talaq), Musnad Ahmad 2-26.

(ii) The Hasan form of divorce is that a revocable divorce is pronounced during a state of such purity within which no sexual intercourse was had, provided the woman is madkhul biha (one with whom he has had sexual intercourse some time). If she is ghayr madkhul biha (meaning, less then nine years old or an adult with whom her husband has not had sexual intercourse) then one talaq hasan is pronounced for her. Also, she may be divorced even when she is menstruating. The talaq hasan for a minor girl and pregnant women and old women (past menopause) is that one pronouncement is made each month (for three months) and it is also allowed to divorce these woman after having sexual intercourse with them. This kind of divorce is also good.

(iii) The bida'I (or bida'i) form of divorce is the madkhul biha is divorced (completely) in just one period of her purity or on a single moment with three pronouncements of divorce, or with such two pronouncements that do not allow for a reversal (or revoking) , or pronounce divorce during a purity within which sexual intercourse has been had with her. Thus if a man divorce his wife when she is menstruating then this too is talaq bida'i. If the woman who is divorced is madkhul biha then, according to the most authentic tradition, it is wajib (obligatory) to revoke the divorce to her. But some ulama (Scholars) say that it is mustahab (desirable) to do so. When she gains purity and again gets her menses and again purifies from it, and till this time the man has not changed his mind and insists on divorcing her then divorce may be pronounced during her second purification. This third kind of divorce, is disliked by Shari'ah (divine law). Though divorce is valid yet the man giving the divorce has sinned.

TWO KINDS OF DIVORCE: In terms of their effectiveness, divorce is of two kinds:

(i) Raj'i.

(ii) Ba'in.

(i) The divorce raj'I or revocable or reversible. The man says once or twice in clear words (انت طالق) or (طلقت) meaning 'you are divorced' or 'I have, divorced you.' In this case, the man may reverse his pronouncement during the days of iddah (waiting period) or waiting period without remarriage with her. He may say, 'I have returned to you.' Or, he may touch her, or stroke her, or have a sexual intercourse with her, In these cases, the divorce is revoked and it is not necessary to marry the woman all over again.

(ii) The divorce ba'in or the irreversible or irrevocable divorce: The clear, obvious words of divorce are not used but such words are uttered as are not spoken for divorce yet they do indicate the intention. They do give the idea of divorce through a figurative speech. There are three such words recognized by jurists that are mentioned in books of fiqh (Islamic jurisprudence) and besides them the command of talaq (divorce) ba'in is that the woman comes out of the marriage and it is forbidden to keep her as a wife without marrying her again.

DIVORCE OF TWO KINDS: In terms of outcome too, divorce is of two kinds:

(i) Mughallazah.

(ii) Mukhaffafah.

(i) The mughallazah or rude divorce is that three pronouncements of divorce are made in one breath, in one sitting. The man may say, 'I divorce you three times, Or he may repeat, 'I have divorced you, 'I have divorced you,' 'I have divorced you After that, the man cannot take her back as his wife without halalah. It is that the woman will go through her waiting period and marry another man who consummates the marriage with her and then divorces her. Then she goes through a waiting period (after this divorce) after which her previous husband may marry her.

(ii) Mukhaffafah (or light) divorce is to pronounce two divorces at once, or separately. Or, it is to pronounce just once. If clear, obvious words are used, then the husband can revoke it within the waiting period and it is not necessary for them to remarry. But, if figurative speech is used then he can keep her as his wife after re-marrying her.

WHOSE DIVORCE IS EFFECTIVE: The divorce pronounced by every sensible adult man takes effect. He may be a free man or a slave. The divorce may be given of his own free will or under compulsion, or he may give it while he is intoxicated.

If a sensible, adult man is dumb and gives divorce through pre-determined signs then his divorce is also effective.

WHOSE DIVORCE DOES NOT TAKE EFFECT: The divorce pronounced by a boy or an insane man does not take effect. Also, if a man who is asleep gives a divorce and says on awakening, 'I have divorced you during sleep' then his divorce does not take effect. If a m aster divorce his slave's wife then his divorce also does not take effect.

DEPENDS ON WOMAN: The subject of divorce is the woman. For a free woman, divorce is pronounced three times even if she is married to a slave. A slave girl is divorced by two pronouncements of divorce even if she is married to a free man.[1]

THE QUESTION OF IKHTIYAR (CHOICE)

(٣٢٧٦) وَعَنْ عَآئِشَةَ قَالَتْ خَيَّرَنَا رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَاخْتَرْنَا اللّٰهَ وَرَسُوْلَهُ فَلَمْ يَعُدَّ ذٰلِكَ عَلَيْنَا شَيْئًا۔ (متفق عليه)

3276. Sayyidah Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہا said that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم offered them a choice ("If you wish the life of this world and its ornaments then come, let me give you some of its enjoyments and part with you a noble parting. But if you wish for Allah and His Messenger and the abode of the hereafter, then surely Allah has prepared for those amongst you who do good, a great reward.")[2]

Hence, (against the luxuries of this world) they chose Allah and His Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم. That did not count (as any kind of divorce) against them in any way.[3]

COMMENTARY: This hadith makes it definite that if a husband asks his wife to choose

---

[1] See also Tirmidhi v1 pp 493, 499. Also see p 499 for a clarification about divorce ahsan. Darul Isha'at Karachi.

[2] 33: 28, 29, (Surah al-Ahzab).

[3] Bukhari # 5262, Muslim # 24-1477, Tirmidhi # 1182, Abu Dawud # 2203, Nasa'i # 3441, Ibn Majah # 2052, Darimi # 2269, Musnad Ahmad 6-45.

between her self and himself and she opts for her husband then divorce of any kind whatsoever does not take effect Imam Abu Hanifah رحمه‌الله and Imam Shafi'I رحمه‌الله to by this hadith.

However, if the wife chooses herself then Imam Shafi'I رحمه الله and Imam Ahmad رحمه الله say that divorce of the form raj'I applies. Imam Abu Hanifah رحمه الله said that divorce ba'in applies and Imam Maalik رحمه‌الله said that three divorces apply.

It is reported that Sayyiduna Ali رضی الله عنه said, "Simply by giving the choice to one's wife, the divorce raj'I takes effect even if she choose her husband.

Sayyiduna Zayd ibn Thabit رضی‌الله‌عنه ruled that divorce ba'in takes effect.

Hence Sayyidah Ayshah رضی الله عنها narrated the hadith rejecting both opinions. She made it clear that a husband's offering such a choice does not make any kind of divorce effective.

FORBIDDING SOMETHING TO ONESELF CALLS FOR EXPIATION

(٣٢٧٧) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ قَالَ فِي الْحَرَامِ يُكَفِّرُ لَقَدْ كَانَ لَكُمْ فِي رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ أُسْوَةٌ حَسَنَةٌ۔ (متفق عليه)

3277. Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضی الله عنه said, "On forbidding something to oneself an expiation becomes necessary. Indeed. (in this regard) for you there is in Allah's Messenger صلی‌الله‌علیه‌وسلم an excellent precedent.

COMMENTARY: If anyone declares something to be unlawful to him, it does not become unlawful but he has to make an atonement for it. The atonement will be for the oath and it has to be even for something like wine that is forbidden. And even if it belongs to another person. One may say, for example wine is forbidden to me.' 'another's property is forbidden 'to me' This will be regarded as an oath. He will have to make an atonement when he breaks the oath unless he gives that thing in charity or as a gift to someone. The Hanafi also say the same thing as Ibn Abbas رضی‌الله‌عنه says.

Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضی‌الله‌عنه also recited a verse of the Qur'an to lend support to his words:

لَقَدْ كَانَ لَكُمْ۔ الأية

{Certainly you have in the Messenger of Allah an excellent pattern (of conduct)} (33: 21)

He referred to the time when the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم had forbidden honey to himself, so the verse was revealed.

يٰاَيُّهَا النَّبِيُّ لِمَ تُحَرِّمُ مَا اَحَلَّ اللّٰهُ لَكَ

{O Prophet, why forbid you what Allah has made lawful to you...} (66: 1)

He was commended to make an atonement. This is mentioned in the next hadith Insha Allah. So, you are based to follow the Prophet صلی‌الله‌علیه‌وسلم example.

If anyone says, "All the lawful things, I forbid Myself," or, "I forbed myself everything that Allah has made lawful." The jurist say that such words mean that his wife is also divorced even though he had not made an intention to do that. If he says to his wife, "You are forbidden to me," then it would be an eela (an oath to keep away from one's wife for four months or more) , provided he had really formed an intention to do so, or any other intention. If while saying so he may have formed an intention to make zihar, then zihar will be effective. (zihar is to liken one's wife to one's mother or sister) If while saying. "you are forbidden to me," he may have intended to lie, then it is (لغو) foolish talk and nothing will take effect. This command is from the religious point of view,. but the ruler (will go by zihar) and declare eela to take effect. If while speaking these words he had formed an intention to divorce then divorce of the ba'in kind becomes effective. If he had formed an intention to make three pronouncements of divorce then that will take effect. The ruling is that even if he had not formed an intention to divorce, nevertheless divorce of the ba'in kind will take effect.

(٣٢٧٨) وَعَنْ عَائِشَةَ اَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ كَانَ يَمْكُثُ عِنْدَ زَيْنَبَ بِنْتِ جَحْشٍ وَشَرِبَ عِنْدَهَا. عَسَلًا فَتَوَاصَيْتُ اَنَا وَحَفْصَةُ اَنَّ اَيَّتَنَا دَخَلَ عَلَيْهَا النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَلْتَقُلْ اِنِّيْ اَجِدُ مِنْكَ رِيْحَ مَغَافِيْرَ اَكَلْتَ مَغَافِيْرَ؟ فَدَخَلَ عَلٰى اِحْدَاهُمَا فَقَالَتْ لَهُ ذَالِكَ فَقَالَ لَا بَأْسَ شَرِبْتُ عَسَلًا عِنْدَ زَيْنَبَ بِنْتَ جَحْشٍ فَلَنْ اَعُوْدَلَهُ وَقَدْ حَلَفْتُ لَا تُخْبِرِيْ بِذَالِكَ اَحَدًا يَبْتَغِيْ مَرْضَاةَ اَزْوَاجِهِ فَنَزَلَتْ يَا اَيُّهَا النَّبِيُّ لِمَ تُحَرِّمُ مَا اَحَلَّ اللّٰهُ لَكَ تَبْتَغِيْ مَرْضَاتَ اَزْوَاجِكَ۔ الْاٰيَةُ۔ (متفق عليه)

3278. Sayyidah Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہا narrated that the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم used to stay a while with Sayyidah Zaynab bint Jahsh رضی اللہ عنہا and drink some honey at her place she and Sayyidah Hafsah رضی اللہ عنہا decided that whichever of them the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم visited first should say, "I perceive from you the smell of maghafir.[1] Did you eat it?" So, when he visited one of them, she spoke those words and he said, "It does not matter. I only drank some honey at the house of Zaynab bint Jahsh. I shall not do it again and I have sworn (to abstain from it). Do not tell this to anyone (lest Zaynab feel bad about it)." His purpose was to please his wives. So, then (revelation) descended:

يَا اَيُّهَا النَّبِيُّ لِمَ تُحَرِّمُ مَا اَحَلَّ اللّٰهُ لَكَ تَبْتَغِيْ مَرْضَاتَ اَزْوَاجِكَ۔ الْاٰيَةُ

{O prophet, why forbid you what Allah has made lawful to you seeking to please your wives?....}[2] (66: 1)

COMMENTARY: The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم stayed a while at the house of Sayyidah Zaynab bint Jashsh when he was on his (daily) rounds to his wives. This was not part of his visits to them, day by day.

'Maghafir' is the fruit of a tree. It resembles gum. It is bad smelling but also has a trace of the Smell of honey.

The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم liked honey very much. So, Sayyidah Zaynab used to give him some to drink and he was delayed there because of it.

Sayyidah Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہا did not like it and she and Sayyidah Hafsah رضی اللہ عنہا who was very close to her conspired to put an end to it. Their plan marked as we read in the hadith but Allah did not approve.

SECTION II — اَلْفَصْلُ الثَّانِيْ

WOMAN WHO ASKS FOR DIVORCE UNNECESSARILY

(٣٢٧٩) وَعَنْ ثَوْبَانَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَيُّمَا اِمْرَأَةٍ سَأَلَتْ زَوْجَهَا طَلَاقًا فِيْ غَيْرِ

[1] A bad smelling resin, Gum of mimosa, coccidae. (The singular is mughfur).

[2] Bukhari # 4912, Muslim # 20-1474, Abu Dawud # 3714, Nasa'i # 3421.

مَابَأْسٍ فَحَرَامٌ عَلَيْهَا رَائِحَةُ الْجَنَّةِ۔ (رواه احمد والترمذی وابن ماجة والدارمی)

3279. Sayyiduna Thawban رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "The woman who seeks divorce from her husband for no reason whatever (will not perceive) the fragrance of paradise (because it) will be forbidden to her."[1]
(In the place of gathering the creatures will perceive the beautiful smell of paradise but she will deprived of it.)

DIVORCE IS DISLIKED

(٣٢٨٠) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عُمَرَ اَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ اَبْغَضُ الْحَلَالِ اِلَى اللّٰهِ الطَّلَاقُ۔ (رواه ابوداؤد)

3280. Sayyiduna Ibn Uamr رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said "Of the lawful things, divorce is what angers Allah most."[2]

COMMENTARY: Though divorce is not forbidden, it is disliked by Allah. There are many things that are permitted but makruh (disapproved) (disliked). Examples are to offer the fard (compulsory) salah (prayer) at home without an excuse (instead of at the mosque) , or to offer salah (prayer) on a land snatched from someone. In both cases the salah (prayer) is valid but it is offered in a disliked manner.

DIVORCING WOMAN BEFORE MARRYING HER

(٣٢٨١) وَعَنْ عَلِيٍّ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ لَا طَلَاقَ قَبْلَ نِكَاحٍ وَلَا عِتَاقَ اِلَّا بَعْدَ مِلْكٍ وَلَا وِصَالَ فِي صِيَامٍ وَلَا يُتْمَ بَعْدَ احْتِلَامٍ وَلَا رِضَاعَ بَعْدَ فِطَامٍ وَلَا صُمْتَ يَوْمٍ اِلَى اللَّيْلِ۔ (رواه فی شرح السنة)

3281. Sayyiduna Ali رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "Divorce is not given before marriage, slave is not set free before owning him, there is no perpetual fasting (without having meal at iftar but the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم was exempt from it) , there is no orphan hood after the age of puberty (so anyone without parents when he is an adult cannot be called an orphan) there is no suckling after weaning and there is no silence all day (for there is no reward in that)."[3]

COMMENTARY: This hadith mentions some basic principles.
If a man divorces a woman before he marries her then what is the wisdom in a divorce without marriage?
In the same way, if one does not own a slave, what is the meaning of setting him free? That slave will not gain freedom (whom he names).
Imam Shafi'I رحمہ اللہ and Imam Ahmad رحمہ اللہ abide by this hadith however, Imam Abu Hanifah رضی اللہ عنہ contends that if anyone adds divorce before marriage as a condition then it is correct. For instance, Zayd says to a stranger woman, "If I marry you then I shall divorce you," Or, he says, "whichever woman I marry is divorced," then whenever he marries her divorce will take place forthwith.
The same will be with a slave, If he stipulates that if he becomes master of a certain slave, or if he becomes master of whichever slave, he is set free. So, the moment the slave comes in his possession, he will be deemed to be free.

---

[1] Tirmidhi # 1191, Abu Dawud # 2226, Ibn Majah # 2055, Musnad Ahmad 5-277, Darimi # 2270.
[2] Abu Dawud # 2178, Ibn Majah # 2028.
[3] Baghawi in Sharhus sunnah (Prophet's صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم practice) # 2350.

Hence, this hadith does not mean that divorce takes effect the moment it is uttered. And it does not reject a 'conditional divorce.'

SILENCE: The hadith also says that it is disallowed - or, meaningless to observe silence all day. This has been mentioned because some previous ummahs[1] observed silence as a form of worship. They believed that if anyone observes silence all day then he gains nearness to Allah. The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم made it clear that it is not proper in our ummah and this practice fetches no reward. But, it really is better then engaging one's tongue in meaningless and evil talk.

(٣٢٨٢) وَعَنْ عَمْرِو بْنِ شُعَيْبٍ عَنْ أَبِيْهِ عَنْ جَدِّهٖ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَا نَذْرَ لِابْنِ اٰدَمَ فِيْمَا لَا يَمْلِكُ وَلَا عِتْقَ فِيْمَا لَا يَمْلِكُ وَلَا طَلَاقَ فِيْمَا لَا يَمْلِكُ۔ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَزَادَ اَبُوْدَاوٗدَ وَلَا بَيْعَ إِلَّا فِيْمَا يَمْلِكُ۔

3282. Sayyiduna Amr ibn Shu'ayb رحمه الله narrated on the authority of his father (Shu'ab) that his grandfather (Abdullah ibn Amir) رضى الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "The son of Aadam عليه السلام may make no vow, and he may not set free that which he does not possess and he may not divorce whom he does not have."

The version in Abu Dawud also has; 'And, he may not sell except what he owns."[2]

COMMENTARY: A vow to set a slave free for Allah's sake is not correct if the slave is not owned. If the slave comes into possession afterwards even then the slave will not get release. As for divorce and emancipation, the previous hadith and its commentary may be seen. (We reproduce here a commentary in Tirmidhi[3] on his hadith, v1 pp 503-4)

In this chapter, ahadith are also narrated by Sayyiduna Ali رضى الله عنه , Mu'az رضى الله عنه Jabir رضى الله عنه , Ibn Abbas رضى الله عنه and Sayyidah Ayshah رضى الله عنها. This hadith is hasan sahih and the (most) sahih in this chapter. Most sahabah (Prophet's Companions) رضى الله عنهم abide by it, among them Sayyiduna Ail ibn Abu Talib رضى الله عنه , Ibn Abbas رضى الله عنه , Jabir ibn Adullah رضى الله عنه , Sa'eed ibn Musayyab رضى الله عنه , Hasan, Sa'eed ibn Jubayr, Ali ibn Husayn, Shurrayn and Jabir ibn Zayd. Many tabi'in and Imam Shafi رضى الله عنه have also abided by it. However, Sayyiduna ibn Mas'ud رضى الله عنه said that if a man specifies the woman or her tribe then divorce is effective so that the moment he marries her divorce will take effect. Sufyan Thawri and Imam Maalik رحمه الله said, the same thing, both of them added that if he take the name of a woman or specifies a time or tribe then as he marries her, divorce will take effect. However, ibn Mubarak رحمه الله is very severe on this issue.

He says that if any man does this then that woman does not even become forbidden. Someone asked him about a man who swears that if he ever marries, his wife would be divorced, but soon longs to marry, should be in this case, obey the jurists who give permission (in such cases) to marry. Ibn Mubarak رحمه الله said, "If he had first regarded the

---

[1] This is practiced by the Trappists of the Listercian order of monks. They live an austere life and it includes a vow of silence. They are a stricter branch of Benedictines, a Christian religious order.

[2] Tirmidhi # 1184, Abu Dawud # 2190, Ibn Majah # 2047, Musnad Ahmad # 7009.

[3] Published Darul Isha'at Karachi.

verdict of those jurists to be correct then he could now act on that, but if he first preferred the verdict of those who do not permit then now too he must not act on the jurist who permit." Ahmad said, "If he did marry then I would not suggest to him to separate from his wife. Ishaq said, "I do give permission because of the hadith of ibn Mas'ud رضی الله عنه concerning any specified tribe, city or woman. So, if he does marry then I do not say that she is forbidden to her." Ishaq was more liberal about unspecified woman.

ABOUT TALAQ AL-BATTAH

(٣٢٨٣) وَعَنْ رُكَانَةَ بْنِ عَبْدِيَزِيْدَ اَنَّهُ طَلَّقَ امْرَأَتَهُ سُهَيْمَةَ الْبَتَّةَ فَاُخْبِرَ بِذٰلِكَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَقَالَ وَاللّٰهِ مَا اَرَدْتُ اِلَّا وَاحِدَةً فَقَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَاللّٰهِ مَا اَرَدْتَّ اِلَّا وَاحِدَةً؟ فَقَالَ رُكَانَةُ وَاللّٰهِ مَا اَرَدْتُ اِلَّا وَاحِدَةً فَرَدَّهَا اِلَيْهِ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَطَلَّقَهَا الثَّانِيَةَ فِيْ زَمَانِ عُمَرَ وَالثَّالِثَ فِيْ زَمَانِ عُثْمَانَ رَوَاهُ اَبُوْدَاوٗدَ وَالتِّرْمِذِيُّ وَابْنُ مَاجَةَ وَالدَّارِمِيُّ اِلَّا اَنَّهُمْ لَمْ يَذْكُرُوا الثَّانِيَةَ وَالثَّالِثَةَ۔

3283. Sayyiduna Rukanah ibn Abd Yazid رضی الله عنه said that he divorced his wife, Suhaymah رضی الله عنه, (of the kind) of battah (which is a complete severing of marital relationship). Then, he informed the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم of that, saying, "By Allah, I did not intend but only one pronouncement of divorce." Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم asked him, "Is it (truly) by Allah, that you did not intend but just one pronouncement?" Rukanah رضی الله عنه affirmed, "By Allah, I did not mean but just one pronouncement."

Therefore, Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم restored her to him. He then divorced her the second pronouncement in the time of Umar رضی الله عنه and the third pronouncement in the time of Uthman رضی الله عنه.[1]

COMMENTARY: Sayyiduna Rukana رضی الله عنه had pronounced divorce in the words (انت طالق البتہ) "You are the woman divorced with the utterance battah." This word means 'to sever' so the sentence implies 'a divorce that leaves no relationship of marriage and the woman is absolutely out of marriage.

As for the prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم restoring the woman to Rukana رضی الله عنه, Imam Shafi'I رحمه الله understands by it that the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم instructed Rukana رضی الله عنه to reverse the divorce. It is as though Rukana said 'I restore you to my marriage,' and took her back as his wife.

Imam Shafi'I رحمه الله understands in this way because he regards al-battah divorce to mean a single pronouncement of revocable divorce. If anyone intends two or three pronouncement with those words, then as many as intended will count.

Imam Abu Hanifah رحمه الله contends that divorce with this words al-battah means one divorce of the ba'in kind, no mother whether the intention was formed. He says that the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم returned the woman to Rukana though a fresh marriage.

---

[1] Tirmidhi # 1180, Abu Dawud # 2206, Ibn Majah # 2051, Darimi # 227.

ORAL EXPRESSION OF MARRIAGE OR DIVORCE IN JEST IS TAKEN SERIOUSLY

(٣٢٨٤) وَعَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ أَنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ ثَلَاثٌ جِدُّهُنَّ جِدٌّ وَهَزْلُهُنَّ جِدٌّ النِّكَاحُ وَالطَّلَاقُ وَالرَّجْعَةُ۔ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَأَبُوْدَاوُدَ وَقَالَ التِّرْمِذِيُّ هٰذَا حَدِيْثٌ حَسَنٌ غَرِيْبٌ۔

3284. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "three things are considered seriously when done resolutely. But they also take place when done in jest. Then are marriage, divorce and revoking a divorce to take back the wife."[1]

COMMENTARY: The Arabic word jadd (جد) in the hadith is to endeavour to do something. Here it means to read the literal meaning of the word. For instance, the word (نکحت). (I married) when spoken orally may be taken in their literal sense. So too the word (طلقت) I have divorced.

The word hazel (هزل) is a jest but the literal meaning is not taken.

These three things here are taken seriously what they mean. If two strangers, a man and a woman, propose and accept before two witnesses in jest, they become husband and wife their jokes notwithstanding.

So, if a couple divorce in jest, the divorce takes effect all the same and if after that they jest to revoke their divorce then it is really restored.

Apart from these three things this principle applies to other things too, like by ing and selling.

ABOUT DIVORCE WHICH A MAN IS COMPELLED TO GIVE

(٣٢٨٥) وَعَنْ عَائِشَةَ قَالَتْ سَمِعْتُ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُوْلُ لَا طَلَاقَ وَلَا عِتَاقَ فِيْ إِغْلَاقٍ۔ رَوَاهُ أَبُوْدَاوُدَ وَابْنُ مَاجَةَ قِيْلَ مَعْنَى الْإِغْلَاقِ الْإِكْرَاهُ۔

3285. Sayyidah Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہا narrated that she heard Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم say, "There is no divorce and there is no emancipation through ighlaq." It is said, that (al-ighlaq I (al-ikhrah or 'dislike' 'compulsion.'[2]

COMMENTARY: The word ikrah means 'to compel.'

Thus, if any one compels a man to divorce his wife or to emancipate will divorce take effect, nor will the slave be free.

Imam Shafi'I رحمہ اللہ Imam Maalik رحمہ اللہ and Imam Ahmad رحمہ اللہ go by this hadith and rule accordingly.

Imam Abu Hanifah رحمہ اللہ said that both things are valid, basing his contention on hazl or jest. (The commentary to the foregoing hadith speaks of that.) the books of fiqh (Islamic jurisprudence) enumerate his arguments. Imam Abu Hanifah رحمہ اللہ contends that eleven things became valid even compulsion.

(i) Marriage.
(ii) Divorce.
(iii) Revoking divorce.
(iv) Eela, or abandoning wife for four months.

---

[1] Tirmidhi # 1187, Abu Dawud # 2194, Ibn Majah # 2039.

[2] Abu Dawud # 2193, Ibn Majah # 2046, Musnad Ahmad 6. 276.

(v) Fa'I which is to revoke eela.
(vi) Zihar, or comparing wife to mother.
(vii) Iqaq, or setting slave free.
(viii) Pardoning Qisas or by passing retribution.
(ix) Oath.
(x) Vow.
(xi) Embracing Islam.

DIVORCE BY AN INSANE IS INVALID

(٣٢٨٦) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ كُلُّ طَلَاقٍ جَائِزٌ اِلَّا طَلَاقَ الْمَعْتُوْهِ وَالْمَغْلُوْبِ عَلٰى عَقْلِهٖ۔ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَقَالَ هٰذَا حَدِيْثٌ غَرِيْبٌ وَعَطَاء بْنُ عَجْلَانَ الرَّاوِيْ ضَعِيْفٌ ذَاهِبُ الْحَدِيْثِ۔

3286. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "Every divorce becomes effective but not the divorce pronounced by the mentally deranged and the lunatic."[1]

COMMENTARY: Imam Abu Hanifah goes by this hadith. As for the words in the hadith (معتدة) means idiot and a person who is out of senses sometimes and at other times he is in his senses. The Qamus says that he 'has little sense.' The sirah says that it is 'an inverted bucket' and 'an insensible person' The book of fiqh (Islamic jurisprudence) give it this meaning.

In this way, the words of the hadith (والمغلوب علی عقله) (lunatic) are sort of an elaboration of (معتوه) (mentally deranged). This is why some versions do not have the (و) waw between the two words (المقعتدةالمغلوب).

This establishes that if the divorce by the mentally deranged is not effective, then, without doubt, the divorce pronounced by a completely mad man who is totally bereft of senses is simply out of question and cannot be effective, at all.

Zayn ul Arab رحمه الله said that usually (معتوة) is an idiot or an insensible person, but it also covers the lunatic, one who is asleep, the unconscious and the sick person who loses his senses because of his illness. Hence, the divorce uttered by any of these is not effective.

Ibn Hammam رحمه الله has quoted some scholars to say that (معتوة) is a person who has poor sense and lacks understanding power and is a confused speaker and does foolish things, but he does not strike or abuse anyone. On the other hand a lunatic or a mad man roams about striking passers-by and abusing people.

Imam Tirmidhi رحمه الله says that a sub-narrator (Ata ibn Ajlan) is a weak authority. But, this hadith is supported by the hadith narrated by Sayyiduna Ali: رضی اللہ عنہ

كُلُّ طَلَاقٍ جَائِزٌ اِلَّا طَلَاقَ الْمَعْتُوْهِ

(Every divorce is effective but not the divorce by the ma'tuh).

THREE ARE NOT RECKONED

(٣٢٨٧-٣٢٨٨) وَعَنْ عَلِيٍّ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ رُفِعَ الْقَلَمُ عَنْ ثَلَاثَةٍ عَنِ النَّائِمِ حَتّٰى يَسْتَيْقِظَ

---

[1] Tirmidhi # 1195.

وَعَنِ الصَّبِيِّ حَتّٰى يَبْلُغَ وَعَنِ الْمَعْتُوْهِ حَتّٰى يَعْقِلَ۔ رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَاَبُوْدَاوُدَ وَالدَّارِمِيُّ عَنْ عَآئِشَةَ وَابْنُ مَاجَةَ عَنْهُمَا۔

3287. Sayyiduna Ali رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "Three people are there for whom the pen is raised (and does not record their deeds because their words and actions are not blamed on them). They are: one who is asleep till he awakes, a chill till it attains puberty, done who is mentally deranged till he regains his senses.[1]

3288. Sayyidah Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہا narrated that the same hadith.[2]

DIVORCE WITH TWO PRONOUNCEMENTS FOR FEMALE SLAVE

(۳۲۸۹) وَعَنْ عَآئِشَةَ اَنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ طَلَاقُ الْاَمَةِ تَطْلِيْقَتَانِ وَعِدَّتُهَا حَيْضَتَانِ۔ (رواه الترمذی وابوداؤد و ابن ماجة والدارمی)

3289. Sayyidah Ayshah رضی اللہ عنہا narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "the divorce of a female slave is with two pronouncement and her iddah is till two menstruations are over."[3]

COMMENTARY: The iddah or waiting period of a free woman is upto three menses but if she has menopause then it is three months. And his iddah of a female slave is up to two courses or a month and a half.

In matters of divorce and the consequent waiting period, the woman is the deciding factor, not the husband.

If the woman is free, then her divorce is by three pronouncements and her iddah will be till she has menstruation three times, even if she is married to a slave.

If the woman is a female slave, then her divorce is by two pronouncements and her iddah will last till she gets two menstruations, even if she is married to a free man.

The Hanafis go by this edict, but Imam Shafi'I رحمہ اللہ contends that in matters of divorce and iddah, it depends on man's position. If the husband is a free man, then his wife's divorce will be by three pronouncements and her iddah will last till she has three menstruations, even it she is a female slave.

If the husband is a slave, then his wife's divorce is by two pronouncements and her iddah will last till she has had two menstruations, even if she is a free woman.

This hadith also establishes that the period of iddah relates to menstruation, not to purity. In other words, this hadith confirms that the words of the Quran:

ثَلَاثَةَ قُرُوْءٍ mean 'three monthly periods,' not three purities.

SECTION III اَلْفَصْلُ الثَّالِثُ

WOMAN WHO ASKS FOR DIVORCE OR KHULA'

(۳۲۹۰) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ اَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ الْمُنْتَزِعَاتُ وَالْمُخْتَلِعَاتُ هُنَّ الْمُنَافِقَاتُ۔ (رواه النسائی)

[1] Tirmidhi # 1428, Abu Dawud # 4403, Musnad Ahmad 1-155, Ibn Majah # 2042.

[2] Ibn Majah # 2041, Darimi # 2296.

[3] Tirmidhi # 1182, Abu Dawud # 2180, Ibn Majah # 2080, Darimi # 2294.

3290. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "Woman who are disobedient to their husbands and (also) those who demand khula' (separation) from their husbands are hypocrites."[1]

COMMENTARY: The woman who ask their husband, for no reason at all, to divorce them, or they ask to be divorce against a compensation (like waiver of dowry), are all hypocrites. Outwardly, they profess adherence to Islam and its laws but inwardly they are sinners and disobedient.

MAKRUH (DISAPPROVED) TO DIVORCE WOMAN AGAINST ALL THAT SHE POSSESSES

(٣٢٩١) وَعَنْ نَافِعٍ عَنْ مَوْلَاةٍ لِصَفِيَّةَ بِنْتِ اَبِيْ عُبَيْدٍ اَنَّهَا اخْتَلَعَتْ مِنْ زَوْجِهَا بِكُلِّ شَيْءٍ لَهَا فَلَمْ يُنْكِرْ ذٰلِكَ عَبْدُاللّٰهِ بْنُ عُمَرَ۔ (رواہ مالک)

3291. Sayyiduna Nafi رضی اللہ عنہ reported from a freed female slave of Sayyidah Safiyah bint Ubayd رضی اللہ عنہا that she (meaning, Safiyah) obtained khula' from her husband (Abdullah ibn Umar) رضی اللہ عنہ against everything that she possessed. And, Abdullah رضی اللہ عنہ did not demur to that.[2]

COMMENTARY: Sayyiduna Abdullah ibn Umar رضی اللہ عنہ did not forbid it because khula' is not forbidden after all. But, to concede to her demand for khula' against all that she possesses is makruh (disapproved).

FORBIDDEN TO PRONOUNCE THREE DIVORCES IN ONE GO

(٣٢٩٢) وَعَنْ مَحْمُوْدِ بْنِ لَبِيْدٍ قَالَ اُخْبِرَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ عَنْ رَجُلٍ طَلَّقَ امْرَأَتَهُ ثَلَاثَ تَطْلِيْقَاتٍ جَمِيْعًا فَقَامَ غَضْبَانَ ثُمَّ قَالَ اَيُلْعَبُ بِكِتَابِ اللّٰهِ عَزَّوَجَلَّ وَاَنَا بَيْنَ اَظْهُرِكُمْ حَتّٰى قَامَ رَجُلٌ فَقَالَ يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ اَلَا اَقْتُلُهُ۔ (رواہ النسائی)

3292. Sayyiduna Mahmud ibn Labid رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم was informed of a man who divorced his wife by three pronunciations simultaneously. At that he arose angrily." Saying, 'will you make light of the Book of Allah Mighty and Glorious, while I am among you?" (He meant that the commands of Allah were made fun of). A man (among the sahabah) رضی اللہ عنہ stood up and submitted, "O Messenger of Allah. Shall I not kill him?"[3]

COMMENTARY: The Book of Allah, Mighty and Glorious, mentioned in the hadith refers to the verse:

اَلطَّلَاقُ مَرَّتَانِ تا وَلَا تَتَّخِذُوْا اٰيٰتِ اللّٰهِ هُزُوًا

{Divorce is twice, then either a retention with honour or a release with kindness. And it is not lawful for you (men) to take from them (your wives) anything of what you have given them, unless both (parties) fear they may not able to maintain the

---

[1] Nasa'i # 3461, Musnad Ahmad 2-414.

[2] Muwatta Maalik # 32 (Talaq)

[3] Nasa'i # 3401.

limits of Allah. If you fear that they cannot maintain the limit of Allah, there is not blame on them for that wherewith she gets her freedom. These are the limits of Allah, therefore, transgress them not; and whosoever transgresses the limits of Allah, so those-they are the evildoers. So if he divorces her, then she shall not be lawful to him thereafter, until she marries another husband. If he (the second husband) divorces her, there is no blame on them on returning to each other (by marriage), if they think they can maintain the limits of Allah. And those are the limits of Allah, which He makes clear for people who know.

And when you divorce (your) women, and they are about to complete their (waiting) terms, then you either retain them with honour or release them with honour, and retain them not to their hurt that you may transgress (against them). And whosoever does that, he has wronged himself. And take not Allah's revelations in mockery} (2: 229-231)

This verse directs that divorce must not be declared three times simultaneously. Rather, it must be given at intervals and Allah's words must not be taken as playthings. It any one divorces a woman three times in one breath then it is against Allah's will which is tantamount to ridiculing His command. He who disobeys Allah's commands, demonstrates that he does not esteem His commands and it is the same if he abides by them or not.

Imam Abu Hanifah رضی الله عنه said that it is bid'ah and forbidden to pronounce divorce three times at one go.

Imam Shafi'I رضی الله عنه said that while it is not forbidden to divorce three times at one go, it is contrary to the better procedure.

The ulama (Scholars) say that there is wisdom in not pronouncing three divorce together. If the husband makes only one declaration, Allah may cause him to relent after some time and revoke the divorce. Then, they might live a reconciled, happy life.

The ulama (Scholars) are divided on whether a man's saying (once) to his wife (انت طالق ثلاثة) (you are divorced three times) amounts to one pronouncement or to three. All the four imams and a majority of the scholars say that this will amount to three utterances of divorce. However, Tawus and some of the ahl us zahiriyahs maintain that it is just one utterance.

In the hadith, one of the sahabah (Prophet's Companions) رضی الله عنهم asked, "May I not kill him?" He said so because the prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم called him one who made fun of Allah's Book which is like disbelief. If a Muslim veers into the limits of infidelity, then he is to killed in punishment. This sahabi had not known that whatever the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم had said was by way of admonishing him and he did not mean that literally:

(٣٢٩٣) وَعَنْ مَالِكٍ بَلَغَهُ اَنَّ رَجُلًا قَالَ لِعَبْدِ اللّٰهِ بْنِ عَبَّاسٍ اِنِّيْ طَلَّقْتُ امْرَأَتِيْ مِائَةَ تَطْلِيْقَةٍ فَمَا ذَا تَرٰى عَلَيَّ فَقَالَ ابْنُ عَبَّاسٍ طُلِّقَتْ مِنْكَ بِثَلَاثٍ وَسَبْعٌ وَّتِسْعُوْنَ اتَّخَذْتَ بِهَا اٰيَاتِ اللّٰهِ هُزُوًا۔ (رواه فی الموطا)

3293. Sayyiduna Maalik رحمه الله is reported to have learnt that a man boasted before Sayyiduna Abdullah ibn Abbas رضی الله عنه "I have divorced my wife with one hundred pronouncements. What do you say about it against me?" So, Ibn Abbas رضی الله عنه said, "She is divorced from three times. As for the (remaining) ninety seven, you have used them to make mockery of Allah's verses."[1]

---

[1] Muwatta Maalik # 1 (Talaq)

COMMENTARY: Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ referred to the verses of surah al-Baqarah cited in the previous commentary:

اَلطَّلَاقُ مَرَّتَانِ تا وَلَا تَتَّخِذُوْا اٰيَاتِ اللّٰهِ هُزُوًا and told the man that he had disobeyed the command of Allah.

DIVORCE IS A BAD THING IN ALLAH'S SIGHT

(٣٢٩٤) وَعَنْ مُعَاذِ بْنِ جَبَلٍ قَالَ قَالَ لِيْ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَا مُعَاذُ مَا خَلَقَ اللّٰهُ شَيْئًا عَلٰى وَجْهِ الْاَرْضِ اَحَبَّ اِلَيْهِ مِنَ الْعِتَاقِ وَلَا خَلَقَ اللّٰهُ شَيْئًا عَلٰى وَجْهِ الْاَرْضِ اَبْغَضَ اِلَيْهِ مِنَ الطَّلَاقِ۔ (رواه الدارقطنى)

3294. Sayyiduna Mu'adh ibn Jabal رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said to him, "O Mu'adh, "Allah has not created on the surface of the earth anything dearer to Him then setting a slave free. And He has not created on the surface of the earth anything more disliked to Him than divorce."[1]

COMMENTARY: Allah is pleased most when a slave is set free. It is the birth night and an innate privilege of man that he should be delivered from bandage of a creation which is at per with him as human beings. Then, he gets freedom and ample time to worship and obey his Lord.

Moreover, his master who set him free earns for himself deliverance from hell because of his sacrifice and good gesture.

The divorce is bad in Allah's sight that is given only to satisfy one's ego without any kind of need to oneself.

Ibn Hammam رحمہ اللہ said that in some cases, it is mustahab (desirable) to divorce one's wife. Examples are when she does not offer salah (prayer) or she is an indecent woman.

It is stated in Fatawa Qadi khan that if anyone's wife does not offer salah (prayer), then she deserves to be divorced, even if the man does not have enough to pay her dower.

Abu Hafs, Bukhari رحمہ اللہ is reported to have said, "If a man meets Allah (on his death) with the dower of his wife on his neck, then in my sight it is more preferable than having sexual intercourse with a wife who does not offer salah (prayer).

The hadith also tells us that marrying is better than going into seclusion to be able to worship Allah.

CHAPTER - XIII

THE WOMAN WHO IS DIVORCES BY THREE PRONOUNCEMENTS

بَابُ الْمُطَلَّقَةِ ثَلٰثًا

The chapter is about the woman who is divorced by three pronouncements.

If her husband who has pronounced three divorces (changes his mind and) wishes to retain her as his wife, then it is only possible when she marries another man who has sexual intercourse with her. Then this man divorces her and she passes her iddah (or days of waiting). After her waiting periods is over, she may marry her first husband all over again. Only after she passes through these stages will she be lawful for her first husband.

[1] Daraqutni # 44 (Talaq)

In some copies of Mishkat, after the words

بَابُ الْمُطَلَّقَةِ ثَلٰثًا

'Chapter – the woman who is divorced by three pronouncements.
the following is added:

وَفِيْهِ ذِكْرُ الظِّهَارِ وَالْاِيْلَاءِ

'And in it is mention of zihar and Eela.'
The meaning of zihar and eela and some rulings about them will be mentioned in the following lines, insha Allah.

SECTION I اَلْفَصْلُ الْاَوَّلُ

HILALAH – WHEN IS IT VALID

(٣٢٩٥) وَعَنْ عَآئِشَةَ قَالَتْ جَاءَتِ امْرَأَةُ رِفَاعَةَ الْقُرَظِيِّ اِلٰى رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَقَالَتْ اِنِّيْ كُنْتُ عِنْدَ رِفَاعَةَ فَطَلَّقَنِيْ فَبَتَّ طَلَاقِيْ فَتَزَوَّجْتُ بَعْدَهٗ عَبْدَالرَّحْمٰنِ بْنَ الزَّبِيْرِ وَمَا مَعَهٗ اِلَّا مِثْلُ هُدْبَةِ الثَّوْبِ فَقَالَ اَتُرِيْدِيْنَ اَنْ تَرْجِعِيْ اِلٰى رِفَاعَةَ قَالَتْ نَعَمْ قَالَ لَا حَتّٰى تَذُوْقِيْ عُسَيْلَتَهٗ وَيَذُوْقَ عُسَيْلَتَكِ۔ (متفق عليه)

3295. Sayyidah Ayshah رضی الله عنها narrated that the wife of (Sayyiduna) Rafa'ah al-Qurazi رضی الله عنه came to Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم and submitted "I was married to Rafa'ah till he divorced me making it batta (meaning, three pronouncements and irrevocable). After that, I married Abdur Rahman az Zubayr, but he has nothing except the hem of a garment." (She used figurative speech to say that he was impotent) So he asked, "Do you wish to go back to Rafa'ah?" She submitted, "Yes!" He said, "You cannot! Until Abdur Rahman enjoys your sweetness and you taste his sweetness."[1]

COMMENTARY: The concluding words of the hadith (mean that she could re-marry her previous husband, Ra'fa'ah رضی الله عنه only after her second husband has sexual intercourse with her, meaning consummates their marriage. Then he may divorce her and she must spend the waiting period.
This hadith makes it clear that halalah, meaning becoming lawful for the previous husband, is not merely that the woman marry another man, but they must have a sexual intercourse too. Of course, the intercourse may be limited to only penetrating the vagina. Ejaculation is not a condition.

SECTION II اَلْفَصْلُ الثَّانِيْ

PROPHET'S صلی الله علیه وسلم CURSE ON THOSE WHO BY PASS THE LAW

(٣٢٩٦-٣٢٩٧) وَعَنْ عَبْدِاللّٰهِ ابْنِ مَسْعُوْدٍ قَالَ لَعَنَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ الْمُحَلِّلَ وَالْمُحَلَّلَ لَهٗ رَوَاهُ الدَّارِمِيُّ وَرَوَاهُ ابْنُ مَاجَةَ عَنْ عَلِيٍّ وَابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ وَعُقْبَةَ بْنِ عَامِرٍ۔

3296. Sayyiduna Abdullah ibn Mas'ud رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه

---

[1] Bukhari # 2639, Muslim # 111-1433, Tirmidhi # 1118, Nasa'i # # 3408, Ibn Majah # 1932, Darimi # 2268, Muwatta Maalik # 17 (Nikah (wedlock)) , Musnad Ahmad 6-42.

وسلم cursed the muhallil (the man who makes a woman lawful for her first husband) and the muhallil lahn (the firmed husband for whom she is made lawful).[1]

3297. (Sayyiduna) Ali رضى الله عنه , Ibn Abbas رضى الله عنه and Uqbah ibn Aamir رضى الله عنه narrated the same hadith.[2]

COMMENTARY: If a husband divorces his wife with three utterances and later repents, then he finds a way to circumvent the law and remarry the divorce. He arranges with another men to marry his former wife and then divorce her after consummating their marriage. The woman will spend the waiting period after getting divorce from her second (planted) husband, and then she will remarry her first husband.

It is this man who is instrumented in getting the two together again and the first husband who planted the man to enable him to marry, are both cursed by Allah's Messenger. One of them makes remarriage lawful and the other is one for whom it is made lawful.

This device to get one's wishes achieved makes fun of the institution of marriage. The woman's honour and innocence is shattered. In another hadith the woman is called a borrowed sheep.

The first husband is cursed because he was the real motive behind the woman's (second) marriage. However it must be know that the hadith does not say whether the marriage will be void. Rather, it swords establish that marriage is valid because the hadith calls him who marries 'muhallal.' Clearly, a man can be so-called (muhallal) only if the (marriage) contract is valid. If it is void than he cannot be muhallal. Therefore, the prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم saying does not use the word 'curse' in its true sense. Rather, the aim here is to focus on the unworthiness of the muhallal and the muhallal lahu, and to make it clear that it is an ugly act which no sound - natured man would agree to do.[3]

HALALLAH IS MAKRUH (DISAPPROVED) TAHRIMI (IF): It is learnt from the Hidayah and other books of fiqh (Islamic jurisprudence) that if halalah is made conditional by an oral declaration of the new husband, "I marry you to make you lawful for your previous husband who had divorced you." - or, the woman says to the muhallal, "I marry you because I might become lawful for my former husband" - then in this case halalah is makruh tahrimi (disapproved to forbidden).

However, if it is not expressed orally, though there was on undeclared intention to the effect, then neither is the muhallal blamed nor is a curse invoked on him, for it will be presumed that his intention was to ameliorate the unsatisfactory situation.

Ibn Hammam رحمه الله said that if a woman who is divorced by three pronouncements marries an unequal man without her guardian's permission and the man also consummates the marriage then too she will not be lawful to her former husband. The fatawa (edict) is according to this."[4]

MORE ON EELA

(٣٢٩٨) وَعَنْ سُلَيْمَانَ بْنِ يَسَارٍ قَالَ اَدْرَكْتُ بِضْعَةَ عَشَرَ مِنْ اَصْحَابِ رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ

[1] Tirmidhi # 1120, Nasa'i # 3416, Darimi # 2258, Musnad Ahmad 1-448.

[2] Ibn Majah # 1934.

[3] See also 'Instructions of Shari'ah (divine law) for woman' pp 326, 364, 372 Darul Isha'at Karachi.

[4] See also The Hidayah v 1pp 186f Darul Isha'at Karachi (regalizind condition)

كُلُّهُمْ يَقُوْلُ يُوْقَفُ الْمُؤْلِي۔ (رواه في شرح السنة)

3298. Sayyiduna Sulayman ibn Yasar رحمه الله narrated that he had met more-than ten companions of Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم all of whom said that the man who observes eela must be compelled to stop.[1]

COMMENTARY: Eela is man's vow not to have sexual intercourse with his wife for four months or more. If he does not approach her for four months then most of the sahabah (Prophet's Companions) رضى الله عنهم contend that divorce will not take effect merely because four months have passed (without his having had intercourse with her). Rather, the man observing eela will be made to 'stop.' meaning that the ruler of qadi: (judge) will hold him back and order him:

> Either to return to his wife and have sexual intercourse with her and make an expiation for overstepping his vow, or to divorce his wife.

Thus, Imam Maalik رحمه الله , Imam Shafi'I رحمه الله and Imam Ahmad رحمه الله rule in this way. Furthermore, Imam Shafi'I رحمه الله contends that if that man does not abide by the judgement of the ruler or qadi, and neither reconciles with his wife nor divorces her, then the ruler is authorized to rule that the man's wife stands divorced.

As for Imam Abu Hanifah, رحمه الله he contends that if the man has sexual intercourse with his wife within four months then his eela becomes void and he will be bound to make an expiation for the broken vow. On the other hand, if he does not have sexual intercourse with her and the four months pass away then his wife will be considered to have been divorced with one talaq ba'in.

More rulings on eela and a full picture of it may be studied from books of fiqh (Islamic jurisprudence).

THE COMMAND ABOUT ZIHAR

(٣٢٩٩-٣٣٠٠) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ سَلَمَةَ اَنَّ سُلَيْمَانَ ابْنَ صَخْرٍ وَّيُقَالُ لَهُ سَلَمَةُ ابْنُ صَخْرٍ الْبَيَاضِيُّ جَعَلَ امْرَأَتَهُ عَلَيْهِ كَظَهْرِ اُمِّهِ حَتّٰى يَمْضِيَ رَمَضَانُ فَلَمَّا مَضٰى نِصْفٌ مِنْ رَمَضَانَ وَقَعَ عَلَيْهَا لَيْلًا فَاَتٰى رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَذَكَرَ ذٰلِكَ لَهُ فَقَالَ لَهُ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَعْتِقْ رَقَبَةً قَالَ لَا اَجِدُهَا قَالَ فَصُمْ شَهْرَيْنِ مُتَتَابِعَيْنِ قَالَ لَا اَسْتَطِيْعُ قَالَ اَطْعِمْ سِتِّيْنَ مِسْكِيْنًا قَالَ لَا اَجِدُ فَقَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لِفَرْوَةَ بْنِ عَمْرٍو اَعْطِهٖ ذٰلِكَ الْعَرَقَ وَهُوَ مِكْتَلٌ يَأْخُذُ خَمْسَةَ عَشَرَ صَاعًا اَوْ سِتَّةَ عَشَرَ صَاعًا لِيُطْعِمَ سِتِّيْنَ مِسْكِيْنًا رَوَاهُ التِّرْمِذِيُّ وَرَوٰى اَبُوْدَاوُدَ وَابْنُ مَاجَةَ وَالدَّارِمِيُّ عَنْ سُلَيْمَانَ بْنِ يَسَارٍ عَنْ سَلَمَةَ بْنِ صَخْرٍ نَحْوَهٗ قَالَ كُنْتُ امْرَأً اُصِيْبُ مِنَ النِّسَاءِ مَالَا يُصِيْبُ غَيْرِيْ وَفِيْ رِوَايَتِهِمَا اَعْنِيْ اَبَا دَاوُدَ وَالدَّارِمِيُّ فَاَطْعِمْ وَسْقًا مِنْ تَمْرٍ بَيْنَ سِتِّيْنَ مِسْكِيْنًا۔

3299. Sayyiduna Abu Salamah رضى الله عنه narrated that Sulayman ibn Sakhr رضى الله عنه who was called salamah ibn Sakhr Bayadi compared his wife to the back of his mother (which is called zihar) till the end of the month of Ramadan. Barely had half of the month passed when he had sexual intercourse with her during the night. So, he came to Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم and mentioned to him what had transpired. He said to him, "Set a slave free," but he pleaded that he could not do that. He said, "Then fast two successive months," but, again he submitted, "I am unable to do so."[1]

[1] Baghawi in Sharh us Sunnah (Prophet's صلى الله عليه وسلم practice) # 2363, Daraqutni # 148 in Kita but talaq.

He said, "In that case, feed sixty poor people," but he had the same plea, "I do not find the means," So, Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said to Sayyiduna Farwah ibn Amr رضى الله عنه (a sahabi) , "Give him that araq (which is a basket of dates weighting fifteen or sixteen sa') that he might feed sixty poor people."[2]

3300. Sayyiduna Sulayman ibn Yasar رضى الله عنه narrated on the authority of Sayyiduna Salamah ibn Sakhr رضى الله عنه something like it, saying. "I am a man who is more inclined to woman than any other man (so could not hold myself back from having sexual intercourse)."[3]

Another version has: "Feed sixty poor people one wasq (come load) of dates."[4]

COMMENTARY: This hadith speaks of zihar. Zihar, in the language of law, signifies a man comparing his wife to any of his female relation within such prohibited degree of kindered whether by blood, by fosterage or by marriage, as render marriage with them invariably unlawful, like saying to her you are to me like the back of my mother.'[5]

A man says to his wife, or any of her limbs which might stand for her whole body, or any of her limb that is unspecified that she is like one of his female relatives of the prohibited degree or to one of her limbs which is not lawful to see. Examples are saying to her, 'you are like my mother's back' forbidden to me,' or, 'your head, or 'kalf your body is like my mother's back, or belly, or thighs. Or, he may compare her to his sister's or paternal aunt's back. When he says in this manner, he is prohibited from having sexual intercourse with his wife or doing anything to her that could lead to sexual intercourse unless he make an expiation for zihar. However, if he has sexual intercourse with her before making an expiation then though nothing will be wajib (obligatory) on him beyond the first expiation, he should seek Allah's forgiveness and refrain from further sexual intercourse till he has made an expiation.

Zihar (in the manner described) is as effective with one's wife who is a free woman or someone's slave, whether she is a Muslim or follower of a Book - Christian or Jew, other ruling about zihar may be studied from books of fiqh (Islamic jurisprudence).

Allamah (The learned Scholar) Teebi رحمه الله said the zihar for a specified time, as in the hadith; 'till the end of Ramadan, is correct.

Qadi Khan رحمه الله said that if anyone observes zihar for a specified time, he becomes one observing zihar from that very moment and when the specified time is over, zihar is nullified.

Ibn Hammam رضى الله عنه said that if any one make zihar but makes an exception, say of Friday,

---

[1] The fasts have to be kept two months without break during which sexual intercourse is disallowed which he could not do.

[2] Tirmidhi # 1204.

[3] Abu Dawud # 2214, Darimi # 2273, Musnad Ahmad 5-436.

[4] Abu Dawud, Darimi.

[5] Hidayah v2 p 201 (English translation) Darul Isha'at Karachi.

then it is not correct. But, if he makes zihar of one day, or one month, (a specified period), then it is correct to specify a period and when the period is over, zihar will have expired too. As for feeding sixty poor people, it could be done by feeding sixty of them two times to a full stomach, or by giving each of them raw wheat, etc equal to sadaqah (charity) fitr, or its value in money. Moreover, they must be fed before having sexual intercourse with one's wife to atone for the broken vow. It is the same it a slave is set freeor fasts are observed for two months; expiation must precede breaking the vow to abserve zihar by having sexual intercourse with the wife.

HOW MUCH TO EACH: The prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم instructed Ibn Sakhr رضی الله عنه to feed sixty poor people towards his expiation. But, he also got him dates weighing fifteen or sixteen sa which implies that it is not necessary to give one sa' to each poor man. On the other hand, the books of fiqh (Islamic jurisprudence) say that if dates are given then they should be the quantity of sadaqat ul fitr, which amounts to one sa' each. Time the words of the hadith and the ruling of the jurists do not seem to agree. However, there is in the words of hadith an implicit meaning. 'that these dates might be used to feed the sixty poor together with what he can afford,"

Moreover the version in Abu Dawud and Darimi is

'Feed sixty poor people one wasq.'

So, this makes it clear that the dates offered by the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم were to be put together with other dates to add up to one wasq and fed each poor person one sa' dates.

It must be remembered that one wasq is equal to sixty sa'.

IF EXPIATION IS DEFERRED TO AFTER INTERCOURSE

(٣٣٠١) وَعَنْ سُلَيْمَانَ بْنِ يَسَارٍ عَنْ سَلَمَةَ بْنِ صَخْرٍ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فِي الْمُظَاهِرِ يُوَاقِعُ قَبْلَ أَنْ يُكَفِّرَ قَالَ كَفَّارَةٌ وَاحِدَةٌ۔ (رواه الترمذی وابن ماجة)

3301. Sayyiduna Sulayman ibn Yasar رضی الله عنه narrated on the authority of Sayyiduna Salamah ibn Sakhr that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said concerning a man who makes a zihar but has intercourse with his wife before - having made an expiation, "Only one expiation is wajib (obligatory)."[1]

COMMENTARY: Most ulama (Scholars) maintain that when a man vows to make his wife like the back of one of the prohibited degrees of female relative, but fails to keep his vow and has sexual intercourse with her before making an atonement, then only one atonement is wajib (obligatory).

Some ulama (Scholars) say, however, that two atonements will be wajib (obligatory) in such cases (for breaking the vow and for deferring the atonement).

If a man has more wives, say up to four, and he makes zihar with all of them, then the ulama (Scholars) say unanimously that his zihar will be effective with all of them. However, the ulama (Scholars) differ on whether one expiation will be wajib (obligatory) on him or more.

Imam Abu Hanifah رحمه الله and Imam Shafi'I رحمه الله hold that he will have to make expiation for each of his wives with whom he intends to have sexual intercourse beforehand. Hasan رحمه الله, zuhri رحمه الله and Thawri رحمه الله also say the some thing.

---

[1] Tirmidhi # 1202, Ibn Majah # 2064.

However, Imam Maalik رحمه الله and Imam Ahmad رحمه الله hold that only one expiation will be wajib (obligatory) on him. They mean to say that he will make on expiation first and then he may have sexual intercourse with each of his wives.

SECTION III — اَلْفَصْلُ الثَّالِثُ

(۳۳۰۲) وَعَنْ عِكْرَمَةَ عَنِ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ اَنَّ رَجُلًا ظَاهَرَ مِنِ امْرَأَتِهٖ فَغَشِيَهَا قَبْلَ اَنْ يُكَفِّرَ فَاَتَى النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَذَكَرَ ذَالِكَ لَهٗ فَقَالَ مَا حَمَلَكَ عَلٰى ذَالِكَ قَالَ يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ رَاَيْتُ بَيَاضَ حَجْلَيْهَا فِي الْقَمَرِ فَلَمْ اَمْلِكْ نَفْسِيْ اَنْ وَقَعْتُ عَلَيْهَا فَضَحِكَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَاَمَرَهٗ اَنْ لَا يَقْرَبَهَا حَتّٰى يُكَفِّرَ۔ رَوَاهُ ابْنُ مَاجَةَ وَرَوَى التِّرْمِذِيُّ نَحْوَهٗ وَقَالَ هٰذَا حَدِيْثٌ حَسَنٌ صَحِيْحٌ غَرِيْبٌ وَرَوٰى اَبُوْدَاوُدَ وَالنِّسَائِيُّ نَحْوَهٗ مُسْنَدًا وَمُرْسَلًا وَقَالَ النِّسَائِيُّ الْمُرْسَلُ اَوْلٰى بِالصَّوَابِ مِنَ الْمُسْنَدِ۔

3302. Sayyiduna Ikrimah رحمه الله narrated on the authority of Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضی الله عنه that a ma had made zihar with his wife, but he (faltered and) had sexual intercourse with her before making an expiation (for the broken vow). So, he came to the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم and mentioned that to him. He asked, 'what led you to do that?" He said 'My eyes fell on the whiteness of her silver anklets in the moonlight and I could not check myself from going to her." Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم laughed and instructed him not to approach her (a gain) till he had made an expiation.[1]

CHAPTER – XIV

بَابٌ

SECTION I — اَلْفَصْلُ الْاَوَّلُ

ABOUT SETTING A SLAVE FREE TO MAKE AN EXPIATION – SHOULD THE SLAVE BE A BELIEVER

(۳۳۰۳) عَنْ مُعَاوِيَةَ بْنِ الْحَكَمِ قَالَ اَتَيْتُ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَقُلْتُ يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ اِنَّ لِيْ جَارِيَةً كَانَتْ تَرْعٰى غَنَمًا لِيْ فَجِئْتُهَا وَقَدْ فَقَدْتُ شَاةً مِنَ الْغَنَمِ فَسَاَلْتُهَا عَنْهَا فَقَالَتْ اَكَلَهَا الذِّئْبُ فَاَسِفْتُ عَلَيْهَا وَكُنْتُ مِنْ بَنِيْ اٰدَمَ فَلَطَمْتُ وَجْهَهَا وَعَلَيَّ رَقَبَةٌ اَفَاُعْتِقُهَا فَقَالَ لَهَا رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَيْنَ اللّٰهُ؟ فَقَالَتْ فِي السَّمَآءِ فَقَالَ مَنْ اَنَا؟ فَقَالَتْ اَنْتَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ فَقَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَعْتِقْهَا رَوَاهُ مَالِكٌ وَفِيْ رِوَايَةِ مُسْلِمٍ قَالَ كَانَتْ لِيْ جَارِيَةٌ تَرْعٰى غَنَمًا لِيْ قِبَلَ اُحُدٍ وَالْجَوَّانِيَّةِ فَاطَّلَعْتُ ذَاتَ يَوْمٍ فَاِذَا الذِّئْبُ قَدْ ذَهَبَ بِشَاةٍ مِنْ غَنَمِنَا وَاَنَا رَجُلٌ مِنْ بَنِيْ اٰدَمَ اٰسِفُ كَمَا يَاْسَفُوْنَ لٰكِنْ

[1] Ibn Majah # 2065 (Tirmidhi # 1203, Abu Dawud # 2221, Nasa'i # 3457 – similar).

صَكَكْتُهَا صَكَّةً فَأَتَيْتُ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَعَظَّمَ ذَالِكَ عَلَيَّ قُلْتُ يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ أَفَلَا أُعْتِقُهَا قَالَ ائْتِنِي بِهَا فَأَتَيْتُهُ بِهَا فَقَالَ لَهَا أَيْنَ اللّٰهُ قَالَتْ فِي السَّمَاءِ قَالَ مَنْ أَنَا قَالَتْ أَنْتَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ قَالَ أَعْتِقْهَا فَإِنَّهَا مُؤْمِنَةٌ۔

3303. Sayyiduna Mu'awiyah ibn al-Hakam رضی الله عنه narrated that he came to Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم and submitted, "O Messenger of Allah, I have a female slave who was herding my sheep. I went to her and found a sheep missing from the flock. I asked her about it and she said that a wolf had eaten it. I got angry at her, and, a human that I am, I slapped her on the face. Now, I was (already) bound to set free a slave (against an expiation I have to make for a previous lapse). So, shall I set her free? (and absolve myself of the obligation and stone for striking her too on hearing that) Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم (had her brought to him and) asked her, 'where is Allah?' She said, 'In the heaven.' He asked, 'who am I?' She said, 'you are Allah's Messenger.' So, Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم said, set her free.'

According to Muslim's version:

He (Mu'awiyah) رضی الله عنه said, "I had a female slave who was herding my sheep towards Uhud (mountain) and Jawwaniyah (a place near Uhud). One day, I learnt that a wolf had gone off with a sheep from our (flock of) sheep. Being a man among the children of Aadam who gets upset as all get upset, I gave her (only) a single slap (though I wished to give her a good thrashing). Then I went to Allah's Messenger (and told him everything). He considered it as a grave matter against me. So, I asked him, 'O Messenger of Allah, shall I not set her free?' He said, 'Bring her to me,.' I brought her to him and he asked her, 'where is Allah?' She said, 'In the heaven.' Then, he asked her, 'who am I?' She said, 'you are Allah's Messenger.' He said, 'Set her free. She is a believer.'"[1]

COMMENTARY: By presenting this hadith in this chapter, the compiler wishes to make clear that slave (male or female) that as to be set free, against breaking vow of) zihar, should be a Muslim. Imam Shaf'I رحمه الله abides by this hadith, but the Hanafis do not consider it necessary. They say that this hadith merely suggests a better and more meritorious course.

The Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم asked the girl, 'where is Allah?' His aim was to know whether she was a Muslim or an idol-worshipper. Her answer revealed that she was monotheist.

The version of Maalik رحمه الله suggests that Mu'awiyah رضی الله عنه affirms that it had previously become obligatory on him to set free a slave for some reason so when he slapped this girl, he asked the Prophet صلی الله علیه وسلم if he may fulfil that obligation by setting her free so that he may achieve two things at one stroke: fulfil his previous obligation and get over the remorse he felt on slapping her.

However, version of Muslim رحمه الله seems to stress that Mu'awiyah رضی الله عنه had no reason to set her free other than his harshness to the girl yet it does not rule not out that he could have had another reason too.

---

[1] Maalik Muwata # 8 (Itq) , Muslim # 33-37, Musnad Ahmad 1-449, (Muwatta Maalik Lahore edition # 1254) Abu Dawud (similar) # 3282.

SOME RULINGS ABOUT EXPIATION FOR ZIHAR: According to the Hanafis:

FIRST: The first preference is to set free a slave (male or female when making an expiation for zihar. The slave may be a Muslim or a non-Muslim, male or female young or old, cockeyed and deaf but able to hear a loud voice. He may have one hand and one foot amputated (by surgery or otherwise) provided these severed limbs are on opposite sides. It is allowed to emancipate a mukatab who has not paid any thing towards of his release. However, such expiation cannot be made of a slave who is dumb or completely deaf and can hear nothing at all. Similarly, these kinds are also not acceptable:

(i) whose both hands are cut off,
(ii) whose both feet are cut off,
(iii) whose both big toes are severed,
(iv) whose one hand and one foot are cut off on the same side,
(v) who is insane (all the time) ,
(vi) who is a madabbar (freed on the death of his master)
(vii) who is an umm walad (who conceives child of her master) ,
(viii) who is a mukatab who has paid something towards his/her freedom.

Expiation will not have been paid if any of them are set free towards it.

SECOND: The second preference while making an expiation for zihar when a slave cannot be found is to fast for two months consecutively ensuring that the two months do not overlap the month of Ramadan or such days on which it is disallowed to fast, like days of eed and tashriq. Moreover, for the full length of two months (when the continuous fasting is over) , sexual intercourse with wife is not allowed. If a man has sexual intercourse with the woman (with whom he had observed zihar) then he will have to begin the fasting all over again. It is the same if he had approached her during day time or during night, whether he did willfully or on impulse. Also if he breaks a fast out of compulsion or without reason then, too, he will have to begin the fasts all over again.

THIRD: The third preference while making an expiation is to feed sixty poor people if a man is not able to fast in the manner prescribed in the foregoing lines. The sixty needy and poor people are to be fed twice, or given uncooked grain half a sa' to each, or one sa' (3kg 2nd gram) dates or barley, or the monetary value of any of these things. It is also allowed to give any two of these things instead of only, for example 817 gram of wheat with 633 gram of barley.

IBAHAH IS PERMITTED IN MAKING EXPIATION: Ibahah is to cook food and place it before the poor people so that they may eat as much as they like from it. It is allowed to observe for expiations and for fidyah (which is a recompense for missed fasts of Ramadan), but not allowed for wajib (obligatory) sadaqah (charity), like zakah (Annual due charity), etc. because in these cases it is imperative that ownership should be transferred to the poor people.

Moreover, for the expiation against zihar sixty poor people must be fed two times to a full stomach. It does not matter if this is done twice on the same day, in the afternoon and evening. The feeding is to a full stomach no matter in how less are they satiated (there being no other measure). As for the kind of food, it depends on what the man feeding can afford. If there is barley bread, then it is necessary to serve gravy or stew, but not with wheat bread.

If instead of sixty poor people twice a day, only one is fed twice a day for sixty days, then this too is acceptable. But only one poor person cannot be given the food of sixty on a single day and if this is done then it will count as though one poor person was fed.

If the man who makes zihar resorts to sexual intercourse during the feeding of the poor, then though he will have committed a sin yet he will not be required to feed the poor all over again.

If a man if liable to make two expiations for two zihars and he gives sixty poor people one sa' wheat to each of them at half sa' per expiation, for both than only one expiation will be valid, not both.

If a man has to make an expiation for zihar and another for breaking fast and he gives one sa' wheat to each poor man then this valid expiations and both have been paid.

CHAPTER - XV

INVOKING CURSES

بَابُ اللِّعَانِ

DEFINITION: Li'an (لعان) and mula'anah (ملاعنه) mean to curse each other.

In the terminology o Shari'ah (divine law), when a husband accuses his wife of infidelity or denies parenthood of a child that is born to her, saying that he does not know to whom it belongs, but the wife refutes the accusation, then she may complain to the judge or a relevant authority. He will summon the husband and ask him to prove the allegation. So, if he proves his case through witnesses, the judge will enforce the hadd (or prescribed punishment) on the man's wife. But, if the husband cannot prove his allegation through four witnesses, then the judge will ask him first to declare, "I call upon Allah as a witness and assert that I am true in accusing her of adultery." He must point to the woman and speak these words four times, and again he should point to her the fifth time and declare, "If I am false in accusing this woman of adultery then may Allah's curse be on me."

When the husband makes the fifth declaration, the wife must point to him and say four times. "I call upon Allah as a witness that he is a liar in the accusation he has levelled against me of infidelity." Then, the fifth time she should point to him and say. "If this man is true in accusing me of adultery then may Allah's wrath be on me."

When both of them have cursed one another in this manner, then the ruler should separate them and that will amount to one divorce - talaq ba'in and the woman will be forbidden to the man for ever unless the man retracts his accusation (saying, "I had accused her falsely") then the hadd will be enforced on him for scandalizing the woman and thereafter it will be correct for him to remarry the woman. But, Imam Abu Yusuf رحمه الله maintains that even in that case when the man confesses that he was false, the woman remains forbidden to him for ever.

SECTION I

اَلْفَصْلُ الْاَوَّلُ

A CASE OF LI'AN IN THE PROPHET'S صلى الله عليه وسلم TIMES

(٣٣٠٤) عَنْ سَهْلِ بْنِ سَعْدٍ السَّاعِدِيِّ قَالَ اِنَّ عُوَيْمِرَ الْعَجْلَانِيَّ قَالَ يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ اَرَأَيْتَ رَجُلًا وَجَدَ مَعَ امْرَأَتِهِ رَجُلًا اَيَقْتُلُهُ فَيَقْتُلُوْنَهُ اَمْ كَيْفَ يَفْعَلُ فَقَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَدْ اُنْزِلَ فِيْكَ وَصَاحِبَتِكَ فَاذْهَبْ فَأْتِ بِهَا قَالَ سَعْدٌ فَتَلَا عَنَا فِي الْمَسْجِدِ وَاَنَا مَعَ النَّاسِ عِنْدَ رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَلَمَّا فَرَغَا قَالَ عُوَيْمِرٌ كَذَبْتُ عَلَيْهَا يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ اِنْ اَمْسَكْتُهَا فَطَلَّقَهَا ثَلَاثًا ثُمَّ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ

صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اُنْظُرُوْا فَاِنْ جَاءَتْ بِهٖ اَسْحَمَ اَدْعَجَ الْعَيْنَيْنِ عَظِيْمَ الْاَلْيَتَيْنِ خَدَلَّجَ السَّاقَيْنِ فَلَا اَحْسِبُ عُوَيْمِرًا اِلَّا قَدْ صَدَقَ عَلَيْهَا وَاِنْ جَاءَتْ بِهٖ اُحَيْمَرَ كَاَنَّهٗ وَحَرَةٌ فَلَا اَحْسِبُ عُوَيْمَرَ اِلَّا قَدْ كَذَبَ عَلَيْهَا فَجَاءَتْ بِهٖ عَلَى النَّعْتِ الَّذِىْ نَعَتَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ مِنْ تَصْدِيْقِ عُوَيْمِرٍ فَكَانَ بَعْدُ يُنْسَبُ اِلٰى اُمِّهٖ۔ (متفق عليه)

3304. Sayyiduna Sahl ibn Sa'd Sa'adi رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that (a sahabi) Sayyiduna Uwaymir al Ajlami رضی اللہ عنہ (came to the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم and) submitted. "O Messenger of Allah tell me about a man who finds his wife with a man. Should he kill him? Then his heirs would slay him in retaliation, or what should he do?" (Or, should he show patience?) Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "A revelation had been sent down concerning you and your wife. So, go and bring her here."

Sahl said that (he brought her to the mosque and) they cursed one another in the mosque (Masjid Nabawi), and that he was present there alongwith other people near Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم When they had finished cursing (one another) , Uwaymir رضی اللہ عنہ said, "I would be lying if I retained her, O Messenger of Allah, and he uttered divorce to her three times. Then, Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "Observe! If she bears a child that is dark with very black eyes, large buttocks and thick legs, I will not but presume that Uwaymir has spoken the truth about her. But, if she delivers a child bright red as though the colour of wahrah (which is a kind of a lizard), I shall only presume that Umaymir has lied against her."

She gave birth to a child that matched the description Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم had given if Uwaymir had spoken the truth. Thereafter, the child's linage was traced to its mother.[1]

COMMENTARY: If anyone finds a stranger with his wife, then the ulama (Scholars) differ on whether he may kill the stranger. Most of them say that he will be awarded a death penalty unless he presents four witnesses (that the stranger was with her alone) or the stranger's heirs confirm (that he had committed sin) in which case he will not be killed. If the witnesses are not found and the heirs of the dead man do not blame him and this man is given the death penalty for murdering the stranger and he was true in accusing him. Then he is not a sinner in the sight of Allah.

The saying, "A revelation has been sent down concerning you and your wife refers to these verses:

وَالَّذِيْنَ يَرْمُوْنَ اَزْوَاجَهُمْ وَلَمْ يَكُنْ لَّهُمْ شُهَدَآءُ اِلَّا اَنْفُسُهُمْ فَشَهَادَةُ اَحَدِهِمْ اَرْبَعُ شَهٰدٰتٍ بِاللّٰهِ اِنَّهٗ لَمِنَ الصّٰدِقِيْنَ * وَالْخَامِسَةُ اَنَّ لَعْنَتَ اللّٰهِ عَلَيْهِ اِنْ كَانَ مِنَ الْكٰذِبِيْنَ۔ الاٰية۔ (النساء۲۴: ۶،۷)

{And those who accuse their wives and there are no witnesses for them except themselves, the testimony of one of them shall be swearing by Allah four times that he is of the truthful. And a fifth time, that the curse of Allah shall be upon him, if he should be of the liars....} (24: 607 and following)

[1] Bukhari # 5308, Muslim # 1-1492, Abu Dawud # 2245, Nasa'i # 3466, Ibn Majah # 2066, Muwatta Maalik # 34 (Talaq) Musnad Ahmad 5-334.

Some exegetes say that these verses were revealed in 9 AH in the month of Sha'ban.

Ibn Maalik رحمه الله said that it appears from this hadith that these verses on invoking curses were revealed about the case of Uwaymir رضى الله عنه and the first li'an in Islam was observed by him.

Some other exegetes says that these verses were revealed concerning Hilal ibn Umayyyah رضى الله عنه and the first li'an in Islam was observed by Hilal رضى الله عنه. A subsequent hadith (# 3307) of Ibn Abbas رضى الله عنه names him. Accordingly, the prophet's رضى الله عنه saying to Uwaymis رضى الله عنه. A revelation has been sent down concerning you and your wife. Refers to the verses already revealed about a similar case.

Some people say that the verses was revealed about both who presented their case to the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. But Hilal رضى الله عنه was the first man to observe li'an.

Uwaymir رضى الله عنه said after observing the li'an that if he continued to keep his wife then it would imply that he was accusing her falsely.

(In the text of the hadith in its first few lines, Uwaymir said, "Then his heirs will kill him," for the Arabic (فيقتلونه), but Bukhari has quoted him to say, 'whereupon you would kill him, or what would he do?" for the Arabic (فتقتلونه). Muslim also has the same words as Bukhari. Maalik # 29. 13-34 has 'and be killed himself.' Mishkat has as given here in the text.)

SEPARATING THE COUPLE AFTER LI'AN

(٣٣٠٥) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عُمَرَ اَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَا عَنَ بَيْنَ رَجُلٍ وَامْرَأَتِهٖ فَانْتَفٰى مِنْ وَلَدِهَا فَفَرَّقَ بَيْنَهُمَا وَاَلْحَقَ الْوَلَدَ بِالْمَرْأَةِ مُتَّفَقٌ عَلَيْهِ وَفِيْ حَدِيْثِهٖ اَنَّهُمَا اَنَّ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ وَعَظَهٗ وَذَكَّرَهٗ وَاَخْبَرَهٗ اَنَّ عَذَابَ الدُّنْيَا اَهْوَنُ مِنْ عَذَابِ الْاٰخِرَةِ ثُمَّ دَعَاهَا فَوَعَظَهَا وَذَكَّرَهَا وَاَخْبَرَهَا اَنَّ عَذَابَ الدُّنْيَا اَهْوَنُ مِنْ عَذَابِ الْاٰخِرَةِ۔

3305. Sayyiduna Ibn Umar رضى الله عنه narrated that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم made a man and his wife invoke curses (about another). He disowned her child. The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم (also) separated the two of them and handed over the child to the woman. According to another of his hadith. Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم admonished the man and reminded him and informed him that the punishment in this world is milder than the punishment in the hereafter (so that he might not accuse her falsely). Then, he summoned the woman and admonished her and reminded her and informed her that the punishment in this world is milder than the punishment in the hereafter.[1]

COMMENTARY: Man and woman are separated not simply because of li'an (or curses) but the ruler of judge separates them, otherwise there was no point in making three pronouncements of divorce as Uwaymir رضى الله عنه did (see hadith # 3304).

The punishment in the world is the hadd (or the prescribed). It is according to Shari'ah (divine law). If a man accuses a woman (whether his wife or another) of adultery, and is proved to be false, then Shari'ah (divine law) awards him the hadd. He will be awarded

---

[1] Bukhari # 5315, Muslim # 8-1494, Tirmidhi # 1203, Abu Dawud # 2259, Nasa'i # 3477, Ibn Majah # 2069, Muwatta Maalik # 35 (Talaq).

eighty stripes for accusing an innocent woman of infidelity. If he is proven true that the woman had committed adultery then she will be awarded the hadd which is

(i) Stoning to death of a married woman, or

(ii) One hundred stripes if she is an unmarried woman.

There is a possibility that the man had misunderstood facts or was driven by emotion at the moment. Later, he was satisfied that his accusation was baseless. However, he could not retract his statement because of fear of worldly punishment, so resorted to li'an.

Or, the woman had committed indecency but did not confess lest she would be punished and preferred to resort to li'an.

This is why the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم told each of them what the punishment in this world more bearable than that of the next world. He advised them to speak the truth and preserve themselves from terrible punishment of the hereafter.

RECKONING IN ALLAH'S HANDS

(٣٣٠٦) وَعَنْهُ أَنَّ النَّبِيَّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ قَالَ لِلْمُتَلَاعِنَيْنِ حِسَابُكُمَا عَلَى اللّٰهِ أَحَدُكُمَا كَاذِبٌ لَا سَبِيْلَ لَكَ عَلَيْهَا قَالَ يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ مَالِي قَالَ لَا مَالَ لَكَ إِنْ كُنْتَ صَدَقْتَ عَلَيْهَا فَهُوَ بِمَا اسْتَحْلَلْتَ مِنْ فَرْجِهَا وَإِنْ كُنْتَ كَذَبْتَ عَلَيْهَا فَذَاكَ أَبْعَدُ وَأَبْعَدُ لَكَ مِنْهَا۔ (متفق عليه)

3306. Sayyiduna Ibn Umar رضى الله عنه narrated that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said to the two (man and woman) who had observed li'an, "(We can go only by the apparent and that is li'an, but) your reckoning is in Allah's hand, because (given the facts) one of you is lying." (And he said to the man,) "You have no option about the woman (for, now she is forbidden to you, always)." The man submitted, "O Messenger of Allah! My property (what about t: the dowry that I have given her)." He said, "You have no (right to the) property. If you have spoken the truth then it is (hers) against the sexual intercourse you had with her (making it lawful for you). If you have lied against her, then that is more distant (that you claim it back). And, further away from you than she is."[1]

COMMENTARY: In this world, the dispute between them was settled through li'an, but true reckoning will take place in the hereafter. The liar will be known and punished.

If the man who observes li'an did have sexual intercourse with his wife whom he blames for infidelity, then the ulama (Scholars) are agreed that he cannot claim back the dower. However, if they had not had a sexual intercourse then the imam differ on the issue. Imam Abu Hanifah رحمه الله Imam Shafi'I رحمه الله and Imam Maalik رحمه الله hold that in such cases the man will be eligible to get back half of the dower.

BACK GROUND OF VERSE ON LI'AN

(٣٣٠٧) وَعَنِ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ قَالَ إِنَّ هِلَالَ بْنَ أُمَيَّةَ قَذَفَ امْرَأَتَهُ عِنْدَ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ بِشَرِيْكِ بْنِ سَحْمَاء فَقَالَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ الْبَيِّنَةَ أَوْ حَدًّا فِيْ ظَهْرِكَ فَقَالَ يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ إِذَا رَأَى أَحَدُنَا عَلَى امْرَأَتِهِ رَجُلًا يَنْطَلِقُ يَلْتَمِسُ الْبَيِّنَةَ فَجَعَلَ النَّبِيُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُوْلُ الْبَيِّنَةُ وَإِلَّا حَدٌّ فِيْ ظَهْرِكَ

---

[1] Bukhari # 5350, Muslim # 5-1493, Abu Dawud # 2257, Nasa'i # 3476, Musnad Ahmad 2-11.

فَقَالَ هِلَالٌ وَالَّذِى بَعَثَكَ بِالْحَقِّ إِنِّى لَصَادِقٌ فَلَيُنْزِلَنَّ اللّٰهُ مَا يُبَرِّئُ ظَهْرِى مِنَ الْحَدِّ فَنَزَلَ جِبْرِيلُ وَاَنْزَلَ عَلَيْهِ وَالَّذِيْنَ يَرْمُوْنَ اَزْوَاجَهُمْ فَقَرَأَ حَتّٰى بَلَغَ اِنْ كَانَ مِنَ الصَّادِقِيْنَ فَجَاءَ هِلَالٌ فَشَهِدَ وَالنَّبِىُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ يَقُوْلُ اِنَّ اللّٰهَ يَعْلَمُ اَنَّ اَحَدَكُمَا كَاذِبٌ فَهَلْ مِنْكُمَا تَائِبٌ ثُمَّ قَامَتْ فَشَهِدَتْ فَلَمَّا كَانَتْ عِنْدَ الْخَامِسَةِ وَقَفُوْهَا وَقَالُوْا اِنَّهَا مُوْجِبَةٌ قَالَ ابْنُ عَبَّاسٍ فَتَلَكَّأَتْ وَنَكَصَتْ حَتّٰى ظَنَنَّا اَنَّهَا تَرْجِعُ ثُمَّ قَالَتْ لَا اَفْضَحُ قَوْمِى سَائِرَ الْيَوْمِ فَمَضَتْ وَقَالَ النَّبِىُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اَبْصِرُوْهَا فَاِنْ جَاءَتْ بِهٖ اَكْحَلَ الْعَيْنَيْنِ سَابِغَ الْاَلْيَتَيْنِ خَدَلَّجَ السَّاقَيْنِ فَهُوَ لِشَرِيْكِ ابْنِ سَحْمَاءَ فَجَاءَتْ بِهٖ كَذٰلِكَ فَقَالَ النَّبِىُّ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لَوْ لَا مَا مَضٰى مِنْ كِتَابِ اللّٰهِ لَكَانَ لِىْ وَلَهَا شَأْنٌ۔ (رواه البخارى)

3307. Sayyiduna Ibn Abbas رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Sayyiduna Hilal ibn Umayyah رضی اللہ عنہ accused his wife of committing adultery with Sharik ibn Sahma رضی اللہ عنہ. Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "Produce evidence or get the punishment (hadd) on your back." He submitted, "If one of us sees a man over his wife, shall he go and fetch evidence?" But, the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم insisted, "Evidence, or the prescribed punishment on your back." So, Hilal submitted, "By Him who has sent you with the truth, I speak the truth. May Allah reveal (for me) what will free my back reveal (for me) that will free my back from punishment." Then, Jibril علیہ السلام did come down and brought to him:

وَالَّذِيْنَ يَرْمُوْنَ اَزْوَاجَهُمْ۔ الآيةُ and he recited up to اِنْ كَانَ مِنَ الصَّادِقِيْنَ

{And those who accuse their wives and there are no witnesses for them except themselves, the testimony of one of them shall be swearing by Allah four times that he is of the truthful....}
{And a fifth time, that the curse of Allah shall be upon him, if he should be of the liars. And it shall avert from her the chastisement if she testifies by wearing by Allah four times that he is of the liar, and a fifth time, that the wrath of Allah be upon her if he should be of the truthful} (24: 6-9)
Then Hilal stood up and gave testimony. The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "Surely, Allah knows that one of you lies. So, is there one of you who will repent?" Then, the woman stood and gave the testimony, but when she was about to give the fifth, the sahabah persuaded her to stop telling her that the punishment would become definite with that.
Ibn Abbas said that she hesitated and withdrew, so they presumed that she would retract her statement. But she said after that, "I shall not fail my people ever," and completed her oath.
The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said to them, "watch her! If she bears a child with (large black) eyes antimony-coloured, fat hips and thick legs then that child's father is Sharik ibn Sahma. Indeed, she gave birth to a child as was described. The Prophet

صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "If what has been prescribed in Allah's Books was not there (before us) , there would have been something else between us and her."[1]

COMMENTARY: This hadith tells us that the first person to observe li'an in Islam was Hilal. The foregoing verses of the Qur'an (24: 6-9) were revealed. A detailed commentary has preceded against the hadith of Sahl ibn Sa'd (# 3304).

The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم told both of them that indeed, Allah knows the liar. Some scholars say that he spoke these words after they were over with li'an to caution and encourage them to repent and retract their falsehood. Some others say that he spoken these words before they set to observe li'an to warn them of the punishment awaiting the liar.

This hadith instructs the ruler not to judge on his personal whims, but to go by evidences.

FOUR WITNESSES TO ESTABLISH ADULTERY

(٣٣٠٨) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ سَعْدُبْنُ عُبَادَةَ لَوْ وَجَدْتُ مَعَ اَهْلِي رَجُلًا لَمْ اَمَسَّهُ حَتّٰى اٰتِيَ بِاَرْبَعَةِ شُهَدَآءَ؟ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ نَعَمْ قَالَ كَلَّا وَالَّذِيْ بَعَثَكَ بِالْحَقِّ اِنْ كُنْتُ لَاُعَاجِلُهُ بِالسَّيْفِ قَبْلَ ذَالِكَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اسْمَعُوْا اِلٰى مَايَقُوْلُ سَيِّدُكُمْ اِنَّهٗ لَغَيُوْرٌ وَّاَنَا اَغْيَرُ مِنْهُ وَاللّٰهُ اَغْيَرُ مِنِّيْ۔ (رواه مسلم)

3308. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی اللہ عنہ narrated that Sayyiduna Sa'd ibn Ubadah رضی اللہ عنہ asked (the Prophet) صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم , "Were I to find a stranger with my wife is it that I must not touch him till I bring four witnesses? (I should not kill him?) " Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "Yes." He said, "Certainly not! By him who has sent you with the truth, I shall first hasten to him with the sward, before that." Allah's Messenger صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم said, "Listen to what your chief says. He certainly is very conscious of his honour. But, I am more conscious of my honour that he is (of his) and Allah is more conscious of His Honour than I am (of mine)."[2]

COMMENTARY: Sayyiduna Sa'd رضی اللہ عنہ did not mean to disobey the Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم when he insisted that he would rather make short work of the intruder than fetch four witnesses. He expressed his sentiments and anger if such a thing were to happen in his house. Shari'ah (divine law), however, commands that one must first fetch four witnesses before tackling the intruder and one's wife.

The Prophet's صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم words, "Listen to what your chief says" actually command Sa'd's رضی اللہ عنہ says" actually commend Sa'd رضی اللہ عنہ sense of honour. Pious people must possess it, though it is necessary to prefer obedience to the command of Shari'ah (divine law).

The Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم did not praise Sa'd رضی اللہ عنہ but pointed out that he could not help but utter what he had in his mind.

Mazhar رحمہ اللہ said that Sayyiduna Sa'd رضی اللہ عنہ meant that a man with a sense of honour thought that he should be permitted to slay a stranger when he is found with his in a disagreeable manner. But, the prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم denied such permission in a very persuasive manner. Then, Sa'd رضی اللہ عنہ did not say anything.

---

[1] Bukhari # 4747, Abu Dawud # 2254, Ibn Majah # 2067, Musnad Ahmad 1-238, 239.

[2] Muslim # 16. 1498.

The word in the Arabic is (عيوب غيره) (ghayrah). It is a change coming over a person's internal condition on seeing something objectionable in the family. But this meaning cannot be applied to Allah's ghayrah (غيرة). His ghayrah is that He prevents His creatures from committing sin so that they do not distance themselves from His (mercy and) nearness and acceptance.

NO ONE HAS MORE GHAYRAH THAN ALLAH

(٣٣٠٩) وَعَنِ الْمُغِيْرَةِ قَالَ قَالَ سَعْدُ بْنُ عُبَادَةَ لَوْ رَأَيْتُ رَجُلًا مَعَ امْرَأَتِيْ لَضَرَبْتُهُ بِالسَّيْفِ غَيْرَ مُصْفِحٍ فَبَلَغَ ذٰلِكَ رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَقَالَ اَتَعْجَبُوْنَ مِنْ غَيْرَةِ سَعْدٍ وَاللّٰهِ لَاَنَا اَغْيَرُ مِنْهُ وَاللّٰهُ اَغْيَرُ مِنِّيْ وَمِنْ اَجْلِ غَيْرَةِ اللّٰهِ حَرَّمَ اللّٰهُ الْفَوَاحِشَ مَاظَهَرَ مِنْهَا وَمَا بَطَنَ وَلَا اَحَدٌ اَحَبَّ اِلَيْهِ الْعُذْرُ مِنَ اللّٰهِ مِنْ اَجْلِ ذٰلِكَ بَعَثَ الْمُنْذِرِيْنَ وَالْمُبَشِّرِيْنَ وَلَا اَحَدٌ اَحَبَّ اِلَيْهِ الْمِدْحَةُ مِنَ اللّٰهِ وَمِنْ اَجْلِ ذٰلِكَ وَعَدَ اللّٰهُ الْجَنَّةَ۔

(متفق عليه)

3309. Sayyiduna Mughirah رضی الله عنه said that Sayyiduna Sa'd ibn Ubadah رضی الله عنه declared. "Where I to see a stranger with my wife, I would slay him with my sword, not with the flat of it (but with its sharp edge)." This was conveyed to Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم and he asked (his sahabah) رضی الله عنه. "Are you surprised at the jealously of Sa'd? By Allah, I am more jealous than he is and Allah is more jealous than I am. It is because of His ghayrah that Allah has forbidden indecencies whether open or secret. No one likes to be asked to be excused then Allah does which is why He sent warners and givers of glad tidings. (They are the Messenger) And, no one likes to be praised more than Allah does which is why Allah has promised paradise."[1]

COMMENTARY: (The word ghayrah has been explained in he commentary on the previous hadith # 3308) Allah prevents and has forbidden sin and indecency and has prescribed punishment to any who perpetrates that.

The real meaning of ghayrah is that a person dislikes and gets angry when another person encroaches on his property or intrudes into his affairs and domain.

The generally understood meaning of ghayrah is that a man gets provoked when another man takes liberties with his wife or ogles at her. So. Allah's ghayrah is that he punishes one who perpetrates sin.

Imam Nawawi رحمه الله said about liking excuses, that it means 'liking to put an end to excuses.' No one other than Allah likes to remove possibilities of excuses being presented. So, He sent prophets and Messengers to the world. Thus, he may have provided every kind of proof and evidence and people may have no plea against Him and no opportunity to present excuses. This is as Allah says:

لِئَلَّا يَكُوْنَ عَلَى اللّٰهِ حُجَّةٌ بَعْدَ الرُّسُلِ

{In order that mankind may have no excuse against Allah after (the coming of) the Messengers} (4: 165)

[1] Bukhari # 7416, Muslim # 17-1499, Darimi # 2227, Musnad Ahmad 4-248.

No one likes praise to be made as Allah does. This is why Allah has praised himself and also His dear creatures. And He has promised to admit to paradise those who praise Him and obey Him.

ALLAH'S GHAYRAH DEMANDS THAT MANKIND COMMIT NO SIN

(٣٣١٠) وَعَنْ اَبِيْ هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ قَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ اِنَّ اللّٰهَ تَعَالٰى يَغَارُ وَاِنَّ الْمُؤْمِنَ يَغَارُ وَغَيْرَةُ اللّٰهِ اَنْ لَا يَاْتِيَ الْمُؤْمِنُ مَا حَرَّمَ اللّٰهُ۔ (متفق عليه)

3310. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی الله عنه narrated that Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم said, "Surely, Allah, the Exalted, has ghayrah and the believers (too) possess ghayrah. (It is Allah's attribute that is also found in the believers.) And, Allah's ghayrah demands that a believer should not do what Allah has forbidden."[1]

DO NOT DISOWN CHILD ON SUPERFICIAL VARIATIONS

(٣٣١١) وَعَنْهُ اَنَّ اَعْرَابِيًّا اَتٰى رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَقَالَ اِنَّ امْرَاَتِيْ وَلَدَتْ غُلَامًا اَسْوَدَ وَاِنِّيْ اَنْكَرْتُهُ فَقَالَ لَهُ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ هَلْ لَكَ مِنْ اِبِلٍ قَالَ نَعَمْ قَالَ فَمَا اَلْوَانُهَا قَالَ حُمْرٌ قَالَ هَلْ فِيْهَا مِنْ اَوْرَقَ قَالَ اِنَّ فِيْهَا لَوُرْقًا قَالَ فَاَنّٰى تَرٰى ذٰلِكَ جَاءَهَا قَالَ عِرْقٌ نَزَعَهَا قَالَ فَلَعَلَّ هٰذَا عِرْقٌ نَزَعَهُ وَلَمْ يُرَخِّصْ لَهُ فِي الْاِنْتِفَاءِ مِنْهُ۔ (متفق عليه)

3311. Sayyiduna Abu Hurayrah رضی الله عنه narrated that a villager came to Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم and said, "My wife has given birth to a son with a black complexion. I disown him." So, Allah's Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم asked him, "Do you have camels?" He said, "Yes." He asked, "What colour are they?" He said, "Red!" He asked, "Is there among them a leaf coloured one?" He confirmed, "There are indeed among them some leaf coloured." He asked, "What do you say from where have they come?" He explained. "Perhaps a vein resembled (or a strain that had come down)." He said, "Then, here too, there is a resemblance to an ancestor (Or, a strain that had come down)." And, he did not permit him to disown the child.[2]

COMMENTARY: Teebi رحمه الله said that this hadith disallows any father to disown his child on flimsy grounds. To do any such thing, one must have strong evidences, like a man may not have had sexual intercourse wit h his wife, yet she conceived a child, or she delivered child within six months of their having had a sexual intercourse. It is allowed to disown the child in such cases.

CHILD IS NOT ATTRIBUTED TO FORNICATOR

(٣٣١٢) وَعَنْ عَائِشَةَ قَالَتْ كَانَ عُتْبَةُ بْنُ اَبِيْ وَقَّاصٍ عَهِدَ اِلٰى اَخِيْهِ سَعْدِ بْنِ اَبِيْ وَقَّاصٍ اَنَّ ابْنَ وَلِيْدَةِ زَمْعَةَ مِنِّيْ فَاقْبِضْهُ اِلَيْكَ فَلَمَّا كَانَ عَامُ الْفَتْحِ اَخَذَهُ سَعْدٌ فَقَالَ اِنَّهُ ابْنُ اَخِيْ وَقَالَ عَبْدُ بْنُ زَمْعَةَ اَخِيْ فَتَسَاوَقَا اِلٰى

---

[1] Bukhari # 5223, Muslim # 36-2761, Tirmidhi # 1168, Musnad Ahmad 2-343.

[2] Bukhari # 7314, Muslim # 18-1500, Tirmidhi # 2135, Abu Dawud # 2260, Nasa'i # 3478, Ibn Majah # 2002, Musnad Ahmad 2-233.

رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ فَقَالَ سَعْدٌ يَا رَسُوْلَ اللّٰهِ اِنَّ اَخِيْ كَانَ عَهِدَ اِلَيَّ فِيْهِ وَقَالَ عَبْدُ ابْنُ زَمْعَةَ اَخِيْ وَابْنُ وَلِيْدَةِ اَبِيْ وُلِدَ عَلٰى فِرَاشِهٖ فَقَالَ رَسُوْلُ اللّٰهِ صَلَّى اللّٰهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ هُوَ لَكَ يَا عَبْدَ ابْنَ زَمْعَةَ اَلْوَلَدُ لِلْفِرَاشِ وَلِلْعَاهِرِ الْحَجَرُ ثُمَّ قَالَ بِسَوْدَةَ بِنْتِ زَمْعَةَ اِحْتَجِبِيْ مِنْهُ لِمَا رَاٰى مِنْ شِبْهِهٖ بِعُتْبَةَ فَمَا رَاٰهَا حَتّٰى لَقِيَ اللّٰهَ وَفِيْ رِوَايَةٍ قَالَ هُوَ اَخُوْكَ يَا عَبْدُ ابْنُ زَمْعَةَ مِنْ اَجْلِ اَنَّهٗ وُلِدَ عَلٰى فِرَاشِ اَبِيْهِ۔ (متفق عليه)

